29 Because (p) thy rage against me, and (q) thy tumult, is come up into mine ears, therefore (r) will I put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

(p) 2 Kings xix. 28. Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult, is come up into mine ears, therefore I will put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

Ps. ii. 1. Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?

2. The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together against the Lord, and against the Anointed, saying,

3. Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.

xlvi. 6. The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted.

Acts ix. 4. And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

(q) Ps. lxxiv. 4. Thine enemies roar in the midst of thy congregation; they set up their ensigns for signs.

23. Forget not the voice of thine enemies: the tumult of those that rise up against thee increaseth continually.

lxxxiii. 2. For, lo, thine enemies make a tumult; and they that hate thee have lifted up the head.

Matt. xxvii. 24. When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person; see ye to it.

(r) Job xli. 2. Canst thou put an hook into his nose? or bore his jaw through with a thorn?

Ps. xxxii. 9. Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding; whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.

Ez. xxix. 4. But I will put hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales: and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy scales.

xxxviii. 4. And I will turn thee back, and put hooks into thy jaws, and I will bring thee forth, and all thine army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed with all sorts of armour, even a great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords.

Amos iv. 2. The Lord God hath sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that he will take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fish-hooks.

30 And (s) this shall be a sign unto thee: (t) Ye shall eat this year such as groweth of itself; and the second year that which springeth of the same: and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof.

(s) Ex. iii. 12. And he said, Certainly I will be with thee; and this shall be a token unto thee that I have sent thee; When thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain.

2 Kings xix. 29. And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such things as grow of themselves, and in the second year that which springeth of the same; and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruits thereof.

xx. 9. And Isaiah said, This sign shalt thou have of the Lord, that the Lord will do the thing that he hath spoken; Shall the shadow go forward ten degrees, or go back ten degrees?

(t) Lev. xxv. 4. But in the seventh year shall be a sabbath of rest unto the land, a sabbath for the Lord; thou shalt neither sow thy field nor prune thy vineyard.

5. That which groweth of its own accord of thy harvest thou shalt not reap, neither gather the grapes of thy vine undressed: for it is a year of rest unto the land.

31 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall again (u) take root downward, and bear fruit upward:

(u) 2 Kings xix. 30. And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall yet again take root downward, and bear fruit upward.

Ps. lxxx. 9. Thou preparedst room before it, and didst cause it to take deep root, and it filled the land.

Jer. xxx. 19. And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving, and the voice of them that make merry; and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.

Rom. ix. 27. Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved.

xi. 5. Even so then, at this present time also, there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

32 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of Mount Zion: (x) the zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.

(x) Joel ii. 18. Then will the Lord be jealous for his land, and pity his people.

Zech. i. 14. So the angel that communed with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy.

33 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast a bank against it.

34 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD.

35 For I will defend this city, to save it, (y) for mine own sake, (z) and for my servant David's sake.

(y) Deut. xxxii. 27. Were it not that I feared the wrath of the enemy, lest their adversaries should behave themselves strangely, and lest thou say, Our hand is high, and the Lord hath not done all this.

Ex. xx. 9. But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

xxxvi. 22. Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, I do not this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for mine holy name's sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen whither ye went.

(z) 1 Kings xi. 12. Notwithstanding, in thy days I will not do it, for David thy father's sake: but I will rend it out of the hand of thy son.

13. Howbeit, I will not rend away all the kingdom; but will give one tribe to thy son, for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, which I have chosen.

xv. 4. Nevertheless, for David's sake, did the Lord his God give him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem.

36 ¶ Then (a) the angel of the LORD went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians an hundred and fourscore and five thousand: (b) and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

(a) Ex. xii. 23. For the Lord will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side-posts, the Lord will pass over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you.

2 Sam. xxiv. 16. And when the angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the Lord repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed the people, It is enough: stay now thine hand. And the angel of the Lord was by the thrashing-place of Araunah the Jebusite.

2 Kings xix. 35. And it came to pass that night, that the angel of the Lord went out and smote in the camp of the Assyrians an hundred fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

Ps. xxxv. 5. Let them be as chaff before the wind: and let the angel of the Lord chase them.

6. Let their way be dark and slippery, and let the angel of the Lord persecute them.

Acts xii. 23. And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

(b) Ex. xii. 30. And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt: for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

Job xxiv. 24. They are exalted for a little while, but are gone and brought low; they are taken out of the way as all other, and cut off as the tops of the ears of corn.

1 Thess. v. 2. For yourselves know perfectly, that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

37 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went, and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh.

38 And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Armenia: and Esarhaddon his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

IN those days (a) was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thine house in order; (b) for thou shalt die, and not live.

(a) 2 Chr. xxxii. 24. In those days Hezekiah was sick to the death, and prayed unto the Lord: and he spake unto him, and he gave him a sign.

Acts ix. 37. And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom, when they had washed, they laid her in an upper chamber.

(b) Jon. iii. 4. And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.

2 Then Hezekiah (c) turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the LORD,

(c) Ps. l. 15. And call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

xc. 15. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.

Matt. vi. 6. But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet; and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret, and thy Father which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

3 And said, (d) Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how (e) I have walked before thee in truth and with (f) a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah (g) wept sore.

(d) Neh. v. 19. Think upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

xiii. 14. Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the offices thereof.

Heb. vi. 10. For God is not unrighteous, to forget your work, and labour of love, which ye have showed toward his name; in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

(e) Gen. v. 22. And Enoch walked with God, after he begat Methuselah, three hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

24. And Enoch walked with God, and he was not; for God took him.

vi. 9. These are the generations of Noah: Noah was a just man, and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God.

xvii. 1. And when Abram was ninety years old and nine, the Lord appeared to Abram, and said unto him, I am the Almighty God; walk before me; and be thou perfect.

Job xxiii. 11. My foot hath held his steps; his way have I kept, and not declined.

Ps. xvi. 8. I have set the Lord always before me: because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

1 John iii. 21. Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God.

22. And whatsoever we ask we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

(f) 1 Kings x. 14. But the high places were not removed: nevertheless, Asa's heart was perfect with the Lord all his days.

1 Chr. xxix. 9. Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly, because with a perfect heart they offered willingly to the Lord: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy.

Ps. ci. 2. I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way. O when wilt thou come unto me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.

cxix. 80. Let my heart be sound in thy statutes, that I be not ashamed.

(g) 2 Sam. xii. 21. Then said his servants unto him, What thing is this that thou hast done? thou didst fast and weep for the child while it was alive; but when the child was dead thou didst rise and eat bread.

22. And he said, While the child was yet alive I fasted and wept: for I said, Who can tell whether God will be gracious to me, that the child may live?

Ezra x. 1. Now when Ezra had prayed, and when he had confessed, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, there assembled unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men, and women, and children: for the people wept very sore.

Ps. cii. 9. For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping.

4 Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying,

5 Go and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the (h) God of David thy father, (i) I have heard thy prayer, (k) I have seen thy tears: behold, (l) I will add unto thy days fifteen years.

(h) 1 Kings ix. 4. And if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded thee, and wilt keep my statutes and my judgments;

5. Then I will establish the throne of thy kingdom upon Israel for ever, as I promised to David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man upon the throne of Israel.

Ps. lxxxix. 3. I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto David my servant,

4. Thy seed will I establish for ever, and build up thy throne to all generations. Selah.

Matt. xxii. 32. I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

(i) Ps. xxxiv. 5. They looked unto him, and were lightened; and their faces were not ashamed.

6. This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.

Luke i. 13. But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elizabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John.

1 John v. 14. And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask anything according to his will, he heareth us.

15. And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

(k) Ps. xxxix. 12. Hear my prayer, O Lord, and give ear unto my cry: hold not thy peace at my tears; for I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were.

lvi. 8. Thou tellest my wanderings: put thou my tears into thy bottle: are they not in thy book?

cxlvii. 3. He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.

(l) Job xiv. 5. Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months are with thee; thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass.

6 And (m) I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and I will defend this city.

(m) 2 Chr. xxxii. 22. Thus the Lord saved Hezekiah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and guided them on every side.

7 And (n) this shall be a sign unto thee from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he hath spoken:

(n) Gen. ix. 13. I do set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth.

8 Behold, (o) I will bring again the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the sun-dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down.

(o) Josh. x. 12. Then spake Joshua to the Lord, in the day when the Lord delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon.

13. And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day.

14. And there was no day like that before it or after it, that the Lord hearkened unto the voice of a man: for the Lord fought for Israel.

2 Kings xx. 11. And Isaiah the prophet cried unto the Lord; and he brought the shadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down in the dial of Ahaz.

Matt. xvi. 1. The Pharisees also, with the Sadducees, came, and, tempting, desired him that he would show them a sign from heaven.

9 ¶ The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when (p) he had been sick, and was recovered of his sickness:

(p) Deut. xxxii. 39. See now that I, even I, am he, and there is no god with me: I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal: neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand.

1 Sam. ii. 6. The Lord killeth, and maketh alive; he bringeth down to the grave, and bringeth up.

Job v. 18. For he maketh sore, and bindeth up; he woundeth, and his hands make whole.

Hos. vi. 1. Come, and let us return unto the Lord: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

2 After two days will he revive us; in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.

10 I said (q) in the cutting off of my days, I shall go to the gates of the grave: I am deprived of the residue of my years.

(q) Job vi. 11. What is my strength, that I should hope? and what is mine end, that I should prolong my life?

2 Cor. i. 9. But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God, which raiseth the dead.

11 I said, (r) I shall not see the LORD, even the LORD, in the land of the living: I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world.

(r) Ps. vi. 4. Return, O Lord, deliver my soul: O save me for thy mercies' sake.

5. For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the grave who shall give the thanks?

xxvii. 13. I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living.

xxxi. 22. For I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes: nevertheless, thou hearest the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee.

cxvi. 8. For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

9. I will walk before the Lord in the land of the living.

Ec. ix. 5. For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten.

6. Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever, in any thing that is done under the sun.

12 Mine age is departed, and (s) is removed from me (t) as a shepherd's tent: I (u) have cut off like a weaver my life: (x) he will cut me off with pining sickness: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

(s) Job vii. 7. O remember that my life is wind: mine eye shall no more see good.

Ps. cii. 11. My days are like a shadow that declineth; and I am withered like grass.

23. He weakened my strength in the way; he shortened my days.

24. I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days: thy years are throughout all generations.

(t) Is. xiii. 20. It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation; neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there, neither shall the shepherds make their fold there.

(u) Job vii. 6. My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope.

ix. 25. Now my days are swifter than a post; they flee away, they see no good.

26. They are passed away as the swift ships; as the eagle that hasteth to the prey.

xiv. 2. He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

James iv. 14. Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow: for what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

(x) Job vii. 3. So am I made to possess months of vanity, and wearisome nights are appointed to me.

4. When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and the night be gone? and I am full of tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day.

5. My flesh is clothed with worms, and clods of dust; my skin is broken, and become loathsome.

xvii. 1. My breath is corrupt, my days are extinct, the graves are ready for me.

Ps. cix. 23. I am gone like the shadow when it declineth: I am tossed up and down as the locust.

13 I reckoned till morning, that, (y) as a lion, so will he break all my bones: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

(y) Job x. 16. For it increaseth: thou huntest me as a fierce lion; and again thou showest thyself marvellous upon me.

17. Thou renewest thy witnesses against me, and increaseth thine indignation upon me; changes and war are against me.

Ps. xxxix. 10. Remove thy stroke away from me; I am consumed by the blow of thine hand.

1. 22. Now, consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver.

ii. 8. Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

Dan. vi. 24. And the king commanded, and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or ever they came at the bottom of the den.

Hos. v. 14. For I will be unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

14 Like (z) a crane or a swallow, so did I chatter; (a) I did mourn as a dove: (b) mine eyes fail with looking upward: O LORD, (c) I am oppressed; undertake for me.

(z) Job xxx. 29. I am a brother to dragons, and a companion to owls.

Ps. cii. 6. I am like a pelican of the wilderness: I am like an owl of the desert.

7. I watch, and am as a sparrow alone upon the house-top.

(a) Is. lix. 11. We roar like bears, and mourn sore like doves: we look for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.

Ez. vii. 16. But they that escape of them shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them mourning, every one for his iniquity.

Nah. ii. 7. And Huzzab shall be led away captive, she shall be brought up, and her maids shall lead her as with the voice of doves, tabering upon their breasts.

(b) Ps. lxxix. 3. I am weary of my crying, my throat is dried, mine eyes fail, while I wait for my God.

cxix. 82. Mine eyes fail for thy word, saying, When wilt thou comfort me?

123. Mine eyes fail for thy salvation, and for the word of thy righteousness.

cxliii. 1. Unto thee lift I up mine eyes, O thou that dwellest in the heavens.

2. Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, until that he have mercy upon us.

Lam. iv. 17. As for us, our eyes as yet failed for our vain help: in our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us.

(c) Ps. cxix. 122. Be surety for thy servant for good: let not the proud oppress me.

cxliii. 7. Hear me speedily, O Lord; my spirit faileth: hide not thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

15 (d) What shall I say? he hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath done it: (e) I shall go softly all my years (f) in the bitterness of my soul.

(d) Josh. vii. 8. O Lord, what shall I say, when Israel turneth their backs before their enemies!

Ezra ix. 10. And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments.

Ps. xxxix. 9. I was dumb, I opened not my mouth; because thou didst it.

John xii. 27. Now is my soul troubled: and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour.

(e) 1 Kings xxi. 27. And it came to pass, when Ahab heard those words, that he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly.

(f) 1 Sam. i. 10. And she was in bitterness of soul, and prayed unto the Lord, and wept sore.

Job vii. 11. Therefore I will not refrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

x. 1. My soul is weary of my life: I will leave my complaint upon myself; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

xxi. 25. And another dieth in the bitterness of his soul, and never eateth with pleasure.

16 O LORD, (g) by these things men live, and in all these things is the life of my spirit; so wilt thou recover me, and make me to live.

(g) Deut. viii. 3. And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger; and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know, that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lord doth man live.

Ps. lxxi. 20. Thou, which hast showed me great and sore troubles, shalt quicken me again, and shalt bring me up again from the depths of the earth:

1 Cor. xi. 32. But when we are judged we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

2 Cor. iv. 17. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory.

Heb. xii. 10. For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.

11. Now, no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless, afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

17 Behold, for peace I had great bitterness; but thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption: for (h) thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back.

(h) Ps. lxxxv. 2. Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people; thou hast covered all their sin. Selah.

Is. xliii. 25. I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins.

Jer. xxxi. 34. And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the Lord: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

Mic. vii. 18. Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.

19. He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

18 For (i) the grave cannot praise thee, death can not celebrate thee; (k) they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.

(i) Ps. vi. 5. For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the grave who shall give thee thanks?

xxx. 9. What profit is there in my blood when I go down to the pit? Shall the dust praise thee? shall it declare thy truth?

lxxxviii. 11. Shall thy loving-kindness be declared in the grave? or thy faithfulness in destruction?

cxv. 17. The dead praise not the Lord, neither any that go down into silence.

(k) Prov. xiv. 32. The wicked is driven away in his wickedness: but the righteous hath hope in his death.

19 The living, (l) the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day; (m) the father to the children shall make known thy truth.

(l) Ps. cxlvi. 2. While I live will I praise the Lord: I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.

Ec. ix. 10. Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

John ix. 4. I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day; the night cometh, when no man can work.

(m) Gen. xviii. 19. For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the Lord, to do justice and judgment; that the Lord may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him.

Deut. iv. 9. Only take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life; but teach them thy sons, and thy sons' sons.

Ps. cxlv. 4. One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts.

Joel i. 3. Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

20 The LORD was ready to save me: (n) therefore we will sing my songs (o) to the stringed instruments, all the days of our life, in the house of the LORD.

(n) Ps. ix. 13. Have mercy upon me, O Lord; consider my trouble which I suffer of them that hate me, thou that liftest me up from the gates of death:

14. That I may show forth all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion: I will rejoice in thy salvation.

xxvii. 5. For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock.

6. And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the Lord.

xxx. 11. Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness;

12. To the end that my glory may sing praise to thee, and not be silent. O Lord my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever.

cxlv. 2. Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy name for ever and ever.

(o) Ps. cl. 4. Praise him with the timbrel and dance: praise him with stringed instruments and organs.

Hab. iii. 19. The Lord God is my strength, and he will make my feet like hinds' feet; and he will make me to walk upon mine high places. To the chief singer on my stringed instruments.

21 ¶ For (p) Isaiah had said, Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it for a plaster upon the bile, and he shall recover.

(p) 2 Kings xx. 7. And Isaiah said, Take a lump of figs: and they took and laid it on the bile, and he recovered.

Mark vii. 33. And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears; and he spit, and touched his tongue.

22 Hezekiah also had said, (q) VOL. III.

What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD.

(q) 2 Kings xx. 8. And Hezekiah said unto Isaiah, What shall be the sign that the Lord will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of the Lord the third day?

Ps. xlii. 1. As the hart panteth after the water-brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.

2. My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God?

lxxxiv. 1. How amiable are thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts!

2. My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth, for the courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God.

ccxii. 1. I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

AT that time Merodach-baldan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, (a) sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered.

(a) 2 Sam. viii. 10. Then Toi sent Joram his son unto king David to salute him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer, and smitten him: (for Hadadezer had wars with Toi;) and Joram brought with him vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and vessels of brass.

2 Chr. xxxii. 23. And many brought gifts unto the Lord to Jerusalem, and presents to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that he was magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.

2 And Hezekiah (b) was glad of them, and showed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: (c) there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah showed them not.

(b) 2 Chr. xxxii. 25. But Hezekiah rendered not again, according to the benefit done unto him; for his heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem.

31. Howbeit, in the business of the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent unto him to inquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart.

Job xxxi. 25. If I rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because mine hand had gotten much.

Ps. cxlvi. 3. Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.

4. His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish.

Prov. iv. 23. Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

Jer. xvii. 9. The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?

(c) Ec. vii. 20. For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not.

3 Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, (d) They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon.

(d) Deut. xxviii. 49. The Lord shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand.

Jer. v. 15. Lo, I will bring a nation upon you from far, O house of Israel, saith the Lord: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say.

4 Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, (e) All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not showed them.

(e) Josh. vii. 19. And Joshua said unto Achan, My son, give, I pray thee, glory to the Lord God of Israel, and make confession unto him: and tell me now what thou hast done; hide it not from me.

Job xxxi. 33. If I covered my transgressions as Adam, by hiding mine iniquity in my bosom.

Prov. xxviii. 13. He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whose confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

1 John i. 9. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts:

6 Behold, the days come, (f) that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

(f) 2 Kings xxiv. 13. And he carried out thence all the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the Lord, as the Lord had said.

Jer. xx. 5. Moreover, I will deliver all the strength of this city, and all the labours thereof, and all the precious things thereof, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon.

Dan. i. 2. And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God, which he carried into the land of Shinar, to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the treasure-house of his god.

7 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

8 Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, (g) Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. He said moreover, For there shall be peace and truth in my days.

(g) Lev. x. 3. Then Moses said unto Aaron, This is it that the Lord spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be glorified. And Aaron held his peace.

1 Sam. iii. 18. And Samuel told him every whit, and hid nothing from him. And he said, It is the Lord; let him do what seemeth him good.

2 Sam. xv. 26. But if he thus say, I have no delight in thee; behold, here am I, let him do to me as seemeth good unto him.

Job i. 21. And said, Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord.

Ps. xxxix. 9. I was dumb, I opened not my mouth; because thou didst it.

1 Pet. v. 6. Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time.

CHAPTER XL.

COMFORT ye, (a) comfort ye my people, saith your God.

(a) Ps. lxxxv. 8. I will hear what God the Lord will speak; for he will speak peace unto his people and to his saints; but let them not turn again to folly.

Zech. i. 13. And the Lord answered the angel that talked with me with good words, and comfortable words.

2 Cor. i. 4. Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

1 Thess. iv. 18. Wherefore, comfort one another with these words.

2 Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, (b) that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the LORD'S hand (c) double for all her sins.

(b) Ps. xxxii. 1. Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

Jer. xxxi. 33. But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

34. And they shall teach no more, every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for they shall know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the Lord: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

xxxiii. 8. And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against me.

(c) Jer. xvi. 18. And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double; because they have defiled my land, they have filled mine inheritance with the carcasses of their detestable and abominable things.

xvii. 18. Let them be confounded that persecute me, but let not me be confounded; let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of evil, and destroy them with double destruction.

Dan. ix. 12. And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

Zech. i. 15. And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

ix. 12. Turn you to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope: even to-day do I declare, that I will render double unto thee.

Rev. xviii. 6. Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double, according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled, fill to her double.

3 ¶ The (d) voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, (e) Prepare ye the way of the LORD, (f) make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

(d) Matt. iii. 1. In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judea,

2. And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

Mark i. 2. As it is written in the prophets, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

3. The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4. John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins.

5. And there went out unto him all the land of Judea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins.

Luke iii. 2. Annas and Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came unto John, the son of Zacharias, in the wilderness.

3. And he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins.

John i. 23. He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias.

(e) Is. lvii. 14. And shall say, Cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumbling-block out of the way of my people.

lxii. 10. Go through, go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people: cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones: lift up a standard for the people.

11. Behold, the Lord hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, Say ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy salvation cometh; behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him.

Mal. iii. 1. Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the Lord of hosts.

iv. 5. Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet, before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord.

6. And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

Matt. iii. 3. For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

Luke i. 17. And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

76. And thou, child, shalt be called, The Prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways;

77. To give knowledge of salvation unto his people, by the remission of their sins.

(f) Is. xliii. 19. Behold, I will do a new thing: now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.

xliv. 11. And I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways shall be exalted.

(g) 1 Sam. ii. 8. He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth up the beggar from the dunghill, to set them among princes, and to make them inherit the throne of glory: for the pillars of the earth are the Lord's, and he hath set the world upon them.

Ez. xvii. 34. And all the trees of the field shall know that I the Lord have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish: I the Lord have spoken, and have done it.

xxi. 26. Thus saith the Lord God, Remove the diadem, and take off the crown; this shall not be the same: exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high.

Luke i. 52. He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

xviii. 14. I tell you, this man went down to his house justified, rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

(h) Is. xlv. 2. I will go before thee, and make the crooked places straight: I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron.

5 And (i) the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and (k) all flesh shall see it together: (l) for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

(i) Ps. lxxii. 19. And blessed be his glorious name for ever: and let the whole earth be filled with his glory. Amen, and amen.

xcvi. 6. Honour and majesty are before him; strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

cii. 16. When the Lord shall build up Zion, he shall appear in his glory.

Hab. ii. 14. For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

John i. 14. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

xii. 4. These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

2 Cor. iii. 18. But we all with open face, beholding, as in a glass, the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image, from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

Rev. xxi. 23. And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

(k) Jer. xxxii. 27. Behold, I am the Lord, the God of all flesh: is there any thing too hard for me?

Joel ii. 28. And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions.

Zech. ii. 13. Be silent, O all flesh, before the Lord; for he is raised up out of his holy habitation.

Luke iii. 6. And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

John xvii. 2. As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.

(l) Jer. ix. 12. Who is the wise man that may understand this? and who is he to whom the mouth of the Lord hath spoken, that he may declare it, for what the land perisheth, and is burned up like a wilderness, that none passeth through?

Mic. iv. 4. But they shall sit every man under his vine, and under his fig-tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the Lord of hosts hath spoken it.

6 The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? (m) All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field:

(m) Job xiv. 2. He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

Ps. xc. 5. Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep: in the morning they are like grass which groweth up.

6. In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

1 Pet. i. 24. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away.

7 The grass withereth; the flower fadeth; because the spirit of the Lord bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass.

8 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but (n) the word of our God shall stand for ever.

(n) Ps. cxix. 89. For ever, O Lord, thy word is settled in heaven.

Matt. v. 18. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

xxiv. 35. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

Mark xiii. 31. Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

John x. 35. If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken.

1 Pet. i. 25. But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

9 ¶ O Zion, that (o) bringest good tidings, (p) get thee up into the high mountain; O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, (q) lift up thy voice with strength: lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God.

(o) Luke ii. 10. And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

xxiv. 47. And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

(p) Judg. ix. 7. And when they told it to Jotham, he went and stood in the top of Mount Gerizim, and lifted up his voice and cried, and said unto them, Harken unto me, ye men of Shechem, that God may hearken unto you.

1 Sam. xxvi. 13. Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of an hill afar off; a great space being between them.

2 Chr. xiii. 4. And Abijah stood up upon Mount Zemaraim, which is in Mount Ephraim, and said, Hear me, thou Jeroboam, and all Israel.

(q) Jer. xxii. 20. Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up thy voice in Bashan, and cry from the passages: for all thy lovers are destroyed.

Acts ii. 14. But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words.

10 Behold, the LORD God will come with strong hand, and (r) his arm shall rule for him: behold, (s) his reward is with him, and his work before him.

(r) Ps. ii. 8. Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

9. Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

cx. 1. The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool.

2. The Lord shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.

6. He shall judge among the heathen, he shall fill the places with the dead bodies; he shall wound the heads over many countries.

Matt. xxviii. 18. And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

Phil. ii. 10. That at the name of Jesus, every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

11. And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Rev. ii. 26. And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

27. And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers; even as I received of my Father.

xvii. 14. These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

(s) Rev. xxii. 12. And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be.

11 He shall (t) feed his flock like a shepherd: (u) he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young.

(t) Gen. xlix. 24. But his bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong, by the hands of the mighty God of Jacob: (from thence is the Shepherd, the stone of Israel.)

Ps. lxxviii. 71. From following the ewes great with young, he brought him to feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.

72. So he fed them according to the integrity of his heart, and guided them by the skilfulness of his hands.

lxxx. 1. Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel; thou that leadest Joseph like a flock, thou that dwellest between the cherubims, shine forth.

Mic. v. 4. And he shall stand and feed in the strength of the Lord, in the majesty of the name of the Lord his God; and they shall abide: for now shall he be great unto the ends of the earth.

(u) Gen. xxxiii. 13. And he said unto him, My lord knoweth that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds with young are with me; and if men should overdrive them one day, all the flock will die.

Ez. xxxiv. 16. I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed them with judgment.

12 Who hath (x) measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and (y) weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance?

(x) Job xxxviii. 4. Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding.

5. Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it?

6. Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? or who laid the corner-stone thereof,

7. When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

8. Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it brake forth as if it had issued out of the womb?

9. When I made the cloud the garment thereof, and thick darkness a swaddling-band for it,

10. And brake up for it my decreed place, and set bars and doors,

11. And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further; and here shall thy proud waves be stayed?

Ps. cii. 25. Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

civ. 2. Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment; who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain;

3. Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters; who maketh the clouds his chariot; who walketh upon the wings of the wind.

Prov. viii. 26. While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world.

27. When he prepared the heavens I was there; when he set a compass upon the face of the depth;

28. When he established the clouds above; when he strengthened the fountains of the deep;

29. When he gave to the sea his decree, that the water should not pass his commandment; when he appointed the foundations of the earth.

xxx. 4. Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? who hath gathered the wind in his fists? who hath bound the waters in a garment? who hath established all the ends of the earth? what is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell?

Is. xlviii. 13. Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand hath spanned the heavens: when I call unto them, they stand up together.

(y) Job xxviii. 25. To make the weight for the winds; and he weigheth the waters by measure.

13 Who (z) hath directed the spirit of the LORD, or being his counsellor, hath taught him?

(z) Job xxi. 22. Shall any teach God knowledge? seeing he judgeth those that are high.

xxxvii. 22. Behold, God exalteth by his power: who teacheth like him?

23. Who hath enjoined him his way? or who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity?

Luke x. 22. All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.

Rom. xi. 34. For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?

1 Cor. ii. 16. For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

Eph. i. 11. In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will.

14 With whom took he counsel, and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of judgment, and taught him knowledge, and showed to him the way of understanding?

15 Behold, (a) the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance: behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing.

(a) Job xxxiv. 14. If he set his heart upon man, if he gather unto himself his spirit and his breath, 15. All flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again unto dust.

Jer. x. 10. But the Lord is the true God, he is the living God, and an everlasting King: at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.

16 And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt-offering.

17 All nations before him are (b) as nothing; and they are counted to him less than nothing, and vanity.

(b) Job xxv. 6. How much less man, that is a worm; and the son of man, which is a worm?

Ps. lxxii. 9. Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be laid in the balance, they are altogether lighter than vanity.

Dan. iv. 35. And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou?

18 To (c) whom then will ye liken God? or what likeness will ye compare unto him?

(c) Ex. xv. 11. Who is like unto thee, O Lord, among the gods? who is like thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?

xx. 4. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.

Deut. xxxiii. 26. There is none like unto the God of Jeshurun, who rideth upon the heaven in thy help, and in his excellency on the sky.

1 Sam. ii. 2. There is none holy as the Lord: for there is none besides thee; neither is there any rock like our God.

Job xl. 9. Hast thou an arm like God? or canst thou thunder with a voice like him?

Ps. lxxxix. 6. For who in the heaven can be compared unto the Lord? who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the Lord?

8. O Lord God of hosts, who is a strong Lord like unto thee? or to thy faithfulness round about thee?

cxiii. 5. Who is like unto the Lord our God, who dwelleth on high?

Jer. x. 6. Forasmuch as there is none like unto thee, O Lord; thou art great, and thy name is great in might.

Mic. vii. 18. Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.

Acts xvii. 29. Forasmuch then, as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

Heb. i. 3. Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high.

19 The (d) workman melteth a graven image, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chains.

(d) Judg. xvii. 4. Yet he restored the money unto his mother; and his mother took two hundred shekels of silver, and gave them to the founder, who made thereof a graven image, and a molten image: and they were in the house of Micah.

Jer. x. 9. Silver spread into plates is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the workman, and of the hands of the founder: blue and purple is their clothing; they are all the work of cunning men.

Hab. ii. 18. What profiteth the graven image that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols?

19. Wo unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

20 He that is so impoverished, that he hath no oblation, (e) chooseth a tree that will not rot; he seeketh unto him a cunning work- man to prepare a graven image that shall not be moved.

(e) Jer. x. 3. For the customs of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest (the work of the hands of the workman) with the axe:

4. They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not.

21 Have (f) ye not known? have ye not heard? hath it not been told you from the beginning? have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth?

(f) Acts xiv. 17. Nevertheless, he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

Rom. i. 28. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient.

22 It is he (g) that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and (h) the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that (i) stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in;

(g) Ps. ii. 4. He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision.

xxix. 10. The Lord sitteth upon the flood: yea, the Lord sitteth king for ever.

lxviii. 33. To him that rideth upon the heaven of heavens which were of old; lo, he doth send out his voice, and that a mighty voice.

(h) Num. xiii. 33. And there we saw the giants; the sons of Anak, which come of the giants: and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight.

(i) Job ix. 8. Which also spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the waves of the sea.

xxxvii. 18. Hast thou with him spread out the sky, which is strong, and as a molten looking-glass?

xxxviii. 4. Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding.

5. Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it?

6. Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? or who laid the corner-stone thereof,

7. When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

8. Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it brake forth as it had issued out of the womb?

9. When I made the cloud the garment thereof, and thick darkness a swaddling-band for it.

Ps. cii. 25. Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

26. They shall perish, but thou shalt endure; yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed.

civ. 2. Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment; who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain.

Jer. x. 12. He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion.

23 That (k) bringeth the princes to nothing; he maketh the judges of the earth as vanity.

(k) Job xii. 21. He poureth contempt upon princes, and weakeneth the strength of the mighty.

xxxiv. 19. How much less to him that accepteth not the person of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the poor? for they all are the work of his hands.

20. In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away: and the mighty shall be taken away without hand.

Ps. lxxvi. 12. He shall cut off the spirit of princes: he is terrible to the kings of the earth.

cvi. 40. He poureth contempt upon princes, and causeth them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way.

24 Yea, (l) they shall not be planted; yea, they shall not be sown; yea, their stock shall not take root in the earth: and (m) he shall also blow upon them, and they shall wither, (n) and the whirlwind shall take them away as stubble.

(l) 2 Kings x. 11. So Jehu slew all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his kinsfolks, and his priests, until he left him none remaining.

Job xv. 30. He shall not depart out of darkness: the flame shall dry up his branches, and by the breath of his mouth shall he go away.

31. Let not him that is deceived trust in vanity; for vanity shall be his recompense.

32. It shall be accomplished before his time, and his branch shall not be green.

33. He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine, and shall cast off his flower as the olive.

Jer. xxii. 30. Thus saith the Lord, Write ye this man childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days: for no man of his seed shall prosper, sitting upon the throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah.

Nah. i. 14. And the Lord hath given a commandment concerning thee, that no more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image, and the molten image: I will make thy grave; for thou art vile.

(m) 2 Sam. xxii. 16. And the channels of the sea appeared, the foundations of the world were discovered, at the rebuking of the Lord, at the blast of the breath of his nostrils.

Job iv. 9. By the blast of God they perish, and by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed.

Hag. i. 9. Ye looked for much, and lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home I did blow upon it. Why? saith the Lord of hosts. Because of mine house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house.

(n) Job xxi. 18. They are as stubble before the wind, and as chaff that the storm carrieth away.

Ps. lviii. 9. Before your pots can feel the thorns, he shall take them away as with a whirlwind, both living, and in his wrath.

Prov. i. 27. When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you.

Jer. xxiii. 19. Behold, a whirlwind of the Lord is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.

Hos. xiii. 3. Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the early dew that passeth away, as the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney.

Zech. ix. 14. But I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not: thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned; for they laid the pleasant land desolate.

25 To whom then will ye liken me, or shall I be equal? saith the Holy One.

26 (o) Lift up your eyes on high, and behold (p) who hath created these things, that (q) bringeth out their host by number: he calleth them all by names, (r) by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power; not one faileth.

(o) Deut. iv. 19. And lest thou lift up thine eyes unto heaven, and when thou seest the sun, and the moon, and the stars, even all the host of heaven, shouldest be driven to worship them, and serve them, which the Lord thy God hath divided unto all nations under the whole heaven.

Ps. viii. 3. When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers; the moon and the stars which thou hast ordained;

4. What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

xix. 1. The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament showeth his handy work.

(p) Gen. ii. 1. Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them.

2. And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made.

Col. i. 16. For by him were all things created that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones or dominions, or principalities, or powers; all things were created by him, and for him;

17. And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.

(q) Ps. cxlvii. 4. He telleth the number of the stars: he calleth them all by their names.

5. Great is our Lord, and of great power: his understanding is infinite.

(r) Ps. lxxxix. 11. The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: as for the world, and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them.

12. The north and the south, thou hast created them: Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name.

13. Thou hast a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

Jer. xxxii. 17. Ah! Lord God! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched-out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee:

18. Thou slowest loving-kindness unto thousands, and recompenseth the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them! The Great, The Mighty God, The Lord of hosts, is his name.

19. Great in counsel, and mighty in work: (for thine eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men, to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.)

27 ¶ Why (s) sayest thou, O Jacob, and speakest, O Israel, My way is hid from the LORD, and (t) my judgment is passed over from my God?

(s) 1 Sam. xii. 22. For the Lord will not forsake his people for his great name's sake, because it hath pleased the Lord to make you his people.

Jer. xxxiii. 24. Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the Lord hath chosen, he hath even cast them off? Thus they have despised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them.

Ez. xxxvii. 11. Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost; we are cut off for our parts.

Rom. xi. 1. I say then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2. God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elias, how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

(t) Job xxvii. 2. As God liveth, who hath taken away my judgment; and the Almighty, who hath vexed my soul.

Mal. ii. 17. Ye have wearied the Lord with your words: yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the Lord, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?

28 Hast (u) thou not known? hast thou not heard, that (x) the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of (y) the ends of the earth, (z) fainteth not, neither is weary? there is (a) no searching of his understanding.

(u) Jer. iv. 22. For my people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

Mark viii. 17. And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye because ye have no bread? perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened?

18. Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

xvi. 14. Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

Luke xxiv. 25. Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken!

John xiv. 9. Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me, hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Show us the Father?

1 Cor. vi. 19. What! know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?

(x) Gen. xxi. 33. And Abraham planted a grove in Beer-sheba, and called there on the name of the Lord, the everlasting God.

Deut. xxxiii. 27. The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms: and he shall thrust out the enemy from before thee, and shall say, Destroy them.

Jer. x. 10. But the Lord is the true God, he is the living God, and an everlasting King: at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.

Rom. xvi. 26. But now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith.

1 Tim. i. 17. Now, unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

(y) 1 Sam. ii. 10. The adversaries of the Lord shall be broken to pieces; out of heaven shall he thunder upon them: the Lord shall judge the ends of the earth, and he shall give strength unto his king, and exalt the horn of his anointed.

Acts xiii. 47. For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

(z) Ps. cxxxviii. 8. The Lord will perfect that which concerneth me: thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever: forsake not the works of thine own hands.

John v. 17. But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

Phil. i. 6. Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you, will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ.

(a) Ps. cxxxix. 6. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it.

Rom. xi. 33. O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

34. For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?

1 Cor. ii. 16. For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

29 He (b) giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength.

(b) Gen. xlix. 24. But his bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong, by the hands of the mighty God of Jacob: (from thence is the Shepherd, the stone of Israel.)

Deut. xxxiii. 25. Thy shoes shall be iron and brass; and as thy days, so shall thy strength be.

Ps. xxxix. 11. The Lord will give strength unto his people; the Lord will bless his people with peace.

Zech. x. 12. And I will strengthen them in the Lord; and they shall walk up and down in his name, saith the Lord.

2 Cor. xii. 9. And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee; for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly, therefore, will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10. Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

Phil. iv. 13. I can do all things through Christ, which strengtheneth me.

30 Even (c) the youth shall faint, and be weary; and the young men shall utterly fall:

(c) Ps. xxxiii. 16. There is no king saved by the multitude of an host: a mighty man is not delivered by much strength.

xxxiv. 10. The young lions do lack and suffer hunger: but they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing.

Ec. ix. 11. I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to all.

Amos ii. 14. Therefore the slight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen the force, neither shall the mighty deliver himself.

31 But (d) they that wait upon the LORD (e) shall renew their strength: they shall (f) mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and (g) not faint.

(d) Ps. xxv. 3. Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed; let them be ashamed which transgress without cause.

cxxiii. 2. Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, until that he have mercy upon us.

Lam. iii. 25. The Lord is good unto him that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.

26. It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the Lord.

(e) Judg. xvi. 28. And Samson called unto the Lord, and said, O Lord God, remember me, I pray thee, and strengthen me, I pray thee, only this once, O God, that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes.

Job xvii. 9. The righteous also shall hold on his way, and he that hath clean hands shall be stronger and stronger.

Ps. ciii. 5. Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.

cxxxviii. 3. In the day when I cried thou answeredst me, and strengthenedst me with strength in my soul.

(f) Ex. xix. 4. Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I bare you on eagles' wings, and brought you unto myself.

(g) Ps. xxvii. 13. I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living.

Luke xviii. 1. And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint.

Rev. ii. 3. And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

CHAPTER XLI.

KEEP (a) silence before me, O islands; and (b) let the people renew their strength: let them come near; then let them speak: let us come near together to judgment.

(a) Ps. xlvi. 10. Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

Hab. ii. 20. But the Lord is in his holy temple; let all the earth keep silence before him.

Zech. ii. 13. Be silent, O all flesh, before the Lord; for he is raised up out of his holy habitation.

(b) Job xxxviii. 3. Gird up now thy loins like a man; for I will demand of thee, and answer thou me.

xl. 7. Gird up thy loins now like a man: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

Joel iii. 10. Beat your plough-shares into swords, and your pruning-hooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong.

11. Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about; thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O Lord.

2 (c) Who raised up the righteous man from the east, called him to his foot, (d) gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings? he gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow.

(c) Gen. xii. 1. Now the Lord had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will show thee;

2. And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing.

3. And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee; and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

Heb. xi. 8. By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9. By faith he sojourned in the land of promise as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

10. For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

(d) Gen. xiv. 14. And when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he armed his trained servants born in his own house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued them unto Dan.

15. And he divided himself against them, he and his servants, by night, and smote them, and pursued them unto Hobah, which is on the left hand of Damascus.

Heb. vii. 1. For this Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him.

3 He pursued them, and passed safely; even by the way that he had not gone with his feet.

4 Who hath wrought and done it, (e) calling the generations from the beginning? (f) I the LORD, the first, and with the last; I am he.

(e) Deut. xxxii. 7. Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations: ask thy father, and he will show thee; thy elders, and they will tell thee;

8. When the Most High divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel.

Acts xv. 18. Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world.

xvii. 26. And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation.

(f) Rev. i. 8. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

Rev. ii. 8. And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive.

xxii. 13. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

5 The isles saw it, and feared;

(g) the ends of the earth were afraid, drew near, and came.

(g) Ez. xxvi. 15. Thus saith the Lord God to Tyrus; Shall not the isles shake at thy fall, when the wounded cry, when the slaughter is made in the midst of thee?

16. Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay away their robes, and put off their brodered garments: they shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit upon the ground, and shall tremble at every moment, and be astonished at thee.

6 They helped every one his neighbour; and every one said to his brother, Be of good courage.

7 So (h) the carpenter encouraged the goldsmith, and he that smootheth with the hammer him that smote the anvil, saying, It is ready for the soldering: and he fastened it with nails, that it should not be moved.

(h) Is. xlvi. 6. They lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, and hire a goldsmith, and he maketh it a god: they fall down, yea, they worship.

7. They bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in his place, and he standeth; from his place shall he not remove: yea, one shall cry unto him, yet can he not answer, nor save him out of his trouble.

Jer. x. 9. Silver spread into plates is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the workman, and of the hands of the founder: blue and purple is their clothing; they are all the work of cunning men.

8 ¶ But (i) thou, Israel, art my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, (k) the seed of Abraham (l) my friend.

(i) Ez. xix. 5. Now, therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine.

Lev. xxv. 42. For they are my servants, which I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: they shall not be sold as bond-men.

Deut. vii. 6. For thou art an holy people unto the Lord thy God: the Lord thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth.

7. The Lord did not set his love upon you, nor choose you, because ye were more in number than any people, (for ye were the fewest of all people;)

8. But because the Lord loved you, and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn unto your fathers, hath the Lord brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bond-men, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

xiv. 2. For thou art an holy people unto the Lord thy God, and the Lord hath chosen thee to be a peculiar people unto himself, above all the nations that are upon the earth.

Ps. xxxiii. 12. Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

cv. 6. O ye seed of Abraham his servant, ye children of Jacob his chosen.

cxxxv. 4. For the Lord hath chosen Jacob unto himself, and Israel for his peculiar treasure.

(k) Matth. iii. 9. And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

Rom. iv. 12. And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only; but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had, being yet uncircumcised.

13. For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

(l) Chr. xx. 7. Art not thou our God, who didst drive out the inhabitants of this land before thy people Israel, and gavest it to the seed of Abraham thy friend for ever?

John xv. 14. Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15. Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father, I have made known unto you.

James ii. 23. And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called, The Friend of God.

9 Thou (m) whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and (n) called thee from the chief men thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant; I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away.

(m) Ps. cvii. 2. Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy,

3. And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south.

Luke xiii. 29. And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God.

Rev. v. 9. And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood, out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation.

(n) Deut. vii. 7. The Lord did not set his love upon you, nor choose you, because ye were more in number than any people, (for ye were the fewest of all people.)

James ii. 5. Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?

10 (o) Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; (p) for I am thy God: (q) I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

(o) Gen. xv. 1. After these things the word of the Lord came unto Abram in a vision, saying, Fear not, Abram: I am thy shield, and thy exceeding great reward.

Deut. xx. 1. When thou goest out to battle against thine enemies, and seest horses and chariots, and a people more than thou, be not afraid of them; for the Lord thy God is with thee, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

Josh. i. 9. Have not I commanded thee? Be strong, and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

Ps. xxvii. 1. The Lord is my light, and my salvation, whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life, of whom shall I be afraid?

Luke i. 13. But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard: and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John.

30. And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary; for thou hast found favour with God.

(p) Ps. cxlvii. 12. Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem; praise thy God, O Zion.

Zech. xiii. 9. And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them; I will say, It is my people; and they shall say, The Lord is my God.

(q) Ps. xxxix. 11. The Lord will give strength unto his people; the Lord will bless his people with peace.

Zech. x. 12. And I will strengthen them in the Lord; and they shall walk up and down in his name, saith the Lord.

2 Cor. xii. 9. And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee; for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly, therefore, will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

Eph. iii. 16. That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man.

Phil. iv. 13. I can do all things through Christ, which strengtheneth me.

11 Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and they that strive with thee shall perish.

12 Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not find them, even them that contended with thee: they that war against thee shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought.

13 For I the LORD thy God (r) will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee.

(r) Ps. lxxiii. 8. My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me.

lxxiii. 23. Nevertheless, I am continually with thee; thou hast holden me by my right hand.

cix. 31. For he shall stand at the right hand of the poor, to save him from those that condemn his soul.

14 Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye men of Israel; I will help thee, saith the LORD, and thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

15 Behold, (s) I will make thee a new sharp thrashing instrument, having teeth: (t) thou shalt thrash the mountains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as chaff.

(s) Hab. iii. 12. Thou didst march through thy land in indignation, thou didst thrash the heathen in anger.

(t) Ps. xviii. 42. Then did I beat them small as the dust before the wind; I did cast them out as the dirt in the streets.

Mic. iv. 13. Arise and thrash, O daughter of Zion; for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass; and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the Lord, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth.

Zech. iv. 7. Who art thou, O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth the head-stone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace, unto it.

16 Thou (u) shalt fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and (x) thou shalt rejoice in the LORD, and shalt glory in the Holy One of Israel.

(u) Ps. i. 4. The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff, which the wind driveth away.

Jer. xv. 7. And I will fan them with a fan in the gates of the land; I will bereave them of children, I will destroy my people, since they return not from their ways.

li. 2. And I will send unto Babylon fanners, that shall fan her, and shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about.

Matt. iii. 12. Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner: but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

(x) 1 Sam. ii. 1. And Hannah prayed, and said, My heart rejoiceth in the Lord; mine horn is exalted in the Lord; my mouth is enlarged over mine enemies; because I rejoice in thy salvation.

Jer. ix. 23. Thus saith the Lord, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches:

24. But let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lord which exercise loving-kindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the Lord.

Hab. iii. 18. Yet I will rejoice in the Lord, I will joy in the God of my salvation.

Phil. iv. 4. Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

17 When (y) the poor and needy (z) seek water, and there is none, and (a) their tongue faileth for thirst, (b) I the LORD will hear them, (c) I the God of Israel will not forsake them.

(y) Ps. lxxii. 12. For he shall deliver the needy when he crieth; the poor also, and him that hath no helper.

13. He shall spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy.

cii. 17. He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer.

(z) Ex. xvii. 3. And the people thirsted there for water; and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore is this that thou hast brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us, and our children, and our cattle, with thirst?

(a) Ps. xxii. 15. My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

Lam. iv. 4. The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst; the young children ask bread, and no man breaketh it unto them.

Luke xvi. 24. And he cried, and said, Father

Abraham, have mercy on me; and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.

(b) Judg. xv. 18. And he was sore athirst, and called on the Lord, and said, Thou hast given this great deliverance into the hand of thy servant: and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?

19. But God clave an hollow place that was in the jaw, and there came water thereout; and when he had drunk, his spirit came again, and he revived: wherefore he called the name thereof En-hakkore, which is in Lehi unto this day.

Ps. xxxiv. 6. This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him; and saved him out of all his troubles.

l. 15. And call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

cvii. 5. Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.

6. Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses.

(c) Gen. xxviii. 15. And, behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land: for I will not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of.

Ps. xciv. 14. For the Lord will not cast off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance.

Heb. xiii. 5. Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

6. So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

18 I will open rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys: I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.

19 I will plant in the wilderness the cedar, the shittah-tree, and the myrtle, and the oil-tree: I will set in the desert the fir-tree, and the pine, and the box-tree together:

20 That they (d) may see, and know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of the LORD hath done this, and the Holy One of Israel hath created it.

(d) Ex. ix. 16. And in very deed for this cause have I raised thee up, for to show in thee my power; and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth.

Nim. xxiii. 23. Surely there is no enchantment against Jacob, neither is there any divination against Israel: according to this time it shall be said of Jacob, What hath God wrought!

Job xii. 9. Who knoweth not in all these that the hand of the Lord hath wrought this?

Ps. cix. 27. That they may know that this is thy hand; that thou, Lord, hast done it.

21 ¶ Produce your cause, saith the LORD; bring forth your strong reasons, saith the king of Jacob.

22 Let them bring them forth, and show us what shall happen: let them show the former things, what they be, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or declare us things for to come.

23 Show the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are gods: yea, (e) do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and behold it together.

(e) Jer. x. 5. They are upright as the palm-tree, but speak not: they must needs be borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good.

24 Behold, (f) ye are of nothing, and your work of nought: (g) an abomination is he that chooseth you.

(f) Ps. cxv. 8. They that make them are like unto them; so is every one that trusteth in them.

Jer. x. 8. But they are altogether brutish and foolish: the stock is a doctrine of vanities.

14. Every man is brutish in his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

1 Cor. viii. 4. As concerning, therefore, the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

(g) Deut. vii. 26. Neither shalt thou bring an abomination unto thine house, lest thou be a cursed thing like it: but thou shalt utterly detest it, and thou shalt utterly abhor it; for it is a cursed thing.

xxvii. 15. Cursed be the man that maketh any graven or molten image, an abomination unto the Lord, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place: and all the people shall answer and say, Amen.

26 Who hath declared from the beginning, that we may know? and before time, that we may say, He is righteous? yea, there is none that showeth; yea, there is none that declareth; yea, there is none that heareth your words.

27 The (h) first shall say to Zion, Behold, behold them: and (i) I will give to Jerusalem one that bringeth good tidings.

(h) Is. xlvi. 12. Hearken unto me, O Jacob and Israel, my called; I am he: I am the first, I also am the last.

Rev. ii. 8. And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith the first, and the last, which was dead, and is alive.

(i) Is. lii. 7. How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation, that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth!

Nah. i. 15. Behold upon the mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! O Judah, keep thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows: for the wicked shall no more pass through thee; he is utterly cut off.

Luke ii. 10. And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11. For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

28 For (k) I beheld, and there was no man; even among them, and there was no counsellor, that, when I asked of them, could answer a word.

(k) Dan. ii. 10. The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can show the king's matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean.

11. And it is a rare thing that the king requireth; and there is none other that can show it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

v. 8. Then came in all the king's wise men: but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

29 Behold, they are all vanity; their works are nothing: their molten images are (l) wind and confusion.

(l) Jer. v. 13. And the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done unto them.

CHAPTER XLII.

BEHOLD my servant, (a) whom I uphold; (b) mine elect, in whom (c) my soul delighteth; (d) I have put my spirit upon him: (e) he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles.

(a) John xvi. 32. Behold, the hour cometh, ye are now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

(b) Ps. lxxxix. 19. Then thou spakest in vision to thy holy one, and saidst, I have laid help upon one that is mighty; I have exalted one chosen out of the people.

20. I have found David my servant; with my holy oil have I anointed him.

John vi. 27. Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed.

1 Pet. ii. 4. To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious.

6. Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Zion a chief corner-stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

(c) Matt. iii. 17. And, lo, a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

Eph. i. 6. To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the Beloved.

Col. i. 13. Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son.

(d) Matt. iii. 16. And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him.

John iii. 34. For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him.

Acts x. 38. How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost, and with power; who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil: for God is with him.

(e) Mal. i. 11. For from the rising of the sun, even unto the going down of the same, my name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the Lord of hosts.

Acts ix. 15. But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel.

xxviii. 28. Be it known, therefore, unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it.

Eph. iii. 8. Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ.

2 He shall (f) not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

(f) Zech. ix. 9. Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee: he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

Matt. xi. 29. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

2 Tim. ii. 24. And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient.

1 Pet. ii. 23. Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously.

3 A (g) bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench: (h) he shall bring forth judgment unto truth.

(g) Ps. ciii. 14. For he knoweth our frame: he remembereth that we are dust.

cxlviii. 3. He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.

Ez. xxxiv. 16. I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed them with judgment.

(h) Ps. xcvi. 13. Before the Lord: for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

Mic. vii. 9. I will bear the indignation of the Lord, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me; he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness.

John v. 30. I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear I judge; and my judgment is just: because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

Rev. xix. 11. And I saw heaven opened, and, behold, a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True; and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

4 He (i) shall not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth: (k) and the isles shall wait for his law.

(i) John xvii. 4. I have glorified thee in the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5. And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self, with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

Heb. xii. 2. Looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him, endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3. For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

4. Ye have not resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

(k) Gen. xlix. 10. The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be.

Ps. xxii. 27. All the ends of the world shall remember, and turn unto the Lord; and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.

lxvii. 8. He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth.

9. They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him; and his enemies shall lick the dust.

10. The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents: the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

11. Yea, all kings shall fall down before him; all nations shall serve him.

Mic. iv. 1. But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the Lord shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills: and people shall flow unto it.

2. And many nations shall come and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

3. And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plough-shares, and their spears into pruning-hooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

Zech. ii. 11. And many nations shall be joined to the Lord in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee; and thou shalt know that the Lord of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

1 Cor. ix. 21. To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.

5 ¶ Thus saith God the LORD, he that created the heavens, and stretched them out; (l) he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; (m) he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein.

(l) Gen. i. 10. And God called the dry land Earth, and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.

11. And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit-tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself upon the earth: and it was so.

12. And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

Ps. xxiv. 1. The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

2. For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

(m) Gen. ii. 7. And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

Job xii. 10. In whose hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind.

xxvii. 3. All the while my breath is in me, and the spirit of God is in my nostrils.

xxxiii. 4. The spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life.

Ps. xxxiii. 6. By the word of the Lord were the heavens made: and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

Acts xvii. 25. Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things.

6 I the LORD have (n) called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, (o) and give thee for a covenant of the people, (p) for a light of the Gentiles:

(n) Jer. xxiii. 5. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.

6. In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely; and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

Rom. iii. 25. Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;

26. To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness; that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

Heb. vii. 2. To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being, by interpretation, King of righteousness, and after that also, King of Salem, which is, King of peace.

26. For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens.

(o) Matt. xxvi. 28. For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many, for the remission of sins.

Rom. xv. 8. Now I say, that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers;

9. And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.

2 Cor. i. 20. For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

Gal. iii. 15. Brethren, I speak after the manner of men: Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

16. Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.

17. And this I say, that the covenant that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.

Heb. viii. 6. But now hath he attained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises.

ix. 15. And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

xii. 24. And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.

(p) Luke ii. 32. A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

John viii. 12. Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

Acts xiii. 47. For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

xxvi. 23. That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should show light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

7 To (q) open the blind eyes, (r) to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison-house.

(q) Ps. cxlvi. 8. The Lord openeth the eyes of the blind: the Lord raiseth them that are bowed down: the Lord loveth the righteous.

Matt. xi. 5. The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk; the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear: the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them.

Acts xxvi. 18. To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.

(r) Ps. cxlvi. 7. Which executeth judgment for the oppressed; which giveth food to the hungry. The Lord looseth the prisoners.

Zech. ix. 11. As for thee also, by the blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

12. Turn you to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope: even to-day do I declare, that I will render double unto thee.

2 Tim. ii. 26. And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

Heb. ii. 14. Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death; that is, the devil;

15. And deliver them who, through fear of death, were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

8 I am the LORD: (s) that is my name: and (t) my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images.

(s) Ex. iv. 5. That they may believe that the Lord God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath appeared unto thee.

Ps. lxxxiii. 18. That men may know that thou, whose name alone is JEHOVAH, art the Most High over all the earth.

(t) Ex. xxxiv. 14. For thou shalt worship no other god: for the Lord, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God.

John v. 23. That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son, honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

9 Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare: before they spring forth, I tell you of them.

10 ¶ (u) Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth, ye that go down to the sea, and all that is therein; (x) the isles, and the inhabitants thereof.

(u) Ps. xxxiii. 3. Sing unto him a new song, play skilfully with a loud noise.

Rev. v. 9. And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood, out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation.

xiv. 3. And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts and the elders: and no man could learn that song; but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

(x) Ps. xcvi. 1. The Lord reigneth, let the earth rejoice; let the multitude of isles be glad thereof.

Zeph. ii. 11. The Lord will be terrible unto them: for he will famish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

11 Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that (y) Kedar doth inhabit: (z) let the inhabitants of the rock sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains.

(y) Ps. cxx. 5. Wo is me, that I sojourn in Mesech, that I dwell in the tents of Kedar.

(z) Jer. xxi. 13. Behold, I am against thee, O inhabitant of the valley, and rock of the plain, saith the Lord; which say, Who shall come down against us? or who shall enter into our habitations?

xlvi. 28. O ye that dwell in Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock, and be like the dove that maketh her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth.

xlix. 16. Thy terriblest hath deceived thee, and the pride of thine heart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the height of the hill; though thou shouldest make thy nest as high as the eagle, I will bring thee down from thence, saith the Lord.

Ob. 3. The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

12 Let them give glory unto the LORD, and declare his praise in the islands.

13 The LORD shall go forth (a) as a mighty man, he shall stir up (b) jealousy like a man of war: he (c) shall cry, yea, roar; he shall prevail against his enemies.

(a) Ex. xv. 1. Then sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the Lord, and spake, saying, I will sing unto the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

2. The Lord is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation: he is my God, and I will prepare him an habitation; my father's God, and I will exalt him.

3. The Lord is a man of war: The Lord is his name.

Ps. lxxviii. 65. Then the Lord awaked as one out of sleep, and like a mighty man that shouteth by reason of wine.

cx. 5. The Lord at thy right hand shall strike through kings in the day of his wrath.

6. He shall judge among the heathen, he shall fill the places with the dead bodies; he shall wound the heads over many countries.

(b) Nah. i. 2. God is jealous, and the Lord revengeth; the Lord revengeth, and is furious: the Lord will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

Zeph. i. 18. Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the Lord's wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

iii. 8. Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the Lord, until the day that I rise up to the prey; for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured by the fire of my jealousy.

(c) Joel iii. 16. The Lord also shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the Lord will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel.

Amos i. 2. And he said, The Lord will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Carmel shall wither.

14 I have (d) long time holden my peace: I have been still, and refrained myself: now will I cry like a travailing woman; I will destroy and devour at once.

(d) Ps. l. 21. These things hast thou done, and I kept silence: thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as thyself: but I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.

Ec. viii. 11. Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

12. Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him.

Jer. xlv. 22. So that the Lord could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as at this day.

Luke xviii. 7. And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

15 I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and I will dry up the pools.

16 And (e) I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and (f) crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, (g) and not forsake them.

(e) Jer. xxxi. 8. Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the coasts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall return thither.

Luke i. 78. Through the tender mercy of our God, whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us,

79. To give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

(f) Ec. i. 15. That which is crooked cannot be made straight; and that which is wanting cannot be numbered.

vii. 13. Consider the work of God: for who can make that straight which he hath made crooked?

Is. xl. 4. Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain.

xlv. 2. I will go before thee, and make the crooked places straight: I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron.

Luke iii. 5. Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth.

(g) Ps. xciv. 14. For the Lord will not cast off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance.

17 ¶ They shall be turned back, (h) they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods.

(h) Ps. xcvi. 7. Confounded be all they that serve graven images, that boast themselves of idols: worship him, all ye gods.

Jer. ii. 26. As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets,

27. Saying to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast brought me forth; for they have turned their back unto me, and not their face; but in the time of their trouble, they will say, Arise, and save us.

18 Hear, (i) ye deaf; and look, ye blind, that ye may see.

(i) Ex. iv. 11. And the Lord said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the Lord?

Prov. xx. 12. The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, the Lord hath made even both of them.

Luke vii. 22. Then Jesus answering, said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard, how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached.

19 Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as the LORD's servant?

20 (k) Seeing many things, but thou observest not; (l) opening the ears, but he heareth not.

(k) Num. xiv. 22. Because all those men which have seen my glory, and my miracles which I did in Egypt, and in the wilderness, have tempted me now these ten times, and have not hearkened to my voice.

Deut. iv. 9. Only take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life; but teach them thy sons, and thy sons' sons.

cvii. 43. Whoso is wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the loving-kindness of the Lord.

(l) Ex. xxxiii. 31. And they come unto thee as the people cometh; and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, and they will not do them: for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness.

21 The LORD is (m) well pleased for his righteousness' sake; (n) he will magnify the law, and make it honourable.

(m) Matt. iii. 17. And, lo, a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

xvii. 5. While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and, behold, a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.

John viii. 29. And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him.

(n) Ps. xl. 8. I delight to do thy will, O my God; yea, thy law is within my heart.

Matt. iii. 15. And Jesus answering, said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him.

Rom. iii. 31. Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

Gal. iii. 13. Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree.

21. Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid; for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

Heb. viii. 10. For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel. After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts; and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people.

1 John iii. 4. Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.

5. And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.

22 But this is a people robbed and spoiled; they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison-houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for a spoil, and none saith, Restore.

23 Who among you (o) will give ear to this? who will hearken, and hear for the time to come?

(o) Deut. xxxii. 29. Oh that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end!

Prov. i. 22. How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity, and the scorners delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?

23. Turn ye at my reproof: behold, I will pour out my spirit unto you, I will make known my words unto you.

Mic. vi. 9. The Lord's voice crieth unto the city, and the man of wisdom shall see thy name: hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it.

24 Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? did not the LORD, he against whom we have sinned? for they would not walk in his ways, neither were they obedient unto his law.

25 Therefore he hath poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle: and it hath set him on fire round about, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

CHAPTER XLIII.

BUT now thus saith the LORD that (a) created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel, (b) Fear not; for I have redeemed thee, (c) I have called thee by thy name; (d) thou art mine.

(a) Ps. c. 3. Know ye that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

cii. 18. This shall be written for the generation to come; and the people which shall be created shall praise the Lord.

(b) Ex. xv. 13. Thou in thy mercy hast led forth the people which thou hast redeemed: thou hast guided them in thy strength unto thy holy habitation.

Tit. ii. 14. Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

(c) Ex. xxxiii. 17. And the Lord said unto

Moses, I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name.

(d) Ex. xix. 5. Now, therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine.

6. And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

Deut. xxxii. 9. For the Lord's portion is his people: Jacob is the lot of his inheritance.

Ex. xvi. 8. Now, when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness; yea, I swore unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord God, and thou becamest mine.

Mal. iii. 17. And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

2 Tim. ii. 19. Nevertheless, the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

2 When thou (e) passest through the waters, (f) I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: (g) when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.

(e) Ex. xiv. 29. But the children of Israel walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea; and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

Josh. iii. 15. And as they that bare the ark were come unto Jordan, and the feet of the priests that bare the ark were dipped in the brim of the water (for Jordan overfloweth all his banks all the time of harvest.)

16. That the water which came down from above stood, and rose up upon an heap very far from the city Adam, that is beside Zaretan; and those that came down towards the sea of the plain, even the salt sea, failed, and were cut off; and the people passed over right against Jericho.

17. And the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord stood firm on dry ground in the midst of Jordan, and all the Israelites passed over on dry ground, until all the people were passed clean over Jordan.

Ps. lxxvi. 10. For thou, O God, hast proved us; thou hast tried us, as silver is tried.

12. Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads: we went through fire and through water; but thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.

(f) Deut. xxxi. 6. Be strong, and of a good courage; fear not, nor be afraid of them; for the Lord thy God, he it is that doth go with thee; he will not fail thee nor forsake thee.

7. And Moses called unto Joshua, and said unto him in the sight of all Israel, Be strong, and of a good courage: for thou must go with this people unto the land which the Lord hath sworn unto their fathers to give them; and thou shalt cause them to inherit it.

8. And the Lord, he it is that doth go before thee; he will be with thee, he will not fail thee, neither forsake thee; fear not, neither be dismayed.

Ps. xxiii. 4. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

xvi. 4. There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High.

5. God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early.

6. The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted.

7. The Lord of hosts is with us, the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

xc. 15. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.

Matt. i. 23. Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel; which, being interpreted, is, God with us.

(g) Don. iii. 25. He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God.

26. Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ye servants of the most high God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, came forth of the midst of the fire.

27. And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them.

Zech. xiii. 9. And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them; I will say, It is my people; and they shall say, The Lord is my God.

Mal. iii. 2. But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fuller's soap.

3. And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness.

1 Pet. iv. 12. Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you.

13. But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

3 For I am the LORD thy God, (h) the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour: (i) I gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee.

(h) Hos. xiii. 4. Yet I am the Lord thy God from the land of Egypt, and thou shalt know no god but me: for there is no saviour beside me.

Jude 25. To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever, Amen.

(i) Ex. x. 7. And Pharaoh's servants said unto him, How long shall this man be a snare unto us? Let the men go, that they may serve the Lord their God. Knowest thou not yet that Egypt is destroyed?

Prov. xi. 8. The righteous is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked cometh in his stead.

xxi. 18. The wicked shall be a ransom for the righteous, and the transgressor for the upright.

4 Since thou wast (k) precious in my sight, (l) thou hast been honourable, and (m) I have loved thee: therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy life.

(k) Ex. xix. 5. Now, therefore; if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine:

6. And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

Deut. xiv. 2. For thou art an holy people unto the Lord thy God, and the Lord hath chosen thee to be a peculiar people unto himself, above all the nations that are upon the earth.

Mal. iii. 17. And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

(l) Gen. xii. 2. And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing.

Ps. cxlii. 9. He hath dispersed; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness endureth for ever; his horn shall be exalted with honour.

John v. 44. How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only?

1 Pet. i. 7. That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise, and honour, and glory, at the appearing of Jesus Christ.

(m) Jer. xxxi. 3. The Lord hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love; therefore with loving-kindness have I drawn thee.

Hos. xi. 1. When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt.

Mal. i. 2. I have loved you, saith the Lord: yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? Was not Esau Jacob's brother? saith the Lord: yet I loved Jacob.

John xvi. 27. For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God.

xvii. 23. I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them as thou hast loved me.

5 (n) Fear not; for I am with thee: (o) I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west:

(n) Jer. xxx. 10. Therefore fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the Lord; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid.

11. For I am with thee, saith the Lord, to save thee: though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make a full end of thee; but I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.

Acts xviii. 9. Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10. For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee; for I have much people in this city.

(o) Deut. xxx. 3. That then the Lord thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee, and will return, and gather thee from all the nations whither the Lord thy God hath scattered thee.

Ps. cvi. 47. Save us, O Lord our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy name, and to triumph in thy praise.

cvii. 3. And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north and from the south.

Jer. xxxi. 8. Behold, I will bring them from the east, and gather them from the coasts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall return thither.

9. They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble; for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born.

Zech. viii. 7. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country.

Luke xiii. 29. And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God.

6 I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: (p) bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth;

(p) Jer. iii. 14. Turn, O backsliding children, saith the Lord; for I am married unto you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion.

18. In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have given for an inheritance unto your fathers.

19. But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the host of nations? And I said, Thou shalt not call me, My father; and shalt not turn away from me.

Hos. i. 10. Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered: and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God.

Rom. ix. 7. Neither because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called;

8. That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

2 Cor. vi. 18. And I will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

7 Even every one that is (q) called by my name: (r) for I have created him (s) for my glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him.

(q) Jer. xxxiii. 16. In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely: and this is the name wherewith she shall be called, The Lord our righteousness.

Acts xi. 26. And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

James ii. 7. Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?

Rev. iii. 12. Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.

(r) Ps. xcvi. 6. O come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the Lord our maker:

7. For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. To-day if ye will hear his voice.

2 Cor. v. 17. Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature; old things are passed away: behold, all things are become new.

Eph. ii. 10. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

(s) Ps. l. 23. Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me: and to him that ordereth his conversation aright will I show the salvation of God.

John xv. 8. Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

Rom. ix. 23. And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory.

Eph. i. 6. To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the Beloved.

8 ¶ Bring (t) forth the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears.

(t) Deut. xxix. 2. And Moses called unto all Israel, and said unto them, Ye have seen all that the Lord did before your eyes in the land of Egypt, unto Pharaoh, and unto all his servants, and unto all his land;

3. The great temptations which thine eyes have seen, the signs and those great miracles:

4. Yet the Lord hath not given you an heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, unto this day.

Jer. v. 21. Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding; which have eyes, and see not: which have ears, and hear not.

Ez. xii. 2. Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of a rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: for they are a rebellious house.

9 Let (u) all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled: who among them can declare this, and show us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, (x) that they may be justified; or let them hear, and say, It is truth.

(u) Ps. xlix. 1. Hear this, all ye people; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world:

2. Both low and high, rich and poor, together.
1. 1. The mighty God, even the Lord, hath spoken, and called the earth, from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.

Joel iii. 11. Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about; thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O Lord.

(x) 1 Kings xviii. 21. And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the Lord be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word.

22. Then said Elijah unto the people, I, even I only, remain a prophet of the Lord; but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men.

23. Let them therefore give us two bullocks; and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under; and I will dress the other bullock, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under:

24. And call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the Lord; and the God that answereth by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered and said, It is well spoken.

36. And it came to pass, at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and that I have done all these things at thy word.

37. Hear me, O Lord, hear me; that this people may know that thou art the Lord God, and that thou hast turned their heart back again.

38. Then the fire of the Lord fell, and consumed the burnt-sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.

39. And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, The Lord, he is the God; the Lord, he is the God.

10 Ye are (y) my witnesses, saith the LORD, and my servant whom I have chosen; (z) that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no god formed, neither shall there be after me.

(y) John i. 7. The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

8. He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

xv. 27. And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

Acts i. 8. But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me, both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

(z) John xx. 31. But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

11 I, even (a) I, am the LORD; and beside me there is no saviour.

(a) Deut. vi. 4. Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord.

Hos. xiii. 4. Yet I am the Lord thy God from the land of Egypt, and thou shalt know no god but me: for there is no saviour beside me.

Luke i. 47. And my spirit hath rejoiced in God, my Saviour.

ii. 11. For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

Tit. ii. 13. Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 I have declared, and have saved, and I have showed, when there was (b) no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God.

(b) Deut. xxxii. 12. So the Lord alone did lead him, and there was no strange god with him.

Psa. lxxxii. 9. There shall no strange god be in thee; neither shalt thou worship any strange god.

10. I am the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.

13 Yea, (c) before the day was, I am he; and there is (d) none that can deliver out of my hand: (e) I will work, and who shall let it?

(c) Psa. xc. 2. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world; even from everlasting to everlasting thou art God.

xciii. 2. Thy throne is established of old: thou art from everlasting.

Prov. viii. 23. I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.

Mic. v. 2. But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be Ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from old, from everlasting.

John i. 1. In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

2. The same was in the beginning with God. viii. 58. Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am.

Heb. xiii. 8. Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, and to-day, and for ever.

Rev. i. 8. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

(d) Deut. xxviii. 31. Thine ox shall be slain before thine eyes, and thou shalt not eat thereof: thine ass shall be violently taken away from before thy face, and shall not be restored to thee: thy sheep shall be given unto thine enemies, and thou shalt have none to rescue them.

xxxii. 39. See now, I, even I, am he, and there is no god with me: I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal: neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand.

Psa. i. 22. Now consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver.

Hos. ii. 10. And now will I discover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand.

(e) Job ix. 12. Behold, he taketh away, who can hinder him? who will say unto him, What doest thou?

Prov. xxi. 30. There is no wisdom, nor understanding, nor counsel, against the Lord.

Dan. iv. 35. And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou?

Rom. ix. 18. Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.

19. Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? for who hath resisted his will?

Eph. i. 11. In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will.

14 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their nobles, and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships.

15 I am (f) the LORD, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King.

(f) Jer. li. 5. For Israel hath not been forsaken, nor Judah of his God, of the Lord of hosts; though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel.

Hab. i. 12. Art thou not from everlasting, O Lord, my God, mine Holy One? we shall not die. O Lord, thou hast ordained them for judgment; and, O mighty God, thou hast established them for correction.

16 Thus saith the LORD, which maketh a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters;

17 Which bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tow.

18 (g) Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old.

(g) Deut. vii. 18. Thou shalt not be afraid of them; but shalt well remember what the Lord thy God did unto Pharaoh, and unto all Egypt.

viii. 2. And thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments or no.

1 Chr. xvi. 12. Remember his marvellous works that he hath done, his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth.

19 Behold, (h) I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth: shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and (i) rivers in the desert.

(h) Jer. xxxi. 22. How long wilt thou go about, O thou backsliding daughter? for the Lord hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman shall compass a man.

Rev. xxi. 5. And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

(i) Ex. xvii. 6. Behold, I will stand before thee there upon the rock in Horeb, and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.

Num. xx. 11. And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his rod he smote the rock twice; and the water came out abundantly: and the congregation drank, and their beasts also.

Deut. viii. 15. Who led thee through that great and terrible wilderness, wherein were fiery serpents, and scorpions, and drought; where there was no water; who brought thee forth water out of the rock of flint?

Psa. cv. 41. He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out; they ran in the dry places like a river.

20 The (k) beast of the field shall honour me, the dragons and the owls: because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, (l) my chosen.

(k) Ps. civ. 21. The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their meat from God.

(l) 1 Chr. xvi. 13. O ye seed of Israel his servant, ye children of Jacob, his chosen ones.

Ps. xxxiii. 12. Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

1 Pet. ii. 9. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

Rev. xvii. 14. These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

21 This (m) people have I formed for myself; they shall show forth my praise.

(m) Ps. iv. 3. But know that the Lord hath set apart him that is godly for himself: the Lord will hear when I call unto him.

Prov. xvi. 4. The Lord hath made all things for himself; yea, even the wicked for the day of evil.

22 ¶ But (n) thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob; but (o) thou hast been weary of me, O Israel.

(n) Dan. ix. 13. As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet made we not our prayer before the Lord our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

Hos. xiv. 1. O Israel, return unto the Lord thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity.

2. Take with you words, and turn to the Lord; say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously: so will we render the calves of our lips.

(o) Job xxi. 14. Therefore they say unto God, Depart from us: for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.

15. What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? and what profit should we have if we pray unto him?

xxvii. 9. Will God hear his cry when trouble cometh upon him?

10. Will he delight himself in the Almighty? will he always call upon God?

Mic. vi. 3. O my people, what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me.

Mal. i. 13. Ye said also, Behold what a weariness is it! and ye have snuffed at it, saith the Lord of hosts: and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: should I accept this of your hand? saith the Lord.

iii. 14. Ye have said, It is vain to serve God; and what profit is it that we have kept his ordinance, and that we have walked mournfully before the Lord of hosts?

John vi. 66. From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.

67. Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68. Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life.

69. And we believe, and are sure, that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.

23 Thou (p) hast not brought me the small cattle of thy burnt-offerings, neither hast thou (q) honoured me with thy sacrifices. I have not caused thee to serve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense.

(p) Amos v. 25. Have ye offered unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?

Mal. i. 14. But cursed be the deceiver which hath in his flock a male, and boweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith the Lord of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen.

iii. 8. Will a man rob God? yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings.

(q) Prov. xv. 8. The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord: but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

xxi. 27. The sacrifice of the wicked is abomination: how much more when he bringeth it with a wicked mind?

Amos v. 21. I hate, I despise your feast-days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies.

22. Though ye offer me burnt-offerings, and your meat-offerings, I will not accept them; neither will I regard the peace-offerings of your fat beasts.

Zech. vii. 5. Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh month, even those seventy years, did ye at all fast unto me, even to me?

6. And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, did not ye eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves?

24 Thou hast bought me (r) no sweet cane with money, (s) neither hast thou filled me with the fat of thy sacrifice: but (t) thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast wearied me with thine iniquities.

(r) Jer. vi. 20. To what purpose cometh there to me incense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? your burnt-offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet unto me.

(s) Lev. iii. 16. And the priest shall burn them upon the altar: it is the food of the offering made by fire, for a sweet savour. All the fat is the Lord's.

iv. 31. And he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat is taken away from off the sacrifice of peace-offerings; and the priest shall burn it upon the altar, for a sweet savour unto the Lord: and the priest shall make an atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him.

(t) Ps. xc. 10. Forty years long was I grieved with the generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways.

Ez. xvi. 43. Because thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, but hast fretted me in all these things; behold, therefore, I also will recompense thy way upon thine head, saith the Lord God: and thou shalt not commit this lewdness above all thine abominations.

Amos ii. 13. Behold, I am pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves.

Mal. ii. 17. Ye have wearied the Lord with your words: yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the Lord, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?

25 I, (u) even I, am he that blot-teth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and (x) will not remember thy sins.

(u) Ps. li. 9. Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.

Mic. vii. 18. Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage; he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.

19. He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

Mark ii. 7. Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God only?

Acts iii. 19. Repent ye, therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord.

(x) Ps. lxxix. 8. O remember not against us former iniquities: let thy tender mercies speedily prevent us; for we are brought very low.

Heb. viii. 12. For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness; and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

26 (y) Put me in remembrance: let us plead together: (z) declare thou, that thou mayest be justified.

(y) Gen. xxxii. 12. And thou saidst, I will surely do thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.

Job xvi. 21. Oh, that one might plead for a man with God, as a man pleadeth for his neighbour!

Ez. xxxvi. 37. Thus saith the Lord God, I will yet for this be inquired of by the house of Israel to do it for them; I will increase them with men, like a flock.

(z) Job xl. 7. Gird up thy loins now like a man: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

8. Will thou also disannul my judgment? wilt thou condemn me, that thou mayest be righteous?

Luke x. 29. But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour?

xvi. 15. And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men, is abomination in the sight of God.

27 Thy (a) first father hath sinned, (b) and thy teachers have transgressed against me.

(a) Ps. lxxviii. 8. And might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation; a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not steadfast with God.

cvi. 6. We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

7. Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt; they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies; but provoked him at the sea, even at the Red Sea.

Jer. iii. 25. We lie down in our shame, and our confusion covereth us: for we have sinned against the Lord our God, and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day, and have not obeyed the voice of the Lord our God.

Mal. iii. 7. Even from the days of your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the Lord of hosts. But ye said, Wherein shall we return?

Acts vii. 51. Ye stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye.

Rom. v. 12. Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned.

(b) Jer. v. 31. The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

Hos. iv. 6. My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

Mic. iii. 11. The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the Lord, and say, Is not the Lord among us? none evil can come upon us.

28 Therefore (c) I have profaned the princes of the sanctuary, (d) and have given Jacob to the curse, and Israel to reproaches.

(c) 2 Sam. i. 21. Ye mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew, neither let there be rain upon you, nor fields of offerings: for there the shield of the mighty is vilely cast away, the shield of Saul, as though he had not been anointed with oil.

Ps. lxxxix. 39. Thou hast made void the covenant of thy servant; thou hast profaned his crown, by casting it to the ground.

(d) Ps. lxxix. 4. We are become a reproach to our neighbours; a scorn and derision to them that are round about us.

Jer. xxiv. 9. And I will deliver them to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.

Zech. viii. 13. And it shall come to pass, that as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong.

CHAPTER XLIV.

YET now hear, O Jacob my servant, and Israel, whom I have chosen:

2 Thus saith the LORD (a) that made thee, and (b) formed thee from the womb, which will help thee; Fear not, O Jacob, my servant; and thou, (c) Jesurun, whom I have chosen.

(a) Is. xliii. 7. Even every one that is called by my name: for I have created him for my glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him.

(b) Ps. lxxi. 6. By thee have I been holden up from the womb: thou art he that took me out of my mother's bowels: my praise shall be continually of thee.

Is. xlix. 1. Listen, O isles, unto me; and hearken, ye people from far; The Lord hath called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name.

(c) Deut. xxxii. 15. But Jeshurun waxed fat, and kicked: thou art waxen fat, thou art grown thick, thou art covered with fatness: then he forsook God which made him, and lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation.

xxxiii. 5. And he was king in Jeshurun, when the heads of the people and the tribes of Israel were gathered together.

3 For I will (d) pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon (e) the dry ground: I will (f) pour my spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring:

(d) Ez. xxxiv. 26. And I will make them, and the places round about my hill, a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season: there shall be showers of blessing.

Joel iii. 18. And it shall come to pass in that day, that the mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Judah shall flow with waters, and a fountain shall come forth of the house of the Lord, and shall enter the valley of Shittim.

Rev. xxi. 6. And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst, of the fountain of the water of life freely.

(e) Ps. lxxiii. 1. O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is.

(f) Ez. xxxix. 29. Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have poured out my spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord God.

Joel ii. 28. And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:

29. And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.

Zech. xii. 10. And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications; and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his first-born.

Tit. iii. 5. Not by works of righteousness, which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;

6. Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

4 And they shall (g) spring up as among the grass, as (h) willows by the water-courses.

(g) Acts ii. 41. Then they that gladly received his word were baptized; and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

iv. 4. Howbeit, many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.

v. 14. And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.

(h) Ps. i. 3. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season: his leaf also shall not wither, and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

Ez. xvii. 5. He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful field; he placed it by great waters, and set it as a willow-tree.

5 One shall say, (i) I am the LORD's; and another shall call himself by the name of Jacob: and another shall (k) subscribe with his hand unto the LORD, and surname himself by (l) the name of Israel.

(i) Ps. cxvi. 16. O Lord, truly I am thy servant; I am thy servant, and the son of thy handmaid: thou hast loosed my bonds.

Jer. l. 5. They shall ask the way to Zion, with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the Lord in a perpetual covenant, never to be forgotten.

Mic. iv. 2. And many nations shall come and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

(k) Neh. ix. 38. And because of all this, we make a sure covenant, and write it: and our princes, Levites, and priests, seal unto it.

(l) Gal. vi. 16. And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

1 Pet. ii. 9. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

6 Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and his Redeemer the LORD of hosts: (m) I am the first, and I am the last; and (n) beside me there is no God.

(m) Is. xlviii. 12. Hearken unto me, O Jacob, and Israel, my called; I am he; I am the first, I also am the last.

Rev. i. 8. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

17. And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last.

xxii. 13. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

(n) Deut. vi. 4. Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is one Lord.

1 Tim. iii. 16. And without controversy, great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

7 And who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, (o) since I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them show unto them.

(o) Gen. xvii. 7. And I will establish my covenant between me and thee, and thy seed after thee, in their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee.

8. And I will give unto thee, and thy seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God.

Deut. xxxii. 8. When the Most High divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel.

Acts xvii. 26. And hath made of one blood all nations of men, for to dwell on all the face of the earth; and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation.

8 Fear ye not, neither be afraid: have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? (p) ye are even my witnesses. (q) Is there a God beside me? yea, there is no God: I know not any.

(p) Dan. v. 25. That they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, till thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

Acts i. 8. But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

Heb. xii. 5. Wherefore, seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us.

(q) Deut. iv. 35. Unto thee it was showed, that thou mightest know that the Lord he is God: there is none else beside him.

39. Know therefore this day, and consider it in thy heart, that the Lord he is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none else.

1 Sam. ii. 2. There is none holy as the Lord: for there is none beside thee; neither is there any rock like our God.

9 ¶ They that (r) make a graven image are all of them vanity; (s) and their delectable things shall not profit; and they are their own witnesses: they see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed.

(r) Deut. xxvii. 15. Cursed be the man that maketh any graven or molten image, an abomination unto the Lord, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place. And all the people shall answer and say, Amen.

Ps. xcvi. 7. Confounded be all they that serve graven images, that boast themselves of idols: worship him, all ye gods.

Jer. x. 14. Every man is brutish in his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

15. They are vanity, and the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.

(s) Judg. x. 14. Go, and cry unto the gods which ye have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your tribulation.

Jer. ii. 11. Hath a nation changed their gods, which are yet no gods? but my people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit.

Hos. viii. 4. They have set up kings, but not by me; they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they may be cut off.

5. Thy calf, O Samaria, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them: how long will it be ere they attain to innocency?

6. For from Israel was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is not God: but the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

10 Who (t) hath formed a god, or molten a graven image that is profitable for nothing?

(t) 1 Kings xii. 28. Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

Dan. iii. 1. Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

Acts xix. 26. Moreover, ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying, that they be no gods, which are made with hands.

11 Behold, (u) all his fellows shall be ashamed: and the workmen, they are of men: (x) let them all be gathered together, let them stand up: yet they shall fear, and they shall be ashamed together.

(u) Ps. xcvi. 7. Confounded be all they that serve graven images, that boast themselves of idols: worship him, all ye gods.

Jer. ii. 26. As a thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets.

x. 14. Every man is brutish in his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image; for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

(x) Rev. xix. 19. And I saw the beast and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

20. And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire, burning with brimstone.

21. And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.

12 (y) The smith with the tongs both worketh in the coals, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with the strength of his arms: (z) yea, he is hungry, and his strength faileth; he drinketh no water, and is faint.

(y) Ex. xxxii. 4. And he received them at their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool, after he had made it a molten calf: and they said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

Is. xlvi. 6. They lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, and hire a goldsmith, and he maketh it a god: they fall down; yea, they worship.

(z) Hab. ii. 13. Behold, is it not of the Lord of hosts that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity?

13 The carpenter stretcheth out his rule; (a) he marketh it out with a line; he fitteth it with planes, and he marketh it out with a compass, and maketh it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man; (b) that it may remain in the house.

(a) Acts xvii. 29. Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

Rom. i. 23. And changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like unto corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.

(b) Gen. xxxi. 19. And Laban went to shear his sheep: and Rachel had stolen the images that were her father's.

xxxv. 2. Then Jacob said unto his household, and to all that were with him, Put away the strange gods that are among you, and be clean, and change your garments.

Judg. xvii. 4. Yet he restored the money unto his mother; and his mother took two hundred shekels of silver, and gave them to the founder, who made thereof a graven image, and a molten image: and they were in the house of Micah.

5. And the man Micah had a house of gods, and made an ephod, and teraphim, and consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest.

14 He (c) heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak, which he strengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest: he planteth an ash, and the rain doth nourish it.

(c) Jer. x. 3. For the customs of the people are vain; for one cutteth a tree out of the forest, (the work of the hands of the workman) with the axe:

4. They deck it with silver and with gold: they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not.

15 Then shall it be for a man to burn; for he will take thereof, and warm himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread; yea, he maketh a god, and worshippeth it; he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down thereto.

16 He burneth part thereof in the fire; with part thereof he eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied: yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire:

17 And the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down unto it, and worshippeth it, and prayeth unto it, and saith, (d) Deliver me; for thou art my God.

(d) Dan. iii. 17. If it be so, our God, whom we serve, is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and he will deliver us out of thy hand, O king.

29. Therefore I make a decree, that every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dung-hill; because there is no other god that can deliver after this sort.

vi. 16. Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, The God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee.

27. He delivereth and rescueth, and he worketh signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.

18 They (e) have not known nor understood: (f) for he hath shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they (g) cannot understand.

(e) Jer. x. 8. But they are altogether brutish and foolish; the stock is a doctrine of vanities.

14. Every man is brutish in his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

(f) Ps. lxxxix. 12. So I gave them up unto their own heart's lust; and they walked in their own counsel.

Is. xxix. 10. For the Lord hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes: the prophets, and your rulers, the seers, hath he covered.

(g) Prov. xxviii. 5. Evil men understand not judgment: but they that seek the Lord understand all things.

Jer. v. 21. Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding, which have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not.

Dan. xii. 10. Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand.

19 And none considereth in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire; yea, also, I have baked bread upon the coals thereof; I have roasted flesh, and eaten it: and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to the stock of a tree?

20 He (h) feedeth on ashes: (i) a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, (k) Is there not a lie in my right hand?

(h) Job xv. 2. Should a wise man utter vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind?

Ps. cii. 9. For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping.

Prov. xv. 14. The heart of him that hath understanding seeketh knowledge: but the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness.

(i) Job xv. 31. Let not him that is deceived trust in vanity; for vanity shall be his recompense.

2 Tim. iii. 13. But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived.

Rev. xii. 9. And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

(k) Hab. ii. 18. What profiteth the graven image, that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols?

1 Tim. iv. 2. Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron.

21 ¶ Remember these, O Jacob and Israel; for thou art my servant: I have formed thee; thou art my servant: O Israel, (l) thou shalt not be forgotten of me.

(l) Is. xlix. 15. Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, yet will I not forget thee.

16. Behold, I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me.

22 I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins: (m) return unto me; for I have redeemed thee.

(m) Is. xlviii. 20. Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth; say ye, The Lord hath redeemed his servant Jacob.

Jer. iii. 1. They say, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, shall he return unto her again? shall not that land be greatly polluted: but thou hast played the harlot with many lovers; yet return again to me, saith the Lord.

Acts iii. 19. Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord.

1 Cor. vi. 20. For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

1 Pet. i. 18. Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers;

19. But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot.

23 Sing, O ye heavens; for the LORD hath done it: shout, ye lower parts of the earth: break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein: for the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and (n) glorified himself in Israel.

(n) Ez. xxxix. 13. Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown, the day that I shall be glorified, saith the Lord God.

Eph. i. 6. To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the Beloved:

7. In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace.

iii. 21. Unto him be glory in the church by Jesus Christ, throughout all ages, world without end, Amen.

1 Pet. iv. 11. If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ; to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever, Amen.

24 Thus saith the LORD thy Redeemer, and he that formed thee from the womb, (o) I am the LORD that maketh all things; that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth (p) by myself;

(o) Job ix. 8. Which alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the waves of the sea.

xxvi. 7. He stretcheth out the north over the empty place, and hangeth the earth upon nothing.

Ps. civ. 2. Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment; who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain.

Jer. li. 15. He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding.

(p) John i. 3. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

Eph. iii. 9. And to make all men see, what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ.

Col. i. 16. For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him;

17. And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.

25 That frustrateth the tokens of the liars, and maketh diviners mad; that (q) turneth wise men backward, and maketh their knowledge foolish;

(q) 2 Sam. xv. 31. And one told David, saying, Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom. And David said, O Lord, I pray thee, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness.

Job v. 12. He disappointeth the desires of the crafty, so that their hands cannot perform their enterprise.

13. He taketh the wise in their own craftiness; and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong.

Jer. xlix. 7. Concerning Edom, thus saith the Lord of hosts, Is wisdom no more in Teman? is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished?

1 Cor. iii. 19. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God: for it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

20. And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

26 That (r) confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers; that saith to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be inhabited; and to the cities of Judah, Ye shall be built, and I will raise up the decayed places thereof;

(r) 1 Kings xiii. 3. And he gave a sign the same day, saying, This is the sign which the Lord hath spoken; Behold, the altar shall be rent, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured out.

4. And it came to pass, when king Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God, which had cried against the altar in Beth-el, that he put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him. And his hand, which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he could not pull it in again to him.

5. The altar also was rent, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the Lord.

Zech. i. 6. But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not take hold of your fathers? and they returned, and said, Like as the Lord of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

Matth. xxvi. 56. But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

Luke xxiv. 44. And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me.

27 That saith to the deep, (s) Be dry, and I will dry up thy rivers;

(s) Ps. lxxiv. 15. Thou didst cleave the fountain and the flood: thou driedst up mighty rivers.

Jer. i. 38. A drought is upon her waters; and they shall be dried up: for it is the land of graven images, and they are mad upon their idols.

Rev. xvi. 12. And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

28 That saith of Cyrus, He is (t) my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure: even (u) saying to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built; and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid.

(t) Is. lxiii. 11. Then he remembered the days of old, Moses and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of his flock? where is he that put his holy Spirit within him?

(u) 2 Chr. xxxvi. 22. Now, in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, (that the word of the Lord spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished,) the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

23. Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth hath the Lord God of heaven given me, and he hath charged me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Who is there among you of all his people? the Lord his God be with him, and let him go up.

CHAPTER XLV.

THUS saith the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, (a) to open before him the two-leaved gates; and the gates shall not be shut:

(a) Nah. ii. 6. The gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be dissolved.

2 I will go before thee, and (b) make the crooked places straight: I will (c) break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron.

(b) Ec. i. 15. That which is crooked cannot be made straight; and that which is wanting cannot be numbered.

Is. xl. 4. Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain.

xlii. 16. And I will bring the blind by a way that they know not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them.

Luke iii. 5. Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth.

(c) Ps. cvii. 16. For he hath broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder.

3 And (d) I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I, the LORD, which call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel.

(d) Jer. li. 53. Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the Lord.

4 For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel mine elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, (e) though thou hast not known me.

(e) Acts xvii. 23. For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

Gal. iv. 8. Howbeit, then when ye knew not God, ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9. But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

Eph. ii. 12. That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world.

1 Thess. iv. 5. Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God.

5 I am the LORD, and there is none else, there is no God beside me: I girded thee, though thou hast not known me:

6 That (f) they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none beside me: I am the LORD, and there is none else.

(f) 1 Sam. xvii. 46. This day will the Lord deliver thee into my hand; and I will smite thee, and take thy head from thee; and I will give the carcasses of the hosts of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the wild beasts of the earth; that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel.

Ps. xlvi. 10. Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

Ixxxiii. 18. That men may know that thou, whose name alone is JEHOVAH, art the Most High over all the earth.

cii. 15. So the heathen shall fear the name of the Lord, and all the kings of the earth thy glory.

Ez. xxxviii. 23. Thus will I magnify myself, and sanctify myself; and I will be known in the eyes of many nations; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

xxxix. 21. And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid upon them.

Mal. i. 11. For from the rising of the sun, even unto the going down of the same, my name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the Lord of hosts.

7 I (g) form the light, and (h) create darkness: (i) I make peace, and create evil: I the LORD do all these things.

(g) Gen. i. 3. And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.

Ps. viii. 3. When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers; the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained.

Jer. xxxi. 35. Thus saith the Lord, which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; The Lord of hosts is his name.

2 Cor. iv. 6. For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

(h) Jer. xlii. 16. Give glory to the Lord your God, before he cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness.

Ez. xxxii. 8. All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord God.

Amos iv. 13. For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The Lord, the God of hosts, is his name.

(i) Job ii. 10. But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What! shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? In all this did not Job sin with his lips.

Ec. vii. 13. Consider the work of God: for who can make that straight which he hath made crooked?

Amos iii. 6. Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, and the Lord hath not done it?

8 (k) Drop down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness: (l) let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together: (m) I the LORD have created it.

(k) Ps. lxxii. 6. He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass; as showers that water the earth.

Ez. xxxiv. 26. And I will make them, and the places round about my hill, a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season: there shall be showers of blessing.

Hos. x. 12. Sow to yourselves in righteousness: reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground, for it is time to seek the Lord, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

(l) Is. liii. 2. For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground; he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

Ixi. 11. For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

(m) Jer. xxxi. 22. How long wilt thou go about, O thou backsliding daughter? for the Lord hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman shall compass a man.

Eph. iv. 24. And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.

9 ¶ Wo (n) unto him who striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth. (o) Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands?

(n) Ez. ix. 16. And in very deed for this cause have I raised thee up, for to show in thee my power; and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth.

17. As yet exaltest thou thyself against my people, that thou wilt not let them go.

Job xl. 8. Wilt thou also disannul my judgment? wilt thou condemn me, that thou mayest be righteous?

9. Hast thou an arm like God? or canst thou thunder with a voice like him?

Prov. xxi. 30. There is no wisdom, nor understanding, nor counsel against the Lord.

Jer. l. 24. I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, and thou wast not aware: thou art found and also caught, because thou hast striven against the Lord.

1 Cor. x. 22. Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he?

(o) Jer. xviii. 6. O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the Lord. Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in my hand, O house of Israel.

Rom. ix. 20. Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21. Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour.

10 Wo unto him that (p) saith unto his father, What begetteth thou? or to the woman, What hast thou brought forth?

(p) Deut. xxvii. 16. Cursed be he that setteth light by his father or his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen.

Mal. i. 6. A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the Lord of hosts unto you, O priests that despise my name. And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name?

Heb. xii. 9. Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh, which corrected us; and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

11 Thus saith the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask me of things to come (q) concerning my sons; and (r) concerning the work of my hands (s) command ye me.

(q) Jer. iii. 19. But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? And I said, Thou shalt call me, My father; and shalt not turn away from me.

Hos. i. 10. Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered: and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God.

2 Cor. vi. 18. And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

(r) Eph. ii. 10. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

(s) Josh. x. 12. Then spake Joshua to the Lord in the day when the Lord delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon.

Hos. xii. 4. Yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed; he wept and made supplication unto him: he found him in Beth-el, and there he spake with us.

12 I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even (t) my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and (u) all their host have I commanded.

(t) Jer. xxxii. 17. Ah, Lord God! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched-out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee.

Zech. xii. 1. The burden of the word of the Lord for Israel, saith the Lord, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him.

(u) Gen. ii. 1. Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them.

Neh. ix. 6. Thou, even thou, art Lord alone: thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee.

13 I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will direct all his ways: (x) he shall build my city; and he shall let (y) go my captives, not for price nor reward, saith the LORD of hosts.

(x) 2 Chr. xxxvi. 22. Now, in the first year of Cyrus, king of Persia, (that the word of the Lord spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished,) the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

23. Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth hath the Lord God of heaven given me, and he hath charged me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Who is there among you of all his people? the Lord his God be with him, and let him go up.

(y) Is. lii. 2. Shake thyself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem: loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

3. For thus saith the Lord, Ye have sold yourselves for nought; and ye shall be redeemed without money.

14 Thus saith the LORD, The labour of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia, and of the Sabeans, (z) men of stature, shall come over unto thee, and they shall be thine: they shall come after thee; (a) in chains they shall come over, and (b) they shall fall down unto thee; they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, (c) Surely God is in thee; and there is none else, there is no god.

(z) Num. xiii. 32. And they brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched unto the children of Israel, saying, The land, through which we have gone to search it, is a land that eateth up the inhabitants thereof; and all the people that we saw in it, are men of a great stature.

Ez. xxxi. 3. Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with fair branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of a high stature; and with his top was among the thick boughs.

(a) Is. xlix. 23. And kings shall be thy nursing-fathers, and their queens thy nursing-mothers: they shall bow down to thee with their face toward the earth, and lick up the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am the Lord: for they shall not be ashamed that wait for me.

(b) Ez. xi. 8. And all these thy servants shall come down unto me, and bow down themselves unto me, saying, Get thee out, and all the people that follow thee: and after that I will go out. And he went out from Pharaoh in a great anger.

Esth. viii. 17. And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day. And many of the people of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews fell upon them.

(c) Zech. viii. 20. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come people and the inhabitants of many cities:

21. And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily to pray before the Lord, and to seek the Lord of hosts; I will go also.

22. Yea, many people and strong nations shall come to seek the Lord of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before the Lord.

23. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, In those days it shall come to pass, that two men shall take hold out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you; for we have heard that God is with you.

15 Verily thou art (d) a God that hidest thyself, O God of Israel, the Saviour.

(d) Ps. xlv. 24. Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and forgettest our affliction and our oppression?

Ixxvii. 19. Thy way is in the sea, and thy path in the great waters, and thy footsteps are not known.

John xiii. 7. Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.

Rom. xi. 33. O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

34. For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?

16 They shall be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them: they shall go to confusion together that are makers of idols.

17 But (e) Israel shall be saved in the LORD with (f) an everlasting salvation: (g) ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end.

(e) Hos. i. 7. But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the Lord their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

Rom. viii. 1. There is, therefore, now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the spirit.

Phil. iii. 8. Yea, doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,

9. And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith.

1 John iv. 15. Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

(f) Ps. ciii. 17. But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children.

Jer. xxxi. 3. The Lord hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love; therefore with loving-kindness have I drawn thee.

John v. 24. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.

(g) Ps. xxv. 3. Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed which transgress without cause.

Zeph. iii. 11. In that day shalt thou not be ashamed for all thy doings, wherein thou hast transgressed against me: for then I will take away out of the midst of thee them that rejoice in thy pride; and thou shalt no more be haughty because of my holy mountain.

Rom. x. 11. For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

1 Pet. ii. 6. Wherefore it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Zion a chief cornerstone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

18 For thus saith the LORD that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, (h) he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited: I am the LORD; and there is none else.

(h) Gen. i. 28. And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

ix. 1. And God blessed Noah and his sons, and said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth.

Ps. cxv. 16. The heaven, even the heavens, are the Lord's: but the earth hath he given to the children of men.

19 I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth: I said not unto the seed of Jacob, (i) Seek ye me in vain: I the LORD (k) speak righteousness, I declare things that are right.

(i) 1 Chr. xxviii. 8. Now, therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the congregation of the Lord, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the Lord your God: that ye may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever.

2 Chr. xv. 2. And he went out to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: The Lord is with you while ye be with him: and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.

Ps. xxiv. 6. This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face, O Jacob. Selah.

Jer. xxix. 13. And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart.

Amos v. 4. For thus saith the Lord unto the house of Israel, Seek ye me, and ye shall live.

(k) Ps. xii. 6. The words of the Lord are pure words; as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

Prov. viii. 6. Hear; for I will speak of excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things.

xxx. 5. Every word of God is pure; he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

20 ¶ Assemble yourselves, and come; draw near together, ye that are (l) escaped of the nations: (m) they have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven image, and pray unto a god that cannot save.

(l) Jer. i. 28. The voice of them that flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of his temple.

(m) Ps. cxv. 8. They that make them are like unto them; so is every one that trusteth in them.

Jer. ii. 27. Saying to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast brought me forth: for they have turned their back unto me, and not their face: but in the time of trouble they will say, Arise, and save us.

28. But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah?

21 Tell ye, and bring them near; yea, let them take counsel together: who hath declared this from ancient times? who hath told it from that time? have not I the LORD? and there is no God else beside me; (n) a just God, and a Saviour; there is none beside me.

(n) Jer. xxiii. 5. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a king shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.

6. In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely; and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

Zeph. iii. 5. The just Lord is in the midst thereof; he will not do iniquity: every morning doth he bring his judgment to light, he faileth not; but the unjust knoweth no shame.

Zech. ix. 9. Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee; he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

Tit. ii. 13. Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God, and our Saviour Jesus Christ;

14. Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

22 (o) Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth; (p) for I am God, and there is none else.

(o) Num. xxi. 8. And the Lord said unto Moses, Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it upon a pole: and it shall come to pass, that every one that is bitten, when he looketh upon it, shall live.

9. And Moses made a serpent of brass, and put it upon a pole: and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he beheld the serpent of brass, he lived.

Mic. vii. 7. Therefore I will look unto the Lord; I will wait for the God of my salvation; my God will hear me.

(p) 2 Pet. i. 1. Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us, through the righteousness of God, and our Saviour Jesus Christ.

23 I have (q) sworn by myself, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, (r) That unto me every knee shall bow, (s) every tongue shall swear.

(q) Jer. xxii. 5. But if ye will not hear these words, I swear by myself, saith the Lord, that this house shall become a desolation.

xlix. 13. For I have sworn by myself, saith the Lord, that Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes.

(r) Rom. xiv. 11. For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

Phil. ii. 10. That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth.

(s) Deut. vi. 13. Thou shalt fear the Lord thy God, and serve him, and shalt swear by his name.

Neh. x. 29. They clave to their brethren, their nobles, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in God's law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the Lord our Lord, and his judgments, and his statutes.

24 Surely, shall one say, (t) In the LORD have I righteousness and (u) strength: (x) even to him shall men come; and all that are incensed against him shall be ashamed.

(t) 1 Cor. i. 30. But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption.

2 Cor. v. 21. For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

(u) 2 Cor. xii. 9. And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

Eph. iii. 16. That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his spirit in the inner man.

Phil. iv. 13. I can do all things through Christ, which strengtheneth me.

(x) Gen. xlix. 10. The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be.

Matt. xi. 28. Come unto me, all ye that labour, and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

John vii. 37. In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

25 In (y) the LORD shall all (z) the seed of Israel be justified, and shall (a) glory.

(y) Acts xiii. 39. And by him, all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

Rom. iii. 24. Being justified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Jesus Christ.

1 Cor. vi. 11. And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

(z) Ps. xxii. 23. Ye that fear the Lord, praise him: all ye the seed of Jacob, glorify him; and fear him, all ye the seed of Israel.

Rom. iv. 16. Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all.

(a) Ps. lxxv. 10. The righteous shall be glad in the Lord, and shall trust in him; and all the upright in heart shall glory.

1 Cor. i. 31. That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

Gal. vi. 14. But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

Phil. iii. 3. For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the Spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

CHAPTER XLVI.

BEL (a) boweth down, Nebo stoopeth; their idols were upon the beasts, and upon the cattle; your carriages were heavy laden; they are a burden to the weary beast.

(a) Ex. xii. 12. For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the Lord.

1 Sam. v. 3. And when they of Ashdod rose early on the morrow, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the earth before the ark of the Lord. And they took Dagon, and set him in his place again.

4. And when they arose early on the morrow morning, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the ground before the ark of the Lord; and the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands were cut off upon the threshold; only the stump of Dagon was left to him.

Jer. i. 2. Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

2 They stoop, they bow down together; they could not deliver the burden, (b) but themselves are gone into captivity.

(b) Judg. xviii. 17. And the five men that went to spy out the land went up and came in thither, and took the graven image, and the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image: and the priest stood in the entering of the gate with the six hundred men that were appointed with weapons of war.

18. And these went into Micah's house, and fetched the carved image, the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image. Then said the priest unto them, What do ye?

2 Sam. v. 21. And there they left their images; and David and his men burned them.

3 ¶ Harken unto me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, which are (c) borne by me from the belly, which are carried from the womb:

(c) Ex. xix. 4. Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I bare you on eagles' wings, and brought you unto myself.

Deut. i. 31. And in the wilderness, where thou hast seen how that the Lord thy God bare thee, as a man doth bare his son, in all the way that ye went, until ye came unto this place.

xxxii. 11. As an eagle stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young, spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings; 12. So the Lord alone did lead him, and there was no strange god with him.

Ps. xxii. 9. But thou art he that took me out of the womb; thou didst make me hope when I was upon my mother's breast.

10. I was cast upon thee from the womb; thou art my God from my mother's belly.

4 And (d) even to your old age I am he; and (e) even to hoar hairs will I carry you: I have made, and I will bear; even I will carry, and will deliver you.

(d) Ps. cii. 26. They shall perish, but thou shalt endure; yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed.

27. But thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end.

Heb. i. 12. And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

xiii. 8. Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, and to-day, and for ever.

(e) Ps. xlviii. 14. For this God is our God for ever and ever; he will be our guide even unto death.

lxxi. 18. Now also, when I am old and gray-headed, O God, forsake me not, until I have showed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to every one that is to come.

5 ¶ To (f) whom will ye liken me, and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be like?

(f) Ex. xv. 11. Who is like unto thee, O Lord, amongst the gods? who is like thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?

Ps. lxxxvi. 8. Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord; neither are there any works like unto thy works.

cxiii. 5. Who is like unto the Lord our God, who dwelleth on high?

Phil. ii. 6. Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God.

Heb. i. 3. Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high.

6 They (g) lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, and hire a goldsmith; and he maketh it a god: they fall down, yea, they worship.

(g) Judg. xvii. 3. And when he had restored the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother, his mother said, I had wholly dedicated the silver unto the Lord, from my hand, for my son, to make a graven image and a molten image; now, therefore, I will restore it unto thee.

4. Yet he restored the money unto his mother, and his mother took two hundred shekels of silver, and gave them to the founder, who made thereof a graven image and a molten image: and they were in the house of Micah.

1 Kings xii. 28. Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

Jer. x. 4. They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not.

7 They bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in his place, and he standeth: from his place shall he not remove: yea, (h) one shall cry unto him, yet can he not answer, nor save him out of his trouble.

(h) Judg. x. 12. The Zidonians also, and the Amalekites, and the Maonites, did oppress you; and ye cried to me, and I delivered you out of their hand.

13. Yet ye have forsaken me, and served other gods: wherefore I will deliver you no more.

14. Go and cry unto the gods which ye have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your tribulation.

Jer. ii. 28. But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah.

8 (i) Remember this, and show yourselves men: (k) bring it again to mind, O ye transgressors.

(i) Deut. xxxii. 29. Oh that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end.

Ps. cxv. 8. They that make them are like unto them; so is every one that trusteth in them.

Jer. x. 8. But they are altogether brutish and foolish; the stock is a doctrine of vanities.

1 Cor. xiv. 20. Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit, in malice be ye children; but in understanding be men.

(k) Ez. xviii. 28. Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

Hag. i. 5. Now, therefore, thus saith the Lord of hosts, Consider your ways.

9 Remember the (l) former things of old: for (m) I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me, (l) Deut. xxxii. 7. Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations: ask thy father, and he will show thee; thy elders, and they will tell thee.

Jer. xxiii. 7. Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that they shall no more say, The Lord liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

8. But the Lord liveth, which brought up, and which led, the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all countries whither

I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land.

(m) Deut. xxxiii. 26. There is none like unto the God of Jeshurun, who rideth upon the heaven in thy help, and in his excellency on the sky.

10 Declaring (n) the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, (o) My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure:

(n) Gen. iii. 15. And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed: it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

xii. 2. And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing.

3. And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee; and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

Acts xv. 18. Known unto God are all his works, from the beginning of the world.

(o) Prov. xix. 21. There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless, the counsel of the Lord, that shall stand.

xxi. 30. There is no wisdom, nor understanding, nor counsel, against the Lord.

Dan. iv. 35. And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing; and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou?

11 Calling (p) a ravenous bird from the east, (q) the man that executeth my counsel from a far country: yea, (r) I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it.

(p) Ez. xxxix. 4. Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field, to be devoured.

(q) Ezra i. 2. Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The Lord God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth: and he hath charged me to build him an house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

Ps. lxxvi. 10. Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee; the remainder of wrath shalt thou restrain.

Acts iv. 28. For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done.

(r) Job xxiii. 13. But he is in one mind, and who can turn him? and what his soul desireth, even that he doeth.

Acts v. 39. But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it: lest haply ye be found even to fight against God.

Eph. i. 11. In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will.

12 Harken unto me, (s) ye stout-hearted, that (t) are far from righteousness.

(s) Ps. lxxvi. 5. The stout-hearted are spoiled, they have slept their sleep; and none of the men of might have found their hands.

Acts vii. 51. Ye stiff-necked, and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye.

(t) Jer. ii. 5. Thus saith the Lord, What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain?

Eph. ii. 13. But now in Christ Jesus, ye who sometimes were far off, are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

13 I bring near my righteousness; it shall not be far off, and my salvation (u) shall not tarry: and I will place salvation in Zion for (x) Israel my glory.

(u) Hab. ii. 3. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

Heb. x. 37. For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

(x) Hag. i. 8. Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house, and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the Lord.

John xvii. 10. And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.

Eph. i. 6. To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the Beloved.

2 Thess. i. 10. When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

CHAPTER XLVII.

COME (a) down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for (b) thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate.

(a) Jer. xiii. 18. Say unto the king and to the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down; for your principalities shall come down, even the crown of your glory.

xlvi. 18. Thou daughter that dost inhabit Didon, come down from thy glory, and sit in thirst; for the spoiler of Moab shall come upon thee, and he shall destroy thy strong holds.

Ez. xxvii. 16. Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay away their robes, and put off their brodered garments: they shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit upon the ground, and shall tremble at every moment, and be astonished at thee.

Ob. 3. The pride of thy heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

4. Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the Lord.

(b) Deut. xxviii. 56. The tender and delicate woman among you, which would not adventure to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter,

57. And toward her young one that cometh out from between her feet, and toward her children which she shall bear: for she shall eat them for want of all things secretly in the siege and straitness, wherewith thine enemy shall distress thee in thy gates.

Lam. iv. 5. They that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets; they that were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills.

Rev. xviii. 7. How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

2 Take (c) the mill-stones, and grind meal: uncover thy locks, (d) make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers.

(c) Judg. xvi. 21. But the Philistines took him, and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters of brass; and he did grind in the prison house.

Job xxxi. 10. Then let my wife grind unto another, and let others bow down upon her.

Lam. v. 13. They took the young men to grind, and the children fell under the wood.

Luke xvii. 35. Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

(d) Hos. ii. 3. Lest I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst.

Mic. i. 11. Pass ye away, thou inhabitant of Saphir, having thy shame naked; the inhabitant of Zaanan came not forth in the mourning of Beth-ezel; he shall receive of you his standing.

3 Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen: (e) I will take vengeance, and I will not meet thee as a man.

(e) Deut. xxxii. 35. To me belongeth vengeance and recompense; their foot shall slide in due time: for the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that shall come upon them make haste.

Ps. xciv. 1. O Lord God, to whom vengeance belongeth, O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, show thyself.

2. Lift up thyself, thou Judge of the earth: render a reward to the proud.

Rom. xii. 19. Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves; but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

Heb. x. 30. For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people.

31. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

4 As for our Redeemer, the LORD of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel.

5 Sit thou (f) silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: (g) for thou shalt no more be called, The lady of kingdoms.

(f) Ps. xxxi. 17. Let me not be ashamed, O Lord; for I have called upon thee: let the wicked be ashamed, and let them be silent in the grave.

Jer. xxv. 10. Moreover, I will take from them the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride; the sound of the millstones, and the light of the candle.

Hab. ii. 20. But the Lord is in his holy temple; let all the earth keep silence before him.

Zech. ii. 13. Be silent, O all flesh, before the Lord: for he is raised up out of his holy habitation.

(g) Dan. ii. 37. Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

38. And whosoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field, and the fowls of the heaven, hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold.

Rev. xvii. 18. And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

6 I was wroth with my people, I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: (h) thou didst show them no mercy; upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.

(h) Is. xiv. 17. That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; that opened not the house of his prisoners.

Matt. vii. 2. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

James ii. 13. For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath showed no mercy, and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

7 And (i) thou saidst, I shall be a lady for ever: (k) so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end of it.

(i) Ez. xxix. 3. Speak and say, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself.

Dan. iv. 29. At the end of twelve months he walked in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon.

30. The king spake and said, Is not this great Babylon that I have built for the house of the kingdom, by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?

(k) Deut. xxxii. 29. Oh that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end.

Jer. v. 31. The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

8 Therefore hear now this, thou that art (l) given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thine heart, (m) I am, and none else beside me; (n) I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children:

(l) Judg. xviii. 7. Then the five men departed, and came to Laish, and saw the people that were therein, how they dwelt careless, after the manner of the Zidonians, quiet and secure; and there was no magistrate in the land, that they might put them to shame in any thing: and they were far from the Zidonians, and had no business with any man.

Zeph. ii. 15. This is the rejoicing city that dwelt carelessly: that said in her heart, I am, and there is none beside me: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in!

every one that passeth by her shall hiss, and wag his hand.

(m) Jer. li. 53. Though Babylon shall mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the Lord.

Dan. iv. 22. It is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth.

(n) Ps. x. 5. His ways are always grievous; thy judgments are far above out of his sight: as for all his enemies, he puffeth at them.

6. He hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: for I shall never be in adversity.

Rev. xviii. 7. How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

9 But these two things shall come to thee (o) in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection, (p) for the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

(o) Ps. lxxiii. 19. How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors.

1 Thess. v. 3. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

(p) Dan. ii. 2. Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to show the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

Nah. iii. 4. Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the well-favoured harlot, the mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts.

Rev. ix. 20. And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues, yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood; which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

21. Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

10 For thou hast trusted in thy wickedness: thou hast said, None seeth me. (q) Thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath perverted thee; and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me.

(q) Ez. xxviii. 2. Behold, thou art wiser than Daniel: there is no secret that they can hide from thee:

4. With thy wisdom and with thine understanding thou hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures.

5. By thy great wisdom and by thy traffic hast thou increased thy riches, and thine heart is lifted up because of thy riches.

Rom. i. 22. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools.

1 Cor. iii. 19. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God: for it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

11 Therefore shall evil come upon thee; (r) thou shalt not know from whence it riseth: and mischief shall fall upon thee; (s) thou shalt not be able to put it off: and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know.

(r) Ex. xii. 29. And it came to pass, that, at midnight, the Lord smote all the first-born in the land of Egypt, from the first-born of Pharaoh that sat on his throne, unto the first-born of the captive that was in the dungeon; and all the first-born of cattle.

30. And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt; for there was not an house where there was not one dead.

Neh. iv. 11. And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.

Rev. iii. 3. Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard; and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

(s) 1 Thess. v. 3. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

Rev. xviii. 9. And the kings of the earth who have committed fornication, and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning.

12 Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail.

13 Thou (t) art wearied in the multitude of thy counsellors. (u) Let now the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee.

(t) Ez. xxiv. 12. She hath wearied herself with lies, and her great scum went not forth out of her: her scum shall be in the fire.

Hab. ii. 13. Behold, is it not of the Lord of hosts that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity?

(u) Dan. v. 7. The king cried aloud to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. And the king spake, and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and show me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

8. Then came in all the king's wise men: but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

14 Behold, (x) they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: (y) there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it.

(x) Ex. xv. 7. And in the greatness of thine excellency thou hast overthrown them that rose up against thee: thou sentest forth thy wrath, which consumed them as stubble.

Joel ii. 5. Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.

Ob. 18. And the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they shall kindle in them, and devour them; and there shall not be any remaining of the house of Esau: for the Lord hath spoken it.

Nah. i. 10. For while they be folden together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

(y) Is. xxx. 14. And he shall break it as the breaking of the potter's vessel that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare: so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd, to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit.

15 Thus shall they be unto thee with whom thou hast laboured, even thy merchants from thy youth: (z) they shall wander every one to his quarter; none shall save thee.

(z) Rev. xviii. 15. The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16. And saying, Alas, alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

17. For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every ship-master, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

HEAR ye this, O house of Jacob, (a) which are called by the name of Israel, and (b) are come forth out of the waters of Judah; (c) which swear by the name of the LORD, and make mention of the God of Israel, but (d) not in truth, nor in righteousness.

(a) Gen. xxxii. 28. And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed.

2 Kings xvii. 34. Unto this day they do after the former manners: they fear not the Lord, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandment which the Lord commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel.

John i. 47. Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile.

Rev. ii. 9. I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich,) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

(b) Ps. lxxviii. 26. Bless ye God in the congregations, even the Lord from the fountain of Israel.

Prov. v. 16. Let thy fountains be dispersed abroad, and rivers of waters in the streets.

(c) Deut. vi. 13. Thou shalt fear the Lord thy God, and serve him, and shalt swear by his name.

x. 20. Thou shalt fear the Lord thy God; him shalt thou serve, and to him shalt thou cleave, and swear by his name.

Zeph. i. 5. And them that worship the host of heaven upon the house-tops; and them that worship and that swear by the Lord, and that swear by Malcham.

(d) Lev. xix. 12. And ye shall not swear by my name falsely, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I am the Lord.

Jer. iv. 2. And thou shalt swear, The Lord liveth, in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; and the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory.

Mal. iii. 5. And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the Lord of hosts.

1 Tim. iv. 2. Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron.

2 For (e) they call themselves of the holy city, and (f) stay themselves upon the God of Israel; The LORD of hosts is his name.

(e) Neh. xi. 1. And the rulers of the people dwell at Jerusalem: the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine parts to dwell in other cities.

Ps. xlvi. 1. Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness.

Mat. iv. 5. Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple.

(f) Judg. xvii. 13. Then said Micah, Now know I that the Lord will do me good, seeing I have a Levite to my priest.

Mic. iii. 11. The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the Lord, and say, Is not the Lord among us? none evil can come upon us.

John viii. 40. But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41. Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God.

3 I have declared the former things from the beginning; and they went forth out of my mouth, and I showed them: I did them suddenly, and they came to pass.

4 Because (g) I knew that thou art obstinate, (h) and thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass;

(g) Ps. lxxviii. 8. And might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation; a generation that set not their hearts aright, and was not steadfast with God.

Zech. vii. 11. But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

12. Yea, they made their heart as an adamant-stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the Lord of hosts hath sent in his Spirit by the former prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the Lord of hosts.

(h) Ex. xxxii. 9. And the Lord said unto Moses, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiff-necked people.

xxxiii. 3. Unto a land flowing with milk and honey: for I will not go up in the midst of thee; for thou art a stiff-necked people; lest I consume thee in the way.

Deut. x. 16. Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiff-necked.

Neh. ix. 16. But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments,

17. And refused to obey, neither were mindful of the wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not.

5 I have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass I showed it thee: lest thou shouldst say, Mine idol hath done them, and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them.

6 Thou (i) hast heard, see all this; (k) and will not ye declare it? I have showed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, and thou didst not know them.

(i) Jer. ii. 31. O generation, see ye the word of the Lord: Have I been a wilderness unto Israel? a land of darkness? Wherefore say my people, We are lords; we will come no more unto thee?

Mic. vi. 9. The Lord's voice crieth unto the city, and the man of wisdom shall see thy name: hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it.

(k) Ps. xl. 9. I have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have not refrained my lips, O Lord, thou knowest.

Jer. i. 2. Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

Matt. x. 27. What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the house-tops.

Acts i. 8. But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses to me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost parts of the earth.

7 They are created now, and not from the beginning: even before the day when thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldst say, Behold, I knew them.

8 Yea, (l) thou heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened:

for (m) I knew that thou wouldst deal very treacherously, and wast called (n) a transgressor from the womb.

(l) Is. xlii. 19. Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as the Lord's servant?

20. Seeing many things, but thou observest not; opening the ears, but he heareth not.

Jer. v. 21. Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding; which have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not.

(m) Jer. iii. 20. Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the Lord.

Hos. v. 7. They have dealt treacherously against the Lord; for they have begotten strange children: now shall a month devour them with their portions.

Mal. ii. 11. Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel, and in Jerusalem: for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the Lord which he loved, and hath married the daughter of a strange god.

(n) Deut. ix. 7. Remember, and forget not, how thou provokedst the Lord thy God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came unto this place, ye have been rebellious against the Lord.

Ps. li. 5. Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

lviii. 3. The wicked are estranged from the womb; they go astray as soon as they be born, speaking lies.

Eph. ii. 3. Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

9 ¶ For (o) my name's sake will I (p) defer mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off.

(o) Josh. vii. 9. For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land shall hear of it, and shall environ us around, and cut off our name from the earth: and what wilt thou do unto thy great name?

1 Sam. xii. 22. For the Lord will not forsake his people for his great name's sake; because it hath pleased the Lord to make you his people.

Jer. xiv. 7. O Lord, though our iniquities testify against us, do thou it for thy name's sake: for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against thee.

Ez. xx. 9. But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

(p) Neh. ix. 30. Yet many years didst thou forbear them, and testifiedst against them by thy spirit in thy prophets; yet would they not give ear: therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands.

31. Nevertheless, for thy great mercies' sake, thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God.

Prov. xix. 11. The discretion of a man deferreth his anger; and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.

10 Behold, (q) I have refined thee, but not with silver: (r) I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction.

(q) Job xxxiii. 10. But he knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold.

Prov. xvii. 3. The fining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold: but the Lord trieth the hearts.

Jer. ix. 7. Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, Behold, I will melt them, and try them; for how shall I do for the daughter of my people?

Zech. xiii. 8. And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the Lord, two parts therein shall be cut off, and die; but the third shall be left therein.

9. And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them; I will say, It is my people; and they shall say, The Lord is my God.

Mal. iii. 2. But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fuller's soap:

3. And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness.

Heb. xii. 10. For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.

11. Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless, afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

1 Pet. i. 7. That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise, and honour, and glory, at the appearing of Jesus Christ.

iv. 12. Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you.

Rev. iii. 19. As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous, therefore, and repent.

(r) Deut. iv. 20. But the Lord hath taken you, and brought you forth out of the iron furnace, even out of Egypt, to be unto him a people of inheritance, as ye are this day.

11 For mine own sake, even for mine own sake, will I do it: (s) for how should my name be polluted? and (t) I will not give my glory unto another.

(s) Num. xiv. 15. Now, if thou shalt kill all this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of thee will speak, saying,

16. Because the Lord was not able to bring this people into the land which he swore unto them, therefore he hath slain them in the wilderness.

Ez. xx. 9. But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

39. As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord God, Go ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: but pollute ye my holy name no more with your gifts, and with your idols.

(t) Is. xlii. 8. I am the Lord; that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images.

12 ¶ (u) Hearken unto me, O Jacob and Israel, (x) my called; (y) I am he; I am the first, I also am the last.

(u) Prov. vii. 24. Hearken unto me now, therefore, O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth.

viii. 32. Now, therefore, hearken unto me, O ye children: for blessed are they that keep my ways.

Is. li. 4. Hearken unto me, my people, and give ear unto me, O my nation: for a law shall proceed from me, and I will make my judgment to rest for a light of the people.

(x) 1 Pet. ii. 9. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

(y) Is. xli. 4. Who hath wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I the Lord, the first, and with the last; I am he.

xliv. 6. Thus saith the Lord the King of Israel, and his Redeemer the Lord of hosts, I am the first, and I am the last; and beside me there is no God.

Rev. i. 8. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

13 Mine (z) hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, (a) and my right hand hath spanned the heavens: (b) when I call unto them, they stand up together.

