THE COLLATERAL BIBLE.

THE BOOK OF PROVERBS.

CHAPTER I.

THE (a) proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel;

(a) 1 Kings iv. 31. For he was wiser than all men; than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Chalcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol: and his fame was in all nations round about.

32. And he spake three thousand proverbs: and his songs were a thousand and five.

Ec. xii. 9. And, moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs.

John xvi. 25. These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: but the time cometh when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall show you plainly of the Father.

2 To (b) know wisdom and instruction; to perceive the words of understanding;

(b) Deut. iv. 5. Behold, I have taught you statutes and judgments, even as the Lord my God commanded me, that ye should do so in the land whither ye go to possess it.

6. Keep, therefore, and do them: for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.

Prov. vii. 4. Say unto wisdom, Thou art my sister; and call understanding thy kinswoman.

viii. 5. O ye simple, understand wisdom; and, ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.

2 Tim. iii. 15. And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation, through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

16. All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness;

17. That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

3 To receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and equity;

4 To give (c) subtlety to the simple, (d) to the young man knowledge and discretion.

(c) Ps. xix. 7. The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

cxix. 130. The entrance of thy word giveth light; it giveth understanding unto the simple.

Is. xxiv. 8. And a highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called, The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the way-faring men, though fools, shall not err therein.

(d) Ps. xxxiv. 11. Come, ye children, hearken unto me; I will teach you the fear of the Lord:

Ec. xi. 9. Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth, and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thy heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment.

10. Therefore remove sorrow from thy heart, and put away evil from thy flesh: for childhood and youth are vanity.

xii. 1. Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them.

2 Tim. ii. 22. Flee also youthful lusts; but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

Tit. ii. 6. Young men likewise exhort to be sober-minded.

5 A (e) wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and (f) a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels:

(e) Job xxxiv. 16. If now thou hast understanding, hear this; hearken to the voice of my words.

34. Let men of understanding tell me, and let a wise man hearken unto me.

Ps. cxix. 98. Thou, through thy commandments, hast made me wiser than mine enemies: for they are ever with me.

99. I have more understanding than all my teachers: for thy testimonies are my meditation.

100. I understand more than the ancients; because I keep thy precepts.

1 Cor. x. 15. I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say.

(f) 1 Sam. xxv. 32. And David said to Abigail, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meet me:

33. And blessed be thy advice, and blessed be thou, which hast kept me this day from coming to shed blood, and from avenging myself with mine own hand.

Mark iv. 11. And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables.

6 To understand (g) a proverb, and the interpretation; (h) the words of the wise, and their (i) dark sayings.

(g) Matt. xiii. 51. Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.

52. Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven, is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

Acts viii. 30. And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?

31. And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him.

(h) Ec. xii. 11. The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.

(i) Ps. xlix. 4. I will incline mine ear to a parable; I will open my dark saying upon the harp.

lxxviii. 2. I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings of old.

2 Pet. iii. 16. As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

7 ¶ The (k) fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge: (l) but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

(k) Job xxviii. 28. And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding.

Ps. cxi. 10. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments: his praise endureth for ever.

cxii. 1. Praise ye the Lord. Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord, that delighteth greatly in his commandments.

Prov. ix. 10. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.

Ec. xii. 13. Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter; Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

(l) Prov. xv. 5. A fool despiseth his father's instruction: but he that regardeth reproof is prudent.

xviii. 2. A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself.

Rom. i. 28. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient.

8 My son, (m) hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

(m) Lev. xix. 3. Ye shall fear every man his mother, and his father, and keep my sabbaths: I am the Lord your God.

1 Sam. ii. 25. If one man sin against another, the judge shall judge him: but if a man sin against the Lord, who shall entreat for him? Notwithstanding, they hearkened not unto the voice of their father, because the Lord would slay them.

Prov. xxx. 17. The eye that mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother, the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it.

xxxi. 1. The words of king Lemuel, the prophecy that his mother taught him.

9 For (n) they shall be an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.

(n) Prov. iv. 9. She shall give to thy head an ornament of grace; a crown of glory shall she deliver to thee.

vi. 20. My son, keep thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

21. Bind them continually upon thy heart, and tie them about thy neck.

Cant. i. 10. Thy cheeks are comely with rows of jewels, thy neck with chains of gold.

iv. 9. Thou hast ravished my heart, my sister, my spouse; thou hast ravished my heart with one of thine eyes, with one chain of thy neck.

Pz. xvi. 11. I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put bracelets upon thy hands, and a chain on thy neck.

1 Tim. ii. 9. In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness, and sobriety; and with brodered hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10. But (which becometh women possessing godliness) with good works.

1 Pet. iii. 3. Whose adorning, let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4. But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

10 ¶ My son, (o) if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.

(o) Ps. l. 18. When thou sawest a thief, then thou consentedst with him, and hast been partaker with adulterers.

Prov. vii. 21. With much fair speech she caused him to yield, with the flattering of her lips she forced him.

22. He goeth after her straightway, as an ox goeth to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the stocks;

23. Till a dart strike through his liver, as a bird hasteth to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life.

Rom. xvi. 18. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

Eph. v. 11. And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.

11 If they say come with us, (p) let us lay wait for blood, (q) let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause:

(p) Ps. lvi. 6. They gather themselves together, they hide themselves, they mark my steps, when they wait for my soul.

Prov. xii. 6. The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood: but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them.

Jer. v. 26. For among my people are found wicked men: they lay wait as he that setteth snares: they set a trap, they catch men.

Mic. vii. 2. The good man is perished out of the earth; and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net.

Acts xxiii. 15. Now, therefore, ye with the council signify to the chief captain, that he bring him down unto you to-morrow, as though ye would inquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16. And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

xxv. 3. And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him.

(q) Ps. xvii. 12. Like as a lion that is greedy of his prey, and as it were a young lion lurking in secret places.

xxxv. 7. For without cause have they hid for me their net in a pit, which without cause they have digged for my soul.

Jer. xi. 19. But I was like a lamb, or an ox, that is brought to the slaughter; and I knew not that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with the fruit thereof, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered.

Matt. xxvi. 3. Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,

4. And consulted that they might take Jesus by subtlety, and kill him.

12 Let us (r) swallow them up alive as (s) the grave; and (t) whole as those that go down into the pit:

(r) Ps. xxxv. 25. Let them not say in their hearts, Ah, so would we have it: let them not say, We have swallowed him up.

lvi. 1. Be merciful unto me, O God; for man would swallow me up: he fighting daily oppresseth me.

2. Mine enemies would daily swallow me up: for they be many that fight against me, O thou Most High.

Jer. li. 34. Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon hath devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.

Lam. ii. 5. The Lord was as an enemy, he hath swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces; he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

(s) Ps. v. 9. For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; their inward part is very wickedness; their throat is an open sepulchre; they flatter with their tongue.

Rom. iii. 13. Their throat is an open sepulchre: with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips.

(t) Num. xvi. 30. But if the Lord make a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up, with all that appertain unto them, and they go down quick into the pit; then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the Lord.

31. And it came to pass, as he had made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground clave asunder that was under them:

32. And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that appertained unto Korah, and all their goods.

33. They, and all that appertained to them, went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed upon them: and they perished from among the congregation.

13 We (u) shall find all precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil:

(u) Job xxiv. 2. Some remove the land-marks; they violently take away flocks, and feed thereof;

3. They drive away the ass of the fatherless; they take the widow's ox for a pledge.

Jer. xxii. 16. He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well with him: was not this to know me? saith the Lord.

17. But thine eyes and thy heart are not but for thy covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence to do it.

Hab. ii. 9. Wo to him that coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil.

14 Cast in thy lot among us: let us all have one purse:

15 My son, (x) walk not thou in the way with them; (y) refrain thy foot from their path:

(x) Ps. i. 1. Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

xxvi. 4. I have not sat with vain persons, neither will I go in with dissemblers.

5. I have hated the congregation of evil-doers, and will not sit with the wicked.

Prov. iv. 14. Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not into the way of evil men.

2 Cor. vi. 17. Therefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you.

(y) Ps. cxix. 101. I have refrained my feet from every evil way, that I may keep thy word.

Jer. xiv. 10. Thus saith the Lord unto this people, Thus have they loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet; therefore the Lord doth not accept them: he will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins.

16 For (z) their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood.

(z) Prov. iv. 16. For they sleep not, except they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.

vi. 18. A heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief.

Is. lix. 7. Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths.

Rom. iii. 15. Their feet are swift to shed blood.

17 Surely (a) in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird.

(a) Job xxxv. 11. Who teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven.

Prov. vii. 23. Till a dart strike through his liver, as a bird hasteth to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life.

Jer. viii. 7. Yea, the stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and the turtle, and the crane, and the swallow, observe the time of their coming: but my people know not the judgment of the Lord.

18 And they (b) lay wait for their own blood; they lurk privily for their own lives.

(b) Ps. ix. 16. The Lord is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah.

Prov. xxviii. 17. A man that doeth violence to the blood of any person shall fly to the pit; let no man stay him.

Matt. xxvii. 4. Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

5. And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself.

19 So are the ways of (c) every one that is greedy of gain; which (d) taketh away the life of the owners thereof.

(c) 2 Sam. xviii. 11. And Joab said unto the man that told him, And, behold, thou sawest him; and why didst thou not smite him there to the ground? and I would have given thee ten shekels of silver, and a girdle.

12. And the man said unto Joab, Though I should receive a thousand shekels of silver in my hand, yet would I not put forth my hand against the king's son: for in our hearing, the king charged thee and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Beware that none touch the young man Absalom:

13. Otherwise I should have wrought falsehood against mine own life: for there is no matter hid from the king, and thou thyself wouldest have set thyself against me.

Mic. iii. 10. They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.

11. The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the Lord, and say, Is not the Lord among us? none evil can come upon us.

12. Therefore shall Zion, for your sake, be ploughed as a field; and Jerusalem shall become heaps; and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

1 Tim. iii. 3. Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous.

vi. 9. But they that will be rich, fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

10. For the love of money is the root of all evil; which, while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

(d) Job xxxi. 39. If I have eaten the fruits thereof without money, or have caused the owners thereof to lose their life.

Ec. v. 13. There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt.

20 ¶ Wisdom (e) crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets:

(e) Prov. viii. 1. Doth not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice?

2. She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths.

3. She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors:

4. Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man.

5. O ye simple, understand wisdom; and, ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.

John vii. 37. In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

21 She (f) crieth in the chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates: in the city she uttereth her words, saying,

(f) Prov. ix. 3. She hath sent forth her maidens: she crieth upon the highest places of the city.

Matt. x. 27. What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the house-tops.

xiii. 2. And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that he went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

John xviii. 20. Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world: I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

22 How long, (g) ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity? and (h) the scorers delight in their scorning, and (i) fools hate knowledge?

(g) Ps. xciv. 8. Understand, ye brutish among the people; and, ye fools, when will ye be wise?

Matt. xxiii. 37. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!

Luke xix. 42. Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

Rev. xxii. 17. And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst, come: and whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

(h) Job xxxiv. 7. What man is like Job, who drinketh up scorn like water?

Prov. iii. 34. Surely he scorneth the scorers: but he giveth grace unto the lowly.

xiv. 6. A scorner seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not: but knowledge is easy unto him that understandeth.

(i) Prov. v. 12. And say, How have I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof.

John iii. 20. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

23 (k) Turn ye at (l) my reproof: (m) behold, I will pour out my spirit unto you, I will make known my words unto you.

(k) Is. lv. 1. Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

2. Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread, and your labour for that which satisfieth not? Hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

3. Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

7. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and unto our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

Jer. iii. 14. Turn, O backsliding children, saith the Lord; for I am married unto you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion.

Ez. xxxiii. 11. Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye, from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

Hos. xiv. 1. O Israel, return unto the Lord thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity.

(l) Ps. cxli. 5. Let the righteous smite me; it shall be a kindness: and let him reprove me; it shall be an excellent oil, which shall not break my head: for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities.

Prov. xxix. 1. He that, being often reproved, hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

(m) Is. xxxii. 15. Until the spirit be poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest.

Joel ii. 28. And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions.

Zech. xii. 10. And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplication; and they shall look on him whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his first-born.

Luke xi. 13. If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

24 ¶ Because (n) I have called, and ye refused; (o) I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;

(n) Is. i. 2. Wherefore, when I came, was there no man? when I called, was there none to answer? Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea: I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stinketh, because there is no water, and dieth for thirst.

lxv. 12. Therefore will I number you to the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter: because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear; but did evil before mine eyes, and did choose that wherein I delighted not.

lxvi. 4. I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear; but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.

Jer. vii. 13. And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the Lord, and I spake unto you, rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I called you, but ye answered not.

(g) Acts iv. 30. By stretching forth thy hand to heal: and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jesus.

Rom. x. 21. But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

25 But (p) ye have set at nought all my counsel, and (q) would none of my reproof:

(p) 2 Chr. xxxvi. 16. But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the Lord arose against his people, till there was no remedy.

Ps. cvii. 11. Because they rebelled against the words of God, and contemned the counsel of the Most High.

Luke vii. 30. But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized of him.

(q) Ps. lxxxii. 11. But my people would not hearken to my voice: and Israel would none of me.

Prov. xii. 1. Whoso loveth instruction loveth knowledge: but he that hateth reproof is brutish.

26 I also (r) will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh;

(r) Judg. x. 14. Go and cry unto the gods which ye have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your tribulation.

Ps. ii. 4. He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision.

xxxvii. 13. The Lord shall laugh at him; for he seeth that his day is coming.

27 When (s) your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh (t) as a whirlwind, when (u) distress and anguish cometh upon you:

(s) Prov. iii. 25. Be not afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh.

25. For the Lord shall be thy confidence, and shall keep thy foot from being taken.

Luke xxi. 26. Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.

1 Thess. v. 3. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

(t) Ps. lviii. 9. Before your pots can feel the thorns, he shall take them away as with a whirlwind, both living, and in his wrath.

Is. xvii. 13. The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but God shall rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and shall be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like a rolling thing before the whirlwind.

(u) Rom. ii. 9. Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile.

28 Then (x) shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; (y) they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me:

(x) Job xxvii. 9. Will God hear his cry when trouble cometh upon him?

xxxv. 12. There they cry, but none giveth answer, because of the pride of evil men.

Ps. xviii. 41. They cried, but there was none to save them: even unto the Lord, but he answered them not.

Is. i. 15. And when ye spread forth your hands I will hide mine eyes from you; yea, when ye make many prayers I will not hear: your hands are full of blood.

Ez. viii. 18. Therefore will I also deal in fury; mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

Zech. vii. 13. Therefore it is come to pass, that, as he said, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would not hear, saith the Lord, of hosts.

(y) Ps. lxxviii. 34. When he slew them, then they sought him; and they returned and inquired early after God.

Hos. v. 15. I will go and return to my place till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face; in their affliction they will seek me early.

29 For (z) that they hated knowledge, and (a) did not choose the fear of the LORD:

(z) Job xxi. 14. Therefore they say unto God, Depart from us; for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.

15. What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? and what profit should we have if we pray unto him?

John iii. 20. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

(a) Luke x. 42. But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

Heb. xi. 25. Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season.

30 They (b) would none of my counsel: they despised all my reproof.

(b) Jer. viii. 9. The wise men are ashamed, they are dismayed and taken: lo, they have rejected the word of the Lord; and what wisdom is in them?

Luke xiv. 18. And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.

19. And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

20. And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

31 Therefore (c) shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.

(c) Job iv. 8. Even as I have seen, they that plough iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.

Is. iii. 10. Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him; for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

Jer. vi. 19. Hear, O earth; behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words, nor to my law, but rejected it.

Gal. vi. 7. Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8. For he that soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit, shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

32 For (d) the turning away of the simple shall slay them, (e) and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.

(d) John iii. 36. He that believeth on the Son, hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son, shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.

John x. 38. Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

39. But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition, but of them that believe to the saving of the soul.

xii. 25. See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven.

(e) Ps. xcii. 6. A brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this.

7. When the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; it is that they shall be destroyed for ever.

Heb. xii. 8. But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

James v. 5. Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

33 But (f) whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, (g) and shall be quiet from fear of evil.

(f) Ps. lxxxii. 13. Oh that my people had hearkened unto me, and Israel had walked in my ways.

Is. xlviii. 18. Oh that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea.

lv. 3. Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

(g) Ps. cxii. 7. He shall not be afraid of evil tidings: his heart is fixed, trusting in the Lord.

Is. xxvi. 3. Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee; because he trusteth in thee.

Luke xxi. 9. But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not by and by.

19. In your patience possess ye your souls.

CHAPTER II.

MY son, (a) if thou wilt receive my words, and (b) hide my commandments with thee;

(a) John xii. 47. And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

48. He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.

1 Tim. i. 15. This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief.

(b) Job xxiii. 12. Neither have I gone back from the commandment of his lips; I have esteemed the words of his mouth more than my necessary food.

Prov. vi. 21. Bind them continually upon thy heart, and tie them about thy neck.

Luke ii. 19. But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

2 So that (c) thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and (d) apply thine heart to understanding;

(c) Ps. cxix. 111. Thy testimonies have I taken as an heritage for ever: for they are the rejoicing of my heart.

112. I have inclined my heart to perform thy statutes always, even unto the end.

Math. xiii. 9. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

(d) Prov. xxiii. 12. Apply thy heart unto instruction, and thine ears to the words of knowledge.

Ec. vii. 25. I applied my heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness.

viii. 9. All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his own hurt.

Acts xvii. 11. These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether these things were so.

3 Yea, (e) if thou criest after knowledge, and liftest up thy voice for understanding;

(e) 1 Kings iii. 9. Give therefore thy servant an understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy so great a people?

10. And the speech pleased the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing.

11. And God said unto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself long life, neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies; but hast asked for thyself understanding to discern judgment;

12. Behold, I have done according to thy word: lo, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart; so that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee.

Ps. xxv. 4. Show me thy ways, O Lord; teach me thy paths.

5. Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation: on thee do I wait all the day.

4 If (f) thou seekest her as silver, and (g) searchest for her as for hid treasures;

(f) Ps. xiv. 10. More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold; sweeter also than honey, and the honey-comb.

Math. vi. 19. Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

20. But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal.

21. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

(g) Ec. iv. 8. There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour; neither is his eye satisfied with riches; neither saith he, For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, yea, it is a sore travail.

Luke xvi. 8. And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

5 Then shalt thou understand (h) the fear of the LORD, and (i) find the knowledge of God.

(h) Job xxviii. 28. And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding.

Jer. xxxii. 40. And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me.

(i) Jer. ix. 24. But let him that glorieth, glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lord which exercise loving-kindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the Lord.

xxiv. 7. And I will give them a heart to know me, that I am the Lord; and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their whole heart.

xxxi. 34. And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the Lord: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

Math. xi. 27. All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.

John xvii. 3. And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.

1 John v. 20. And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true; and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

6 For (k) the LORD giveth wisdom: (l) out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding.

(k) Ec. xxxi. 3. And I have filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship.

1 Kings iv. 29. And God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding, exceeding much, and largeness of heart, even as the sand that is on the sea shore.

Is. liv. 13. And all thy children shall be taught of the Lord; and great shall be the peace of thy children.

Eph. i. 17. That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him.

(l) Ps. cxix. 104. Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.

Is. viii. 20. To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.

7 He (m) layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous: he is (n) a buckler to them that walk uprightly.

(m) Prov. viii. 14. Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom: I am understanding, I have strength.

xiv. 8. The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way: but the folly of fools is deceit.

Col. ii. 3. In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

(n) Prov. xxviii. 18. Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved: but he that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once.

xxx. 5. Every word of God is pure; he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

8 He (o) keepeth the paths of judgment; (p) and preserveth the way of his saints.

(o) Ps. i. 6. For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

xxiii. 3. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Prov. viii. 20. I lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment.

(p) Deut. xxxiii. 3. Yea, he loved the people: all his saints are in thy hand; and they sat down at thy feet; every one shall receive of thy words.

1 Sam. ii. 9. He will keep the feet of his saints, and the wicked shall be silent in darkness; for by strength shall no man prevail.

1 Pet. i. 5. Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time.

9 Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity; yea, every good path.

10 ¶ When wisdom entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul;

11 (q) Discretion shall preserve thee, understanding shall keep thee:

(q) Ps. cxix. 9. Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? By taking heed thereto according to thy word.

10. With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wander from thy commandments.

11. Thy word have I hid in my heart, that I might not sin against thee.

Ec. x. 10. If the iron be blunt, and he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but wisdom is profitable to direct.

Eph. v. 15. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise.

12 To (r) deliver thee from the way of the evil man, (s) from the man that speaketh froward things;

(r) Ps. xvii. 4. Concerning the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer.

5. Hold up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not.

cxli. 4. Incline not my heart to any evil thing, to practise wicked works with men that work iniquity: and let me not eat of their dainties.

2 Cor. vi. 17. Wherefore, come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you.

(s) Ps. ci. 4. A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not know a wicked person.

Acts xx. 30. Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

13 Who (t) leave the paths of uprightness, to (u) walk in the ways of darkness;

(t) Ps. xxxvi. 3. The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit: he hath left off to be wise, and to do good.

Ez. xviii. 26. When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done, shall he die.

Zeph. i. 6. And them that are turned back from the Lord, and those that have not sought the Lord, nor inquired for him.

2 Tim. iv. 10. For Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia.

Heb. vi. 4. For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,

5. And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,

6. If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance, seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

2 Pet. ii. 20. For if, after they have escaped the pollutions of the world, through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21. For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22. But it happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and, The sow that was washed, to her wallowing in the mire.

(u) John iii. 19. And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20. For every one that doeth evil, hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

Rom. i. 21. Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

14 Who (x) rejoice to do evil, (y) and delight in the frowardness of the wicked;

(x) Jer. xi. 15. What hath my beloved to do in my house, seeing she hath wrought lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from thee? when thou doest evil, then thou rejoicest.

Zeph. iii. 11. In that day shalt thou not be ashamed for all thy doings, wherein thou hast transgressed against me: for then I will take away out of the midst of thee them that rejoice in thy pride; and thou shalt no more be haughty because of my holy mountain.

1 Cor. xiii. 6. Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth.

(y) Hos. vii. 3. They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies.

Luke xxii. 4. And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5. And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money.

Rom. i. 32. Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

15 Whose (z) ways are crooked, and they froward in their paths:

(z) Deut. xxxii. 5. They have corrupted themselves; their spot is not the spot of his children: they are a perverse and crooked generation.

Ps. cxxv. 5. As for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways, the Lord shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity: but peace shall be upon Israel.

Is. lix. 8. The way of peace they know not; and there is no judgment in their goings: they have made them crooked paths; whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace.

Phil. ii. 15. That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world.

16 To (a) deliver thee from the strange woman, even from the stranger which flattereth with her words;

(a) Gen. xxxix. 12. And she caught him by his garment, saying, Lie with me: and he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and got him out.

Prov. vi. 24. To keep thee from the evil woman, from the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman.

xxii. 14. The mouth of strange women is a deep pit: he that is abhorred of the Lord shall fall therein.

Ec. vii. 26. And I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as brands: whoso pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her.

17 Which forsaketh (b) the guide of her youth, and (c) forgetteth the covenant of her God.

(b) Jer. iii. 4. Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, My father, thou art the guide of my youth?

(c) Ex. xvi. 8. Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I swore unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord God, and thou becamest mine.

59. For thus saith the Lord God, I will even deal with thee as thou hast done, which hast despised the oath in breaking the covenant.

60. Nevertheless, I will remember my covenant with thee in the days of thy youth, and I will establish unto thee an everlasting covenant.

Mal. ii. 14. Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the Lord hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

15. And did not he make one? yet had he the residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.

16. For the Lord, the God of Israel saith, that he hateth putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the Lord of hosts; therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

18 For (d) her house inclineth unto death, and her paths unto the dead.

(d) 1 Cor. vi. 9. Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived; neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

10. Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

Eph. v. 5. For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

Rev. xxi. 8. But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone; which is the second death.

19 (e) None that go unto her return again, neither (f) take they hold of the paths of life.

(e) Ps. lxxxii. 12. So I gave them up unto their own heart's lust; and they walked in their own counsels.

Jer. xiii. 23. Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil.

Hos. iv. 14. I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery; for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people that doth not understand shall fall.

(f) Heb. iv. 18. That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us.

20 That (g) thou mayest walk in the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous.

(g) Ps. cxix. 63. I am a companion of all them that fear thee, and of them that keep thy precepts.

Cant. i. 7. Tell me, O thou whom my soul loveth, where thou feedest, where thou makest thy flock to rest at noon: for why should I be as one that turneth aside by the flocks of thy companions?

8. If thou know not, O thou fairest among women, go thy way forth by the footsteps of the flock, and feed thy kids beside the shepherds' tents.

Jer. vi. 16. Thus saith the Lord, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein.

Heb. vi. 12. That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

21 For (h) the upright shall dwell in the land, and the perfect shall remain in it.

(h) Job i. 1. There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil.

Ps. xxxvii. 3. Trust in the Lord, and do good: so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

9. For evil-doers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the Lord, they shall inherit the earth.

11. But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

22. For such as be blessed of him shall inherit the earth; and they that be cursed of him shall be cut off.

29. The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever.

22 But (i) the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and the transgressors shall be rooted out of it.

(i) Job xxi. 30. That the wicked is reserved to the day of destruction? they shall be brought forth to the day of wrath.

Ps. lii. 5. God shall likewise destroy thee for ever: he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling-place, and root thee out of the land of the living. Selah.

cxlv. 20. The Lord preserveth all them that love him: but all the wicked will he destroy.

Is. iii. 10. Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him; for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

11. Wo unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him; for the reward of his hands shall be given him.

CHAPTER III.

MY son, (a) forget not my law; but (b) let thine heart keep my commandments:

(a) Deut. iv. 23. Take heed unto yourselves, lest ye forget the covenant of the Lord your God, which he made with you, and make you a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, which the Lord thy God hath forbidden thee.

Hos. iv. 6. My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

(b) Deut. iv. 9. Only take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life; but teach them thy sons, and thy sons' sons.

Jer. xxxi. 33. But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel: After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

2 For (c) length of days, and long life, (d) and peace, shall they add to thee.

(c) Job v. 26. Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in in his season.

Ps. xci. 16. With long life will I satisfy him, and show him my salvation.

cxviii. 6. Yea, thou shalt see thy children's children, and peace upon Israel.

Eph. vi. 1. Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

2. Honour thy father and mother, (which is the first commandment with promise,)

3. That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

(d) Is. xxxii. 17. And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness, quietness and assurance for ever.

Rom. v. 1. Therefore, being justified by faith, we have peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ.

xiv. 17. For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

xv. 13. Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

3 Let not (e) mercy and truth forsake thee: (f) bind them about thy neck; (g) write them upon the table of thine heart:

(e) 2 Sam. xv. 20. Whereas thou camest but yesterday, should I this day make thee go up and down with us? Seeing I go whither I may, return thou, and take back thy brethren: mercy and truth be with thee.

Hos. iv. 1. Hear the word of the Lord, ye children of Israel: for the Lord hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God, in the land.

Mal. ii. 6. The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did turn many away from iniquity.

(f) Ps. cxix. 11. Thy word have I hid in my heart, that I might not sin against thee.

Prov. vi. 21. Bind them continually upon thy heart, and tie them about thy neck.

vii. 3. Bind them upon thy fingers, write them upon the table of thy heart.

(g) Jer. xvii. 1. The sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond: it is graven upon the table of their heart, and upon the horns of your altars.

2 Cor. iii. 3. Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ manifested by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God: not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.

Heb. x. 16. This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them.

4 So (h) shalt thou find favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man.

(h) Gen. xxxix. 21. But the Lord was with Joseph, and showed him mercy, and gave him favour in the sight of the keeper of the prison.

1 Sam. ii. 26. And the child Samuel grew on, and was in favour both with the Lord, and also with men.

Dan. i. 9. Now God had brought Daniel into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs.

Luke ii. 52. And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man.

Rom. xiv. 18. For he that in these things serveth Christ, is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

5 ¶ (i) Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; (k) and lean not unto thine own understanding.

(i) Job xiii. 15. Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him.

Is. xxvi. 3. Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee; because he trusteth in thee.

4. Trust ye in the Lord for ever: for in the Lord JEHOVAH is everlasting strength.

Jer. xvii. 7. Blessed is the man that trusteth in the Lord, and whose hope the Lord is.

Eph. i. 12. That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.

(k) Prov. xxiii. 4. Labour not to be rich; cease from thine own wisdom.

xxviii. 26. He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whose walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.

1 Cor. viii. 1. Now as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

2. And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

6 (l) In all thy ways acknowledge him, (m) and he shall direct thy paths.

(l) Ezra viii. 22. For I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all them for good that seek him; but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him.

23. So we fasted, and besought our God for this; and he was entreated of us.

Neh. i. 11. O Lord, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to fear thy name; and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's cup-bearer.

1 Cor. x. 31. Whether therefore ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.

Phil. iv. 6. Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God.

(m) Prov. xvi. 9. A man's heart deviseth his way: but the Lord directeth his steps.

Is. xxx. 21. And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.

xlviii. 17. Thus saith the Lord, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; I am the Lord thy God which teacheth thee to profit, which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go.

Jer. x. 23. O Lord, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps.

7 (n) Be not wise in thine own eyes: (o) fear the LORD, and depart from evil.

(n) Prov. xxvi. 12. Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

Is. v. 21. Wo unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight!

Rom. xi. 25. For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles be come in.

xii. 16. Be of the same mind one towards another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

(o) Neh. v. 15. But the former governors that had been before me were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beside forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the fear of God.

Job i. 1. There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil.

Ec. xii. 13. Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter; Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

8 It (p) shall be health to thy (q) navel, and marrow to thy bones.

(p) Ps. cxlvii. 3. He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.

Is. i. 6. From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment.

(q) Ez. xvi. 4. And as for thy nativity, in the day thou wast born, thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water to supple thee: thou wast not salted at all, nor swaddled at all.

5. None eye pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out into the open field, to the loathing of thy person, in the day that thou wast born.

9 (r) Honour the LORD with thy substance, and with the first-fruits of all thine increase:

(r) Gen. xxviii. 22. And this stone, which I have set for a pillar, shall be God's house: and of all that thou shalt give me, I will surely give the tenth unto thee.

Ex. xxii. 29. Thou shalt not delay to offer the first of thy ripe fruits, and of thy liquors; the first-born of thy sons shalt thou give unto me.

Num. xxxi. 50. We have therefore brought an oblation for the Lord, what every man hath gotten, of jewels of gold, chains, and bracelets, rings, earrings, and tablets, to make an atonement for our souls before the Lord.

1 Cor. xvi. 2. Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath promised him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

10 (s) So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.

(s) Lev. xxvi. 3. If ye walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them;

4. Then I will give you rain in due season, and the land shall yield her increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit:

5. And your thrashing shall reach unto the vintage, and the vintage shall reach unto the sowing-time; and ye shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely.

Deut. xxviii. 8. The Lord shall command the blessing upon thee in thy store-houses, and in all that thou settest thine hand unto; and he shall bless thee in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Mal. iii. 10. Bring ye all the tithes into the store-house, that there may be meat in my house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

11. And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the Lord of hosts.

2 Cor. ix. 6. But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap bountifully.

11 ¶ (t) My son, despise not the chastening of the LORD; (u) neither be weary of his correction:

(t) Job v. 17. Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth; therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty.

Ps. xciv. 12. Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O Lord, and teachest him out of thy law.

Heb. xii. 5. And ye have forgotten the exhortation, which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

6. For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

Rev. iii. 19. As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

(u) Job iv. 5. But now it is come upon thee, and thou faintest; it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

2 Cor. iv. 1. Therefore, seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not.

16. For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

17. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory.

12 For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth; even (x) as a father the son in whom he delighteth.

(x) Deut. viii. 5. Thou shalt also consider in thy heart, that, as a man chasteneth his son, so the Lord thy God chasteneth thee.

Ps. ciii. 13. Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him.

Prov. xxix. 17. Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest: yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.

13 ¶ Happy is (y) the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding.

(y) 1 Kings x. 6. And she said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thy acts and of thy wisdom.

7. Howbeit, I believed not the words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it; and, behold, the half was not told me; thy wisdom and prosperity exceedeth the fame which I heard.

8. Happy are thy men, happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and that hear thy wisdom.

Prov. viii. 32. Now, therefore, hearken unto me, O ye children; for blessed are they that keep my ways.

33. Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not.

34. Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.

35. But whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the Lord.

14 For (z) the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.

(z) Job xxviii. 15. It cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.

16. It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire.

17. The gold and the crystal cannot equal it: and the exchange of it shall not be for jewels of fine gold.

18. No mountain shall be made of coral, or of pearls; for the price of wisdom is above rubies:

19. The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold.

Matt. xvi. 26. For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

15 She is (a) more precious than rubies: and (b) all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.

(a) Prov. viii. 11. For wisdom is better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.

xx. 15. There is gold, and a multitude of rubies: but the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.

xxx. 10. Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.

(b) Ps. lxxiii. 3. Because thy loving-kindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.

lxxiii. 25. Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire besides thee.

26. My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.

Rom. viii. 18. For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

16 Length of days is in her right hand; (c) and in her left hand riches and honour.

(c) 1 Kings iii. 13. And I have also given thee that which thou hast not asked, both riches and honour; so that there shall not be any among the kings like unto thee all thy days.

Mark x. 30. But he shall receive an hundred-fold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life.

1 Cor. iii. 21. Therefore let no man glory in men: for all things are yours;

22. Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;

23. And ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

2 Cor. vi. 10. As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

17 Her ways are (d) ways of pleasantness, and (e) all her paths are peace.

(d) Ps. cxii. 1. Praise ye the Lord. Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord, that delighteth greatly in his commandments.

cxix. 14. I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, as much as in all riches.

Matt. xi. 28. Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

29. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

30. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.

(e) Ps. xxxvii. 11. But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

Is. xxvi. 3. Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee; because he trusteth in thee.

lvii. 19. I create the fruit of the lips; Peace, peace to him that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the Lord, and I will heal him.

Luke i. 79. To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Rom. v. 1. Therefore, being justified by faith, we have peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ.

18 She is (f) a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her: and happy is every one that retaineth her.

(f) Gen. ii. 9. And out of the ground made the Lord God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

iii. 22. And the Lord God said, Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil. And now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever.

Prov. xiii. 12. Hope deferred maketh the heart sick: but when the desire cometh, it is a tree of life.

Rev. xxii. 2. In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

19 The (g) LORD by wisdom hath founded the earth: by understanding hath he established the heavens.

(g) Ps. civ. 24. O Lord, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches.

xxxvi. 5. To him that by wisdom made the heavens: for his mercy endureth for ever.

Jer. x. 12. He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion.

li. 15. He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding.

20 By his knowledge (h) the depths are broken up, and (i) the clouds drop down the dew.

(h) Job xxxviii. 8. Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it brake forth as if it had issued out of the womb?

9. When I made the cloud the garment thereof, and thick darkness a swaddling-band for it,

10. And brake up for it my decreed place, and set bars and doors.

Ps. civ. 8. They go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys unto the place which thou hast founded for them.

9. Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over, that they turn not again to cover the earth.

(i) Gen. xlvii. 28. Therefore God give thee of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine.

Ps. lxxv. 9. Thou visitest the earth, and wastest it: thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water: thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it.

10. Thou wateredst the ridges thereof abundantly; thou settlest the furrows thereof; thou makest it soft with showers; thou blessest the springing thereof.

11. Thou crownest the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness.

12. They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness; and the little hills rejoice on every side.

Jer. xiv. 22. Are there any among the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain? or can the heavens give showers? Art not thou he, O Lord our God: therefore we will wait upon thee; for thou hast made all these things.

21 My son, let them not depart from thine eyes; keep sound wisdom and discretion:

22 So shall they be life unto thy soul, and grace to thy neck.

23 Then (k) shalt thou walk in thy ways safely, and thy foot shall not stumble.

(k) Ps. xxxvii. 23. The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord; and he delighteth in his way.

24. Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down; for the Lord upholdeth him with his hand.

xc. 11. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

12. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Prov. x. 9. He that walketh uprightly, walketh surely; but he that perverteth his ways shall be known.

Zech. x. 12. And I will strengthen them in the Lord; and they shall walk up and down in his name, saith the Lord.

24 When (l) thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid; yea, thou shalt lie down, (m) and thy sleep shall be sweet.

(l) Lev. xxvi. 6. And I will give peace in the land, and ye shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid: and I will rid evil beasts out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land.

Ps. iii. 5. I laid me down and slept; I awaked: for the Lord sustained me.

Ex. xxxiv. 15. I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord God.

(m) Ps. cxxvii. 2. It is in vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows: for so he giveth his beloved sleep.

Jer. xxxi. 26. Upon this I awaked, and beheld; and my sleep was sweet unto me.

Acts xii. 6. And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

25 (n) Be not afraid of sudden fear, (o) neither of the desolation of the wicked when it cometh.

(n) Job v. 21. Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tongue; neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh.

Ps. xxvii. 1. The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

Is. viii. 12. Say ye not, A confederacy, to all them to whom this people shall say, A confederacy; neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid.

13. Sanctify the Lord of hosts himself; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread.

(o) Ps. lxxiii. 19. How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terror.

Mat. xxiv. 15. When ye, therefore, shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand.)

26 For the (p) LORD shall be thy confidence, and shall keep thy foot from being taken.

(p) Ps. xci. 9. Because thou hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the Most High, thy habitation;

10. There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

Prov. xiv. 26. For the fear of the Lord is strong confidence; and his children shall have a place of refuge.

Hab. iii. 17. Although the fig-tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat; the flocks shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls:

18. Yet I will rejoice in the Lord, I will joy in the God of my salvation.

27 ¶ (q) Withhold not good from them to whom it is due, when it is (r) in the power of thine hand to do it.

(q) Rom. xiii. 7. Render therefore to all their dues; tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

Gal. vi. 10. As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.

James ii. 15. If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16. And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body, what doth it profit?

(r) Gen. xxxi. 29. It is in the power of my hand to do you hurt: but the God of your father spake unto me yesternight, saying, Take thou heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad.

Mic. ii. 1. Wo to them that devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light they practise it, because it is in the power of their hand.

28 Say not unto thy neighbour, (s) Go, and come again, and tomorrow I will give; when thou hast it by thee.

(s) Lev. xix. 13. Thou shalt not defraud thy neighbour, neither rob him: the wages of him that is hired shall not abide with thee all night until the morning.

Ec. ix. 10. whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

2 Cor. viii. 11. Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

29 Devise (t) not evil against thy neighbour, seeing he dwelleth securely by thee.

(t) Ps. xxxv. 20. For they speak not peace; but they devise deceitful matters against them that are quiet in the land.

lv. 20. He hath put forth his hands against such as be at peace with him; he hath broken his covenant.

Prov. xvi. 29. A violent man enticeth his neighbour, and leadeth him into the way that is not good.

30. He shutteth his eyes to devise froward things; moving his lips, he bringeth evil to pass.

30 (u) Strive not with a man without cause, if he have done thee no harm.

(u) Prov. xviii. 6. A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.

xxix. 22. An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

Matt. v. 39. But I say unto you, that ye resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.

Rom. xii. 18. If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

2 Tim. ii. 24. And the servant of the Lord must not strive, but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient.

31 (x) Envy thou not the oppressor, and choose none of his ways.

(x) Ps. xxxvii. 1. Fret not thyself because of evil-doers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

7. Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

8. Cease from anger, and forsake wrath; fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.

9. For evil-doers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the Lord, they shall inherit the earth.

32 For the froward is abomination to the LORD: but (y) his secret is with the righteous.

(y) Ps. xxv. 14. The secret of the Lord is with them that fear him; and he will show them his covenant.

Matt. xi. 25. At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.

xiii. 11. He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

Rev. ii. 17. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth, saving he that receiveth it.

33 The (z) curse of the LORD is in the house of the wicked; but (a) he blesseth the habitation of the just.

(z) Deut. xxviii. 15. But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God; to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day, that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee.

John. vii. 13. Up, sanctify the people, and say, Sanctify yourselves against to-morrow: for thus saith the Lord God of Israel, There is an accursed thing in the midst of thee, O Israel: thou canst not stand before thine enemies, until ye take away the accursed thing from among you.

Zech. v. 3. Then said he unto me, This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side, according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side, according to it.

4. I will bring it forth, saith the Lord of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it, with the timber thereof, and the stones thereof.

(a) 2 Sam. vi. 11. And the ark of the Lord continued in the house of Obed-edom, the Gittite, three months: and the Lord blessed Obed-edom, and all his household.

Job viii. 6. If thou wert pure and upright, surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.

34 Surely (b) he scorneth the scorners; but (c) he giveth grace unto the lowly.

(b) Prov. xix. 29. Judgments are prepared for scorners, and stripes for the back of fools.

xxi. 24. Proud and haughty scorner is his name, who dealeth in proud wrath.

(c) Is. lvii. 15. For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

James iv. 6. But he giveth more grace: wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

1 Pet. v. 5. Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder: yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

35 The (d) wise shall inherit glory; (e) but shame shall be the promotion of fools.

(d) Ps. lxxiii. 24. Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterwards receive me to glory.

(e) Ps. cxxxii. 18. His enemies will I clothe with shame; but upon himself shall his crown flourish.

Prov. xiii. 18. Poverty and shame shall be to him that refuseth instruction: but he that regardeth reproof shall be honoured.

Dan. xii. 2. And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

3. And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness, as the stars for ever and ever.

CHAPTER IV.

HEAR, ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding.

2 For I give you (a) good doctrine: forsake ye not my law.

(a) Deut. xxxii. 2. My doctrine shall drop as the rain, my speech shall distil as the dew, as the small rain upon the tender herb, and as the showers upon the grass.