(z) Ex. xx. 11. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

Ps. cii. 25. Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

Is. xliii. 5. Thus saith God the Lord, he that created the heavens, and stretched them out: he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein.

xlv. 18. For thus saith the Lord that created the heavens, God himself that formed the earth and made it, he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited; I am the Lord, and there is none else.

Heb. i. 10. And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thy hands:

11. They shall perish, but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

12. And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

(a) Is. xl. 12. Who hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance.

(b) Ps. cxlvii. 4. He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names.

Is. xl. 26. Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host by number: he calleth them all by names, by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power; not one faileth.

14 All ye, assemble yourselves, and hear: which among them hath declared these things? The Lord hath loved him: he will do his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans.

15 I, even I, have spoken; yea, I have called him: I have brought him, and he shall (c) make his way prosperous.

(c) Josh. i. 8. This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success.

Ps. xlv. 4. And in thy majesty ride prosperously, because of truth, and meekness, and righteousness; and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

16 ¶ Come ye near unto me, hear ye this; I have not spoken in secret from the beginning: from the time that it was, there am I: and now (d) the Lord God, and his Spirit, hath sent me.

(d) Is. lxi. 1. The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek: he hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound.

John iii. 34. For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him.

xx. 21. Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.

22. And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and said unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost.

17 Thus saith the LORD, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel, I am the LORD thy God (e) which teacheth thee to profit, (f) which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go.

(e) 1 Kings viii. 36. Then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, that thou teach them the good way wherein they should walk, and give rain upon thy land, which thou hast given to thy people for an inheritance.

xxxvi. 22. Behold, God exalteth by his power: who teacheth like him?

Jer. xxxi. 33. But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

34. And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the Lord: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

John vi. 45. It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

Eph. iv. 21. If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus.

(f) Ps. xxxii. 8. I will instruct thee, and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye.

Jer. vi. 16. Thus saith the Lord, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein.

18 Oh (g) that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! (h) then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea;

(g) Deut. v. 29. Oh that there were such an heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep my commandments always, that it might be well with them, and with their children for ever!

Matt. xxiii. 37. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!

(h) Ps. xxxvi. 8. They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.

Amos v. 24. But let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.

19 Thy (i) seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of thy bowels like the gravel thereof; (k) his name should not have been cut off nor destroyed before me.

(i) Gen. xiii. 16. And I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed also be remembered.

Jer. xxxiii. 22. As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured; so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto him.

Hos. i. 10. Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered: and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God.

Rom. ix. 27. Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved.

(k) Josh. vii. 9. For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land shall hear of it, and shall environ us around, and cut off our name from the earth: and what wilt thou do unto thy great name?

Ruth iv. 10. Moreover, Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye are witnesses this day.

Zeph. i. 4. I will also stretch out my hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the Chemarims with the priests.

20 ¶ Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth; say ye, The LORD hath redeemed his servant Jacob.

21 And (l) they thirsted not when he led them through the deserts: (m) he caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them: he clave the rock also, and the waters gushed out.

(l) Is. xli. 17. When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue faileth for thirst, I the Lord will hear them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them.

18. I will open rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys: I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.

Jer. xxxi. 9. They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble; for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born.

(m) Ex. xvii. 6. Behold, I will stand before thee there upon the rock in Horeb: and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.

Num. xx. 11. And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his rod he smote the rock twice: and the water came out abundantly: and the congregation drank, and their beasts also.

Neh. ix. 15. And gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should go in to possess the land which thou hadst sworn to give them.

Ps. lxxviii. 15. He clave the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths.

20. Behold, he smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed; can he give bread also? can he provide flesh for his people?

cv. 41. He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out; they ran in the dry places like a river.

22 There is no peace, saith the LORD, unto the wicked.

CHAPTER XLIX.

LISTEN, O isles, unto me; (a) and hearken, ye people, from far: (b) The LORD hath called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name.

(a) Is. lvii. 19. I create the fruit of the lips; Peace, peace to him that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the Lord; and I will heal him.

Eph. ii. 17. And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.

Heb. xii. 25. See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escape not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven.

(b) Matt. i. 20. But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife; for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

21. And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus: for he shall save his people from their sins.

Luke i. 15. For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb.

Gal. i. 15. But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace.

1 Pet. i. 20. Who verily was fore-ordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you.

2 And (c) he hath made my mouth like a sharp sword; (d) in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and (e) made me a polished shaft; in his quiver hath he hid me;

(c) Hos. vi. 5. Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth.

Heb. iv. 12. For the word of God is quick and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

Rev. i. 16. And he had in his right hand seven stars; and out of his mouth went a sharp two-edged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

(d) Ps. xci. 1. He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High, shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

Luke xxiii. 46. And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit; and having said thus, he gave up the ghost.

(e) Ps. xlv. 5. Thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's enemies; whereby the people fall under thee.

Jer. xv. 19. Therefore thus saith the Lord, If thou return, then will I bring thee again, and thou shalt stand before me: and if thou take forth the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth: let them return unto thee; but return not thou unto them.

20. And I will make thee unto this people a fenced brazen wall; and they shall fight against thee, but they shall not prevail against thee: for I am with thee, to save thee, and to deliver thee, saith the Lord.

3 And said unto me, (f) Thou art my servant, O Israel, in whom I will be glorified.

(f) Zech. iii. 8. Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are men wondered at: for, behold, I will bring forth my servant, The Branch.

Matt. xvii. 5. While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and, behold, a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.

John xii. 28. Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

Eph. i. 6. To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the Beloved.

4 Then I said, (g) I have laboured in vain, I have spent my strength for nought, and in vain; (h) yet surely my judgment is with the LORD, and my work with my God.

(g) Matt. xvii. 17. Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation! how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? Bring him hither to me.

John i. 11. He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

Rom. x. 21. But to Israel he saith, All day long have I stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

Gal. iv. 11. I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

(h) Luke xxiv. 26. Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

Heb. xii. 2. Looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith; who, for the joy that was set before him, endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

5 And now saith the LORD that formed me from the womb to be his servant, (i) to bring Jacob again to him, Though (k) Israel be not gathered, (l) yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the LORD, and my God shall be my strength.

(i) Matt. xv. 24. But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

Rom. xv. 8. Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers.

(k) Matt. xxiii. 37. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!

1 Thess. ii. 15. Who both killed the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men;

16. Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles, that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway; for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

(l) Matt. iii. 17. And, lo, a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

John iii. 35. The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand.

1 Pet. iii. 22. Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels, and authorities, and powers, being made subject unto him.

6 And he said, It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant, to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: (m) I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, (n) that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth.

(m) Is. lx. 3. And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

Luke ii. 32. A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

Acts xiii. 47. For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldst be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

(n) Psa. xcvi. 2. The Lord hath made known his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly shown in the sight of the heathen.

3. He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Luke xxiv. 46. And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behooved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day;

47. And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name, among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

7 Thus saith the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, to him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth, (o) to a servant of rulers; (p) kings shall see and arise, princes also shall worship, because of the LORD that is faithful, and the Holy One of Israel, (q) and he shall choose thee.

(o) Matt. xx. 28. Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

Luke xxii. 27. For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth.

(p) Psa. lxxviii. 31. Princes shall come out of Egypt; Ethiopia shall soon stretch out her hands unto God.

Isa. lxxii. 10. The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents: the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

11. Yea, all kings shall fall down before him; all nations shall serve him.

Rev. xi. 15. And the seventh angel sounded: and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.

(q) Luke xxiii. 35. And the people stood beholding: and the rulers also with them, derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of God.

8 Thus saith the LORD, (r) In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee: and I will preserve thee, and (s) give thee for a covenant, to establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages;

(r) Psa. lxxix. 13. But as for me, my prayer is unto thee, O Lord, in an acceptable time: O God, in the multitude of thy mercy hear me: in the truth of thy salvation.

John xi. 41. Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42. And I know that thou hearest me always: but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

Heb. v. 7. Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications, with strong crying and tears, unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared.

(s) Heb. viii. 6. But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises.

xii. 24. And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.

9 That thou (t) mayest say to the prisoners, Go forth; (u) to them that are in darkness, Show yourselves: they shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in all (x) high places.

(t) Psa. lxxix. 33. For the Lord heareth the poor, and despiseth not his prisoners.

Zech. ix. 11. As for thee also, by the blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

12. Turn ye to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope: even to-day do I declare, that I will render double unto thee.

Col. i. 13. Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son.

(u) John viii. 12. Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

Acts xxvi. 18. To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God; that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified, by faith that is in me.

Eph. v. 8. For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light.

14. Wherefore he saith, Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

(x) Deut. xxxii. 13. He made him ride on the high places of the earth, that he might eat the increase of the fields; and he made him to suck honey out of the rock, and oil out of the flinty rock.

10 They (y) shall not hunger nor thirst; (z) neither shall the heat nor sun smite them; for (a) he that hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall he guide them.

(y) Matt. v. 6. Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

John vi. 35. And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

Rev. vii. 16. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more: neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat:

17. For the Lamb, which is in the midst of the throne, shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

(z) Psa. cxxi. 5. The Lord is thy keeper; the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.

6. The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.

(a) Jer. xxxi. 9. They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble; for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born.

Ez. xxxiv. 23. And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.

John x. 3. To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

4. And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

11 And (b) I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways shall be exalted.

(b) Is. xliii. 19. Behold, I will do a new thing: now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.

xii. 10. Go through, go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up a standard for the people.

Luke iii. 4. As it is written in the book of the words of Esaias the prophet, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

6. Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth.

12 Behold, (c) these shall come from far: and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim.

(c) Psa. xxii. 27. All the ends of the world shall remember, and turn unto the Lord; and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.

Isa. lxxii. 10. The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents: the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

11. Yea, all kings shall fall down before him; all nations shall serve him.

Mic. iv. 2. And many nations shall come and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

Zech. ii. 11. And many nations shall be joined to the Lord in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee; and thou shalt know that the Lord of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

Matt. viii. 11. And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven.

13 Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for (d) the LORD hath comforted his people, and will have mercy upon his afflicted.

(d) Jer. xxxi. 13. Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old together: for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow.

2 Cor. vii. 6. Nevertheless, God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus.

14 ¶ But Zion said, (e) The LORD hath forsaken me, and (f) my LORD hath forgotten me.

(e) Ps. xxii. 1. My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my roaring?

Rom. xi. 1. I say then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2. God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

3. Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life?

4. But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

5. Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

(f) Ps. xliii. 1. How long wilt thou forget me, O Lord? for ever? how long wilt thou hide thy face from me?

Jer. xxiii. 39. Therefore, behold, I, even I, will utterly forget you, and I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and cast you out of my presence.

Lam. v. 20. Wherefore dost thou forget us for ever, and forsake us so long time?

15 Can (g) a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, (h) they may forget, (i) yet will I not forget thee.

(g) 1 Kings iii. 26. Then spake the woman whose the living child was unto the king, (for her bowels yearned upon her son,) and she said, O my lord, give her the living child, and in no wise slay it. But the other said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it.

27. Then the king answered and said, Give her the living child, and in no wise slay it: she is the mother thereof.

Ps. ciii. 13. Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him.

Mal. iii. 17. And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

Matt. vii. 11. If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to him that ask him?

(h) Lev. xxvi. 29. And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat.

Deut. xxviii. 56. The tender and delicate woman among you, which would not adventure to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter,

57. And toward her young one that cometh out from between her feet, and toward her children which she shall bear: for she shall eat them for want of all things secretly in the siege and straitness, wherewith thine enemy shall distress thee in thy gates.

2 Kings vi. 28. And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, This woman said unto me, Give thy son, that we may eat him to-day, and we will eat my son to-morrow.

29. So we boiled my son, and did eat him: and I said unto her on the next day, Give thy son, that we may eat him; and she hath hid her son.

xi. 1. And when Athaliah, the mother of Ahaziah, saw that her son was dead, she arose, and destroyed all the seed royal.

2. But Jehosheba the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons which were slain; and they hid him, even him and his nurse, in the bed-chamber from Athaliah, so that he was not slain.

Lam. iv. 3. Even the sea-monsters draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones: the daughter of my people is become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.

10. The hands of the pitiful women have sodden their own children: they were their meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

(i) Rom. xi. 29. For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance.

16 Behold, (k) I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; (l) thy walls are continually before me.

(k) Cant. viii. 6. Set me as a seal upon thy heart, as a seal upon thine arm: for love is strong as death; jealousy is cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame.

Jer. xxii. 24. As I live, saith the Lord, though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, were the signet upon my right hand, yet would I pluck thee thence.

(l) Is. lx. 18. Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders: but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.

17 Thy (m) children shall make haste; thy destroyers and they that made thee waste, shall go forth of thee.

(m) Is. li. 18. There is none to guide her among all the sons whom she hath brought forth; neither is there any that taketh her by the hand, of all the sons that she hath brought up.

19. These things are come unto thee; who shall be sorry for thee? desolation, and destruction, and the famine, and the sword: by whom shall I comfort thee?

20. Thy sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets as a wild bull in a net: they are full of the fury of the Lord, the rebuke of thy God.

18 Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold: (n) all these gather themselves together, and come to thee. (o) As I live, saith the LORD, (p) thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all, as with an ornament, and bind them on thee, (q) as a bride doth.

(n) Jer. xxxi. 8. Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the coasts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall return hither.

Gal. iii. 28. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

(o) Gen. xxii. 16. And said, By myself have I sworn, saith the Lord; for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son.

Heb. vi. 13. For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he swore by himself,

14. Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

(p) Prov. xvii. 6. Children's children are the crown of old men; and the glory of children are their fathers.

(q) Jer. ii. 32. Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people have forgotten me days without number.

Rev. xxi. 2. And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

19 For (r) thy waste and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction, shall even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants; and (s) they that swallowed thee up shall be far away.

(r) Jer. xxx. 18. Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have mercy on his dwelling-places; and the city shall be builded upon her own heap, and the palace shall remain after the manner thereof.

Zech. ii. 4. And said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein.

x. 10. I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria; and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon, and place shall not be found for them.

(s) Ps. lvi. 1. Be merciful unto me, O God; for man would swallow me up: he fighting daily oppresseth me.

2. Mine enemies would daily swallow me up: for they be many that fight against me, O thou Most High.

Prov. i. 12. Let us swallow them up alive, as the grave; and whole, as those that go down into the pit.

Jer. xxx. 16. Therefore all they that devour thee shall be devoured; and all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity; and they that spoil thee shall be a spoil, and all that prey upon thee will I give for a prey.

Ez. xxxvi. 3. Therefore prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord God; Because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the heathen, and ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and are an infamy of the people.

20 The (t) children which thou shalt have, after thou hast lost the other, shall say again in thine ears, (u) The place is too strait for me: give place to me that I may dwell.

(t) Matt. iii. 9. And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

Gal. iv. 26. But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

27. For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren, that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not; for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

29. But as then, he that was born after the flesh, persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now.

(u) Josh. xvii. 14. And the children of Joseph spake unto Joshua, saying, Why hast thou given me but one lot and one portion to inherit, seeing I am a great people, forasmuch as the Lord hath blessed me hitherto?

15. And Joshua answered them, If thou be a great people, then get thee up to the wood country, and cut down for thyself there in the land of the Perizzites and the giants, if Mount Ephraim be too narrow for thee.

21 Then shalt thou say in thine heart, Who hath begotten me these, (x) seeing I have lost my children, and am (y) desolate, a captive, and removing to and fro? and who hath brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where had they been?

(z) Jer. xxxi. 15. Thus saith the Lord, A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping; Rachel weeping for her children, refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not.

16. Thus saith the Lord, Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work shall be rewarded, saith the Lord; and they shall come again from the land of the enemy.

17. And there is hope in thine end, saith the Lord, that thy children shall come again to their own border.

Gal. iv. 26. But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

27. For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren, that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not; for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

28. Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.

(y) Lam. i. 1. How doth the city sit solitary that was full of people! how is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and princess among the provinces, how is she become tributary!

2. She weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks; among all her lovers she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they are become her enemies.

3. Judah is gone into captivity, because of affliction, and because of great servitude; she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between the straits.

Luke xxi. 24. And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

22 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will lift up mine hand to the Gentiles, and set up my standard to the people: and they shall bring thy sons in their arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders.

23 And (z) kings shall be (a) thy nursing-fathers, and their queens thy nursing-mothers: they shall

(b) bow down to thee with their face toward the earth, and (c) lick up the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD: (d) for they shall not be ashamed that wait for me.

(z) Ezra i. 2. Thus saith Cyrus, king of Persia, The Lord God hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he hath charged me to build him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah:

3. Who is there among you of all his people? his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the Lord God of Israel (he is the God) which is in Jerusalem.

4. And whosoever remaineth in any place where he sojourneth, let the men of his place help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, besides the free-will offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

Ps. lxxii. 10. The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents: the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

11. Yea, all kings shall fall down before him; all nations shall serve him.

cxxxviii. 4. All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O Lord, when they hear the words of thy mouth.

(a) Num. xi. 12. Have I conceived all this people? have I begotten them: that thou shouldst say unto me, Carry them in thy bosom, as a nursing father beareth the sucking child, unto the land which thou swarest unto their fathers?

(b) Ps. lxii. 9. They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him; and his enemies shall lick the dust.

Rev. iii. 9. Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy face, and to know that I have loved thee.

(c) Mic. vii. 17. They shall lick the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes like worms of the earth: they shall be afraid of the Lord our God, and shall fear because of thee.

(d) Ps. xxv. 3. Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed which transgress without cause.

Rom. ix. 33. As it is written, Behold, I lay in Zion a stumbling-stone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

24 Shall the (e) prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captive delivered?

(e) Ps. cxxiv. 6. Blessed be the Lord, who hath not given us a prey to their teeth.

7. Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken, and we are escaped.

Matt. xii. 29. Or else, how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.

Luke xi. 21. When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace:

22. But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

25 But thus saith the LORD, (f) Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered:

for (g) I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children.

(f) Jer. xxix. 10. For thus saith the Lord, That after seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word towards you, in causing you to return to this place.

1 John iii. 8. He that committeth sin, is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning.

(g) Gen. xii. 3. And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee; and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

Rev. xviii. 20. Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her.

26 And (h) I will feed them that oppress thee with their own flesh; and they shall be (i) drunken with their own blood as with sweet wine: (k) and all flesh shall know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

(h) Is. ix. 20. And he shall snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied: they shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm.

(i) Rev. xiv. 20. And the wine-press was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the wine-press, even unto the horse-bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

xvi. 6. For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

xvii. 6. And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

(k) Ps. ix. 16. The Lord is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah.

lxxxiii. 18. That men may know that thou, whose name alone is Jehovah, art the Most High over all the earth.

Ez. xxxix. 7. So I will make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let them pollute my holy name any more; and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, the Holy One in Israel.

CHAPTER L.

THUS saith the LORD, Where is (a) the bill of your mother's divorcement, whom I have put away? (b) or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, (c) for your iniquities have ye sold yourselves, and for your transgressions is your mother put away.

(a) Jer. iii. 1. They say, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, shall he return unto her again? shall not that land be greatly polluted? but thou hast played the harlot with many lovers; yet return again to me, saith the Lord.

Hos. ii. 2. Plead with your mother, plead; for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her, therefore, put away her whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts;

3. Lest I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst.

(b) Ex. xxi. 7. And if a man sell his daughter to be a maid-servant, she shall not go out as the men-servants do.

2 Kings iv. 1. Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the Lord: and the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bondmen.

Neh. v. 5. Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and, lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already, neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards.

Matt. xviii. 25. But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

(c) Jer. iii. 8. And I saw, when for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery, I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also.

iv. 18. Thy way and thy doings have procured these things unto thee: this is thy wickedness, because it is bitter, because it reacheth unto thy heart.

2 Wherefore, (d) when I came, was there no man? when I called, was there none to answer? (e) Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? behold, (f) at my rebuke (g) I dry up the sea; I make the rivers a wilderness: (h) their fish stinketh, because there is no water, and dieth for thirst.

(d) Prov. i. 24. Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded.

Hos. xi. 7. And my people are bent to backsliding from me: though they called them to the Most High, none at all would exalt him.

John i. 11. He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

iii. 19. And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

(e) Gen. xviii. 14. Is any thing too hard for the Lord? At the time appointed I will return unto thee according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son.

Num. xi. 23. And the Lord said unto Moses, Is the Lord's hand waxed short? thou shalt see now whether my word shall come to pass unto thee or not.

Dan. iii. 15. Now, if ye be ready, that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psalter, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made, well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a fiery furnace: and who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?

29. Therefore I make a decree, That every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dung-hill; because there is no other god that can deliver after this sort.

(f) Nah. i. 4. He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: Babylon languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languisheth.

Mark iv. 39. And he arose, and rebuked the wind; and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

(g) Josh. iii. 16. That the waters which came down from above stood and rose up upon an heap very far from the city Adam, that is beside Zartan: and those that came down toward the sea of the plain, even the salt sea, failed, and were cut off: and the people passed over right against Jericho.

Ps. cvii. 33. He turneth rivers into a wilderness, and the water-springs into dry ground.

(h) Ex. vii. 18. And the fish that is in the river shall die, and the river shall stink; and the Egyptians shall loathe to drink of the waters of the river.

21. And the fish that was in the river died; and the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river: and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

3 I (i) clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering.

(i) Ex. x. 21. And the Lord said unto Moses, Stretch out thy hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even darkness which may be felt.

Ps. xviii. 11. He made darkness his secret place: his pavilion round about him were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

12. At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed; hail-stones and coals of fire.

Matt. xxvii. 45. Now from the sixth hour, there was darkness over all the land, until the ninth hour.

Rev. vi. 12. And I beheld, when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake, and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood.

4 The Lord (k) God hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak (l) a word in season to him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned.

(k) Ex. iv. 11. And the Lord said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb or deaf, or the seeing or the blind? have not I the Lord?

12. Now therefore go, and I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say.

Ps. xlv. 2. Thou art fairer than the children of men; grace is poured into thy lips: therefore God hath blessed thee for ever.

Luke iv. 22. And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this Joseph's son?

John vii. 46. The officers answered, Never man spake like this man.

(l) Prov. xv. 23. A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth; and a word spoken in due season, how good is it!

xv. 11. A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver.

Matt. xi. 28. Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

5 ¶ The Lord God hath (m) opened mine ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away back:

(m) Matt. xxvii. 39. And he went a little further, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt.

John viii. 29. And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him.

Phil. ii. 8. And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

Heb. v. 8. Though he were a son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered.

6 I (n) gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them (o) that plucked off the hair; I hid not my face from shame and spitting.

(n) Lam. iii. 30. He giveth his cheek to him that smiteth him: he is filled full with reproach.

Mic. v. 1. Now gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us; they shall smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.

Mark xiv. 65. And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophesy: and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands.

John xviii. 22. And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by, struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

Heb. xii. 2. Looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith; who, for the joy that was set before him, endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

(o) Neh. xiii. 25. And I contended with them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters unto your sons, or for yourselves.

7 ¶ For (p) the Lord God will help me; therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have (q) I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed.

(p) Ps. cx. 1. The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool.

John xvi. 33. These things have I spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

Heb. xii. 6. So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

(q) Ez. iii. 8. Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9. As an adamant, harder than flint, have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

1 Pet. iv. 1. Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh, hath ceased from sin.

8 He is (r) near that justifieth me; who will contend with me? (s) let us stand together; who is mine adversary? let him come near to me.

(r) Rom. viii. 33. Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth.

1 Tim. iii. 16. And, without controversy, great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

(s) Deut. xix. 17. Then both the men, between whom the controversy is, shall stand before the Lord, before the priests, and the judges, which shall be in those days.

Matt. v. 25. Agree with thine adversary quickly, while thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

9 Behold, the Lord God will help me; who is he that shall condemn me? lo, (t) they all shall wax old as a garment; the moth shall eat them up.

(t) Job xiii. 28. And he, as a rotten thing, consumeth, as a garment that is moth-eaten.

Ps. xxxix. 11. When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity, thou makest his beauty to consume away like a moth: surely every man is vanity. Selah.

cii. 26. They shall perish, but thou shalt endure, yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed.

Heb. i. 11. They shall perish, but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

12. And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

10 ¶ Who is (u) among you that feareth the LORD, that (x) obeyeth the voice of his servant, (y) that walketh in darkness, and hath no light? (z) let him trust in the name of the LORD, and stay upon his God.

(u) Ps. xxv. 12. What man is he that feareth the Lord? him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose.

14. The secret of the Lord is with them that fear him; and he will show them his covenant.

cxxviii. 1. Blessed is every one that feareth the Lord; that walketh in his ways.

Ec. xii. 13. Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter; Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

Mal. iii. 16. Then they that feared the Lord spake often one to another; and the Lord hearkened and heard it: and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his name.

(x) Heb. v. 9. And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him.

(y) Job xxix. 3. When his candle shined upon my head, and when by his light I walked through darkness.

Ps. xxiii. 4. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.

Lam. iii. 2. He hath led me, and brought me into darkness, but not into light.

John vii. 12. Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

(z) 1 Sam. xxx. 6. And David was greatly distressed: for the people spake of stoning him; because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and his daughters: but David encouraged himself in the Lord his God.

Job xiii. 15. Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him.

11 Behold, (a) all ye that kindle a fire, that compass yourselves about with sparks: (b) walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled. (c) This shall ye have of mine hand; (d) ye shall lie down in sorrow.

(a) Jon. ii. 8. They that observe lying vanities forsake their own mercy.

(b) Ec. xi. 9. Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth, and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thy heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment.

Amos iv. 4. Come to Beth-el, and transgress; at Gilgal multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after three years;

5. And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim and publish the free-offerings: for this liketh you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord God.

(c) John ix. 39. And Jesus said, For judgment I am come into this world; that they which see might not see, and that they which see might be made blind.

(d) Matt. viii. 12. But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

xxii. 13. Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

CHAPTER LI.

HEARKEN to me, (a) ye that follow after righteousness, (b) ye that seek the LORD: (c) look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged.

(a) Ps. xciv. 15. But judgment shall return unto righteousness; and all the upright in heart shall follow it.

Prov. xv. 9. The way of the wicked is an abomination unto the Lord: but he loveth him that followeth after righteousness.

Rom. xiv. 19. Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things where-with one may edify another.

Phil. iii. 13. Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before.

1 Tim. vi. 11. But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

2 Tim. ii. 22. Flee also youthful lusts; but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

Heb. xii. 14. Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord.

(b) Ps. xxiv. 6. This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face, O Jacob. Selah.

cv. 3. Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the Lord.

4. Seek the Lord, and his strength: seek his face evermore.

Amos v. 6. Seek the Lord, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Beth-el.

Zeph. ii. 3. Seek ye the Lord, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the Lord's anger.

(c) Eph. ii. 11. Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision, by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands;

12. That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world.

2 Look (d) unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bare you: (e) for I called him alone, and blessed him, and increased him.

(d) Gen. xv. 2. And Abram said, Lord God, what wilt thou give me, seeing I go childless, and the steward of my house is this Eliezer of Damascus?

6. And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and tell the stars, if thou be able to number them.

Josh. xxiv. 3. And I took your father Abraham from the other side of the flood; and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed, and gave him Isaac.

(e) Gen. xii. 1. Now the Lord had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will show thee:

2. And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing;

3. And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee; and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

Neh. ix. 7. Thou art the Lord the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of Abraham:

8. And foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him, to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give it, I say, to his seed, and hast performed thy words; for thou art righteous.

3 For the LORD shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert (f) like the garden of the LORD: (g) joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

(f) Gen. ii. 8. And the Lord God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed.

9. And out of the ground made the Lord God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

xiii. 10. And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the plain of Jordan, that it was well watered every where, before the Lord destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, even as the garden of the Lord, like the land of Egypt, as thou comest unto Zoar.

Joel ii. 3. A fire devoureth before them, and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them.

(g) Jer. xxxiii. 11. The voice of joy, and the voice of gladness; the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride; the voice of them that shall say, Praise the Lord of hosts: for the Lord is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: and of them that shall bring the sacrifice of praise into the house of the Lord. For I will cause to return the captivity of the land, as at the first, saith the Lord.

4 ¶ Hearken unto me, my people; and give ear unto me, O my nation: for (h) a law shall proceed from me, and (i) I will make my judgment to rest for a light of the people.

(h) Mic. iv. 2. And many nations shall come and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

Rom. viii. 2. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

3. For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh.

1 Cor. ix. 21. To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law of Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.

(i) Prov. vi. 23. For the commandment is a lamp, and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life.

Luke ii. 32. A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

5 My (h) righteousness is near; (l) my salvation is gone forth, and mine arms shall judge the people; (m) the isles shall wait upon me, and on mine arm shall they trust.

(h) Deut. xxx. 14. But the word is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it.

Ps. lxxxv. 9. Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him; that glory may dwell in our land.

Matt. iii. 2. And saying, Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

(l) Mark xvi. 15. And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

Luke xxiv. 47. And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

Rom. x. 17. So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18. But I say, Have they not heard? Yes, verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

(m) Zeph. ii. 11. The Lord will be terrible unto them: for he will famish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

Rom. i. 16. For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

6 (n) Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for (o) the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but (p) my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

(n) Deut. iv. 19. And lest thou lift up thine eyes unto heaven, and when thou seest the sun, and the moon, and the stars, even all the host of heaven, shouldst be driven to worship them, and serve them, which the Lord thy God hath divided unto all nations under the whole heaven.

Ps. viii. 3. When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers; the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

4. What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

(o) Ps. cii. 26. They shall perish, but thou shalt endure; yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed.

Matt. xxiv. 35. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

Heb. i. 11. They shall perish, but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

12. And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

Rev. xx. 11. And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.

(p) Dan. ix. 24. Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the Most Holy.

John iii. 15. That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

16. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

Heb. v. 9. And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him.

7 ¶ Hearken unto me, ye that know righteousness, the people (q) in whose heart is my law; (r) fear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye afraid of their revilings.

(q) Ps. xxxvii. 31. The law of his God is in his heart; none of his steps shall slide.

xl. 8. I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart.

Jer. xxxi. 33. But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

2 Cor. iii. 3. Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God: not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.

(r) Jer. i. 17. Thou therefore gird up thy loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee: be not dismayed at their faces, lest I confound thee before them.

Matt. v. 11. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely for my sake.

8 For (s) the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool; but my righteousness shall be for ever, and my salvation from generation to generation.

(s) Job iv. 19. How much less on them that dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which are crushed before the moth.

xiii. 28. And he, as a rotten thing, consumeth, as a garment that is moth-eaten.

Hos. v. 12. Therefore will I be unto Ephraim as a moth, and to the house of Judah as rottenness.

9 ¶ Awake, awake, (t) put on strength, (u) O arm of the LORD: awake, (x) as in the ancient days, in the generations of old. Art thou not it that hath cut Rahab, and wounded the dragon?

(t) Ps. xxi. 13. Be thou exalted, Lord, in thine own strength: so will we sing and praise thy power.

xciii. 1. The Lord reigneth, he is clothed with majesty; the Lord is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself: the world also is established, that it cannot be moved.

(u) Is. liii. 1. Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the Lord revealed?

lix. 16. And he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor; therefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him.

Luke i. 51. He hath showed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

(x) Judg. vi. 13. And Gideon said unto him, Oh, my Lord, if the Lord be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and where be all his miracles which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the Lord bring us up from Egypt? but now the Lord hath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites.

Ps. xlv. 1. We have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old.

10 Art thou not it which hath (y) dried the sea, the waters of the great deep; that hath made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to pass over?

(y) Ex. xiv. 22. And the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground: and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand and on their left.

23. And the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them to the midst of the sea, even all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.

xv. 13. Thou in thy mercy hath led forth the people which thou hast redeemed: thou hast guided them in thy strength unto thy holy habitation.

Ps. lxxiv. 13. Thou didst divide the sea by thy strength: thou brakest the heads of the dragons in the waters.

Is. lxxiii. 11. Then he remembered the days of old, Moses and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of his flock? where is he that put his holy Spirit within him?

12. That led them by the right hand of Moses with his glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting name?

11 Therefore (z) the redeemed of the LORD shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and (a) everlasting joy shall be upon their head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; (b) and sorrow and mourning shall flee away.

(z) Is. xxxv. 10. And the ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

xliv. 23. Sing, O ye heavens; for the LORD hath done it: shout, ye lower parts of the earth: break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein: for the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and glorified himself in Israel.

Jer. xxx. 18. Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have mercy upon his dwelling-places; and the city shall be builded upon her own heap, and the palace shall remain after the manner thereof.

19. And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving, and the voice of them that make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.

xxi. 11. For the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and ransomed him from the hand of him that was stronger than he.

12. Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow together to the goodness of the LORD, for wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all.

(a) Is. lxi. 7. For your shame you shall have double, and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double; everlasting joy shall be unto them.

2 Cor. iv. 17. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18. While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

(b) Is. xxv. 8. He will swallow up death in victory; and the LORD God will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it.

ix. 20. Thy sun shall no more go down; neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the LORD shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended.

lxv. 19. And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

Rev. vii. 17. For the Lamb, which is in the midst of the throne, shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

xxii. 3. And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him.

12 I, even (c) I, am he that comforteth you: who art thou, (d) that thou shouldest be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of (e) man which shall be made as grass;

(c) John xiv. 18. I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you.

Acts ix. 31. Then had the churches rest throughout all Judea, and Galilee, and Samaria, and were edified; and, walking in the fear of the LORD, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied.

2 Cor. vii. 5. For, when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears.

6. Nevertheless, God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus.

(d) Ps. cxlvi. 4. His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish.

Luke xii. 4. And I say unto you, my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do:

5. But I will forewarn you whom you shall fear: Fear him, which, after he hath killed, hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him.

(e) Ps. xc. 5. Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep: in the morning they are like grass which groweth up.

6. In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

1 Pet. i. 24. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away.

13 And forgettest the LORD thy maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and hast feared continually every day because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he were (f) ready to destroy? and (g) where is the fury of the oppressor?

(f) Ex. xv. 9. The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; my lust shall be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them.

Esth. v. 14. Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and to-morrow speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made.

(g) Ex. xiv. 13. And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD, which he will show to you to-day, for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to-day, ye shall see them again no more for ever.

Esth. vii. 10. So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

Ps. ix. 6. O thou enemy! destructions are come to a perpetual end; and thou hast destroyed cities; their memorial is perished with them.

1 Cor. i. 20. Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

14 The (h) captive exile hasteneth that he may be loosed, and that he should not (i) die in the pit, nor that his bread should fail.

(h) Is. lii. 2. Shake thyself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem: loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

Acts xii. 7. And, behold, the angel of the LORD came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8. And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals: and so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

(i) Lam. iii. 53. They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and cast a stone upon me.

Zech. ix. 11. As for thee also, by the blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

15 But I am the LORD thy God, that divideth the sea, whose waves roared: The LORD of hosts is his name.

16 And (k) I have put my words in thy mouth, and I have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, that I may (l) plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, (m) Thou art my people.

(k) Deut. xviii. 18. I will raise them up a Prophet from among their brethren, like unto thee, and will put my words in his mouth; and he shall speak unto them all that I shall command him.

John iii. 34. For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth unto the Spirit by measure unto him.

Rev. i. 1. The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to show unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John.

(l) Is. lxxv. 17. For, behold, I create new heavens, and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind.

2 Pet. iii. 13. Nevertheless, we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

(m) Jer. xxxi. 33. But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

xxii. 38. And they shall be my people, and I will be their God,

Zech. viii. 8. And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

17 ¶ Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, (n) which hast drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury; thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out.

(n) Deut. xxviii. 28. The Lord shall smite thee with madness, and blindness, and astonishment of heart.

34. So that thou shalt be mad for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

Ps. xi. 6. Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.

Ixxv. 8. For in the hand of the Lord there is a cup, and the wine is red; it is full of mixture, and he poureth out the same: but the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them.

Zech. xii. 2. Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.

Rev. xiv. 10. The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb.

18 There is none to guide her among all the sons whom she hath brought forth; neither is there any (o) that taketh her by the hand, of all the sons that she hath brought up.

(o) Is. xli. 13. For I the Lord thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee.

Jer. xxxi. 32. Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day that I took them by the hand, to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the Lord.

19 These two things are come unto thee; (p) who shall be sorry for thee? desolation, and destruction, and the famine, and the sword: (q) by whom shall I comfort thee?

(p) Ps. lxxix. 20. Reproach hath broken my heart, and I am full of heaviness: and I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none.

Lam. i. 9. Her filthiness is in her skirts; she remembereth not her last end; therefore she came down wonderfully: she had no comforter. O Lord, behold my affliction, for the enemy hath magnified himself.

(q) Job xlii. 11. Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house; and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the Lord had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an ear-ring of gold.

Ec. iv. 1. So I returned, and considered all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and, behold, the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter.

Lam. i. 16. For these things I weep; mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because the comforter that should relieve my soul is far from me; my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed.

20 Thy (r) sons have fainted; they lie at the head of all the streets, (s) as a wild bull in a net: they are full of the fury of the LORD, the rebuke of thy God.

(r) Jer. xiv. 18. If I go forth into the field, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine! yea, both the prophet and the priest go about into a land that they know not.

Lam. ii. 12. They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine? when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mother's bosom.

(s) Ps. lxxxviii. 15. I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up; while I suffer thy terrors I am distracted.

16. Thy fierce wrath goeth over me; thy terrors have cut me off.

Rev. xiv. 10. The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb.

21 ¶ Therefore hear now this, thou afflicted, and drunken, but not with wine:

22 Thus saith thy Lord, the LORD, and thy God that (t) pleadeth the cause of his people, Behold, I have taken out of thine hand the cup of trembling, even the dregs of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink it again:

(t) 1 Sam. xxv. 39. And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be the Lord, that hath pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and hath kept his servant from evil: for the Lord hath returned the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head. And David sent and communed with Abigail, to take her to him to wife.

Prov. xxii. 23. For the Lord will plead their cause, and spoil the soul of those that spoiled them.

Jer. i. 34. Their Redeemer is strong; The Lord of hosts is his name: he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

li. 36. Therefore thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; and I will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry.

Mic. vii. 9. I will bear the indignation of the Lord, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness.

23 But I will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee; which have said to thy soul, (u) Bow down, that we may go over: and thou hast laid thy body as the ground, and as the street, to them that went over.

(u) Josh. x. 24. And it came to pass, when they brought out those kings unto Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said unto the captains of the men of war which went with him, Come near, put your feet upon the necks of them.

Ps. lxxvi. 12. Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads: we went through fire and through water; but thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.

Rev. xi. 2. But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months.

CHAPTER LII.

A WAKE, awake; put on thy strength, O Zion; (a) put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city: for henceforth (b) there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised and the unclean.

(a) Luke xv. 22. But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet.

Rom. iii. 22. Even the righteousness of God, which is by faith of Jesus Christ, unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference.

xiii. 14. But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

Eph. iv. 24. And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.

Rev. xix. 8. And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white; for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

(b) Ez. xliv. 9. Thus saith the Lord God, No stranger, uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel.

Nah. i. 15. Behold upon the mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! O Judah, keep thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows: for the wicked shall no more pass through thee; he is utterly cut off.

Rev. xxi. 27. And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

2 (c) Shake thyself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem: loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

(c) Zech. ii. 6. Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, saith the Lord: for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the Lord.

7. Deliver thyself, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon.

Rev. xviii. 4. And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

3 For thus saith the LORD, Ye have sold yourselves for nought; and ye shall be redeemed without money.

4 For thus saith the Lord God, (d) My people went down aforetime into Egypt to sojourn there; and the Assyrian oppressed them, (e) without cause.

(d) Gen. xli. 6. And they took their cattle, and their goods, which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and came into Egypt, Jacob, and all his seed with him.

Acts vii. 14. Then sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls.

15. So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers.

(e) Job ii. 3. And the Lord said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil; and still he holdeth fast his integrity, although thou movedst me against him to destroy him without cause.

Ps. xxv. 3. Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed which transgress without cause.

Lix. 4. They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head: they that would destroy me, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty: then I restored that which I took not away.

John xv. 25. But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in this law, they hated me without a cause.

5 Now therefore, what have I here, saith the LORD, that my people is taken away for nought? they that rule over them (f) make them to howl, saith the LORD; and (g) my name continually every day is blasphemed.

(f) Ex. ii. 23. And it came to pass, in process of time, that the king of Egypt died, and the children of Israel sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried; and their cry came up unto God, by reason of the bondage.

24. And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.

iii. 7. And the Lord said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their taskmasters, for I know their sorrows.

Lam. i. 21. They have heard that I sigh; there is none to comfort me: all mine enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast done it: thou wilt bring the day that thou hast called, and they shall be like unto me.

(g) Ps. lxxiv. 10. O God, how long shall the adversary reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever?

18. Remember this, that the enemy hath reproached, O Lord, and that the foolish people have blasphemed thy name.

Ex. xx. 9. But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted among the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

Rom. ii. 24. For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written.

6 Therefore my people (h) shall know my name: therefore they shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak: behold, it is I.

(h) Ex. xxxiii. 19. And he said, I will make all my goodness pass before thee, and I will proclaim the name of the Lord before thee; and will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy.

Ps. xlviii. 10. According to thy name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of righteousness.

Ex. xx. 44. And ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I have wrought with you for my name's sake, not according to your wicked ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord God.

Heb. viii. 10. For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts; and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

7 ¶ How (i) beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that (k) publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, (l) Thy God reigneth!

(i) Nah. i. 15. Behold upon the mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! O Judah, keep thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows: for the wicked shall no more pass through thee: he is utterly cut off.

Luke ii. 10. And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

(k) Ps. lxxviii. 11. The Lord gave the word; great was the company of those that published it.

Mark xiii. 10. And the gospel must first be published among all nations.

xvi. 15. And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

(l) Ps. lix. 13. Consume them in wrath, consume them, that they may not be; and let them know that God ruleth in Jacob unto the ends of the earth. Selah.

xciii. 1. The Lord reigneth; he is clothed with majesty; the Lord is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself: the world also is established, that it cannot be moved.

Mic. iv. 7. And I will make her that halted a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and the Lord shall reign over them in Mount Zion from henceforth, even for ever.

Zech. ix. 9. Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee: he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

8 Thy (m) watchmen shall (n) lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing; for they shall (o) see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion.

(m) Cant. iii. 3. The watchmen that go about the city found me: to whom I said, Saw ye him whom my soul loveth?

v. 7. The watchmen that went about the city found me; they smote me, they wounded me; the keepers of the walls took away my veil from me.

Jer. vi. 17. Also I set watchmen over you, saying, Harken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken.

Ex. iii. 17. Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.

Heb. xiii. 17. Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account: that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.

(n) Is. lviii. 1. Cry aloud, spare not; lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and show my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

(o) Acts ii. 1. And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.

1 Cor. i. 10. Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.

9 ¶ Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the LORD hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem.

10 The LORD (p) hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and (q) all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

(p) Ps. xcvi. 1. O sing unto the Lord a new song; for he hath done marvellous things: his right hand and his holy arm hath gotten him the victory.

Rev. xv. 4. Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee: for thy judgments are made manifest.

(q) Ps. xxii. 27. All the ends of the world shall remember, and turn unto the Lord; and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.

Luke iii. 6. And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

Acts xiii. 47. For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldst be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

Rev. xi. 15. And the seventh angel sounded: and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.

xiv. 6. And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people.

11 ¶ Depart ye, (r) depart ye, go ye out from thence, (s) touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; be ye clean that bear the vessels of the LORD.

(r) Jer. i. 8. Remove out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he-goats-before the flocks.

2 Cor. vi. 17. Wherefore, come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you.

Rev. xviii. 4. And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

(s) Ez. xliv. 23. And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane, and cause men to discern between the unclean and the clean.

Acts x. 14. But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.

28. And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company or come unto one of another nation; but God hath showed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

Eph. v. 11. And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.

12 For (t) ye shall not go out with haste, nor go by flight: (u) for the LORD will go before you; and the God of Israel will be your rere-ward.

(t) Ex. xii. 33. And the Egyptians were urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, We be all dead men.

39. And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt, for it was not leavened; because they were thrust out of Egypt, and could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any victual.

(u) Ex. xiii. 21. And the Lord went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of a fire, to give them light to go by day and night.

xiv. 19. And the angel of God, which went before the camp of Israel, removed, and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and stood behind them.

Deut. xx. 4. For the Lord your God is he that goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.

Judg. iv. 14. And Deborah said unto Barak, Up; for this is the day in which the Lord hath delivered Sisera into thy hand: is not the Lord gone out before thee? So Barak went down from Mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him.

Mic. ii. 13. The breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it: and their king shall pass before them, and the Lord on the head of them.

13 ¶ Behold, (x) my servant shall deal prudently, (y) he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high.

(x) Ez. xxxiv. 23. And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.

Zech. iii. 8. Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou, and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are men wondered at; for, behold, I will bring forth my servant, The Branch.

Phil. ii. 7. But he made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men:

8. And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

(y) Ps. cx. 1. The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand until I make thine enemies thy footstool.

2. The Lord shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.

Matt. xxviii. 18. And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

John iii. 31. He that cometh from above is above all: he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: he that cometh from heaven is above all.

Eph. i. 20. Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

21. Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come;

22. And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be head over all things to the church.

Heb. i. 3. Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high.

14 As (z) many were astonished at thee; (a) his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men;

(z) Ps. lxxi. 7. I am as a wonder unto many: but thou art my strong refuge.

Matt. vii. 28. And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine.

xxii. 22. When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

xxvii. 14. And he answered him to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

Luke iv. 36. And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

(a) Ps. xxii. 6. But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people.

7. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying, xxvii. 29. And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, king of the Jews!

Matt. xxvi. 67. Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others smote him with the palms of their hands.

30. And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.

Luke xxii. 64. And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophesy, who is it that smote thee?

15 So shall he (b) sprinkle many nations; the (c) kings shall shut their mouths at him: (d) for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider.

(b) Num. viii. 7. And thus shalt thou do unto them, to cleanse them: Sprinkle water of purifying upon them, and let them shave all their flesh, and let them wash their clothes, and so make themselves clean.

Ez. xxxvi. 25. Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean; from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.

Matt. xxviii. 19. Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Tit. iii. 5. Not by works of righteousness, which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;

6. Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Heb. ix. 13. For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer, sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh;

14. How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works, to serve the living God.

(c) Job xxix. 9. The princes refrained talking, and laid their hand on their mouth.

10. The nobles held their peace, and their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.

Zech. ii. 13. Be silent, O all flesh, before the Lord: for he is raised up out of his holy habitation.

(d) Rom. xv. 20. Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation:

21. But as it is written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard, shall understand.

Eph. iii. 5. Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit.

8. Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ;

9. And to make all men see, what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER LIII.

WHO (a) hath believed our report? and to whom is (b) the arm of the LORD revealed?

(a) John xii. 38. That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

Rom. x. 16. But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report?

17. So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

(b) Rom. i. 16. For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

1 Cor. i. 18. For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish, foolishness; but unto us which are saved, it is the power of God.

2 For (c) he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: (d) he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

(c) Jer. xxiii. 5. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a king shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.

(d) John i. 10. He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11. He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12. But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name.

xviii. 40. Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

1 Pet. ii. 4. To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God and precious.

3 He is (e) despised and rejected of men; (f) a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and (g) we esteemed him not.

(e) Ps. lxxix. 10. When I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting, that was to my reproach.

11. I made sackcloth also my garment; and I became a proverb unto them.

12. They that sit in the gate speak against me; and I was the song of the drunkards.

19. Thou hast known my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonour: mine adversaries are all before thee.

20. Reproach hath broken my heart, and I am full of heaviness: and I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none.

Matt. xxvi. 67. Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others smote him with the palms of their hands.

Heb. xii. 3. For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

(f) Ps. lxxix. 29. But I am poor and sorrowful: let thy salvation, O God, set me up on high.

Matt. xxvi. 37. And he took with him Peter, and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy.

38. Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.

Heb. v. 7. Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications, with strong crying and tears, unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared.

(g) Deut. xxxii. 15. But Jeshurun waxed fat, and kicked: thou art waxen fat, thou art grown thick, thou art covered with fatness: then he forsook God which made him, and lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation.

4 Surely (h) he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows; (i) yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

(h) Matt. viii. 17. That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

Gal. iii. 13. Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree.

Heb. ix. 28. So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time, without sin, unto salvation.

(i) John xix. 7. The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.

5 But (h) he was wounded for our transgressions, he was (l) bruised for our iniquities: (m) the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.

(h) Zech. xiii. 7. Awake, O sword, against my Shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the Lord of hosts: smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered; and I will turn my hand upon the little ones.

Matt. xx. 28. Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

Rom. iv. 25. Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.

1 Cor. xv. 3. For I delivered unto you first of all, that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins, according to the scriptures.

2 Cor. v. 21. For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

(l) Gen. iii. 15. And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed: it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

(m) 1 Pet. ii. 24. Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.

6 All (n) we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his (o) own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

(n) Ps. cxix. 176. I have gone astray like a lost sheep: seek thy servant; for I do not forget thy commandments.

Matt. xviii. 12. How think ye? If a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

13. And if so be that he find it, verily, I say unto you, He rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

14. Even so, it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

1 Pet. ii. 25. For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and bishop of your souls.

(o) Ez. iii. 18. When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity: but his blood will I require at thy hand.

James v. 20. Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way, shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins,

7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, (p) yet he opened not his mouth: (q) he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.

(p) Matt. xxvi. 63. But Jesus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, I adjure thee, by the living God, that thou tell us, whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God.

xvii. 12. And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing.

13. Then saith Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?

14. And he answered him to never a word; inasmuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

Mark xiv. 61. But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?

John xix. 9. And went again into the judgment hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer.

1 Pet. ii. 23. Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth rightly.

(q) Acts viii. 32. The place of the scripture which he read was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before the shearers, so he opened not his mouth.

8 He was taken from prison and from judgment: and (r) who shall declare his generation? for he was (s) cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken.

(r) Matt. i. 1. The book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

Acts viii. 33. In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

Rom. i. 4. And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead.

(s) Dan. ix. 26. And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself; and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

9 And he (t) made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he hath done no violence, neither was any (u) deceit in his mouth.

(t) Matt. xxvii. 57. When the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple.

58. He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.

59. And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,

60. And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

(u) 2 Cor. v. 21. For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

Heb. iv. 15. For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.

vii. 26. For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens.

1 John iii. 5. And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.

10 Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; (x) he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt (y) make his soul an offering for sin, (z) he shall see his seed, (a) he shall prolong his days, and (b) the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.

(x) Ps. lxxix. 26. For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten; and they talk to the grief of those whom thou hast wounded.

Zech. xiii. 7. Awake, O sword, against my Shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the Lord of hosts; smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered; and I will turn my hand upon the little ones.

Rom. viii. 32. He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

1 John iv. 9. In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten son into the world, that we might live through him.

10. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

(y) Rom. viii. 3. For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh.

Eph. v. 2. And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savour.

Heb. vii. 27. Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself.

(z) Ps. xxii. 30. A seed shall serve him; it shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation.

(a) Ez. xxxvii. 25. And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob my servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, even they, and their children, and their children's children, for ever; and my servant David shall be their prince for ever.

Luke i. 33. And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

(b) Ps. lxxii. 7. In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth.

Jer. xxxiii. 41. Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart, and with my whole soul.

Eph. i. 5. Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will.

9. Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself.

2 Thess. i. 11. Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power.

11 He shall (c) see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant (d) justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities.

(c) Luke xxii. 44. And being in an agony, he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

John xvi. 21. A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come; but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

Gal. iv. 19. My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you.

(d) Rom. v. 1. Therefore, being justified by faith, we have peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ.

9. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.

1 Cor. vi. 11. And such were some of you; but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified, in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

Tit. iii. 6. Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour;

7. That, being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

12 Therefore (e) will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath (f) poured out his soul unto death: (g) and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and (h) made intercession for the transgressors.

(e) Ps. ii. 8. Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

Phil. ii. 8. And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

9. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name;

10. That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth.

(f) Ps. xxii. 14. I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels.

(g) Mark xv. 28. And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressors.

Luke xxii. 37. For I say unto you, That this that is written must yet be accomplished in me. And he was reckoned among the transgressors; for the things concerning me have an end.

xxiii. 32. And there were also two others, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.

33. And when they were come to the place which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors; one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

(h) Luke xxiii. 34. Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

Rom. viii. 34. Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea, rather, that is risen again, who is ever at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.

Heb. vii. 25. Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

1 John ii. 1. My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if a man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous.

12. I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

CHAPTER LIV.

SING, (a) O barren, thou that didst not bear; (b) break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: (c) for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD.

(a) Cant. viii. 8. We have a little sister, and she hath no breasts: what shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for?

Gal. iv. 27. For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren, that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not; for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

(b) Zeph. iii. 14. Sing, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel; be glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem.

Zech. ix. 9. Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion: shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee; he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

(c) 1 Sam. ii. 5. They that were full have hired out themselves for bread; and they that were hungry ceased: so that the barren hath borne seven; and she that hath many children is waxed feeble.

Ps. cxiii. 9. He maketh the barren woman to keep house, to be a joyful mother of children. Praise ye the Lord.

2 Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes;

3 For (d) thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and (e) make the desolate cities to be inhabited.

(d) Gen. xlix. 10. The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be.

Is. xliii. 5. Fear not; for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west;

6. I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back; bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth.

Rom. x. 18. But I say, Have they not heard? Yes, verily, their sound went into all the earth: and their words unto the ends of the world.

Col. i. 23. If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am made a minister.

(e) Is. xlix. 8. Thus saith the Lord, In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee: and I will preserve thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, to establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages.

Ez. xxxvi. 35. And they shall say, This land that was desolate, is become like the garden of Eden; and the waste, and desolate, and ruined cities, are become fenced, and are inhabited.

36. Then the heathen, that are left round about you, shall know that I the Lord build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate: I the Lord have spoken it, and I will do it.

4 Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for (f) thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more.

(f) Jer. xxxi. 19. Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth.

Ez. xvi. 22. And in all thy abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, when thou wast naked and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood.

5 For (g) thy Maker is thine husband; the LORD of hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; (h) The God of the whole earth shall he be called.

(g) Jer. iii. 14. Turn, O backsliding children, saith the Lord; for I am married unto you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion.

Ez. xvi. 8. Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I sware unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord God, and thou becamest mine.

Hos. ii. 19. And I will betroth thee unto me for ever: yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in loving-kindness, and in mercies:

20. I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness; and thou shalt know the Lord.

(h) Zech. xiv. 9. And the Lord shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one Lord, and his name one.

Rom. iii. 19. Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:

30. Seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

Rev. xi. 15. And the seventh angel sounded: and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.

6 For the LORD hath called thee as (i) a woman forsaken, and grieved in spirit, and a (k) wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God.

(i) Is. xlix. 14. But Zion said, The Lord hath forsaken me, and my Lord hath forgotten me.

lxii. 4. Thou shalt no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed Desolate: but thou shalt be called Hephzi-bah, and thy land Beulah: for the Lord delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married.

2 Cor. vii. 6. Nevertheless, God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus.

(k) Prov. v. 18. Let thy fountain be blessed; and rejoice with the wife of thy youth.

Mal. ii. 14. Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the Lord hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

7 For (l) a small moment have I forsaken thee; but (m) with great mercies will I gather thee.

(l) Ps. xxx. 5. For his anger endureth but for a moment; in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

2 Cor. iv. 17. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory.

2 Pet. iii. 8. But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

(m) Deut. xxx. 3. That then the Lord thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee, and will return and gather thee from all the nations, whither the Lord thy God hath scattered thee.

Ps. cvi. 47. Save us, O Lord our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy name, and to triumph in thy praise.

Ez. xxxvi. 20. For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land.

8 In (n) a little wrath (o) I hid my face from thee for a moment; (p) but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the LORD thy Redeemer.

(n) Is. lvii. 16. For I will not contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should fail before me, and the souls which I have made.

17. For the iniquity of his covetousness was I wroth, and smote him: I hid me, and was wroth, and he went on frowardly in the way of his heart.

Zech. i. 15. And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

(o) Ps. xiii. 1. How long wilt thou forget me, O Lord? for ever? how long wilt thou hide thy face from me?

xxvii. 9. Hide not thy face far from me; put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

Ez. xxxix. 24. According to their uncleanness, and according to their transgressions, have I done unto them, and hid my face from them.

(p) Ps. ciii. 17. But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children.

Jer. xxxi. 3. The Lord hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yes, I have loved thee with an everlasting love; therefore with loving-kindness have I drawn thee.

9 For this is as (q) the waters of Noah unto me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth; so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee.

(q) Gen. viii. 21. And the Lord smelled a sweet savour: and the Lord said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake; for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth: neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done.

Ps. civ. 9. Thou hast set a bound, that they may not pass over, that they turn not again to cover the earth.

Jer. xxxi. 35. Thus saith the Lord, which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; The Lord of hosts is his name:

36. If these ordinances depart from before me, saith the Lord, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.

10 For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the LORD that hath mercy on thee.

11 ¶ O (r) thou afflicted, (s) tossed with tempest, and (t) not comforted, behold, I will lay thy stones with fair colours, and lay thy foundations with sapphires.

(r) Ex. ii. 23. And it came to pass, in process of time, that the king of Egypt died, and the children of Israel sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried; and their cry came up unto God, by reason of the bondage.

Ps. xxxiv. 19. Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the Lord delivereth him out of them all.

Acts xiv. 22. Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

(s) Matt. viii. 24. And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, inasmuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.

Acts xxvii. 18. And being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship.

(t) Lam. i. 2. She weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks; among all her lovers she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they are become her enemies.

16. For these things I weep; mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because the comforter that should relieve my soul is far from me; my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed.

12 And I will make thy windows of agates, and thy gates of carbuncles, and all thy borders of pleasant stones.

13 And (u) all thy children shall be taught of the LORD; and (x) great shall be the peace of thy children.

(u) Jer. xxxi. 34. And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the Lord: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

Matt. xvi. 17. And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.

Luke x. 21. In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight.

John vi. 45. It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

Eph. iv. 21. If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus.

(x) Ps. cxix. 165. Great peace have they which love thy law: and nothing shall offend them.

Jer. xxxiii. 6. Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth.

Rom. v. 1. Therefore, being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

xv. 13. Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

Phil. iv. 7. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

14 In righteousness shalt thou be established: thou shalt be far from oppression; (y) for thou shalt not fear: and from terror; for it shall not come near thee.

(y) Jer. xxiii. 3. And I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them; and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful, and increase.

4. And I will set up shepherds over them, which shall feed them; and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the Lord.

xxx. 10. Therefore fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the Lord; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity.

Zeph. iii. 13. The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth: for they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

15 Behold, they shall surely gather together, but not by me: whosoever shall gather together against thee, shall fall for thy sake.

16 Behold, (z) I have created the smith that bloweth the coals in the fire, and that bringeth forth an instrument for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy.

(z) Ex. ix. 16. And in very deed for this cause have I raised thee up, for to show in thee my power; and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth.

Prov. xvi. 4. The Lord hath made all things for himself; yea, even the wicked for the day of evil.

John xix. 11. Jesus answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.

17 ¶ No (a) weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and (b) every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment, thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, (c) and their righteousness is of me, saith the LORD.

(a) Matt. xvi. 18. And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter; and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

John x. 28. And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any pluck them out of my hand.

29. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.

(b) Rev. xii. 10. And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

(c) Rom. iii. 22. Even the righteousness of God, which is by faith of Jesus Christ, unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference.

x. 4. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

1 Cor. i. 30. But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption.

2 Cor. v. 21. For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

2 Pet. i. 1. Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER LV.

HO, (a) every one that thirsteth, he come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, (b) buy, and eat: yea, come, (c) buy wine and milk, (d) without money and without price.

(a) Ps. xlii. 1. As the hart panteth after the water-brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.

2. My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God?

lxiii. 1. O God, thou art my God: early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is:

2. To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.

John vii. 37. In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

38. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

Rev. xxi. 6. And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst, of the fountain of the water of life freely.

xxii. 17. And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth, say, Come. And let him that is athirst, come: and whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

(b) Matt. xiii. 44. Again: The kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

45. Again: The kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant-man seeking goodly pearls:

46. Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

Rev. iii. 18. I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eye-salve, that thou mayest see.

(c) Cant. v. 1. I am come into my garden, my sister, my spouse: I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honey-comb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk: eat, O friends; drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved.

(d) Rom. iii. 24. Being justified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus.

Eph. ii. 8. For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God.

2 Wherefore (e) do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? (f) Harken diligently unto me, and (g) eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

(e) Hos. viii. 7. For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk; the bud shall yield no meal: if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up.

Hab. ii. 13. Behold, is it not of the Lord of hosts that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity?

(f) Deut. xi. 13. And it shall come to pass, if you shall hearken diligently unto my commandments which I command you this day, to love the Lord your God, and to serve him with all your heart, and with all your soul.

Ps. xxxiv. 11. Come, ye children, hearken unto me; I will teach you the fear of the Lord.

Prov. i. 33. But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.

(g) Prov. ix. 5. Come, eat of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled.

Jer. xxxi. 14. And I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the Lord.

Matt. xxii. 4. Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

3 Incline your ear, and (h) come unto me; hear, and your soul shall live: (i) and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even (k) the sure mercies of David.

(h) Matt. xi. 28. Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

John vi. 37. All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

(i) Gen. xvii. 7. And I will establish my covenant between me and thee, and thy seed after thee, in their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee.

2 Sam. xxiii. 5. Although my house be not so with God; yet he hath made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things, and sure: for this is all my salvation, and all my desire, although he make it not to grow.

(k) Ps. lxxxix. 28. My mercy will I keep for him for evermore, and my covenant shall stand fast with him.

Acts xiii. 34. And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he saith on this wise, I will give you the sure mercies of David.

4 Behold, (l) I have given him for a witness to the people, (m) a leader and commander to the people.

(l) John iii. 16. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

xviii. 37. Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

Rev. iii. 14. And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true Witness, the beginning of the creation of God.

(m) Matt. ii. 6. And thou, Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

John x. 3. To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

5 Behold, (n) thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and (o) nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee, because of the LORD thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel: (p) for he hath glorified thee.

(n) Ps. xviii. 43. Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people; and thou hast made me the head of the heathen: a people whom I have not known shall serve me.

Rom. xv. 20. Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation:

21. But as it is written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard, shall understand.

(o) Hos. i. 10. Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered: and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God.

Zech. ii. 11. And many nations shall be joined to the Lord in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee; and thou shalt know that the Lord of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

(p) John xiii. 31. Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32. If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.

Heb. v. 5. So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to-day have I begotten thee.

6 ¶ (q) Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him (r) while he is near:

(q) Job viii. 5. If thou wouldest seek unto God betimes, and make thy supplication to the Almighty.

Ps. xiv. 2. The Lord looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God.

Amos v. 6. Seek the Lord, and ye shall live, lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Beth-el.

John vii. 33. Then said Jesus unto them, Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.

34. Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

(r) Ps. lxxv. 1. Unto thee, O God, do we give thanks, unto thee do we give thanks: for that thy name is near, thy wondrous works declare.

Eph. ii. 13. But now, in Christ Jesus, ye who sometimes were far off, are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

17. And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.

7 Let (s) the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man (t) his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, (u) for he will abundantly pardon.

(s) Prov. xxviii. 13. He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

Ez. iii. 18. When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity: but his blood will I require at thy hand.

19. Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity: but thou hast delivered thy soul.

Jon. iii. 10. And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

Acts iii. 19. Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord.

(t) Gen. vi. 5. And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

Ps. xlvi. 18. If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me.

Jer. iv. 14. O Jerusalem, wash thy heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved: how long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee?

Matt. xv. 18. But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart, and they defile the man.

19. For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies.

Acts viii. 21. Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.

22. Repent therefore of this thy wickedness; and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thy heart may be forgiven thee.

(u) Ps. li. 1. Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy loving-kindness; according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies, blot out my transgressions.

Jer. iii. 12. Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the Lord, and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you; for I am merciful, saith the Lord, and I will not keep anger for ever.

Luke vii. 47. Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

8 ¶ For (x) my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD.

(x) Ps. xl. 5. Many, O Lord my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

xcii. 5. O Lord, how great are thy works! and thy thoughts are very deep.

Jer. iii. 1. They say, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, shall he return unto her again? shall not that land be greatly polluted? but thou hast played the harlot with many lovers; yet return again to me, saith the Lord.

Hos. xiv. 9. Who is wise, and he shall understand these things? prudent, and he shall know them? for the ways of the Lord are right, and the just shall walk in them: but the transgressors shall fall therein.

9 For as (y) the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

(y) Ps. ciii. 11. For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

12. As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

10 For (z) as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater:

(z) 2 Sam. xxiii. 4. And he shall be as the light of the morning, when the sun riseth, even a morning without clouds; as the tender grass springing out of the earth by clear shining after rain.

Ps. lxxii. 6. He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass; as showers that water the earth.

7. In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace, so long as the moon endureth.

Ex. xxxiv. 26. And I will make them, and the places round about my hill, a blessing: and I will cause the shower to come down in his season: there shall be showers of blessing.

Hos. x. 12. Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the Lord, till he come, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

Rev. xi. 6. These have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

11 So (a) shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

(a) Deut. xxxii. 2. My doctrine shall drop as the rain, my speech shall distil as the dew, as the small rain upon the tender herb, and as the showers upon the grass.

John vi. 63. It is the Spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

Rom. x. 17. So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

1 Thess. ii. 13. For this cause, also, we thank God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

James i. 18. Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first-fruits of his creatures.

1 Pet. i. 23. Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.

12 For (b) ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: (c) the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

(b) Jer. xxx. 19. And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving, and the voice of them that make merry; and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.

xxxiii. 11. The voice of joy, and the voice of gladness; the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride; the voice of them that shall say, Praise the Lord of hosts; for the Lord is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: and of them that shall bring the sacrifice of praise into the house of the Lord. For I will cause to return the captivity of the land, as at the first, saith the Lord.

Rom. xv. 13. Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

Gal. v. 22. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith.

(c) Ps. lxx. 13. The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn: they shout for joy, they also sing.

xcvi. 11. Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof.

12. Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice.

13 Instead (d) of the thorn shall come up the fir-tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle-tree: and it shall be to the LORD (e) for a name, for (f) an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

(d) Is. lx. 13. The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir-tree, the pine-tree, and the box together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make the place of my feet glorious.

lxi. 3. To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that he might be glorified.

2 Cor. v. 17. Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

(e) Jer. xiii. 11. For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel, and the whole house of Judah, saith the Lord; that they might be unto me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear.

John xv. 8. Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

1 Pet. iv. 11. If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth; that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ; to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

(f) Is. liv. 10. For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the Lord that hath mercy on thee.

Jer. i. 5. They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the Lord in a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.

CHAPTER LVI.

THUS saith the LORD, (a) Keep ye judgment, and do justice: (b) for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed.

(a) Mal. iv. 4. Remember ye the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel, with the statutes and judgments.

John vii. 17. If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

(b) Ps. lxxxv. 9. Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him; that glory may dwell in our land.

Matt. iii. 2. And saying, Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

Mark i. 15. And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent ye, and believe the gospel.

2 (c) Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that (d) layeth hold on it; that (e) keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and (f) keepeth his hand from doing any evil.

(c) Ps. cvi. 3. Blessed are they that keep judgment, and he that doeth righteousness at all times.

cxii. 1. Praise ye the Lord. Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord, that delighteth greatly in his commandments.

Luke xi. 28. But he said, Yea, rather blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

John xiii. 17. If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

(d) Prov. iv. 13. Take fast hold of instruction; let her not go; keep her, for she is thy life.

Ec. vii. 18. It is good that thou shouldst take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw not thy hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all.

(e) Lev. xix. 30. Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I am the Lord.

Jer. xvii. 21. Thus saith the Lord, Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath-day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem;

22. Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath-day, neither do ye any work; but hallow ye the sabbath-day, as I commanded your fathers.

(f) Ps. xxxiv. 14. Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it.

Prov. iv. 27. Turn not to the right hand, nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil.

Rom. xii. 9. Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

3 ¶ Neither let (g) the son of the stranger, that hath (h) joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, The LORD hath utterly separated me from his people: (i) neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree.

(g) Zech. viii. 20. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come people and the inhabitants of many cities:

21. And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily to pray before the Lord, and to seek the Lord of hosts: I will go also.

22. Yea, many people and strong nations shall come to seek the Lord of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before the Lord.

23. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, In those days it shall come to pass, that two men shall take hold, out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you; for we have heard that God is with you.

Rom. ii. 10. But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile;

11. For there is no respect of persons with God.

(h) 1 Cor. vi. 17. But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.

(i) Jer. xxxix. 16. Go and speak to Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not for good; and they shall be accomplished in that day before thee.

17. But I will deliver thee in that day, saith the Lord; and thou shalt not be given into the hand of the men of whom thou art afraid.

Matt. xix. 12. For there are some eunuchs, which were so from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

4 For thus saith the LORD unto the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and (k) choose the things that please him, and (l) take hold of my covenant;

(k) Josh. xxiv. 15. And if it seem evil unto you to serve the Lord, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served, that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord.

Pa. cxix. 111. Thy testimonies have I taken as an heritage for ever: for they are the rejoicing of my heart.

Luke x. 42. But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

(l) 2 Sam. xxiii. 5. Although my house be not so with God; yet he hath made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things, and sure: for this is all my salvation, and all my desire, although he make it not to grow.

Jer. l. 5. They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the Lord in a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.

5 Even unto them (m) will I give in mine house and within my walls, a place (n) and a name (o) better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, (p) that shall not be cut off;

(m) 1 Tim. iii. 15. But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

Heb. iii. 6. But Christ as a son over his own house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.

(n) John i. 12. But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name.

1 John iii. 1. Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God! therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

(o) 1 Sam. i. 8. Then said Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thy heart grieved? am not I better to thee than ten sons?

(p) Is. lv. 13. Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir-tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle-tree: and it shall be to the Lord for a name, and for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

6 Also the sons of the stranger, that join themselves to the LORD, to serve him, and (q) to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant;

(q) Rom. viii. 28. And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

1 Cor. xvi. 22. If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema, Maran-atha.

Gal. v. 6. For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love.

Eph. vi. 24. Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity.

James i. 12. Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

7 Even (r) them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: (s) their burnt-offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar; (t) for mine house shall be called An house of prayer for all people.

(r) Mic. iv. 1. But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the Lord shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it.

2. And many nations shall come and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

Zech. viii. 3. Thus saith the Lord, I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and Jerusalem shall be called, A city of truth; and the mountain of the Lord of hosts, The holy mountain.

(s) Rom. xii. 1. I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

Heb. xiii. 15. By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to his name.

1 Pet. ii. 5. Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

(t) Matt. xxi. 13. And said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called a house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves.

Mark xi. 17. And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of thieves.

1 Tim. ii. 8. I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

8 The Lord God, which gathereth the outcasts of Israel, saith, Yet will I gather others to him, beside those that are gathered unto him.

9 ¶ All (u) ye beasts of the field, come to devour, yea, all ye beasts in the forest.

(u) Deut. xxviii. 26. And thy carcass shall be meat unto all fowls of the air, and unto the beasts of the earth, and no man shall fray them away.

Jer. xii. 9. My heritage is unto me as a speckled bird; the birds round about are against her; come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, come to devour.

Ex. xxix. 5. And I will leave thee thrown into the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the open fields; thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered; I have given thee for meat to the beasts of the field, and to the fowls of the heaven.

xxxix. 17. And thou, son of man, thus saith the Lord God, Speak unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood.

Rev. xix. 17. And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come, and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

18. That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them; and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

10 His watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, (x) they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, (y) loving to slumber.

(x) Ex. iii. 26. And I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them a reprover; for they are a rebellious house.

27. But when I speak with thee, I will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; He that heareth, let him hear; and he that forbearth, let him forbear; for they are a rebellious house.

xxxiii. 6. But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.

(y) Prov. xxiv. 30. I went by the field of the slothful, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding;

31. And lo, it was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered the face thereof, and the stone wall thereof was broken down.

32. Then I saw, and considered it well; I looked upon it, and received instruction.

33. Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

34. So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth; and thy want as an armed man.

Nah. iii. 18. Thy shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria; thy nobles shall dwell in the dust: thy people is scattered upon the mountains, and no man gathereth them.

11 Yea, (z) they are greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are (a) shepherds that cannot understand: they (b) all look to their own way, every one for his gain, from his quarter.

(z) Mic. iii. 11. The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the Lord, and say, Is not the Lord among us? none evil can come upon us.

Mal. i. 10. Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the Lord of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand.

(a) John viii. 43. Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.

2 Cor. iv. 4. In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

(b) Ez. xxiii. 8. And thou shalt take no gift; for the gift blindeth the wise, and perverteth the words of the righteous.

Jer. xxii. 17. But thine eyes and thy heart are not but for thy covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it.

2 Pet. ii. 15. Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16. But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass, speaking with man's voice, forbade the madness of the prophet.

12 Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and (c) to-morrow shall be as this day, and much more abundant.

(c) Prov. xxvii. 1. Boast not thyself of to-morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.

Jer. xviii. 18. Then said they, Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet: come, and let us smite him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words.

Luke xii. 19. And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

20. But God said unto him, Thou fool! this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?

1 Cor. xv. 32. If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantage me, if the dead rise not? Let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we die.

CHAPTER LVII.

THE righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and merciful men are taken away, none considering that (a) the righteous is taken away from the evil to come.

(a) 1 Kings xiv. 13. And all Israel shall mourn for him, and bury him: for he only of Jeroboam shall come to the grave, because in him there is found some good thing toward the Lord God of Israel in the house of Jeroboam.

2 Kings xxii. 20. Behold, therefore, I will gather thee unto thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered into thy grave in peace; and thine eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place. And they brought the king word again.

2 He (b) shall enter into peace: they shall (c) rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness.

(b) Job iii. 17. There the wicked cease from troubling; and there the weary be at rest.

Matt. xxv. 21. His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

Rev. xiv. 13. And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

(c) Is. xiv. 18. All the kings of the nations, even all of them, lie in glory, every one in his own house.

Ez. xxxii. 25. They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude: her graves are round about him; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword: though their terror was caused in the land of the living, yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of them that be slain.

3 ¶ But draw near hither, ye (d) sons of the sorceress, the seed of the adulterer and the whore.

(d) Hos. i. 2. The beginning of the word of the Lord by Hosea. And the Lord said to Hosea, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms, and children of whoredoms: for the land hath committed great whoredoms, departing from the Lord.

Matt. xii. 34. O generation of vipers! how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

James iv. 4. Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world, is the enemy of God.

4 Against whom (e) do ye sport yourselves? against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue? (f) are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood, (e) Psa. lxix. 12. They that sit in the gate speak against me; and I was the song of the drunkards.

Matt. xxvii. 29. And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

39. And they that passed by, reviled him, wagging their heads.

2 Pet. ii. 13. And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day-time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings, while they feast with you.

(f) Ez. ii. 4. For they are impudent children, and stiff-hearted: I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God.

Hos. x. 9. O Israel, thou hast sinned from the days of Gibeah; there they stood: the battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

Matt. xiii. 38. The field is the world: the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one.

Eph. ii. 2. Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience.

5 (g) Inflaming yourselves with idols under every green tree, (h) slaying the children in the valleys under the cliffs of the rocks?

(g) Ez. xxxii. 6. And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt-offerings, and brought peace-offerings: and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

Jer. l. 38. A drought is upon her waters; and they shall be dried up: for it is the land of graven images, and they are mad upon their idols.

Rev. xviii. 3. For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

(h) 2 Kings xxiii. 10. And he defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Moloch.

Jer. vii. 31. And they have built the high places of Topheth, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my heart.

Ez. xvi. 20. Moreover, thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast borne unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them to be devoured. Is this of thy whoredoms a small matter?

6 Among (i) the smooth stones of the stream is thy portion: they, they are thy lot: even to them thou hast poured a drink-offering, thou hast offered a meat-offering. (k) Should I receive comfort in these?

(i) Jer. iii. 9. And it came to pass through the lightness of her whoredom, that she defiled the land, and committed adultery with stones and with stocks.

Hab. ii. 19. Wo unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

(k) Is. lxvi. 3. He that killeth an ox is as if he slew a man; he that sacrificeth a lamb, as if he cut off a dog's neck; he that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swine's blood; he that burneth incense, as if he blessed an idol; yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations.

7 Upon (l) a lofty and high mountain hast thou set thy bed: even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice.

(l) Jer. ii. 20. For of old time I have broken my yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not transgress; when upon every high hill, and under every green tree, thou wanderest, playing the harlot.

iii. 2. Lift up thine eyes unto the high places, and see where thou hast not been lain with: in the ways hast thou sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness; and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms, and with thy wickedness.

Ez. xvi. 16. And of thy garments thou didst take, and deckedst thy high places with divers colours, and playedst the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so.

xx. 28. For when I had brought them into the land, for the which I lifted up my hand to give it to them, then they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering: there also they made their sweet savour, and poured out there their drink-offerings.

8 Behind the doors also and the posts hast thou set up thy remembrance: for thou hast discovered thyself to another than me, and art gone up; thou hast enlarged thy bed, and made thee a covenant with them; thou lovedst their bed where thou sawest it.

9 And (m) thou wentest to the king with ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers far off, and didst debase thyself even unto hell.

(m) Ez. xvi. 33. They give gifts to all whores: but thou givest thy gifts to all thy lovers, and hirest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredom.

10 Thou art (n) wearied in the greatness of thy way; yet saidst thou not, (o) There is no hope: thou hast found the life of thine hand; therefore thou wast not grieved.

(n) Jer. ii. 36. Why gaddest thou about so much to change thy way? thou also shalt be ashamed of Egypt, as thou wast ashamed of Assyria.

Ez. xxiv. 12. She hath wearied herself with lies, and her great scum went not forth out of her: her scum shall be in the fire.

Hab. ii. 13. Behold, is it not of the Lord of hosts that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity?

(o) Jer. ii. 25. Withhold thy foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst: but thou saidst, There is no hope: no; for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go.

Rom. vii. 9. For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

11 And (p) of whom hast thou been afraid or feared, (q) that thou hast lied, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? (r) have not I held my peace even of old, and thou fearest me not?

(p) Prov. xxix. 25. The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord shall be safe.

Gal. ii. 12. For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

(q) Jer. ix. 3. And they bend their tongue like their bow for lies; but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth: for they proceed from evil to evil, and they know not me, saith the Lord.

4. Take ye heed every one of his neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother; for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour will walk with slanders.

5. And they will deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongues to speak lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquity.

Ez. xiii. 22. Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life.

Hos. xi. 12. Ephraim compasseth me about with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit: but Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful with the saints.

(r) Ps. i. 21. These things hast thou done, and I kept silence; thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as thyself; but I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.

Ec. viii. 11. Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the hearts of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

12 I (s) will declare thy righteousness, and thy works; for they shall not profit thee.

(s) Is. lxiv. 5. Thou meetest him that rejoiceth and worketh righteousness; those that remember thee in thy ways: behold, thou art wroth; for we have sinned: in those is continuance, and we shall be saved.

Matt. xxiii. 5. But all their works they do to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments.

14. Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.

Rom. x. 2. For I bear them record, that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3. For they, being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

13 ¶ When thou criest, (t) let thy companies deliver thee; (u) but the wind shall carry them all away; vanity shall take them: (x) but he that putteth his trust in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain;

(t) Judg. x. 14. Go and cry unto the gods which ye have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your tribulation.

Zech. vii. 13. Therefore it is come to pass, that, as he cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would not hear, saith the Lord of hosts.

(u) Job xxi. 18. They are as stubble before the wind, and as chaff that the storm carrieth away.

Ps. i. 4. The ungodly are not so; but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

lviii. 9. Before your pots can feel the thorns, he shall take them away as with a whirlwind, both living, and in his wrath.

Hos. xiii. 3. Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the early dew that passeth away; as the chaff that is driven with a whirlwind out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney.

(x) Ps. cxxv. 1. They that trust in the Lord shall be as Mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.

Jer. xvii. 7. Blessed is the man that trusteth in the Lord, and whose hope the Lord is:

8. For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit.

14 And shall say, Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, (y) take up the stumbling-block out of the way of my people.

(y) Rom. xiv. 13. Let us not therefore judge one another any more; but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling-block or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

1 Cor. vii. 9. But take heed, lest by any means this liberty of your's become a stumbling-block to them that are weak.

x. 32. Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God:

33. Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

2 Cor. vi. 3. Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed.

15 For thus saith the high and lofty One (z) that inhabiteth eternity, (a) whose name is Holy; (b) I dwell in the high and holy place, (c) with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, (d) to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

(z) Gen. xxi. 33. And Abraham planted a grove in Beer-sheba, and called there on the name of the Lord, the everlasting God.

Deut. xxxiii. 27. The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms: and he shall thrust out the enemy from before thee; and shall say, Destroy them.

Ps. xc. 2. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting thou art God.

xciii. 2. Thy throne is established of old: thou art from everlasting.

Prov. viii. 23. I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.

Jer. x. 10. But the Lord is the true God, he is the living God, and an everlasting King; at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.

1 Tim. i. 17. Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Heb. ix. 14. How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works, to serve the living God?

(a) Ez. xv. 11. Who is like unto thee, O

Lord, among the gods? who' is like thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders.

1 Sam. ii. 2. There is none holy as the Lord; for there is none beside thee; neither is there any rock like our God.

Luke i. 49. For he that is mighty hath done to me great things; and holy is his name.

(b) 1 Kings viii. 27. But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house that I have builded!

Zech. ii. 13. Be silent, O all flesh, before the Lord: for he is raised up out of his holy habitation.

Matt. vi. 9. After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

(c) Psa. xxxiv. 18. The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.

Matt. v. 4. Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

James iv. 6. But he giveth more grace: wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

1 Pet. v. 5. Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder: yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility; for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

(d) Psa. cxlvii. 3. He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.

Luke iv. 18. The Spirit of the Lord is upon me; because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised.

2 Cor. i. 4. Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

16 For (e) I will not contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should fail before me, and (f) the souls which I have made.

(e) Psa. lxxviii. 38. But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not; yea, many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath.

Jer. x. 24. O Lord, correct me, but with judgment; not in thine anger, lest thou bring me to nothing.

Mic. vii. 18. Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.

(f) Num. xvi. 22. And they fell upon their faces, and said, O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation?

Ec. xii. 7. Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was; and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

Jer. xxxviii. 16. So Zedekiah the king sware secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the Lord liveth, that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life.

Zech. xii. 1. The burden of the word of the Lord for Israel, saith the Lord, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him.

17 For (g) the iniquity of his covetousness was I wroth, and smote him: I hid me, and was wroth, and he went on frowardly in the way of his heart.

(g) Jer. vi. 13. For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them, every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest, every one dealeth falsely.

viii. 10. Therefore will I give their wives unto others, and their fields to them that shall inherit them: for every one, from the least even unto the greatest, is given to covetousness; from the prophet even unto the priest, every one dealeth falsely.

xxii. 17. But thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it.

Ez. xxxiii. 31. And they come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they show much love; but their heart goeth after their covetousness.

Mic. ii. 2. And they covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.

Luke xii. 15. And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness; for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

18 I (h) have seen his ways, and will (i) heal him: (k) I will lead him also, and restore comforts unto him and to his mourners.

(h) Ez. xvi. 60. Nevertheless, I will remember my covenant with thee in the days of thy youth, and I will establish unto thee an everlasting covenant.

61. Then shalt thou remember thy ways, and be ashamed, when thou shalt receive thy sisters, thine elder and thy younger: but I will give them unto thee for daughters, but not by thy covenant.

62. And I will establish my covenant with thee, and thou shalt know that I am the Lord;

63. That thou mayest remember, and be confounded, and never open thy mouth any more, because of thy shame, when I am pacified toward thee for all that thou hast done, saith the Lord God.

(i) Jer. iii. 22. Return, ye backsliding children, and I will heal your backslidings. Behold, we come unto thee; for thou art the Lord our God.

xxxiii. 6. Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth.

(k) Psa. xxiii. 2. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside still waters.

Rev. vii. 17. For the Lamb, which is in the midst of the throne, shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

19 I create (l) the fruit of the lips; (m) Peace, peace to him that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the LORD; and I will heal him.

(l) Ez. iv. 11. And the Lord said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the Lord?

12. Now therefore go, and I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say.

Hos. xiv. 2. Take with you words, and turn to the Lord: say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously: so will we render the calves of our lips.

Heb. xiii. 15. By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to his name.

(m) Matt. x. 13. And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you.

Luke ii. 14. Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will towards men.

20 But the wicked are (n) like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt.

(n) Job xv. 20. The wicked man travaileth with pain all his days, and the number of years is hidden to the oppressor.

21. A dreadful sound is in his ears: in prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him.

22. He believeth not that he shall return out of darkness, and he is waited for of the sword.

23. He wandereth abroad for bread, saying, Where is it? he knoweth that the day of darkness is ready at his hand.

24. Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall prevail against him as a king ready to the battle.

Jude 13. Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

21 There is (o) no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

(o) Is. xlvi. 22. There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

Rom. iii. 16. Destruction and misery are in their ways;

17. And the way of peace have they not known.

CHAPTER LVIII.

CRY aloud, (a) spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and show my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

(a) Psa. xl. 9. I have preached righteousness in the great congregation; lo, I have not refrained my lips, O Lord, thou knowest.

10. I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy loving-kindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

Acts vii. 51. Ye stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye.

52. Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which showed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers.

xx. 26. Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.

27. For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.

Ty. ii. 15. These things speak and exhort; and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

2 Yet (b) they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: (c) they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God.

(b) Prov. xv. 8. The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord: but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

Ez. xxxiii. 30. Also, thou son of man, the children of thy people still are talking against thee by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that cometh forth from the Lord.

31. And they come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words; but they will not do them: for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness.

32. And, lo, thou art unto them as a very lovely song of one that hath a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument: for they hear thy words, but they do them not.

33. And when this cometh to pass, (lo, it will come,) then shall they know that a prophet hath been among them.

Mark vi. 20. For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man and an holy, and observed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

(c) Jer. xlii. 2. And said unto Jeremiah the prophet, Let, we beseech thee, our supplication be accepted before thee, and pray for us unto the Lord thy God, even for all this remnant; (for we are left but a few of many, as thine eyes do behold us;)

3. That the Lord thy God may show us the way wherein we may walk, and the thing that we may do.

20. For ye dissembled in your hearts, when ye sent me unto the Lord your God, saying, Pray for us unto the Lord our God; and according unto all that the Lord our God shall say, so declare unto us, and we will do it.

Mark xii. 14. And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Cesar, or not?

15. Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a penny, that I may see it.

3 Wherefore have (d) we fasted, say they, and thou seest not? wherefore have we (e) afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, (f) in the day of your fast ye find pleasure, (g) and exact all your labours.

(d) Zech. vii. 5. Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, when ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh month, even those seventy years, did ye at all fast unto me, even to me?

6. And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, did ye not eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves?

Mal. iii. 14. Ye have said, It is vain to serve God; and what profit is it that we have kept his ordinance, and that we have walked mournfully before the Lord of hosts?

Luke xv. 29. And he answering, said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends.

(e) Lev. xvi. 29. And this shall be a statute for ever unto you, that in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, ye shall afflict your souls, and do no work at all, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger that sojourneth among you.

Ps. lxxix. 10. When I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting, that was to my reproach.

(f) Dan. x. 2. In those days, I, Daniel, was mourning three full weeks.

3. I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

Jon. iii. 6. For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.

7. And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nineveh, (by the decree of the king and nobles,) saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing; let them not feed, nor drink water:

8. But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands.

(g) Neh. v. 7. Then I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, You exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them.

4 Behold, (h) ye fast for strife and debate, (i) and to smite with the fist of wickedness; ye shall not fast as ye do this day, (k) to make your voice to be heard on high.

(h) Prov. xxi. 27. The sacrifice of the wicked is abomination: how much more, when he bringeth it with a wicked mind?

Matt. vi. 16. Moreover, when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily, I say unto you, they have their reward.

xxiii. 14. Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he is made, ye make him two-fold more the child of hell than yourselves.

(i) Phil. i. 15. Some indeed preach Christ, even of envy and strife; and some also of good will.

16. The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds.

(k) Joel ii. 15. Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly.

16. Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breast; let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet.

5 Is (l) it such a fast that I have chosen? a day for a man to afflict his soul? is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and (m) an acceptable day to the LORD?

(l) 2 Chr. xx. 3. And Jehoshaphat feared, and set himself to seek the Lord, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

Ezra x. 6. Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Johanan the son of Eliashib: and when he came thither, he did eat no bread, nor drink water: for he mourned because of the transgression of them that had been carried away.

Esth. iv. 16. Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law; and if I perish, I perish.

(m) Ps. lxxix. 13. But as for me, my prayer is unto thee, O Lord, in an acceptable time: O God, in the multitude of thy mercy hear me: in the truth of thy salvation.

Luke iv. 19. To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.

6 Is not this the fast that I have chosen? (n) to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye (o) break every yoke?

(n) Neh. v. 10. I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you, let us leave off this usury.

11. Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them.

12. Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise.

(o) 1 Tim. vi. 1. Let as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed.

7 Is it not (p) to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou (q) bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest (r) the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from (s) thine own flesh?

(p) Job xxii. 7. Thou hast not given water to the weary to drink, and thou hast withholden bread from the hungry.

Ps. cxii. 9. He hath dispersed: he hath given to the poor; his righteousness endureth for ever: his horn shall be exalted with honour.

Prov. xxii. 9. He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed; for he giveth of his bread to the poor.

xxv. 21. If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink.

xxviii. 27. He that giveth unto the poor shall not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.

Ec. xi. 1. Cast thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after many days.

2. Give a portion to seven, and also to eight; for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth.

1 Tim. v. 10. Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

(q) Judg. xix. 20. And the old man said, Peace be with thee: howsoever, let all thy wants be upon me; only lodge not in the street.

21. So he brought him into his house, and gave provender unto the asses: and they washed their feet, and did eat and drink.

Acts xvi. 15. And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.

(r) Job xxxi. 19. If I have seen any perish for want of clothing, or any poor without covering;

20. If his loins have not blessed me, and if he were not warmed with the fleece of my sheep.

Ez. xviii. 7. And hath not oppressed any, but hath restored to the debtor his pledge, hath spoiled none by violence, hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment.

(s) Judg. ix. 2. Speak, I pray you, in the ears of all the men of Shechem, Whether is it better for you, either that all the sons of Jerubbaal, which are threescore and ten persons, reign over you, or that one reign over you? remember also that I am your bone and your flesh.

1 John iii. 17. But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?

8 Then shall (t) thy light break forth as the morning, (u) and thine health shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousness shall go before thee; the glory of the LORD shall be thy re-reward.

(t) Job xi. 17. And thine age shall be clearer than the noon-day; thou shalt shine forth, thou shalt be as the morning.

Ps. xxxvii. 6. And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noon-day.

Prov. iv. 18. But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

Hos. vi. 3. Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the Lord: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

(u) Jer. xxxiii. 6. Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth.

Hos. vi. 2. After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.

Matt. xii. 15. But when Jesus knew it, he withdrew himself from thence; and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all.

9 Then (x) shalt thou call, and the LORD shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, (y) the putting forth of the finger, and (z) speaking vanity;

(x) Ps. l. 15. And call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

lxvi. 18. If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me.

19. But verily God hath heard me; he hath attended to the voice of my prayer.

xc. 15. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.

Jer. xxix. 12. Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you.

13. And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart.

Matt. vii. 7. Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:

8. For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

(y) Prov. vi. 13. He winketh with his eyes, he speaketh with his feet, he teacheth with his fingers.

Is. lvii. 4. Against whom do ye sport yourselves? against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue? are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood?

(z) Ps. xii. 2. They speak vanity every one with his neighbour; with flattering lips, and with a double heart, do they speak.

Ez. xiii. 8. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, saith the Lord God.

Zech. x. 2. For the idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they were troubled because there was no shepherd.

10 And if (a) thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noon-day:

(a) Deut. xv. 7. If there be among you a poor man of one of thy brethren within any of thy gates, in thy land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not harden thy heart, nor shut thy hand from thy poor brother:

8. But thou shalt open thine hand wide unto him, and shalt surely lend him sufficient for his need, in that which he wanteth.

9. Beware that there be not a thought in thy wicked heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand; and thine eyes be evil against thy poor brother, and thou givest him nought: and he cry unto the Lord against thee, and it be sin unto thee.

10. Thou shalt surely give him, and thy heart shall not be grieved when thou givest unto him: because that for this thing the Lord thy God shall bless thee in all thy works, and in all that thou puttest thine hand unto.

Prov. xi. 24. There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty.

25. The liberal soul shall be made fat: but he that watereth shall be watered also himself.

11 And the LORD shall guide thee continually, (b) and satisfy thy soul in drought, and (c) make fat thy bones: and thou shalt (d) be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water whose waters fail not.

(b) Ps. xxxiii. 19. To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.

xxvii. 19. They shall not be ashamed in the evil time; and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

Jer. xvii. 8. For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit.

(c) Prov. iii. 8. It shall be health to thy navel, and marrow to thy bones.

xxviii. 25. He that is of a proud heart stirreth up strife: but he that putteth his trust in the Lord shall be made fat.

(d) Cant. iv. 15. A fountain of gardens, a well of living waters, and streams from Lebanon.

Jer. xxxi. 12. Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow together to the goodness of the Lord, for wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock and of the herd; and their souls shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all.

Ez. xxxvi. 35. And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of Eden; and the waste, and desolate, and ruined cities are become fenced, and are inhabited.

12 And they that shall be of thee shall (e) build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.

(e) Neh. ii. 17. Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach.

Jer. xxxi. 38. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that the city shall be built to the Lord, from the tower of Hananeel unto the gate of the corner.

Ez. xxxvi. 33. Thus saith the Lord God; In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities, I will also cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be builded.

Amos ix. 14. And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

13 ¶ If thou (f) turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and (g) call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the LORD, honourable; and shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words:

(f) Ex. xx. 8. Remember the sabbath-day, to keep it holy.

9. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work:

10. But the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates.

11. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath-day, and hallowed it.

xxxv. 2. Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be to you a holy day, a sabbath of rest to the Lord: whosoever doeth work therein shall be put to death.

3. Ye shall kindle no fire throughout your habitations upon the sabbath-day.

(g) Ps. xxviii. 4. One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to inquire in his temple.

lxxxiv. 2. My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth, for the courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God.

cxlii. 1. I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord.

14 Then shalt (h) thou delight thyself in the LORD; and I will cause thee (i) to ride upon the high places of the earth, (k) and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for (l) the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

(h) Job xxii. 26. For then shalt thou have thy delight in the Almighty, and shalt lift up thy face unto God.

xxvii. 10. Will he delight himself in the Almighty? will he always call upon God?

Ps. xxxvii. 4. Delight thyself also in the Lord; and he shall give thee the desires of thy heart.

Hab. iii. 18. Yet I will rejoice in the Lord, I will joy in the God of my salvation.

1 Pet. i. 8. Whom, having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory.

(i) Deut. xxxii. 13. He made him ride on the high places of the earth, that he might eat the increase of the fields; and he made him to suck honey out of the rock, and oil out of the flinty rock.

xxxiii. 29. Happy art thou, O Israel: who is like unto thee, O people saved by the Lord, the shield of thy help, and who is the sword of thy excellency! and thine enemies shall be found liars unto thee: and thou shalt tread upon their high places.

Hab. iii. 19. The Lord God is my strength, and he will make my feet like hinds' feet, and he will make me to walk upon my high places. To the chief singer on my stringed instruments.

(k) Ps. cxxxv. 12. And gave their land for a heritage, a heritage unto Israel his people.

Jer. iii. 19. But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? And I said, Thou shalt call me, My father; and shalt not turn away from me.

(l) Mic. iv. 4. But they shall sit every man under his vine, and under his fig-tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the Lord of hosts hath spoken it.

Matt. xxiv. 35. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

CHAPTER LIX.

BEHOOLD, (a) the LORD's hand is not shortened, (b) that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear:

(a) Gen. xviii. 14. Is any thing too hard for the Lord? At the time appointed I will return unto thee according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son.

Num. xi. 23. And the Lord said unto Moses, Is the Lord's hand waxed short? thou shalt see now whether my word shall come to pass unto thee or not.

Jer. xxxii. 17. Ah, Lord God! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched-out-arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee.

(b) Heb. vii. 25. Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

2 But (c) your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.

(c) Deut. xxxii. 19. And when the Lord saw it, he abhorred them, because of the provoking of his sons, and of his daughters.

Josh. vii. 11. Israel hath sinned, and they have also transgressed my covenant which I commanded them: for they have even taken of the accursed thing, and have also stolen, and dissembled also, and they have put it even among their own stuff.

12. Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they were accused: neither will I be with you any more, except ye destroy the accursed from among you.

Prov. xv. 29. The Lord is far from the wicked: but he heareth the prayer of the righteous.

Jer. v. 25. Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden good things from you.

3 For (d) your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; (e) your lips have spoken lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness.

(d) Jer. ii. 34. Also in thy skirts is found the blood of the souls of the poor innocents: I have not found it by secret search, but upon all these.

Ez. vii. 23. Make a chain; for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence.

ix. 9. Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Judah and Israel is exceeding great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perverseness; for they say, The Lord hath forsaken the earth, and the Lord seeth not.

(e) Jer. vii. 8. Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit.

Ez. xiii. 8. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, saith the Lord God.

Hos. vii. 13. Wo unto them! for they have fled from me; destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me; though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me.

Mic. vi. 12. For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

1 Tim. iv. 2. Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron.

4 None (f) calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; (g) they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.

(f) Jer. v. 1. Run ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, if ye can find a man, if there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth; and I will pardon it.

Ez. xxii. 29. The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy; yea, they have oppressed the stranger wrongfully.

30. And I sought for a man among them that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none.

(g) Job xv. 35. They conceive mischief, and bring forth vanity, and their belly prepareth deceit.

Ps. vii. 14. Behold, he travaileth with iniquity, and hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood.

Prov. iv. 16. For they sleep not, except they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.

James i. 15. Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

5 They hatch cockatrice' eggs, and weave the spider's web: he that eateth of their eggs dieth, and that which is crushed breaketh out into a viper.

6 Their webs shall not become garments, (h) neither shall they cover themselves with their works: (i) their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands.

(h) Rom. iii. 20. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

21. But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets;

22. Even the righteousness of God, which is by faith of Jesus Christ, unto all and upon all them that believe; for there is no difference.

Rev. iii. 17. Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:

18. I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eye-salve, that thou mayest see.

(i) Gen. vi. 11. The earth also was corrupt before God; and the earth was filled with violence.

Ps. lviii. 2. Yea, in heart you work wickedness; you weigh the violence of your hands in the earth.

Jer. vi. 7. As a fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness: violence and spoil is heard in her; before me continually is grief and wounds.

Amos vi. 3. Ye that put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near.

7 Their (k) feet run to evil, (l) and they make haste to shed innocent blood; (m) their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths.

(k) Prov. i. 16. For their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood.

vi. 17. A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood, 1

18. A heart that desireth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief.

Rom. iii. 15. Their feet are swift to shed blood.

16. Destruction and misery are in their ways.

(l) Lam. iv. 13. For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her.

Ez. ix. 9. Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perverseness: for they say, The Lord hath forsaken the earth, and the Lord seeth not.

Iter. xvii. 6. And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus; and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

(n) Prov. xv. 26. The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the Lord: but the words of the pure are pleasant words.

xxiv. 9. The thought of foolishness is sin; and the scorner is an abomination to men.

8 The (n) way of peace they know not; and there is no judgment in their goings: they have made them crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace.

(n) Prov. iii. 17. Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.

Luke i. 79. To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Rom. iii. 17. And the way of peace have they not known.

9 ¶ Therefore is judgment far from us, neither doth justice overtake us: (o) we wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness.

(o) Job xxx. 26. When I looked for good, then evil came unto me; and when I waited for light, there came darkness.

Jer. viii. 15. We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of health, and behold trouble!

Amos v. 18. Wo unto you that desire the day of the Lord! to what end is it for you? the day of the Lord is darkness, and not light.

19. As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

20. Shall not the day of the Lord be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

10 We (p) grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noon-day as in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men:

(p) Deut. xxviii. 29. And thou shalt grope at noon-day, as the blind gropeth in darkness, and thou shalt not prosper in thy ways: and thou shalt be only oppressed and spoiled evermore, and no man shall save thee.

Job v. 14. They meet with darkness in the daytime, and grope in the noon-day as in the night.

Prov. iv. 19. The way of the wicked is as darkness; they know not at what they stumble.

Lam. iv. 14. They have wandered as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood, so that men could not touch their garments.

1 John ii. 11. But he that hateth his brother, is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

11 We (q) roar all like bears, and (r) mourn sore like doves: we look for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far from us.

(q) Ps. xxxii. 3. When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long.

xxxviii. 8. I am feeble and sore broken: I have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart.

Hos. vii. 14. And they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

(r) Job xxx. 28. I went mourning without the sun: I stood up, and I cried in the congregation.

29. I am a brother to dragons, and a companion to owls.

Ez. vii. 16. But they that escape of them shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them mourning, every one for his iniquity.

12 For (s) our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and (t) our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, (u) we know them;

(s) Ezra ix. 6. And said, O my God! I am ashamed, and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up unto the heavens.

Ez. v. 6. And she hath changed my judgments into wickedness more than the nations, and my statutes more than the countries that are round about her: for they have refused my judgments and my statutes, they have not walked in them.

Hos. iv. 2. By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and blood toucheth blood.

(t) Jer. xiv. 7. O Lord, though our iniquities testify against us, do thou it for thy name's sake: for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against thee.

Hos. vii. 10. And the pride of Israel testified to his face; and they do not return to the Lord their God, nor seek him for all this.

Rom. iii. 19. Now we know, that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law; that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

20. Therefore by the deeds of the law, there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

(u) Ezra ix. 13. And, after all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great trespass, seeing that thou our God hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such deliverance as this.

Neh. ix. 33. Howbeit, thou art just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast done right, but we have done wickedly.

13 In transgressing and (x) lying against the LORD, and (y) departing away from our God, (z) speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood.

(x) Ps. lxxviii. 36. Nevertheless they did father him with their mouth, and they lied unto him with their tongues.

Jer. iii. 10. And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah hath not turned unto me with her whole heart, but feignedly, saith the Lord.

Ez. xviii. 25. Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel: Is not my way equal? are not your ways unequal?

Hos. vi. 7. But they, like men, have transgressed the covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against me.

(y) Ps. xviii. 21. For I have kept the ways of the Lord, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

Jer. iii. 20. Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the Lord.

Hos. i. 2. The beginning of the word of the Lord by Hosea. And the Lord said unto Hosea, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms, and children of whoredoms: for the land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the Lord.

Heb. iii. 12. Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.

(z) Jer. v. 23. But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone.

James iii. 6. And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

14 And (a) judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.

(a) Ec. iii. 16. And, moreover, I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there.

Amos v. 7. Ye who turn judgment to wormwood, and leave off righteousness in the earth.

Mic. iii. 9. Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that abhor judgment, and pervert all equity.

Hab. i. 4. Therefore the law is slacked, and judgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore wrong judgment proceedeth.

Zeph. iii. 1. Wo to her that is filthy and polluted, to the oppressing city!

2. She obeyed not the voice; she received not correction: she trusted not in the Lord; she drew not near to her God.

3. Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they gnaw not the bones till the morrow.

15 Yea, (b) truth faileth; and (c) he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey: and the LORD saw it, and it displeased him that there was no judgment.

(b) Ps. v. 9. For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; their inward part is very wickedness; their throat is an open sepulchre; they flatter with their tongue.

xii. 1. Help, Lord; for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.

2. They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips and with a double heart do they speak.

Jer. vii. 28. But thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the Lord their God, nor receiveth correction: truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth.

(c) Hab. i. 13. Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity: wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he?

14. And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that have no ruler over them?

Rom. viii. 36. As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

16 And (d) he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him.

(d) Ps. cvi. 23. Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses, his chosen, stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

Is. lxiv. 7. And there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and consumed us, because of our iniquities.

Ez. xxii. 30. And I sought for a man among them that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none.

17 For (e) he put on righteousness as a breast-plate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on (f) the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad (g) with zeal as a cloak.

(e) Job xxix. 14. I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: my judgment was as a robe and a diadem.

2 Cor. vi. 7. By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness, on the right hand and on the left.

Eph. vi. 14. Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breast-plate of righteousness.

1 Thess. v. 8. But let us who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breast-plate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation.

Rev. xix. 11. And I saw heaven opened, and, behold, a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True; and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

(f) Ps. xciv. 1. O Lord God, to whom vengeance belongeth; O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, show thyself.

2 Thess. i. 8. In flaming fire, taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Heb. x. 30. For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me. I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people.

(g) Ps. lxxix. 9. For the zeal of thy house hath eaten me up; and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me.

John ii. 17. And his disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thy house hath eaten me up.

18 (h) According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, (i) fury to his adversaries, recompense to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompense.

(h) Job xxxiv. 11. For the work of a man shall he render unto him, and cause every man to find according to his ways.

Ps. lxxii. 12. Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy: for thou renderest to every man according to his work.

Jer. xvii. 10. I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

Matt. xvi. 27. For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

Rom. ii. 6. Who will render to every man according to his deeds.

(i) Ps. xxi. 8. Thy hand shall find out all thine enemies; thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee.

9. Thou shalt make them as a fiery oven in the time of thine anger: the Lord shall swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire shall devour them.

Lam. iv. 11. The Lord hath accomplished his fury; he hath poured out his fierce anger, and hath kindled a fire in Zion; and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.

Ez. v. 13. Thus shall mine anger be accomplished, and I will cause my fury to rest upon them, and I will be comforted: and they shall know that I the Lord have spoken it in my zeal, when I have accomplished my fury in them.

Nah. i. 2. God is jealous, and the Lord revengeth; the Lord revengeth, and is furious: the Lord will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

Luke xxi. 22. For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

Rev. xvi. 19. And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell, and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

19 So (k) shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When (l) the enemy shall come in like a flood, (m) the spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him.

(k) Ps. xxii. 27. All the ends of the world shall remember, and turn unto the Lord; and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.

cii. 15. So the heathen shall fear the name of the Lord, and all the kings of the earth thy glory.

16. When the Lord shall build up Zion, he shall appear in his glory.

Zeph. iii. 8. Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the Lord, until the day that I rise up to the prey; for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy.

9. For then will I turn to the people a pure language, that they may all call upon the name of the Lord, to serve him with one consent.

Mal. i. 11. For from the rising of the sun, even unto the going down of the same, my name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the Lord of hosts.

Rev. xi. 15. And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.

(l) Rev. xii. 15. And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16. And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

17. And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

(m) Zech. iv. 6. Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the Lord unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the Lord of hosts.

2 Thess. ii. 8. And then shall that wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming.

20 ¶ And the Redeemer shall come to Zion, and (n) unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the LORD.

(n) Ez. xviii. 30. Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord God. Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin.

31. Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

Dan. ix. 13. As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: for the Lord our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not his voice.

Acts xxvi. 20. But showed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

21 As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the LORD; (o) My spirit that is upon thee, and (p) my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth and for ever.

(o) John i. 33. And I knew him not; but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.

iii. 34. For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him.

Rom. viii. 9. But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

(p) John vii. 16. Jesus answered them, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17. If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

viii. 38. I speak that which I have seen with my Father; and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

xvii. 8. For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

CHAPTER LX.

ARISE, (a) shine; for (b) thy light is come, and (c) the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.

(a) Matt. v. 16. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

Eph. v. 14. Wherefore he saith, Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

Phil. ii. 15. That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world.

(b) Matt. iv. 16. The people which sat in darkness saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up.

Luke i. 78. Through the tender mercy of our God; whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us,

79. To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Eph. v. 8. For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord; walk as children of light.

(c) Luke ii. 32. A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

1 Pet. iv. 14. If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

2 For, behold, (d) the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but (e) the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

(d) Acts xxvi. 18. To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God; that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.

Eph. iv. 17. This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind;

18. Having their understanding darkened, being alienated from the light of God, through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart.

(e) Lev. ix. 23. And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out, and blessed the people: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the people.

Num. xvi. 19. And Korah gathered all the congregation against them, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the congregation.

Ps. lxxx. 1. Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a flock; thou that dwellest between the cherubims, shine forth.

Ez. x. 4. Then the glory of the Lord went up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the Lord's glory.

Mal. iv. 2. But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

3 And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and (f) kings to the brightness of thy rising.

(f) Ps. ii. 10. Be wise now, therefore, O ye kings; be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

lxviii. 29. Because of the temple at Jerusalem, shall kings bring presents unto thee.

lxxii. 11. Yea, all kings shall fall down before him; all nations shall serve him.

cxxxviii. 4. All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O Lord, when they hear the words of thy mouth.

Rev. xxi. 24. And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

4 (g) Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, (h) they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side.

(g) Is. xlix. 18. Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together and come to thee. As I live, saith the Lord, thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all as with an ornament, and bind them on thee as a bride doeth.

John iv. 35. Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.

Acts xiii. 44. And the next sabbath-day came almost the whole city together, to hear the word of God.

(h) Matt. viii. 11. And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven.

Gal. iii. 28. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

29. And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

5 Then (i) thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and (k) be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.

(i) Jer. xxxiii. 9. And it shall be to me a name of joy, a praise, and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall fear and tremble for all the goodness, and for all the prosperity, that I procure unto it.

Hos. iii. 5. Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the Lord their God, and David their king; and shall fear the Lord and his goodness in the latter days.

(k) 1 Sam. ii. 1. And Hannah prayed, and said, My heart rejoiceth in the Lord; my horn is exalted in the Lord; my mouth is enlarged over mine enemies; because I rejoice in thy salvation.

2 Cor. x. 15. Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly.

6 The (l) multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all they from Sheba shall come: they shall bring gold and incense; and (m) they shall show forth the praises of the LORD.

(l) Judg. vi. 5. For they came up with their cattle, and their tents, and they came as grasshoppers for multitude: for both they and their camels be without number: and they entered into the land to destroy it.

vii. 12. And the Midianites, and the Amalekites, and all the children of the east, lay along in the valley like grasshoppers for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand by the sea-side for multitude.

1 Kings x. 2. And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bare spices, and very much gold, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.

(m) Rom. xv. 9. And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.

1 Pet. ii. 9. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

Rev. v. 9. And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood, out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;

10. And hast made us unto our God kings and priests; and we shall reign on the earth.

7 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister unto thee: (n) they shall come up with acceptance on mine altar, and I will glorify the house of my glory.

(n) Job xlii. 8. Therefore take unto you now seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt-offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you, for him will I accept; lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, like my servant Job.

Rom. xii. 1. I beseech you, therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

xv. 16. That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost.

Heb. xiii. 15. By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to his name.

16. But to do good, and to communicate, forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

8 Who are these that (o) fly as (p) a cloud, and (q) as the doves to their windows?

(o) Is. xlv. 22. Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is none else.

Luke xiii. 29. And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God.

(p) Heb. xii. 1. Wherefore, seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us.

(q) Gen. viii. 8. Also he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground:

9. But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark: for the waters were on the face of the whole earth. Then he put forth his hand, and took her, and pulled her in unto him into the ark;

10. And he stayed yet other seven days, and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark;

11. And the dove came in to him in the evening, and, lo, in her mouth was an olive-leaf plucked off. So Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth.

9 Surely (r) the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, (s) unto the name of the LORD thy God, and to the Holy One of Israel, because he hath glorified thee.

(r) Psa. lxxii. 10. The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents: the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

Is. xlix. 1. Listen, O isles, unto me; and hearken, ye people, from far; The Lord hath called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name.

li. 5. My righteousness is near; my salvation is gone forth, and mine arms shall judge the people; the isles shall wait upon me, and on mine arm shall they trust.

Zeph. ii. 11. The Lord will be terrible unto them: for he will famish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

(s) Josh. ix. 9. And they said unto him, From a very far country thy servants are come, because of the name of the Lord thy God: for we have heard the fame of him, and all that he did in Egypt.

Prov. xviii. 10. The name of the Lord is a strong tower; the righteous runneth into it, and is safe.

John xvii. 26. And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it; that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them.

Acts ix. 15. But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel.

10 And the sons of strangers shall build up thy walls, and their kings shall minister unto thee; for in my wrath I smote thee, but in my favour have I had mercy on thee.

11 Therefore (t) thy gates shall be opened continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring unto thee the forces of the Gentiles, and that their kings may be brought.

(t) Neh. xiii. 19. And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath-day.

Rev. xxi. 25. And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.

12 For (u) the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted.

(u) Psa. ii. 12. Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

Dan. ii. 44. And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces, and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

45. Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it break in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

Matt. xxi. 44. And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

Luke xix. 27. But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

Rev. ii. 26. And he that overcometh, and keepeth my words unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

27. (And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers:) even as I received of my Father.

13 The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir-tree, the pine-tree, and the box together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary: and I will make the place of my feet glorious.

14 The (x) sons also of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee; and all they that despised thee shall bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee, The city of the LORD, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

(x) Is. xlv. 14. Thus saith the Lord, The labour of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia, and of the Sabceans, men of stature, shall come over unto thee, and they shall be thine: they shall come after thee; in chains they shall come over, and they shall fall down unto thee; they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, Surely God is in thee, and there is none else; there is no god.

xlix. 23. And kings shall be thy nursing-fathers, and their queens thy nursing-mothers: they shall bow down to thee with their face toward the earth, and lick up the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am the Lord: for they shall not be ashamed that wait for me.

Jer. xvi. 19. O Lord, my strength, my fortress, and my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come unto thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanities, and things wherein there is no profit.

Rev. iii. 9. Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

15 Whereas (y) thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.

(y) Jer. xxx. 17. For I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the Lord; because they called thee an outcast, saying, This is Zion, whom no man seeketh after.

Lam. i. 1. How doth the city sit solitary that was full of people! how is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and princess among the provinces, how is she become tributary!

2. She weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks; among all her lovers, she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they are become her enemies.

Rev. xi. 2. But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months.

16 Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles, and shalt suck the breast of kings: and thou shalt know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty one of Jacob.

17 For (z) brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron; I will also make thy officers peace, and thine exactors righteousness.

(z) 1 Kings x. 21. And all king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; none were of silver: it was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon.

25. And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and garments, and armour, and spices, horses and mules, a rate year by year.

Is. xxx. 26. Moreover, the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the Lord bindeth up the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound.

18 Violence (a) shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.

(a) Ps. lxxii. 3. The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills by righteousness.

4. He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor.

5. They shall fear thee as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.

6. He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass; as showers that water the earth.

7. In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth.

Mic. iv. 3. And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plough-shares, and their spears into pruning-hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

Zech. ix. 8. And I will encamp about my house because of the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth; and no oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now have I seen with mine eyes.

19 The sun shall no more be thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the LORD shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory.

20 Thy (b) sun shall no more go down; neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the LORD shall be thine everlasting light, and (c) the days of thy mourning shall be ended.

(b) Ps. xxvii. 1. The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

Is. lxxiv. 11. For the Lord God is a sun and shield: the Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

Amos viii. 9. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord God, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day.

Mal. iv. 2. But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

(c) Is. xxx. 19. For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem; thou shalt weep no more: he will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry; when he shall hear it, he will answer thee.

xxxv. 10. And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Rev. xxi. 4. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

21 Thy (d) people also shall be all righteous: they shall (e) inherit the land for ever, (f) the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.

(d) 2 Pet. iii. 13. Nevertheless, we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

Rev. xxi. 27. And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

(e) Ps. xxxvii. 11. But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

22. For such as be blessed of him shall inherit the earth; and they that be cursed of him shall be cut off.

Matt. v. 5. Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

(f) Matt. xv. 13. But he answered and said, Every plant which my heavenly Father hath not planted shall be rooted up.

John xv. 2. Every branch in me that beareth not fruit, he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

Eph. ii. 10. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

22 A (g) little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: (h) I the LORD will hasten it in his time.

(g) Matt. xiii. 31. Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field:

32. Which indeed is the least of all seeds; but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

Rev. vii. 9. After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands.

(h) Hab. ii. 3. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

Luke xviii. 7. And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8. I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

2 Pet. iii. 8. But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

9. The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

CHAPTER LXI.

THE (a) Spirit of the Lord God is upon me: because the LORD hath (b) anointed me (c) to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me (d) to bind up the broken-hearted, (e) to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

(a) Matt. iii. 16. And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him.

Luke iv. 18. The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised.

John i. 32. And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33. And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.

(b) Ps. xlv. 7. Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

Dan. ix. 24. Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the Most Holy.

(c) Ps. xxii. 26. The meek shall eat, and be satisfied; they shall praise the Lord that seek him: your heart shall live for ever.

xxv. 9. The meek will he guide in judgment, and the meek will he teach his way.

Luke vii. 22. Then Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached.

(d) Ps. xxxiv. 18. The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.

cxlvii. 3. He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.

Hos. vi. 1. Come, and let us return unto the Lord: for he hath torn, and he will heal us: he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

(e) Ps. cii. 20. To hear the groaning of the prisoner, to loose those that are appointed to death.

Jer. xxxiv. 8. This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the Lord, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty unto them.

Acts xxvi. 18. To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.

2 To proclaim (f) the acceptable year of the LORD, (g) and the day of vengeance of our God; (h) to comfort all that mourn;

(f) Lev. xxv. 9. Then shalt thou cause the trumpet of the jubilee to sound, on the tenth day of the seventh month, in the day of atonement shall ye make the trumpet sound throughout all your land.

10. And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubilee unto you; and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family.

11. A jubilee shall that fiftieth year be unto you; ye shall not sow, neither reap that which groweth of itself in it, nor gather the grapes in it of thy vine undressed.

12. For it is the jubilee; it shall be holy unto you: ye shall eat the increase thereof out of the field.

13. In the year of this jubilee ye shall return every man unto his possession.

Luke iv. 19. To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.

(g) Ps. cx. 5. The Lord at thy right hand shall strike through kings in the day of his wrath.

6. He shall judge among the heathen, he shall fill the places with the dead bodies; he shall wound the heads over many countries.

Jer. xlvi. 10. For this is the day of the Lord God of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries; and the sword shall devour, and it shall be satiate, and made drunk with their blood; for the Lord God of hosts hath a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates.

1 Thess. ii. 16. Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles, that they might be saved, to fill up their sins always; for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

(h) Jer. xxxi. 13. Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old together: for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow.

Matt. v. 4. Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted.

Luke vi. 21. Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.

3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them (i) beauty for ashes, (k) the oil of joy for mourning, (l) the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, (m) that he might be glorified.

(i) Esth. iv. 1. When Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and bitter cry.

viii. 15. And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple; and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad.

Ps. xxx. 11. Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness.

(k) Ps. xxiii. 5. Thou preparast a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointed my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

VOL. III.

Ec. ix. 8. Let thy garments be always white; and let thy head lack no ointment.

(l) Zech. iii. 5. And I said, Let them set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the Lord stood by.

Luke xv. 22. But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him: and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet.

(m) Matt. v. 16. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

John xv. 8. Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

1 Cor. vi. 20. For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

1 Pet. ii. 9. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

4 ¶ And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

5 And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your ploughmen and your vine-dressers.

6 But ye shall (n) be named the priests of the LORD: men shall call you (o) the Ministers of our God: (p) ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves.

(n) Ex. xix. 6. And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

1 Pet. ii. 9. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

Rev. i. 6. And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

v. 10. And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

(o) 1 Cor. iii. 5. Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man.

iv. 1. Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God.

(p) Is. xxiii. 18. And her merchandise and her hire shall be holiness to the Lord: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the Lord, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.

Rom. xv. 26. For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem.

27. It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

7 ¶ For (q) your shame ye shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double: (r) everlasting joy shall be unto them.

(q) Deut. xxi. 17. But he shall acknowledge the son of the hated for the first-born, by giving him a double portion of all that he hath: for he is the beginning of his strength; the right of the first-born is his.

Job xlii. 10. And the Lord turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the Lord gave Job twice as much as he had before.

Zech. ix. 12. Turn ye to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope: even to-day do I declare, that I will render double unto thee.

2 Cor. iv. 17. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory.

(r) Ps. xvi. 11. Thou wilt show me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

Matt. xxv. 46. And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.

2 Thess. ii. 16. Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace.

8 For I the LORD love judgment, (s) I hate robbery for burnt-offering; and (t) I will direct their work in truth, and (u) I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

(s) 1 Sam. xv. 21. But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice unto the Lord thy God in Gilgal.

22. And Samuel said, Hath the Lord as great delight in burnt-offerings and sacrifices as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken, than the fat of rams.

23. For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because thou hast rejected the word of the Lord, he hath also rejected thee from being king.

(t) Ps. xxxii. 8. I will instruct thee, and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye.

Prov. iii. 6. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

viii. 20. I lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment.

(u) 2 Sam. xxiii. 5. Although my house be not so with God; yet he hath made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things, and sure: for this is all my salvation, and all my desire, although he make it not to grow.

Jer. xxxii. 40. And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me.

9 And their seed shall be known among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the people: all that see them shall acknowledge them, that (x) they are the seed which the LORD hath blessed.

(x) Ps. cxv. 14. The Lord shall increase you more and more, you and your children.

Is. lxx. 23. They shall not labour in vain, nor bring forth for trouble: for they are the seed of the blessed of the Lord, and their offspring with them.

Acts iii. 26. Unto you first, God having raised up his son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

10 I will (y) greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; (z) for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, (a) as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself (b) with her jewels.

(y) 1 Sam. ii. 1. And Hannah prayed, and said, My heart rejoiceth in the Lord; my horn is exalted in the Lord; my mouth is enlarged over mine enemies, because I rejoice in thy salvation.

Ps. xviii. 7. The Lord is my strength and my shield: my heart trusted in him, and I am helped; therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth, and with my song will I praise him.

Hab. iii. 18. Yet I will rejoice in the Lord, I will joy in the God of my salvation.

Zech. x. 7. And they of Ephraim shall be like a mighty man, and their heart shall rejoice as through wine: yea, their children shall see it, and be glad; their I shall rejoice in the Lord.

Rom. v. 11. And not only so, but we also joy in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.

(z) Rom. iii. 22. Even the righteousness of God, which is by faith of Jesus Christ, unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference.

xiii. 14. But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

Phil. iii. 9. And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith.

(a) Rev. xix. 7. Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

8. And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white; for the fine linen is the righteousness of the saints.

xxi. 2. And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

(b) Gen. xxiv. 53. And the servant brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment, and gave them to Rebekah: he gave also to her brother and to her mother precious things.

11 For (c) as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; (d) so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise (e) to spring forth before all the nations.

(c) Cant. iv. 16. Awake, O north wind; and come, thou south; blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasant fruits.

v. 1. I am come into my garden, my sister, my spouse: I have gathered my myrrh with my spice;

I have eaten my honey-comb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk; eat, O friends, drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved.

Matt. xiii. 23. But he that had received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundred-fold, some sixty, some thirty.

(d) Ps. lxxii. 16. There shall be an handful of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains; the fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon: and they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.

lxxxv. 11. Truth shall spring out of the earth; and righteousness shall look down from heaven.

(e) 1 Pet. ii. 9. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

CHAPTER LXII.

FOR (a) Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until (b) the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness, and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth.

(a) Ps. li. 18. Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

cxxxvii. 6. If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; if I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy.

Luke x. 2. Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

(b) Ps. xcvi. 1. O sing unto the Lord a new song; for he hath done marvellous things: his right hand and his holy arm hath gotten him the victory.

2. The Lord hath made known his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly showed in the sight of the heathen.

3. He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Mic. iv. 2. And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

2 And (c) the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and (d) all kings thy glory: and (e) thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name.

(c) Mic. v. 8. And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many people, as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep; who, if he go through, both treadeth down and careth in pieces, and none can deliver.

Acts ix. 15. But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel.

xxvi. 23. That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should show light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

(d) Ps. lxxii. 10. The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents: the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

11. Yea, all kings shall fall down before him; all nations shall serve him.

(e) Gen. xvii. 5. Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram; but thy name shall be called Abraham: for a father of many nations have I made thee.

xxxii. 28. And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed.

Jer. xxxiii. 16. In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely: and this is the name wherewith she shall be called, The Lord our righteousness.

Rev. ii. 17. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

3 Thou shalt also be (f) a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.

(f) Zech. ix. 16. And the Lord their God shall save them in that day as the flock of his people: for they shall be as the stones of a crown, lifted up as an ensign upon his land.

1 Thess. ii. 19. For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming?

4 Thou (g) shalt no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed Desolate: but thou shalt be called Hephzibah, and thy land Beulah: for the LORD delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married.

(g) Is. xlix. 14. But Zion said, The Lord hath forsaken me, and my Lord hath forgotten me.

liv. 6. For the Lord hath called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God.

7. For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee.

Hos. i. 9. Then said God, Call his name Lomami: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.

10. Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered: and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God.

1 Pet. ii. 10. Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

5 For as a young man marrieth a virgin, so (h) shall thy sons marry thee: and as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice over thee.

(h) Is. xlix. 18. Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to thee. As I live, saith the Lord, thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all as with an ornament, and bind them on thee as a bride doeth.

19. For thy waste and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction, shall even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants, and they that swallowed thee up shall be far away.

20. The children which thou shalt have, after thou hast lost the other, shall say again in thine ears, The place is too strait for me: give place for me that I may dwell.

21. Then shalt thou say in thine heart, Who hath begotten me these, seeing I have lost my children, and am desolate, a captive, and removing to and fro? and who hath brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where had they been?

22. Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will lift up my hand to the Gentiles, and set up my standard to the people: and they shall bring thy sons in their arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders.

6 ¶ I have (i) set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention of the LORD, (k) keep not silence,

(i) Jer. vi. 17. Also I set watchmen over you, saying, Hearken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken.

1 Cor. xii. 28. And God hath set some in the church; first, apostles; secondarily, prophets; thirdly, teachers; after that, miracles; then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues.

Eph. iv. 11. And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers.

Heb. xiii. 17. Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account: that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.

(k) Ps. cxxxiv. 1. Behold, bless ye the Lord, all ye servants of the Lord, which by night stand in the house of the Lord.

2. Lift up your hands in the sanctuary, and bless the Lord.

Rev. iv. 8. And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

7 And give him no rest, till he establish, and (l) till he make Jerusalem a praise in the earth.

(l) Jer. xxxiii. 9. And it shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall fear and tremble for all the goodness, and for all the prosperity, that I procure unto it.

Zeph. iii. 19. Behold, at that time I will undo all that afflict thee; and I will save her that halteth, and gather her that was driven out; and I will get them praise and fame in every land where they have been put to shame.

20. At that time will I bring you again, even in the time that I gather you: for I will make you a name and a praise among all the people of the earth, when I turn back your captivity before your eyes, saith the Lord.

8 The LORD hath (m) sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I (n) will no more give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured.

(m) Deut. xxxii. 40. For I lift up my hand to heaven, and say, I live for ever.

Ez. xx. 5. And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, In the day when I chose Israel, and lifted up my hand unto the seed of the house of Jacob, and made myself known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up my hand unto them, saying, I am the Lord your God.

(n) Lev. xxvi. 16. I also will do this unto you; I will even appoint over you terror, consumption, and the burning ague, that shall consume the eyes, and cause sorrow of heart: and ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it.

Deut. xxviii. 31. Thine ox shall be slain before thine eyes, and thou shalt not eat thereof: thine ass shall be violently taken away from before thy face, and shall not be restored to thee: thy sheep shall be given unto thine enemies, and thou shalt have none to rescue them.

33. The fruit of thy land, and all thy labours, shall a nation which thou knowest not eat up; and thou shalt be only oppressed and crushed away.

Jer. v. 17. And they shall eat up thy harvest, and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat: they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig-trees: they shall impoverish thy fenced cities, wherein thou trustedst, with the sword.

9 But they that have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and they that have brought it together shall drink it in the courts of my holiness.

10 ¶ Go through, (o) go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; (p) lift up the standard for the people.

(o) Is. lii. 11. Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; be ye clean that bear the vessels of the Lord.

lvii. 14. And shall say, Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way; take up the stumbling-block out of the way of my people.

Matt. xxii. 9. Go ye, therefore, into the highways; and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

Heb. xii. 13. And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed.

(p) Is. xlix. 22. Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will lift up my hand to the Gentiles, and set up my standard to the people: and they shall bring thy sons in their arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders.

11 Behold, (q) the LORD hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, (r) Say ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy salvation cometh; behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him.

(q) Mark xvi. 15. And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

(r) Zech. ix. 9. Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee; he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

Matt. xxi. 5. Tell ye the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

John xii. 15. Fear not, daughter of Zion: behold, thy King cometh sitting on an ass's colt.

12 And they shall call them, (s) The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and thou shalt be called (t) Sought out, A city not forsaken.

(s) Deut. vii. 6. For thou art a holy people unto the Lord thy God: the Lord thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth.

xxvi. 19. And to make thee high above all nations which he hath made, in praise, and in name, and in honour; and that thou mayest be an holy people unto the Lord thy God, as he hath spoken.

1 Pet. ii. 9. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

(t) Luke xix. 10. For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

John x. 16. And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

CHAPTER LXIII.

WHO (a) is this that cometh from Edom, with (b) dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparel, (c) travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, (d) mighty to save.

(a) Cant. iii. 6. Who is this that cometh out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant?

vi. 10. Who is this that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners?

viii. 5. Who is this that cometh up from the wilderness leaning upon her beloved? I raised thee up under the apple-tree: there thy mother brought thee forth; there she brought thee forth that bare thee.

Matt. xxi. 10. And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?

(b) Is. ix. 5. For every battle of the warrior is with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood; but this shall be with burning and fuel of fire.

Rev. xix. 13. And he was clothed in a vesture dipped in blood; and his name is called, The Word of God.

(c) Ps. xlv. 3. Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, O most Mighty, with thy glory and thy majesty.

4. And in thy majesty ride prosperously, because of truth, and meekness, and righteousness; and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

(d) Heb. vii. 25. Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

1 Pet. i. 5. Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time.

Jude 24. Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy.

2 Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the wine-fat?

3 I have (e) trodden the wine-press alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, (f) and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment.

(e) Lam. i. 15. The Lord hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me; he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men: the Lord hath trodden the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a wine-press.

Mal. iv. 3. And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet, in the day that I shall do this, saith the Lord of hosts.

Rev. xiv. 19. And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the wine of the earth, and cast it into the great wine-press of the wrath of God.

20. And the wine-press was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the wine-press, even unto the horse-bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

(f) 2 Kings ix. 83. And he said, Throw her down. So they threw her down: and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he trode her under foot.

Mic. vii. 10. Then she that is mine enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her which said unto me, Where is the Lord thy God? mine eyes shall behold her: now shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets.

4 For (g) the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

(g) Jer. li. 6. Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man his soul; be not cut off in her iniquity: for this is the time of the Lord's vengeance; he will render unto her a recompense.

Luke xxi. 22. For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

Rev. xi. 13. And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

xviii. 20. Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her.

5 And (h) I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore (i) mine own arm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me.

(h) Is. lix. 16. And he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor; therefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him.

John xvi. 32. Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

(i) Ps. xlv. 3. For they got not the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them; but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, because thou hadst a favour unto them.

Hos. i. 7. But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the Lord their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

6 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, (h) and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth.

(h) Job xxi. 20. His eyes shall see his destruction, and he shall drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

Ps. lx. 3. Thou hast showed thy people hard things; thou hast made us to drink the wine of astonishment.

lxxv. 8. For in the hand of the Lord there is a cup, and the wine is red: it is full of mixture, and he poureth out of the same: but the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them.

Lam. iii. 15. He hath filled me with bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood.

Rev. xiv. 10. The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb.

xvi. 19. And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

7 ¶ I will mention the loving-kindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and (l) the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them, (m) according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his loving-kindnesses.

(l) 1 Kings viii. 66. On the eighth day he sent the people away: and they blessed the king, and went unto their tents joyful and glad of heart, for all the goodness that the Lord had done for David his servant, and for Israel his people.

Neh. ix. 25. And they took strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, wells digged, vineyards, and olive-yards, and fruit-trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness.

Zech. ix. 17. For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty! Corn shall make the young men cheerful, and new wine the maids.

Rom. ii. 4. Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness, and forbearance, and long-suffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?

(m) Num. xiv. 18. The Lord is long-suffering, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by no means clearing the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation.

19. Pardon, I beseech thee, the iniquity of this people, according unto the greatness of thy mercy, and as thou hast forgiven this people from Egypt even until now.

Ps. li. 1. Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy loving-kindness: according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies, blot out my transgressions.

Lam. iii. 32. But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.

8 For he said, (n) Surely they are my people, (o) children that will not lie: (p) so he was their Saviour.

(n) Ex. iii. 7. And the Lord said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their task-masters; for I know their sorrows.

iv. 22. And thou shalt say unto Pharaoh, Thus saith the Lord, Israel is my son, even my first-born.

vi. 7. And I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God: and ye shall know that I am the Lord your God, which bringeth you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians.

Rom. xi. 1. I say then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

(o) Ps. lxxviii. 36. Nevertheless they did flatter him with their mouth, and they lied unto him with their tongues.

37. For their heart was not right with him, neither were they steadfast in his covenant.

Eph. iv. 25. Wherefore, putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another.

Col. iii. 9. Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds.

(p) Deut. xxxiii. 29. Happy art thou, O Israel: who is like unto thee, O people saved by the Lord, the shield of thy help, and who is the sword of thy excellency! and thine enemies shall be found liars unto thee: and thou shalt tread upon their high places.

Jer. xiv. 8. O the Hope of Israel, the Saviour thereof in time of trouble, why shouldest thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a way-faring man that turneth aside to tarry for a night?

Hos. xiii. 4. Yet I am the Lord thy God from the land of Egypt, and thou shalt know no God but me: for there is no saviour beside me.

1 John iv. 14. And we have seen, and do testify, that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

¶ 9 In (q) all their affliction he was afflicted, and (r) the angel of his presence saved them: (s) in his love and in his pity he redeemed them: and he bare them, and (t) carried them all the days of old.

(q) Judg. x. 16. And they put away the strange gods from among them, and served the Lord: and his soul was grieved for the misery of Israel.

Zech. ii. 8. For thus saith the Lord of hosts;

After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you; for he that toucheth you, toucheth the apple of his eye.

Acts ix. 4. And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

Heb. iv. 15. For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.

(r) Ex. xxiii. 20. Behold, I send an angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared.

21. Beware of him, and obey his voice, provoke him not; for he will not pardon your transgressions: for my name is in him.

Mal. iii. 1. Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple; even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the Lord of hosts.

(s) Deut. vii. 7. The Lord did not set his love upon you, nor choose you, because ye were more in number than any people; for ye were the fewest of all people.

8. But because the Lord loved you, and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn unto your fathers, hath the Lord brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondmen, from the hand of Pharaoh, king of Egypt.

1 John iv. 9. In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

10. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

Rev. i. 5. And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first-begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood.

(t) Ex. xix. 4. Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I bare you on eagles' wings, and brought you unto myself.

Deut. i. 31. And in the wilderness, where thou hast seen how that the Lord thy God bare thee, as a man doth bear his son, in all the way that ye went, until ye came into this place.

10 ¶ But they rebelled, and (u) vexed his Holy Spirit: therefore (x) he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them.

(u) Ez. vi. 9. And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations, whither they shall be carried captives, because I am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their eyes, which go a whoring after their idols: and they shall loathe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations.

Acts vii. 51. Ye stiff-necked, and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye.

Eph. iv. 30. And grieve not the Holy Spirit of God; whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

(x) Jer. xxi. 5. And I myself will fight against you with an out-stretched hand, and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath.

Lam. ii. 4. He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his fury like fire.

5. The Lord was as an enemy; he hath swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces; he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

11 Then (y) he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying, (z) Where is he that brought them up out of the sea, with the shepherd of his flock? (a) where is he that put his holy Spirit within him?

(y) Deut. iv. 30. When thou art in tribulation, and all these things are come upon thee, even in the latter days, if thou turn to the Lord thy God, and shalt be obedient unto his voice,

31. (For the Lord thy God is a merciful God,) he will not forsake thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers, which he swore unto them.

Ps. xxv. 6. Remember, O Lord, thy tender mercies, and thy loving-kindnesses; for they have been ever of old.

cxliii. 5. I remember the days of old; I meditate on all thy works: I muse on the work of thy hands.

(z) Ex. xxxii. 11. And Moses besought the Lord his God, and said, Lord, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand?

12. Wherefore should the Egyptians speak, and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against thy people.

Num. xiv. 13. And Moses said unto the Lord, Then the Egyptians shall hear it, (for thou broughtest up this people in thy might from among them;)

14. And they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land: for they have heard that thou, Lord, art among this people; that thou, Lord, art seen face to face; and that thy cloud standeth over them; and that thou goest before them, by daytime in a pillar of cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night.

Jer. ii. 6. Neither said they, Where is the Lord that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, that led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought, and of the shadow of death, through a land that no man passed through, and where no man dwelt?

(a) Neh. ix. 20. Thou gavest also thy good Spirit to instruct them, and witheldest not manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst.

Hag. ii. 5. According to the word that I covenanted with you when ye came out of Egypt, so my spirit remaineth among you: fear ye not.

Zech. iv. 6. Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the Lord unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts.

12 That led them by the right hand of Moses with his glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting name?

13 That (b) led them through the deep, as an horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble?

(b) Ps. cvi. 9. He rebuked the Red sea also, and it was dried up: so he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness.

Hab. iii. 15. Thou didst walk through the sea with thy horses, through the heap of great waters.

14 As a beast goeth down into the valley, (c) the Spirit of the LORD caused him to rest: so didst thou lead thy people, (d) to make thyself a glorious name.

(c) Josh. xxii. 4. And now the Lord your God hath given rest unto your brethren, as he promised them: therefore now return ye, and get you unto your tents, and unto the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the Lord gave you on the other side Jordan.

xxiii. 1. And it came to pass, a long time after that the Lord had given rest unto Israel from all their enemies round about, that Joshua waxed old and stricken in age.

(d) Num. xiv. 21. But as truly as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the Lord.

2 Sam. vii. 23. And what one nation in the earth is like thy people, even like Israel, whom God went to redeem for a people to himself, and to make him a name, and to do for you great things and terrible, for thy land, before thy people, which thou redeemedst to thee from Egypt, from the nations and their gods?

Neh. ix. 5. Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, Stand up, and bless the Lord your God for ever and ever; and blessed be thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessings and praise.

Eph. i. 12. That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.

14. Which is the earnest of our inheritance, until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

15 ¶ Look (e) down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory: (f) where is thy zeal and thy strength, the sounding of (g) thy bowels and of thy mercies toward me? are they restrained?

(e) Deut. xxvi. 15. Look down from thy holy habitation, from heaven, and bless thy people Israel, and the land which thou hast given us, as thou swarest unto our fathers, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

Ps. xxxiii. 14. From the place of his habitation he looketh upon all the inhabitants of the earth.

lxxx. 14. Return, we beseech thee, O God of hosts: look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine.

Lam. iii. 50. Till the Lord look down, and behold from heaven.

(f) Ps. lxxxix. 49. Lord, where are thy loving-kindnesses, which thou swarest unto David in thy truth?

(g) Hos. xi. 8. How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? My heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

Phil. ii. 1. If there be, therefore, any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies.

1 John iii. 17. But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?

16 Doubtless (h) thou art our father, (i) though Abraham be ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not; thou, O LORD, art our Father, our Redeemer; thy name is from everlasting.

(h) Deut. xxxii. 6. Do ye thus requite the Lord? O foolish people and unwise! is not he thy father that hath bought thee? hath he not made thee and established thee?

1 Chr. xxix. 10. Wherefore David blessed the Lord before all the congregation: and David said, Blessed be thou, Lord God of Israel, our Father, for ever and ever.

Jer. iii. 19. But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? And I said, Thou shalt call me, My father; and shalt not turn away from me.

xxxii. 9. They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble; for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born.

Mal. i. 6. A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master; if then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the Lord of hosts unto you, O priests that despise my name. And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name?

ii. 10. Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?

Matt. vi. 9. After this manner therefore pray ye; Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

(i) Job xiv. 21. His sons come to honour, and he knoweth it not; and they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them.

17 O LORD, why hast thou made us to err from thy ways, (k) and hardened our heart from thy fear? (l) Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance.

(k) Deut. ii. 30. But Sihon, king of Heshbon, would not let us pass by him: for the Lord thy God hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, that he might deliver him into thy hand, as appeareth this day.

Josh. xi. 20. For it was of the Lord to harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle, that he might destroy them utterly, and that they might have no favour, but that he might destroy them, as the Lord commanded Moses.

(l) Num. x. 36. And when it rested, he said, Return, O Lord, unto the many thousands of Israel.

Ps. lxxiv. 1. O God, why hast thou cast us off for ever? why doth thine anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture?

2. Remember thy congregation, which thou hast purchased of old; the rod of thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed; this mount Zion, wherein thou hast dwelt.

18 The (m) people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while; (n) our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary.

(m) Deut. vii. 6. For thou art a holy people unto the Lord thy God; the Lord thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth.

Dan. viii. 24. And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people.

(n) Lam. i. 10. The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things: for she hath seen that the heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command that they should not enter into thy congregation.

Matt. xxiv. 2. And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

Rev. xi. 2. But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months.

19 We (o) are thine: thou never barest rule over them; they were not called by thy name.

(o) Ps. cxxxv. 4. For the Lord hath chosen Jacob unto himself, and Israel for his peculiar treasure.

Jer. x. 25. Pour out thy fury upon the heathen that know thee not, and upon the families that call not on thy name: for they have eaten up Jacob, and devoured him, and consumed him, and have made his habitation desolate.

Eph. ii. 12. That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world.

CHAPTER LXIV.

OH (a) that thou wouldest rend the heavens, (b) that thou wouldest come down, (c) that the mountains might flow down at thy presence;

(a) Ps. cxliv. 5. Bow thy heavens, O Lord, and come down: touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.

6. Cast forth lightning, and scatter them: shoot out thine arrows, and destroy them.

Mark i. 10. And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit, like a dove, descending upon him.

(b) Ex. iii. 8. And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey, unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

Mic. i. 3. For, behold, the Lord cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth.

4. And the mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down a steep place.

(c) Judg. v. 4. Lord, when thou wentest out of Seir, when thou marchedst out of the field of Edom, the earth trembled, and the heavens dropped, the clouds also dropped water.

5. The mountains melted from before the Lord, even that Sinai, from before the Lord God of Israel.

Amos ix. 5. And the Lord God of hosts is he that toucheth the land, and it shall melt, and all that dwelleth therein shall mourn: and it shall rise up wholly like a flood; and shall be drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.

Nah. i. 5. The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burnt at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein.

6. Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

Rev. xx. 11. And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.

2 As when the melting fire burneth, the fire causeth the waters to boil, (d) to make thy name known to thine adversaries, that the (e) nations may tremble at thy presence!

(d) Ex. xiv. 4. And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, that he shall follow after them; and I will be honoured upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host; that the Egyptians may know that I am the Lord. And they did so.

1 Sam. xvii. 46. This day will the Lord deliver thee into my hand; and I will smite thee, and take thy head from thee; and I will give the carcasses of the host of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the wild beasts of the earth; that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel.

47. And all this assembly shall know that the Lord saveth not with sword and spear: for the battle is the Lord's, and he will give you into our hands.

Ps. xlii. 10. Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

(e) Deut. ii. 25. This day will I begin to put the dread of thee and the fear of thee upon the nations that are under the whole heaven, who shall hear report of thee, and shall tremble and be in anguish because of thee.

Ps. ix. 20. Put them in fear, O Lord; that the nations may know themselves to be but men. Selah.

xcix. 1. The Lord reigneth; let the people tremble: he sitteth between the cherubims; let the earth be moved.

Jer. xxxiii. 9. And it shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall fear and tremble for all the goodness, and for all the prosperity, that I procure unto it.

3 When (f) thou didst terrible things which we looked not for, thou camest down, the mountains flowed down at thy presence.

(f) Ex. xxxiv. 10. And he said, Behold, I make a covenant; before all the people I will do marvels, such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation: and all the people among which thou art shall see the work of the Lord; for it is a terrible thing that I will do with thee.

Deut. iv. 34. Or hath God assayed to go and take him a nation from the midst of another nation, by temptations, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by a stretched-out arm, and by great terrors, according to all that the Lord your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

2 Sam. vii. 23. And what one nation in the earth is like thy people, even like Israel, whom God went to redeem for a people to himself, and to make him a name, and to do for you great things and terrible for thy land, before thy people, which thou redeemedst to thee from Egypt, from the nations and their gods?

Ps. cvi. 22. Wondrous works in the land of Ham, and terrible things by the Red sea.

4 For since the beginning of the world men (g) have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that (h) waiteth for him.

(g) 1 Cor. ii. 9. But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

1 Tim. iii. 15. And, without controversy, great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifested in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

1 John iii. 1. Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God! therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

2. Beloved, now are we the sons of God; and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.

iv. 10. Mercies is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

(h) Gen. xlix. 18. I have waited for thy salvation, O Lord!

Ps. lxxiii. 1. Truly my soul waiteth upon God: from him cometh my salvation.

Lam. iii. 25. The Lord is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.

26. It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the Lord.

Luke ii. 25. And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Ghost was upon him.

1 Cor. i. 7. So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Thess. i. 10. And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come.

James v. 7. Be patient, therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain.

5 Thou (i) meetest him that rejoiceth and worketh righteousness; those that remember thee in thy ways: behold, thou art wroth; for we have sinned: in those is continuance, and we shall be saved.

(i) Ex. xx. 24. An altar of earth thou shalt make unto me, and shalt sacrifice thereon thy burnt-offerings, and thy peace-offerings, thy sheep, and thine oxen: in all places where I record my name I will come unto thee, and I will bless thee.

xxv. 22. And there I will meet with thee, and

I will commune with thee from above the mercy-seat, from between the two cherubims which are upon the ark of the testimony, of all things which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel.

xxx. 6. And thou shalt put it before the veil that is by the ark of the testimony, before the mercy-seat that is over the testimony, where I will meet with thee.

6 But we (k) are all as an unclean thing, and (l) all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and (m) we all do fade as a leaf; and (n) our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

(k) Job xiv. 4. Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one.

xxv. 4. How then can man be justified with God? or how can he be clean that is born of a woman?

xlii. 5. I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear, but now mine eye seeth thee.

6. Wherefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes.

Ps. li. 5. Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

(l) Zech. iii. 3. Now Joshua was clothed in filthy garments, and stood before the angel.

4. And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment.

Phil. iii. 9. And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith.

Rev. iii. 17. Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:

18. I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eye-salve, that thou mayest see.

(m) Ps. xc. 5. Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep: in the morning they are like grass which groweth up.

6. In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

James i. 10. But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11. For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

(n) Ps. i. 4. The ungodly are not so; but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

Jer. iv. 11. At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to cleanse.

Hos. iv. 19. The wind hath bound her up in her wings, and they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

7 And (o) there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast consumed us, because of our iniquities.

(o) Ps. xiv. 4. Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread, and call not upon the Lord.

Ez. xxii. 30. And I sought for a man among them that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none.

Hos. vii. 7. They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges: all their kings are fallen; there is none among them that calleth unto me.

14. And they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

8 But now, O LORD, (p) thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we (q) all are the work of thy hand.

(p) Ez. iv. 22. And thou shalt say unto Pharaoh, Thus saith the Lord, Israel is my son, even my first-born.

Deut. xxxii. 6. Do you thus requite the Lord? O foolish people, and unwise! is not he thy father that hath bought thee? hath he not made thee, and established thee?

Gal. iii. 26. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

29. And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

(q) Job x. 8. Thine hands have made me, and fashioned me together, round about; yet thou dost destroy me.

9. Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast made me as the clay; and wilt thou bring me into dust again?

Ps. c. 3. Know ye that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves: we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Eph. ii. 10. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

9 ¶ Be not (r) wroth very sore, O LORD, neither (s) remember iniquity for ever: behold, see, we beseech thee, we are all thy people.

(r) Ps. vi. 1. O Lord, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

lxxiv. 1. O God, why hast thou cast us off for ever? why doth thine anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture?

Jer. x. 24. O Lord, correct me, but with judgment; not in thine anger, lest thou bring me to nothing.

Hab. iii. 2. O Lord, I have heard thy speech, and was afraid: O Lord, revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy.

(s) Jer. iii. 12. Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the Lord, and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you; for I am merciful, saith the Lord, and I will not keep anger for ever.

Mal. i. 4. Whereas Edom saith, We are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places; thus saith the Lord of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the Lord hath indignation for ever.

10 Thy (t) holy cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.

(t) 2 Kings xxv. 9. And he burnt the house of the Lord, and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and every great man's house burnt he with fire.

Mic. iii. 12. Therefore shall Zion for your sake be ploughed as a field; and Jerusalem shall become heaps; and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

Rev. xi. 1. And there was given me a reed like unto a rod; and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2. But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months.

11 Our (u) holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, is burnt up with fire; and all our pleasant things are laid waste.

(u) Ps. lxxiv. 7. They have cast fire into thy sanctuary; they have defiled by casting down the dwelling-place of thy name to the ground.

Jer. lii. 13. And burnt the house of the Lord, and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men burnt he with fire.

Ez. xxiv. 25. Also, thou son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their minds, their sons and their daughters.

12 Wilt (x) thou refrain thyself for these things, O LORD? wilt thou hold thy peace, and afflict us very sore?

(x) Ps. x. 1. Why standest thou afar off, O Lord? why hidest thou thyself in times of trouble?

lxxiv. 10. O God, how long shall the enemy reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever?

lxxix. 5. How long, Lord? wilt thou be angry for ever? shall thy jealousy burn like fire?

lxxx. 3. Turn us again, O God, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

4. O Lord God of hosts, how long wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people?

Zech. i. 12. Then the angel of the Lord answered and said, O Lord of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these threescore and ten years?

Rev. vi. 10. And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

CHAPTER LXV.

I AM (a) sought of them that asked not for me; I am found of them that sought me not: I said, (b) Behold me, behold me, (c) unto a nation that was not called by my name.

(a) Ps. xxii. 27. All the ends of the world shall remember, and turn unto the Lord; and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.

28. For the kingdom is the Lord's; and he is the governor among the nations.

Rom. x. 20. But Esaias is very bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after thee.

(b) John i. 29. The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world!

(c) Hos. i. 10. Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered: and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God.

Zech. ii. 11. And many nations shall be joined to the Lord in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee; and thou shalt know that the Lord of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

1 Pet. ii. 10. Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

2 I have (d) spread out my hands all the day unto (e) a rebellious people, which walketh in a way that was not good, (f) after their own thoughts;

(d) Prov. i. 24. Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded.

Matt. xxiii. 37. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not.

Rom. x. 21. But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

(e) Jer. v. 23. But this people hath a revolting and rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone.

Acts vii. 51. Ye stiff-necked, and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye.

52. Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which showed before of the coming of the Just One, of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers.

(f) Ps. lxxxi. 12. So I gave them up unto their own hearts' lusts; and they walked in their own counsels.

Jer. iii. 17. At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the Lord; and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of the Lord, to Jerusalem: neither shall they walk any more after the imagination of their evil heart.

iv. 14. O Jerusalem, wash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved: how long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee?

Matt. xv. 19. For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies.

3 (g) A people that provoketh me to anger continually to my face; (h) that sacrificeth in gardens, and burneth incense upon altars of brick;

(g) Deut. xxxii. 16. They provoked him to jealousy with strange gods, with abominations provoked they him to anger.

17. They sacrificed unto devils, not to God; to gods whom they knew not, to new gods that came newly up, whom your fathers feared not.

18. Of the Rock that begat thee thou art unmindful, and hast forgotten God that formed thee.

19. And when the Lord saw it, he abhorred them, because of the provoking of his sons, and of his daughters.

Ez. viii. 17. Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger; and, lo, they put the branch to their nose.

18. Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

(h) Lev. xvii. 5. To the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices, which they offer in the open field, even that they may bring them unto the Lord, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation unto the priest: and to offer them for peace-offerings unto the Lord.

Ez. xx. 28. For when I had brought them into the land, for the which I lifted up my hand to give it them, then they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering: there also they made their sweet savour, and poured out there their drink-offerings.

4 Which (i) remain among the graves, and lodge in the monuments, (k) which eat swine's flesh, (l) and broth of abominable things is in their vessels;

(i) Matt. viii. 28. And when he was come to the other side, into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.

Mark v. 2. And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

3. Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:

4. Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

5. And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

(k) Lev. xi. 7. And the swine, though he divide the hoof, and be cloven-footed, yet he cheweth not the cud: he is unclean to you.

Deut. xiv. 8. And the swine, because it divideth the hoof, yet cheweth not the cud, it is unclean unto you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch their dead carcass.

(l) Deut. xiv. 3. Thou shalt not eat any abominable thing.

Ez. iv. 14. Then said I, Ah Lord God! behold, my soul hath not been polluted: for from my youth up, even till now, have I not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth.

5 Which say, (m) Stand by thyself, come not near to me; for I am holier than thou. (n) These are a smoke in my nose, a fire that burneth all the day.

(m) Luke v. 30. But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

vii. 39. Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him, saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him; for she is a sinner.

xv. 2. And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.

Jude 19. These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit.

(n) Prov. xvi. 5. Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the Lord; though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished.

James iv. 6. But he giveth more grace: wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

6 Behold, (o) it is written before me: I will not keep silence, but will recompense, even recompense into their bosom,

(o) Ex. xvii. 14. And the Lord said unto Moses, Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua; for I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven.

Deut. xxxii. 34. Is not this laid up in store with me, and sealed up among my treasures?

Ps. lvi. 8. Thou tellest my wanderings: put thou my tears into thy bottle: are they not in thy book?

Mal. iii. 16. Then they that feared the Lord spake often one to another; and the Lord hearkened, and heard it: and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his name.

Rev. xx. 12. And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God: and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

7 Your iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together, saith the LORD, which have burned incense upon the mountains, and blasphemed me upon the hills: (p) therefore will I measure their former work into their bosom.

(p) Jer. v. 9. Shall not I visit for these things? saith the Lord: and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

vii. 19. Do they provoke me to anger? saith the Lord: do they not provoke themselves, to the confusion of their own faces?

20. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

Matt. xxiii. 32. Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers.

1 Thess. ii. 16. Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles, that they might be saved, to fill up their sins always; for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

8 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, (q)

As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not, for a blessing is in it; so will I do for my servants' sakes, that I may not destroy them all.

(q) Jer. xxx. 11. For I am with thee, saith the Lord, to save thee: though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make a full end of thee; but I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.

Amos ix. 8. Behold, the eyes of the Lord God are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saying that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the Lord.

9. For, lo, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth.

Matt. xxiv. 22. And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake, those days shall be shortened.

Rom. xi. 5. Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

9 And (r) I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains; and mine elect shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there.

(r) Is. xxvii. 6. He shall cause them that come of Jacob to take root: Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit.

Ez. xxxvi. 24. For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land.

Zeph. iii. 20. At that time will I bring you again, even in the time that I gather you: for I will make you a name and a praise among all people of the earth, when I turn back your captivity before your eyes, saith the Lord.

10 And Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for the herds to lie down in, for my people that have sought me.

11 ¶ But ye are (s) they that forsake the LORD, that forget my holy mountain, that (t) prepare a table for that troop, and that furnish the drink-offering unto that number.

(s) Deut. xxix. 25. Then men shall say, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the Lord God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt.

1 Chr. xxviii. 9. And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart, and with a willing mind: for the Lord searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever.

Jer. xvii. 13. O Lord, the hope of Israel, all that forsake thee shall be ashamed, and they that depart from me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken the Lord, the fountain of living waters.

(t) Jer. ii. 28. But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of trouble: for according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah.

Ez. xxiii. 41. And sattet upon a stately bed, and a table prepared before it, whereupon thou hast set mine incense and mine oil.

42. And a voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with the men of the common sort were brought Sabceans from the wilderness, which put bracelets upon their hands, and beautiful crowns upon their heads.

1 Cor. x. 20. But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

21. Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.

12 Therefore (u) will I number you to the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter: (x) because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear: but did evil before mine eyes, and did choose that wherein I delighted not.

(u) Lev. xxvi. 25. And I will bring a sword upon you, that shall avenge the quarrel of my covenant: and, when ye are gathered together within your cities, I will send the pestilence among you; and ye shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.

Deut. xxxii. 25. The sword without, and terror within, shall destroy both the young man and the virgin, the suckling also, with the man of gray hairs.

Jer. xviii. 21. Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and pour out their blood by the force of the sword; and let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows; and let their men be put to death; let their young men be slain by the sword in battle.

(x) Prov. i. 24. Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;

25. But ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof;

26. I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh.

Jer. vii. 13. And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the Lord, and I spake unto you, rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I called you, but ye answered not.

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, (y) my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed:

(y) Is. lxi. 7. For your shame you shall have double, and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double; everlasting joy shall be unto them.

Is. lvi. 5. Hear the word of the Lord, ye that tremble at his word: Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the Lord be glorified: but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed.

Dan. xii. 2. And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

14 Behold, (z) my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but (a) ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howl for vexation of spirit.

(z) Job xxix. 13. The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.

Ps. lxxvi. 4. All the earth shall worship thee, and shall sing unto thee; they shall sing to thy name. Selah.

Jer. xxxi. 7. For thus saith the Lord, Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O Lord, save thy people, the remnant of Israel.

James v. 13. Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms.

(a) Matt. viii. 12. But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. xiii. 42. And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

James v. 1. Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

15 And (b) ye shall leave your name for a curse unto my chosen: for the Lord God shall slay thee, and call his servants by another name:

(b) Prov. x. 7. The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot.

Jer. xxix. 22. And of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captivity of Judah which are in Babylon, saying, The Lord make thee like Zedekiah, and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire.

Zech. viii. 13. And it shall come to pass, that as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong.

16 That he who blesseth himself in the earth shall bless himself in (c) the God of truth; and (d) he that sweareth in the earth, shall swear by the God of truth: (e) because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from mine eyes.

(c) Deut. xxxii. 4. He is the Rock, his work is perfect; for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth, and without iniquity, just and right is he.

Ps. xxxi. 5. Into thy hand I commit my spirit: thou hast redeemed me, O Lord God of truth.

Jer. x. 10. But the Lord is the true God, he is the living God, and an everlasting King; at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.

(d) Deut. vi. 13. Thou shalt fear the Lord thy God, and serve him, and shalt swear by his name.

x. 20. Thou shalt fear the Lord thy God; him shalt thou serve, and to him shalt thou cleave; and swear by his name.

Ps. lxxii. 11. But the king shall rejoice in God; every one that sweareth by him shall glory: but the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

(e) Is. xxxv. 10. And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

liv. 4. Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more.

17 ¶ For, behold, (f) I create new heavens and a new earth: and (g) the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind.

(f) Is. li. 16. And I have put my words in thy mouth, and have covered thee in the shadow of my hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people.

2 Pet. iii. 13. Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

(g) Jer. iii. 16. And it shall come to pass, when ye be multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, saith the Lord, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the Lord; neither shall it come to mind, neither shall they remember it, neither shall they visit it, neither shall that be done any more.

18 But be ye glad, and rejoice for ever in that which I create; for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy.

19 And (h) I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and (i) the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

(h) Jer. xxxii. 41. Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart, and with my whole soul.

Zeph. iii. 17. The Lord thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save thee, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love; he will joy over thee with singing.

Luke xv. 5. And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

(i) Jer. xxxi. 12. Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow together to the goodness of the Lord, for wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all.

Rev. vii. 17. For the Lamb, which is in the midst of the throne, shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

xxi. 4. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

20 There (k) shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old; (l) but the sinner, being an hundred years old, shall be accursed.

(k) Deut. iv. 40. Thou shalt keep therefore his statutes, and his commandments, which I command thee this day, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days upon the earth, which the Lord thy God giveth thee for ever.

Job v. 26. Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in his season.

Ps. xxxiv. 12. What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good?

(l) Ec. viii. 12. Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him.

Is. iii. 11. Wo unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him; for the reward of his hands shall be given him.

21 And (m) they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

(m) Lev. xxvi. 16. I also will do this unto you; I will even appoint over you terror, consumption, and the burning ague, that shall consume the eyes, and cause sorrow of heart: and ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it.

Jer. xxxi. 4. Again I will build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel: thou shalt again be adorned with thy tabrets, and shalt go forth in the dances of them that make merry.

5. Thou shalt yet plant vines upon the mountains of Samaria: the planters shall plant, and shall eat them as common things.

Amos ix. 14. And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they also shall make gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

22 They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: (n) for as the days of a tree are the days of my people; and mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

(n) Gen. v. 5. And all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years: and he died.

27. And all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred sixty and nine years, and he died.

Ps. xcii. 12. The righteous shall flourish like the palm-tree; he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

13. Those that be planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God.

14. They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing.

23 They (o) shall not labour in vain, nor bring forth for trouble; for they are the seed of the blessed of the Lord, and their offspring with them.

(o) Lev. xxvi. 20. And your strength shall be spent in vain: for your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their fruit.

Hos. ix. 11. As for Ephraim, their glory shall flee away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception.

12. Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yea, wo also to them when I depart from them.

Hag. ii. 19. Is the seed yet in the barn? yea, as yet the vine, and the fig-tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive-tree, hath not brought forth: from this day will I bless you.

1 Cor. xv. 58. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

24 And it shall come to pass, that (p) before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.

(p) Ps. i. 15. And call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

xci. 15. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.

Dan. x. 12. Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel; for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

Acts iv. 31. And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

1 John v. 14. And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:

25 The (q) wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock; and (r) dust shall be the serpent's meat. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith the LORD.

(q) Acts ix. 1. And Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest.

19. And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20. And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God.

21. But all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

1 Cor. vi. 9. Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived; neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

10. Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11. And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

(r) Gen. iii. 14. And the Lord God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field: upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life.

Rom. xvi. 20. And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

Rev. xx. 2. And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years,

3. And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.

CHAPTER LXVI.

THUS saith the LORD, (a) The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: (b) where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?

(a) Ps. xi. 4. The Lord is in his holy temple, the Lord's throne is in heaven: his eyes behold, his eyelids try, the children of men.

Matt. v. 34. But I say unto you, Swear not at all: neither by heaven; for it is God's throne:

35. Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by Jerusalem; for it is the city of the great King.

xxiii. 21. And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.

22. And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

Acts xvii. 24. God that made the world, and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands.

(b) Acts vii. 48. Howbeit, the Most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet, 49. Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: What house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest?

50. Hath not my hand made all these things?

2 For all those things hath mine hand made, and all those things have been, saith the LORD; but (c) to this man will I look, even to him that is poor, and of a contrite spirit, and (d) trembleth at my word.

(c) 2 Kings xxii. 19. Because thine heart was tender, and thou hast humbled thyself before the Lord, when thou heardest what I spake against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard thee, saith the Lord.

20. Behold, therefore, I will gather thee unto thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered into thy grave in peace; and thine eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place. And they brought the king word again.

Ps. xxxiv. 18. The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart, and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.

cxxxviii. 6. Though the Lord be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly: but the proud he knoweth afar off.

Matt. v. 3. Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

(d) Ezra ix. 4. Then were assembled unto me every one that trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those who had been carried away; and I sat astonished until the evening sacrifice.

x. 3. Now, therefore, let us make a covenant with our God, to put away all the wives, and such as were born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law.

Hab. iii. 16. When I heard, my belly trembled; my lips quivered at the voice: rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up unto the people, he will invade them with his troops.

Phil. ii. 12. Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have also obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

3 He that (e) killeth an ox is as if he slew a man; he that sacrificeth a lamb, as if he (f) cut off a dog's neck; he that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swine's blood; he that burneth incense, as if he blessed an idol. Yea, (g) they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations.

(e) Prov. xv. 8. The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord, but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

xxi. 27. The sacrifice of the wicked is abomination: how much more when he bringeth it with a wicked mind.

Amos v. 21. I hate, I despise your feast-days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies.

22. Though ye offer me burnt-offerings, and your meat-offerings, I will not accept them; neither will I regard the peace-offerings of your fat beasts.

(f) Deut. xxiii. 18. Thou shalt not bring the hire of a whore, or the price of a dog, into the house of the Lord thy God for any vow: for even both these are abomination unto the Lord thy God.

(g) Judg. v. 8. They chose new gods; then was war in the gates: was there a shield or spear seen among forty thousand in Israel?

x. 14. Go and cry unto the gods which ye have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your tribulation.

Is. lxxv. 12. Therefore will I number you to the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter; because, when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear; but did evil before mine eyes, and did choose that wherein I delighted not.

4 I also (h) will choose their delusions, and (i) will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.

(h) Ps. lxxxi. 12. So I gave them up unto their own hearts' lust; and they walked in their own counsels.

Prov. i. 31. Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.

Matt. xxiv. 24. For there shall arise false Christs and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders; insomuch, that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

(i) Prov. x. 24. The fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him: but the desire of the righteous shall be granted.

5 ¶ Hear the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word; (k) Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified: (l) but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed.

(k) Ps. xxxviii. 20. They also that render evil for good are mine adversaries; because I found the thing that good is.

Cant. i. 6. Look not upon me, because I am black, because the sun hath looked upon me: my mother's children were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards; but mine own vineyard have I not kept.

Matt. x. 22. And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake; but he that endureth to the end shall be saved.

Luke vi. 22. Blessed are ye when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.

1 John iii. 13. Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

(l) Tit. ii. 13. Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Heb. ix. 28. So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time, without sin, unto salvation.

1 Pet. iv. 12. Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you.

13. But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

14. And if ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the Spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

6 A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the LORD that rendereth recompense to his enemies.

7 Before (m) she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man-child.

(m) Gal. iv. 26. But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

Rev. xii. 1. And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars;

2. And she, being with child, cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

3. And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and, behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads, and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.

4. And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

5. And she brought forth a man-child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

8 Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or (n) shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.

(n) Is. xlix. 20. The children which thou shalt have, after thou hast lost the other, shall say again in thine ears, The place is too strait for me: give place for me, that I may dwell.

21. Then shalt thou say in thy heart, Who hath begotten me these, seeing I have lost my children, and am desolate, a captive, and removing to and fro? and who hath brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where had they been?

22. Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will lift up my hand to the Gentiles, and set up my standard to the people: and they shall bring thy sons in their arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders.

Acts ii. 41. Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

xxi. 20. And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord; and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the law.

9 Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? saith the LORD: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God.

10 Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, (o) all ye that love her; rejoice for joy with her, all ye (p) that mourn for her:

(o) Ps. cxxii. 6. Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.

cxxxvii. 6. If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth.

(p) Ez. ix. 4. And the Lord said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh, and that cry, for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof.

John xvi. 20. Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21. A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22. And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

11 That (q) ye may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.

(q) Ps. xxxvi. 8. They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.

Is. lx. 16. Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles, and shalt suck the breasts of kings, and thou shalt know that I the Lord am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty one of Jacob.

Joel iii. 18. And it shall come to pass in that day, that the mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Judah shall flow with waters, and a fountain shall come forth of the house of the Lord, and shall water the valley of Shittim.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream: then shall ye suck, ye shall be borne upon her sides, and be dandled upon her knees.

13 As (r) one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and (s) ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

(r) 1 Thess. ii. 7. But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children.

(s) Is. lxxv. 18. But be ye glad, and rejoice for ever in that which I create: for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy.

19. And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

14 And when ye see this, your heart shall rejoice, and (t) your bones shall flourish like an herb: and (u) the hand of the LORD shall be known toward his servants, and his indignation toward his enemies.

(t) Prov. xvii. 22. A merry heart doeth good like a medicine: but a broken spirit drieth the bones.

(u) Ezra vii. 9. For upon the first day of the first month began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him.

viii. 18. And by the good hand of our God upon us, they brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen.

Mal. iii. 18. Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked; between him that serveth God, and him that serveth him not.

Heb. x. 27. But a certain fearful looking for of judgment, and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

15 For, behold, (x) the LORD will come with fire, and (y) with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.

(x) Ps. xi. 6. Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.

xxi. 9. Thou shalt make them as a fiery oven in the time of thine anger: the Lord shall swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire shall devour them.

xvii. 3. A fire goeth before him, and burneth up his enemies round about.

Amos vii. 4. Thus hath the Lord God showed to me; and, behold, the Lord God called to contend by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and did eat up a part.

Matt. xxii. 7. But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

(y) Jer. iv. 13. Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as a whirlwind: his horses are swifter than eagles. Wo unto us! for we are spoiled.

Dan. xi. 40. And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

16 For by fire and by his sword will the LORD plead with all flesh: and the slain of the LORD shall be many.

17 They that sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens, behind one tree in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, shall be consumed together, saith the LORD.

18 ¶ For (z) I know their works, and (a) their thoughts: it shall come, (b) that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and see my glory.

(z) Amos v. 12. For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.

John v. 42. But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.

Rev. ii. 2. I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars.

(a) Job xlii. 2. I know that thou canst do every thing, and that no thought can be withholden from thee.

Ez. xxxviii. 10. Thus saith the Lord God, It shall also come to pass, that at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou shalt think an evil thought.

Matt. ix. 4. And Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?

1 Cor. iii. 20. And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

Heb. iv. 12. For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

(b) Ps. lxxxvi. 9. All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord; and shall glorify thy name.

Joel iii. 2. I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people, and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

19 And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those that escape of them unto the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal, and Javan, to (c) the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles.

(c) Ps. lxxii. 10. The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents: the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

Is. xlii. 4. He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth: and the isles shall wait for his law.

xliii. 6. I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth.

xlix. 1. Listen, O isles, unto me; and hearken, ye people, from far; The Lord hath called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name.

Zeph. ii. 11. The Lord will be terrible unto them: for he will famish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

20 And they shall bring all your brethren for an offering unto the LORD, out of all nations, upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the LORD, as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD.

21 And (d) I will also take of them for priests and for Levites, saith the LORD.

(d) Ex. xix. 6. And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

1 Pet. ii. 5. Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

9. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

Rev. i. 6. And hath made us kings and priests unto God and to his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

v. 10. And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign upon the earth.

xx. 6. Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

22 For as (e) the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, (f) so shall your seed and your name remain.

(e) Heb. xii. 27. And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

28. Wherefore, we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably, with reverence and godly fear.

2 Pet. iii. 13. Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

Rev. xxi. 1. And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away, and there was no more sea.

(f) 1 Pet. i. 4. To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you,

5. Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time.

23 And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, (g) shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD.

(g) Ps. lxxv. 2. O thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.

Zech. xiv. 16. And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem, shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the Lord of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.

John iv. 23. But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

Rev. xv. 4. Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

24 And they shall come forth, (h) and look upon the carcasses of the men that have transgressed against me: for (i) their worm shall not die, neither shall (k) their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh.

(h) Zech. xiv. 12. And this shall be the plague wherewith the Lord shall smite all the people that have fought against Jerusalem: Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.

18. And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, that have no rain, there shall be the plague, wherewith the Lord will smite the heathen that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

(i) Mark ix. 44. Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

Rev. xiv. 10. The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11. And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

(k) Matt. iii. 12. Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET JEREMIAH.

CHAPTER I.

THE words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests that were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin:

2 To whom (a) the word of the LORD came, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign.

(a) 1 Kings xiii. 20. And it came to pass, as they sat at the table, that the word of the LORD came unto the prophet that brought him back.

Hos. i. 1. The word of the LORD that came unto Hosea, the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam, the son of Joash, king of Israel.

Jon. i. 1. Now, the word of the LORD came unto Jonah, the son of Amittai, saying.

3 It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.

4 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Before (b) I formed thee in the belly, (c) I knew thee; (d) and before thou camest forth out of the womb, I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

(b) Ps. lxxi. 5. For thou art my hope, O Lord God: thou art my trust from my youth.

6. By thee have I been holden up from the womb; thou art he that took me out of my mother's bowels: my praise shall be continually of thee.

Is. xlix. 1. Listen, O isles, unto me; and hearken, ye people, from far! The Lord hath called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name.

5. And now, saith the Lord that formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, Though Israel be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the Lord, and my God shall be my strength.

Gal. i. 15. But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace.

(c) Ez. xxxiii. 12. And Moses said unto the Lord, See, thou sayest unto me, Bring up this people; and thou hast not let me know whom thou wilt send with me: yet thou hast said, I know thee by name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight.

17. And the Lord said unto Moses, I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name.

Rom. viii. 29. For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the first-born among many brethren.

(d) Luke i. 15. For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb.

41. And it came to pass, that, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb: and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost.

Rom. i. 1. Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God.

6 Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! behold, (e) I cannot speak: for I am a child.

(e) Ez. iv. 10. And Moses said unto the Lord, O my Lord, I am not eloquent, neither heretofore, nor since thou hast spoken unto thy servant: but I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue.

11. And the Lord said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the Lord?

12. Now, therefore, go, and I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say.

vi. 12. And Moses spake before the Lord, saying, Behold, the children of Israel have not hearkened unto me; how then shall Pharaoh hear me who am of uncircumcised lips?

Is. vi. 5. Then said I, Wo is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts.

7 ¶ But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: (f) for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak.

(f) Ez. vii. 1. And the Lord said unto Moses, See, I have made thee a god to Pharaoh; and Aaron thy brother shall be thy prophet.

2. Thou shalt speak all that I command thee: and Aaron thy brother shall speak unto Pharaoh, that he send the children of Israel out of his land.

Ez. iii. 27. But when I speak with thee, I will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, He that heareth, let him hear; and he that forbeareth, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.

Matt. xxviii. 20. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

Mark xvi. 15. And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

16. He that believeth, and is baptized, shall be saved; but he that believeth not, shall be damned.

Acts xx. 27. For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.

8 Be (g) not afraid of their faces: (h) for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

(g) Is. li. 7. Hearken unto me, ye that know righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law; fear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye afraid of their reviling.

12. I, even I, am he that comforteth you: who art thou, that thou shouldst be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as grass.

Ez. ii. 6. And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions; be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

7. And thou shalt speak my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear; for they are most rebellious.

iii. 8. Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9. As an adamant, harder than a flint, have I made thy forehead: fear thou not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

Matt. x. 26. Fear them not, therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.

28. And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

(h) Ez. iii. 12. And he said, Certainly I will be with thee; and this shall be a token unto thee, that I have sent thee: When thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain.

Deut. xxxi. 6. Be strong, and of a good courage; fear not, nor be afraid of them; for the Lord thy God, he it is that doth go with thee: he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

Is. xliii. 2. When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burnt, neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.

9 Then the LORD put forth his hand, (i) and touched my mouth; and the LORD said unto me, (k) Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth.

(i) Ez. iv. 11. And the Lord said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the Lord?

12. Now, therefore, go, and I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say.

Is. vi. 6. Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar:

7. And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips, and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged.

xli. 2. And he hath made my mouth like a sharp sword: in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me a polished shaft; in his quiver hath he hid me.

Luke xxi. 15. For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist.

(k) Ex. iv. 15. And thou shalt speak unto him, and put words in his mouth: and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye shall do.

16. And he shall be thy spokesman unto the people: and he shall be, even he shall be to thee instead of a mouth, and thou shalt be to him instead of God.

Is. li. 16. And I have put my words in thy mouth, and have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundation of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people.

Ez. iii. 10. Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears.

Matt. x. 19. But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak; for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.

20. For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.

Luke xii. 12. For the Holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour, what ye ought to say.

10 See, I have this day set thee over the nations, and over the kingdoms, (l) to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, (m) to build, and to plant.

(l) Ez. xxxii. 18. Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit.

Amos iii. 7. Surely the Lord God do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.

(m) Ez. xxxvi. 36. Then the heathen, that are left round about you, shall know that I the Lord build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate; I the Lord have spoken it, and I will do it.

Amos ix. 11. In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof: and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old.

11 ¶ Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, (n) what seest thou? And I said, I see (o) a rod of an almond-tree.

(n) Amos vii. 8. And the Lord said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumb-line. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a plumb-line in the midst of my people Israel: I will not again pass by them any more.

viii. 2. And he said, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer-fruit. Then said the Lord unto me, The end is come upon my people of Israel; I will not again pass by them any more.

Zech. v. 2. And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits.

(o) Nam. xviii. 8. And it came to pass, that on the morrow, Moses went into the tabernacle of witness; and, behold, the rod of Aaron, for the house of Levi, was budded, and brought forth buds, and bloomed blossoms, and yielded almonds.

Ez. vii. 10. Behold the day, behold, it is come; the morning is gone forth; the rod hath blossomed; pride hath budded.

12 Then said the LORD unto me, (p) Thou hast well seen; for (q) I will hasten my word to perform it.

(p) Deut. v. 28. And the Lord heard the voice of your word, when he spake unto me; and the Lord said unto me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people, which they have spoken unto thee: they have well said all that they have spoken.

xviii. 17. And the Lord said unto me, They have well spoken that which they have spoken.

Luke x. 28. And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live.

xx. 39. Then certain of the scribes answering, said, Master, thou hast well said.

(q) Deut. xxxii. 35. To me belongeth vengeance and recompense; their foot shall slide in due time: for the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that shall come upon them make haste.

Ez. xii. 22. Son of man, what is that proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, The days are prolonged, and every vision faileth?

23. Tell them therefore, Thus saith the Lord God, I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel: but say unto them, The days are at hand, and the effect of every vision.

25. For I am the Lord; I will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall come to pass; it shall be no more prolonged: for in your days, O rebellious house, will I say the word, and will perform it, saith the Lord God.

13 And the word of the LORD came unto me (r) the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, (s) I see a seething pot; and the face thereof is toward the north.

(r) Gen. xli. 32. And for that the dream was doubled unto Pharaoh twice; it is because the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass.

2 Cor. xiii. 1. This is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2. I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present the second time; and being absent, now I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare.

(s) Ez. xi. 3. Which say, It is not near; let us build houses: this city is the caldron, and we be the flesh.

14 Then the LORD said unto me, (t) Out of the north an evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land.

(t) Is. xli. 25. I have raised up one from the north, and he shall come: from the rising of the sun shall he call upon my name; and he shall come upon princes as upon mortar, and as the potter treadeth clay.

Ez. i. 4. And I looked, and, behold, a whirlwind came out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire unfolding itself, and a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire.

15 For, lo, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the LORD; and they shall come, and (u) they shall set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, (x) and against all the cities of Judah.

(u) Is. xxii. 7. And it shall come to pass, that thy choicest valleys shall be full of chariots, and the horsemen shall set themselves in array at the gate.

(x) Lam. v. 11. They ravished the women in Zion, and the maids in the cities of Judah.

16 And (y) I will utter my judgments against them, touching all their wickedness, (z) who have forsaken me, (a) and have burned incense unto other gods, and (b) worshipped the works of their own hands.

(y) Ez. xxiv. 14. I the Lord have spoken it; it shall come to pass, and I will do it; I will not go back, neither will I repent: according to thy ways, and according to thy doings, shall they judge thee, saith the Lord God.

Joel ii. 11. And the Lord shall utter his voice before his army; for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the Lord is great and very terrible; and who can abide it?

Matt. xxiii. 35. That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias, son of Baruchias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.

36. Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

(z) Deut. xxviii. 20. The Lord shall send upon thee cursing, vexation, and rebuke, in all that thou settest thine hand unto for to do, until thou be destroyed, and until thou perish quickly; because of the wickedness of thy doings, whereby thou hast forsaken me.

Josh. xxiv. 20. If ye forsake the Lord, and serve strange gods, then he will turn and do you hurt, and consume you, after that he hath done you good.

2 Kings xxii. 17. Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands, therefore my wrath shall be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched.

2 Chr. vii. 19. But if ye turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments, which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them.

xv. 2. And he went out to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: The Lord is with you while ye be with him: and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.

xxxiv. 25. Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched.

(a) Is. lxx. 3. A people that provoketh me to anger continually to my face; that sacrificeth in gardens, and burneth incense upon altars of brick.

Hos. xi. 2. As they called them, so they went from them; they sacrificed unto Baalim, and burned incense to graven images.

(b) Is. ii. 8. Their land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made.

xxxvii. 19. And have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them.

Hos. viii. 6. For from Israel was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is not God: but the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

Acts vii. 41. And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

17 ¶ Thou therefore (c) gird up thy loins, and arise, (d) and speak unto them all that I command thee; be not dismayed at their faces, lest I confound thee before them.

(c) 1 Kings xviii. 46. And the hand of the Lord was on Elijah: and he girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

Job xxxviii. 3. Gird up now thy loins like a man; for I will demand of thee, and answer thou me.

Luke xii. 35. Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning.

1 Pet. i. 13. Wherefore, gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end, for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ.

(d) Ex. vii. 2. Thou shalt speak all that I command thee; and Aaron thy brother shall speak unto Pharaoh, that he send the children of Israel out of his land.

Ez. iii. 10. Moreover, he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears.

11. And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord God; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

Jon. iii. 2. Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

18 For, behold, (e) I have made thee this day a defenced city, and an iron pillar, and brazen walls, against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the people of the land.

(e) Is. i. 7. For the Lord God will help me; therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed.

Ez. iii. 8. Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9. As an adamant, harder than flint, have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

John i. 42. And he brought him to Jesus. And, when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon, the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is, by interpretation, A stone.

19 And they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.

CHAPTER II.

MOREOVER, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

2 Go, and (a) cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; I remember thee, (b) the kindness of thy youth, the love of (c) thine espousals, (d) when thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

(a) Prov. i. 20. Wisdom crieth without: she uttereth her voice in the streets.

Is. lviii. 1. Cry aloud, spare not; lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and show my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

Jon. i. 2. Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before me.

Matt. xi. 15. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

Luke xii. 3. Therefore, whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the house-tops.

(b) Ez. xvi. 8. Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness; yea, I swore unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord God, and thou becamest mine.

22. And in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, when thou wast naked and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood.

60. Nevertheless, I will remember my covenant with thee in the days of thy youth, and I will establish unto thee an everlasting covenant.

Hos. ii. 15. And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope; and she shall sing there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.

(c) Cant. iii. 11. Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon with the crown wherewith his mother crowned him in the day of his espousals, and in the day of the gladness of his heart.

(d) Deut. ii. 7. For the Lord thy God hath blessed thee in all the works of thy hand; he knoweth thy walking through this great wilderness: these forty years the Lord thy God hath been with thee; thou hast lacked nothing.

viii. 2. And thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments or no.

15. Who led thee through that great and terrible wilderness, wherein were fiery serpents, and scorpions, and drought; where there was no water: who brought thee forth water out of the rock of flint;

16. Who fed thee in the wilderness with manna, which thy fathers knew not, that he might humble thee, and that he might prove thee, to do thee good at thy latter end.

3 Israel was (e) holiness unto the LORD, and (f) the first-fruits of his increase: (g) all that devour him shall offend; evil shall come upon them, saith the LORD.

(e) Deut. vii. 6. For thou art an holy people unto the Lord thy God: the Lord thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth.

xiv. 2. For thou art an holy people unto the Lord thy God, and the Lord hath chosen thee to be a peculiar people unto himself, above all the nations that are upon the earth.

xxvi. 19. And to make thee high above all nations which he hath made, in praise, and in name, and in honour; and that thou mayest be an holy people unto the Lord thy God, as he hath spoken.

Zech. xiv. 20. In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD; and the pots in the Lord's house shall be like the bowls before the altar.

21. Yea, every pot in Jerusalem, and in Judah, shall be holiness unto the Lord of hosts; and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and see the therein: and in that day there shall be no more the Canaanite in the house of the Lord of hosts.

Eph. i. 4. According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy, and without blame before him in love.

1 Pet. ii. 9. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

(f) Ex. xxii. 29. Thou shalt not delay to offer the first of thy ripe fruits, and of thy liquors; the first-born of thy sons shalt thou give unto me.

xxiii. 16. And the feast of harvest, the first-fruits of thy labours, which thou hast sown in the field; and the feast of in-gathering, which is in the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the field.

Num. xviii. 12. And the best of the oil, and all the best of the wine, and of the wheat, the first-fruits of them, which they shall offer unto the Lord, them have I given thee.

Rom. xi. 16. For if the first-fruit be holy, the lump is also holy; and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

xvi. 5. Likewise greet the church that is in their house. Salute my well-beloved Epenetus, who is the first-fruits of Achaia unto Christ.

James i. 18. Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first-fruits of his creatures.

Rev. xiv. 4. These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the first-fruits unto God and to the Lamb.

(g) Ex. iv. 22. And thou shalt say unto Pharaoh, Thus saith the Lord, Israel is my son, even my first-born.

23. And I say unto thee, Let my son go, that he may serve me: and if thou refuse to let him go, behold, I will slay thy son, even thy first-born.

Ps. cv. 14. He suffered no man to do them wrong; yea, he reproveth kings for their sakes;

15. Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

Is. xli. 11. Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be ashamed and confounded:

they shall be as nothing; and they that strive with thee shall perish.

Zech. ii. 8. For thus saith the Lord of hosts, After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you; for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye.

4 Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel:

5 Thus saith the LORD, (h) What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they (i) are gone far from me, and have (h) walked after vanity, (l) and are become vain?

(h) Is. v. 3. And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, bewtixt me and my vineyard.

4. What could have been done more to my vineyard that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?

Mic. vi. 2. Hear ye, O mountains, the Lord's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the Lord hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

3. O my people, what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me.

(i) Is. xxix. 13. Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of man.

Matt. xv. 8. This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

(h) Deut. xxxii. 21. They have moved me to jealousy with that which is not God; they have provoked me to anger with their vanities: and I will move them to jealousy with those which are not a people, I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.

1 Sam. xii. 21. And turn ye not aside: for then should ye go after vain things, which cannot profit nor deliver; for they are vain.

Jon. ii. 8. They that observe lying vanities forsake their own mercy.

Acts xiv. 15. And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you, that ye should turn from these vanities, unto the living God, which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein.

(l) Ps. cxv. 8. They that make them are like unto them; so is every one that trusteth in them.

Is. xliv. 9. They that make a graven image are all of them vanity; and their delectable things shall not profit; and they are their own witnesses; they see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed.

Rom. i. 21. Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

6 Neither said they, (m) Where is the LORD, that (n) brought us up out of the land of Egypt, that led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts, and of pits, through a land of drought, and of the shadow of death, through a land that no man passed through, and where no man dwelt?

(m) Judg. vi. 13. And Gideon said unto him, Oh, my Lord, if the Lord be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and where be all his miracles which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the Lord bring us up from Egypt? but now the Lord hath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites.

2 Kings ii. 14. And he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and smote the waters, and said, Where is the Lord God of Elijah? And when he also had smitten the waters, they parted hither and thither: and Elisha went over.

Job xxxv. 10. But none saith, Where is God my maker, who giveth songs in the night.

Is. lxiv. 7. And there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast consumed us because of our iniquities.

(n) Hps. xii. 13. And by a prophet the Lord brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet was he preserved.

xiii. 4. Yet I am the Lord thy God from the land of Egypt, and thou shalt know no God but me, for there is no saviour beside me.

7 And (o) I brought you into a plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof, and the goodness thereof; but when ye entered, (p) ye defiled my land, and made mine heritage an abomination.

(o) Num. xiii. 27. And they told him, and said, We came unto the land whither thou sentest us, and surely it floweth with milk and honey; and this is the fruit of it.

xiv. 7. And they spake unto all the company of the children of Israel, saying, The land, which we passed through to search it, is an exceeding good land.

8. If the Lord delight in us, then he will bring us into this land, and give it us; a land which floweth with milk and honey.

Ez. xx. 6. In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, to bring them forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I have espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands.

(p) Ps. lxxviii. 58. For they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images.

59. When God heard this, he was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel.

cvi. 38. And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood.

39. Thus were they defiled with their own works, and went a whoring with their own inventions.

Ez. xxxvi. 17. Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, they defiled it by their own way, and by their doings: their way was before me as the uncleanness of a removed woman.

18. Wherefore I poured my fury upon them, for the blood which they had shed upon the land: and for their idols wherewith they had polluted it.

8 The priests said not, Where is the LORD? (q) and they that handled the law knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that (r) do not profit.

(q) Luke xi. 52. Wo unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.

John viii. 55. Yet ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you: but I know him, and keep his saying.

(r) Is. xxx. 5. They were all ashamed of a people that could not profit them, nor be an help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach.

Hab. ii. 18. What profiteth the graven image that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols?

Matt. xvi. 26. For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or, what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

9 Wherefore (s) I will yet plead with you, saith the LORD, and (t) with your children's children will I plead.

(s) Is. iii. 13. The Lord standeth up to plead, and standeth to judge the people.

xliii. 26. Put me in remembrance; let us plead together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified.

Ez. xx. 35. And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there will I plead with you face to face.

36. Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord God.

Hos. ii. 2. Plead with your mother, plead; for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her, therefore, put away her whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts.

Mic. vi. 2. Hear ye, O mountains, the Lord's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the Lord hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

(t) Ez. xx. 5. Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me.

Lev. xx. 5. Then I will set my face against that man, and against his family, and will cut him off, and all that go a whoring after him, to commit whoredom with Molech, from among their people.

10 For pass over (u) the isles of Chittim, and see; and send unto (x) Kedar, and consider diligently, (y) and see if there be such a thing.

(u) Num. xxiv. 24. And ships shall come from the coast of Chittim, and shall afflict Ashshur, and shall afflict Eber, and he also shall perish for ever.

Ez. xxvii. 6. Of the oaks of Bashan have they made thine oars; the company of the Ashurites have made thy benches of ivory, brought out of the isles of Chittim.

(x) Gen. xxv. 13. And these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: The first-born of Ishmael, Nebajoth; and Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam.

(y) Judg. xix. 30. And it was so, that all that saw it said, There was no such deed done nor seen, from the day that the children of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt unto this day: consider of it, take advice, and speak your minds.

1 Cor. v. 1. It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife.

11 Hath (z) a nation changed their gods, which are yet (a) no gods? but my people have (b) changed their glory for that which doth not profit.

(z) Mic. iv. 5. For all people will walk every one in the name of his God, and we will walk in the name of the Lord our God for ever and ever.

1 Pet. i. 18. Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers.

(a) Ps. cxv. 4. Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

Is. xxxvii. 19. And have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them.

1 Cor. viii. 4. As concerning, therefore, the eating of those things which are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

(b) Ps. cvi. 20. Thus they changed their glory into the similitude of an ox that eateth grass.

Rom. i. 23. And changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.

12 (c) Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD.

(c) Deut. xxxii. 1. Give ear, O ye heavens, and I will speak; and hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.

Is. i. 2. Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth; for the Lord hath spoken: I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me.

Mic. vi. 2. Hear ye, O mountains, the Lord's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the Lord hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

Matt. xxvii. 45. Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.

50. Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.

51. And, behold, the veil of the Temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom: and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent,

52. And the graves were opened, and many bodies of the saints which slept arose,

53. And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

13 For (d) my people have committed two evils; they have (e) forsaken me, (f) the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, (g) broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

(d) Ps. lxxxi. 11. But my people would not hearken to my voice; and Israel would none of me.

12. So I gave them up unto their own hearts' lust; and they walked in their own counsels.

13. Oh that my people had hearkened unto me, and Israel had walked in my ways.

Is. i. 3. The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider.

v. 13. Therefore my people are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge; and their honourable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst.

Mic. ii. 8. Even of late my people has risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe with the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war.

vi. 3. O my people, what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me.

(e) Judg. x. 13. Yet ye have forsaken me, and served other gods: wherefore I will deliver you no more.

1 Sam. xii. 10. And they cried unto the Lord, and said, We have sinned, because we have forsaken the Lord, and have served Baalim and Ashtaroth: but now deliver us out of the hands of our enemies, and we will serve thee.

(f) Ps. xxxvi. 9. For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light.

John iv. 14. But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

vii. 37. In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

38. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

39. (But this spake he of, the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)

Rev. xxi. 6. And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end: I will give unto him that is athirst, of the fountain of the water of life freely.

(g) Ps. cxlvi. 3. Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.

4. His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish.

Ec. i. 14. I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

Is. xlvi. 6. They lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, and hire a goldsmith; and he maketh it a god: they fall down, yea, they worship.

7. They bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in his place, and he standeth; from his place shall he not remove: yea, one shall cry unto him, yet can he not answer, nor save him out of his trouble.

lv. 2. Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? Hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

2 Pet. ii. 17. These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

14 ¶ Is (h) Israel a servant? is (i) he a home-born slave? why is he spoiled?

(h) Ex. iv. 22. And thou shalt say unto Pharaoh, Thus saith the Lord God, Israel is my son, even my first-born.

1. I. Thus saith the Lord, Where is the bill of your mother's divorcement, whom I have put away? or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities have ye sold yourselves, and for your transgressions is your mother put away.

(i) Gen. xv. 3. And Abram said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed: and, lo, one born in my house is mine heir.

Ec. ii. 7. I got me servants and maidens, and had servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me.

15 The (k) young lions roared upon him, and yelled, and (l) they made his land waste: (m) his cities are burned without inhabitant.

(k) Judg. xiv. 5. Then went Samson down, and his father and his mother, to Timnath, and came to the vineyards of Timnath; and, behold, a young lion roared against him.

Job iv. 10. The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and the teeth of the young lions are broken.

Is. v. 29. Their roaring shall be like a lion, they shall roar like young lions; yea, they shall roar, and lay hold of the prey, and shall carry it away safe, and none shall deliver it.

Hos. v. 14. For I will be unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away: I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

Amos iii. 4. Will a lion roar in the forest when he hath no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den if he have taken nothing?

(l) Ex. v. 14. Moreover, I will make thee waste, and a reproach among the nations that are round about thee, in the sight of all that pass by.

(m) Is. v. 9. In mine ears, said the Lord of hosts, Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant.

vi. 11. Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate.

Zeph. i. 18. Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the Lord's wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

16 Also the children of Noph and Tahapanes have broken the crown of thy head.

17 (n) Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, (o) when he led thee by the way?

(n) Num. xxxii. 23. But if ye will not do so, behold, ye have sinned against the Lord; and be sure your sin will find you out.

Job iv. 8. Even as I have seen, they that plough iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.

Is. i. 4. Ah, sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evil-doers, children that are corrupters! They have forsaken the Lord, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.

(o) Deut. xxxii. 10. He found him in a desert land, and in the waste howling wilderness: he led him about, he instructed him, he kept him as the apple of his eye.

Ps. lxxvii. 20. Thou leddest thy people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

18 And now what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river?

19 Thine (p) own wickedness shall correct thee, and (q) thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know, therefore, and see, that it is an evil thing and (r) bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, (s) and that my fear is not in thee, saith the LORD GOD of hosts.

(p) Prov. i. 31. Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.

v. 22. His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be holden with the cords of his sins.

Is. iii. 9. The show of their countenance doth witness against them, and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not: wo unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves.

(q) Hos. iv. 16. For Israel slideth back as a backsliding heifer: now the Lord will feed them as a lamb in a large place.

xi. 7. And my people are bent to backsliding from me: though they called them to the Most High, none at all would exalt him.

xiv. 1. O Israel, return unto the Lord thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity.

Zech. vii. 11. But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

(r) Amos viii. 10. And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation: and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

(s) Ps. xxxvi. 1. The transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes.

Rom. iii. 18. There is no fear of God before their eyes.

20 ¶ For (t) of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; (u) and thou saidst, I will not transgress; when (x) upon every high hill, and under every green tree, thou wanderest, (y) playing the harlot.

(t) Lev. xxvi. 13. I am the Lord your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that ye should not be their bond-men; and I have broken the bands of your yoke, and made you go upright.

Deut. iv. 20. But the Lord hath taken you, and brought you forth out of the iron furnace, even out of Egypt, to be unto him a people of inheritance, as ye are this day.

Is. ix. 4. For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the days of Midian.

(u) Ex. xix. 8. And all the people answered together, and said, All that the Lord hath spoken we will do. And Moses returned the words of the people unto the Lord.

Deut. v. 27. Go thou near, and hear all that the Lord our God shall say: and speak thou unto us all that the Lord our God shall speak unto thee, and we will hear it, and do it.

(x) Deut. xii. 2. Ye shall utterly destroy all the places wherein the nations which ye shall possess served their gods, upon the high mountains, and upon the hills, and under every green tree.

Ps. lxxviii. 58. For they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images.

Ez. xvi. 24. That thou hast also built unto thee an eminent place, and hast made thee an high place in every street.

(y) Ex. xxxiv. 15. Lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they go a whoring after their gods, and do sacrifice unto their gods, and one call thee, and thou eat of his sacrifice.

Ez. xvi. 15. But thou didst trust in thine own beauty, and playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy fornications on every one that passed by; his it was.

16. And of thy garments thou didst take, and deckedst thy high places with diverse colours, and playedst the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so.

Hos. iii. 3. And I said unto her, Thou shalt not abide for me many days; thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be for another man; so will I also be for thee.

21 Yet (z) I had planted thee a noble vine, (a) wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned (b) into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me?

(z) Ex. xv. 17. Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of thine inheritance, in the place, O Lord, which thou hast made for thee to dwell in; in the sanctuary, O Lord, which thy hands have established.

Ps. xlii. 2. How thou didst drive out the heathen with thy hand, and plantedst them; how thou didst afflict the people, and cast them out.

lxxx. 8. Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt; thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it.

Is. v. 1. Now will I sing to my well-beloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard. My well-beloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill:

2. And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a wine-press therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.

ix. 21. Thy people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land for ever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands; that I may be glorified.

John xv. 1. I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

(a) Deut. iv. 37. And because he loved thy fathers, therefore he chose their seed after them, and brought thee out in his sight with his mighty power out of Egypt.

Ps. cv. 6. O ye seed of Abraham his servant, ye children of Jacob his chosen.

Is. xli. 8. But thou, Israel, art my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend.

(b) Deut. xxxii. 32. For their vine is of the vine of Sodom, and of the fields of Gomorrah: their grapes are grapes of gall, their clusters are bitter.

Is. i. 21. How is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers.

v. 4. What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?

Lam. iv. 1. How is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the sanctuary are poured out in the top of every street.

22 For (c) though thou wash thee with nitre, and take thee much soap, (d) yet thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the Lord GOD.

(c) Job ix. 30. If I wash myself with snow-water, and make my hands never so clean;

31. Yet shalt thou plunge me in the ditch, and mine own clothes shall abhor me.

(d) Deut. xxxii. 34. Is not this laid up in store with me, and sealed up among my treasures?

Job xiv. 17. My transgression is sealed up in a bag, and thou sewest up mine iniquity.

Ps. xc. 8. Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

clxxx. 3. If thou, Lord, shouldst mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand?

Amos viii. 7. The Lord hath sworn by the excellency of Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their works.

23 How (e) canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalim? see thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done: thou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways;

(e) Gen. iii. 12. And the man said, The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.

13. And the Lord God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.

Ps. xxxvi. 2. For he flattereth himself in his own eyes, until his iniquity be found to be hateful.

Prov. xxviii. 13. He that covereth his sins shall not prosper; but whose confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

xxx. 12. There is a generation that are pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness.

20. Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness.

Luke x. 29. But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour?

Rom. iii. 19. Now we know, that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law; that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

Rev. iii. 17. Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:

18. I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eye-salve, that thou mayest see.

24 A wild ass used to the wilderness, that snuffeth up the wind at her pleasure; in her occasion who can turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her.

25 Withhold thy foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst; but thou saidst, There is no hope: no; for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go.

26 As (f) the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets, (f) Prov. vi. 30. Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to satisfy his soul when he is hungry.

31. But if he be found, he shall restore sevenfold; he shall give all the substance of his house.

Rom. vi. 21. What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

27 Saying to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast brought me forth: for they have turned their back unto me, and not their face; but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save us.

28 But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah.

29 Wherefore will ye plead with me? ye all have transgressed against me, saith the LORD.

30 In vain have I smitten your children; they received no correction: your own sword hath devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.

31 ¶ O generation, see ye the word of the LORD: Have I been a wilderness unto Israel? a land of darkness? Wherefore say my people, (g) We are lords; we will come no more unto thee?

(g) Deut. xxxi. 20. For when I shall have brought them into the land which I swore unto their fathers, that floweth with milk and honey, and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and waxen fat; then will they turn unto other gods, and serve them, and provoke me, and break my covenant.

Ps. x. 4. The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God: God is not in all his thoughts.

xii. 4. Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; our lips are our own: who is lord over us?

Prov. xxix. 9. Lest I be full, and deny thee, and say, Who is the Lord? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain.

Hos. xiii. 6. According to their pasture, so were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted: therefore have they forgotten me.

32 Can (h) a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? (i) yet my people have forgotten me days without number.

(h) Gen. xxiv. 22. And it came to pass, as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden ear-ring, of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her hands, of ten shekels weight of gold.

53. And the servant brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment, and gave them to Rebekah: he gave also to her brother and to her mother precious things.

2 Sam. i. 24. Ye daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you in scarlet, with other delights; who put on ornaments of gold upon your apparel.

Ps. xiv. 13. The king's daughter is all glorious within; her clothing is of wrought gold.

14. She shall be brought unto the king in raiment of needle-work; the virgins her companions that follow her shall be brought unto thee.

1 Pet. iii. 3. Whose adorning, let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4. But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5. For after this manner, in the old time, the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands.

(i) Ps. cvi. 21. They forgot God their saviour, which had done great things in Egypt.

Is. xvii. 10. Because thou hast forgotten the God of thy salvation, and hast not been mindful of the rock of thy strength, therefore shalt thou plant pleasant plants, and shalt set it with strange slips.

Ez. xxii. 12. In thee have they taken gifts to shed blood: thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and hast forgotten me, saith the Lord God.

Hos. viii. 14. For Israel hath forgotten his Maker, and buildeth temples; and Judah hath multiplied fenced cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.

33 Why (k) trimmest thou thy way to seek love? therefore (l) hast thou also taught the wicked ones thy ways.

(k) Is. lvii. 7. Upon a lofty and high mountain hast thou set thy bed: even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice.

8. Behind the doors also and the posts hast thou set up thy remembrance: for thou hast discovered thyself to another than me, and art gone up: thou hast enlarged thy bed, and made thee a covenant with them; thou lovedst their bed where thou sawest it.

9. And thou wentest to the king with ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers far off, and didst debase thyself even unto hell.

10. Thou art wearied in the greatness of thy way; yet saidst thou not, There is no hope: thou hast found the life of thine hand; therefore thou wast not grieved.

Hos. ii. 13. And I will visit upon her the days of Baalim, wherein she burnt incense to them, and she decked herself with her ear-rings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgot me, saith the Lord.

(l) 2 Chr. xxxiii. 9. So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, and to do worse than the heathen, whom the Lord had destroyed before the children of Israel.

Ez. xvi. 47. Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations: but as if that were a very little thing, thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways.

51. Neither hath Samaria committed half of thy sins; but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they, and hast justified thy sisters in all thine abominations which thou hast done.

52. Thou also, which hast judged thy sisters, bear thine own shame, for thy sins that thou hast committed more abominable than they: they are more righteous than thou; yea, be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame, in that thou hast justified thy sisters.

34 Also (m) in thy skirts is found the blood of the souls of the poor innocents: I have not found it by secret search, but upon all these.

(m) 2 Kings xxi. 16. Moreover, Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another, besides his sin wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the Lord.

xxiv. 4. And also for the innocent blood that he shed: for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, which the Lord would not pardon.

Ps. cvi. 37. Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils,

38. And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood.

Is. lvii. 5. Inflaming yourselves with idols under every green tree, slaying the children in the valleys under the cliffs of the rocks?

lix. 7. Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths.

Ez. xvi. 20. Moreover, thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast borne unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them to be devoured. Is this of thy whoredoms a small matter,

21. That thou hast slain my children, and delivered them to cause them to pass through the fire for them?

xx. 31. For when ye offer your gifts, when ye make your sons to pass through the fire, ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, even unto this day: and shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, saith the Lord God, I will not be inquired of by you.

35 Yet thou sayest, Because I am innocent, surely his anger shall turn from me: behold, I will plead with thee, because thou sayest, I have not sinned.

36 Why gaddest thou about so much to change thy way? thou also shalt be ashamed of Egypt, as thou wast ashamed of Assyria.

37 Yea, thou shalt go forth from him, and thine hands upon thine head; for the LORD hath rejected thy confidences, (n) and thou shalt not prosper in them.

(n) Num. xiv. 41. And Moses said, Where-

Are now do ye transgress the commandment of the Lord? but it shall not prosper.

2 Côr. xiii. 12. And, behold, God himself is with us for our captain, and his priests with sounding trumpets, to cry alarm against you. O children of Israel, fight ye not against the Lord God of your fathers; for ye shall not prosper.

CHAPTER III.

THEY say, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, shall he return unto her again? shall not that land be greatly polluted? (a) but thou hast played the harlot with many lovers; (b) yet return again to me, saith the LORD.

(a) Judg. xix. 2. And his concubine played the whore against him, and went away from him unto her father's house, to Beth-lehem-judah, and was there four whole months.

Eccl. xvi. 26. Thou hast also committed fornication with the Egyptians thy neighbours, great of flesh; and hast increased thy whoredoms, to provoke me to anger.

28. Thou hast played the whore also with the Assyrians, because thou wast unsatiable; yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldest not be satisfied.

29. Thou hast, moreover, multiplied thy fornication in the land of Canaan unto Chaldea; and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.

(b) Eccl. xxxiii. 11. Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye, from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

Zech. i. 3. Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Turn ye unto me, saith the Lord of hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the Lord of hosts.

2 Lift up thine eyes unto the high places, and see where thou hast not been lain with. (c) In the ways hast thou sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness; and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms, and with thy wickedness.

(c) Gen. xxxviii. 14. And she put her widow's garments off from her, and covered her with a veil, and wrapped herself, and sat in an open place, which is by the way to Timnath: for she saw that Shelah was grown, and she was not given unto him to wife.

15. When Judah saw her, he thought her to be an harlot; because she had covered her face. Prov. vii. 11. She is loud and stubborn; her feet abide not in her house:

12. Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in wait at every corner.

xxiii. 28. She also lieth in wait as for a prey, and increaseth the transgressors among men.

Eccl. xvi. 24. That thou hast also built unto thee an eminent place, and hast made thee an high place in every street.

25. Thou hast built thy high place at every head of the way, and hast made thy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredoms.

3 Therefore (d) the showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; and thou hadst (e) a whore's forehead, (f) thou refusedst to be ashamed.

(d) Lev. xxvi. 19. And I will break the pride of your power; and I will make your heaven as iron, and your earth as brass.

Deut. xxviii. 23. And the heaven that is over thy head shall be brass, and the earth that is under thee shall be iron.

24. The Lord shall make the rain of thy land powder and dust: from heaven shall it come down upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

Is. v. 6. And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned nor digged; but there shall come up briars and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

Amos iv. 7. And also I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest; and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.

Hag. i. 11. And I called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth; and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labour of the hands.

(e) Eccl. iii. 7. But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; for they will not hearken unto me: for all the house of Israel are impudent and hard-hearted.

(f) Zech. vii. 11. But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

12. Yea, they made their heart as an adamant-stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the Lord of hosts hath sent in his Spirit by the former prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the Lord of hosts.

Heb. xii. 25. See that ye refuse not him that speaketh: for if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven.

4 Wilt (g) thou not from this time cry unto me, My father, thou art (h) the guide of my youth?

(g) Hos. xiv. 1. O Israel, return unto the Lord thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity.

2. Take with you words, and turn to the Lord; say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously; so will we render the calves of our lips.

3. Asshur shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses; neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods: for in thee the fatherless findeth mercy.

(h) Psa. xlvi. 14. For this God is our God for ever and ever; he will be our guide even unto death.

lxxi. 5. For thou art my hope, O Lord God: thou art my trust from my youth.

17. O God, thou hast taught me from my youth: and hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works.

Prov. ii. 17. Which forsaketh the guide of her youth, and forgetteth the covenant of her God.

5 Will (i) he reserve his anger for ever? will he keep it to the end? Behold, thou hast spoken and done evil things as thou couldest.

(i) Psa. lxxvii. 7. Will the Lord cast off for ever? and will he be favourable no more?

8. Is his mercy clean gone for ever? doth his promise fail for evermore?

9. Hath God forgotten to be gracious? hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies? Selah.

lxxxv. 5. Wilt thou be angry with us for ever? wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations?

ciii. 8. The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.

9. He will not always chide; neither will he keep his anger for ever.

Is. lvii. 16. For I will not contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth; for the spirit should fail before me, and the souls which I have made.

lxiv. 9. Be not wroth very sore, O Lord, neither remember iniquity for ever: behold, see, we beseech thee, we are all thy people.

6 ¶ The LORD said also unto me in the days of Josiah the king, Hast thou seen that which backsliding Israel hath done? she is gone up upon every high mountain, and under every green tree, and there hath played the harlot.

7 And I said after she had done all these things, Turn thou unto me. But she returned not: and her treacherous sister Judah saw it.

8 And I saw, when for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery, I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also.

9 And it came to pass through the lightness of her whoredom, that she defiled the land, and (k) committed adultery with stones and with stocks.

(k) Is. lvii. 6. Among the smooth stones of the stream is thy portion: they, they are thy lot: even to them hast thou poured a drink-offering, thou hast offered a meat-offering. Should I receive comfort in these?

Eccl. xli. 17. Thou hast also taken thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself images of men, and didst commit whoredom with them.

Hos. iv. 12. My people ask counsel at their stocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for the spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

Hab. ii. 19. Wo unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

10 And yet for all this her treacherous sister (l) Judah hath not turned unto me with her whole heart, but feignedly, saith the LORD.

(l) Psa. lxxviii. 36. Nevertheless they did flatter him with their mouth, and they lied unto him with their tongues:

37. For their heart was not right with him, neither were they steadfast in his covenant.

Is. x. 6. I will send him against an hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

Hos. vii. 14. And they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

11 And the LORD said unto me, The backsliding Israel hath (m) justified herself more than treacherous Judah.

(m) Ez. xvi. 47. Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations: but as if that were a very little thing, thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways.

51. Neither hath Samaria committed half of thy sins; but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they, and hast justified thy sisters in all thine abominations which thou hast done.

52. Thou also, which hast judged thy sisters, bear thine own shame for thy sins which thou hast committed more abominable than they: they are more righteous than thou; yea, be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame, in that thou hast justified thy sisters.

xxiii. 11. And when her sister Aholibah saw this, she was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her whoredoms more than her sister in her whoredoms.

12 ¶ Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, (n) Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD; (o) and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you: (p) for I am merciful, saith the LORD, and I will not keep anger for ever.

(n) Is. xlv. 22. I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me; for I have redeemed thee.

Ez. xxxiii. 11. Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye, from your evil ways: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

Hos. vi. 1. Come, and let us return unto the Lord: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

xiv. 1. O Israel, return unto the Lord thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity.

2. Take with you words, and turn to the Lord; say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously: so will we render the calves of our lips.

3. Asshur shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses: neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods: for in thee the fatherless findeth mercy.

(o) Ihs. xi. 8. How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? Mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

9. I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of thee; and I will not enter into the city.

(p) Ps. lxxxvi. 5. For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive; and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

ciii. 8. The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and plenteous in mercy.

9. He will not always chide; neither will he keep his anger for ever.

17. But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children.

13 Only (q) acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the LORD thy God, and hast scattered thy ways to the strangers under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the LORD.

(q) Job xxxiii. 27. He looketh upon men; and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not;

28. He will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.

Prov. xxviii. 13. He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whose confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

14 Turn, O backsliding children, saith the LORD, (r) for I am married unto you; and I will take you, (s) one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion:

(r) Is. liv. 5. For thy Maker is thine husband; The Lord of hosts is his name: and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; The God of the whole earth shall he be called.

Hos. ii. 19. And I will betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in loving-kindness, and in mercies;

20. I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness; and thou shalt know the Lord.

(s) Is. i. 9. Except the Lord of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

vi. 13. But yet in it shall be a tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten: as a teil-tree, and as an oak, whose substance is in them when they cast their leaves: so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof.

x. 22. For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return: the consumption decreed shall overflow with righteousness.

xvii. 6. Yet gleanings grapes shall be left in it, as the shaking of an olive-tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outmost fruitful branches thereof, saith the Lord God of Israel.

15 And (t) I will give you pastors according to mine heart, (u) which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding.

(t) 1 Sam. xiii. 14. But now thy kingdom shall not continue: The Lord hath sought him a man after his own heart, and the Lord hath commanded him to be captain over his people, because thou hast not kept that which the Lord commanded thee.

Is. xxx. 20. And though the Lord give you the bread of adversity, and the water of affliction, yet shall not thy teachers be removed into a corner any more, but thine eyes shall see thy teachers.

21. And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.

Ez. xxxvii. 24. And David my servant shall be king over them; and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my judgments, and observe my statutes, and do them.

Eph. iv. 11. And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers:

12. For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ.

(u) Prov. x. 21. The lips of the righteous feed many: but fools die for want of wisdom.

Luke xii. 42. And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season?

Acts xx. 28. Take heed, therefore, unto yourselves, and to all the flock over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.

1 Pet. ii. 2. As new-born babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby.

16 And it shall come to pass, (x) when ye be multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, (y) The ark of the covenant of the LORD: neither shall it come to mind; neither shall they remember it; neither shall they visit it; neither shall that be done any more.

(x) Ez. xxxvii. 26. Moreover, I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them: and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore.

Amos ix. 9. For, lo, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth.

14. And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

15. And I will plant them upon their land, and they shall no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them, saith the Lord thy God.

(y) Is. lxxv. 17. For, behold, I create new heavens, and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind.

lxvi. 1. Thus saith the Lord, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?

2. For all those things hath mine hand made, and all those things have been, saith the Lord: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor, and of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at my word.

John iv. 20. Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21. Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.

22. Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews.

23. But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth; for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

24. God is a Spirit: and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit and in truth.

Heb. x. 8. Above, when he said, Sacrifice, and offering, and burnt-offerings, and offering for sin, thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; (which are offered by the law;)

9. Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

17 At that time they shall call Jerusalem (z) the throne of the LORD; (a) and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, (b) to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem: neither shall they (c) walk any more after the imagination of their evil heart.

(z) Ps. lxxxvii. 3. Glorious things are spoken of thee, O city of God. Selah.

Is. vi. 1. In the year that king Uzziah died, I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple.

Gal. iv. 26. But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

(a) Zech. ii. 11. And many nations shall be joined to the Lord in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee; and thou shalt know that the Lord of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

(b) Is. xxvi. 8. Yea, in the way of thy judgments, O Lord, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee.

lvi. 6. Also the sons of the stranger that join themselves to the Lord, to serve him, and to love the name of the Lord, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant.

lix. 19. So shall they fear the name of the Lord from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun: when the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord shall lift up a standard against him.

(c) Gen. viii. 21. And the Lord smelled a sweet savour; and the Lord said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake; for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth: neither will I again smite any more every living thing, as I have done.

Num. xv. 39. And it shall be unto you for a fringe, that ye may look upon it, and remember all the commandments of the Lord, and do them; and that ye seek not after your own heart, and your own eyes, after which ye use to go a whoring.

Rom. i. 21. Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

2 Cor. x. 4. For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;

5. Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ.

18 In those days (d) the house of Judah, shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north, to the land that I have given for an inheritance unto your fathers.

(d) Hos. i. 11. Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

Zech. x. 6. And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will bring them again to place them; for I have mercy upon them: and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am the Lord their God, and will hear them.

19 But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee (e) a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? and I said, Thou shalt call me, My father; and shalt not turn away from me.

(e) Ps. cvi. 24. Yea, they despised the pleasant land; they believed not his word.

Ez. xx. 6. In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, to bring them forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands.

Dan. viii. 9. And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land.

20 ¶ Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD.

21 A voice was heard upon the high places, weeping and supplications of the children of Israel: (f) for they have perverted their way, and they have forgotten the LORD their God.

(f) Num. xxii. 32. And the angel of the Lord said unto him, Wherefore hast thou smitten thine ass these three times? Behold, I went out to withstand thee, because thy way is perverse before me.

Job xxxiii. 27. He looketh upon men; and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not;

Prov. x. 9. He that walketh uprightly walketh surely: but he that perverteth his ways shall be known.

xix. 3. The foolishness of man perverteth his way; and his heart fretteth against the Lord.

Mic. iii. 9. Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that abhor judgment, and pervert all equity.

22 Return, ye backsliding children, and I will heal your backslidings. (g) Behold, we come unto thee; for thou art the LORD our God.

(g) Ps. xxvii. 8. When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, Lord, will I seek.

Cant. i. 4. Draw me, we will run after thee: the king hath brought me into his chambers: we will be glad and rejoice in thee; we will remember thy love more than wine: the upright love thee.

Hos. iii. 5. Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the Lord their God, and David their king; and shall fear the Lord and his goodness in the latter days.

vi. 1. Come, and let us return unto the Lord: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

23 Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills, and from the multitude of mountains: truly (h) in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.

(h) Ps. iii. 8. Salvation belongeth unto the Lord: thy blessing is upon thy people. Selah.

Is. xii. 2. Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the Lord JEHOVAH is my strength and my song; he also is become my salvation.

xliii. 11. I, even I, am the Lord; and beside me there is no saviour.

xlv. 15. Verily, thou art a God that hidest thyself, O God of Israel, the Saviour.

17. But Israel shall be saved in the Lord with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end.

John iv. 22. Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship; for salvation is of the Jews.

24 For (i) shame hath devoured the labour of our fathers from our youth: their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

(i) Hos. ix. 10. I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the first ripe in the fig-tree at her first time: but they went to Baal-peor, and separated themselves unto that shame; and their abominations were according as they loved.

Rom. vi. 21. What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

25 We (k) lie down in our shame, and our confusion covereth us: (l) for we have sinned against the LORD our God, (m) we and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day, (n) and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.

(k) Ps. cix. 29. Let mine adversaries be clothed with shame; and let them cover themselves with their own confusion as with a mantle.

Is. i. 11. Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that compass yourselves about with sparks; walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled. This shall ye have of mine hand, ye shall lie down in sorrow.

Ez. vii. 18. They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads.

Dan. xii. 2. And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

(l) Deut. xxxi. 17. Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall befall them; so that they will say in that day, Are not these evils come upon us because our God is not among us?

18. And I will surely hide my face in that day, for all the evils which they shall have wrought, in that they are turned unto other gods.

Ezra ix. 6. And said, O my God, I am ashamed, and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up unto the heavens.

(m) Ps. cvi. 7. Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt; they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies; but provoked him at the sea, even at the Red sea.

Lam. v. 7. Our fathers have sinned, and are not; and we have borne their iniquities.

(n) Judg. ii. 2. And ye shall make no league with the inhabitants of this land; ye shall throw down their altars: but ye have not obeyed my voice: why have ye done this?

Prov. v. 13. And have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined mine ear to them that instructed me!

Dan. ix. 10. Neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

CHAPTER IV.

IF thou wilt return, O Israel, I saith the LORD, (a) return unto me: and if thou wilt (b) put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shalt thou not remove.

(a) Is. xxxi. 6. Turn ye unto him, from whom the children of Israel have deeply revolted.

Joel ii. 12. Therefore also now, saith the Lord, Turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning.

(b) Gen. xxxv. 2. Then Jacob said unto his household, and to all that were with him, Put away the strange gods that are among you, and be clean, and change your garments.

Deut. xxvii. 15. Cursed be the man that maketh any graven or molten image, an abomination unto the Lord, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place: and all the people shall answer and say, Amen.

Josh. xxiv. 14. Now, therefore, fear the Lord, and serve him in sincerity and in truth; and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt; and serve ye the Lord.

Judg. x. 16. And they put away the strange gods from among them, and served the Lord: and his soul was grieved for the misery of Israel.

1 Sam. vii. 3. And Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye do return unto the Lord with all your hearts, then put away the strange gods and Ashtaroth from among you, and prepare your hearts unto the Lord, and serve him only; and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.

Ez. xi. 18. And they shall come thither, and they shall take away all the detestable things thereof, and all the abominations thereof, from thence.

2 And thou (c) shalt swear, The LORD liveth, (d) in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; (e) and the nations shall bless themselves in him, (f) and in him shall they glory.

(c) Deut. x. 20. Thou shalt fear the Lord thy God, him shalt thou serve, and to him shalt thou cleave, and swear by his name.

Is. xlv. 23. I have sworn by myself, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, That unto me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear.

(d) 1 Kings iii. 6. And Solomon said, Thou hast showed unto thy servant David my father great mercy, according as he walked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with thee; and thou hast kept for him this great kindness, that thou hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.

Ps. xcix. 4. The king's strength also loveth judgment: thou dost establish equity, thou executest judgment and righteousness in Jacob.

Zech. viii. 8. And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

(e) Gen. xxii. 18. And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice.

Ps. lxxii. 17. His name shall endure for ever: his name shall be continued as long as the sun; and men shall be blessed in him: all nations shall call him blessed.

Is. lxxv. 16. That he who blesseth himself in the earth, shall bless himself in the God of truth; and he that sweareth in the earth, shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from mine eyes.

(f) Is. xlv. 25. In the Lord shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory.

1 Cor. i. 31. That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

2 Cor. x. 17. But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

3 ¶ For thus saith the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, (g) Break up your fallow ground, and sow not among thorns.

(g) Hos. x. 12. Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy. Break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the Lord, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

Matt. xiii. 7. And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up and choked them.

22. He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

Gal. vi. 7. Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption: but he that soweth to the Spirit, shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

4 Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, (h) and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; (i) lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

(h) Deut. x. 16. Circumcise, therefore, the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiff-necked.

xxx. 6. And the Lord thy God will circumcise thine heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live.

Ez. xviii. 31. Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed, and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

Rom. ii. 28. For he is not a Jew which is one outwardly: neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh:

29. But he is a Jew which is one inwardly: and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

Col. ii. 11. In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ.

(i) Deut. xxxii. 22. For a fire is kindled in mine anger, and shall burn unto the lowest hell, and shall consume the earth with her increase, and set on fire the foundations of the mountains.

Is. xxx. 27. Behold, the name of the Lord cometh from far, burning with his anger, and the burden thereof is heavy; his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a devouring fire.

33. For Tophet is ordained of old; yea, for the king it is prepared; he hath made it deep and large; the pile thereof is fire and much wood: the breath of the Lord, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it.

li. 17. Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which hast drunk at the hand of the Lord the cup of his fury: thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out.

Lam. iv. 11. The Lord hath accomplished his fury; he hath poured out his fierce anger, and hath kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.

Amos v. 6. Seek the Lord, and ye shall live; lest he break out like a fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Beth-el.

5 Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, (k) Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, Gather together, and say, (l) Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the defenced cities.

(k) Hos. viii. 1. Set the trumpet to thy mouth: he shall come as an eagle against the house of the Lord, because they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law.

Amos iii. 6. Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, and the Lord hath not done it?

8. The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord God hath spoken, who can but prophesy?

(l) Josh. x. 20. And it came to pass, when Joshua and the children of Israel had made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, till they were consumed, that the rest which remained of them entered into fenced cities.

6 Set up (m) the standard toward Zion: retire, stay not: for I will bring evil from the north, (n) and a great destruction.

(m) Is. lxii. 10. Go through, go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones: lift up a standard for the people.

(n) Jer. i. 22. A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction.

li. 54. A sound of a cry cometh from Babylon, and great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans.

7 The lion is come up from his thicket, and (o) the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place (p) to make thy land desolate; and thy cities shall be laid waste, without an inhabitant.

(o) Ez. xxx. 10. Thus saith the Lord God, I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

11. He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought to destroy the land; and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.

Dan. v. 19. And for the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew, and whom he would he kept alive, and whom he would he set up, and whom he would he put down.

(p) Is. i. 7. Your country is desolate, your cities are burnt with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers.

8 For (q) this gird you with sackcloth, lament (r) and howl: for (s) the fierce anger of the LORD is not turned back from us.

(q) Is. xv. 3. In their streets shall they gird themselves with sackcloth: on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, weeping abundantly.

xxxii. 11. Tremble, ye women that are at ease; be troubled, ye careless ones: strip you, and make you bare, and gird sackcloth upon your loins.

Joel ii. 12. Therefore also now, saith the Lord, Turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning;

13. And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God; for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

(r) Is. xliii. 6. Howl ye, for the day of the Lord is at hand; it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty.

Ez. xxi. 12. Cry and howl, son of man; for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the princes of Israel; terrors, by reason of the sword, shall be upon my people: smite therefore upon thy thigh.

xxx. 2. Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord God, Howl ye, Wo worth the day!

(s) Is. v. 25. Therefore is the anger of the Lord kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them: and the hills did tremble, and their carcasses were torn in the midst of the streets. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

9 And it shall come to pass at that day, saith the LORD, (t) that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; (u) and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder.

(t) 1 Sam. xxv. 37. But it came to pass in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, and his wife had told him these things, that his heart died within him, and he became as a stone.

38. And it came to pass, about ten days after, that the Lord smote Nabal, that he died.

Ps. cii. 4. My heart is smitten, and withered like grass; so that I forget to eat my bread.

(u) Is. xxix. 9. Stay yourselves, and wonder; cry ye out, and cry: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink.

10. For the Lord hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes: the prophets and your rulers, the seers, hath he covered.

Acts xliii. 41. Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

10 Then said I, (x) Ah, Lord God! (y) surely thou hast greatly deceived this people, and Jerusalem, saying, (z) Ye shall have peace; whereas (a) the sword reacheth unto the soul.

(x) Ez. xi. 13. And it came to pass when I prophesied, that Pelatiah, the son of Benaiah, died: then fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah, Lord God! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel?

(y) Is. lxiii. 17. O Lord, why hast thou made us to err from thy ways, and hardened our heart from thy fear? Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance.

Ez. xiv. 9. And if the prophet be deceived when he hath spoken a thing, I the Lord have deceived that prophet; and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel.

10. And they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity: the punishment of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him that seeketh unto him.

Rom. i. 24. Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness, through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves.

(z) Is. xxx. 10. Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophesy not unto us right things; speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits.

(a) Ex. ix. 14. For I will at this time send all my plagues upon thine heart, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, that thou mayest know that there is none like me in all the earth.

11 At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, A (b) dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward (c) the daughter of my people, (d) not to fan nor to cleanse;

(b) Is. xxvii. 8. In measure, when it shooteth forth, thou wilt debate with it: he stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind.

Ez. xvii. 10. Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither when the east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

xix. 12. But she was plucked up in fury, she was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up her fruit: her strong rods were broken and withered; the fire consumed them.

Hos. xliii. 15. Though he be fruitful among his brethren, an east wind shall come, the wind of the Lord shall come up from the wilderness, and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up: he shall spoil the treasure of all pleasant vessels.

(c) Is. xxii. 4. Therefore, said I, Look away from me; I will weep bitterly, labour not to comfort me, because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people.

Lam. ii. 11. Mine eyes do fail with tears, my bowels are troubled, my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because the children and the sucklings swoon in the streets of the city.

iii. 48. Mine eye runneth down with rivers of water for the destruction of the daughter of my people.

(d) Is. xli. 16. Thou shalt fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and thou shalt rejoice in the Lord, and shalt glory in the Holy One of Israel.

Matt. iii. 12. Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner: but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

12 Even a full wind from those places shall come unto me: now also will I give sentence against them.

13 Behold, (e) he shall come up as clouds, and (f) his chariots shall be as a whirlwind: (g) his horses are swifter than eagles. Wo unto us! for we are spoiled.

(e) Is. xliii. 5. They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, even the Lord, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.

xix. 1. The burden of Egypt. Behold, the Lord rideth upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt; and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it.

Nah. i. 3. The Lord is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: the Lord hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

Matt. xxiv. 30. And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

(f) Is. v. 28. Whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent: their horses' hoofs shall be counted like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind.

lxvi. 15. For, behold, the Lord will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.

Nah. ii. 3. The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are in scarlet: the chariots shall be with flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the fir-trees shall be terribly shaken.

4. The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall jostle one against another in the broad ways; they shall seem like torches, they shall run like the lightning.

(g) Deut. xxviii. 49. The Lord shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand.

Lam. iv. 19. Our persecutors are swifter than the eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.

Hab. i. 8. Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves; and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly as the eagle that hasteth to eat.

14 ¶ O Jerusalem, (h) wash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved. (i) How long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee?

(h) Is. lv. 7. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

Ez. xviii. 31. Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

Matt. xii. 33. Either make the tree good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit.

Luke xi. 39. And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.

James iv. 8. Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners, and purify your hearts, ye double-minded.

(i) Ps. lxxv. 18. If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me.

cxix. 113. I hate vain thoughts: but thy law do I love.

Prov. i. 22. How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity, and the scornors delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?

Acts viii. 22. Repent, therefore, of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

1 Cor. iii. 20. And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

15 For a voice declareth from Dan, and publisheth affliction from Mount Ephraim.

16 Make (k) ye mention to the nations; behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come (l) from a far country, and (m) give out their voice against the cities of Judah.

(k) Is. xxxiv. 1. Come near, ye nations, to hear; and hearken, ye people: let the earth hear, and all that is therein; the world, and all things that come forth of it.

(l) Is. xxxix. 3. Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon.

(m) Ez. xxi. 22. At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort.

17 As (n) keepers of a field, are they against her round about; (o) because she hath been rebellious against me, saith the LORD.

(n) Is. i. 8. And the daughter of Zion is left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city.

Luke xix. 43. For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, and shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

(o) Is. xxx. 9. That this is a rebellious people, lying children, children that will not hear the law of the Lord.

Lam. i. 18. The Lord is righteous; for I have rebelled against his commandment: hear, I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow: my virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.

18 Thy (p) way and thy doings have procured these things unto thee; this is thy wickedness, because it is bitter, because it reacheth unto thine heart.

(p) Ps. cvii. 17. Fools, because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted.

Prov. i. 31. Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.

v. 22. His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be holden with the cords of his sins.

19 ¶ My bowels, (q) my bowels! I am pained at my very heart; my heart maketh a noise in me; I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.

(q) Ps. cxix. 53. Horror hath taken hold upon me, because of the wicked that forsake thy law.

136. Rivers of waters run down mine eyes; because they keep not thy law.

Is. xv. 5. My heart shall cry out for Moab; his fugitives shall flee unto Zoar, an heifer of three years old: for by the mounting up of Luthith with weeping shall they go it up; for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of destruction.

xvi. 11. Wherefore my bowels shall sound like an harp for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kir-haresch.

Lam. i. 16. For these things I weep: mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because the comforter that should relieve my soul is far from me; my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed.

20 Destruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is spoiled: (r) suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtains (s) in a moment.

(r) Hab. iii. 7. I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction; and the curtains of the land of Midian did tremble.

(s) Ex. xxxiii. 5. For the Lord had said unto Moses, Say unto the children of Israel, Ye are a stiff-necked people; I will come up into the midst of thee in a moment, and consume thee: therefore now put off thy ornaments from thee, that I may know what to do unto thee.

Num. xvi. 21. Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment.

Ps. lxxiii. 19. How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors.

Is. xlvii. 9. But these two things shall come to thee in a moment, in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection, for the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

21 How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

22 For (t) my people is foolish, (u) they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: (x) they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

(t) Deut. xxxii. 6. Do ye thus requite the Lord, O foolish people, and unwise! is not he thy father that hath bought thee? hath he not made thee, and established thee?

Ps. xiv. 1. The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt; they have done abominable works; there is none that doeth good.

2. The Lord looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God.

3. They are all gone aside, they are altogether become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

4. Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread, and call not upon the Lord.

Is. i. 3. The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider.

vi. 9. And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not.

10. Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.

xxvii. 11. When the boughs thereof are withered they shall be broken off: the women come and set them on fire; for it is a people of no understanding: therefore he that made them will not have mercy on them, and he that formed them will show them no favour.

(u) Hos. v. 4. They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the Lord.

John xvi. 3. And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

Rom. i. 28. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient.

1 Cor. i. 21. For after that, in the wisdom of God, the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

(x) Luke xvi. 8. And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

Rom. xvi. 19. For your obedience has come abroad unto all men. I am glad, therefore, on your behalf: but yet I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil.

1 Cor. xiv. 20. Brethren, be not children in understanding; howbeit, in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men.

23 I beheld (y) the earth, and, lo, it was without form and void; and (z) the heavens, and they had no light.

(y) Gen. i. 2. And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep: and the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

Rev. xx. 11. And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.

(z) Is. v. 30. And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the sea: and if one look unto the land, behold, darkness and sorrow; and the light is darkened in the heavens thereof.

xiii. 10. For the stars of heaven, and the constellations thereof, shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine.

Ez. xxxii. 7. And when I shall put thee out, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.

8. All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord God.

Joel ii. 10. The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble; the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining.

30. And I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.

31. The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of the Lord come.

Amos viii. 9. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord God, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day.

Matt. xxiv. 29. Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heaven shall be shaken.

35. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my word shall not pass away.

24 I beheld the (a) mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly.

(a) Judg. v. 5. The mountains melted from before the Lord, even that Sinai from before the Lord God of Israel.

Ps. xviii. 7. Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved, and were shaken, because he was wrath.

lxxvii. 18. The voice of thy thunder was in the heaven: the lightnings lightened the world, the earth trembled and shook.

Mic. i. 4. And the mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down a steep place.

Hab. iii. 6. He stood and measured the earth; he beheld, and drove asunder the nations; and the everlasting mountains were scattered, the perpetual hills did bow: his ways are everlasting.

10. The mountains saw thee, and they trembled; the overflowing of the water passed by: the deep uttered his voice, and lifted up his hands on high.

25 I beheld, and, lo, (b) there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled.

(b) Hos. iv. 3. Therefore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

Zeph. i. 2. I will utterly consume all things from off the land, saith the Lord.

3. I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and the stumbling-blocks with the wicked: and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the Lord.

26 I beheld, and, lo, (c) the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the LORD, and by his fierce anger.

(c) Ps. cvii. 34. A fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

Mic. iii. 12. Therefore shall Zion for your sake be ploughed as a field; and Jerusalem shall become heaps; and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

27 For thus hath the LORD said, The whole land shall be desolate; (d) yet will I not make a full end.

(d) Lev. xxvi. 44. And yet for all that, when they be in the land of their enemies I will not cast them away, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to break my covenant with them: for I am the Lord their God.

Is. xxiv. 12. In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.

13. When thus it shall be in the midst of the land among the people, there shall be as the shaking of an olive-tree, and as the gleaning grapes when the vintage is done.

Amos ix. 8. Behold, the eyes of the Lord God are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the Lord.

28 For this shall (e) the earth mourn, and (f) the heavens above be black: (g) because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and will not repent, neither will I turn back from it.

(e) Is. xxiv. 4. The earth mourneth, and fadeth away; the world languisheth, and fadeth away: the haughty people of the earth do languish.

xxxiii. 8. The highways lie waste, the way-faring man ceaseth; he hath broken the covenant, he hath despised the cities, he regardeth no man.

9. The earth mourneth and languisheth; Lebanon is ashamed and hewn down: Sharon is like a wilderness; and Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits.

Hos. iv. 3. Therefore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

Joel i. 10. The field is wasted, the land mourneth, for the corn is wasted: the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth.

(f) Is. v. 30. And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the sea: and if one look unto the land, behold, darkness and sorrow; and the light is darkened in the heavens thereof.

xxxiv. 4. And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig-tree.

1. 3. I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering.

Matt. xxvii. 45. Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.

Rev. vi. 12. And I beheld, when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood.

(g) Num. xxiii. 19. God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good?

1 Sam. xv. 29. And also the Strength of Israel will not lie, nor repent: for he is not a man, that he should repent.

Is. xiv. 24. The Lord of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand;

25. That I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders.

26. This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth; and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations.

27. For the Lord of hosts hath purposed, and who shall disannul it? and his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?

xlvi. 10. Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure:

11. Calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man that executeth my counsel from a far country; yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it.

Ez. xxiv. 14. I the Lord have spoken it; it shall come to pass, and I will do it; I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent: according to thy ways, and according to thy doings, shall they judge thee, saith the Lord God.

1Th. vii. 21. For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, The Lord swear, and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever, after the order of Melchisedec.

29 The whole city shall flee for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen; (h) they shall go into thickets, and climb up upon the rocks: every city shall be forsaken, and not a man dwell therein.

(h) 1 Sam. xiii. 6. When the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait (for the people were distressed) then the people did hide themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in high places, and in pits.

Luke xxiii. 30. Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.

Rev. vi. 13. And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free-man, hid themselves in the dens, and in the rocks of the mountains:

16. And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17. For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?

30 And (i) when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do? Though thou clothest thyself with crimson, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, though thou rentest thy face with painting, in vain shalt thou make thyself fair; thy lovers will despise thee, they will seek thy life.

(i) Is. x. 3. And what will ye do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help, and where will ye leave your glory?

xx. 6. And the inhabitant of this isle shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, whither we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria: and how shall we escape?

Heb. ii. 3. How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation: which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him.

31 For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, that bewaileth herself, that spreadeth her hands, saying, (k) Wo is me now! (l) for my soul is wearied because of murderers.

(k) Ps. cxx. 5. Wo is me, that I sojourn in Mesoch, that I dwell in the tents of Kedar!

Is. vi. 5. Then said I, Wo is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts.

Mic. vii. 1. Wo is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer-fruits, as the grape gleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat: my soul desired the first ripe fruit.

1 Cor. ix. 16. For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, wo is unto me, if I preach not the gospel.

(l) Gen. xxvii. 46. And Rebekah said to Isaac, I am weary of my life, because of the daughters of Heth: if Jacob take a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these which are of the daughters of the land, what good shall my life do me?

Job x. 1. My soul is weary of my life: I will leave my complaint upon myself; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

CHAPTER V.

RUN (a) ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and (b) seek in the broad places thereof, (c) if ye can find a man, (d) if there be any that executeth judgment, (e) that seeketh the truth; and I will pardon it.

(a) 2 Chr. xvi. 9. For the eyes of the Lord run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward him. Herein thou hast done foolishly; therefore from henceforth thou shalt have wars.

Dan. xii. 4. But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

Joel ii. 9. They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall; they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief.

Amos viii. 12. And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east; they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the Lord, and shall not find it.

(b) Prov. viii. 3. She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors.

Cant. iii. 2. I will rise now, and go about the city in the streets, and in the broad ways I will seek him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

(c) 1 Kings xix. 10. And he said, I have been very jealous for the Lord God of hosts: for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword: and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.

Prov. xx. 6. Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man who can find?

Ez. xxii. 30. And I sought for a man among them that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none.

(d) Ps. xii. 1. Help, Lord, for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.

xiv. 3. They are all gone aside, they are altogether become filthy; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

(e) Is. lix. 4. None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies: they conceive mischief and bring forth iniquity.

14. And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.

15. Yea, truth faileth; and he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey: and the Lord saw it, and it displeased him that there was no judgment.

2 And though they say, The LORD liveth; surely they swear falsely.

3 O LORD, (f) are not thine eyes upon the truth? (g) thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: (h) they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return.

(f) Ps. xi. 4. The Lord is in his holy temple, the Lord's throne is in heaven: his eyes behold, his eyelids try the children of men.

li. 6. Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts; and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

Prov. xxii. 12. The eyes of the Lord preserve knowledge; and he overthroweth the words of the transgressor.

Rom. ii. 2. But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things.

(g) 2 Chr. xxviii. 22. And in the time of his distress did he trespass yet more against the Lord: this is that king Ahaz.

Prov. xxiii. 35. They have stricken me, shall thou say, and I was not sick: they have beaten me, and I felt it not: when shall I awake? I will seek it yet again.

xxvii. 22. Though thou shouldest bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, yet will not his foolishness depart from him.

Is. i. 5. Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more. The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

ix. 13. For the people turneth not unto him that smiteth them, neither do they seek the Lord of hosts.

(h) Prov. xxi. 29. A wicked man hardeneth his face: but as for the upright, he directeth his way.

Is. xlvi. 4. Because I knew that thou art obstinate, and thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass.

4 Therefore I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish: for they know not the way of the LORD, nor the judgment of their God.

5 I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for they have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but these have altogether broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.

6 Wherefore a lion out of the forest shall slay them, (i) and a wolf of the evenings shall spoil them, (k) a leopard shall watch over their cities: every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces: because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings are increased.

(i) Hab. i. 8. Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves; and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far: they shall fly as the eagle that hasteth to eat.

Zeph. iii. 3. Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they gnaw not the bones till the morrow.

(k) Dan. vii. 6. After this I beheld, and, lo, another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl: the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it.

Hos. xiii. 7. Therefore I will be unto them as a lion; as a leopard by the way will I observe them.

Rev. xiii. 2. And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion; and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

7 (l) How shall I pardon thee for this? thy children have forsaken me, and sworn by them that are no gods: when I had fed them to the full, (m) they then committed adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses.

(l) Hos. xi. 8. How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

Math. xxiii. 37. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killeth the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!

58. Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.

(m) Lev. xx. 10. And the man that committeth adultery with another man's wife, even he that committeth adultery with his neighbour's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death.

Ps. l. 18. When thou sawest a thief, then thou consentedst with him, and hast been partaker with adulterers.

Ez. xxii. 11. And one hath committed abomination with his neighbour's wife; and another hath lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law; and another in thee hath humbled his sister, his father's daughter.

Hos. iv. 2. By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and blood toucheth blood.

8 They were as fed horses in the morning: (n) every one neighed after his neighbour's wife.

(n) Ex. xx. 17. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbour's.

Job xxxi. 9. If mine heart have been deceived by a woman, or if I have laid wait at my neighbour's door.

Matt. v. 27. Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery:

28. But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her, hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

9 Shall (o) I not visit for these things? saith the LORD; (p) and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

(o) Sam. iv. 22. The punishment of thine iniquity is accomplished, O daughter of Zion; he will no more carry thee away into captivity: he will visit thine iniquity, O daughter of Edom; he will discover thy sins.

Hos. ii. 13. And I will visit upon her the days of Baalim, wherein she burnt incense to them, and she decked herself with her ear-rings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgot me, saith the Lord.

viii. 13. They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eat it; but the Lord accepteth them not: now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins: they shall return to Egypt.

(p) Is. i. 24. Therefore saith the Lord, the Lord of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies.

Ez. vii. 9. And mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will recompense thee according to thy ways, and thine abominations that are in the midst of thee; and ye shall know that I am the Lord that smiteth.

10 ¶ Go (q) ye up upon her walls, and destroy; (r) but make not a full end: take away her battlements; for (s) they are not the LORD's.

(q) Ez. ix. 5. And to the others he said in mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite; let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity.

6. Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women, but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house.

7. And he said unto them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain; go ye forth. And they went forth, and slew in the city.

xiv. 17. Or if I bring a sword upon that land, and say, Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off man and beast from it.

Matt. xxii. 7. But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

(r) Ez. xii. 16. But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence, that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen whither they come; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

(s) Hos. i. 9. Then said God, Call his name Loammi: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.

11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD.

12 They (t) have belied the LORD, and said, It is not he; (u) neither shall evil come upon us; neither shall we see sword nor famine:

(t) Deut. xxix. 19. And it come to pass, when he heareth the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the imagination of mine heart, to add drunkenness to thirst.

Is. xxviii. 14. Wherefore hear the word of the Lord, ye scornful men that rule this people which is in Jerusalem:

15. Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves.

Ez. xiii. 6. They have seen vanity and lying divination, saying, The Lord saith; and the Lord hath not sent them: and they have made others to hope that they would confirm the word.

Mic. iii. 11. The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the LORD, and say, Is not the LORD among us? none evil can come upon us.

1 John v. 10. He that believeth on the Son of God, hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God, hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

(u) Ps. x. 6. He hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: for I shall never be in adversity.

1 Thess. v. 2. For yourselves know perfectly, that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

13 And (x) the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done unto them.

(x) Job vi. 26. Do ye imagine to reprove words, and the speeches of one that is desperate, which are as wind?

viii. 2. How long wilt thou speak these things? and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind?

14 Wherefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, behold, (y) I will make my words in thy mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them.

(y) Hos. vi. 5. Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth.

Rev. xi. 5. And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

6. These have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

15 Lo, I will bring a nation upon you from far, (z) O house of Israel, saith the LORD: it is (a) a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, (b) a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say.

(z) Is. v. 7. For the vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgment, but behold, oppression; for righteousness, but behold, a cry.

Ez. xviii. 31. Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

(a) Dan. ii. 37. Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

38. And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold.

vii. 7. After this I saw in the night visions, and, behold, a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns.

(b) Is. xxviii. 11. For with stammering lips, and another tongue, will he speak to this people. xxxiii. 19. Thou shalt not see a fierce people, a people of deeper speech than thou canst perceive; of a stammering tongue, that thou canst not understand.

1 Cor. xiv. 21. In the law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

16 Their (c) quiver is as an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men.

(c) Ps. v. 9. For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; their inward part is very wickedness; their throat is an open sepulchre: they flatter with their tongue.

Rom. iii. 13. Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongue they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips.

17 And (d) they shall eat up thine harvest and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat: they shall eat up thy flocks and thine herds: they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig-trees: (e) they shall impoverish thy fenced cities, wherein thou trustedst, with the sword.

(d) Lev. xxvi. 16. I also will do this unto you; I will even appoint over you terror, consumption, and the burning ague, that shall consume the eyes, and cause sorrow of heart: and ye shall sow your seed in vain; for your enemies shall eat it.

Deut. xxviii. 30. Thou shalt betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her: thou shalt build an house, and thou shalt not dwell therein: thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not gather the grapes thereof.

33. The fruit of thy land, and all thy labours, shall a nation which thou knowest not eat up; and thou shalt be only oppressed and crushed alway.

Judg. vi. 3. And so it was, when Israel had sown, that the Midianites came up, and the Amalekites, and the children of the east, even they came up against them;

4. And they encamped against them, and destroyed the increase of the earth, till thou come unto Gaza; and left no sustenance for Israel, neither sheep, nor ox, nor ass.

Hab. iii. 17. Although the fig-tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vine; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls:

18. Yet I will rejoice in the Lord, I will joy in the God of my salvation.

(e) Zeph. iii. 6. I have cut off the nations: their towers are desolate; I made their streets waste, that none passeth by: their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, that there is none inhabitant.

18 Nevertheless in those days, saith the LORD, I will not make a full end of you.

19 And it shall come to pass, when ye shall say, Wherefore doeth the LORD our God all these things unto us? then shalt thou answer them, Like as ye have forsaken me, and served strange gods in your land; so shall ye serve strangers in a land that is not yours.

20 ¶ Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying, 21 Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding; which have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not:

318

22 (f) Fear ye not me? saith the LORD; will ye not (g) tremble at my presence, which have (h) placed the sand for the bound of the sea, by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it: and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it?

(f) Deut. xxviii. 58. If thou wilt not observe to do all the words of this law, that are written in the book, that thou mayest fear this glorious and fearful name, THE LORD THY GOD.

Matt. v. 28. And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

(g) Ps. cxix. 120. My flesh trembleth for fear of thee; and I am afraid of thy judgments.

Is. lxvi. 5. Hear the word of the Lord, ye that tremble at his word; Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the Lord be glorified: but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed.

Dan. vi. 26. I make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel; for he is the living God, and steadfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end.

(h) Job xxvi. 10. He hath compassed the waters with bounds, until the day and night come to an end.

xxxviii. 10. And brake up for it my decreed place, and set bars and doors,

11. And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further; and here shall thy proud waves be stayed?

Ps. xxxiii. 7. He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap: he layeth up the depth in storehouses.

civ. 9. Thou hast set a bound, that they may not pass over, that they turn not again to cover the earth.

Prov. viii. 29. When he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment; when he appointed the foundations of the earth.

Amos ix. 6. It is he that buildeth his stories in the heaven, and hath founded his troop in the earth; he that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth; the Lord is his name.

Mark iv. 39. And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

23 But this people hath (i) a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone.

(i) Ps. xcvi. 10. Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways.

Is. i. 5. Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more. The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

xxx. 6. Turn ye unto him from whom the children of Israel have deeply revolted.

Hos. xi. 7. And my people are bent to backsliding from me: though they called them to the Most High, none at all would exalt him.

Heb. iii. 12. Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.

24 Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, (k) that giveth rain, both the former and the latter, in his season: he reserveth unto us (l) the appointed weeks of the harvest.

(k) Deut. xi. 14. That I will give you the rain of your land in his due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil.

Job v. 10. Who giveth rain upon the earth, and sendeth waters upon the fields.

xxxvi. 27. For he maketh small the drops of water: they pour down rain according to the vapour thereof,

28. Which the clouds do drop and distil upon man abundantly.

Ps. cxlvii. 8. Who covereth the heaven with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth, who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.

Joel ii. 23. Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the Lord your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.

(l) Gen. viii. 22. While the earth remaineth, seed-time and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night, shall not cease.

25 Your (m) iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden good things from you.

(m) Deut. xxviii. 23. And the heaven that is over thy head shall be brass, and the earth that is under thee shall be iron.

24. The Lord shall make the rain of thy land powder and dust: from heaven shall it come down upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

Is. lix. 2. But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.

26 For (n) among my people are found wicked men: (o) they lay wait, as he that setteth snares; they set a trap, they (p) catch men.