Job xxxiii. 3. My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart; and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.

Ps. xlix. 1. Hear this, all ye people; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world:

2. Both low and high, rich and poor, together.

3. My mouth shall speak of wisdom; and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.

John vii. 16. Jesus answered them, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17. If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

1 Tim. iv. 6. If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith, and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

Tit. i. 9. Holding fast the faithful word, as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

3 For (b) I was my father's son, tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother.

(b) 2 Sam. xii. 24. And David comforted Bathsheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her: and she bare a son, and he called his name Solomon; and the Lord loved him.

25. And he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet; and he called his name Jedediah, because of the Lord.

1 Chr. xxii. 5. And David said, Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be builded for the Lord must be exceeding magnificent, of fame and of glory, throughout all countries: I will therefore now make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.

4 He (c) taught me also, and said unto me, (d) Let thine heart retain my words: keep my commandments, and live.

(c) Gen. xviii. 19. For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the Lord, to do justice and judgment; that the Lord may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him.

1 Chr. xxviii. 9. And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart, and with a willing mind: for the Lord searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts; if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever.

Eph. vi. 4. And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath; but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

(d) Deut. iv. 9. Only take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life; but teach them thy sons, and thy sons' sons.

Ps. cxix. 11. Thy word have I hid in my heart, that I might not sin against thee.

5 Get wisdom, get understanding: forget it not; (e) neither decline from the words of my mouth.

(e) 2 Chr. xxxiv. 2. And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the right hand nor to the left.

Job xxiii. 11. My foot hath held his steps: his way have I kept, and not declined.

Ps. xlv. 18. Our heart is not turned back, neither have our steps declined from thy way.

cxix. 137. Many are my persecutors and mine enemies; yet do I not decline from thy testimonies.

6 Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee: (f) love her, and she shall keep thee,

(f) Eph. iii. 17. That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love.

2 Thes. ii. 10. And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

7 (g) Wisdom is the principal thing: therefore get wisdom; and with all thy getting get understanding.

(g) Ec. vii. 12. For wisdom is a defence, and money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

ix. 16. Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength; nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

17. The words of wise men are heard in quiet, more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.

18. Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner destroyeth much good.

Luke x. 42. But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

8 Exalt her, (h) and she shall promote thee: she shall bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her.

(h) 1 Sam. ii. 30. Wherefore the Lord God of Israel saith, I said indeed that thy house, and the house of thy father, should walk before me for ever: but now the Lord saith, Be it far from me; for them that honour me I will honour, and they that despise me shall be lightly esteemed.

Prov. xxii. 4. By humility and the fear of the Lord, are riches, and honour, and life.

9 She shall (i) give to thine head an ornament of grace: a crown of glory shall she deliver to thee.

(i) 1 Tim. ii. 9. In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with brodered hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10. But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

1 Pet. iii. 3. Whose adorning, let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4. But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

10 Hear, O my son, and (k) receive my sayings; (l) and the years of thy life shall be many.

(k) Job xxii. 22. Receive, I pray thee, the law from his mouth, and lay up his words in thy heart.

Jer. ix. 20. Yet hear the word of the Lord, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailing; and every one her neighbour lamentation.

John iii. 32. And what he hath seen and heard that he testifieth, and no man receiveth his testimony.

33. He that hath received his testimony hath set to his seal that God is true.

1 Thes. ii. 13. For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but, as it is in truth, the word of God; which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

(l) Deut. v. 16. Honour thy father and thy mother, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee; that thy days may be prolonged, and that it may go well with thee, in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

vi. 2. That thou mightest fear the Lord thy God, to keep all his statutes and his commandments which I command thee; thou, and thy son, and thy son's son, all the days of thy life; and that thy days may be prolonged.

11 I have (m) taught thee in the way of wisdom; I have (n) led thee in right paths.

(m) Deut. iv. 5. Behold, I have taught you statutes and judgments, even as the Lord my God commanded me, that ye should do so in the land whither ye go to possess it.

1 Sam. xii. 24. Only fear the Lord, and serve him in truth with all your heart: for consider how great things he hath done for you.

Ec. xii. 9. And, moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order, many proverbs.

(n) Ps. xxiii. 3. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

xxv. 4. Show me thy ways, O Lord; teach me thy paths.

5. Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.

12 When (o) thou goest, thy steps shall not be straitened; and when thou runnest, (p) thou shalt not stumble.

(o) 2 Sam. xxii. 37. Thou hast enlarged my steps under me; so that my feet did not slip.

Job xviii. 7. The steps of his strength shall be straitened, and his own counsel shall cast him down.

8. For he is cast into a net by his own feet, and he walketh upon a snare.

(p) Jer. xxxi. 9. They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble; for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born.

John xi. 9. Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10. But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

1 Pet. ii. 8. And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed.

1 John ii. 10. He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him.

11. But he that hateth his brother, is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

13 (q) Take fast hold on instruction: (r) let her not go: keep her; for (s) she is thy life.

(q) Act. ii. 42. And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

xi. 23. Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

1 Thess. v. 21. Prove all things; hold fast that which is good.

Heb. ii. 1. Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.

Rev. ii. 13. I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

(r) Gen. xxxii. 26. And he said, Let me go, for the day breaketh. And he said, I will not let thee go, except thou bless me.

Can. iii. 4. It was but a little that I passed from them, but I found him whom my soul loveth: I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, into the chamber of her that conceived me.

(s) Deut. xxxii. 47. For it is not a vain thing for you; because it is your life: and through this thing ye shall prolong your days in the land, whither ye go over Jordan to possess it.

Ec. vii. 12. For wisdom is a defence, and money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

John vi. 68. Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life.

14 ¶ Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men.

15 (t) Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away.

(t) Job xi. 14. If iniquity be in thy hand, put it far away, and let not wickedness dwell in thy tabernacles.

xxii. 23. If thou return to the Almighty, thou shalt be built up, thou shalt put away iniquity far from thy tabernacles.

Is. xxxiii. 15. He that walketh righteously, and speaketh uprightly; he that despiseth the gain of oppressions, that shaketh his hands from holding of bribes, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of blood, and shutteth his eyes from seeing evil.

Eph. v. 11. And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.

1 Thess. v. 22. Abstain from all appearance of evil.

16 For (u) they sleep not, except they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.

(u) Ps. xxxvi. 4. He deviseth mischief upon his bed; he setteth himself in a way that is not good; he abhorreth not evil.

Is. lvii. 20. But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt.

Mic. ii. 1. Wo to them that devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light they practise it, because it is in the power of their hand.

17 For (x) they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence.

(x) Jer. v. 26. For among my people are found wicked men: they lay wait, as he that setteth snares: they set a trap, they catch men.

27. As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich.

28. They are waxen fat, they shine; yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge.

Amos viii. 4. Hear this, O ye that swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail.

5. Saying, When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and falsifying the balances by deceit?

6. That we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat?

Zeph. iii. 3. Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they gnaw not the bones till the morrow.

18 But (y) the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

(y) 2 Sam. xxiii. 4. And he shall be as the light of the morning, when the sun riseth, even a morning without clouds; as the tender grass springing out of the earth by clear shining after rain.

Job xi. 17. And thine age shall be clearer than the noon-day; thou shalt shine forth, thou shalt be as the morning.

Hos. vi. 3. Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the Lord: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

Zech. xiv. 6. And it shall come to pass in that day, that the light shall not be clear, nor dark:

7. But it shall be one day which shall be known to the Lord, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at evening-time it shall be light.

2 Cor. iii. 18. But we all, with open face, beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the spirit of the Lord.

1 Pet. iii. 18. But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory, both now and for ever. Amen.

19 The (z) way of the wicked is as darkness: they know not at what they stumble.

(z) 1 Sam. ii. 9. He will keep the feet of his saints, and the wicked shall be silent in darkness; for by strength shall no man prevail.

Is. lix. 9. Therefore is judgment far from us: neither doth justice overtake us: we wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness.

10. We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noon-day as in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men.

Jer. xiii. 16. Give glory to the Lord your God, before he cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness.

John xii. 35. Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them.

20 My son, attend to my words; incline thine ear unto my sayings:

21 Let them not depart from thine eyes; keep them in the midst of thine heart.

22 For they are life unto those that find them, and health to all their flesh.

23 (a) Keep thy heart with all diligence; (b) for out of it are the issues of life.

(a) Deut. iv. 9. Only take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life; but teach them thy sons, and thy sons' sons.

Ps. cxxxix. 23. Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my thoughts; 24. And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

Jer. xvii. 9. The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?

Mark xiv. 38. Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.

Heb. xii. 15. Looking diligently, lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up, trouble you, and thereby many be defiled.

(b) Matt. xii. 35. A good man, out of the good treasure of the heart, bringeth forth good things: and an evil man, out of the evil treasure, bringeth forth evil things.

xv. 19. For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies.

24 (c) Put away from thee a forward mouth, and perverse lips put far from thee.

(c) Job xi. 14. If iniquity be in thy hand, put it far away, and let not wickedness dwell in thy tabernacles.

Ez. xviii. 31. Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

Col. iii. 8. But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

1 Pet. ii. 1. Wherefore, laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and evil speakings.

25 (d) Let thine eyes look right on, and thine eye-lids look straight before thee.

(d) Ps. cxix. 37. Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity; and quicken thou me in thy way.

Prov. xxiii. 5. Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away, as an eagle toward heaven.

Matt. vi. 22. The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

26 (e) Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established.

(e) Ps. cxix. 59. I thought on my ways, and turned my feet unto thy testimonies.

Ez. xviii. 28. Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

Hag. i. 5. Now, therefore, thus saith the Lord of hosts, Consider your ways.

Eph. v. 15. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise.

27 (f) Turn not to the right hand, nor to the left: (g) remove thy foot from evil.

(f) Deut. v. 32. Ye shall observe to do therefore as the Lord your God hath commanded you: you shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

xxviii. 14. And thou shalt not go aside from any of the words which I command thee this day, to the right hand or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

(g) Prov. xvi. 17. The highway of the upright is to depart from evil: he that keepeth his way preserveth his soul.

Is. i. 16. Wash you, make you clean, put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil.

Rom. xii. 9. Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

CHAPTER V.

MY son, attend unto my wisdom, and bow thine ear to my understanding:

2 That thou mayest regard discretion, and that (a) thy lips may keep knowledge.

(a) Ps. xlv. 2. Thou art fairer than the children of men; grace is poured into thy lips: therefore God hath blessed thee for ever.

Ixxi. 15. My mouth shall show forth thy righteousness and thy salvation all the day; for I know not the number thereof.

cxix. 13. With my lips have I declared all the judgments of thy mouth.

Cant. iv. 11. Thy lips, O my spouse, drop as the honey-comb; honey and milk are under thy tongue; and the smell of thy garment is like the smell of Lebanon.

Mal. ii. 6. The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips; he walked with me in peace and equity, and did turn many away from iniquity:

7. For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the Lord of hosts.

3 For (b) the lips of a strange woman drop as a honey-comb, and her mouth is smoother than oil:

(b) Prov. vi. 24. To keep thee from the evil woman, from the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman.

vii. 21. With much fair speech she caused him to yield, with the flattering of her lips she forced him.

4 But (c) her end is bitter as wormwood, (d) sharp as a two-edged sword.

(c) Prov. ix. 18. But he knoweth not that the dead are there; and that her guests are in the depths of hell.

xxiii. 27. For a whore is a deep ditch; and a strange woman is a narrow pit.

28. She also lieth in wait as for a prey, and increaseth the transgressions among men.

Ec. vii. 26. And I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: whose pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her.

(d) Judg. xvi. 4. And it came to pass afterward, that he loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah.

5. And the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and said unto her, Entice him, and see wherein his great strength lieth, and by what means we may prevail against him, that we may bind him to afflict him; and we will give thee, every one of us, eleven hundred pieces of silver.

6. And Delilah said to Samson, Tell me, I pray thee, wherein thy great strength lieth, and wherewith thou mightest be bound to afflict thee.

15. And she said unto him, How canst thou say, I love thee, when thy heart is not with me? thou hast mocked me these three times, and hast not told me wherein thy great strength lieth.

16. And it came to pass, when she pressed him daily with her words, and urged him, so that his soul was vexed unto death,

17. That he told her all his heart, and said unto her, There hath not come a razor upon mine head; for I have been a Nazarite unto God from my mother's womb: if I be shaven, then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man.

18. And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come up this once: for he hath showed me all his heart. Then the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and brought money in their hand.

19. And she made him sleep upon her knees: and she called for a man, and she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head; and she began to afflict him, and his strength went from him.

20. And she said, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and said, I will go out, as at other times before, and shake myself. And he wist not that the Lord was departed from him.

21. But the Philistines took him, and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters of brass; and he did grind in the prison-house.

5 Her feet go down to death; her steps take hold on hell.

6 Lest thou shouldest ponder the path of life, (e) her ways are moveable, that thou canst not know them.

(e) Prov. vi. 12. A naughty person, a wicked man, walketh with a froward mouth.

13. He winketh with his eyes, he speaketh with his feet, he teacheth with his fingers.

2 Theas. ii. 9. Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan, with all power, and signs, and lying wonders,

10. And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

7 Hear me now therefore, O ye children, and depart not from the words of my mouth.

8 Remove (f) thy way far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house:

(f) Prov. iv. 15. Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away.

Matt. vi. 13. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

Eph. v. 11. And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.

9 Lest (g) thou give thine honour unto others, and thy years unto the cruel:

(g) 1st Ch. xiii. 26. Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless, even him did outlandish women cause to sin.

Prov. vi. 29. So he that goeth in to his neighbour's wife; whosoever toucheth her shall not be innocent.

30. Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to satisfy his soul when he is hungry;

31. But if he be found, he shall restore sevenfold; he shall give all the substance of his house.

32. But whose committeth adultery with a woman, lacketh understanding: he that doeth it destroyeth his own soul.

33. A wound and dishonour shall he get; and his reproach shall not be wiped away.

34. For jealousy is the rage of a man: therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

35. He will not regard any ransom; neither will he rest content, though thou givest many gifts.

10 Lest (h) strangers be filled with thy wealth; and thy labours be in the house of a stranger;

(h) Hos. vii. 9. Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not; yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he knoweth not.

Luke xv. 30. But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.

11 And (i) thou mourn at the last, (k) when thy flesh and thy body are consumed,

(i) Prov. vii. 23. Till a dart strike through his liver, as a bird hasteth to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life.

Jer. v. 31. The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bare rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

Rom. vi. 21. What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

(k) Num. v. 27. And when he hath made her to drink the water, then it shall come to pass, that if she be defiled, and have done trespass against her husband, that the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter, and her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall rot: and the woman shall be a curse among her people.

1 Cor. vi. 18. Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication, sinneth against his own body.

12 And say, (l) How have I hated instruction, (m) and my heart despised reproof;

(l) Ps. l. 17. Seeing thou hast instruction, and castest my words behind thee.

lxxiii. 22. So foolish was I, and ignorant; I was as a beast before thee.

John iii. 19. And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20. For every one that doeth evil, hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

(m) Ex. ii. 13. And when he went out the second day, behold, two men of the Hebrews strove together: and he said to him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow?

14. And he said, Who made thee a prince and judge over us? intendest thou to kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely this thing is known.

2 Chr. xxv. 16. And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said unto him, Art thou made of the king's counsel? forbear: why shouldest thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbore, and said, I know that God hath determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.

Jer. xlv. 4. Howbeit, I sent unto you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them; saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate.

5. But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods.

13 And (n) have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined mine ear to them that instructed me!

(n) 1 Theas. iv. 8. He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his Holy Spirit.

v. 12. And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you;

13. And to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. And be at peace among yourselves.

Heb. xiii. 7. Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation.

14 I was (o) almost in all evil, in the midst of the congregation and assembly.

(o) Hos. iv. 11. Whoredom, and wine, and new wine, take away the heart.

12. My people ask counsel at their stocks, and their staff declareth unto them; for the spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

13. They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks, and poplars, and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery.

14. I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery; for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people that doth not understand shall fall.

1 Cor. x. 6. Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not fast after evil things, as they also lusted.

7. Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

8. Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

15 Drink (p) waters out of thine own cistern, and running waters out of thine own well.

(p) 1 Cor. vii. 2. Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3. Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4. The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5. Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer: and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

Heb. xiii. 4. Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled; but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

16 Let (q) thy fountains be (r) dispersed abroad, and rivers of waters in the streets.

(q) Deut. xxxiii. 28. Israel then shall dwell in safety alone: the fountain of Jacob shall be upon a land of corn and wine; also his heavens shall drop down dew.

Ps. lxxviii. 26. Bless ye God in the congregations, even the Lord from the fountain of Israel.

(r) Gen. xxiv. 60. And they blessed Rebekah, and said unto her; Thou art our sister, be thou the mother of thousands of millions, and let thy seed possess the gate of those which hate them.

Ps. cxxvii. 3. Lo, children are an heritage of the Lord: and the fruit of the womb is his reward.

cxxviii. 3. Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine by the sides of thy house: thy children like olive-plants round about thy table.

17 Let them be only thine own, and not strangers with thee.

18 Let thy fountain be blessed; and (s) rejoice with the wife of thy youth.

(s) Ec. ix. 9. Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest under the sun.

19 Let her be (t) as the loving hind and pleasant roe: let her breasts satisfy thee at all times; and be thou ravished always with her love.

(t) Cant. ii. 9. My beloved is like a roe, or a young hart: behold, he standeth behind our wall, he looketh forth at the windows, showing himself through the lattice.

iv. 5. Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins, which feed among the lilies.

vii. 5. Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins.

viii. 14. Make haste, my beloved, and be thou like to the roe, or to a young hart, upon the mountains of spices.

20 And why wilt thou, my son, be ravished (u) with a strange woman, and embrace the bosom of a stranger?

(u) 1 Kings xi. 1. But king Solomon loved many strange women, (together with the daughter of Pharaoh,) women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, and Hittites.

Prov. ii. 16. To deliver thee from the strange woman, even from the stranger which flattereth with her words;

17. Which forsaketh the guide of her youth, and forgetteth the covenant of her God.

18. For her house inclineth unto death, and her paths unto the dead;

19. None that go unto her return again, neither take they hold of the paths of life.

vi. 24. To keep thee from the evil woman, from the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman.

xxiii. 14. The mouth of strange women is a deep pit: he that is abhorred of the Lord shall fall therein.

xxiii. 27. For a whore is a deep ditch; and a strange woman is a narrow pit.

28. She also lieth in wait as for a prey, and increaseth the transgressors among men.

21 For (x) the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD, and he pondereth all his goings.

(x) 2 Chr. xvi. 9. For the eyes of the Lord run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect towards him. Herein thou hast done foolishly; therefore from henceforth thou shalt have wars.

Job xxxi. 4. Doth not he see my ways, and count all my steps?

xxxiv. 21. For his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings.

Ps. xi. 4. The Lord is in his holy temple, the Lord's throne is in heaven: his eyes behold, his eyelids try, the children of men.

cxxxix. 1. O Lord, thou hast searched me, and knowest me.

2. Thou knowest my down-sitting and mine up-rising; thou understandest my thought afar off.

3. Thou compassest my path, and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

4. For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O Lord, thou knowest it altogether.

5. Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

6. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it.

7. Whither shall I go from thy Spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

8. If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there; if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there.

9. If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;

10. Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

11. If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me.

12. Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

Jer. xvii. 10. I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

xxiii. 24. Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the Lord. Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the Lord.

xxxii. 19. Great in counsel, and mighty in work: (for thine eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men; to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.)

Hos. vii. 2. And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are before my face.

Heb. iv. 13. Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked, and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

Rev. ii. 18. And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write: These thinks saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass.

23. And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts; and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

22 (y) His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be (z) holden with the cords of his sins.

(y) Ps. vii. 15. He made a pit, and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made.

16. His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate.

ix. 15. The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net which they hid is their own foot taken.

16. The Lord is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah.

Prov. i. 18. And they lay wait for their own blood; they lurk privily for their own lives.

31. Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.

xi. 3. The integrity of the upright shall guide them: but the perverseness of transgressors shall destroy them.

5. The righteousness of the perfect shall direct his way; but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.

Jer. ii. 19. Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know, therefore, and see, that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the Lord thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord God of hosts.

Gal. vi. 7. Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8. For he that soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit, shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

(z) Ec. vii. 26. And I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: whose pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her.

23 He (a) shall die without instruction: and (b) in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

(a) Job iv. 21. Doth not their excellency which is in them go away? they die, even without wisdom.

xxvi. 12. But if they obey not, they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.

(b) Ps. lxxiii. 12. So I gave them up unto their own heart's lust; and they walked in their own counsels.

Prov. xiv. 14. The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways; and a good man shall be satisfied from himself.

CHAPTER VI.

MY son, (a) if thou be surety for thy friend, if thou hast stricken thy hand with a stranger;

(a) Gen. xliiii. 9. I will be surety for him; of my hand shalt thou require him: if I bring him not unto thee, and set him before thee, then let me bear the blame for ever.

Job xvii. 3. Lay down now, put me in a surety with thee; who is he that will strike hands with me?

Philem. 18. If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that on mine account;

19. I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee, how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides.

Heb. vii. 22. By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament.

2 Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth.

3 Do this now, my son, and deliver thyself, (b) when thou art come into the hand of thy friend; (c) go, humble thyself, and make sure thy friend.

(b) 2 Sam. xxiv. 14. And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let us fall now into the hand of the Lord, (for his mercies are great,) and let me not fall into the hand of man.

2 Chr. xii. 5. Then came Shemaiah the prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah that were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said unto them, Thus saith the Lord, Ye have forsaken me, and therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.

Ps. xxxi. 8. And hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy: thou hast set my feet in a large room.

(c) Ex. x. 3. And Moses and Aaron came in unto Pharaoh, and said unto him, Thus saith the Lord God of the Hebrews, How long wilt thou refuse to humble thyself before me? Let my people go, that they may serve me.

2 Chr. xxxvi. 12. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord our God, and humbled not himself before Jeremiah the prophet, speaking from the mouth of the Lord.

James iv. 10. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

4 (d) Give not sleep to thine eyes, nor slumber to thine eyelids.

(d) Ps. cxxxii. 4. I will not give sleep to mine eyes, nor slumber to mine eyelids.

Ec. ix. 10. whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

Mark xiii. 35. Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh; at even, or at midnight, or at the cock-crowing, or in the morning;

36. Lest, coming suddenly, he find you sleeping.

5 Deliver thyself as a roe from VOL-III.

the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler.

6 ¶ Go (e) to the ant, (f) thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise:

(e) Job xii. 7. But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee.

8. Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee; and the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee.

Is. i. 3. The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider.

Matt. vi. 26. Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

(f) Matt. xxv. 26. His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed.

Rom. xii. 11. Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord.

Heb. vi. 12. That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

7 Which having (g) no guide, overseer, or ruler,

(g) Job xxxviii. 39. Wilt thou hunt the prey for the lion? or fill the appetite of the young lions,

40. When they couch in their dens, and abide in the covert, to lie in wait?

41. Who provideth for the raven his food? when his young ones cry unto God, they wander for lack of meat.

26. Doth the hawk fly by thy wisdom, and stretch her wings toward the south?

27. Doth the eagle mount up at thy command, and make her nest on high?

28. She dwelleth and abideth on the rock, upon the crag of the rock, and the strong place.

29. From thence she seeketh the prey, and her eyes behold afar off.

30. Her young ones also suck up blood: and where the slain are, there is she.

8 Provideth (h) her meat in the summer, and gathereth her food in the harvest.

(h) Prov. xxx. 25. The ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meat in the summer.

1 Tim. vi. 19. Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

9 (i) How long wilt thou sleep, O sluggard? (k) when wilt thou arise out of thy sleep?

(i) Jer. iv. 14. O Jerusalem, wash thy heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved: how long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee?

(k) Ps. xciv. 8. Understand, ye brutish among the people; and ye fools, when will ye be wise?

Jon. i. 6. So the ship-master came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

Rom. xiii. 11. And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

Eph. v. 14. Wherefore he saith, Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

10 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

11 So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth, and thy want as an armed man.

12 ¶ A (l) naughty person, a wicked man, (m) walketh with a froward mouth.

(l) 1 Sam. xvii. 28. And Eliab, his eldest brother, heard when he spake unto the men; and Eliab's anger was kindled against David, and he said, Why camest thou down hither? and with whom hast thou left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know thy pride, and the naughtiness of thy heart; for thou art come down that thou mightest see the battle.

James i. 21. Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

(m) Matt. xii. 34. O generation of vipers! how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

1 Tim. v. 13. And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also, and busy-bodies, speaking things which they ought not.

13 He (n) winketh with his eyes, he speaketh with his feet, he teacheth with his fingers;

(n) Job xv. 12. Why doth thy heart carry thee away? and what do thine eyes wink at?

* Ps. xxxv. 19. Let not them that are mine enemies wrongfully rejoice over me; neither let them wink with the eye that hate me without a cause.

14 Frowardness is in his heart, (o) he deviseth mischief continually; (p) he soweth discord.

(o) Ps. xxxvi. 4. He deviseth mischief upon his bed; he setteth himself in a way that is not good; he abhorreth not evil.

Is. xxxii. 7. The instruments also of the church are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even when the needy speaketh right.

Ez. xi. 2. Then said he unto me, Son of man, these are the men that devise mischief, and give wicked counsel, in this city.

Mic. ii. 1. Wo to them that devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light they practise it, because it is in the power of their hand.

(p) Prov. xxiii. 8. He that soweth iniquity shall reap vanity, and the rod of his anger shall fail.

Gal. vi. 7. Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

15 Therefore (q) shall his calamity come suddenly; suddenly shall (r) he be broken without remedy.

(q) Ps. lxxiii. 18. Surely thou didst set them in slippery places: thou castedst them down into destruction.

19. How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terror.

1 Thess. v. 3. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

(r) Is. xxx. 13. Therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant.

Jer. xix. 11. And shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Even so will I break this people, and this city, as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot be made whole again; and they shall bury them in Tophet, till there be no place else to bury.

16 ¶ These six things doth the LORD hate; yea, seven are (s) an abomination unto him:

(s) Deut. xviii. 10. There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch,

11. Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer.

12. For all that do these things are an abomination unto the Lord: and because of these abominations the Lord thy God doth drive them out from before thee.

xxiii. 18. Thou shalt not bring the hire of a whore, or the price of a dog, into the house of the Lord thy God for any vow: for even both these are abomination unto the Lord thy God.

xxv. 16. For all that do such things, and all that do unrighteously, are an abomination unto the Lord thy God.

17 A proud look, (t) a lying tongue, (u) and hands that shed innocent blood,

(t) Ps. cxx. 2. Deliver my soul, O Lord, from lying lips, and from a deceitful tongue.

3. What shall be given unto thee, or what shall be done unto thee, thou false tongue?

John viii. 44. Ye are of your father the devil, and the lust of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

Rev. xxii. 15. For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.

(u) 2 Kings xxiv. 4. And also for the innocent blood that he shed; for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; which the Lord would not pardon.

Is. i. 15. And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you; yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood.

18 An (x) heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, (y) feet that be swift in running to mischief,

(x) Gen. vi. 5. And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

Zech. viii. 17. And let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, saith the Lord.

(y) Is. liv. 7. Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths.

Rom. iii. 15. Their feet are swift to shed blood.

19 (z) A false witness that speaketh lies, and he (a) that soweth discord among brethren.

(z) Ex. xx. 16. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

xxiii. 1. Thou shalt not raise a false report: put not thy hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witness.

Ps. xxvii. 12. Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty.

Acts vi. 13. And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place and the law.

(a) Prov. xvi. 28. A froward man soweth strife; and a whisperer separateth chief friends.

xxii. 10. Cast out the scorner, and contention shall go out; yea, strife, and reproach shall cease.

xxvi. 20. Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out; so where there is no tale-bearer, the strife ceaseth.

20 ¶ My son, (b) keep thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

(b) Deut. xxi. 18. If a man have a stubborn and rebellious son, which will not obey the voice of his father, or the voice of his mother, and that, when they have chastened him, will not hearken unto them.

xxvii. 16. Cursed be he that setteth light by his father or his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen.

Prov. i. 8. My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

9. For they shall be as an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.

xxiii. 22. Hearken unto thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old.

xxx. 11. There is a generation that curseth their father, and doth not bless their mother.

Eph. vi. 1. Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

21 (c) Bind them continually upon thine heart, and tie them about thy neck.

(c) Ex. xiii. 16. And it shall be for a token upon thy hand, and for frontlets between thine eyes: for by strength of hand the Lord brought thee forth out of Egypt.

Deut. vi. 8. And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thy hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes.

2 Cor. iii. 3. Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God: not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.

22 When thou goest, it shall lead thee; when thou sleepest, it shall keep thee; and when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee.

23 For (d) the commandment is a lamp, and the law is light; (e) and reproofs of instruction are (f) the way of life;

(d) Ps. cxix. 105. Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

Is. viii. 20. To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.

2 Pet. i. 19. We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts.

(e) Lev. xix. 17. Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thy heart: thou shalt in anywise rebuke thy neighbour, and not suffer sin upon him.

Ps. cxli. 5. Let the righteous smite me; it shall be a kindness: and let him reprove me; it shall be an excellent oil, which shall not break my head: for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities.

(f) Prov. xv. 24. The way of life is above to the wise, that he may depart from hell beneath.

Jer. xxi. 8. And unto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the Lord; Behold, I set before you the way of life, and the way of death.

24 To keep thee from the evil woman, from the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman.

25 (g) Lust not after her beauty in thine heart; neither let her (h) take thee with her eyelids.

(g) 2 Sam. xi. 2. And it came to pass in an evening-tide, that David arose from off his bed, and walked upon the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he saw a woman washing herself; and the woman was very beautiful to look upon.

3. And David sent and inquired after the woman. And one said, Is not this Bath-sheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?

4. And David sent messengers, and took her: and she came in unto him, and he lay with her, (for she was purified from her uncleanness,) and she returned unto her house.

5. And the woman conceived, and sent and told David, and said, I am with child.

Matt. v. 28. But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her, hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

James i. 14. But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15. Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

(h) Cant. iv. 9. Thou hast ravished my heart, my sister, my spouse; thou hast ravished my heart with one of thine eyes, with one chain of thy neck.

Is. iii. 16. Moreover, the Lord saith, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched-forth necks, and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet.

26 For (i) by means of a whorish woman, a man is brought to (k) a piece of bread: and the adulteress will (l) hunt for the precious life.

(i) Luke xv. 13. And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

15. And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

(k) 1 Sam. ii. 36. And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left in thy house shall come and crouch to him for a piece of silver and a morsel of bread, and shall say, Put me, I pray thee, into one of the priest's offices, that I may eat a piece of bread.

(l) Gen. xxxix. 14. That she called unto the men of her house, and spake unto them, saying, See, he hath brought in a Hebrew unto us to mock us; he came in unto me to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice.

Ez. xiii. 18. And say, Thus saith the Lord God, Wo to the women that sew pillows to all arm-holes, and make kerchiefs upon the head of every statue, to hunt souls! Will ye hunt the souls of my people, and will ye save the souls alive that come unto you?

27 Can a man (m) take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burnt?

(m) Job xxxi. 9. If my heart have been deceived by a woman; or if I have laid wait at my neighbour's door;

10. Then let my wife grind unto another, and let others bow down upon her.

11. For this is an heinous crime; yea, it is an iniquity to be punished by the judges.

12. For it is a fire that consumeth to destruction, and would root out all my increase.

28 Can any one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burnt?

29 So (n) he that goeth in to his neighbour's wife; whosoever (o) toucheth her shall not be innocent.

(n) Lev. xx. 10. And the man that committeth adultery with another man's wife, even he that committeth adultery with his neighbour's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death.

2 Sam. xii. 10. Now, therefore, the sword shall never depart from thy house; because thou hast despised me, and hast taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife.

Jer. v. 8. They were as fed horses in the morning: every one neighed after his neighbour's wife.

Ez. xxii. 11. And one hath committed abomination with his neighbour's wife; and another hath lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law; and another in thee hath humbled his sister, his father's daughter.

(o) Gen. xxvi. 10. And Abimelech said, What is that thou hast done unto us? one of the people might lightly have lain with thy wife, and thou shouldst have brought guiltiness upon us.

11. And Abimelech charged all his people, saying; He that toucheth this man, or his wife, shall surely be put to death.

1 Cor. vii. 1. Now, concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

30 Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to satisfy his soul when he is hungry;

31 But (p) if he be found, he shall restore seven-fold; (q) he shall give all the substance of his house.

(p) Ez. xxii. 1. If a man shall steal an ox, or a sheep, and kill it, or sell it; he shall restore five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep.

2 Sam. xii. 6. And he shall restore the lamb four-fold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity.

Job xx. 18. That which he laboured for shall he restore, and shall not swallow it down: according to his substance shall the restitution be, and he shall not rejoice therein.

(q) Mat. xviii. 25. But, forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

32 But whoso committeth adultery with a woman, (r) lacketh understanding: he that doeth it (s) destroyeth his own soul.

(r) Prov. vii. 7. And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man void of understanding.

Jer. v. 21. Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding; which have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not.

Rom. i. 22. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,

23. And changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.

(s) Ez. xviii. 31. Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart, and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

Hos. xiii. 9. O Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself; but in me is thy help.

33 (t) A wound and dishonour shall he get; and his reproach shall not be wiped away.

(t) Ps. xxxviii. 1. O Lord, rebuke me not in thy wrath; neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

2. For thine arrows stick fast in me, and thy hand presseth me sore.

3. There is no soundness in my flesh, because of thine anger; neither is there any rest in my bones, because of my sin.

4. For mine iniquities are gone over my head; as a heavy burden they are too heavy for me.

5. My wounds stink, and are corrupt, because of my foolishness.

6. I am troubled; I am bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the day long.

7. For my loins are filled with a loathsome disease; and there is no soundness in my flesh.

8. I am feeble and sore broken: I have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart.

34 For (u) jealousy is the rage of a man: therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

(u) Num. v. 14. And the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be defiled: or if the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be not defiled.

Cant. viii. 6. Set me as a seal upon thy heart, as a seal upon thine arm: for love is strong as death; jealousy is cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame.

1 Cor. x. 22. Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he?

35 He will not regard any ransom; neither will he rest content, though thou givest many gifts.

CHAPTER VII.

MY son, keep my words, and lay up my commandments with thee.

2 Keep my commandments, and live; and my law (a) as the apple of thine eye.

(a) Deut. xxxii. 10. He found him in a desert land, and in the waste howling wilderness; he led him about, he instructed him, he kept him as the apple of his eye.

Ps. xvii. 8. Keep me as the apple of the eye; hide me under the shadow of thy wings.

Zech. ii. 8. For thus saith the Lord of hosts, After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you; for he that toucheth you, toucheth the apple of his eye.

3 Bind them upon thy fingers, write them upon the table of thine heart.

4 Say unto wisdom, (b) Thou art my sister; and call understanding thy kinswoman:

(b) Cant. viii. 1. O that thou wert as my brother, that sucked the breasts of my mother! when I should find thee without, I would kiss thee; yea, I should not be despised.

Math. xii. 49. And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!

50. For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

Luke xi. 27. And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.

28. But he said, Yea, rather blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

5 That (c) they may keep thee from the strange woman, from the stranger which flattereth with her words.

(c) Ps. xix. 7. The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul; the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

Prov. xxvii. 12. A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself: but the simple pass on, and are punished.

Rom. xvi. 19. For your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad, therefore, in your behalf: but yet I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil.

6 ¶ For (d) at the window of my house I looked through my case-ment,

(d) Gen. xxvi. 8. And it came to pass, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech, king of the Philistines, looked out at a window, and saw, and behold, Isaac was sporting with Rebekah his wife.

2 Sam. vi. 16. And as the ark of the Lord came into the city of David, Michal, Saul's daughter, looked through a window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the Lord; and she despised him in her heart.

7 And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man (e) void of understanding,

(e) Prov. vi. 32. But whoso committeth adultery with a woman, lacketh understanding: he that doeth it destroyeth his own soul.

xii. 11. He that tilleth his lands shall be satisfied with bread: but he that followeth vain persons is void of understanding.

Jer. iv. 22. For my people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

Matt. xv. 16. And Jesus said, Are ye also yet without understanding?

8 Passing through the street (f) near her corner; and he went the way to her house;

(f) Judg. xvi. 1. Then went Samson to Gaza, and saw there an harlot, and went in unto her.

1 Cor. vi. 18. Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication, sinneth against his own body.

Jude 23. And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.

9 In (g) the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night:

(g) Job xxiv. 13. They are of those that rebel against the light; they know not the ways thereof, nor abide in the paths thereof.

14. The murderer, rising with the light, killeth the poor and needy, and in the night is as a thief.

15. The eye also of the adulterer waiteth for the twilight, saying, No eye shall see me; and disguiseth his face.

Eph. v. 11. And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.

12. For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

10 And, behold, there met him a woman with (h) the attire of an harlot, and subtle of heart.

(h) Gen. xxxviii. 14. And she put her widow's garments off from her, and covered her with a veil, and wrapped herself, and sat in an open place, which is by the way to Timnath: for she saw that Shelah was grown, and she was not given unto him to wife.

15. When Judah saw her, he thought her to be an harlot; because she had covered her face.

2 Kings ix. 30. And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window.

Jer. iv. 30. And when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do? Though thou clothest thyself with crimson, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, though thou rentest thy face with painting, in vain shalt thou make thyself fair; thy lovers will despise thee, they will seek thy life.

11 (She is loud and stubborn;) (i) her feet abide not in her house:

(i) Gen. xviii. 9. And they said unto him, Where is Sarah thy wife? And he said, Behold, in the tent.

1 Tim. v. 13. And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also, and busy bodies, speaking things which they ought not.

Tit. ii. 5. To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

12 Now is she (k) without, now in the streets, and lieth in wait at every corner.)

(k) Jer. ii. 20. For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not transgress; when upon every high hill, and under every green tree, thou wanderest, playing the harlot.

iii. 2. Lift up thine eyes unto the high places, and see where thou hast not been lain with: in the ways hast thou sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness; and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms, and with thy wickedness.

Ez. xvi. 24. That thou hast also built unto thee an eminent place, and hast made thee an high place in every street.

25. Thou hast built thy high place at every head of the way, and hast made thy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredoms.

13 So (l) she caught him, and kissed him, and with an impudent face said unto him, (l) Gen. xxxix. 7. And it came to pass after these things, that his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph; and she said, Lie with me.

12. And she caught him by his garment, saying, Lie with me: and he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and got him out.

Ez. xvi. 33. They give gifts to all whores; but thou givest thy gifts to all thy lovers, and hirest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredom.

14 I have (m) peace-offerings with me; (n) this day have I paid my vows.

(m) Lev. vii. 15. And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace-offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten the same day that it is offered; he shall not leave any of it until the morning.

Deut. xii. 6. And hither ye shall bring your burnt-offerings, and your sacrifices, and your tithes, and heave-offerings of your hand, and your vows, and your free-will-offerings, and the firstlings of your herds and of your flocks:

7. And there ye shall eat before the Lord your God, and ye shall rejoice in all that ye put your hand unto, you and your households, wherein the Lord thy God hath blessed thee.

(n) John xviii. 28. Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment: and it was early: and they themselves went not into the judgment-hall, lest they should be defiled, but that they might eat the passover.

15 Therefore came I forth to meet thee, diligently to seek thy face; and I have found thee.

16 I have (o) decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with (p) fine linen of Egypt.

(o) Cant. i. 16. Behold, thou art fair, my beloved, yea, pleasant: also our bed is green.

(p) 1 Kings x. 28. And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a price.

Is. xix. 9. Moreover, they that work in fine flax, and they that weave net-works, shall be confounded.

Ez. xxvii. 7. Fine linen with brodered work from Egypt was that which thou spreadest forth to be thy sail: blue and purple from the isles of Elishah was that which covered thee.

17 I have (q) perfumed my bed (r) with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

(q) Is. lvii. 9. And thou wentest to the king with ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers far off, and didst debase thyself even unto hell.

(r) Ps. xlv. 8. All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.

Cant. iv. 13. Thy plants are an orchard of pomegranates, with pleasant fruits; camphire, with spikenard;

14. Spikenard and saffron; calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense; myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices.

18 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning: let us solace ourselves with loves.

19 For (s) the goodman is not at home, (t) he is gone a long journey:

(s) Matt. xxiv. 43. But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up.

(t) Matt. xxiv. 48. But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming.

Luke xii. 45. But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the men-servants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken;

46. The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.

20 He hath taken a bag of money with him, and will come home at the hour appointed.

21 (u) With her much fair speech she caused him to yield, with the flattering of her lips she forced him.

(u) Judg. xvi. 15. And she said unto him, How canst thou say, I love thee, when thy heart is not with me? thou hast mocked me these three times, and hast not told me wherein thy great strength lieth.

16. And it came to pass, when she pressed him daily with her words, and urged him, so that his soul was vexed unto death,

17. That he told her all his heart, and said unto her, There hath not come a razor upon my head: for I have been a Nazarite unto God from my mother's womb: if I be shaven, then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man.

Ps. xii. 2. They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips, and with a double heart, do they speak.

22 He goeth after her straight-way, as an ox goeth to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the stocks;

23 Till (x) a dart strike through his liver; (y) as a bird hasteth to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life.

(x) Num. xxv. 8. And he went after the man of Israel into the tent, and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her belly. So the plague was stayed from the children of Israel.

9. And those that died in the plague were twenty and four thousand.

(y) Ec. ix. 12. For man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

24 ¶ Hearken unto me now therefore, (z) O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth :

(z) 1 Cor. iv. 14. I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you.
15. For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for, in Christ Jesus, I have begotten you through the gospel.

Gal. iv. 19. My little children, of whom I travail in birth again, until Christ be formed in you.