(n) Is. lviii. 1. Cry aloud, spare not; lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and show my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

(o) 1 Sam. xix. 10. And Saul sought to smite David even to the wall with the javelin; but he slipped away out of Saul's presence, and he smote the javelin into the wall: and David fled and escaped that night.

11. Saul also sent messengers unto David's house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning; and Michal, David's wife, told him, saying, If thou save not thy life to-night, to-morrow thou shalt be slain.

Ps. x. 9. He lieth in wait secretly as a lion in his den; he lieth in wait to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor when he draweth him into his net.

10. He croucheth and humbleth himself, that the poor may fall by his strong ones.

lxiv. 5. They encourage themselves in an evil matter: they commune of laying snares privily; they say, Who shall see them?

Prov. i. 17. Surely in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird.

18. And they lay wait for their own blood; they lurk privily for their own lives.

Hab. i. 14. And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things that have no ruler over them?

15. They take up all of them with the angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their drag; therefore they rejoice and are glad.

(p) Luke v. 10. And so was also James and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

27 As a cage is full of birds, (q) so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich.

(q) Prov. i. 11. If they say, Come with us, let us lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause:

12. Let us swallow them up alive as the grave, and whole as those that go down into the pit:

13. We shall find all precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil.

Hos. xii. 7. He is a merchant, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to oppress.

8. And Ephraim said, Yet I am become rich, I have found me out substance: in all my labours they shall find none iniquity in me that were sin.

Mic. vi. 10. Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is abominable?

11. Shall I count them pure with the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights?

28 They are (r) waxen fat, they shine: yea, (s) they overpass the deeds of the wicked: (t) they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, (u) yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge.

(r) Job xv. 27. Because he covereth his face with his fatness, and maketh collups of fat on his flanks.

xxi. 23. One dieth in his full strength, being wholly at ease and quiet.

24. His breasts are full of milk, and his bones are moistened with marrow.

Ps. lxxiii. 7. Their eyes stand out with fatness; they have more than heart could wish.

cxix. 70. Their heart is as fat as grease: but I delight in thy law.

(s) Ez. v. 6. And she hath changed my judgments into wickedness more than the nations, and my statutes more than the countries that are round about her; for they have refused my judgments and my statutes, they have not walked in them.

7. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because ye multiplied more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes: neither have kept my judgments, neither have done according to the judgments of the nations that are round about you.

1 Cor. v. 1. It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife.

(t) Is. i. 23. Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves; every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

Zech. vii. 10. And oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

(u) Job xii. 6. The tabernacles of robbers prosper, and they that provoke God are secure; into whose hand God bringeth abundantly.

Ps. lxxiii. 12. Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world; they increase in riches.

29 Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

30 ¶ A wonderful and (x) horrible thing is committed in the land;

(x) Hos. vii. 10. And the pride of Israel testified to his face, and they do not return to the Lord their God, nor seek him for all this.

31 The (y) prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and (z) my people love to have it so: (a) and what will ye do in the end thereof?

(y) Lam. ii. 14. Thy prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee; and they have not discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens, and causes of banishment.

Ez. xiii. 6. They have seen vanity and lying divination, saying, The Lord saith: and the Lord hath not sent them: and they have made others to hope that they would confirm the word.

(z) Is. xxx. 10. Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophesy not unto us right things; speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits:

11. Get you out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us.

2 Tim. iv. 3. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

4. And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned into fables.

(a) Is. x. 3. And what will ye do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory?

xx. 6. And the inhabitant of this isle shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, whither we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria: and how shall we escape?

xxxiii. 14. The sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness hath surprised the hypocrites; who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings?

CHAPTER VI.

O YE children of Benjamin, gather yourselves to flee out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and set up a sign of fire in Beth-haccerem: for evil appeareth out of the north, and great destruction.

2 I have likened (a) the daughter of Zion to a comely and delicate woman.

(a) Lam. ii. 1. How hath the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, and cast down from heaven unto the earth the beauty of Israel, and remembered not his footstool in the day of his anger?

13. What thing shall I take to witness for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy breach is great like the sea; who can heal thee?

3 The shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; they shall pitch their tents against her round about; they shall feed every one in his place.

4 (b) Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up (c) at noon. Wo unto us! for the day goeth away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out.

(b) Joel iii. 9. Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near, let them come up.

(c) Zeph. ii. 4. For Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation; they shall drive out Ashdod at the noon-day, and Ekron shall be rooted up.

5 Arise, and let us go by night, and (d) let us destroy her palaces.

(d) 2 Chr. xxxvi. 19. And they burnt the house of God, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels thereof.

Is. xxxii. 14. Because the palaces shall be forsaken; the multitude of the city shall be left; the forts and towers shall be for dens for ever, a joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks.

Hos. viii. 14. For Israel hath forgotten his Maker, and buildeth temples; and Judah hath multiplied fenced cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.

Amos ii. 5. But I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

Zech. xi. 1. Open thy doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour thy cedars.

6 For thus hath the LORD of hosts said, (e) Hew ye down trees, (f) and cast a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is (g) wholly oppression in the midst of her.

(e) Deut. xx. 19. When thou shalt besiege a city a long time, in making war against it to take it, thou shalt not destroy the trees thereof by forcing an axe against them: for thou mayest eat of them: and thou shalt not cut them down (for the tree of the field is man's life) to employ them in the siege:

20. Only the trees which thou knowest that they be not trees for meat, thou shalt destroy, and cut them down; and thou shalt build bulwarks against the city that maketh war with thee, until it be subdued.

(f) Is. xxxvii. 33. Therefore thus saith the Lord concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast a bank against it.

Ez. xxi. 22. At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering-rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort.

(g) 2 Kings xxi. 16. Moreover, Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; beside his sin wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the Lord.

Is. lix. 13. In transgressing and lying against the Lord, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood.

14. And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.

Ez. vii. 23. Make a chain; for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence.

7 As (h) a fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness: violence and spoil is heard in her; before me continually is grief and wounds.

(h) Prov. iv. 23. Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

Is. lvii. 20. But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt.

James iii. 10. Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11. Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter?

12. Can the fig-tree, my brethren, bear olives? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

8 Be thou instructed, O Jerusalem, lest my soul depart from thee; lest I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited.

9 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn back thine hand as a grape-gatherer into the baskets.

10 ¶ To whom shall I speak, and (i) give warning, that they may hear? behold, (k) their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, (l) the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it.

(i) Ez. xxxiii. 3. If, when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people.

9. Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

Matt. iii. 7. But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers! who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

Col. i. 28. Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus.

Heb. xi. 7. By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

(k) Ex. vi. 12. And Moses spake before the Lord, saying, Behold, the children of Israel have not hearkened unto me; how then shall Pharaoh hear me, who am of uncircumcised lips?

Deut. xxix. 4. Yet the Lord hath not given you an heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, unto this day.

Is. vi. 9. And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not.

10. Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.

Acts vii. 51. Ye stiff-necked, and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost; as your fathers did, so do ye.

(l) Luke xi. 45. Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying, thou reproachest us also.

xx. 19. And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him: and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

John ix. 40. And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also?

2 Tim. iv. 3. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears.

11 Therefore (m) I am full of the fury of the LORD; I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out upon the children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together: for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of days.

(m) Job xxxii. 18. For I am full of matter; the spirit within me constraineth me.

19. Behold, my belly is as wine which hath no vent; it is ready to burst like new bottles.

Acts xvii. 16. Now, while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.

12 And their houses shall be turned unto others, with their fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD.

13 For (n) from the least of them, every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest, every one dealeth falsely.

(n) Mic. iii. 11. The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the Lord, and say, Is not the Lord among us? none evil can come upon us.

Zeph. iii. 3. Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they gnaw not the bones till the morrow.

4. Her prophets are light and treacherous persons; her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law.

Luke xvi. 14. And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things; and they derided him.

14 They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

15 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore (o) they shall fall among them that fall; at the time that I visit them, they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

(o) Is. x. 4. Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. For all this, his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

Matt. xv. 14. Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

16 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, (p) Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, (q) and walk therein, and (r) ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, (s) We will not walk therein.

(p) Deut. xxxii. 7. Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations: ask thy father, and he will show thee; thy elders, and they will tell thee.

Cant. i. 8. If thou know not, O thou fairest among women, go thy way forth by the footsteps of the flock, and feed thy kids beside the shepherds' tents.

Luke xvi. 29. Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.

John v. 39. Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

(q) Is. ii. 5. O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the Lord.

xxx. 21. And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.

John xii. 35. Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you; walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

xiii. 17. If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

(r) Is. xxviii. 12. To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest, and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear.

Matt. xi. 28. Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

29. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

(s) Jer. xlii. 16. As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the Lord, we will not hearken unto thee.

17 Also I set watchmen over you, saying, Harken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken.

18 Therefore hear, ye nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them.

19 Hear, (t) O earth; behold, I will bring evil upon this people, (u) even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words, nor to my law, but rejected it.

(t) Deut. iv. 26. I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that ye shall soon utterly perish from off the land wherunto ye go over Jordan to possess it; ye shall not prolong your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed.

xxx. 19. I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live.

xxxiii. 1. Give ear, O ye heavens, and I will speak; and hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.

Is. i. 2. Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth; for the Lord hath spoken: I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me.

Mic. vi. 2. Hear ye, O mountains, the Lord's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the Lord hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

(u) Prov. xv. 26. The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the Lord: but the words of the pure are pleasant words.

Is. lix. 7. Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths.

Acts viii. 22. Repent, therefore, of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

20 To what purpose cometh there to me incense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? your burnt-offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet unto me.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, (x) I will lay stumbling-blocks before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them; the neighbour and his friend shall perish.

(x) Is. viii. 14. And he shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling, and for a rock of offence, to both the houses of Israel; for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

Ez. iii. 20. Again, when a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumbling-block before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered: but his blood will I require at thine hand.

Rom. ix. 33. As it is written, Behold, I lay in Zion a stumbling-stone, and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

1 Pet. ii. 8. And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient, whereunto also they were appointed.

22 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, a people cometh from the north country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth.

23 They shall lay hold on bow and spear; they are (y) cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against thee, O daughter of Zion.

(y) Is. xiii. 18. Their bows also shall dash the young men to pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye shall not spare children.

xix. 4. And the Egyptians will I give over into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, saith the Lord, the Lord of hosts.

24 We have heard the fame thereof: our hands wax feeble: (z) anguish hath taken hold of us, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

(z) Ps. xlvi. 6. Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

Is. xxi. 3. Therefore are my loins filled with pain; pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman that travaileth: I was bowed down at the hearing of it; I was dismayed at the seeing of it.

1 Thess. v. 3. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

25 Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way: for (a) the sword of the enemy and fear is on every side.

(a) Job xviii. 11. Terrors shall make him afraid on every side, and shall drive him to his feet.

Ps. xxxi. 13. For I have heard the slander of many: fear was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life.

Luke xix. 43. For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side.

26 O daughter of my people, (b) gird thee with sackcloth, and wallow thyself in ashes; (c) make thee mourning, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation: for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us.

(b) Is. xxxii. 11. Tremble, ye women that are at ease; be troubled, ye careless ones: strip you, and make you bare, and gird sackcloth upon your loins.

Ez. xxvii. 30. And shall cause their voice to be heard against thee, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up dust upon their heads; they shall wallow themselves in the ashes;

31. And they shall make themselves utterly bald for thee, and gird them with sackcloth; and they shall weep for thee with bitterness of heart and bitter wailing.

(c) Is. xxii. 12. And in that day did the Lord

God of hosts call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth.

Zech. xii. 10. And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications; and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his first-born.

Luke vii. 12. Now, when he came night to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

James iv. 9. Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

v. 1. Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

27 ¶ I have set thee for a tower and a fortress among my people, that thou mayest know and try their way.

28 They are all grievous revolters, walking with slanders: they are brass and iron; they are all (d) corrupters.

(d) Is. i. 4. Ah, sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evil-doers, children that are corrupters! they have forsaken the Lord, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.

Rev. xix. 2. For true and righteous are his judgments; for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants, at her hand.

29 The bellows are burned, the lead is consumed of the fire; (e) the founder melteth (f) in vain: for the wicked are not plucked away.

(e) Prov. xvii. 3. The fining-pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold: but the Lord trieth the hearts.

Zech. xiii. 9. And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them; I will say, It is my people; and they shall say, The Lord is my God.

Mal. iii. 2. But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fuller's soap:

3. And he shall sit as a refiner and a purifier of silver; and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness.

(f) Is. xlix. 4. Then I said, I have laboured in vain, I have spent my strength for nought, and in vain; yet surely my judgment is with the Lord, and my work with my God.

30 Probrate (g) silver shall men call them, because the LORD hath rejected them.

(g) Ps. cxix. 119. Thou puttest away all the wicked of the earth like dross: therefore I love thy testimonies.

Prov. xxv. 4. Take away the dross from the silver, and there shall come forth a vessel for the finer.

Is. i. 22. Thy silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water.

25. And I will turn my hand upon thee, and purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin.

Ez. xxii. 18. Son of man, the house of Israel is to me become dross: all they are brass, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are even the dross of silver.

CHAPTER VII.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,
2 Stand (a) in the gate of the LORD's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, (b) Hear the word of the LORD, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship the LORD.

(a) Prov. i. 20. Wisdom crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets;

21. She crieth in the chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates; in the city she uttereth her words, saying.

viii. 2. She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths;

3. She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors.

John xviii. 20. Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world: I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

Acts v. 20. Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.

42. And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ.

(b) 1 Kings xxii. 19. And he said, Hear thou therefore, the word of the Lord: I saw the Lord sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him, on his right hand and on his left.

Is. i. 10. Hear the word of the Lord, ye rulers of Sodom; give ear, unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah.

Jer. xxii. 29. O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the Lord.

Matt. xiii. 9. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

Rev. ii. 29. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

3 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place.

4 Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, are these.

5 For if ye thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye thoroughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbour;

6 If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt:

7 Then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever.

8 Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit.

9 Will ye (c) steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, (d) and walk after other gods whom ye know not;

(c) Mal. iii. 5. And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the Lord of hosts.

1 Cor. vi. 9. Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

10. Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

(d) Ex. xx. 3. Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

Deut. xxxii. 17. They sacrificed unto devils, not to God; to gods whom they knew not, to new gods that came newly up, whom your fathers feared not.

Judg. v. 8. They chose new gods; then was war in the gates: was there a shield or spear seen among forty thousand in Israel?

10 And (e) come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations?

(e) Prov. vii. 14. I have peace-offerings with me; this day have I paid my vows:

15. Therefore came I forth to meet thee, diligently to seek thy face; and I have found thee.

xv. 8. The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord: but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

Is. xlvi. 2. For they call themselves of the holy city, and stay themselves upon the God of Israel; The Lord of hosts is his name.

Ez. xx. 39. As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord God, Go ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: but pollute ye my holy name no more with your gifts, and with your idols.

xxxiii. 31. And they come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness.

11 Is (f) this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, (g) even I have seen it, saith the LORD.

(f) Is. lvi. 7. Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt-offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar; for mine house shall be called, An house of prayer for all people.

Matt. xxi. 13. And said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves.

John ii. 16. And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise.

(g) Josh. iv. 13. Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

Rev. ii. 18. And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira, write; These things, saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass.

19. I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first.

12 But go ye now unto (h) my place which was in Shiloh, (i) where I set my name at the first, (k) and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel.

(h) Josh. xviii. 1. And the whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled together at Shiloh, and set up the tabernacle of the congregation there; and the land was subdued before them.

Judg. xviii. 31. And they set them up Micah's graven image which he made, all the time that the house of God was in Shiloh.

(i) Deut. xii. 5. But unto the place which the Lord your God shall choose out of all your tribes, to put his name there, even unto his habitation shall ye seek, and thither thou shalt come.

(k) 1 Sam. iv. 3. And when the people were come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, Wherefore hath the Lord smitten us to-day before the Philistines? Let us fetch the ark of the covenant of the Lord out of Shiloh unto us, that, when it cometh among us, it may save us out of the hand of our enemies.

4. So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from thence the ark of the covenant of the Lord of hosts, which dwelleth between the cherubims: and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

22. And she said, The glory is departed from Israel; for the ark of God is taken.

13 And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, (l) and I spake unto you, rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; (m) and I called you, but ye answered not;

(l) 2 Chr. xxxvi. 15. And the Lord God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers, rising up betimes, and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling-place.

(m) 2 Chr. xxxvi. 16. But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the Lord arose against his people, till there was no remedy.

Prov. i. 24. Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out mine hand, and no man regarded.

Is. i. 2. Wherefore, when I came, was there no man? when I called, was there none to answer? Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stinketh, because there is no water, and dieth for thirst.

lxv. 12. Therefore will I number you to the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter: because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear; but did evil before mine eyes, and did choose that wherein I delighted not.

Hos. xi. 2. As they called them, so they went from them: they sacrificed unto Baalim, and burnt incense to graven images.

7. And my people are bent to backsliding from me: though they called them to the Most High, none at all would exalt him.

14 Therefore will I do unto this house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh.

15 And (n) I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brethren, even (o) the whole seed of Ephraim.

(n) 2 Kings xxiv. 20. For through the anger of the Lord it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

Hos. ix. 9. They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Gibeah: therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

(o) 2 Chr. xv. 9. And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the strangers with them, out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that the Lord his God was with him.

Ps. lxxviii. 67. Moreover he refused the tabernacle of Joseph, and chose not the tribe of Ephraim;

68. But chose the tribe of Judah, the mount Zion which he loved.

16 Therefore (p) pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: for (q) I will not hear thee.

(p) Ex. xxxii. 10. Now, therefore, let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them; and I will make of thee a great nation.

1 John v. 16. If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.

(q) 1 Sam. viii. 18. And ye shall cry out in that day, because of your king which ye shall have chosen you; and the Lord will not hear you in that day.

Is. i. 15. And when ye spread forth you hands, I will hide mine eyes from you; yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear; your hands are full of blood.

Mic. iii. 4. Then shall they cry unto the Lord, but he will not hear them; he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

17 Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

18 The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and (r) to pour out drink-offerings unto other gods, (s) that they may provoke me to anger.

(r) Deut. xxxii. 37. And he shall say, Where are their gods, their rock in whom they trusted; 38. Which did eat the fat of their sacrifices, and drank the wine of their drink-offerings? let them rise up, and help you, and be your protection.

Ps. xvi. 4. Their sorrows shall be multiplied, that hasten after another god: their drink-offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take up their names into my lips.

Is. lvii. 6. Among the smooth stones of the stream is thy portion; they, they are thy lot: even to them hast thou poured a drink-offering, thou hast offered a meat-offering. Should I receive comfort in these?

Is. lxv. 11. But ye are they that forsake the Lord, that forget my holy mountain, that prepare a table for that troop, and that furnish the drink-offering unto that number.

(s) Is. iii. 8. For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen, because their tongue and their doings are against the Lord, to provoke the eyes of his glory.

Is. lv. 3. A people that provoketh me to anger continually to my face: that sacrificeth in gardens, and burneth incense upon altars of brick.

19 Do they provoke me to anger? saith the LORD: do they not provoke themselves to (t) the confusion of their own faces?

(t) Ezra ix. 7. Since the days of our fathers have we been in a great trespass unto this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to confusion of face, as it is this day.

Is. xlv. 16. They shall be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them: they shall go to confusion together that are makers of idols.

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; (u) Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground: and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

(u) Is. xlii. 25. Therefore he hath poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle; and it hath set him on fire round about, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

Lam. iv. 11. The Lord hath accomplished his fury; he hath poured out his fierce anger, and hath kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.

Ez. xx. 47. And say to the forest of the south, Hear the word of the Lord: Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour every green tree in thee, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burnt therein.

48. And all flesh shall see that I the Lord have kindled it: it shall not be quenched.

Nah. i. 6. Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

21 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Put your burnt-offerings unto your sacrifices, and eat flesh.

22 For I spake not unto your fathers, (x) nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt-offerings or sacrifices:

(x) 1 Sam. xv. 22. And Samuel said, Hath the Lord as great delight in burnt-offerings and sacrifice, as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams.

Ps. li. 16. For thou desirest not sacrifice, else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt-offering.

17. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

Hos. vi. 6. For I desired mercy, and not sacrifice: and the knowledge of God more than burnt-offerings.

Mark xii. 33. And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is more than all whole burnt-offerings and sacrifices.

23 But this thing commanded I them, saying, (y) Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, (z) that it may be well unto you.

(y) Ex. xv. 26. And said, If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the Lord thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the Lord that healeth thee.

Deut. xi. 27. A blessing, if ye obey the commandments of the Lord your God, which I command you this day.

Heb. v. 9. And, being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him.

(z) Deut. iv. 10. Specially the day that thou stoolest before the Lord thy God in Horeb, when the Lord said unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children.

v. 16. Honour thy father and thy mother, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee; that thy days may be prolonged, and that it may go well with thee in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

24 But (a) they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but (b) walked in the counsels and in the imagination of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward.

(a) Ex. xxxii. 7. And the Lord said unto Moses, Go, get thee down; for thy people, which thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves:

8. They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed thereunto, and said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which have brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

Ps. lxxxi. 11. But my people would not hearken to my voice; and Israel would none of me.

12. So I gave them up unto their own hearts' lust; and they walked in their own counsels.

(b) Deut. xxix. 19. And it come to pass, when he heareth the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the imagination of mine heart, to add drunkenness to thirst.

25 Since (c) the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day, I have even sent unto you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early, and sending them:

(c) 1 Sam. viii. 8. According to all the works which they have done, since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt, even unto this day, wherein they have forsaken me, and served other gods; so do they also unto thee.

Ez. ii. 3. And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious nation that hath rebelled against me: they and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day.

26 Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, (d) but hardened their neck: (e) they did worse than their fathers.

(d) 2 Kings xvii. 14. Notwithstanding, they would not hear, but hardened their necks, like to the neck of their fathers, that did not believe in the Lord their God.

Prov. xxix. 1. He that, being often reprov'd, hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

Is. xlvi. 4. Because I knew that thou art obstinate, and thy neck is as an iron sinew, and thy brow brass.

(e) Matt. xxiii. 32. Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers.

27 Therefore (f) thou shalt speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer thee.

(f) Ez. iii. 17. Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.

18. When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at thine hand.

Acts xx. 27. For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.

28 But thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD their God, (g) nor receiveth correction: (h) truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth.

(g) Is. i. 4. Ah, sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evil-doers, children that are corrupters! they have forsaken the Lord, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.

5. Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more. The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

Zeph. iii. 2. She obeyed not the voice; she received not correction: she trusted not in the Lord: she drew not near to her God.

(h) Is. lix. 14. And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.

15. Yea, truth faileth; and he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey: and the Lord saw it, and it displeas'd him that there was no judgment.

Hos. iv. 1. Hear the word of the Lord, ye children of Israel; for the Lord hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God, in the land.

29 ¶ (i) Cut off thine hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, (k) and take up a lamentation on high places: for the LORD hath rejected and forsaken (l) the generation of his wrath.

(i) Job i. 20. Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped.

Is. xv. 2. He is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba: on all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off.

Mic. i. 16. Make thee bald, and poll thee for thy delicate children; enlarge thy baldness as the eagle; for they are gone into captivity from thee.

(k) Ez. xix. 1. Moreover, take thou up a lamentation for the princes of Israel.

(l) Matt. iii. 7. But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers! who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come? xxiii. 36. Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

30 For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the LORD: (m) they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to pollute it.

(m) Ez. vii. 20. As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty; but they made the images of their abominations and of their detestable things therein: therefore have I set it far from them.

31 And they have built (n) the high places of Tophet, which is in (o) the valley of the son of Hinnom, (p) to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; (q) which I commanded them not, neither came it into my heart.

(n) 2 Kings xxiii. 20. And he slew all the priests of the high places that were there upon the altars, and burned men's bones upon them, and returned to Jerusalem.

(o) Josh. xv. 8. And the border went up by the valley of the son of Hinnom, unto the south side of the Jebusite; the same is Jerusalem: and the border went up to the top of the mountain that lieth before the valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the end of the valley of the giants northward.

(p) Deut. xii. 31. Thou shalt not do so unto the Lord thy God: for every abomination to the Lord which he hateth have they done unto their gods; for even their sons and their daughters they have burnt in the fire to their gods.

2 Kings xvii. 17. And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the Lord, to provoke him to anger.

Ps. cvi. 37. Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils,

38. And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan; and the land was polluted with blood.

(q) Lev. xviii. 21. And thou shalt not let any of thy seed pass through the fire to Moloch, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I am the Lord.

Deut. xvii. 3. And hath gone and served other gods, and worshipped them, either the sun, or moon, or any of the host of heaven, which I have not commanded.

32 Therefore, behold, (r) the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be called Tophet, nor the valley of the son of Hinnom, but, The valley of slaughter: (s) for they shall bury in Tophet, till there be no place.

(r) Lev. xxvi. 30. And I will destroy your high places, and cut down your images, and cast your carcasses upon the carcasses of your idols, and my soul shall abhor you.

(s) 2 Kings xxiii. 10. And he defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Moloch.

33 And (t) the carcasses of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall fray them away.

(t) Deut. xxviii. 26. And thy carcass shall be meat unto all fowls of the air, and unto the beasts of the earth, and no man shall fray them away.

Ps. lxxix. 2. The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the heaven, the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth.

3. Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem; and there was none to bury them.

34 Then will I cause (u) to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: (x) for the land shall be desolate.

(u) Is. xxiv. 7. The new wine mourneth, the vine languisheth, all the merry-hearted do sigh.

8. The mirth of tabrets ceaseth, the noise of them that rejoice endeth, the joy of the harp ceaseth.

Ez. xxvi. 13. And I will cause the noise of thy songs to cease; and the sound of thy harps shall be no more heard.

Hos. ii. 11. I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast-days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.

Rev. xviii. 23. And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

(z) Lev. xxvi. 33. And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste.

Is. iii. 26. And her gates shall lament and mourn; and she, being desolate, shall sit upon the ground.

Mic. vii. 13. Notwithstanding, the land shall be desolate, because of them that dwell therein, for the fruit of their doings.

CHAPTER VIII.

AT that time, saith the LORD, they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves:

2 And they shall spread them before the sun and the moon, (a) and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have worshipped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried; (b) they shall be for dung upon the face of the earth.

(a) Deut. iv. 19. And lest thou lift up thine eyes unto heaven, and when thou seest the sun, and the moon, and the stars, even all the host of heaven, shouldest be driven to worship them, and serve them, which the Lord thy God hath divided unto all nations under the whole heaven.

xvii. 3. And hath gone and served other gods, and worshipped them, either the sun, or moon, or any of the host of heaven, which I have not commanded.

2 Kings xvii. 16. And they left all the commandments of the Lord their God, and made them molten images, even two calves, and made a grove, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Baal.

Zeph. i. 5. And them that worship the host of heaven upon the house-tops; and them that worship and that swear by the Lord, and that swear by Malcham.

Acts vii. 42. Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness?

(b) 2 Kings ix. 36. Wherefore they came again, and told him: and he said, This is the word of the Lord, which he spake by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the portion of Jezebel shall dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel:

37. And the carcass of Jezebel shall be as dung upon the face of the field in the portion of Jezebel; so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel.

Ps. lxxxiii. 10. Which perished at En-dor: they became as dung for the earth.

Zeph. i. 17. And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the Lord: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung.

3 And (c) death shall be chosen rather than life, by all the residue of them that remain of this evil family, which remain (d) in all the places whither I have driven them, saith the LORD of hosts.

(c) 1 Kings xix. 4. But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat under a juniper-tree: and he requested for himself that he might die; and said, It is enough: now, O Lord, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers.

Job iii. 20. Wherefore is light given to him that is in misery, and life unto the bitter in soul; 21. Which long for death, but it cometh not; and dig for it more than for hid treasures;

22. Which rejoice exceedingly, and are glad when they can find the grave?

vii. 15. So that my soul chooseth strangling, and death rather than my life.

16. I loathe it; I would not live alway: let me alone, for my days are vanity.

Jon. iv. 3. Therefore now, O Lord, take, I beseech thee, my life from me: for it is better for me to die than to live.

Rev. vi. 16. And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb.

ix. 6. And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

(d) Deut. xxx. 1. And it shall come to pass, when all these things are come upon thee, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before thee, and thou shalt call them to mind among all the nations whither the Lord thy God hath driven thee.

Dan. ix. 7. O Lord, righteousness belongeth unto thee; but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day: to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.

4 ¶ Moreover, thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; (e) Shall they fall, and not arise? shall he (f) turn away, and not return?

(e) Prov. xxiv. 16. For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief.

Amos v. 2. The virgin of Israel is fallen, she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up.

Mic. vii. 8. Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the Lord shall be a light unto me.

(f) Is. xlv. 22. I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me, for I have redeemed thee.

lv. 7. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

Ez. xviii. 23. Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord God; and not that he should return from his ways, and live?

5 Why then is this people of Jerusalem slidden back by a perpetual backsliding? (g) they hold fast deceit, (h) they refuse to return.

(g) Is. xxx. 10. Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophecy not unto us right things; speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits.

xliv. 20. He feedeth on ashes: a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?

(h) Is. i. 20. But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword; for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

Zech. vii. 11. But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

Heb. xii. 25. See that ye refuse not him that speaketh: for if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven.

6 I (i) hearkened and heard, but they spake not aright: (k) no man repented him of his wickedness, (l) saying, What have I done? every one turned to his course, as the horse rusheth into the battle.

(i) Job xxxiii. 27. He looketh upon men; and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not;

28. He will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.

Ps. xiv. 2. The Lord looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God.

Mal. iii. 16. Then they that feared the Lord spake often one to another, and the Lord hearkened, and heard it: and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his name.

(k) Is. lix. 16. And he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him.

Ez. xxii. 30. And I sought for a man among them that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none.

(l) Job x. 2. I will say unto God, Do not condemn me; show me wherefore thou contendest with me.

Ez. xviii. 28. Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

Hag. i. 5. Now, therefore, thus saith the Lord of hosts, Consider your ways.

Luke xv. 17. And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough, and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

18. I will arise, and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee,

19. And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

7 Yea, the stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and (m) the turtle, and the crane, and the swallow observe the time of their coming; but my people know not the judgment of the LORD.

(m) Cant. ii. 12. The flowers appear on the earth, the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land.

8 How do ye say, We are wise, and the law of the LORD is with us? Lo, certainly in vain made he it; the pen of the scribes is in vain.

9 The wise men are ashamed, they are dismayed and taken: lo, they have rejected the word of the LORD; and what wisdom is in them?

10 Therefore will I give their wives unto others, and their fields to them that shall inherit them: for every one, from the least even unto the greatest, is given to covetousness; from the prophet even unto the priest, every one dealeth falsely.

11 For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

12 Were they (n) ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among them that fall: in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

(n) Is. iii. 9. The show of their countenance doth witness against them, and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not: wo unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves.

Zeph. iii. 5. The just Lord is in the midst thereof; he will not do iniquity; every morning doth he bring his judgment to light, he faileth not; but the unjust knoweth no shame.

Phil. iii. 19. Whose end is destruction, whose god is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.

13 I will surely consume them, saith the LORD: (o) there shall be no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig-tree, and (p) the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them.

(o) Lev. xxvi. 20. And your strength shall be spent in vain: for your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their fruits.

Hab. iii. 17. Although the fig-tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vine; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the field shall yield no meat; the flocks shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls.

Hag. i. 11. And I called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labour of the hands.

Matt. xxi. 19. And when he saw a fig-tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig-tree withered away.

(p) Ps. i. 3. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season: his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

4. The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff, which the wind driveth away.

James i. 11. For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

14 ¶ Why (q) do we sit still? assemble yourselves, (r) and let us enter into the defenced cities, and (s) let us be silent there: for the LORD our God hath put us to silence, and given us (t) water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD.

(q) 2 Kings vii. 3. And there were four leprous men at the entering in of the gate; and they said one to another, Why sit we here until we die?

4. If we say, We will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there: and if we sit still here, we die also. Now, therefore, come, and let us fall unto the host of the Syrians: if they save us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die.

(r) 2 Sam. xx. 6. And David said to Abishai, Now shall Sheba, the son of Bichri, do us more harm than did Absalom: take thou thy lord's servants, and pursue after him, lest he get him fenced cities, and escape us.

(s) Lev. x. 3. Then Moses said unto Aaron, This is it that the LORD spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be glorified. And Aaron held his peace.

Ps. xxxix. 2. I was dumb with silence: I held my peace, even from good; and my sorrow was stirred.

Lam. iii. 27. It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

28. He sitteth alone, and keepeth silence, because he hath borne it upon him.

Hab. ii. 20. But the Lord is in his holy temple; let all the earth keep silence before him.

Zech. ii. 13. Be silent, O all flesh, before the Lord: for he is raised up out of his holy habitation.

(t) Deut. xxxii. 32. For their vine is of the vine of Sodom, and of the fields of Gomorrah: their grapes are grapes of gall, their clusters are bitter:

33. Their wine is the poison of dragons, and the cruel venom of asps.

Ps. lxxix. 21. They gave me also gall for my meat, and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

Lam. iii. 19. Remembering mine affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall.

Matt. xxvii. 34. They gave him vinegar to drink, mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

15 We (u) looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of health, and behold trouble!

(u) Mic. i. 12. For the inhabitant of Maroth waited carefully for good; but evil came down from the Lord unto the gate of Jerusalem.

16 The snorting of his horses was heard from Dan: (x) the whole land trembled (y) at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones; for they are come, and have devoured the land, and all that is in it; the city, and those that dwell therein.

(x) Hab. iii. 10. The mountains saw thee, and they trembled; the overflowing of the water passed by, the deep uttered his voice, and lifted up his hands on high.

(y) Judg. v. 22. Then were the horse-hoofs broken by the means of the prancings, the prancings of their mighty ones.

Nah. iii. 2. The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the prancing horses, and of the jumping chariots.

17 For, behold, (z) I will send serpents, cockatrices, among you, (a) which will not be charmed, and they shall bite you, saith the LORD.

(z) Deut. xxxii. 24. They shall be burnt with hunger, and devoured with burning heat, and with bitter destruction: I will also send the teeth of beasts upon them, with the poison of serpents of the dust.

Is. xiv. 29. Rejoice not thou, whole Palestina, because the rod of him that smote thee is broken: for out of the serpent's root shall come forth a cockatrice, and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent.

Amos ix. 3. And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them.

(a) Ps. lxxviii. 4. Their poison is like the poison of a serpent; they are like the deaf adder that stoppeth her ear;

5. Which will not hearken to the voice of charmers, charming never so wisely.

Ec. x. 11. Surely the serpent will bite without enchantment; and a babler is no better.

18 ¶ When I would comfort myself against sorrow, (b) my heart is faint in me.

(b) Job vii. 13. When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint:

14. Then thou scarest me with dreams, and terrifiest me through visions.

Dan. x. 16. And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17. For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

19 Behold, the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people, because of them that dwell in a far country: (c) Is not the LORD in Zion? (d) is not her King in her? Why have they provoked me to anger with their graven images, and with strange vanities?

(c) Is. xii. 6. Cry out and shout, thou inhabitant of Zion: for great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee.

lii. 1. Awake, awake; put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised and the unclean.

Joel iii. 21. For I will cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed: for the Lord dwelleth in Zion.

(d) Ps. cxlix. 2. Let Israel rejoice in him that made him; let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

20 The (e) harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.

(e) Prov. x. 5. He that gathereth in summer is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest is a son that causeth shame.

Luke xiii. 25. When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know ye not, whence ye are.

21 For (f) the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt; (g) I am black; astonishment hath taken hold on me.

(f) Neh. ii. 3. And said unto the king, Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire?

Luke xix. 41. And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and wept over it.

(g) Cant. i. 5. I am black, but comely, O ye daughters of Jerusalem; as the tents of Kedar, as the curtains of Solomon.

6. Look not upon me, because I am black, because the sun hath looked upon me: my mother's children were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards; but mine own vineyard have I not kept.

Joel ii. 6. Before their face the people shall be much pained; all faces shall gather blackness.

Nah. ii. 10. She is empty, and void, and waste; and the heart melteth, and the knees smite together, and much pain is in all loins, and the faces of them all gather blackness.

22 Is there (h) no balm in Gilead? is there (i) no physician there? why then is not the health of the daughter of my people recovered?

(h) Gen. xxxvii. 25. And they sat down to eat bread: and they lifted up their eyes, and looked, and, behold, a company of Ishmaelites came from Gilead, with their camels, bearing spicery, and balm, and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt.

(i) Luke v. 31. And Jesus, answering, said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick.

32. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

CHAPTER IX.

OH that (a) my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might (b) weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!

(a) Ps. cxix. 136. Rivers of waters run down mine eyes; because they keep not thy law.

Is. xvi. 9. Therefore I will bewail with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh: for the shouting for thy summer-fruits, and for thy harvest, is fallen.

Lam. ii. 11. Mine eyes do fail with tears, my bowels are troubled, my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because the children and the sucklings swoon in the streets of the city.

18. Their heart cried unto the Lord, O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river, day and night: give thyself no rest; let not the apple of thine eye cease.

19. Arise, cry out in the night; in the beginning of the watches pour out thine heart like water before the face of the Lord; lift up thy hands toward him for the life of thy young children, that faint for hunger in the top of every street.

iii. 48. Mine eye runneth down with rivers of water for the destruction of the daughter of my people.

49. Mine eye trickleth down, and ceaseth not, without any intermission.

(b) Ps. xliii. 3. My tears have been my meat day and night, while they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?

2 Oh (c) that I had in the wilderness a lodging-place of way-faring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! (d) for they be all adulterers, (e) an assembly of treacherous men.

(c) Ps. lv. 6. And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! for then would I fly away, and be at rest.

7. Lo, then would I wander far off, and remain in the wilderness. Selah.

8. I would hasten my escape from the windy storm and tempest.

cxx. 5. Wo is me, that I sojourn in Mesech, that I dwell in the tents of Kedar!

6. My soul hath long dwelt with him that hateth peace.

7. I am for peace: but, when I speak, they are for war.

(d) Hos. iv. 2. By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and blood toucheth blood.

vii. 4. They are all adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker, who ceaseth from raising after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be leavened.

(e) Hos. v. 7. They have dealt treacherously against the Lord; for they have begotten strange children: now shall a month devour them with their portions.

vi. 7. But they, like men, have transgressed the covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against me.

Zeph. iii. 4. Her prophets are light and treacherous persons; her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law.

3 And (f) they bend their tongues like their bow for lies: but they are not (g) valiant for the truth upon the earth; (h) for they proceed from evil to evil, and (i) they know not me, saith the LORD.

(f) Ps. lxi. 3. Who whet their tongue like a sword, and bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words:

4. That they may shoot in secret at the perfect: suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not.

Is. lix. 4. None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies: they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.

Mic. vii. 3. That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man he uttered his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

Rom. iii. 13. Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit: the poison of asps is under their lips.

(g) Matt. x. 32. Whosoever, therefore, shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.

33. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

Rom. i. 16. For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ; for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth: to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

Phil. i. 28. And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God.

29. For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake.

Jude 3. Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you, that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

(h) 2 Tim. iii. 13. But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

(i) Judg. ii. 10. And also all that generation were gathered unto their fathers: and there arose another generation after them, which knew not the Lord, nor yet the works which he had done for Israel.

1 Sam. ii. 12. Now the sons of Eli were sons of Belial: they knew not the Lord.

Hos. iv. 1. Hear the word of the Lord, ye children of Israel; for the Lord hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God, in the land.

John xvii. 3. And this is life eternal, that they might know thee, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.

4 Take (k) ye heed every one of his neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother: for (l) every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour will walk with slanders.

(k) Ps. xii. 2. They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips, and with a double heart, do they speak.

lv. 12. For it was not an enemy that reproached me; then I could have borne it: neither was it he that hated me that did magnify himself against me; then I would have hid myself from him:

13. But it was thou, a man mine equal, my guide, and mine acquaintance.

Prov. xxvi. 24. He that hateth, dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him.

25. When he speaketh fair, believe him not; for there are seven abominations in his heart.

Mic. vii. 5. Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide; keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom.

6. For the son dishonoureth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law: a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

Matt. x. 17. But beware of men, for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues.

21. And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.

(l) Gen. xxvii. 35. And he said, Thy brother came with subtlety, and hath taken away thy blessing.

36. And he said, Is he not rightly named Jacob? for he hath supplanted me these two times: he took away my birthright; and, behold, now he hath taken away my blessing. And he said, Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me?

xxxii. 28. And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed.

1 Thess. iv. 6. That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter; because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you, and testified.

5 And they will deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have (m) taught their tongue to speak lies, and (n) weary themselves to commit iniquity.

(m) Job xv. 5. For thy mouth uttereth thine iniquity, and thou chooseth the tongue of the crafty.

Ps. l. 19. Thou givest thy mouth to evil, and thy tongue frameth deceit.

(n) Gen. xix. 11. And they smote the men that were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great; so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

Ps. vii. 14. Behold, he travaileth with iniquity, and hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood.

Prov. iv. 16. For they sleep not except they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away unless they cause some to fall.

Is. v. 18. Wo unto them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart-rope.

lviii. 10. Thou art wearied in the greatness of thy way; yet saidst thou not, There is no hope: thou hast found the life of thine hand; therefore thou hast not grieved.

Hab. ii. 13. Behold, it is not of the Lord of hosts, that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity?

6 Thine habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the LORD.

7 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, (o) I will melt them, and try them: for how (p) shall I do for the daughter of my people?

(o) Is. i. 25. And I will turn my hand upon thee, and purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin.

xlvi. 10. Behold, I have refined thee, but not with silver; I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction.

Zech. xiii. 9. And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them; I will say, It is my people; and they shall say, The Lord is my God.

1 Pet. iv. 12. Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you.

(p) Hos. vi. 4. O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away.

xi. 8. How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

8 Their tongue is as an arrow shot out; it speaketh deceit: (q) one speaketh peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but in heart he layeth his wait.

(q) 2 Sam. iii. 27. And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gate, to speak to him quietly; and smote him there under the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother.

Ps. xxviii. 3. Draw me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity, which speak peace to their neighbours, but mischief is in their hearts.

lv. 21. The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, but war was in his breast; his words were softer than oil, yet were they drawn swords.

Matt. xxvi. 48. Now, he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; hold him fast.

49. And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, Master; and kissed him.

9 Shall I not visit them for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 ¶ For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, (r) because they are burned up, (s) so that none can pass through them, neither can men hear the voice of the cattle; both the fowl of the heavens and the beast are fled; they are gone.

(r) Joel i. 10. The field is wasted, the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted: the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth.

11. Be ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vine-dressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

12. The vine is dried up, and the fig-tree languisheth; the pomegranate-tree, the palm-tree also, and the apple-tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because joy is withered away from the sons of men.

(s) Is. xxxv. 9. No lion shall be there, nor any ravenous beast shall go up thereon; it shall not be found there: but the redeemed shall walk there.

Ez. xiv. 15. If I cause noisome beasts to pass through the land, and they spoil it, so that it be desolate, that no man may pass through because of the beasts.

xxix. 11. No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years.

xxxiii. 28. For I will lay the land most desolate, and the pomp of her strength shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, that none shall pass through.

11 And (t) I will make Jerusalem heaps, and (u) a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah desolate without an inhabitant.

(t) Ps. lxxix. 1. O God, the heathen are come into thine inheritance; thy holy temple have they defiled: they have laid Jerusalem on heaps.

Is. xxv. 2. For thou hast made of a city an heap; of a defenced city a ruin: a palace of strangers to be no city; it shall never be built.

Mic. i. 6. Therefore I will make Samaria as an heap of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard; and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will discover the foundations thereof.

iii. 12. Therefore shall Zion for your sake be ploughed as a field: and Jerusalem shall become heaps; and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

(u) Is. xlii. 22. And the wild beasts of the islands shall cry in their desolate houses, and dragons in their pleasant palaces: and her time is near to come, and her days shall not be prolonged.

xxxiv. 13. And thorns shall come up in her palaces, nettles and brambles in the fortresses thereof; and it shall be an habitation of dragons, and a court for owls.

12 Who is (x) the wise man, that may understand this? and who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may declare it, for what the land perisheth, and is burned up like a wilderness, that none passeth through?

(x) Deut. xxxii. 29. Oh that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end!

Ps. cvii. 43. Whoso is wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the loving-kindness of the Lord.

Hos. xiv. 9. Who is wise, and he shall understand these things? prudent, and he shall know them? for the ways of the Lord are right, and the just shall walk in them: but the transgressors shall fall therein.

Matt. xxiv. 15. When ye, therefore, shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand.)

13 And the LORD saith, (y) Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein;

(y) Ps. lxxxix. 30. If his children forsake my law, and walk not in my judgments, cxix. 53. Horror hath taken hold upon me, because of the wicked that forsake thy law.

Prov. xxvii. 4. They that forsake the law praise the wicked: but such as keep the law contend with them.

14 But have (z) walked after the imagination of their own heart, and after Baalim, (a) which their fathers taught them:

(z) Gen. vi. 5. And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

Eph. ii. 3. Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

(a) Zech. i. 4. Be ye not as your fathers, unto whom the former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the Lord.

5. Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?

Gal. i. 14. And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers.

1 Pet. i. 18. Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink.

16 I will (b) scatter them also among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers have known: and I will send a sword after them, till I have consumed them.

(b) Lev. xxvi. 33. And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you; and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste.

Deut. iv. 27. And the Lord shall scatter you among the nations, and ye shall be left few in number among the heathen, whither the Lord shall lead you.

Ps. cvi. 27. To overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands.

17 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider ye, and (c) call for the mourning women, that they may come; and send for cunning women, that they may come:

(c) 2 Chr. xxxv. 25. And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah; and all the singing men and the singing women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they are written in the Lamentations.

Job iii. 8. Let them curse it that curse the day, who are ready to raise up their mourning.

Ec. xii. 5. Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond-tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail; because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets.

Amos v. 16. Therefore the Lord, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus; Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing.

17. And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for I will pass through thee, saith the Lord.

Matt. ix. 23. And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the minstrels and the people making a noise.

Mark v. 38. And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

18 And let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters.

19 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we spoiled!

(d) we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because (e) our dwellings have cast us out.

(d) Deut. xxviii. 29. And thou shalt grope at noon-day as the blind gropeth in darkness, and thou shalt not prosper in thy ways: and thou shalt be only oppressed and spoiled evermore, and no man shall save thee.

Lam. v. 2. Our inheritance is turned to strangers, our houses to aliens.

Mic. ii. 4. In that day shall one take up aparable against you, and lament with a doleful lamentation, and say; We be utterly spoiled; he hath changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me! turning away he hath divided our fields.

(e) Lev. xviii. 25. And the land is defiled: therefore I do visit the iniquity thereof upon it, and the land itself vomiteth out her inhabitants.

Lam. iv. 15. They cried unto them, Depart ye; it is unclean: depart, depart, touch not; when they fled away and wandered, they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there.

Mic. ii. 10. Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy you even with a sore destruction.

20 Yet (f) hear the word of the LORD, O ye women, and let your ear (g) receive the word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailing, and every one her neighbour lamentation.

(f) Is. xxxii. 9. Rise up, ye women that are at ease; hear my voice, ye careless daughters; give ear unto my speech.

10. Many days and years shall ye be troubled, ye careless women: for the vintage shall fail, the gathering shall not come.

11. Tremble, ye women that are at ease; be troubled, ye careless ones: strip you, and make you bare, and gird sackcloth upon your loins.

(g) Job xxii. 22. Receive, I pray thee, the law from his mouth, and lay up his words in thine heart.

21 For (h) death is come up into our windows, and is entered into our palaces, to cut off the children from without, and the young men from the streets.

(h) 2 Chr. xxxvi. 17. Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man or him that stooped for age; he gave them all into his hand.

Ez. xxi. 14. Thou, therefore, son of man, prophesy, and smite thine hands together, and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the slain: it is the sword of the great men that are slain, which entereth into their privy chambers.

15. I have set the point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may faint, and their ruins be multiplied; ah! it is made bright, it is wrapped up for the slaughter.

22 Speak, Thus saith the LORD, Even the carcasses of men shall (i) fall as dung upon the open field, and as the handful after the harvest-man, and none shall gather them.

(i) 2 Kings ix. 37. And the carcass of Jezebel shall be as dung upon the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel; so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel.

Ps. lxxxiii. 10. Which perished at En-dor: they became as dung for the earth.

Is. v. 25. Therefore is the anger of the Lord kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them: and the hills did tremble, and their carcasses were torn in the midst of the streets. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

Zeph. i. 17. And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the Lord: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung.

23 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, (k) Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, (l) neither let the mighty man glory in his might; (m) let not the rich man glory in his riches:

(k) Is. v. 21. Wo unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight!

Rom. i. 22. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools.

1 Cor. i. 27. But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;

28. And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are:

29. That no flesh should glory in his presence.

(l) Deut. viii. 17. And thou say in thine heart, My power, and the might of mine hand, hath gotten me this wealth.

1 Kings xx. 10. And Ben-hadad sent unto him, and said, The gods do so unto me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that follow me.

11. And the king of Israel answered and said, Tell him, Let not him that girdeth on his harness boast himself as he that putteth it off.

Ps. xxxiii. 16. There is no king saved by the multitude of an host: a mighty man is not delivered by much strength.

17. An horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great strength.

Ez. xxix. 9. And the land of Egypt shall be desolate and waste; and they shall know that I am the Lord: because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it.

(m) Job xxxi. 24. If I have made gold my hope, or have said to the fine gold, Thou art my confidence;

25. If I rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because mine hand had gotten much.

Ps. lii. 6. The righteous also shall see, and fear, and shall laugh at him.

7. Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.

Is. x. 10. Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery: if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

Prov. xi. 4. Riches profit not in the day of wrath; but righteousness delivereth from death.

Ez. vii. 19. They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be removed: their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the Lord: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels, because it is the stumbling-block of their iniquity.

Mark x. 24. And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

Luke xii. 19. And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

20. But God said unto him, Thou fool! this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be which thou hast provided?

1 Tim. vi. 10. For the love of money is the root of all evil; which, while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

24 But (n) let him that glorieth, glory in this, that he understandeth and (o) knoweth me, that I am the LORD, which exercise (p) loving-kindness, judgment, and righteousness in the earth: (q) for in these things I delight, saith the LORD.

(n) Ps. xlv. 8. In God we boast all the day long, and praise thy name for ever. Selah.

Is. xlv. 25. In the Lord shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory.

1 Cor. i. 31. That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

Gal. vi. 14. But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

(o) Ps. xci. 14. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

Matt. xi. 27. All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.

John xvii. 3. And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.

(p) Ex. xxxiv. 5. And the Lord descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the Lord.

6. And the Lord passed by before him, and proclaimed, The Lord, The Lord God, merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth,

7. Keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity, and transgression, and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, unto the third and to the fourth generation.

Ps. xxxvi. 7. How excellent is thy loving-kindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

li. 1. Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy loving-kindness; according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

cxlv. 7. They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness.

8. The Lord is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy.

(q) 1 Sam. xv. 22. And Samuel said, Hath the Lord as great delight in burnt-offerings and sacrifices as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice; and to hearken than the fat of rams.

Is. lxi. 8. For I the Lord love judgment, I hate robbery for burnt-offering; and I will direct their work in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

25 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will punish all them which are circumcised with the uncircumcised;

26 Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that are in the utmost corners, that dwell in the wilderness: for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart.

CHAPTER X.

HEAR ye the word which the LORD speaketh unto you, O house of Israel:

2 Thus saith the LORD, (a) Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them.

(a) Lev. xviii. 3. After the doings of the land of Egypt, wherein ye dwelt, shall ye not do; and after the doings of the land of Canaan, whither I bring you, shall ye not do; neither shall ye walk in their ordinances.

xx. 23. And ye shall not walk in the manners of the nations which I cast out before you: for they committed all these things, and therefore I abhorred them.

Deut. xii. 30. Take heed to thyself, that thou be not snared by following them, after that they be destroyed from before thee; and that thou inquire not after their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods? even so will I do likewise.

31. Thou shalt not do so unto the Lord thy God: for every abomination to the Lord, which he hateth, have they done unto their gods: for even their sons and their daughters they have burnt in the fire to their gods.

xx. 18. That they teach you not to do after all their abominations, which they have done unto their gods; so should ye sin against the Lord your God.

3 For (b) the customs of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the axe.

(b) Lev. xviii. 30. Therefore shall ye keep mine ordinance, that ye commit not any one of these abominable customs, which were committed before you, and that ye defile not yourselves therein: I am the Lord your God.

Matt. vi. 7. But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

Rom. i. 21. Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools.

4 They (c) deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not.

(c) Ps. cxv. 4. Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

Is. xl. 19. The workman melteth a graven image, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chains.

20. He that is so impoverished that he hath no oblation, chooseth a tree that will not rot: he seeketh unto him a cunning workman to prepare a graven image that shall not be moved.

5 They are upright as the palm-tree, but (d) speak not: they must needs be borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good.

(d) Ps. cxv. 5. They have mouths, but they speak not; eyes have they, but they see not;

6. They have ears, but they hear not; noses have they, but they smell not;

7. They have hands, but they handle not; feet have they, but they walk not; neither speak they through their throat.

Hab. ii. 19. Wo unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

1 Cor. xii. 2. Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.

6 Forasmuch as (e) there is none like unto thee, O LORD; (f) thou art great, and thy name is great in might.

(e) Ex. viii. 10. And he said, To-morrow. And he said, Be it according to thy word; that thou mayest know that there is none like unto the Lord our God.

2 Sam. vii. 22. Wherefore thou art great, O Lord God: for there is none like thee, neither is there any god beside thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

Ps. xxxv. 10. All my bones shall say, Lord, who is like unto thee, which delivereth the poor from him that is too strong for him, yea, the poor and the needy from him that spoileth him!

(f) Ps. xlvi. 1. Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness.

xcvi. 4. For the Lord is great, and greatly to be praised: he is to be feared above all gods.

cxlv. 3. Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable.

Is. xii. 6. Cry out, and shout, thou inhabitant of Zion: for great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee.

7 Who (g) would not fear thee, (h) O King of nations? for to thee doth it appertain: forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none like unto thee.

(g) Job xxxvii. 23. Touching the Almighty, we cannot find him out: he is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice: he will not afflict.

24. Men do therefore fear him: he respecteth not them that are wise of heart.

Luke xii. 5. But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him which, after he hath killed, hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him.

Rev. xv. 4. Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

(h) Ps. xxii. 28. For the kingdom is the Lord's; and he is the governor among the nations.

lxxii. 11. Yea, all kings shall fall down before him; all nations shall serve him.

Rev. xi. 15. And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.

8 But they are altogether (i) brutish and foolish: the stock is a doctrine of vanities.

(i) Ps. cxv. 8. They that make them are like unto them; so is every one that trusteth in them.

Is. xli. 29. Behold, they are all vanity, their works are nothing: their molten images are wind and confusion.

Zech. x. 2. For the idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they were troubled because there was no shepherd.

Rom. i. 21. Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools.

9 Silver spread into plates is brought from (k) Tarshish, and gold from (l) Uphaz, the work of the workman, and of the hands of the founder: blue and purple is their clothing: they are all the work of cunning men.

(k) 1 Kings x. 22. For the king had at sea a navy of Tarshish, with the navy of Hiram; once in three years came the navy of Tarshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

Ez. xxvii. 12. Tarshish was thy merchant, by reason of the multitude of all kind of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded in thy fairs.

(l) Dan. x. 5. Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold, a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Uphaz.

10 But (m) the LORD is the true God, he is (n) the living God, (o) and an everlasting King: (p) at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and (q) the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.

(m) 1 Kings xviii. 39. And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces; and they said, The Lord, he is the God; the Lord, he is the God.

John xvii. 3. And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.

1 Thess. i. 9. For they themselves show of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God.

1 John v. 20. And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us understanding, that we may know him that is true; and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

(n) Deut. v. 26. For who is there of all flesh, that hath heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived?

Ps. xlii. 2. My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God?

lxxxiv. 2. My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God.

Matt. xvi. 16. And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

Heb. x. 31. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

(o) Ps. xciii. 2. Thy throne is established of old: thou art from everlasting.

cxlv. 13. Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.

1 Tim. i. 17. Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

(p) Judg. v. 4. Lord, when thou wentest out of Seir, when thou marchedst out of the field of Edom, the earth trembled, and the heavens dropped, the clouds also dropped water.

Job ix. 6. Which shaketh the earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble.

Ps. xviii. 7. Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved, and were shaken, because he was wroth.

Mic. i. 4. And the mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down a steep place.

(q) Ps. lxxvi. 7. Thou, even thou, art to be feared: and who may stand in thy sight, when once thou art angry?

xc. 11. Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear so is thy wrath.

Joel ii. 11. And the Lord shall utter his voice before his army, for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the Lord is great and very terrible; and who can abide it?

Mal. iii. 2. But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fuller's soap.

11 Thus shall ye say unto them, (r) The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, even (s) they shall perish from the earth, and from (t) under these heavens.

(r) Ps. xcvi. 5. For all the gods of the nations are idols: but the Lord made the heavens.

(s) Is. ii. 18. And the idols he shall utterly abolish.

Zeph. ii. 11. The Lord will be terrible unto them: for he will furnish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

Zech. xiii. 2. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered; and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.

(t) Lam. iii. 66. Persecute and destroy them in anger from under the heavens of the Lord.

12 He (u) hath made the earth by his power, he hath (x) established the world by his wisdom, and hath (y) stretched out the heavens by his discretion.

(u) Ps. xxxiii. 6. By the word of the Lord were the heavens made: and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

cxixvi. 5. To him that by wisdom made the heavens: for his mercy endureth for ever.

6. To him that stretcheth out the earth above the waters: for his mercy endureth for ever.

cxlvi. 6. Which made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that therein is; which keepeth truth for ever.

cxlviii. 4. Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye waters that be above the heavens.

5. Let them praise the name of the Lord: for he commanded, and they were created.

John i. 3. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

(x) Ps. xxiv. 2. For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

lxxviii. 69. And he built his sanctuary like high palaces, like the earth which he hath established for ever.

cxix. 90. Thy faithfulness is unto all generations; thou hast established the earth, and it abideth.

Prov. iii. 19. The Lord by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he established the heavens.

Is. xlv. 18. For thus saith the Lord that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth, and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited: I am the Lord; and there is none else.

(y) Job ix. 8. Which alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the waves of the sea.

Ps. civ. 2. Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment; who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain.

Is. xl. 22. It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in.

xlv. 12. I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded.

13 When he (z) uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens, and (a) he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he (b) maketh lightnings with rain, and (c) bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

(z) Ps. xxxviii. 34. Canst thou lift up thy voice to the clouds, that abundance of waters may cover thee?

35. Canst thou send lightnings, that they may go, and say unto thee, Here we are?

Ps. xviii. 13. The Lord also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave his voice; hailstones and coals of fire.

lxviii. 33. To him that rideth upon the heavens of heavens which were of old: lo, he doth send out his voice, and that a mighty voice.

(a) Ps. cxxxv. 7. He causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: he maketh lightnings for the rain: he bringeth the wind out of his treasuries.

cxlvii. 8. Who covereth the heaven with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth, who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.

(b) Ex. ix. 23. And Moses stretched forth his rod toward heaven; and the Lord sent thunder and hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground: and the Lord rained hail upon the land of Egypt.

Zech. x. 1. Ask ye of the Lord rain, in the time of the latter rain; so the Lord shall make bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field.

(c) Job xxxviii. 22. Hast thou entered into the treasures of the snow? or hast thou seen the treasures of the hail?

14 Every man is brutish in his knowledge; (d) every founder is confounded by the graven image; for his molten image is falsehood, (e) and there is no breath in them.

(d) Ps. xcvi. 7. Confounded be all they that serve graven images, that boast themselves of idols: worship him, all ye gods.

Is. xlii. 17. They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods.

xlv. 16. They shall be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them: they shall go to confusion together that are makers of idols.

(e) Hab. ii. 18. What profiteth the graven image, that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols?

19. Wo unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

15 They are (f) vanity, and the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.

(f) 1 Sam. xii. 21. And turn ye not aside: for then should ye go after vain things, which cannot profit nor deliver; for they are vain.

Is. xli. 24. Behold, ye are of nothing, and your work of nought: an abomination is he that chooseth you.

29. Behold, they are all vanity, their works are nothing: their molten images are wind and confusion.

Jon. ii. 8. They that observe lying vanities forsake their own mercy.

16 The (g) portion of Jacob is not like them: for he is the former of all things; and (h) Israel is the rod of his inheritance: (i) The LORD of hosts is his name.

(g) Ps. xvi. 5. The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot.

lxxiii. 26. My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.

cxix. 57. Thou art my portion, O Lord; I have said that I would keep thy words.

cxlii. 5. I cried unto thee, O Lord; I said, Thou art my refuge and my portion in the land of the living.

Lam. iii. 24. The Lord is my portion, saith my soul: therefore will I hope in him.

(h) Deut. xxxii. 9. For the Lord's portion is his people; Jacob is the lot of his inheritance.

Ps. lxxiv. 2. Remember thy congregation, which thou hast purchased of old; the rod of thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed; this mount Zion, wherein thou hast dwelt.

(i) Is. xlvii. 4. As for our Redeemer, the Lord of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel.

li. 15. But I am the Lord thy God, that divided the sea, whose waves roared: The Lord of hosts is his name.

liv. 5. For thy Maker is thine husband; the Lord of hosts is his name: and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; The God of the whole earth shall be called.

17 Gather up thy wares out of the land, O inhabitant of the fortress.

18 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, (k) I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this once, and will distress them, (l) that they may find it so.

(k) Deut. xxviii. 63. And it shall come to pass, that, as the Lord rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you; so the Lord will rejoice over you to destroy you, and to bring you to nought: and ye shall be plucked from off the land whither thou goest to possess it.

64. And the Lord shall scatter thee among all people, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone.

1 Sam. xxv. 29. Yet a man is risen to pursue thee, and to seek thy soul: but the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of life with the Lord thy God; and the souls of thine enemies, them shall he sling out, as out of the middle of a sling.

(l) Ex. vi. 10. And they shall know that I am the Lord, and that I have not said in vain that I would do this evil unto them.

Zech. i. 6. But my words, and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not take hold of your fathers? and they returned, and said, Like as the Lord of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

19 Wo is me for my hurt! my wound is grievous: but I said, (m) Truly this is a grief, and I must bear it.

(m) Ps. xxxix. 9. I was dumb, I opened not my mouth; because thou didst it.

lxxvii. 10. And I said, This is my infirmity: but I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High.

Lam. iii. 39. Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins?

40. Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord.

20 My tabernacle is spoiled, and all my cords are broken: (n) my children are gone forth of me, and they are not: (o) there is none to stretch forth my tent any more, and to set up my curtains.

(n) Job vii. 8. The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me no more: thine eyes are upon me, and I am not.

Prov. xii. 7. The wicked are overthrown, and are not: but the house of the righteous shall stand.

(o) Is. li. 16. And I have put my words in thy mouth, and have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people.

21 For the pastors are become brutish, and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, and all (p) their flocks shall be scattered.

(p) Ex. xxxiv. 5. And they were scattered, because there is no shepherd: and they became meat to all the beasts of the field when they were scattered.

6. My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill; yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them.

12. As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day.

Zech. xiii. 7. Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the Lord of hosts; smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered; and I will turn mine hand upon the little ones.

22 Behold, the noise of the bruit is come, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah desolate, and a den of dragons.

23 ¶ O LORD, (q) I know that the way of man is not in himself; it is not in man that walketh, to direct his steps.

(q) Ps. xvii. 5. Hold up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not.

xxxvii. 23. The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord, and he delighteth in his way.

cxix. 116. Uphold me according unto thy word, that I may live; and let me not be ashamed of my hope.

117. Hold thou me up, and I shall be safe; and I will have respect unto thy statutes continually.

Prov. xvi. 1. The preparations of the heart in man, and the answer of the tongue, is from the Lord.

xx. 24. Man's goings are of the Lord; how can a man then understand his own way?

24 O LORD, correct me, but with judgment; not in thine anger, (r) lest thou bring me to nothing.

(r) Job vi. 18. The paths of their way are turned aside; they go to nothing, and perish.

Is. xl. 23. That bringeth the princes to nothing: he maketh the judges of the earth as vanity.

xli. 11. Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and they that strive with thee shall perish.

12. Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not find them, even them that contended with thee: they that war against thee shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought.

25 Pour out thy fury upon the heathen (s) that know thee not, and upon the families that (t) call not on thy name: for they have eaten up Jacob, and devoured him, and consumed him, and have made his habitation desolate.

(s) Job xviii. 21. Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked, and this is the place of him that knoweth not God.

John xvii. 25. O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.

Acts xvii. 23. For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom, therefore, ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

1 Cor. xv. 34. Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame.

(t) Psa. xiv. 4. Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread, and call not upon the Lord.

Is. xliii. 22. But thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob; but thou hast been weary of me, O Israel.

xiv. 7. And there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast consumed us, because of our iniquities.

Zeph. i. 6. And them that are turned back from the Lord; and those that have not sought the Lord, nor inquired for him.

CHAPTER XI.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,
2 Hear ye (a) the words of this covenant, and speak unto the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem;

(a) Ex. xix. 5. Now, therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine.

2 Kings xi. 17. And Jehoiada made a covenant between the Lord and the king and the people, that they should be the Lord's people; between the king also and the people.

2 Chr. xxix. 10. Now it is in mine heart to make a covenant with the Lord God of Israel, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us.

3 And say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel; (b) Cursed be the man that obeyeth not the words of this covenant,

(b) Deut. xxvii. 26. Cursed be he that confirmeth not all the words of this law to do them: and all the people shall say, Amen.

xxviii. 15. But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to observe to do all his commandments, and his statutes, which I command thee this day, that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee.

4 Which (c) I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, from the (d) iron furnace, saying, Obey my voice, and do them, ac-ording to all which I command you: so shall (e) ye be my people, and I will be your God:

(c) Deut. v. 2. The Lord our God made a covenant with us in Horeb.

3. The Lord made not this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us, who are all of us here alive this day.

Jer. xxxi. 32. Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day that I took them by the hand, to bring them out of the land of Egypt; (which my covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the Lord.)

(d) Deut. iv. 20. But the Lord hath taken you, and brought you forth out of the iron furnace, even out of Egypt, to be unto him a people of inheritance, as ye are this day.

1 Kings viii. 51. For they be thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest forth out of Egypt, from the midst of the furnace of iron.

Is. xlvi. 10. Behold, I have refined thee, but not with silver; I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction.

(e) Gen. xvii. 8. And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God.

Lev. xxvi. 12. And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and ye shall be my people.

Ex. xi. 20. That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

2 Cor. vi. 16. And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

Heb. viii. 10. For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel, After those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts; and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people.

5 That I may perform the oath which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then answered I, and said, So be it, O LORD.

6 Then the LORD said unto me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and do them.

7 For (f) I earnestly protested unto your fathers, in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice.

(f) 1 Sam. viii. 9. Now, therefore, hearken unto their voice: howbeit yet protest solemnly unto them, and show them the manner of the king that shall reign over them.

2 Thess. iii. 12. Now them that are such, we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

8 Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but walked every one in the imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do; but they did them not.

9 And the LORD said unto me, (g) A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

(g) Hos. vi. 9. And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way by consent: for they commit lewdness.

Matt. xxi. 38. But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

39. And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

xxvi. 3. Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the place of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas;

4. And consulted that they might take Jesus by subtily, and kill him.

15. And said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

John xi. 53. Then, from that day forth, they took counsel together for to put him to death.

10 They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers.

11 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, (h) which they shall not be able to escape; and though (i) they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them.

(h) Is. xxiv. 17. Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth.

18. And it shall come to pass, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for the windows from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth do shake.

Amos ii. 14. Therefore the flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliver himself.

15. Neither shall he stand that handleth the bow; and he that is swift of foot shall not deliver himself; neither shall he that rideth his horse deliver himself.

v. 19. As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

1 Thess. v. 3. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

Heb. ii. 3. How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him.

Rev. vi. 16. And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb.

17. For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?

(i) Ps. xviii. 41. They cried, but there was none to save them: even unto the Lord, but he answered them not.

Ixvi. 18. If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me.

Prov. i. 28. Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me.

Is. i. 15. And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you; yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear; your hands are full of blood.

Ez. viii. 18. Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

Mic. iii. 4. Then shall they cry unto the Lord, but he will not hear them; he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

Zech. vii. 13. Therefore it is come to pass, that as he cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would not hear, saith the Lord of hosts.

12 Then shall the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem go, and cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense; but they shall not save them at all in the time of their trouble.

13 For (k) according to the number of thy cities were thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to that shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal.

(k) Deut. xxxii. 16. They provoked him to jealousy with strange gods, with abominations provoked they him to anger.

17. They sacrificed unto devils, not to God; to gods whom they knew not, to new gods that came newly up, whom your fathers feared not.

Is. ii. 8. Their land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made.

Hos. xii. 11. Is there iniquity in Gilead? surely they are vanity: they sacrifice bullocks in Gilgal; yea, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields.

14 Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time that they cry unto me for their trouble.

15 What hath my beloved (l) to do in mine house, seeing she hath wrought lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from thee?

when thou (m) doest evil, then thou rejoicest.

(l) Ps. i. 16. But unto the wicked, God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth?

(m) Prov. ii. 14. Who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the frowardness of the wicked.

x. 23. It is a sport to a fool to do mischief: but a man of understanding hath wisdom.

xxvi. 18. As a mad man, who casteth fire-brands, arrows, and death;

19. So is the man that deceiveth his neighbour, and saith, Am not I in sport?

1 Cor. xiii. 6. Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth.

James iv. 16. But now ye rejoice in your boastings; all such rejoicing is evil.

16 The LORD called thy name, A green olive-tree, fair and of goodly fruit: (n) with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken.

(n) Ps. lxxx. 16. It is burnt with fire; it is cut down: they perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.

Is. i. 30. For ye shall be as an oak whose leaf fadeth, and as a garden that hath no water.

31. And the strong shall be as tow, and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall both burn together, and none shall quench them.

xxvii. 11. When the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off: the women came and set them on fire; for it is a people of no understanding: therefore he that made them will not have mercy on them, and he that formed them will show them no favour.

Matt. iii. 10. And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees; therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

John xv. 6. If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

17 For the LORD of hosts, that planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves, to provoke me to anger in offering incense unto Baal.

18 ¶ And (o) the LORD hath given me knowledge of it, and I know it: then thou showedst me their doings.

(o) 1 Sam. xxiii. 11. Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? Will Saul come down as thy servant hath heard? O Lord God of Israel, I beseech thee, tell thy servant. And the Lord said, He will come down.

12. Then said David, Will the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul? And the Lord said, They will deliver thee up.

2 Kings vi. 9. And the man of God sent unto the King of Israel, saying, Beware that thou pass not such a place; for thither the Syrians are come down.

10. And the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God told him and warned him of, and saved himself there, not once nor twice.

Matt. ii. 13. And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.

19 But (p) I was like a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter; (q) and I knew not that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with the fruit thereof, (r) and let us cut him off (s) from the land of the living, (t) that his name may be no more remembered.

(p) Prov. vii. 22. He goeth after her straightway, as an ox goeth to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the stocks.

Is. liii. 7. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted; yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.

(q) Ps. xxxi. 13. For I have heard the slander of many: fear was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life.

xxxv. 15. But in mine adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together: yea, the abjects gathered themselves together against me, and I knew it not; they did tear me, and ceased not.

Is. xxxii. 7. The instruments also of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even when the needy speaketh right.

(r) Ps. lxxxiii. 4. They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation, that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

Is. liii. 8. He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken.

(s) Ps. lii. 5. God shall likewise destroy thee for ever: he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling-place, and root thee out of the land of the living. Selah.

cxlii. 5. I cried unto thee, O Lord; I said, Thou art my refuge and my portion in the land of the living.

(t) Ps. cix. 13. Let his posterity be cut off; and in the generation following let their name be blotted out.

Prov. x. 7. The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot.

Nah. i. 14. And the Lord hath given a commandment concerning thee, that no more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image, and the molten image; I will make thy grave: for thou art vile.

20 But, O LORD of hosts, (u) that judgest righteously, (x) that triest the reins and the heart, (y) let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I (z) revealed my cause.

(u) Gen. xviii. 25. That be far from thee to do after this manner, to slay the righteous with the wicked; and that the righteous should be as the wicked, that be far from thee. Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?

Ps. xviii. 9. Before the Lord: for he cometh to judge the earth; with righteousness shall he judge the world, and the people with equity.

Acts xvii. 31. Because he hath appointed a day in the which he will judge the world in righteousness, by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

(x) 1 Sam. xvi. 7. But the Lord said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the Lord seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart.

1 Chr. xxviii. 9. And thou, Solomon, my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart, and with a willing mind; for the Lord searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever.

Ps. vii. 9. O let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just: for the righteous God trieth the hearts and reins.

Rev. ii. 23. And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

(y) 2 Tim. iv. 14. Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil; the Lord reward him according to his works.

Rev. xviii. 20. Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her.

(z) Job v. 8. I would seek unto God, and unto God would I commit my cause.

Ps. x. 14. Thou hast seen it; for thou beholdest mischief and spite, to requite it with thy hand: the poor committeth himself unto thee; thou art the helper of the fatherless.

xxxv. 1. Plead my cause, O Lord, with them that strive with me: fight against them that fight against me.

xliiii. 1. Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation; O deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.

Phil. iv. 6. Be careful for nothing: but in every thing by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD of the men of Anathoth, that seek thy life, saying, (a) Prophecy not in the name of the LORD, that (b) thou die not by our hand:

(a) Ls. xxx. 10. Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophecy not unto us right things; speak unto us smooth things, prophecy deceits.

Amos ii. 12. But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, saying, Prophecy not.

Mic. ii. 6. Prophecy ye not, say they to them that prophesy: they shall not prophesy to them, that they shall not take shame.

(b) Matt. xxi. 35. And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

xxii. 6. And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them.

22 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will punish them: (c) the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine:

(c) 2 Chr. xxxvi. 17. Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man or him that stooped for age; he gave them all into his hand.

Lam. ii. 21. The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets: my virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword; thou hast slain them in the day of thine anger; thou hast killed and not pitied.

23 And there shall be no remnant of them: for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation.

CHAPTER XII.

RIGHTEOUS (a) art thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee: yet let me talk with thee of thy judgments: (b) Wherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? wherefore are all they happy that deal very treacherously?

(a) Gen. xviii. 25. That be far from thee to do after this manner, to slay the righteous with the wicked; and that the righteous should be as the wicked, that be far from thee. Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?

Deut. xxxii. 4. He is the Rock, his work is perfect; for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth, and without iniquity, just and right is he.

Ps. li. 4. Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight; that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

cxix. 75. I know, O Lord, that thy judgments are right, and that thou in faithfulness hast afflicted me.

137. Righteous art thou, O Lord, and upright are thy judgments.

cxiv. 17. The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works.

Rom. iii. 5. But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man.)

6. God forbid: for then how shall God judge the world?

(b) Job xii. 6. The tabernacles of robbers prosper, and they that provoke God are secure; into whose hand God bringeth abundantly.

Ps. xxxvii. 1. Fret not thyself because of evil-doers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

35. I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like a green bay-tree.

lxxiii. 12. Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world; they increase in riches.

xcii. 7. When the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; it is that they shall be destroyed for ever.

xciv. 3. Lord, how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph?

4. How long shall they utter and speak hard things? and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves?

Mal. iii. 15. And now we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness are set up; yea, they that tempt God are even delivered.

2 Thou hast planted them; yea, they have taken root: they grow; yea, they bring forth fruit: thou art (c) near in their mouth, and far from their reins.

(c) Ls. xxix. 13. Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their hearts far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men.

Ez. xxxiii. 31. And they come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness.

Matt. xv. 8. This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

Mark vii. 6. He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

Tit. i. 16. They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

3 But thou, O LORD, (d) knowest me: thou hast seen me, and tried mine heart toward thee: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for (e) the day of slaughter.

(d) Job xxiii. 10. But he knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold.

Ps. xvii. 3. Thou hast proved mine heart; thou hast visited me in the night; thou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing: I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.

cxix. 1. O Lord, thou hast searched me, and known me.

23. Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my thoughts.

John xxi. 17. He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved, because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

1 John iii. 20. For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

21. Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God.

(e) Ps. xlv. 22. Yea, for thy sake are we killed all the day long; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.

James v. 5. Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

4 How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein? the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our last end.

5 If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? and if in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in the swelling of Jordan?

6 For even (f) thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee; yea, they have called a multitude after thee: believe them not, (g) though they speak fair words unto thee.

(f) Job vi. 15. My brethren have dealt deceitfully as a brook, and as the stream of brooks they pass away.

Ps. lxi. 8. I am become a stranger unto my brethren, and an alien unto my mother's children.

Mic. vii. 5. Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide; keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom.

6. For the son dishonoureth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law: a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

Matt. x. 21. And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.

John vii. 5. For neither did his brethren believe in him.

(g) Ps. xii. 2. They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips, and with a double heart, do they speak.

Prov. xxvi. 25. When he speaketh fair, believe him not; for there are seven abominations in his heart.

7 ¶ I (h) have forsaken mine house, I have left mine heritage; I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies.

(h) Is. ii. 6. Therefore thou hast forsaken thy people, the house of Jacob, because they be replenished from the east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they please themselves in the children of strangers.

Hos. ix. 15. All their wickedness is in Gilgal; for there I hated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of mine house, I will love them no more: all their princes are revolvers.

8 Mine heritage is unto me as a lion in the forest; it crieth out against me: therefore have I hated it.

9 Mine heritage is unto me as a speckled bird; the birds round about are against her; come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, come to devour.

10 Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard; they (i) have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

(i) Is. lxi. 18. The people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary.

Rev. xi. 2. But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months.

11 They have made it desolate, and being desolate, it mourneth unto me; the whole land is made desolate, because no man (k) layeth it to heart.

(k) Ec. vii. 2. It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart.

Is. xlii. 25. Therefore he hath poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle: and it hath set him on fire round about, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

lvii. 1. The righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart; and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come.

Mal. ii. 2. If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the Lord of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings; yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

12 The spoilers are come upon all high places through the wilderness: for (l) the sword of the LORD shall devour from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: (m) no flesh shall have peace.

(l) Lev. xxvi. 33. And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you; and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste.

Is. xxxiv. 6. The sword of the Lord is filled with blood; it is made fat with fatness, and with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams: for the Lord hath a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Idumea.

lxvi. 16. For by fire and by his sword will the Lord plead with all flesh: and the slain of the Lord shall be many.

Ez. xiv. 17. Or if I bring a sword upon that land, and say, Sword, go through the land: so that I cut off man and beast from it.

(m) Is. lvii. 21. There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

Matt. xxiv. 21. For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22. And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

13 (n) They have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns: they have put themselves to pain, but shall not profit; and they shall be ashamed of your revenues, because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

(n) Lev. xxvi. 16. I also will do this unto you; I will even appoint over you terror, consumption, and the burning ague, that shall consume the eyes, and cause sorrow of heart: and ye shall sow your seed in vain; for your enemies shall eat it.

Deut. xxviii. 38. Thou shalt carry much seed out into the field, and shalt gather but little in: for the locust shall consume it.

Mic. vi. 15. Thou shalt sow, but thou shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil; and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine.

Hag. i. 6. Ye have sown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough: ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm: and he that earneth wages, earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes.

14 ¶ Thus saith the LORD against all mine evil neighbours, (o) that touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit; Behold, I will pluck them out of their land, (p) and pluck out the house of Judah from among them.

(o) Ps. cv. 15. Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

Zech. i. 15. And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

(p) Deut. xxx. 3. That then the Lord thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee, and will return, and gather thee from all the nations whither the Lord thy God hath scattered thee.

Ps. cvi. 47. Save us, O Lord our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy name, and to triumph in thy praise.

Hos. i. 11. Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

15 And it shall come to pass, after that I have plucked them out, I will return, and have compassion on them, and will bring them again, (q) every man to his heritage, and every man to his land.

(q) Num. xxxii. 18. We will not return unto our houses until the children of Israel have inherited every man his inheritance.

Deut. iii. 20. Until the Lord have given rest unto your brethren as well as unto you, and until they also possess the land which the Lord your God hath given them beyond Jordan; and then shall ye return every man unto his possession, which I have given you.

16 And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, The LORD liveth; (r) as they taught my people to swear by Baal; then shall they be (s) built in the midst of my people.

(r) Josh. xxiii. 7. That ye come not among these nations, these that remain among you, neither make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear by them, neither serve them, nor bow yourselves unto them.

Ps. cvi. 35. But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works.

36. And they served their idols; which were a snare unto them.

Zeph. i. 5. And them that worship the host of heaven upon the house-tops; and them that worship, and that swear by the Lord, and that swear by Malcham.

(a) Is. lvi. 5. Even unto them will I give in mine house, and within my walls, a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off.

Zech. ii. 11. And many nations shall be joined to the Lord in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee; and thou shalt know that the Lord of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

17 But (t) if they will not obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation, saith the LORD.

(f) Is. lx. 12. For the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted.

Luke xix. 27. But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

2 Thess. i. 8. In flaming fire, taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER XIII.

THUS saith the LORD unto me, (a) Go, and get thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water.

(a) Jer. xix. 1. Thus saith the Lord, Go, and get a potter's earthen bottle, and take of the ancients of the people, and of the ancients of the priests.

xxvii. 2. Thus saith the Lord to me, Make thee bonds and yokes, and put them upon thy neck.

2 So I got a girdle, according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.

3 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying,

4 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock.

5 So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

6 And it came to pass, after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there.

7 Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and, behold, the girdle was marred, (b) it was profitable for nothing.

(b) Is. lxiv. 6. But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

Ec. xv. 3. Shall wood be taken thereof to do any work? or will men take a piece of it to hang any vessel thereon?

3. Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire devoureth both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burnt. Is it meet for any work?

5. Behold, when it was whole it was meet for no work: how much less shall it be meet yet for any work when the fire hath devoured it, and it is burnt.

Zech. iii. 3. Now Joshua was clothed in filthy garments, and stood before the angel.

4. And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment.

Luke xiv. 34. Salt is good; but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned?

35. It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill; but men cast it out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

Rom. iii. 12. They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

Philem. 11. Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me.

8 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Thus saith the LORD, After this manner (c) will I mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem.

(c) Lev. xxvi. 19. And I will break the pride of your power; and I will make your heaven as iron, and your earth as brass.

Job xl. 11. Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath; and behold every one that is proud, and abase him.

12. Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place.

Prov. xvi. 18. Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.

Is. xxiii. 9. The Lord of hosts hath purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth.

Nah. ii. 2. For the Lord hath turned away the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and marred their vine-branches.

Zeph. iii. 11. In that day shalt thou not be ashamed for all thy doings, wherein thou hast transgressed against me: for then I will take away out of the midst of thee them that rejoice in thy pride; and thou shalt no more be haughty because of my holy mountain.

1 Pet. v. 5. Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder: yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

10 This (d) evil people, which refuse to hear my words, (e) which walk in the imagination of their heart, and walk after other gods, to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is good for nothing.

(d) Num. xiv. 11. And the Lord said unto Moses, How long will this people provoke me? and how long will it be ere they believe me, for all the signs which I have showed among them?

2 Chr. xxxvi. 15. And the Lord God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers, rising up betimes, and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place.

16. But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the Lord arose against his people, till there was no remedy.

Heb. xii. 25. See that ye refuse not him that speaketh: for if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven.

(e) Ec. xi. 9. Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth, and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thy heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment.

Eph. iv. 17. This I say, therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind;

18. Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God, through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart:

19. Who, being past feeling, have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

11 For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have (f) I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; that they might be unto me for a people, and (g) for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: (h) but they would not hear.

(f) Ex. xix. 5. Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine:

6. And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

Deut. iv. 7. For what nation is there so great, who hath God so nigh unto them, as the Lord our God is in all things that we call upon him for?

xxvi. 18. And the Lord hath avouched thee this day to be his peculiar people, as he hath promised thee, and that thou shouldst keep all his commandments.

Ps. cxxxv. 4. For the Lord hath chosen Jacob unto himself; and Israel for his peculiar treasure.

(g) Is. xliiii. 21. This people have I formed for myself; they shall show forth my praise.

1 Pet. ii. 9. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

(h) Ps. lxxxi. 11. But my people would not hearken to my voice: and Israel would none of me.

John v. 37. And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape.

38. And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

39. Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life, and they are they which testify of me.

40. And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

12 ¶ Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word; Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Behold, every bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?

13 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, (i) I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness.

(i) Ps. lx. 3. Thou hast showed thy people hard things; thou hast made us to drink the wine of astonishment.

lxxv. 8. For in the hand of the Lord there is a cup, and the wine is red; it is full of mixture; and he poureth out of the same: but the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them.

Is. xxix. 9. Stay yourselves, and wonder; cry ye out, and cry: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink.

xliv. 26. And I will feed them that oppress thee with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I the Lord am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

lxiii. 6. And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth.

Hab. ii. 16. Thou art filled with shame for glory: drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered: the cup of the Lord's right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on thy glory.

14 And (k) I will dash them one against another, (l) even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD: (m) I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, but destroy them.

(k) 1 Sam. xiv. 16. And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeath of Benjamin looked; and, behold, the multitude melted away, and they went on beating down one another.

2 Chr. xx. 23. For the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped to destroy another.

Ps. ii. 9. Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

Is. ix. 20. And he shall snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied: they shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm:

21. Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh: and they together shall be against Judah. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

(l) Ez. v. 10. Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the world.

Matt. x. 21. And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.

Mark xiii. 12. Now the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

(m) Deut. xxix. 20. The Lord will not spare him, but then the anger of the Lord and his jealousy shall smoke against that man, and all the curses that are written in his book shall lie upon him, and the Lord shall blot out his name from under heaven.

Is. xxvii. 11. When the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off: the women come and set them on fire; for it is a people of no understanding; therefore he that made them will not have mercy on them, and he that formed them will show them no favour.

Ez. v. 11. Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, Surely, because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee; neither shall mine eye spare, neither will I have any pity.

viii. 18. Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

15 ¶ Hear ye, and (n) give ear: (o) be not proud: (p) for the LORD hath spoken.

(n) Is. xlii. 23. Who among you will give ear to this? who will hearken, and hear for the time to come?

Joel i. 2. Hear this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land. Hath this been in your day, or even in the days of your fathers?

Rev. ii. 29. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

(o) James iv. 10. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

(p) Amos vii. 15. And the Lord took me as I followed the flock, and the Lord said unto me, Go, prophesy unto my people Israel.

Acts iv. 19. But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God, to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

20. For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.

16 (q) Give glory to the LORD your God, (r) before he cause darkness, and before (s) your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and (t) while ye look for light, he turn it into (u) the shadow of death, and make it (x) gross darkness.

(q) Josh. vii. 19. And Joshua said unto Achan, My son, give, I pray thee, glory to the Lord God of Israel, and make confession unto him; and tell me now what thou hast done; hide it not from me.

1 Sam. vi. 5. Wherefore ye shall make images of your emeralds, and images of your mice that mar the land; and ye shall give glory unto the God of Israel: peradventure he will lighten his hand from off you, and from off your gods, and from off your land.

Ps. xcvi. 7. Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come into his courts.

(r) Ec. xi. 8. But if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all; yet let him remember the days of darkness; for they shall be many. All that cometh is vanity.

xii. 2. While the sun, or the light, or the moon be not darkened; nor the clouds return after the rain.

Is. v. 30. And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the sea; and if one look unto the land, behold, darkness and sorrow; and the light is darkened in the heavens thereof.

viii. 22. And they shall look unto the earth; and behold trouble and darkness, dimness of anguish; and they shall be driven to darkness.

(s) Prov. iv. 19. The way of the wicked is as darkness; they know not at what they stumble.

1 Pet. ii. 8. And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed.

1 John ii. 10. He that loveth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him.

11. But he that hateth his brother, is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

(t) Lam. iv. 17. As for us, our eyes as yet failed for our vain help: in our watching, we have watched for a nation that could not save us.

(u) Ps. xlv. 19. Though thou hast sore broken us in the place of dragons, and covered us with the shadow of death.

(x) Ez. x. 21. And the Lord said unto Moses, Stretch out thy hand towards heaven, that there may be darkness upon the land of Egypt, even darkness which may be felt.

17 But (y) if ye will not hear it, (z) my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride; and mine eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears, (a) because the LORD's flock is carried away captive.

(y) Mal. ii. 2. If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the Lord of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and will curse your blessings; yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

(z) 1 Sam. xv. 11. It repenteth me that I have set up Saul to be king: for he is turned back from following me, and hath not performed my commandments. And it grieved Samuel; and he cried unto the Lord all night.

35. And Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death: nevertheless Samuel mourned for Saul: and the Lord repented that he had made Saul king over Israel.

cxix. 136. Rivers of waters run down mine eyes, because they keep not thy law.

Lam. i. 2. She weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks; among all her lovers she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they are become her enemies.

Luke xix. 41. And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and wept over it,

42. Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

(a) Ez. xxxiv. 31. And ye my flock, the flock of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord God.

xxxvi. 38. As the holy flock, as the flock of Jerusalem in her solemn feasts, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

18 Say (b) unto the king and to the queen, Humble yourselves, (c) sit down; for your principalities shall come down, even the crown of your glory.

(b) 2 Kings xxiv. 15. And he carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his officers, and the mighty of the land: those carried he into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.

(c) Is. iii. 26. And her gates shall lament and mourn: and she, being desolate, shall sit upon the ground.

xlvii. 1. Come down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans; for thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate.

Lam. ii. 10. The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground, and keep silence: they have cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

19 The (d) cities of the south shall be shut up, and none shall open them; (e) Judah shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall be wholly carried away captive.

(d) Josh. xviii. 5. And they shall divide it into seven parts: Judah shall abide in their coast on the south, and the house of Judah shall abide in their coast on the north.

Ez. xx. 46. Son of man, set thy face toward the south, and drop thy word toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the south field;

47. And say to the forest of the south, Hear the word of the Lord, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour every green tree in thee, and every dry tree; the flaming fire shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burned therein.

(e) Lev. xxvi. 31. And I will make your cities waste, and bring your sanctuaries into desolation, and I will not smell the savour of your sweet odours.

32. And I will bring the land into desolation; and your enemies which dwell therein shall be astonished at it.

33. And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you; and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste.

Jer. xxxix. 9. Then Nebuzar-adan, the captain of the guard, carried away captive into Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to him, with the rest of the people that remained.

20 Lift up your eyes, (f) and behold them that come from the north: (g) where is the flock that was given thee, thy beautiful flock?

(f) Jer. x. 22. Behold, the noise of the bruit is come, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah desolate, and a den of dragons.

Hab. i. 6. For, lo, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land, to possess the dwelling places that are not theirs.

(g) Ez. xxiv. 7. Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the Lord;

8. As I live, saith the Lord God, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock, but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my flock:

9. Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the Lord;

10. Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more: for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them.

21 What (h) will thou say when he shall punish thee? for thou hast taught them to be captains, and as chief over thee: (i) shall not sorrows take thee, as a woman in travail?

(h) Is. x. 3. And what will ye do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory?

Ez. xxviii. 9. Wilt thou yet say before him that slayeth thee, I am God? but thou shalt be a man, and no god, in the hand of him that slayeth thee.

(i) Is. xiii. 8. And they shall be afraid: pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman that travaileth; they shall be amazed one at another; their faces shall be as flames.

1 Thess. v. 3. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

22 And (k) if thou say in thine heart, Wherefore come these things upon me? For the greatness of thine iniquity are thy (l) skirts discovered, and thy heels made bare.

(k) Deut. vii. 17. If thou shalt say in thy heart, These nations are more than I; how can I dispossess them?

viii. 17. And thou say in thy heart, My power, and the might of my hand, hath gotten me this wealth.

Zeph. i. 12. And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men that are settled on their lees; that say in their heart, The Lord will not do good, neither will he do evil.

Luke v. 21. And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?

22. But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he, answering, said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

(l) Is. xx. 4. So shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.

Lam. i. 8. Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she is removed: all that honoured her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness; yea, she sighth, and turneth backward.

Nah. iii. 5. Behold, I am against thee, saith the Lord of hosts; and I will discover thy skirts upon thy face, and I will show the nations thy nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame.

23 Can (m) the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil.

(m) Prov. xxvii. 22. Though thou shouldst bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, yet will not his foolishness depart from him.

Is. i. 5. Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more. The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

Jer. xvii. 9. The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?

Matt. xix. 24. And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

25. When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?

26. But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible.

24 Therefore (n) will I scatter them (o) as the stubble that passeth away by the wind of the wilderness.

(n) Lev. xxvi. 33. And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you; and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste.

Deut. iv. 27. And the Lord shall scatter you among the nations, and ye shall be left few in number among the heathen, whither the Lord shall lead you.

Ez. v. 2. Thou shalt burn with fire a third part in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled; and thou shalt take a third part, and smite about it with a knife; and a third part thou shalt scatter in the wind: and I will draw out a sword after them.

vi. 8. Yet will I leave a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries.

(o) Ps. i. 4. The ungodly are not so; but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

Is. xvii. 13. The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but God shall rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and shall be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like a rolling thing before the whirlwind.

Hos. xiii. 3. Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the early dew that passeth away; as the chaff that is driven with a whirlwind out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney.

25 This (p) is thy lot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the LORD; because thou hast forgotten me, and (q) trusted in falsehood.

(p) Job xx. 29. This is the portion of a wicked man from God, and the heritage appointed unto him by God.

Ps. xi. 6. Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.

Matt. xxiv. 51. And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

(g) Hab. ii. 18. What profiteth the graven image, that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols.

19. Wo unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

26 Therefore will I discover thy skirts upon thy face, that thy shame may appear.

27 I have seen (r) thine adulteries, and thy neighings, the lewdness of thy whoredom, and (s) thine abominations on the hills, in the fields. (t) Wo unto thee, O Jerusalem! (u) wilt thou not be made clean? when (x) shall it once be?

(r) Hos. i. 2. The beginning of the word of the Lord by Hosea. And the Lord said to Hosea, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms, and children of whoredoms: for the land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the Lord.

iv. 2. By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and blood toucheth blood.

James iv. 4. Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whoever, therefore, will be a friend of the world, is the enemy of God.

(s) Is. lvii. 7. Upon a lofty and high mountain hast thou set thy bed: even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice.

lxv. 7. Your iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together, saith the Lord, which have burnt incense upon the mountains, and blasphemed me upon the hills: therefore will I measure their former work into their bosom.

Ez. vi. 13. Then shall ye know that I am the Lord, when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars, upon every high bill, in all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the place where they did offer sweet savour to all their idols.

(t) Ez. ii. 10. And he spread it before me: and it was written within and without; and there was written therein lamentations, and mourning, and wo.

Zeph. iii. 1. Wo to her that is filthy and polluted, to the oppressing city!

Rev. viii. 13. And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Wo, wo, wo to the inhabitants of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound.

(u) Ez. xxiv. 13. In thy filthiness is lewdness: because I have purged thee, and thou wast not purged, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more, till I have caused my prey to rest upon thee.

xxxvi. 25. Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.

2 Cor. vii. 1. Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

(x) Prov. i. 22. How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity, and the scornors delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?

Hos. viii. 5. Thy calf, O Samaria, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them: how long will it be ere they attain to innocency!

CHAPTER XIV.

THE word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the dearth.

2 Judah (a) mourneth, and the gates thereof languish; (b) they are black unto the ground; (c) and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up.

(a) Is. iii. 26. And her gates shall lament and mourn: and she, being desolate, shall sit upon the ground.

Hos. iv. 3. Therefore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

(b) Lam. iv. 8. Their visage is blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.

v. 10. Our skin was black like an oven, because of the terrible famine.

Joel ii. 6. Before their face the people shall be much pained; all faces shall gather blackness.

(c) Ez. ii. 24. And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.

Job xxxiv. 28. So that they cause the cry of the poor to come unto him, and he heareth the cry of the afflicted.

Is. v. 7. For the vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgment, but beheld, oppression; for righteousness, but beheld, a cry.

Zech. vii. 13. Therefore it is come to pass, that, as he cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would not hear, saith the Lord of hosts.

3 And (d) their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters: they came to the pits, and found no water; they returned with their vessels empty; (e) they were ashamed and confounded, and (f) covered their heads.

(d) 1 Kings xviii. 5. And Ahab said unto Obadiah, Go into the land unto all fountains of water, and unto all brooks: peradventure we may find grass to save the horses and mules alive, that we lose not all the beasts.

6. So they divided the land between them, to pass throughout it. Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

(e) Ps. xl. 14. Let them be ashamed and confounded together that seek after my soul to destroy it; let them be driven backward, and put to shame, that wish me evil.

Is. xlv. 16. They shall be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them: they shall go to confusion together that are makers of idols.

17. But Israel shall be saved in the Lord with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end.

(f) 2 Sam. xv. 30. And David went up by the ascent of Mount Olivet, and wept as he went up, and had his head covered; and he went barefoot: and all the people that was with him covered every man his head, and they went up, weeping as they went up.

Esth. vi. 12. And Mordecai came again to the king's gate: but Haman hasted to his house mourning, and having his head covered.

4 Because (g) the ground is chapt, for there was no rain in the earth, (h) the ploughmen were ashamed, they covered their heads.

(g) Lev. xxvi. 19. And I will break the pride of your power; and I will make your heaven as iron, and your earth as brass.

20. And your strength shall be spent in vain: for your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their fruits.

Deut. xxix. 23. And that the whole land thereof is brimstone, and salt, and burning, that it is not sown, nor beareth, nor any grass groweth therein, like the overthrow of Sodom, and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboim, which the Lord overthrew in his anger, and in his wrath.

(h) Joel i. 11. Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vine-dressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

17. The seed is rotten under their clods, the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the corn is withered.

5 Yea, (i) the hind also calved in the field, and forsook it, because there was no grass.

(i) Job xxxix. 1. Knowest thou the time when the wild goats of the rock bring forth? or canst thou mark when the hinds do calve?

2. Canst thou number the months that they fulfil; or knowest thou the time when they bring forth?

3. They bow themselves, they bring forth their young ones, they cast out their sorrows.

4. Their young ones are in good liking, they grow up with corn; they go forth, and return not unto them.

Ps. xxix. 9. The voice of the Lord maketh the hinds to calve, and discovereth the forests: and in his temple doth every one speak of his glory.

6 And (k) the wild asses did stand in the high places, they snuffed up the wind like dragons; (l) their eyes did fail, because there was no grass.

(k) Job xxxix. 5. Who hath sent out the wild ass free? or who hath loosed the bands of the wild ass?

6. Whose house I have made the wilderness, and the barren land his dwellings.

(l) 1 Sam. xiv. 29. Then said Jonathan, My father hath troubled the land: see, I pray you, how mine eyes have been enlightened, because I tasted a little of this honey.

Lam. iv. 17. As for us, our eyes are yet failed for our vain help: in our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us.

v. 17. For this our heart is faint; for these things our eyes are dim.

7 ¶ O LORD, (m) though our iniquities testify against us, (n) do thou it for thy name's sake: for (o) our backslidings are many; we have sinned against thee.

(m) Is. lix. 12. For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them.

Hos. v. 5. And the pride of Israel doth testify to his face: therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity; Judah also shall fall with them.

vii. 10. And the pride of Israel testified to his face; and they do not return to the Lord their God, nor seek him, for all this.

(n) Josh. vii. 9. For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land shall hear of it, and shall environ us round, and cut off our name from the earth: and what wilt thou do unto thy great name?

Ps. xxv. 11. For thy name's sake, O Lord, pardon mine iniquity; for it is great.

Ez. xx. 9. But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

Dan. ix. 18. O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name: for we do not present our supplications before thee for our righteousness, but for thy great mercies.

19. O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken, and do; defer not for thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

(o) Ezra ix. 6. And said, O my God! I am ashamed, and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up unto the heavens.

15. O Lord God of Israel, thou art righteous; for we remain yet escaped, as it is this day; behold, we are before thee in our trespasses; for we cannot stand before thee because of this.

8 O (p) the Hope of Israel, the Saviour thereof (q) in time of trouble, why shouldst thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a way-faring man that turneth aside to tarry for a night?

(p) Joel iii. 16. The Lord also shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem: and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the Lord will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel.

Acts xxviii. 20. For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain.

1 Tim. i. 1. Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope.

(q) Ps. ix. 9. The Lord also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

xxxvii. 39. But the salvation of the righteous is of the Lord; he is their strength in the time of trouble.

40. And the Lord shall help them and deliver them; he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, because they trust in him.

cxxxviii. 7. Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me; thou shalt stretch forth thy hand against the wrath of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.

9 Why shouldst thou be as a man astonished, as a mighty man that cannot save? yet thou, O LORD, (r) art in the midst of us, and we are called by thy name; (s) leave us not.

(r) Deut. xxiii. 14. For the Lord thy God walketh in the midst of thy camp, to deliver thee, and to give up thine enemies before thee; therefore shall thy camp be holy; that he see no unclean thing in thee, and turn away from thee.

Ps. xvi. 5. God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early.

Is. xii. 6. Cry out and shout, thou inhabitant of Zion: for great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee.

Zech. ii. 5. For I, saith the Lord, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the midst of her.

(s) 1 Sam. xii. 22. For the Lord will not forsake his people for his great name's sake; because it hath pleased the Lord to make you his people.

Ps. xxvii. 9. Hide not thy face far from me; put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

Heb. xiii. 5. Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have; for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

10 Thus saith the LORD unto this people, Thus have they loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet; therefore (t) the LORD doth not accept them: (u) he will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins.

(t) Amos v. 22. Though ye offer me burnt-offerings and your meat-offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the peace-offerings of your fat beasts.

Mal. i. 8. And if ye offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governor: will he be pleased with thee, or accept thy person? saith the Lord of hosts.

13. Ye said also, Behold, what a weariness is it! and ye have snuffed at it, saith the Lord of hosts: and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: should I accept this of your hand? saith the Lord.

(u) 1 Sam. xv. 2. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, I remember that which Amalek did to Israel, how he laid wait for him in the way when he came up from Egypt.

1 Kings xvii. 18. And she said unto Elijah, What have I to do with thee, O thou man of God? art thou come unto me to call my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son?

Hos. viii. 13. They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eat it; but the Lord accepteth them not: now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins: they shall return to Egypt.

ix. 9. They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Gibeah: therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

11 Then said the LORD unto me, Pray not for this people for their good.

12 When (x) they fast, I will not hear their cry; (y) and when they offer burnt-offering and an oblation, I will not accept them: but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.

(x) Prov. i. 28. Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me.

xxviii. 9. He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination.

Is. i. 15. And when ye spread forth your hands I will hide mine eyes from you; yea, when ye make many prayers I will not hear: your hands are full of blood.

Ez. viii. 18. Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

Mic. iii. 4. Then shall they cry unto the Lord, but he will not hear them; he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

(y) Prov. xv. 8. The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord, but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

xxi. 27. The sacrifice of the wicked is abomination: how much more, when he bringeth it with a wicked mind?

13 ¶ Then said I, Ah, Lord God! behold, the prophets say unto them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give you assured peace in this place.

14 Then the LORD said unto me, (z) The prophets prophesy lies in my name: (a) I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and (b) divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart.

(z) Is. ix. 15. The ancient and honourable, he is the head; and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail.

Zech. xiii. 3. And it shall come to pass, that when any shall yet prophesy, then his father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of the Lord: and his father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth.

1 Tim. iv. 2. Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with an hot iron.

(a) Jer. xxviii. 15. Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah; The Lord hath not sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie.

xxix. 9. For they prophesy falsely unto you in my name; I have not sent them, saith the Lord.

(b) Ez. xii. 24. For there shall be no more any vain vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel.

xiii. 23. Therefore ye shall see no more vanity, nor divine divinations: for I will deliver my people out of your hand; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

Zech. x. 2. For the idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; they comfort in vain; therefore they went their way as a flock, they were troubled because there was no shepherd.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, yet they say, (c) Sword and famine shall not be in this land; By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed.

(c) Ez. xiv. 10. And they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity: the punishment of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him that seeketh unto him.

Amos vii. 17. Therefore thus saith the Lord, Thy wife shall be a harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou shalt die in a polluted land: and Israel shall surely go into captivity forth of his land.

2 Pet. ii. 1. But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2. And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3. And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

16 And (d) the people to whom they prophesy shall (e) be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem, because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them; them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness upon them.

(d) Is. ix. 16. For the leaders of this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.

Matt. xv. 14. Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

(e) Ps. lxxxix. 2. The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the heaven, the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth.

3. Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem; and there was none to bury them.

Jer. xvi. 4. They shall die of grievous deaths; they shall not be lamented, neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their carcases shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

17 Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them; Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease: (f) for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, (g) with a very grievous blow.

(f) Is. xxxvii. 22. This is the word which the Lord hath spoken concerning him, The virgin, the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

Lam. i. 15. The Lord hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me; he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men: the Lord hath trodden the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a wine-press.

Amos v. 2. The virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up.

(g) Ps. xxxix. 10. Remove thy stroke away from me: I am consumed by the blow of thy hand.

Mic. vi. 13. Therefore also will I make thee sick in smiting thee, in making thee desolate because of thy sins.

18 If I (h) go forth into the field, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine! (i) yea, both the prophet and the priest go about into a land that they know not.

(h) Lam. iv. 9. They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger: for these pine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field.

Ez. vii. 15. The sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within: he that is in the field shall die with the sword; and he that is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him.

(i) Deut. xxviii. 36. The Lord shall bring thee, and thy king which thou shalt set over thee, unto a nation which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, and there shalt thou serve other gods, wood and stone.

Is. xxviii. 7. But they also have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way: the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink; they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment.

Lam. iv. 13. For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her.

14. They have wandered as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood, so that men could not touch their garments.

15. They cried unto them, Depart ye; it is unclean; depart, depart, touch not: when they fled away and wandered, they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there.

16. The anger of the Lord hath divided them; he will no more regard them: they respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not the elders.

19 Hast thou (h) utterly rejected Judah? (i) hath thy soul loathed Zion? Why hast thou smitten us, and there is no healing for us? (m) we looked for peace, and there is no good: and for the time of healing, and behold trouble!

(h) 2 Kings xvii. 19. Also Judah kept not the commandments of the Lord their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.

20. And the Lord rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight.

Ps. lxxxix. 38. But thou hast cast off and abhorred, thou hast been wroth with thine anointed.

Lam. v. 22. But thou hast utterly rejected us; thou art very wroth against us.

(i) Zech. xi. 8. Three shepherds also I cut off in one month; and my soul loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me.

9. Then said I, I will not feed you: that that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat every one the flesh of another.

(m) Job xxx. 26. When I looked for good, then evil came unto me; and when I waited for light, there came darkness.

Lam. iv. 17. As for us, our eyes are yet failed for our vain help: in our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us.

1 Thess. v. 3. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

20 (n) We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers: for we have sinned against thee.

(n) Nah. ix. 2. And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.

Ps. li. 3. For I acknowledge my transgressions; and my sin is ever before me.

Dan. ix. 5. We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts, and from thy judgments:

6. Neither have we hearkened unto thy servants, the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7. O Lord, righteousness belongeth unto thee; but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day: to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.

8. O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

21 Do (o) not abhor us, for thy name's sake, (p) do not disgrace the throne of thy glory: (q) remember, break not thy covenant with us.

(o) Deut. xxxii. 19. And when the Lord saw it, he abhorred them, because of the provoking of his sons and of his daughters.

Ps. cvi. 40. Therefore was the wrath of the Lord kindled against his people, insomuch that he abhorred his own inheritance.

Amos vi. 8. The Lord God of hosts hath sworn by himself, saith the Lord, the God of hosts, I abhor the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city, with all that is therein.

(p) Ez. xxiv. 21. Speak unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the excellency of your strength, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pitieth; and your sons and your daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword.

xlvi. 7. And he said unto me, Son of man, the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever, and my holy name, shall the house of Israel no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by the carcases of their kings in their high places.

(q) Ez. xxxii. 13. Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, thy servants, to whom thou swearst by thine own self, and saidst unto them, I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven; and all this land that I have spoken of will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it for ever.

Zech. xi. 10. And I took my staff, even Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people.

Luke i. 72. To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant.

22 Are there any among (r) the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause ruin? or can the heavens give showers? (s) art not thou he, O LORD our God? therefore we will (t) wait upon thee, for thou hast made all these things.

(r) 1 Kings xviii. 1. And it came to pass, after many days, that the word of the Lord came to Elijah in the third year, saying, Go, show thyself unto Ahab; and I will send rain upon the earth.

Zech. x. 1. Ask ye of the Lord rain in the time of the latter rain; so the Lord shall make bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field.

(s) Deut. xxviii. 12. The Lord shall open unto thee his good treasure, the heaven to give the rain unto thy land in his season, and to bless all the work of thy hand: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow.

Job v. 10. Who giveth rain upon the earth, and sendeth waters upon the fields.

Ps. cxlvii. 8. Who covereth the heavens with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth, who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.

Is. xxx. 23. Then shall he give the rain of thy seed, that thou shalt sow the ground withal; and bread of the increase of the earth, and it shall be fat and plenteous: in that day shall thy cattle feed in large pastures.

Joel ii. 23. Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the Lord your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.

(t) Is. xxx. 18. And therefore will the Lord wait, that he may be gracious unto you; and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you; for the Lord is a God of judgment: blessed are all they that wait for him.

Lam. iii. 25. The Lord is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.

26. It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the Lord.

Mic. vii. 7. Therefore I will look unto the Lord; I will wait for the God of my salvation; my God will hear me.

CHAPTER XV.

THEN said the LORD unto me, Though (a) Moses and Samuel (b) stood before me, yet (c) my mind could not be toward this people: (d) cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth.

(a) Ex. xxxii. 11. And Moses besought the Lord his God, and said, Lord, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand?

12. Wherefore should the Egyptians speak and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against thy people:

13. Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, thy servants, to whom thou swarest by thine own self, and saidst unto them, I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven; and all this land that I have spoken of will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it for ever.

1 Sam. vii. 9. And Samuel took a sucking lamb, and offered it for a burnt-offering wholly unto the Lord: and Samuel cried unto the Lord for Israel; and the Lord heard him.

(b) Gen. xix. 27. And Abraham gat up early in the morning to the place where he stood before the Lord.

Zech. iii. 3. Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the angel.

Heb. ix. 24. For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us.

(c) Judg. v. 9. My heart is toward the governors of Israel, that offered themselves willingly among the people. Bless ye the Lord.

Prov. xiv. 35. The king's favour is toward a wise servant: but his wrath is against him that causeth shame.

(d) 2 Kings xvii. 20. And the Lord rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight.

2 And it shall come to pass, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD; (e) Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity.

(e) Is. xxiv. 18. And it shall come to pass, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare; for the windows from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth do shake.

Ez. v. 12. A third part of thee shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee; and the third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and I will scatter a third part into all the winds; and I will draw out a sword after them.

xiv. 21. For thus saith the Lord God, How much more when I send my four sore judgments upon Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the noisome beast, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and beast.

Amos iv. 19. As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

Zech. xi. 9. Then said I, I will not feed you: that that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat every one the flesh of another.

3 And (f) I will appoint over them four kinds, saith the LORD: the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and destroy.

(f) Lev. xxvi. 16. I also will do this unto you; I will even appoint over you terror, consumption, and the burning ague, that shall consume the eyes, and cause sorrow of heart: and ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it.

Deut. xxviii. 26. And thy carcass shall be meat unto all fowls of the air, and unto the beasts of the earth, and no man shall fray them away.

1 Kings xxi. 22. And will make thine house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Abijah, for the provocation wherewith thou hast provoked me to anger, and made Israel to sin.

23. And of Jezebel also spake the Lord, saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel.

Is. xviii. 6. They shall be left together unto the fowls of the mountains, and to the beasts of the earth: and the fowls shall summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them.

lvi. 9. All ye beasts of the field, come to devour, yea, all ye beasts in the forest.

Rev. vi. 8. And I looked, and, behold, a pale horse; and his name that sat on him was Death, and hell followed with him: and power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

xix. 17. And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come, and gather yourselves together, unto the supper of the great God;

18. That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

4 And I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.

5 For (g) who shall have pity upon thee, O Jerusalem? or who shall bemoan thee? or who shall go aside to ask how thou doest?

(g) Job xix. 21. Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O ye my friends, for the hand of God hath touched me.

Ps. lxi. 20. Reproach hath broken my heart, and I am full of heaviness: and I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none.

Is. li. 19. These two things are come unto thee; who shall be sorry for thee? desolation, and destruction, and the famine, and the sword: by whom shall I comfort thee?

Lam. ii. 15. All that pass by clap their hands at thee; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?

16. All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth: they say, We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it.

6 Thou hast forsaken me, saith the LORD, (h) thou art gone backward: therefore will I stretch out my hand against thee, and destroy thee; (i) I am weary with repenting.

(h) Is. i. 4. Ah, sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evil-doers, children that are corrupters! they have forsaken the Lord, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.

xxviii. 13. But the word of the Lord was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.

Hos. iv. 16. For Israel slideth back as a backsliding heifer: now the Lord will feed them as a lamb in a large place.

xi. 7. And my people are bent to backsliding from me: though they called them to the Most High, none at all would exalt him.

Zech. vii. 11. But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

(i) Ps. lxxviii. 38. But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not: yea, many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath:

39. For he remembered that they were but flesh; a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.

40. How oft did they provoke him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert!

7 And (k) I will fan them with a fan in the gates of the land; (l) I will bereave them of children, I will restore my people, (m) since they return not from their ways:

(k) Ps. i. 4. The ungodly are not so; but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

Is. xli. 16. Thou shalt fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and thou shalt rejoice in the Lord, and shalt glory in the Holy One of Israel.

Matt. iii. 12. Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner, but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

(l) Deut. xxviii. 18. Cursed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy land, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

32. Thy sons and thy daughters shall be given unto another people, and thine eyes shall look, and fail with longing for them all the day long: and there shall be no might in thy hand.

(m) Is. ix. 13. For the people turneth not unto him that smiteth them, neither do they seek the Lord of hosts.

Amos iv. 10. I have sent among you the pestilence after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

11. I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a fire-brand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

12. Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.

8 Their widows are increased to me above the sand of the seas: I have brought upon them against the mother of the young men a spoiler at noon-day; I have caused him to fall upon it suddenly, and terrors upon the city.

9 She (n) that hath borne seven languisheth: she hath given up the ghost; (o) her sun is gone down while it was yet day: she hath been ashamed and confounded: and the residue of them will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, saith the LORD.

(n) 1 Sam. ii. 5. They that were full have hired out themselves for bread; and they that were hungry ceased: so that the barren hath borne seven; and she that hath many children is waxed feeble.

Is. xlvi. 9. But these two things shall come to thee in a moment in one day, the loss of children and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection for the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

(o) Amos viii. 9. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord God, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day:

10. And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

10 ¶ Wo is me, my mother, that thou hast borne me (p) a man of strife, and a man of contention to the whole earth! (q) I have neither lent on usury, nor men have lent to me on usury; yet every one of them doth (r) curse me.

(p) 1 Kings xviii. 17. And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel?

18. And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but thou and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the Lord, and thou hast followed Baalim.

Ez. ii. 6. And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though bribes and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though thou be a rebellious house.

(q) Ex. xxii. 25. If thou lend money to any of my people that is poor by thee, thou shalt not be to him as an usurer, neither shalt thou lay upon him usury.

Deut. xxiii. 19. Thou shalt not lend upon usury to thy brother; usury of money, usury of victuals, usury of any thing that is lent upon usury.

20. Unto a stranger thou mayest lend upon usury; but unto thy brother thou shalt not lend upon usury: that the Lord thy God may bless thee in all that thou doest thy hand to, in the land whither thou goest to possess it.

Ps. xv. 5. He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

(r) Ps. cix. 22. For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.

Prov. xxvi. 2. As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying; so the curse causeless shall not come.

Matt. v. 44. But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you and persecute you.

11 The LORD said, Verily it shall be well with thy remnant; verily I will cause the enemy to entreat thee well in the time of evil, and in the time of affliction.

12 Shall (s) iron break the northern iron and the steel?

(s) Job xl. 9. Hast thou an arm like God? or canst thou thunder with a voice like him?

Is. xlv. 9. Wo unto him that striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherd of the earth. Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands?

13 Thy (t) substance and thy treasures will I give to the spoil (u) without price, and that for all thy sins, even in all thy borders.

(t) Jer. xvii. 3. O my mountain in the field, I will give thy substance and all thy treasures to the spoil, and thy high places for sin, throughout all thy borders.

xx. 5. Moreover, I will deliver all the strength of this city, and all the labour thereof, and all the precious things thereof, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon.

(u) Ps. xlv. 12. Thou sellest thy people for nought, and dost not increase thy wealth by their price.

Is. lii. 3. For thus saith the Lord, Ye have sold yourselves for nought; and ye shall be redeemed without money.

4. For thus saith the Lord God, My people went down aforetime into Egypt to sojourn there; and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.

14 And I will make thee to (x) pass with thine enemies into a land which thou knowest not; for (y) a fire is kindled in mine anger which shall burn upon you.

(x) Lev. xxvi. 38. And ye shall perish among the heathen, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up.

39. And they that are left of you shall pine away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also in the iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them.

Deut. xxviii. 25. The Lord shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them; and shalt be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

(y) Deut. xxix. 23. And that the whole land thereof is brimstone, and salt, and burning; that it is not sown, nor beareth, nor any grass groweth therein, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zebaim, which the Lord overthrew in his anger, and in his wrath.

Ps. xxi. 9. Thou shalt make them as a fiery oven in the time of thine anger: the Lord shall swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire shall devour them.

Is. xlii. 25. Therefore he hath poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle; and it hath set him on fire round about, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

Nah. i. 6. Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire; and the rocks are thrown down by him.

15 ¶ O LORD, (z) thou knowest: (a) remember me, and visit me, and revenge me of my persecutors; (b) take me not away in thy long-suffering: (c) know that for thy sake I have suffered rebuke.

(z) Job x. 7. Thou knowest that I am not wicked; and there is none that can deliver out of thy hand.

Ps. xvii. 3. Thou hast proved my heart; thou hast visited me in the night; thou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing: I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.

(a) Neh. v. 19. Think upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

xiii. 22. And I commanded the Levites, that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath-day. Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of thy mercy.

Luke xviii. 7. And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

Rev. vi. 10. And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth.

(b) Ps. cxxxix. 13. O spare me, that I may recover strength, before I go hence, and be no more.

(c) Ps. lxxix. 7. Because for thy sake I have borne reproach: shame hath covered my face.

8. I am become a stranger unto my brethren; and an alien unto my mother's children.

9. For the zeal of thy house hath eaten me up; and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me.

Matt. x. 22. And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake; but he that endureth to the end shall be saved.

Rom. viii. 35. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

16 Thy words were found, and (d) I did eat them; and (e) thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of my heart; for I am called by thy name, O LORD God of hosts.

(d) Ez. iii. 1. Moreover, he said unto me, Son of man, eat that thou findest; eat this roll, and go speak unto the house of Israel.

2. So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that roll.

3. And he said unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I eat it; and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness.

Rev. x. 9. And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

10. And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

(e) Job xxiii. 12. Neither have I gone back from the commandment of his lips; I have esteemed the words of his mouth more than my necessary food.

Ps. cxix. 72. The law of thy mouth is better unto me than thousands of gold and silver.

97. O how love I thy law! it is my meditation all the day.

17 I sat not in the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoiced: (f) I sat alone, because of thy hand: for thou hast filled me with indignation.

(f) Lam. iii. 28. He sitteth alone, and keepeth silence, because he hath borne it upon him.

Ez. iii. 24. Then the spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet, and spake with me, and said unto me, Go; shut thyself within thy house.

25. But thou, O son of man, behold, they shall put bands upon thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them.

Dan. vii. 28. Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my cogitations trouble me, and my countenance changed in me; but I kept the matter in my heart.

18 Why is (g) my pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed? wilt thou be altogether unto me (h) as a liar, and as waters that fail?

(g) Ps. vi. 3. My soul is also sore vexed: but thou, O Lord, how long?

xiii. 1. How long wilt thou forget me, O Lord? for ever? how long wilt thou hide thy face from me?

2. How long shall I take counsel in my soul, having sorrow in my heart daily? how long shall mine enemy be exalted over me?

(h) Ex. v. 22. And Moses returned unto the Lord, and said, Lord, wherefore hast thou so evil-entreated this people? why is it that thou hast sent me?

23. For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in thy name, he hath done evil to this people; neither hast thou delivered thy people at all.

Jer. xx. 7. O Lord, thou hast deceived me, and I was deceived; thou art stronger than I, and hast prevailed: I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me.

19 Therefore thus saith the LORD, (i) If thou return, then will I bring thee again, and (k) thou shalt stand before me: and (l) if thou take forth the precious from the vile, thou shalt be (m) as my mouth: (n) let them return unto thee; but return not thou unto them.

(i) Ex. vi. 29. Then the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, I am the Lord: speak thou unto Pharaoh, king of Egypt, all that I say unto thee.

30. And Moses said before the Lord, Behold, I am of uncircumcised lips, and how shall Pharaoh hearken unto me?

Jon. iii. 2. Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

(k) 1 Kings xvii. 1. And Elijah the Tishbite, who was of the inhabitants of Gilead, said unto Ahab, As the Lord God of Israel liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word.

Luke i. 17. And he shall go before me in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

(l) Lev. x. 10. And that ye may put difference between holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean.

Is. xxxii. 5. The vile person shall be no more called liberal, nor the churl said to be bountiful.

6. For the vile person will speak villany, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise hypocrisy, and to utter error against the Lord, to make empty the soul of the hungry; and he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.

Heb. v. 14. But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who, by reason of use, have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

(m) Ex. iv. 12. Now therefore go, and I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say.

Luke xii. 12. For the Holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.

xxi. 15. For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist.

(n) Acts xx. 27. For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.

Gal. i. 10. For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

20 And I will make thee unto this people a fenced brazen wall: and they shall fight against thee, but they shall not prevail against thee: (o) for I am with thee to save thee and to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

(o) Ps. xli. 7. The Lord of hosts is with us, the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

Is. vii. 14. Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign: Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.

viii. 10. Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for God is with us.

xli. 10. Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed, for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

Acts xviii. 9. Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10. For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city.

21 And (p) I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible.

(p) Gen. xlviii. 16. The angel which redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let my name be named on them, and the name of my father Abraham and Isaac; and let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth.

Ps. xxvii. 2. When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

Is. xlix. 24. Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captive delivered?

25. But thus saith the Lord, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be terrible: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children.

Rom. xvi. 20. And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly.

2 Cor. i. 10. Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us.

CHAPTER XVI.

THE word of the LORD came also unto me, saying,
2 Thou (a) shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons or daughters in this place.

(a) Gen. xix. 14. And Lot went out, and spake unto his sons-in-law, which married his daughters, and said, Up, get ye out of this place; for the Lord will destroy this city. But he seemed as one that mocked unto his sons-in-law.

Matt. xxiv. 19. And wo unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days.

Luke xxiii. 29. For, behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

1 Cor. vii. 26. I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress; I say, that it is good for a man so to be.

27. Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife, seek not a wife.

3 For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land;

4 They shall (b) die of grievous deaths; (c) they shall not be lamented; (d) neither shall they be buried; but they shall be (e) as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their carcasses shall be (f) meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

(b) Jer. xiv. 16. And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem, because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them; them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters; for I will pour their wickedness upon them.

(c) Jer. xxii. 18. Therefore, thus saith the Lord concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah; They shall not lament for him, saying, Ah my brother! or, Ah sister! they shall not lament for him, saying, Ah lord! or, Ah his glory!

Amos vi. 9. And it shall come to pass, if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.

10. And a man's uncle shall take him up, and he that burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is by the sides of the house, Is there yet any with thee? And he shall say, No. Then shall he say, Hold thy tongue; for we may not make mention of the name of the Lord.

(d) Ps. lxxix. 2. The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the heaven, the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth.

3. Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem; and there was none to bury them.

(e) 2 Kings ix. 36. Wherefore they came again, and told him. And he said, This is the word of the Lord, which he spake by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the portion of Jezreel shall dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel:

37. And the carcass of Jezebel shall be as dung upon the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel; so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel.

Zeph. i. 17. And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the Lord: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung.

(f) Is. xviii. 6. They shall be left together unto the fowls of the mountains, and to the beasts of the earth: and the fowls shall summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them.

Rev. xix. 17. And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come, and gather yourselves together, unto the supper of the great God;

18. That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

5 For thus saith the LORD; Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lament or bemoan them: for (g) I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the LORD, even loving-kindness and mercies.

(g) 2 Chr. xv. 5. And in those times there was no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in, but great vexations were upon all the inhabitants of the countries.

6. And nation was destroyed of nation, and city of city: for God did vex them with all adversity.

Is. xxvii. 11. When the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off: the women come and set them on fire; for it is a people of no understanding: therefore he that made them will not have mercy on them, and he that formed them will show them no favour.

Zech. viii. 10. For before these days there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in, because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour.

Rev. vi. 4. And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

6 Both (h) the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, (i) nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them:

(h) Is. xxiv. 2. And it shall be as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him.

Ez. ix. 5. And to the others he said in my hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite; let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity:

6. Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women; but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house.

Amos vi. 11. For, behold, the Lord commandeth, and he will smite the great house with breaches, and the little house with clefts.

Rev. vi. 15. And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free-man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains.

(i) Lev. xix. 28. Ye shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor print any marks upon you: I am the Lord.

Deut. xiv. 1. Ye are the children of the Lord your God: ye shall not cut yourselves, nor make any baldness between your eyes for the dead.

7 Neither shall men tear themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead: neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father, or for their mother.

8 Thou shalt not also go into (k) the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink.

(k) Ec. vii. 2. It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart.

3. Sorrow is better than laughter: for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better.

4. The heart of the wise man is in the house of mourning: but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

Is. xxii. 12. And in that day did the Lord God of hosts call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth.

Amos vi. 4. That lie upon beds of ivory, and stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall;

5. That chant to the sound of the viol, and invent to themselves instruments of music, like David;

6. That drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments; but they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.

Matt. xxiv. 38. For as, in the days that were before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark.

9 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, (l) I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride.

(l) Is. xxiv. 8. The mirth of tabrets ceaseth, the noise of them that rejoice endeth, the joy of the harp ceaseth.

9. They shall not drink wine with a song; strong drink shall be bitter to them that drink it.

10. The city of confusion is broken down; every house is shut up, that no man may come in.

11. There is a crying for wine in the streets; all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone.

12. In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.

Ez. xxvi. 13. And I will cause the noise of thy songs to cease; and the sound of thy harps shall be no more heard.

Hos. ii. 11. I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.

Rev. xviii. 22. And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee;

23. And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

10 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt show this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, (m) Wherefore hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin, that we have committed against the LORD our God?

(m) Deut. xxix. 24. Even all nations shall say, Wherefore hath the Lord done thus unto this land? what meaneth the heat of this great anger?

25. Then men shall say, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the Lord God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt.

1 Kings ix. 8. And at this house, which is high, every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, Why hath the Lord done this unto this land, and to this house?

9. And they shall answer, Because they forsook the Lord their God, who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have taken hold upon other gods, and have worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath the Lord brought upon them all this evil.

Hos. xii. 8. For she did not know that I gave her corn, and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they prepared for Baal.

11 Then shalt thou say unto them, (n) Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith the LORD, and have (o) walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law;

(n) Judg. ii. 12. And they forsook the Lord God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods; of the gods of the people that were round about them, and bowed themselves unto them, and provoked the Lord to anger.

13. And they forsook the Lord, and served Baal and Ashtaroth.

Dan. ix. 10. Neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

11. Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

12. And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil; for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

(o) Ez. xi. 21. But as for them whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will recompense their way upon their own head, saith the Lord God.

1 Pet. iv. 3. For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries.

12 And ye have done worse than your fathers; for, behold, ye walk every one after the imagination of his evil heart, that they may not hearken unto me:

13 Therefore will I cast you out of this land into a land that ye know not, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods day and night, where I will not show you favour.

14 ¶ Therefore, (p) behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, The LORD liveth, (q) that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

(p) Is. xliii. 18. Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old.

19. Behold, I will do a new thing: now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.

Hos. iii. 4. For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim.

5. Afterwards shall the children of Israel return, and seek the Lord their God, and David their king; and shall fear the Lord and his goodness in the latter days.

(y) Ez. xx. 2. I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

Deut. xv. 15. And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt, and the Lord thy God redeemed thee: therefore I command thee this thing to-day.

Mic. vi. 4. For I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants; and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

15 But, The LORD liveth (r) that brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands whither he had driven them: and I will bring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers.

(r) Deut. xxx. 3. That then the Lord thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee, and will return and gather thee from all the nations, whither the Lord thy God hath scattered thee.

4. If any of thine be driven out unto the outmost parts of heaven, from thence will the Lord thy God gather thee, and from thence will he fetch thee:

5. And the Lord thy God will bring thee into the land which thy fathers possessed, and thou shalt possess it; and he will do thee good, and multiply thee above thy fathers.

Ps. cvi. 47. Save us, O Lord our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy name, and to triumph in thy praise.

Is. xiv. 1. For the Lord will have mercy on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob.

Ez. xxxvi. 24. For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land.

xxxix. 28. Then shall they know that I am the Lord their God, which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there.

Amos ix. 14. And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

16 ¶ Behold, (s) I will send for many fishers, saith the LORD, and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many (t) hunters, and they shall hunt them from (u) every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks.

(s) Amos iv. 2. The Lord God hath sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that he will take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fish-hooks.

Hab. i. 14. And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that have no ruler over them?

15. They take up all of them with the angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their drag; therefore they rejoice and are glad.

(t) 1 Sam. xxiv. 11. Moreover, my father, see; yea, see the skirt of thy robe in my hand: for in that I cut off the skirt of thy robe, and killed thee not, know thou and see that there is neither evil nor transgression in my hand, and I have not sinned against thee; yet thou huntest my soul to take it.

xxvi. 20. Now, therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the Lord: for the king of Israel is come out to seek a flea, as when one doth hunt a partridge in the mountains.

Mic. vii. 2. The good man is perished out of the earth; and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net.

(u) Is. xxiv. 17. Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth.

18. And it shall come to pass, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for the windows from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth do shake.

Amos v. 19. As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

ix. 1. I saw the Lord standing upon the altar: and he said, Smite the lintel of the door, that the posts may shake: and cut them in the head, all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: he that fleeth of them shall not flee away; and he that escapeth of them shall not be delivered.

2. Though they dig into hell, thence shall my hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down:

3. And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them.

Rev. vi. 15. And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free-man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains.

17 For (x) mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes.

(x) Job xxxiv. 22. There is no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.

Ps. xi. 8. Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

Prov. v. 21. For the ways of man are before the eyes of the Lord, and he pondereth all his goings.

xv. 3. The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

Is. xxix. 15. Wo unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the Lord, and their works are in the dark, and they say, Who seeth us, and who knoweth us?

Ez. viii. 12. Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, The Lord seeth us not; the Lord hath forsaken the earth.

ix. 9. Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perverseness; for they say, The Lord hath forsaken the earth, and the Lord seeth not.

18 And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double; because (y) they have defiled my land, they have filled mine inheritance with the carcasses of their detestable and abominable things.

(y) Lev. xviii. 27. For all these abominations have the men of the land done, which were before you, and the land is defiled;

28. That the land spew not you out also, when ye defile it, as it spewed out the nations that were before you.

Num. xxxv. 33. So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye are; for blood it defileth the land: and the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it.

34. Defile not therefore the land which ye shall inhabit, wherein I dwell: for I the Lord dwell among the children of Israel.

Is. xxiv. 5. The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof, because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant.

19 ¶ O LORD, (z) my strength, and my fortress, and my refuge in the day of affliction, (a) the Gentiles shall come unto thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, (b) Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, and things wherein there is no profit.

(z) Ps. xviii. 1. I will love thee, O Lord, my strength.

2. The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

xix. 14. Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.

Prov. xviii. 10. The name of the Lord is a strong tower; the righteous runneth into it, and is safe.

Is. xxv. 4. For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.

xxxii. 2. And a man shall be as a hiding-place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place; as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

(a) Ps. lxxviii. 31. Princes shall come out of Egypt; Ethiopia shall soon stretch out her hands unto God.

lxxxvi. 9. All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord; and shall glorify thy name.

Is. xi. 9. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

10. And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek: and his rest shall be glorious.

Zech. ii. 11. And many nations shall be joined to the Lord in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee; and thou shalt know that the Lord of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

Mal. i. 11. For from the rising of the sun, even unto the going down of the same, my name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the Lord of hosts.

(b) Hab. ii. 18. What profiteth the graven image, that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols?

19. Wo unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

20 Shall a man make gods unto himself, and they are no gods?

21 Therefore, behold, (c) I will this once cause them to know, I will cause them to know mine hand and my might; (d) and they shall know that my name is The LORD.

(c) Ez. xiv. 4. And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, that he shall follow after them; and I will be honoured upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host; that the Egyptians may know that I am the Lord. And they did so.

Ps. ix. 16. The Lord is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah.

Ez. vi. 7. And the slain shall fall in the midst of you; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

(d) Ez. xv. 3. The Lord is a man of war: the Lord is his name.

Ps. lxxxiii. 18. That men may know that thou, whose name alone is Jehovah, art the Most High over all the earth.

Amos v. 8. Seek him that maketh the seven stars and Orion, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night: that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The Lord is his name.

CHAPTER XVII.

THE sin of Judah is (a) written with a pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond: it is (b) graven upon the table of their heart, (c) and upon the horns of your altars;

(a) Job xix. 23. Oh that my words were now written! oh that they were printed in a book!

24. That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock for ever!

(b) Prov. iii. 3. Let not mercy and truth forsake thee; bind them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thy heart.

vii. 3. Bind them upon thy fingers, write them upon the table of thy heart.

2 Cor. iii. 3. Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God: not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.

(c) Lev. iv. 7. And the priest shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar of sweet incense before the Lord, which is in the tabernacle of the congregation; and shall pour all the blood of the bullock at the bottom of the altar of the burnt-offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

Hos. xii. 11. Is there iniquity in Gilead? surely they are vanity: they sacrifice bullocks in Gilgal; yea, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields.

2 Whilst (d) their children remember (e) their altars and their groves by the green trees upon the high hills.

(d) Hos. iv. 13. They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks, and poplars, and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery.

14. I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery; for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people that doth not understand shall fall.

(e) Judg. iii. 7. And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the Lord, and forgot the Lord their God, and served Baalim and the groves.

Ps. lxxviii. 58. For they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images.

Is. xvii. 8. And he shall not look to the altars, the work of his hands, neither shall respect that which his fingers have made, either the groves or the images.

Ez. xx. 28. For when I had brought them into the land, for the which I lifted up my hand to give it to them, then they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering: there also they made their sweet savour, and poured out there their drink-offerings.

3 O (f) my mountain in the field, I (g) will give thy substance and all thy treasures to the spoil, (h) and thy high places for sin, throughout all thy borders.

(f) Is. ii. 2. And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.

3. And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

Mic. iii. 12. Therefore shall Zion for your sake be ploughed as a field; and Jerusalem shall become heaps; and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

(g) 2 Kings xxiv. 13. And he carried out thence all the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasure of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which Solomon, king of Israel, had made in the temple of the Lord, as the Lord had said.

xxv. 13. And the pillars of brass that were in the house of the Lord, and the bases, and the brazen sea that was in the house of the Lord, did the Chaldees break in pieces, and carried the brass of them to Babylon.

14. And the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass, wherewith they ministered, took they away.

15. And the fire-pans, and the bowls, and such things as were of gold, in gold, and of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away.

16. The two pillars, one sea, and the bases, which Solomon had made for the house of the Lord; the brass of all these vessels was without weight.

(h) Lev. xxvi. 30. And I will destroy your high places, and cut down your images, and cast your carcasses upon the carcasses of your idols, and my soul shall abhor you.

Ez. vi. 3. And say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God; Thus saith the Lord God to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places.

xvi. 39. And I will also give thee into their hand, and they shall throw down thine eminent place, and shall break down thy high places: they shall strip thee also of thy clothes, and shall take thy fair jewels, and leave thee naked and bare.

4 And thou, even thyself, (i) shalt discontinue from thine heritage that I gave thee; (k) and I will cause thee to serve thine enemies in the land which thou knowest not: (l) for ye have kindled a fire in mine anger, which shall burn for ever.

(i) Lev. xxvi. 31. And I will make your cities waste, and bring your sanctuaries unto desolation, and I will not smell the savour of your sweet odours.

32. And I will bring the land into desolation; and your enemies which dwell therein shall be astonished at it.

33. And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you; and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste.

Deut. xxviii. 25. The Lord shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them; and shall be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

(k) Deut. xxviii. 47. Because thou servedst not the Lord thy God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, for the abundance of all things;

48. Therefore shalt thou serve thine enemies, which the Lord shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee.

Is. xiv. 3. And it shall come to pass, in the day that the Lord shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve.

(l) Is. v. 25. Therefore is the anger of the Lord kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them, and the hills did tremble, and their carcasses were torn in the midst of the streets. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

xxx. 33. For Tophet is ordained of old; yea, for the king it is prepared: he hath made it deep and large; and the pile thereof is fire and much wood: the breath of the Lord, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it.

Lam. i. 12. Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by? behold, and see if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, wherewith the Lord hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; (m) Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh (n) flesh his arm, and (o) whose heart departeth from the LORD.

(m) Ps. cxviii. 8. It is better to trust in the Lord, than to put confidence in man:

9. It is better to trust in the Lord, than to put confidence in princes.

cxlvi. 3. Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.

4. His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish.

Is. ii. 22. Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils; for wherein is he to be accounted of?

xxxvi. 6. Lo, thou trustest in the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it; so is Pharaoh, king of Egypt, to all that trust in him?

Ez. xxix. 6. And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the Lord, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel.

7. When they took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst break, and rend all their shoulder; and when they leaned upon thee, thou brakest, and madest all their loins to be at a stand.

(n) 2 Chr. xxxii. 8. With him is an arm of flesh: but with us is the Lord our God, to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah, king of Judah.

(o) Ps. xviii. 21. For I have kept the ways of the Lord, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

Ez. vi. 9. And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations, whither they shall be carried captives, because I am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their eyes, which go a whoring after their idols: and they shall loathe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations.

Heb. iii. 12. Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.

6 For he shall be (p) like the heath in the desert, (q) and shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, in (r) a salt land and not inhabited.

(p) Job viii. 11. Can the rush grow up without mire? Can the flag grow without water?

12. Whilst it is yet in his greenness, and not cut down, it withereth before any other herb.

13. So are the paths of all that forget God; and the hypocrite's hope shall perish.

Ps. xcii. 7. When the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; it is that they shall be destroyed for ever.

(q) 2 Kings vii. 2. Then a lord, on whose hand the king leaned, answered the man of God, and said, Behold, if the Lord would make windows in heaven, might this thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof.

19. And that lord answered the man of God, and said, Now, behold, if the Lord should make windows in heaven, might such a thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof.

20. And so it fell out unto him: for the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died.

Job xx. 17. He shall not see the rivers, the floods, the brooks of honey and butter.

(r) Deut. xxix. 23. And that the whole land thereof is brimstone, and salt, and burning, that it is not sown, nor beareth, nor any grass groweth therein, like the overthrow of Sodom, and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboim, which the Lord overthrew in his anger, and in his wrath.

Ez. xlvii. 11. But the miry places thereof, and the marshes thereof, shall not be healed: they shall be given to salt.

Zeph. ii. 9. Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even the breeding of nettles, and salt-pits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

7 Blessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, and whose hope the LORD is:

8 For (s) he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit.

(s) Job viii. 16. He is green before the sun, and his branch shooteth forth in his garden.

Ps. i. 3. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season: his leaf also shall not wither, and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

Is. lviii. 11. And the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.

Ez. xlvi. 12. And by the river, upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for meat, whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth new fruit according to his months, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary; and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine.

9 ¶ The (t) heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?

(t) Gen. vi. 5. And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

viii. 21. And the Lord smelled a sweet savour: and the Lord said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake: for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth: neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done.

Job xv. 14. What is man, that he should be clean? and he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?

15. Behold, he putteth no trust in his saints; yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight:

16. How much more abominable and filthy is man, which drinketh iniquity like water.

Ps. liii. 1. The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity: there is none that doeth good.

2. God looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, that did seek God.

3. Every one of them is gone back; they are altogether become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

Prov. xxviii. 26. He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.

Ec. ix. 3. This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all; yea also, the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

Mat. xv. 19. For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies.

Heb. iii. 12. Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.

10 I (u) the LORD search the heart, I try the reins, (x) even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the (y) fruit of his doings.

(u) 1 Chr. xxviii. 9. And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart, and with a willing mind: for the Lord searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever.

2 Chr. vi. 30. Then hear thou from heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and render unto every man according to all his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou only knowest the hearts of the children of men.)

Ps. vii. 9. O let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just: for the righteous God trieth the hearts and reins.

cxxxix. 1. O Lord, thou hast searched me, and known me.

2. Thou knowest my down-sitting and mine up-rising; thou understandest my thought afar off.

John ii. 25. And needed not that any should testify of man, for he knew what was in man.

Rev. ii. 23. And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts; and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

(x) Ps. lxxii. 12. Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy: for thou renderest to every man according to his work.

Mat. xvi. 27. For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

Rev. xx. 12. And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God: and the books were opened; and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

xxii. 12. And, behold, I come quickly, and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be.

(y) Is. iii. 10. Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him; for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

11. Wo unto the wicked, it shall be ill with him; for the reward of his hands shall be given him.

Mic. vii. 13. Notwithstanding, the land shall be desolate, because of them that dwell therein, for the fruit of their doings.

Rom. vi. 21. What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of these things is death.

11 As the partridge sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so (z) he that getteth riches, and not by right, (a) shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be (b) a fool.

(z) Prov. xiii. 11. Wealth gotten by vanity shall be diminished: but he that gathereth by labour shall increase.

xxi. 6. The getting of treasures by a lying tongue, is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death.

xxviii. 8. He that by usury and unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor.

Amos iii. 10. For they know not to do right, saith the Lord, who store up violence and robbery in their palaces.

1 Tim. vi. 9. But they that will be rich, fall into temptation, and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

10. For the love of money is the root of all evil; which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

(a) Ps. lv. 23. But thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction: bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days; but I will trust in thee.

Prov. xxiii. 5. Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle toward heaven.

(b) Luke xii. 20. But God said unto him, Thou fool! this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?

12 ¶ A (c) glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary.

(c) Is. vi. 1. In the year that king Uzziah died, I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple.

lxvi. 1. Thus saith the Lord, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?

Ez. i. 26. And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire-stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it.

xlvi. 7. And he said unto me, Son of man, the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children for ever, and my holy name shall the house of Israel no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by the carcases of their kings in their high places.

Mat. xxv. 31. When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory.

Rev. iii. 21. To him that overcometh, will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

13 O LORD, (d) the hope of Israel, (e) all that forsake thee shall be ashamed, and (f) they that depart from me shall be (g) written in the earth, because they have (h) forsaken the LORD, the fountain of living waters.

(d) Ps. xxii. 4. Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them.

Joel iii. 16. The Lord also shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem: and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the Lord will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel.

1 Tim. i. 1. Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope.

(e) Is. xlv. 16. They shall be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them: they shall go to confusion together that are makers of idols.

17. But Israel shall be saved in the Lord with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end.

Ez. xxxvi. 32. Not for your sakes do I this, saith the Lord God, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel.

(f) Ps. lxxiii. 27. For, lo, they that are far from thee shall perish; thou hast destroyed all them that go a whoring from thee.

Prov. xiv. 14. The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways; and a good man shall be satisfied from himself.

Is. i. 28. And the destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the Lord shall be consumed.

(g) Prov. x. 7. The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot.

Luke x. 20. Notwithstanding, in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

(h) Ps. xxxvi. 8. They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.

9. For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light.

John iv. 10. Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.

vii. 37. In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

38. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

Rev. vii. 17. For the Lamb, which is in the midst of the throne, shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

xxi. 6. And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst, of the fountain of the water of life freely.

14 ¶ (i) Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed: (k) save me, and I shall be saved: for (l) thou art my praise.

(i) Deut. xxxii. 39. See now that I, even I, am he, and there is no god with me: I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal: neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand.

Ps. vi. 2. Have mercy upon me, O Lord; for I am weak: O Lord, heal me; for my bones are vexed.

Luke iv. 18. The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised.

(k) Ps. lx. 5. That thy beloved may be delivered, save with thy right hand, and hear me.

Matt. viii. 25. And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.

xiv. 30. But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me.

(l) Deut. x. 21. He is thy praise, and he is thy God, that hath done for thee these great and terrible things, which thine eyes have seen.

Ps. cix. 1. Hold not thy peace, O God of my praise.

15 Behold, they say unto me, (m) Where is the word of the LORD? let it come now.

(m) Is. v. 19. That say, Let him make speed, and hasten his work, that we may see it: and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it.

Ez. xii. 22. Son of man, what is that proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, The days are prolonged, and every vision faileth.

Amos v. 18. Wo unto you that desire the day of the Lord! to what end is it for you? the day of the Lord is darkness, and not light.

2 Pet. iii. 3. Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts,

4. And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

16 As for me, (n) I have not hastened from being a pastor to follow thee: neither have (o) I desired the woful day; thou knowest: (p) that which came out of my lips was right before thee.

(n) Ez. iii. 14. So the Spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of the Lord was strong upon me.

xxxiii. 7. So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me.

8. When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thy hand.

9. Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

Amos vii. 14. Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was an herdman, and a gatherer of sycamore-fruit:

15. And the Lord took me as I followed the flock, and the Lord said unto me, Go, prophesy unto my people Israel.

(o) Jer. ix. 1. Oh that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people.

xiii. 17. But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride; and mine eyes shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the Lord's flock is carried away captive.

(p) Acts xx. 27. For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.

2 Cor. ii. 17. For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

17 Be not (q) a terror unto me: (r) thou art my hope in the day of evil.

(q) Job xxxi. 23. For destruction from God was a terror to me, and by reason of his highness I could not endure.

Ps. lxxxviii. 15. I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up: while I suffer thy terrors I am distracted.

16. Thy fierce wrath goeth over me; thy terrors have cut me off.

(r) Ps. xli. 1. Blessed is he that considereth the poor: the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble.

lix. 16. But I will sing of thy power; yea, I will sing aloud of thy mercy in the morning: for thou hast been my defence and refuge in the day of my trouble.

Nah. i. 7. The Lord is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him.

18 Let them be confounded that persecute me, but let not me be confounded: let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of evil, and destroy them with double destruction.

19 ¶ Thus saith the LORD unto me; (s) Go, and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby the kings of Judah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem;

(s) Prov. i. 20. Wisdom crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets;

21. She crieth in the chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates: in the city she uttereth her words, saying,

22. How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity, and the scornors delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?

ix. 3. She hath sent forth her maidens: she crieth upon the highest place of the city.

Jer. vii. 2. Stand in the gate of the Lord's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the Lord, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship the Lord.

xix. 2. And go forth unto the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the east gate, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell thee.

20 And say unto' them, (t) Hear ye the word of the LORD, ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates:

(t) Ps. xlix. 1. Hear this, all ye people; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world:

2. Both low and high, rich and poor, together.

Ez. ii. 7. And thou shalt speak my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear; for they are most rebellious.

iii. 17. Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.

Hos. v. 1. Hear ye this, O priests; and hearken, ye house of Israel; and give ye ear, O house of the king; for judgment is toward you, because ye have been a snare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor.

Amos v. 1. Hear ye this word which I take up against you, even a lamentation, O house of Israel.

Mic. iii. 1. And I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob, and ye princes of the house of Israel; Is it not for you to know judgment?

Rev. ii. 29. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

21 Thus saith the LORD; (u) Take heed to yourselves, and (x) bear no burden on the sabbath-day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem;

(u) Deut. iv. 9. Only take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life; but teach them thy sons, and thy sons' sons.

23. Take heed unto yourselves, lest ye forget the covenant of the Lord your God, which he made with you, and make you a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, which the Lord thy God hath forbidden thee.

Josh. xxiii. 11. Take good heed therefore unto yourselves, that ye love the Lord your God.

Prov. iv. 23. Keep thy heart with all diligence: for out of it are the issues of life.

Mark iv. 24. And he said unto them, Take heed what you hear: with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you; and unto you that hear shall more be given.

Luke viii. 18. Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have.

(x) Num. xv. 32. And while the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man that gathered sticks upon the sabbath-day.

33. And they that found him gathering sticks brought him unto Moses and Aaron, and unto all the congregation.

34. And they put him in ward, because it was not declared what should be done to him.

35. And the Lord said unto Moses, The man shall surely be put to death; all the congregation shall stone him with stones without the camp.

36. And all the congregation brought him without the camp, and stoned him with stones, and he died; as the Lord commanded Moses.

22 Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath-day, (y) neither do ye any work, but hallow ye the sabbath-day, as I commanded your fathers.

(y) Gen. ii. 2. And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made.

3. And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made.

Ex. xx. 8. Remember the sabbath-day, to keep it holy.

9. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work:

10. But the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates.

Lev. xix. 3. Ye shall fear every man his mother and his father, and keep my sabbaths: I am the Lord your God.

xxiii. 3. Six days shall work be done; but the seventh day is the sabbath of rest, an holy convocation; ye shall do no work therein: it is the sabbath of the Lord in all your dwellings.

Ex. xx. 12. Moreover also I gave them my sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the Lord that sanctify them.

xxii. 8. Thou hast despised my holy things, and hast profaned my sabbaths.

Luke xxiii. 56. And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments, and rested the sabbath-day, according to the commandment.

23 But (z) they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, (a) nor receive instruction.

(z) Is. xlvi. 8. Yea, thou heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldst deal very treacherously, and wast called a transgressor from the womb.

Ex. xx. 13. But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness, they walked not in my statutes, and they despised my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly polluted: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness, to consume them.

Zech. vii. 11. But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

12. Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant-stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the Lord of hosts hath sent in his Spirit by the former prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the Lord of hosts.

Acts vii. 51. Ye stiff-necked, and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye.

(a) Ps. l. 17. Seeing thou hatest instruction, and castest my words behind thee.

v. 12. And say, How have I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof.

viii. 10. Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold.

Zeph. iii. 7. I said, Surely thou wilt fear me, thou wilt receive instruction: so their dwelling should not be cut off, howsoever I punished them: but they rose early, and corrupted all their doings.

24 And it shall come to pass, if ye diligently hearken unto me, saith the LORD, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath-day, but hallow the sabbath-day, to do no work therein;

25 Then shall there enter into the gates of this city kings and princes, (b) sitting upon the throne of David, (c) riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: (d) and this city shall remain for ever.

(b) 2 Sam. vii. 16. And thy house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established for ever.

1 Kings ix. 4. And if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded thee, and will keep my statutes, and my judgments;

5. Then I will establish the throne of thy kingdom upon Israel for ever, as I promised to David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man upon the throne of Israel.

Ps. cxxxii. 11. The Lord hath sworn in truth unto David; he will not turn from it; Of the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne.

12. If thy children will keep my covenant and my testimony that I shall teach them, their children also shall sit upon thy throne for evermore.

Is. ix. 7. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice, from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this.

Luke i. 32. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David:

33. And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

(c) Deut. xvii. 16. But he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he should multiply horses: forasmuch as the Lord hath said unto you, Ye shall henceforth return no more that way.

1 Sam. viii. 11. And he said, This will be the manner of the king that shall reign over you; He will take your sons, and appoint them for himself, for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and some shall run before his chariots.

2 Sam. viii. 4. And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: and David houghed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for an hundred chariots.

(d) Ex. xii. 14. And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and you shall keep it a feast to the Lord throughout your generations; you shall keep it a feast by an ordinance for ever.

Ps. cxxxii. 13. For the Lord hath chosen Zion: he hath desired it for his habitation.

14. This is my rest for ever: here will I dwell; for I have desired it.

26 And they shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the plain, and from the mountains, and from the south, bringing burnt-offerings, and sacrifices, and meat-offerings, and incense, and bringing (e) sacrifices of praise, unto the house of the LORD.

(e) Ps. cvii. 22. And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing.

cxvi. 17. I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the Lord.

Heb. xiii. 15. By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to his name.

1 Pet. ii. 5. Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

9. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light:

10. Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

27 But if ye will not hearken unto me to hallow the sabbath-day, and not to bear a burden, even entering in at the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath-day; (f) then will I kindle a fire in the gates thereof, (g) and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched.

(f) Deut. xxxii. 22. For a fire is kindled in mine anger, and shall burn unto the lowest hell, and shall consume the earth with her increase, and set on fire the foundations of the mountains.

Is. ix. 18. For wickedness burneth as the fire: it shall devour the briars and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest; and they shall mount up like the lifting up of smoke.

19. Through the wrath of the Lord of hosts is the land darkened, and the people shall be as the fuel of the fire; no man shall spare his brother.

Lam. iv. 11. The Lord hath accomplished his fury; he hath poured out his fierce anger, and hath kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.

Amos i. 4. But I will send a fire into the house of Hazeal, which shall devour the palaces of Benhadad.

(g) 2 Kings xxv. 9. And he burnt the house of the Lord, and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and every great man's house burnt he with fire.

2 Chr. xxxv. 19. And they burnt the house of God, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels thereof.

Amos ii. 5. But I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

CHAPTER XVIII.

THE word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,
2 Arise, (a) and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause (b) thee to hear my words.

(a) Jer. xix. 1. Thus saith the Lord, Go, and get a potter's earthen bottle, and take of the ancients of the people, and of the ancients of the priests;

2. And go forth unto the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the east gate, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell thee.

Heb. i. 1. God, who at sundry times and in diverse manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets.

(b) Acts ix. 6. And he, trembling and astonished, said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

3 Then (c) I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he wrought a work on the wheels.

(c) Jon. i. 3. But Jonah rose up to flee unto Tarshish, from the presence of the Lord, and went down to Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the presence of the Lord.

John xv. 14. Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

Acts xxvi. 19. Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision.

4 And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter; so he made it again another vessel, (d) as seemed good unto the potter to make it.

(d) Is. xlv. 9. Wo unto him that striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherd of the earth. Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands?

Rom. ix. 20. Nay, but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21. Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

22. What if God, willing to show his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much long-suffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction;

23. And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory.

5 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

6 O house of Israel, (e) cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the LORD. Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine hand, O house of Israel.

(e) Is. lxiv. 8. But now, O Lord, thou art our father: we are the clay, and thou our potter: and we are all the work of thy hand.

Matt. xx. 15. Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Is thine eye evil because I am good?

Rom. xi. 34. For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?

35. Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

36. For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen.

7 At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, (f) to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it;

(f) Jer. xxv. 9. Behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, saith the Lord, and Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and a hissing, and perpetual desolations.

xlv. 4. Thus shalt thou say unto him, The Lord saith thus; Behold, that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land.

Amos ix. 8. Behold, the eyes of the Lord God are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the Lord.

Jon. iii. 4. And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey; and he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.

8 If that nation against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, (g) I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them.

(g) Ex. xxxii. 12. Wherefore should the Egyptians speak, and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against thy people.

Deut. xxxii. 36. For the Lord shall judge his people, and repent himself for his servants, when he seeth that their power is gone, and there is none shut up or left.

Judg. ii. 18. And when the Lord raised them up judges, then the Lord was with the judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge: for it repented the Lord because of their groanings, by reason of them that oppressed them and vexed them.

Ps. xc. 13. Return, O Lord, how long? and let it repent thee concerning thy servants.

Ios. xi. 8. How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? My heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

Joel ii. 13. And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

14. Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave a blessing behind him, even a meat-offering and a drink-offering unto the Lord your God.

9 And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, (h) to build and to plant it;

(h) Ec. iii. 2. A time to be born, and a time to die: a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted:

3. A time to kill, and a time to heal: a time to break down, and a time to build up.

Jer. xxx. 18. Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have mercy on his dwelling-places; and the city shall be builded upon her own heap, and the palace shall remain after the manner thereof.

xxxi. 4. Again I will build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel: thou shalt again be adorned with thy tabrets, and shalt go forth in the dances of them that make merry.

xxxii. 41. Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart, and with my whole soul.

10 If (i) it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good, wherewith I said I would benefit them.

(i) Ps. cxxv. 5. As for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways, the Lord shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity: but peace shall be upon Israel.

Ez. iii. 20. Again, when a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumbling-block before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered: but his blood will I require at thy hand.

xxxiii. 18. When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die thereby.

Zeph. i. 6. And them that are turned back from the Lord; and those that have not sought the Lord, nor inquired for him.

11 ¶ Now therefore go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: (k) return ye now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good.

(k) Is. lv. 6. Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near.

7. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

Lam. iii. 40. Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord.

Ez. xiii. 22. Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life.

xviii. 23. Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord God; and not that he should return from his ways, and live?

Zech. i. 3. Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Turn ye unto me, saith the Lord of hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the Lord of hosts.

Acts xxvi. 20. But showed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coast of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent, and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

12 And they said, (l) There is no hope; but (m) we will walk after our own devices, and we will every one do the imagination of his evil heart.

(l) 2 Kings vi. 33. And while he yet talked with them, behold, the messenger came down unto him, and he said, Behold, this evil is of the Lord; what should I wait for the Lord any longer?

Is. lvii. 10. Thou art wearied in the greatness of thy way; yet saidst thou not, There is no hope: thou hast found the life of thy hand; therefore thou wast not grieved.

Ez. xxxvii. 11. Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost; we are cut off for our parts.

(m) Gen. vi. 5. And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

Deut. xxix. 19. And it come to pass when he heareth the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the imagination of my heart, to add drunkenness to thirst.

Mark vii. 21. For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, 22. Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness.

13 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Ask ye now among the heathen, who hath heard such things? (n) The virgin of Israel hath done (o) a very horrible thing.

(n) Is. xxxvii. 22. This is the word which the Lord hath spoken concerning him, The virgin, the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

Lam. i. 15. The Lord hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me; he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men: the Lord hath trodden the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a wine-press.

(o) Jer. xxiii. 14. I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem a horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of evil-doers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.

Hos. vi. 10. I have seen a horrible thing in the house of Israel: there is the whoredom of Ephraim, Israel is defiled.

14 Will a man leave the snow of Lebanon which cometh from the rock of the field? or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken?

15 Because my people have forgotten me, they have (p) burned incense to vanity, and they have (q) caused them to stumble in their ways from the ancient paths, to walk in paths, in a way not cast up;

(p) Is. lxxv. 7. Your iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together, saith the Lord, which have burnt incense upon the mountains, and blasphemed me upon the hills: therefore will I measure their former work into their bosom.

Hos. ii. 13. And I will visit upon her the days of Baalim, wherein she burnt incense to them, and she decked herself with her ear-rings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgot me, saith the Lord.

xi. 2. As they called them, so they went from them: they sacrificed unto Baalim, and burnt incense to graven images.

(q) Is. iii. 12. As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths.

ix. 16. For the leaders of this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.

Mal. ii. 8. But ye are departed out of the way; ye have caused many to stumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the Lord of hosts.

Rom. xiv. 21. It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

16 To (r) make their land desolate, and (s) a perpetual hissing: every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished, (t) and wag his head.

(r) Lev. xxvi. 33. And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you; and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste.

34. Then shall the land enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her sabbaths.

Deut. xxix. 23. And that the whole land thereof is brimstone, and salt, and burning, that it is not sown, nor beareth, nor any grass groweth therein, like the overthrow of Sodom, and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboim, which the Lord overthrow in his anger and in his wrath.

Is. vi. 11. Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate.

Ez. vi. 14. So will I stretch out my hand upon them, and make the land desolate, yea, more desolate than the wilderness toward Diblath, in all their habitations; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

(s) 1 Kings ix. 8. And at this house, which is high, every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, Why hath the Lord done thus unto this land, and to this house?

Lam. ii. 16. All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth: they say, We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it.

Mic. vi. 16. For the statutes of Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of Ahab; and ye walk in their counsels; that I should make thee a desolation, and the inhabitants thereof a his-ing: therefore ye shall bear the reproach of my people.

(t) Ps. xxii. 7. All they that see me, laugh me to scorn: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,

Matt. xxvii. 39. And they that passed by, reviled him, wagging their heads.

17 I will (u) scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy; I will (x) show them the back, and not the face, in (y) the day of their calamity.

(u) Deut. xxviii. 25. The Lord shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them; and shalt be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

Job xxvii. 21. The east wind carrieth him away, and he departeth; and as a storm, hurleth him out of his place.

(x) Deut. xxxi. 17. Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall befall them; so that they will say in that day, Are not these evils come upon us, because our God is not among us?

(y) Deut. xxxii. 35. To me belongeth vengeance, and recompense; their foot shall slide in due time: for the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that shall come upon them make haste.

18 ¶ Then said they, (z) Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah: (a) for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor (b) counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. (c) Come, and let us smite him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words.

(z) Ps. xxi. 11. For they intended evil against thee; they imagined a mischievous device, which they are not able to perform.

Is. xxxii. 11. For they intended evil against thee; they imagined a mischievous device, which they are not able to perform.

Is. xxxii. 7. The instruments also of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even when the needy speaketh right.

(a) Jer. xiv. 14. Then the Lord said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name: I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart.

15. Therefore thus saith the Lord concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land; By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed.

16. And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem, because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them; them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters; for I will pour their wickedness upon them.

(b) 2 Sam. xv. 31. And one told David, saying, Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom. And David said, O Lord, I pray thee, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness.

Job v. 13. He taketh the wise in their own craftiness; and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong.

(c) Ps. lii. 2. Thy tongue deviseth mischiefs, like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

Ivii. 4. My soul is among lions; and I lie even among them that are set on fire, even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.

Prov. xviii. 21. Death and life are in the power of the tongue; and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

19 (d) Give heed to me, O LORD, and (e) hearken to the voice of them that contend with me.

(d) Ps. lv. 16. As for me, I will call upon God; and the Lord shall save me.

17. Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud; and he shall hear my voice.

Mic. vii. 8. Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the Lord shall be a light unto me.

(e) 2 Kings xix. 16. Lord, bow down thine ear, and hear: open, Lord, thine eyes, and see; and hear the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent him to reproach the living God.

Neh. iv. 4. Hear, O our God; for we are despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity;

5. And cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

20 Shall (f) evil be recompensed for good? for they have (g) digged a pit for my soul. (h) Remember that I stood before thee to speak good for them, and to turn away thy wrath from them.

(f) Ps. xxxiv. 12. They rewarded me evil for good, to the spoiling of my soul.

xxxviii. 20. They also that render evil for good are mine adversaries; because I follow the thing that good is.

Prov. xvii. 13. Whoso rewardeth evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.

(g) Job vi. 27. Yea, ye overwhelm the fatherless, and ye dig a pit for your friend.

Ps. vii. 15. He made a pit, and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made.

Prov. xxvi. 27. Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein; and he that rolleth a stone, it will return upon him.

(h) Ps. cvi. 23. Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

Ez. xxii. 30. And I sought for a man among them that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none.

31. Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath; their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord God.

21 Therefore (i) deliver up their children to the famine, and pour out their blood by the force of the sword; (k) and let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows; and let their men be put to death; (l) let their young men be slain by the sword in battle.

(i) Jer. xi. 22. Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, Behold, I will punish them; the young men shall die by the sword, their sons and their daughters shall die by famine.

2 Tim. iv. 14. Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil; the Lord reward him according to his works.

(k) Ex. xxii. 24. And my wrath shall wax hot, and I will kill you with the sword; and your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.

Lam. v. 3. We are orphans and fatherless, our mothers are as widows.

(l) 2 Chr. xxxvi. 17. Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man or him that stooped for age: he gave them all into his hand.

Jer. ix. 21. For death is come up into our windows, and is entered into our palaces, to cut off the children from without, and the young men from the streets.

Amos iv. 10. I have sent among you the pestilence after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

22 Let (m) a cry be heard from their houses, when thou shalt bring a troop suddenly upon them; for they have digged a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet.

(m) Is. x. 30. Lift up thy voice, O daughter of Gallim; cause it to be heard unto Laish, O poor Anathoth.

Jer. xlvii. 2. Thus saith the Lord, Behold, waters rise up out of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land, and all that is therein; the city, and them that dwell therein: then the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall howl.

xlviii. 3. A voice of crying shall be from Horonaim, spoiling and great destruction.

4. Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.

5. For in the going up of Luhith, continual weeping shall go up; for in the going down of Horonaim, the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.

Zeph. i. 10. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord, that there shall be the noise of a cry from the fish-gate, and a howling from the second, and a great crashing from the hills.

23 Yet, LORD, thou knowest all their counsel against me to slay me: forgive not their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from thy sight, but let them be overthrown before thee: deal thus with them (n) in the time of thine anger.

(n) Is. x. 3. And what will ye do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory?

Jer. xi. 23. And there shall be no remnant of them, for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation.

Luke xxi. 22. For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

Rom. ii. 5. But after thy hardness and impenitent heart, treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath, and revelation of the righteous judgment of God.

CHAPTER XIX.

THUS saith the LORD, Go, and get a potter's earthen bottle, and take (a) of the ancients of the people, and of the ancients of the priests;

(a) Num. xi. 16. And the Lord said unto Moses, Gather unto me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom thou knowest to be the elders of the people, and officers over them; and bring them unto the tabernacle of the congregation, that they may stand there with thee.

Ez. viii. 11. And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah, the son of Shaphan, with every man his censor in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up.

12. Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, The Lord seeth us not; the Lord hath forsaken the earth.

ix. 6. Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women; but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house.

Matt. xxvii. 1. When the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus, to put him to death.

2 And go forth unto the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the east gate, (b) and proclaim there the words that I shall tell thee;

(b) Prov. i. 20. Wisdom crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets;

21. She crieth in the chief place of concourse; in the openings of the gates: in the city she uttereth her words, saying,

22. How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity, and the scorners delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?

Ez. iii. 10. Moreover, he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee, receive in thy heart, and hear with thine ears.

11. And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord God; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

Jon. iii. 2. Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

Matt. x. 27. What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light; and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the house-tops.

Acts v. 20. Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.

3 And say, (c) Hear ye the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, the which whosoever heareth, (d) his ears shall tingle.

(c) Ps. ii. 10. Be wise now, therefore, O ye kings; be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

cx. 5. The Lord at thy right hand shall strike through kings in the day of his wrath.

Rev. ii. 29. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

(d) 1 Sam. iii. 11. And the Lord said to Samuel, Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, at which both the ears of every one that heareth it shall tingle.

2 Kings xxi. 12. Therefore thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whosoever heareth of it, both his ears shall tingle.

Is. xxviii. 19. From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night; and it shall be a vexation only to understand the report.

4 Because (e) they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it unto other gods, whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and (f) have filled this place with the blood of innocents;

(e) Deut. xxviii. 20. The Lord shall send upon thee cursing, vexation, and rebuke, in all that thou settest thy hand unto for to do, until thou be destroyed, and until thou perish quickly; because of the wickedness of thy doings, whereby thou hast forsaken me.

xxxi. 16. And the Lord said unto Moses, Behold, thou shalt sleep with thy fathers; and this people will rise up, and go a whoring after the gods of the strangers of the land whither they go to be among them, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them.

17. Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall befall them; so that they will say in that day, Are not these evils come upon us, because our God is not among us?

18. And I will surely hide my face in that day, for all the evils which they shall have wrought, in that they are turned unto other gods.

(f) 2 Kings xxi. 6. And he made his son pass through the fire, and observed times, and used enchantments, and dealt with familiar spirits and wizards; he wrought much wickedness in the sight of the Lord, to provoke him to anger.

Is. lix. 7. Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths.

Lam. iv. 13. For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her.

Rev. xvi. 6. For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

5 They have built also (g) the high places of Baal, (h) to burn their sons with fire for burnt-offerings unto Baal, which I commanded not, nor spake it, (i) neither came it into my mind:

(g) Nim. xxii. 41. And it came to pass on the morrow, that Balak took Baalam, and brought him up into the high places of Baal, that thence he might see the utmost part of the people.

(h) Deut. xii. 31. Thou shalt not do so unto the Lord thy God; for every abomination to the Lord, which he hateth, have they done unto their gods; for even their sons and their daughters they have burnt in the fire to their gods.

2 Kings xvii. 17. And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the Lord, to provoke him to anger.

Ez. xvi. 20. Moreover, thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast borne unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them to be devoured. Is this of thy whoredoms a small matter,

21. That thou hast slain my children, and delivered them to cause them to pass through the fire for them?

(i) Ez. xxxviii. 10. Thus saith the Lord God, It shall also come to pass, that at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou shalt think an evil thought.

Dan. ii. 29. As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter; and he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass.

6 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that this place shall no more be called Tophet, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of slaughter.

7 And (k) I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and (l) I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of them that seek their lives: (m) and their carcasses will I give to be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

(k) Job v. 12. He disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their hands cannot perform their enterprise.

13. He taketh the wise in their own craftiness; and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong.

Ps. xxxiii. 10. The Lord bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

11. The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

Is. viii. 10. Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for God is with us.

Lam. iii. 37. Who is he that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the Lord commandeth it not?

(l) Lev. xxvi. 17. And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be slain before your enemies: they that hate you shall reign over you; and ye shall flee when none pursueth you.

Deut. xxviii. 25. The Lord shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them; and shalt be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

(m) Deut. xxviii. 26. And thy carcass shall be meat unto all fowls of the air, and unto the beasts of the earth, and no man shall fray them away.

Ps. lxxix. 2. The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the heaven, the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth.

3. Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem; and there was none to bury them.

8 And I will make this city desolate, and an hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished and hiss, because of all the plagues thereof.

9 And I will cause them to (n) eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters; and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend in the siege and straitness, wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their lives, shall straiten them.

(n) Lev. xxvi. 29. And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat.

Is. ix. 20. And he shall snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied: they shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm.

Lam. ii. 20. Behold, O Lord, and consider to whom thou hast done this. Shall the women eat their fruit, and children of a span long? shall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord?

iv. 10. The hands of the pitiful women have sodden their own children: they were their meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

Ez. v. 10. Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the world.

10 Then shalt thou break the bottle in the sight of the men that go with thee, 11 And shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; (o) Even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot be made whole again: and they shall bury them in Tophet, till there be no place to bury.

(o) Ps. ii. 9. Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

Is. xxx. 14. And he shall break it as the breaking of the potters' vessel that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare: so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit.

Lam. iv. 2. The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!

Rev. ii. 27. And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.

12 Thus will I do unto this place, saith the LORD, and to the inhabitants thereof, and even make this city as Tophet:

13 And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, shall be (p) defiled as the place of Tophet, because of all the houses (q) upon whose roofs they have burned incense unto all the host of heaven, and have poured out drink-offerings unto other gods.

(p) 2 Kings xxiii. 10. And he defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Moloch.

14. And he brake in pieces the images, and cut down the groves, and filled their places with the bones of men.

Ps. lxxiv. 7. They have cast fire into thy sanctuary; they have defiled by casting down the dwelling-place of thy name to the ground.

Ixxix. 1. O God, the heathen are come into thine inheritance; thy holy temple have they defiled; they have laid Jerusalem on heaps.

Ez. vii. 21. And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall pollute it.

22. My face will I turn also from them, and they shall pollute my secret place: for the robbers shall enter into it, and defile it.

(q) 2 Kings xxiii. 12. And the altars that were on the top of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the Lord, did the king beat down, and brake them down from thence, and cast the dust of them into the brook Kidron.

Jer. xxxii. 29. And the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and set fire on this city, and burn it, with the houses upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink-offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger.

Zeph. i. 5. And them that worship the host of heaven upon the house-tops; and them that worship and that swear by the Lord, and that swear by Malcham.

14 Then came Jeremiah from Tophet, whither the LORD had sent him to prophesy: and he (r) stood in the court of the LORD's house, and said to all the people, (r) 2 Chr. xx. 5. And Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the Lord, before the new court.

xxiv. 20. And the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, which stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God, Why transgress ye the commandments of the Lord, that ye cannot prosper? Because ye have forsaken the Lord, he hath also forsaken you.

21. And they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones, at the commandment of the king, in the court of the house of the Lord.

Jer. xvii. 19. Thus said the Lord unto me, Go, and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby the kings of Judah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem.

xxvi. 2. Thus saith the Lord, Stand in the court of the Lord's house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the Lord's house, all the words that I command thee to speak unto them; diminish not a word.

Acts v. 20. Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.

15 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon this city and upon all her towns, all the evil that I have pronounced against it, (s) because they have hardened their necks, that they might not hear my words.

(s) 2 Chr. xxxvi. 16. But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the Lord rose against his people, till there was no remedy.

17. Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man or him that stooped for age; he gave them all into his hand.

Neh. ix. 17. And refused to obey, neither were mindful of the wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not.

29. And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man do, he shall live in them,) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.

Jer. xxxv. 15. I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers; but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me.

16. Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but this people hath not hearkened unto me.

17. Therefore thus saith the Lord God of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, all the evil that I have pronounced against them: because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but they have not answered.

Zech. vii. 11. But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

12. Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant-stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the Lord of hosts hath sent in his Spirit by the former prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the Lord of hosts.

CHAPTER XX.

NOW Pashur the son of Immer the priest, (a) who was also chief governor in the house of the LORD, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things.

(a) 2 Chr. xxxv. 8. And his princes gave willingly unto the people, to the priests, and to the Levites: Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave unto the priests for the passover-offerings two thousand and six hundred small cattle, and three hundred oxen.

Acts iv. 8. Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, By what power, or by what name, have ye done this?

v. 24. Now when the high priest, and the captain of the temple, and the chief priests, heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

2 Then Pashur (b) smote Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were (c) in the high gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD.

(b) 1 Kings xxii. 27. And say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction, and with water of affliction, until I come in peace.

2 Chr. xvi. 10. Then Asa was wroth with the seer, and put him in the prison-house; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing.

Amos vii. 10. Then Amaziah, the priest of Beth-el, sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel; the land is not able to bear all his words.

11. For thus Amos saith, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of their own land.

12. Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, go, flee thee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there:

13. But prophesy not again any more at Beth-el: for it is the king's chapel, and it is the king's court.

Matt. v. 10. Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely for my sake.

12. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

xxi. 35. And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

Acts iv. 3. And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide.

vii. 52. Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which showed before of the coming of the Just One, of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers.

Heb. xi. 36. And others had trial of cruel mockings, and scourgings; yea, moreover, of bonds and imprisonment:

37. They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, they were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheep-skins and goat-skins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented.

(c) Jer. xxxvii. 13. And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Thou fallest away to the Chaldeans.

xxxviii. 7. Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs, which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon, (the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin.)

3 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Pashur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then said Jeremiah unto him, The LORD (d) hath not called thy name Pashur, but Magor-missabib.

(d) Gen. xvii. 5. Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram; but thy name shall be called Abraham; for a father of many nations have I made thee.

15. And God said unto Abraham, As for Sarai thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sarai, but Sarah shall her name be.

xxxii. 28. And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed.

Jer. vii. 32. Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that it shall no more be called Tophet, nor, The valley of the son of Hinnom, but, The valley of slaughter: for they shall bury in Tophet till there be no place.

4 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, (e) I will make thee a terror to thyself, and to all thy friends; and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and (f) thine eyes shall behold it: and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive into Babylon, and shall slay them with the sword.

(c) Deut. xxviii. 65. And among these nations shalt thou find no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot have rest: but the Lord shall give thee there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind:

66. And thy life shall hang in doubt before thee; and thou shalt fear day and night, and shalt have none assurance of life:

67. In the morning thou shalt say, Would God it were even! and at even thou shalt say, Would God it were morning! for the fear of thy heart wherewith thou shalt fear, and for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

Job xviii. 11. Terrors shall make him afraid on every side, and shall drive him to his feet.

xx. 23. When he is about to fill his belly, God shall cast the fury of his wrath upon him, and shall rain it upon him while he is eating.

24. He shall flee from the iron weapon, and the bow of steel shall strike him through.

25. It is drawn, and cometh out of the body; yea, the glittering sword cometh out of his gall: terrors are upon him.

26. All darkness shall be hid in his secret places; a fire not blown shall consume him; it shall go ill with him that is left in his tabernacle.

Ps. lxxiii. 19. How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors.

(f) Deut. xxviii. 32. Thy sons and thy daughters shall be given unto another people, and thine eyes shall look, and fail with longing for them all the day long: and there shall be no might in thy hand.

33. The fruit of thy land, and all thy labours, shall a nation which thou knowest not eat up; and thou shalt be only oppressed and crushed away:

34. So that thou shalt be mad for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

1 Sam. ii. 33. And the man of thine, whom I shall not cut off from mine altar, shall be to consume thine eyes, and to grieve thy heart: and all the increase of thy house shall die in the flower of their age.

2 Kings xxv. 7. And they slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him with fetters of brass, and carried him to Babylon.

5 Moreover, (g) I will deliver all the strength of this city, and all the labours thereof, and all the precious things thereof, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon.

(g) 2 Kings xx. 17. Behold, the days come, that all that is in thy house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store unto this day, shall be carried unto Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the Lord.

18. And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

Jer. xxiv. 8. And as the evil figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil; surely thus saith the Lord, So will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and them that dwell in the land of Egypt;

9. And I will deliver them, to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.

10. And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave unto them and to their fathers.

Lam. i. 10. The adversary has spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things: for she hath seen that the heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command that they should not enter into thy congregation.

Ez. xxii. 25. There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey: they have devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof.

Dan. i. 2. And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God, which he carried into the land of Shinar, to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the treasure-house of his god.

6 And (h) thou, Pashur, and all that dwell in thine house, shall go into captivity: and thou shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die, and shalt be buried there, thou, and all (i) thy friends, to whom thou hast prophesied lies.

(h) Jer. xxix. 21. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, of Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and of Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, which prophesy a lie unto you in my name; Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall slay them before your eyes;

22. And of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captivity of Judah which are in Babylon, saying, The Lord make thee like Zedekiah, and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire.

32. Therefore thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed: he shall not have a man to dwell among this people; neither shall he behold the good that I will do for my people, saith the Lord; because he hath taught rebellion against the Lord.

(i) Lam. ii. 14. Thy prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee; and they have not discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens, and causes of banishment.

Ez. xiii. 22. Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life:

23. Therefore ye shall see no more vanity, nor divine divinations: for I will deliver my people out of your hand; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

Mic. ii. 11. If a man walking in the spirit and falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of wine and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people.

7 ¶ O LORD, thou hast deceived me, and I was deceived: (k) thou art stronger than I, and hast prevailed: (l) I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me.

(k) Ez. iii. 14. So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of the Lord was strong upon me.

Mic. iii. 8. But truly I am full of power by the Spirit of the Lord, and of judgment, and of might, to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

(l) 2 Kings ii. 23. And he went up from thence unto Beth-el: and as he was going up by the way, there came forth little children out of the city, and mocked, and said unto him, Go up, thou bald-head; go up, thou bald-head.

Ps. xxii. 6. But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people.

7. All that see me, laugh me to scorn: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying—

Lam. iii. 14. I was a derision to all my people, and their song all the day.

Luke xvi. 14. And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.

xxii. 63. And the men that held Jesus mocked him and smote him.

64. And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophecy, who is it that smote thee?

Heb. xi. 36. And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover, of bonds and imprisonment.

xiii. 13. Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach.

8 For since I spake, I cried out, I cried violence and spoil; because (m) the word of the LORD was made a reproach unto me, and a derision, daily.

(m) 2 Chr. xxxvi. 16. But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the Lord arose against his people, till there was no remedy.

Luke xi. 45. Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying, thou reproachest us also.

Heb. xi. 26. Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompense of the reward.

1 Pet. iv. 14. If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

9 Then I said, (n) I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name. But his word (o) was in mine heart, as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay.

(n) 1 Kings xix. 3. And when he saw that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beersheba, which belongeth to Judah, and left his servant there.

4. But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper-tree: and he requested for himself that he might die; and said, It is enough; now, O Lord, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers.

Jon. i. 2. Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before me.

3. But Jonah rose up to flee unto Tarshish from the presence of the Lord, and went down to Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the presence of the Lord.

Luke ix. 62. And Jesus said unto him, No man having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

Acts xv. 37. And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark.

38. But Paul thought it not good to take him with them, who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.

(o) Job xxxii. 18. For I am full of matter; the spirit within me constraineth me.

19. Behold, my belly is as wine which hath no vent; it is ready to burst like new bottles.

20. I will speak, that I may be refreshed: I will open my lips, and answer.

Ps. xxxix. 3. My heart was hot within me; while I was musing the fire burned: then spake I with my tongue.

Acts iv. 20. For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.

xvii. 16. Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred within him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.

xviii. 5. And when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ.

10 For (p) I heard the defaming of many, fear on every side. (q) Report, say they, and we will report it. All (r) my familiars watched for my halting, saying, Peradventure he will be enticed, and we shall prevail against him, and (s) we shall take our revenge on him.

(p) Ps. xxxi. 13. For I have heard the slander of many: fear was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life.

lvii. 4. My soul is among lions; and I lie even among them that are set on fire, even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.

(q) Ls. xxix. 21. That make a man an offender for a word, and lay a snare for him that reproveth in the gate, and turn aside the just for a thing of nought.

Es. xxii. 9. In thee are men that carry tales to shed blood; and in thee they eat upon the mountains; in the midst of thee they commit lewdness.

Luke xx. 20. And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.

(r) Job xix. 19. All my inward friends abhorred me: and they whom I loved are turned against me.

Ps. xli. 9. Yea, mine own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, which did eat of my bread, hath lifted up his heel against me.

lv. 13. But it was thou, a man mine equal, my guide, and mine acquaintance.

14. We took sweet counsel together, and walked unto the house of God in company.

Luke xii. 52. For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.

53. The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

(s) Acts v. 33. When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

vii. 54. When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth.

11 But the LORD is with me as a mighty terrible one: therefore (t) my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail: they shall be greatly ashamed; for they shall not prosper: (u) their everlasting confusion shall never be forgotten.

(t) Ps. xxvii. 2. When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, come upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

Jer. xvii. 18. Let them be confounded that persecute me, but let not me be confounded; let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of evil, and destroy them with double destruction.

(u) Ps. vi. 10. Let all mine enemies be ashamed and sore vexed: let them return, and be ashamed suddenly.

xxxv. 26. Let them be ashamed, and brought to confusion together, that rejoice at my hurt: let them be clothed with shame and dishonour that magnify themselves against me.

Ls. xiv. 16. They shall be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them: they shall go to confusion together that are makers of idols.

Dan. xii. 2. And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

12 But, O LORD of hosts, that triest the righteous, and seest the reins and the heart, (x) let me see thy vengeance on them: (y) for unto thee have I opened my cause.

(x) 2 Chr. xxiv. 22. Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son: and when he died, he said, The Lord look upon it, and requite it.

Rev. vi. 10. And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

xvii. 20. Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her.

(y) 1 Sam. i. 15. And Hannah answered and said, No, my lord: I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have poured out my soul before the Lord.

Ps. lxxxvi. 4. Rejoice the soul of thy servant: for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

Ls. xxxvii. 14. And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the Lord, and spread it before the Lord.

13 Sing unto the LORD, praise ye the LORD: (z) for he hath delivered the soul of the poor from the hand of evil doers.

(z) Ps. xxxv. 10. All my bones shall say, Lord, who is like unto thee, which deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him, yea, the poor and the needy from him that spoileth him?

lxix. 33. For the Lord heareth the poor, and despiseth not his prisoners.

lxxii. 4. He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor.

Ls. xxv. 4. For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.

James ii. 5. Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world, rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?

6. But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment-seats?

14 ¶ (a) Cursed be the day wherein I was born; let not the day wherein my mother bare me be blessed.

(a) Job iii. 3. Let the day perish wherein I was born, and the night in which it was said, There is a man-child conceived.

4. Let that day be darkness; let not God regard it from above, neither let the light shine upon it.

5. Let darkness and the shadow of death stain it; let a cloud dwell upon it; let the blackness of the day terrify it.

6. As for that night, let darkness seize upon it; let it not be joined unto the days of the year; let it not come into the number of the months.

7. Lo, let that night be solitary; let no joyful voice come therein.

8. Let them curse it that curse the day, who are ready to raise up their mourning.

9. Let the stars of the twilight thereof be dark; let it look for light, but have none; neither let it see the dawning of the day:

10. Because it shut not up the doors of my mother's womb, nor hid sorrow from mine eyes.

15 Cursed be the man who brought tidings to my father, saying, (b) A man-child is born unto thee; making him very glad.

(b) Gen. xxi. 5. And Abraham was an hundred years old when his son Isaac was born unto him.

6. And Sarah said, God hath made me to laugh, so that all that hear will laugh with me.

Luke i. 14. And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth.

16 And let that man be (c) as the cities which the LORD overthrew, (d) and repented not: and (e) let him hear the cry in the morning, and the shouting at noontide;

(c) Gen. xix. 24. Then the Lord rained upon Sodom, and upon Gomorrah, brimstone and fire from the Lord out of heaven.

25. And he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground.

Deut. xxix. 23. And that the whole land thereof is brimstone, and salt, and burning, that it is not sown, nor beareth; nor any grass groweth therein, like the overthrow of Sodom, and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboim, which the Lord overthrew in his anger and in his wrath.

Amos iv. 11. I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a fire-brand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

Zeph. ii. 9. Therefore as I live, saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even the breeding of nettles, and salt-pits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

(d) Jon. iii. 9. Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

10. And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

iv. 2. And he prayed unto the Lord, and said, I pray thee, O Lord, was not this my saying when I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.

(e) Ez. xxi. 22. At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort.

Amos ii. 2. But I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of Kiriath; and Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

17 Because (f) he slew me not from the womb; or that my mother might have been my grave, and her womb to be always great with me.

(f) Job iii. 11. Why died I not from the womb? why did I not give up the ghost when I came out of the belly?

x. 18. Wherefore then hast thou brought me forth out of the womb? Oh that I had given up the ghost, and no eye had seen me!

19. I should have been as though I had not been; I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.

18 Wherefore (g) came I forth out of the womb (h) to see labour and sorrow, that my days should be consumed (i) with shame?

(g) Job iii. 20. Wherefore is light given to him that is in misery, and life unto the bitter in soul?

(h) Job xiv. 1. Man that is born of a woman is of few days and full of trouble.

Ps. xc. 10. The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

Lam. i. 13. Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by? behold, and see if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, wherewith the Lord hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

(i) Ps. lxi. 19. Thou hast known my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonour: mine adversaries are all before thee.

Is. l. 6. I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting.

Acts v. 41. And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.

2 Tim. i. 12. For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed; for I know whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

Heb. xii. 2. Looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith; who, for the joy that was set before him, endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

CHAPTER XXI.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zedekiah sent unto him Pashur the son of Melchiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, saying,

2 (a) Inquire, I pray thee, of the LORD for us; for Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, maketh war against us; if so be that the LORD will deal with us (b) according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us.

(a) 2 Kings xxv. 1. And it came to pass, in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he, and all his host, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it; and they pitched forts against it round about.

2. And the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

Ez. xx. 1. And it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the Lord, and sat before me.

2. Then came the word of the Lord unto me, saying,

3. Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Are ye come to inquire of me? As I live, saith the Lord God, I will not be inquired of by you.

(b) 1 Sam. vii. 10. And as Samuel was offering up the burnt-offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel: but the Lord thundered with a great thunder on that day upon the Philistines, and discomfited them; and they were smitten before Israel.

11. And the men of Israel went out of Mizpeh, and pursued the Philistines, and smote them, until they came under Beth-car.

12. Then Samuel took a stone, and set it between Mizpeh and Shen, and called the name of it Eben-ezer, saying, Hitherto hath the Lord helped us.

2 Chr. xxxii. 21. And the Lord sent an angel, which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains, in the camp of the king of Assyria: so he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels slew him there with the sword.

Ps. xli. 8. Come, behold the works of the Lord, what desolations he hath made in the earth.

3 ¶ Then said Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah:

4 Thus saith the LORD God of Israel; (c) Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans, which besiege you without the walls, and (d) I will assemble them into the midst of this city.

(c) Is. x. 4. Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. For all this, his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

Jer. xxxii. 5. And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be until I visit him, saith the Lord: though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper.

(d) Is. xiii. 4. The noise of a multitude in the mountains, like as of a great people; a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together: the Lord of hosts mustereth the host of the battle.

Lam. ii. 7. The Lord hath cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary, he hath given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; they have made a noise in the house of the Lord, as in the day of a solemn feast.

Zech. xiv. 2. For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the cities shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished: and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

5 And (e) I myself will fight against you, (f) with an outstretched hand, and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath.

(e) Is. lxiii. 10. But they rebelled, and vexed his Holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy: and he fought against them.

Lam. ii. 4. He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his fury like fire.

5. The Lord was as an enemy; he hath swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces; he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

(f) Ez. vi. 6. Wherefore, say unto the children of Israel, I am the Lord, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with a stretched out arm, and with great judgments.

Deut. iv. 34. Or hath God assayed to go and take him a nation from the midst of another nation, by temptations, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by a stretched-out arm, and by great terrors, according to all that the Lord your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

Is. v. 25. Therefore is the anger of the Lord kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them: and the hills did tremble, and their carcases were torn in the midst of the streets. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

Nah. i. 5. The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burnt at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein.

6. Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

6 And (g) I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence.

(g) Is. vi. 11. Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate.

Ez. xiv. 13. Son of man, when the land sinneth against me, by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out my hand upon it, and will break the staff of the bread thereof, and will send famine upon it, and will cut off man and beast from it.

Zeph. i. 3. I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea; and the stumbling-blocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the Lord.

Luke xxi. 24. And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

7 And afterward, saith the LORD, I will deliver Zedekiah, king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, and such as are left in the city, from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; (h) he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy.

(h) Deut. xxviii. 50. A nation of fierce countenance, which shall not regard the person of the old, nor show favour to the young.

2 Chr. xxxvi. 17. Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man or him that stooped for age; he gave them all into his hand.

Is. xlii. 17. Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, which shall not regard silver, and as for gold, they shall not delight in it.

18. Their bows also shall dash the young men to pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye shall not spare children.

Ez. vii. 9. And mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will recompense thee according to thy ways, and thine abominations that are in the midst of thee; and ye shall know that I am the Lord that smiteth.

viii. 18. Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

8 And unto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, (i) I set before you the way of life, and the way of death.

(i) Deut. xi. 26. Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse.

xxx. 15. See, I have set before thee this day life and good, and death and evil.

19. I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live.

Is. i. 19. If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land:

20. But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword; for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

9 He that abideth in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth out, and falleth to the Chaldeans that besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall be unto him for a prey.

10 For (k) I have set my face against this city for evil, and not for good, saith the LORD: (l) it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.

(k) Lev. xvii. 10. And whatever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, that eateth any manner of blood, I will even set my face against that soul that eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people.

xvii. 17. And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be slain before your enemies: they that hate you shall reign over you, and ye shall flee when none pursueth you.

Ps. xxxiv. 16. The face of the Lord is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

Ez. xv. 7. And I will set my face against them; they shall go out from one fire, and another fire shall devour them; and ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I set my face against them.

(l) 2 Chr. xxxvi. 19. And they burnt the house of God, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels thereof.

Jer. xxxviii. 18. But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt not escape out of their hand.

23. So they shall bring out all thy wives and thy children to the Chaldeans; and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and thou shalt cause this city to be burnt with fire.

11 ¶ And touching the house of the king of Judah, say, Hear ye the word of the LORD;

12 O house of David, thus saith the LORD; Execute judgment (m) in the morning, and (n) deliver him that is spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor, (o) lest my fury go out like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

(m) Ex. xviii. 13. And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses sat to judge the people: and the people stood by Moses from the morning unto the evening.

(n) Job xxix. 17. And I brake the jaws of the wicked, and plucked the spoil out of his teeth.

Ps. lxxxii. 4. Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked.

Prov. xxxi. 8. Open thy mouth for the dumb in the cause of all such as are appointed to destruction.

9. Open thy mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the poor and needy.

(o) Lev. xxvi. 28. Then I will walk contrary unto you also in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins.

Deut. xxxii. 22. For a fire is kindled in mine anger, and shall burn unto the lowest hell, and shall consume the earth with her increase, and set on fire the foundations of the mountains.

Lam. ii. 3. He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel: he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.

iv. 11. The Lord hath accomplished his fury; he hath poured out his fierce anger, and hath kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.

Nah. i. 6. Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

Zeph. i. 18. Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the Lord's wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

13 ¶ Behold, I am against thee, O inhabitant of the valley, and rock of the plain, saith the LORD; which say, (p) Who shall come down against us? or who shall enter into our habitations?

(p) 2 Sam. v. 6. And the king and his men went to Jerusalem unto the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, which spake unto David, saying, Except thou take away the blind and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither; thinking, David cannot come in hither.

7. Nevertheless David took the strong hold of Zion: the same is the city of David.

Lam. iv. 12. The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jerusalem.

Ob. 3. The pride of thy heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

4. Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the Lord.

Mic. iii. 11. The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the Lord, and say, Is not the Lord among us? none evil can come upon us.

14 But I will punish you (q) according to the fruit of your doings, saith the LORD: and I will kindle a fire in the forest thereof, and it shall devour all things round about it.

(q) Prov. i. 31. Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.

Is. iii. 10. Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him; for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

11. Wo unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him; for the reward of his hands shall be given him.

Gal. vi. 7. Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8. For he that soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit, shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

CHAPTER XXII.

THUS saith the LORD; (a) Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word:

(a) 2 Sam. xii. 1. And the Lord sent Na than unto David, and he came unto him, and said, There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other poor.

1 Kings xxi. 18. Arise, go down to meet Ahab, king of Israel, which is in Samaria: behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone down to possess it.

19. And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the Lord, Hast thou killed, and also taken possession? And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the Lord, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth, shall dogs lick thy blood, even thine.

Hos. v. 1. Hear ye this, O priests; and hearken, ye house of Israel; and give ye ear, O house of the king; for judgment is toward you, because ye have been a snare on Mizpeh, and a net spread upon Tabor.

2 And say, (b) Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, (c) that sittest upon the throne of David, thou, and thy servants, and thy people that enter in by these gates:

(b) 1 Kings xxii. 19. And he said, Hear thou therefore the word of the Lord: I saw the Lord sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him, on his right hand, and on his left.

Is. xxviii. 13. But the word of the Lord was unto them, precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.

(c) Is. ix. 7. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice, from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this.

Jer. xxix. 16. Know that thus saith the Lord of the king that sitteth upon the throne of David, and of all the people that dwelleth in this city, and of your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captivity.

xxxvi. 30. Therefore thus saith the Lord of Jehoiakim king of Judah, He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David; and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost.

3 Thus saith the LORD; Execute ye judgment and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor; and do no wrong, (d) do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, (e) neither shed innocent blood in this place.

(d) Deut. x. 18. He doth execute the judgment of the fatherless and widow, and loveth the stranger, in giving him food and raiment.

Job xxii. 9. Thou hast sent widows away empty; and the arms of the fatherless have been broken.

xxiv. 9. They pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor.

Ps. lxxviii. 5. A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows, is God in his holy habitation.

Is. i. 23. Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

Ez. xxii. 7. In thee have they set light by father and mother; in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger; in thee have they vexed the fatherless and the widow.

(e) 2 Kings xxiv. 4. And also for the innocent blood that he shed, (for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood,) which the Lord would not pardon.

Ps. xciv. 21. They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood.

Prov. vi. 17. A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood.

Joel iii. 19. Egypt shall be a desolation, and Edom shall be a desolate wilderness, for the violence against the children of Judah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land.

4 For if ye do this thing indeed, then shall there enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people.

5 But (f) if ye will not hear these words, (g) I swear by myself, saith the LORD, (h) that this house shall become a desolation.

(f) Is. i. 20. But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

Jer. xvii. 27. But if you will not hearken unto me to hallow the sabbath-day, and not to bear a burden, even entering in at the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath-day; then will I kindle a fire in the gates thereof, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched.

(g) Gen. xxii. 16. And said, By myself have I sworn, saith the Lord; for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son.

Deut. xxxii. 40. For if I lift up my hand to heaven, and say, I live for ever.

Ps. xc. 11. Unto whom I swear in my wrath, that they should not enter into my rest.

Amos vi. 8. The Lord God hath sworn by himself, saith the Lord, the God of hosts, I abhor the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city, with all that is therein.

(h) Jer. xxxix. 8. And the Chaldeans burnt the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem.

Mic. iii. 12. Therefore shall Zion for your sake be ploughed as a field; and Jerusalem shall become heaps; and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

6 For thus saith the LORD (i) unto the king's house of Judah; Thou art Gilead unto me, and the head of Lebanon; yet (k) surely I will make thee a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited.

(i) Jer. xxi. 11. And touching the house of the king of Judah, say, Hear ye the word of the Lord.

(k) Is. vi. 11. Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate.

xxvii. 10. Yet the defenced city shall be desolate, and the habitation forsaken, and left like a wilderness: there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down, and consume the branches thereof.

Ez. xxxiii. 27. Say thou thus unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, As I live, surely they that are in the wastes shall fall by the sword; and him that is in the open field will I give to the beasts to be devoured; and they that be in the forts, and in the caves, shall die of the pestilence.

28. For I will lay the land most desolate, and the pomp of her strength shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, that none shall pass through.

7 And (l) I will prepare destroyers against thee, every one with his weapons: and they shall (m) cut down thy choice cedars, and cast them into the fire.

(l) Is. liv. 16. Behold, I have created the smith that bloweth the coals in the fire, and that bringeth forth an instrument for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy.

17. No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord; and their righteousness is of me, saith the Lord.

Matt. xxii. 7. But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

(m) Is. x. 33. Behold, the Lord, the Lord of hosts, shall lop the bough with terror: and the high ones of stature shall be hewn down, and the haughty shall be humbled.

34. And he shall cut down the thickets of the forests with iron, and Lebanon shall fall by a mighty one.

xxxvii. 24. By thy servants hast thou reproached the Lord, and hast said, By the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountain, to the sides of Lebanon; and I will cut down the tall cedars thereof, and the choice fir-trees thereof: and I will enter into the height of his border, and the forest of his Carmel.

Zech. xi. 1. Open thy doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour thy cedars.

8 And (n) many nations shall pass by this city; and they shall say every man to his neighbour, Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this great city?

(n) Deut. xxix. 24. Even all nations shall say, Wherefore hath the Lord done thus unto this land? what meaneth the heat of this great anger?

1 Kings ix. 8. And at this house, which is high, every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, Why hath the Lord done thus unto this land, and to this house?

9. And they shall answer, Because they forsook the Lord their God, who brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have taken hold upon other gods, and have worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath the Lord brought upon them all this evil.

Dan. ix. 7. O Lord, righteousness belongeth unto thee; but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day: to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.

9 Then (o) they shall answer, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them.

(o) Deut. xxix. 25. Then men shall say, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the Lord God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt.

26. For they went, and served other gods, and worshipped them, gods whom they knew not, and whom he had not given unto them.

27. And the anger of the Lord was kindled against this land, to bring upon it all the curses that are written in this book:

28. And the Lord rooted them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as at this day.

2 Kings xxii. 17. Because they have forsaken me, and have burnt incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched.

10 ¶ (p) Weep ye not for the dead, neither bemoan him: but (q) weep sore for him that goeth away; for he shall return no more, nor see his native country.

(p) 2 Kings xxii. 20. Behold, therefore, I will gather thee unto thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered into thy grave in peace; and thine eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place. And they brought the king word again.

xxiii. 30. And his servants carried him in a chariot dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own sepulchre. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz, the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father's stead.

Luke xxiii. 28. But Jesus turning unto them, said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

(q) 2 Kings xxiii. 31. Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

32. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his fathers had done.

33. And Pharaoh-nechoh put him in bands at Riblah, in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and put the land to a tribute of an hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold.

34. And Pharaoh-nechoh made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in the room of Josiah his father, and turned his name to Jehoikim, and took Jehoahaz away: and he came to Egypt, and died there.

Ez. xix. 3. And she brought up one of her whelps: it became a young lion, and it learned to catch the prey; it devoured men.

4. The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit, and they brought him with chains unto the land of Egypt.

11 For thus saith the LORD touching Shallum, the son of Josiah king of Judah, which reigned instead of Josiah his father, which went forth out of this place; He shall not return thither any more:

12 But he shall die in the place whither they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more.

13 ¶ Wo unto him that (r) buildeth his house by unrighteousness, and his chambers by wrong; that useth his neighbour's service without wages, and giveth him not for his work;

(r) Lev. xix. 13. Thou shalt not defraud thy neighbour, neither rob him: the wages of him that is hired shall not abide with thee all night until the morning.

Deut. xxiv. 14. Thou shalt not oppress a hired servant that is poor and needy, whether he be of thy brethren, or of thy strangers that are in thy land within thy gates:

15. At his day thou shalt give him his hire, neither shall the sun go down upon it; for he is poor, and setteth his heart upon it: lest he cry against thee unto the Lord, and it be sin unto thee.

Job xxiv. 10. They cause him to go naked without clothing, and they take away the sheaf from the hungry;

11. Which make oil within their walls, and tread their wine-presses, and suffer thirst.

Mic. iii. 10. They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.

Mul. iii. 5. And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the Lord of hosts.

James v. 4. Behold, the hire of the labourers, which have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth.

14 That saith, (s) I will build me a wide house, and large chambers, and cutteth him out windows; and it is (t) ceiled with cedar, and painted with vermilion.

(s) Prov. xvii. 19. He loveth transgression that loveth strife: and he that exalteth his gate seeketh destruction.

xxiv. 27. Prepare thy work without, and make it fit for thyself in the field, and afterwards build thine house.

Dan. iv. 30. The king spake and said, Is not this great Babylon that I have built for the house of the kingdom, by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?

Mal. i. 4. Whereas Edom saith, We are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places; thus saith the Lord of hosts, they shall build, but I will throw down: and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the Lord had indignation for ever.

Luke xiv. 28. For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first and counteth the cost, whether ye have sufficient to finish it?

29. Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him.

(t) 2 Sam. vii. 2. That the king said unto Nathan the prophet, See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of God dwelleth within curtains.

Cant. i. 17. The beams of our house are cedar, and our rafters of fir.

Hag. i. 4. Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your ceiled houses, and this house lie waste?

15 Shalt thou reign because thou closest thyself in cedar? did not thy father (u) eat and drink, (x) and do judgment and justice, and (y) then it was well with him?

(u) Ec. ii. 24. There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God.

x. 17. Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness.

1 Cor. x. 31. Whether therefore ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.

(x) 2 Sam. viii. 15. And David reigned over all Israel, and David executed judgment and justice unto all his people.

Prov. xx. 28. Mercy and truth preserve the king; and his throne is upholden by mercy.

xxi. 3. To do judgment and justice is more acceptable to the Lord than sacrifice.

Is. ix. 7. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice, from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this.

(y) Deut. iv. 40. Thou shalt keep therefore his statutes, and his commandments, which I command thee this day, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days upon the earth, which the Lord thy God giveth thee, for ever.

Is. iii. 10. Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him; for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well with him: (z) was not this to know me? saith the LORD.

(z) 1 Chr. xxviii. 9. And thou, Solomon, my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart, and with a willing mind: for the Lord searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of thy thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever.

Ps. ix. 10. And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, Lord, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.

John xvi. 3. And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

Tit. i. 16. They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

1 John ii. 3. And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

4. He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

17 But (a) thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy (b) covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it.

(a) Job xxxi. 7. If my step hath turned out of the way, and my heart walked after mine eyes, and if any blot hath cleaved to my hands.

Ec. xxxiii. 31. And they shall come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness.

2 Pet. ii. 14. Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: a heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children.

1 John ii. 15. Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

(b) Ec. xviii. 21. Moreover, thou shalt provide out of all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

Ps. x. 3. For the wicked boasteth of his heart's desire, and blesseth the covetous, whom the Lord abhorreth.

Rom. i. 29. Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers.

Col. iii. 5. Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry.

1 Tim. vi. 9. But they that will be rich, fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

10. For the love of money is the root of all evil; which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, king of Judah; (c) They shall not lament for him, saying, (d) Ah my brother! or, Ah sister! they shall not lament for him, saying, Ah lord! or, Ah his glory!

(c) 2 Chr. xxi. 19. And it came to pass, that in process of time, after the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness; so he died of sore diseases: and his people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers.

20. Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years, and departed without being desired: howbeit, they buried him in the city of David, but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

xxxv. 25. And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah; and all the singing men and singing women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they are written in the Lamentations.

(d) 2 Sam. i. 26. I am distressed for thee, my brother Jonathan: very pleasant hast thou been unto me: thy love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women.

1 Kings xv. 30. And he laid his carcass in his own grave; and they mourned over him, saying, Alas, my brother!

19 He shall be buried (e) with the burial of an ass, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

(e) 1 Kings xiv. 11. Him that dieth of Jeroboam in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat: for the Lord hath spoken it.

xxi. 23. And of Jezebel also spake the Lord, saying, The dogs shall cat Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel.

24. Him that dieth of Ahab in the city the dogs shall eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat.

Jer. xxxvi. 30. Therefore thus saith the Lord of Jehoiakim king of Judah, He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David; and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost.

20 ¶ Go up to Lebanon, (f) and cry: and lift up thy voice in Bashan, and cry from the passages: (g) for all thy lovers are destroyed.

(f) Is. xx. 5. And they shall be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory.

6. And the inhabitant of this isle shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, whither we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria: and how shall we escape?

(g) Jer. xxv. 9. Behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, saith the Lord, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and a hissing, and perpetual desolations.

Lam. i. 2. She weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks; among all her lovers she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they are become her enemies.

21 I (h) spake unto thee in thy prosperity; but thou saidst, I will not hear. (i) This hath been thy manner from thy youth, that thou obeyedst not my voice.

(h) 2 Chr. xxxiii. 10. And the Lord spake to Manasseh, and to his people; but they would not hearken.

11. Wherefore the Lord brought upon them the captain of the host of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the thorns, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

Prov. xxx. 9. Lest I be full, and deny thee, and say, Who is the Lord? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain.

(i) Deut. ix. 7. Remember, and forget not, how thou provokedst the Lord thy God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came unto this place, ye have been rebellious against the Lord.

xxxii. 27. For I know thy rebellion, and thy stiff neck: behold, while I am yet alive with you this day, ye have been rebellious against the Lord; and how much more after my death?

Is. xlvi. 8. Yea, thou heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldest deal very treacherously, and wast called a transgressor from the womb.

22 The wind shall eat up all (k) thy pastors, and thy lovers shall go into captivity: surely then shalt thou be ashamed and confounded for all thy wickedness.

(k) Jer. xii. 10. Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

Zech. xi. 8. Three shepherds also I cut off in one month; and my soul loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me.

17. Wo to the idle shepherd that leaveth the flock! the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

23 O inhabitant of Lebanon, that (l) makest thy nest in the cedars, (m) how gracious shalt thou be when pangs come upon thee, the pain as of a woman in travail!

(l) Num. xxiv. 21. And he looked on the Kenites, and took up his parable, and said, Strong is thy dwelling-place, and thou puttest thy nest in a rock.

Amos ix. 3. And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them.

Ob. 4. Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the Lord.

Hab. ii. 9. Wo to him that coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil.

(m) Hos. v. 15. I will go and return to my place, till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face; in their affliction, they will seek me early.

vi. 1. Come, and let us return unto the Lord: for he hath torn, and he will heal us: he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

24 As I live, saith the LORD, though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were (n) the signet upon my right hand, yet would I pluck thee thence;

(n) Cant. viii. 6. Set me as a seal upon thy heart, as a seal upon thine arm: for love is strong as death; jealousy is cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame.

Hag. ii. 23. In that day saith the Lord of hosts, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel my servant, the son of Shealtiel, saith the Lord, and will make thee as a signet; for I have chosen thee, saith the Lord of hosts.

25 And (o) I will give thee into the hand of them that seek thy life, and into the hand of them (p) whose face thou fearest, even into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans.

(o) 2 Kings xxiv. 15. And he carried away Jehoiakim to Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his officers, and the mighty of the land: those carried he into captivity from Jerusalem to Lebanon.

(p) Prov. x. 24. The fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him: but the desire of the righteous shall be granted.

26 And (q) I will cast thee out, and thy mother that bare thee, into another country, where ye were not born; and there shall ye die.

(q) 2 Chr. xxxvi. 9. Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord.

10. And when the year was expired, king Nebuchadnezzar sent and brought him to Babylon, with the goodly vessels of the house of the Lord, and made Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.

Is. xxii. 17. Behold, the Lord will carry thee away with a mighty captivity, and will surely cover thee.

27 But to the land whereunto they desire to return, thither shall they not return.

28 ¶ Is this man Coniah (r) a despised broken idol? is he a vessel wherein is no pleasure? wherefore are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into a land which they know not?

(r) Ps. xxxi. 12. I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like a broken vessel.

Hos. viii. 8. Israel is swallowed up; now shall they be among the Gentiles as a vessel wherein is no pleasure.

xiii. 15. Though he be fruitful among his brethren, an east wind shall come, the wind of the Lord shall come up from the wilderness, and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up: he shall spoil the treasure of all pleasant vessels.

2 Tim. ii. 20. But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21. If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work.

29 (s) O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the LORD;

(s) Deut. iv. 26. I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that ye shall soon utterly perish from off the land whereunto you go unto Jordan to possess it; ye shall not prolong your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed.

xxxii. 1. Give ear, O ye heavens, and I will speak; and hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.

Is. i. 2. Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth; for the Lord hath spoken: I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me.

xxxiv. 1. Come near, ye nations, to hear; and hearken, ye people; let the earth hear, and all that is therein; the world, and all things that come forth of it.

Mic. i. 2. Hear, all ye people; hearken, O earth, and all that therein is: and let the Lord God be witness against you, the Lord from his holy temple.

30 Thus saith the LORD, (t) Write ye this man childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days: for no man of his seed shall prosper, (u) sitting upon the throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah.

(t) 1 Chr. iii. 17. And the sons of Jeconiah; Assir, Salathiel his son.

Matt. i. 12. And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat Zorobabel;

13. And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor;

14. And Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud;

15. And Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob.

16. And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

(u) Ps. xciv. 20. Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law?

CHAPTER XXIII.

WO be unto (a) the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the LORD.

(a) Is. lvi. 9. All ye beasts of the field, come to devour, yea, all ye beasts in the forest.

10. His watchmen are blind; they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber.

11. Yea, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand; they all look to their own way, every one for his gain from his quarter.

12. Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and tomorrow shall be as to-day, and much more abundant.

Ez. xxxiv. 20. Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad.

Matt. ix. 36. But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd.

xv. 14. Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

2 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel, against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, (b) and have not visited them: behold, (c) I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD.

(b) Matt. xxv. 36. Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison and ye came unto me.

James i. 27. Pure religion, and undefiled before God and the Father, is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

(c) Ez. xxxiii. 34. Therefore now go, lead the people unto the place of which I have spoken unto thee: behold, mine angel shall go before thee: nevertheless, when I visit, I will visit their sin upon them.

Hos. ii. 13. And I will visit upon her the days of Baalim, wherein she burnt incense to them, and she decked herself with her ear-rings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgot me, saith the Lord.

Mic. vii. 4. The best of them is as a brier; the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge; the day of thy watchmen and thy visitation cometh; now shall be their perplexity.

3 And (d) I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful, and increase.

(d) Deut. xxx. 3. That then the Lord thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee, and will return and gather thee from all the nations, whither the Lord thy God hath scattered thee.

4. If any of thine be driven out unto the outmost parts of heaven, from thence will the Lord thy God gather thee, and from thence will he fetch thee:

5. And the Lord thy God will bring thee into the land which thy fathers possessed, and thou shalt possess it; and he will do thee good, and multiply thee above thy fathers.

Ps. cvi. 47. Save us, O Lord our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy name, and to triumph in thy praise.

Is. xxvii. 12. And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall beat off from the channel of the river unto the stream of Egypt, and ye shall be gathered one by one, O ye children of Israel.

xliii. 5. Fear not; for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west;

6. I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth.

Zeph. iii. 19. Behold, at that time I will undo all that afflict thee; and I will save her that halteth, and gather her that was driven out; and I will get them praise and fame in every land where they have been put to shame.

20. At that time will I bring you again, even in the time that I gather you: for I will make you a name and a praise among all people of the earth, when I turn back your captivity before your eyes, saith the Lord.

4 And (e) I will set up shepherds over them which shall feed them: and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, (f) neither shall they be lacking, saith the LORD.

(e) Is. xl. 11. He shall feed his flock like a shepherd; he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young.

Ez. xxxiv. 23. And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.

Mic. vii. 14. Feed thy people with thy rod, the flock of thy heritage, which dwell solitarily in the wood, in the midst of Carmel: let them feed in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.

(f) Num. xxxi. 49. And they said unto Moses, Thy servants have taken the sum of the men of war which are under our charge, and there lacketh not one man of us.

John vi. 39. And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me, I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

40. And this is the will of him that sent me, That every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

xvii. 12. While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.

xviii. 9. That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me, I have lost none.

5 Behold, (g) the days come, saith the LORD, that I will (h) raise unto David a righteous Branch, and (i) a king shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.

(g) Jer. xxx. 3. For, lo, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the Lord; and will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

xxxiii. 14. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will perform that good thing which I have promised unto the house of Israel, and to the house of Judah.

(h) Ps. lxxii. 1. Give the king thy judgments, O God, and thy righteousness unto the king's son.

2. He shall judge the people with righteousness, and thy poor with judgment.

Amos ix. 11. In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old.

(i) Ps. xlv. 4. And in thy majesty ride prosperously, because of truth, and meekness, and righteousness; and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

Is. ix. 7. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice, from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this.

lii. 13. Behold, my servant shall deal prudently, he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high.

6 In his days (k) Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall (l) dwell safely: (m) and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE (n) LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

(k) Deut. xxxiii. 28. Israel then shall dwell in safety alone: the fountain of Jacob shall be upon a land of corn and wine; also his heavens shall drop down dew.

29. Happy art thou, O Israel: who is like unto thee, O people saved by the Lord, the shield of thy help, and who is the sword of thy excellency! and thine enemies shall be found liars unto thee: and thou shalt tread upon their high places.

Is. xxxiii. 23. For the Lord is our judge, the Lord is our lawgiver, the Lord is our king; he will save us.

xlv. 17. But Israel shall be saved in the Lord with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end.

(l) 1 Kings iv. 25. And Judah and Israel dwelt safely, every man under his vine and under his fig-tree, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, all the days of Solomon.

Is. xxxv. 9. No lion shall be there, nor any ravenous beast shall go up thereon, it shall not be found there: but the redeemed shall walk there.

Zeph. iii. 13. The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth: for they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

(m) Is. vii. 14. Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign: Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.

ix. 6. For unto us a child is born, unto us a Son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

(n) Is. xlv. 24. Surely, shall one say, In the Lord have I righteousness and strength: even to him shall men come; and all that are incensed against him shall be ashamed.

25. In the Lord shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory.

liv. 17. No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord; and their righteousness is of me, saith the Lord.

1 Cor. i. 30. But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption.

2 Cor. v. 21. For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

Phil. iii. 9. And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith.

7 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that they shall no more say, The LORD liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

8 But the LORD liveth, (o) which brought up and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land.

(o) Is. xiv. 1. For the Lord will have mercy on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob.

Ez. xxxiv. 13. And I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country.

xxxvi. 24. For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you unto your own land.

xxxix. 28. Then shall they know that I am the Lord their God, which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there.

9 ¶ Mine (p) heart within me is broken because of the prophets; all my bones shake; I am (q) like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of the LORD, and because of the words of his holiness.

(p) Ez. ix. 4. And the Lord said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh, and that cry, for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof.

Dan. vii. 27. And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days: afterward I rose up, and did the king's business; and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it.

Hab. iii. 16. When I heard, my belly trembled; my lips quivered at the voice: rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up unto the people, he will invade them with his troops.

(q) Ps. lx. 3. Thou hast showed thy people hard things; thou hast made us to drink the wine of astonishment.

Is. xxviii. 1. Wo to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, whose glorious beauty is a fading flower, which are on the head of the fat valleys of them that are overcome with wine!

xxix. 9. Stay yourselves, and wonder; cry ye out, and cry: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink.

li. 21. Therefore hear now this, thou afflicted, and drunken, but not with wine.

10 For the land is full of adulterers; for (r) because of swearing

(s) the land mourneth; (t) the pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, and their course is evil, and their force is not right.

(r) Hos. iv. 2. By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and blood toucheth blood.

Zech. v. 3. Then said he unto me, This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side, according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side, according to it.

4. I will bring it forth, saith the Lord of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it, with the timber thereof, and the stones thereof.

(s) Jer. xiv. 2. Judah mourneth, and the gates thereof languish; they are black unto the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up.

Joel i. 10. The field is wasted, the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted: the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth.

(t) Ps. cvii. 34. A fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

Jer. ix. 10. For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burned up, so that none can pass through them; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle: both the fowl of the heavens and the beast are fled; they are gone.

11 For (u) both prophet and priest are profane; yea, (x) in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD.

(u) Jer. vi. 13. For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them, every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest, every one dealeth falsely.

viii. 10. Therefore will I give their wives unto others and their fields to them that shall inherit them; for every one, from the least even unto the greatest, is given to covetousness; from the prophet even unto the priest, every one dealeth falsely.

Zeph. iii. 4. Her prophets are light and treacherous persons: her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law.

(x) 2 Chr. xxxiii. 7. And he set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David, and to Solomon his son, In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever.

Ez. viii. 16. And he brought me into the inner court of the Lord's house; and, behold, at the door of the temple of the Lord, between the porch and the altar, were about five-and-twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of the Lord, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped the sun toward the east.

xxiii. 39. For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and, lo, thus have they done in the midst of my house.

Matt. xxi. 12. And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves;

13. And said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves.

12 Wherefore their ways shall be unto them (y) as slippery ways (z) in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

(y) Ps. xxxv. 6. Let their way be dark and slippery; and let the angel of the Lord persecute them.

lxxiii. 18. Surely thou didst set them in slippery places: thou castedst them down into destruction.

Prov. iv. 19. The way of the wicked is as darkness; they know not at what they stumble.

(z) Job xviii. 18. He shall be driven from light into darkness, and chased out of the world.

Is. viii. 22. And they shall look unto the earth; and behold trouble and darkness, dimness of anguish; and they shall be driven to darkness.

John xii. 35. Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

1 John ii. 11. But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

Jude 13. Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

13 And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied in Baal, and caused my people to err.

14 I have seen also (a) in the prophets of Jerusalem an horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of evil-doers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.

(a) Ez. xiii. 2. Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel that prophesy, and say thou unto them that prophesy out of their own hearts, Hear ye the word of the Lord;

3. Thus saith the Lord God, Wo unto the foolish prophets that follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing!

4. O Israel, thy prophets are like the foxes in the deserts.

16. To wit, the prophets of Israel, which prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and which see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, saith the Lord God.

Mic. iii. 11. The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the Lord, and say, Is not the Lord among us? none evil can come upon us.

Zeph. iii. 4. Her prophets are light and treacherous persons: her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets; Behold, (b) I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall; for from the prophets of Jerusalem is profaneness gone forth into all the land.

(b) Ps. lxxix. 21. They gave me also gall for my meat; and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

Lam. iii. 5. He hath builded against me, and compassed me with gall and travail.

15. He hath filled me with bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood.

19. Remembering my affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall.

Matt. xxvii. 34. They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

Rev. viii. 11. And the name of the star was called wormwood; and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were so bitter.

16 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, (c) Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you; (d) they make you vain: they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD.

(c) Prov. xix. 27. Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge.

Matt. xii. 15. Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

2 Cor. xi. 13. For such are false prophets, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

1 John iv. 1. Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

(d) 2 Kings xvii. 15. And they rejected his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified against them; and they followed vanity, and became vain, and went after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom the Lord had charged them, that they should not do like them.

Rom. i. 21. Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful, but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

17 They say still unto them (e) that despise me, The LORD hath said, (f) Ye shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the imagination of his own heart, (g) No evil shall come upon you.

(e) Num. xi. 20. But even a whole month, until it come out at your nostrils, and it be loathsome unto you: because that ye have despised the Lord which is among you, and have wept before him, saying, Why came we forth out of Egypt?

1 Sam. ii. 30. Wherefore the Lord God of Israel saith, I said indeed that thy house, and the house of thy fathers, should walk before me for ever: but now the Lord saith, Be it far from me; for them that honour me I will honour, and they that despise me shall be lightly esteemed.

2 Sam. xii. 10. Now therefore the sword shall never depart from thy house; because thou hast despised me, and hast taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife.

Mal. i. 6. A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the Lord of hosts unto you, O priests that despise my name. And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name?

Luke x. 16. He that heareth you heareth me; and he that despiseth you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me.

(f) Is. lvii. 21. There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

Jer. viii. 11. For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

Lam. ii. 14. Thy prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee; and they have not discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens, and causes of banishment.

Ez. xiii. 16. To wit, the prophets of Israel, which prophecy concerning Jerusalem, and which see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, saith the Lord God.

Mic. iii. 5. Thus saith the Lord concerning the prophets that make my people err, that bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace: and he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him.

(g) Amos ix. 10. All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, which say, The evil shall not overtake nor prevent us.

Zeph. i. 12. And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men that are settled on their lees; that say in their heart, The Lord will not do good, neither will he do evil.

18 For (h) who hath stood in the counsel of the LORD, and hath perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it?

(h) Job xv. 8. Hast thou heard the secret of God? and dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself?

9. What knowest thou, that we know not? what understandest thou, which is not in us?

10. With us are both the gray-headed and very aged men, much elder than thy father.

Is. xl. 13. Who hath directed the spirit of the Lord, or being his counsellor, hath taught him?

14. With whom took he counsel, and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of judgment, and taught him knowledge, and showed to him the way of understanding?

1 Cor. ii. 16. For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

19 Behold, (i) a whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.

(i) Ps. lviii. 9. Before your pots can feel the thorns, he shall take them away as with a whirlwind, both living, and in his wrath.

Prov. i. 27. When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you.

x. 25. As the whirlwind passeth, so is the wicked no more: but the righteous is an everlasting foundation.

Is. xxi. 1. The burden of the desert of the sea. As whirlwinds in the south pass through; so it cometh from the desert, from a terrible land.

xl. 24. Yea, they shall not be planted; yea, they shall not be sown; yea, their stock shall not take root in the earth: and he shall also blow upon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall take them away as stubble.

Amos i. 14. But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, with shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind.

Zech. ix. 14. And the Lord shall be seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the Lord God shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with whirlwinds of the south.

20 The anger of the LORD shall not return (k) until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: (l) in the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly.

(k) Is. xiv. 24. The Lord of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand.

Zech. i. 6. But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not take hold of your fathers? and they returned, and said, Like as the Lord of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

viii. 14. For thus saith the Lord of hosts, As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the Lord of hosts, and I repented not;

15. So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah: fear ye not.

(l) Gen. xlix. 1. And Jacob called unto his sons, and said, Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you that which shall befall you in the last days.

Deut. xxxi. 29. For I know that after my death ye will utterly corrupt yourselves, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and evil will befall you in the latter days; because ye will do evil in the sight of the Lord, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands.

Hos. iii. 4. For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim:

5. Afterwards shall the children of Israel return, and seek the Lord their God, and David their king; and shall fear the Lord and his goodness in the latter days.

21 I (m) have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

(m) Is. vi. 8. Also, I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? then I said, Here am I; send me.

John xx. 21. Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.

Acts xiii. 4. So they being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

Rom. x. 15. And how shall they preach, except they be sent? As it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

22 But if they had stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, (n) then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

(n) Jer. xxxvi. 3. It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them; that they may return every man from his evil way, that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.

Ez. xiii. 22. Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad: and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life.

xviii. 30. Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord God.

Zech. i. 4. Be ye not as your fathers, unto whom the former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the Lord.

1 Thess. i. 9. For they themselves show of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God;

10. And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come.

23 Am (o) I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off?

(o) 1 Kings xx. 23. And the servants of the king of Syria said unto him, Their gods are gods of the hills, therefore they were stronger than we: but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they.

28. And there came a man of God, and spake unto the king of Israel, and said, Thus saith the Lord, Because the Syrians have said, The Lord is God of the hills, but he is not God of the valleys; therefore will I deliver all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

Ps. cxiii. 5. Who is like unto the Lord our God, who dwelleth on high;

6. Who humbleth himself to behold the things that are in heaven, and in the earth!

Ez. xx. 32. And that which cometh into your mind shall not be at all, that ye say, We will be as the heathen, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.

33. As I live, saith the Lord God, surely with a mighty hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with fury poured out, will I rule over you;

34. And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with fury poured out.

35. And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there will I plead with you face to face.

24 Can any (p) hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. (q) Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD.

(p) Gen. xvi. 13. And she called the name of the Lord that spake unto her, Thou God seest me: for she said, Have I also here looked after him that seeth me?

Job xxii. 13. And thou sayest, How doth God know? can he judge through the dark cloud?

14. Thick clouds are a covering to him, that he seeth not; and he walketh in the circuit of heaven.

Ps. x. 11. He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten; he hideth his face; he will never see it. xc. 8. Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

Prov. xv. 3. The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

Is. xxix. 15. Wo unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the Lord, and their works are in the dark, and they say, Who seeth us? and who knoweth us?

Ez. viii. 12. Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, The Lord seeth us not; the Lord hath forsaken the earth.

ix. 9. Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perverseness; for they say, The Lord hath forsaken the earth, and the Lord seeth not.

Amos ix. 2. Though they dig into hell, thence shall my hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down:

3. And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them.

(g) 1 Kings viii. 27. But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold, the heaven, and heaven of heavens, cannot contain thee; how much less this house that I have builded?

2 Chr. ii. 6. But who is able to build him an house, seeing the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain him? who am I then, that I should build him an house, save only to burn sacrifice before him?

Ps. cxlviii. 13. Let them praise the name of the Lord: for his name alone is excellent; his glory is above the earth and heaven.

Is. lxvi. 1. Thus saith the Lord, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?

25 I have (r) heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying, (s) I have dreamed, I have dreamed.

(r) Ps. cxxxix. 4. For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O Lord, thou knowest it altogether.

Jer. xxix. 23. Because they have committed villany in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them; even I know, and am a witness, saith the Lord.

Luke xii. 3. Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear, in closets, shall be proclaimed upon the house-tops.

1 Cor. iv. 5. Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God.

Heb. iv. 13. Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

(s) Num. xii. 6. And he said, Hear now my words: if there be a prophet among you, I the Lord will make myself known unto him, and will speak unto him in a dream.

Joel ii. 28. And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions.

Matt. i. 20. But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife; for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

26 (t) How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? yea, they are (u) prophets of the deceit of their own heart;

(t) Ps. iv. 2. O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame? how long will ye love vanity, and seek after leasing?

Hos. viii. 5. Thy calf, O Samaria, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them; how long will it be ere they attain to innocency?

Acts xiii. 10. And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

(u) Is. xxx. 10. Which say to the seers, See not: and to the prophets, Prophesy not unto us right things; speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits.

1 Tim. iv. 1. Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;

2. Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron.

2 Tim. iv. 3. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers having itching ears.

27 Which (x) think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams, which they tell every man to his neighbour, as their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal.

(x) Deut. xiii. 1. If there arise among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and giveth thee a sign or a wonder,

2. And the sign or the wonder come to pass, whereof he spake unto thee, saying, Let us go after other gods, which thou hast not known, and let us serve them;

3. Thou shalt not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams: for the Lord your God proveth you, to know whether ye love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

4. Ye shall walk after the Lord your God, and fear him, and keep his commandments, and obey his voice, and ye shall serve him and cleave unto him.

5. And that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams, shall be put to death; because he hath spoken to turn you away from the Lord your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, to thrust thee out of the way which the Lord thy God commanded thee to walk in. So shalt thou put the evil away from the midst of thee.

Acts xiii. 8. But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

2 Tim. ii. 17. And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hymeneus and Philetus;

18. Who concerning the truth have erred; saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

28 The prophet that hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him (y) speak my word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? saith the LORD.

(y) Prov. xiv. 5. A faithful witness will not lie: but a false witness will utter lies.

Matt. xxiv. 45. Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?

1 Cor. iv. 2. Moreover, it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

2 Cor. ii. 17. For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, speak we in Christ.

1 Tim. i. 12. And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry.

29 Is not my word (z) like as a fire? saith the LORD; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces?

(z) Luke xxiv. 32. And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

John vi. 63. It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

Acts ii. 3. And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

37. Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?

Heb. iv. 12. For the word of God is quick and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

Rev. xi. 5. And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies; and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

30 Therefore, behold, (a) I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that steal my words every one from his neighbour.

(a) Lev. xx. 3. And I will set my face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people, because he hath given of his seed unto Molech, to defile my sanctuary, and to profane my holy name.

xxvi. 17. And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be slain before your enemies: they that hate you shall reign over you; and ye shall flee when none pursueth you.

Deut. xxix. 20. The Lord will not spare him, but then the anger of the Lord and his jealousy shall smoke against that man, and all the curses that are written in this book shall lie upon him, and the Lord shall blot out his name from under heaven.

Ps. xxxiv. 16. The face of the Lord is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

Ez. xiii. 8. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, saith the Lord God.

xv. 7. And I will set my face against them;

they shall go out from one fire, and another fire shall devour them; and ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I set my face against them.

1 Pet. iii. 12. For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil.

31 Behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that use their tongues, and say, He saith.

32 Behold, I am against them that prophesy false dreams, saith the LORD, and do tell them, and (b) cause my people to err by their lies, (c) and by their lightness; yet I sent them not, nor commanded them: (d) therefore they shall not profit this people at all, saith the LORD.

(b) Deut. xviii. 20. But the prophet which shall presume to speak a word in my name which I have not commanded him to speak, or that shall speak in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die.

Zech. xiii. 2. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered; and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.

3. And it shall come to pass, that when any shall yet prophesy, then his father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of the Lord: and his father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth.

Rev. xix. 20. And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire, burning with brimstone.

(c) Zeph. iii. 4. Her prophets are light and treacherous persons; her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law.

(d) Lam. ii. 14. Thy prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee; and they have not discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens, and causes of banishment.

Matt. xv. 14. Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

33 ¶ And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, saying, (e) What is the burden of the LORD? thou shalt then say unto them, What burden? (f) I will even forsake you, saith the LORD.

(e) Is. xliii. 1. The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz did see.

xiv. 28. In the year that king Ahaz died, was this burden.

Nah. i. 1. The burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nabum the Elkoshite.

Hab. i. 1. The burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see.

(f) Deut. xxxi. 17. Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall befall them; so that they will say in that day, Are not these evils come upon us, because our God is not among us?

18. And I will surely hide my face in that day for all the evils which they shall have wrought, in that they are turned unto other gods.

xxxii. 19. And when the Lord saw it, he abhorred them, because of the provoking of his sons and of his daughters.

20. And he said, I will hide my face from them, I will see what their end shall be: for they are a very froward generation, children in whom is no faith.

Ps. lxxviii. 59. When God heard this, he was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel:

60. So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent which he placed among men.

Hos. ix. 12. Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yea, wo also to them when I depart from them!

34 And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, The burden of the LORD: I will even punish that man and his house.

35 Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, What hath the LORD answered? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

36 And the burden of the LORD shall ye mention no more: (g) for every man's word shall be his burden: (h) for ye have perverted the words (i) of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God.

(g) Ps. lxxiv. 8. So they shall make their own tongue to fall upon themselves: all that see them shall flee away.

cxl. 9. As for the head of those that compass me about, let the mischief of their own lips cover them.

Matt. xii. 36. But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.

Jude 15. To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

16. These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons in admiration because of advantage.

(h) Is. xxviii. 13. But the word of the Lord was unto them, precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.

14. Wherefore, hear the word of the Lord, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem.

2 Pet. iii. 16. As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

(i) Deut. v. 26. For who is there of all flesh that hath heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived?

1 Sam. xvii. 26. And David spake to the men that stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the reproach from Israel? for who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God?

36. Thy servant slew both the lion and the bear; and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he hath defied the armies of the living God.

Acts xiv. 15. And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you, that ye should turn from these vanities, unto the living God, which made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein.

1 Thess. i. 9. For they themselves show of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God.

37 Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, What hath the LORD answered thee? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

38 But since ye say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus saith the LORD; Because ye say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye shall not say, The burden of the LORD;

39 Therefore, behold, (k) I, even I, will utterly forget you, and I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and cast you out of my presence.

(k) Gen. vi. 17. And, behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven; and every thing that is in the earth shall die.

Lev. xxvi. 28. Then I will walk contrary unto you also in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins.

Deut. xxxii. 39. See now, that I, even I, am he, and there is no god with me: I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal: neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand.

Is. xlvi. 15. I, even I, have spoken; yea, I have called him; I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous.

Ez. v. 8. Therefore thus saith the Lord God. Behold, I, even I, am against thee, and will execute judgments in the midst of thee, in the sight of the nations.

Hos. v. 14. For I will be unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

40 And I will bring (l) an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

(l) Deut. xxviii. 37. And thou shalt become an astonishment, a proverb, and a by-word, among all nations whither the Lord shall lead thee.

Jer. xxiv. 9. And I will deliver them to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.

Ez. v. 14. Moreover, I will make thee waste, and a reproach among the nations that are round about thee, in the sight of all that pass by.

15. So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment unto the nations that are round about thee, when I shall execute judgments in thee, in anger, and in fury, and in furious rebukes. I the Lord have spoken it.

Dan. ix. 16. O Lord, according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us.

xii. 2. And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

CHAPTER XXIV.

THE (a) LORD showed me, and, behold, (b) two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD, (c) after that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters (d) and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.

(a) Amos iii. 7. Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.

Zech. i. 20. And the Lord showed me four carpenters.

iii. 1. And he showed me Joshua, the high priest, standing before the angel of the Lord, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him.

(b) Deut. xxvi. 2. That thou shalt take of the first of all the fruit of the earth, which thou shalt bring of thy land that the Lord thy God giveth thee, and shalt put it in a basket, and shalt go unto the place which the Lord thy God shall choose to place his name there.

3. And thou shalt go unto the priest that shall be in those days, and say unto him, I profess this day unto the Lord thy God, that I am come unto the country which the Lord sware unto our fathers for to give us.

4. And the priest shall take the basket out of thy hand, and set it down before the altar of the Lord thy God.

(c) 2 Chr. xxxvii. 10. And when the year was expired, king Nebuchadrezzar sent and brought him to Babylon, with the goodly vessels of the house of the Lord, and made Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.

Jer. xxix. 2. After that Jeconiah the king, and the queen, and the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the carpenters, and the smiths, were departed from Jerusalem.

(d) 1 Sam. xiii. 19. Now there was no smith found throughout all the land of Israel; (for the Philistines said, Lest the Hebrews make them swords or spears;)

20. But all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his share, and his coulter, and his axe, and his mattock.

2 One (e) basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe: and the other basket had (f) very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad.

(e) Hos. ix. 10. I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the first ripe in the fig-tree at her first time: but they went to Baal-peor, and separated themselves unto that shame; and their abominations were according as they loved.

Mic. vii. 1. Wo is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer-fruits, as the grape-gleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat: my soul desired the first ripe fruit.

(f) Is. v. 4. What could have been done more to my vineyard that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?

7. For the vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgment, but behold, oppression; for righteousness, but behold, a cry.

Matt. v. 13. Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

3 Then said the LORD unto me, What seest thou, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

4 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Like these good figs, so will I (g) acknowledge them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans (h) for their good.

(g) Nah. i. 7. The Lord is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him.

Matt. xxv. 12. But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.

John x. 27. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.

1 Cor. viii. 3. But if any man love God, the same is known of him.

(h) Deut. viii. 5. Thou shalt also consider in thy heart, that, as a man chasteneth his son, so the Lord thy God chasteneth thee.

16. Who fed thee in the wilderness with manna, which thy fathers knew not, that he might humble thee, and that he might prove thee, to do thee good at thy latter end.

Ps. cxix. 67. Before I was afflicted I went astray; but now have I kept thy word.

Rom. viii. 28. And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

Rev. iii. 19. As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

6 For (i) I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and (k) I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

(i) Deut. xi. 12. A land which the Lord thy God careth for: the eyes of the Lord thy God are always upon it, from the beginning of the year even unto the end of the year.

Neh. v. 19. Think upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

Job xxxiii. 27. He looketh upon men; and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not;

28. He will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.

Ps. xxxiv. 15. The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry.

1 Pet. iii. 12. For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil.

(k) Jer. xxix. 10. For thus saith the Lord, That after seventy years be accomplished at Babylon, I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place.

xxxii. 37. Behold, I will gather them out of all countries whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely.

Ez. xxxvi. 24. For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land.

7 And (l) I will give them an heart to know me, that I am the LORD: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: (m) for they shall return unto me with their whole heart.

(l) Deut. xxx. 6. And the Lord thy God will circumcise thy heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live.

Ez. xi. 19. And I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you: and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh;

20. That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

(m) Deut. iv. 29. But if from thence thou shalt seek the Lord thy God, thou shalt find him, if thou seek him with all thy heart and with all thy soul.

30. When thou art in tribulation, and all these things are come upon thee, even in the latter days, if thou turn to the Lord thy God, and shalt be obedient unto his voice,

31. (For the Lord thy God is a merciful God,) he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers, which he sware unto them.

1 Sam. vii. 3. And Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye do return unto the Lord with all your hearts, then put away the strange gods and Ashtaroth from among you, and prepare your hearts unto the Lord, and serve him only; and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.

8 And as the evil figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil; surely thus saith the LORD, (n) So will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and (o) them that dwell in the land of Egypt:

(n) Jer. xxxii. 28. Therefore, thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it.

29. And the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and set fire on this city, and burn it, with the houses upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink-offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger.

xxxvii. 17. Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took him out; and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from the Lord? And Jeremiah said, There is: for, said he, thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.

(o) Jer. xliii. 11. And when he cometh, he shall smite the land of Egypt, and deliver such as are for death, to death; and such as are for captivity, to captivity; and such as are for the sword to the sword.

12. And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captives; and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence in peace.

xliv. 1. The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews which dwell in the land of Egypt, which dwell at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Noph, and in the country of Pathros, saying.

9 And I will deliver them to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, (p) to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and (q) a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.

(p) 1 Kings ix. 7. Then will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them: and this house, which I have hallowed for my name, will I cast out of my sight; and Israel shall be a proverb and a by-word among all people.

2 Chr. vii. 20. Then will I pluck them out by the roots out of my land which I have given them: and this house, which I have sanctified for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it to be a proverb and a by-word among all nations.

Ps. xlv. 14. Thou makest us a by-word among the heathen, a shaking of the head among the people.

Ex. xxvi. 2. Son of man, because that Tyrus hath said against Jerusalem, Aha, she is broken that was the gates of the people; she is turned unto me; I shall be replenished, now she is laid waste.

(q) Ps. cix. 18. As he clothed himself with cursing, like as with his garment, so let it come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones.

19. Let it be unto him as the garment which covereth him, and for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually.

Is. lxxv. 15. And ye shall leave your name for a curse unto my chosen: for the Lord God shall slay thee, and call his servants by another name.

10 And I (r) will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave unto them and to their fathers.

(r) Is. li. 19. These two things are come unto thee; who shall be sorry for thee? desolation, and destruction, and the famine, and the sword: by whom shall I comfort thee?

Jer. xvi. 4. They shall die of grievous deaths: they shall not be lamented, neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their carcasses shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

Ez. vii. 15. The sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within: he that is in the field shall die with the sword; and he that is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him.

xxxiii. 27. Say thou thus unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, As I live, surely they that are in the wastes shall fall by the sword; and him that is in the open field will I give to the beasts to be devoured; and they that be in the forts, and in the caves, shall die of the pestilence.

CHAPTER XXV.

THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, (a) in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon:

(a) 2 Kings xxiv. 1. In his days Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant three years; then he turned and rebelled against him.

Dan. i. 1. In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it.

2 The which Jeremiah the prophet (b) spake unto all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,

(b) Ps. xlix. 1. Hear this, all ye people; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world:

2. Both low and high, rich and poor, together.

3 From (c) the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even unto this day, that is, in the three and twentieth year, the word of the LORD hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, (d) rising early and speaking; but ye have not hearkened.

(c) 1 Kings xxii. 3. For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images.

(d) Ex. viii. 20. And the Lord said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh (lo, he cometh forth to the water) and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

Mark i. 35. And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.

John viii. 2. And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him, and he sat down, and taught them.

2 Tim. iv. 2. Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine.

4 And the LORD hath sent unto you all his servants, the prophets, rising early and sending them; but (e) ye have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear.

(e) Zech. vii. 11. But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

12. Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant-stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the Lord of hosts hath sent in his spirit by the former prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the Lord of hosts.

Heb. xii. 25. See that ye refuse not him that speaketh: for if they escaped not, who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven.

5 They said, Turn ye again now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD hath given unto you, and to your fathers, (f) for ever and ever:

(f) Gen. xvii. 8. And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God.

Ps. xxxvii. 27. Depart from evil, and do good, and dwell for evermore.

cv. 10. And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant;

11. Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance.

6 And (g) go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt.

(g) Deut. vi. 14. Ye shall not go after other gods, of the gods of the people which are round about you.

viii. 19. And it shall be, if thou do at all forget the Lord thy God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I testify against you this day, that ye shall surely perish.

7 Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the LORD; that ye might provoke me to anger with the works of your hands, to your own hurt.

8 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; Because ye have not heard my words,

9 Behold, (h) I will send and take all the families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations.

(h) Is. xxxix. 7. And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

10 Moreover, I will take from them the (i) voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, (k) the sound of the millstones, and the light of the candle.

(i) Ez. xxvi. 13. And I will cause the noise of thy songs to cease; and the sound of thy harps shall be no more heard.

Hos. ii. 11. I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast-days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.

Rev. xviii. 22. And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee;

23. And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the brides shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

(k) Ec. xii. 4. And the doors shall be shut in the streets when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird; and all the daughters of music shall be brought low.

11 And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

12 And it shall come to pass, (l) when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, and will make it (m) perpetual desolations.

(l) Dan. ix. 2. In the first year of his reign, I Daniel understood by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.

(m) Is. xliii. 19. And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.

xiv. 23. I will also make it a possession for the bittern, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the Lord of hosts.

xlvii. 1. Come down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate.

Ez. xxxv. 9. I will make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not return; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

13 And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah hath prophesied against all the nations.

14 For (n) many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of them also: and (o) I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands.

(n) Is. xiv. 2. And the people shall take them and bring them to their place; and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the Lord for servants and handmaids: and they shall take them captives, whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors.

Dan. v. 28. PERES; Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.

(o) Ps. cxxxvii. 8. O daughter of Babylon, who art to be destroyed; happy shall he be that rewardeth thee as thou hast served us.

Is. lxvi. 6. A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the Lord that rendereth recompense to his enemies.

15 ¶ For thus saith the LORD God of Israel unto me; (p) Take the wine-cup of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations to whom I send thee to drink it.

(p) Job xxi. 20. His eyes shall see his destruction, and he shall drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

Ps. xi. 6. Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.

lxxv. 8. For in the hand of the Lord there is a cup, and the wine is red; it is full of mixture; and he poureth out of the same: but the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them.

Is. li. 17. Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which hast drunk at the hand of the Lord the cup of his fury: thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out.

Rev. xiv. 19. And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great wine-press of the wrath of God.

16 And they shall (q) drink, and be moved, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.

(q) Lam. iii. 15. He hath filled me with bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood.

iv. 21. Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of Uz: the cup also shall pass through unto thee; thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked.

Nah. iii. 11. Thou also shalt be drunken: thou shalt be hid, thou also shalt seek strength because of the enemy.

Rev. xiv. 8. And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

17 Then took I the cup at the LORD's hand, and made all the nations to drink, unto whom the LORD had sent me:

18 To wit, (r) Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, an hissing, and a curse; (s) as it is this day;

(r) Ps. lx. 3. Thou hast showed thy people hard things; thou hast made us to drink the wine of astonishment.

Dan. ix. 12. And he hath confirmed his word, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil; for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

Amos ii. 5. But I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

iii. 2. You only have I known of all the families of the earth: therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities.

1 Pet. iv. 17. For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

(s) 1 Kings viii. 24. Who hast kept with thy servant David, my father, that thou promisedst him: thou spakest also with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day.

Neh. ix. 36. Behold, we are servants this day; and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers, to eat the fruit thereof, and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it.

19 Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people;

20 And all the mingled people, and all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Azzah, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod,

21 Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon,

22 And all the kings of Tyrus, and all the kings of Zidon, and the kings of the isles which are beyond the sea,

23 Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all that are in the utmost corners,

24 And all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mingled people that dwell in the desert,

25 And all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes,

26 And all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth: and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them.

27 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; (t) Drink ye, and be drunken, and spew, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.

(t) Lam. iv. 21. Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of Uz: the cup also shall pass through unto thee; thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked.

Hab. ii. 16. Thou art filled with shame for glory: drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered: the cup of the Lord's right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on thy glory.

28 And it shall be, (u) if they refuse to take the cup at thine hand to drink, then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Ye shall certainly drink.

(u) Job xxxiv. 33. Should it be according to thy mind? he will recompense it, whether thou refuse, or whether thou choose; and not I: therefore speak what thou knowest.

29 For, lo, (x) I begin to bring evil on the city which is called by my name, and should ye be utterly unpunished? (y) Ye shall not be unpunished: for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the LORD of hosts.

(x) Ez. ix. 6. Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women; but come not near any man upon whom is the mark: and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house.

1 Pet. iv. 17. For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

(y) Prov. xi. 21. Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered.

xvii. 5. Whoso mocketh the poor reproacheth his Maker; and he that is glad at calamities shall not be unpunished.

30 Therefore prophesy thou against them all these words, and say unto them, The LORD shall roar from on high, and utter his voice from (z) his holy habitation; he shall mightily roar upon his habitation; he shall give a shout, as they that tread the grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth.

(z) Deut. xxvi. 15. Look down from thy holy habitation, from heaven, and bless thy people Israel, and the land which thou hast given us, as thou swarest unto our fathers, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

Ps. xi. 4. The Lord is in his holy temple, the Lord's throne is in heaven: his eyes behold, his eyelids try the children of men.

lxviii. 5. A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows, is God in his holy habitation.

Zeck. ii. 13. Be silent, O all flesh, before the Lord; for he is raised up out of his holy habitation.

31 A noise shall come even to the ends of the earth; for the LORD hath a controversy with the nations, he will plead with all flesh; he will give them that are wicked to the sword, saith the LORD.

32 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great whirlwind shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

33 And the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.

34 ¶ Howl, ye shepherds, and cry; and wallow yourselves in the ashes, ye principal of the flock: for the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are accomplished: and ye shall fall like a pleasant vessel.

35 And the shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor the principal of the flock to escape.

36 A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and an howling of the principal of the flock shall be heard: for the LORD hath spoiled their pasture.

37 And the peaceable habitations are cut down, because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

38 He hath forsaken his covert, as the lion; for their land is desolate because of the fierceness of the oppressor, and because of his fierce anger.

CHAPTER XXVI.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, came this word from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD; (a) Stand in the court of the LORD's house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah which come to worship in the LORD's house, (b) all the words that I command thee to speak unto them; (c) diminish not a word:

(a) Luke xxi. 37. And in the day-time he was teaching in the temple; and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Olives.

38. And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, for to hear him.

John viii. 2. And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.

xviii. 20. Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

Acts v. 20. Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.

(b) Matt. xxviii. 20. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

Acts xx. 20. And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have showed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house.

27. For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.

(c) Deut. iv. 2. Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish aught from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the Lord your God which I command you.

xii. 32. What thing soever I command you, observe to do it: thou shalt not add thereto, nor diminish from it.

Rev. xxii. 19. And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophesy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

3 If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may repent me of the evil, which I purpose to do unto them, because of the evil of their doings.

4 And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; If ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law, (d) which I have set before you,

(d) Deut. iv. 8. And what nation is there so great, that hath statutes and judgments so righteous, as all this law which I set before you this day?

44. And this is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel.

xi. 32. And ye shall observe to do all the statutes and judgments which I set before you this day.

Heb. vi. 18. That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge, to lay hold upon the hope set before us.

5 To hearken to the words of (e) my servants the prophets, whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened;

(e) 2 Kings ix. 7. And thou shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master, that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the Lord, at the hand of Jezebel.

xxiv. 2. And the Lord sent against him bands of the Chaldees, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake by his servants the prophets.

Ezra ix. 11. Which thou hast commanded by thy servants the prophets, saying, The land unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their uncleanness.

Amos iii. 7. Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but he reveals his secret unto his servants the prophets.

Rev. x. 7. But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he gr declared to his servants the prophets.

¶ Then will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city (f) a curse to all the nations of the earth.

(f) Is. xliii. 28. Therefore I have profaned the princes of the sanctuary, and have given Jacob to the curse, and Israel to reproaches.

Ixv. 15. And ye shall leave your name for a curse unto my chosen; for the Lord God shall slay thee, and call his servants by another name.