1 John ii. 1. My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous.

25 Let not (a) thine heart decline to her ways, (b) go not astray in her paths :

(a) Prov. iv. 14. Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men.

15. Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away.

Matt. v. 28. But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her, hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

(b) Ps. cxix. 176. I have gone astray like a lost sheep: seek thy servant; for I do not forget thy commandments.

Is. liii. 6. All we, like sheep; have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

26 For she hath cast down many wounded; yea, many strong men have been slain by her.

27 Her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death.

CHAPTER VIII.

DOOTH (a) not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice?

(a) Is. lv. 1. Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

2. Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread, and your labour for that which satisfieth not? Hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

3. Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

Matt. iii. 3. For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

iv. 17. From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

John vii. 37. In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

2 She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths.

3 She (b) crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors :

(b) Matt. xxii. 9. Go ye, therefore, into the highways; and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

John xviii. 20. Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world: I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

Acts v. 20. Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.

4 Unto (c) you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man.

(c) Ps. xlix. 1. Hear this, all ye people; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world:

2. Both low and high, rich and poor together.

Matt. xi. 15. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

2 Cor. v. 19. To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20. Now then, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

Col. i. 28. Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus.

5 O ye simple, understand wisdom: and, ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.

6 Hear; (d) for I will speak of excellent things; and (e) the opening of my lips shall be right things.

(d) Ps. xlix. 3. My mouth shall speak of wisdom; and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.

1 Cor. ii. 6. Howbeit, we speak wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought:

7. But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world, unto our glory.

(e) Job xxxiii. 1. Wherefore, Job, I pray thee, hear my speeches, and hearken to all my words.

2. Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken in my mouth.

3. My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart; and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.

7 For (f) my mouth shall speak truth; and wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

(f) Job xxxvi. 4. For truly my words shall not be false: he that is perfect in knowledge is with thee.

John i. 17. For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

xiv. 6. Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father but by me.

Rev. iii. 14. And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write: These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true Witness, the beginning of the creation of God.

8 (g) All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing froward or perverse in them.

(g) Is. xlv. 23. I have sworn by myself, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, That unto me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear.

Ixiii. 1. Who is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

9 They are (h) all plain to him that understandeth, and right to them that find knowledge.

(h) Ps. xix. 7. The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

Is. xxxv. 8. And a highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called, The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein.

Matt. xiii. 11. He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

1 Cor. ii. 14. But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15. But he that is spiritual, judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.

10 ¶ Receive my instruction, and not silver, and knowledge rather than choice gold.

11 For (i) wisdom is better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.

(i) Job xxviii. 15. It cannot be gotten for gold; neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.

16. It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx or the sapphire.

17. The gold and the crystal cannot equal it: and the exchange of it shall not be for jewels of fine gold.

18. No mention shall be made of coral, or of pearls: for the price of wisdom is above rubies.

19. The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it; neither shall it be valued with pure gold.

Matt. xvi. 26. For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

12 (k) I Wisdom dwell with Prudence, and find out (l) knowledge of witty inventions.

(k) Ps. civ. 24. O Lord, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches.

Rom. xi. 33. O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

Eph. i. 8. Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence.

iii. 10. To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known, by the church, the manifold wisdom of God.

Col. ii. 3. In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

(l) Ex. xxxi. 3. And I have filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship,

4. To devise cunning works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass,

5. And in cutting of stones, to set them, and in carving of timber, to work in all manner of workmanship.

6. And I, behold, I have given with him Aholiab, the son of Ahisamech, of the tribe of Dan; and in the hearts of all that are wise-hearted, I have put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded thee.

Is. xxviii. 26. For his God doth instruct him to discretion, and doth teach him.

13 (m) The fear of the LORD is to hate evil: (n) pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate.

(m) Ps. xcvi. 10. Ye that love the Lord, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.

Amos v. 15. Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: it may be that the Lord God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph.

Rom. xii. 9. Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

(n) Ps. v. 4. For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness; neither shall evil dwell with thee.

Zech. viii. 17. And let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and love no false oath; for all these are things that I hate, saith the Lord.

1 Pet. v. 5. Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder: yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

14 (o) Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom: I am understanding; (p) I have strength.

(o) Is. ix. 6. For unto us a child is born, unto us a Son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

xl. 14. With whom took he counsel, and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of judgment, and taught him knowledge, and showed to him the way of understanding.

Rom. xi. 34. For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?

(p) Prov. xxiv. 5. A wise man is strong; yea, a man of knowledge increaseth strength.

Ec. vii. 19. Wisdom strengtheneth the wise more than ten mighty men which are in the city.

ix. 16. Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless, the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

17. The words of wise men are heard in quiet, more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.

18. Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner destroyeth much good.

15 (q) By me kings reign, and princes (r) decree justice.

(q) 1 Sam. ix. 17. And when Samuel saw Saul, the Lord said unto him, Behold the man whom I spake to thee of! this same shall reign over my people.

xvii. 1. And the Lord said unto Samuel, How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? fill thy horn with oil, and go; I will send thee to Jesse, the Bethlehemite: for I have provided me a king among his sons.

1 Chr. xxviii. 5. And of all my sons (for the Lord hath given me many sons) he hath chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the Lord over Israel.

Jer. xxvii. 5. I have made the earth, the man, and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power, and by my out-stretched arm, and have given it unto whom it seemed meet unto me.

6. And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

7. And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the very time of his land come; and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him.

Matt. xxviii. 18. And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

Rev. xix. 16. And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

(r) 1 Kings iii. 9. Give therefore thy servant an understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy so great a people?

28. And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and they feared the king: for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him, to do judgment.

Jer. xxxiii. 15. In those days, and at that time, will I cause the branch of righteousness to grow up unto David; and he shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land.

16 By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.

17 I (s) love them that love me; and (t) those that seek me early shall find me.

(s) 1 Sam. ii. 30. Wherefore the Lord God of Israel saith, I said indeed that thy house, and the house of thy father, should walk before me for ever: but now the Lord saith, Be it far from me; for them that honour me I will honour, and they that despise me shall be lightly esteemed.

Ps. xci. 14. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

John xiv. 21. He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my father; and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

23. Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

xvi. 27. For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God.

1 John iv. 19. We love him, because he first loved us.

(t) Ec. xii. 1. Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them.

Is. lv. 6. Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near.

Matt. vi. 33. But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

Mark x. 14. But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of God.

18 (u) Riches and honour are with me, yea, (x) durable riches and righteousness.

(u) Prov. iii. 16. Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand riches and honour.

James ii. 5. Hearken, my beloved brethren, hath not God chosen the poor of this world, rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?

(x) Ps. xxxix. 6. Surely every man walketh in a vain show: surely they are disquieted in vain; he heareth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

Matt. vi. 19. Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt; and where thieves break through and steal:

20. But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal.

33. Sell that ye have, and give alms: provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.

Eph. iii. 8. Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ.

Rev. iii. 18. I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eye-salve, that thou mayest see.

19 My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold; and my revenue than choice silver.

20 (y) I lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment:

(y) Ps. xxiii. 3. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

xxxii. 8. I will instruct thee, and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye.

Is. xlix. 10. They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun smite them; for he that hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall he guide them.

John x. 3. To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

Rev. vii. 17. For the Lamb, which is in the midst of the throne, shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

21 That I may cause those that love me (z) to inherit substance; and I will (a) fill their treasures.

(z) Gen. xv. 14. And also that nation, whom they shall serve, will I judge; and afterward shall they come out with great substance.

1 Sam. ii. 8. He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth up the beggar from the dung-hill, to set them among princes, and to make them inherit the throne of glory: for the pillars of the earth are the Lord's, and he hath set the world upon them.

Rom. viii. 17. And if children, then heirs, heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

Heb. x. 34. For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.

1 Pet. i. 4. To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you.

(a) Ps. xvi. 11. Thou wilt show me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

Eph. iii. 19. And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God.

Rev. xxi. 7. He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

22 ¶ The LORD (b) possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old.

(b) Prov. iii. 19. The Lord by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he established the heavens.

John i. 1. In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

2. The same was in the beginning with God.

Col. i. 17. And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.

23 I was (c) set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.

(c) Mic. v. 2. But thou, Beth-lehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be Ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting.

John xvii. 24. Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.

1 John i. 1. That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the word of life;

2. For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and show unto you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us.

24 When there were no depths, (d) I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water.

(d) Ps. ii. 7. I will declare the decree: the Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my son; this day have I begotten thee.

John i. 14. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

iii. 16. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

Heb. i. 5. For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee?

6. And again, when he bringeth in the first-begotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him.

1 John iv. 9. In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

25 Before (e) the mountains were settled, before the hills was I brought forth.

(e) Job xv. 7. Art thou the first man that was born? or wast thou made before the hills?

xxxviii. 4. Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding.

5. Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it?

6. Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? or who laid the corner-stone thereof?

Ps. xc. 2. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

cii. 25. Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

26. They shall perish, but thou shalt endure; yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed:

27. But thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end.

Heb. i. 10. And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thy hands.

26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world.

27 When (f) he prepared the heavens, I was there: when he set a compass upon the face of the depth:

(f) Ps. xxxiii. 6. By the word of the Lord were the heavens made: and all the hosts of them by the breath of his mouth.

ciii. 19. The Lord hath prepared his throne in the heavens; and his kingdom ruleth over all.

cxv. 5. To him that by wisdom made the heavens: for his mercy endureth for ever.

Jer. x. 12. He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom; and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion.

Col. i. 16. For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him and for him.

28 When he established the clouds above: when he strengthened the fountains of the deep:

29 When (g) he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment: when he appointed the foundations of the earth:

(g) Gen. i. 9. And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.

10. And God called the dry land Earth, and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.

Job xxxviii. 8. Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it brake forth as if it had issued out of the womb?

9. When I made the cloud the garment thereof, and thick darkness a swaddling-band for it,

10. And brake up for it my decreed place, and set bars and doors,

11. And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further; and here shall thy proud waves be stayed?

Ps. xxxiii. 7. He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap: he layeth up the depth in store-houses.

civ. 9. Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over, that they turn not again to cover the earth.

Jer. v. 22. Fear ye not me? saith the Lord: will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the bound of the sea, by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it; and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it?

30 Then I was by him, as (h) one brought up with him: and (i) I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him;

(h) John i. 18. No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

xvi. 28. I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

(i) Is. xlii. 1. Behold my servant, whom I uphold; mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth: I have put my Spirit upon him: he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles.

Math. iii. 17. And, lo, a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

xvii. 5. While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and, behold, a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.

Col. i. 13. Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son.

31 Rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth; (k) and my delights were with the sons of men.

(k) Ps. xvi. 3. But to the saints that are in the earth, and to the excellent, in whom is all my delight.

xl. 6. Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire; mine ears hast thou opened: burnt-offering and sin-offering hast thou not required.

7. Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me;

8. I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart.

John iv. 34. Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.

xiii. 1. Now before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.

2 Cor. viii. 9. For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye, through his poverty, might be rich.

32 Now therefore hearken unto me, O ye children; (l) for blessed are they that keep my ways.

(l) Ps. cxix. 1. Blessed are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the Lord.

2. Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, and that seek him with the whole heart.

cxviii. 1. Blessed is every one that feareth the Lord; that walketh in his ways.

2. For thou shalt eat the labour of thy hands: happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee.

Luke xi. 28. But he said, Yea, rather blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

33 (m) Hear instruction, and be wise, and (n) refuse it not.

(m) Prov. i. 8. My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother.

Is. lv. 1. Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money, and without price.

2. Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

3. Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

Iom. x. 16. But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report?

17. So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

(n) Ps. lxxxi. 11. But my people would not hearken to my voice: and Israel would none of me.

12. So I gave them up unto their own hearts' lust; and they walked in their own counsels.

Heb. xii. 25. See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven.

34 Blessed is the man that heareth me, (o) watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.

(o) Ps. xxvii. 4. One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to inquire in his temple.

lxxxiv. 10. For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a door-keeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

xcii. 13. Those that be planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God.

35 For (p) whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain (q) favour of the LORD.

(p) Prov. i. 33. But whoso hearkeneth unto me, shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.

iii. 13. Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding:

14. For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.

15. She is more precious than rubies: and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.

16. Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand, riches and honour.

17. Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.

18. She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her; and happy is every one that retaineth her.

John xiv. 6. Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father but by me.

Col. iii. 3. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

1 John v. 11. And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

12. He that hath the Son, hath life; and he that hath not the Son, hath not life.

(q) Eph. i. 6. To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved.

36 But (r) he that sinneth against me, wrongeth his own soul; (s) all they that hate me love death.

(r) John iii. 19. And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

Acts xiii. 46. Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles.

(s) Ez. xviii. 31. Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

xxxiii. 11. Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way, and live: turn ye, turn ye, from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

John xv. 23. He that hateth me hateth my Father also.

24. If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.

1 Cor. xvi. 22. If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema, Maranatha.

CHAPTER IX.

WISDOM hath builded her house, she hath hewn out her seven pillars:

2 She hath (a) killed her beasts; she hath mingled her wine; she hath also furnished her table:

(a) Matt. xxii. 4. Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

3 She hath sent forth her maidens: (b) she crieth upon the high-est places of the city,

(b) John xviii. 20. Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world, I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

4 Whoso is (c) simple, let him turn in hither: as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,

(c) Ps. xix. 7. The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

cxix. 130. The entrance of thy words giveth light; it giveth understanding unto the simple.

5 Come, (d) eat of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled.

(d) Cant. v. 1. I am come into my garden, my sister, my spouse: I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honey-comb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk; eat, O friends; drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved.

Is. lv. 1. Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money, and without price.

2. Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

Matt. xxvi. 26. And, as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body.

27. And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it:

28. For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

6 (e) Forsake the foolish, and live; and go (f) in the way of understanding.

(e) Ps. cxix. 15. Depart from me, ye evil-doers: for I will keep the commandments of my God.

Acts ii. 40. And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation.

2 Cor. vi. 17. Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you.

Rev. xviii. 4. And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

(f) Matt. vii. 13. Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:

14. Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

7 ¶ He that reproveth a scorner getteth to himself shame; and he that rebuketh a wicked man, getteth himself a blot.

8 (g) Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: (h) rebuke a wise man, and he will love thee.

(g) 1 Kings xxii. 8. And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, Micaiah, the son of Imlah, by whom we may inquire of the Lord; but I hate him: for he doth not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

Matt. vii. 6. Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

(h) Ps. cxli. 5. Let the righteous smite me, it shall be a kindness; and let him reprove me, it shall be an excellent oil which shall not break my head: for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities.

9 (i) Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, and he will increase in learning.

(i) Matt. xiii. 11. He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

12. For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath.

2 Pet. iii. 18. But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory, both now and for ever. Amen.

10 (h) The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.

(k) Job xxviii. 28. And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom, and to depart from evil is understanding.

Ps. cxi. 10. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments; his praise endureth for ever.

Ec. xii. 13. Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter. Fear God, and keep his commandments; for this is the whole duty of man.

11 For by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased.

12 (l) If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise for thyself: but if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it.

(i) Job xxii. 2. Can a man be profitable unto God, as he that is wise may be profitable unto himself?

21. Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace; thereby good shall come unto thee.

13 ¶ A foolish woman is clamorous; she is simple, and knoweth nothing.

14 For she sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat in the high places of the city,

15 To call passengers who go right on their ways:

16 Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: and as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him, 17 Stolen waters are sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant.

18 But (m) he knoweth not that the dead are there; and that her guests are in the depths of hell.

(m) Ps. lxxxii. 5. They know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in darkness: all the foundations of the earth are out of course.

CHAPTER X.

THE proverbs of Solomon. A wise son maketh a glad father; but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.

2 (a) Treasures of wickedness profit nothing; but righteousness delivereth from death.

(a) Is. x. 3. And what will ye do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory?

Zeph. i. 18. Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the Lord's wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

Luke xvi. 22. And it came to pass that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;

23. And in hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

James v. 1. Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2. Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten.

3. Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days.

3 The LORD (b) will not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish; (c) but he casteth away the substance of the wicked.

(b) Job v. 20. In famine he shall redeem thee from death; and in war from the power of the sword.

Ps. xxxiii. 19. To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.

xxxiii. 16. He shall dwell on high; his place of defence shall be the munitions of rocks; bread shall be given him, his waters shall be sure.

Luke xii. 22. And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23. The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

24. Consider the ravens, for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have store-house nor barn; and God feedeth them. How much more are ye better than the fowls?

31. But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you.

(c) Job xx. 5. That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment.

6. Though his excellency mount up to the heavens, and his head reach unto the clouds;

7. Yet he shall perish for ever like his own dung; they which have seen him shall say, Where is he?

8. He shall fly away as a dream, and shall not be found; yea, he shall be chased away as a vision of the night.

15. He hath swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again: God shall cast them out of his belly.

Hab. ii. 6. Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, Wo to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself with thick clay!

7. Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them?

8. Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

Zeph. i. 18. Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the Lord's wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

4 He (d) becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand; but the hand of the diligent maketh rich.

(d) Ec. x. 18. By much slothfulness the building decayeth; and through idleness of the hands the house droppeth through.

John vi. 27. Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed.

Heb. vi. 11. And we desire that every one of you do show the same diligence, to the full assurance of hope unto the end;

12. That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

5 He that (e) gathereth in summer, is a wise son; but he that sleepeth in harvest, is (f) a son that causeth shame.

(e) Prov. xxx. 25. The ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meat in the summer.

(f) Prov. xvii. 2. A wise servant shall have rule over a son that causeth shame; and shall have part of the inheritance among the brethren.

xix. 26. He that wasteth his father, and chaseth away his mother, is a son that causeth shame and bringeth reproach.

6 (g) Blessings are upon the head of the just; but (h) violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

(g) Deut. xxviii. 2. And all these blessings shall come on thee, and overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God.

Job xxix. 13. The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me; and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.

(h) Ps. cvii. 42. The righteous shall see it, and rejoice; and all iniquity shall stop her mouth.

Rom. iii. 19. Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law; that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

7 The (i) memory of the just is blessed; but (k) the name of the wicked shall rot.

(i) 1 Kings xi. 36. And unto his son will give one tribe, that David my servant may have a light always before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen me to put my name there.

2 Kings xix. 34. For I will defend this city to save it, for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.

Ps. cxii. 6. Surely he shall not be moved for ever: the righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance.

Mark xiv. 9. Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

Luke i. 48. For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

(k) Job xviii. 17. His remembrance shall perish from the earth, and he shall have no name in the street.

Ps. ix. 5. Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destroyed the wicked, thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.

6. O thou enemy! destructions are come to a perpetual end; and thou hast destroyed cities; their memorial is perished with them.

cix. 13. Let his posterity be cut off; and in the generation following let their name be blotted out.

15. Let them be before the Lord continually, that he may cut off the memory of them from the earth.

Ec. viii. 10. And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city, where they had so done. This is also vanity.

8 The (l) wise in heart will receive commandments; but a prating fool shall fall.

(l) Ps. cxix. 34. Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart.

Prbv. xiv. 8. The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way: but the folly of fools is deceit.

9 He (m) that walketh uprightly, walketh surely; (n) but he that perverteth his ways shall be known.

(m) Ps. xxv. 21. Let integrity and uprightness preserve me; for I wait on thee.

Is. xxxiii. 15. He that walketh righteously, and speaketh uprightly; he that despiseth the gain of oppressions, that shaketh his hands from holding of bribes, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of blood, and shutteth his eyes from seeing evil;

16. He shall dwell on high; his place shall be the munitions of rocks; bread shall be given him, his waters shall be sure.

(n) 1 Cor. iv. 5. Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then shall every man have praise of God.

10 He (o) that winketh with the eye causeth sorrow; but a prating fool shall fall.

(o) Job xv. 12. Why doth thine heart carry thee away, and what do thine eyes wink at?

Ps. xxxv. 19. Let not them that are mine enemies wrongfully rejoice over me; neither let them wink with the eye that hate me without a cause.

11 The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life; but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

12 Hatred stirreth up strifes; but (p) love covereth all sins.

(p) 1 Cor. xiii. 4. Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself; is not puffed up.

James v. 20. Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins.

1 Pet. iv. 8. And above all things, have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins.

13 In (q) the lips of him that hath understanding wisdom is found; but a rod is for the back of him that is void of understanding.

(q) Ec. x. 12. The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.

Is. i. 4. The Lord God hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning; he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned.

Luke iv. 22. And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this Joseph's son?

14 Wise men lay up knowledge; but the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

15 The (r) rich man's wealth is his strong city: the destruction of the poor is their poverty.

lii. 7. Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.

Jer. ix. 23. Thus saith the Lord, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches.

16 The (s) labour of the righteous tendeth to life; (t) the fruit of the wicked to sin.

(s) Is. iii. 10. Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him; for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

John vi. 27. Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed.

1 Cor. xv. 58. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

(t) Is. iii. 11. Wo unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him; for the reward of his hands shall be given him.

Rom. vi. 23. For the wages of sin is death: but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

17 He is in (u) the way of life that keepeth instruction; but (x) he that refuseth reproof erreth.

(u) Luke xi. 28. But he said, Yea, rather blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

Heb. ii. 1. Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.

(x) Heb. xii. 25. See that ye refuse not him that speaketh: for if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven.

18 He (y) that hideth hatred with lying lips, and he (z) that uttereth a slander, is a fool.

(y) 2 Sam. iii. 27. And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gate, to speak with him quietly; and smote him there under the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother.

xx. 9. And Joab said to Amasa, Art thou in health, my brother? And Joab took Amasa by the beard, with the right hand to kiss him.

10. But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand: so he smote him therewith in the fifth rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and struck him not again, and he died. So Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba, the son of Bichiri.

Ps. v. 9. For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; their inward part is very wickedness; their throat is an open sepulchre; they flatter with their tongue.

lv. 21. The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, but war was in his heart: his words were softer than oil, yet were they drawn swords.

Luke xx. 20. And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.

21. And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God truly.

l. 20. Thou sittest and speakest against thy brother; thou slanderest thine own mother's son.

ci. 5. Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: him that hath an high look and a proud heart will not I suffer.

19 In (a) the multitude of words there wanteth not sin; (b) but he that refraineth his lips is wise.

(a) Ec. v. 3. For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; and a fool's voice is known by multitude of words.

x. 13. The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness; and the end of his talk is mischievous madness.

14. A fool also is full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him, who can tell him?

(b) Ps. xxxix. 1. I said, I will take heed to my ways, that I sin not with my tongue; I will keep my mouth with a bridle while the wicked is before me.

James i. 19. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath.

20 The tongue of the just is as choice silver: (c) the heart of the wicked is little worth.

(c) Gen. vi. 5. And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

viii. 21. And the Lord smelled a sweet savour: and the Lord said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake; for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth: neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done.

Jer. xvii. 9. The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?

21 The lips of the righteous (d) feed many; but (e) fools die for want of wisdom.

(d) Job iv. 3. Behold, thou hast instructed many, and thou hast strengthened the weak hands.

4. Thy words have upholden him that was falling, and thou hast strengthened the feeble knees.

xxix. 21. Unto me men gave ear, and waited and kept silence at my counsel.

22. After my words they spake not again; and my speech dropped upon them.

Ps. xxxvii. 30. The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgment.

Ec. xii. 9. And moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs.

10. The preacher sought to find out acceptable words; and that which was written was upright, even words of truth.

Jer. iii. 15. And I will give you pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding.

xv. 16. Thy words were found, and I did eat them; and thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart: for I am called by thy name, O Lord God of hosts.

1 Pet. v. 2. Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind.

(e) Hos. iv. 6. My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

22 The blessing of the LORD, (f) it maketh rich, and (g) he addeth no sorrow with it.

(f) Gen. xii. 2. And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing.

xiii. 2. And Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold.

xxiv. 35. And the Lord hath blessed my master greatly, and he is become great; and he hath given him flocks, and herds, and silver, and gold, and men-servants, and maid-servants, and camels, and asses.

xxvi. 12. Then Isaac sowed in that land, and received in the same year an hundred-fold, and the Lord blessed him.

Deut. viii. 17. And thou say in thine heart, My power, and the might of mine hand, hath gotten me this wealth.

18. But thou shalt remember the Lord thy God: for it is he that giveth thee power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant, which he sware unto thy fathers, as it is this day.

1 Sam. ii. 7. The Lord maketh poor, and maketh rich: he bringeth low, and lifteth up.

8. He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth up the beggar from the dung-hill, to set them among princes, and to make them inherit the throne of glory: for the pillars of the earth are the Lord's, and he hath set the world upon them.

Ps. cvii. 38. He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly, and suffereth not their cattle to decrease.

(g) 2 Kings v. 26. And he said unto him, Went not mine heart with thee, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and olive-yards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and men-servants, and maid-servants?

27. The leprosy, therefore, of Naaman shall cleave unto thee, and unto thy seed for ever. And he went out from his presence a leper as white as snow.

falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it, with the timber thereof, and the stones thereof.

23 It is as sport to a fool to do mischief; but a man of understanding hath wisdom.

24 The (h) fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him; but (i) the desire of the righteous shall be granted.

(h) Job iii. 25. For the thing which I greatly desire is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of is come unto me.

xv. 21. A dreadful sound is in his ears: in prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him.

Heb. x. 27. But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

(i) Ps. xxi. 2. Thou hast given him his heart's desire; and hast not withholden the request of his lips. Selah.

xxxvii. 4. Delight thyself also in the Lord; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

cxlv. 19. He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them.

Matt. v. 6. Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness; for they shall be filled.

John xiv. 18. I will not leave you comfortless; I will come to you.

xvi. 24. Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.

25 As (k) the whirlwind passeth, so is the wicked no more: but the righteous is (l) an everlasting foundation.

(k) Job xxvii. 19. The rich man shall lie down, but he shall not be gathered: he openeth his eyes, and he is not.

20. Terrors take hold on him as waters, a tempest stealeth him away in the night.

21. The east wind carrieth him away, and he departeth, and as a storm, hurleth him out of his place.

Ps. xxxvii. 9. For evil-doers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the Lord they shall inherit the earth.

10. For yet a little while and the wicked shall not be; yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

lviii. 9. Before your pots can feel the thorns, he shall take them away as with a whirlwind, both living and in his wrath.

Prov. i. 27. When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you.

Is. xl. 24. Yea, they shall not be planted; yea, they shall not be sown; yea, their stock shall not take root in the earth: and he shall also blow upon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall take them away as stubble.

(l) Ps. xv. 5. He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

Matt. vii. 24. Therefore, whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock;

25. And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.

Matt. xvi. 18. And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter; and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

Eph. ii. 20. And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner-stone.

1 Tim. vi. 19. Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

2 Tim. ii. 19. Nevertheless, the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

26 As (m) vinegar to the teeth, and (n) as smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to them that send him.

(m) Prov. xxv. 13. As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to them that send him; for he refresheth the soul of his masters.

20. As he that taketh away a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar upon nitre; so is he that singeth songs to an heavy heart.

(n) Is. lxv. 5. Which say, Stand by thyself, come not near to me; for I am holier than thou. These are a smoke in my nose, a fire that burneth all the day.

27 The (o) fear of the LORD prolongeth days; but (p) the years of the wicked shall be shortened.

(o) Ps. xxi. 4. He asked life of thee, and thou gavest it him, even length of days for ever and ever.

xcv. 16. With long life will I satisfy him, and show him my salvation.

Prov. iii. 2. For length of days, and long life, and peace, shall they add to thee.

ix. 11. For by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased.

(p) Job xv. 32. It shall be accomplished before his time, and his branch shall not be green.

33. He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine, and shall cast off his flower as the olive.

xxii. 15. Hast thou marked the old way which wicked men have trodden;

16. Which were cut down out of time, whose foundation was overflowed with a flood.

Ps. lv. 23. But thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction: bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days; but I will trust in thee.

Ec. vii. 17. Be not over-much wicked, neither be thou foolish: why shouldest thou die before thy time?

Jer. xvii. 11. As the partridge sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so he that getteth riches and not by right, shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be a fool.

28 The (q) hope of the righteous shall be gladness; (r) but the expectation of the wicked shall perish.

(q) Ps. xvi. 9. Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth; my flesh also shall rest in hope.

Rom. xii. 12. Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer.

(r) Job viii. 13. So are the paths of all that forget God; and the hypocrite's hope shall perish.
xi. 20. But the eyes of the wicked shall fail, and they shall not escape, and their hope shall be as the giving up of the ghost.

29 The (s) way of the LORD is strength to the upright; (t) but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

(s) Ps. lxxxiv. 17. They go from strength to strength; every one of them in Zion appeareth before God.

Is. xl. 31. But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary, and they shall walk and not faint.

Zech. x. 12. And I will strengthen them in the Lord; and they shall walk up and down in his name, saith the Lord.

Phil. iv. 13. I can do all things through Christ, which strengtheneth me.

(t) Job xxxi. 3. Is not destruction to the wicked? and a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity.

Ps. i. 6. For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous; but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Prov. xxi. 15. It is joy to the just to do judgment: but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

30 The righteous shall (u) never be removed; but (x) the wicked shall not inhabit the earth.

(u) Ps. xvi. 8. I have set the Lord always before me: because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

xxxvii. 28. For the Lord loveth judgment, and forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved for ever: but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.

29. The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever.

cxii. 6. Surely he shall not be moved for ever: the righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance.

cxv. 1. They that trust in the Lord shall be as Mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.

2 Pet. i. 10. Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure; for if ye do these things ye shall never fall:

11. For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

(x) Ps. xxxvii. 9. For evil-doers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the Lord they shall inherit the earth.

10. For yet a little while and the wicked shall not be; yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

22. For such as be blessed of him shall inherit the earth; and they that be cursed of him shall be cut off.

lii. 5. God shall likewise destroy thee for ever: he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling-place, and root thee out of the land of the living. Selah.

Mic. ii. 9. The women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their children have ye taken away my glory for ever.

10. Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy you even with a sore destruction.

31 The (y) mouth of the just bringeth forth wisdom; but (z) the froward tongue shall be cut out.

(y) Ps. xxxvii. 30. The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgment.

(z) Ps. xxxi. 18. Let the lying lips be put to silence; which speak grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.

lxiii. 11. But the king shall rejoice in God, every one that sweareth by him shall glory: but the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

cx. 3. What shall be given unto thee? or what shall be done unto thee, thou false tongue?

4. Sharp arrows of the mighty, with coals of juniper.

32 The lips of the righteous (a) know what is acceptable; (b) but the mouth of the wicked speaketh frowardness.

(a) Ec. xii. 10. The preacher sought to find out acceptable words; and that which was written was upright, even words of truth.

Dan. iv. 27. Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by showing mercy to the poor; if it may be a lengthening of thy tranquillity.

(b) Prov. xii. 6. The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood: but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them.

18. There is that speaketh like the piercings of a sword: but the tongue of the wise is health.

xv. 2. The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright: but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness.

28. And the heart of the righteous studieth to answer: but the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things.

CHAPTER XI.

(a) FALSE balance is abomination to the LORD; but a just weight is his delight.

(a) Lev. xix. 35. Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in mete-yard, in weight, or in measure.

36. Just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin, shall ye have: I am the Lord your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt.

Deut. xxv. 13. Thou shalt not have in thy bag divers weights, a great and a small.

14. Thou shalt not have in thine house divers measures, a great and a small.

15. But thou shalt have a perfect and just weight, a perfect and just measure shalt thou have; that thy days may be lengthened in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

16. For all that do such things, and all that do unrighteously, are an abomination unto the Lord thy God.

Hos. xii. 7. He is a merchant, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to oppress.

Amos viii. 5. Saying, When will the new-moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and falsifying the balances by deceit?

6. That we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat?

Mic. vi. 10. Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is abominable?

11. Shall I count them pure with the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights?

2 When (b) pride cometh, then cometh shame; (c) but with the lowly is wisdom.

(b) Prov. xvi. 18. Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.

19. Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.

xviii. 12. Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, and before honour is humility.

Luke xiv. 8. When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room, lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him:

9. And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

10. But, when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

11. For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

(c) Prov. xv. 33. The fear of the Lord is the instruction of wisdom; and before honour is humility.

1 Cor. viii. 1. Now, as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

2. And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 (d) The integrity of the upright shall guide them; but (e) the perverseness of transgressors shall destroy them.

(d) Ps. xxv. 21. Let integrity and uprightness preserve me; for I wait on thee.

xxvi. 1. Judge me, O Lord, for I have walked in mine integrity: I have trusted also in the Lord; therefore I shall not slide.

John vii. 17. If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

(e) Prov. xxi. 7. The robbery of the wicked shall destroy them; because they refuse to do judgment.

xxviii. 18. Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved; but he that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once.

Ec. vii. 17. Be not over-much wicked, neither be thou foolish: why shouldst thou die before thy time?

Is. i. 28. And the destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the Lord shall be consumed.

4 (f) Riches profit not in the day of wrath; (g) but righteousness delivereth from death.

(f) Job xxxvi. 18. Because there is wrath, beware lest he take thee away with his stroke: then a great ransom cannot deliver thee.

19. Will he esteem thy riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.

Ez. vii. 19. They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be removed: their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the Lord: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels; because it is the stumbling-block of their iniquity.

Zeph. i. 18. Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the Lord's wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

(g) Rom. v. 17. For if by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteousness, shall reign in life by one Jesus Christ.

1 Tim. iv. 8. For bodily exercise profiteth little; but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

5 The righteousness of the perfect shall direct his way; (h) but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.

(h) 2 Sam. xvii. 23. And when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his ass, and arose, and gat him home to his house, to his city, and put his household in order, and hanged himself, and died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his father.

Ps. ix. 15. The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net which they hid is their own foot taken.

16. The Lord is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah.

Matt. xxvii. 4. Saying, I have sinned, in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

5. And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself.

6 The (i) righteousness of the upright shall deliver them; but (k) transgressors shall be taken in their own naughtiness.

(i) Gen. xxx. 33. So shall my righteousness answer for me in time to come, when it shall come for my hire before thy face: every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and brown among the sheep, that shall be accounted stolen with me.

1 Sam. xii. 3. Behold, here I am: witness against me before the Lord, and before his anointed; whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I received any bribe to blind mine eyes therewith? and I will restore it you.

4. And they said, Thou hast not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, neither hast thou taken ought of any man's hand.

(k) 1 Kings ii. 32. And the Lord shall return his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, my father David not knowing thereof; to wit, Abner, the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and Amasa, the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah.

33. Their blood shall, therefore, return upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for ever: but upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be peace for ever from the Lord.

44. The king said, moreover, to Shimei, Thou knowest all the wickedness which thine heart is privy to, that thou didst to David my father; therefore the Lord shall return thy wickedness upon thine own head.

Ps. vii. 16. His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate.

Ec. x. 8. He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whose breaketh an hedge, a serpent shall bite him.

7 When a wicked man dieth, (l) his expectation shall perish; and the hope of unjust men perisheth.

(l) Ec. xv. 9. The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; my lust shall be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them.

10. Thou didst blow with thy wind, the sea covered them; they sank as lead in the mighty waters.

Job viii. 13. So are the paths of all that forget God; and the hypocrite's hope shall perish;

14. Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be a spider's web.

xi. 20. But the eyes of the wicked shall fail, and they shall not escape; and their hope shall be as the giving up of the ghost.

Ps. cxlvi. 4. His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish.

Luke xii. 19. And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

20. But God said unto him, Thou fool! this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be which thou hast provided?

8 The (m) righteous is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked cometh in his stead.

(m) Esth. vii. 9. And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman. Then the king said, Hang him thereon.

10. So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

Dan. vi. 23. Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in his God.

24. And the king commanded, and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or ever they came at the bottom of the den.

9 An (n) hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbour; but (o) through knowledge shall the just be delivered.

(n) Job xxxiv. 30. That the hypocrite reign not, lest the people be ensnared.

Matt. vii. 15. Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

(o) Mark xiii. 14. But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not (let him that readeth understand) then let them that be in Judea flee to the mountains.

10 When (p) it goeth well with the righteous, the city rejoiceth; and (q) when the wicked perish, there is shouting.

(p) Esth. viii. 15. And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple; and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad.

16. The Jews had light, and gladness, and joy, and honour.

(q) Ex. xv. 21. And Miriam answered them, Sing ye to the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

Job xxvii. 23. Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place.

Ps. lviii. 10. The righteous shall rejoice when he seeth the vengeance: he shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.

11 By (r) the blessing of the upright the city is exalted; but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.

(r) Gen. xlv. 8. So now it was not you that sent me hither, but God: and he hath made me a father to Pharaoh, and Lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt.

Job xxii. 30. He shall deliver the island of the innocent; and it is delivered by the pureness of thine hands.

Ec. ix. 15. Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

12 He (s) that is void of wisdom despiseth his neighbour; but (t) a man of understanding holdeth his peace.

(s) Judg. ix. 27. And they went out into the fields, and gathered their vineyards, and trode the grapes, and made merry, and went into the house of their god, and did eat and drink, and cursed Abimelech.

28. And Gaal, the son of Ebed, said, Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Is not he the son of Jerubbaal? and Zebul his officer? Serve the men of Hamor, the father of Shechem? for why should we serve him?

29. And would to God this people were under my hand! then would I remove Abimelech. And he said to Abimelech, Increase thine army, and come out.

Ps. cxxiii. 3. Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.

4. Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorn of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud.

Luke xvi. 14. And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things; and they derided him.

xviii. 9. And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others.

(t) 1 Sam. x. 27. But the children of Belial said, How shall this man save us? And they despised him, and brought him no presents: but he held his peace.

2 Kings xviii. 36. But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

1 Pet. ii. 23. Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously.

13 A tale-bearer (u) revealeth secrets; but (x) he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter.

(u) Prov. xxv. 9. Debate thy cause with thy neighbour himself, and discover not a secret to another.

(x) Josh. ii. 14. And the men answered her, Our life for yours, if ye utter not this our business. And it shall be, when the Lord hath given us the land, that we will deal kindly and truly with thee.

20. And if thou utter this our business, then we will be quit of thine oath which thou hast made us to swear.

Jer. xxxviii. 27. Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him; and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived.

14 Where (y) no counsel is, the people fall; but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety.

(y) Is. xix. 11. Surely the princes of Zoan are fools, the counsel of the wise counsellors of Pharaoh is become brutish: how say ye unto Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?

12. Where are they? where are thy wise men? and let them tell thee now, and let them know what the Lord of hosts hath purposed upon Egypt.

13. The princes of Zoan are become fools, the princes of Noph are deceived; they have also reduced Egypt, even they that are the stay of the tribes thereof.

14. The Lord hath mingled a perverse spirit in the midst thereof: and they have caused Egypt to err in every work thereof, as a drunken man staggereth in his vomit.

15 He (z) that is surety for a stranger shall smart for it; and he that hateth suretiship is sure.

(z) Prov. xvii. 18. A man void of understanding striketh hands, and becometh surety in the presence of his friend.

xx. 16. Take his garment that is surety for a stranger: and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

xxii. 26. Be not thou one of them that strike hands, or of them that are sureties for debts.

27. If thou hast nothing to pay, why should he take away thy bed from under thee?

16 A (a) gracious woman retaineth honour; (b) and strong men retain riches.

(a) 1 Sam. xxv. 32. And David said to Abigail, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meet me:

33. And blessed be thy advice, and blessed be thou, which hast kept me this day from coming to shed blood, and from avenging myself with mine own hand.

Matt. xxvi. 13. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her.

Luke viii. 3. And Joanna the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance.

x. 42. But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

Acts ix. 39. Then Peter arose, and went with them. When he was come they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas made while she was with them.

2 John 1. The elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known the truth.

(b) Luke xi. 21. When a strong man armed keepeth his place his goods are in peace:

22. But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

17 The (c) merciful man doeth good to his own soul; (d) but he that is cruel troubleth his own flesh.

(c) Is. xxxii. 7. The instruments also of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even when the needy speaketh right.

8. But the liberal deviseth liberal things, and by liberal things shall he stand.

lviii. 1. The righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart; and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come.

Matt. v. 7. Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

Phil. iv. 17. Not because I desire a gift; but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.

(d) Job xx. 19. Because he hath oppressed and hath forsaken the poor; because he hath violently taken away an house, which he builded not;

20. Surely he shall not feel quietness in his belly; he shall not save of that which he desired.

21. There shall none of his meat be left; therefore shall no man look for his goods.

22. In the fulness of his sufficiency he shall be in straits: every hand of the wicked shall come upon him.

23. When he is about to fill his belly, God shall cast the fury of his wrath upon him, and shall rain it upon him while he is eating.

Prov. xv. 27. He that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house: but he that hateth gifts shall live.

Ec. iv. 8. There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour, neither is his eye satisfied with riches; neither saith he, For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, yea it is a sore travail.

James ii. 13. For he shall have judgment without mercy that hath showed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

18 The (e) wicked worketh a deceitful work; (f) but to him that soweth righteousness, shall be a sure reward.

(e) Prov. v. 22. His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be holden with the cords of his sins.

Ec. x. 8. He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaketh an hedge, a serpent shall bite him.

Eph. iv. 22. That ye put off, concerning the former conversation, the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts.

(f) Ps. cxxvi. 5. They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.

6. He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall, doubtless, come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

Prov. xxii. 8. He that soweth iniquity shall reap vanity; and the rod of his anger shall fail.

Hos. x. 12. Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy. Break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the Lord, till he come and reign righteousness upon you.

13. Ye have ploughed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men.

Gal. vi. 8. For he that soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reap corruption: but he that soweth to the Spirit, shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

9. And let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

James iii. 18. And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

19 As (g) righteousness tendeth to life; so (h) he that pursueth evil pursueth it to his own death.

(g) Prov. xix. 23. The fear of the Lord tendeth to life, and he that hath it shall abide satisfied; he shall not be visited with evil.

Acts x. 35. But in every nation, he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

1 John iii. 7. Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.

10. In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth his brother.

(h) Rom. ii. 8. But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath,

9. Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile.

20 They that are (i) of a froward heart are abomination to the LORD; but such as are (k) upright in their way are his delight.