Dan. ix. 11. Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

Mal. iv. 6. And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

7 So the priests, and the prophets, and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

8 Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests, and the prophets, and all the people took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.

9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? (g) And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

(g) Matt. xxvii. 20. But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude, that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

Mark xv. 11. But the chief priests moved the people that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.

Acts xliii. 50. But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

xxi. 30. And all the city was moved, and the people ran together, and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.

10 ¶ When the princes of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house unto the house of the LORD, and sat down in the entry of (h) the new gate of the LORD's house.

(h) 2 Kings xv. 35. Howbeit, the high places were not removed: the people sacrificed and burnt incense still in the high places. He built the higher gate of the house of the Lord.

11 Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes and to all the people, (i) saying, This man is worthy to die: (k) for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears.

(i) Deut. xviii. 20. But the prophet which shall presume to speak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or that shall speak in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die.

Matt. xxvi. 66. What think ye? They answered and said, He is guilty of death.

John xviii. 30. They answered and said unto him, If we were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

xix. 7. The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.

(k) Acts vi. 11. Then they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.

12. And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,

13. And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law:

14. For we have heard him say, That this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered us.

12 Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes, and to all the people, saying, (l) The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house, and against this city, all the words that ye have heard.

(l) Acts iv. 19. But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God, to hearken unto you, more than unto God, judge ye.

v. 29. Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men.

13 Therefore now amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.

14 (m) As for me, behold, I am in your hand: do with me as seemeth good and meet unto you:

(m) Josh. ix. 25. And now, behold, we are in thine hand: as it seemeth good and right unto thee to do unto us, do.

15 But know ye for certain, that if ye put me to death, (n) ye shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the LORD hath sent me unto you, to speak all these words in your ears.

(n) Gen. xlii. 22. And Reuben answered them, saying, Spake I not unto you, saying, Do not sin against the child? and ye would not hear; therefore, behold, also his blood is required.

Num. xxxv. 33. So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye are; for blood it defileth the land: and the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it.

Deut. xix. 10. That innocent blood be not shed in thy land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and so blood be upon thee.

2 Kings xxiv. 4. And also for the innocent blood that he shed: for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; which the Lord would not pardon.

Prov. vi. 17. A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood.

1 Thess. ii. 15. Who both killed the Lord Jesus and their own prophets; and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men;

16. Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles, that they might be saved, to fill up their sin alway: for the wrath is come upon them.

16 Then said (o) the princes and all the people unto the priests, and to the prophets, This man is not worthy to die: for he hath spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.

(o) Prov. xvi. 7. When a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.

Matt. xxvii. 23. And the governor said, Why? what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24. When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person; see ye to it.

Acts xxvi. 31. And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds.

17 Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, saying,

18 (p) Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Zion shall be ploughed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and (q) the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.

(p) Mic. i. 1. The word of the Lord that came to Micah the Morasthite, in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

(q) Is. ii. 2. And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.

Zech. viii. 3. Thus saith the Lord, I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and Jerusalem shall be called, A city of truth; and the mountain of the Lord of hosts, The holy mountain.

19 Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him at all to death? did he not fear the LORD, and besought the LORD, and the LORD repented him of the evil which he had pronounced against them? (r) Thus might we procure great evil against our souls.

(r) Num. xvi. 38. The censers of these sinners against their own souls, let them make them broad plates for a covering of the altar; for they offered them before the Lord, therefore they are hallowed: and they shall be a sign unto the children of Israel.

Is. xxvi. 21. For, behold, the Lord cometh out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain.

Lam. iv. 13. For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her,

14. They have wandered as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood, so that men could not touch their garments.

Acts v. 39. But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God.

20 ¶ And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath-jearim, who prophesied against this city, and against this land, according to all the words of Jeremiah:

21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, (s) the king sought to put him to death: but when Urijah heard it, (t) he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt;

(s) 2 Chr. xvi. 10. Then Asa was wroth with the seer, and put him in a prison house: for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. And Asa oppressed some of the people the same time.

Math. xiv. 5. And, when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.

Mark vi. 19. Therefore Herodias had a quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could not.

(t) Prov. xxix. 25. The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord shall be safe.

Math. x. 23. But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel till the Son of man be come.

28. And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

39. He that findeth his life shall lose it; and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it.

xvi. 26. For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

22 And Jehoiakim the king sent (u) men into Egypt, namely, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him, into Egypt.

(u) Ps. xii. 8. The wicked walk on every side, when the vilest men are exalted.

Prov. xxix. 12. If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked.

23 And they fetched forth Urijah out of Egypt, and brought him unto Jehoiakim the king; who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.

24 ¶ Nevertheless, the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, (x) that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

(x) 1 Kings xviii. 4. For it was so, when Jezebel cut off the prophets of the Lord, that Obadiah took an hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.

Acts xxiii. 10. And when there arose a great dissention, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled on pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

xxv. 3. And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him.

4. But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

xxvii. 43. But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose, and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land.

CHAPTER XXVII.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, came this word unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD to me; Make thee bonds and yokes, and put them upon thy neck,

3 And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyrus, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah;

4 And command them to say unto their masters, Thus saith (a) the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Thus shall ye say unto your masters;

(a) Ex. v. 1. And afterward Moses and Aaron went in and told Pharaoh, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Let my people go, that they may hold a feast unto me in the wilderness.

5 I have (b) made the earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power, and by my out-stretched arm, (c) and have given it unto whom it meet unto me.

(b) Ex. xx. 11. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day; wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath-day, and hallowed it.

Ps. cii. 25. Of old hast thou laid the foundations of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

cxlvi. 5. Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the Lord his God:

6. Which made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that therein is; which keepeth truth for ever.

Is. xlii. 5. Thus saith God the Lord, he that created the heavens, and stretched them out; he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein.

Acts xvii. 24. God that made the world, and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands.

(c) Gen. i. 29. And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed: to you it shall be for meat.

30. And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so.

ix. 2. And the fear of you, and the dread of you, shall be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every fowl of the air, upon all that moveth upon the earth, and upon all the fishes of the sea; into your hand are they delivered.

3. Every moving thing that liveth, shall be meat for you; even as the green herb have I given you all things.

Deut. ii. 7. For the Lord thy God hath blessed thee in all the works of thy hand; he knoweth thy walking through this great wilderness: these forty years the Lord thy God hath been with thee; thou hast lacked nothing.

Ps. cxv. 16. The heaven, even the heavens, are the Lord's: but the earth hath he given to the children of men.

6 And now have (d) I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, (e) my servant: and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

(d) Don. ii. 37. Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

38. And whosoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field, and the fowls of the heaven, hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold.

(c) Is. xlv. 28. That saith of Cyrus, He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure; even saying to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built; and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid.

7 And (f) all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, (g) until the very time of his land come: and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him.

(f) 2 Chr. xxxvi. 20. And them that had escaped from the sword carried he away to Babylon, where they were servants to him and his sons, until the reign of the kingdom of Persia:

21. To fulfil the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths: for as long as she lay desolate she kept sabbath, to fulfil threescore and ten years.

(g) Ps. xxxvii. 13. The Lord shall laugh at him, for he seeth that his day is coming.

xxxvii. 8. O daughter of Babylon, who art to be destroyed; happy shall he be that rewardeth thee as thou hast served us.

9. Happy shall he be that taketh and dasheth thy little ones against the stones.

8 And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, (h) with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.

(h) Ex. xiv. 21. For thus saith the Lord God, How much more when I send my four sore judgments upon Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the noisome beast, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and beast?

9 Therefore, (i) hearken not ye to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your sorcerers, which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon:

(i) Ex. vii. 11. Then Pharaoh also called the wise men and the sorcerers: now the magicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their enchantments.

Deut. xviii. 14. For these nations which thou shalt possess hearkened unto observers of times, and unto diviners: but as for thee, the Lord thy God hath not suffered thee so to do.

10 For they prophesy a lie unto you, (k) to remove you far from your land; and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish.

(k) Lam. ii. 14. Thy prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee; and they have not discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens and causes of banishment.

11 But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

12 ¶ I spake also to Zedekiah king of Judah, according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live.

13 (l) Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

(l) Prov. viii. 36. But he that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul; all they that hate me love death.

Ez. xviii. 24. But when the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? All his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned: in his trespass, that he hath trespassed, and in his sin, that he hath sinned, in them shall he die.

xxxiii. 11. Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye, from your evil ways: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

14 Therefore hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you.

15 For I have not sent them, saith the LORD, yet they prophesy a lie in my name; (m) that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, (n) ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto you.

(m) 2 Chr. xxv. 16. And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said unto him, Art thou made of the king's counsel? forbear; why shouldst thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbore, and said, I know that God hath determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.

Matt. xxiv. 24. For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders; insomuch, that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

2 Tim. iv. 3. For the time will come, when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

4. And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

(n) Matt. xv. 14. Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

Rev. xix. 20. And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire, burning with brimstone.

16 Also I spake to the priests, and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Hearken not to the words of your prophets that prophesy unto you, saying, (o) Behold, the vessels of the LORD's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you.

(o) 2 Kings xxiv. 13. And he carried out thence all the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the Lord, as the Lord had said.

Dan. i. 2. And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God, which he carried into the land of Shinar, to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the treasure-house of his god.

17 Hearken not unto them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: wherefore should this city be laid waste?

18 But if they be prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, (p) let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon.

(p) Gen. xx. 17. So Abraham prayed unto God; and God healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his maid-servants; and they bare children.

1 Sam. vii. 8. And the children of Israel said to Samuel, Cease not to cry unto the Lord our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistines.

Mal. i. 9. And now I pray you, beseech God that he will be gracious unto us; this hath been by your means: will he regard your persons? saith the Lord of hosts.

19 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that remain in this city,

20 Which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem;

21 Yea, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem;

22 They shall be (q) carried to Babylon, and there shall they be until the day that I visit them, saith the LORD; (r) then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place.

(q) 2 Chr. xxxvi. 18. And all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes; all these he brought to Babylon.

(r) Ezra i. 7. Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of the Lord, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his gods.

11. All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these did Sheshbazzar bring up with them of the captivity that were brought up from Babylon unto Jerusalem.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

AND it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azur (a) the prophet, which was of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying,

(a) Is. ix. 15. The ancient and honourable, he is the head: and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail.

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.

3 Within two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, (b) that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon:

(b) 2 Chr. xxxvi. 10. And when the year was expired, king Nebuchadnezzar sent and brought him to Babylon, with the goodly vessels of the house of the Lord, and made Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.

4 And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, that went into Babylon, saith the LORD: for (c) I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

(c) Gen. xxvii. 40. And by thy sword shalt thou live, and shalt serve thy brother: and it shall come to pass, when thou shalt have the dominion, that thou shalt break his yoke from off thy neck.

Is. ix. 4. For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of Midian.

Nah. i. 13. For now will I break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bands in sunder.

5 Then the prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah, in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people, that stood in the house of the LORD;

6 Even the prophet Jeremiah said, (d) Amen: the LORD do so: the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD's house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place.

(d) Num. v. 22. And this water that causeth the curse shall go into thy bowels, to make thy belly to swell, and thy thigh to rot. And the woman shall say, Amen, amen.

1 Kings i. 36. And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, answered the king, and said, Amen: the Lord God of my lord the king say so too.

Ps. xli. 13. Blessed be the Lord God of Israel from everlasting, and to everlasting. Amen, and amen.

Matt. vi. 13. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

1 Cor. xiv. 16. Else, when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say, Amen, at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

2 Cor. i. 20. For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

Rev. i. 18. I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death.

iii. 14. And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true Witness, the beginning of the creation of God.

v. 14. And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

7 Nevertheless, hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people;

8 The prophets, that have been before me and before thee of old, prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence.

9 The prophet which prophesied of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known that the LORD hath truly sent him.

10 ¶ Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and brake it.

11 And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations, within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

12 Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the prophet, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, 13 Go, and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD; (e) Thou hast broken the yokes of wood; but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron.

(e) Ps. cxlix. 8. To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and they shall serve him: and I have given him the beasts of the field also.

15 ¶ Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah; (f) The LORD hath not sent thee, but thou makest this people to trust in a lie.

(f) 1 Kings xxii. 23. Now, therefore, behold, the Lord hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets, and the Lord hath spoken evil concerning thee.

Ez. xiii. 2. Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel that prophesy, and say thou unto them that prophesy out of their own hearts, Hear ye the word of the Lord;

3. Thus saith the Lord God, Wo unto the foolish prophets that follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing!

22. Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life.

xxii. 28. And her prophets have daubed them with untempered mortar, seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord God, when the Lord hath not spoken.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, (g) I will cast thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, because thou hast taught rebellion against the LORD.

(g) Gen. vii. 4. For yet seven days, and I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights: and every living substance that I have made will I destroy from off the face of the earth.

Ez. xxxii. 12. Wherefore should the Egyptians speak, and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against thy people.

Deut. vi. 15. (For the Lord thy God is a jealous God among you;) lest the anger of the Lord thy God be kindled against thee, and destroy thee from off the face of the earth.

1 Kings xiii. 34. And this thing became sin unto the house of Jeroboam, even to cut it off, and to destroy it from off the face of the earth.

Amos ix. 8. Behold, the eyes of the Lord God are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the Lord.

17 So (h) Hananiah the prophet died the same year, in the seventh month.

(h) Is. xlv. 26. That confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers: that saith to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be inhabited; and to the cities of Judah, Ye shall be built; and I will raise up the decayed places thereof.

CHAPTER XXIX.

NOW these are the words (a) of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of the elders which were carried away captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon;

(a) Esth. ix. 20. And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far.

Acts xv. 23. And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles, and elders, and brethren, send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch, and Syria, and Cilicia.

2 Cor. vii. 8. For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

Gal. vi. 11. Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.

Heb. xiii. 22. And I beseech you, brethren, suffer the word of exhortation; for I have written a letter unto you in few words.

2 (After that Jeconiah the king, and the queen, and the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the carpenters, and the smiths, were departed from Jerusalem;)

3 By the hand of Elasah the son Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiyah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon,) saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon;

5 Build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them;

6 (b) Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and (c) take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; that ye may be increased there, and not diminished.

(b) Gen. i. 27. So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

28. And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

ix. 7. And you, be ye fruitful, and multiply, bring forth abundantly in the earth, and multiply therein.

1 Tim. v. 14. I will, therefore, that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

(c) Gen. xxi. 21. And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran: and his mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

xxiv. 3. And I will make thee swear by the Lord, the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites; among whom I dwell:

4. But thou shalt go unto my country, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son Isaac.

Judg. xiv. 2. And he came up, and told his father and his mother, and said, I have seen a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines; now, therefore, get her for me to wife.

7 And seek the peace of the city, whither I have caused you to be carried away captives; and pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace.

8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Let not your prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed.

9 For they prophesy falsely unto you in my name: I have not sent them, saith the LORD.

10 For thus saith the LORD, That after seventy years be accomplished at Babylon, I will visit you, and perform my good word towards you, in causing you to return to this place.

11 For (d) I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.

(d) Job xxiii. 13. But he is in one mind, and who can turn him? and what his soul desireth, even that he doeth.

Ps. xxxiii. 11. The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

Is. xlvi. 10. Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure:

11. Calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man that executeth my counsel from a far country; yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it.

Mic. iv. 12. But they know not the thoughts of the Lord, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor.

12 Then (e) shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you.

(e) Ps. x. 17. Lord, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear.

1. 15. And call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

Is. lxxv. 24. And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.

Ez. xxxvi. 37. Thus saith the Lord God, I will yet for this be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them; I will increase them with men like a flock.

13 And (f) ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me (g) with all your heart.

(f) Ps. xci. 15. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him; and honour him.

Is. lv. 6. Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near.

7. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

Hos. v. 15. I will go and return to my place till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early.

Luke xi. 9. And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

10. For every one that asketh, receiveth; and he that seeketh, findeth; and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened.

(g) Deut. xxx. 2. And shalt return unto the Lord thy God, and shalt obey his voice according to all that I command thee this day, thou, and thy children, with all thine heart, and with all thy soul.

10. If thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which are written in this book of the law, and if thou turn unto the Lord thy God, with all thine heart, and with all thy soul.

Ps. cxix. 2. Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, and that seek him with the whole heart.

10. With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wander from thy commandments.

145. I cried with my whole heart; hear me, O Lord: I will keep thy statutes.

Joel ii. 12. Therefore also now, saith the Lord, Turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning. Acts viii. 37. And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

14 And I will be found of you, saith the LORD: and I will turn away your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the LORD; and I will bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive.

15 Because ye have said, The LORD hath raised us up prophets in Babylon;

16 Know that thus saith the LORD, of the king that sitteth upon the throne of David, and of all the people that dwelleth in this city, and of your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captivity;

17 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

18 And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and (h) will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse, and an astonishment, and an hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations whither I have driven them.

(h) Deut. xxviii. 25. The Lord shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them; and shalt be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

64. And the Lord shall scatter thee among all the people, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone.

Ps. xlv. 11. Thou hast given us like sheep appointed for meat; and hast scattered us among the heathen.

Ez. xii. 15. And they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countries.

Zech. vii. 14. But I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not: thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned; for they laid the pleasant land desolate.

19 Because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the LORD, which I sent unto them by my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but ye would not hear, saith the LORD.

20 Hear ye therefore the word of the LORD, all ye of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon:

21 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, of Ahab, the son of Kolaiah, and of Zedekiah, the son of Maaseiah, which prophesy a lie unto you in my name; Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall slay them before your eyes;

22 And of them (i) shall be taken up a curse by all the captivity of Judah, which are in Babylon, saying, The LORD make thee like Zedekiah, and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon (k) roasted in the fire.

(i) Gen. xlviii. 20. And he blessed them that day, saying, In thee shall Israel bless, saying, God make thee as Ephraim, and as Manasseh. And he set Ephraim before Manasseh.

Ruth iv. 11. And all the people that were in the gate, and the elders, said, We are witnesses. The Lord make the woman that is come into thine house like Rachel and like Leah, which two did build the house of Israel: and do thou worthy in Ephratah, and be famous in Bethlehem.

Is. lxxv. 15. And ye shall leave your name for a curse unto my chosen: for the Lord God shall slay thee, and call his servants by another name.

1 Cor. xvi. 22. If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema Maranatha.

(k) Dan. iii. 6. And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

21. Then these men were bound in their coats, their hosen, and their hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

23 Because they have committed villany in Israel, and (l) have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them; (m) even I know, and am a witness, saith the LORD.

(l) Zeph. iii. 4. Her prophets are light and treacherous persons; her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law.

(m) Prov. v. 21. For the ways of a man are before the eyes of the Lord, and he pondereth all his goings.

Mal. ii. 14. Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the Lord hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

Heb. iv. 13. Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

Rev. i. 5. And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful Witness, and the first-begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood.

iii. 14. And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true Witness, the beginning of the creation of God.

24 ¶ Thus shalt thou also speak to Shemaiah the Nehelamite, saying,

25 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, (n) Because thou hast sent letters in thy name unto all people that are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah, the son of Maasciah the priest, and to all the priests, saying,

(n) 2 Kings xix. 14. And Hezekiah received the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the house of the Lord, and spread it before the Lord.

2 Chr. xxxii. 17. He wrote also letters to rail on the Lord God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand.

Neh. vi. 5. Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me, in like manner, the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand.

Acts ix. 2. And desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

26 The LORD hath made thee priest in the stead of Jehoiada the priest, that ye should be (o) officers in the house of the LORD, (p) for every man that is mad, (q) and maketh himself a prophet, (r) that thou shouldest put him in prison, and in the stocks:

(o) 2 Kings xi. 15. But Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of the hundreds, the officers of the host, and said unto them, Have her forth without the ranges; and him that followeth her kill with the sword. For the priest had said, Let her not be slain in the house of the Lord.

Acts iv. 1. And, as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees, came upon them.

(p) 2 Kings ix. 11. Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord: and one said unto him, Is all well? Wherefore came this mad fellow to thee? And he said unto them, Ye know the man, and his communication.

Hos. ix. 7. The days of visitation are come, the days of recompense are come; Israel shall know it: the prophet is a fool, the spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.

Mark iii. 21. And when his friends heard of it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, He is beside himself.

John x. 20. And many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?

Acts xxvi. 11. And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

24. And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad.

(q) Matt. xxi. 23. And, when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority?

John viii. 53. Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself?

x. 33. The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not, but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God.

(r) 2 Chr. xvi. 10. Then Asa was wroth with the seer, and put him in a prison-house: for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. And Asa oppressed some of the people the same time.

Acts v. 18. And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.

xvi. 24. Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.

Rev. ii. 10. Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried: and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.

27 Now (s) therefore why hast thou not reproved Jeremiah of Anathoth, (t) which maketh himself a prophet to you?

(s) Acts v. 28. Saying, Did not we straitly command you, that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.

40. And to him they agreed: and, when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

(t) Num. xvi. 3. And they gathered themselves together against Moses, and against Aaron, and said unto them, Ye take too much upon you, seeing all the congregation are holy, every one of them: and the Lord is among them: wherefore then lift ye up yourselves above the congregation of the Lord?

Matt. xxvii. 63. Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again.

28 For therefore he sent unto us in Babylon, saying, This captivity is long: build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

29 And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet.

30 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

31 Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Thus saith the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite; Because that Shemaiah hath prophesied unto you, and I sent him not, and he caused you to trust in a lie:

32 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, (u) I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed: (x) he shall not have a man to dwell among this people; neither shall he behold the good that I will do for my people, saith the LORD; because he hath taught rebellion against the LORD.

(u) Ex. xx. 5. Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me.

2 Kings v. 27. The leprosy, therefore, of Naaman shall cleave unto thee, and unto thy seed for ever. And he went out from his presence a leper as white as snow.

Is. xiv. 20. Thou shalt not be joined with them in burial, because thou hast destroyed thy land, and slain thy people: the seed of evil doers shall never be renowned.

22. For I will rise up against them, saith the Lord of hosts, and cut off from Babylon the name, and remnant, and son, and nephew, saith the Lord.

(x) 1 Sam. ii. 30. Wherefore the Lord God of Israel saith, I said indeed, that thy house, and the house of thy father, should walk before me for ever: but now the Lord saith, Be it far from me; for them that honour me I will honour, and they that despise me shall be lightly esteemed.

31. Behold, the days come that I will cut off thine arm, and the arm of thy father's house, that there shall not be an old man in thine house.

32. And thou shalt see an enemy in my habitation, in all the wealth which God shall give Israel: and there shall not be an old man in thine house for ever.

33. And the man of thine, whom I shall not cut off from mine altar, shall be to consume thine eyes, and to grieve thine heart: and all the increase of thine house shall die in the flower of their age.

34. And this shall be a sign unto thee, that shall come upon thy two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas; in one day they shall die both of them.

CHAPTER XXX.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD God of Israel, saying, (a) Write thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book.

(a) Ex. xvii. 14. And the Lord said unto Moses, Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua; for I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven.

Deut. xxxi. 19. Now, therefore, write ye this song for you, and teach it to the children of Israel: put it in their mouths, that this song may be a witness for me against the children of Israel.

Job xix. 23. O that my words were now written! Oh that they were printed in a book!

24. That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock for ever!

Is. viii. 1. Moreover, the Lord said unto me, Take thee a great roll, and write in it with a man's pen concerning Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

xxx. 8. Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever.

Rom. xv. 4. For whatever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning, that we, through patience and comfort of the scriptures, might have hope.

3 For, lo, (b) the days come, saith the LORD, (c) that I will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the LORD: (d) and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

(b) Luke xvii. 22. And he said unto the disciples, The days will come when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it.

xix. 43. For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side.

xxi. 6. As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall not be left one stone upon another that shall not be thrown down.

Heb. viii. 8. For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah.

(c) Deut. xxx. 3. That then the Lord thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee, and will return, and gather thee from all the nations whither the Lord thy God hath scattered thee.

Ps. liii. 6. Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! When God bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

Ex. xxxix. 25. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for my holy name.

Joel iii. 1. For, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem.

(d) Ex. xx. 42. And ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to your fathers.

xxxvi. 24. For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land.

4 ¶ And these are the words that the LORD spake concerning Israel, and concerning Judah.

5 For thus saith the LORD; We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace.

6 Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth travail with child? wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness?

7 Alas! (e) for that day is great, so that none is like it: (f) it is even the time of Jacob's trouble, but he shall be saved out of it.

(e) Hos. i. 11. Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

Joel ii. 11. And the Lord shall utter his voice before his army; for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the Lord is great and very terrible; and who can abide it?

31. The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the Lord come.

Mal. iv. 1. For, behold, the day cometh that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

Rev. vi. 17. For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?

(f) Gen. xxxii. 7. Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed: and he divided the people that was with him, and the flocks, and herds, and the camels, into two bands.

24. And Jacob was left alone; and there wrestled a man with him until the breaking of the day.

25. And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was out of joint, as he wrestled with him.

26. And he said, Let me go, for the day breaketh. And he said, I will not let thee go, except thou bless me.

27. And he said unto him, What is thy name? And he said, Jacob.

28. And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed.

29. And Jacob asked him, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, thy name. And he said, Wherefore is it that thou dost ask after my name? And he blessed him there.

30. And Jacob called the name of the place Peniel: for I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved.

8 For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him:

9 But they shall serve the LORD their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up unto them.

10 Therefore (g) fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid.

(g) Gen. xv. 1. After these things the word of the Lord came unto Abram in a vision, saying, Fear not, Abram: I am thy shield, and thy exceeding great reward.

Is. xliii. 1. But now, thus saith the Lord that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not; for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine.

5. Fear not; for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west.

Zeph. iii. 16. In that day it shall be said to Jerusalem, Fear thou not; and to Zion, Let not thine hands be slack.

17. The Lord thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love; he will joy over thee with singing.

John xii. 15. Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

11 For I (h) am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: (i) though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.

(h) Is. viii. 10. Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for God is with us.

xliii. 25. I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins.

Ez. xi. 16. Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God, Although I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet I will be to them as a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come.

17. Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God, I will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

Matt. xxviii. 20. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

Acts xviii. 10. For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee; for I have much people in this city.

(i) Ez. xi. 13. And it came to pass, when I prophesied, that Pelatiah, the son of Benaiah, died: then fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord God! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel?

Amos ix. 8. Behold, the eyes of the Lord God are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the Lord.

9. For, lo, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Thy bruise is incurable, and thy wound is grievous.

13 There is (k) none to plead thy cause, that thou mayest be bound up: (l) thou hast no healing medicines.

(k) Ps. cvi. 23. Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

cxlii. 4. I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me: refuge failed me; no man cared for my soul.

Is. lix. 16. And he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor; therefore his arm brought salvation unto him, and his righteousness it sustained him.

Ez. xxii. 30. And I sought for a man among them that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none.

(l) Deut. xxxii. 39. See now that I, even I, am he, and there is no god with me: I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal; neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand.

Job v. 18. For he maketh sore, and bindeth up; he woundeth, and his hands make whole.

Hos. vi. 1. Come, and let us return unto the Lord: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

xiv. 4. I will heal their backsliding; I will love them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him.

Nah. iii. 19. There is no healing of thy bruise; thy wound is grievous: all that hear the bruit of thee shall clap the hands over thee: for upon whom hath not thy wickedness passed continually.

1 Pet. ii. 24. Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness; by whose stripes ye were healed.

14 All (m) thy lovers have forgotten thee; they seek thee not; for (n) I have wounded thee with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the multitude of thine iniquity; because thy sins were increased.

(m) Lam. i. 2. She weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks; among all her lovers she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they are become her enemies.

19. I called for my lovers, but they deceived me; my priests and mine elders gave up the ghost in the city, while they sought their meat to relieve their souls.

(n) Job xvi. 9. He teareth me in his wrath who hateth me; and he gnasheth upon me with his teeth; mine enemy sharpeneth his eyes upon me.

xix. 11. He hath also kindled his wrath against me, and he counteth me unto him as one of his enemies.

xxx. 21. Thou art become cruel to me; with thy strong hand thou opposest thyself against me.

Hos. v. 14. For I will be unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

15 Why criest thou for thine affliction? (o) thy sorrow is incurable for the multitude of thine iniquity: because thy sins were increased, I have done these things unto thee.

(o) Job xxxiv. 6. Should I lie against my right? my wound is incurable without transgression.

Hos. v. 12. Therefore will I be unto Ephraim as a moth, and to the house of Judah as rottenness.

13. When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to the Assyrian, and sent to king Jareb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound.

Mic. i. 9. For her wound is incurable: for it is come unto Judah; he is come unto the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem.

16 Therefore (p) all they that devour thee shall be devoured; and all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity; and they that spoil thee shall be a spoil, and all that prey upon thee will I give for a prey.

(p) Ex. xxiii. 22. But if thou shalt indeed obey his voice, and do all that I speak, then I will be an enemy unto thine enemies, and an adversary unto thine adversaries.

Is. xxxiii. 1. Wo to thee that spoilest, and thou wast not spoiled; and dealest treacherously, and they dealt not treacherously with thee! when thou shalt cease to spoil, thou shalt be spoiled; and when thou shalt make an end to deal treacherously, they shall deal treacherously with thee.

Rev. xiii. 10. He that leadeth into captivity, shall go into captivity; he that killeth with the sword, must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

17 For I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the LORD: because they called thee an outcast, saying, This is Zion, whom no man seeketh after.

18 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have mercy on his dwelling-places; and the city shall be builded upon her own heap, and the palace shall remain after the manner thereof.

19 And (q) out of them shall proceed thanksgiving, and the voice of them that make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; (r) I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.

(q) Ps. liii. 6. Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! When God bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

cxxvi. 1. When the Lord turned again the captivity of Zion, we were like them that dream.

2. Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongues with singing: then said they among the heathen, The Lord hath done great things for them.

Is. xxxv. 10. And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

lii. 9. Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the Lord hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem.

(r) Is. lx. 19. The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the Lord shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory.

lxii. 2. And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the Lord shall name.

3. Thou shalt also be a crown of glory in the hand of the Lord, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.

John xvii. 22. And the glory which thou gavest me, I have given them: that they may be one, even as we are one.

20 Their (s) children also shall be as aforetime, and their congregation shall be established before me, and I will punish all that oppress them.

(s) Ps. cii. 18. This shall be written for the generation to come; and the people which shall be created shall praise the Lord.

28. The children of thy servants shall continue, and their seed shall be established before thee.

21 And (t) their nobles shall be of themselves, and their (u) governor shall proceed from the midst of them; (x) and I will cause them to draw near, and he shall approach unto me: for who is this that (y) engaged his heart to approach unto me? saith the LORD.

(t) Gen. xlix. 10. The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be.

Neh. vii. 2. That I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jerusalem: (for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many.)

(u) Deut. xviii. 18. I will raise them up a prophet from among their brethren like unto thee, and will put my words in his mouth; and he shall speak unto them all that I shall command him.

xxxiii. 5. And he was king in Jeshurun, when the heads of the people and the tribes of Israel were gathered together.

Is. ix. 6. For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given, and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, the everlasting Father, The Prince of peace.

7. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice, from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this.

Ez. xxiv. 23. And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.

24. And I the Lord will be their God, and my servant David a prince among them: I the Lord have spoken it.

Matt. ii. 2. Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

Mark xi. 9. And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna; Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

10. Blessed be the kingdom of our father David that cometh in the name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest.

Luke i. 32. He shall be great, and shall be called The Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David:

33. And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever: and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

(x) Num. xvi. 5. And he spake unto Korah, and unto all his company, saying, Even tomorrow the Lord will show who are his, and who is holy; and will cause him to come near unto him: even him whom he hath chosen will he cause to come near unto him.

40. To be a memorial unto the children of Israel, that no stranger, which is not of the seed of Aaron, come near to offer incense before the Lord, that he be not as Korah, and as his company, as the Lord said to him by the hand of Moses.

(y) Gen. xviii. 27. And Abraham answered and said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord, which am but dust and ashes.

Job xxiii. 3. Oh that I knew where I might find him: that I might come even to his seat!

4. I would order my cause before him, and fill my mouth with arguments.

5. I would know the words which he would answer me, and understand what he would say unto me.

22 And (z) ye shall be my people, nad I will be your God.

(z) Cant. ii. 16. My beloved is mine, and I am his; he feedeth among the lilies.

Ez. xi. 20. That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

Matt. xxii. 32. I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob; God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

Rev. xxi. 3. And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

23 Behold, the whirlwind of the LORD goeth forth with fury, a continuing whirlwind: it shall fall with pain upon the head of the wicked.

24 The (a) fierce anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have done it, and until he have performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it.

(a) 1 Sam. iii. 12. In that day I will perform against Eli all things which I have spoken concerning his house: when I begin, I will also make an end.

Job xxiii. 13. But he is in one mind, and who can turn him? and what his soul desireth, even that he doeth.

14. For he performeth the thing that is appointed for me; and many such things are with him.

Is. xiv. 24. The Lord of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand.

26. This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth; and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations.

27. For the Lord of hosts hath purposed, and who shall disannul it? and his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?

CHAPTER XXXI.

AT the same time, saith the LORD, (a) will I be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people.

(a) Gen. xvii. 7. And I will establish my covenant between me and thee, and thy seed after thee, in their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee.

8. And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God.

Lev. xxvii. 12. And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and ye shall be my people.

Ps. xlvi. 14. For this God is our God for ever and ever; he will be our guide even unto death.

Is. xli. 10. Fear thou not, for I am with thee; be not dismayed, for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

Ez. xi. 20. That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

Heb. xi. 16. But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.

2 Thus saith the LORD, The people which were left of the sword (b) found grace in the wilderness; even Israel, (c) when I went to cause him to rest.

(b) Deut. i. 30. The Lord your God, which goeth before you, he shall fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes.

33. Who went in the way before you, to search you out a place to pitch your tents in, in fire by night to show you by what way ye should go, and in a cloud by day.

ii. 7. For the Lord thy God hath blessed thee in all the works of thy hand; he knoweth thy walking through this great wilderness: these forty years the Lord thy God hath been with thee; thou hast lacked nothing.

Ps. lxxviii. 52. But made his own people to go forth like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

(c) Num. x. 33. And they departed from the mount of the Lord three days' journey: and the ark of the covenant of the Lord went before them in the three days' journey, to search out a resting-place for them.

Deut. xii. 9. For ye are not as yet come to the rest, and to the inheritance which the Lord your God giveth you.

Ps. cv. 11. Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance.

Is. lxiii. 14. As a beast goeth down into the valley, the Spirit of the Lord caused him to rest; so didst thou lead thy people, to make thyself a glorious name.

Matt. xi. 28. Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

29. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

Heb. iv. 8. For if Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

9. There remaineth, therefore, a rest to the people of God.

3 The LORD hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, (d) I have loved thee (e) with an everlasting love: therefore with loving-kindness have I drawn thee.

(d) Deut. vii. 7. The Lord did not set his love upon you, nor choose you, because ye were more in number than any people; for ye were the fewest of all people:

8. But because the Lord loved you; and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn unto your fathers, hath the Lord brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bond-men, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

9. Know, therefore, that the Lord thy God, he is God, the faithful God, which keepeth covenant and mercy with them that love him, and keep his commandments, to a thousand generations.

x. 15. Only the Lord had a delight in thy fathers to love them, and he chose their seed after them, even you above all people, as it is this day.

Hos. i. 1. When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt.

Mal. i. 2. I have loved you, saith the Lord: yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? Was not Esau Jacob's brother? saith the Lord: yet I loved Jacob.

1 John iv. 19. We love him, because he first loved us.

(e) Ps. ciii. 17. But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children.

Is. xlv. 17. But Israel shall be saved in the Lord with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end.

liv. 8. In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment: but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the Lord thy Redeemer.

9. For this is as the waters of Noah unto me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth; so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee.

2 Tim. i. 9. Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began.

4 Again I will (f) build thee, and thou shalt be built, (g) O virgin of Israel: (h) thou shalt again be adorned with thy tabrets, and shalt go forth in the dances of them that make merry.

(f) Ps. li. 18. Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

lxix. 35. For God will save Zion, and will build the cities of Judah; that they may dwell there, and have it in possession.

cii. 16. When the Lord shall build up Zion, he shall appear in his glory.

cxlvii. 2. The Lord doth build up Jerusalem: he gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.

Amos ix. 11. In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof: and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old.

(g) 2 Kings xix. 21. This is the word that the Lord hath spoken concerning him, The virgin, the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

Amos v. 2. The virgin of Israel is fallen, she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up.

(h) Ex. xv. 20. And Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a timbrel in her hand; and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances.

21. And Miriam answered them, Sing ye to the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

Judg. xi. 34. And Jephthah came to Mizpeh unto his house, and, behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and with dances; and she was his only child: beside her he had neither son nor daughter.

1 Sam. xviii. 6. And it came to pass, as they came, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, that the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with tabrets, with joy, and with instruments of music.

7. And the women answered one another as they played, and said, Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands.

Ps. cxlix. 3. Let them praise his name in the dance: let them sing praises unto him with the timbrel and harp.

5 Thou shalt (i) yet plant vines upon (k) the mountains of Samaria: the planters shall plant, and shall eat them as common things.

(i) Deut. xxviii. 30. Thou shalt betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her: thou shalt build an house, and thou shalt not dwell therein: thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not gather the grapes thereof.

Is. lxv. 21. And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

22. They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree are the days of my people, and mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

Mic. iv. 4. But they shall sit every man under his vine, and under his fig-tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the Lord of hosts hath spoken it.

(k) Ez. xxxvi. 8. But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people of Israel; for they are at hand to come.

6 For there shall be (l) a day that the watchmen (m) upon the mount Ephraim shall cry, (n) Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion unto the LORD our God.

(l) Is. xl. 9. O Zion, that bringest good tidings, get thee up into the high mountains; O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength: lift it up, be not afraid: say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God.

lii. 7. How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation, that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth!

8. Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the Lord shall bring again Zion.

lxiii. 6. I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention of the Lord, keep not silence.

Ez. iii. 17. Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore, hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.

(m) 2 Chr. xliii. 4. And Abijah stood upon Mount Zemaraim, which is in Mount Ephraim, and said, Hear me, thou Jeroboam, and all Israel.

(n) Ezra i. 5. Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests and the Levites, with all them whose spirit God had raised, to go up to build the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem.

Hos. i. 11. Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

7 For thus saith the LORD; (o) Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, (p) O LORD, save thy people, (q) the remnant of Israel.

(o) Deut. xxxii. 43. Rejoice, O ye nations, with his people: for he will avenge the blood of his servants, and will render vengeance to his adversaries, and will be merciful unto his land, and to his people.

Is. xlv. 23. Sing, O ye heavens; for the Lord hath done it: shout, ye lower parts of the earth; break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein: for the Lord hath redeemed Jacob, and glorified himself in Israel.

(p) Ps. xiv. 7. Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! When the Lord bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

xxviii. 9. Save thy people, and bless thine inheritance: feed them also, and lift them up for ever.

lxix. 35. For God will save Zion, and will build the cities of Judah; that they may dwell there, and have it in possession.

cvi. 47. Save us, O Lord our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy name, and to triumph in thy praise.

cxviii. 25. Save now, I beseech thee, O Lord; O Lord, I beseech thee, send now prosperity.

(q) Is. i. 9. Except the Lord of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

xxxvii. 31. And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward.

Ez. vi. 8. Yet will I leave a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries.

Joi. ii. 32. And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be delivered: for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the Lord hath said, and in the remnant whom the Lord shall call.

Amos v. 15. Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: it may be that the Lord God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph.

8 Behold, (r) I will bring them from the north country, and gather them (s) from the coasts of the earth, and with (t) them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall return thither.
VOL. III.

(r) Ps. cvii. 3. And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south.

Zech. ii. 6. Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, saith the Lord: for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the Lord.

(s) Ps. lxxv. 5. By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation; who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea.

xcviii. 3. He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Is. xliiii. 6. I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth.

xlv. 22. Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is none else.

(t) Is. xl. 11. He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young.

xlii. 16. And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them.

Ez. xxxiv. 16. I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed them with judgment.

Mic. iv. 6. In that day, saith the Lord, will I assemble her that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted.

Matt. xii. 20. A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory.

1 Thess. v. 14. Now we exhort you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you.

Heb. xii. 12. Wherefore, lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

13. And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed.

9 They shall (u) come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: (x) I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters (y) in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble: (z) for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born.

(u) Ps. cxxvi. 5. They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.

6. He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall, doubtless, come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

Hos. xii. 4. Yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed; he wept and made supplication unto him: he found him in Beth-el, and there he spake with us.

Matt. v. 4. Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

Luke vi. 21. Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.

(x) Is. xxxv. 6. Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing: for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert.

7. And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water: in the habitation of dragons, where each lay, shall be grass, with reeds and rushes.

8. And an highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called, The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it: but it shall be for those; the way-faring men, though fools, shall not err therein.

xl. 16. Thus saith the Lord, which maketh a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters.

19. Behold, I will do a new thing: now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.

(y) Is. xl. 3. The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

4. Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain.

lvii. 14. And shall say, Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumbling-block out of the way of my people.

lxiii. 13. That led them through the deep, as an horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble?

(z) Ez. iv. 22. And thou shalt say unto Pharaoh, Thus saith the Lord, Israel is my son, even my first-born.

Deut. xxxii. 6. Do ye thus requite the Lord? O foolish people and unwise! is not he thy father, that hath bought thee? hath he not made thee, and established thee?

1 Chr. xxix. 10. Wherefore David blessed the Lord before all the congregation: and David said, Blessed be thou, Lord God of Israel, our father, for ever and ever.

Is. lxiii. 16. Doubtless thou art our father, though Abraham be ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not: thou, O Lord, art our Father, our Redeemer; thy name is from everlasting.

2 Cor. vi. 18. And I will be a father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

10 Hear the word of the LORD, O ye nations, (a) and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, (b) He that scattered Israel will gather him, (c) and keep him as a shepherd doth his flock.

(a) Gen. x. 5. By these were the isles of the Gentiles divided in their lands; every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations.

Ps. lxxii. 10. The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents; the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

Is. xxiv. 14. They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing for the majesty of the Lord, they shall cry aloud from the sea.

15. Wherefore glorify ye the Lord in the fires, even the name of the Lord God of Israel in the isles of the sea.

xli. 1. Keep silence before me, O islands; and let the people renew their strength: let them come near, then let them speak; let us come near together to judgment.

Zeph. ii. 11. The Lord will be terrible unto them: for he will finish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

(b) Deut. xxx. 4. If any of thine be driven out unto the outmost parts of heaven, from thence will the Lord thy God gather thee, and from thence will he fetch thee.

Is. liv. 7. For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee.

Zeph. iii. 19. Behold, at that time I will undo all that afflict thee; and I will save her that halteth, and gather her that was driven out; and I will get them praise and fame in every land where they have been put to shame.

John xi. 52. And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.

(c) Is. xl. 11. He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young.

Ez. xxxiv. 12. As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day.

Luke xii. 32. Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

11 For the LORD hath (d) redeemed Jacob, and ransomed him from the hand of him that was (e) stronger than he.

(d) Is. liii. 12. Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

Matt. xx. 28. Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

Tit. ii. 14. Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

(e) Ps. cxlii. 6. Attend unto my cry; for I am brought very low: deliver me from my persecutors; for they are stronger than I.

Matt. xii. 29. Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.

Luke xi. 21. When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace:

22. But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

12 Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow together to the goodness of the LORD, for wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock, and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; (f) and they shall not sorrow any more at all.

(f) Is. xxxv. 10. And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs, and everlasting joy upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

lxv. 19. And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

John xvi. 22. And ye now, therefore, have sorrow; but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

Rev. vii. 17. For the Lamb, which is in the midst of the throne, shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters, and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

xxi. 4. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

13 Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old together: for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow.

14 And I will (g) satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and (h) my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the LORD.

(g) 2 Chr. vi. 41. Now therefore arise, O Lord God, into thy resting-place, thou and the ark of thy strength; let thy priests, O Lord God, be clothed with salvation, and let thy saints rejoice in goodness.

Ps. cxxxii. 9. Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness; and let thy saints shout for joy.

16. I will also clothe her priests with salvation; and her saints shall shout aloud for joy.

Is. lxi. 6. But ye shall be named the priests of the Lord; men shall call you the ministers of our God: ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves.

Rev. v. 10. And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

(h) Ps. xvii. 15. As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake with thy likeness.

xxxvi. 8. They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.

cvii. 9. For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

Cant. v. 1. I am come into my garden, my sister, my spouse: I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honey-comb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk: eat, O friends; drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved.

Is. xxv. 6. And in this mountain shall the Lord of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees; of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees, well refined.

Matt. v. 6. Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

Eph. i. 3. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ.

iii. 19. And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God.

15 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation and bitter weeping; Rachel weeping for her children, (i) refused to be comforted for her children, (k) because they were not.

(i) Gen. xxxvii. 35. And all his sons, and all his daughters, rose up to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted; and he said, For I will go down into the grave unto my son mourning. Thus his father wept for him.

Ps. lxxvii. 2. In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord: my sore ran in the night, and ceased not: my soul refused to be comforted.

Is. xxiii. 4. Therefore said I, Look away from me; I will weep bitterly, labour not to comfort me; because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people.

(k) Gen. xlii. 13. And they said, Thy servants are twelve brethren, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and, behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one is not.

36. And Jacob their father said unto them, Me have ye bereaved of my children: Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye will take Benjamin away. All these things are against me.

Job vii. 21. And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust, and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

Ps. xxxvii. 36. Yet he passed away, and, lo, he was not; yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.

Lam. v. 7. Our fathers have sinned, and are not; and we have borne their iniquities.

16 Thus saith the LORD; (l) Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: (m) for thy work shall be rewarded, saith the LORD: and they shall come again from the land of the enemy.

(l) Gen. xliiii. 31. And he washed his face, and went out, and refrained himself, and said, Set on bread.

xlv. 1. Then Joseph could not refrain himself before all them that stood by him; and he cried, Cause every man to go out from me: and there stood no man with him while Joseph made himself known unto his brethren.

(m) Ruth ii. 12. The Lord recompense thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the Lord God of Israel, under whose wings thou art come to trust.

2 Chr. xv. 7. Be ye strong, therefore, and let not your hands be weak; for your work shall be rewarded.

Ec. ix. 7. Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God now accepteth thy works.

Heb. vi. 10. For God is not unrighteous, to forget your work, and labour of love, which ye have showed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

xi. 6. But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

17 And (n) there is hope in thine end, saith the LORD, that thy children shall come again to their own border.

(n) Lam. iii. 21. This I recall to my mind, therefore have I hope.

Ez. xxxix. 28. Then shall they know that I am the Lord their God, which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there.

Hos. ii. 15. And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope; and she shall sing there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.

iii. 5. Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the Lord their God, and David their king, and shall fear the Lord and his goodness in the latter days.

18 ¶ I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus; (o) Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, (p) as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: (q) turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the LORD my God.

(o) Job v. 17. Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth; therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty.

Ps. xciv. 12. Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O Lord, and teachest him out of thy law.

cxix. 75. I know, O Lord, that thy judgments are right, and that thou in faithfulness hast afflicted me.

Prov. iii. 11. My son, despise not the chastening of the Lord; neither be weary of his correction.

Heb. xii. 5. And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him.

Rev. iii. 19. As many as I love I rebuke and chasten: be zealous, therefore, and repent.

(p) Ps. xxxii. 9. Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding; whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.

Prov. xxvi. 3. A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass, and a rod for the fool's back.

Is. li. 20. Thy sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets as a wild bull in a net; they are full of the fury of the Lord, the rebuke of thy God.

liii. 7. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted; yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.

(q) Ps. lxxxv. 4. Turn us, O God of our salvation, and cause thine anger toward us to cease.

Lam. v. 21. Turn thou us unto thee, O Lord, and we shall be turned; renew our days as of old.

19 Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, (r) I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because (s) I did bear the reproach of my youth.

(r) Ez. xxi. 12. Cry and howl, son of man; for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the princes of Israel; terrors by reason of the sword shall be upon my people: smite therefore upon thy thigh.

Luke xviii. 13. And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

(s) Job xiii. 26. For thou writest bitter things against me, and makest me to possess the iniquities of my youth.

xx. 11. His bones are full of the sin of his youth, which shall lie down with him in the dust.

Ps. xxv. 7. Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions: according to thy mercy remember thou me, for thy goodness' sake, O Lord.

Is. liv. 4. Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more.

Luks xv. 30. But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.

20 (t) Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? (u) for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore (x) my bowels are troubled for him; (y) I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the LORD.

(t) Ps. ciii. 13. Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him.

Prov. xiii. 12. For whom the Lord loveth he correcteth, even as a father the son in whom he delighteth.

Luke xv. 24. For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

(u) Deut. xxxii. 36. For the Lord shall judge his people, and repent himself for his servants; when he seeth that their power is gone, and there is none shut up or left.

Judg. x. 16. And they put away the strange gods from among them, and served the Lord: and his soul was grieved for the misery of Israel.

Hos. xi. 8. How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? Mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

9. I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of thee; and I will not enter into the city.

(x) Gen. xliii. 30. And Joseph made haste; for his bowels did yearn upon his brother: and he sought where to weep, and he entered into his chamber, and wept there.

1 Kings iii. 26. Then spake the woman whose the living child was, unto the king, for her bowels yearned upon her son, and she said, O my lord, give her the living child, and in no wise slay it: but the other said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it.

Cant. v. 4. My beloved put in his hand by the hole of the door, and my bowels were moved for him.

Phil. i. 8. For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

(y) Is. lv. 7. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

lvii. 18. I have seen his ways, and will heal him; I will lead him also, and restore comforts unto him and to his mourners.

Hos. xiv. 4. I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him.

Mic. vii. 18. Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.

19. He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

21 (z) Set thee up way-marks, make thee high heaps: (a) set thine heart toward the highway, even the way which thou wentest: (b) turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities.

(z) Is. lvii. 14. And shall say, Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumbling-block out of the way of my people.

lxii. 10. Go through, go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones: lift up a standard for the people.

(a) Deut. xxxii. 46. And he said unto them, Set your hearts unto all the words which I testify among you this day; which ye shall command your children to observe, to do all the words of this law.

1 Chr. xxix. 3. Moreover, because I have set my affection to the house of my God, I have of mine own proper good, of gold and silver, which I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house.

2 Chr. xi. 16. And after them, out of all the tribes of Israel, such as set their hearts to seek the Lord God of Israel, came to Jerusalem to sacrifice unto the Lord God of their fathers.

Ps. lxii. 10. Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery: if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

lxxxiv. 5. Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are the ways of them.

Prov. xxiv. 32. Then I saw, and considered it well; I looked upon it, and received instruction.

(b) Is. xlviii. 20. Go ye forth of Babylon; flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of singing; declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth; say ye, The Lord hath redeemed his servant Jacob.

lii. 11. Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; be ye clean that bear the vessels of the Lord.

12. For ye shall not go out with haste, nor go by flight: for the Lord will go before you; and the God of Israel will be your rereward.

Zeck. ii. 6. Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, saith the Lord: for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the Lord.

7. Deliver thyself, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon.

22 (c) How long wilt thou go about, O thou (d) backsliding daughter? for the LORD hath (e) created a new thing in the earth, (f) A woman shall compass a man.

(c) Hos. viii. 5. Thy calf, O Samaria, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them; how long will it be ere they attain to innocency?

(d) Hos. iv. 16. For Israel slideth back as a backsliding heifer: now the Lord will feed them as a lamb in a large place.

Zeck. vii. 11. But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

(e) Num. xvi. 30. But if the Lord make a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up, with all that appertain unto them, and they go down quick into the pit, then ye shall understand that those men have provoked the Lord.

(f) Gen. iii. 15. And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed: it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

Is. vii. 14. Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign: Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.

Matt. i. 21. And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus; for he shall save his people from their sins.

Luke i. 34. Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35. And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee; therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called The Son of God.

Gal. iv. 4. But when the fulness of time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah, and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity, (g) The LORD bless thee, (h) O habitation of justice, (i) and mountain of holiness.

(g) Ruth ii. 4. And, behold, Boaz came from Beth-lehem, and said unto the reapers, The Lord be with you. And they answered him, The Lord bless thee.

Ps. xxviii. 9. Save thy people, and bless thine inheritance: feed them also, and lift them up for ever.

cxxviii. 5. The Lord shall bless thee out of Zion; and thou shalt see the good of Jerusalem all the days of thy life.

cxxix. 8. Neither do they which go by say, The blessing of the Lord be upon you; we bless you in the name of the Lord.

cxxxiv. 3. The Lord, that made heaven and earth, bless thee out of Zion.

(h) Is. i. 21. How is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers.

(i) Ps. xlviii. 1. Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness.

2. Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is Mount Zion, on the sides of the north, the city of the great King.

Ob. 17. But upon Mount Zion shall be deliverance, and there shall be holiness, and the house of Jacob shall possess their possessions.

24 And there shall dwell (k) in Judah itself, and in all the cities thereof together, husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks.

(k) Ez. xxxvi. 10. And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it; and the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be builded.

11. And I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bring fruit: and I will settle you after your old estates, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

12. Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel; and they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth bereave them of men.

25 For I have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul.

26 Upon this, (l) I awaked, and beheld; and my sleep was sweet unto me.

(l) Ps. cxxvii. 2. It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows; for so he giveth his beloved sleep.

Zech. iv. 1. And the angel that talked with me came again and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep,

2. And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and, behold, a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps which are upon the top thereof.

27 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, (m) that I will sow the house of Israel, and the house of Judah, with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast.

(m) Ez. xxxvi. 9. For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sown.

Hos. ii. 23. And I will sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people, and they shall say, Thou art my God.

Zech. x. 9. And I will sow them among the people; and they shall remember me in far countries; and they shall live with their children, and turn again.

28 And it shall come to pass, (n) that like as I have watched over them, to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; (o) so will I watch over them, to build, and to plant, saith the LORD.

(n) Dan. ix. 14. Therefore hath the Lord watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the Lord our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not his voice.

(o) Ps. lxxix. 35. For God will save Zion, and will build the cities of Judah; that they may dwell there, and have it in possession.

cii. 16. When the Lord shall build up Zion, he shall appear in his glory.

Ec. iii. 2. A time to be born, and a time to die: a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted:

3. A time to kill, and a time to heal: a time to break down, and a time to build up.

29 In those days they shall say no more, (p) The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge.

(p) Lam. v. 7. Our fathers have sinned, and are not; and we have borne their iniquities.

Ez. xviii. 2. What mean ye, that ye use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying,

The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge?

3. As I live, saith the Lord God, ye shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb in Israel.

30 But (q) every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge.

(q) Deut. xxiv. 16. The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, neither shall the children be put to death for the fathers: every man shall be put to death for his own sin.

Is. iii. 11. Wo unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him; for the reward of his hands shall be given him.

Ez. xviii. 4. Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul that sinneth, it shall die.

20. The soul that sinneth, it shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son; the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.

xxxiii. 8. When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

Gal. vi. 5. For every man shall bear his own burden.

7. Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8. For he that soweth to the flesh, shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit, shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

James i. 15. Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin; and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

31 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that (r) I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:

(r) Ez. xxxvii. 26. Moreover, I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them: and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore.

Matt. xxvi. 28. For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

Mark xiv. 24. And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.

Luke xxii. 20. Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

1 Cor. xi. 25. After the same manner also he took the cup when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

2 Cor. iii. 6. Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.

Heb. ix. 15. And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

xii. 24. And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.

32 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, (s) in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the LORD:

(s) Deut. i. 31. And in the wilderness, where thou hast seen how that the Lord thy God bare thee, as a man doth bear his son, in all the way that ye went, until ye came into this place.

Ps. lxxiii. 23. Nevertheless I am continually with thee; thou hast holden me by my right hand.

Is. xli. 13. For I the Lord thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will keep thee.

Mark viii. 23. And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw aught?

33 But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, (t) I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

(t) Ps. xxxvii. 31. The law of his God is in his heart; none of his steps shall slide.

xl. 8. I delight to do thy will, O my God; yea, thy law is within my heart.

Is. li. 7. Hearken unto me, ye that know righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law; fear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye afraid of their revilings.

Rom. vii. 22. For I delight in the law of God after the inward man.

2 Cor. iii. 3. Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ, ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.

Heb. viii. 10. For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel, After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts; and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people.

x. 16. This is the covenant that I will make with them, After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them.

34 And they shall (u) teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: (x) for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: (y) for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

(u) 1 Thess. iv. 9. But as touching brotherly love, ye need not that I write unto you; for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another.

Heb. v. 12. For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.

(x) Is. xi. 9. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

liv. 13. And all thy children shall be taught of the Lord; and great shall be the peace of thy children.

Hab. ii. 14. For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

John vi. 45. It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man, therefore, that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

(y) Is. xxxiii. 24. And the inhabitant shall not say, I am sick: the people that dwell therein shall be forgiven their iniquity.

xliiii. 25. I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins.

xliv. 22. I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me; for I have redeemed thee.

Mic. vii. 18. Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.

19. He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

Heb. viii. 12. For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness; and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

35 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, (z) which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, (a) which divideth the sea (b) when the waves thereof roar; The LORD of hosts is his name:

(z) Gen. i. 14. And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven, to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years:

15. And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven, to give light upon the earth: and it was so.

16. And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also.

17. And God set them in the firmament of the heaven, to give light upon the earth,

18. And to rule over the day, and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.

Ps. xix. 1. The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament showeth his handywork.

2. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night showeth knowledge.

3. There is no speech nor language where their voice is not heard.

4. Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,

5. Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

6. His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

lxxiv. 16. The day is thine, the night also is thine: thou hast prepared the light and the sun.

Matt. v. 45. That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

(a) Ex. xiv. 21. And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the Lord caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided.

22. And the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground: and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand and on their left.

Job xxvi. 12. He divideth the sea with his power, and by his understanding he smiteth through the proud.

Ps. lxxiv. 13. Thou didst divide the sea by thy strength: thou brakest the heads of the dragons in the waters.

lxxviii. 13. He divided the sea, and caused them to pass through; and he made the waters to stand as an heap.

cvi. 9. He rebuked the Red sea also, and it was dried up: so he led them through the depths as through the wilderness.

Is. li. 15. But I am the Lord thy God, that divided the sea, whose waves roared: The Lord of hosts is his name.

lxiii. 12. That led them by the right hand of Moses with his glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting name.

(b) Ps. xciii. 3. The floods have lifted up, O Lord, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves.

4. The Lord on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty waves of the sea.

Matt. viii. 25. And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.

26. And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful? O ye of little faith! Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

36 If (c) those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.

(c) Ps. lxxii. 5. They shall fear thee as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.

17. His name shall endure for ever: his name shall be continued as long as the sun; and men shall be blessed in him: all nations shall call him blessed.

lxxxix. 36. His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the sun before me.

37. It shall be established for ever as the moon, and as a faithful witness in heaven. Selah.

cxix. 89. For ever, O Lord, thy word is settled in heaven.

Is. liv. 9. For this is as the waters of Noah unto me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth; so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee.

10. For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the Lord that hath mercy on thee.

37 Thus saith the LORD; (d) If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel, for all that they have done, saith the LORD.

(d) Job xi. 7. Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection?

8. It is as high as heaven, what canst thou do? deeper than hell, what canst thou know?

9. The measure thereof is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea.

Prov. xxx. 4. Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? who hath gathered the wind in his fists? who hath bound the waters in a garment? who hath established all the ends of the earth? what is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell?

Is. xl. 12. Who hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance?

38 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the city shall be built to the LORD, from the tower of Hananeel unto the gate of the corner.

39 And the measuring line shall yet go forth over against it, upon the hill Gareb, and shall compass about to Goath.

40 And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes, and all the fields unto the brook of Kidron, unto the corner of the horse-gate toward the east, shall be holy unto the LORD; it shall not be plucked up nor thrown down any more for ever.

CHAPTER XXXII.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar.

2 For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house.

3 For Zedekiah, king of Judah, had shut him up, saying, (a) Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it;

(a) Luke xx. 2. And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, by what authority dost thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

Acts vi. 12. And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,

13. And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law:

14. For we have heard him say, That this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered us.

4 And (b) Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes;

(b) Ez. xii. 12. And the prince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the twilight, and shall go forth; they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes.

13. My net also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare: and I will bring him to Babylon, to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there.

xxi. 25. And thou, profane wicked prince of Israel, whose day is come, when iniquity shall have an end,

26. Thus saith the Lord God, Remove the diadem, and take off the crown; this shall not be the same; exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high.

5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be until I visit him, saith the LORD: (c) though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper.

(c) Num. xiv. 41. And Moses said, Wherefore now do ye transgress the commandment of the Lord? but it shall not prosper.

2 Chr. xiii. 12. And, behold, God himself is with us for our captain, and his priests with sounding trumpets to cry alarm against you. O children of Israel, fight ye not against the Lord God of your fathers; for ye shall not prosper.

xxiv. 20. And the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah, the son of Jehoiada the priest, which stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God, Why transgress ye the commandments of the Lord, that ye cannot prosper? Because ye have forsaken the Lord, he hath also forsaken you.

Prov. xxi. 30. There is no wisdom, nor understanding, nor counsel, against the Lord.

Ez. xvii. 9. Say thou, Thus saith the Lord God, Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof.

10. Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither when the east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

15. But he rebelled against him, in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and much people: shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such things? or shall he break the covenant, and be delivered?

6 ¶ And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

7 (d) Behold, Hanameel the son of Shallum, thine uncle, shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth: (e) for the right of redemption is thine to buy it.

(d) 1 Kings xiv. 5. And the Lord said unto Ahijah, Behold, the wife of Jeroboam cometh to ask a thing of thee for her son, for he is sick: thus and thus shalt thou say unto her; for it shall be, when she cometh in, that she shall feign herself to be another woman.

(e) Lev. xxv. 23. The land shall not be sold for ever: for the land is mine; for ye are strangers and sojourners with me.

24. And in all the land of your possession ye shall grant a redemption for the land.

25. If thy brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away some of his possession, and if any of his kin come to redeem it, then shall he redeem that which his brother sold.

Num. xxxv. 2. Command the children of Israel, that they give unto the Levites, of the inheritance of their possession, cities to dwell in; and ye shall give also unto the Levites suburbs for the cities round about them.

8 So Hanameel mine uncle's son came to me in the court of the prison, according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine, buy it for thyself. (f) Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

(f) 1 Sam. ix. 16. To-morrow, about this time, I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin, and thou shalt anoint him to be captain over my people Israel, that he may save my people out of the hand of the Philistines: for I have looked upon my people, because their cry is come unto me.

17. And when Samuel saw Saul, the Lord said unto him, Behold the man whom I spake to thee of! this same shall reign over my people.

1 Kings xxii. 25. And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see in that day, when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself.

Zech. xi. 11. And it was broken in that day: and so the poor of the flock that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the Lord.

John iv. 53. So the father knew that it was at the same hour in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house.

9 And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, and (g) weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver.

(g) Gen. xxiii. 15. My lord, hearken unto me: the land is worth four hundred shekels of silver; what is that betwixt me and thee? bury therefore thy dead.

16. And Abraham hearkened unto Ephron: and Abraham weighed to Ephron the silver, which he had named in the audience of the sons of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, current money with the merchant.

10 And (h) I subscribed the evidence, (i) and sealed it, (k) and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances.

(h) Is. xliv. 5. One shall say, I am the Lord's; and another shall call himself by the name of Jacob; and another shall subscribe with his hand unto the Lord, and surname himself by the name of Israel.

(i) Deut. xxxii. 34. Is not this laid up in store with me, and sealed up among my treasures?

Job xiv. 17. My transgression is sealed up in a bag, and thou sewest up mine iniquity.

Cant. viii. 6. Set me as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm: for love is strong as death; jealousy is cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame.

Dan. viii. 26. And the vision of the evening and the morning which was told is true: wherefore shut thou up the vision; for it shall be for many days.

John iii. 33. He that hath received his testimony hath set to his seal that God is true.

2 Cor. i. 22. Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

Eph. i. 13. In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also, after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise.

iv. 30. And grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

Rev. vii. 2. And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea.

(k) Ruth iv. 9. And Boaz said unto the elders, and unto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's, of the hand of Naomi.

10. Moreover, Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye are witnesses this day.

11. And all the people that were in the gate, and the elders, said, We are witnesses. The Lord make the woman that is come into thine house like Rachel and like Leah, which two did build the house of Israel: and do thou worthily in Ephrath, and be famous in Beth-lehem.

Ls. viii. 1. Moreover, the Lord said unto me, Take thee a great roll, and write in it with a man's pen concerning Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

2. And I took unto me faithful witnesses to record, Uriah the priest, and Zechariah, the son of Jeberchiah.

11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed (l) according to the law and custom, and that which was open:

(l) Luke ii. 27. And he came by the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law.

1 Cor. xi. 16. But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.

12 And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel mine uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.

13 And I charged Baruch before them, saying,

14 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, (both which is sealed,) and this evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days:

15 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Houses, and fields, and vineyards shall be possessed again in this land.

16 ¶ Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the LORD, saying,

17 Ah Lord GOD! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched-out arm, and (m) there is nothing too hard for thee:

(m) Gen. xviii. 14. Is any thing too hard for the Lord? At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son.

Job xlii. 2. I know that thou canst do every thing, and that no thought can be withholden from thee.

Luke i. 37. For with God nothing shall be impossible.

xviii. 27. And he said, The things which are impossible with men, are possible with God.

18 Thou (n) showest loving-kindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: (o) The Great, The Mighty God, The LORD of hosts is his name.

(n) Ex. xx. 5. Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me;

6. And showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

xxxiv. 7. Keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity, and transgression, and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, unto the third and to the fourth generation.

Num. xiv. 18. The Lord is long-suffering, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by no means clearing the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation.

Deut. v. 9. Thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me,

10. And showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

vii. 9. Know, therefore, that the Lord thy God, he is God, the faithful God, which keepeth covenant and mercy with them that love him, and keep his commandments, to a thousand generations;

10. And repayeth them that hate him to their face, to destroy them: he will not be slack to him that hateth him, he will repay him to his face.

(o) Gen. xlix. 24. But his bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong by the hands of the mighty God of Jacob: (from thence is the Shepherd, the stone of Israel.)

Deut. vii. 21. Thou shalt not be affrighted at them; for the Lord thy God is among you, a mighty God and terrible.

x. 17. For the Lord your God is God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, a mighty, and a terrible, which regardeth not persons, nor taketh reward.

Ps. l. 1. The mighty God, even the Lord, hath spoken, and called the earth, from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.

Is. ix. 6. For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given, and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of peace.

x. 21. The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, unto the mighty God.

19 (p) Great in counsel, and mighty in work: for thine eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men; to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings:

(p) Is. xxviii. 29. This also cometh forth from the Lord of hosts, which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working.

xl. 13. Who hath directed the Spirit of the Lord, or, being his counsellor, hath taught him?

Rom. xi. 33. O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

34. For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?

20 Which hast set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, and in Israel, and among other men; (q) and hast made thee a name, as at this day;

(q) Ex. ix. 16. And in very deed for this cause have I raised thee up, for to show in thee my power; and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth.

2 Sam. vii. 23. And what one nation in the earth is like thy people, even like Israel, whom God went to redeem for a people to himself, and to make him a name, and to do for you great things, and terrible, for thy land, before thy people, which thou redeemedst to thee from Egypt, from the nations and their gods?

Is. lxxii. 12. That led them by the right hand of Moses with his glorious arm, dividing the waters before them, to make himself an everlasting name?

21 And hast brought forth thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt, with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with great terror;

22 And hast given them this land, which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey:

23 And they came in, and possessed it; but they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law; (r) they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them.

(r) Luke xvii. 10. So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do.

John xv. 14. Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

Gal. iii. 10. For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

James ii. 10. For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

24 Behold the mounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans, that fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence: and what thou hast spoken is come to pass; and, behold, thou seest it.

25 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord God, Buy thee the field for money, and take witnesses; for the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans!

26 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

27 Behold, I am the LORD, (s) the God of all flesh: is there any thing too hard for me?

(s) Num. xvi. 22. And they fell upon their faces, and said, O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation?

xvii. 16. Let the Lord, the God of the spirits of all flesh, set a man over the congregation.

Ps. lxx. 2. O thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.

Is. lxiv. 8. But now, O Lord, thou art our Father: we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand.

Luke iii. 6. And all flesh shall see the salvation of the Lord.

John xvii. 2. As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.

Rom. iii. 29. Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? yes, of the Gentiles also:

30. Seeing it is one God which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

28 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it:

29 And the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come (t) and set fire on this city, and burn it, with the houses, upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink-offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger.

(t) 2 Kings xxv. 9. And he burnt the house of the Lord, and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and every great man's house burnt he with fire.

2 Chr. xxxvi. 19. And they burnt the house of God, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels thereof.

Is. lxiv. 10. Thy holy cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.

11. Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, is burnt up with fire; and all our pleasant things are laid waste.

Lam. iv. 11. The Lord hath accomplished his fury; he hath poured out his fierce anger, and hath kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.

Matt. xxii. 7. But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

30 For (u) the children of Israel and the children of Judah have only done evil before me (x) from their youth; for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, saith the LORD.

(u) Ps. cvi. 6. We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

7. Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt; they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies; but provoked him at the sea, even at the Red sea.

Is. lxiii. 10. But they rebelled, and vexed his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them.

Ez. xxiii. 43. Then said I unto her that is old in adulteries, Will they now commit whoredoms with her, and she with them?

44. Yet they went in unto her; as they go in unto a woman that playeth the harlot, so went they in unto Aholah and unto Aholibah, the lewd women.

(x) Gen. viii. 21. And the Lord smelled a sweet savour; and the Lord said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake; for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth: neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done.

Ez. xxiii. 3. And they committed whoredoms in Egypt; they committed whoredoms in their youth: there were their breasts preast, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity.

31 For (y) this city hath been to me as a provocation of mine anger and of my fury, from the day that they built it, even unto this day; that I should remove it from before my face,

(y) 1 Kings xi. 7. Then did Solomon build an high place for Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, in the hill that is before Jerusalem; and for Molech, the abomination of the children of Ammon.

8. And likewise did he for all his strange wives which burnt incense, and sacrificed unto their gods.

2 Kings xxi. 4. And he built altars in the house of the Lord, of which the Lord said, In Jerusalem will I put my name there.

5. And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the Lord.

6. And he made his son pass through the fire, and observed times, and used enchantments, and dealt with familiar spirits and wizards: he wrought much wickedness in the sight of the Lord, to provoke him to anger.

7. And he set a graven image of the grove that he made in the house, of which the Lord said to David, and to Solomon his son, In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever.

Matt. xxiii. 37. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not.

32 Because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, (z) they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

(z) Ezra ix. 7. Since the days of our fathers have we been in a great trespass unto this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to confusion of face, as it is this day.

Is. i. 23. Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves; every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

Ez. xxii. 6. Behold, the princes of Israel, every one were in thee to their power to shed blood.

33 And they have turned unto me the back, and not the face: though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction.

34 But they set their abominations in the house, which is called by my name, to defile it.

35 And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech; (a) which I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, (b) to cause Judah to sin.

(a) Lev. xviii. 21. And thou shalt not let any of thy seed pass through the fire to Molech, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I am the Lord.

Deut. xviii. 10. There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch.

(b) Ex. xxxii. 21. And Moses said unto Aaron, What did this people unto thee, that thou hast brought so great a sin upon them?

Deut. xxiv. 4. Her former husband, which sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife, after that she is defiled; for that is abomination before the Lord: and thou shalt not cause the land to sin, which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.

1 Kings xiv. 16. And he shall give Israel up, because of the sins of Jeroboam, who did sin, and who made Israel to sin.

2 Chr. xxxiii. 9. So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, and to do worse than the heathen, whom the Lord had destroyed before the children of Israel.

36 ¶ And (c) now therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence;

(c) Ez. xxxvi. 31. Then shall ye remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and shall loath yourselves in your own sight, for your iniquities, and for your abominations.

32. Not for your sakes do I this, saith the Lord God, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel.

Hos. ii. 14. Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably unto her.

37 Behold, (d) I will gather them out of all countries, whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely:

(d) Deut. xxx. 3. That then the Lord thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee, and will return, and gather thee from all the nations whither the Lord thy God hath scattered thee.

4. If any of thine be driven out unto the outmost parts of heaven, from thence will the Lord thy God gather thee, and from thence will he fetch thee.

Ps. cvi. 47. Save us, O Lord our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy name, and to triumph in thy praise.

Ez. xi. 17. Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God, I will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

Hos. iii. 5. Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the Lord their God, and David their king; and shall fear the Lord and his goodness in the latter days.

38 And (e) they shall be my people, and I will be their God:

(e) Gen. xvii. 7. And I will establish my covenant between me and thee, and thy seed after thee, in their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee.

Ps. cxliv. 15. Happy is that people that is in such a case: yea, happy is that people whose God is the Lord.

Ez. xi. 20. That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

Heb. xi. 16. But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; for he hath prepared for them a city.

Rev. xxi. 7. He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

39 And (f) I will give them one heart, and (g) one way, that (h) they may fear me for ever, (i) for the good of them, and of their children after them:

(f) 2 Chr. xxx. 12. Also in Judah the hand of God was to give them one heart, to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, by the word of the Lord.

Ez. xi. 19. And I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh.

xxxvi. 26. A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you; and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.

John xvii. 21. That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

Acts iv. 32. And the multitude of them that believed, were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that aught of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.

(g) Is. xxxv. 8. And an highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called, The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the way-faring men, though fools, shall not err therein.

John xiv. 6. Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father but by me.

Heb. x. 20. By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us through the veil, that is to say, his flesh.

(h) Gen. xxii. 12. And he said, Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son, from me.

Ps. cxii. 1. Praise ye the Lord. Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord, that delighteth greatly in his commandments.

Prov. xiv. 26. In the fear of the Lord is strong confidence; and his children shall have a place of refuge.

27. The fear of the Lord is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.

xxiii. 17. Let not thine heart envy sinners; but be thou in the fear of the Lord all the day long.

Acts ix. 31. Then had the churches rest throughout all Judea, and Galilee, and Samaria, and were edified; and, walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied.

(i) Gen. xviii. 19. For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the Lord, to do justice and judgment; that the Lord may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him.

Deut. v. 29. Oh that there were such an heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my commandments always, that it might be well with them, and with their children for ever.

Ps. cxxxviii. 6. Yea, thou shalt see thy children's children, and peace upon Israel.

Ez. xxxvii. 25. And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob my servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, even they and their children, and their children's children, for ever; and my servant David shall be their prince for ever.

Acts ii. 39. For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And (k) I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me.

(k) 2 Sam. xxiii. 5. Although my house be not so with God; yet he hath made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things, and sure: for this is all my salvation, and all my desire, although he make it not to grow.

Is. xxiv. 5. The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof: because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant.

lv. 3. Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

lxi. 8. For I the Lord love judgment, I hate robbery for burnt-offering; and I will direct their work in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

Heb. xii. 24. And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.

41 Yea, (l) I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly, with my whole heart, and with my whole soul.

(l) Deut. xxx. 9. And the Lord thy God will make thee plenteous in every work of thine hand, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy land, for good: for the Lord will again rejoice over thee for good, as he rejoiced over thy fathers.

Is. lxii. 5. For as a young man marieth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee: and as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice over thee.

Lxv. 19. And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

Zeph. iii. 17. The Lord thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rest in his love; he will joy over thee with singing.

42 For thus saith the LORD ; ( m ) Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them.

( m ) Josh. xxiii. 14. And, behold, this day I am going the way of all the earth: and ye know in all your hearts, and in all your souls, that not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the Lord your God spake concerning you; all are come to pass unto you, and not one thing hath failed thereof.

15. Therefore it shall come to pass, that as all good things are come upon you, which the Lord your God promised you; so shall the Lord bring upon you all evil things, until he have destroyed you from off this good land, which the Lord your God hath given you.

43 And fields shall be bought in this land, whereof ye say, It is desolate without man or beast; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

44 Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe evidences, and seal them, and take witnesses, in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south: for I will cause their captivity to return, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

MOREOVER, the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, ( a ) the maker thereof, the LORD that formed it, to establish it; The LORD is his name;

( a ) Ps. lxxxvii. 5. And of Zion it shall be said, This and that man was born in her; and the Highest himself shall establish her.

Is. xiv. 32. What shall one then answer the messengers of the nation? That the Lord hath founded Zion, and the poor of his people shall trust in it.

xl. 1. But now, thus saith the Lord that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not; for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine.

21. This people have I formed for myself; they shall show forth my praise.

lxii. 7. And give him no rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem a praise in the earth.

Heb. xi. 10. For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

3 ( b ) Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and show thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not.

( b ) Ps. l. 15. And call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

xc. 15. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.

cxlv. 18. The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth.

Is. lv. 6. Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near.

7. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

lxv. 24. And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.

Joel ii. 32. And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be delivered: for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the Lord hath said, and in the remnant whom the Lord shall call.

Luke xi. 9. And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you: seek, and ye shall find: knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

10. For every one that asketh, receiveth: and he that seeketh, findeth: and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened.

4 For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are ( c ) thrown down by the mounts, and by the sword;

( c ) Ez. iv. 2. And lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it; set the camp also against it, and set battering-rams against it round about.

xxi. 22. At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering-rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort.

xxvi. 8. He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field; and he shall make a fort against thee, and cast a mount against thee, and lift up the buckler against thee.

Hab. i. 10. And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold; for they shall heap dust, and take it.

5 They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain in mine anger and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city.

6 Behold, ( d ) I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth.

( d ) Deut. xxxii. 39. See now that I, even I, am he, and there is no god with me: I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal: neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand.

Ps. lxxvii. 2. That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations.

Is. xxx. 26. Moreover, the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be seven-fold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the Lord bindeth up the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound.

lviii. 8. Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily; and thy righteousness shall go before thee: the glory of the Lord shall be thy re-ward.

Hos. vi. 1. Come, and let us return unto the Lord: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

7 And I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them as at the first.

8 And ( e ) I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against me.

( e ) Ps. li. 2. Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

lxv. 3. Iniquities prevail against me; as for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.

lxxxv. 2. Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people; thou hast covered all their sin. Selah.

3. Thou hast taken away all thy wrath: thou hast turned thyself from the fierceness of thine anger.

Is. xl. 2. Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the Lord's hand double for all her sins.

Joel iii. 21. For I will cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed: for the Lord dwelleth in Zion.

Mic. vii. 18. Who is a god like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.

19. He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

Zech. xiii. 1. In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness.

9 And it shall be to me a name of joy, a praise, and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall ( f ) fear and tremble for all the goodness and for all the prosperity that I procure unto it.

( f ) Ez. xv. 14. The people shall hear, and be afraid: sorrow shall take hold on the inhabitants of Palestina.

15. Then the dukes of Edom shall be amazed; the mighty men of Moab, trembling shall take hold upon them; all the inhabitants of Canaan shall melt away.

16. Fear and dread shall fall upon them; by the greatness of thine arm they shall be as still as a stone; till thy people pass over, O Lord, till the people pass over which thou hast purchased.

2 Chr. xx. 29. And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries, when they had heard that the Lord fought against the enemies of Israel.

Ps. xl. 3. And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God: many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the Lord.

Is. lx. 5. Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.

Mic. vii. 16. The nations shall see, and be confounded at all their might: they shall lay their hand upon their mouth, their ears shall be deaf.

17. They shall lick the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes like worms of the earth: they shall be afraid of the Lord our God, and shall fear because of thee.

Zech. xii. 2. Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.

10 Thus saith the LORD; Again there shall be heard in this place, (which ye say shall be desolate without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast,)

11 The (g) voice of joy, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the voice of them that shall say, Praise the LORD of hosts: for the LORD is good, for his mercy endureth for ever: and of them that shall bring (h) the sacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD. For I will cause to return the captivity of the land, as at the first, saith the LORD.

(g) John iii. 29. He that hath the bride is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. This my joy, therefore, is fulfilled.

Rev. xviii. 23. And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

(h) Lev. vii. 12. If he offer it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and cakes mingled with oil, of fine flour, fried.

13. Besides the cakes, he shall offer for his offering leavened bread with the sacrifice of thanksgiving of his peace-offerings.

2 Chr. xxix. 31. Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have consecrated yourselves unto the Lord; come near, and bring sacrifices and thank-offerings into the house of the Lord. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank-offerings; and as many as were of a free heart, burnt-offerings.

Ps. cvii. 22. And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing.

cxvi. 17. I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the Lord.

Jon. ii. 9. But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the Lord.

Heb. xiii. 15. By him, therefore, let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to his name.

12 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Again in this place, which is desolate without man and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, shall be an habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down.

13 In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the vale, and in the cities of the south, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks pass again under the hands of him that telleth them, saith the LORD.

14 ¶ Behold, (i) the days come, saith the LORD, that I will perform that good thing which I have promised unto the house of Israel, and to the house of Judah.

(i) Gen. xlix. 10. The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be.

Is. vii. 14. Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign: Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.

Dan. ii. 44. And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

Amos ix. 11. In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof: and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old.

2 Cor. i. 20. For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

15 In those days, and at that time, will I cause the Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David; (k) and he shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land.

(k) Ps. xlv. 4. And in thy majesty ride prosperously, because of truth, and meekness, and righteousness, and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

7. Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

Rev. xix. 11. And I saw heaven opened, and, behold, a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

16 In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely; and this is the name wherewith she shall be called, The LORD our righteousness.

17 For thus saith the LORD; David shall (l) never want a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel;

(l) 2 Sam. vii. 16. And thine house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established for ever.

1 Kings ii. 4. That the Lord may continue his word which he spake concerning me, saying, If thy children take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth with all their heart, and with all their soul, there shall not fail thee (said he) a man on the throne of Israel.

1 Chr. xvii. 27. Now, therefore, let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee for ever: for thou blessest, O Lord, and it shall be blessed for ever.

Luke i. 32. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David:

33. And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

18 Neither (m) shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to offer burnt-offerings, and to kindle meat-offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.

(m) Is. lvi. 7. Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt-offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar: for mine house shall be called An house of prayer for all people.

ixi. 6. But ye shall be named the Priests of the Lord; men shall call you the Ministers of our God: ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves.

Ez. xlv. 5. And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Levites, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession for twenty chambers.

Rom. xii. 1. I beseech you, therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

xv. 16. That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost.

1 Pet. ii. 5. Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

9. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

19 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying,

20 Thus saith the LORD; If ye can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season;

21 Then (n) may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, (o) that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers.

(n) 2 Chr. vii. 18. Then will I establish the throne of thy kingdom, according as I have covenanted with David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Israel.

xxi. 7. Howbeit, the Lord would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a light to him and to his sons for ever.

Ps. lxxxix. 34. My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.

cxxxii. 11. The Lord hath sworn in truth unto David, he will not turn from it. Of the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne.

12. If thy children will keep my covenant and my testimony that I shall teach them, their children also shall sit upon thy throne for evermore.

Matt. xxiv. 35. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my word shall not pass away.

(o) Is. ix. 6. For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given, and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

7. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice, from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this.

Dan. vii. 14. And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

22 As (p) the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: (q) so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and (r) the Levites that minister unto me.

(p) Gen. xiii. 16. And I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth; so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed also be numbered.

xv. 5. And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and tell the stars, if thou be able to number them. And he said unto him, So shall thy seed be.

xxii. 17. That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed, as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea-shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies.

Hos. i. 10. Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered: and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God.

Heb. xi. 12. Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea-shore innumerable.

(q) Ps. xxii. 30. A seed shall serve him; it shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation.

lxxxix. 3. I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto David my servant,

4. Thy seed will I establish for ever, and build up thy throne to all generations. Selah.

29. His seed also will I make to endure for ever, and his throne as the days of heaven.

Zech. xii. 8. In that day shall the Lord defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, as the angel of the Lord before them.

(r) Is. lxvi. 21. And I will also take of thine for priests and for Levites, saith the Lord.

Ez. xlv. 15. But the priests, the Levites, the sons of Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister unto me, and they shall stand before me to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord God.

23 ¶ Moreover, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

24 Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, (s) The two families which the LORD hath chosen, he hath even cast them off?

(t) Thus they have despised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them.

(s) Ps. xci. 14. For the Lord will not cast off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance.

Rom. xi. 1. I say then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2. God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

3. Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4. But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

5. Even so then, at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6. And if by grace, then is it no more of works; otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace; otherwise work is no more work.

(t) Ps. xlv. 13. Thou makest us a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to them that are round about us.

14. Thou makest us a by-word among the heathen, a shaking of the head among the people.

lxxi. 11. Saying, God hath forsaken him; persecute and take him: for there is none to deliver him.

lxxxiii. 4. They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation: that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

Lam. ii. 15. All that pass by clap their hands at thee; they hiss and wag their heads at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?

16. All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth; they say, We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it.

25 Thus saith the LORD; If my covenant be not with day and night, (u) and if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth;

(u) Ps. lxxiv. 16. The day is thine, the night also is thine: thou hast prepared the light and the sun.

17. Thou hast set all the borders of the earth: thou hast made summer and winter.

civ. 19. He appointeth the moon for seasons; the sun knoweth his going down.

26 Then will I cast away the seed of Jacob, and David my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, (x) and have mercy on them.

(x) Is. xiv. 1. For the Lord will have mercy on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of David.

liv. 8. In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the Lord thy Redeemer.

xxxix. 25. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for my holy name.

Zech. x. 6. And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will bring them again to place them: for I have mercy upon them; and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am the Lord their God, and will hear them.

Rom. xi. 32. For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and (a) all the kingdoms of the earth of his dominion, and all the people fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities thereof, saying,

(a) Dan. ii. 37. Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory:

38. And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold.

Dan. iv. 1. Nebuchadnezzar the king, unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied unto you.

22. It is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth.

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; (b) Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire:

(b) 2 Chr. xxxvi. 12. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord his God, and humbled not himself before Jeremiah the prophet, speaking from the mouth of the Lord.

3 And thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon.

4 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword:

5 But (c) thou shalt die in peace: and with the burnings of thy fathers, the former kings which were before thee, so shall they burn odours for thee; and they will lament thee, saying, Ah, lord! for I have pronounced the word, saith the LORD.

(c) 2 Kings xxii. 20. Behold, therefore, I will gather thee unto thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered into thy grave in peace; and thine eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place. And they brought the king word again.

2 Chr. xxxiv. 28. Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace; neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same. So they brought the king word again.

6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spake all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem,

7 When the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish, and against Azekah: for these defenced cities remained of the cities of Judah.

8 ¶ This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty unto them;

9 That every man should let his man-servant, and every man his maid-servant, being (d) an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free; that none should serve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother.

(d) Gen. xiv. 13. And there came one that had escaped, and told Abram the Hebrew; for he dwelt in the plain of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol, and brother of Aner: and these were confederate with Abram.

xl. 15. For indeed I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews; and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon.

Ex. ii. 6. And when she had opened it, she saw the child: and, behold, the babe wept. And she had compassion on him, and said, This is one of the Hebrews' children.

Deut. xv. 12. And if thy brother, an Hebrew man or an Hebrew woman, be sold unto thee, and serve thee six years; then in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from thee.

1 Sam. iv. 6. And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What meaneth the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the ark of the Lord was come into the camp.

9. Be strong, and quit yourselves like men, O ye Philistines! that ye be not servants unto the Hebrews, as they have been to you; quit yourselves like men, and fight.

2 Cor. xi. 22. Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.

Phil. iii. 5. Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews, as touching the law a Pharisee.

10 Now when all the princes, and all the people, which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his man-servant, and every one his maid-servant, go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more, (e) then they obeyed, and let them go.

(e) Is. xxix. 13. Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precepts of men.

Mark vi. 20. For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man, and an holy, and observed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

11 But (f) afterward they turned, and caused the servants and the hand-maids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for hand-maids.

(f) Ex. viii. 8. Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, Entreat the Lord, that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may do sacrifice unto the Lord.

15. But when Pharaoh saw that there was respite, he hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them; as the Lord had said.

Ps. xxxvi. 3. The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit: he hath left off to be wise, and to do good.

Prov. xxvi. 11. As a dog returneth to his vomit, so a fool returneth to his folly.

Hos. vi. 4. O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away.

12 Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; I made a covenant with your fathers, in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, (g) out of the house of bondmen, saying,

(g) Ex. xiii. 3. And Moses said unto the people, Remember this day, in which ye came out from Egypt, out of the house of bondage; for by strength of hand the Lord brought you out from this place: there shall no leavened bread be eaten.

Deut. v. 6. I am the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

vi. 12. Then beware lest thou forget the Lord, which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

14 At (h) the end of seven years let ye go every man his brother an Hebrew, which hath been sold unto thee; and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ear.

(h) Is. lviii. 6. Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye brake every yoke?

15 And ye were now turned, and had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty ever man to his neighbour; and ye had made a covenant before me, in the house which is called by my name:

16 But ye turned, and (i) polluted my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his hand-maid, whom he had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants, and for hand-maids.

(i) Ex. xx. 7. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain: for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

Lev. xix. 12. And ye shall not swear by my name falsely, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God; I am the Lord.

Ex. xx. 39. As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord God, Go ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: but pollute ye my holy name no more with your gifts, and with your idols.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Ye have not hearkened unto me, in proclaiming liberty every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: (k) behold, I proclaim a liberty for you, saith the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

(k) Deut. xix. 19. Then shall ye do unto him as he had thought to have done unto his brother: so shalt thou put the evil away from among you.

Josh. i. 6. But Adoni-bezek fled: and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his great toes.

7. And Adoni-bezek said, Threescore and ten kings, having their thumbs and their great toes cut off, gathered their meat under my table: as I have done, so God hath required me. And they brought him to Jerusalem; and there he died.

Esth. vii. 10. So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

Matt. vii. 2. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

Gal. vi. 7. Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

James ii. 13. For he shall have judgment without mercy that hath showed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

Rev. xvi. 6. For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink: for they are worthy.

18 And I will give the men that (l) have transgressed my covenant, which have not performed the words of the covenant which they made before me, (m) when they cut the calf in twain, and passed between the parts thereof,

(l) Deut. xvii. 2. If there be found among you, within any of thy gates which the Lord thy God giveth thee, man or woman that hath wrought wickedness in the sight of the Lord thy God, in transgressing his covenant.

Josh. vii. 11. Israel hath sinned, and they have also transgressed my covenant which I commanded them: for they have even taken of the accursed thing, and have also stolen, and dissembled also, and they have put it even among their own stuff.

xxiii. 16. When ye have transgressed the covenant of the Lord your God, which he commanded you, and have gone and served other gods, and bowed yourselves to them, then shall the anger of the Lord be kindled against you, and ye shall perish quickly from off the good land which he hath given unto you.

Hos. vi. 7. But they, like men, have transgressed the covenant; there have they dealt treacherously against me.

viii. 1. Set the trumpet to thy mouth: he shall come as an eagle against the house of the Lord, because they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law.

(m) Gen. xv. 10. And he took unto him all these, and divided them in the midst, and laid each piece one against another; but the birds divided he not.

17. And it came to pass, that when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold, a smoking furnace and a burning lamp that passed between those pieces.

18. In that same day the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, Unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates.

Ps. l. 5. Gather my saints together unto me; those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.

19 The (n) princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem; the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, which passed between the parts of the calf;

(n) Zeph. iii. 3. Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they gnaw not the bones till the morrow.

4. Her prophets are light and treacherous persons; her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law.

20 I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life: (o) and their dead bodies shall be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the earth.

(o) 1 Sam. xvii. 44. And the Philistine said to David, Come to me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air and to the beasts of the field.

1 Kings xiv. 11. Him that dieth of Jeroboam in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat: for the Lord hath spoken it.

Ez. xxix. 5. And I will leave thee thrown into the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the open field; thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered; I have given thee for meat to the beasts of the field, and to the fowls of the heaven.

21 And Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which are gone up from you.

22 Behold, (p) I will command, saith the LORD, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: (q) and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without an inhabitant.

(p) 2 Sam. xvi. 11. And David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, Behold, my son, which came forth of my bowels, seeketh my life: how much more now may this Benjamite do it? Let him alone, and let him curse: for the Lord hath bidden him.

2 Kings xxiv. 2. And the Lord sent against him bands of the Chaldees, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake by his servants the prophets.

3. Surely at the commandment of the Lord came this upon Judah, to remove them out of his sight, for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did.

Is. xliii. 3. I have commanded my sanctified ones, I have also called my mighty ones for mine anger, even them that rejoice in my highness.

Amos iii. 6. Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, and the Lord hath not done it?

(q) Is. vi. 11. Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate.

xxiv. 12. In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.

lxiv. 10. Thy holy cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.

Mic. vii. 13. Notwithstanding the land shall be desolate, because of them that dwell therein, for the fruit of their doings.

CHAPTER XXXV.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

2 Go unto the house of the Rechabites, and speak unto them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, (a) into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink.

(a) 2 Chr. xxxi. 11. Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare chambers in the house of the Lord; and they prepared them.

Ezra viii. 29. Watch ye, and keep them until ye weigh them before the chief of the priests and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the Lord.

Neh. xiii. 5. And he had prepared for him a great chamber, where aforetime they laid the meat-offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil (which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters,) and the offerings of the priests.

3 Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habaziah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites:

4 And I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaliah, (b) a man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, (c) the keeper of the door:

(b) Deut. xxxiii. 1. And this is the blessing wherewith Moses the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death.

Josh. xiv. 6. Then the children of Judah came unto Joshua in Gilgal: and Caleb the son of Jephthanneh the Kenezite, said unto him, Thou knowest the thing that the Lord said unto Moses, the man of God, concerning me and thee in Kadesh-barnea.

1 Tim. vi. 11. But thou, O man of God, flee these things: and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

2 Tim. iii. 17. That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

(c) 2 Kings xii. 9. But Jehoiada the priest took a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one cometh into the house of the Lord: and the priests that kept the door put therein all the money that was brought into the house of the Lord.

Ps. lxxxiv. 10. For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand: I had rather be a door-keeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

5 And I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, (d) Drink ye wine.

(d) Ec. ix. 7. Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God now accepteth thy works.

Amos ii. 12. But ye gave the Nazarites time to drink; and commanded the prophets, saying, Prophecy not.

2 Cor. ii. 9. For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.

6 But they said, We will drink no wine: for Jonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, (e) Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons for ever:

(e) Lev. x. 9. Do not drink wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations.

Num. vi. 2. Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When either man or woman shall separate themselves to vow a vow of a Nazarite, to separate themselves unto the Lord;

3. He shall separate himself from wine and strong drink, and shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of strong drink, neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat moist grapes, or dried.

4. All the days of his separation shall he eat nothing that is made of the vine-tree, from the kernels even to the husk.

5. All the days of the vow of his separation there shall no razor come upon his head: until the days be fulfilled, in the which he separateth himself unto the Lord, he shall be holy, and shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow.

Judg. xiii. 7. But he said unto me, Behold, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and now drink no wine nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean thing: for the child shall be a Nazarite to God from the womb to the day of his death.

Luke i. 15. For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb.

7 Neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any: but (f) all your days ye shall dwell in tents; (g) that ye may live many days in the land where ye be strangers.

(f) Gen. xxv. 27. And the boys grew: and Esau was a cunning hunter, a man of the field; and Jacob was a plain man, dwelling in tents.

Lev. xxiii. 42. Ye shall dwell in booths seven days; all that are Israelites born shall dwell in booths;

43. That your generations may know that I made the children of Israel to dwell in booths; when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.

Heb. xi. 9. By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise.

10. For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

1 Pet. ii. 11. Dearly beloved, I beseech you, as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul.

(g) Gen. xxxvi. 7. For their riches were more than that they might dwell together; and the land wherein they were strangers could not bear them, because of their cattle.

Ex. xx. 12. Honour thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

1 Chr. xvi. 19. When ye were but few, even a few, and strangers in it.

8 Thus have (h) we obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father, in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters;

(h) Prov. i. 2. My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

9. For they shall be an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.

iv. 1. Hear, ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding.

2. For I give you good doctrine, forsake ye not my law.

xiii. 1. A wise son heareth his father's instruction: but a scorner heareth not rebuke.

Col. iii. 20. Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well-pleasing unto the Lord.

9 Nor to build houses for us to dwell in; (i) neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed:

(i) Num. xvi. 14. Moreover, thou hast not brought us into a land that floweth with milk and honey, or given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: wilt thou put out the eyes of these men? we will not come up.

2 Kings v. 26. And he said unto him, Went not mine heart with thee, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and olive-yards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and men-servants, and maid-servants?

Ps. xxxvii. 16. A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.

1 Tim. vi. 6. But godliness with contentment is great gain.

10 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.

11 But it came to pass, when Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that he said, (k) Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so we dwell at Jerusalem.

(k) Mark xiii. 14. But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not (let him that readeth understand) then let them that be in Judea flee to the mountains.

Luke xxi. 20. And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

21. Then let them which are in Judea flee to the mountains: and let them which are in the midst of it depart out: and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.

12 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Go, and tell the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, (l) Will ye not receive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the LORD.

(l) Ps. xxxii. 8. I will instruct thee, and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye.

Prov. viii. 10. Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold.

xix. 20. Hear counsel, and receive instruction, that thou mayest be wise in thy latter end.

Is. xlii. 23. Who among you will give ear to this? who will hearken, and hear for the time to come?

Heb. xii. 25. See that ye refuse not him that speaketh: for if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven.

14 The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment; notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye hearkened not unto me.

15 I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me.

16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but this people hath not hearkened unto me.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, all the evil that I have pronounced against them: because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but they have not answered.

18 ¶ And Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; (m) Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he hath commanded you:

(m) Deut. v. 16. Honour thy father and thy mother, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee; that thy days may be prolonged, and that it may go well with thee in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Eph. vi. 1. Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

2. Honour thy father and mother, (which is the first commandment with promise.)

19 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to (n) stand before me for ever.

(n) Luke xxi. 36. Watch ye, therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.

Jude 24. Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

AND it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Take thee (a) a roll of a book, and write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, from the days of Josiah, even unto this day.

(a) Ex. xvii. 14. And the Lord said unto Moses, Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua; for I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven.

Deut. xxxi. 24. And it came to pass, when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this law in a book until they were finished.

Ezra vi. 2. And there was found at Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of the Medes, a roll, and therein was a record thus written.

Job xxxi. 35. Oh that one would hear me! behold, my desire is, that the Almighty would answer me, and that mine adversary had written a book.

Psa. xl. 7. Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me.

Is. viii. 1. Moreover, the Lord said unto me, take thee a great roll, and write in it with a man's pen concerning Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

xxx. 8. Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever.

Ez. ii. 9. And when I looked, behold, an hand was sent unto me; and, lo, a roll of a book was therein.

3 It (b) may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them: that (c) they may return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.

(b) Deut. v. 29. Oh that there were such an heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my commandments always, that it might be well with them, and with their children for ever!

Ez. xii. 3. Therefore, thou son of man, prepare thee stuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight: and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they be a rebellious house.

Zeph. ii. 3. Seek ye the Lord, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the Lord's anger.

Luke xx. 13. Then said the Lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.

2 Tim. ii. 25. In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth.

26. And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

2 Pet. iii. 9. The Lord is not slack concerning his promise as some men count slackness; but is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

(c) Deut. xxx. 2. And shalt return unto the Lord thy God, and shalt obey his voice according to all that I command thee this day, thou, and thy children, with all thine heart, and with all thy soul.

8. And thou shalt return, and obey the voice of the Lord, and do all his commandments, which I command thee this day.

Is. lv. 6. Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near.

7. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

Ez. xviii. 23. Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord God; and not that he should return from his ways, and live?

Jon. iii. 10. And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

Acts xxvi. 20. But showed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah: and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book.

5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up; I cannot go into the house of the LORD:

6 Therefore go thou, and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ears of the people in the LORD's house upon the fasting day: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah that come out of their cities.

7 It may be they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return every one from his evil way: for great is the anger and fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people.

8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

9 And it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, that (d) they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem.

(d) Lev. xxiii. 27. Also on the tenth day of this seventh month there shall be a day of atonement; it shall be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

2 Chr. xx. 3. And Jehoshaphat feared, and set himself to seek the Lord, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

Neh. ix. 1. Now in the twenty and fourth day of this month, the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackclothes, and earth upon them.

Esth. iv. 16. Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night nor day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise, and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law; and if I perish, I perish.

Joel i. 13. Gird yourselves, and lament, ye priests; howl, ye ministers of the altar; come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meat-offering and the drink-offering is withholden from the house of your God.

14. Sanctify ye a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the elders, and all the inhabitants of the land, into the house of the Lord your God, and cry unto the Lord.

ii. 12. Therefore also now, saith the Lord, Turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning:

13. And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God; for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

14. Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave a blessing behind him, even a meat-offering, and a drink-offering, unto the Lord your God?

15. Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly:

16. Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts; let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet.

17. Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

Jon. iii. 5. So the people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

10 Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the higher court, at the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house, in the ears of all the people.

11 When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD, 12 Then he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's chamber; and, lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes.

13 Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people.

14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them.

15 And they said unto him, Set down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears.

16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they were afraid, both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words.

17 And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answered them, (e) He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book.

(e) Prov. xxvi. 4. Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him.

5. Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit.

19 Then said the princes unto Baruch, (f) Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye be.

(f) 1 Kings xvii. 3. Get thee hence, and turn thee eastward, and hide thyself by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan.

xviii. 4. For it was so, when Jezebel cut off the prophets of the Lord, that Obadiah took an hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.

Amos vii. 12. Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, go, flee thee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there.

Luke xiii. 31. The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying unto him, Get thee out, and depart hence: for Herod will kill thee.

20 ¶ And they went in to the king into the court, (but they laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe,) and told all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll: and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king.

22 Now the king sat in the winter-house in the ninth month: and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him.

23 And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, (g) he cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

(g) Ps. i. 17. Seeing thou hatest instruction, and castest my words behind thee.

Prov. i. 30. They would none of my counsel; they despised all my reproof.

v. 12. And say, How have I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof.

xxix. 1. He that, being often reproved, hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

24 Yet (h) they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words.

(h) Job xv. 4. Yea, thou castest off fear, and restrainest prayer before God.

Ps. xxxvi. 1. The transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes.

Rom. iii. 18. There is no fear of God before their eyes.

25 Nevertheless, Elnathan, and Delaiah, and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll; but he would not hear them.

26 But the king commanded Jerahmeel the son of Hammelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet; (i) but the LORD hid them.

(i) Ps. xxvii. 5. For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock.

xxxii. 7. Thou art my hiding-place; thou shalt preserve me from trouble: thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Selah.

lvii. 1. Be merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me; for my soul trusteth in thee: yea, in the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge, until these calamities be overpast.

lxiv. 2. Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked; from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity.

lxi. 1. He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High, shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

cxxi. 8. The Lord shall preserve thy going out, and thy coming in, from this time forth, and even for evermore.

Is. xxvi. 20. Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast.

John viii. 59. Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

Acts xii. 11. And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

27 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying, 28 Take thee again (k) another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim king of Judah hath burned.

(k) Job xxiii. 13. But he is in one mind, and who can turn him? and what his soul desireth, even that he doeth.

2 Tim. ii. 13. If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful; he cannot deny himself.

29 And thou shalt say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus saith the LORD; (l) Thou hast burned this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast?

(l) Is. xiv. 9. Wo unto him that striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherd of the earth. Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands?

Acts v. 39. But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God.

1 Cor. x. 22. Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he?

30 Therefore thus saith the LORD of Jehoiakim king of Judah; He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David: (m) and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost.

(m) Gen. xxxi. 40. Thus I was; in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night: and my sleep departed from mine eyes.

31 And I will punish him and his seed, and his servants, for their iniquity: and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them; but they hearkened not.

32 Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; (n) who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many like words.

(n) Ex. iv. 15. And thou shalt speak unto him, and put words in his mouth: and I will be with thy mouth and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye shall do.

16. And he shall be thy spokesman unto the people: and he shall be, even he shall be to thee instead of a mouth, and thou shalt be to him instead of God.

Rom. xvi. 22. I, Tertius, who wrote this epistle, salute you in the Lord.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

AND king Zedekiah, the son of Josiah, reigned instead of Co-niah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nehuchadrezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah.

2 But (a) neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, did hearken unto the words of the LORD, which he spake by the prophet Jeremiah.

(a) 2 Kings xxiv. 19. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

20. For through the anger of the Lord it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

Prov. xxix. 12. If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked.

Ez. xxi. 25. And thou, profane, wicked prince of Israel, whose day is come, when iniquity shall have an end.

1 Thess. iv. 8. He, therefore, that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his Holy Spirit.

3 And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, (b) Pray now unto the LORD our God for us.

(b) Ex. viii. 8. Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, Entreat the Lord, that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may do sacrifice unto the Lord.

ix. 28. Entreat the Lord (for it is enough) that there be no more mighty thundersings and hail: and I will let you go, and ye shall stay no longer.

Num. xxi. 7. Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, We have sinned: for we have spoken against the Lord, and against thee: pray unto the Lord, that he take away the serpents from us. And Moses prayed for the people.

Acts viii. 24. Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

4 Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people: for they had not put him into prison.

5 Then (c) Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt, and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they departed from Jerusalem.

(c) 2 Kings xxiv. 7. And the king of Egypt came not again any more out of his land: for the king of Babylon had taken from the river of Egypt unto the river Euphrates, all that pertained to the king of Egypt.

6 Then came the word of the LORD unto the prophet Jeremiah, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; (d) Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, that sent you unto me to inquire of me; Behold, (e) Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land.

(d) 2 Kings xxii. 18. But to the king of Judah, which sent you to inquire of the Lord, thus shall ye say to him, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, as touching the words which thou hast heard.

(e) Prov. xxi. 30. There is no wisdom, nor understanding, nor counsel against the Lord.

Lam. iv. 17. As for us, our eyes as yet failed for our vain help: in our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us.

Ez. xvii. 17. Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company, make for him in the war, by casting up mounts and building forts, to cut off many persons.

xxix. 6. And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the Lord, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel.

7. When they took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst break, and rend all thy shoulder; and when they leaned upon thee, thou brakest, and madest all their loins to be at a stand.

16. And it shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall look after them: but they shall know that I am the Lord God.

8 And the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city, and take it, and burn it with fire.

9 Thus saith the LORD, (f) Deceive not yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us; for they shall not depart.

(f) Ob. 3. The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high: that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

Matt. xxiv. 4. And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you:

5. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

Gal. vi. 3. For if a man think himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

Eph. v. 6. Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience.

James i. 22. But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

10 For (g) though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

(g) Lev. xxvi. 36. And upon them that are left alive of you, I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies, and the sound of a shaken leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall when none pursueth.

37. And they shall fall one upon another, as it were before a sword, when none pursueth: and ye shall have no power to stand before your enemies.

38. And ye shall perish among the heathen, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up.

Is. x. 4. Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

xxx. 17. One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee; till ye be left as a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on an hill.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, that when the army of the Chaldeans was broken up from Jerusalem, for fear of Pharaoh's army, 12 Then Jeremiah (h) went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to separate himself thence in the midst of the people.

(h) 1 Kings xix. 3. And when he saw that he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beersheba, which belongeth to Judah, and left his servant there.

Neh. vi. 11. And I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who is there that, being as I am, should go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in.

Matt. x. 23. But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel till the Son of man be come.

1 Thess. v. 22. Abstain from all appearance of evil.

13 And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, (i) Thou fallst away to the Chaldeans.

(i) Amos vii. 10. Then Amaziah, the priest of Beth-el, sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amon hath conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words.

Luke xxiii. 2. And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cæsar, saying that he himself is Christ a king.

Acts vi. 11. Then they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.

2 Cor. vi. 8. By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true.

14 Then (k) said Jeremiah, It is false; I fall not away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes.

(k) Neh. vi. 8. Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart.

Ps. xxvii. 12. Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty.

xxxv. 11. False witnesses did rise up; they laid to my charge things that I knew not.

lii. 1. Why boastest thou thyself in mischief, O mighty man? the goodness of God endureth continually.

2. Thy tongue deviseth mischiefs: like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

Matt. v. 11. Blessed are ye when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you for my sake.

12. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad; for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets that were before you.

1 Pet. iii. 16. Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you as of evil-doers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

15 Wherefore (l) the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, and smote him, and (m) put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe: for they had made that the prison.

(l) Matt. xxi. 35. And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

xxiii. 34. Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes; and some of them ye shall kill and crucify: and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city.

Acts v. 40. And to him they agreed: and, when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

(m) Gen. xxxix. 20. And Joseph's master took him, and put him into the prison, a place where the king's prisoners were bound: and he was there in the prison.

2 Chr. xvi. 10. Then Asa was wroth with the seer, and put him in a prison-house: for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. And Asa oppressed some of the people the same time.

xviii. 26. And say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction, and with water of affliction, until I return in peace.

Acts v. 18. And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.

16 ¶ When Jeremiah was entered (n) into the dungeon, and into the cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days;

(n) Gen. xl. 15. For indeed I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews; and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon.

Lam. iii. 53. They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and cast a stone upon me.

55. I called upon thy name, O Lord, out of the low dungeon.

17 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took him out: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, (o) Is there any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is; for, said he, (p) thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.

(o) 1 Kings xxii. 16. And the king said unto him, How many times shall I adjure thee, that thou tell me nothing but that which is true in the name of the Lord.

(p) Ez. xvii. 19. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, As I live, surely mine oath that he hath despised, and my covenant that he hath broken, even it will I recompense upon his own head.

20. And I will spread my net upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare; and I will bring him to Babylon, and will plead with him there for his trespass that he hath trespassed against me.

21. And all his fugitives with all his bands shall fall by the sword, and they that remain shall be scattered toward all winds; and ye shall know that I the Lord hath spoken it.

18 Moreover Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, (q) What have I offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison?

(q) Gen. xxxi. 36. And Jacob was wroth, and chode with Laban: and Jacob answered and said to Laban, What is my trespass, what is my sin, that thou hast so hotly pursued after me?

John x. 32. Jesus answered them, Many good works have I showed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?

Acts xxiv. 16. And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

xxv. 8. While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cesar, have I offended any thing at all.

Gal. iv. 16. Am I, therefore, become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

19 Where are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land?

20 Therefore, hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee: that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there.

21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah into the inner court of the prison, (r) and that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the baker's street, until all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

(r) Job v. 20. In famine he shall redeem thee from death; and in war from the power of the sword.

Ps. xxxiii. 18. Behold, the eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him; upon them that hope in his mercy;

12. To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.

xxxiv. 9. O fear the Lord, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him.

10. The young lions do lack and suffer hunger: but they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing.

xxxvii. 3. Trust in the Lord, and do good, so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

19. They shall not be ashamed in the evil time; and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

Prov. xvi. 7. When a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.

xxi. 1. The king's heart is in the hand of the Lord; as the rivers of water, he turneth it whithersoever he will.

Is. xxxiii. 16. He shall dwell on high; his place of defence shall be the munitions of rocks; bread shall be given him, his waters shall be sure.

Matt. vi. 33. But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness: and all these things shall be added unto you.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

THEN Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashur the son of Malchiah, heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken unto all the people, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD; He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live.

3 Thus saith the LORD, This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it.

4 Therefore the princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, let this man be put to death: for (a) thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the welfare of this people, but the hurt.

(a) Amos vii. 10. Then Amaziah, the priest of Beth-el, sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words.

Luke xxiii. 2. And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cesar, saying that he himself is Christ a king.

Acts xvi. 20. And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city.

xvii. 6. And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also.

xxiv. 5. For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes.

xxvii. 22. But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken against.

5 Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: (b) for the king is not he that can do any thing against you.

(b) 1 Sam. xv. 24. And Saul said unto Samuel, I have sinned; for I have transgressed the commandment of the Lord, and thy words; because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice.

xxix. 9. And Achish answered and said to David, I know that thou art good in my sight, as an angel of God: notwithstanding the princes of the Philistines have said, He shall not go up with us to the battle.

2 Sam. iii. 39. And I am this day weak, though anointed king: and these men the sons of Zeruiah be too hard for me: the Lord shall reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness.

xix. 22. And David said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah, that ye should this day be adversaries unto me? Shall there any man be put to death this day in Israel? for do not I know that I am this day king over Israel?

Prov. xxix. 25. The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord shall be safe.

6 Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. (c) And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in the mire.

(c) Gen. xxxvii. 24. And they took him, and cast him into a pit; and the pit was empty, there was no water in it.

Ps. xl. 2. He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.

lxix. 2. I sink in deep mire, where there is no standing: I am come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.

14. Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink: let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deep waters.

15. Let not the water-flood overflow me, neither let the deep swallow me up, and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.

Zech. ix. 11. As for thee also, by the blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

7 ¶ Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon; (the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin;)

8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spake to the king, saying,

9 My lord the king, (d) these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is; for there is no more bread in the city.

(d) Prov. xxxi. 8. Open thy mouth for the dumb in the cause of all such as are appointed to destruction.

9. Open thy mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the poor and needy.

10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die.

11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts, and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

12 And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine arm-holes, under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.

13 So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

14 ¶ Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing; hide nothing from me:

15 Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken unto me?

16 So Zedekiah the king sware secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD liveth, (e) that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life.

(e) Num. xvi. 22. And they fell upon their faces, and said, O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation?

Ec. xii. 7. Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was; and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

Is. lvii. 16. For I will not contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should fail before me, and the souls which I have made.

Zech. xii. 1. The burden of the word of the Lord for Israel, saith the Lord, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him.

17 Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; If thou wilt assuredly go forth unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house:

18 But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt not escape out of their hand.

19 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, (f) I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they (g) mock me.

(f) 1 Sam. xv. 24. And Saul said unto Samuel, I have sinned; for I have transgressed the commandment of the Lord, and thy words; because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice.

Job xxxi. 34. Did I fear a great multitude, or did the contempt of families terrify me, that I kept silence, and went not out of the door?

Prov. xxix. 25. The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord shall be safe.

Is. li. 12. I, even I, am he that comforteth you: who art thou, that thou shouldest be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as grass;

13. And forgetteth the Lord thy Maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and hath feared continually every day because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he were ready to destroy, and where is the fury of the oppressor?

lvii. 11. And of whom hast thou been afraid or feared, that thou hast lied, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? have not I held my peace even of old, and thou fearest me not?

John xii. 42. Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees, they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue.

(g) Judg. ix. 54. Then he called hastily unto the young man his armour-bearer, and said unto him, Draw thy sword, and slay me, that men say not of me, A woman slew him. And the young man thrust him through, and he died.

xvi. 25. And it came to pass, when their hearts were merry, that they said, Call for Samson, that he may make us sport. And they called for Samson out of the prison house; and he made them sport: and they set him between the pillars.

Is. xlv. 9. Wo unto him that striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherd of the earth. Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands?

10. Wo unto him that saith unto his father, What begetteth thou? or to the woman, What hast thou brought forth?

20 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee. Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee, so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live.

21 But if thou refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath showed me:

22 And, behold, all the women that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, Thy friends have set thee on, and have prevailed against thee; thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away back.

23 So they shall bring out all thy wives and thy children to the Chaldeans; and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and thou shalt cause this city to be burned with fire.

24 Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die.

25 But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death: also what the king said unto thee:

26 Then thou shalt say unto them, I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there.

27 Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him: and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived.

28 So Jeremiah (h) abode in the court of the prison, until the day that Jerusalem was taken: and he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

(h) 2 Tim. iii. 11. Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured; but out of them all, the Lord delivered me.

iv. 17. Notwithstanding the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

IN (a) the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it.

(a) Es. xxiv. 1. Again, in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2. Son of man, write thee the name of the day, even of this same day; the king of Babylon set himself against Jerusalem this same day.

Zech. viii. 19. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts: therefore love the truth and peace.

2 And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in (b) the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the city (c) was broken up.

(b) 2 Kings xxv. 3. And on the ninth day of the fourth month the famine prevailed in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the land.

(c) 2 Kings xxv. 4. And the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled by night, by the way of the gate between two walls, which is by the king's garden; (now the Chaldees were against the city round about:) and the king went the way toward the plain.

Ez. xxxiii. 21. And it came to pass in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, The city is smitten.

Mic. ii. 12. I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee. I will surely gather the remnant of Israel: I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, as the flock in the midst of their fold; they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men.

13. The breaker is come up before them; they have broken up and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it; and their king shall pass before them, and the Lord on the head of them.

Zeph. i. 10. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord, that there shall be the noise of a cry from the fish-gate, and an howling from the second, and a great crashing from the hills.

3 And all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, even Nergal-sharezar, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim, Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon.

4 And it came to pass, that (d) when Zedekiah the king of Judah saw them, and all the men of war, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate (e) betwixt the two walls; and he went out the way of the plain.

(d) Lev. xxvi. 17. And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be slain before your enemies; they that hate you shall reign over you; and ye shall flee when none pursueth.

36. And upon them that are left alive of you, I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies, and the sound of a shaken leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword: and they shall fall, when none pursueth.

Deut. xxviii. 25. The Lord shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them; and shalt be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

Is. xxx. 15. For thus saith the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel, In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength; and ye would not.

16. But ye said, No; for we will flee upon horses: therefore shall ye flee; and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue you be swift.

Amos ii. 14. Therefore the flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliver himself.

(e) 2 Chr. xxxii. 5. Also he strengthened himself, and built up all the wall that was broken, and raised it up to the towers, and another wall without, and repaired Millo in the city of David, and made darts and shields in abundance.

5 But the Chaldeans' army pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah (f) in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he gave judgment upon him.

(f) Josh. iv. 13. About forty thousand prepared for war, passed over before the Lord unto battle, to the plains of Jericho.

v. 10. And the children of Israel encamped in Gilgal, and kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the month at even, in the plains of Jericho.

6 Then the king of Babylon (g) slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah.

(g) 2 Kings xxv. 7. And they slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him with fetters of brass, and carried him to Babylon.

7 Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with chains, to carry him to Babylon.

8 And the Chaldeans burnt the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem.

9 Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard (h) carried away captive into Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to him, with the rest of the people that remained.

(h) Lev. xxvi. 33. And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you; and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste.

Deut. iv. 27. And the Lord shall scatter you among the nations, and ye shall be left few in number among the heathen, whither the Lord shall lead you.

2 Kings xx. 18. And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away: and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

Is. v. 13. Therefore my people are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge; and their honourable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst.

10 But Nebuzar-adan, the captain of the guard, (i) left of the poor of the people, which had nothing in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

(i) 2 Kings xxv. 12. But the captain of the guard left of the poor of the land to be vine-dressers and husbandmen.

Ez. xxxiii. 24. Son of man, they that inhabit those wastes of the land of Israel speak, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance.

11 ¶ Now Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, (k) gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzar-adan, the captain of the guard, saying, (k) Job v. 19. He shall deliver thee in six troubles; yea, in seven there shall no evil touch thee.

Acts xxiv. 23. And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

12 Take him, and look well to him, and (l) do him no harm; but do unto him even as he shall say unto thee.

(l) Ps. cv. 14. He suffered no man to do them wrong; yea, he reproveth kings for their sakes.

15. Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

Prov. xvi. 7. When a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.

xxi. 1. The king's heart is in the hand of the Lord; as the rivers of water; he turneth it whithersoever he will.

Acts vii. 10. And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour, and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt, and all his house.

1 Pet. iii. 13. And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

13 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushasban, Rab-saris, and Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, and all the king of Babylon's princes;

14 Even they sent and (m) took Jeremiah out of the court of the prison, and committed him unto Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he dwelt among the people.

(m) Ps. cv. 19. Until the time that his word came, the word of the Lord tried him.

20. The king sent, and loosed him; even the ruler of the people, and let him go free.

15 ¶ Now the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, (n) while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying, (n) 2 Tim. ii. 9. Wherein I suffer trouble as an evil-doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.

16 Go, and speak to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, (o) Behold, I will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not for good: and they shall be accomplished in that day before thee.

(o) Josh. xxiii. 14. And, behold, this day I am going the way of all the earth: and ye know in all your hearts, and in all your souls, that not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the Lord your God spake concerning you; all are come to pass unto you, and not one thing hath failed thereof.

15. Therefore it shall come to pass, that as all good things are come upon you, which the Lord your God promised you; so shall the Lord bring upon you all evil things, until he have destroyed you from off this good land, which the Lord your God hath given you.

Dan. ix. 12. And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

Matt. xxiv. 35. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my word shall not pass away.

17 But (p) I will deliver thee in that day, saith the LORD; and thou shalt not be given into the hand of the men (q) of whom thou art afraid.

(p) Ps. xli. 1. Blessed is he that considereth the poor; the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble.

2. The Lord will preserve him, and keep him alive; and he shall be blessed upon the earth: and thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies.

xc. 14. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

15. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.

(q) Gen. xv. 1. After these things, the word of the Lord came unto Abram in a vision, saying, Fear not, Abram: I am thy shield, and thy exceeding great reward.

18 For I will surely deliver thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword, but thy life shall be for a prey unto thee; (r) because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the LORD.

(r) Ruth ii. 12. The Lord recompense thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the Lord God of Israel, under whose wings thou art come to trust.

1 Chr. v. 20. And they were helped against them, and the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, and all that were with them: for they cried to God in the battle, and he was entreated of them; because they put their trust in him.

Ps. ii. 12. Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

xxxiii. 18. Behold, the eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him; upon them that hope in his mercy.

xxxiv. 22. The Lord redeemeth the soul of his servants; and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.

xxxvii. 3. Trust in the Lord, and do good, so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

40. And the Lord shall help them, and deliver them; he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, because they trust in him.

xxxiv. 12. O Lord of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

CHAPTER XL.

THE word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him, being bound in chains, among all that were carried away captive of Jerusalem and Judah, which were carried away captive unto Babylon.

2 And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said unto him, The LORD thy God hath pronounced this evil upon this place.

3 Now the LORD hath brought it, and done according as he hath said: because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you.

4 And now, behold, I loose thee this day from the chains which were upon thine hand. If it seem good unto thee to come with me into Babylon, come; and I will look well unto thee: but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me into Babylon, forbear: behold, (a) all the land is before thee: whither it seemeth good and convenient for thee to go, thither go.

(a) Gen. xiii. 9. Is not the whole land before thee? Separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: if thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if thou depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left.

xx. 15. And Abimelech said, Behold, my land is before thee; dwell where it pleaseth thee.

xlvi. 6. The land of Egypt is before thee: in the best of the land make thy father and brethren to dwell; in the land of Goshen let them dwell: and if thou knowest any men of activity among them, then make them rulers over my cattle.

5 Now while he was not yet gone back, he said, Go back also to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon hath made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people: or go wheresoever it seemeth convenient unto thee to go. So the captain of the guard gave him victuals and a reward, and let him go.

6 Then went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land.

7 ¶ Now when all the captains of the forces which were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, and of the poor of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Babylon;

8 Then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nathaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men.

9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan sware unto them, and to their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.

10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to serve the Chaldeans which will come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine, and summer-fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken.

11 Likewise when all the Jews that were in Moab, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan;

12 Even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer-fruits very much.

13 Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, 14 And said unto him, Dost thou certainly know that Baalis the king of the Ammonites hath sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to slay thee? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not.

15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spake to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, (b) Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: (c) wherefore should he slay thee, that all the Jews which are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant of Judah perish?

(b) 1 Sam. xxvi. 8. Then said Abishai to David, God hath delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day; now, therefore let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear, even to the earth at once, and I will not smite him the second time.

Job xxxi. 31. If the men of my tabernacle said not, Oh that we had of his flesh! we cannot be satisfied.

(c) 2 Sam. xviii. 3. But the people answered, Thou shalt not go forth: for if we flee away, they will not care for us: neither if half of us die, will they care for us: but now thou art worth ten thousand of us; therefore now it is better that thou succour us out of the city.

xxi. 17. But Abishai, the son of Zeruiah, succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David sware unto him, saying, Thou shalt go no more out with us to battle, that thou quench not the light of Israel.

John xi. 50. Nor consider that it is expedient for us that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said unto Johanan the son of Kareah, Thou shalt not do this thing; for thou speakest falsely of Ishmael.

CHAPTER XLI.

NOW it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there (a) they did eat bread together in Mizpah.

(a) Ps. xli. 9. Yea, mine own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, which did eat of my bread, hath lifted up his heel against me.

Dan. xi. 26. Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow; and many shall fall down slain.

27. And both these kings' hearts shall be to do mischief: and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper; for yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

2 Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land.

3 Ishmael also slew all the Jews that were with him, even with Gedaliah at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, and the men of war.

4 And it came to pass the second day (b) after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it,

(b) 1 Sam. xxvii. 11. And David saved neither man nor woman alive to bring tidings to Gath, saying, Lest they should tell on us, saying, So did David, and so will be his manner all the while he dwelleth in the country of the Philistines.

Ps. lii. 1. Why boastest thou thyself in mischief, O mighty man? the goodness of God endureth continually.