(i) Ps. xviii. 25. With the merciful thou wilt show thyself merciful; with an upright man thou wilt show thyself upright.

26. With the pure thou wilt show thyself pure; and with the froward thou wilt show thyself froward.

Prov. viii. 13. The fear of the Lord is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate.

(k) Ps. xi. 7. For the righteous Lord loveth righteousness; his countenance doth behold the upright.

li. 6. Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts; and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

cxl. 13. Surely the righteous shall give thanks unto thy name; the upright shall dwell in thy presence.

Prov. xxi. 29. A wicked man hardeneth his face: but as for the upright, he directeth his way.

21 Though (l) hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished; but (m) the seed of the righteous shall be delivered.

(l) Ex. xxiii. 2. Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil; neither shalt thou speak in a cause to decline after many to wrest judgment.

Prov. xvi. 5. Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the Lord: though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished.

(m) Gen. xvii. 7. And I will establish my covenant between me and thee, and thy seed after thee, in their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee.

8. And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God.

Ps. xxxvii. 26. He is ever merciful, and lendeth: and his seed is blessed.

Act. ii. 39. For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

22 As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout; so is a fair woman which is without discretion.

23 The (n) desire of the righteous is only good; but (o) the expectation of the wicked is wrath.

(n) Ps. x. 17. Lord, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear.

xxvii. 4. One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after, that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life; to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to inquire in his temple.

cxix. 5. Oh that my ways were directed to keep thy statutes!

10. With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wander from thy commandments.

L. xxvi. 9. With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

Jer. xvii. 16. As for me, I have not hastened from being a pastor to follow thee: neither have I desired the woful day: thou knowest that which came out of my lips was right before thee.

Matt. v. 6. Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

(o) Rom. ii. 8. But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath,

9. Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile.

Heb. x. 27. But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

24 There is (p) that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, (q) but it tendeth to poverty.

(p) Deut. xv. 10. Thou shalt surely give him, and thine heart shall not be grieved when thou givest unto him: because that for this thing the Lord thy God shall bless thee in all thy works, and in all that thou puttest thine hand unto.

Ps. cxii. 9. He hath dispersed, he hath given to the poor; his righteousness endureth for ever: his horn shall be exalted with honour.

Ec. xi. 1. Cast thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after many days.

2. Give a portion to seven, and also to eight; for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth.

6. In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou know-est not whether shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good.

Luke vi. 38. Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal, it shall be measured to you again.

(q) Hag. i. 6. Ye have sown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages, earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes.

25 (r) The liberal soul shall be made fat; and he that watereth shall be watered also himself.

(r) Prov. xxviii. 27. He that giveth unto the poor shall not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.

Is. xxxii. 8. But the liberal deviseth liberal things, and by liberal things shall he stand.

26 He that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him; but (s) blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it.

(s) Job xxix. 13. The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me; and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.

27 He that diligently seeketh good, procureth favour; but (t) he that seeketh mischief, it shall come unto him.

(t) Ps. vii. 15. He made a pit, and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made.

lvii. 6. They have prepared a net for my steps; my soul is bowed down: they have digged a pit before me, into the midst whereof they are fallen themselves. Selah.

28 He (u) that trusteth in his riches shall fall; (x) but the righteous shall flourish as a branch.

(u) Ps. lii. 7. Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.

lxii. 10. Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery: if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

Mark x. 24. And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

1 Tim. vi. 17. Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high-minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy.

(x) Ps. i. 3. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season: his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

lii. 8. But I am like a green olive-tree in the house of God: I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.

Jer. xvii. 8. For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh; but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit.

29 He (y) that troubleth his own house shall (z) inherit the wind; and the fool shall be servant to the wise of heart.

(y) Gen. xxxiv. 30. And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, Ye have troubled me, to make me to stink among the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites, and the Perizzites: and I being few in number, they shall gather themselves against me, and slay me; and I shall be destroyed, I and my house.

1 Sam. xxv. 3. Now the name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife Abigail; and she was a woman of good understanding, and of a beautiful countenance: but the man was churlish, and evil in his doings; and he was of the house of Caleb.

17. Now, therefore, know and consider what thou wilt do; for evil is determined against our master, and against all his household: for he is such a son of Belial, that a man cannot speak to him.

38. And it came to pass, about ten days after, that the Lord smote Nabal, that he died.

(z) Ec. v. 16. And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came so shall he go: and what profit hath he that hath laboured for the wind?

Hos. viii. 7. For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk: the bud shall yield no meal; if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up.

30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; (a) and he that winneth souls is wise.

(a) Dan. xii. 3. And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever.

James v. 20. Let him know that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins.

31 Behold, (b) the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth: much more the wicked and the sinner.

(b) 2 Sam. vii. 14. I will be his father, and he shall be my son. If he commit iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the children of men:

15. But my mercy shall not depart away from him as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before thee.

Jer. xxv. 29. For, lo, I begin to bring evil on the city which is called by my name, and should ye be utterly unpunished? Ye shall not be unpunished: for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the Lord of hosts.

1 Pet. iv. 17. For the time is come, that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

18. And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?

CHAPTER XII.

WHOSO (a) loveth instruction, loveth knowledge; but (b) he that hateth reproof is brutish.

(a) Ps. cxix. 27. Make me to understand the way of thy precepts: so shall I talk of thy wonderful works.

97. O how I love thy law! it is my meditation all the day.

2 Thess. ii. 10. And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish, because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

(b) Ps. xxxii. 9. Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding; whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.

xcii. 6. A brutish man knoweth not, neither doth a fool understand this.

Is. i. 3. The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel doth not know; my people doth not consider.

2 A (c) good man obtaineth favour of the LORD; but (d) a man of wicked devices will he condemn.

(c) Ps. cxii. 5. A good man showeth favour and leneth: he will guide his affairs with discretion.

Prov. viii. 35. For whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the Lord.

Acts xi. 24. For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord.

Rom. v. 7. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die; yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

(d) Prov. i. 31. Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.

3 A man (e) shall not be established by wickedness; but (f) the root of the righteous shall not be moved.

(e) Job v. 3. I have seen the foolish taking root: but suddenly I cursed his habitation.

4. His children are far from safety, and they are crushed in the gate, neither is there any to deliver them:

5. Whose heart the hungry eateth up, and taketh it even out of the thorns, and the robber swalloweth up their substance.

xv. 29. He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall he prolong the perfection thereof upon the earth.

(f) Ps. xv. 5. He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent: he that doeth these things shall never be moved.

cxxv. 1. They that trust in the Lord shall be as Mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.

2. As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the Lord is round about his people from henceforth, even for ever.

Eph. iii. 17. That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith: that ye, being rooted and grounded in love.

Col. ii. 7. Rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

4 A (g) virtuous woman is a crown to her husband; but (h) she that maketh ashamed is (i) as rottenness in his bones.

(g) Prov. xiv. 1. Every wise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands.

xix. 14. House and riches are the inheritance of fathers; and a prudent wife is from the Lord.

xxi. 10. Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.

1 Cor. xi. 11. Nevertheless, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man in the Lord.

(h) Prov. xxi. 9. It is better to dwell in a corner of the house-top than with a brawling woman in a wide house.

19. It is better to dwell in the wilderness than with a contentious and an angry woman.

xxvii. 15. A continual dropping in a very rainy day and a contentious woman are alike.

16. Whosoever hideth her hideth the wind, and the ointment of his right hand which bewrayeth itself.

(i) Prov. xiv. 30. A sound heart is the life of the flesh: but envy the rottenness of the bones.

Hab. iii. 16. When I heard, my belly trembled; my lips quivered at the voice: rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up unto the people, he will invade them with his troops.

5 The (k) thoughts of the righteous are right; but (l) the counsels of the wicked are deceit.

(k) Ps. cxix. 15. I will meditate in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways.

cxxxix. 23. Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my thoughts.

Is. lv. 7. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

Jer. iv. 14. O Jerusalem, wash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved: how long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee?

(l) Ps. xii. 2. They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips, and with a double heart do they speak.

3. The Lord shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh proud things.

xli. 6. And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity; his heart gathereth iniquity to itself; when he goeth abroad, he telleth it.

7. All that hate me, whisper together against me: against me do they devise my hurt.

2 Cor. iv. 2. But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

6 The (m) words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood; but (n) the mouth of the upright shall deliver them.

(m) Is. lix. 7. Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths.

Jer. v. 26. For among my people are found wicked men; they lay wait as he that setteth snares: they set a trap, they catch men.

Mic. vii. 2. The good man is perished out of the earth; and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net.

(n) Prov. xiv. 3. In the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride: but the lips of the wise shall preserve them.

7 The (o) wicked are overthrown, and are not; but (p) the house of the righteous shall stand.

(o) Job xi. 20. But the eyes of the wicked shall fail, and they shall not escape, and their hope shall be as the giving up of the ghost.

Ps. xxxvii. 10. For yet a little while and the wicked shall not be; yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

35. I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like a green bay tree:

36. Yet he passed away, and lo he was not; yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.

lxxiii. 18. Surely thou didst set them in slippery places; thou castedst them down into destruction.

19. How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors.

20. As a dream when one awaketh, so, O Lord, when thou awakest thou shalt despise their image.

(p) 2 Sam. vii. 16. And thine house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established for ever.

26. And let thy name be magnified for ever, saying, The Lord of hosts is the God over Israel: and let the house of thy servant David be established before thee.

Prov. xxiv. 3. Through wisdom is a house builded, and by understanding it is established;

4. And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

8 A man shall be (q) commended according to his wisdom; but (r) he that is of a perverse heart shall be despised.

(q) Gen. xli. 39. And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Forasmuch as God hath showed thee all this, there is none so discreet and wise as thou art.

1 Sam. xvi. 10. Then answered one of the servants, and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse, the Bethlehemite, that is cunning in playing, and a mighty valiant man, and a man of war, and prudent in matters, and a comely person, and the Lord is with him.

xviii. 30. Then the princes of the Philistines went forth; and it came to pass after they went forth, that David behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul: so that his name was much set by.

Ec. viii. 1. Who is as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? a man's wisdom maketh his face to shine, and the boldness of his face shall be changed.

Luke xvi. 8. And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

2 Cor. x. 18. For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

(r) 1 Sam. xiii. 13. And Samuel said to Saul, Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandment of the Lord thy God, which he commanded thee; for now would the Lord have established thy kingdom upon Israel for ever.

xxv. 17. Now, therefore, know and consider what thou wilt do; for evil is determined against our master, and against all his household: for he is such a man of Belial, that a man cannot speak to him.

Ps. cxxxii. 18. His enemies will I clothe with shame; but upon himself shall his crown flourish.

Mal. ii. 8. But ye are departed out of the way ye have caused many to stumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the Lord of hosts.

9. Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have been partial in the law.

9 He that is (s) despised, and hath a servant, is better than he that honoureth himself, and lacketh bread.

(s) Luke xiv. 2. For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

10 A (t) righteous man regardeth the life of his beast; (u) but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.

(t) Gen. xxxiii. 13. And he said unto him, My lord knoweth that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds with young are with me; and if men should overdrive them one day, all the flock will die.

14. Let my lord, I pray thee, pass over before his servant; and I will lead on softly, according as the cattle that goeth before me, and the children, be able to endure, until I come unto my lord unto Seir.

Num. xxii. 28. And the Lord opened the mouth of the ass, and she said unto Balaam, What have I done unto thee that thou hast smitten me these three times?

29. And Balaam said unto the ass, Because thou hast mocked me; I would there were a sword in mine hand, for now would I kill thee.

30. And the ass said unto Balaam, Am not I thine ass, upon which thou hast ridden ever since I was thine unto this day? was I ever wont to do so unto thee? And he said, Nay.

31. Then the Lord opened the eyes of Balaam; and he saw the angel of the Lord standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand; and he bowed down his head, and fell flat on his face.

32. And the angel of the Lord said unto him, Wherefore hast thou smitten thine ass these three times? Behold, I went out to withstand thee, because thy way is perverse before me.

Deut. xxv. 4. Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn.

Jon. iv. 11. And should not I spare Nineveh, that great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle?

(u) Gen. xxxvii. 26. And Judah said unto his brethren, What profit is it if we slay our brother, and conceal his blood?

27. Come, and let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and let not our hand be upon him; for he is our brother and our flesh: and his brethren were content.

28. Then there passed by Midianites, merchantmen; and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver: and they brought Joseph into Egypt.

Judg. i. 7. And Adoni-bezek said, Threescore and ten kings, having their thumbs and their great toes cut off, gathered their meat under my table: as I have done, so God hath required me. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.

1 Sam. xi. 2. And Nahash the Ammonite, answered them, On this condition will I make a covenant with you, that I may thrust out all your right eyes, and lay it for a reproach upon all Israel.

11 He that (x) tilleth his land shall be satisfied with bread; but

(y) he that followeth vain persons is (z) void of understanding.

(x) Gen. iii. 19. In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread till thou return unto the ground; for out of it was thou taken: for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return.

Prov. xxvii. 27. And thou shalt have goats' milk enough for thy food, for the food of thy household, and for the maintenance for thy maidens.

xxviii. 19. He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough.

Eph. iv. 28. Let him that stole, steal no more; but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.

1 Thess. iv. 11. And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

12. That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.

2 Thess. iii. 8. Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you.

(y) Judg. ix. 4. And they gave him threescore and ten pieces of silver out of the house of Baal-berith, wherewith Abimelech hired vain and light persons, which followed him.

Ps. xxvi. 4. I have not sat with vain persons, neither will I go in with dissemblers.

Tit. i. 10. For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:

11. Whose mouths must be stopped; who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

(z) Prov. ix. 13. A foolish woman is clamorous; she is simple, and knoweth nothing.

16. Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither; and as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him.

12 The wicked (a) desireth the net of evil men; but (b) the root of the righteous yieldeth fruit.

(a) Ps. ix. 15. The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made; in the net which they hid is their own foot taken.

x. 9. He lieth in wait secretly as a lion in his den; he lieth in wait to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor when he draweth him into his net.

Prov. xxix. 5. A man that flattereth his neighbour spreadeth a net for his feet.

6. In the transgression of an evil man, there is a snare: but the righteous doth sing and rejoice.

Jer. v. 26. For among my people are found wicked men; they lay wait as he that setteth snares: they set a trap, they catch men.

27. As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit; therefore they are become great, and waxen rich.

28. They are waxen fat, they shine; yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless; yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge.

Mic. xii. 2. The good man is perished out of the earth; and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net.

Hab. i. 15. They take up all of them with the angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their drag; therefore they rejoice and are glad.

16. Therefore they sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag; because by them their portion is fat, and their meat plentifulous.

17. Shall they therefore empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations?

(b) Ps. i. 3. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season: his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

Is. xxvii. 6. He shall cause them that come of Jacob to take root; Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit.

xxxvii. 31. And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward.

Jer. xvii. 7. Blessed is the man that trusteth in the Lord, and whose hope the Lord is.

8. For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh; but her leaf shall be green, and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit.

Luke viii. 13. They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy: and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14. And that which fell among thorns, are they, which, when they have heard, go forth and are choked with cares, and riches, and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15. But that on the good ground are they, which, in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

John xv. 5. I am the vine, ye are the branches; he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit; for without me ye can do nothing.

Rom. vi. 22. But now, being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

13 The wicked is (c) snared by the transgression of his lips; (d) but the just shall come out of trouble.

(c) 1 Kings ii. 23. Then king Solomon swore by the Lord, saying, God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah have not spoken this word against his own life.

Ps. v. 6. Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing: the Lord will abhor the bloody and deceitful man.

lxiv. 8. So shall they make their own tongue to fall upon themselves: all that see them shall flee away.

Prov. xviii. 6. A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.

7. A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snares of his soul.

(d) Gen. xlvi. 16. The angel which redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac: and let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth.

2 Sam. iv. 9. And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said unto them, As the Lord liveth, who hath redeemed my soul out of all adversity.

Ps. xxxiv. 19. Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of them all.

Ec. vii. 18. It is good that thou shouldst take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw not thine hand; for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all.

Rom. viii. 35. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36. (As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter;)

37. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors, through him that loved us.

2 Pet. ii. 9. The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished.

14 A man shall be (e) satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth; (f) and the recompense of a man's hands shall be rendered unto him.

(e) Ps. lxxiii. 5. My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips.

Prov. xviii. 20. A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.

21. Death and life are in the power of the tongue; and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

(f) Js. iii. 10. Say ye to the righteous that it shall be well with him; for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

11. Wo unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him; for the reward of his hands shall be given him.

Matt. x. 41. He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet, shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man, shall receive a righteous man's reward.

42. And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, He shall in no wise lose his reward.

xvi. 27. For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

2 Thess. i. 6. Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;

7. And to you who are troubled, rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels.

Heb. ii. 2. For if the word spoken by angels was steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward.

xi. 26. Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompense of the reward.

15 The (g) way of a fool is right in his own eyes; (h) but he that hearkeneth unto counsel is wise.

(g) Prov. xxvi. 12. Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

16. The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven men that can render a reason.

xxviii. 11. The rich man is wise in his own conceit; but the poor that hath understanding searcheth him out.

xxx. 12. There is a generation that are pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness.

Luke xviii. 11. The Pharisee stood, and prayed thus within himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

Gal. vi. 3. For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

(h) Prov. xix. 21. Hear counsel, and receive instruction, that thou mayest be wise in thy latter end.

Ec. iv. 13. Better is a poor and a wise child than an old and foolish king who will no more be admonished.

Jer. xxxviii. 15. Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken unto me?

16 A (i) fool's wrath is presently known; (k) but a prudent man covereth shame.

(i) 1 Sam. xx. 30. Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, Thou son of the perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse, to thine own confusion, and unto the confusion of thy mother's nakedness?

31. For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be established, nor thy kingdom: wherefore, now, send and fetch him unto me, for he shall surely die.

32. And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, Wherefore shall he be slain? what hath he done?

33. And Saul cast a javelin at him to smite him; whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to slay David.

34. So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did eat no meat the second day of the month: for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame.

(k) Prov. xvii. 9. He that covereth a transgression seeketh love: but he that repeateth a matter separateth very friends.

xxix. 11. A fool uttereth all his mind, but a wise man keepeth it in till afterwards.

James i. 19. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath.

17 He (l) that speaketh truth showeth forth righteousness; (m) but a false witness deceit.

(l) 1 Sam. xxii. 14. Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, And who is so faithful among all thy servants as David, which is the king's son-in-law, and goeth at thy bidding, and is honourable in thine house?

15. Did I then begin to inquire of God for him? be it far from me. Let not the king impute any thing unto his servant, nor to all the house of my father: for thy servant knew nothing of all this, less or more.

(m) Prov. xxi. 28. A false witness shall perish: but the man that heareth, speaketh constantly.

xxiv. 28. Be not a witness against thy neighbour without cause; and deceive not with thy lips.

Matt. xv. 19. For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies.

xxvi. 59. Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the counsel, sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death.

Acts vi. 13. And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law.

1 Pet. iii. 16. Having a good conscience: that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evil-doers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

18 There is (n) that speaketh like the piercings of a sword; (o) but the tongue of the wise is health.

(n) Psa. lii. 2. Thy tongue deviseth mischiefs: like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

lvii. 4. My soul is among lions; and I be even among them that are set on fire, even the sons of men whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.

lix. 7. Behold, they belch out with their mouth: swords are in their lips; for who, say they, doth hear?

lxiv. 3. Who whet their tongue like a sword, and bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words.

Prov. xxv. 18. A man that beareth false witness against his neighbour is a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow.

(o) Prov. xvi. 24. Pleasant words are as an honey-comb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.

19 The (p) lip of truth shall be established for ever; (q) but a lying tongue is but for a moment.

(p) Matt. xxiv. 35. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my word shall not pass away.

(q) Job xx. 5. That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment.

20 (r) Deceit is in the heart of them that imagine evil; (s) but to the counsellors of peace is joy.

(r) Jer. xvii. 16. As for me, I have not hastened from being a pastor to follow thee: neither have I desired the woful day, thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was right before thee.

Rom. i. 29. Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness: full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers.

(s) Zech. vi. 13. Even he shall build the temple of the Lord; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne; and he shall be a priest upon his throne; and the counsel of peace shall be between them both.

Matt. v. 9. Blessed are the peace-makers: for they shall be called the children of God.

Heb. xii. 14. Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which, no man shall see the Lord.

21 There shall (t) no evil happen to the just; but the wicked shall be (u) filled with mischief.

(t) Rom. viii. 28. And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

1 Cor. iii. 22. Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;

23. And ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's. 2 Cor. iv. 17. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory.

(u) Jer. xiii. 12. Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Every bottle shall be filled with wine; and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?

13. Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness.

14. And I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the Lord; I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, but destroy them.

Rev. xviii. 6. Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double, according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled, fill to her double.

22 (x) Lying lips are abomination to the Lord; (y) but they that deal truly are his delight.

(x) Ez. xiii. 19. And will ye pollute me among my people for handfuls of barley, and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people that hear your lies?

22. Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life.

Rev. xxi. 8. But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

(y) Prov. xi. 20. They that are of a froward heart are abomination to the Lord: but such as are upright in their way are his delight.

23 A prudent man concealeth knowledge; (z) but the heart of fools proclaimeth foolishness.

(z) Ec. x. 3. Yea, also, when he that is a fool walketh by the way, his wisdom faileth him, and he saith to every one that he is a fool.

12. The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.

13. The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness; and the end of his talk is mischievous madness.

14. A fool also is full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him who can tell him?

24 The (a) hand of the diligent shall bear rule; but the slothful shall be under tribute.

(a) 1 Kings xi. 28. And the man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valour: and Solomon, seeing the young man that he was industrious, he made him ruler over all the charge of the house of Joseph.

Prov. x. 4. He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand: but the hand of the diligent maketh rich.

xiii. 4. The soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath nothing: but the soul of the diligent shall be made fat.

xxii. 20. Seest thou a man diligent in his business? he shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before mean men.

25 (b) Heaviness in the heart of man maketh it stoop; (c) but a good word maketh it glad.

(b) Neh. ii. 1. And it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him: and I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been beforetime sad in his presence.

2. Wherefore the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid.

Ps. xxxviii. 6. I am troubled; I am bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the day long.

xlii. 11. Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

(c) Zech. i. 13. And the Lord answered the angel that talked with me with good words, and comfortable words.

2 Cor. ii. 4. For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5. But if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part; that I may not overcharge you all.

6. Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted of many.

7. So that contrariwise, ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest, perhaps, such an one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

26 The (d) righteous is more excellent than his neighbour; (e) but the way of the wicked seduceth them.

(d) Ps. xvi. 3. But to the saints that are in the earth, and to the excellent, in whom is all my delight.

Prov. xvii. 27. He that hath knowledge spareth his words; and a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit.

(e) Ps. lxxxi. 12. So I gave them up unto their own heart's lust; and they walked in their own counsels.

13. Oh that my people had hearkened unto me, and Israel had walked in my ways!

James i. 13. Let no man say, when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man.

14. But every man is tempted when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

1 John ii. 26. These things have I written unto you concerning them that seduce you.

Rev. xii. 9. And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

27 The slothful man roasteth not that which he took in hunting; but the substance of a diligent man is precious.

28 (f) In the way of righteousness is life; and in the path-way thereof there is no death.

(f) Ez. xviii. 9. Hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept my judgments, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely live, saith the Lord God.

Rom. v. 21. That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life, by Jesus Christ our Lord.

vi. 22. But now, being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

23. For the wages of sin is death: but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER XIII.

A WISE son heareth his father's instruction; but a scorner heareth not rebuke.

2 A man shall eat good by the fruit of his mouth; but (a) the soul of the transgressors shall eat violence.

(a) Ps. cxl. 11. Let not an evil speaker be established in the earth; evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him.

Prov. x. 11. The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life: but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

Hab. ii. 8. Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

17. For the violence of Lebanon shall cover thee, and the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

Rev. xvi. 6. For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink: for they are worthy.

3 He (b) that keepeth his mouth keepeth his life; but he that openeth wide his lips shall have destruction.

(b) Ps. xxxix. 1. I said, I will take heed to my ways, that I sin not with my tongue; I will keep my mouth with a bridle while the wicked is before me.

Matt. xii. 36. But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.

37. For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

James i. 26. If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

4 The soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath nothing; but the soul of the diligent shall be (c) made fat.

(c) Ps. xcii. 14. They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing.

Prov. xi. 25. The liberal soul shall be made fat; and he that watereth shall be watered also himself.

xxviii. 25. He that is of a proud heart stirreth up strife: but he that putteth his trust in the Lord shall be made fat.

Is. lviii. 11. And the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.

5 A (d) righteous man hateth lying; but a wicked man (e) is loathsome, (f) and cometh to shame.

(d) Ps. cxix. 163. I hate and abhor lying; but thy law do I love.

Eph. iv. 25. Wherefore, putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another.

Col. iii. 9. Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds.

(e) Ez. vi. 9. And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations, whither they shall be carried captives, because I am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their eyes, which go a whoring after their idols: and they shall loath them.

selves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations.

xx. 43. And there shall ye remember your ways, and all your doings, wherein ye have been defiled; and ye shall loath yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that ye have committed.

Zech. xi. 8. Three shepherds also I cut off in one month; and my soul loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me.

(f) Dan. xii. 2. And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

6 Righteousness keepeth him that is upright in the way; but wickedness overthroweth the sinner.

7 There (g) is that maketh himself rich, yet hath nothing: there is (h) that maketh himself poor, yet hath great riches.

(g) Prov. xii. 9. He that is despised, and hath a servant, is better than he that honoureth himself and lacketh bread.

2 Pet. ii. 19. While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

Rev. iii. 17. Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked.

(h) 2 Cor. vi. 10. As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

Rev. ii. 9. I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich,) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

8 The (i) ransom of a man's life are his riches; but (k) the poor heareth not rebuke.

(i) Ex. xxi. 30. If there be laid on him a sum of money, then he shall give, for the ransom of his life, whatsoever is laid upon him.

Job ii. 4. And Satan answered the Lord, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life.

Jer. xli. 8. But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not; for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbore, and slew them not among their brethren.

Matt. xvi. 26. For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

(k) 2 Kings xxiv. 14. And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valour, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and smiths: none remained, save the poorest sort of the people of the land.

xxv. 12. But the captain of the guard left the poor of the land to be vine-dressers and husbandmen.

9 The (l) light of the righteous rejoiceth; but (m) the lamp of the wicked shall be put out.

(l) 1 Kings xi. 36. And unto his son will I give one tribe, that David my servant may have a light always before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen me to put my name there.

Ps. xxvii. 11. Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.

cxii. 4. Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness: he is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.

(m) Job xviii. 5. Yea, the light of the wicked shall be put out, and the spark of his fire shall not shine.

6. The light shall be dark in his tabernacle, and his candle shall be put out with him.

xxi. 17. How oft is the candle of the wicked put out? and how oft cometh their destruction upon them? God distributeth sorrows in his anger.

Matt. xxii. 13. Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

xxv. 8. And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.

10 (n) Only by pride cometh contention; but (o) with the well-advised is wisdom.

(n) 2 Kings xiv. 10. Thou hast indeed smitten Edom, and thine heart hath lifted thee up: glory of this, and tarry at home; for why shouldst thou meddle to thy hurt, that thou shouldst fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?

Luke xxii. 24. And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

1 Tim. vi. 4. He is proud, knowing nothing, but dotting about questions, and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmising.

(o) Judg. viii. 1. And the men of Ephraim said unto him, Why hast thou served us thus, that thou calledst us not when thou wentest to fight with the Midianites? And they did chide with him sharply.

2. And he said unto them, What have I done now in comparison of you? Is not the gleanings of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abi-ezer?

3. God hath delivered into your hands the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparison of you? Then their anger was abated toward him when he had said that.

11 (p) Wealth gotten by vanity shall be diminished; but he that gathereth by labour shall increase.

(p) Job xx. 15. He hath swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again: God shall cast them out of his belly.

xxvii. 16. Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay;

17. He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.

Ec. v. 14. But those riches perish by evil travail; and he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand.

Jer. xvii. 11. As the partridge sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so he that getteth riches, and not by right, shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be a fool.

12 (q) Hope deferred maketh the heart sick; but (r) when the desire cometh, it is a tree of life.

(q) Ps. xlii. 1. As the hart panteth after the water-brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.

2. My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God?

3. My tears have been my meat day and night, while they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?

lxix. 3. I am weary of my crying, my throat is dried: mine eyes fail while I wait for my God.

Cant. v. 8. I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if ye find my beloved, that ye tell him, that I am sick of love.

(r) Gen. xli. 30. And Israel said unto Joseph, Now let me die, since I have seen thy face, because thou art yet alive.

Ps. xvii. 15. As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake with thy likeness.

xl. 2. He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.

3. And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God: many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the Lord.

Luke ii. 29. Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word:

30. For mine eyes have seen thy salvation.

13 Whoso (s) despiseth the word shall be destroyed; but (t) he that feareth the commandment (u) shall be rewarded.

(s) 2 Sam. xii. 9. Wherefore hast thou despised the commandment of the Lord, to do evil in his sight? Thou hast killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon.

10. Now, therefore, the sword shall never depart from thine house; because thou hast despised me, and hast taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife.

Jer. xli. 16. As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the Lord, we will not hearken unto thee.

17. But we will certainly do whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of victuals, and were well, and saw no evil.

Ex. xx. 13. But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they despised my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly polluted; then I said, I will pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness, to consume them.

Heb. x. 28. He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses:

29. Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?

(t) Is. lxvi. 2. For all these things hath my hand made, and all these things have been, saith the Lord: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor, and of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at my word.

Mal. iii. 16. Then they that feared the Lord spake often one to another; and the Lord hearkened, and heard it: and a book of remembrance was written before him, for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his name.

(u) Ps. xix. 11. Moreover, by them is thy servant warned; and in keeping of them there is great reward.

Matt. v. 12. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

2 John 8. Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward.

14 The law of the wise is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.

15 Good understanding giveth favour; (x) but the way of transgressors is hard.

(x) Ps. xc. 9. When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my work.

10. Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways:

11. Unto whom I swear in my wrath, that they should not enter into my rest.

Jer. ii. 19. Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore, and see, that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the Lord thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord God of hosts.

Rom. vi. 21. What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

16 Every (y) prudent man deal-eth with knowledge; but (z) a fool layeth open his folly.

(y) Is. lii. 13. Behold, my servant shall deal prudently, he shall be exalted, and extolled, and be very high.

Matt. x. 16. Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye, therefore, wise as serpents, and harmless as doves.

1 Cor. xiv. 20. Brethren, be not children in understanding; howbeit, in malice be ye children: but in understanding be men.

Eph. v. 17. Wherefore, be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.

(z) Prov. xii. 23. A prudent man concealeth knowledge: but the heart of fools proclaimeth foolishness.

17 A (a) wicked messenger fall-eth into mischief; (b) but a faithful ambassador is health.

(a) Ez. iii. 18. When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

2 Cor. ii. 17. For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

(b) 1 Cor. iv. 2. Moreover, it is required in stewards that a man be found faithful.

2 Cor. v. 20. Now then, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

1 Tim. v. 12. And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry.

2 Tim. ii. 2. And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

18 (c) Poverty and shame shall be to him that refuseth instruction; but (d) he that regardeth reproof shall be honoured.

(c) Jer. v. 3. O Lord, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return.

Heb. xii. 25. See that ye refuse not him that speaketh: for if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven.

(d) Ps. cxli. 5. Let the righteous smite me, it shall be a kindness; and let him reprove me, it shall be an excellent oil which shall not break my head: for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities.

Prov. xxv. 12. As an ear-ring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reprover upon an obedient ear.

19 The desire accomplished is sweet to the soul; but it is abomination to fools to depart from evil.

20 He (e) that walketh with wise men shall be wise; (f) but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.

(e) Ps. cxix. 63. I am a companion of all them that fear thee, and of them that keep thy precepts.

Can. i. 7. Tell me, O thou whom my soul loveth, where thou feedest, where thou makest thy flock to rest at noon: for why should I be as one that turneth aside by the flocks of thy companions?

8. If thou know not, O thou fairest among women, go thy way forth by the footsteps of the flock, and feed thy kids beside the shepherds' tents.

Acts ii. 42. And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

(f) 2 Chr. xix. 2. And Jehu, the son of Hanani the seer, went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the Lord? therefore is wrath upon thee from before the Lord.

Prov. ix. 6. Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding.

1 Cor. xv. 33. Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.

34. Awake to righteousness, and sin not, for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame.

Rev. xviii. 4. And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

21 Evil (g) pursueth sinners; but to the (h) righteous good shall be repaid.

(g) Gen. iv. 7. If thou doest well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door. And unto thee shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.

Num. xxxii. 23. But if ye will not do so, behold, ye have sinned against the Lord: and be sure your sin will find you out.

Ps. cxl. 11. Let not an evil speaker be established in the earth: evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him.

Acts xxviii. 4. And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

(h) Is. lii. 10. Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him; for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

11. Wo unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him; for the reward of his hands shall be given him.

22 A good man (i) leaveth an inheritance to his children's children; and (k) the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just.

(i) Gen. xvii. 7. And I will establish my covenant between me and thee, and thy seed after thee, in their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee.

8. And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God.

Ps. xxv. 12. What man is he that feareth the Lord? him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose:

13. His soul shall dwell at ease; and his seed shall inherit the earth.

cxii. 2. His seed shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the upright shall be blessed.

(k) Job xxvii. 16. Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay;

17. He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.

Prov. xxviii. 8. He that by usury and unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor.

Ec. ii. 26. For God giveth to a man that is good in his sight, wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth travail, to gather, and to heap up, that he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

23 Much (l) food is in the tillage of the poor; but there is that is (m) destroyed for want of judgment.

(l) Prov. xii. 14. A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth; and the recompense of a man's hands shall be rendered unto him.

xxvii. 18. Whoso keepeth the fig-tree shall eat the fruit thereof: so he that waiteth on his master shall be honoured.

xxvii. 19. He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough.

Ec. v. 9. Moreover, the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field.

(m) Ps. cxii. 5. A good man showeth favour, and lendeth: he will guide his affairs with discretion.

Prov. xi. 5. The righteousness of the perfect shall direct his way; but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.

6. The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them: but transgressors shall be taken in their own naughtiness.

Ec. viii. 5. Whoso keepeth the commandment shall feel no evil thing: and a wise man's heart discerneth both time and judgment.

6. Because to every purpose there is time and judgment; therefore the misery of man is great upon him.

24 He that (n) spareth his rod hateth his son; but (o) he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes.

(n) Prov. xix. 18. Chasten thy son while there is hope, and let not thy soul spare for his crying.

xxii. 15. Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child; but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him.

xxiii. 13. Withhold not correction from the child: for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die.

14. Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and shalt deliver his soul from hell.

xxix. 15. The rod and reproof give wisdom: but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame.

17. Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest: yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.

(o) Prov. iii. 12. For whom the Lord loveth, he correcteth, even as a father the son in whom he delighteth.

Heb. xii. 6. For whom the Lord loveth, he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7. If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as sons: for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8. But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

25 The (p) righteous eateth to the satisfying of his soul; but (q) the belly of the wicked shall want.

(p) Ps. xxxiv. 10. The young lions do lack and suffer hunger: but they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing.

xxxvii. 3. Trust in the Lord, and do good, so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

16. A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.

19. They shall not be ashamed in the evil time; and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

1 Tim. iv. 8. For bodily exercise profiteth little; but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

Heb. xiii. 5. Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

(g) Deut. xxviii. 48. Therefore shalt thou serve thine enemies which the Lord shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee.

xxxii. 24. They shall be burnt with hunger, and devoured with burning heat, and with bitter destruction: I will also send the teeth of beasts upon them, with the poison of serpents of the dust.

Prov. xxiv. 34. So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth; and thy want as an armed man.

Is. lxxv. 13. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed:

14. Behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howl for vexation of spirit.

CHAPTER XIV.

EVERY (a) wise woman buildeth her house; but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands.

(a) Prov. xxiv. 3. Through wisdom is an house builded, and by understanding it is established;

4. And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

2 He (b) that walketh in his uprightness, feareth the LORD; (c) but he that is perverse in his ways despiseth him.

(b) Job i. 1. There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God and eschewed evil.

xxviii. 28. And unto man he said, Behold the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom, and to depart from evil is understanding.

Ps. cxii. 1. Praise ye the Lord. Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord, that delighteth greatly in his commandments.

Prov. xxviii. 6. Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.

Ec. xii. 13. Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter; Fear God, and keep his commandments; for this is the whole duty of man.

Mal. ii. 5. My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my name.

6. The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did turn many away from iniquity.

(c) Job xii. 4. I am as one mocked of his neighbour, who calleth upon God, and he answereth him: the just upright man is laughed to scorn.

Ps. cxxiii. 3. Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.

4. Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud.

Luke x. 16. He that heareth you heareth me; and he that despiseth you, despiseth me; and he that despiseth me, despiseth him that sent me.

Rom. ii. 4. Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness, and forbearance, and long-suffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5. But after thy hardness and impenitent heart, treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath, and revelation of the righteous judgment of God.

2 Tim. iii. 2. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3. Without natural affection, truce-breakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good.

3 In (d) the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride; (e) but the lips of the wise shall preserve them.

(d) 1 Sam. ii. 3. Talk no more so exceeding proudly; let not arrogancy come out of your mouth: for the Lord is a God of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed.

Job v. 21. Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tongue; neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh.

Ps. xii. 3. The Lord shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh proud things.

xxi. 18. Let the lying lips be put to silence; which speak grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.

lii. 1. Why boastest thou thyself in mischief, O mighty man? the goodness of God endureth continually.

2. Thy tongue deviseth mischiefs: like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

Ivii. 4. My soul is among lions; and I lie even among them that are set on fire, even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.

Prov. xviii. 6. A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.

xxi. 24. Proud and haughty scorner is his name who dealeth in proud wrath.

James iii. 5. Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth!

2 Pet. ii. 18. For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error.

(e) Prov. xii. 6. The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood: but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them.

Rom. x. 9. That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

4 Where no oxen are, the crib is (f) clean; (g) but much increase is by the strength of the ox.

(f) Amos iv. 6. And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places; yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

(g) Prov. xiii. 23. Much food is in the tillage of the poor: but there is that is destroyed for want of judgment.

1 Cor. ix. 9. For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

10. Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? for our sakes, no doubt, this is written: That he that plougheth should plough in hope; and that he that thrasheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.

11. If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

5 A (h) faithful witness will not lie; but a false witness will utter lies.

(h) Ex. xx. 16. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

xxiii. 1. Thou shalt not raise a false report: put not thine hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witness.

1 Kings xxi. 13. And there came in two men, children of Belial, and sat before him: and the men of Belial witnessed against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did blaspheme God and the king: Then they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he died.

xxii. 12. And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead and prosper: for the Lord shall deliver it into the king's hand.

13. And the messenger that was gone to call Micaiah spake unto him, saying, Behold now, the words of the prophets declare good unto the king with one mouth: let thy word, I pray thee, be like the word of one of them, and speak that which is good.

14. And Micaiah said, As the Lord liveth, what the Lord saith unto me, that will I speak.

Prov. xiii. 5. A righteous man hateth lying; but a wicked man is loathsome, and cometh to shame.

xix. 5. A false witness shall not be unpunished; and he that speaketh lies shall not escape.

6 A (i) scorner seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not; but (k) knowledge is easy unto him that understandeth.

(i) Prov. xviii. 2. A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself.

Is. viii. 20. To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.

Jer. viii. 9. The wise men are ashamed, they are dismayed and taken: lo, they have rejected the word of the Lord; and what wisdom is in them?

Rom. i. 21. Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

1 Cor. iii. 18. Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God: for it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

viii. 2. And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

(k) Ps. cxix. 18. Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law.

98. Thou, through thy commandments, hast made me wiser than mine enemies: for they are ever with me.

99. I have more understanding than all my teachers: for thy testimonies are my meditation.

100. I understand more than the ancients, because I keep thy precepts.

Prov. viii. 9. They are all plain to him that understandeth, and right to them that find knowledge.

xvii. 24. Wisdom is before him that hath understanding: but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.

7 Go (l) from the presence of a foolish man, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge.

(l) Prov. xix. 27. Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge.

1 Cor. v. 11. But now I have written unto you, not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such a one no not to eat.

Eph. v. 11. And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.

8 The wisdom (m) of the prudent is to understand his way; but (n) the folly of fools is deceit.

(m) Ps. cxi. 10. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments: his praise endureth for ever.

cxliii. 8. Cause me to hear thy loving-kindness in the morning: for in thee do I trust: cause me to know the way wherein I should walk; for I lift up my soul unto thee.

Eph. v. 17. Wherefore, be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.

James iii. 13. Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him show, out of a good conversation, his works with meekness of wisdom.

(n) Jer. xlii. 20. For ye dissembled in your hearts, when ye sent me unto the Lord your God, saying, Pray for us unto the Lord our God; and according unto all that the Lord our God shall say, so declare unto us, and we will do it.

2 Tim. iii. 13. But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

9 (o) Fools make a mock at sin; but (p) among the righteous there is favour.

(o) Job xxxiv. 7. What man is like Job, who drinketh up scorning like water;

8. Which goeth in company with the workers of iniquity, and walketh with wicked men?

9. For he hath said, It profiteth a man nothing that he should delight himself with God.

10. Therefore hearken unto me, ye men of understanding: Far be it from God that he should do wickedness, and from the Almighty that he should commit iniquity.

Prov. xxvi. 18. As a mad man, who casteth fire-brands, arrows, and death;

19. So is the man that deceiveth his neighbour, and saith, Am not I in sport?

Jude 18. How that they told you, there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.

(p) Rom. xiv. 17. For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

18. For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

10 The (q) heart knoweth his own bitterness; and (r) a stranger doth not intermeddle with his joy.

(q) 1 Sam. i. 10. And she was in bitterness of soul, and prayed unto the Lord, and wept sore.

2 Kings iv. 27. And when she came to the man of God, to the hill, she caught him by the feet: but Gehazi came near to thrust her away. And the man of God said, Let her alone; for her soul is vexed within her; and the Lord hath hid it from me, and hath not told me.

Job vii. 11. Therefore I will not refrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

x. 1. My soul is weary of my life; I will leave my complaint upon myself; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

Ez. iii. 14. So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of the Lord was strong upon me.

John xii. 27. Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour.

(r) 1 Pet. i. 8. Whom, having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable, and full of glory.

Rev. ii. 17. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth, saving he that receiveth it.

11 The (s) house of the wicked shall be overthrown; but (t) the tabernacle of the upright shall flourish.

(s) Job viii. 15. He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand; he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.

xx. 26. All darkness shall be hid in his secret places: a fire not blown shall consume him; it shall go ill with him that is left in his tabernacle.

27. The heavens shall reveal his iniquity; and the earth shall rise up against him.

28. The increase of his house shall depart, and his goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath.

Zech. v. 4. I will bring it forth, saith the Lord of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it, with the timber thereof, and the stones thereof.

Matt. vii. 26. And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand:

27. And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.

(t) Job viii. 6. If thou wert pure and upright; surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.

Psa. cxii. 2. His seed shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the upright shall be blessed.

3. Wealth and riches shall be in his house, and his righteousness endureth for ever.

12 There (u) is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

(u) Matt. vii. 13. Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat.

James i. 22. But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

13 Even (x) in laughter the heart is sorrowful; and the end of that mirth is heaviness.

(x) Ec. ii. 2. I said of laughter, It is mad: and of mirth, What doeth it?

vii. 5. It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise than for a man to hear the song of fools.

6. For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool. This also is vanity.

James iv. 9. Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

14 The (y) backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways; and (z) a good man shall be satisfied from himself.

(y) Jer. viii. 5. Why then is this people of Jerusalem slidden back by a perpetual backsliding? they hold fast deceit, they refuse to return.

xvii. 5. Thus saith the Lord, Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the Lord.

Zeph. i. 6. And them that are turned back from the Lord, and those that have not sought the Lord, nor inquired for him.

(z) John iv. 14. But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him, shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water, springing up into everlasting life.

2 Cor. i. 12. For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity, and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

Gal. vi. 4. But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another.

15 The (a) simple believeth every word; but the prudent man looketh well to his going.

(a) Rom. xvi. 18. For they that are such, serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

19. For your obedience has come abroad unto all men. I am glad, therefore, on your behalf: but yet I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil.

Eph. iv. 14. That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive.

1 John iv. 1. Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

16 A wise man (b) feareth, and departeth from evil; but (c) the fool rageth, and is confident.

(b) Gen. xlii. 18. And Joseph said unto them the third day, This do, and live: for I fear God.

Neh. v. 15. But the former governors, that had been before me, were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, besides forty shekels of silver: yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the fear of God.

Ps. cxix. 120. My flesh trembleth for fear of thee; and I am afraid of thy judgments.

1 Thess. v. 22. Abstain from all appearance of evil.

(c) 1 Kings xix. 2. Then Jezebel sent a messenger unto Elijah, saying, So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I make not thy life as the life of one of them by to-morrow about this time.

xx. 10. And Ben-hadad sent unto him, and said, The gods do so unto me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that follow me.

11. And the king of Israel answered and said, Tell him, Let not him that girdeth on his harness boast himself as he that putteth it off.

Ec. x. 13. The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness; and the end of his talk is mischievous madness.

17 He (d) that is soon angry death foolishly; and (e) a man of wicked devices is hated.

(d) Prov. xxii. 24. Make no friendship with an angry man, and with a furious man thou shalt not go.

xxix. 22. An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

Ec. vii. 9. Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

James i. 19. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath.

(e) Is. xxxii. 7. The instruments also of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even when the needy speaketh right.

Jer. v. 26. For among my people are found wicked men: they lay wait, as he that setteth snares; they set a trap, they catch men.

27. As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich.

28. They are waxen fat, they shine: yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge.

29. Shall I not visit for these things? saith the Lord: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

18 The simple (f) inherit folly; but (g) the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

(f) Jer. xvi. 19. O Lord, my strength, and my fortress, and my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come unto thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, and things wherein there is no profit.

Matt. xxiii. 29. Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous,

30. And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

31. Wherefore, ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets.

32. Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers.

(g) Prov. iv. 7. Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom; and with all thy getting get understanding.

8. Exalt her, and she shall promote thee; she shall bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her.

9. She shall give to thine head an ornament of grace; a crown of glory shall she deliver to thee.

19 The (h) evil bow before the good; and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

(h) Gen. xlii. 6. And Joseph was the governor over the land, and he it was that sold to all the people of the land: and Joseph's brethren came, and bowed down themselves before him, with their faces to the earth.

xliii. 28. And they answered, Thy servant, our father, is in good health, he is yet alive: and they bowed down their heads, and made obeisance.

Ex. viii. 8. Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, Entreat the Lord, that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people: and I will let the people go, that they may do sacrifice unto the Lord.

ix. 27. And Pharaoh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said unto them, I have sinned this time; the Lord is righteous, and I and my people are wicked.

28. Entreat the Lord (for it is enough) that there be no more mighty thundersings and hail; and I will let ye go, and ye shall stay no longer.

xi. 8. And all these thy servants shall come down unto me, and bow down themselves unto me, saying, Get thee out, and all the people that follow thee; and after that I will go out. And he went out from Pharaoh in great anger.

2 Kings iii. 12. And Jehoshaphat said, The word of the Lord is with him [Elisha.] So the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat, and the king of Edom went down to him.

Is. lx. 14. The sons also of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee; and all they that despised thee shall bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet: and they shall call thee, The city of the Lord, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

Mic. vii. 9. I will bear the indignation of the Lord, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me; he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness.

10. Then she that is mine enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her which said unto me, Where is the Lord thy God? mine eyes shall behold her: now shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets.

16. The nations shall see, and be confounded at all their might: they shall lay their hand upon their mouth, their ears shall be deaf.

17. They shall lick the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes like worms of the earth: they shall be afraid of the Lord our God, and shall fear because of thee.

Rev. iii. 9. Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

20 The (i) poor is hated even of his own neighbour; (k) but the rich hath many friends.

(i) Job xix. 13. He hath put my brethren far from me, and mine acquaintance are verily estranged from me.

14. My kinsfolk have failed, and my familiar friends have forgotten me.

xxx. 10. They abhor me, they flee from me, and spare not to spit in my face.

Prov. x. 15. The rich man's wealth is his strong city: the destruction of the poor is their poverty.

xix. 7. All the brethren of the poor do hate him; how much more do his friends go far from him? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.

(k) Esth. iii. 2. And all the king's servants, that were in the king's gate, bowed and revered Haman; for the king had so commanded concerning him: but Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence.

Prov. xix. 4. Wealth maketh many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbour.

6. Many will entreat the favour of the prince; and every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts.

21 He (l) that despiseth his neighbour sinneth; but (n) he that hath mercy on the poor, happy is he.

(l) Job xxxi. 13. If I did despise the cause of my man-servant, or of my maid-servant, when they contended with me;

14. What then shall I do when God riseth up? and when he visiteth, what shall I answer him?

15. Did not he that made me in the womb make him? and did not one fashion us in the womb?

xxxvi. 5. Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth not any: he is mighty in strength and wisdom.

6. He preserveth not the life of the wicked: but giveth right to the poor.

Ps. xxii. 24. For he hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted, neither bath he hid his face from him; but when he cried unto him, he heard.

Prov. xi. 12. He that is void of wisdom despiseth his neighbour: but a man of understanding holdeth his peace.

Luke xviii. 9. And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others.

(n) Ps. xli. 1. Blessed is he that considereth the poor; the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble.

2. The Lord will preserve him, and keep him alive; and he shall be blessed upon the earth: and thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies.

Prov. xxviii. 27. He that giveth unto the poor shall not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.

Ec. xi. 1. Cast thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after many days.

22 Do they not (o) err that devise evil? (p) but mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good.

(o) Is. xxxii. 7. The instruments also of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even when the needy speaketh right.

(p) Ps. xxv. 10. All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.

Lxi. 7. He shall abide before God for ever: O prepare mercy and truth, which may preserve him.

Is. xxxii. 8. But the liberal deviseth liberal things, and by liberal things shall he stand.

John i. 17. For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

23 In (q) all labour there is profit; (r) but the talk of the lips tendeth only to penury.

(q) Prov. xxviii. 19. He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough.

John vi. 27. Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the father sealed.

Heb. vi. 10. For God is not unrighteous, to forget your work, and labour of love, which ye have showed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11. And we desire that every one of you do show the same diligence, to the full assurance of hope unto the end.

(r) Ec. v. 3. For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; and a fool's voice is known by multitude of words.

2 Thess. iii. 10. For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.

11. For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busy bodies.

12. Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

1 Tim. v. 13. And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house: and not only idle, but tattlers also, and busy bodies, speaking things which they ought not.

24 The (s) crown of the wise is their riches; but (t) the foolishness of fools is folly.

(s) Ps. cxii. 9. He hath dispersed; he hath given to the poor; his righteousness endureth for ever: his horn shall be exalted with honour.

Ec. vii. 11. Wisdom is good with an inheritance; and by it there is profit to them that see the sun.

12. For wisdom is a defence, and money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

Is. xxxiii. 6. And wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times, and strength of salvation: the fear of the Lord is his treasure.

(t) Prov. xxvii. 22. Though thou shouldst bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, yet will not his foolishness depart from him.

25 A true (u) witness delivereth souls; but a deceitful witness (x) speaketh lies.

(u) Acts xx. 21. Testifying both to the Jews and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

26. Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.

27. For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.

(x) 1 Tim. iv. 1. Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;

2. Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

3. Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

2 Pet. iii. 3. Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts.

26 In the (y) fear of the LORD is strong confidence; and (z) his children shall have a place of refuge.

(y) Gen. xxxi. 42. Except the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely thou hadst sent me away now empty: God hath seen mine affliction, and the labour of my hands, and rebuked thee yesternight.

Ps. xxxiv. 7. The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

8. O taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

9. O fear the Lord, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him.

10. The young lions do lack and suffer hunger: but they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing.

11. Come, ye children, hearken unto me; I will teach you the fear of the Lord.

cxv. 13. He will bless them that fear the Lord, both small and great.

Mal. iv. 2. But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

(z) Is. xxvi. 20. Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast.

27 The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.

28 In (a) the multitude of people is the king's honour; but in the want of people is the destruction of the prince.

(a) Deut. i. 11. The Lord God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many more as ye are, and bless you, as he hath promised you.

1 Kings iv. 20. Judah and Israel were many, as the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking, and making merry.

21. And Solomon reigned over all kingdoms, from the river unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt: they brought presents, and served Solomon all the days of his life.

29 He that is (b) slow to wrath is of great understanding; (c) but he that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly.

(b) Num. xii. 3. Now the man Moses was very meek, above all the men that were upon the face of the earth.

1 Cor. xiii. 4. Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

5. Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh not evil.

James i. 19. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath.

(c) Ec. vii. 9. Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

Matt. ii. 16. Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently inquired of the wise men.

30 A (d) sound heart is the life of the flesh; but envy the rottenness of the bones.

(d) Ps. cxix. 80. Let my heart be sound in thy statutes, that I be not ashamed.

2 Tim. i. 7. For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

31 He (e) that oppresseth the poor reproacheth his Maker; (f) but he that honoureth him hath mercy on the poor.

(e) Job xxxi. 13. If I did despise the cause of my man-servant, or of my maid-servant, when they contended with me;

14. What then shall I do when God riseth up? and when he visiteth, what shall I answer him?

15. Did not he that made me in the womb make him? and did not one fashion us in the womb?

16. If I have withheld the poor from their desire, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail.

Ec. v. 8. If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth, and there be higher than they.

(f) Matt. xxv. 40. And the king shall answer, and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

John xii. 8. For the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

1 John iv. 21. And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God, love his brother also.

32 The wicked is (g) driven away in his wickedness; but (h) the righteous hath hope in his death.

(g) Job xviii. 18. He shall be driven from light into darkness, and chased out of the world.

Ps. lviii. 9. Before your pots can feel the thorns, he shall take them away as with a whirlwind, both living and in his wrath.

Is. viii. 21. And they shall pass through it hardly bestead and hungry: and it shall come to pass, that, when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and curse their king and their God, and look upward.

22. And they shall look unto the earth; and behold trouble and darkness, dimness of anguish; and they shall be driven to darkness.

John viii. 21. Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go ye cannot come.

24. I said, therefore, unto you, That ye shall die in your sins; for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

1 Thess. v. 3. For when they shall say, Peace and safety: then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

(h) Gen. xlix. 18. I have waited for thy salvation, O Lord.

Job xix. 25. For I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth:

26. And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God:

27. Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another; though my reins be consumed within me.

1 Cor. xv. 55. O death! where is thy sting? O grave! where is thy victory?

56. The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

57. But thanks be to God which giveth us the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Cor. v. 8. We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

33 Wisdom resteth in the heart of him that hath understanding; but that which is in the midst of fools is made known.

34 (i) Righteousness exalteth a nation; (k) but sin is a reproach to any people.

(i) Deut. iv. 6. Keep, therefore, and do them: for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.

7. For what nation is there so great, who hath God so nigh unto them, as the Lord our God is in all things that we call upon him for?

8. And what nation is there so great, that hath statutes and judgments so righteous, as all this law which I set before you this day?

Hos. xiii. 1. When Ephraim spake trembling he exalted himself in Israel; but when he offended in Baal he died.

(k) Deut. xxviii. 15. But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to observe to do all his commandments, and his statutes, which I command thee this day, that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee.

Ps. cvii. 34. A fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

35 The (l) king's favour is toward a wise servant: but his wrath is against him that causeth shame.

(l) Ps. ci. 4. A froward heart shall depart from me; I will not know a wicked person.

5. Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: him that hath an high look and a proud heart will not I suffer.

6. Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh in a perfect way, he shall serve me.

7. He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house; he that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight.

8. I will early destroy all the wicked of the land, that I may cut off all wicked doers from the city of the Lord.

Matt. xxiv. 45. Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?

46. Blessed is that servant, whom his lord, when he cometh, shall find so doing.

47. Verily I say unto you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

48. But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming;

49. And shall begin to smite his fellow-servants, and to eat and drink with the drunken;

50. The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of.

51. And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

CHAPTER XV.

A (a) SOFT answer turneth away wrath; but (b) grievous words stir up anger.

(a) Judg. viii. 1. And the men of Ephraim said unto him, Why hast thou served us thus, that thou calledst us not when thou wentest to fight with the Midianites? And they did chide with him sharply.

2. And he said unto them, What have I done now in comparison of you? Is not the gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abi-ezer?

3. God hath delivered into your hands the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparison of you? Then their anger was abated toward him, when he had said that.

Prov. xxv. 15. By long forbearing is a prince persuaded, and a soft tongue breaketh the bone.

(b) 2 Sam. xix. 43. And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, We have ten parts in the king, and we have also more right in David than ye: why then did ye despise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king? And the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

Prov. xxviii. 25. He that is of a proud heart stirreth up strife: but he that putteth his trust in the Lord shall be made fat.

xxix. 22. An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

2 The (c) tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright; but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness.

(c) Ps. xlv. 1. My heart is inditing a good matter: I speak of the things which I have made touching the king; my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

Ec. x. 12. The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious: but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.

13. The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of his talk is mischievous madness.

Is. l. 4. The Lord God hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning; he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned.

3 The (d) eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

(d) 2 Chr. xvi. 9. For the eyes of the Lord run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect towards him. Herein thou hast done foolishly; therefore from henceforth thou shalt have wars.

Job xxxiv. 21. For his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings.

22. There is no darkness nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.

Jer. xvi. 17. For mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes.

xxiii. 24. Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the Lord. Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the Lord.

Heb. iv. 13. There is no creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

4 A wholesome tongue is a tree of life; but perverseness therein is (e) a breach in the spirit.

(e) Ps. iii. 2. Many there be which say of my soul, There is no help for him in God. Selah.

3. But thou, O Lord, art a shield for me; my glory, and the lifter up of my head.

4. I cried unto the Lord with my voice, and he heard me out of his holy hill. Selah.

cix. 22. For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.

5 A (f) fool despiseth his father's instruction; (g) but he that regardeth reproof is prudent.

(f) 1 Sam. ii. 22. Now Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons did unto all Israel, and how they lay with the women that assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

23. And he said unto them, Why do ye such things? for I hear of your evil dealings by all this people.

24. Nay, my sons: for it is no good report that I hear; ye make the Lord's people to transgress.

25. If one man sin against another, the judge shall judge him: but if a man sin against the Lord, who shall entreat for him? Notwithstanding, they hearkened not unto the voice of their father, because the Lord would slay them.

(g) Ps. cxli. 5. Let the righteous smite me; it shall be a kindness: and let him reprove me; it shall be an excellent oil, which shall not break my head: for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities.

Ty. i. 13. This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith.

ii. 15. These things speak, and exhort; and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

6 In (h) the house of the righteous is much treasure; but (i) in the revenues of the wicked is trouble.

(h) Ps. cxii. 3. Wealth and riches shall be in his house; and his righteousness endureth for ever.

Prov. viii. 21. That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance; and I will fill their treasures.

xxi. 20. There is a treasure to be desired, and oil in the dwelling of the wise: but a foolish man spendeth it up.

(i) Ps. xxxvii. 16. A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.

Ec. iv. 6. Better is an handful with quietness, than both the hands full with travail and vexation of spirit.

James v. 1. Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2. Your riches are corrupted, and your garments moth-eaten.

3. Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasures together for the last days.

7 The (k) lips of the wise dispense knowledge; but (l) the heart of the foolish doeth not so.

(k) Ps. xxxvii. 30. The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgment.

xiv. 2. Thou art fairer than the children of men; grace is poured into thy lips: therefore, God hath blessed thee for ever.

Ec. xii. 9. And, moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order, many proverbs.

10. The preacher sought to find out acceptable words: and that which was written was upright, even words of truth.

Matt. x. 27. What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the house-tops.

Eph. iv. 29. Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

2 Tim. ii. 2. And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

(l) Matt. xii. 34. O generation of vipers! how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

8 The (m) sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD; but (n) the prayer of the upright is his delight.

(m) Is. i. 10. Hear the word of the Lord, ye rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah.

11. To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the Lord: I am full of the burnt-offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he-goats.

12. When ye come to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts?

13. Bring no more vain oblations: incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons, and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with: it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting.

14. Your new moons, and your appointed feasts, my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me: I am weary to bear them.

15. And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you; yea, when ye make many prayers I will not hear: your hands are full of blood.

Jer. vi. 20. To what purpose cometh there to me incense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? your burnt-offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet unto me.

Amos v. 21. I hate, I despise your feast-days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies.

22. Though ye offer me burnt-offerings, and your meat-offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the peace-offerings of your fat beasts.

(n) Ps. xvii. 1. Hear the right, O Lord, attend unto my cry; give ear unto my prayer, that goeth not out of feigned lips.

Cant. ii. 14. O my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let me see thy countenance, let me hear thy voice; for sweet is thy voice, and thy countenance is comely.

9 The (o) way of the wicked is (p) an abomination unto the LORD; but (q) he loveth him that followeth after righteousness.

(o) Ps. i. 6. For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Matt. vii. 13. Enter ye in at the strait gate; for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat.

(p) Jer. xlii. 4. Howbeit I sent unto you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, O do not this abominable thing that I hate.

Hab. i. 13. Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity: wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he?

(q) Is. li. 1. Hearken to me, ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek the Lord: look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged.

Hos. vi. 3. Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the Lord: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

1 Tim. vi. 11. But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

2 Tim. ii. 32. Flee also youthful lusts, but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

10 Correction is (r) grievous unto him that forsaketh the way: (s) and he that hateth reproof shall die.

(r) 1 Kings xxii. 8. And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, Micaiah, the son of Imlah, by whom we may inquire of the Lord: but I hate him; for he doth not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

John iii. 20. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light; neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

vii. 7. The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

(s) Ex. xxiv. 13. In thy filthiness is lewdness: because I have purged thee, and thou wast not purged, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more, till I have caused my fury to rest upon thee.

14. I the Lord have spoken it; it shall come to pass, and I will do it; I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent: according to thy ways, and according to thy doings, shall they judge thee, saith the Lord God.

11 (t) Hell and destruction are before the LORD: how much more then (u) the hearts of the children of men.

(t) Job xxvi. 6. Hell is naked before him, and destruction hath no covering.

Ps. cxxxix. 8. If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there; if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there.

Rev. i. 18. I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death.

(u) 2 Chr. vi. 30. Then hear thou from heaven thy dwelling-place, and forgive, and render unto every man according unto all his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou only knowest the hearts of the children of men.)

Jer. xvii. 10. I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

John ii. 24. But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men,

25. And needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man.

12 A scorner loveth not one that reproveth him; neither will he go unto the wise.

13 A (x) merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance; but (y) by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken.

(x) Prov. xvii. 22. A merry heart doeth good, like a medicine: but a broken spirit drieth the bones.

(y) Neh. ii. 2. Wherefore, the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid.

John xiv. 1. Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

2 Cor. ii. 7. So that, contrariwise, ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest, perhaps, such an one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

vii. 10. For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation, not to be repented of; but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

14 The (z) heart of him that hath understanding seeketh knowledge; but (a) the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness.

(z) Ps. cxix. 100. I understand more than the ancients; because I keep thy precepts.

Acts xvii. 11. These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

(a) Is. xxx. 10. Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophecy not unto us right things; speak unto us smooth things, prophecy deceits.

xliv. 20. He feedeth on ashes: a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?

Hos. xii. 1. Ephraim feedeth on wind, and followeth after the east wind: he daily increaseth lies and desolation; and they do make a covenant with the Assyrians, and oil is carried into Egypt.

15 (b) All the days of the afflicted are evil; (c) but he that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast.

(b) Gen. xlvii. 9. And Jacob said unto Pharaoh, The days of the years of my pilgrimage are an hundred and thirty years: few and evil have the days of the years of my life been, and have not attained unto the days of the years of the life of my fathers, in the days of their pilgrimage.

Psa. xc. 7. For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled.

8. Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

9. For all our days are passed away in thy wrath; we spend our years as a tale that is told.

(c) Acts xvi. 25. And at midnight, Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

Rom. v. 2. By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

3. And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience.

16 Better is (d) little with the fear of the LORD, than (e) great treasure and trouble therewith.

(d) Psa. xxxvii. 16. A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.

1 Tim. vi. 6. But godliness with contentment is great gain.

(e) Ec. ii. 10. And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them; I withheld not my heart from any joy: for my heart rejoiced in all my labour; and this was my portion of all my labour.

11. Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun.

v. 10. He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase. This is also vanity.

11. When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes?

12. The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

17. Better is (f) a dinner of herbs, where love is, than a stalled ox, and hatred therewith.

(f) Prov. xvii. 1. Better is a dry morsel, and quietness therewith, than a house full of sacrifices with strife.

Phil. ii. 1. If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies.

1 John iv. 16. And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

18 A (g) wrathful man stirreth up strife; but (h) he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife.

(g) 2 Sam. xx. 1. And there happened to be there a man of Belial, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjaminite; and he blew a trumpet, and said, We have no part in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to his tents, O Israel.

James iii. 14. But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15. This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish.

16. For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work.

(h) Gen. xiii. 8. And Abram said unto Lot, Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen: for we be brethren.

9. Is not the whole land before thee? Separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: If thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if thou depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left.

Ec. x. 4. If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, leave not thy place; for yielding pacifieth great offences.

Matt. v. 9. Blessed are the peace-makers: for they shall be called the children of God.

James i. 19. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath:

20. For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

19 The (i) way of the slothful man is as an hedge of thorns; but (k) the way of the righteous is made plain.

(i) Prov. xxii. 5. Thorns and snares are in the way of the froward: he that doth keep his soul shall be far from them.

13. The slothful man saith, There is a lion without, I shall be slain in the streets.

(k) Psa. v. 8. Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteousness, because of mine enemies; make thy way straight before my face.

xxvii. 11. Teach me thy way, O Lord, and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies.

Is. xxx. 21. And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.

xxxv. 8. And an highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called, The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein.

20 A (l) wise son maketh a glad father; but a foolish man (m) despiseth his mother.

(l) 1 Kings i. 48. And also thus said the king, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which hath given one to sit on my throne this day, mine eyes even seeing it.

ii. 9. Now, therefore, hold him not guiltless; for thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou oughtest to do unto him; but his hoar head bring thou down to the grave with blood.

v. 7. And it came to pass, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, Blessed be the Lord this day, which hath given unto David a wise son over this great people.

(m) Ex. xx. 12. Honour thy father and thy mother; that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Lev. xix. 3. Ye shall fear every man his mother, and his father, and keep my sabbaths: I am the Lord your God.

Prov. xxx. 17. The eye that mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother, the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it.

21 Folly is (n) joy to him that is destitute of wisdom; but (o) a man of understanding walketh uprightly.

(n) Prov. x. 23. It is as sport to a fool to do mischief: but a man of understanding hath wisdom.

xiv. 9. Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is favour.

(o) Job xxviii. 28. And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding.

Psa. cxi. 10. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments: his praise endureth for ever.

22 (p) Without counsel purposes are disappointed; but in the multitude of counsellors they are established.

(p) Prov. xx. 18. Every purpose is established by counsel; and with good advice make war.

Ec. viii. 6. Because to every purpose there is time and judgment; therefore the misery of man is great upon him.

23 A man hath (q) joy by the answer of his mouth; and a word spoken in due season, (r) how good is it!

(q) Prov. xii. 14. A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth; and the recompense of a man's hands shall be rendered unto him.

xxiv. 26. Every man shall kiss his lips that giveth a right answer.

(r) 1 Sam. xxv. 32. And David said to Abigail, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meet me:

33. And blessed be thy advice, and blessed be thou, which hast kept me this day from coming to shed blood, and from avenging myself with mine own hand.

24 The way of life is (s) above to the wise, that he may depart from hell beneath.

(s) Phil. iii. 20. For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ.

Col. iii. 1. If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

2. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

25 The LORD will (t) destroy the house of the proud; (u) but he will establish the border of the widow.

(t) Ps. lii. 1. Why boasteth thou thyself in mischief, O mighty man? the goodness of God endureth continually.

5. God shall likewise destroy thee for ever: he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling-place, and root thee out of the land of the living. Selah.

cxviii. 6. Though the Lord be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly: but the proud he knoweth afar off.

Is. ii. 12. For the day of the Lord of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up, and he shall be brought low.

Dan. v. 20. But when his [Nebuchadnezzar's] heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him.

1 Pet. v. 5. Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder: yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

(u) Deut. x. 17. For the Lord your God is God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, a mighty, and a terrible, which regardeth not persons, nor taketh reward:

18. He doth execute the judgment of the fatherless and widow, and loveth the stranger, in giving him food and raiment.

Ps. lxxviii. 5. A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows, is God in his holy habitation.

6. God setteth the solitary in families: he bringeth out those which are bound with chains; but the rebellious dwell in a dry land.

cxlvi. 9. The Lord preserveth the strangers, he relieveth the fatherless and widow: but the way of the wicked he turneth upside down.

26 The (x) thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the LORD; (y) but the words of the pure are pleasant words.

(z) Prov. xxiv. 9. The thought of foolishness is sin; and the scorner is an abomination to men.

Jer. iv. 14. O Jerusalem, wash thy heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved: how long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee?

Matt. xv. 19. For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies.

(y) Ps. xix. 14. Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.

xxxvii. 30. The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgment.

31. The law of his God is in his heart; none of his steps shall slide.

xlv. 1. My heart is inditing a good matter: I speak of the things which I made touching the king; my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

Matt. xii. 34. O generation of vipers! how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

35. A good man, out of the good treasure of the heart, bringeth forth good things; and an evil man, out of the evil treasure, bringeth forth evil things.

36. But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.

37. For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

27 He (z) that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house; (a) but he that hateth gifts shall live.

(z) Deut. vii. 26. Neither shalt thou bring an abomination into thy house, lest thou be a cursed thing like it: but thou shalt utterly detest it, and thou shalt utterly abhor it; for it is a cursed thing.

Josh. vi. 18. And ye, in anywise keep yourselves from the accursed thing, lest ye make yourselves accursed, when ye take of the accursed thing, and make the camp of Israel a curse, and trouble it.

vii. 11. Israel hath sinned, and they have also transgressed my covenant which I commanded them: for they have even taken of the accursed thing, and have also stolen, and dissembled also, and they have put it even among their own stuff.

12. Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they were accursed: neither will I be with you any more, except ye destroy the accursed from among you.

24. And Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, and the silver, and the garment, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that he had; and they brought them unto the valley of Achor.

25. And Joshua said, Why hast thou troubled us? the Lord shall trouble thee this day. And all Israel stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire after they had stoned them with stones.

Prov. i. 19. So are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof.

xi. 29. He that troubleth his own house shall inherit the wind: and the fool shall be servant to the wise of heart.

xx. 21. An inheritance may be gotten hastily, at the beginning; but the end thereof shall not be blessed.

Is. v. 8. Wo unto them that join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth!

9. In mine ears, said the Lord of hosts, Of a truth, many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant.

10. Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and the seed of an homer shall yield an ephah.

Jer. xvii. 11. As the partridge sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so he that getteth riches, and not by right, shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be a fool.

Hab. ii. 9. Wo to him that coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil!

10. Thou hast consulted shame to thy house, by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against thy soul.

11. For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.

(a) Prov. xxviii. 16. The prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor: but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days.

xxix. 4. The king by judgment establisheth the land: but he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it.

Is. xxxiii. 15. He that walketh righteously, and speaketh uprightly; he that despiseth the gain of oppressions, that shaketh his hands from holding of bribes, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of blood, and shutteth his eyes from seeing evil;

16. He shall dwell on high: his place of defence shall be the munitions of rocks; bread shall be given him; his waters shall be sure.

28 The (b) heart of the righteous studieth to answer; but (c) the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things.

(b) 1 Kings iii. 23. Then said the king, The one saith, This is my son that liveth, and thy son is the dead: and the other saith, Nay; but thy son is the dead, and my son is the living.

24. And the king said, Bring me a sword. And they brought a sword before the king.

25. And the king said, Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other.

26. Then spake the woman, whose the living child was, unto the king, for her bowels yearned upon her son, and she said, O my lord, give her the living child, and in nowise slay it: but the other said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it.

27. Then the king answered and said, Give her the living child, and in nowise slay it: she is the mother thereof.

28. And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged, and they feared the king: for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him to do judgment.

Prov. xvi. 23. The heart of the wise teacheth his mouth, and addeth learning to his lips.

Ec. v. 2. Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thy heart be hasty to utter any thing before God; for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few.

6. Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; neither say thou before the angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thy hands?

1 Pet. iii. 15. But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts; and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear.

(c) Prov. x. 19. In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but he that refraineth his lips is wise.

xiii. 16. Every prudent man dealeth with knowledge: but a fool layeth open his folly.

xxix. 11. A fool uttereth all his mind: but a wise man keepeth it in till afterwards.

20. Seest thou a man that is hasty in his words? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

Ec. x. 12. The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious: but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.

13. The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of his talk is mischievous madness.

14. A fool also is full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him who can tell him?

Tit. i. 10. For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, especially they of the circumcision:

11. Whose mouths must be stopped; who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

James iii. 6. And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

7. For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind:

8. But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

29 The LORD is (d) far from the wicked; but (e) he heareth the prayer of the righteous.

(d) Ps. lxxiii. 27. For, lo, they that are far from thee shall perish; thou hast destroyed all them that go a whoring from thee.

Matt. xxv. 26. And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.

Eph. ii. 13. But now, in Christ Jesus, ye who sometimes were far off, are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

(e) John ix. 31. Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

Rom. viii. 26. Likewise, the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

1 Pet. iii. 12. For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil.

30 The (f) light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart; and (g) a good report maketh (h) the bones fat.

(f) Ezra ix. 8. And now, for a little space, grace hath been showed from the Lord our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage.

Ec. xi. 7. Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun.

(g) Ps. lxxxix. 15. Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: they shall walk, O Lord, in the light of thy countenance.

Prov. xxv. 25. As cold waters to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country.

(h) Is. lviii. 11. And the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.

31 The (i) ear that heareth the reproof of life (k) abideth among the wise.

(i) Prov. xix. 20. Hear counsel, and receive instruction, that thou mayest be wise in thy latter end.

xxv. 12. As an ear-ring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reproof upon an obedient ear.

Is. lv. 3. Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

(k) 1 John ii. 19. They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

32 He that (l) refuseth instruction despiseth his own soul; but he that heareth reproof getteth understanding.

(l) Ps. i. 17. Seeing thou hatest instruction, and castest my words behind thee.

Prov. v. 11. And thou mourn at the last, when thy flesh and thy body are consumed, 12. And say, How have I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof.

Heb. xii. 25. See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven.

33 The (m) fear of the LORD is the instruction of wisdom; (n) and before honour is humility.

(m) Job xxviii. 28. And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding.

Ps. cxl. 10. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments: his praise endureth for ever.

(n) Luke xiv. 11. For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

James iv. 10. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

CHAPTER XVI.

THE (a) preparations of the heart in man, (b) and the answer of the tongue, is from the LORD.

(a) Ps. x. 17. Lord, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear.

Jer. x. 23. O Lord, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man that walketh, to direct his steps.

Ez. xxxvi. 26. A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh.

27. And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them.

Phil. ii. 13. For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

(b) Ex. iv. 11. And the Lord said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the Lord?

12. Now, therefore, go, and I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say.

Jer. i. 7. But the Lord said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak.

8. Be not afraid of their faces: for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the Lord.

9. Then the Lord put forth his hand, and touched my mouth: and the Lord said unto me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth.

Matt. x. 19. But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak; for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.

20. For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father, which speaketh in you.

2 All (c) the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; (d) but the LORD weigheth the spirits.

(c) Ps. xxxvi. 2. For he flattereth himself in his own eyes, until his iniquity be found to be hateful.

Jer. ii. 22. For though thou wash thee with nitre, and take thee much soap, yet thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the Lord God.

23. How canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalim? See thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done: thou art a swift dromedary, traversing her ways.

(d) 1 Sam. xvi. 7. But the Lord said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the Lord seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart.

Is. xxvi. 7. The way of the just is uprightness: thou, most upright, dost weigh the path of the just.

Dan. v. 27. Tekel; Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting.

3 Commit (e) thy works unto the LORD, and (f) thy thoughts shall be established.

(e) Job v. 8. I would seek unto God, and unto God would I commit my cause.

Ps. xxxvii. 5. Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in him, and he shall bring it to pass.

1 Pet. v. 7. Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

(f) Job xxii. 28. Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee; and the light shall shine upon thy ways.

Is. vii. 5. Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have taken counsel against thee, saying,

6. Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal:

7. Thus saith the Lord God, It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.

4 The (g) LORD hath made all things for himself; (h) yea, even the wicked for the day of evil.

(g) Is. xliii. 7. Even every one that is called by my name: for I have created him for my glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him.

21. This people have I formed for myself; they shall show forth my praise.

Rom. xi. 36. For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever, Amen.

Rev. iv. 11. Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory, and honour, and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

(h) Job xxi. 30. That the wicked is reserved to the day of destruction? they shall be brought forth to the day of wrath.

Rom. ix. 22. What if God, willing to show his wrath, and to make his power known, endureth with much long-suffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction.

2 Pet. ii. 9. The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished.

5 Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD: though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished.

6 By (i) mercy and truth iniquity is purged; and (k) by the fear of the LORD men depart from evil.

(i) Ps. lxxxv. 10. Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

Mic. vii. 18. Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.

19. He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities: and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

20. Thou wilt perform the truth to Jacob, and the mercy to Abraham, which thou hast sworn unto our fathers from the days of old.

(k) Gen. xx. 11. And Abraham said, Because I thought, Surely the fear of God is not in this place; and they will slay me for my wife's sake.

Job i. 1. There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil.

2 Cor. vii. 1. Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

7 When a man's ways (l) please the LORD, (m) he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.

(l) Ps. lxxix. 31. This also shall please the Lord better than an ox or bullock that hath horns and hoofs.

Col. i. 10. That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God.

iii. 20. Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well-pleasing unto the Lord.

1 John iii. 22. And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

(m) Gen. xxvii. 41. And Esau hated Jacob, because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him: and Esau said in his heart, The days of mourning for my father are at hand, then will I slay my brother Jacob.

xxiii. 6. And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, We came to thy brother Esau, and also he cometh to meet thee, and four hundred men with him.

7. Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed: and he divided the people that was with him, and the flocks and herds, and the camels, into two bands.

28. And he [the angel] said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God, and with men, and hast prevailed.

xxiii. 4. And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck, and kissed him: and they wept.

Jer. xv. 11. The Lord said, Verily it shall be well with thy remnant, verily I will cause the enemy to entreat thee well in the time of evil, and in the time of affliction.

8 Better (n) is a little with righteousness, than (o) great revenues without right.

(n) Ps. xxxvii. 16. A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.

Prov. xv. 16. Better is little with the fear of the Lord, than great treasure and trouble therewith.

1 Tim. vi. 6. But godliness with contentment is great gain.

7. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

8. And having food and raiment, let us be therewith content.

9. But they that will be rich fall into temptation, and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

(o) Prov. xxi. 6. The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death.

7. The robbery of the wicked shall destroy them; because they refuse to do judgment.

Jer. xvii. 11. As the partridge sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so he that getteth riches, and not by right, shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be a fool.

Mic. vi. 10. Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is abominable?

9 A man's (p) heart deviseth his way; but the LORD directeth his steps.

(p) Ps. xxxvii. 23. The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord; and he delighteth in his way.

Prov. xix. 21. There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless, the counsel of the Lord, that shall stand.

xx. 24. Man's goings are of the Lord: how can a man then understand his own way?

xxi. 30. There is no wisdom, nor understanding, nor counsel, against the Lord.

Jer. x. 23. O Lord, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps.

10 A (q) divine sentence is in the lips of the king: his mouth (r) transgresseth not in judgment.

(q) Deut. xvii. 18. And it shall be, when he sitteth upon the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write him a copy of this law in a book out of that which is before the priests the Levites:

19. And it shall be with him, and he shall read therein all the days of his life; that he may learn to fear the Lord his God, to keep all the words of this law, and these statutes, to do them.

20. That his heart be not lifted up above his brethren, and that he turn not aside from the commandment, to the right hand or to the left; to the end that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he, and his children, in the midst of Israel.

2 Sam. xxiii. 3. The God of Israel said, The Rock of Israel spake to me, He that ruleth over men must be just, ruling in the fear of God:

4. And he shall be as the light of the morning, when the sun riseth, even a morning without clouds; as the tender grass springing out of the earth by clear shining after rain.

Is. xxxii. 1. Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment.

2. And a man shall be as a hiding-place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place; as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

Jer. xxiii. 5. Behold, the days cometh, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous branch, and a king shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.

6. In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely; and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

(r) Hos. x. 4. They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springeth up as hemlock in the furrows of the field.

Amos v. 7. Ye who turn judgment to wormwood, and leave off righteousness in the earth.

vi. 12. Shall horses run upon the rock? will one plough there with oxen? for ye have turned judgment into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into hemlock.

11 A (s) just weight and balance are the LORD's: all the weights of the bag are his work.

(s) Lev. xix. 35. Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in mete-yard, in weight, or in measure.

36. Just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin, shall ye have: I am the Lord your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt.

Ez. xlv. 10. Ye shall have just balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath.

Hos. xii. 7. He is a merchant, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to oppress.

Amos viii. 5. Saying, When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and falsifying the balances by deceit?

Mic. vi. 11. Shall I count them pure with the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights?

12 It is (t) an abomination to kings to commit wickedness; (u) for the throne is established by righteousness.

(t) Deut. xxv. 16. For all that do such things, and all that do unrighteously, are an abomination unto the Lord thy God.

Prov. xxviii. 9. He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination.

(u) Ps. xcix. 4. The king's strength also loveth judgment; thou dost establish equity: thou executest judgment and righteousness in Jacob.

Prov. xxv. 5. Take away the wicked from before the king, and his throne shall be established in righteousness.

xxix. 14. The king that faithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established for ever.

13 Righteous lips are the delight of kings; and they love him that speaketh right.

14 The (x) wrath of a king is as (y) messengers of death; (z) but a wise man will pacify it.

(x) Prov. xx. 2. The fear of a king is as the roaring of a lion: whose provoketh him to anger sinneth against his own soul.

Luke xii. 4. And I say unto you, my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

5. But I will forewarn you whom you shall fear. Fear him which, after he hath killed, hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, fear him.

(y) 2 Kings vi. 31. Then he said, God do so and more also to me, if the head of Elisha, the son of Shaphat, shall stand on him this day.

32. But Elisha sat in his house, and the elders sat with him: and the king sent a man from before him: but ere the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, See ye how this son of a murderer hath sent to take away my head? look, when the messenger cometh, shut the door, and hold him fast at the door: is not the sound of his master's feet behind him?

33. And while he yet talked with them, behold, the messenger came down unto him: and he said, Behold, this evil is of the Lord; what should I wait for the Lord any longer?

(z) Ec. x. 4. If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, leave not thy place; for yielding pacifieth great offences.

15. In (a) the light of the king's countenance is life; (b) and his favour is as a cloud of the latter rain.

(a) Job xxix. 23. And they waited for me as for the rain; and they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain.

24. If I laughed on them, they believed it not; and the light of my countenance they cast not down.

Pa. iv. 6. There be many that say, Who will show us any good? Lord, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.