2. Thy tongue deviseth mischiefs: like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

5 That there came certain from (c) Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even fourscore men, having (d) their beards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the LORD.

(c) Gen. xxxiii. 18. And Jacob came to Shalem, a city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan-aran; and pitched his tent before the city.

Josh. xxiv. 32. And the bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel brought up out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem, in a parcel of ground which Jacob bought of the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem, for an hundred pieces of silver: and it became the inheritance of the children of Joseph.

Judg. ix. 1. And Abimelech, the son of Jerubbaal, went to Shechem unto his mother's brethren, and communed with them, and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying, (d) Lev. xix. 27. Ye shall not round the corners of your heads, neither shalt thou mar the corners of thy beard.

28. Ye shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor print any marks upon you: I am the Lord.

Deut. xiv. 1. Ye are the children of the Lord your God. Ye shall not cut yourselves, nor make any baldness between your eyes for the dead.

Is. xv. 2. He is gone up to Bajith, and to Di-bon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba: on all their heads shall be baldness; and every beard cut off.

6 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam.

7 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah (e) slew them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men that were with him.

(e) 2 Kings xv. 25. But Pekah, the son of Remaliah, a captain of his, conspired against him, and smote him in Samaria, in the palace of the king's house, with Argob and Arieah, and with him fifty men of the Gileadites: and he killed him, and reigned in his room.

Prov. i. 16. For their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood.

Is. lix. 7. Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths.

8 But ten men were found among them, that said unto Ishmael, (f) Slay us not; for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbore, and slew them not among their brethren.

(f) Job ii. 4. And Satan answered the Lord, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life.

Prov. xiii. 8. The ransom of a man's life are his riches: but the poor heareth not rebuke.

9 Now the pit wherein Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain because of Gedaliah, was it which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slain.

10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the Ammonites.

11 ¶ But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done,

12 Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon.

13 Now it came to pass, that when all the people, which were with Ishmael, saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, then they were glad.

14 So all the people that Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah, cast about and returned, and went unto Johanan the son of Kareah.

15 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah (g) escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the Ammonites.

(g) 1 Sam. xxx. 17. And David smote them from the twilight even unto the evening of the next day; and there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men, which rode upon camels, and fled.

1 Kings xx. 20. And they slew every one his man: and the Syrians fled, and Israel pursued them; and Bed-hadad the king of Syria escaped on an horse with the horsemen.

Prov. xxviii. 17. A man that doeth violence to the blood of any person shall flee to the pit; let no man stay him.

16 Then took Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, all the remnant of the people, whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, (after that he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam,) even mighty men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought again from Gibeon:

17 And they departed, and dwelt in the habitation of Chimham, which is by Bethlehem, (h) to go to enter into Egypt, (h) Is. xxx. 2. That walk to go down into Egypt, and have not asked at my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt.

3. Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt your confusion.

18 Because of the Chaldeans: (i) for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor in the land.

(i) Is. li. 12. I, even I, am he that comforteth you: who art thou that thou shouldest be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as grass;

13. And forgettest the Lord, thy Maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and hast feared continually every day because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he were ready to destroy? and where is the fury of the oppressor?

Ivii. 11. And of whom hast thou been afraid or feared, that thou hast lied, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? have not I held my peace ever of old, and thou fearest me not?

Luke xii. 4. And I say unto you, my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do:

5. But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which, after he hath killed, hath power to cast into hell: yea, I say unto you, Fear him.

CHAPTER XLII.

THEN all the captains of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people (a) from the least even unto the greatest, (b) came near,

(a) Acts viii. 10. To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

(b) Is. xxix. 13. Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men.

xlviii. 1. Hear ye this, O house of Jacob, which are called by the name of Israel, and are come forth out of the waters of Judah, which swear by the name of the Lord, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness.

2 And said unto Jeremiah the prophet, Let, we beseech thee, our supplication be accepted before thee, and pray for us unto the LORD thy God, even for all this remnant; (for we are (c) left but a few of many, as thine eyes do behold us:)

(c) Lev. xxvi. 22. I will also send wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number, and your highways shall be desolate.

Deut. iv. 27. And the Lord shall scatter you among the nations, and ye shall be left few in number among the heathen, whither the Lord shall lead you.

xxviii. 62. And ye shall be left few in number, whereas ye were as the stars of heaven for multitude; because thou wouldest not obey the voice of the Lord thy God.

Is. i. 9. Except the Lord of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

Ez. xii. 16. But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence, that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen, whither they come; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

3 That the LORD thy God (d) may show us the way wherein we may walk, and the thing that we may do.

(d) 1 Kings viii. 36. Then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, that thou teach them the good way wherein they should walk, and give rain upon thy land which thou hast given to thy people for an inheritance.

Ezra viii. 21. Then I proclaimed a fast there at the river Ahava, that we might afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.

Ps. xxv. 4. Show me thy ways, O Lord; teach me thy paths.

5. Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.

lxxxvi. 11. Teach me thy way, O Lord; I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name.

Prov. iii. 6. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

Mark xii. 13. And they sent unto him certain of the Pharisees, and of the Herodians, to catch him in his words.

14. And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man; for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Cesar, or not?

4 Then Jeremiah the prophet said unto them, I have heard you: behold, (e) I will pray unto the LORD your God according to your words; and it shall come to pass, that (f) whatsoever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it unto you; (g) I will keep nothing back from you.

(e) Ex. viii. 29. And Moses said, Behold, I go out from thee, and I will entreat the Lord that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, to-morrow: but let not Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more, in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the Lord.

1 Sam. xii. 23. Moreover, as for me, God forbid that I should sin against the Lord in ceasing to pray for you: but I will teach you the good and the right way.

Rom. x. 1. Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel, is, that they might be saved.

(f) Ez. ii. 7. And thou shalt speak my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear; for they are most rebellious.

(g) 1 Sam. iii. 17. And he said, What is the thing that the Lord hath said unto thee? I pray thee hide it not from me: God do so to thee, and more also, if thou hide any thing from me of all the things that he said unto thee.

18. And Samuel told him every whit, and hid nothing from him. And he said, It is the Lord; let him do what seemeth him good.

Ps. xl. 10. I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy loving-kindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

Acts xx. 20. And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have showed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house.

27. For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.

5 Then they said to Jeremiah, (h) The LORD be a true and faithful witness between us, (i) if we do not even according to all things, for the which the LORD thy God shall send thee to us.

(h) Gen. xxxi. 50. If thou shalt afflict my daughters, or if thou shalt take other wives besides my daughters, no man is with us; see, God is witness betwixt me and thee.

Judg. xi. 10. And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, The Lord be witness between us, if we do not so according to thy words.

1 Sam. xii. 5. And he said unto them, The Lord is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that ye have not found aught in my hand. And they answered, He is witness.

Mic. i. 2. Hear, all ye people: hearken, O earth, and all that therein is; and let the Lord God be witness against you, the Lord from his holy temple.

Mal. ii. 14. Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the Lord hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

Rom. i. 9. For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers.

(i) Deut. v. 27. Go thou near, and hear all that the Lord our God shall say; and speak thou unto us all that the Lord our God shall speak unto thee; and we will hear it, and do it.

28. And the Lord heard the voice of your words, when ye spake unto me; and the Lord said unto me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people, which they have spoken unto thee: they have well said all that they have spoken.

29. Oh that there were such a heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my commandments always, that it might be well with them, and with their children for ever!

6 Whether (k) it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send thee; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our God.

(k) Rom. vii. 7. What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet:

13. Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

viii. 7. Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

7 ¶ And it came to pass (l) after ten days, that the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah.

(l) Ps. xxvii. 14. Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart; wait, I say, on the Lord.

Is. xxviii. 16. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner-stone, a new foundation; he that believeth shall not make haste.

Hab. ii. 3. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

8 Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest,

9 And said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto whom ye sent me to present your supplication before him:

10 If ye will still (m) abide in this land, (n) then will I build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up: for (o) I repent me of the evil that I have done unto you.

(m) Gen. xxvi. 2. And the Lord appeared unto him, and said, Go not down into Egypt: dwell in the land which I shall tell thee of.

3. Sojourn in this land, and I will be with thee, and will bless thee: for unto thee, and unto thy seed, I will give all these countries; and I will perform the oath which I swore unto Abraham thy father.

Ps. xxxvii. 3. Trust in the Lord, and do good, so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

(n) Ps. lxxix. 35. For God will save Zion, and will build the cities of Judah; that they may dwell there, and have it in possession.

cii. 16. When the Lord shall build up Zion, he shall appear in his glory.

Ez. xxxvi. 36. Then the heathen that are left round about you, shall know that I the Lord build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate; I the Lord have spoken it, and I will do it.

Acts xv. 16. After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up.

(o) Ez. xxxii. 14. And the Lord repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people.

Deut. xxxii. 36. For the Lord shall judge his people, and repent himself for his servants; when he seeth that their power is gone, and there is none shut up or left.

Judg. ii. 18. And when the Lord raised them up judges, then the Lord was with the judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge: for it repented the Lord because of their groanings by reason of them that oppressed them and vexed them.

Ps. cvi. 45. And he remembered them for his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies.

Joel ii. 13. And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God; for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

Amos vii. 3. The Lord repenteth for this; It shall not be, saith the Lord.

11 Be not (p) afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom ye are afraid; be not afraid of him, saith the LORD:

(q) for I am with you, to save you, and to deliver you from his hand.

(p) 2 Kings xxv. 26. And all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the army, arose, and came to Egypt: for they were afraid of the Chaldees.

(q) Deut. xx. 4. For the Lord your God is he that goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.

Josh. i. 5. There shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life. As I was with Moses, so will I be with thee; I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

2 Chr. xxxii. 7. Be strong and courageous, be not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him: for there be more with us than with him.

8. With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the Lord our God, to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

Ps. xli. 7. The Lord of hosts is with us, the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

12 And I will show mercies unto you, (r) that he may have mercy upon you, and cause you to return to your own land.

(r) Neh. i. 11. O Lord, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's cup-bearer.

Ps. cvi. 46. He made them also to be pitied of all those that carried them captives.

Prov. xvi. 7. When a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.

13 But (s) if ye say, We will not dwell in this land, neither obey the voice of the LORD your God, (s) Ex. v. 2. And Pharaoh said, Who is the Lord, that I should obey his voice, to let Israel go? I know not the Lord, neither will I let Israel go.

14 Saying, No; but (t) we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, (u) nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell:

(t) Deut. xxix. 19. And it came to pass, when he heareth the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the imagination of mine heart, to add drunkenness to thirst.

Is. xxx. 16. But ye said, No; for we will flee upon horses: therefore shall ye flee; and, We will ride upon the swift: therefore shall they that pursue you be swift.

xxi. 1. Wo to them that go down to Egypt for help, and stay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong: but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, neither seek the Lord!

(u) Ez. xvi. 3. And the children of Israel said unto them, Would to God we had died by the hand of the Lord in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the flesh-pots, and when we did eat bread to the full; for ye have brought us forth into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger.

xvii. 3. And the people thirsted there for water; and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore is this that thou hast brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us, and our children, and our cattle with thirst?

Num. xi. 5. We remember the fish, which we did eat in Egypt freely; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlic.

xvi. 13. Is it a small thing that thou hast brought us up out of a land that floweth with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, except thou make thyself altogether a prince over us?

15 And now, therefore, hear the word of the LORD, ye remnant of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; (x) If ye wholly set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there;

(x) Gen. xxxi. 21. So he fled with all that he had, and he rose up, and passed over the river, and set his face toward the mount Gilead.

Deut. xvii. 16. But he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he should multiply horses: forasmuch as the Lord hath said unto you, Ye shall henceforth return no more that way.

Luke ix. 51. And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he steadfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem.

16 Then it shall come to pass, (y) that the sword, which ye feared, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine, whereof ye were afraid, shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there ye shall die.

(y) Deut. xxviii. 15. But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to observe to do all his commandments, and his statutes, which I command thee this day, that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee.

22. The Lord shall smite thee with a consumption, and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with the sword, and with blasting, and with mildew: and they shall pursue thee until thou perish.

Prov. xiii. 21. Evil pursueth sinners; but to the righteous, good shall be repaid.

Ez. xi. 8. Ye have feared the sword; and I will bring a sword upon you, saith the Lord God.

17 So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there; they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them.

18 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As mine anger and my fury hath been poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem; so shall my fury be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt; and ye shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and ye shall see this place no more.

19 The LORD hath said concerning you, O ye remnant of Judah; Go ye not into Egypt: know certainly that I have admonished you this day.

20 For ye dissembled in your hearts, when ye sent me unto the LORD your God, saying, Pray for us unto the LORD our God; and according unto all that the LORD our God shall say, so declare unto us, and we will do it.

21 And now I have this day declared it to you; but ye have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, nor any thing for the which he hath sent me unto you.

22 Now, therefore, know certainly that ye shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place whither ye desire to go and to sojourn.

CHAPTER XLIII.

AND it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words,

2 Then spake Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and (a) all the proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there;

(a) Ex. v. 2. And Pharaoh said, Who is the Lord, that I should obey his voice, to let Israel go? I know not the Lord, neither will I let Israel go.

ix. 17. As yet exaltest thou thyself against my people, that thou wilt not let them go?

Ps. x. 4. The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God: God is not in all his thoughts.

5. His ways are always grievous; thy judgments are far above out of his sight: as for all his enemies, he puffeth at them.

cxxiii. 4. Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud.

Prov. vi. 17. A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood.

xvi. 5. Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the Lord: though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished.

18. Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.

19. Better is it to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.

xxx. 9. Lest I be full, and deny thee, and say, Who is the Lord? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain.

Hab. ii. 4. Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith.

5. Yea, also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people.

James iv. 6. But he giveth more grace: wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

3 But Baruch the son of Neriah, setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon.

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah.

5 But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations, whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah;

6 Even men, and women, and children, and the king's daughters, and every person that Nebuzardan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah.

7 So they came into the land of Egypt; for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: thus came they even to Tahpanhes.

8 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,

9 Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay (b) in the brick-kiln, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah;

(b) Ex. i. 14. And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, in mortar, and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field; all their service, wherein they made them serve, was with rigour.

2 Sam. xii. 31. And he brought forth the people that were therein, and put them under saws, and under harrows of iron, and made them pass through the brick-kiln: and thus did he unto all the cities of the children of Ammon. So David and all the people returned unto Jerusalem.

Nah. iii. 14. Draw thee waters for the siege, fortify thy strong holds: go into clay, and tread the mortar, make strong the brick-kiln.

10 And say unto them, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid: and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them.

11 And when he cometh, he shall smite the land of Egypt; and deliver such as are for death to death; and such as are for captivity, to captivity; and such as are for the sword, to the sword.

12 And I will kindle a fire (c) in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captives; and he shall (d) array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd (e) putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence in peace.

(c) Ex. xii. 12. For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the Lord.

2 Sam. v. 21. And there they left their images, and David and his men burned them.

Is. xix. 1. The burden of Egypt. Behold, the Lord rideth upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt; and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it.

xxi. 9. And, behold, here cometh a chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, Babylon is fallen, is fallen; and all the graven images of her gods he hath broken unto the ground.

Ez. xxx. 13. Thus saith the Lord God, I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause their images to cease out of Noph; and there shall be no more a prince of the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt.

Zeph. ii. 11. The Lord will be terrible unto them: for he will famish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

(d) Job xl. 10. Deck thyself now with majesty and excellency, and array thyself with glory and beauty.

(e) Ps. cix. 18. As he clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment, so let it come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones.

19. Let it be unto him as the garment which covereth him, and for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually.

Is. lix. 17. For he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head: and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloak.

Rom. xiii. 12. The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us, therefore, cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light.

13 He shall break also the images of Beth-shemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians shall he burn with fire.

CHAPTER XLIV.

THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews which dwell in the land of Egypt, which dwell at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Noph, and in the country of Pathros, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and, behold, this day they are (a) a desolation, and no man dwelleth therein,

(a) Lev. xxvi. 32. And I will bring the land into desolation, and your enemies which dwell therein shall be astonished at it.

33. And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you; and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste.

2 Kings xxi. 13. And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down.

Is. vi. 11. Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate.

xxiv. 12. In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.

Lxiv. 10. Thy holy cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.

11. Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, is burnt up with fire: and all our pleasant things are laid waste.

Lam. v. 18. Because of the mountain of Zion, which is desolate; the foxes walk upon it.

Mic. iii. 12. Therefore shall Zion for your sake be ploughed as a field; and Jerusalem shall become heaps; and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

3 Because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, and to serve other gods, whom they knew not, neither they, ye, nor your fathers.

4 Howbeit, I sent unto you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate.

5 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods.

6 Wherefore my fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as at this day.

7 Therefore now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; Wherefore commit ye this great evil (b) against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, (c) child and suckling, out of Judah, to leave you none to remain;

(b) Num. xvi. 38. The censurers of these sinners against their own souls, let them make them broad plates for a covering of the altar; for they offered them before the Lord, therefore they are hallowed: and they shall be a sign unto the children of Israel.

Prov. i. 18. And they lay wait for their own blood; they lurk privily for their own lives.

v. 22. His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be holden with the cords of his sins.

viii. 36. But he that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul; all they that hate me love death.

xv. 32. He that refuseth instruction despiseth his own soul: but he that heareth reproof getteth understanding.

Ez. xxxiii. 11. Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye, from your evil ways: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

Hab. ii. 10. Thou hast consulted shame to thy house, by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against thy soul.

(c) Deut. xxxii. 25. The sword without, and terror within, shall destroy both the young man and the virgin, the suckling also, with the man of gray hairs.

1 Sam. xv. 3. Now go, and smite Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass.

xxii. 19. And Nob, the city of the priests, smote he with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and sucklings, and oxen, and asses, and sheep, with the edge of the sword.

Lam. ii. 11. Mine eyes do fail with tears, my bowels are troubled, my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because the children and the sucklings swoon in the streets of the city.

8 In that ye provoke me unto wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off, and that ye might be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

9 Have ye forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

10 They (d) are not humbled even unto this day, (e) neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers.

(d) Ez. ix. 17. As yet exaltest thou thyself against my people, that thou wilt not let them go?

x. 3. And Moses and Aaron came in unto Pharaoh, and said unto him, Thus saith the Lord God of the Hebrews, How long wilt thou refuse to humble thyself before me? Let my people go, that they may serve me.

1 Kings xxi. 29. Seest thou how Ahab humbled himself before me? Because he humbled himself before me, I will not bring evil in his days; but in his son's days will I bring the evil upon his house.

1 Pet. v. 6. Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time.

(e) Ez. ix. 30. But as for thee and thy servants, I know that ye will not yet fear the Lord God.

Prov. viii. 13. The fear of the Lord is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate.

xvi. 6. By mercy and truth iniquity is purged; and by the fear of the Lord men depart from evil.

xxviii. 14. Happy is the man that feareth always: but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief.

Mat. xxvii. 54. Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.

Luke xxiii. 40. But the other, answering, rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

Rom. xi. 20. Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not high-minded, but fear.

11 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, (f) I will set my face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah.

(f) Lev. xvii. 10. And whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you that eateth any manner of blood; I will even set my face against that soul that eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people.

xx. 5. Then will I set my face against that man, and against his family, and will cut him off, and all that go a whoring after him, to commit whoredom with Molech, from among their people.

6. And the soul that turneth after such as have familiar spirits, and after wizards, to go a whoring after them, I will even set my face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people.

xxvi. 17. And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be slain before your enemies: they that hate you shall reign over you; and ye shall flee when none pursueth you.

Ps. xxxiv. 16. The face of the Lord is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

Ez. xiv. 8. And I will set my face against that man, and will make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people: and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

12 And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt: they shall even be consumed by the sword and by the famine: they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest, by the sword and by the famine: (g) and they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach.

(g) Is. lxxv. 13. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed.

15. And ye shall leave your name for a curse unto my chosen: for the Lord God shall slay thee, and call his servants by another name.

13 For I will punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence:

14 So that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, (h) shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they have a desire to return to dwell there; (i) for none shall return but such as shall escape.

(h) Matt. xxiii. 33. Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers! how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

Rom. ii. 3. And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

Heb. ii. 3. How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation, which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him.

(i) Is. iv. 2. In that day shall the branch of the Lord be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely for them that are escaped of Israel.

x. 20. And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, shall no more again stay upon him that smote them; but shall stay upon the Lord, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.

Rom. ix. 27. Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved.

15 ¶ Then (k) all the men which knew that their wives had burnt incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Patros, answered Jeremiah, saying,

(k) Gen. xix. 4. But before they lay down, the men of the city, even the men of Sodom, compassed the house round, both old and young, all the people from every quarter.

Prov. xi. 21. Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered.

Is. i. 5. Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more. The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

Matt. vii. 13. Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat.

2 Pet. ii. 1. But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2. And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

16 As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, (l) we will not hearken unto thee.

(l) Ex. v. 2. And Pharaoh said, Who is the Lord, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not the Lord, neither will I let Israel go.

Job xv. 25. For he stretcheth out his hand against God, and strengtheneth himself against the Almighty.

26. He runneth upon him, even on his neck, upon the thick bosses of his bucklers;

27. Because he covereth his face with his fatness, and maketh collops of fat on his flanks.

xxi. 14. Therefore they say unto God, Depart from us: for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.

15. What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? and what profit should we have if we pray unto him?

Ps. ii. 3. Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.

lxxiii. 8. They are corrupt; and speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak loftily.

9. They set their mouth against the heavens; and their tongue walketh through the earth.

Is. iii. 9. The show of their countenance doth witness against them, and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not: Wo unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves.

Luke xix. 14. But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

17 But we will certainly do (m) whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her, (n) as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem; for (o) then had we plenty of victuals, and were well, and saw no evil.

(m) Num. xxx. 2. If a man vow a vow unto the Lord, or swear an oath to bind his soul with a bond; he shall not break his word, he shall do according to all that proceedeth out of his mouth.

Deut. xxiii. 23. That which is gone out of thy lips thou shalt keep and perform; even a free-will-offering, according as thou hast vowed unto the Lord thy God, which thou hast promised with thy mouth.

Judg. xi. 36. And she said unto him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth unto the Lord, do to me according to that which hath proceeded out of thy mouth: forasmuch as the Lord hath taken vengeance for thee of thine enemies, even of the children of Ammon.

(n) 2 Kings xxii. 17. Because they have forsaken me, and have burnt incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands, therefore my wrath shall be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched.

Neh. ix. 34. Neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments, and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them.

1 Pet. i. 18. Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers.

(o) Is. xlviii. 5. I have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass I showed it thee: lest thou shouldest say, Mine idol hath done them; and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them.

Hos. ii. 5. For their mother hath played the harlot; she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my drink.

8. For she did not know that I gave her corn, and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they prepared for Baal.

Phil. iii. 19. Whose end is destruction, whose god is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.

18 But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword, and by the famine.

19 And when we burnt incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink-offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink-offerings unto her, (p) without our men?

(p) Gen. iii. 6. And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her, and he did eat.

Deut. vii. 3. Neither shalt thou make marriages with them; thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son.

4. For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve other gods: so will the anger of the Lord be kindled against you, and destroy thee suddenly.

1 Kings xxi. 25. But there was none like unto Ahab, which did sell himself to work wickedness in the sight of the Lord, whom Jezebel his wife stirred up.

20 Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people which had given him that answer, saying,

21 The incense that ye burnt in the cities of Judah, (q) and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, (r) did not the LORD remember them, and came it not into his mind?

(q) Ez. xvii. 24. That thou hast also built unto thee an eminent place, and hast made thee an high place in every street.

(r) 1 Sam. xv. 2. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, I remember that which Amalek did to Israel, how he laid wait for him in the way when he came up from Egypt.

1 Kings xvii. 18. And she said unto Elijah, What have I to do with thee, O thou man of God? art thou come unto me to call my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son?

Ps. lxxix. 8. O remember not against us former iniquities: let thy tender mercies speedily prevent us; for we are brought very low.

Is. lxiv. 9. Be not wroth very sore, O Lord, neither remember iniquity for ever: behold, see, we beseech thee, we are all thy people.

Ios. vii. 2. And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are before my face.

Amos viii. 7. The Lord hath sworn by the excellency of Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their works.

22 So that the LORD (s) could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as it is this day.

(s) Gen. vi. 3. And the Lord said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years.

Ps. xcv. 10. Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways:

11. Unto whom I swear in my wrath, that they should not enter into my rest.

Is. i. 24. Therefore saith the Lord, the Lord of hosts, the Mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies.

Amos ii. 13. Behold, I am pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves.

23 Because ye have burnt incense, and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day.

24 Moreover, Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, (t) Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah that are in the land of Egypt:

(t) 1 Kings xxii. 19. And he said, Hear thou, therefore, the word of the Lord: I saw the Lord sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him, on his right hand, and on his left.

Is. i. 10. Hear the word of the Lord, ye rulers of Solomon; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah.

xxviii. 14. Wherefore hear the word of the Lord, ye scornful men that rule this people which is in Jerusalem.

25 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows.

26 Therefore hear ye the word of the LORD, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt; Behold, (u) I have sworn by my great name, saith the LORD, (x) that my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man in Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord God liveth.

(u) Gen. xxii. 16. And said, By myself have I sworn, saith the Lord, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son.

Num. xiv. 21. But as truly as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the Lord.

28. Say unto them, As truly as I live, saith the Lord, as ye have spoken in mine ears, so will I do to you.

Deut. xxxii. 40. For I lift up my hand to heaven, and say, I live for ever.

41. If I whet my glittering sword, and mine hand take hold on judgment, I will render vengeance to mine enemies, and will reward them that hate me.

42. I will make mine arrows drunk with blood, and my sword shall devour flesh; and that with the blood of the slain, and of the captives, from the beginning of revenges upon the enemy.

Ps. lxxxix. 34. My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.

Is. lxii. 8. The Lord hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I will no more give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine for the which thou hast laboured.

Amos vi. 8. The Lord God hath sworn by himself, saith the Lord, the God of hosts, I abhor the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city, with all that is therein.

viii. 7. The Lord hath sworn by the excellency of Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their works.

Heb. iii. 18. And to whom swear he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?

vi. 13. For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he swore by himself.

18. That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge, to lay hold upon the hope set before us.

(x) Ps. i. 16. But unto the wicked God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldst take my covenant in thy mouth?

Ez. xx. 59. As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord God; Go ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: but pollute ye my holy name no more with your gifts, and with your idols.

27 Behold, I will watch over them for evil, and not for good; and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt, shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them.

28 Yet a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah; and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, (y) shall know whose words shall stand, mine, or theirs.

(y) Ps. xxxiii. 11. The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

Is. xiv. 24. The Lord of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand;

25. That I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders.

26. This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth; and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations.

27. For the Lord of hosts hath purposed, and who shall disannul it? and his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?

xvii. 10. Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure:

11. Calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man that executeth my counsel from a far country; yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it.

Lam. iii. 37. Who is he that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the Lord commandeth it not?

38. Out of the mouth of the Most High proceedeth not evil and good.

Matt. xxiv. 35. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my word shall not pass away.

29 And this shall be a sign unto you, saith the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that (z) my words shall surely stand against you for evil:

(z) Prov. xix. 21. There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless the counsel of the Lord, that shall stand.

Is. xl. 8. The grass withereth, the flower fadeth; but the word of our God shall stand for ever.

30 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give Pharaoh-hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seek his life, as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, his enemy, and that sought his life.

CHAPTER XLV.

THE word that Jeremiah the prophet spake unto Baruch, the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book, at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, (a) unto thee, O Baruch;

(a) Mark xvi. 7. But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.

2 Cor. vii. 6. Nevertheless, God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus.

Heb. iv. 15. For we have not an high priest which can not be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.

3 Thou didst say, (b) Wo is me now! for the LORD hath (c) added grief to my sorrow: (d) I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest.

(b) Ps. cxx. 5. Wo is me that I sojourn in Mesech, that I dwell in the tents of Kedar!

Jer. ix. 1. Oh that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!

(c) Job xvi. 11. God hath delivered me to the ungodly, and turned me over into the hands of the wicked.

12. I was at ease, but he hath broken me asunder: he hath also taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces, and set me up for his mark.

13. His archers compass me round about; he cleaveth my reins asunder, and doth not spare; he poureth out my gall upon the ground.

Ps. xlii. 7. Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of the water-spouts: all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.

Lam. iii. 32. But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.

(d) Prov. xxiv. 10. If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is small.

Lam. i. 13. From above hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaileth against them: he hath spread a net for my feet; he hath turned me back; he hath made me desolate and faint all the day.

2 Cor. iv. 1. Therefore, seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not.

Gal. vi. 9. And let us not be weary in well-doing; for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

4 Thus shalt thou say unto him, The LORD saith thus; Behold, (e) that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land.

(e) Gen. vi. 6. And it repented the Lord that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart.

7. And the Lord said, I will destroy man, whom I have created, from the face of the earth; both man and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air: for it repenteth me that I have made them.

Is. v. 2. And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a wine-press therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.

3. And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

4. What could have been done more to my vineyard that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?

5. And now, go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down:

6. And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned nor digged; but there shall come up briars and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

5 And (f) seekest thou great things for thyself? seek them not: for, behold, (g) I will bring evil upon all flesh, saith the LORD: but (h) thy life will I give unto thee for a prey, in all places whither thou goest.

(f) 2 Kings v. 26. And he said unto him, Went not my heart with thee, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and olive-yards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and men-servants, and maid-servants?

Rom. xii. 16. Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

Heb. xiii. 5. Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

(g) Gen. vi. 12. And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

Is. lxvi. 16. For by fire and by his sword will the Lord plead for all flesh: and the slain of the Lord shall be many.

(h) Jer. xxxviii. 2. Thus saith the Lord, He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live.

xxxix. 18. For I will surely deliver thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword, but thy life shall be for a prey unto thee; because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the Lord.

CHAPTER XLVI.

THE word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet, (a) against the Gentiles;

(a) Gen. x. 5. By these were the isles of the Gentiles divided in their lands; every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations.

Num. xxiii. 9. For from the top of the rocks I see him, and from the hills I behold him: lo, the people shall dwell alone, and shall not be reckoned among the nations.

Zech. ii. 8. For thus saith the Lord of hosts, After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you; for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye.

Rom. iii. 29. Is he the God of the Jews only? Is he not also of the Gentiles? yes, of the Gentiles also.

2 Against Egypt, against the army of Pharaoh-necho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah.

3 (b) Order ye the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle.

(b) Is. viii. 9. Associate yourselves, O ye people, and ye shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces.

10. Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for God is with us.

xxi. 5. Prepare the table, watch in the watch-tower, eat, drink: arise, ye princes, and anoint the shield.

Joel iii. 9. Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near, let them come up.

Nah. ii. 1. He that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily.

4 Harness the horses; and get up, ye horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; (c) furbish the spears, and put on (d) the brigandines.

(c) Ez. xxi. 9. Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Lord; Say, A sword, a sword is sharpened, and also furbished:

10. It is sharpened to make a sore slaughter: it is furbished that it may glitter: should we then make mirth? it contemneth the rod of my son, as every tree.

11. And he hath given it to be furbished, that it may be handled: this sword is sharpened, and it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the slayer.

28. And thou, son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Lord God concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their reproach; even say thou, The sword, the sword is drawn; for the slaughter it is furbished, to consume because of the glittering.

(d) Jer. vi. 3. Against him that bendeth let the archer bend his bow, and against him that lifteth himself up in his brigandine; and spare ye not her young men; destroy ye utterly all her host.

5 Wherefore have I seen them dismayed, and turned away back? and their mighty ones are beaten down, and are fled apace, and look not back: for (e) fear was round about, saith the LORD.

(e) Is. xix. 16. In that day shall Egypt be like unto women; and it shall be afraid and fear, because of the shaking of the hand of the Lord of hosts, which he shaketh over it.

Ez. xxxii. 10. Yea, I will make many people amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy life.

Rev. vi. 15. And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every freeman, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

16. And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17. For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?

6 Let (f) not the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; they shall (g) stumble, and fall toward the north by the river Euphrates.

(f) Ps. xxxiii. 16. There is no king saved by the multitude of a host: a mighty man is not delivered by much strength.

17. A horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great strength.

cxlvii. 10. He delighteth not in the strength of the horse; he taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man.

Is. xxx. 16. But ye said, No; for we will flee upon horses; therefore shall ye flee; and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue you be swift.

17. One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee; till ye be left as a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on a hill.

(g) Ps. xxvii. 2. When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

Is. viii. 15. And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.

Dan. xi. 19. Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble, and fall, and not be found.

7 (h) Who is this that cometh up (i) as a flood, whose waters are moved as the rivers?

(h) Cant. iii. 5. Who is this that cometh out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant?

Is. lxiii. 1. Who is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

(i) Jer. xlvii. 2. Thus saith the Lord, Behold, waters rise up out of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land, and all that is therein; the city, and them that dwell therein: then the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall howl.

Dan. ix. 26. And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

Amos viii. 8. Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.

Rev. xii. 15. And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

8 Egypt riseth up like a flood, and his waters are moved like the rivers; and he saith, I will go up, and will cover the earth; I will destroy the city, and the inhabitants thereof.

9 Come up, ye horses; and (k) rage, ye chariots; and let the mighty men come forth; the Ethiopians, and the Libyans, that handle the shield; and the (l) Lydians, that handle and bend the bow.

(k) Nah. ii. 4. The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall justle one against another in the broad ways: they shall seem like torches, they shall run like the lightnings.

(l) Is. lxvi. 19. And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those that escape of them unto the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles.

Ez. xxvii. 10. They of Persia, and of Lud, and of Phut; even in thine army thy men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in thee; they set forth thy comeliness.

xxx. 5. Ethiopia, and Lybia, and Lydia, and all the mingled people, and Chub, and the men of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.

10 For this is (m) the day of the Lord GOD of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and (n) the sword shall devour, and it shall be satiate, and made drunk with their blood: for the Lord GOD of hosts hath a sacrifice in the north country, by the river Euphrates.

(m) Is. xlii. 6. Howl ye; for the day of the Lord is at hand; it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty.

xxxiv. 8. For it is the day of the Lord's vengeance, and the year of recompenses for the controversy of Zion.

lxi. 2. To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn.

Joel i. 15. Alas for the day! for the day of the Lord is at hand, and as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come.

Zeph. i. 14. The great day of the Lord is near; it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the Lord: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.

15. That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness.

Luke xxi. 22. For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

(n) Deut. xxxii. 42. I will make mine arrows drunk with blood, and my sword shall devour flesh, and that with the blood of the slain and of the captives, from the beginning of revenges upon the enemy.

Is. xxxiv. 5. For my sword shall be bathed in heaven: behold, it shall come down upon Idumea, and upon the people of my curse, to judgment.

6. The sword of the Lord is filled with blood; it is made fat with fatness, and with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams: for the Lord hath a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Idumea.

11 Go up into Gilead, and take balm, O virgin, the daughter of Egypt: (o) in vain shalt thou use many medicines; for thou shalt not be cured.

(o) Ez. xxx. 21. Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and, lo, it shall not be bound up to be healed, to put a roller to bind it, to make it strong to hold the sword.

22. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand.

Mic. i. 9. For her wound is incurable; for it is come unto Judah: he is come unto the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem.

Nah. iii. 19. There is no healing of thy bruise; thy wound is grievous: all that hear the bruit of thee shall clap the hand over thee: for upon whom hath not thy wickedness passed continually.

Mark v. 26. And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse.

12 The nations have (p) heard of thy shame, (q) and thy cry hath filled the land: for the mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty, and they are fallen both together.

(p) Ez. xxxii. 9. I will also vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known.

10. Yea, I will make many people amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall.

11. For thus saith the Lord GOD, The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee.

12. By the swords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall, the terrible of the nations, all of them; and they shall spoil the pomp of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shall be destroyed.

(q) 1 Sam. v. 12. And the men that died not were smitten with the emerods: and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

Zeph. i. 10. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord, that there shall be the noise of a cry from the fish-gate, and a howling from the second, and a great crashing from the hills.

13 ¶ The word that the LORD spake to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon should come, and smite the land of Egypt.

14 Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Noph, and in Tahpanhes: say ye, (r) Stand fast, and prepare thee; for (s) the sword shall devour round about thee.

(r) Joel iii. 9. Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up:

10. Beat your plough-shares into swords, and your pruning-hooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong.

11. Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about; thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O Lord.

12. Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about.

(s) 2 Sam. ii. 26. Then Abner called to Joab, and said, Shall the sword devour for ever? knowest thou not that it will be bitterness in the latter end? how long shall it be then, ere thou bid the people return from following their brethren?

Is. i. 20. But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

xxxi. 8. Then shall the Assyrian fall with the sword, not of a mighty man; and the sword, not of a mean man, shall devour him: but he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall be discomfited.

15 Why (t) are thy valiant men swept away? they stood not, because (u) the LORD did drive them.

(t) Judg. v. 20. They fought from heaven; the stars in their courses fought against Sisera.

21. The river of Kishon swept them away, that ancient river, the river Kishon. O my soul, thou hast trodden down strength.

Is. lvi. 15. For, behold, the Lord will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.

16. For by fire and by his sword will the Lord plead with all flesh: and the slain of the Lord shall be many.

(u) Ex. vi. 1. Then the Lord said unto Moses, Now shalt thou see what I will do to Pharaoh: for with a strong hand shall he let them go, and with a strong hand shall he drive them out of his land.

Deut. xi. 23. Then will the Lord drive out all these nations from before you, and ye shall possess greater nations and mightier than yourselves.

Ps. lxxviii. 2. As smoke is driven away, so drive them away: as wax melteth before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.

16 He made many to fall, yea, (x) one fell upon another; and they said, (y) Arise, and let us go again unto our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressing sword.

(x) Lev. xxvi. 36. And upon them that are left alive of you, I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; and the sound of a shaken leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall when none pursueth.

37. And they shall fall one upon another, as it were before a sword, when none pursueth: and ye shall have no power to stand before your enemies.

(y) Jer. li. 9. We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country; for her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.

17 They did cry there, (z) Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he hath passed the time appointed.

(z) Ex. xv. 9. The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; my lust shall be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them.

1 Kings xx. 10. And Ben-hadad sent unto him, and said, The gods do so unto me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that follow me.

Is. xxxi. 3. Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When the Lord shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fall together.

Ex. xxix. 3. Speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself.

18 As I live, (a) saith the King, whose name is The LORD of hosts, Surely as (b) Tabor is among the mountains, and as (c) Carmel by the sea, so shall he come.

(a) Jr. xlviii. 15. Moab is spoiled, and gone up out of her cities, and his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter, saith the King, whose name is The Lord of hosts.

Mal. i. 14. But cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith the Lord of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen.

Matt. v. 35. Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by Jerusalem; for it is the city of the great King.

1 Tim. i. 17. Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory, for ever and ever, Amen.

(b) Judg. iv. 6. And she sent and called Barak, the son of Abinoam, out of Kedesh-naphtali, and said unto him, Hath not the Lord God of Israel commanded, saying, Go, and draw toward Mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun?

Ps. lxxxix. 12. The north and the south, thou hast created them: Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name.

(c) 1 Kings xviii. 42. So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he cast himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees,

43. And said to his servant, Go up now, look toward the sea. And he went up, and looked, and said, There is nothing. And he said, Go again seven times.

19 O thou daughter dwelling in Egypt, furnish thyself to go into captivity: for Noph shall be (d) waste and desolate without an inhabitant.

(d) Jer. xxxiv. 22. Behold, I will command, saith the Lord, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire; and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without an inhabitant.

li. 29. And the land shall tremble and sorrow: for every purpose of the Lord shall be performed against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant.

37. And Babylon shall become heaps, a dwelling-place for dragons, an astonishment, and a hissing, without an inhabitant.

Zeph. ii. 5. Wo unto the inhabitants of the sea-coasts, the nation of the Cherethites! the word of the Lord is against you; O Canaan, the land of the Philistines, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.

20 Egypt is like (e) a very fair heifer, but destruction cometh; (f) it cometh out of the north.

(e) Hos. x. 11. And Ephraim is as a heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon her fair neck: I will make Ephraim to ride; Judah shall plough, and Jacob shall break his clods.

(f) Jer. i. 14. Then the Lord said unto me, Out of the north an evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land.

xlvii. 2. Thus saith the Lord, Behold, waters rise up out of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land, and all that is therein; the city, and them that dwell therein: then the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall howl.

21 Also (g) her hired men are in the midst of her like fatted bullocks; for they also are turned back, and are fled away together; they did not stand, because (h) the day of their calamity was come upon them, and the time of their visitation.

(g) 2 Sam. x. 6. And when the children of Ammon saw that they stank before David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Beth-rehob, and the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand footmen, and of king Maacah a thousand men, and of Ish-tob twelve thousand men.

2 Kings vii. 6. For the Lord had made the host of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host; and they said one to another, Lo, the king of Israel hath hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us.

Ex. xxx. 5. Ethiopia, and Libya, and Lydia, and all the mingled people, and Chub, and the men of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.

(h) Deut. xxxii. 35. To me belongeth vengeance and recompense; their foot shall slide in due time: for the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that shall come upon them make haste.

Is. x. 3. And what will ye do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory?

Ez. xxxv. 5. Because thou hast had a perpetual hatred, and hast shed the blood of the children of Israel by the force of the sword, in the time of their calamity, in the time that their iniquity had an end.

Mic. vii. 4. The best of them is as a brier; the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watchmen and thy visitation cometh; now shall be their perplexity.

22 The (i) voice thereof shall go like a serpent; for they shall march with an army, and (k) come against her with axes, as hewers of wood.

(i) Is. xxix. 4. And thou shalt be brought down, and shalt speak out of the ground, and thy speech shall be low out of the dust, and thy voice shall be as one that hath a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and thy speech shall whisper out of the dust.

Mic. vii. 16. The nations shall see, and be confounded at all their might; they shall lay their hand upon their mouth, their ears shall be deaf.

17. They shall lick the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes like worms of the earth: they shall be afraid of the Lord our God, and shall fear because of thee.

(k) Is. x. 33. Behold, the Lord, the Lord of hosts, shall lop the bough with terror: and the high ones of stature shall be hewn down, and the haughty shall be humbled.

34. And he shall cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon shall fall by a mighty one.

xiv. 8. Yea, the fir-trees rejoice at thee, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up against us.

Zech. xi. 2. Howl, fir-tree; for the cedar is fallen; because all the mighty are spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bashan; for the forest of the vintage is come down.

23 They shall cut down her forest, saith the LORD, though it cannot be searched; (l) because they are more than the grasshoppers, and are innumerable.

(l) Judg. vi. 5. For they came up with their cattle, and their tents, and they came as grasshoppers for multitude: for both they and their camels were without number: and they entered into the land to destroy it.

vii. 12. And the Midianites, and the Amalekites, and all the children of the east, lay along in the valley like grasshoppers for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand by the sea-side for multitude.

Joel ii. 25. And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the canker-worm, and the caterpillar, and the palmer-worm, my great army which I sent among you.

24 The daughter of Egypt shall be confounded; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north.

25 The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saith; Behold, I will punish the multitude of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, (m) with their gods, (n) and their kings; even Pharaoh, (o) and all them that trust in him.

(m) Ez. xii. 12. For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the Lord.

Is. xix. 1. The burden of Egypt. Behold, the Lord rideth upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt: and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it.

Ez. xxx. 13. Thus saith the Lord God, I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause their images to cease out of Noph; and there shall be no more a prince of the land of Egypt; and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt.

Zeph. ii. 11. The Lord will be terrible unto them: for he will famish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

(n) Ez. xxxii. 10. Yea, I will make many people amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall.

(o) Is. xx. 5. And they shall be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory.

6. And the inhabitant of this isle shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, whether we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria: and how shall we escape?

xxx. 2. That walk to go down into Egypt, and have not asked at my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt!

3. Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt your confusion.

26 And I will deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants: (p) and afterward it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, saith the LORD.

(p) Jer. xlviii. 47. Yet will I bring again the captivity of Moab in the latter days, saith the Lord. Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

xlix. 39. But it shall come to pass in the last days, that I will bring again the captivity of Elam, saith the Lord.

Ez. xxix. 13. Yet thus saith the Lord God, At the end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the people whither they were scattered:

14. And I will bring again the captivity of Egypt, and I will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their habitation, and they shall be there a base kingdom.

27 ¶ But fear not thou, O my servant Jacob, and be not dismayed, O Israel: for, behold, (q) I will save thee from afar off, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, (r) and be in rest, and at ease, and none shall make him afraid.

(q) Ez. xxxvi. 24. For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land.

xxxvii. 21. And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land.

Amos ix. 14. And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

(r) Ez. xxxiv. 25. And I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land; and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods.

26. And I will make them, and the places round about my hill, a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season: there shall be showers of blessing.

xxxix. 26. After that they have borne their shame, and all their trespasses, whereby they have trespassed against me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid.

28 Fear thou not, O Jacob my servant, saith the LORD: for I am with thee; for I will (s) make a full end of all the nations whither I have driven thee: (t) but I will not make a full end of thee, but correct thee in measure; yet will I not leave thee wholly unpunished.

(s) Jer. xxv. 9. Behold, I will even send and take all the families of the north, saith the Lord, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and a hissing, and perpetual desolations.

(t) Amos ix. 8. Behold, the eyes of the Lord God are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the Lord.

9. For, lo, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth.

CHAPTER XLVII.

THE word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet (a) against the Philistines, before that Pharaoh smote Gaza.

(a) Ez. xxv. 15. Thus saith the Lord God, Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with a despiteful heart, to destroy it for the old hatred;

16. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will stretch out my hand upon the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethims, and destroy the remnant of the sea-coast.

17. And I will execute great vengeance upon them with furious rebukes; and they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall lay my vengeance upon them.

Amos i. 6. Thus saith the Lord, For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to Edom:

7. But I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, which shall devour the palaces thereof:

8. And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from Ashkelon; and I will turn my hand against Ekron; and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord God.

2 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, (b) waters rise up out of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land, and all that is therein, the city, and them that dwell therein: (c) then the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall howl.

(b) Is. viii. 7. Now, therefore, behold, the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even the king of Assyria, and all his glory; and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks:

8. And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over; he shall reach even to the neck: and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel.

Dan. xi. 22. And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflowed from before him, and shall be broken; yea, also the price of the covenant.

Amos ix. 5. And the Lord God of hosts is he that toucheth the land, and it shall melt, and all that dwelleth therein shall mourn; and it shall rise up wholly like a flood, and shall be drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.

6. It is he that buildeth his stories in the heaven, and hath founded his troop in the earth; he that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth; the Lord is his name.

Nah. i. 8. But with an over-running flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.

(c) Is. xv. 8. For the cry is gone up round about the borders of Moab, the howling thereof into Eglaim, and the howling thereof unto Becrielim.

xxii. 5. For it is a day of trouble, and of treading down, and of perplexity by the Lord God of hosts in the valley of vision, breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mountains.

James v. 1. Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl, for your miseries that shall come upon you.

3 At (d) the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong horses, at the rushing of his chariots, and at the rumbling of his wheels, (e) the fathers shall not look back to their children, for feebleness of hands;

(d) Judg. v. 22. Then were the horse-hoofs broken by the means of the prancings, the prancings of their mighty ones.

Ez. xxvi. 10. By reason of the abundance of his horses, their dust shall cover thee: thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, as men enter into a city wherein is made a breach.

(e) Deut. xxviii. 54. So that the man that is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be evil toward his brother, and toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the remnant of his children which he shall leave:

55. So that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat: because he hath nothing left him in the siege and in the straitness wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee in all thy gates.

Lam. iv. 3. Even the sea-monsters draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones: the daughter of my people is become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.

4. The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst; the young children ask bread; and no man breaketh it unto them.

4 Because of the day that cometh to spoil all the Philistines, and to cut off from Tyrus and Zidon (f) every helper that remaineth; for the LORD will spoil the Philistines, the remnant of the country of Caph-tor.

(f) Job ix. 13. If God will not withdraw his anger, the proud helpers do stoop under him.

Is. xx. 6. And the inhabitant of this isle shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, whither we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria: and how shall we escape?

xxi. 3. Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When the Lord shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fail together.

Ez. xxx. 8. And they shall know that I am the Lord, when I have set a fire in Egypt, and when all her helpers shall be destroyed.

5 (g) Baldness is come upon Gaza; Ashkelon is cut off with the remnant of their valley: (h) how long wilt thou cut thyself?

(g) Is. xv. 2. He is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba; on all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off.

Ez. xii. 18. They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads.

Mic. i. 16. Make thee bald, and poll thee for thy delicate children; enlarge thy baldness as the eagle; for they are gone into captivity from thee.

(h) Lev. xix. 28. Ye shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor print any marks upon you: I am the Lord.

xxi. 5. They shall not make baldness upon their head: neither shall they shave off the corner of their beard, nor make any cuttings in their flesh.

Deut. xiv. 1. Ye are the children of the Lord your God; ye shall not cut yourselves, nor make any baldness between your eyes for the dead.

6 O (i) thou sword of the LORD, (k) how long will it be ere thou be quiet? put up thyself into the scabbard, rest, and be still.

(i) Deut. xxxii. 42. I will make mine arrows drunk with blood, and my sword shall devour flesh; and that with the blood of the slain and of the captives, from the beginning of revenges upon the enemy.

Psa. xvii. 13. Arise, O Lord, disappoint him, cast him down: deliver my soul from the wicked, which is thy sword.

Is. x. 5. O Assyrian, the rod of mine anger, and the staff in their hand is mine indignation.

Ez. xiv. 17. Or if I bring a sword upon that land, and say, Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off man and beast from it.

(k) 2 Sam. ii. 26. Then Abner called to Joab, and said, Shall the sword devour for ever? knowest thou not that it will be bitterness in the latter end? how long shall it be then ere thou bid the people return from following their brethren?

7 How can it be quiet, seeing (l) the LORD hath given it a charge against Ashkelon, and against (m) the sea-shore? there hath (n) he appointed it.

(l) 1 Sam. xv. 3. Now go, and smite Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass.

Is. x. 6. I will send him against an hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

xxxvii. 26. Hast thou not heard long ago how I have done it; and of ancient times that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste defenced cities into ruinous heaps.

(m) Zeph. ii. 6. And the sea-coast shall be dwellings and cottages for shepherds, and folds for flocks.

7. And the coasts shall be for the remnant of the house of Judah; they shall feed thereupon: in the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening; for the Lord their God shall visit them, and turn away their captivity:

(n) Mic. vi. 9. The Lord's voice crieth unto the city, and the man of wisdom shall see thy name: hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

A GAINST (a) Moab, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Wo unto Nebo! for it is spoiled: Kiriathaim is confounded and taken: Misgab is confounded and dismayed.

(a) Gen. xix. 37. And the first-born bare a son, and called his name Moab: the same is the father of the Moabites unto this day.

Num. xxiv. 17. I shall see him, but not now; I shall behold him, but not nigh: there shall come a star out of Jacob, and a sceptre shall rise out of Israel, and shall smite the corners of Moab, and destroy all the children of Sheth.

Is. xxv. 10. For in this mountain shall the hand of the Lord rest, and Moab shall be trodden down under him, even as straw is trodden down for the dunghill.

Amos ii. 2. But I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of Kiriath; and Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

Zeph. ii. 8. I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revilings of the children of Ammon, whereby they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border.

9. Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even the breeding of nettles, and salt-pits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

2 There shall be no more praise of Moab: in Heshbon they have devised evil against it; (b) come, and let us cut it off from being a nation. Also thou shalt be cut down, O Madmen; the sword shall pursue thee.

(b) Ps. lxxxiii. 4. They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

5. For they have consulted together with one consent; they are confederate against thee:

6. The tabernacles of Edom, and the Ishmaelites; of Moab, and the Hagarenes;

7. Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek; the Philistines, with the inhabitants of Tyre;

8. Assur also is joined with them: they have holpen the children of Lot. Selah.

Jer. xxxi. 36. If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the Lord, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.

xxxiii. 24. Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the Lord hath chosen, he hath even cast them off? Thus they have despised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them.

xlvi. 28. Fear thou not, O Jacob, my servant, saith the Lord; for I am with thee: for I will make a full end of all the nations whither I have driven thee; but I will not make a full end of thee, but correct thee in measure: yet will I not leave thee wholly unpunished.

3 A voice of crying shall be from Horonaim, spoiling and great destruction.

4 Moab is destroyed; (c) her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.

(c) Esth. viii. 11. Wherein the king granted the Jews which were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey.

Ps. cxxxvii. 9. Happy shall he be that taketh and dasheth thy little ones against the stones.

5 For in the going up of Luhith continual weeping shall go up; for in the going down of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.

6 (d) Flee, save your lives, and (e) be like the heath in the wilderness.

(d) Gen. xix. 17. And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said, Escape for thy life; look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain; escape to the mountain, lest thou be consumed.

Ps. xi. 1. In the Lord put I my trust: how say ye to my soul, Flee as a bird to your mountain?

Prov. vi. 4. Give not sleep to thine eyes, nor slumber to thine eyelids.

5. Deliver thyself as a roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler.

Matt. xxiv. 16. Then let them which be in Judea flee into the mountains:

17. Let him which is on the house-top not come down to take any thing out of his house:

18. Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.

Luke iii. 7. Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, O generation of vipers! who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

Heb. vi. 18. That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us.

(e) Job xxx. 3. For want and famine they were solitary; fleeing into the wilderness in former time desolate and waste:

4. Who cut up mallows by the bushes, and juniper-roots for their meat.

5. They were driven forth from among men, (they cried after them as after a thief:)

6. To dwell in the cliffs of the valleys, in caves of the earth, and in the rocks.

7. Among the bushes they brayed; under the nettles they were gathered together.

7 For (f) because thou hast trusted in thy works, and in thy treasures, thou shalt also be taken: and (g) Chemosh shall go forth into captivity, with his priests and his princes together.

(f) Ps. xl. 4. Blessed is the man that maketh the Lord his trust; and respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

lii. 7. Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.

Is. lix. 4. None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.

5. They hatch cockatrice' eggs, and weave the spider's web: he that eateth of their eggs dieth, and that which is crushed, breaketh out into a viper.

6. Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands.

Hos. x. 13. Ye have ploughed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity: ye have eaten the fruit of lies; because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men.

(g) Num. xxi. 29. Wo to thee, Moab! thou art undone, O people of Chemosh: he hath given his sons that escaped, and his daughters, into captivity unto Sihon king of the Amorites.

Judg. xi. 24. Wilt not thou possess that which Chemosh thy god giveth thee to possess? So whomsoever the Lord our God shall drive out from before us, them will we possess.

Is. xlii. 1. Bel boweth down, Nebo stoopeth; their idols were upon the beasts, and upon the cattle: your carriages were heavy loaden; they are a burden to the weary beast.

2. They stoop; they bow down together; they could not deliver the burden, but themselves are gone into captivity.

8 And the spoiler shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape: the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the Lord hath spoken.

9 Give (h) wings unto Moab, that it may flee and get away: for (i) the cities thereof shall be desolate, without any to dwell therein.

(h) Ps. lv. 6. And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! for then would I flee away, and be at rest.

Is. xvi. 2. For it shall be, that as a wandering bird cast out of the nest, so the daughters of Moab shall be at the fords of Arnon.

Rev. xii. 14. And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might flee into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

(i) Zeph. ii. 9. Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even the breeding of nettles, and salt-pits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

10 (k) Cursed be he that doeth the work of the Lord deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood.

(k) Num. xxxi. 14. And Moses was wroth with the officers of the host, with the captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, which came from the battle.

15. And Moses said unto them, Have ye saved all the women alive?

16. Behold, these caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against the Lord in the matter of Peor, and there was a plague among the congregation of the Lord.

Judg. v. 23. Curse ye Meroz, said the angel of the Lord; curse ye bitterly the inhabitants thereof; because they came not to the help of the Lord, to the help of the Lord against the mighty.

1 Sam. xv. 3. Now go, and smite Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass.

9. But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them: but every thing that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly.

11 ¶ Moab (l) hath been at ease from his youth, and (m) he hath settled on his lees, and hath not been (n) emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity; (o) therefore his taste remained in him, and his scent is not changed.

(l) Ps. cxxiii. 4. Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud.

Prov. i. 32. For the turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.

Zech. i. 15. And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

(m) Is. xxv. 6. And in this mountain shall the Lord of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees; of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined.

Zeph. i. 12. And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men that are settled on their lees; that say in their heart, The Lord will not do good, neither will he do evil.

(n) Is. xxiv. 3. The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled: for the Lord hath spoken this word.

Nah. ii. 2. For the Lord hath turned away the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and marred their vine branches.

(o) Is. xvi. 6. We have heard of the pride of Moab; he is very proud: even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his wrath: but his lies shall not be so.

Ez. xvi. 49. Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom, pride, fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her, and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy.

50. And they were haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away as I saw good.

12 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will send unto him (p) wanderers, that shall cause him to wander, and (q) shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles.

(p) Ez. xxv. 9. Therefore, behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Keriathaim,

10. Unto the men of the east with the Ammonites, and will give them in possession, that the Ammonites may not be remembered among the nations.

(q) Ps. ii. 9. Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

Is. xxx. 14. And he shall break it as the breaking of the potter's vessel that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare: so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit.

13 And Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, (r) as the house of Israel was ashamed of Beth-el their confidence.

(r) 1 Kings xii. 28. Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

29. And he set the one in Beth-el, and the other put he in Dan.

Hos. viii. 5. Thy calf, O Samaria, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them; how long will it be ere they attain to innocency!

6. For from Israel was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is not God: but the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

Amos v. 5. But seek not Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not to Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Beth-el shall come to nought.

6. Seek the Lord, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Beth-el.

14 How say ye, (s) We are mighty and strong men for the war?

(s) Ps. xxxiii. 16. There is no king saved by the multitude of a host: a mighty man is not delivered by much strength.

Ec. ix. 11. I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all.

Is. xvi. 6. We have heard of the pride of Moab, he is very proud: even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his wrath: but his lies shall not be so.

Ez. xxx. 6. Thus saith the Lord, They also that uphold Egypt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: from the tower of Syene shall they fall in it by the sword, saith the Lord God.

Zeph. ii. 10. This shall they have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the Lord of hosts.

15 Moab is spoiled, and gone up out of her cities, and his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter, saith the King, whose name is The LORD of hosts.

16 The calamity of Moab is (t) near to come, and his affliction hasteth fast.

(t) Deut. xxxii. 35. To me belongeth vengeance and recompense; their foot shall slide in due time; for the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that shall come upon them make haste.

Is. xiii. 22. And the wild beasts of the islands shall cry in their desolate houses, and dragons in their pleasant palaces; and her time is near to come, and her days shall not be prolonged.

xvii. 13. This is the word that the Lord hath spoken concerning Moab since that time.

14. But now the Lord hath spoken, saying, Within three years, as the years of an hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be contemned, with all that great multitude; and the remnant shall be very small and feeble.

2 Pet. ii. 3. And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

17 All ye that are about him, be-moan him; and all ye that know his name, say, (u) How is the strong staff broken, and the beautiful rod!

(u) Is. ix. 4. For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of Midian.

x. 5. O Assyrian, the rod of mine anger, and the staff in their hand is mine indignation.

xiv. 5. The Lord hath broken the staff of the wicked, and the sceptre of the rulers.

Ez. xix. 11. And she had strong rods for the sceptres of them that bare rule, and her stature was exalted among the thick branches, and she appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches.

12. But she was plucked up in fury, she was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up her fruit; her strong rods were broken and withered, the fire consumed them.

13. And now she is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty ground.

14. And fire is gone out of a rod of her branches, which hath devoured her fruit, so that she hath no strong rod to be a sceptre to rule. This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation.

18 Thou daughter that dost inhabit Dibon, come down from thy glory, (x) and sit in thirst, for the spoiler of Moab shall come upon thee, and he shall destroy thy strong holds.

(x) Gen. xxi. 16. And she went and sat her down over against him, a good way off, as it were a bow-shot: for she said, Let me not see the death of the child. And she sat over against him, and lifted up her voice, and wept.

Ex. xvii. 3. And the people thirsted there for water; and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore is it that thou hast brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us, and our children, and our cattle with thirst?

Judg. xv. 18. And he was sore athirst, and called on the Lord, and said, Thou hast given this great deliverance into the hand of thy servant: and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?

Is. v. 13. Therefore my people are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge; and their honourable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst.

Ez. xix. 13. And now she is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty ground.

19 O inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way, and espy; (y) ask him that fleeth, and her that escapeth, and say, What is done?

(y) 1 Sam. iv. 13. And when he came, lo, Eli sat upon a seat by the way-side, watching: for his heart trembled for the ark of God. And when the man came into the city, and told it, all the city cried out.

14. And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, What meaneth the noise of this tumult? And the man came in hastily, and told Eli.

16. And the man said unto Eli, I am he that came out of the army. And he said, What is there done, my son?

2 Sam. i. 3. And David said unto him, From whence comest thou? And he said unto him, Out of the camp of Israel am I escaped.

4. And David said unto him, How went the matter? I pray thee, tell me. And he answered, That the people are fled from the battle, and many of the people also are fallen, and dead; and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also.

20 Moab is confounded; for it is broken down: howl and cry; tell ye it in Arnon, that Moab is spoiled,

21 And judgment is come upon (z) the plain country; upon Holon, and upon Jahazah, and upon Me-phath, (z) Ez. xxv. 9. Therefore, behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim.

Zeph. ii. 9. Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even the breeding of nettles, and salt-pits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

22 And upon Dibon, and upon Nebo, and upon Beth-diblathaim,

23 And upon Kiriathaim, and upon Beth-gamul, and upon Beth-meon,

24 And upon Kerioth, and upon Bozrah, and upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near.

25 The (a) horn of Moab is cut off, (b) and his arm is broken, saith the LORD.

(a) Ps. lxxv. 10. All the horns of the wicked also will I cut off; but the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

Lam. ii. 3. He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel: he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.

Dan. vii. 8. I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

viii. 21. And the rough goat is the king of Grecia: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king.

(b) Job xxii. 9. Thou hast sent widows away empty; and the arms of the fatherless have been broken.

Ps. x. 15. Break thou the arm of the wicked and the evil man: seek out his wickedness till thou find none.

xxxvii. 17. For the arm of the wicked shall be broken: but the Lord upholdeth the righteous.

26 ¶ Make (c) ye him drunken; (d) for he magnified himself against the LORD: Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision.

(c) Ps. lx. 3. Thou hast showed thy people hard things; thou hast made us to drink the wine of astonishment.

lxxv. 8. For in the hand of the Lord there is a cup, and the wine is red; it is full of mixture, and he poureth out of the same: but the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them.

Is. xxix. 9. Stay yourselves, and wonder; cry ye out, and cry: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink.

lxiii. 6. And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth.

Lam. iii. 15. He hath filled me with bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood.

iv. 21. Rejoice, and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of Uz: the cup also shall pass through unto thee; thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked.

(d) Job ix. 4. He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered?

Is. x. 15. Shall the axe boast itself against him that heweth therewith? or shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? as if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up itself, as if it were no wood.

Dan. xi. 36. And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every other god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.

2 Thess. ii. 4. Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he, as God, sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.

27 For (e) was not Israel a derision unto thee? was he found among thieves? for since thou spakest of him, thou skippest for joy.

(e) Ps. xlv. 13. Thou makest us a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to them that are round about us.

Prov. xxiv. 17. Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth; and let not thy heart be glad when he stumbleth;

18. Lest the Lord see it, and it displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him.

Ez. xxvi. 2. Son of man, because that Tyrus hath said against Jerusalem, Aha, she is broken that was the gates of the people; she is turned unto me; I shall be replenished, now she is laid waste.

xxxv. 15. As thou didst rejoice at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do unto thee: thou shalt be desolate, O Mount Seir, and all Idumea, even all of it; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

28 O ye that dwell in Moab, (f) leave the cities, and dwell in the rock, and be (g) like the dove that maketh her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth.

(f) Judg. vi. 2. And the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel; and because of the Midianites the children of Israel made them the dens which are in the mountains, and caves, and strong holds.

1 Sam. xiii. 6. When the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait, (for the people were distressed,) then the people did hide themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in high places, and in pits.

Is. ii. 19. And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, for fear of the Lord, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.

Ob. 3. The pride of thy heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

4. Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the Lord.

(g) Ps. lv. 6. And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! for then would I flee away, and be at rest.

7. Lo, then would I wander far off, and remain in the wilderness. Selah.

Cant. ii. 14. O my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let me see thy countenance, let me hear thy voice; for sweet is thy voice, and thy countenance is comely.

29 ¶ We have heard the cry of Moab, (he is exceeding proud,) his loftiness, and his arrogancy, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart.

30 I (h) know his wrath, saith the LORD; but it shall not be so; his lies (i) shall not so effect it.

(h) Is. xvi. 6. We have heard of the pride of Moab; he is very proud: even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his wrath: but his lies shall not be so.

xxxvii. 28. But I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me.

29. Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult, is come up into mine ears; therefore will I put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

(i) Job ix. 12. Behold, he taketh away, who can hinder him? who will say unto him, What doest thou?

13. If God will not withdraw his anger, the proud helpers do stoop under him.

Ps. xxxiii. 10. The Lord bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

Prov. xxi. 30. There is no wisdom, nor understanding, nor counsel, against the Lord.

31 Therefore will I howl for Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab; mine heart shall mourn for the men of Kir-heres.

32 O vine of Sibmah, I will weep for thee with the weeping of Jazer: thy plants are gone over the sea, they reach even to the sea of Jazer: the spoiler is fallen upon thy summer-fruits, and upon thy vintage.

33 And (k) joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab; and I have (l) caused wine to fail from the wine-presses: none shall tread with shouting; their shouting shall be no shouting.

(k) Is. ix. 3. Thou hast multiplied the nation, and not increased the joy: thy joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

xvi. 9. Therefore I will bewail with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh; for the shouting for thy summer-fruits, and for thy harvest, is fallen.

Joel i. 12. The vine is dried up, and the fig-tree languisheth; the pomegranate-tree, the palm-tree also, and the apple-tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because joy is withered away from the sons of men.

Rev. xviii. 22. And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee;

23. And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

(l) Is. v. 10. Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and the seed of an homer shall yield an ephah.

xvi. 10. And gladness is taken away, and joy out of the plentiful field; and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: the treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses; I have made their vintage-shouting to cease.

Joi. i. 5. Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth.

34 From the cry of Heshbon even unto Elealeh, and even unto Jahaz, have they uttered their voice, from Zoar even unto Horonaim, as an heifer of three years old; for the waters also of Nimrim shall be desolate.

35 Moreover, I will cause to cease in Moab, saith the LORD, (m) him that offereth in the high places, and him that burneth incense to his gods.

(m) Num. xxii. 40. And Balak offered oxen and sheep, and sent to Balaam, and to the princes that were with him.

41. And it came to pass on the morrow, that Balak took Balaam, and brought him up into the high places of Baal, that thence he might see the utmost part of the people.

Is. xv. 2. He is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba; on all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off.

xvi. 12. And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary to pray; but he shall not prevail.

36 Therefore mine heart shall sound for Moab like pipes, and mine heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kir-heres; because (n) the riches that he hath gotten are perished.

(n) Prov. xi. 4. Riches profit not in the day of wrath: but righteousness delivereth from death.

xiii. 22. A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children; and the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just.

xviii. 11. The rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as an high wall in his own conceit.

Ec. v. 13. There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt.

Is. xv. 7. Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away to the brook of the willows.

James v. 2. Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten.

3. Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days.

37 For (o) every head shall be bald, and every beard clipped: upon all the hands shall be (p) cuttings, and (q) upon the loins sackcloth.

(o) Is. iii. 24. And it shall come to pass, that instead of sweet smell, there shall be stink; and instead of a girdle, a rent; and instead of well-set hair, baldness; and instead of a stomacher, a girding of sackcloth; and burning instead of beauty.

Ez. vii. 18. They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads.

xxviii. 31. And they shall make themselves utterly bald for thee, and gird them with sackcloth; and they shall weep for thee with bitterness of heart and bitter wailing.

Amos viii. 10. And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

(p) Lev. xix. 28. Ye shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor print any marks upon you: I am the Lord.

Mark v. 5. And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

(q) Gen. xxxvii. 34. And Jacob rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his loins, and mourned for his son many days.

1 Kings xxi. 27. And it came to pass, when Alhab heard those words, that he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly.

2 Kings vi. 30. And it came to pass, when the king heard the words of the woman, that he rent his clothes; and he passed by upon the wall, and the people looked, and, behold, he had sackcloth within upon his flesh.

Is. xx. 2. At the same time spake the Lord by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go, and loose the sackcloth from off thy loins, and put off thy shoe from thy foot. And he did so, walking naked and barefoot.

38 There shall be lamentation generally upon all the house-tops of Moab, and in the streets thereof: for I have (r) broken Moab like a vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the LORD.

(r) Ps. ii. 9. Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

Is. xxx. 14. And he shall break it as the breaking of a potter's vessel that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare: so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit.

Hos. viii. 8. Israel is swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gentiles as a vessel wherein is no pleasure.

Rom. ix. 22. What if God, willing to show his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much long-suffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction.

Rev. ii. 27. And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.

39 They shall howl, saying, How is it broken down! how hath Moab turned the back with shame! so shall Moab be a derision and a dismaying to all them about him.

40 For thus saith the LORD; Behold, (s) he shall fly as an eagle, and shall (t) spread his wings over Moab.

(s) Deut. xxviii. 49. The Lord shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand.

Lam. iv. 19. Our persecutors are swifter than the eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid waste for us in the wilderness.

Ez. xvii. 3. And say, Thus saith the Lord God, A great eagle with great wings, long-winged, full of feathers, which had divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and took the highest branch of the cedar.

Dan. vii. 4. The first was like a lion, and had eagles' wings; I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

Hab. i. 8. Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly as the eagle that hasteth to eat.

(t) Is. viii. 8. And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over, he shall reach even to the neck: and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel.

41 Kerioth is taken, and the strong holds are surprised, and the mighty men's hearts in Moab at that day shall be (u) as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

(u) Is. xiii. 8. And they shall be afraid: pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman that travaileth: they shall be amazed one at another; their faces shall be as flames.

xxi. 3. Therefore are my loins filled with pain; pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman that travaileth: I was bowed down at the hearing of it; I was dismayed at the seeing of it.

Jer. l. 43. The king of Babylon hath heard the report of them, and his hands waxed feeble; anguish took hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travail.

Mic. iv. 9. Now why dost thou cry out aloud? is there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail.

10. Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail; for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon; there shalt thou be delivered; there the Lord shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

42 And Moab shall be destroyed (x) from being a people, because he hath (y) magnified himself against the LORD.

(x) Ps. lxxxiii. 4. They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

Is. vii. 8. For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, that it be not a people.

(y) Prov. xvi. 18. Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.

Is. xxxvii. 23. Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? Even against the Holy One of Israel.

Dan. xi. 36. And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every other god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.

Rev. xiii. 6. And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

43 (z) Fear, and the pit, and the snare, shall be upon thee, O inhabitant of Moab, saith the LORD.

(z) Deut. xxxii. 23. I will heap mischief upon them: I will spend mine arrows upon them.

24. They shall be burnt with hunger, and devoured with burning heat, and with bitter destruction: I will also send the teeth of beasts upon them, with the poison of serpents of the dust.

25. The sword without, and terror within, shall destroy both the young man and the virgin, the suckling also, and the man of gray hairs.

Ps. xi. 6. Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.

Is. xxiv. 17. Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth.

18. And it shall come to pass, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for the windows from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth do shake.

Lam. iii. 47. Fear and a snare is come upon us, desolation and destruction.

44 He (a) that fleeth from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring upon it, even upon Moab, the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

(a) 1 Kings xix. 17. And it shall come to pass, that him that escapeth the sword of Hazeal shall Jehu slay; and him that escapeth from the sword of Jehu shall Elisha slay.

xx. 30. But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and there a wall fell upon twenty and seven thousand of the men that were left. And Benhadad fled, and came into the city, into an inner chamber.

Amos v. 19. As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

45 They that fled stood under the shadow of Heshbon because of the force: but (b) a fire shall come forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and shall (c) devour the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones.

(b) Num. xxi. 28. For there is a fire gone out of Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon: it hath consumed Ar of Moab, and the lords of the high places of Arnon.

Amos ii. 2. But I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of Kiriath; and Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

(c) Num. xxiv. 17. I shall see him, but not now; I shall behold him, but not nigh: there shall come a star out of Jacob, and a sceptre shall rise out of Israel, and shall smite the corners of Moab, and destroy all the children of Sheth. Zech. x. 4. Out of him came forth the corner, out of him the nail, out of him the battle-bow, out of him every oppressor together.

46 (d) Wo be unto thee, O Moab! (e) the people of Chemosh perisheth: for thy sons are taken captives, and thy daughters captives.

(d) Num. xxi. 29. Wo to thee, Moab! thou art undone, O people of Chemosh: he hath given his sons that escaped, and his daughters, into captivity unto Sihon king of the Amorites.

(e) Judg. xi. 24. Wilt not thou possess that which Chemosh thy god giveth thee to possess? So whomsoever the Lord our God shall drive out from before us, them will we possess.

1 Kings xi. 7. Then did Solomon build an high place for Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, in the hill that is before Jerusalem; and for Molech, the abomination of the children of Ammon.

2 Kings xxiii. 13. And the high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of the mount of Corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had builded for Ashteroth the abomination of the Zidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, and for Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon, did the king defile.

47 Yet (f) will I bring again the captivity of Moab (g) in the latter days, saith the LORD. Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

(f) Is. xviii. 7. In that time shall the present be brought unto the Lord of hosts of a people scattered and peeled, and from a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden under foot, whose land the rivers have spoiled, to the place of the name of the Lord of hosts, the Mount Zion.

(g) Num. xxiv. 14. And now, behold, I go unto my people: come, therefore, and I will advertise thee what this people shall do to thy people in the latter days.

Deut. iv. 30. When thou art in tribulation, and all these things are come upon thee, even in the latter days, if thou turn to the Lord thy God, and shalt be obedient to his voice.

Ez. xxxviii. 8. After many days thou shalt be visited: in the latter years thou shalt come into the land that is brought back from the sword, and is gathered out of many people, against the mountains of Israel, which have been always waste: but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall dwell safely all of them.

CHAPTER XLIX.

CONCERNING (a) the Ammonites, thus saith the LORD; Hath Israel no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth their king inherit Gad, and his people dwell in his cities?

(a) Gen. xix. 38. And the younger, she also bare a son, and called his name Ben-ammi: the same is the father of the children of Ammon unto this day.

Deut. ii. 19. And when thou comest nigh over against the children of Ammon, distress them not, nor meddle with them: for I will not give thee of the land of the children of Ammon any possession; because I have given it unto the children of Lot for a possession.

xxiii. 3. An Ammonite or Moabite shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord; even to their tenth generation shall they not enter into the congregation of the Lord for ever.

Ps. lxxxiii. 7. Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek; the Philistines, with the inhabitants of Tyre.

Zeph. ii. 8. I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revilings of the children of Ammon, whereby they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border.

9. Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even the breeding of nettles, and salt-pits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

2 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard (b) in Rabbah of the Ammonites; and it shall be a desolate heap, and (c) her daughters shall be burned with fire: then (d) shall Israel be heir unto them that were his heirs, saith the LORD.

(b) Deut. iii. 11. For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of giants; behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron: is it not in Rabbath of the children of Ammon? nine cubits was the length thereof, and four cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit of a man.

Ez. xxi. 20. Appoint a way, that the sword may come to Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defended.

(c) 2 Sam. xi. 1. And it came to pass, after the year was expired, at the time when kings go forth to battle, that David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried still at Jerusalem.

Ez. xvi. 53. When I shall bring again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then will I bring again the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them;

54. That thou mayest bear thine own shame, and mayest be confounded in all that thou hast done, in that thou art a comfort unto them.

55. When thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, then thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate.

(d) Is. xiv. 1. For the Lord will have mercy on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob.

2. And the people shall take them, and bring them to their place; and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the Lord for servants and handmaids; and they shall take them captives, whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors.

3. And it shall come to pass, in the day that the Lord shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve.

3 Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled: cry, ye daughters of Rabbah, gird you with sackcloth; lament, and run to and fro by the hedges; for their king shall go into captivity, and his priests and his princes together.

4 Wherefore (e) gloriest thou in the valleys, thy flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? that trusted (f) in her treasures, saying, Who shall come unto me?

(e) Is. xlvii. 7. And thou saidst, I shall be a lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end of it.

8. Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly; that sayest in thy heart, I am, and none else beside me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children.

Rev. xviii. 7. How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

(f) Ps. xlix. 6. They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches.

lii. 7. Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.

Prov. x. 15. The rich man's wealth is his strong city: the destruction of the poor is his poverty.

1 Tim. vi. 17. Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high-minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy.

5 Behold, (g) I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the LORD God of hosts, from all those that be about thee; and (h) ye shall be driven out every man right forth; and none shall gather up him that wandereth.

(g) Josh. ii. 9. And she said unto the men, I know that the Lord hath given you the land, and that your terror is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land faint because of you.

2 Kings vii. 6. For the Lord had made the host of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host; and they said one to another, Lo, the king of Israel hath hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us.

7. Wherefore they arose, and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life.

xix. 7. Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and shall return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

Job xv. 21. A dreadful sound is in his ears: in prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him.

Prov. xxviii. 1. The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

(h) Amos iv. 3. And ye shall go out at the breaches, every cow at that which is before her; and ye shall cast them into the palace, saith the Lord.

6 And (i) afterward I will bring again the captivity of the children of Ammon, saith the LORD.

(i) Jer. xlvii. 26. And I will deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants: and afterwards it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, saith the Lord.

xlviii. 47. Yet will I bring again the captivity of Moab in the latter days, saith the Lord. Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

Ez. xvi. 53. When I shall bring again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then will I bring again the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them.

7 ¶ Concerning Edom, thus saith the LORD of hosts, (k) Is wisdom no more in Teman? is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished?

(k) Job v. 12. He disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their hands cannot perform their enterprise.

13. He taketh the wise in their own craftiness; and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong.

14. They meet with darkness in the day-time, and grope in the noon-day as in the night.

Is. xxix. 14. Therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder; for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid.

Ob. 8. Shall I not, in that day, saith the Lord, even destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau?

Rom. i. 22. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,

23. And changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.

8 Flee ye, turn back, (l) dwell deep, O inhabitants of Dedan: (m) for I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I will visit him.

(l) Judg. vi. 2. And the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel: and because of the Midianites the children of Israel made them the dens which are in the mountains, and caves, and strong holds.

1 Sam. xiii. 6. When the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait, (for the people were distressed,) then the people did hide themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in high places, and in pits.

Is. ii. 21. To go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the rugged rocks, for fear of the Lord, and for the glory of his majesty, when he riseth to shake terribly the earth.

(m) Jer. xlvii. 21. Also her hired men are in the midst of her like fatted bullocks; for they also are turned back, and fled away together: they did not stand, because the day of their calamity was come upon them, and the time of their visitation.

xlviii. 44. He that fleeth from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring upon it, even upon Moab, the year of their visitation, saith the Lord.

9 If (n) grape-gatherers come to thee, would they not leave some gleanings grapes? if thieves by night, they will destroy till they have enough.

(n) Is. xvii. 6. Yet gleanings grapes shall be left in it, as the shaking of an olive-tree, two or three berries in the top of the uttermost bough, four or five in the outmost fruitful branches thereof, saith the Lord God of Israel.

Ob. 5. If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not have stolen till they had enough? if the grape-gatherers came to thee, would they not leave some grapes?

10 But (o) I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered (p) his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: (q) his seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbours, and (r) he is not.

(o) Mal. i. 3. And I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness.

4. Whereas Edom saith, We are impoverished, but we will return, and build the desolate places; thus saith the Lord of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the Lord hath indignation for ever.

(p) Is. xlv. 3. And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I, the Lord, which call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel.

Amos ix. 3. And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them.

(q) Ps. xxxvii. 28. For the Lord loveth judgment, and forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved for ever: but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.

Ob. 9. And thy mighty men, O Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one of the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter.

(r) Ps. xxxvii. 35. I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like a green bay-tree;

36. Yet he passed away, and, lo, he was not; yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.

Is. xvii. 14. And, behold, at evening-tide trouble; and before the morning he is not. This is the portion of them that spoil us, and the lot of them that rob us.

11 Leave (s) thy fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and (t) let thy widows trust in me.

(s) Deut. x. 18. He doth execute the judgment of the fatherless and widow, and loveth the stranger, in giving him food and raiment.

Ps. lxxviii. 5. A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows, is God in his holy habitation.

lxxxii. 3. Defend the poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and needy.

Prov. xxiii. 10. Remove not the old landmark; and enter not into the fields of the fatherless:

11. For their Redeemer is mighty; he shall plead their cause with thee.

Hos. xiv. 3. Asshur shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses; neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods: for in thee the fatherless findeth mercy.

James i. 27. Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

(t) 1 Tim. v. 5. Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, (u) they whose judgment was not to drink of the cup, have assuredly drunken; and art thou he that shall altogether go unpunished? thou shalt not go unpunished, but thou shalt surely drink of it.

(u) Prov. xvii. 5. Whoso mocketh the poor, reproacheth his Maker; and he that is glad at calamities shall not be unpunished.

Lam. iv. 21. Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of Uz; the cup also shall pass through unto thee: thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked.

22. The punishment of thine iniquity is accomplished, O daughter of Zion; he will no more carry thee away into captivity: he will visit thine iniquity, O daughter of Edom; he will discover thy sins.

Ob. 16. For as ye have drunk upon my holy mountain, so shall all the heathen drink continually; yea, they shall drink, and they shall swallow down, and they shall be as though they had not been.

13 For I have sworn by myself, saith the LORD, that (x) Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes.

(x) Gen. xxxvi. 33. And Bela died; and Jobab, the son of Zerah of Bozrah, reigned in his stead.

Is. xxxiv. 6. The sword of the Lord is filled with blood; it is made fat with fatness, and with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams: for the Lord hath a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Idumea.

Ixiii. 1. Who is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

Amos i. 12. But I will send a fire upon Teman, which shall devour the palaces of Bozrah.

14 I have (y) heard a rumour from the LORD, and (z) an ambassador is sent unto the heathen, saying, Gather ye together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle.

(y) Is. xxxvii. 7. Behold, I will send a blast upon him; and he shall hear a rumour, and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

Ez. vii. 26. Mischiefs shall come upon mischief, and rumour shall be upon rumour; then shall they seek a vision of the prophet: but the law shall perish from the priest, and counsel from the ancients.

(z) Is. xviii. 2. That sendeth ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of bulrushes upon the waters, saying, Go, ye swift messengers, to a nation scattered and peeled, to a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden down, whose land the rivers have spoiled!

xxx. 4. For his princes were at Zoan, and his ambassadors came to Hanes.

Ob. 1. The vision of Obadiah. Thus saith the Lord God concerning Edom, We have heard a rumour from the Lord, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen, Arise ye, and let us arise up against her in battle.

15 For, lo, (a) I will make thee small among the heathen, and despised among men.

(a) 1 Sam. ii. 7. The Lord maketh poor, and maketh rich: he bringeth low, and lifteth up.

8. He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth up the beggar from the dunghill, to set them among princes, and to make them inherit the throne of glory: for the pillars of the earth are the Lord's, and he hath set the world upon them.

Ob. 2. Behold, I have made thee small among the heathen: thou art greatly despised.

16 Thy (b) terribleness hath deceived thee, and the pride of thine heart, O thou that (c) dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the height of thy hill: (d) though thou shouldest make thy nest as high as the eagle, I will bring thee down from thence, saith the LORD.

(b) Prov. xviii. 12. Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, and before honour is humility.

xxix. 23. A man's pride shall bring him low: but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit.

Ob. 3. The pride of thy heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

(c) Can. ii. 14. O my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let me see thy countenance, let me hear thy voice; for sweet is thy voice, and thy countenance is comely.

(d) Job xxxix. 27. Doth the eagle mount up at thy command, and make her nest on high?

28. She dwelleth and abideth on the rock, upon the crag of the rock, and the strong place.

Amos ix. 2. Though they dig into hell, thence shall my hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down.

Ob. 4. Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the Lord.

17 Also Edom shall be a desolation: every one that goeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof.

18 As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD, (e) no man shall abide there, neither shall a son of man dwell in it.

(e) Gen. xix. 24. Then the Lord rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah, brimstone and fire from the Lord out of heaven:

25. And he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground.

Zeph. ii. 9. Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even the breeding of nettles, and salt-pits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

19 Behold, (f) he shall come up like a lion from (g) the swelling of Jordan against the habitation of the strong: but I will suddenly make him run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for (h) who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is (i) that shepherd that will stand before me?

(f) Jer. i. 44. Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan unto the habitation of the strong; but I will make them suddenly run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her! for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before me?

Zech. xi. 3. There is a voice of the howling of the shepherds; for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the pride of Jordan is spoiled.

(g) Josh. iii. 15. And as they that bare the ark were come unto Jordan, and the feet of the priests that bare the ark were dipped in the brim of the water, (for Jordan overfloweth all his banks at the time of harvest.)

1 Chr. xii. 15. These are they that went over Jordan in the first month, when it had overflowed all his banks; and they put to flight all them of the valleys, both toward the east and toward the west.

(h) Ps. cxlii. 5. Who is like unto the Lord our God, who dwelleth on high?

Is. xl. 25. To whom then will ye liken me, or shall I be equal? saith the Holy One.

(i) Job xli. 10. None is so fierce that dare stir him up; who then is able to stand before me?

Ps. lxxvi. 7. Thou, even thou, art to be feared; and who may stand in thy sight when once thou art angry?

Nah. i. 6. Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

20 Therefore hear (k) the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: (l) surely the least of the flock shall draw them out; surely he shall make their habitations desolate with them.

(k) Ps. xxxiii. 11. The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

Prov. xix. 21. There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless, the counsel of the Lord, that shall stand.

Is. xlvi. 10. Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure:

11. Calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man that executeth my counsel from a far country: yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it.

Eph. i. 11. In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will.

(l) Zech. iv. 6. Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the Lord unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts.

21 The (m) earth is moved at the noise of their fall: at the cry, the noise thereof was heard in the Red sea.

(m) Ex. xxvi. 15. Thus saith the Lord God to Tyrus, Shall not the isles shake at the sound of thy fall, when the wounded cry, when the slaughter is made in the midst of thee.

xxxi. 16. I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth.

xxxi. 10. Yea, I will make many people amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall.

22 Behold, (n) he shall come up, and fly as the eagle, and spread his wings over Bozrah: and at that day shall (o) the heart of the mighty men of Edom be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

(n) Deut. xxviii. 49. The Lord shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand.

Dan. vii. 4. The first was like a lion, and had eagles' wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

Hos. viii. 1. Set the trumpet to thy mouth: he shall come as an eagle against the house of the Lord, because they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law.

(o) Psa. xviii. 5. The sorrows of hell compassed me about; the snares of death prevented me.

Is. xiii. 8. And they shall be afraid: pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman that travaileth; they shall be amazed one at another; their faces shall be as flames.

xxi. 3. Therefore are my loins filled with pain; pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman that travaileth: I was bowed down at the hearing of it; I was dismayed at the seeing of it.

1 Thess. v. 3. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

23 ¶ Concerning Damascus. Hamath is confounded, and Arpad: for they have heard evil tidings: they are faint-hearted; there is sorrow on the sea; it cannot be quiet.

24 Damascus is waxed feeble, and turneth herself to flee, and fear hath seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken her, as a woman in travail.

25 (p) How is the city of praise not left, the city of my joy!

(p) Jer. li. 41. How is Sheshach taken! and how is the praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations!

Dan. iv. 30. The king spake and said, Is not this great Babylon that I have built for the house of the kingdom, by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?

Rev. xviii. 10. Standing afar off, for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

26 Therefore (q) her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD of hosts.

(q) Lam. ii. 21. The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets: my virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword; thou hast slain them in the day of thine anger; thou hast killed, and not pitied.

Ez. xxvii. 27. Thy riches, and thy fairs, thy merchandise, thy mariners, and thy pilots, thy calkers, and the occupiers of thy merchandise, and all thy men of war, that are in thee, and in all thy company, which is in the midst of thee, shall fall into the midst of the seas in the day of thy ruin.

Amos iv. 10. I have sent among you the pestilence, after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camps to come up into your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord?

27 And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall consume the palaces of Ben-hadad.

28 ¶ Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the LORD; Arise ye, go up to Kedar, and (r) spoil the men of the east.

(r) Gen. xxv. 6. But unto the sons of the concubines, which Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts; and sent them away from Isaac his son (while he yet lived) eastward, unto the east country.

Judg. vi. 3. And so it was, when Israel had sown, that the Midianites came up, and the Amalekites, and the children of the east, even they came up against them.

Job i. 3. His substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she-asses, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the east.

Is. xi. 14. But they shall fly upon the shoulders of the Philistines toward the west; they shall spoil them of the east together: they shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab; and the children of Ammon shall obey them.

29 Their (s) tents and their flocks shall they take away; they shall take to themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry unto them, (t) Fear is on every side.

(s) Psa. cxx. 5. Wo is me, that I sojourn in Mesech, that I dwell in the tents of Kedar.

Is. xiii. 20. It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation; neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there, neither shall the shepherds make their fold there.

(t) Psa. xxxi. 13. For I have heard the slander of many: fear was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life.

2 Cor. iv. 8. We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair.

vii. 5. For, when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears.

30 Flee, get you far off, dwell deep, O ye inhabitants of Hazor, saith the LORD; (u) for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath taken counsel against you, and hath conceived a purpose against you.

(u) Is. x. 7. Howbeit he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations not a few.

Jer. xxv. 9. Behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, saith the Lord, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and a hissing, and perpetual desolations.

xxvii. 6. And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

31 Arise, get you up unto the wealthy nation, (x) that dwelleth without care, saith the LORD, which have neither gates nor bars, which (y) dwell alone.

(x) Is. xlvii. 8. Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly; that sayest in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children.

Ez. xxx. 9. In that day shall messengers go forth from me in ships, to make the careless Ethiopians afraid, and great pain shall come upon them, as in the day of Egypt: for, lo, it cometh.

xxxviii. 11. And thou shalt say, I will go up to the land of unwallled villages; I will go to them that are at rest, that dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates.

xxxix. 6. And I will send a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell carelessly in the isles; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

Zeph. ii. 15. This is the rejoicing city that dwelt carelessly: that said in her heart, I am, and there is none beside me: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! every one that passeth by her shall hiss, and wag his hand.

(y) Num. xxiii. 9. For from the top of the rocks I see him, and from the hills I behold him: lo, the people shall dwell alone, and shall not be reckoned among the nations.

Deut. xxxiii. 28. Israel then shall dwell in safety alone: the fountain of Jacob shall be upon a land of corn and wine; also his heavens shall drop down dew.

Mic. vii. 14. Feed thy people with thy rod, the flock of thy heritage, which dwell solitarily in the wood, in the midst of Carmel: let them feed in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.

32 And their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their cattle a spoil; and (z) I will scatter into all winds them that are in the utmost corners: and I will bring their calamity from all sides thereof, saith the LORD.

(z) Deut. xxviii. 64. And the Lord shall scatter thee among all people, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone.

Ez. v. 10. Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the winds.

12. A third part of thee shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee; and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and I will scatter a third part into all the winds; and I will draw out a sword after them.

xii. 14. And I will scatter toward every wind all that are about him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them.

15. And they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countries.

33 And Hazor shall be (a) a dwelling for dragons, and a desolation for ever: there shall no man abide there, nor any son of man dwell in it.

(a) Is. xiii. 20. It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation; neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there, neither shall the shepherds make their fold there.

21. But wild beasts of the desert shall lie there; and their houses shall be full of doleful creatures; and owls shall dwell there, and satyrs shall dance there.

22. And the wild beasts of the islands shall cry in their desolate houses, and dragons in their pleasant palaces; and her time is near to come, and her days shall not be prolonged.

xiv. 23. I will also make it a possession for the bittern, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the Lord of hosts.

Mal. i. 3. And I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness.

Rev. xviii. 2. And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

34 ¶ The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against Elam, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying,

35 Thus saith the LORD of hosts;

428

Behold, I will (b) break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might.

(b) Ps. xlvi. 9. He maketh wars to cease unto the ends of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder: he burneth the chariot in the fire.

Jer. li. 56. Because the spoiler is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken; every one of their bows is broken: for the Lord God of recompenses shall surely requite.

36 And upon Elam will I bring (c) the four winds from the four quarters of heaven, and will (d) scatter them toward all those winds; and there shall be no nation whither (e) the outcasts of Elam shall not come.

(c) Dan. vii. 2. Daniel spake, and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea.

3. And four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another.

viii. 8. Therefore the he-goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones, toward the four winds of heaven.

xi. 4. And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided towards the four winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others beside those.

Rev. vii. 1. After these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

(d) Deut. xxviii. 64. And the Lord shall scatter thee among all people, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone.

Ez. v. 10. Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the winds.

(e) Is. xi. 12. And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

xxvii. 13. And it shall come to pass in that day, that the great trumpet shall be blown, and they shall come which were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, and shall worship the Lord in the holy mount at Jerusalem.

Is. lvi. 8. The Lord God which gathereth the outcasts of Israel, saith, Yet will I gather others to him, beside those that are gathered unto him.

37 For I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before them that seek their life: and I will bring evil upon them, even my fierce anger, saith the LORD; and I will send the sword after them, till I have consumed them:

38 And I will set my throne in Elam, and will destroy from thence the king and the princes, saith the LORD.

39 But it shall come to pass in the latter days, that I will bring again the captivity of Elam, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER L.

THE word that the LORD spake (a) against Babylon, and against (b) the land of the Chaldeans, (c) by Jeremiah the prophet.

(a) Is. xiii. 1. The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz did see.

2. Lift ye up a banner upon the high mountain, exalt the voice unto them, shake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles.

3. I have commanded my sanctified ones, I have also called my mighty ones for mine anger, even them that rejoice in mine anger.

xiv. 4. That thou shalt take up this proverb against the king of Babylon, and say, How hath the oppressor ceased! the golden city ceased!

(b) Gen. xi. 31. And Terah took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Haran his son's son, and Sarai his daughter-in-law, his son Abram's wife; and they went forth with them from Ur of the Chaldees, to go into the land of Canaan: and they came unto Haran, and dwelt there.

Job i. 17. While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

Is. xxiii. 13. Behold the land of the Chaldeans: this people was not, till the Assyrian founded it for them that dwell in the wilderness: they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof; and he brought it to ruin.

(c) 2 Sam. xxiii. 2. The Spirit of the Lord spake by me, and his word was in my tongue.

2 Pet. i. 21. For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

2 (d) Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard: publish, and conceal not; say, (e) Babylon is taken, Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

(d) Ps. lxiv. 9. And men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God; for they shall wisely consider of his doing.

xvii. 3. Declare his glory among the heathen, his wonders among all people.

Is. xii. 4. And in that day shall ye say, Praise the Lord, call upon his name, declare his doings among the people, make mention that his name is exalted.

xlviii. 6. Thou hast heard, see all this; and will not ye declare it? I have showed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, and thou didst not know them.

(e) Is. xxi. 9. And, behold, here cometh a chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, Babylon is fallen, is fallen; and all the graven images of her gods he hath broken unto the ground.

Rev. xiv. 8. And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

3 For out of the north there cometh up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast.

4 ¶ In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, (f) going and weeping: they shall go, and (g) seek the LORD their God.

(f) Ezra iii. 12. But many of the priests and Levites, and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men, that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy.

13. So that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

Joel ii. 12. Therefore also now, saith the Lord, Turn ye to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning.

Zech. xii. 10. And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his first-born.

James iv. 9. Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

(g) Ps. cv. 4. Seek the Lord, and his strength: seek his face for evermore.

Is. xlv. 19. I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth: I said unto the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me in vain: I the Lord speak righteousness, I declare things that are right.

lv. 6. Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near?

Hos. iii. 5. Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the Lord their God, and David their king; and shall fear the Lord and his goodness in the latter days.

5 They shall (h) ask the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, saying, (i) Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD (k) in a perpetual covenant (l) that shall not be forgotten.

(h) Psa. xxv. 8. Good and upright is the Lord; therefore will he teach sinners in the way.

9. The meek will he guide in judgment: and the meek will he teach his way.

Is. xxxv. 8. And an highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called, The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the way-faring men, though fools, shall not err therein.

(i) Is. ii. 3. And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

Mic. iv. 1. But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the Lord shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow into it.

2. And many nations shall come and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the house of the Lord, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths; for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

(k) Gen. xvii. 7. And I will establish my covenant between me and thee, and thy seed after thee, in their generations, for an everlasting covenant; to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee.

2 Sam. xxiii. 5. Although my house be not so with God; yet he hath made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things, and sure: for this is all my salvation, and all my desire, although he make it not to grow.

Is. lv. 3. Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

(l) Jer. xxxii. 40. And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me.

6 My (m) people hath been lost sheep: (n) their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they (o) have forgotten their resting-place.

(m) Psa. cxix. 176. I have gone astray like a lost sheep: seek thy servant; for I do not forget thy commandments.

Is. liii. 6. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

Matt. ix. 36. But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted.

x. 6. But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

xv. 24. But he answered, and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

1 Pel. ii. 25. For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

(n) Is. lvi. 10. His watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber.

11. Yea, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, every one for his gain, from his quarter.

12. Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and tomorrow shall be as this day, and much more abundant.

(o) Psa. xc. 1. Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations.

cxvi. 7. Return unto thy rest, O my soul; for the Lord hath dealt bountifully with thee.

Is. xxx. 15. For thus saith the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel, In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength: and ye would not.

7 All that found them have devoured them; and their adversaries said, (p) We offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of justice, even the LORD, (q) the hope of their fathers.

(p) Jer. xl. 2. And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said unto him, The Lord thy God hath pronounced this evil upon this place.

3. Now the Lord hath brought it, and done according as he hath said: because ye have sinned against the Lord, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you.

Zech. xi. 5. Whose possessors slay them; and hold themselves not guilty: and they that sell them say, Blessed be the Lord; for I am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not.

(q) Psa. xxii. 4. Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them.

5. They cried unto thee, and were delivered: they trusted in thee, and were not confounded.

1 Tim. i. 1. Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope.

8 Remove (r) out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he-goats before the flocks.

(r) Num. xvi. 26. And he spake unto the congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest ye be consumed in all their sins.

Is. xlviii. 20. Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of singing, declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth; say ye, The Lord hath redeemed his servant Jacob.

2 Cor. vi. 17. Wherefore, come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you.

Rev. xviii. 4. And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

9 ¶ For, lo, I will raise, and cause to come up against Babylon an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall set themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty expert man; none shall return in vain.

10 And Chaldea shall be a spoil: all that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the LORD.

11 Because (s) ye were glad, because ye rejoiced, O (t) ye destroyers of mine heritage, because (u) ye are grown fat as the heifer at grass, and bellow as bulls;

(s) Prov. xvii. 5. Whoso mocketh the poor reproacheth his maker: and he that is glad at calamities shall not be unpunished.

Lam. i. 21. They have heard that I sigh: there is none to comfort me: all mine enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast done it: thou wilt bring the day that thou hast called, and they shall be like unto me.

Ez. xxvi. 2. Son of man, because that Tyrus hath said against Jerusalem, Aha, she is broken that was the gates of the people: she is turned unto me: I shall be replenished now she is laid waste:

3. Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against thee, O Tyrus, and will cause many nations to come up against thee, as the sea causeth his waves to come up.

Ob. 12. But thou shouldst not have looked on the day of thy brother in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldst thou have rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldst thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress.

(i) Ps. lxxix. 1. O God, the heathen are come into thine inheritance; thy holy temple have they defiled; they have laid Jerusalem on heaps.

2. The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the heaven, the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth.

3. Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem; and there was none to bury them.

4. We are become a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and derision to them that are round about us.

Is. x. 6. I will send him against an hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

7. Howbeit he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations not a few.

(u) Deut. xxxii. 15. But Jeshurun waxed fat, and kicked; thou art waxen fat, thou art grown thick, thou art covered with fatness; then he forsook God which made him, and lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation.

Hos. x. 11. And Ephraim is as an heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon her fair neck; I will make Ephraim to ride; Judah shall plough, and Jacob shall break his clods.

Amos iv. 1. Hear this word, ye kine of Bashan, that are in the mountains of Samaria, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

12 Your (x) mother shall be sore confounded; she that bare you shall be ashamed: behold, (y) the hindermost of the nations shall be (z) a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

(x) Gal. iv. 26. But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

Rev. xvii. 5. And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS, AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

(y) Is. xxiii. 13. Behold the land of the Chaldeans; this people was not, till the Assyrian founded it for them that dwell in the wilderness: they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof; and he brought it to ruin.

Jer. xxv. 26. And all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth: and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them.

(z) Is. xliii. 20. It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation: neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there; neither shall the shepherds make their fold there.

21. But wild beasts of the desert shall lie there; and their houses shall be full of doleful creatures; and owls shall dwell there, and satyrs shall dance there.

22. And the wild beasts of the islands shall cry in their desolate houses, and dragons in their pleasant palaces: and her time is near to come, and her days shall not be prolonged.

13 Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, but it shall be wholly desolate; every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues.

14 Put yourselves (a) in array against Babylon round about: all ye that (b) bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows; (c) for she hath sinned against the LORD.

(a) 1 Sam. xvii. 20. And David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the trench, as the host was going forth to the fight, and shouted for the battle.

2 Sam. x. 9. When Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians.

Is. xliii. 4. The noise of a multitude in the mountains, like as of a great people; a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together: the Lord of hosts mustereth the host of the battle.

(b) Is. v. 28. Whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent; their horses' hoofs shall be counted like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind.

Jer. xli. 9. Come up, ye horses; and rage, ye chariots; and let the mighty men come forth: the Ethiopians and the Libyans, that handle the shield; and the Lydians that handle and bend the bow.

(c) Hab. ii. 8. Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

15 (d) Shout against her round about: she hath given her hand: her foundations are fallen, her walls are thrown down: (e) for it is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance upon her; (f) as she hath done, do unto her.

(d) Josh. vi. 5. And it shall come to pass, that when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when ye hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout: and the wall of the city shall fall down flat, and the people shall ascend up, every man straight before him.

20. So the people shouted when the priests blew with the trumpets; and it came to pass, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city.

Ez. xxi. 22. At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering-rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort.

(e) Deut. xxxii. 35. To me belongeth vengeance and recompense; their foot shall slide in due time: for the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that shall come upon them make haste.

41. If I whet my glittering sword, and mine hand take hold on judgment, I will render vengeance to mine enemies, and will reward them that hate me.

Is. lix. 17. For he put on righteousness as a breast-plate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloak.

Nah. i. 3. The Lord is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked; the Lord hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

(f) 1 Sam. xv. 33. And Samuel said, As thy sword hath made women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the Lord in Gilgal.

Matt. vii. 2. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

James ii. 13. For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath showed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

Rev. xviii. 6. Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled, fill to her double.

16 Cut off (g) the sower from Babylon, and him that handleth the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land.

(g) Joel i. 11. Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vine-dressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

Amos v. 16. Therefore the Lord, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus; Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing.

17 ¶ Israel is as scattered sheep; the lions have driven him away: (h) first, the king of Assyria hath devoured him; and last, (i) this Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones.

(h) 2 Kings xv. 29. In the days of Pekah king of Israel came Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and took Ijon, and Abel-beth-maachah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali, and carried them captive to Assyria.

2 Chr. xxxiii. 11. Wherefore the Lord brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the thorns, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

Is. viii. 7. Now therefore, behold, the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even the king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks.

(i) Is. xlvii. 6. I was wroth with my people, I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: thou didst show them no mercy; upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.

Jer. li. 34. Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon hath devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, (k) as I have punished the kings of Assyria.

(k) Is. xxxvii. 36. Then the angel of the Lord went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians an hundred and fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

37. So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went, and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh.

38. And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Armenia: and Esar-haddon his son reigned in his stead.

Zeph. ii. 13. And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy Assyria; and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.

14. And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of the nations: both the cormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the upper lintels of it; their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in the thresholds: for he shall uncover the cedar-work.

15. This is the rejoicing city that dwelt carelessly, that said in her heart, I am, and there is none beside me: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! every one that passeth by her shall hiss, and wag his hand.

19 And I will (l) bring Israel again to his habitation, and (m) he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon Mount Ephraim and Gilead.

(l) Ez. xi. 17. Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God; I will even gather you from among the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

Amos ix. 14. And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

15. And I will plant them upon their land, and they shall no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them, saith the Lord thy God.

(m) Is. xxxiii. 9. The earth mourneth and languisheth: Lebanon is ashamed and hewn down: Sharon is like a wilderness; and Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits.

xxxv. 2. It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice, even with joy and singing: the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon, they shall see the glory of the Lord, and the excellency of our God.

Mic. vii. 14. Feed thy people with thy rod, the flock of thine heritage, which dwell solitarily in the wood, in the midst of Carmel: let them feed in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.

20 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, (n) the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for (o) I will pardon them whom I reserve.

(n) Num. xxiii. 21. He hath not beheld iniquity in Jacob, neither hath he seen perverseness in Israel: the Lord his God is with him, and the shout of a king is among them.

Is. xliiii. 25. I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins.

xliv. 22. I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me; for I have redeemed thee.

Mic. vii. 19. He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

Acts iii. 19. Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord.

Heb. viii. 12. For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

x. 17. And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

(o) Mic. vii. 18. Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.

19. He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

21 ¶ Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod: waste and utterly destroy after them, saith the LORD, and do according to all that I have commanded thee.

22 A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction.

23 How (p) is the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations!

(p) Is. xiv. 4. That thou shalt take up this proverb against the king of Babylon, and say, How hath the oppressor ceased! the golden city ceased!

5. The Lord hath broken the staff of the wicked, and the sceptre of the rulers.

6. He who smote the people in wrath with a continual stroke, he that ruled the nations in anger, is persecuted, and none hindereth.

Rev. xviii. 16. And saying, Alas, alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

17. For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every ship-master, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off;

18. And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city!

19. And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas! that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea, by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.

24 I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, and thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, (q) because thou hast striven against the LORD.

(q) Job ix. 4. He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered?

xi. 2. Shall he that contendeth with the Almighty instruct him? he that reproveth God, let him answer it.

9. Hast thou an arm like God? or canst thou thunder with a voice like him?

Is. xlv. 9. Wo unto him that striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherd of the earth. Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands?

2 Thess. ii. 4. Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.

25 The LORD hath opened his armory, and hath brought forth the weapons of his indignation: for (r) this is the work of the Lord God of hosts in the land of the Chaldeans.

(r) Is. xlvi. 10. Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure.

11. Therefore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know from whence it riseth: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to put it off: and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt know.

xlviii. 14. All ye, assemble yourselves and hear; which among them hath declared these things? The Lord hath loved him: he will do his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans.

15. I, even I, have spoken, yea, I have called him: I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous.

Amos iii. 6. Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, and the Lord hath not done it?

26 Come against her from the utmost border, open her store-houses: cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly: let nothing of her be left.

27 Slay all her (s) bullocks: let them go down to the slaughter: wo unto them! for their day is come, the time of their visitation.

(s) Ps. xxii. 12. Many bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round.

Is. xxxiv. 7. And the unicorns shall come down with them, and the bullocks with the bulls; and their land shall be soaked with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness.

Rev. xix. 17. And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven,

Come, and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

18. That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19. And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

28 The voice of them that flee, and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of his temple.

29 Call together the archers against Babylon: all ye that bend the bow, camp against it round about; let none thereof escape: recompense her according to her work; according to all that she hath done, do unto her; (t) for she hath been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel.

(t) Is. xiv. 13. For thou hast said in thy heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north:

14. I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the Most High.

xxxvii. 23. Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed; and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Israel.

Dan. iv. 37. Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment: and those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

2 Thess. ii. 4. Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.

Rev. xiii. 5. And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months.

6. And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

30 Therefore shall her young men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD.

31 Behold, I am against thee, O thou most proud, saith the LORD God of hosts: for thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee.

32 And the most proud (u) shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up: and I will (x) kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him.

(u) Prov. xvi. 18. Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.

xviii. 12. Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, and before honour is humility.

Is. xiv. 13. For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north:

14. I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the Most High.

15. Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the side of the pit.

Dan. v. 20. But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him.

(x) Deut. xxxii. 22. For a fire is kindled in mine anger, and shall burn unto the lowest hell, and shall consume the earth with her increase, and set on fire the foundations of the mountains.

Jer. xxi. 14. But I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, saith the Lord: and I will kindle a fire in the forest thereof, and it shall devour all things round about it.

Amos i. 4. But I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad.

ii. 2. But I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of Kerioth: and Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

33 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together: and all that took them captives held them fast; they refused to let them go.

34 Their (y) Redeemer is strong: The LORD of hosts is his name: he shall thoroughly (z) plead their cause, (a) that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

(y) Ex. vi. 6. Therefore say unto the children of Israel, I am the Lord, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with a stretched-out arm, and with great judgments.

Prov. xxiii. 11. For their Redeemer is mighty: he shall plead their cause with thee.

Is. xli. 14. Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye men of Israel; I will help thee, saith the Lord, and thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

(z) Ps. xxxv. 1. Plead my cause, O Lord, with them that strive with me: fight against them that fight against me.

xliii. 1. Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation: O deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.

Prov. xxii. 23. For the Lord will plead their cause, and spoil the soul of those that spoiled them.

(a) 2 Thess. i. 6. Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;

7. And to you who are troubled, rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels.

35 ¶ A (b) sword is upon the Chaldeans, saith the LORD, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and (c) upon her princes, and upon (d) her wise men.

(b) Is. lxvi. 16. For by fire and by his sword will the Lord plead with all flesh: and the slain of the Lord shall be many.

Hos. xi. 6. And the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, because of their own counsels.

Zech. xi. 17. Wo to the idle shepherd that leaveth the flock! the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

(c) Is. xli. 25. I have raised up one from the north, and he shall come: from the rising of the sun shall he call upon my name: and he shall come upon princes as upon mortar, and as the potter treadeth clay.

Dan. v. 1. Belshazzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

2. Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might drink therein.

30. In that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain.

(d) Is. xxix. 14. Therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder: for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid.

xliv. 25. That frustrateth the tokens of the liars, and maketh diviners mad; that turneth wise men backward, and maketh their knowledge foolish.

36 A sword is (e) upon the liars; and they shall (f) dote: a sword is upon her (g) mighty men; and they shall be dismayed.

(e) Is. xlv. 25. That frustrateth the tokens of the liars, and maketh diviners mad; that turneth wise men backward, and maketh their knowledge foolish.

2 Thess. ii. 9. Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan, with all power, and signs, and lying wonders,

10. And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

1 Tim. iv. 2. Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron.

(f) 2 Sam. xv. 31. And one told David, saying, Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom. And David said, O Lord, I pray thee, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness.

xvii. 14. And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. For the Lord had appointed to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the Lord might bring evil upon Absalom.

1 Tim. vi. 4. He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings.

(g) Jer. li. 23. I will also break in pieces with thee the shepherd and his flocks; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers.

30. The mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight, they have remained in their holds: their might hath failed; they became as women: they have burned her dwelling-places; her bars are broken.

37 A sword is upon (h) their horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all the mingled people that are in the midst of her; and they shall become as women: a sword is upon her treasures; and they shall be robbed.

(h) Ps. xx. 7. Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of the Lord our God.

8. They are brought down, and fallen: but we are risen, and stand upright.

xlvi. 9. He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariot in the fire.

Ez. xxxix. 20. Thus ye shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord God.

Hag. ii. 22. And I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen; and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses and their riders shall come down, every one by the sword of his brother.

38 (i) A drought is upon her waters; and they shall be dried up: for it is (h) the land of graven images, and they are (l) mad upon their idols.

(i) Is. xlv. 27. That saith to the deep, Be dry, and I will dry up thy rivers.

Rev. xvi. 12. And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

(h) Dan. v. 4. They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

Hab. ii. 18. What profiteth the graven image, that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols?

19. Wo unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

(l) Is. xlv. 25. That frustrateth the tokens of the liars, and maketh diviners mad; that turneth wise men backward, and maketh their knowledge foolish.

Acts xviii. 16. Now, while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.

39 Therefore (m) the wild beasts of the desert, with the wild beasts of the islands, shall dwell there, and the owls shall dwell therein; and it shall be no more inhabited for ever; neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.

(m) Is. xiv. 23. I will also make it a possession for the bittern, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the Lord of hosts.

Jer. li. 26. And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but thou shalt be desolate for ever, saith the Lord.

37. And Babylon shall become heaps, a dwelling-place for dragons, an astonishment, and an hissing, without an inhabitant.

43. Her cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby.

40 As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD: so shall no man abide there, neither shall any son of man dwell therein.

41 Behold, a (n) people shall come from the north, and a great nation, and many kings shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

(n) Is. xiii. 2. Lift ye up a banner upon the high mountain, exalt the voice unto them, shake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles.

3. I have commanded my sanctified ones, I have also called my mighty ones for mine anger, even them that rejoice in my highness.

4. The noise of a multitude in the mountains, like as of a great people; a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together: the Lord of hosts mustereth the host of the battle.

5. They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, even the Lord, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.

42 They shall hold the bow and the lance; (o) they are cruel, and will not show mercy: (p) their voice shall roar like the sea, and they (q) shall ride upon horses, every one put in array, like a man to the battle, against thee, O daughter of Babylon.

(o) Ps. lxxiv. 20. Have respect unto the covenant: for the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty.

Is. xiii. 17. Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, which shall not regard silver; and as for gold, they shall not delight in it.

18. Their bows also shall dash the young men to pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye shall not spare children.

(p) Ps. xlv. 2. Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;

3. Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Selah.

Is. v. 30. And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the sea: and if one look unto the land, behold, darkness and sorrow, and the light is darkened in the heavens therefore.

(q) Is. v. 28. Whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent; their horses' hoofs shall be counted like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind.

Hab. i. 8. Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly as the eagle that hasteth to eat.

43 The king of Babylon hath heard the report of them, and his hands waxed feeble: anguish took hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travail.

44 Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan unto the habitation of the strong; but I will make them suddenly run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before me?

45 Therefore (r) hear ye the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Babylon; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the land of the Chaldeans; surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitation desolate with them.

(r) Ps. xxxiii. 10. The Lord bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

11. The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

Is. xiv. 24. The Lord of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand.

xlvi. 10. Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure:

11. Calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man that executeth my counsel from a far country: yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it.

46 At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth is moved, and the cry is heard among the nations,

CHAPTER LI.

THUS saith the LORD; Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against them that dwell in the midst of them that rise up against me, a destroying wind;

2 And will send unto Babylon (a) fanners, that shall fan her, and shall empty her land: for (b) in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about.

(a) Is. xli. 16. Thou shalt fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and thou shalt rejoice in the Lord, and shalt glory in the Holy One of Israel.

Ez. v. 12. A third part of thee shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee: and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and I will scatter a third part into all the winds, and I will draw out a sword after them.

Matt. iii. 12. Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

(b) Ps. i. 14. Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto the Most High:

15. And call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

3 Against him that bendeth, let the archer bend his bow, and against him that lifteth himself up in his brigandine: and (c) spare ye not her young men: destroy ye utterly all her host.

(c) Deut. xxxii. 25. The sword without, and terror within, shall destroy the young man and the virgin, the suckling also, with the man of gray hairs.

Ps. cxxvii. 9. Happy shall he be, that taketh and dasheth thy little ones against the stones.

Is. xiii. 10. For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine.

15. Every one that is found shall be thrust through: and every one that is joined unto them shall fall by the sword.

16. Their children also shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled, and their wives ravished.

17. Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, which shall not regard silver; and as for gold, they shall not delight in it.

18. Their bows also shall dash the young men to pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye shall not spare children.

4 Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans, and they that are thrust through in her streets.

5 For (d) Israel hath not been forsaken, nor Judah of his God, of the LORD of hosts; (e) though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel.

(d) 1 Sam. xii. 22. For the Lord will not forsake his people for his great name's sake: because it hath pleased the Lord to make you his people.

1 Kings vi. 13. And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel.

Ezra ix. 9. For we were bondmen; yet our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair the desolations thereof, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

Ps. xciv. 14. For the Lord will not cast off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance.

Is. xlix. 14. But Zion said, The Lord hath forsaken me, and my Lord hath forgotten me.

15. Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, yet will I not forget thee.

lxii. 12. And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the Lord: and thou shalt be called, Sought out, A city not forsaken.

(e) 2 Kings xxi. 16. Moreover, Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; beside his sin wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the Lord.

Ez. viii. 17. Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger: and, lo, they put the branch to their nose.

ix. 9. Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perverseness: for they say, The Lord hath forsaken the earth, and the Lord seeth not.

6 (f) Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man his soul: (g) be not cut off in her iniquity; for this is the time of the LORD's vengeance; he will render unto her a recompense.

(f) Is. xlviii. 20. Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth; say ye, The Lord hath redeemed his servant Jacob.

Zech. ii. 6. Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, saith the Lord: for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the Lord.

7. Deliver thyself, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon.

Rev. xviii. 4. And I heard another voice, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

(g) Num. xvi. 26. And he spake unto the congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest ye be consumed in all their sins.

Prov. xiii. 20. He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.

1 Tim. v. 22. Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure.

7 Babylon hath been (h) a golden cup in the LORD's hand, that made all the earth drunken: (i) the nations have drunken of her wine; therefore the nations are mad.

(h) Is. xiv. 4. That thou shalt take up this proverb against the king of Babylon, and say, How hath the oppressor ceased! the golden city ceased!

Rev. xvii. 4. And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand, full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication.

(i) Hab. ii. 15. Wo unto him that giveth his neighbour drink, that putteth thy bottle to him, and maketh him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness!

16. Thou art filled with shame for glory: drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered: the cup of the Lord's right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on all thy glory.

Rev. xiv. 8. And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

8 Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed; howl for her; (k) take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed.

(k) Jer. viii. 22. Is there no balm in Gilead? is there no physician there? why then is not the health of the daughter of my people recovered? xxx. 12. For thus saith the Lord, Thy bruise is incurable, and thy wound is grievous.

13. There is none to plead thy cause, that thou mayest be bound up: thou hast no healing medicines.

14. All thy lovers have forgotten thee; they seek thee not; for I have wounded thee with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the multitude of thine iniquity; because thy sins were increased.

15. Why criest thou for thine affliction? thy sorrow is incurable for the multitude of thine iniquity; because thy sins were increased, I have done these things unto thee.

Nah. iii. 19. There is no healing of thy bruise: thy wound is grievous: all that hear the bruit of thee shall clap the hands over thee: for upon whom hath not thy wickedness passed continually?

9 We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country: for (l) her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.

(l) 2 Chr. xxviii. 9. But a prophet of the Lord was there, whose name was Obed: and he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, because the Lord God of your fathers was wrath with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage that reacheth up unto heaven.

Ezra ix. 6. And said, O my God, I am ashamed, and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up unto the heavens.

Rev. xviii. 5. For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

10 The LORD hath (m) brought forth our righteousness; come, and (n) let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.

(m) Ps. xxxvii. 6. And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noon-day.

Mic. vii. 9. I will bear the indignation of the Lord, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness.

(n) Ps. ix. 14. That I may show forth all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion: I will rejoice in thy salvation.

cxvi. 18. I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people.

19. In the courts of the Lord's house, in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Praise ye the Lord.

Is. lii. 9. Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the Lord hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem.

10. The Lord hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations: and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

11 Make bright the arrows; gather the shields: (o) the LORD hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes: for his device is against Babylon to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of his temple.

(o) 1 Kings xi. 14. And the Lord stirred up an adversary unto Solomon, Hadad the Edomite: he was of the king's seed in Edom.

23. And God stirred him up another adversary, Rezon the son of Eliadab, which fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zobah.

1 Chr. v. 26. And the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria, and the spirit of Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria, and he carried them away, even the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, and brought them unto Halab, and Habor, and Hara, and to the river Gozan, unto this day.

2 Chr. xxxvi. 22. Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the Lord spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying.

Is. x. 26. And the Lord of hosts shall stir up a scourge for him according to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb: and as his rod was upon the sea, so shall he lift it up after the manner of Egypt.

xli. 25. I have raised up one from the north, and he shall come: from the rising of the sun shall he call upon my name: and he shall come upon princes as upon mortar, and as the potter treadeth clay.

xlv. 1. Thus saith the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two-leaved gates, and the gates shall not be shut.

12 Set up (p) the standard upon the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set up the watchmen, prepare the ambushes: for the LORD hath both devised and done that which he spake against the inhabitants of Babylon.

(p) Is. viii. 9. Associate yourselves, O ye people, and ye shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces.

10. Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for God is with us.

xiii. 2. Lift ye up a banner upon the high mountain, exalt the voice unto them, shake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles.

Joel iii. 2. I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

Nab. ii. 1. He that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily.

13 O thou that dwellest upon many waters, (q) abundant in treaures, (r) thine end is come, and (s) the measure of thy covetousness.

(q) Is. xlv. 3. And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I, the Lord, which call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel.

Hab. ii. 5. Yea, also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people.

(r) Gen. vi. 13. And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

Lam. iv. 18. They hunt our steps, that we cannot go in our streets: our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end is come.

Dan. v. 26. This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it.

Amos viii. 2. And he said, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the Lord unto me, The end is come upon my people of Israel; I will not again pass by them any more.

(s) 2 Pet. ii. 3. And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

14. Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children;

15. Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness.

14 The LORD of hosts hath sworn by himself, saying, Surely I will fill thee with men (t) as with caterpillars; and they shall lift up a shout against thee.

(t) Judg. vi. 5. For they came up with their cattle and their tents, and they came as grasshoppers for multitude; for both they and their camels were without number: and they entered into the land to destroy it.

Joel i. 4. That which the palmer-worm hath left, hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left, hath the canker-worm eaten; and that which the canker-worm hath left, hath the caterpillar eaten.

5. Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine; because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth.

6. For a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek teeth of a great lion.

7. He hath laid my vine waste, and barked my fig-tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white.

ii. 25. And I will restore to you the ears that the locust hath eaten, the canker-worm, and the caterpillar, and the palmer-worm, my great army which I sent among you.

15 He (u) hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world (x) by his wisdom, (y) and hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding.

(u) Ps. cxlvi. 5. Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the Lord his God:

6. Which made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: which keepeth truth for ever.

Is. xl. 26. Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host by number: he calleth them all by names, by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power; not one faileth.

Acts xiv. 15. And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you, that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, which made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein.

(x) Ps. civ. 24. O Lord, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches.

cxxxvi. 5. To him that by wisdom made the heavens: for his mercy endureth for ever.

Prov. iii. 19. The Lord by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he established the heavens.

(y) Job ix. 8. Which alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the waves of the sea.

Ps. civ. 2. Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment: who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain.

Is. xl. 22. It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in.

16 When (z) he uttereth his voice, (a) there is a multitude of waters in the heavens; and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: he maketh lightnings with rain, and (b) bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

(z) Job xl. 9. Hast thou an arm like God? or canst thou thunder with a voice like him?

Ps. xviii. 13. The Lord thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave his voice: hailstones and coals of fire.

xlvi. 6. The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted.

Ez. x. 5. And the sound of the cherubims' wings was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of the Almighty God when he speaketh.

(a) Job xxxviii. 34. Canst thou lift up thy voice to the clouds, that abundance of waters may cover thee?

35. Canst thou send lightnings, that they may go, and say unto thee, Here we are?

36. Who hath put wisdom in the inward parts? or who hath given understanding to the heart?

37. Who can number the clouds in wisdom? or who can stay the bottles of heaven,

38. When the dust groweth into hardness, and the clods cleave fast together?

(b) Gen. viii. 1. And God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the cattle that was with him in the ark: and God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters assuaged.

Ez. x. 13. And Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt, and the Lord brought an east wind upon the land all that day, and all that night: and when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts.

19. And the Lord turned a mighty strong west wind, which took away the locusts, and cast them into the Red sea: there remained not one locust in all the coasts of Egypt.

Ps. lxxviii. 26. He caused an east wind to blow in the heaven: and by his power he brought in the south wind.

cxxxv. 7. He causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings for the rain; he bringeth the wind out of his treasures.

exlvii. 18. He sendeth out his word, and melteth them: he causeth the wind to blow, and the waters flow.

Jon. i. 4. But the Lord sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken.

iv. 8. And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live.

17 Every man is brutish by his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image; (c) for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

(c) Ps. cxxxv. 17. They have ears, but they hear not; neither is there any breath in their mouths.

Jer. x. 14. Every man is brutish in his knowledge: every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

1. 2. Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

18 They are vanity, the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.

19 The (d) portion of Jacob is not like them; for he is the former of all things: and Israel is (e) the rod of his inheritance: The LORD of hosts is his name.