Acts ii. 28. Thou hast made known to me the ways of life: thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

(b) Ps. lxxii. 6. He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass; as showers that water the earth.

Hos. vi. 3. Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the Lord: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

Zech. x. 1. Ask ye of the Lord rain in the time of the latter rain; so the Lord shall make bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field.

16 How much (c) better is it to get wisdom than gold! and to get understanding rather to be chosen than silver!

Ec. vii. 12. For wisdom is a defence, and money is a defence; but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

Matt. xvi. 26. For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

Luke xii. 21. So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.

17 The (d) highway of the upright is to depart from evil: (e) he that keepeth his way preserveth his soul.

(d) Is. xxxv. 8. And an highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called, The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein.

Acts xxiv. 16. And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God and toward men.

(e) Matt. xxiv. 13. But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

Heb. x. 39. But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition, but of them that believe to the saving of the soul.

Jude 21. Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

24. Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy.

Rev. iii. 10. Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

18 (f) Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.

(f) Esth. iii. 5. And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath.

vii. 10. So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

Is. ii. 11. The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down; and the Lord alone shall be exalted on that day.

12. For the day of the Lord of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up, and he shall be brought low.

Ob. 3. The pride of thy heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

4. Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the Lord.

Rom. xi. 20. Well; because of unbelief they were broken off; and thou standest by faith. Be not high-minded, but fear.

19 Better it is (g) to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, (h) than to divide the spoil with the proud.

(g) Ps. xxxiv. 18. The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.

xxxviii. 6. Though the Lord be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly: but the proud he knoweth afar off.

Matt. v. 3. Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

(h) Ec. xv. 9. The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; my lust shall be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them.

Is. ix. 3. Thou hast multiplied the nation, and not increased the joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

20 He that handleth a matter wisely shall find good: and (i) whose trusteth in the LORD, happy is he.

(i) Ps. ii. 12. Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

xxxiv. 8. O taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

cxv. 1. They that trust in the Lord shall be as Mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.

Is. xxvi. 3. Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee; because he trusteth in thee.

4. Trust ye in the Lord for ever: for in the Lord JEHOVAH is everlasting strength.

Jer. xvii. 7. Blessed is the man that trusteth in the Lord; and whose hope the Lord is.

Eph. i. 12. That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.

21 The (k) wise in heart shall be called prudent; and (l) the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning.

(k) 1 Kings iii. 12. Behold, I have done according to thy word: lo, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart; so that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee.

Rom. xvi. 19. For your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad, therefore, on your behalf: but yet I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil.

(l) Ps. xlv. 2. Thou art fairer than the children of men; grace is poured into thy lips: therefore God hath blessed thee for ever.

Ec. xii. 10. The preacher sought to find out acceptable words: and that which was written was upright, even words of truth.

Is. l. 4. The Lord God hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning; he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned.

Luke iv. 22. And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this Joseph's son?

John vii. 46. The officers answered, Never man spake like this man.

22 Understanding is (m) a well-spring of life unto him that hath it; but the instruction of fools is folly.

(m) Prov. xiv. 27. The fear of the Lord is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.

xviii. 4. The words of a man's mouth are as deep waters, and the well-spring of wisdom as a flowing brook.

John vi. 63. It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

68. Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life.

23 The (n) heart of the wise teacheth his mouth, and addeth learning to his lips.

(n) Ps. xxxvii. 30. The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgment.

31. The law of his God is in his heart; none of his steps shall slide.

xlv. 1. My heart is inditing a good matter: I speak of the things which I have made touching the king; my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

Matt. xii. 34. O generation of vipers! how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

35. A good man, out of the good treasure of the heart, bringeth forth good things: and an evil man, out of the evil treasure, bringeth forth evil things.

Col. iii. 16. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

24 (o) Pleasant words are as (p) a honey-comb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.

(o) Deut. xxxii. 2. My doctrine shall drop as the rain, my speech shall distil as the dew, as the small rain upon the tender herb, and as the showers upon the grass.

Prov. xv. 23. A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth; and a word spoken in due season, how good is it!

26. The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the Lord: but the words of the pure are pleasant words.

(p) Ps. xix. 10. More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honey-comb.

cxix. 103. How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

Can. iv. 11. Thy lips, O my spouse, drop as the honey-comb; honey and milk are under thy tongue; and the smell of thy garments is like the smell of Lebanon.

25 There is (q) a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

(q) Is. xxviii. 15. Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves.

16. Therefore, thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner-stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste.

17. Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet; and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding-place.

John ix. 40. And some of the Pharisees which were with him, heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also?

2 Cor. xiii. 5. Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

26 He that laboureth, (r) laboureth for himself; for his mouth craveth it of him.

(r) Ec. vi. 7. All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled.

12. That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.

27 An ungodly man (s) diggeth up evil; and (t) in his lips there is as a burning fire.

(s) Ps. vii. 14. Behold, he travaileth with iniquity, and hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood.

15. He made a pit, and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made.

Hab. ii. 13. Behold, is it not of the Lord of hosts that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity?

(t) Ps. lvii. 4. My soul is among lions, and I lie even among them that are set on fire, even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.

James iii. 6. And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

28 A (u) froward man soweth strife: and (x) a whisperer separateth chief friends.

(u) 1 Tim. vi. 3. If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness,

4. He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings,

5. Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself.

James iii. 14. But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15. This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish.

16. For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work.

(x) 1 Sam. xxiv. 9. And David said to Saul, Wherefore hearest thou men's words, saying, Behold, David seeketh thy hurt?

Rom. i. 29. Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers.

2 Cor. xii. 20. For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults.

29 A violent man enticeth his neighbour, and leadeth him into the way that is not good.

30 He (y) shutteth his eyes to devise froward things: (z) moving his lips he bringeth evil to pass.

(y) Is. vi. 10. Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.

Matt. xiii. 15. For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

John iii. 20. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

(z) Mic. vii. 3. That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man he uttereth his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

Matt. xiv. 7. Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask.

8. And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptist's head in a charger.

31 The (a) hoary head is a crown of glory, (b) if it be found in the way of righteousness.

(a) Lev. xix. 32. Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head, and honour the face of the old man, and fear thy God: I am the Lord.

Job xxxii. 6. And Elihu the son of Barachel, the Buzite, answered and said, I am young, and ye are very old; wherefore I was afraid, and durst not show you mine opinion.

7. I said, Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.

Prov. xx. 29. The glory of young men is their strength, and the beauty of old men is the gray head.

(b) Gen. xlvii. 7. And Joseph brought in Jacob his father, and set him before Pharaoh: and Jacob blessed Pharaoh.

8. And Pharaoh said unto Jacob, How old art thou?

9. And Jacob said unto Pharaoh, The days of the years of my pilgrimage are an hundred and thirty years: few and evil have the days of the years of my life been, and have not attained unto the days of the years of the life of my fathers, in the days of their pilgrimage.

10. And Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh.

1 Sam. xii. 2. And now, behold, the king walketh before you: and I am old and gray-headed; and behold, my sons are with you; and I have walked before you from my childhood unto this day.

3. Behold, here I am: witness against me before the Lord, and before his anointed; whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I received any bribe to blind mine eyes therewith? and I will restore it you.

4. And they said, Thou hast not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, neither hast thou taken aught of any man's hand.

5. And he said unto them, The Lord is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that ye have not found aught in my hand. And they answered, He is witness.

32 He (c) that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; (d) and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.

(c) Prov. xiv. 29. He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding: but he that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly.

xv. 18. A wrathful man stirreth up strife: but he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife.

xix. 11. The discretion of a man deferreth his anger; and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.

James i. 19. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath.

(d) Prov. xxv. 28. He that hath no rule over his own spirit, is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.

Rev. iii. 21. To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

33 The (e) lot is cast into the lap; but the whole disposing thereof is of the LORD.

(e) Josh. vii. 14. In the morning therefore ye shall be brought according to your tribes: and it shall be, that the tribe which the Lord taketh shall come according to the families thereof; and the family which the Lord shall take shall come by households; and the household which the Lord shall take shall come man by man.

xviii. 10. And Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the Lord: and there Joshua divided the land unto the children of Israel, according to their divisions.

1 Sam. xiv. 41. Therefore Saul said unto the Lord God of Israel, Give a perfect lot. And Saul and Jonathan were taken; but the people escaped.

42. And Saul said, Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was taken.

Neh. xi. 1. And the rulers of the people dwelt at Jerusalem: the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine parts to dwell in other cities.

Acts i. 26. And they gave forth their lots: and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHAPTER XVII.

BETTER is (a) a dry morsel, and quietness therewith, than (b) an house full of sacrifices (c) with strife.

(a) Ps. xxxvii. 16. A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.

Prov. xv. 17. Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox, and hatred therewith.

(b) Prov. vii. 14. I have peace-offerings with me; this day have I paid my vows.

(c) Prov. xxi. 9. It is better to dwell in a corner of the house-top, than with a brawling woman in a wide house.

19. It is better to dwell in the wilderness, than with a contentious and an angry woman.

2 A (d) wise servant shall have rule over a son (e) that causeth shame, and shall have part of the inheritance among the brethren.

(d) Prov. xi. 29. He that troubleth his own house shall inherit the wind: and the fool shall be servant to the wise of heart.

xiv. 35. The king's favour is toward a wise servant: but his wrath is against him that causeth shame.

(e) Prov. x. 5. He that gathereth in summer is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest is a son that causeth shame.

xix. 26. He that wasteth his father, and chaseth away his mother, is a son that causeth shame, and bringeth reproach.

3 The (f) fining-pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold; but the LORD trieth the hearts.

(f) Ps. xxvi. 2. Examine me, O Lord, and prove me; try my reins and my heart.

lxvi. 10. For thou, O God, hast proved us: and thou hast tried us, as silver is tried.

Prov. xxvii. 21. As the fining-pot for silver, and the furnace for gold, so is a man to his praise.

Is. xlvi. 10. Behold, I have refined thee, but not with silver; I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction.

Jer. xvii. 10. I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

Zech. xiii. 9. And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them; I will say, It is my people; and they shall say, The Lord is my God.

Mal. iii. 2. But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fuller's soap:

3. And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness.

1 Pet. i. 7. That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise, and honour, and glory, at the appearing of Jesus Christ.

Rev. ii. 23. And I will kill her children with death: and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts; and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

4 A (g) wicked doer giveth heed to false lips; and a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue.

(g) Prov. xxviii. 4. They that forsake the law praise the wicked: but such as keep the law contend with them.

Is. xxx. 10. Which say to the seers, See not: and to the prophets, Prophesy not unto us right things; speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits.

Jer. v. 31. The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

2 Tim. iv. 3. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine: but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

4. And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

1 John iv. 5. They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them.

5 Whoso (h) mocketh the poor reproacheth his Maker: (i) and he that is glad at calamities shall not be unpunished.

(h) Ps. lxxix. 9. For the zeal of thy house hath eaten me up; and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me.

Prov. xiv. 21. He that despiseth his neighbour sinneth: but he that hath mercy on the poor, happy is he.

31. He that oppresseth the poor reproacheth his Maker: but he that honoureth him hath mercy on the poor.

1 John iii. 17. But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?

(i) Job xxxi. 29. If I rejoiced at the destruction of him that hated me, or lifted up myself when evil found him.

Jer. xvii. 16. As for me, I have not hastened from being a pastor to follow thee; neither have I desired the woful day, thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was right before thee.

Ob. 12. But thou shouldest not have looked on the day of thy brother, in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldest thou have rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldest thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress.

13. Thou shouldest not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; yea, thou shouldest not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity.

Rom. xii. 15. Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

6 Children's children are the crown of old men; (k) and the glory of children are their fathers.

(k) Ex. iii. 15. And God said, moreover, unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations.

1 Kings xi. 12. Notwithstanding, in thy days I will not do it, for David thy father's sake: but I will rend it out of the hand of thy son.

xv. 4. Nevertheless, for David's sake, did the Lord his God give him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem.

7 Excellent (l) speech becometh not a fool: (m) much less do lying lips a prince.

(l) Ps. i. 16. But unto the wicked God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth?

17. Seeing thou hatest instruction, and castest my words behind thee.

Matt. vii. 5. Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

(m) 2 Sam. xxiii. 3. The God of Israel said, the Rock of Israel spake to me, He that ruleth over men must be just, ruling in the fear of God.

8 (n) A gift is as a precious stone in the eyes of him that hath it: (o) whithersoever it turneth, it prospereth.

(n) Ex. xxiii. 8. And thou shalt take no gift: for the gift blindeth the wise, and perverteth the words of the righteous.

Deut. xvi. 19. Thou shalt not wrest judgment: thou shalt not respect persons, neither take a gift: for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous.

Prov. xviii. 16. A man's gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men.

xix. 6. Many will entreat the favour of the prince; and every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts.

(o) Gen. xliii. 11. And their father Israel said unto them, If it must be so now, do this; Take of the best fruit of the land in your vessels, and carry down the man a present, a little balm, and a little honey, spices and myrrh, nuts and almonds.

1 Sam. xxv. 35. So David received of her hand that which she had brought him, and said unto her, Go up in peace to thy house: see, I have hearkened to thy voice, and have accepted thy person.

9 He (p) that covereth a transgression seeketh love; but he that repeateth a matter separateth very friends.

(p) Ps. xxxii. 1. Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

Prov. x. 12. Hatred stirreth up strifes: but love covereth all sins.

1 Pet. iv. 8. And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins.

10 A reproof entereth more into a wise man, than an hundred stripes into a fool.

11 An (q) evil man seeketh only rebellion: therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.

(q) 2 Sam. xx. 1. And there happened to be there a man of Belial, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjamite: and he blew a trumpet, and said, We have no part in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to his tents, O Israel.

22. Then the woman went unto all the people in her wisdom: and they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and cast it out to Joab.

And he blew a trumpet, and they retired from the city, every man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem unto the king.

12 Let (r) a bear robbed of her whelps meet a man, (s) rather than a fool in his folly.

(r) 2 Sam. xvii. 8. For, said Hushai, thou knowest thy father and his men, that they be mighty men, and they be chafed in their minds, as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field: and thy father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people.

2 Kings ii. 24. And he turned back, and looked on them, and cursed them in the name of the Lord. And there came forth two she-bears out of the wood, and tare forty and two children of them.

Hos. xiii. 8. I will meet them as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the caul of their heart, and there will I devour them like a lion: the wild beast shall tear them.

(s) Prov. xxvii. 3. A stone is heavy, and the sand weighty: but a fool's wrath is heavier than them both.

Matt. ii. 16. Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently inquired of the wise men.

13 Whoso (t) rewardeth evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.

(t) 1 Sam. xxiv. 17. And he [Saul] said to David, Thou art more righteous than I: for thou hast rewarded me good, whereas I have rewarded thee evil.

xxxi. 2. And the Philistines followed hard upon Saul, and upon his sons; and the Philistines slew Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchi-shua, Saul's sons.

3. And the battle went sore against Saul, and the archers hit him; and he was sore wounded of the archers.

Ps. xxxv. 12. They rewarded me evil for good, to the spoiling of my soul.

xxxviii. 20. They also that render evil for good are mine adversaries; because I follow the thing that good is.

Jer. xviii. 20. Shall evil be recompensed for good? for they have digged a pit for my soul. Remember that I stood before thee to speak good for them, and to turn away thy wrath from them.

21. Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and pour out their blood by the force of the sword; and let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows; and let their men be put to death; let their young men be slain by the sword in battle.

14 The (u) beginning of strife is us when one letteth out water: therefore (x) leave off contention, before it be meddled with.

(u) Prov. xxvi. 21. As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire; so is a contentious man to kindle strife.

xxix. 22. An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

(x) Gen. xiii. 8. And Abram said unto Lot, Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen: for we be brethren.

9. Is not the whole land before thee? Separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: If thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if thou depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left.

Judg. viii. 1. And the men of Ephraim said unto him, Why hast thou served us thus, that thou calledst us not when thou wentest to fight with the Midianites? And they did chide with him sharply.

2. And he said unto them, What have I done now in comparison of you? Is not the gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abi-ezer?

3. God hath delivered into your hands the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparison with you? Then their anger was abated toward him, when he had said that.

Rom. xiii. 18. If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

15 He that (y) justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, even they both are abomination to the LORD.

(y) Ex. xxiii. 7. Keep thee far from a false matter; and the innocent and righteous slay thou not: for I will not justify the wicked.

1 Kings xxi. 13. And there came in two men, children of Belial, and sat before him: and the men of Belial witnessed against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did blaspheme God and the king. Then they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he died.

Is. v. 23. Which justify the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him.

James v. 6. Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you.

16 Wherefore is there (z) a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, (a) seeing he hath no heart to it?

(z) Prov. viii. 4. Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man.

5. O ye simple, understand wisdom; and, ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.

2 Cor. vi. 1. We then, as workers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

(a) Deut. v. 29. Oh that there were such an heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my commandments always, that it might be well with them, and with their children for ever!

Ps. lxxxi. 11. But my people would not hearken to my voice: and Israel would none of me.

12 So I gave them up unto their own hearts' lust; and they walked in their own counsels.

13. Oh that my people had hearkened unto me, and Israel had walked in my ways!

17 A friend (b) loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

(b) Ruth i. 16. And Ruth said, Entreat me not to leave thee, or to return from following after thee: for whither thou goest I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge: thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God.

1 Sam. xviii. 3. Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.

xxiii. 16. And Jonathan, Saul's son, arose, and went to David into the wood, and strengthened his hand in God.

2 Sam. i. 26. I am distressed for thee, my brother Jonathan: very pleasant hast thou been unto me: thy love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women.

Prov. xviii. 24. A man that hath friends must show himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

John xv. 13. Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14. Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

18 A man (c) void of understanding striketh hands, and becometh surety in the presence of his friend.

(c) Prov. vi. 1. My son, if thou be surety for thy friend, if thou hast stricken thy hand with a stranger,

2. Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth.

3. Do this now, my son, and deliver thyself, when thou art come into the hand of thy friend; go, humble thyself, and make sure thy friend.

4. Give not sleep to thine eyes, nor slumber to thine eyelids.

5. Deliver thyself as a roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler.

xi. 15. He that is surety for a stranger shall smart for it: and he that hateth suretyship is sure.

xx. 16. Take his garment that is surety for a stranger; and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

xxii. 26. Be not thou one of them that strike hands, or of them that are sureties for debts.

27. If thou hast nothing to pay, why should he take away thy bed from under thee?

19 He (d) loveth transgression that loveth strife, and (e) he that exalteth his gate seeketh destruction.

(d) Prov. xxix. 9. If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.

22. An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

2 Cor. xii. 20. For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, stripes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults.

James i. 20. For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

iii. 14. But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15. This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish.

16. For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work.

(e) 1 Sam. xxv. 36. And Abigail came to Nabal: and, behold, he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king; and Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light.

37. But it came to pass in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, and his wife had told him these things, that his heart died within him, and he became as a stone.

38. And it came to pass, about ten days after, that the Lord smote Nabal, that he died.

2 Sam. xv. 1. And it came to pass after this, that Absalom prepared him chariots, and horses, and fifty men to run before him.

1 Kings i. 5. Then Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, I will be king: and he prepared him chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.

Prov. xvi. 18. Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.

xviii. 12. Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, and before honour is humility.

Jer. xxii. 13. Wo unto him that buildeth his house by unrighteousness, and his chambers by wrong; that useth his neighbour's service without wages, and giveth him not for his work;

14. That saith, I will build me a wide house, and large chambers, and cutteth him out windows; and it is ceiled with cedar, and painted with vermilion!

15. Shalt thou reign because thou closest thyself in cedar? Did not thy father eat and drink, and do judgment and justice, and then it was well with him?

Dan. iv. 30. The king spake and said, Is not this great Babylon that I have built for the house of the kingdom, by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?

31. While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee.

20 He that (f) hath a froward heart findeth no good; (g) and he that hath a perverse tongue falleth into mischief.

(f) Ps. xviii. 26. With the pure thou wilt show thyself pure; and with the froward thou wilt show thyself froward.

Prov. iii. 32. For the froward is abomination to the Lord: but his secret is with the righteous. vi. 12. A naughty person, a wicked man, walketh with a froward mouth.

13. He winketh with his eyes, he speaketh with his feet, he teacheth with his fingers;

14. Frowardness is in his heart, he deviseth mischief continually; he soweth discord.

15. Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly; suddenly shall he be broken without remedy.

viii. 13. The fear of the Lord is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate.

(g) Prov. x. 10. He that winketh with the eye causeth sorrow; but a prating fool shall fall.

14. Wise men lay up knowledge: but the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

31. The mouth of the just bringeth forth wisdom: but the froward tongue shall be cut out.

Ec. x. 12. The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious: but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.

James iii. 6. And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

7. For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind:

8. But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

21 He (h) that begetteth a fool doeth it to his sorrow; and the father of a fool (i) hath no joy.

(h) 1 Sam. ii. 32. And thou shalt see an enemy in my habitation, in all the wealth which God shall give Israel: and there shall not be an old man in thy house for ever.

33. And the man of thine, whom I shall not cut off from mine altar, shall be to consume thine eyes, and to grieve thy heart: and all the increase of thy house shall die in the flower of their age.

34. And this shall be a sign unto thee, that shall come upon thy two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas: in one day they shall die both of them.

viii. 3. And his sons walked not in his ways, but turned aside after lucre, and took bribes, and perverted judgment.

2 Sam. xviii. 33. And the king was much moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept; and as he went, thus he said, O my son Absalom! my son, my son Absalom! would God I had died for thee, O Absalom, my son, my son!

(i) 2 Cor. ii. 3. And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

Philem. 19. I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides.

20. Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my bowels in the Lord.

3 John 4. I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in the truth.

22 A (k) merry heart doeth good like a medicine; but (l) a broken spirit drieth the bones.

(k) Ec. ix. 7. Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God now accepteth thy works.

Rom. v. 2. By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

3. And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience.

(l) Ps. xxii. 15. My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

2 Cor. ii. 7. So that, contrariwise, ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such an one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

2 Cor. vii. 10. For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

23 A wicked man (m) taketh a gift (n) out of the bosom, to pervert the ways of judgment.

(m) Deut. xvi. 19. Thou shalt not wrest judgment; thou shalt not respect persons, neither take a gift: for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous.

Is. i. 23. Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

Ez. xxii. 12. In thee have they taken gifts to shed blood; thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and hast forgotten me, saith the Lord God.

(n) Prov. xxi. 14. A gift in secret pacifieth anger, and a reward in the bosom strong wrath.

24 Wisdom is (o) before him that hath understanding; but (p) the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.

(o) Ec. ii. 14. The wise man's eyes are in his head, but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also that one event happeneth to them all.

John vii. 17. If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

(p) Ps. cxix. 37. Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity; and quicken thou me in thy way.

Ec. vi. 9. Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

1 John ii. 16. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

25 A (q) foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness to her that bare him.

(q) Ec. ii. 18. Yea, I hated all my labour which I had taken under the sun; because I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me.

19. And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have showed myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity.

26 Also (r) to punish the just is not good, nor (s) to strike princes for equity.

(r) Gen. xviii. 25. That be far from thee to do after this manner, to slay the righteous with the wicked; and that the righteous should be as the wicked, that be far from thee. Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?

Prov. xviii. 5. It is not good to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment.

(s) Job xxxiv. 18. Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art wicked? and to princes, Ye are ungodly?

19. How much less to him that accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the poor? for they all are the work of his hands.

Mic. v. 1. Now gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us; they shall smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.

John xviii. 22. And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23. Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?

27 He that hath knowledge (t) spareth his words; and a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit.

(t) Prov. x. 19. In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but he that refraineth his lips is wise.

xv. 28. The heart of the righteous studieth to answer: but the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things.

James i. 19. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath.

ii. 2. For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

28 Even (u) a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise; and he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding.

(u) Job xiii. 5. Oh that you would altogether hold your peace! and it should be your wisdom.

Prov. xv. 2. The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright: but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness.

Ec. v. 3. For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; and a fool's voice is known by multitude of words.

x. 14. A fool also is full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him who can tell?

CHAPTER XVIII.

THROUGH desire a man, having separated himself, seeketh and intermeddeth with all wisdom.

2 A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself.

3 When (a) the wicked cometh, then cometh also contempt, and with ignominy reproach.

(a) Neh. iv. 4. Hear, O our God; for we are despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity.

Ps. lxxix. 9. For the zeal of thy house hath eaten me up; and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me.

20. Reproach hath broken my heart, and I am full of heaviness: and I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none.

cxxiii. 3. Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.

4. Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud.

1 Pet. iv. 14. If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

4 The (b) words of a man's mouth are as deep waters, and the well-spring of wisdom as a flowing brook.

(b) Matt. xii. 34. O generation of vipers! how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

John iv. 14. But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him, shall never thirst: but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water, springing up into everlasting life.

Col. iii. 16. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs: singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

iv. 6. Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

5 It is (c) not good to accept the person of the wicked, (d) to overthrow the righteous in judgment.

(c) Lev. xix. 15. Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment: thou shalt not respect the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty: but in righteousness shalt thou judge thy neighbour.

Deut. i. 16. And I charged your judges at that time, saying, Hear the causes between your brethren, and judge righteously between every man and his brother, and the stranger that is with him.

17. Ye shall not respect persons in judgment; but you shall hear the small as well as the great; you shall not be afraid of the face of man; for the judgment is God's: and the cause that is too hard for you, bring it unto me, and I will hear it.

Job xxxiv. 19. How much less to him that accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the poor: for they all are the work of his hands.

Matt. xxii. 16. And they sent out unto him their disciples, with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man; for thou regardest not the person of men.

(d) Is. v. 23. Which justify the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him.

lix. 14. And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.

6 A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.

7 A fool's mouth is his destruction, and (e) his lips are the snare of his soul.

(e) Judg. xi. 35. And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he rent his clothes, and said, Alas, my daughter! thou hast brought me very low, and thou art one of them that trouble me: for I have opened my mouth unto the Lord, and I cannot go back.

Mark vi. 23. And he sware unto her, Whatever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.

24. And she went forth and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist.

25. And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me, by and by, in a charger, the head of John the Baptist.

26. And the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.

8 The (f) words of a tale-bearer are as wounds, and they go down into the inmost parts of the belly.

(f) Lev. xix. 16. Thou shalt not go up and down as a tale-bearer among thy people; neither shalt thou stand against the blood of thy neighbour: I am the Lord.

Ps. lii. 2. Thy tongue deviseth mischiefs like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

lxix. 3. Who whet their tongue like a sword, and bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words,

4. That they may shoot in secret at the perfect: suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not.

Prov. xii. 18. There is that speaketh like the piercings of a sword: but the tongue of the wise is health.

xvi. 28. A froward man soweth strife; and a whisperer separateth chief friends.

xxvi. 20. Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out; so where there is no tale-bearer, the strife ceaseth.

21. As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire, so is a contentious man to kindle strife.

9 He also (g) that is slothful in his work, (h) is brother to him that is a great waster.

(g) Prov. x. 4. He becometh poor that deal-eth with a slack hand: but the hand of the diligent maketh rich.

xxiii. 20. Be not among wine-bibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh:

21. For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty; and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.

xxiv. 30. I went by the field of the slothful, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding;

31. And, lo, it was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered the face thereof, and the stone-wall thereof was broken down.

32. Then I saw, and considered it well: I looked upon it, and received instruction.

33. Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

34. So shall thy poverty come as one that travaileth; and thy want as an armed man.

Matt. xxv. 26. His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed.

(h) Luke xv. 13. And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

xvi. 1. And he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2. And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.

10 The (i) name of the LORD is (k) a strong tower: (l) the righteous runneth into it, and is safe.

(i) Gen. xvii. 1. And when Abram was ninety years old and nine, the Lord appeared to Abram, and said unto him, I am the Almighty God; walk before me, and be thou perfect.

Ex. iii. 13. And Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say to me, What is his name? what shall I say unto them?

14. And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you.

15. And God said, moreover, unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations.

vi. 3. And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God Almighty; but by my name JEHOVAH was I not known to them.

xxxiv. 5. And the Lord descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the Lord.

6. And the Lord passed by before him, and proclaimed, The Lord, The Lord God, merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth,

7. Keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity, and transgression, and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, unto the third and to the fourth generation.

Is. ix. 6. For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

Ivii. 15. For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

Jer. xxiii. 6. In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely; and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

Matt. i. 23. Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel; which, being interpreted, is, God with us.

Rev. i. 8. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

(k) 2 Sam. xxii. 3. The God of my rock; in him will I trust: he is my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower, and my refuge, my saviour; thou savest me from violence.

51. He is the tower of salvation for his king; and showeth mercy to his anointed, unto David, and to his seed for evermore.

Ps. xviii. 2. The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

Ixi. 3. For thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy.

4. I will abide in thy tabernacle for ever; I will trust in the covert of thy wings. Selah.

cxlv. 2. My goodness, and my fortress; my high tower, and my deliverer; my shield, and he in whom I trust; who subdueth my people under me.

Is. xxvi. 4. Trust ye in the Lord for ever: for in the Lord Jehovah is everlasting strength.

(l) 2 Sam. xxii. 45. Strangers shall submit themselves unto me: as soon as they hear, they shall be obedient unto me.

46. Strangers shall fade away, and they shall be afraid out of their close places.

47. The Lord liveth, and blessed be my rock; and exalted be the God of the rock of my salvation.

Ps. lvi. 3. What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee.

4. In God I will praise his word; in God I have put my trust: I will not fear what flesh can do unto me.

11 The (m) rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as an high wall in his own conceit.

(m) Deut. xxxii. 31. For their rock is not as our rock, even our enemies themselves being judges.

Ps. lii. 5. God shall likewise destroy thee for ever: he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling-place, and root thee out of the land of the living. Selah.

6. The righteous also shall see, and fear, and shall laugh at him.

7. Lo, this is the man, that made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.

Ixii. 10. Trust not in oppression, become not vain in robbery: if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

11. God hath spoken once; twice have I heard this, that power belongeth unto God.

Ec. vii. 12. For wisdom is a defence, and money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

Luke xii. 19. And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

20. But God said unto him, Thou fool! this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?

21. So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.

12 Before (n) destruction the heart of man is haughty; (o) and before honour is humility.

(n) Prov. xi. 2. When pride cometh, then cometh shame: but with the lowly is wisdom.

xvi. 18. Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.

xxix. 23. A man's pride shall bring him low: but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit.

Ez. xvi. 49. Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom, pride, fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness, was in her, and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy.

50. And they were haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away as I saw good.

xxviii. 2. Son of man, say unto the prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord God, Because thy heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, I am a god, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the sea: yet thou art a man, and not God, though thou set thy heart as the heart of God.

9. Wilt thou yet say before him that slayeth thee, I am God? but thou shalt be a man, and no God, in the hand of him that slayeth thee.

Acts. xii. 21. And upon a set day, Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.

(o) Prov. xv. 33. The fear of the Lord is the instruction of wisdom; and before honour is humility.

1 Pet. v. 5. Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder: yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

13 He (p) that answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him.

(p) Deut. xiii. 14. Then shalt thou inquire, and make search, and ask diligently; and, behold, if it be truth, and the thing certain, that such abomination is wrought among you.

Job xxix. 16. I was a father to the poor: and the cause which I knew not I searched out.

John. xii. 51. Both our law judge any man before it hear him, and know what he doeth?

14 The (q) spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity; (r) but a wounded spirit who can bear?

(q) Job i. 20. Then Job arose and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped.

21. And said, Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord.

Rom. v. 3. And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

4. And patience, experience; and experience, hope;

5. And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost, which is given unto us.

2 Cor. xii. 9. And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly, therefore, will I rather glory in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10. Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

(r) Ps. lxxvii. 2. In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord: my sore ran in the night, and ceased not: my soul refused to be comforted.

3. I remembered God, and was troubled: I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah.

lxxxviii. 14. Lord, why castest thou off my soul? why hidest thou thy face from me?

15. I am afflicted and ready to die, from my youth up: while I suffer thy terrors I am distracted.

16. Thy fierce wrath goeth over me; thy terrors have cut me off.

cix. 22. For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.

Prov. xvii. 22. A merry heart doeth good like a medicine: but a broken spirit drieth the bones.

Mark xiv. 33. And he taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy;

34. And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.

15 The (s) heart of the prudent getteth knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge.

(s) 1 Kings iii. 9. Give therefore thy servant an understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy so great a people?

Luke x. 39. And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word.

2 Tim. iii. 15. And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith that is in Christ Jesus.

16. All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness;

17. That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

James i. 5. If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

16 A man's gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men.

17 He (t) that is first in his own cause seemeth just; but his neighbour cometh and searcheth him.

(t) 2 Sam. xvi. 1. And when David was a little past the top of the hill, behold, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met him, with a couple of asses saddled, and upon them two hundred loaves of bread, and a hundred bunches of raisins, and a hundred of summer fruits, and a bottle of wine.

2. And the king said unto Ziba, What meanest thou by these? And Ziba said, The asses be for the king's household to ride on; and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat; and the wine, that such as be faint in the wilderness may drink.

3. And the king said, And where is thy master's son? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he shideth at Jerusalem: for he said, To-day shall the house of Israel restore me the kingdom of my father.

xix. 24. And Mephibosheth, the son of Saul, came down to meet the king, and had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came again in peace.

25. And it came to pass, when he was come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said unto him, Wherefore wentest thou not with me, Mephibosheth?

26. And he answered, My lord, O king, my servant deceived me: for thy servant said, I will saddle me an ass, that I may ride thereon, and go to the king; because thy servant is lame.

27. And he hath slandered thy servant unto my lord the king; but my lord the king is as an angel of God: do, therefore, what is good in thine eyes.

18 The (u) lot causeth contentions to cease, and parteth between the mighty.

(u) Josh. xiv. 2. By lot was their inheritance, as the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half tribe.

1 Sam. xiv. 42. And Saul said, Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was taken.

1 Chr. vi. 63. Unto the sons of Merari were given by lot, throughout their families; out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.

Neh. xi. 1. And the rulers of the people dwelt at Jerusalem: the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine parts to dwell in other cities.

19 A (x) brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city; and their contentions are like the bars of a castle.

(x) Gen. iv. 5. But unto Cain and to his offering he had not respect. And Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell.

6. And the Lord said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen?

7. If thou doest well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door. And unto thee shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.

8. And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him.

2 Sam. xiii. 22. And Absalom spake unto his brother Amnon neither good nor bad: for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

28. Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon's heart is merry with wine; and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon; then kill him, fear not; have not I commanded you? be courageous, and be valiant.

20 A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.

21 (y) Death and life are in the power of the tongue; and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

(y) Matt. xii. 36. But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.

37. For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

2 Cor. ii. 16. To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things?

Col. iv. 6. Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

Tit. i. 10. For there are many unruly and vain talkers, and deceivers, especially they of the circumcision:

11. Whose mouths must be stopped; who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

22 Whoso (z) findeth a wife findeth a good thing; (a) and obtaineth favour of the Lord.

(z) Gen. xxiv. 67. And Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent, and took Rebekah, and she became his wife, and he loved her: and Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

xxix. 20. And Jacob served seven years for Rachel; and they seemed unto him but a few days, for the love he had to her.

Ec. ix. 9. Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest, all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest under the sun.

(a) Prov. iii. 4. So shalt thou find favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man. viii. 35. For whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the Lord.

23 The (b) poor useth entreaties; but (c) the rich answereth roughly.

(b) 1 Sam. ii. 36. And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left in thy house shall come and crouch to him for a piece of silver and a morsel of bread, and shall say, Put me, I pray thee, into one of the priest's offices, that I may eat a piece of bread.

Is. lxvi. 2. For all these things hath my hand made, and all these things have been, saith the Lord: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor, and of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at my word.

(c) Gen. xlii. 7. And Joseph saw his brethren, and he knew them, but made himself strange unto them, and spake roughly unto them; and he said unto them, Whence come ye? And they said, From the land of Canaan, to buy food.

1 Sam. xxv. 10. And Nabal answered David's servants, and said, Who is David? and who is the son of Jesse? There be many servants now-a-days that break away every man from his master.

11. Shall I then take my bread and my water, and my flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and give it unto men whom I know not whence they be.

24 A man (d) that hath friends must show himself friendly; and (e) there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

(d) 2 Sam. xvi. 17. And Absalom said to Hushai, Is this thy kindness to thy friend? why wentest thou not with thy friend?

Prov. xvii. 17. A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

xxvii. 9. Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart; so doth the sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel.

(e) 2 Sam. i. 26. I am distressed for thee, my brother Jonathan: very pleasant hast thou been unto me: thy love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women.

Prov. xxvii. 10. Thine own friend, and thy father's friend, forsake not; neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: for better is a neighbour that is near than a brother far off.

John. xv. 14. Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15. Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

CHAPTER XIX.

BETTER (a) is the poor that walketh in his integrity, than he that is (b) perverse in his lips, and is a fool.

(a) Ps. xxxvii. 25. I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread.

26. He is ever merciful, and lendeth; and his seed is blessed.

Prov. xvi. 8. Better is a little with righteousness, than great revenues without right.

xxviii. 6. Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.

(b) 1 Sam. xxv. 25. Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard this man of Belial, even Nabal: for as his name is, so is he; Nabal is his name, and folly is with him: but I thy handmaid saw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didst send.

Is. lix. 3. For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness.

2 Also, (c) that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good; (d) and he that hasteth with his feet sinneth.

(c) Ec. xii. 9. And, moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order, many proverbs.

Is. xxvii. 11. When the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off: the women come and set them on fire; for it is a people of no understanding: therefore, he that made them will not have mercy on them, and he that formed them will show them no favour.

Hos. iv. 6. My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me; seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

Rom. x. 2. For I bear them record, that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

Phil. i. 9. And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment.

(d) Job xxxi. 5. If I have walked with vanity, or if my foot hath hastened to deceit.

Is. xxviii. 16. Therefore, thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner-stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste.

3 The (e) foolishness of a man perverteth his way; and his heart (f) fretteth against the LORD.

(c) 1 Sam. xiii. 13. And Samuel said to Saul, Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandment of the Lord thy God, which he commanded thee; for now would the Lord have established thy kingdom upon Israel for ever.

(f) Ps. xxxvii. 1. Fret not thyself because of evil-doers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

7. Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

Is. viii. 21. And they shall pass through it, hardly bestead and hungry: and it shall come to pass, that, when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and curse their king, and their God, and look upward.

22. And they shall look unto the earth; and behold trouble and darkness, dimness of anguish; and they shall be driven to darkness.

4 Wealth (g) maketh many friends; but (h) the poor is separated from his neighbour.

(g) Prov. xiv. 20. The poor is hated, even of his own neighbour: but the rich hath many friends.

Luke xv. 13. And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

(h) Job xix. 13. He hath put my brethren far from me, and mine acquaintance are verily estranged from me

14. My kinsfolk have failed, and my familiar friends have forgotten me.

15. They that dwell in my house, and my maids, count me for a stranger: I am an alien in their sight.

16. I called my servant, and he gave me no answer: I entreated him with my mouth.

17. My breath is strange to my wife, though I entreated for the children's sake of mine own body.

Prov. x. 15. The rich man's wealth is his strong city: the destruction of the poor is their poverty.

5 A (i) false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall not escape.

(i) Deut. xix. 16. If a false witness rise up against any man, to testify against him that which is wrong;

17. Then both the men, between whom the controversy is, shall stand before the Lord, before the priests and the judges which shall be in those days.

18. And the judges shall make diligent inquisition: and, behold, if the witness be a false witness, and hath testified falsely against his brother:

19. Then shall ye do unto him as he had thought to have done unto his brother: so shall thou put the evil away from among you.

20. And those which remain shall hear, and fear, and shall henceforth commit no more any such evil among you.

21. And thine eye shall not pity; but life shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

Ps. cxx. 3. What shall be given unto thee, or what shall be done unto thee, thou false tongue?

4. Sharp arrows of the mighty, with coals of juniper.

Prov. xxi. 28. A false witness shall perish: but the man that heareth, speaketh constantly.

Dan. vi. 24. And the king commanded, and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces, or ever they came to the bottom of the den.

6 Many (k) will entreat the favour of the prince; (l) and every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts.

(k) Gen. xlii. 6. And Joseph was the governor over the land, and he it was that sold to all the people of the land: and Joseph's brethren came and bowed down themselves before him, with their faces to the earth.

Job xxix. 24. If I laughed on them, they believed it not; and the light of my countenance they cast not down.

25. I chose out their way, and sat chief, and dwelt as a king in the army, as one that comforteth the mourners.

Ps. xlv. 12. And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift; even the rich among the people shall entreat thy favour.

(l) Gen. xxxii. 20. And say ye, moreover, Behold, thy servant Jacob is behind us. For he said, I will appease him with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see his face; peradventure he will accept of me.

xliii. 15. And the men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin; and rose up, and went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph.

7 All (m) the brethren of the poor do hate him: how much more do his friends go far from him! (n) he pursueth them with words, (o) yet they are wanting to him.

(m) Ps. xxxviii. 11. My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my sore; and my kinsmen stand afar off.

lxxxviii. 8. Thou hast put away mine acquaintance far from me; thou hast made me an abomination unto them: I am shut up, and I cannot come forth.

Ec. ix. 15. Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

16. Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless, the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not few.

(n) Prov. xxi. 13. Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard.

(o) James ii. 15. If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16. And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

8 He that getteth wisdom (p) loveth his own soul: he that keepeth understanding shall find good.

(p) Prov. viii. 35. For whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the Lord.

36. But he that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul: all they that hate me love death.

1 Pet. iii. 10. For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile.

9 A false witness shall not be unpunished, (q) and he that speaketh lies shall perish.

(q) Is. ix. 15. The ancient and honourable, he is the head; and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail.

16. For the leaders of the people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.

Jer. xxviii. 15. Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah, The Lord hath not sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie.

16. Therefore, thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, because thou hast taught rebellion against the Lord.

17. So Hananiah the prophet died the same year, in the seventh month.

Ex. xiii. 22. Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life.

Rev. xxi. 8. But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone; which is the second death.

10 (r) Delight is not seemly for a fool: (s) much less for a servant to have rule over princes.

(r) 1 Sam. xxv. 36. And Abigail came to Nabal: and, behold, he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king; and Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light.

Is. v. 11. Wo unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine inflame them!

12. And the harp, and the viol, the tabret, and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts: but they regard not the work of the Lord, neither consider the operation of his hands.

Hos. ix. 1. Rejoice not, O Israel, for joy, as other people: for thou hast gone a whoring from thy God; thou hast loved a reward upon every corn-floor.

James iv. 9. Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

(s) 2 Sam. iii. 24. Then Joab came to the king, and said, What hast thou done? behold, Abner came unto thee; why is it that thou hast sent him away, and he is quite gone?

25. Thou knowest Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive thee, and to know thy going out, and thy coming in, and to know all that thou doest.

39. And I am this day weak, though anointed king; and these men, the sons of Zeruiah, be too hard for me: the Lord shall reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness.

Is. iii. 5. And the people shall be oppressed every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, and the base against the honourable.

11 The (t) discretion of a man deferreth his anger; (u) and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.

(t) Prov. xvii. 32. He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.

xvii. 14. The beginning of strife is as when one letteth out water; therefore leave off contention before it be meddled with.

(u) Matt. xviii. 21. Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times?

22. Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times; but, Until seventy times seven.

Eph. iv. 32. And be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

12 The (x) king's wrath is as the roaring of a lion; but (y) his favour is as the dew upon the grass.

(z) Ec. viii. 4. Where the word of a king is, there is power; and who may say unto him, What doest thou?

Dan. ii. 12. For this cause the king was angry, and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

13. And the decree went forth, that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Daniel and his fellows, to be slain.

vi. 24. And the king commanded, and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or ever they came at the bottom of the den.

(y) 2 Sam. xxiii. 4. And he shall be as the light of the morning, when the sun riseth, even a morning without clouds; as the tender grass springing out of the earth by clear shining after rain.

Psa. lxxii. 6. He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass; as showers that water the earth.

Hos. xiv. 5. I will be as the dew unto Israel: he shall grow as the lily, and cast forth his roots as Lebanon.

13 A foolish son is the calamity of his father: and (z) the contentions of a wife are a continual dropping.

(z) Job xiv. 19. The waters wear the stones: thou wastest away the things which go out of the dust of the earth; and thou destroyest the hope of man.

Prov. xxv. 24. It is better to dwell in a corner of the house-top, than with a brawling woman, and in a wide house.

xxvii. 15. A continual dropping in a very rainy day, and a contentious woman, are alike.

14 House and riches are (a) the inheritance of fathers: (b) and a prudent wife is from the LORD.

(a) Deut. xxi. 16. Then it shall be, when he maketh his sons to inherit that which he hath, that he may not make the son of the beloved first-born before the son of the hated, which is indeed the first-born.

Josh. xi. 23. So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the Lord said unto Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance unto Israel, according to their divisions by their tribes. And the land rested from war.

(b) Gen. xxiv. 7. The Lord God of heaven, which took me from my father's house, and from the land of my kindred, and which spake unto me, and that sware unto me, saying, Unto thy seed will I give this land: he shall send his angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife unto my son from thence.

James i. 17. Every good gift, and every perfect gift, is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variability, neither shadow of turning.

15 Slothfulness (c) casteth into a deep sleep; (d) and an idle soul shall suffer hunger.

(c) Is. lvi. 10. His watchmen are blind; they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber.

Rom. xiii. 11. And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

12. The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light.

Eph. v. 14. Wherefore he saith, Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

(d) 2 Thess. iii. 10. For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.

16 He that keepeth the commandment keepeth his own soul; but he that despiseth his ways shall die.

17 He (e) that hath pity on the poor (f) lendeth unto the LORD; and that which he hath given will he pay him again.

(e) 2 Sam. xii. 6. And he shall restore the land fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity.

Prov. xxviii. 8. He that by usury and unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor.

(f) Matt. x. 41. He that receiveth a prophet, in the name of a prophet, shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man, in the name of a righteous man, shall receive a righteous man's reward.

42. And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, He shall in no wise lose his reward.

xxv. 40. And the king shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

Heb. vi. 10. For God is not unrighteous, to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have showed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

18 (g) Chasten thy son while there is hope, and let not thy soul spare for his crying.

(g) Prov. xiii. 24. He that spareth his rod hateth his son: but he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes.

xxii. 15. Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child; but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him.

xxiii. 13. Withhold not correction from the child: for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die.

14. Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and shalt deliver his soul from hell.

xxix. 15. The rod and reproof give wisdom: but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame.

17. Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest: yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.

Heb. xii. 7. If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons, for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8. But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9. Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh, which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

10. For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.

11. Now, no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless, afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

19 A (h) man of great wrath shall suffer punishment; for if thou deliver him, yet thou must do it again.

(h) 1 Sam. xx. 30. Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, Thou son of the perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own confusion, and unto the confusion of thy mother's nakedness?

31. For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be established, nor thy kingdom. Wherefore now, send and fetch him unto me, for he shall surely die.

2 Sam. xvi. 5. And when king David came to Bahurim, behold, thence came out a man of the family of the house of Saul, whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera: he came forth, and cursed still as he came.

6. And he cast stones at David, and at all the servants of king David: and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left.

Prov. xxii. 24. Make no friendship with an angry man, and with a furious man thou shalt not go;

25. Lest thou learn his ways, and get a snare to thy soul.

xxv. 28. He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.

xxix. 22. An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

20 Hear counsel, and (i) receive instruction, that thou mayest (k) be wise in thy latter end.

(i) Prov. i. 8. My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother.

viii. 34. Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.

35. For whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the Lord.

(k) Num. xxiii. 10. Who can count the dust of Jacob, and the number of the fourth part of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his!

Deut. viii. 16. Who fed thee in the wilderness with manna, which thy fathers knew not, that he might humble thee, and that he might prove thee, to do thee good at thy latter end.

xxxii. 29. Oh that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end!

Psa. xxxvii. 37. Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace.

21 There are (l) many devices in a man's heart; (m) nevertheless the counsel of the LORD, that shall stand.

(l) Gen. xxxvii. 19. And they said one to another, Behold, this dreamer cometh.

20. Come now, therefore, and let us slay him, and cast him into some pit; and we will say, Some evil beast hath devoured him: and we shall see what will become of his dreams.

Esth. ix. 25. But when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters, that his [Haman's] wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

Ps. xxi. 11. For they intended evil against thee; they imagined a mischievous device, which they are not able to perform.

xxxiii. 10. The Lord bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

11. The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

lxxxiii. 4. They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

Prov. xii. 2. A good man obtaineth favour of the Lord: but a man of wicked devices will he condemn.

Ec. vii. 29. Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions.

Is. vii. 6. Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tahal:

7. Thus saith the Lord God, It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.

Dan. xi. 24. He shall enter peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches; yea, and he shall forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time.

25. And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him.

(m) Gen. xlv. 4. And Joseph said unto his brethren, Come near to me, I pray you: And they came near. And he said, I am Joseph your brother whom ye sold into Egypt.

5. Now therefore be not grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that ye sold me hither; for God did send me before you to preserve life.

6. For these two years hath the famine been in the land; and yet there are five years, in the which there shall be neither earing nor harvest.

7. And God sent me before you to preserve you a posterity in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance.

8. So now, it was not you that sent me hither, but God: and he hath made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt.

1. 20. But as for you, ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive.

Job xxiii. 13. But he is in one mind, and who can turn him? and what his soul desireth, even that he doeth.

Prov. xvi. 9. A man's heart deviseth his way: but the Lord directeth his steps.

Is. xiv. 24. The Lord of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand.

26. This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth; and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations.

xlvi. 10. Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure.

Dan. iv. 35. And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou?

22 The (n) desire of a man is his kindness; (o) and a poor man is better than a liar.

(n) 2 Chr. vi. 8. But the Lord said to David my father, Forasmuch as it was in thine heart to build an house for my name, thou didst well in that it was in thine heart.

Mark xiv. 6. And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

7. For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

8. She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

2 Cor. viii. 12. For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

(o) Ps. lxxii. 9. Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be laid in the balance they are altogether lighter than vanity.

23 The fear of the LORD tendeth to life; and and he that hath it (p) shall abide satisfied: (q) he shall not be visited with evil.

(p) Ps. xc. 14. O satisfy us early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

xc. 16. With long life will I satisfy him, and show him my salvation.

Is. lviii. 10. And if thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noon-day:

11. And the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones, and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.

Matt. v. 6. Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

Phil. iv. 11. Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.

12. I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where, and in all things I am instructed, both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

(q) Rom. viii. 28. And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

2 Tim. iv. 18. And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

24 A slothful man hideth his hand in his bosom, and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.

25 (r) Smite a scorner, and the simple will beware: and (s) reprove one that hath understanding, and he will understand knowledge.

(r) Deut. xiii. 11. And all Israel shall hear, and fear, and shall do no more any such wickedness as this is among you.

xxi. 21. And all the men of his city shall stone him with stones that he die: so shalt thou put evil away from among you: and all Israel shall hear, and fear.

Prov. xxi. 11. When the scorner is punished the simple is made wise; and when the wise is instructed, he receiveth knowledge.

(s) Prov. xvii. 10. A reproof entereth more into a wise man than an hundred stripes into a fool.

Rev. iii. 19. As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous, therefore, and repent.

26 He that (t) wasteth his father, and chaseth away his mother, is a son that causeth shame, and bringeth reproach.

(t) Deut. xxi. 18. If a man have a stubborn and rebellious son, which will not obey the voice of his father, or the voice of his mother, and that when they have chastened him, will not hearken unto them;

19. Then shall his father and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out unto the elders of his city, and unto the gate of his place:

20. And they shall say unto the elders of his city, This our son is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton and a drunkard.

27 (u) Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge.

(u) Deut. xiii. 1. If there arise among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and giveth thee a sign or a wonder,

2. And the sign or the wonder come to pass, whereof he spake unto thee, saying, Let us go after other gods, which thou hast not known, and let us serve them;

3. Thou shalt not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams: for the Lord your God proveth you, to know whether ye love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul.

4. Ye shall walk after the Lord your God, and fear him, and keep his commandments, and obey his voice; and ye shall serve him, and cleave unto him.

Matt. vii. 15. Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

Mark iv. 24. And he saith unto them, Take heed what ye hear: With what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you; and unto you that have, shall more be given.

John x. 5. And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

Eph. iv. 14. That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive.

1 John iv. 1. Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

28 An ungodly witness scorneth judgment; and the mouth of the wicked devoureth iniquity.

29 (x) Judgments are prepared for scorers, (y) and stripes for the back of fools.

(x) Is. xxviii. 22. Now, therefore, be ye not mockers, lest your bands be made strong: for I have heard from the Lord God of hosts a consumption, even determined upon the whole earth.

Acts xiii. 40. Beware, therefore, lest that come upon you which is spoken of in the prophets:

41. Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

(y) Prov. xxvi. 3. A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass, and a rod for the fool's back.

Heb. xii. 6. For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

CHAPTER XX.

WINE (a) is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.

(a) Gen. ix. 21. And he drank of the wine, and was drunken, and he was uncovered within his tent.

22. And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brethren without.

23. And Shem and Japheth took a garment, and laid it upon both their shoulders, and went backward, and covered the nakedness of their father; and their faces were backward, and they saw not their father's nakedness.

2 Sam. xi. 13. And when David had called him, he did eat and drink before him; and he made him drunk: and at even he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but went not down to his house.

xiii. 28. Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon's heart is merry with wine; and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon, then kill him, fear not: have not I commanded you? be courageous, and be valiant.

Is. xxviii. 7. But they also have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way: the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink: they err in vision, they stumble in judgment.

Is. iv. 11. Whoredom, and wine, and new wine, take away the heart.

1 Cor. vi. 10. Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

Eph. v. 18. And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit.

2 The (b) fear of a king is as the roaring of a lion: whoso provoketh him to anger, (c) sinneth against his own soul.

(b) Ec. x. 4. If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, leave not thy place; for yielding pacifieth great offences.

Hos. xi. 10. They shall walk after the Lord: he shall roar like a lion: when he shall roar, then the children shall tremble from the west.

Amos. iii. 8. The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord God hath spoken, who can but prophecy?

(c) 1 Kings ii. 23. Then king Solomon sware by the Lord, saying, God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah have not spoken this word against his own life.

Prov. viii. 36. But he that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul: all they that hate me love death.

3 It is (d) an honour for a man to cease from strife; (e) but every fool will be meddling.

(d) Prov. xvi. 32. He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.

xvii. 14. The beginning of strife is as when one letteth out water; therefore leave off contention before it be meddled with.

(e) 2 Kings xiv. 9. And Jehoash, the king of Israel, sent to Amaziah, king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle.

10. Thou hast indeed smitten Edom, and thy heart hath lifted thee up: glory of this, and tarry at home; for why shouldst thou meddle to thy hurt, that thou shouldst fall, even thou; and Judah with thee?

4 The sluggard will not plough by reason of the cold; therefore shall he beg in harvest, and have nothing.

5 (f) Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water; but a man of understanding will draw it out.

(f) Psa. lxxiv. 6. They search out iniquities; they accomplish a diligent search: both the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart, is deep.

Prov. xviii. 4. The words of a man's mouth are as deep waters, and the well-spring of wisdom as a flowing brook.

1 Cor. ii. 11. For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

6 Most men will (g) proclaim every one his own goodness: (h) but a faithful man who can find?

(g) Matt. vi. 2. Therefore, when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily, I say unto you, They have their reward.

Luke xviii. 11. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself: God, I thank thee that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

29. Then Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

2 Cor. xii. 11. I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.

(h) Psa. xii. 1. Help, Lord; for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.

Ec. vii. 28. Which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not: one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all those have I not found.

Jer. v. 1. Run ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, if ye can find a man, if there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth; and I will pardon it.

Mic. vii. 2. The good man is perished out of the earth; and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net.

7 The (i) just man walketh in his integrity; (k) his children are blessed after him.

(i) Is. xxxiii. 15. He that walketh righteously, and speaketh uprightly; he that despiseth the gain of oppressions, that shaketh his hands from holding of bribes, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of blood, and shutteth his eyes from seeing evil.

Luke i. 6. And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

3 John 3. For I rejoiced greatly when the brethren came, and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth.

4. I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in the truth.

(k) Gen. xvii. 7. And I will establish my covenant between me and thee, and thy seed after thee, in their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee.

Jer. xxxii. 39. And I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear me for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them.

Acts ii. 39. For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

8 (l) A king that sitteth in the throne of judgment scattereth away all evil with his eyes.

(l) Psa. lxxii. 4. He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor. xcii. 9. For, lo, thine enemies, O Lord, for, lo, thine enemies shall perish: all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.

Is. xxxiii. 1. Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment.

9 Who (m) can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin?

(m) Job xiv. 4. Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one.

xv. 14. What is man, that he should be clean? and he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?

xxv. 4. How then can man be justified with God? or how can he be clean that is born of a woman?

Psa. li. 5. Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

Ec. vii. 20. For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not.

10 Divers weights and divers measures, both of them are alike abomination to the LORD.

11 Even (n) a child is known by his doings, whether his work be pure, and whether it be right.

(n) Psa. lviii. 3. The wicked are estranged from the womb; they go astray as soon as they be born, speaking lies.

Luke i. 15. For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and he shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb.

66. And all they that heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be? And the hand of the Lord was with him.

ii. 46. And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them and asking them questions.

47. And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.

12 The (o) hearing ear, and the seeing eye, the LORD hath made even both of them.

(o) Ex. iv. 11. And the Lord said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth, or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I, the Lord?

Ps. xciv. 9. He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? he that formed the eye, shall he not see?

cxix. 18. Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law.

Acts xxvi. 18. To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God; that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.

Eph. i. 17. That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation, in the knowledge of him:

18. The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints.

13 (p) Love not sleep, lest thou come to poverty; (q) open thine eyes, and thou shalt be satisfied with bread.

(p) Rom. xii. 11. Not slothful in business: fervent in spirit; serving the Lord.

2 Thess. iii. 10. For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.

(q) Rom. xiii. 11. And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

Eph. v. 14. Wherefore, he saith, Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

14 It is naught, (r) it is naught, saith the buyer; but when he is gone his way, then he boasteth.

(r) Hos. xii. 7. He is a merchant, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to oppress.

8. And Ephraim said, Yet I am become rich, I have found me out substance: in all my labours they shall find none iniquity in me that were sin.

1 Thess. iv. 6. That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter; because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.

15 There is gold, and a multitude of rubies: (s) but the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.

(s) Ec. xii. 9. And, moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order, many proverbs.

10. The preacher sought to find out acceptable words: and that which was written was upright, even words of truth.

11. The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.

Eph. iv. 29. Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

16 Take his garment that is surety for a stranger; and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

17 Bread of deceit (t) is sweet to a man; but afterwards (u) his mouth shall be filled with gravel.

(t) Gen. iii. 6. And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat; and gave also unto her husband with her, and he did eat.

7. And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked: and they sewed fig-leaves together, and made themselves aprons.

Heb. xi. 25. Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season.

(u) Lam. iii. 15. He hath filled me with bitterness, he hath made me drunken with worm-wood.

16. He hath also broken my teeth with gravel-stones, he hath covered me with ashes.

18 Every purpose is established by counsel: (x) and with good advice make war.

(x) Judg. i. 1. Now, after the death of Joshua, it came to pass, that the children of Israel asked the Lord, saying, Who shall go up for us against the Canaanites first, to fight against them?

2. And the Lord said, Judah shall go up: behold, I have delivered the land into his hand.

xx. 7. Behold ye are all children of Israel; give here your advice and counsel.

23. And the children of Israel went up, and went before the Lord until even, and asked counsel of the Lord, saying, Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And the Lord said, Go up against him.

Luke xiv. 31. Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?

19 He that goeth about as a tale-bearer revealeth secrets: therefore meddle not with him that flattereth with his lips.

20 Whoso (y) curseth his father or his mother, (z) his lamp shall be put out in obscure darkness.

(y) Ex. xx. 12. Honour thy father and thy mother; that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

xxi. 17. And he that curseth his father, or his mother, shall surely be put to death.

Lev. xx. 9. For every one that curseth his father or his mother shall surely be put to death: he hath cursed his father or his mother; his blood shall be upon him.

Deut. xxvii. 16. Cursed be he that setteth light by his father or his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen.

(z) Job xviii. 5. Yea, the light of the wicked shall be put out, and the spark of his fire shall not shine.

6. The light shall be dark in his tabernacle, and his candle shall be put out with him.

Matt. xxv. 8. And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.

21 An inheritance may be (a) gotten hastily at the beginning; (b) but the end thereof shall not be blessed.

(a) Prov. xxiii. 4. Labour not to be rich; cease from thine own wisdom.

xxviii. 20. A faithful man shall abound with blessings: but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be innocent.

22. He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him.

1 Tim. vi. 9. For they that will be rich, fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

(b) Job xxvii. 16. Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay;

17. He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.

Hab. ii. 6. Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, Wo to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself with thick clay?

Mal. ii. 2. If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the Lord of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and will curse your blessings; yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

22 Say not thou, (c) I will recompense evil; but (d) wait on the LORD, and he shall save thee.

(c) Deut. xxxii. 35. To me belongeth vengeance, and recompense; their foot shall slide in due time: for the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that shall come upon them make haste.

Prov. xvii. 13. Whoso rewardeth evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.

xxiv. 29. Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to me; I will render to the man according to his work.

Rom. xii. 17. Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

18. If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

19. Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves; but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

1 Thess. v. 15. See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men.

1 Pet. iii. 9. Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing; but, contrariwise, blessing: knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing.

(d) Ps. xxvii. 14. Wait on the Lord; be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thy heart: wait, I say, on the Lord.

xxxvii. 34. Wait on the Lord, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.

Is. xl. 31. But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary, and they shall walk and not be faint.

Lam. iii. 25. The Lord is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.

26. It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the Lord.

1 Pt. ii. 23. Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously.

iv. 19. Wherefore, let them that suffer according to the will of God, commit the keeping of their souls to him in well-doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

23 Divers (e) weights are an abomination unto the LORD; and a false balance is not good.

(e) Ex. xlv. 10. Ye shall have just balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath.

24 (f) Man's goings are of the LORD: (g) how can a man then understand his own way?

(f) Ps. xxxvii. 23. The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord; and he delighteth in his way.

Jer. x. 23. O Lord, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps.

Acts xvii. 28. For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

(g) Ps. xxv. 4. Show me thy ways, O Lord; teach me thy paths.

12. What man is he that feareth the Lord? him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose.

Prov. xiv. 8. The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way: but the folly of fools is deceit.

xvi. 9. A man's heart deviseth his way: but the Lord directeth his steps.

25 It is (h) a snare to the man who devoureth that which is holy; and (i) after vows to make inquiry.

(h) Lev. xxii. 10. There shall no stranger eat of the holy thing; a sojourner of the priest, or an hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing.

Mal. iii. 8. Will a man rob God? yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? in tithes and offerings.

9. Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.

(i) Ec. v. 4. When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed.

5. Better is it that thou shouldst not vow, than that thou shouldst vow and not pay.

6. Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; neither say thou before the angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thy hands?

Matt. v. 33. Again, ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths.

26 A (k) wise king scattereth the wicked, and (l) bringeth the wheel over them.

(k) 2 Sam. iv. 9. And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said unto them, As the Lord liveth, who hath redeemed my soul out of all adversity,

10. When one told me, saying, Behold, Saul is dead, (thinking to have brought good tidings,) I took hold of him, and slew him in Ziklag, who thought that I would have given him a reward for his tidings:

11. How much more, when wicken men have slain a righteous person in his own house upon his bed? Shall I not therefore now require his blood of your hand, and take you away from the earth?

12. And David commanded his young men, and they slew them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up over the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-bosheth, and buried it in the sepulchre of Abner in Hebron.

Ps. ci. 7. He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house; he that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight.

8. I will early destroy all the wicked of the land, that I may cut off all wicked doers from the city of the Lord.

(l) 2 Sam. xii. 31. And he brought forth the people that were therein, and put them under saws, and under harrows of iron, and under axes of iron, and made them pass through the brick-kiln: and thus did he unto all the cities of the children of Ammon. So David and all the people returned unto Jerusalem.

Is. xxviii. 27. For the fitches are not thrashed with a thrashing instrument, neither is a cart-wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod.

28. Bread corn is bruised; because he will not ever be thrashing it, nor break it with the wheel of his cart, nor bruise it with his horsemen.

27 The (m) spirit of man is the candle of the LORD, (n) searching all the inward parts of the belly.

(m) Gen. ii. 7. And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

Job xxxii. 8. But there is a spirit in man; and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding.

1 Cor. ii. 11. For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

2 Cor. iv. 6. For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

(n) Heb. iv. 12. For the word of God is quick and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13. Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

28 Mercy and truth preserve the king; and (o) his throne is upholden by mercy.

(o) Ps. xxi. 7. For the king trusteth in the Lord; and through the mercy of the Most High he shall not be moved.

Prov. xvi. 12. It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness; for the throne is established by righteousness.

xxix. 14. The king that faithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established for ever.

Is. xvi. 5. And in mercy shall the throne be established; and he shall sit upon it in truth in the tabernacles of David, judging, and seeking judgment, and hasting righteousness.

29 The (p) glory of young men is their strength; and (q) the beauty of old men is the gray head.

(p) Jer. ix. 23. Thus saith the Lord, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches;

24. But let him that glorieth, glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lord which exercise loving-kindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the Lord.

1 John ii. 14. I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

(q) Lev. xix. 32. Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head, and honour the face of the old man, and fear thy God: I am the Lord.

30 The blueness of a wound cleanseth away evil: so do stripes the inward parts of the belly.

CHAPTER XXI.

THE (a) king's heart is in the hand of the LORD, (b) as the rivers of water: he turneth it whithersoever he will.

(a) Ezra vii. 27. Blessed be the Lord God of our fathers, which hath put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem;

28. And hath extended mercy unto me before the king and his counsellors, and before all the king's mighty princes. And I was strengthened, as the hand of the Lord my God was upon me; and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

Ps. cv. 25. He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal subtilly with his servants.

Dan. iv. 35. And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing; and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou?

(b) Ps. xciii. 4. The Lord on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty waves of the sea.

Is. xliii. 19. Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.

2 Every way of a man is (c) right in his own eyes; but (d) the LORD pondereth the hearts.

(c) Ps. xxxvi. 2. For he flattereth himself in his own eyes, until his iniquity be found to be hateful.

Luke xviii. 11. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself: God, I thank thee that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican:

12. I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

Gal. vi. 3. For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

(d) Jer. xvii. 10. I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

Luke xvi. 15. And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.

Rev. ii. 23. And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts; and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

3 To (e) do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.

(e) 1 Sam. xv. 22. And Samuel said, Hath the Lord as great delight in burnt-offerings and sacrifices as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams.

Ps. l. 8. I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices, or thy burnt-offerings, to have been continually before me.

Hos. vi. 6. For I desired mercy, and not sacrifice, and the knowledge of God more than burnt-offerings.

4 An high look, and a proud heart, and the ploughing of the wicked, is sin.

5 The (f) thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenteousness; (g) but of every one that is hasty only to want.

(f) Prov. xiii. 4. The soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath nothing: but the soul of the diligent shall be made fat.

1 Thess. iv. 11. And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

12. That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.

(g) Prov. xiv. 29. He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding: but he that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly.

xxvii. 22. He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him.

6 The (h) getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that (i) seek death.

(h) Jer. xvii. 11. As the partridge sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not: so he that getteth riches, and not by right, shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be a fool.

1 Tim. vi. 9. But they that will be rich, fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

10. For the love of money is the root of all evil; which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

Tit. i. 11. Whose mouths must be stopped; who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

(i) Ez. xviii. 31. Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

7 The (k) robbery of the wicked shall destroy them; (l) because they refuse to do judgment.

(k) Ps. vii. 16. His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealings shall come down upon his own pate.

Is. i. 23. Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

24. Therefore saith the Lord, the Lord of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies.

Ez. xxii. 13. Behold, therefore, I have smitten my hand at thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath been in the midst of thee.

14. Can thy heart endure, or can thy hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with thee? I the Lord have spoken it, and will do it.

(l) Ez. xviii. 18. As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even he shall die in his iniquity.

Eph. v. 6. Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience.

8 The (m) way of man is froward and strange; (n) but as for the pure, his work is right.

(m) Gen. vi. 5. And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

6. And it repented the Lord that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart.

12. And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

Ps. xiv. 2. The Lord looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand and seek God.

3. They are all gone aside, they are altogether become filthy; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

Eph. ii. 2. Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience.

3. Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past, in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

(n) Matt. v. 8. Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

Acts xv. 9. And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.

Tit. i. 15. Unto the pure all things are pure; but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

ii. 14. Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people zealous of good works.

1 John iii. 3. And every man that hath this hope in him, purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

9 It is better to dwell in a corner of the house-top, than with a brawling woman in a wide house.

10 The (o) soul of the wicked desireth evil: his neighbour findeth (p) no favour in his eyes.

(o) Ps. xxxvi. 4. He deviseth mischief upon his bed; he setteth himself in a way that is not good; he abhorreth not evil.

lii. 2. Thy tongue deviseth mischiefs, like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

3. Thou lovest evil more than good, and lying rather than to speak righteousness. Selah.

1 Cor. x. 6. Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.

(p) Ps. cxii. 5. A good man showeth favour, and leneth: he will guide his affairs with discretion.

9. He hath dispersed: he hath given to the poor; his righteousness endureth for ever: his horn shall be exalted with honour.

James ii. 13. For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath showed no mercy, and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

11 When (q) the scorner is punished, the simple is made wise; and when the wise is instructed, he receiveth knowledge.

(q) Num. xvi. 34. And all Israel that were round about them fled at the cry of them: for they said, Lest the earth swallow us up also.

Deut. xiii. 11. And all Israel shall hear, and fear, and shall do no more any such wickedness as this is among you.

xxi. 21. And all the men of this city shall stone him with stones, that he die: so shalt thou put evil away from among you: and all Israel shall hear, and fear.

Acts v. 5. And Ananias hearing these words, fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

Rev. xi. 13. And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand; and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

12 The righteous man (r) wisely considereth the house of the wicked; but God (s) overthroweth the wicked for their wickedness.

(r) Job viii. 15. He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.

xviii. 14. His confidence shall be rooted out of his tabernacle; and it shall bring him to the king of terrors.

15. It shall dwell in his tabernacle, because it is none of his: brimstone shall be scattered upon his habitation.

16. His roots shall be dried up beneath, and above shall his branch be cut off.

Hos. xiv. 9. Who is wise, and he shall understand these things? prudent, and he shall know them? for the ways of the Lord are right, and the just shall walk in them: but the transgressors shall fall therein.

(s) Gen. xix. 29. And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in the which Lot dwelt.

Amos iv. 11. I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a fire-brand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

1 Cor. x. 5. But with many of them God was not well pleased; for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

13 Whoso (t) stoppeth his ears (u) at the cry of the poor, he also shall (x) cry himself, but shall not be heard.

(t) Ps. lviii. 4. Their poison is like the poison of a serpent; they are like the deaf adder that stoppeth her ear.

Zech. vii. 11. But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

Acts vii. 57. Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord.

(u) Is. lviii. 6. Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke?

Jer. xxxiv. 16. But ye turned, and polluted my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom ye had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants and for handmaids.

17. Therefore thus saith the Lord, Ye have not hearkened unto me, in proclaiming liberty every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: behold, I proclaim a liberty for you, saith the Lord, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

(x) Ps. xviii. 41. They cried, but there was none to save them: even unto the Lord, but he answered them not.

Luke xiii. 25. When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence you are.

14 A gift in secret pacifieth anger, and a reward in the bosom strong wrath.

15 It is (y) joy to the just to do judgment; but (z) destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

(y) Ps. xl. 8. I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart.

cxii. 1. Praise ye the Lord. Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord, that delighteth greatly in his commandments.

Ec. iii. 12. I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life.

Is. lxiv. 5. Thou meetest him that rejoiceth, and worketh righteousness; those that remember thee in thy ways: behold, thou art wroth; for we have sinned: in these is continuance, and we shall be saved.

Johu iv. 34. Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.

Rom. vii. 22. For I delight in the law of God after the inward man.

(z) Matt. vii. 23. And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

xiii. 41. The son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity;

42. And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

16 The man that (a) wandereth out of the way of understanding, shall (b) remain in the congregation of the dead.

(a) Ps. cxxv. 5. As for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways, the Lord shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity: but peace shall be upon Israel.

Zeph. i. 6. And them that are turned back from the Lord; and those that have not sought the Lord, nor inquired for him.

(b) Eph. ii. 1. And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins.

Jude 12. These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots.

17 He that (c) loveth pleasure shall be a poor man: he that loveth wine and oil shall not be rich.

(c) Prov. xxiii. 21. For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty; and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.

Luke xv. 13. And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

15. And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16. And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat; and no man gave unto him.

1 Tim. v. 6. But she that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth.

2 Tim. iii. 4. Traitors, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God.

18 The (d) wicked shall be a ransom for the righteous, and the transgressor for the upright.

(d) Is. xliiii. 3. For I am the Lord thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour: I gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee.

4. Since thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee: therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy life.

1 Pet. iii. 18. For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit.

19 It is better to dwell in the wilderness, than with a contentious and an angry woman.

20 There is (e) a treasure to be desired, and (f) oil in the dwelling of the wise; but a foolish man spendeth it up.

(e) Ps. cxii. 3. Wealth and riches shall be in his house; and his righteousness endureth for ever.

Ec. v. 19. Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; this is the gift of God.

(f) Ps. xxiii. 5. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Jer. xli. 8. But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not; for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbore, and slew them not among their brethren.

21 He (g) that followeth after righteousness and mercy, (h) findeth life, righteousness, and honour.

(g) Is. li. 1. Hearken to me, ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek the Lord: look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged.

Hos. vi. 3. Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the Lord: for he hath torn, and he will heal us: he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

Matt. v. 6. Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

Rom. xiv. 19. Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another.

Phil. iii. 12. Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

1 Tim. vi. 11. But thou, O man of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

2 Tim. ii. 22. Flee also youthful lusts; but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

Heb. xii. 14. Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord.

(h) Rom. ii. 7. To them, who by patient continuance in well-doing, seek for glory, and honour, and immortality, eternal life;

8. But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath,

9. Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile:

10. But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile.

1 Pet. i. 7. That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise, and honour, and glory, at the appearing of Jesus Christ.

22 A (i) wise man scaleth the city of the mighty, and casteth down the strength of the confidence thereof.

(i) 2 Sam. xx. 16. Then cried a wise woman out of the city, Hear, hear; say, I pray you, unto Joab, Come near hither, that I may speak with thee.

17. And when he was come near unto her, the woman said, Art thou Joab? And he answered, I am he. Then she said unto him, Hear the words of thine handmaid. And he answered, I do hear.

18. Then she spake, saying, They were wont to speak in old time, saying, They shall surely ask counsel at Abel: and so they ended the matter.

19. I am one of them that are peaceable and faithful in Israel: thou seekest to destroy a city and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou swallow up the inheritance of the Lord?

20. And Joab answered and said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy.

21. The matter is not so: but a man of Mount Ephraim, (Sheba, the son of Bichri, by name,) hath lifted up his hand against the king, even against David: deliver him only, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said unto Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall.

22. Then the woman went unto all the people in her wisdom; and they cut off the head of Sheba, the son of Bichri, and cast it out to Joab: and he blew a trumpet, and they retired from the city, every man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem unto the king.

Ec. vii. 19. Wisdom strengtheneth the wise more than ten mighty men which are in the city.
ix. 13. This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great unto me.

14. There was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it.

15. Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

16. Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless, the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

17. The words of wise men are heard in quiet, more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.

18. Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner destroyeth much good.

23 Whoso (k) keepeth his mouth and his tongue, keepeth his soul from troubles.

(k) Prov. x. 19. In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but he that refraineth his lips is wise.

xii. 13. The wicked is snared by the transgression of his lips: but the just shall come out of trouble.

xiii. 3. He that keepeth his mouth keepeth his life: but he that openeth wide his lips shall have destruction.

xvii. 27. He that hath knowledge spareth his words; and a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit.

28. Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise; and he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding.

xviii. 21. Death and life are in the power of the tongue; and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

James i. 26. If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridlETH not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

iii. 2. For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3. Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4. Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5. Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth!

6. And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

7. For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind:

8. But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil full of deadly poison.

9. Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.

10. Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11. Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter?

12. Can the fig-tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

13. Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him show out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom.

24 Proud and (l) haughty scorner is his name, who dealeth in proud wrath.

xviii. 12. Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, and before honour is humility.

xix. 29. Judgments are prepared for scorners, and stripes for the back of fools.

Ec. vii. 8. Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof; and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

25 The (m) desire of the slothful killeth him; for his hands refuse to labour.

(m) Prov. vi. 6. Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise:

7. Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler, 8. Provideth her meat in the summer, and gathereth her food in the harvest.

9. How long wilt thou sleep, O sluggard? when wilt thou arise out of thy sleep?

10. Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep;

11. So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth, and thy want as an armed man.

xii. 24. The hand of the diligent shall bear rule: but the slothful shall be under tribute.

27. The slothful man roasteth not that which he took in hunting: but the substance of a diligent man is precious.

xiii. 4. The soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath nothing: but the soul of the diligent shall be made fat.

xv. 19. The way of the slothful man is as a hedge of thorns: but the way of the righteous is made plain.

xix. 24. A slothful man hideth his hand in his bosom, and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.

xx. 4. The sluggard will not plough by reason of the cold; therefore shall he beg in harvest, and have nothing.

xxiv. 30. I went by the field of the slothful, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding;

31. And, lo, it was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered the face thereof, and the stone wall thereof was broken down.

32. Then I saw, and considered it well; I looked upon it, and received instruction.

33. Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

34. So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth; and thy want as an armed man.

26 He (n) coveteth greedily all the day long: but (o) the righteous giveth and spareth not.

(n) Acts xx. 33. I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

34. Yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35. I have showed you all things, how that so labouring, ye ought to support the weak; and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

(o) Ps. xxxvii. 26. He is ever merciful, and lenient; and his seed is blessed.

cxii. 9. He hath dispersed: he hath given to the poor; his righteousness endureth for ever: his horn shall be exalted with honour.

Luke vi. 30. Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.

31. And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

32. For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.

33. And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.

34. And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

35. But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful, and to the evil.

36. Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.

2 Cor. viii. 7. Therefore, as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also.

9. For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye, through his poverty, might be rich.

ix. 9. (As it is written, He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever.

10. Now, he that ministereth seed to the sower, both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness:)

11. Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

12. For the administration of this service not only supplieth the wants of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God:

13. (Whiles by the experiment of this ministrature they glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men:)

14. And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you.

27 The (p) sacrifice of the wicked is abomination: how much more, when he bringeth it with a wicked mind!

(p) 1 Sam. xiii. 12. Therefore, said I, The Philistines will come down now upon me to Gilgal, and I have not made supplication unto the Lord: I forced myself, therefore, and offered a burnt-offering.

13. And Samuel said to Saul, Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandment of the Lord thy God, which he commanded thee; for now would the Lord have established thy kingdom upon Israel for ever.

xv. 21. But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice unto the Lord thy God in Gilgal.

22. And Samuel said, Hath the Lord as great delight in burnt-offerings and sacrifices as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice; and to hearken than the fat of rams.

23. For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft: and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry: because thou hast rejected the word of the Lord, he hath also rejected thee from being king.

Jer. vi. 20. To what purpose cometh there to me incense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? your burnt-offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet unto me.

28 A false witness shall perish; but the man that heareth, speaketh constantly.

29 A wicked man (q) hardeneth his face; but as for the upright, he directeth his way.

(q) Jer. iii. 2. Lift up thine eyes to the high places, and see where thou hast not been lain with: in the ways hast thou sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness, and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms, and with thy wickedness.

3. Therefore the showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; and thou hadst a whore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed.

v. 3. O Lord, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return.

30 There is (r) no wisdom, nor understanding, nor counsel against the LORD.

(r) Is. vii. 5. Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have taken evil counsel against thee, saying,

6. Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal:

7. Thus saith the Lord God, It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.

viii. 9. Associate yourselves, O ye people, and ye shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces.

10. Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for God is with us.

Acts iv. 27. For of a truth, against thy holy child Jesus; whom thou hast anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were gathered together,

28. For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done.

v. 39. But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it: lest haply ye be found even to fight against God.

31 The (s) horse is prepared against the day of battle; but (t) safety is of the LORD.

(s) Ps. xx. 7. Some trust in chariots, and some in horses, but we will remember the name of the Lord our God.

xxxiii. 17. An horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great strength.

cxlvii. 10. He delighteth not in the strength of the horse; he taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man.

Ec. ix. 11. I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to all.

(t) Ps. iii. 3. But thou, O Lord, art a shield for me; my glory, and the lifter up of my head.

lxviii. 20. He that is our God, is the God of salvation; and unto God the Lord belong the issues from death.

CHAPTER XXII.

A GOOD (a) name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favour rather than silver and gold.

(a) 1 Kings i. 47. And, moreover, the king's servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, God make the name of Solomon better than thy name, and make his throne greater than thy throne. And the king bowed himself upon the bed.

Ec. vii. 1. A good name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death than the day of one's birth.

Luke x. 20. Notwithstanding, in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

Phil. iv. 3. And I entreat thee also, true yoke-fellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow-labourers, whose names are in the book of life.

2 The (b) rich and poor meet together: (c) the LORD is the maker of them all.

(b) 1 Sam. ii. 7. The Lord maketh poor, and maketh rich: he bringeth low, and lifteth up.

Ps. xlix. 1. Hear this, all ye people; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world:

2. Both low and high, rich and poor, together.

(c) Job xxxi. 15. Did not he that made me in the womb make him? and did not one fashion us in the womb?

xxxiv. 19. How much less to him that accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the poor? for they all are the work of his hands.

3 A (d) prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself; but the simple pass on, and are punished.

(d) Ex. ix. 20. He that feared the word of the Lord among the servants of Pharaoh, made his servants and his cattle flee into the houses;

21. And he that regarded not the word of the Lord, left his servants and his cattle in the field.

Is. xxvi. 20. Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast.

21. For, behold, the Lord cometh out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain.

Heb. vi. 18. That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us.

xi. 7. By faith, Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

4 By (e) humility, and the fear of the LORD, are riches, and honour, and life.

(e) Ps. cxii. 1. Praise ye the Lord. Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord, that delighteth greatly in his commandments.

2. His seed shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the upright shall be blessed.

3. Wealth and riches shall be in his house; and his righteousness endureth for ever.

Is. lvii. 15. For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy: I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

1 Tim. iv. 8. For bodily exercise profiteth little; but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

5 (f) Thorns and snares are in the way of the froward: (g) he that doth keep his soul shall be far from them.

(f) Josh. xxiii. 13. Know for a certainty that the Lord your God will no more drive out any of these nations from before you; but they shall be snares and traps unto you, and scourges in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until ye perish from off this good land, which the Lord your God hath given you.

Ps. xi. 6. Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.

xxviii. 26. With the pure thou wilt show thyself pure; and with the froward thou wilt show thyself froward.

27. For thou wilt save the afflicted people; but wilt bring down high looks.

(g) Ps. xci. 1. He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High, shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

1 John v. 18. We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

Jude 20. But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost,

21. Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

6 Train up (h) a child in the way he should go; and (i) when he is old, he will not depart from it.

(h) Gen. xviii. 19. For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the Lord, to do justice and judgment; that the Lord may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him.