(d) Ps. xvi. 5. The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup; thou maintainest my lot.

lxxxiii. 26. My flesh and my heart faileth; but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.

(e) Ex. xix. 5. Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine:

6. And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

Deut. xxxiii. 9. For the Lord's portion is his people; Jacob is the lot of his inheritance.

Ps. xxxiii. 12. Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

cxxxv. 4. For the Lord hath chosen Jacob unto himself, and Israel for his peculiar treasure.

1 Pet. ii. 9. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

20 Thou (f) art my battle-axe and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms;

(f) Is. x. 5. O Assyrian, the rod of mine anger, and the staff in their hand is mine indignation.

15. Shall the axe boast itself against him that heweth therewith? or shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? as if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up itself, as if it were no wood.

xiii. 5. They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, even the Lord, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.

xxxvii. 26. Hast thou not heard long ago, how I have done it; and of ancient times, that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldst be to lay waste defenced cities into ruinous heaps.

Mic. iv. 13. Arise and thrash, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the Lord, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth.

21 And with thee will I break in pieces (g) the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider;

(g) Ex. xv. 21. And Miriam answered them, Sing ye to the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

Ps. xlii. 9. He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariot in the fire.

lxxvi. 6. At thy rebuke, O God of Jacob, both the chariot and horse are cast into a dead sleep.

Ez. xxxix. 20. Thus ye shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord God.

Mic. v. 10. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord, that I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots.

Nah. ii. 13. Behold, I am against thee, saith the Lord of hosts, and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions: and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

Hag. ii. 22. And I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen; and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses and their riders shall come down, every one by the sword of his brother.

Zech. x. 5. And they shall be as mighty men, which tread down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle: and they shall fight, because the Lord is with them, and the riders on horses shall be confounded.

xii. 4. In that day, saith the Lord, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness; and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

22 With thee also will I break in pieces (h) man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces old and young; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid;

(h) Deut. xxxii. 25. The sword without, and terror within, shall destroy both the young man and the virgin, the suckling also, with the man of gray hairs.

1 Sam. xv. 3. Now go and smite Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass.

2 Chr. xxxvi. 17. Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man, or him that stooped for age: he gave them all into his hand.

Is. xx. 4. So shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.

Lam. ii. 11. Mine eyes do fail with tears, my bowels are troubled, my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because the children and the sucklings swoon in the streets of the city.

Ez. ix. 6. Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house.

23 I will also break in pieces with thee the shepherd and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers:

24 And (i) I will render unto Babylon, and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea, all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, saith the LORD.

(i) Ps. cxxxvii. 8. O daughter of Babylon, who art to be destroyed; happy shall he be that rewardeth thee as thou hast served us.

9. Happy shall he be, that taketh and dasheth thy little ones against the stones.

Is. xlvii. 6. I was wroth with my people, I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: thou didst show them no mercy; upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.

7. And thou saidst, I shall be a lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end of it.

8. Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children;

9. But these two things shall come to thee in a moment in one day, the loss of children and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection, for the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

1 Thess. ii. 15. Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men:

16. Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles, that they might be saved, to fill up their sins always: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

Rev. xviii. 20. Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her.

25 Behold, I am against thee, O destroying mountain, saith the LORD, which destroyest all the earth: and I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and roll thee down from the rocks, and will make thee a burnt mountain.

26 And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but thou shalt be desolate for ever, saith the LORD.

27 Set (k) ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashchenaz: appoint a captain against her; (l) cause the horses to come up as the rough caterpillars.

(k) Is. xiii. 2. Lift ye up a banner upon the high mountain, exalt the voice unto them, shake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles.

xviii. 3. All ye inhabitants of the world, and dwellers on the earth, see ye, when he lifteth up an ensign on the mountains; and when he bloweth a trumpet, hear ye.

(l) Nah. iii. 15. There shall the fire devour thee; the sword shall cut thee off, it shall eat thee up like the canker-worm: make thyself many as the canker-worm, make thyself many as the locusts.

16. Thou hast multiplied thy merchants above the stars of heaven: the canker-worm spoileth, and fleeth away.

17. Thy crowned are as the locusts, and thy captains as the great grasshoppers, which camp in the hedges in the cold day, but when the sun ariseth they flee away, and their place is not known where they are.

28 Prepare against her the nations with the kings of the Medes, the captains thereof, and all the rulers thereof, and all the land of his dominion.

29 And (m) the land shall tremble and sorrow; for every purpose of the LORD shall be performed against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant.

(m) Is. xiii. 13. Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the Lord of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger.

14. And it shall be as the chased roe, and as a sheep that no man taketh up: they shall every man turn to his own people, and flee every one into his own land.

xiv. 16. They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms?

Joel ii. 10. The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining.

Amos viii. 8. Shall not this land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood, and it shall be cast out and devoured, as by the flood of Egypt.

30 The (n) mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight, they have remained in their holds: their might hath failed; they became as women: they have burned her dwelling-places; (o) her bars are broken.

(n) Ps. lxxvi. 5. The stout-hearted are spoiled, they have slept their sleep: and none of the men of might have found their hands.

Is. xiii. 7. Therefore shall all hands be faint; and every man's heart shall melt.

8. And they shall be afraid: pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman that travaileth: they shall be amazed one at another; their faces shall be as flames.

xix. 16. In that day shall Egypt be like unto women: and it shall be afraid and fear because of the shaking of the hand of the Lord of hosts, which he shaketh over it.

Nah. iii. 13. Behold, thy people in the midst of thee are women: the gates of thy land shall be set wide open unto thine enemies: the fire shall devour thy bars.

(o) Is. xlv. 2. I will go before thee, and make the crooked places straight: I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron.

Lam. ii. 9. Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars: her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: the law is no more: her prophets also find no vision from the Lord.

Amos i. 5. I will break also the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the plain of Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from the house of Eden: and the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto Kir, saith the Lord.

31 One (p) post shall run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to show the king of Babylon that his city is taken at one end,

(p) 2 Chr. xxx. 6. So the posts went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, turn again unto the Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you that are escaped out of the hand of the kings of Assyria.

Esth. iii. 13. And the letters were sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey.

14. The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province, was published unto all people, that they should be ready against that day.

32 And that the passages are stopped, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are affrighted.

33 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; The daughter of Babylon (q) is like a thrashing-floor, it is time to thrash her: yet a little while, and (r) the time of her harvest shall come.

(q) Is. xxi. 10. O my thrashing, and the corn of my floor: that which I have heard of the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared unto you.

Amos i. 3. Thus saith the Lord; For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have thrashed Gilead with thrashing instruments of iron.

Mic. iv. 13. Arise and thrash, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the Lord, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth.

Hab. iii. 12. Thou didst march through the land in indignation, thou didst thrash the heathen in anger.

(r) Is. xvii. 5. And it shall be as when the harvest-man gathereth the corn, and reapeth the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he that gathereth ears in the valley of Rephaim.

Hos. vi. 11. Also, O Judah, he hath set an harvest for thee, when I returned the captivity of my people.

Joel iii. 13. Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the press is full, the fats overflow; for their wickedness is great.

Matt. xiii. 30. Let both grow together until the time of harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

39. The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

34 Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon hath devoured me, he hath crushed me, (s) he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath (t) swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.

(s) Is. xxiv. 1. Behold, the Lord maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.

2. And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him.

3. The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled: for the Lord hath spoken this word.

xxxiv. 11. But the eormorant and the bittern shall possess it; the owl also and the raven shall dwell in it: and he shall stretch out upon it the line of confusion, and the stones of emptiness.

Nah. ii. 2. For the Lord hath turned away the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and marred their vine-branches.

(t) Job xx. 15. He hath swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again: God shall cast them out of his belly.

Prov. i. 12. Let us swallow them up alive as the grave; and whole, as those that go down into the pit.

Lam. ii. 16. All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth; they say, We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it.

Amos viii. 4. Hear this, O ye that swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail.

35 The (u) violence done to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon, shall the inhabitant of Zion say; and my blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say.

(u) Judg. ix. 24. That the cruelty done to the threescore and ten sons of Jerubbaal might come, and their blood be laid upon Abimelech their brother which slew them, and upon the men of Shechem, which aided him in the killing of his brethren.

Ps. cxxxvii. 8. O daughter of Babylon, who art to be destroyed; happy shall he be, that rewardeth thee as thou hast served us.

9. Happy shall he be, that taketh and dasheth thy little ones against the stones.

Is. xxvi. 20. Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast.

21. For, behold, the Lord cometh out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain.

Matt. vii. 2. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

James ii. 13. For he shall have judgment without mercy that hath showed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

36 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, (x) I will plead thy cause, and (y) take vengeance for thee; and I will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry.

(x) Prov. xxii. 23. For the Lord will plead their cause, and spoil the soul of those that spoiled them.

xxiii. 11. For their redeemer is mighty; he shall plead their cause with thee.

Mic. vii. 8. Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the Lord shall be a light unto me.

9. I will bear the indignation of the Lord, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness.

10. Then she that is mine enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her which said unto me, Where is the Lord thy God? mine eyes shall behold her: now shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets.

(y) Deut. xxxii. 35. To me belongeth vengeance and recompense; their foot shall slide in due time: for the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that shall come upon them make haste.

43. Rejoice, O ye nations, with his people: for he will avenge the blood of his servants, and will render vengeance to his adversaries, and will be merciful unto his land, and to his people.

Rom. xii. 19. Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

37 And Babylon shall (z) become heaps, a dwelling-place for dragons, an astonishment, (a) an hissing, without an inhabitant.

(z) Is. xiv. 23. I will also make it a possession for the bitter, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the Lord of hosts.

Rev. xviii. 2. And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

(a) 2 Chr. xxix. 8. Wherefore the wrath of the Lord was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath delivered them to trouble, to astonishment, and to hissing, as ye see with your eyes.

Lam. ii. 15. All that pass by, clap their hands at thee; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?

16. All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth, they say, We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it.

Mic. vi. 16. For the statutes of Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of Ahab, and ye walk in their counsels; that I should make thee a desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing: therefore ye shall bear the reproach of my people.

38 They shall (b) roar together like lions: they shall yell as lions' whelps.

(b) Job iv. 10. The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and the teeth of the young lions, are broken.

11. The old lion perisheth for lack of prey, and the stout lions' whelps are scattered abroad.

Ps. xxxiv. 10. The young lions do lack and suffer hunger: but they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing.

Iviii. 6. Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth: break out the great teeth of the young lions, O Lord.

Is. xxxv. 9. No lion shall be there, nor any ravenous beast shall go up thereon, it shall not be found there; but the redeemed shall walk there.

Zech. xi. 3. There is a voice of the howling of the shepherds; for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the pride of Jordan is spoiled.

39 In (c) their heat I will make their feasts, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, (d) and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the LORD.

(c) Is. xxi. 4. My heart panted, fearfulness affrighted me: the night of my pleasure hath he turned into fear unto me.

xxii. 12. And in that day did the Lord God of hosts call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth:

13. And, behold, joy and gladness, slaying oxen, and killing sheep, eating flesh, and drinking wine: let us eat and drink; for to-morrow we shall die.

14. And it was revealed in mine ears by the Lord of hosts, Surely this iniquity shall not be purged from you till ye die, saith the Lord God of hosts.

Nah. i. 10. For while they be folden together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

iii. 11. Thou also shalt be drunken: thou shalt be hid, thou also shalt seek strength because of the enemy.

(d) Ps. xiii. 3. Consider and hear me, O Lord my God: lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death.

Ixxvi. 5. The stout-hearted are spoiled, they have slept their sleep: and none of the men of might have found their hands.

6. At thy rebuke, O God of Jacob, both the chariot and the horse are cast into a dead sleep.

40 I will bring them down (e) like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he-goats.

(e) Ps. xxxvii. 20. But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the Lord shall be as the fat of lambs: they shall consume; into smoke shall they consume away.

xliv. 22. Yea, for thy sake are we killed all the day long: we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.

Is. xxxiv. 6. The sword of the Lord is filled with blood, it is made fat with fatness, and with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams: for the Lord hath a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Idumea.

Ez. xxxix. 18. Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bullocks, all of them fatlings of Bashan.

41 How is Sheshach taken! and how is (f) the praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become (g) an astonishment among the nations!

(f) Is. xlii. 19. And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.

Dan. ii. 38. And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heathen hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold.

iv. 22. It is thou, O King, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth.

(g) Deut. xxviii. 37. And thou shalt become an astonishment, a proverb, and a by-word, among all nations whither the Lord shall lead thee.

2 Chr. vii. 21. And this house, which is high, shall be an astonishment to every one that passeth by it; so that he shall say, Why hath the Lord done thus unto this land, and unto this house?

Ez. xxvii. 35. All the inhabitants of the isles shall be astonished at thee, and their kings shall be sore afraid, they shall be troubled in their countenance.

42 The (h) sea is come up upon Babylon; she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof.

(h) Ps. xviii. 4. The sorrows of death compassed me, and the flood of ungodly men made me afraid.

xlii. 7. Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy water-spouts: all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.

xciii. 3. The floods have lifted up, O Lord, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves.

Is. viii. 7. Now, therefore, behold, the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many; even the king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks:

8. And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over, he shall reach even to the neck; and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel.

43 Her cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby.

44 And I will punish Bel in Babylon, and I will (i) bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up: and (k) the nations shall not flow together any more unto him; yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall.

(i) 2 Chr. xxxvi. 7. Nebuchadnezzar also carried off the vessels of the house of the Lord to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon.

Ezra i. 7. Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of the Lord, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his gods;

8. Even those did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them unto Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah.

(k) Is. ii. 2. And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.

Ix. 5. Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.

Dan. v. 19. And for the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would, he slew; and whom he would, he kept alive; and whom he would, he set up; and whom he would, he put down.

45 My people, (l) go ye out of the midst of her, and (m) deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the LORD.

(l) Is. xlviii. 20. Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth; say ye, The Lord hath redeemed his servant Jacob.

Rev. xviii. 4. And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

(m) Num. xvi. 26. And he spake unto the congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest ye be consumed in all their sins.

Acts ii. 40. And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation.

2 Cor. vi. 17. Wherefore, come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you.

46 And lest your heart faint, and ye fear for the rumour that shall be heard in the land; (n) a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in another year shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, (n) ruler against ruler.

(n) Is. xiii. 3. I have commanded my sanctified ones, I have also called my mighty ones for mine anger, even them that rejoice in my highness.

4. The noise of a multitude in the mountains, like as of a great people; a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together: the Lord of hosts mustereth the host of the battle.

5. They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, even the Lord, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.

(n) Judg. vii. 22. And the three hundred blew their trumpets, and the Lord set every man's sword against his fellow, even throughout all the host: and the host fled to Beth-shittah in Zere-rath, and to the border of Abel-meholah, unto Tabbath.

2 Chr. xx. 23. For the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped to destroy another.

Is. xix. 2. And I will set the Egyptians against the Egyptians: and they shall fight every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbour; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom.

47 Therefore, behold, the days come, that I will do judgment upon the graven images of Babylon: and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall be in the midst of her.

48 Then (o) the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Babylon: for the spoilers shall come unto her from the north, saith the LORD.

(o) Ps. lviii. 10. The righteous shall rejoice when he seeth the vengeance: he shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.

11. So that a man shall say, Verily there is a reward for the righteous: verily he is a God that judgeth in the earth.

Prov. xi. 10. When it goeth well with the righteous, the city rejoiceth: and when the wicked perish, there is shouting.

Is. xlv. 23. Sing, O ye heavens; for the Lord hath done it: shout, ye lower parts of the earth: break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein: for the Lord hath redeemed Jacob, and glorified himself in Israel.

Rev. xviii. 20. Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her.

49 As Babylon (p) hath caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all the earth.

(p) Judg. v. 7. The inhabitants of the villages ceased, they ceased in Israel, until that I Deborah arose, that I arose a mother in Israel.

Ps. cxxxvii. 8. O daughter of Babylon, who art to be destroyed; happy shall he be that rewardeth thee as thou hast served us.

9. Happy shall he be that taketh and dasheth thy little ones against the stones.

50 Ye that have (q) escaped the sword, go away, stand not still: (r) remember the LORD afar off, and let Jerusalem come into your mind.

(q) Is. lii. 11. Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the Lord.

12. For ye shall not go out with haste, nor go by flight: for the Lord will go before you; and the God of Israel will be your re-reward.

Rev. xviii. 4. And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

(r) Deut. iv. 29. But if from thence thou shalt seek the Lord thy God, thou shalt find him, if thou seek him with all thy heart, and with all thy soul.

30. When thou art in tribulation, and all these things are come upon thee, even in the latter days, if thou turn to the Lord thy God, and shalt be obedient to his voice;

31. (For the Lord thy God is a merciful God;) he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers, which he swore unto them.

Neh. ii. 3. And said unto the king, Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire?

4. Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed to the God of heaven,

5. And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it.

Ps. cii. 13. Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion: for the time to favour her, yea, the set time, is come.

14. For thy servants take pleasure in her stones, and favour the dust thereof.

cxxxvii. 5. If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning.

6. If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; if I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy.

51 We (s) are confounded, because we have heard reproach: (t) shame hath covered our faces: (u) for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the LORD's house.

(s) Ps. lxxiv. 18. Remember this, that the enemy hath reproached, O Lord, and that the foolish people have blasphemed thy name.

lxxix. 4. We are become a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to them that are round about us.

cxxiii. 3. Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.

4. Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud.

(t) Ps. lxxi. 13. Let them be confounded and consumed that are adversaries to my soul; let them be covered with reproach and dishonour that seek my heart.

cix. 29. Let mine adversaries be clothed with shame, and let them cover themselves with their own confusion, as with a mantle.

Ez. vii. 18. They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads.

Mic. vii. 10. Then she that is mine enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her which said unto me, Where is the Lord thy God? mine eyes shall behold her: now shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets.

(u) Ps. lxxix. 1. O God, the heathen are come into thine inheritance; thy holy temple have they defiled; they have laid Jerusalem on heaps.

Ez. vii. 21. And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall pollute it.

52 Wherefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will do judgment upon her graven images: and through all her land the wounded shall groan.

53 Though Babylon should (x) mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet (y) from me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the LORD.

(x) Gen. xi. 4. And they said, Go to, let us build us a city, and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.

Ez. xxxi. 9. I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him.

10. Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height;

11. I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen: he shall surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness.

(y) Is. x. 6. I will send against him an hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

7. Howbeit, he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations not a few.

xli. 25. I have raised up one from the north, and he shall come: from the rising of the sun shall he call upon my name: and he shall come upon princes as upon mortar, and as the potter treadeth clay.

54 A sound of a cry cometh from Babylon, and great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans:

55 Because the LORD hath spoiled Babylon, and (z) destroyed out of her the great voice; when (a) her waves do roar like great waters, a noise of their voice is uttered:

(z) Is. xv. 1. The burden of Moab. Because in the night Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence; because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence.

xxiv. 8. The mirth of tabrets ceaseth, the noise of them that rejoice ceaseth, the joy of the harp ceaseth.

9. They shall not drink wine with a song; strong drink shall be bitter to them that drink it.

10. The city of confusion is broken down: every house is shut up, that no man may come in.

11. There is a crying for wine in the streets; all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone.

xlvi. 5. Sit thou silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called, The lady of kingdoms.

(a) Ps. lxxv. 7. Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people.

xciii. 3. The floods have lifted up, O Lord, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves.

4. The Lord on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty waves of the sea.

Ez. xxvi. 3. Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against thee, O Tyrus; and will cause many nations to come up against thee, as the sea causeth his waves to come up.

Luke xxi. 25. And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring.

56 Because (b) the spoiler is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, (c) every one of their bows is broken: for (d) the LORD God of recompenses shall surely requite.

(b) Is. xxi. 2. A grievous vision is declared unto me; the treacherous dealer dealeth treacherously, and the spoiler spoileth. Go up, O Elam: besiege, O Media; all the sighing thereof have I made to cease.

Hab. ii. 8. Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee: because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

(c) Gen. xlix. 24. But his bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong by the hands of the mighty God of Jacob: from thence is the shepherd, the stone of Israel.

1 Sam. ii. 4. The bows of the mighty men are broken, and they that stumbled are girded with strength.

Ps. xxxvii. 14. The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay such as be of upright conversation.

15. Their sword shall enter into their own heart, and their bows shall be broken.

(d) Deut. xxxii. 35. To me belongeth vengeance and recompense; their foot shall slide in due time: for the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that shall come upon them make haste.

Is. xxxiv. 8. For it is the year of the Lord's vengeance, and the year of recompenses for the controversy of Zion.

xxxv. 4. Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompense; he will come, and save you.

lix. 18. According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompense to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompense.

57 And (e) I will make drunk her princes, and her wise men, her captains, and her rulers, and her mighty men: and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

(e) Is. xxi. 4. My heart panted, fearfulness affrighted me: the night of my pleasure hath he turned into fear unto me.

5. Prepare the table, watch in the watch-tower, eat, drink: arise, ye princes, and anoint the shield.

Nah. i. 10. For while they be folded together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

Rev. xviii. 6. Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double, according to her works; in the cup which she hath filled, fill to her double.

7. How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

58 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly broken, and her high gates shall be burnt with fire; and (f) the people shall labour in vain, and the folk in the fire, and they shall be weary.

(f) Ps. cxxvii. 1. Except the Lord build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain.

Is. lxxv. 23. They shall not labour in vain, nor bring forth for trouble; for they are the seed of the blessed of the Lord, and their offspring with them.

Hab. ii. 13. Behold, is it not of the Lord of hosts, that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity.

59 ¶ The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah into Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. And this Seraiah was a quiet prince.

60 So Jeremiah (g) wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon.

(g) Is. xxx. 8. Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever.

Dan. xii. 4. But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

Hab. ii. 2. And the Lord answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.

3. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

Rev. i. 19. Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter.

61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When thou comest to Babylon, and shalt see, and shalt read all these words;

62 Then shalt thou say, O LORD, thou hast spoken against this place, (h) to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate for ever.

(h) Is. xiv. 22. For I will rise up against them, saith the Lord of hosts, and cut off from Babylon the name, and remnant, and son, and nephew, saith the Lord.

23. I will also make it a possession for the bitter, and pools of water; and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the Lord of hosts.

63 And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates:

64 And thou shalt say, (i) Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her: and they shall be weary. (k) Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

(i) Nah. i. 8. But with an over-running flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.

9. What do ye imagine against the Lord? he will make an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time.

Rev. xiv. 8. And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

xviii. 2. And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

21. And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

(k) Job xxxi. 40. Let thistles grow instead of wheat, and cockle instead of barley. The words of Job are ended.

Ps. lxxii. 20. The prayers of David the son of Jesse are ended.

CHAPTER LII.

ZEDEKIAH was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

2 And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

3 For (a) through the anger of the LORD, it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

(a) 2 Sam. xxiv. 1. And again the anger of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and he moved David against them to say, Go number Israel and Judah.

Prov. xxviii. 2. For the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof: but by a man of understanding and knowledge the state thereof shall be prolonged.

Ec. x. 16. Wo to thee, O land, when thy king is a child, and thy princes eat in the morning.

Is. iii. 4. And I will give children to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them.

5. And the people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, and the base against the honourable.

4 ¶ And it came to pass (b) in the ninth year of his reign, (c) in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and (d) pitched against it, and built forts against it round about.

(b) 2 Kings xxv. 1. And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he, and all his host, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it; and they built forts against it round about.

Ez. xxiv. 1. Again, in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2. Son of man, Write thee the name of this day, even of this same day: the king of Babylon set himself against Jerusalem this same day.

(c) Zech. viii. 19. Thus saith the Lord of hosts; The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts; therefore love the truth and peace.

(d) Is. xxix. 3. And I will camp against thee round about, and will lay siege against thee with a mount, and I will raise forts against thee.

Ez. xxi. 22. At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering-rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort.

5 So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

6 And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.

7 Then (d) the city was broken up, and (e) all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were by the city round about;) and they went by the way of the plain.

(d) 2 Kings xxv. 4. And the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled by night by the way of the gate between two walls, which is by the king's garden: (now the Chaldees were against the city round about:) and the king went the way towards the plain.

(e) Lev. xxvi. 17. And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be slain before your enemies: they that hate you shall reign over you, and ye shall flee when none pursueth you.

36. And upon them that are left alive of you, I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; and the sound of a shaken leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall, when none pursueth.

Deut. xxviii. 25. The Lord shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them; and shalt be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

xxxii. 30. How should one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, except their Rock had sold them, and the Lord had shut them up?

8 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, (f) and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.

(f) Lam. iv. 19. Our persecutors are swifter than the eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.

20. The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the Lord, was taken in their pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen.

Amos ii. 14. Therefore the flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliver himself:

15. Neither shall he stand that handleth the bow; and he that is swift of foot shall not deliver himself; neither shall he that rideth the horse deliver himself.

9 Then (g) they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah, in the land of Hamath; where he gave judgment upon him.

(g) 2 Chr. xxxiii. 11. Wherefore the Lord brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the thorns, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

Ez. xxi. 25. And thou, profane wicked prince of Israel, whose day is come, when iniquity shall have an end,

26. Thus saith the Lord God; Remove the diadem, and take off the crown: this shall not be the same: exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high.

27. I will overturn, overturn, overturn it: and it shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him.

10 And the king of Babylon (h) slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah.

(h) Gen. xxi. 16. And she went, and sat her down over against him, a good way off, as it were a bow-shot: for she said, Let me not see the death of the child. And she sat over against him, and lifted up her voice, and wept.

xliv. 34. For how shall I go up to my father, and the lad be not with me? lest peradventure I see the evil that shall come on my father.

Deut. xxviii. 34. So that thou shalt be mad for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

2 Kings xxv. 7. And they slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him with fetters of brass, and carried him to Babylon.

11 Then he (i) put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death.

(i) Jer. xxxiv. 3. And thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon.

4. Yet hear the word of the Lord, O Zedekiah King of Judah; Thus saith the Lord of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword.

Ez. xii. 13. My net also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare: and I will bring him to Babylon, to the land of the Chaldeans, yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there.

12 ¶ Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzar-adan captain of the guard which served the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem,

13 And (k) burned the house of the LORD, and (l) the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men, burned he with fire:

(k) 2 Kings xxv. 9. And he burnt the house of the Lord, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and every great man's house, burnt he with fire.

2 Chr. xxxvi. 19. And they burnt the house of God, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels thereof.

Ez. xxiv. 21. Speak unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the excellency of your strength, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pitieth: and your sons and your daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword.

Aff. iii. 12. Therefore shall Zion for your sake be ploughed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

Zech. xi. 1. Open thy doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour thy cedars.

(l) Jer. xxxviii. 23. So they shall bring out all thy wives and thy children to the Chaldeans: and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and thou shalt cause this city to be burned with fire.

Amos ii. 5. But I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

14 And all the army of the Chaldeans, that were with the captain of the guard, (m) brake down all the walls of Jerusalem round about.

(m) 2 Kings xxv. 10. And all the army of the Chaldees, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down the walls of Jerusalem round about.

Neh. i. 3. And they said unto me, The remnant that are left in captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and the gates thereof are burned with fire.

15 Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the poor of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude.

16 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left certain of the poor of the land, for vine-dressers, and for husbandmen.

17 ¶ Also the (n) pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and (o) the bases, and the brazen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans brake, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon.

(n) 1 Kings vii. 15. For he cast two pillars of brass, of eighteen cubits high a piece: and a line of twelve cubits did compass either of them about.

(o) 1 Kings vii. 23. And he made a molten sea, ten cubits from the one brim to the other: it was round all about, and his height was five cubits: and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about.

18 The (p) caldrons also, and the shovels, and (q) the snuffers, (r) and the bowls, and (s) the spoons, and all the vessels of brass, wherewith they ministered, took they away.

(p) 2 Kings xxv. 14. And the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away.

15. And the fire-pans, and the bowls, and such things as were of gold, in gold, and of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away.

(q) Ez. xxxvii. 23. And he made seven lamps, and his snuffers, and his snuff-dishes of pure gold.

(r) Ez. xxv. 29. And thou shalt make the dishes thereof, and spoons thereof, and covers thereof, and bowls thereof, to cover withal: of pure gold shalt thou make them.

(s) 2 Chr. xxiv. 14. And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, whereof were made vessels for the house of the Lord, even vessels to minister, and to offer withal, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt-offerings in the house of the Lord continually all the days of Jehoiada.

19 And the basins, and the fire-pans, and the bowls, and the caldrons, (t) and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, took the captain of the guard away.

(t) 1 Kings vii. 49. And the candlesticks of pure gold, five on the right side, and five on the left, before the oracle, with the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs of gold.

2 Chr. iv. 7. And he made ten candlesticks of gold according to their form, and set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left.

20 The two pillars, one sea, and twelve brazen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the house of the LORD: the brass of all these vessels was (u) without weight.

(u) 1 Kings vii. 47. And Solomon left all the vessels unweighed, because they were exceeding many: neither was the weight of the brass found out.

2 Kings xxv. 16. The two pillars, one sea, and the bases which Solomon had made for the house of the Lord; the brass of all these vessels was without weight.

1 Chr. xxii. 14. Now, behold, in my trouble I have prepared for the house of the Lord an hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver; and of brass and iron without weight; for it is in abundance: timber also and stone have I prepared; and thou mayest add thereto.

2 Chr. iv. 18. Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the brass could not be found out.

21 And concerning the pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a fillet of twelve cubits did compass it; and the thickness thereof was four fingers: it was hollow.

22 And a chapter of brass was upon it; and the height of one chapter was five cubits, with network and pomegranates upon the chapters round about, all of brass. The second pillar also and the pomegranates were like unto these.

23 And there were ninety and six pomegranates on a side; and all the pomegranates upon the network were an hundred round about.

24 ¶ And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the door:

25 He took also out of the city an eunuch, which had the charge of the men of war; and seven men of them that were near the king's person, which were found in the city; and the principal scribe of the host, who mustered the people of the land; and threescore men of the people of the land, that were found in the midst of the city.

26 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah.

27 And (x) the king of Babylon smote them, and put them to death in Riblah, in the land of Hamath. (y) Thus Judah was carried away captive out of his own land.

(x) 2 Kings xxv. 20. And Nebuzar-adan captain of the guard took these, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah.

21. And the king of Babylon smote them, and slew them at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away out of their land.

(y) Lev. xxvi. 33. And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste.

34. Then shall the land enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest and enjoy her sabbaths.

35. As long as it lieth desolate it shall rest; because it did not rest in your sabbaths, when ye dwelt upon it.

Deut. iv. 26. I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that ye shall soon utterly perish from off the land whereunto ye go over Jordan to possess it; ye shall not prolong your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed.

xxviii. 64. And the Lord shall scatter thee among all people from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone.

2 Kings xvii. 20. And the Lord rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight.

23. Until the Lord removed Israel out of his sight, as he had said by all his servants the prophets. So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day.

Is. xxiv. 3. The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled: for the Lord hath spoken this word.

28 ¶ This is the people whom Nebuchadrezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year, three thousand Jews and three and twenty:

29 In the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar, he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty and two persons:

30 In the three and twentieth year of Nebuchadrezzar, Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty and five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred.

31 ¶ And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that Evil-merodach (z) king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, (a) lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison,

(z) Prov. xxi. 1. The king's heart is in the hand of the Lord, as the rivers of water: he turneth it whithersoever he will.

(a) Gen. xl. 13. Yet within three days shall Pharaoh lift up thine head, and restore thee unto thy place: and thou shalt deliver Pharaoh's cup into his hand, after the former manner when thou wast his butler.

20. And it came to pass the third day, which was Pharaoh's birth-day, that he made a feast unto all his servants: and he lifted up the head of the chief butler and of the chief baker among his servants.

Job xxii. 29. When men are cast down, then thou shalt say, There is lifting up; and he shall save the humble person.

Ps. iii. 3. But thou, O Lord, art a shield for me; my glory, and the lifter up of mine head.

xxvii. 6. And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacles sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the Lord.

32 And spake kindly to him, and (b) set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon,

(b) Dan. ii. 37. Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

v. 18. O thou king, the most high God gave Nebuchadrezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour:

19. And for the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew; and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he set up; and whom he would he put down.

33 And (c) changed his prison garments: and (d) he did continually eat bread before him all the days of his life.

(c) Gen. xli. 14. Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon: and he shaved himself, and changed his raiment, and came in unto Pharaoh.

42. And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand, and arrayed him in vestures of fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck.

Ps. xxx. 11. Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness.

Is. lxi. 3. To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that he might be glorified.

Zech. iii. 4. And he answered, and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment.

(d) 2 Sam. ix. 7. And David said unto him, Fear not: for I will surely show thee kindness for Jonathan thy father's sake, and will restore thee all the land of Saul thy father; and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually.

10. Thou, therefore, and thy sons, and thy servants, shall till the land for him, and thou shalt bring in the fruits, that thy master's son may have food to eat; but Mephibosheth thy master's son shall eat bread always at my table. Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

34 And for his diet, (e) there was a continual diet given him of the king of Babylon, every day a portion, until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

(e) 2 Sam. ix. 13. So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem: for he did eat continually at the king's table; and was lame on both his feet.

Matt. vi. 11. Give us this day our daily bread.

THE LAMENTATIONS OF JEREMIAH.

CHAPTER I.

HOW doth the city (a) sit solitary that was (b) full of people! how is she become (c) as a widow! she that was (d) great among the nations, and princess among the provinces, how is she become tributary!

(a) Is. iii. 26. And her gates shall lament and mourn; and she, being desolate, shall sit upon the ground.

xlvii. 1. Come down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate.

5. Sit thou silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called The lady of kingdoms.

lii. 2. Shake thyself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem: loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

Jer. ix. 11. And I will make Jerusalem heaps, and a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant.

Ez. xxvi. 16. Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay away their robes, and put off their brodered garments: they shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit upon the ground, and shall tremble at every moment, and be astonished at thee.

(b) Ps. cxxii. 4. Whither the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord, unto the testimony of Israel, to give thanks unto the name of the Lord.

Is. xxii. 2. Thou that art full of stirs, a tumultuous city, a joyous city: thy slain men are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battle.

Zech. viii. 4. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, There shall yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand for very age.

5. And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof.

(c) Is. xlvii. 8. Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly; that sayest in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children:

9. But these two things shall come to thee in a moment, in one day, the loss of children and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection, for the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

liv. 4. Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more.

(d) 1 Kings iv. 21. And Solomon reigned over all kingdoms, from the river unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt: they brought presents, and served Solomon all the days of his life.

Ezra iv. 20. There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, which have ruled over all countries beyond the river; and toll, tribute, and custom was paid unto them.

2 She (e) weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks: (f) among all her lovers she hath (g) none to comfort her: (h) all her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they are become thine enemies.

(e) Job vii. 3. So am I made to possess months of vanity, and wearisome nights are appointed to me.

Ps. vi. 6. I am weary with my groaning; all the night make I my bed to swim: I water my couch with my tears.

Jer. ix. 1. Oh that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!

xiii. 17. But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride; and mine eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the Lord's flock is carried away captive.

(f) Jer. iv. 30. And when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do? Though thou clothest thyself with crimson, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, though thou reatest thy face with painting, in vain shalt thou make thyself fair; thy lovers will despise thee, they will seek thy life.

Ez. xvi. 37. Behold, therefore, I will gather all thy lovers with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated; I will even gather them round about against thee, and will discover thy nakedness unto them, that they may see all thy nakedness.

Hos. ii. 7. And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to my first husband; for then was it better with me than now.

(g) Is. li. 18. There is none to guide her among all the sons whom she hath brought forth; neither is there any that taketh her by the hand of all the sons that she hath brought up.

19. These two things are come unto thee; who shall be sorry for thee? desolation, and destruction, and the famine, and the sword: by whom shall I comfort thee?

(h) Job vi. 15. My brethren have dealt deceitfully as a brook, and as the stream of brooks they pass away.

xix. 13. He hath put my brethren far from me, and mine acquaintances are verily estranged from me.

14. My kinsfolk have failed, and my familiar friends have forgotten me.

Ps. xxxi. 11. I was a reproach among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbours, and a fear to mine acquaintance: they that did see me without fled from me.

Prov. xix. 7. All the brethren of the poor do hate him; how much more do his friends go far from him? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.

Mic. vii. 5. Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide; keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom.

3 Judah is (i) gone into captivity because of affliction, and because of great servitude: (k) she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: (l) all her persecutors overtook her between the straits.

(i) 2 Kings xxiv. 14. And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valour, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and smiths; none remained, save the poorest sort of the people of the land.

15. And he carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his officers, and the mighty of the land: those carried he into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.

Jer. xxxix. 9. Then Nebuzar-adan, the captain of the guard, carried away captive into Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to him, with the rest of the people that remained.

(k) Jer. xxiv. 9. And I will deliver them to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.

Ez. v. 12. A third part of thee shall fall with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee; and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and I will scatter a third part into all the winds; and I will draw out a sword after them.

(l) Jer. xvi. 16. Behold, I will send for many fishers, saith the Lord, and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks.

lii. 8. But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.

4 The (m) ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts: (n) all her gates are desolate: (o) her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

(m) Is. xxiv. 4. The earth mourneth, and fadeth away; the world languisheth and fadeth away; the haughty people of the earth do languish.

5. The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof: because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant.

6. Therefore hath the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

Jer. xiv. 2. Judah mourneth, and the gates thereof languish: they are black unto the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up.

Mic. iii. 12. Therefore shall Zion for your sake be ploughed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

(n) Jer. ix. 11. And I will make Jerusalem heaps, and a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant.

x. 32. Behold, the noise of the bruit is come, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah desolate, and a den of dragons.

(o) Joel i. 8. Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth.

9. The meat-offering and the drink-offering is cut off from the house of the Lord; the priests, the Lord's ministers, mourn.

10. The field is wasted, the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted: the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth.

11. Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen, howl, O ye vine-dressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

12. The vine is dried up; and the fig-tree languisheth; the pomegranate tree, the palm-tree also, and the apple-tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because joy is withered away from the sons of men.

13. Gird yourselves, and lament, ye priests; howl, ye ministers of the altar: come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meat-offering and the drink-offering is withholden from the house of your God.

5 Her (p) adversaries are the chief, her enemies prosper; for (q) the LORD hath afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions: her children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

(p) Lev. xxvi. 17. And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be slain before your enemies; they that hate you shall reign over you: and ye shall flee when none pursueth you.

Deut. xxviii. 43. The stranger that is within thee shall get up above thee very high: and thou shalt come down very low.

44. He shall lend to thee, and thou shalt not lend to him: he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail.

Ps. lxxx. 6. Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours; and our enemies laugh among themselves.

lxxxix. 42. Thou hast set up the right hand of his adversaries; thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice.

Is. lxiii. 18. The people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary.

Jer. xii. 7. I have forsaken mine house, I have left mine heritage; I have given the dearly-beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies.

(g) Ps. xc. 7. For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled.

8. Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

Jer. v. 29. Shall I not visit for these things? saith the Lord: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

xxx. 14. All thy lovers have forgotten thee; they seek thee not: for I have wounded thee with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the multitude of thine iniquity; because thy sins were increased.

15. Why criest thou for thine affliction? thy sorrow is incurable for the multitude of thine iniquity: because thy sins were increased, I have done these things unto thee.

Ez. viii. 17. Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah, that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger; and, lo, they put the branch to their nose.

18. Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

6 And from the daughter of Zion (r) all her beauty is departed; (s) her princes are become like harts that find no pasture, and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

(r) 1 Sam. iv. 21. And she named the child I-chabod, saying, The glory is departed from Israel: because the ark of God was taken, and because of her father-in-law, and her husband.

22. And she said, The glory is departed from Israel; for the ark of God is taken.

Ps. l. 2. Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined.

Ez. xi. 22. Then did the cherubims lift up their wings, and the wheels beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

23. And the glory of the Lord went up from the midst of the city, and stood upon the mountain which is on the east side of the city.

(s) Lev. xxvi. 36. And upon them that are left alive of you, I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies, and the sound of a shaken leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall when none pursueth.

37. And they shall fall one upon another, as it were before a sword, when none pursueth: and ye shall have no power to stand before your enemies.

Deut. xxviii. 25. The Lord shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them; and shalt be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

xxxii. 30. How should one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, except their Rock had sold them, and the Lord had shut them up?

7 Jerusalem (t) remembered, in the days of her affliction and of her miseries, all her pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her: (u) the adversaries saw her, and did mock at her sabbaths.

(t) Job xxx. 1. But now they that are younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flock.

Ps. xlii. 4. When I remember these things I pour out my soul in me: for I had gone with the multitude; I went with them to the house of God with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept holy day.

lxvii. 3. I remembered God, and was troubled; I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah.

Hos. ii. 7. And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to my first husband; for then was it better with me than now.

Luke xv. 17. And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough, and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

(u) Ps. lxxix. 4. We are become a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and derision to them that are round about us.

cxxxvii. 3. For there they that carried us away captive required of us a song; and they that wasted us required of us mirth, saying, Sing us one of the songs of Zion.

4. How shall we sing the Lord's song in a strange land?

Mic. iv. 11. Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion.

8 Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she is removed: all that honoured her despise her, because (x) they have seen her nakedness: yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward.

(x) Is. xlvii. 3. Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and I will not meet thee as a man.

Hos. ii. 3. Lest I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst.

10. And now will I discover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand.

Rev. iii. 18. I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eye-salve, that thou mayest see.

9 Her filthiness is in her skirts; (y) she remembereth not her last end; therefore she came down wonderfully: (z) she had no comforter. O LORD, (a) behold my affliction; (b) for the enemy hath magnified himself.

(y) Deut. xxxii. 29. Oh that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end!

Is. xlvii. 7. And thou saidst, I shall be a lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end of it.

Jer. v. 31. The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

1 Pet. iv. 17. For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

(z) Ec. iv. 1. So I returned, and considered all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and, behold, the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter.

Is. xl. 2. Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the Lord's hand double for all her sins.

Iv. 11. O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted! behold, I will lay thy stones with fair colours, and lay thy foundations with sapphires.

Mos. ii. 14. Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably unto her.

John xi. 19. And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

(a) Ex. iii. 7. And the Lord said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry, by reason of their taskmasters; for I know their sorrows.

Deut. xxvi. 7. And when we cried unto the Lord God of our fathers, the Lord heard our voice, and looked on our affliction, and our labour, and our oppression.

2 Sam. xvi. 12. It may be that the Lord will look upon mine affliction, and that the Lord will requite me good for his cursing this day.

2 Kings xiv. 26. For the Lord saw the affliction of Israel, that it was very bitter: for there was not any shut up, nor any left, nor any helper for Israel.

Ps. xxv. 18. Look upon mine affliction, and my pain, and forgive all my sins.

cxix. 153. Consider mine affliction, and deliver me; for I do not forget thy law.

(b) Deut. xxxiii. 27. Were it not that I feared the wrath of the enemy, lest their adversaries should behave themselves strangely, and lest they should say, Our hand is high, and the Lord hath not done all this.

Ps. cxl. 8. Grant not, O Lord, the desires of the wicked; further not his wicked device, lest they exalt themselves. Selah.

Jer. xlviii. 26. Make ye him drunken; for he magnified himself against the Lord: Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision.

Zeph. ii. 10. This shall they have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the Lord of hosts.

10 The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things: for she hath seen that the heathen entered into her sanctuary, (c) whom thou didst command that they should not enter into thy congregation.

(c) Deut. xxiii. 3. An Ammonite or Moabite shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord; even to their tenth generation shall they not enter into the congregation of the Lord for ever.

Neh. xiii. 1. On that day they read in the book of Moses in the audience of the people; and therein was found written, that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God for ever.

Ez. xlv. 7. In that ye have brought into my sanctuary strangers uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant, because of all your abominations.

Mark xiii. 14. But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then let them that be in Judea flee to the mountains.

11 All her people sigh; they seek bread; they have given their pleasant things for meat to relieve the soul: see, O LORD, and consider; for I am become vile.

12 ¶ Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by? behold, and see (d) if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, wherewith the LORD hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

(d) Dan. ix. 12. And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

Matt. xxiv. 21. For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

Luke xxi. 22. For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

23. But wo unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

13 From (e) above hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevail-eth against them: (f) he hath spread a net for my feet; (g) he hath turned me back: he hath made me desolate and faint all the day.

(e) Job xxx. 30. My skin is black upon me, and my bones are burnt with heat.

Ps. xxii. 14. I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint; my heart is like wax, it is melted in the midst of my bowels.

xxxi. 10. For my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing: my strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and my bones are consumed.

Nah. i. 6. Who can stand before his indignation, and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

Heb. xii. 29. For our God is a consuming fire.

(f) Job xviii. 8. For he is cast into a net by his own feet, and he walketh upon a snare.

xix. 6. Know now that God hath overthrown me, and hath compassed me with his net.

Ps. lxvi. 11. Thou broughtest us into the net, thou laidest affliction upon our loins.

Ez. xii. 13. My net also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare: and I will bring him to Babylon, to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there.

Hos. vii. 12. When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them as their congregation hath heard.

(g) Ps. xxxv. 4. Let them be confounded and put to shame that seek after my soul: let them be turned back and brought to confusion that devise my hurt.

lxx. 2. Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after my soul: let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, that desire my hurt.

3. Let them be turned back for a reward of their shame, that say, Aha, aha!

xxix. 5. Let them all be confounded and turned back that hate Zion.

Is. xlii. 17. They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods.

14 The (h) yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand: they are wreathed, and come up upon my neck: he hath made my strength to fall, the LORD hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up.

(h) Deut. xxviii. 48. Therefore shalt thou serve thine enemies, which the Lord shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee.

Is. xiv. 25. That I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders.

xlvii. 6. I was wroth with my people; I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: thou didst show them no mercy; upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.

Jer. xxviii. 14. For thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: and I have given him the beasts of the field also.

15 The LORD hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me: he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men: the LORD hath trodden the virgin, the daughter of Judah, (i) as in a wine-press.

(i) Is. lxiii. 3. I have trodden the wine-press alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment.

Rev. xiv. 19. And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great wine-press of the wrath of God.

20. And the wine-press was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the wine-press even unto the horse-bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

xix. 15. And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations; and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the wine-press of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

16 For these things (k) I weep; mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because the comforter that should relieve my soul is far from me: my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed.

(k) Ps. cxix. 136. Rivers of waters run down mine eyes, because they keep not thy law.

Jer. ix. 1. Oh that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!

10. For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burnt up; so that none can pass through them; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle: both the fowl of the heavens and the beast are fled; they are gone.

xiii. 17. But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride; and mine eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the Lord's flock is carried away captive.

xiv. 17. Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them, Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease: for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow.

17 Zion spreadeth forth her hands, and there is none to comfort her: the LORD hath (l) commanded concerning Jacob, that his adversaries should be round about him: Jerusalem is as a menstruous woman among them.

(l) 2 Kings xxv. 1. And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his host, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it; and they built forts against it round about.

Jer. vi. 3. The shepherd with their flocks shall come unto her; they shall pitch their tents against her round about; they shall feed every one in his place.

xxiv. 22. Behold, I will command, saith the Lord, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without an inhabitant.

Ez. vii. 23. Make a chain; for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence.

24. Wherefore I will bring the host of the heaven, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pomp of the strong to cease, and their holy places shall be defiled.

Luke xix. 43. For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side.

44. And shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee: and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

18 The (m) LORD is righteous; (n) for I have rebelled against his commandment: (o) hear, I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow: (p) my virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.

(m) Ex. ix. 27. And Pharaoh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said unto them, I have sinned this time; the Lord is righteous, and I and my people are wicked.

Deut. xxxiii. 4. He is the Rock, his work is perfect; for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth, and without iniquity, just and right is he.

Ps. cxix. 75. I know, O Lord, that thy judgments are right, and that thou in faithfulness hast afflicted me.

cxiv. 17. The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works.

Jer. xii. 1. Righteous art thou, O Lord, when

I plead with thee; yet let me talk with thee of thy judgments: Wherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? wherefore are all they happy that deal very treacherously?

Zeph. iii. 5. The just Lord is in the midst thereof; he will not do iniquity: every morning doth he bring his judgment to light, he faileth not; but the unjust knoweth no shame.

(n) 1 Sam. xii. 14. If ye will fear the Lord, and serve him, and obey his voice, and not rebel against the commandment of the Lord, then shall both ye, and also the king that reigneth over you, continue following the Lord your God.

15. But if ye will not obey the voice of the Lord, but rebel against the commandment of the Lord, then shall the hand of the Lord be against you, as it was against your fathers.

xv. 23. For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry: because thou hast rejected the word of the Lord, he hath also rejected thee from being king.

Neh. ix. 26. Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy prophets, which testified against them to turn them to thee; and they wrought great provocations.

(o) 1 Kings ix. 8. And at this house, which is high, every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, Why hath the Lord done thus unto this land, and to this house?

9. And they shall answer, Because they forsook the Lord their God, who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have taken hold upon other gods, and have worshipped them, and served them; therefore hath the Lord brought upon them all this evil.

Jer. xlix. 12. For thus saith the Lord, Behold, they whose judgment was not to drink of the cup, have assuredly drunken; and art thou he that shall altogether go unpunished? thou shalt not go unpunished, but thou shalt surely drink of it.

Ez. xiv. 22. Yet, behold, therein shall be left a remnant that shall be brought forth, both sons and daughters; behold, they shall come forth unto you, and ye shall see their way and their doings: and ye shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought upon it.

23. And they shall comfort you when ye see their ways and their doings: and ye shall know that I have not done without cause all that I have done in it, saith the Lord God.

(p) Deut. xxviii. 32. Thy sons and thy daughters shall be given unto another people, and thine eyes shall look, and fail with longing for them all the day long; and there shall be no might in thine hand.

19 I called for my lovers, but they deceived me: (q) my priests and mine elders gave up the ghost in the city, while they sought their meat to relieve their souls.

(q) Jer. xiv. 15. Therefore thus saith the Lord concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land; By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed.

16. And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem, because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters; for I will pour their wickedness upon them.

17. Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them, Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease: for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow.

18. If I go forth into the field, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine! yea, both the prophet and the priest go about into a land that they know not.

20 (r) Behold, O LORD; for I am in distress: (s) my bowels are troubled; mine heart is turned within me; (t) for I have grievously rebelled: (u) abroad the sword bereaveth, at home there is as death.

(r) Ps. xxxviii. 14. Like a crane or a swallow, so did I chatter: I did mourn as a dove; mine eyes fail with looking upward; O Lord, I am oppressed, undertake for me.

(s) Job xxx. 27. My bowels boiled, and rested not; the days of affliction prevented me.

Ps. xxii. 14. I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint; my heart is like wax, it is melted in the midst of my bowels.

Is. xvi. 11. Wherefore my bowels shall sound like an harp for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kir-haresh.

Jer. iv. 19. My bowels, my bowels! I am pained at my very heart; my heart maketh a noise in me: I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.

Hab. iii. 16. When I heard, my belly trembled; my lips quivered at the voice: rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up unto the people, he will invade them with his troops.

(t) Lev. xxvi. 40. If they shall confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, with their trespass which they trespassed against me, and that also they have walked contrary unto me;

41. And that I also have walked contrary unto them, and have brought them into the land of their enemies; if then their uncircumcised hearts be humbled, and they then accept of the punishment of their iniquity:

42. Then will I remember my covenant with Jacob, and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will remember the land.

Job xxxiii. 27. He looketh upon men; and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not.

Prov. xxviii. 13. He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whose confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

(u) Deut. xxxii. 25. The sword without, and terror within, shall destroy both the young man and the virgin, the suckling also, with the man of gray hairs.

Jer. ix. 21. For death is come up into our windows, and is entered into our palaces, to cut off the children from without, and the young men from the streets.

22. Speak, Thus saith the Lord, Even the carcasses of men shall fall as dung upon the open field, and as the handful after the harvestman, and none shall gather them.

Ez. vii. 15. The sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within: he that is in the field shall die with the sword; and he that is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him.

21 They have heard that I sigh: there is none to comfort me: all mine enemies have heard of my trouble; (x) they are glad that thou hast done it: thou wilt bring (y) the day that thou hast called, and (z) they shall be like unto me.

(x) Ps. xxxv. 15. But in mine adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together: yea, the abjects gathered themselves together against me, and I knew it not; they did tear me, and ceased not.

xxxviii. 16. For I said, Hear me; lest otherwise they should rejoice over me: when my foot slippeth, they magnify themselves against me.

Jer. xlviii. 27. For was not Israel a derision unto thee? was he found among thieves? for since thou spakest of him thou skippedst for joy.

1. 11. Because ye were glad, because ye rejoiced, O ye destroyers of my heritage; because ye are grown fat as the heifer at grass, and bellow as bulls.

Ez. xiv. 6. For thus saith the Lord God, Because thou hast clapped thine hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced in heart with all thy despite against the land of Israel.

Ob. 12. But thou shouldst not have looked on the day of thy brother, in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldst thou have rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldst thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress.

13. Thou shouldst not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; yea, thou shouldst not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity.

(y) Ps. xxxvii. 13. The Lord shall laugh at him, for he seeth that his day is coming.

Joel iii. 14. Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision; for the day of the Lord is near in the valley of decision.

(z) Ps. cxxxvii. 8. O daughter of Babylon, who art to be destroyed; happy shall he be that rewardeth thee as thou hast served us.

9. Happy shall he be that taketh and dasheth thy little ones against the stones.

Is. li. 22. Thus saith thy Lord, the Lord, and thy God that pleadeth the cause of his people, Behold, I have taken out of thy hand the cup of trembling, even the dregs of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink it again:

23. But I will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee; which have said to thy soul, Bow down, that we may go over: and thou hast laid thy body as the ground, and as the street, to them that went over.

Jer. 1. 29. Call together the archers against Babylon: all ye that bend the bow, camp against it round about; let none thereof escape: recompense her according to her work; according to all that she hath done, do unto her: for she hath been proud against the Lord, against the Holy One of Israel.

22 Let (a) all their wickedness come before thee; and do unto them as thou hast done unto me for all my transgressions: for my sighs are many, and (b) my heart is faint.

(a) Neh. iv. 4. Hear, O our God, for we are despised; and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity;

5. And cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

Ps. cix. 14. Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the Lord; and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.

15. Let them be before the Lord continually, that he may cut off the memory of them from the earth.

Jer. x. 25. Pour out thy fury upon the heathen that know thee not, and upon the families that call not on thy name: for they have eaten up Jacob, and devoured him, and consumed him, and have made his habitation desolate.

xviii. 23. Yet, Lord, thou knowest all their counsel against me to slay me: forgive not their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from thy sight; but let them be overthrown before thee: deal thou with them in the time of thine anger.

(b) Is. xiii. 7. Therefore shall all hands be faint, and every man's heart shall melt.

Jer. viii. 18. When I would comfort myself against sorrow, my heart is faint in me.

Eph. iii. 13. Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

CHAPTER II.

HOW hath the LORD (a) covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, (b) and cast down from heaven unto the earth (c) the beauty of Israel, and remembered not (d) his footstool in the day of his anger!

(a) Ez. xxx. 18. At Tehaphneches also the day shall be darkened, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt; and the pomp of her strength shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity.

xxxii. 7. And when I shall put thee out, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.

8. All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord God.

(b) Is. xiv. 12. How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground which didst weaken the nations!

13. For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north:

14. I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the Most High.

15. Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit.

Ez. xxviii. 14. Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.

15. Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.

16. By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God; and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.

Matt. xi. 23. And thou Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works which have been done in thee had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

(c) 1 Sam. iv. 21. And she named the child I-chabod, saying, The glory is departed from Israel: because the ark of God was taken, and because of her father-in-law, and her husband.

2 Sam. i. 19. The beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places: how are the mighty fallen!

Is. lxiv. 11. Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, is burned up with fire: and all our pleasant things are laid waste.

Ez. xxiv. 21. Speak unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the excellency of your strength, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pitieth; and your sons and your daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword.

(d) 1 Chr. xxviii. 2. Then David the king stood upon his feet, and said, Hear me, my brethren and my people: As for me, I had in mine heart to build an house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and for the footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building.

Ps. xcix. 5. Exalt ye the Lord our God, and worship at his footstool; for he is holy.

cxxxii. 7. We will go into his tabernacles; we will worship at his footstool.

2 The LORD hath (d) swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied: (e) he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah; he hath brought them down to the ground: he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof.

(d) Ps. xxi. 9. Thou shalt make them as a fiery oven in the time of thine anger: the Lord shall swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire shall devour them.

Is. xxvii. 11. When the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off: the women come and set them on fire; for it is a people of no understanding: therefore he that made them will not have mercy on them, and he that formed them will show them no favour.

Jer. xiii. 14. And I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the Lord; I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, but destroy them.

Ez. v. 11. Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, surely, because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee; neither shall mine eye spare, neither will I have any pity.

(e) Jer. v. 10. Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy, but make not a full end: take away her battlements; for they are not the Lord's.

Mic. v. 11. And I will cut off the cities of thy land, and throw down all thy strong holds:

12. And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thine hand; and thou shalt have no more soothsayers.

Mal. i. 4. Whereas Edom saith, We are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places; thus saith the Lord of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the Lord hath indignation for ever.

2 Cor. x. 4. For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds.

3 He hath cut off in his fierce anger all (f) the horn of Israel: (g) he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and (h) he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.

(f) Job xvi. 15. I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin, and defiled my horn in the dust.

Ps. lxxv. 5. Lift not up your horn on high: speak not with a stiff neck.

10. All the horns of the wicked also will I cut off; but the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

Jer. xlviii. 25. The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken, saith the Lord.

(g) Ps. lxxiv. 11. Why withdrawest thou thy hand, even thy right hand? pluck it out of thy bosom.

(h) Deut. xxxii. 22. For a fire is kindled in mine anger, and shall burn unto the lowest hell, and shall consume the earth with her increase, and set on fire the foundations of the mountains.

Ps. lxxix. 5. How long, Lord, wilt thou be angry for ever? shall thy jealousy burn like fire?

lxxxix. 46. How long, Lord, wilt thou hide thyself for ever? shall thy wrath burn like fire?

Is. i. 31. And the strong shall be as tow, and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall both burn together, and none shall quench them.

xlii. 55. Therefore he hath poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle: and it hath set him on fire round about, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

Jer. iv. 4. Circumcise yourselves to the Lord, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

vii. 20. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

Mal. iv. 1. For, behold, the day cometh that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

Luke iii. 17. Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable.

4 He hath (i) bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his fury like fire.

(i) Job vi. 4. For the arrows of the Almighty are within me, the poison whereof drinketh up my spirit: the terrors of God do set themselves in array against me.

Is. lxiii. 10. But they rebelled, and vexed his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them.

Jer. xxi. 5. And I myself will fight against you with an out-stretched hand, and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath.

5 The LORD was as an enemy: he hath swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces; he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

6 And he hath (k) violently taken away his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden; he hath destroyed his places of the assembly; the LORD hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised, in the indignation of his anger, the king and the priest.

(k) Ps. lxxx. 12. Why hast thou then broken down her hedges, so that all they which pass by the way do pluck her?

lxxxix. 40. Thou hast broken down all his hedges; thou hast brought his strong holds to ruin.

Is. v. 5. And now, go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down.

lxiv. 11. Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, is burnt up with fire: and all our pleasant things are laid waste.

7 The LORD hath (l) cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary; he hath given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast.

(l) Jer. lii. 13. And burnt the house of the Lord, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men, burnt he with fire.

Ez. xxiv. 21. Speak unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the excellency of your strength, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pitieth; and your sons and your daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword.

Math. xxiv. 2. And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

Acts vi. 13. And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law:

14. For we have heard him say, That this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered us.

8 The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion; he hath (m) stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together.

(m) 2 Sam. viii. 2. And he smote Moab, and measured them with a line, casting them down to the ground; even with two lines measured he to put to death, and with one full line to keep alive: and so the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

2 Kings xxi. 13. And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down.

Is. xxviii. 17. Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet; and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding-place.

xxiv. 11. But the cormorant and the bittern shall possess it; the owl also and the raven shall dwell in it: and he shall stretch out upon it the line of confusion, and the stones of emptiness.

Amos vii. 7. Thus he showed me; and, behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by a plumb-line, with a plumb-line in his hand.

8. And the Lord said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumb-line. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a plumb-line in the midst of my people Israel: I will not again pass by them any more.

9 Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars: her kings and her princes are among the Gentiles: the law is no more; her prophets also find no vision from the LORD.

10 The (n) elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground, and keep silence: they have (o) cast up dust upon their heads; (p) they have girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

(n) Job ii. 13. So they sat down with him upon the ground, seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great.

Is. iii. 26. And her gates shall lament and mourn, and she, being desolate, shall sit upon the ground.

xlvi. 1. Come down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans, for thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate.

5. Sit thou silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called the lady of kingdoms.

(o) Josh. vii. 6. And Joshua rent his clothes, and fell to the earth upon his face before the ark of the Lord, until the even-tide, he and the elders of Israel, and put dust upon their heads.

2 Sam. xiii. 19. And Tamar put ashes on her head, and rent her garment; of divers colours that was on her, and laid her hand on her head, and went on crying.

Job ii. 12. And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven.

Rev. xviii. 19. And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, and weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas! that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea, by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.

(p) Is. xv. 3. In their streets shall they gird themselves with sackcloth: on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, weeping abundantly.

Ez. vii. 18. They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads.

xxvii. 31. And they shall make themselves utterly bald for thee, and gird them with sackcloth; and they shall weep for thee with bitterness of heart and bitter wailing.

Joel i. 8. Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth.

13. Gird yourselves, and lament, ye priests; howl, ye ministers of the altar; come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God; for the meat-offering and the drink-offering is withholden from the house of your God.

11 Mine (q) eyes do fail with tears, (r) my bowels are troubled, (s) my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because the children and the sucklings swoon in the streets of the city.

(q) 1 Sam. xxx. 4. Then David, and the people that were with him, lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep.

Ps. vi. 7. Mine eye is consumed because of grief: it waxeth old because of all mine enemies.

xxxi. 9. Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am in trouble; mine eye is consumed with grief, yea, my soul and my belly.

lxi. 3. I am weary of my crying; my throat is dried: mine eyes fail while I wait for my God.

(r) Jer. iv. 19. My bowels, my bowels! I am pained at my very heart; my heart maketh a noise in me: I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.

(s) Job xvi. 13. His archers compass me round about; he cleaveth my reins asunder, and doth not spare; he poureth out my gall upon the ground.

Ps. xxii. 14. I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint; my heart is like wax, it is melted in the midst of my bowels.

12 They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine? when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosom.

13 What thing shall I take to witness for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy breach is great like the sea: who can heal thee?

14 Thy prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee: and they have not discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens and causes of banishment.

15 All that pass by (t) clap their hands at thee; they hiss and (u) wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?

(t) Job xxvii. 23. Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place.

Ex. xxv. 6. For thus saith the Lord God, Because thou hast clapped thine hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced in heart with all thy despite against the land of Israel.

Nah. iii. 19. There is no healing of thy bruise; thy wound is grievous: all that hear the bruit of thee, shall clap the hands over thee: for upon whom hath not thy wickedness passed continually?

(u) 2 Kings xix. 21. This is the word that the Lord hath spoken concerning him, The virgin, the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn: the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

Ps. xxii. 7. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying.

Jer. xviii. 16. To make their land desolate, and a perpetual hissing: every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished, and wag his head.

Matt. xxvii. 39. And they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads.

Mark xv. 29. And they that pass by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days.

16 All (x) thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and (y) gnash the teeth: they say, (z) We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we have looked for; we have found, we have seen it.

(x) Job xvi. 9. He teareth me in his wrath who hateth me; he gnasheth upon me with his teeth; mine enemy sharpeneth his eyes upon me.

10. They have gaped upon me with their mouth; they have smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully; they have gathered themselves together against me.

Ps. xxii. 13. They gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening and a roaring lion.

xxxv. 21. Yea, they opened their mouth wide against me, and said, Aha, aha! our eye hath seen it.

cix. 2. For the mouth of the wicked, and the mouth of the deceitful, are opened against me: they have spoken against me with a lying tongue.

(y) Ps. xxxv. 16. With hypocritical mockers in feasts they gnashed upon me with their teeth.

xxxvii. 12. The wicked flattereth against the just, and gnasheth upon him with his teeth.

cxii. 10. The wicked shall see it, and be grieved; he shall gnash with his teeth, and melt away; the desire of the wicked shall perish.

Acts vii. 54. When they heard these things they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth.

(z) Ps. lvi. 2. Mine enemies would daily swallow me up: for they be many that fight against me, O thou Most High.

lvii. 3. He shall send from heaven, and save me from the reproach of him that would swallow me up; Selah. God shall send forth his mercy and his truth.

cxxiv. 3. Then they had swallowed us up quick, when their wrath was kindled against us.

17 The LORD hath done that which he hath devised: he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied: and he hath caused thine enemy to rejoice over thee, he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries.

18 Their (a) heart cried unto the LORD, O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night: give thyself no rest; let not the apple of thine eye cease.

(a) Ps. cxix. 145. I cried with my whole heart; hear me, O Lord: I will keep thy statutes.

Is. xxvi. 16. Lord, in trouble have they visited thee; they poured out a prayer when thy chastening was upon them.

Hos. vii. 14. And they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

19 Arise, (b) cry out in the night: in the beginning of the (c) watches (d) pour out thine heart like water before the face of the LORD: lift up thy hands toward him for the life of thy young children, that faint for hunger in the top of every street.

(b) Ps. xlii. 8. Yet the Lord will command his loving-kindness in the day-time, and in the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life.

cxix. 55. I have remembered thy name, O Lord, in the night, and have kept thy law.

147. I prevented the dawning of the morning, and cried: I hoped in thy word.

148. Mine eyes prevent the night watches, that I might meditate in thy word.

Is. xxvi. 9. With my soul have I desired thee in the night: yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

Mark i. 35. And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.

(c) Judg. vii. 19. So Gideon, and the hundred men that were with him, came unto the outside of the camp, in the beginning of the middle watch; and they had but newly set the watch: and they blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their hands.

Matt. xiv. 25. And in the fourth watch of the night, Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea.

Mark xiii. 35. Watch ye, therefore; for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cock-crowing, or in the morning.

(d) 1 Sam. i. 15. And Hannah answered and said, No, my lord; I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have poured out my soul before the Lord.

vii. 6. And they gathered together to Mizpeh, and drew water, and poured it out before the Lord, and fasted on that day, and said there, We have sinned against the Lord. And Samuel judged the children of Israel in Mizpeh.

Job iii. 24. For my sighing cometh before I eat, and my roarings are poured out like the waters.

Ps. lxi. 8. Trust in him at all times, ye people; pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us. Selah.

cxlii. 2. I poured out my complaint before him; I showed before him my trouble.

20 Behold, O LORD, and (e) consider to whom thou hast done this.

(f) Shall the women eat their fruit, and children of a span long? (g) shall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the LORD?

(e) Ex. xxxii. 11. And Moses besought the Lord his God, and said, Lord, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt, with great power, and with a mighty hand?

Deut. ix. 26. I prayed therefore unto the Lord, and said, O Lord God, destroy not thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed through thy greatness, which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

Jer. xiv. 20. We acknowledge, O Lord, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers; for we have sinned against thee.

21. Do not abhor us, for thy name's sake; do not disgrace the throne of thy glory: remember, break not thy covenant with us.

(f) Lev. xxvi. 29. And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat.

2 Kings vi. 28. And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, This woman said unto me, Give thy son, that we may eat him to-day, and we will eat my son to-morrow.

29. So we boiled my son, and did eat him: and I said unto her on the next day, Give thy son, that we may eat him; and she hath hid her son.

Jer. xix. 9. And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons, and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend in the siege and straitness, wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their lives, shall straiten them.

Ez. v. 10. Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers: and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the winds.

(g) Ps. lxxviii. 64. Their priests fell by the sword; and their widows made no lamentation.

Ez. ix. 5. And to the others he said in mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite: let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity:

6. Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women; but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house.

21 The (h) young and the old lie on the ground in the streets: my virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword; thou hast slain them in the day of thine anger; (i) thou hast killed, and not pitied.

(h) Deut. xxviii. 50. A nation of fierce countenance, which shall not regard the person of the old, nor show favour to the young.

Josh. vi. 21. And they utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox, and sheep, and ass, with the edge of the sword.

Jer. li. 22. With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces old and young; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid.

(i) Jer. xiii. 14. And I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the Lord: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, but destroy them.

Zech. xi. 6. For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the Lord: but, lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king; and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.

22 Thou hast called as in a solemn day (k) my terrors round about, so that in the day of the LORD's anger none escaped nor remained: (l) those that I have swaddled and brought up, hath mine enemy consumed.

(k) Ps. xxxi. 13. For I have heard the slander of many, fear was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life.

Is. xxiv. 17. Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth.

18. And it shall come to pass, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for the windows from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth do shake.

Jer. vi. 25. Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and fear is on every side.

(l) Deut. xxviii. 18. Cursed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy land, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

Jer. xvi. 2. Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons nor daughters in this place.

3. For thus saith the Lord concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that beget them in this land;

4. They shall die of grievous deaths; they shall not be lamented; neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth; and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine, and their carcasses shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

CHAPTER III.

I AM (a) the man that hath seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.

(a) Job xix. 21. Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O ye my friends; for the hand of God hath touched me.

Ps. lxxi. 20. Thou, which hast showed me great and sore troubles, shalt quicken me again, and shalt bring me up again from the depths of the earth.

lxxxviii. 7. Thy wrath lieth hard upon me, and thou hast afflicted me with all thy ways. Selah.

15. I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up: while I suffer thy terrors I am distracted.

16. Thy fierce wrath goeth over me; thy terrors have cut me off.

Is. liii. 3. He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

Jer. xv. 17. I sat not in the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoiced; I sat alone, because of thy hand: for thou hast filled me with indignation.

18. Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed? wilt thou be altogether unto me as a liar, and as waters that fail?

2 He hath led me, and (b) brought me into darkness, but not into light.

(b) Deut. xxviii. 29. And thou shalt grope at noon-day, as the blind gropeth in darkness, and thou shalt not prosper in thy ways: and thou shalt be only oppressed and spoiled evermore, and no man shall save thee.

Job xviii. 18. He shall be driven from light into darkness, and chased out of the world.

xxx. 26. When I looked for good, then evil came unto me, and when I waited for light there came darkness.

Is. lix. 9. Therefore is judgment far from us, neither doth justice overtake us: we wait for light, but behold obscurity: for brightness, but we walk in darkness.

Jer. xiii. 16. Give glory to the Lord your God before he cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness.

Jude 6. And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains, under darkness, unto the judgment of the great day.

13. Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame, wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

3 Surely (c) against me is he turned: he turneth his hand against me all the day.

(c) Deut. xxix. 20. The Lord will not spare him, but then the anger of the Lord and his jealousy shall smoke against that man, and all the curses that are written in this book shall lie upon him, and the Lord shall blot out his name from under heaven.

Job xxxi. 21. If I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless, when I saw my help in the gate.

Is. i. 25. And I will turn my hand upon thee, and purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin.

lxxiii. 10. But they rebelled, and vexed his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them.

4 My (d) flesh and my skin hath he made old; (e) he hath broken my bones.

(d) Job xvi. 8. And thou hast filled me with wrinkles, which is a witness against me; and my leanness rising up in me beareth witness to my face.

9. He teareth me in his wrath, who hateth me; he gnasheth upon me with his teeth: mine enemy sharpeneth his eyes upon me.

Ps. xxxi. 9. Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am in trouble; mine eye is consumed with grief, yea, my soul and my belly.

10. For my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing: my strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and my bones are consumed.

xxxii. 3. When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long.

(e) Ps. xxii. 14. I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint; my heart is like wax, it is melted in the midst of my bowels.

li. 8. Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

Is. xxxviii. 13. I reckoned till morning, that as a lion, so will he break all my bones: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

Jer. i. 17. Israel is as scattered sheep; the lions have driven him way: first, the king of Assyria hath devoured him; and last, this Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones.

5 He hath (f) builded against me, and compassed me with (g) gall and travail.

(f) Job xix. 8. He hath fenced up my way that I cannot pass, and he hath set darkness in my paths.

(g) Ps. lxxix. 21. They gave me also gall for my meat, and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

Jer. viii. 14. Why do we sit still? assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the fenced cities, and let us be silent there; for the Lord our God hath put us to silence, and given us water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against the Lord.

Is. 15. Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink.

xxiii. 15. Therefore, thus saith the Lord of hosts, concerning the prophets, Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is profaneness gone forth into all the land.

6 He hath set me (h) in dark places, as *they that be dead of old.

(h) Ps. lxxxviii. 5. Free among the dead, like the slain that lie in the grave, whom thou rememberest no more: and they are cut off from thy hand.

6. Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit, in darkness, in the deeps.

cxliii. 3. For the enemy hath persecuted my soul; he hath smitten my life down to the ground: he hath made me to dwell in darkness, as those that have been long dead.

7. Hear me speedily, O Lord: my spirit faileth: hide not thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

7 He hath (i) hedged me about, that I cannot get out; he hath (k) made my chain heavy.

(i) Job iii. 23. Why is light given to a man whose way is hid, and whom God hath hedged in?

Ps. lxxxviii. 8. Thou hast put away mine acquaintance far from me; thou hast made me an abomination unto them: I am shut up, and I cannot come forth.

Hos. ii. 6. Therefore, behold, I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

(k) Dan. ix. 12. And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

8 Also (l) when I cry and shout, he shutteth out my prayer.

(l) Job xix. 7. Behold, I cry out of wrong, but I am not heard. I cry aloud, but there is no judgment.

xxx. 20. I cry unto thee, and thou dost not hear me: I stand up, and thou regardest me not.

Ps. xxii. 2. O my God, I cry in the day-time, but thou hearest not; and in the night-season, and am not silent.

lxxx. 4. O Lord God of hosts, how long wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people?

Hab. i. 2. O Lord, how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save!

Matt. xxvii. 46. And about the ninth hour, Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

9 He hath enclosed my ways with hewn stone; he hath (m) made my paths crooked.

(m) Is. xxx. 28. And his breath, as an overflowing stream, shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity: and there shall be a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err.

lxiii. 17. O Lord, why hast thou made us to err from thy ways, and hardened our heart from thy fear? Return, for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance.

10 He was (n) unto me as a bear lying in wait, and as a lion (o) in secret places.

(n) Job x. 16. For it increaseth: thou huntest me as a fierce lion; and again thou showest thyself marvellous upon me.

Hos. v. 14. For I will be unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

vi. 1. Come, and let us return unto the Lord: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

cxiii. 7. Therefore I will be unto them as a lion: as a leopard by the way will I observe them.

8. I will meet them as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the caul of their heart, and there will I devour them like a lion: the wild beast shall tear them.

(o) Ps. x. 9. He lieth in wait secretly as a lion in his den; he lieth in wait to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor when he draweth him into his net.

xvii. 12. Like as a lion that is greedy of his prey, and as it were a young lion lurking in secret places.

11 He hath turned aside my ways, and (p) pulled me in pieces: (q) he hath made me desolate.

(p) Job xvi. 12. I was at ease, but he hath broken me asunder: he hath also taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces, and set me up for his mark.

13. His archers compass me round about; he cleaveth my reins asunder, and doth not spare: he poureth out my gall upon the ground.

Ps. l. 22. Now, consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver.

Jer. v. 6. Wherefore a lion out of the forest shall slay them, and a wolf of the evening shall spoil them, a leopard shall watch over their cities; every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces: because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings are increased.

Dan. vii. 23. Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

Mic. v. 8. And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many people, as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep; who, if he go through, both treadeth down and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver.

(q) Job xvi. 7. But now he hath made me weary: thou hast made desolate all my company.

Is. iii. 26. And her gates shall lament and mourn; and she, being desolate, shall sit upon the ground.

Jer. vi. 8. Be thou instructed, O Jerusalem, lest my soul depart from thee; lest I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited.

ix. 10. For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burnt up, so that none can pass through them; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle; both the fowl of the heavens and the beast are fled; they are gone.

11. And I will make Jerusalem heaps, and a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant.

Matt. xxiii. 38. Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.

12 He hath (r) bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow.

(r) Job vi. 4. For the arrows of the Almighty are within me, the poison whereof drinketh up my spirit: the terrors of God do set themselves in array against me.

vii. 20. I have sinned, what shall I do unto thee, O thou preserver of men? why hast thou set me as a mark against thee, so that I am a burden to myself?

Ps. vii. 12. If he turn not, he will whet his sword; he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

13. He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death; he ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors.

xxviii. 2. For thine arrows stick fast in me, and thy hand presseth me sore.

13 He hath caused the arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins.

14 I was (s) a derision to all my people; and their song all the day.

(s) Ps. xxii. 6. But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people.

7. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying, xxxv. 15. But in mine adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together: yea, the abjects gathered themselves together against me, and I knew it not: they did tear me, and ceased not.

16. With hypocritical mockers in feasts, they gnashed upon me with their teeth.

Jer. xx. 7. O Lord, thou hast deceived me, and I was deceived; thou art stronger than I, and hast prevailed: I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me.

15 He (t) hath filled me with bitterness; he hath made me drunken with wormwood.

(t) Ruth i. 20. And she said unto them, Call me not Naomi, call me Mara: for the Almighty hath dealt very bitterly with me.

Job ix. 18. He will not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with bitterness.

Ps. lx. 3. Thou hast showed thy people hard things; thou hast made us to drink the wine of astonishment.

16 He hath also (u) broken my teeth with (x) gravel-stones; (y) he hath covered me with ashes.

(u) Job iv. 10. The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and the teeth of the young lions, are broken.

Ps. iii. 7. Arise, O Lord; save me, O my God: for thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek bone: thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.

Iviii. 6. Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth; break out the great teeth of the young lions, O Lord.

(z) Prov. xxi. 17. Bread of deceit is sweet to a man: but afterward his mouth shall be filled with gravel.

Matt. vii. 9. Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

(y) Ps. ciii. 9. For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping.

17 And (z) thou hast removed my soul far off from peace: (a) I forgot prosperity.

(z) Ps. cxix. 155. Salvation is far from the wicked: for they seek not thy statutes.

Is. xxxviii. 17. Behold, for peace I had great bitterness; but thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption: for thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back.

lix. 11. We roar like bears, and mourn sore like doves: we look for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.

Jer. viii. 15. We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of health, and behold trouble!

xiv. 19. Hast thou utterly rejected Judah? hath thy soul loathed Zion? why hast thou smitten us, and there is no healing for us? we looked for peace, and there is no good; and for the time of healing, and behold trouble!

Zech. viii. 10. For before these days, there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in, because of the affliction; for I set all men every one against his neighbour.

(a) Gen. xli. 30. And there shall arise after them seven years of famine; and all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt; and the famine shall consume the land.

Job vii. 7. O remember that my life is wind: mine eye shall no more see good.

18 And (b) I said, My strength and my hope is perished from the LORD:

(b) 1 Sam. xxvii. 1. And David said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul: there is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul shall despair of me, to seek me any more in any coast of Israel: so shall I escape out of his hand.

Job vi. 11. What is my strength, that I should hope? and what is mine end, that I should prolong my life?

xvii. 15. And where is now my hope? as for my hope, who shall see it?

Ps. xxxi. 22. For I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes: nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my applications when I cried unto thee.

cxvi. 11. I said in my haste, All men are liars. Ez. xxxvii. 11. Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost; we are cut off for our parts.

19 Remembering mine affliction and my misery, (c) the wormwood and the gall.

(c) Jer. ix. 15. Therefore, thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink.

20 My soul (d) hath them still in remembrance, and is humbled in me.

(d) Job xxi. 6. Even when I remember, I am afraid, and trembling taketh hold on my flesh.

21 This I recall to my mind; (e) therefore have I hope.

(e) Ps. cxix. 81. My soul fainteth for thy salvation; but I hope in thy word.

cxix. 7. Let Israel hope in the Lord: for with the Lord there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption.

22 It is (f) of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed, (g) because his compassions fail not.

(f) Neh. ix. 31. Nevertheless, for thy great mercies' sake, thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God.

Ps. lxxviii. 38. But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not; yea, many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath.

cvi. 45. And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies.

Mal. iii. 6. For I am the Lord, I change not; therefore, ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.

(g) Ps. lxxvii. 8. Is his mercy clean gone for ever? doth his promise fail for evermore?

lxxxvi. 15. But thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, long-suffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth.

Mic. vii. 18. Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.

19. He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

Luke i. 50. And his mercy is on them that fear him, from generation to generation.

23 They are (h) new every morning: (i) great is thy faithfulness.

(h) Ps. xxx. 5. For his anger endureth but a moment; in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

Is. xxxiii. 2. O Lord, be gracious unto us; we have waited for thee; be thou their arm every morning, our salvation also in the time of trouble.

Zeph. iii. 5. The just Lord is in the midst thereof; he will not do iniquity; every morning doth he bring his judgment to light, he faileth not; but the unjust knoweth no shame.

(i) Ex. xxxiv. 6. And the Lord passed by before him, and proclaimed, The Lord, the Lord God, merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth,

7. Keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity, and transgression, and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, unto the third and to the fourth generation.

Ps. xxxvi. 5. Thy mercy, O Lord, is in the heavens, and thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds.

lxxxix. 1. I will sing of the mercies of the Lord for ever: with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations.

2. For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever: thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens.

33. Nevertheless my loving-kindness will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness to fail.

Tyt. i. 2. In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began.

Heb. vi. 18. That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge, to lay hold upon the hope set before us.

x. 23. Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised.)

24 The LORD is (k) my portion, saith my soul; (l) therefore will I hope in him.

(k) Ps. xvi. 5. The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance, and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot.

lxxxiii. 26. My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.

cxix. 57. Thou art my portion, O Lord; I have said, that I would keep thy words.

cxlii. 5. I cried unto thee, O Lord; I said, Thou art my refuge, and my portion in the land of the living.

Jer. x. 16. The portion of Jacob is not like them: for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the rod of his inheritance; The Lord of hosts is his name.

(l) 1 Sam. xxx. 6. And David was greatly distressed: for the people spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons, and for his daughters: but David encouraged himself in the Lord his God.

1 Chr. v. 20. And they were helped against them, and the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, and all that were with them: for they cried to God in the battle, and he was entreated of them, because they put their trust in him.

Job xiii. 15. Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him.

Ps. xxxi. 24. Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the Lord.

xxxiii. 18. Behold, the eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him; upon them that hope in his mercy.

xlii. 11. Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

25 The LORD is (m) good unto them that wait for him, (n) to the soul that seeketh him.

(m) Gen. xlix. 18. I have waited for thy salvation, O Lord!

xxvii. 14. Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart; wait, I say, on the Lord.

xxxvii. 7. Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for him; fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

34. Wait on the Lord, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.

cxix. 5. I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope.

Is. xxv. 9. And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the Lord; we have waited for him, we will be glad, and rejoice in his salvation.

(n) 1 Chr. xxviii. 9. And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart, and with a willing mind; for the Lord searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever.

2 Chr. xv. 2. And he went out to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin; the Lord is with you while ye be with him: and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.

Ps. xxvii. 8. When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, Lord, will I seek.

cxix. 2. Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, and that seek him with the whole heart.

Is. xxvi. 9. With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

lv. 6. Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near.

26 It is (o) good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD.

(o) Ps. lii. 9. I will praise thee for ever, because thou hast done it: and I will wait on thy name, for it is good before thy saints.

liv. 6. I will freely sacrifice unto thee; I will praise thy name, O Lord, for it is good.

lxxiii. 28. But it is good for me to draw near to God: I have put my trust in the Lord God, that I may declare all thy works.

xcii. 1. It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto thy name, O Most High.

Gal. iv. 18. But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

27 It is good for a man, that he (p) bear the yoke in his youth.

(p) Ps. xciv. 12. Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O Lord, and teachest him out of thy law.

cxix. 71. It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes.

Matt. xi. 29. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

30. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

28 He (q) sitteth alone and keepeth silence, because he hath borne it upon him.

(q) Ps. xxxix. 9. I was dumb, I opened not my mouth, because thou didst it.

cii. 7. I watch, and am as a sparrow alone upon the house-top.

Jer. xv. 17. I sat not in the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoiced; I sat alone, because of thy hand; for thou hast filled me with indignation.

29 He (r) putteth his mouth in the dust; (s) if so be there may be hope.

(r) 2 Chr. xxxiii. 12. And when he was in affliction, he besought the Lord his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers.

Job xl. 4. Behold, I am vile! what shall I answer thee? I will lay mine hand upon my mouth.

xlii. 5. I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear; but now mine eye seeth thee;

6. Wherefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes.

Ez. xvi. 63. That thou mayest remember, and be confounded, and never open thy mouth any more, because of thy shame, when I am pacified toward thee for all that thou hast done, saith the Lord God.

Rom. iii. 19. Now we know, that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law; that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

(s) Joel ii. 14. Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave a blessing behind him, even a meat-offering, and a drink-offering, unto the Lord your God.

Jon. iii. 9. Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

Zeph. ii. 3. Seek ye the Lord, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the Lord's anger.

30 He giveth (t) his cheek to him that smiteth him: he is filled full with reproach.

(t) Job xvi. 10. They have gaped upon me with their mouth; they have smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully; they have gathered themselves together against me.

Is. i. 6. I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting.

Mic. v. 1. Now gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us; they shall smite the Judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.

Matt. v. 39. But I say unto you, That ye resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.

xxvi. 67. Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others smote him with the palms of their hands.

Luke xxii. 64. And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophecy; who is it that smote thee?

2 Cor. xi. 20. For ye suffer, if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

31 For the LORD will not cast off for ever:

32 But (u) though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.

(u) Judg. x. 16. And they put away the strange gods from among them, and served the Lord: and his soul was grieved for the misery of Israel.

Ps. lxxviii. 38. But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not; yea, many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath.

ciii. 11. For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

12. As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

13. Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him.

Jer. xxxi. 20. Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still; therefore my bowels are troubled for him: I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the Lord.

Hos. xi. 8. How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? Mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

9. I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of thee; and I will not enter into the city.

33 For he doth not (x) afflict willingly, nor grieve the children of men.

(x) Ez. xviii. 32. For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God; wherefore turn yourselves, and live ye.

xxxiii. 11. Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way, and live; turn ye, turn ye, from your evil ways: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

Heb. xii. 9. Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh, which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

10. For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.

34 To crush under his feet (y) all the prisoners of the earth,

(y) Ps. lxxix. 33. For the Lord heareth the poor, and despiseth not his prisoners.

lxxix. 11. Let the sighing of the prisoner come before thee; according to the greatness of thy power, preserve thou those that are appointed to die.

cii. 20. To hear the groaning of the prisoner, to loose those that are appointed to death.

35 To (z) turn aside the right of a man before the face of the Most High,

(z) Ps. cxl. 12. I know that the Lord will maintain the cause of the afflicted, and the right of the poor.

Prov. xvii. 15. He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, even they both are abomination to the Lord.

xxii. 22. Rob not the poor because he is poor; neither oppress the afflicted in the gate:

23. For the Lord will plead their cause, and spoil the soul of those that spoiled them.

xxiii. 10. Remove not the old land-mark; and enter not into the fields of the fatherless:

11. For their Redeemer is mighty; he shall plead their cause with thee.

Zech. i. 15. And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

16. Therefore, thus saith the Lord, I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies: my house shall be built in it, saith the Lord of hosts, and a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem.

36 To subvert a man in his cause, (a) the LORD approveth not.

(a) 2 Sam. xi. 27. And when the morning was past, David sent and fetched her to his house, and she became his wife, and bare him a son: but the thing that David had done displeased the Lord.

Is. lix. 15. Yea, truth faileth; and he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey: and the Lord saw it, and it displeased him that there was no judgment.

Hab. i. 13. Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity: wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he?

37 ¶ Who is he that (b) saith, and it cometh to pass, when the LORD commandeth it not?

(b) Ps. xxxiii. 9. For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.

10. The Lord bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

11. The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

Prov. xvi. 9. A man's heart deviseth his way: but the Lord directeth his steps.

xix. 21. There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless the counsel of the Lord, that shall stand.

xxi. 30. There is no wisdom, nor understanding, nor counsel against the Lord.

Is. xlvi. 10. Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure.

11. Calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man that executeth my counsel from a far country: yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it.

Dan. iv. 35. And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou?

38 (c) Out of the mouth of the Most High proceedeth not evil and good?

(c) Job ii. 10. But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What! shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? In all this did not Job sin with his lips.

Ps. lxxv. 7. But God is the judge: he putteth down one, and setteth up another.

Prov. xxix. 26. Many seek the ruler's favour, but every man's judgment cometh from the Lord.

Is. xlv. 7. I form the light and create darkness: I make peace and create evil. I the Lord do all these things.

Amos iii. 6. Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, and the Lord hath not done it?

39 Wherefore (d) doth a living man complain, (e) a man for the punishment of his sins?

(d) Num. xi. 11. And Moses said unto the Lord, Wherefore hast thou afflicted thy servant? and wherefore have I not found favour in thy sight, that thou layest the burden of all this people upon me?

Prov. xix. 3. The foolishness of man perverteth his way; and his heart fretteth against the Lord.

Is. xxxviii. 17. Behold, for peace I had great bitterness; but thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption: for thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back.

18. For the grave cannot praise thee; death cannot celebrate thee: they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.

19. The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day; the father to the children shall make known thy truth.

(e) Gen. iv. 5. But unto Cain and to his offering he had not respect. And Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell.

6. And the Lord said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen?

7. If thou doest well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door. And unto thee shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.

Num. xvi. 41. But, on the morrow, all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, Ye have killed the people of the Lord!

2 Sam. vi. 7. And the anger of the Lord was kindled against Uzzah, and God smote him there for his error; and there he died by the ark of God.

8. And David was displeased because the Lord had made a breach upon Uzzah; and he called the name of the place Perez-uzzah to this day.

Job xi. 6. And that he would show thee the secrets of wisdom, that they are double to that which is! Know, therefore, that God exacteth of thee less than thine iniquity deserveth.

Is. li. 20. Thy sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets as a wild bull in a net; they are full of the fury of the Lord, the rebuke of thy God.

40 Let us (f) search and try our ways, and (g) turn again to the LORD.

(f) 1 Chr. xv. 12. And said unto them, Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levites: sanctify yourselves, both ye, and your brethren, that ye may bring up the ark of the Lord God of Israel, unto the place that I have prepared for it:

13. For because ye did it not, at the first, the Lord our God made a breach upon us, for that we sought him not after the due order.

Job xi. 13. If thou prepare thine heart, and stretch out thine hands toward him;

14. If iniquity be in thine hand, put it far away, and let not wickedness dwell in thy tabernacles.

15. For then shalt thou lift up thy face without spot; yea, thou shalt be steadfast, and shalt not fear.

Ps. iv. 4. Stand in awe, and sin not: commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still. Selah.

cxix. 59. I thought on my ways, and turned my feet unto thy testimonies.

ccxxxix. 23. Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my thoughts;

24. And see if there be any wicked way in me; and lead me in the way everlasting.

1 Cor. xi. 28. But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

2 Cor. xiii. 5. Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves: know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

(g) Deut. iv. 30. When thou art in tribulation, and all these things are come upon thee, even in the latter days, if thou turn to the Lord thy God, and shalt be obedient unto his voice.

2 Chr. xxx. 6. So the posts went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, turn again unto the Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you that are escaped out of the hand of the kings of Assyria.

Is. lv. 7. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

Hos. xii. 6. Therefore turn thou to thy God; keep mercy and judgment, and wait on thy God continually.

Joel ii. 12. Therefore also now, saith the Lord, Turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning.

13. And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God; for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

41 Let us (h) lift up our heart (i) with our hands unto God in the heavens.

(h) Ps. xxv. 1. Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

lxxxvi. 4. Rejoice the soul of thy servant: for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

(i) Ps. xxviii. 2. Hear the voice of my supplications when I cry unto thee, when I lift up my hands toward thy holy oracle.

lxiii. 4. Thus will I bless thee while I live: I will lift up my hands in thy name.

cxli. 2. Let my prayer be set forth before thee as incense, and the lifting up of my hands, as the evening sacrifice.

1 Tim. ii. 8. I will, therefore, that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

42 We have (k) transgressed, and have rebelled: (l) thou hast not pardoned.

(k) Job xxxiii. 27. He looketh upon men; and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not;

28. He will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.

Jer. iii. 13. Only acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the Lord thy God, and hast scattered thy ways to the strangers under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the Lord.

Luke xv. 18. I will arise, and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee,

19. And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

(l) 2 Kings xxiv. 4. And also for the innocent blood that he shed: for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; which the Lord would not pardon.

Jer. v. 7. How shall I pardon thee for this? thy children have forsaken me, and sworn by them that are no gods; when I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses.

9. Shall I not visit for these things? saith the Lord: and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

43 Thou hast (m) covered with anger and (n) persecuted us: thou (o) hast slain, thou hast not pitied.

(m) Ps. xli. 19. Though thou hast sore broken us in the place of dragons, and covered us with the shadow of death.

(n) Ps. lxxxiii. 15. So persecute them with thy tempest, and make them afraid with thy storm.

(o) Ez. vii. 9. And mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will recompense thee according to thy ways, and thine abominations that are in the midst of thee; and ye shall know that I am the Lord that smiteth.

viii. 18. Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

44 Thou hast (p) covered thyself with a cloud, that our prayers should not pass through.

(p) Ps. xcvi. 2. Clouds and darkness are round about him: righteousness and judgment are the habitations of his throne.

45 Thou hast made us (q) as the off-scouring and refuse in the midst of the people.

(q) Deut. xxviii. 37. And thou shalt become an astonishment, a proverb, and a by-word, among all nations whither the Lord shall lead thee.

1 Cor. iv. 13. Being defamed, we entreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the off-scouring of all things unto this day.

46 All our enemies (r) have opened their mouths against us.

(r) Ex. xi. 7. But against any of the children of Israel shall not a dog move his tongue, against man or beast; that ye may know how that the Lord doth put a difference between the Egyptians and Israel.

Job xxx. 9. And now am I their song; yea, I am their by-word.

10. They abhor me, they flee far from me, and spare not to spit in my face.

11. Because he hath loosed my cord and afflicted me, they have also let loose the bridle before me.

Ps. xxii. 6. But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people.

7. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,

8. He trusted in the Lord, that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him.

47 (s) Fear and a snare is come upon us, desolation and destruction.

(s) Is. xxiv. 17. Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth.

18. And it shall come to pass, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for the windows from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth do shake.

Jer. xlvi. 43. Fear, and the pit, and the snare, shall be upon thee, O inhabitant of Moab, saith the Lord.

44. He that fleeth from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring upon it, even upon Moab, the year of their visitation, saith the Lord.

Luke xxi. 35. For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

48 Mine eye runneth down with rivers of water, for the destruction of the daughter of my people.

49 Mine eye trickleth down, and ceaseth not, without any intermission, 50 Till the LORD look down, and behold from heaven.

51 Mine (t) eye affecteth mine heart, because of all the daughters of my city.

(t) Luke xix. 41. And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and wept over it,

42. Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

43. For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side,

44. And shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knowest not the time of thy visitation.

52 Mine enemies chased me sore, like a bird, without cause.

53 They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and cast a stone upon me.

54 Waters flowed over mine head; then I said, I am cut off.

55 ¶ I called upon thy name, O LORD, out of the low dungeon.

56 Thou (u) hast heard my voice: hide not thine ear at my breathing, at my cry.

(u) 2 Chr. xxxiii. 13. And prayed unto him; and he was entreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the Lord he was God.

Job xxxiv. 28. So that they cause the cry of the poor to come unto him, and he heareth the cry of the afflicted.

Ps. xxxiv. 6. This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.

lxvi. 19. But verily God hath heard me; he hath attended to the voice of my prayer.

Is. xxxviii. 5. Go and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the Lord, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years.

57 Thou (x) drewest near in the day that I called upon thee: (y) thou saidst, Fear not.

(x) Ps. lxix. 18. Draw nigh unto my soul, and redeem it: deliver me because of mine enemies.

cxlv. 18. The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth.

Is. lviii. 9. Then shalt thou call, and the Lord shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and speaking vanity.

James iv. 8. Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners, and purify your hearts, ye double-minded.

(y) Is. xli. 10. Fear thou not; for I am with thee; be not dismayed, for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

14. Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye men of Israel; I will help thee, saith the Lord, and thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

Acts xviii. 9. Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10. For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee, to hurt thee; for I have much people in this city.

xxvii. 24. Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cesar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.

Rev. i. 17. And, when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last.

ii. 10. Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried: and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.

58 O LORD, (z) thou hast pleaded the causes of my soul; thou hast redeemed my life.

(z) 1 Sam. xxv. 39. And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be the Lord, that hath pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and hath kept his servant from evil: for the Lord hath returned the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head. And David sent and communed with Abigail, to take her to him to wife.

Ps. xxxv. 1. Plead my cause, O Lord, with them that strive with me: fight against them that fight against me.

Jer. li. 36. Therefore thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; and I will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry.

59 O LORD, thou hast seen my wrong: (a) judge thou my cause.

(a) Ps. ix. 4. For thou hast maintained my right and my cause; thou sittest in the throne judging right.

xxvi. 1. Judge me, O Lord, for I have walked in mine integrity: I have trusted also in the Lord; therefore I shall not slide.

60 Thou hast seen all their vengeance, and all their imaginations against me.

61 Thou hast heard their reproach, O LORD, and all their imaginations against me;

62 The lips of those that rose up against me, and their device against me all the day.

63 Behold their sitting down, and their rising up: I am their music.

64 (b) Render unto them a recompense, O LORD, according to the work of their hands.

(b) Ps. xxviii. 4. Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavours: give them after the work of their hands, render to them their desert.

Jer. xi. 20. But, O Lord of hosts, that judgest righteously, that triest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them; for unto thee have I revealed my cause.

1. 29. Call together the archers against Babylon: all ye that bend the bow, camp against it round about; let none thereof escape: recompense her according to her work: according to all that she hath done, do unto her: for she hath been proud against the Lord, against the Holy One of Israel.

2 Tim. iv. 14. Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil; the Lord reward him according to his works.

Rev. vi. 10. And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and revenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

xviii. 6. Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double, according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled, fill to her double.

65 Give them sorrow of heart, thy curse unto them.

66 Persecute and destroy them in anger from under the heavens of the LORD.

CHAPTER IV.

HOW (a) is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! (b) the stones of the sanctuary are poured out in the top of every street.

(a) Is. i. 21. How is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full of judgment: righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers.

22. Thy silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water.

xiv. 12. How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground which didst weaken the nations!

(b) Matt. xxiv. 2. And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? Verily, I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

Mark xiii. 2. And Jesus, answering, said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

Luke xxi. 5. And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said,

6. As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

2 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, (c) how are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!

(c) Is. xxx. 14. And he shall break it as the breaking of the potter's vessel that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare: so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit.

Jer. xix. 11. And shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Even so will I break this people, and this city, as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot be made whole again; and they shall bury them in Tophet, till there be no place to bury.

xxii. 28. Is this man Coniah a despised broken idol? is he a vessel wherein is no pleasure? wherefore are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into a land which they know not?

Rom. ix. 21. Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

22. What if God, willing to show his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much long-suffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction;

23. And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory.

2 Cor. iv. 7. But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

3 Even the sea monsters draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones: (d) the daughter of my people is become cruel, (e) like the ostriches in the wilderness.

(d) Lev. xxvi. 29. And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat.

Deut. xxviii. 53. And thou shalt eat the fruit of thine own body, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters, which the Lord thy God hath given thee, in the siege and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee:

54. So that the man that is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be evil toward his brother, and toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the remnant of his children, which he shall leave:

55. So that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat; because he hath nothing left in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee in all thy gates.

56. The tender and delicate woman among you, which would not adventure to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eyes shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter,

57. And toward her young one that cometh out from between her feet, and toward her children which she shall bear: for she shall eat them for want of all things secretly in the siege and straitness, wherewith thine enemy shall distress thee in thy gates.

2 Kings vi. 26. And as the king of Israel was passing by upon the wall, there cried a woman unto him, saying, Help, my lord, O king!

27. And he said, If the Lord do not help thee, whence shall I help thee? out of the barn-floor, or out of the wine-press?

28. And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, This woman said unto me, Give thy son, that we may eat him to-day, and we will eat my son to-morrow.

29. So we boiled my son, and did eat him: and I said unto her on the next day, Give thy son, that we may eat him; and she hath hid her son.

Is. xlix. 15. Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, yet will I not forget thee.

Jer. xix. 9. And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons, and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend, in the siege and straitness, wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their lives, shall straiten them.

Ex. v. 10. Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the winds.

(e) Job xxxix. 13. Gavest thou the goodly wings unto the peacocks? or wings and feathers unto the ostrich?

14. Which leaveth her eggs in the earth, and warmeth them in the dust,

15. And forgetteth that the foot may crush them, or that the wild beast may break them.

16. She is hardened against her young ones, as though they were not hers: her labour is in vain without fear.

Rom. i. 31. Without understanding, covenant-breakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful.

4 The (f) tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst: (g) the young children ask bread, and no man breaketh it unto them.

(f) Ps. xxii. 15. My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

cxlvii. 6. If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; if I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy.

(g) Matt. vii. 9. Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

10. Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

11. If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

5 They (h) that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets: they that were (i) brought up in scarlet (k) embrace dunghills.

(h) Deut. xxviii. 54. So that the man that is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be evil toward his brother, and toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the remnant of his children, which he shall leave:

55. So that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat: because he hath nothing left him in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee in all thy gates.

56. The tender and delicate woman among you, which would not adventure to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eyes shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter.

Luke vii. 25. But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment. Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

(i) 2 Sam. i. 24. Ye daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you in scarlet, with other delights; who put on ornaments of gold upon your apparel.

Prov. xxxi. 21. She is not afraid of the snow for her household; for all her household are clothed with scarlet.

Luke xvi. 19. There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day.

(k) Job xxiv. 8. They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and embrace the rock for want of a shelter.

Jer. ix. 21. For death is come up into our windows, and is entered into our palaces, to cut off the children from without, and the young men from the streets.

22. Speak, Thus saith the Lord, Even the carcasses of men shall fall as dung upon the open field, and as the handful after the harvest-man, and none shall gather them.

Luke xv. 16. And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

6 For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than (l) the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her.

(l) Gen. xix. 25. And he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground.

Dan. ix. 12. And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

Matt. xxiv. 21. For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

7 Her (m) Nazarites were (n) purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was of sapphire:

(m) Judg. xiii. 5. For, lo, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and no razor shall come on his head: for the child shall be a Nazarite unto God from the womb; and he shall begin to deliver Israel out of the land of the Philistines.

Amos ii. 11. And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for Nazarites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the Lord.

12. But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink; and commanded the prophets saying, Prophecy not.

Luke i. 15. For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb.

(n) 1 Sam. xvi. 12. And he sent and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, and withal of a beautiful countenance, and goodly to look to. And the Lord said, Arise, anoint him: for this is he.

Psa. li. 7. Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

cxlv. 12. That our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth; that our daughters may be as corner-stones, polished after the similitude of a palace.

Cant. v. 10. My beloved is white and ruddy, the chiefest among ten thousand.

Dan. i. 15. And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat.

8 Their (o) visage is blacker than a coal; (p) they are not known in the streets: (q) their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.

(o) Job xxx. 17. My bones are pierced in me in the night season, and my sinews take no rest.

18. By the great force of my disease is my garment changed: it bindeth me about as the collar of my coat.

19. He hath cast me into the mire, and I am become like dust and ashes.

30. My skin is black upon me, and my bones are burnt with heat.

Joel ii. 6. Before their face, the people shall be much pained; all faces shall gather blackness.

(p) Ruth i. 19. So they two went until they came to Beth-lehem. And it came to pass, when they were come to Beth-lehem, that all the city was moved about them; and they said, Is this Naomi?

20. And she said unto them, Call me not Naomi, call me Mara: for the Almighty hath dealt very bitterly with me.

Job ii. 12. And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven.

Is. lii. 14. As many were astonished at thee; (his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men.)

(q) Job xix. 20. My bone cleaveth to my skin, and to my flesh, and I am escaped with the skin of my teeth.

xxxiii. 21. His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out.

Psa. xxxii. 4. For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of summer. Selah.

xxxviii. 3. There is no soundness in my flesh, because of thine anger; neither is there any rest in my bones because of my sin.

cii. 3. For my days are consumed like smoke, and my bones are burned as an hearth.

4. My heart is smitten, and withered like grass; so that I forget to eat my bread.

5. By reason of the voice of my groaning, my bones cleave to my skin.

cxix. 83. For I am become like a bottle in the smoke; yet do I not forget thy statutes.

9 They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger: (r) for these pine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field.

(r) Lev. xxvi. 39. And they that are left of you shall pine away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also in the iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them.

Ez. xxiv. 23. And your tires shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet: ye shall not mourn nor weep; but ye shall pine away for your iniquities, and mourn one toward another.

xxxiii. 10. Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine away in them, how should we then live?

10 The hands of the (s) pitiful women have sodden their own children, they were their meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

(s) Is. xlix. 15. Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, yet will I not forget thee.

11 The (t) LORD hath accomplished his fury; he hath poured out his fierce anger, and hath (u) kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.

(t) Jer. vi. 11. Therefore I am full of the fury of the Lord; I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out upon the children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together: for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of days.

12. And their houses shall be turned unto others, with their fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the Lord.

vii. 20. Therefore, thus saith the Lord God, Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

xiii. 14. And I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the Lord; I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, but destroy them.

(u) Jer. xxi. 14. But I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, saith the Lord: and I will kindle a fire in the forest thereof, and it shall devour all things round about it.

12 The (x) kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jerusalem.

(x) 1 Kings ix. 8. And at this house, which is high, every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, Why hath the Lord done thus unto this land, and to this house?

9. And they shall answer, Because they forsook the Lord their God, who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have taken hold upon other gods, and have worshipped them, and served them; therefore hath the Lord brought upon them all this evil.

Psa. xlviii. 4. For, lo, the kings were assembled, they passed by together.

5. They saw it, and so they marvelled; they were troubled, and hasted away.

6. Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

13 ¶ For (y) the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, (z) that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her,

(y) Jer. v. 31. The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

vi. 13. For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them, every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest, every one dealeth falsely.

xiv. 14. Then the Lord said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name; I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart.

Mic. iii. 11. The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the Lord, and say, Is not the Lord among us? none evil can come upon us.

12. Therefore shall Zion for your sake be ploughed as a field; and Jerusalem shall become heaps; and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

(z) Jer. ii. 30. In vain have I smitten your children; they received no correction: your own sword hath devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.

xxvi. 8. Now, it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the Lord had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests, and the prophets, and all the people took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.

9. Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the Lord, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the Lord.

Acts vii. 52. Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which showed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers.

1 Thess. ii. 15. Who both killed the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men;

16. Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles, that they might be saved, to fill up their sin alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

14 They (a) have wandered as blind men in the streets, (b) they have polluted themselves with blood, so that men could not touch their garments.

(a) Deut. xxviii. 28. The Lord shall smite thee with madness, and blindness, and astonishment of heart:

29. And thou shalt grope at noon-day as the blind gropeth in darkness, and thou shalt not prosper in thy ways: and thou shalt be only oppressed and spoiled evermore, and no man shall save thee.

Is. xxix. 10. For the Lord hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes: the prophets and your rulers, the seers, hath he covered.

11. And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee; and he saith, I cannot; for it is sealed.

12. And the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee; and he saith, I am not learned.

Ivi. 10. His watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber.

Matt. xv. 14. Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

Eph. iv. 18. Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart.

(b) Num. xxxv. 33. So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye are; for blood it defileth the land: and the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it.

Is. i. 15. And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you; yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear; your hands are full of blood.

Jer. ii. 34. Also in thy skirts is found the blood of the souls of the poor innocents: I have not found it by secret search, but upon all these.

15 They cried unto them, (c) Depart ye: it is unclean; depart, depart, touch not: when they fled away and wandered, they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there.

(c) Num. xvi. 26. And he spake unto the congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest ye be consumed in all their sins.

Ps. vi. 8. Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity: for the Lord hath heard the voice of my weeping.

cxxxix. 19. Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O God: depart from me, therefore, ye bloody men.

Mic. ii. 10. Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy you even with a sore destruction.

2 Cor. vi. 17. Therefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you.

16 The anger of the LORD (d) hath divided them; (e) he will no more regard them: they respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not the elders.

(d) Gen. xlix. 7. Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel; I will divide them in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel.

Deut. xxviii. 25. The Lord shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them; and shalt be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

64. And the Lord shall scatter thee among all people, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone.

65. And among these nations shalt thou find no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot have rest; but the Lord shall give thee there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind.

xxxii. 26. I said, I would scatter them into corners, I would make the remembrance of them to cease from among men.

Jer. xv. 4. And I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh, the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.

xxiv. 9. And I will deliver them to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.

(e) Heb. viii. 9. Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

17 As for us, our eyes as yet failed for our vain help: in our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us.

18 They (f) hunt our steps, that we cannot go in our streets: our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end is come.

(f) 1 Sam. xxiv. 14. After whom is the king of Israel come out? after whom dost thou pursue? after a dead dog? after a flea?

Job x. 16. For it increaseth: thou huntest me as a fierce lion; and again thou showest thyself marvellous upon me.

Ps. cxl. 11. Let not an evil speaker be established in the earth; evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him.

Jer. xvi. 16. Behold, I will send for many fishers, saith the Lord, and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks.

19 Our persecutors are swifter than the eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.

20 The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the LORD, was taken in their pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen.

21 ¶ Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in (g) the land of Uz; the cup also shall pass through unto thee: thou shalt be drunken, (h) and shalt make thyself naked.

(g) Gen. xxxvi. 28. The children of Deshan are these; Uz and Aran.

Job i. 1. There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil.

(h) 2 Chr. xxviii. 19. For the Lord brought Judah low, because of Ahaz king of Israel; for he made Judah naked, and transgressed sore against the Lord.

Mic. i. 11. Pass ye away, thou inhabitant of Saphir, having thy shame naked; the inhabitant of Zaanan came not forth in the mourning of Beth-ezel; he shall receive of you his standing.

Rev. xvi. 15. Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

22 The punishment of thine iniquity is accomplished, O daughter of Zion; he will no more carry thee away into captivity: he will visit thine iniquity, O daughter of Edom; he will discover thy sins.

CHAPTER V.

REMEMBER, (a) O LORD, what is come upon us: consider, and behold our reproach.

(a) Neh. i. 8. Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations.

Job vii. 7. O remember that my life is wind: mine eye shall no more see good.

x. 9. Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast made me as the clay: and wilt thou bring me into dust again?

Jer. xv. 15. O Lord, thou knowest; remember me, and visit me, and revenge me of my persecutors; take me not away in thy long-suffering: know that for thy sake I have suffered rebuke.

Luke xxiii. 42. And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me, when thou comest into thy kingdom.

2 Our inheritance is turned to strangers, our houses to aliens.

3 We are orphans and fatherless; our mothers are as widows.

4 We have drunken our water for money; our wood is sold unto us.

5 Our necks are under persecution: we labour, and have no rest.

6 We have given the hand to the Egyptians, and to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.

7 Our (b) fathers have sinned, (c) and are not; and we have borne their iniquities.

(b) Ex. xx. 5. Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me.

Jer. xvi. 12. And ye have done worse than your fathers: (for, behold, ye walk every one after the imagination of his evil heart, that they may not hearken unto me.)

xxxi. 29. In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge.

Ez. xviii. 2. What mean ye, that ye use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge?

(c) Gen. xlii. 13. And they said, Thy servants are twelve brethren, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and, behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one is not.

36. And Jacob their father said unto them, Me have ye bereaved of my children: Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye will take Benjamin away. All these things are against me.

Job vii. 8. The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me no more: thine eyes are upon me, and I am not.

21. And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust, and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

Jer. xxxi. 15. Thus saith the Lord, A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping; Rachel weeping for her children, refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not.

Zech. i. 5. Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?

8 (d) Servants have ruled over us: (e) there is none that doth deliver us out of their hand.

(d) Gen. ix. 25. And he said, Cursed be Canaan; a servant of servants shall he be unto his brethren.

Deut. xxviii. 43. The stranger that is within thee shall get up above thee very high: and thou shalt come down very low.

Neh. v. 15. But the former governors, that had been before me, were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, besides forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the fear of God.

Prov. xxx. 22. For a servant when he reigneth, and a fool when he is filled with meat.

(e) Job v. 4. His children are far from safety, and they are crushed in the gate, neither is there any to deliver them.

x. 7. Thou knowest that I am not wicked, and there is none that can deliver out of thine hand.

Ps. vii. 2. Lest he tear my soul like a lion, rending it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.

1. 22. Now, consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver.

Is. xliii. 13. Yea, before the day was, I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall let it?

Hos. ii. 10. And now will I discover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand.

9 We gat our bread with the peril of our lives, because of the sword of the wilderness.

10 Our (f) skin was black like an oven, because of the terrible famine.

(f) Job xxx. 30. My skin is black upon me, and my bones are burnt with heat.

Ps. cxix. 83. For I am become like a bottle in the smoke; yet do I not forget thy statutes.

11 They (g) ravished the women in Zion, and the maids in the cities of Judah.

(g) Deut. xxviii. 30. Thou shalt betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her: thou shalt build an house, and thou shalt not dwell therein: thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not gather the grapes thereof.

Is. xliii. 16. Their children also shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled, and their wives ravished.

Zech. xiv. 2. For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

12 Princes are hanged up by their hand: the faces of elders were not honoured.

13 They took (h) the young men to grind, and the children (i) fell under the wood.

(h) Judg. xvi. 21. But the Philistines took him, and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters of brass: and he did grind in the prison-house.

Is. xlvii. 2. Take the mill-stones, and grind meal: uncover thy locks, make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers.

(i) Ex. xxiii. 5. If thou see the ass of him that hateth thee lying under his burden, and wouldest forbear to help him; thou shalt surely help with him.

Is. lviii. 6. Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke?

Matt. xxiii. 4. For they bind heavy burdens, and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

14 The elders have ceased from the gate, (k) the young men from their music.

(k) Jer. vii. 34. Then will I cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride; for the land shall be desolate.

Ez. xxvi. 13. And I will cause the noise of thy songs to cease; and the sound of thy harps shall be no more heard.

Rev. xviii. 22. And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a mill-stone shall be heard no more at all in thee.

15 The joy of our heart is ceased; our dance is turned into mourning.

16 (l) The crown is fallen from our head: (m) wo unto us, that we have sinned!

(l) Job xix. 9. He hath stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown from my head.

Ps. lxxxix. 39. Thou hast made void the covenant of thy servant; thou hast profaned his crown, by casting it to the ground.

Jer. xliii. 18. Say unto the king and to the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down; for your principalities shall come down, even the crown of your glory.

Ez. xxi. 26. Thus saith the Lord God, Remove the diadem, and take off the crown; this shall not be the same: exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high.

Rev. iii. 11. Behold, I come quickly; hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

(m) Prov. xiv. 34. Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.

Jer. ii. 17. Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the Lord thy God, when he led thee by the way?

19. Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know, therefore, and see, that it is an evil thing, and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the Lord thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord God of hosts.

iv. 18. Thy way and thy doings have procured these things unto thee: this is thy wickedness, because it is bitter, because it reacheth unto thine heart.

17 For this our heart is faint; for these things (n) our eyes are dim;

(n) Deut. xxviii. 65. And among these nations shalt thou find no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot have rest; but the Lord shall give thee there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind.

Job xvii. 7. Mine eye also is dim by reason of sorrow, and all my members are as a shadow.

Ps. vi. 7. Mine eye is consumed because of grief: it waxeth old because of all mine enemies.

xxxi. 9. Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am in trouble; mine eye is consumed with grief, yea, my soul and my belly.

lxix. 3. I am weary of my crying, my throat is dried: mine eyes fail while I wait for my God.

Is. xxxviii. 14. Like a crane or a swallow, so did I chatter: I did mourn as a dove: mine eyes fail with looking upward; O Lord, I am oppressed, undertake for me.

18 Because of the mountain of Zion, which is desolate, the foxes walk upon it.

19 Thou, O LORD, (o) remainest for ever; (p) thy throne from generation to generation.

(o) Ps. ix. 7. But the Lord shall endure for ever; he hath prepared his throne for judgment.

x. 16. The Lord is king for ever and ever: the heathen are perished out of his land.

xc. 2. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting thou art God.

cii. 12. But thou, O Lord, shalt endure for ever, and thy remembrance unto all generations.

25. Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

26. They shall perish, but thou shalt endure; yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed.

27. But thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end.

Hab. i. 12. Art thou not from everlasting, O Lord my God, mine Holy One? we shall not die. O Lord, thou hast ordained them for judgment; and, O mighty God, thou hast established them for correction.

Heb. xiii. 8. Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, and to-day, and for ever.

Rev. i. 8. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

(p) Ps. xlv. 6. Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre.

cxlv. 13. Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.

cxlvi. 10. The Lord shall reign for ever, even thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the Lord.

Dan. ii. 44. And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces, and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

vii. 14. And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

Heb. i. 8. But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever; a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

9. Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

20 Wherefore (q) dost thou forget us for ever, and forsake us so long time?

(q) Ps. xiii. 1. How long wilt thou forget me, O Lord? for ever? how long wilt thou hide thy face from me?

xliv. 24. Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and forgettest our affliction and our oppression?

lxxiv. 1. O God, why hast thou cast us off for ever? why doth thine anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture?

lxxix. 5. How long, Lord? wilt thou be angry for ever? shall thy jealousy burn like fire?

lxxxv. 5. Wilt thou be angry with us for ever? wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations?

lxxxix. 46. How long, Lord, wilt thou hide thyself for ever? shall thy wrath burn like fire?

Is. lxiv. 9. Be not wroth very sore, O Lord, neither remember iniquity for ever: behold, see, we beseech thee, we are all thy people.

10. Thy holy cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.

11. Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, is burnt up with fire, and all our pleasant things are laid waste.

12. Wilt thou refrain thyself for these things, O Lord? wilt thou hold thy peace, and afflict us very sore?

21 (r) Turn thou us unto thee, O LORD, and we shall be turned; (s) renew our days as of old.

(r) 1 Kings xviii. 37. Hear me, O Lord, hear me; that this people may know that thou art the Lord God, and that thou hast turned their heart back again.

Ps. lxxx. 3. Turn us again, O God, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

7. Turn us again, O God of hosts, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

lxxxv. 4. Turn us, O God of our salvation, and cause thine anger toward us to cease.

Jer. xxxi. 18. I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus; Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the Lord my God.

(s) Jer. xxxi. 3. The Lord hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love; therefore, with loving-kindness have I drawn thee.

Mal. iii. 4. Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the Lord, as in the days of old, and as in former years.

22 But (t) thou hast utterly rejected us; thou art very wroth against us.

(t) Ps. xlv. 9. But thou hast cast off and put us to shame; and goest not forth with our armies.

lx. 1. O God, thou hast cast us off, thou hast scattered us, thou hast been displeased: O turn thyself to us again.

2. Thou hast made the earth to tremble; thou hast broken it: heal the breaches thereof; for it shaketh.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET EZEKIEL.

CHAPTER I.

NOW it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, (a) as I was among the captives (b) by the river of Chebar, that (c) the heavens were opened, and (d) I saw visions of God.

(a) Ec. ix. 1. For all this, I considered in my heart even to declare all this, that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them.

2. All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath.

Jer. xxiv. 5. Thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel; Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good.

6. For I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

7. And I will give them an heart to know me, that I am the Lord: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their whole heart.

(b) Ez. x. 15. And the cherubims were lifted up. This is the living creature that I saw by the river of Chebar.

xliii. 3. And it was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city: and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell upon my face.

(c) Matt. iii. 16. And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him.

Luke iii. 21. Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened.

John i. 51. And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

Acts vii. 56. And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God.

x. 11. And saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth.

Rev. iv. 1. After this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will show thee things which must be hereafter.

xix. 11. And I saw heaven opened, and, behold, a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

(d) Dan. viii. 1. In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first.

2. And I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai.

Hos. xii. 10. I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and used similitudes, by the ministry of the prophets.

Joel ii. 28. And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions.

2 In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachim's captivity,

3 The (e) word of the LORD came expressly unto Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans, by the river Chebar; (f) and the hand of the LORD was there upon him.

(e) Jer. i. 2. To whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Ammon king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign.

Hos. i. 1. The word of the Lord that came unto Hosea, the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

(f) 1 Kings xviii. 46. And the hand of the Lord was upon Elijah; and he girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

2 Kings iii. 15. But now bring me a minstrel. And it came to pass when the minstrel played, that the hand of the Lord came upon him.

4 And I looked, and, behold, (g) a whirlwind came out of the north, (h) a great cloud, and a fire infolding itself, and a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire.

(g) Is. xxi. 1. The burden of the desert of the sea. As whirlwinds in the south pass through, so it cometh from the desert, from a terrible land.

Jer. vi. 1. O ye children of Benjamin, gather yourselves to flee out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and set up a sign of fire in Beth-haccerem: for evil appeareth out of the north, and great destruction.

xxiii. 19. Behold, a whirlwind of the Lord is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.

(h) Ex. xxiv. 16. And the glory of the Lord abode upon Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days: and the seventh day he called unto Moses out of the midst of the cloud.

17. And the sight of the glory of the Lord was like devouring fire on the top of the mount in the eyes of the children of Israel.

Deut. iv. 11. And ye came near and stood under the mountain; and the mountain burned with fire unto the midst of heaven, with darkness, clouds, and thick darkness.

Ps. xviii. 11. He made darkness his secret place; his pavilion round about him were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

12. At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed, hailstones and coals of fire.

13. The Lord also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave his voice; hailstones and coals of fire.

xvii. 3. A fire goeth before him, and burneth up his enemies round about.

civ. 3. Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters: who maketh the clouds his chariot: who walketh upon the wings of the wind.

4. Who maketh his angels spirits; his ministers a flaming fire.

Is. xix. 1. The burden of Egypt. Behold, the Lord rideth upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt: and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it.

5 Also out of the midst thereof came (i) the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance; they had the likeness of a man.

(i) Rev. iv. 6. And before the throne there was a sea of glass like unto crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before and behind.

vi. 6. And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

6 And (k) every one had four faces, and (l) every one had four wings.

(k) Ex. x. 14. And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

21. Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings.

Rev. iv. 7. And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had the face of a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8. And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

(l) Ex. xxv. 20. And the cherubims shall stretch forth their wings on high, covering the mercy-seat with their wings, and their faces shall look one to another; toward the mercy-seat shall the faces of the cherubims be.

Is. vi. 2. Above it stood the seraphims: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.

7 And their feet were straight feet; and the sole of their feet was (m) like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled like (n) the colour of burnished brass.

(m) Lev. xi. 3. Whatsoever parteth the hoof, and is cloven-footed, and cheweth the cud, among the beasts, that shall ye eat.

47. To make a difference between the unclean and the clean, and between the beast that may be eaten and the beast that may not be eaten.

(n) Dan. x. 6. His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

Rev. i. 15. And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.

8 And they had (o) the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings.

(o) Is. vi. 6. Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar.

Ez. viii. 3. And he put forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of mine head; and the spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh towards the north; where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provoketh to jealousy.

x. 2. And he spake unto the man clothed with linen, and said, Go in between the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill thine hand with coals of fire from between the cherubims, and scatter them over the city. And he went in in my sight.

21. Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings.

9 Their wings were (p) joined one to another; (q) they turned not when they went; they went every one straight forward.

(p) 2 Chr. iii. 11. And the wings of the cherubims were twenty cubits long: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub.

12. And one wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the other cherub.

1 Cor. i. 10. Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind, and in the same judgment.

(q) Prov. iv. 25. Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee.

26. Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established.

27. Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil.

10 As for the likeness of their faces, they four had (r) the face of a man, and (s) the face of a lion, on the right side; and they four had (t) the face of an ox on the left side; they four also had (u) the face of an eagle.

(r) 1 Cor. xiv. 20. Brethren, be not children in understanding; howbeit, in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men.

(s) Judg. xiv. 18. And the men of the city said unto him on the seventh day before the sun went down, What is sweeter than honey? and what is stronger than a lion? And he said unto them, If ye had not ploughed with my heifer, ye had not found out my riddle.

1 Chr. xii. 8. And of the Gadites there separated themselves unto David into the hold to the wilderness men of might, and men of war fit for the battle, that could handle shield and buckler, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and were as swift as the roes upon the mountains.

Rev. v. 5. And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

(t) Prov. xiv. 4. Where no oxen are, the crib is clean: but much increase is by the strength of the ox.