Deut. iv. 9. Only take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life; but teach them thy sons, and thy sons' sons.

vi. 7. And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thy house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

Eph. vi. 4. And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

2 Tim. iii. 15. And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation, through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

(i) 1 Sam. i. 28. Therefore also I have lent him to the Lord; as long as he liveth he shall be lent to the Lord. And he worshipped the Lord there.

ii. 26. And the child Samuel grew on, and was in favour both with the Lord and also with men.

xii. 2. And now, behold, the king walketh before you: and I am old and gray-headed; and, behold, my sons are with you; and I have walked before you from my childhood unto this day.

3. Behold, here I am, witness against me before the Lord, and before his anointed; whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I received any bribe to blind mine eyes therewith? and I will restore it you.

7 The (k) rich ruleth over the poor, and (l) the borrower is servant to the lender.

(k) Amos ii. 6. Thus saith the Lord, For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes.

iv. 1. Hear this word, ye kine of Bashan, that are in the mountain of Samaria, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

v. 11. Forasmuch, therefore, as your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat; ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.

12. For I know your manifold transgressions, and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.

James ii. 6. But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment-seat?

(l) 2 Kings iv. 1. Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant, my husband, is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the Lord: and the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bondmen.

Neh. v. 4. There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king's tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards.

5. Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and, lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already, neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards.

8 He (m) that soweth iniquity shall reap vanity; and (n) the rod of his anger shall fail.

(m) Job iv. 8. Even as I have seen, they that plough iniquity and sow wickedness, reap the same.

Hos. viii. 7. For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk; the bud shall yield no meal: if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up.

x. 13. Ye have ploughed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity: ye have eaten the fruit of lies; because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men.

Gal. vi. 7. Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8. For he that soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the spirit, shall of the spirit reap life everlasting.

(n) Ps. cxxv. 3. For the rod of the wicked shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous; lest the righteous put forth their hands unto iniquity.

Is. ix. 4. For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of Midian.

x. 5. O Assyrian, the rod of mine anger, and the staff in their hand is mine indignation.

9 He that hath (o) a bountiful eye shall be blessed; for he giveth of his bread to the poor.

(o) Ps. cxii. 9. He hath dispersed: he hath given to the poor; his righteousness endureth for ever: his horn shall be exalted with honour.

Ec. xi. 1. Cast thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after many days.

2. Give a portion to seven, and also to eight; for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth.

Is. xxxii. 8. But the liberal deviseth liberal things; and by liberal things shall he stand.

Acts xx. 35. I have showed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak; and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

1 Tim. vi. 18. That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate;

19. Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

Heb. vi. 10. For God is not unrighteous, to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have showed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

1 Pet. iv. 9. Use hospitality one to another without grudging.

10 (p) Cast out the scorner, and contention shall go out; yea, strife and reproach shall cease.

(p) Gen. xxi. 9. And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, which she had born unto Abraham, mocking.

10. Wherefore she said unto Abraham, Cast out this bond-woman and her son: for the son of this bond-woman shall not be heir with my son, even with Isaac.

Ps. ci. 5. Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: him that hath an high look and a proud heart will not I suffer.

Matt. xviii. 17. And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man and a publican.

11 He (q) that loveth pureness of heart, for the grace of his lips (r) the king shall be his friend.

(q) Ps. ci. 6. Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh in a perfect way, he shall serve me.

Matt. v. 8. Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

(r) Ezra vii. 6. This Ezra went up from Babylon; and he was a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the Lord God of Israel had given: and the king granted him all his request, according to the hand of the Lord his God upon him.

Esth. x. 3. For Mordecai the Jew was next unto king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted of the multitude of his brethren, seeking the wealth of his people, and speaking peace to all his seed.

12 The eyes of the LORD preserve knowledge, and (s) he overthroweth the words of the transgressor.

(s) Job v. 12. He disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their hands cannot perform their enterprise.

13. He taketh the wise in their own craftiness; and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong.

2 Thess. ii. 8. And then shall that wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:

9. Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan; with all power and signs and lying wonders.

2 Tim. iii. 8. Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith.

9. But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as theirs also was.

13 The slothful man saith, There is a lion without; I shall be slain in the streets.

14 The (t) mouth of strange women is a deep pit: he that is (u) abhorred of the LORD shall fall therein.

(t) Judg. xvi. 20. And she said, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and said, I will go out as at other times before, and shake myself. And he wist not that the Lord was departed from him.

21. But the Philistines took him, and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters of brass; and he did grind in the prison-house.

Ec. vii. 26. And I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: whoso pleaseth God shall escape from her, but the sinner shall be taken by her.

(u) Deut. xxxii. 19. And when the Lord saw it, he abhorred them, because of the provoking of his sons and of his daughters.

Ps. lxxxi. 12. So I gave them up unto their own heart's lust; and they walked in their own counsels.

15 (x) Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child; (y) but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him.

(x) Job xiv. 4. Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one.

Ps. li. 5. Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

John iii. 6. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the spirit is spirit.

(y) Heb. xii. 10. For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.

11. Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless, afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

16 He (z) that oppresses the poor to increase his riches, and (a) he that giveth to the rich, shall surely come to want.

(z) Job xx. 19. Because he hath oppressed and hath forsaken the poor; because he hath violently taken away a house which he builded not.

Ps. xii. 5. For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith the Lord; I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him.

Mic. ii. 2. And they covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away; so they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.

3. Therefore, thus saith the Lord, Behold, against this family do I devise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks; neither shall ye go haughtily: for this time is evil.

(a) Luke vi. 33. And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.

34. And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

35. But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

17 ¶ Bow down thine ear, and hear the words of the wise, and apply thine heart unto my knowledge:

18 For (b) it is a pleasant thing if thou keep them within thee; they shall withal be (c) fitted in thy lips.

(b) Ps. xix. 10. More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honey-comb.

Cxix. 103. How sweet are thy words unto my taste: yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth.

111. Thy testimonies have I taken as an heritage for ever: for they are the rejoicing of my heart.

Jer. xv. 16. Thy words were found, and I did eat them; and thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of my heart: for I am called by thy name, O Lord God of hosts.

(c) Ps. cxix. 13. With my lips have I declared all the judgments of thy mouth.

Mal. ii. 7. For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the Lord of hosts.

Heb. xiii. 15. By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to his name.

19 That (d) thy trust may be in the LORD, I have made known to thee this day, even to thee.

(d) Ps. lxxii. 8. Trust in him at all times, ye people: pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us. Selah.

Is. xli. 2. Who raised up the righteous man from the east, called him to his foot, gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings? he gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow.

Jer. xvii. 7. Blessed is the man that trusteth in the Lord, and whose hope the Lord is.

20 Have not (e) I written to thee excellent things in counsels and knowledge, (e) Ps. xii. 6. The words of the Lord are pure words; as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

Hos. viii. 12. I have written to him the great things of my law, but they were counted as a strange thing.

2 Tim. iii. 15. And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation, through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

16. All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness;

17. That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

21 That (f) I might make thee know the certainty of the words of truth; that thou mightest (g) answer the words of truth to them that send unto thee?

(f) Luke i. 3. It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent Theophilus,

4. That thou mightest know the certainty of those things wherein thou hast been instructed.

John xx. 31. But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the son of God; and that believing, ye might have life through his name.

1 John v. 13. These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

(g) 1 Pet. iii. 15. But sanctify the Lord God in your heart; and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear.

22 Rob not the poor, because he is poor; neither (h) oppress the afflicted in the gate:

(h) Ex. xxiii. 6. Thou shalt not wrest the judgment of the poor in his cause.

Job xxxi. 21. If I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless, when I saw my help in the gate.

Zech. vii. 10. And oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

Mal. iii. 5. And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the Lord of hosts.

23 For (i) the Lord will plead their cause, and (k) spoil the soul of those that spoiled them.

(i) 1 Sam. xxiv. 15. The Lord, therefore, be judge, and judge between me and thee, and see, and plead my cause, and deliver me out of their hand.

Ps. xxxiv. 1. Plead my cause, O Lord, with them that strive with me: fight against them that fight against me.

xliiii. 1. Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation; O deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.

Jer. l. 34. Their Redeemer is strong; the Lord of hosts is his name; he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

Is. 36. Therefore, thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; and I will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry.

Mic. vii. 9. I will bear the indignation of the Lord, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me; he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness.

(k) Is. xxxiii. 1. Wo to thee that spoilest, and thou wast not spoiled; and dealest treacherously, and they dealt not treacherously with thee! when thou shalt cease to spoil, thou shalt be spoiled; and when thou shalt make an end to deal treacherously, they shall deal treacherously with thee.

Hab. ii. 8. Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

24 (l) Make no friendship with an angry man; and with a furious man thou shalt not go;

(l) Ps. cvi. 35. But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works.

Prov. xiii. 20. He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.

1 Cor. xv. 33. Be not deceived; evil communications corrupt good manners.

25 Lest thou learn his ways, and get a snare to thy soul.

26 Be not thou one of them that strike hands, or of them that are sureties for debts.

27 If thou hast nothing to pay, (m) why should he take away thy bed from under thee?

(m) Ex. xxii. 26. If thou at all take thy neighbour's raiment to pledge, thou shalt deliver it unto him by that the sun goeth down.

27. For that is his covering only; it is his raiment for his skin: wherein shall he sleep? and it shall come to pass, when he crieth unto me, that I will hear; for I am gracious.

2 Kings iv. 1. Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the Lord: and the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bondmen.

Prov. xx. 16. Take his garment that is surety for a stranger; and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

28 (n) Remove not the ancient landmark which thy fathers have set.

(n) Deut. xix. 14. Thou shalt not remove thy neighbour's landmark, which they of old time have set in thine inheritance, which thou shalt inherit in the land that the Lord thy God giveth thee to possess it.

xxvii. 17. Cursed be he that removeth his neighbour's landmark. And all the people shall say, Amen.

Job xxiv. 2. Some remove the land-marks; they violently take away flocks, and feed thereof.

29 Seest thou (o) a man diligent in his business? he shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before mean men.

(o) 1 Kings xi. 28. And the man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valour: and Solomon seeing the young man that he was industrious, he made him ruler over all the charge of the house of Joseph.

Ec. ix. 10. Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

Matt. xxv. 21. His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

23. His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

Rom. xii. 11. Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord.

CHAPTER XXIII.

WHEN thou (a) sittest to eat with a ruler, consider diligently what is before thee:

(a) Gen. xliii. 32. And they set on for him [Joseph] by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians which did eat with him by themselves: because the Egyptians might not eat bread with the Hebrews; for that is an abomination unto the Egyptians.

33. And they sat before him the first-born according to his birth-right, and the youngest according to his youth: and the men marvelled one at another.

34. And he took and sent messes unto them from before him: but Benjamin's mess was five times so much as any of theirs. And they drank, and were merry with him.

Jude 12. These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots.

2 And (b) put a knife to thy throat, if thou be a man given to appetite.

(b) Matt. xviii. 8. Wherefore, if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two bands, and two feet, to be cast into everlasting fire.

9. And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes, to be cast into hell-fire.

1 Cor. ix. 27. But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection; lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a cast-away.

Phil. iii. 19. Whose end is destruction, whose god is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.

3 Be not (c) desirous of his dainties: for they are deceitful meat.

(c) Ps. cxli. 4. Incline not my heart to any evil thing, to practise wicked works with men that work iniquity: and let me not eat of their dainties.

Dan. i. 8. But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

Luke xxi. 34. And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

4 (d) Labour not to be rich: (e) cease from thine own wisdom.

(d) Prov. xxviii. 20. A faithful man shall abound with blessings: but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be innocent.

John vi. 27. Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed.

1 Tim. vi. 8. And having food and raiment, let us be therewith content.

9. But they that will be rich, fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

10. For the love of money is the root of all evil; which, while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

(e) Prov. iii. 5. Trust in the Lord with all thy heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

xxvi. 12. Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

Is. v. 21. Wo unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight!

Rom. xii. 16. Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

5 Wilt (f) thou set thine eyes upon (g) that which is not? for (h) riches certainly make themselves wings: they fly away as an eagle toward heaven.

(f) Ps. cxix. 36. Incline my heart unto thy testimonies, and not to covetousness.

37. Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity; and quicken thou me in thy way.

Jer. xxii. 17. But thine eyes and thy heart are not but for thy covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence to do it.

1 John ii. 16. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

(g) Ec. i. 2. Vanity of vanities, saith the preacher, vanity of vanities; all is vanity.

Is. lv. 2. Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread, and your labour for that which satisfieth not? Harken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

1 Cor. vii. 29. But this I say, brethren, The time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;

30. And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

31. And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away.

(h) Job i. 14. And there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were ploughing, and the asses feeding beside them;

15. And the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

16. While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burnt up the sheep and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

17. While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

Ps. xxxix. 6. Surely every man walketh in a vain show: surely they are disquieted in vain; he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

Prov. xxvii. 24. For riches are not for ever: and doth the crown endure to every generation?

Ec. v. 13. There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt.

14. But those riches perish by evil travail; and he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand.

Matt. vi. 19. Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal.

1 Tim. vi. 17. Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high-minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy.

James v. 1. Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2. Your riches are corrupted, and your garments moth-eaten.

6 Eat thou not the bread of him that hath (i) an evil eye, neither desire thou his dainty meats.

(i) Deut. xv. 9. Beware that there be not a thought in thy wicked heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand; and thine eye be evil against thy poor brother, and thou givest him nought; and he cry unto the Lord against thee, and it be sin unto thee.

xxviii. 56. The tender and delicate woman among you, which would not adventure to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter.

Prov. xxii. 9. He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed; for he giveth of his bread to the poor.

Matt. xx. 15. Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Is thine eye evil because I am good?

Mark vii. 22. Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness.

7 For (k) as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: (l) Eat and drink, saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee.

(k) Prov. xix. 22. The desire of a man is his kindness: and a poor man is better than a liar.

Matt. ix. 3. And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth. 4. And Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?

(l) Judg. xvi. 15. And she said unto him, How canst thou say, I love thee, when thy heart is not with me? thou hast mocked me these three times, and hast not told me wherein thy great strength lieth.

2 Sam. xiii. 26. Then said Absalom, If not, I pray thee, let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said unto him, Why should he go with thee?

27. But Absalom pressed him, that he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.

28. Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say unto you smite Amnon; then kill him, fear not: have I not commanded you? be courageous and be valiant.

Ps. xii. 2. They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips, and with a double heart: do they speak.

lv. 21. The words of his mouth were smother than butter, but war was in his heart: his words were softer than oil, yet were they drawn swords.

Dan. xi. 27. And both these kings' hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

8 The morsel which thou hast eaten shalt thou vomit up, and lose thy sweet words.

9 (m) Speak not in the ears of a fool; for (n) he will despise the wisdom of thy words.

(m) Is. xxxvi. 21. But they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

Matt. vii. 6. Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

Acts xiii. 45. But when the Jews saw the multitude, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

46. Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles.

(n) Luke xvi. 14. And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.

John x. 20. And many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?

Acts xvii. 18. Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said, What will this babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter-forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.

10 Remove not the old landmark; and enter not into the fields of the (o) fatherless:

(o) Job vi. 27. Yea, ye overwhelm the fatherless, and ye dig a pit for your friend.

xxii. 9. Thou hast sent widows away empty; and the arms of the fatherless have been broken.

xxiv. 3. They drive away the ass of the fatherless; they take the widow's ox for a pledge.

Ps. xciv. 6. They slay the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless.

Jer. xxii. 3. Thus saith the Lord, Execute ye judgment and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place.

James i. 27. Pure religion, and undefiled before God and the Father, is this, to visit the fatherless and widow in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

11 For (p) their redeemer is mighty; he shall plead their cause with thee.

(p) Ex. xxxii. 22. Ye shall not afflict any widow, or fatherless child.

23. If thou afflict them in anywise, and they cry at all unto me, I will surely hear their cry;

24. And my wrath shall wax hot, and I will kill you with the sword; and your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.

Deut. xxvii. 19. Cursed be he that perverteth the judgment of the stranger, fatherless, and widow. And all the people shall say, Amen.

Jer. i. 33. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together; and all that took them captives, held them fast; they refused to let them go.

34. Their Redeemer is strong; The Lord of hosts is his name; he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

li. 36. Therefore thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; and I will dry up her sea, and make her spring dry.

12 Apply thine heart unto instruction, and thine ears to the words of knowledge.

13 Withhold not correction from the child; for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die.

14 Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and shalt deliver his soul from hell.

15 My son, (q) if thine heart be wise, my heart shall rejoice, even mine.

(q) 1 Thess. ii. 19. For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming?

20. For ye are our glory and joy.

iii. 9. For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God.

2 John 4. I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

3 John 3. For I rejoiced greatly when the brethren came, and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth.

4. I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.

16 Yea, my reins shall rejoice when (r) thy lips speak right things.

(r) Prov. viii. 6. Hear; for I will speak of excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things.

Eph. iv. 29. Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good, to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

v. 4. Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient; but rather giving of thanks.

Col. iv. 4. That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.

James iii. 2. For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

17 Let (s) not thine heart envy sinners; but (t) be thou in the fear of the LORD all the day long.

(s) Ps. xxxvii. 1. Fret not thyself because of evil-doers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

lxxiii. 3. For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

(t) Ps. cxi. 10. The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments: his praise endureth for ever.

Ec. v. 7. For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities: but fear thou God.

xii. 13. Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

Acts ix. 31. Then had the churches rest throughout all Judea, and Galilee, and Samaria, and were edified; and, walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied.

2 Cor. vii. 1. Having, therefore, these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

1 Pet. i. 17. And if ye call on the Father, who, without respect of persons, judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear.

18 For (u) surely there is an end, and (x) thine expectation shall not be cut off.

(u) Ps. xxxvii. 37. Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace.

Jer. xxix. 11. For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.

Luke xvi. 25. But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

Rom. vi. 21. What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

22. But now, being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

(x) Ps. ix. 18. For the needy shall not alway be forgotten: the expectation of the poor shall not perish for ever.

Phil. i. 20. According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also, Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life or by death.

19 Hear thou, my son, and be wise, and guide thine heart in the way.

20 Be (y) not among wine-bibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh:

(y) Is. v. 11. Wo unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine inflame them.

xxii. 13. And, behold, joy and gladness, slaying oxen, and killing sheep, eating flesh and drinking wine: let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we die.

Matt. xxiv. 49. And shall begin to smite his fellow-servants, and to eat and drink with the drunken.

Luke xxi. 34. And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

Rom. xiii. 13. Let us walk honestly as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying.

Eph. v. 18. And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit.

21 For (z) the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty; and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.

(z) Deut. xxi. 20. And they shall say unto the elders of his city, This our son is stubborn and rebellious; he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton and a drunkard.

Joel i. 5. Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine: for it is cut off from your mouth.

1 Cor. v. 11. But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother, be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat.

vi. 10. Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

22 (a) Hearken unto the father that begat thee, and (b) despise not thy mother when she is old.

(a) Deut. xxi. 18. If a man have a stubborn and rebellious son, which will not obey the voice of his father, or the voice of his mother, and that, when they have chastened him, will not hearken unto them;

19. Then shall his father and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out unto the elders of his city, and unto the gate of his place:

20. And they shall say unto the elders of his city, This our son is stubborn and rebellious; he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton and a drunkard.

21. And all the men of his city shall stone him with stones, that he die: so shalt thou put evil away from among you: and all Israel shall hear, and fear.

xxvii. 16. Cursed be he that setteth light by his father or his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen.

Mark vii. 10. For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

Eph. vi. 1. Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

2. Honour thy father and mother, (which is the first commandment with promise.)

(b) John xix. 26. When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son!

27. Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home.

23 (c) Buy the truth, and (d) sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.

(c) Ps. cxix. 72. The law of thy mouth is better unto me than thousands of gold and silver.

162. I rejoice at thy word, as one that findeth great spoil.

Is. lv. 1. Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money, and without price.

Matt. xiii. 44. Again: The kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which, when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

45. Again: The kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant-man seeking goodly pearls:

46. Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, he went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

Rev. iii. 18. I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eye-salve, that thou mayest see.

(d) Matt. xvi. 26. For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

Heb. xi. 26. Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompense of the reward.

Rev. xii. 11. And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony: and they loved not their lives unto the death.

24 The (e) father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice, and he that begetteth a wise child (f) shall have joy of him.

(e) 1 Kings i. 48. And also thus said the king, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which hath given one to set on my throne this day, mine eyes even seeing it.

Ec. ii. 19. And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have showed myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity.

(f) Philemon. 19. I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine ownself besides.

20. Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my bowels in the Lord.

25 Thy father and thy mother shall be glad, and she that bare thee shall rejoice.

26 My son, (g) give me thine heart, and (h) let thine eyes observe my ways.

(g) Deut. vi. 5. And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.

Matt. x. 37. He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.

38. And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me.

2 Cor. viii. 5. And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

(h) Ps. cvii. 43. Whoso is wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the loving-kindness of the Lord.

Hos. xiv. 9. Who is wise, and he shall understand these things? prudent, and he shall know them? for the ways of the Lord are right, and the just shall walk in them: but the transgressors shall fall therein.

2 Pet. i. 19. We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts.

27 For a whore is a deep ditch; and a strange woman is a narrow pit.

28 She also lieth in wait as for (i) a prey, and (k) increaseth the transgressors among men.

(i) Prov. ix. 18. But he knoweth not that the dead are there; and that her guests are in the depths of hell.

xxii. 14. The mouth of strange women is a deep pit: he that is abhorred of the Lord shall fall therein.

Ec. vii. 26. And I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: whoso pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her.

(k) Num. xxv. 1. And Israel abode in Shittim, and the people began to commit whoredom with the daughters of Moab.

Hos. iv. 11. Whoredom, and wine, and new wine, take away the heart.

1 Cor. x. 8. Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day, three and twenty thousand.

29 ¶ (l) Who hath wo? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath (m) redness of eyes?

(l) 1 Sam. xxv. 36. And Abigail came to Nabal: and, behold, he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king; and Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light.

37. But it came to pass in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, and his wife had told him these things, that his heart died within him, and he became as a stone.

Is. v. 22. Wo unto them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink.

Nah. i. 10. For while they be folden together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

Luke xii. 45. But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the men servants, and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken;

45. The lord of that servant will come in a day when he loqueth not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.

(m) Gen. xlix. 12. His eyes shall be red with wine, and his teeth white with milk.

30 They that (n) tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek (o) mixed wine.

(n) Gen. ix. 21. And he drunk of the wine, and was drunken; and he was uncovered within his tent.

Amos vi. 6. That drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments; but they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.

(o) Ps. lxxv. 8. For in the hand of the Lord there is a cup, and the wine is red; it is full of mixture, and he poureth out of the same: but the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them.

31 (p) Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright.

(p) Job xxxi. 1. I made a covenant with mine eyes; why then should I think upon a maid?

Ps. cxix. 37. Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity; and quicken thou me in thy way.

Mark ix. 47. And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell-fire.

1 John ii. 16. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

32 (q) At the last (r) it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder.

(q) Jer. v. 31. The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bare rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

Ez. vii. 5. Thus saith the Lord God, An evil, an only evil, behold, is come.

6. An end is come, the end is come: it watcheth for thee; behold, it is come.

12. The time is come, the day draweth near: let not the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn; for wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

Rom. vi. 21. What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

(r) Ec. x. 8. He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaketh a hedge, a serpent shall bite him.

Jer. viii. 17. For, behold, I will send serpents, cockatrices, among you, which will not be charmed, and they shall bite you, saith the Lord.

Amos v. 19. As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

ix. 3. And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them.

33 Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things.

34 Yea, (s) thou shalt be as he that lieth down in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast.

(s) 2 Sam. xiii. 28. Now, Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon's heart is merry with wine; and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon; then kill him, fear not: have not I commanded you? be courageous, and be valiant.

1 Kings xvi. 9. And his servant Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him as he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arzah, steward of his house in Tirzah.

Joi. i. 5. Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth.

Matt. xxiv. 38. For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark.

35 They have (t) stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and I felt it not: when shall I awake? (u) I will seek it yet again.

(t) Jer. v. 3. O Lord, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return.

xxxii. 18. I have surely heard Ephraim boasting himself thus; Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the Lord my God.

(u) Deut. xxix. 19. And it come to pass, when he heareth the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the imagination of my heart, to add drunkenness to thirst.

Is. xxii. 13. And, behold, joy and gladness; slaying oxen and killing sheep, eating flesh and drinking wine: let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we shall die.

lvi. 12. Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and to-morrow shall be as to-day, and much more abundant.

2 Pet. ii. 22. But it happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and, The sow that was washed, to her wallowing in the mire.

CHAPTER XXIV.

BE (a) not thou envious against evil men, (b) neither desire to be with them.

(a) Gal. v. 19. Now the works of the flesh are manifest; which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

20. Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

21. Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revelings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

James iv. 5. Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy?

6. But he giveth more grace: wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

(b) Ps. xxvi. 9. Gather not my soul with sinners, nor my life with bloody men.

Prov. xiii. 20. He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.

2 For (c) their heart studieth destruction, and their lips talk of mischief.

(c) 1 Sam. xxiii. 9. And David knew that Saul secretly practised mischief against him; and he said to Abiathar the priest, Bring hither the ephod.

Job xv. 35. They conceive mischief, and bring forth vanity, and their belly prepareth deceit.

Ps. vii. 14. Behold, he travaileth with iniquity, and hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood.

x. 7. His mouth is full of cursing, and deceit, and fraud; under his tongue is mischief and vanity.

Is. lix. 4. None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.

Matt. xxvi. 3. Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,

4. And consulted that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him.

3 Through wisdom (d) is an house builded; and by understanding (e) it is established:

(d) 1 Cor. iii. 9. For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building.

10. According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise master-builder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

(e) 2 Sam. vii. 26. And let thy name be magnified for ever, saying, The Lord of hosts is the God over Israel: and let the house of thy servant David be established before thee.

Jer. x. 12. He hath made the earth by his power, and he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion.

Col. ii. 7. Rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

4 And (f) by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

(f) 1 Chr. xxvii. 25. And over the king's treasures was Azmaveth, the son of Adiel: and over the store-houses in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the castles, was Jehonathan the son of Uzziab.

2 Chr. iv. 18. Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the brass could not be found out.

19. And Solomon made all the vessels that were for the house of God, the golden altar also, and the tables whereon the show-bread was set;

20. Moreover, the candlesticks with their lamps, that they should burn after the manner, before the oracle, of pure gold;

21. And the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, made he of gold, and that perfect gold;

22. And the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the censers, of pure gold: and the entry of the house, the inner doors thereof for the most holy place, and the doors of the house of the temple, were of gold.

Neh. x. 39. For the children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the offering of the corn, of the new wine, and the oil, unto the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests that minister, and the porters, and the singers; and we will not forsake the house of our God.

Matt. xiii. 52. Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven, is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

5 A wise man is strong; yea, a man of knowledge increaseth strength.

6 For (g) by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war; and in multitude of counsellors there is safety.

(g) Luke xiv. 31. Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand.

Eph. vi. 10. Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

11. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

12. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

7 Wisdom is (h) too high for a fool: he (i) openeth not his mouth in the gate.

(h) Ps. x. 5. His ways are always grievous: thy judgments are far above out of his sight: as for all his enemies, he puffeth at them.

xcii. 5. O Lord, how great are thy works! and thy thoughts are very deep.

6. A brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this.

1 Cor. ii. 14. But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him; neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

(i) Job xxxi. 21. If I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless, when I saw my help in the gate.

Is. xxix. 21. That make a man an offender for a word, and lay a snare for him that reproveth in the gate, and turn aside the just for a thing of nought.

Amos v. 10. They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they abhor him that speaketh uprightly.

8 He (k) that deviseth to do evil, shall be called a mischievous person.

(k) 2 Kings ii. 44. The king said, moreover, to Shimei, Thou knowest all the wickedness which thine heart is privy to, that thou didst to David my father; therefore the Lord shall return thy wickedness upon thine own head.

Ps. xxi. 11. For they intended evil against thee; they imagined a mischievous device, which they are not able to perform.

Is. xxxii. 7. The instruments also of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even when the needy speaketh right.

Nah. i. 11. There is one come out of thee that imagineth evil against the Lord, a wicked counsellor.

9 The (l) thought of foolishness is sin: and the scorner is an abomination to men.

(l) Gen. vi. 5. And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

viii. 21. And the Lord smelled a sweet savour; and the Lord said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake: for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth: neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done.

Ps. cxix. 113. I hate vain thoughts: but thy law do I love.

Jer. iv. 14. O Jerusalem, wash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved: how long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee?

Matt. ix. 4. And Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?

xv. 19. For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies.

2 Cor. x. 5. Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ.

10 If (m) thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is small.

(m) 1 Sam. xxvii. 1. And David said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul: there is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul shall despair of me to seek me any more in any coast of Israel: so shall I escape out of his hand.

Job iv. 5. But now it is come upon thee, and thou faintest; it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

Jon. iv. 8. And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live.

2 Cor. iv. 1. Therefore, seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not.

Eph. iii. 13. Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

Heb. xii. 3. For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

Heb. ii. 3. And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

11 If (n) thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain;

(n) 1 Sam. xxvi. 8. Then said Abishai to David, God hath delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day; now, therefore, let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear, even to the earth at once, and I will not smite him the second time.

9. And David said to Abishai, Destroy him not: for who can stretch forth his hand against the Lord's anointed and be guiltless!

Job xxix. 17. And I brake the jaws of the wicked, and plucked the spoil out of his teeth.

Ps. lxxxii. 4. Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked.

Is. lviii. 7. Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh?

Luke x. 31. And by chance there came down a certain priest that way; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32. But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was; and when he saw him, he had compassion on him.

1 John iii. 16. Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17. But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?

12 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; (o) doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he (p) that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? (q) and shall not he render to every man according to his works?

(o) 1 Sam. xvi. 7. But the Lord said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance; or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the Lord seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart.

Ps. vii. 9. O let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just; for the righteous God trieth the hearts and reins.

Jer. xvii. 10. I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

1 Cor. iv. 5. Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then shall every man have praise of God.

(q) Ps. lxxvi. 9. Which holleth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved.

Acts xvii. 28. For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

(r) Job xxxiv. 11. For the work of a man shall he render unto him, and cause every man to find, according to his ways.

Jer. xxxii. 19. Great in counsel, and mighty in work: for thine eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men, to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

Matt. xvi. 27. For the son of man shall come in the glory of his Father, with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

Rom. ii. 6. Who will render to every man according to his deeds.

2 Cor. v. 10. For we must all appear before the judgment-seat of Christ, that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

13 My son, (r) eat thou honey, because it is good; and the honey-comb, which is sweet to thy taste:

(r) Prov. xxv. 27. It is not good to eat much honey; so for men to search their own glory, is not glory.

Cant. v. 1. I am come into my garden, my sister, my spouse: I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honey-comb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk: eat, O friends; drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved.

Is. vii. 15. Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good.

Matt. iii. 4. And the same John had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey.

14 So (s) shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, then (t) there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off.

(s) Ps. xix. 10. More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold; sweeter also than honey, and the honey-comb.

cix. 103. How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

111. Thy testimonies have I taken as an heritage for ever! for they are the rejoicing of my heart.

Jer. xv. 16. Thy words were found, and I did eat them; and thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of my heart: for I am called by thy name, O Lord God of hosts.

(t) Matt. xix. 21. Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come and follow me.

29. And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundred-fold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

James i. 25. But whose looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work; this man shall be blessed in his deed.

15 (u) Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous; spoil not his resting-place.

(u) 1 Sam. xix. 11. Saul also sent messengers unto David's house to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal, David's wife, told him, saying, If thou save not thy life to-night, to-morrow thou shalt be slain.

Ps. xxxvii. 32. The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him.

Jer. xi. 19. But I was like a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter; and I knew not that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree, with the fruit thereof, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered.

Matt. xxvi. 4. And consulted that they might take Jesus by subtily, and kill him.

Acts ix. 24. But their laying await was known of Saul: and they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

16 For (x) a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again; (y) but the wicked shall fall into mischief.

(x) Job v. 19. He shall deliver thee in six troubles; yea, in seven there shall no evil touch thee.

Ps. xxxiv. 19. Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth them out of all their troubles.

xxxvii. 24. Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the Lord upholdeth him with his hand.

Mic. vii. 8. Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy; when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the Lord shall be a light unto me.

2 Cor. i. 8. For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble, which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life.

9. But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead:

10 Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us.

iv. 8. We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; 9. Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

10. Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12. So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

(y) 1 Sam. xxvi. 10. David said furthermore, As the Lord liveth, the Lord shall smite him; or his day shall come to die; or he shall descend into battle and perish.

Ps. vii. 16. His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate.

lii. 5. God shall likewise destroy thee for ever: he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling-place, and root thee out of the land of the living. Selah.

Prov. xxviii. 14. Happy is the man that feareth always: but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief.

15. As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; so is a wicked ruler over the poor people.

16. The prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor: but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days.

17. A man that doeth violence to the blood of any person shall flee to the pit; let no man stay him.

18. Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved: but he that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once.

Amos viii. 14. They that swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, Thy god, O Dan, liveth; and, The manner of Beer-sheba liveth; even they shall fall, and never rise up again.

1 Thess. v. 3. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape:

17 (z) Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth:

(z) Judg. xvi. 25. And it came to pass, when their hearts were merry, that they said, Call for Samson, that he may make us sport: and they called for Samson out of the prison-house; and he made them sport: and they set him between the pillars.

Ps. xxxv. 15. But in mine adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together: yea, the subjects gathered themselves together against me, and I knew it not; they did tear me, and ceased not.

19. Let not them that are mine enemies wrongfully rejoice over me; neither let them wink with the eye that hate me without a cause.

Ob. 12. But thou shouldest not have looked on the day of thy brother, in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldest thou have rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldest thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress.

1 Cor. xiii. 6. Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

7. Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

18 Lest the LORD see it, and it displease him, (a) and he turn away his wrath from him.

(a) Lam. iv. 21. Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of Uz: the cup also shall pass through unto thee: thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked.

22. The punishment of thine iniquity is accomplished, O daughter of Zion; he will no more carry thee away into captivity: he will visit thine iniquity, O daughter of Edom; he will discover thy sins.

Zech. i. 15. And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

16. Therefore, thus saith the Lord, I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies: my house shall be built in it, saith the Lord of hosts, and a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem.

19 Fret not thyself because of evil men, neither be thou envious at the wicked;

20 For (b) there shall be no reward to the evil man; (c) the candle of the wicked shall be put out.

(b) Ps. ix. 17. The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God.

xi. 6. Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.

Is. iii. 11. Unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him; for the reward of his hands shall be given him.

(c) Job xviii. 5. Yea, the light of the wicked shall be put out, and the spark of his fire shall not shine.

6. The light shall be dark in his tabernacle, and his candle shall be put out with him.

xxi. 17. How oft is the candle of the wicked put out? and how oft cometh their destruction upon them? God distributeth sorrows in his anger.

Matt. viii. 12. But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

xxv. 8. And the foolish said unto the wise, give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.

Jude 13. Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

21 My son, (d) fear thou the LORD and the king; and (e) meddle not with them that are given to change:

(d) Ex. xiv. 31. And Israel saw that great work which the Lord did upon the Egyptians; and the people feared the Lord, and believed the Lord, and his servant Moses.

1 Sam. xxiv. 6. And he said unto his men, The Lord forbid that I should do this thing unto my master, the Lord's anointed, to stretch forth mine hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of the Lord.

Matt. xxii. 21. They say unto him, Cesar's. Then saith he unto them, Render, therefore, unto Cesar the things which are Cesar's, and unto God the things that are God's.

Tit. iii. 1. Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work.

1 Pet. ii. 17. Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.

(e) 1 Sam. viii. 5. And said unto him, Behold, thou art old, and thy sons walk not in thy ways: now make us a king to judge us like all the nations.

6. But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, Give us a king to judge us. And Samuel prayed unto the Lord.

7. And the Lord said unto Samuel, Harken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee: for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them.

22 For (f) their calamity shall rise suddenly; and (g) who knoweth the ruin of them both?

(f) 1 Sam. xxxi. 1. Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain in mount Gilboa.

2. And the Philistines followed hard upon Saul, and upon his sons; and the Philistines slew Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua, Saul's sons.

3. And the battle went sore against Saul, and the archers hit him; and he was sore wounded of the archers.

4. Then said Saul unto his armour-bearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith, lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and abuse me. But his armour-bearer would not; for he was sore afraid: therefore Saul took a sword and fell upon it.

5. And when his armour-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise upon his sword, and died with him.

6. So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armour-bearer, and all his men, that same day together.

7. And when the men of Israel that were on the other side of the valley, and they that were on the other side Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

Hos. xiii. 10. I will be thy king: where is any other that may save thee in all thy cities? and thy judges, of whom thou saidst, Give me a king and princes?

11. I gave thee a king in mine anger, and took him away in my wrath.

(g) Ps. xc. 11. Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear so is thy wrath.

Prov. xvi. 14. The wrath of a king is as messengers of death: but a wise man will pacify it.

23 These (h) things also belong to the wise. (i) It is not good to have respect to persons in judgment.

(h) Ps. cvii. 43. Whoso is wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the loving-kindness of the Lord.

Hos. xiv. 9. Who is wise, and he shall understand these things? prudent, and he shall know them? for the ways of the Lord are right, and the just shall walk in them: but the transgressors shall fall therein.

James iii. 17. But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.

(i) Lev. xix. 15. Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment; thou shalt not respect the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty: but in righteousness shalt thou judge thy neighbour.

Deut. i. 17. Ye shall not respect persons in judgment, but ye shall hear the small as well as the great; ye shall not be afraid of the face of man, for the judgment is God's: and the cause that is too hard for you, bring it unto me, and I will hear it.

xvi. 19. Thou shalt not wrest judgment; thou shalt not respect persons, neither take a gift; for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous.

John vii. 24. Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

1 Pet. i. 17. And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear.

24 He (k) that saith unto the wicked, Thou art righteous; (l) him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him:

(k) Is. v. 20. Wo unto them that call evil good, and good evil: that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter.

23. Which justify the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him.

Jer. vi. 13. For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them, every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest, every one dealeth falsely.

14. They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

Ez. xiii. 22. Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life.

(l) Is. lxvi. 24. And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcases of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched: and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh.

25 But to (m) them that rebuke him shall be delight, and a good blessing shall come upon them.

(m) Lev. xix. 17. Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart: thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbour, and not suffer sin upon him.

1 Sam. iii. 13. For I have told him, that I will judge his house for ever, for the iniquity which he knoweth: because his sons made themselves vile, and he restrained them not.

Matt. xiv. 3. For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodius' sake, his brother Philip's wife.

4. For John said unto him, It is not lawful for thee to have her.

1 Tim. v. 20. Them that sin, rebuke before all, that others also may fear.

2 Tim. iv. 2. Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine.

ii. 15. These things speak and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

26 Every man (n) shall kiss his lips that giveth a right answer.

(n) Dan. ii. 46. Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odours unto him.

47. The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret.

48. Then the king made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon.

Mark xii. 17. And Jesus, answering, said unto them, Render to Cesar the things that are Cesar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.

27 (o) Prepare thy work without, and make it fit for thyself in the field; and afterwards build thine house.

(o) 1 Kings v. 18. And Solomon's builders, and Hiram's builders did hew them, and the stone-squarers: so they prepared timber and stones to build the house.

vi. 7. And the house, when it was in building, was built of stone made ready before it was brought thither: so that there was neither hammer, nor axe, nor any tool of iron heard in the house while it was building.

Luke xiv. 28. For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it?

29. Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him,

30. Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish.

28 Be (p) not a witness against thy neighbour without cause; and (q) deceive not with thy lips.

(p) Ex. xx. 16. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

xxiii. 1. Thou shalt not raise a false report: put not thine hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witness.

1 Sam. xxii. 9. Then answered Doeg the Edomite, which was set over the servants of Saul, and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech, the son of Ahitub.

10. And he inquired of the Lord for him, and gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Goliath, the Philistine.

Ps. xxxv. 7. For without cause have they hid for me their net in a pit, which without cause they have digged for my soul.

(q) Eph. iv. 25. Wherefore, putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another.

Col. iii. 9. Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds.

29 Say not, (r) I will do so to him as he hath done to me; I will render to the man according to his work.

(r) Judg. xv. 11. Then three thousand men of Judah went to the top of the rock Etam, and said to Samson, Knowest thou not that the Philistines are rulers over us? what is this that thou hast done unto us? And he said unto them, As they did unto me so I have done unto them.

2 Sam. xiii. 22. And Absalom spake unto his brother Amnon neither good nor bad: for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

23. And it came to pass, after two full years, that Absalom had sheep-shearers in Baal-hazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king's sons.

24. And Absalom came to the king, and said, Behold now, thy servant hath sheep-shearers; let the king, I beseech thee, and his servants, go with thy servant.

25. And the king said to Absalom, Nay, my son, let us not all now go, lest we be chargeable unto thee. And he pressed him: howbeit he would not go, but blessed him.

26. Then said Absalom, If not, I pray thee, let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said unto him, why should he go with thee?

27. But Absalom pressed him, that he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.

28. Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon's heart is merry with wine; and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon; then kill him, fear not: have not I commanded you? be courageous, and be valiant.

30 ¶ I (s) went by the field of the slothful, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding;

(s) Job iv. 8. Even as I have seen, they that plough iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.

Ps. cvii. 42. The righteous shall see it, and rejoice; and all iniquity shall stop her mouth.

Ec. vii. 15. All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that prolongeth his life in his wickedness.

31 And, lo, (t) it was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered the face thereof, (u) and the stone-wall thereof was broken down.

(t) Gen. iii. 17. And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed is the ground for thy sake: in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life.

18. Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee; and thou shalt eat the herb of the field.

Jer. iv. 3. For thus saith the Lord to the men of Judah and of Jerusalem, Break up your fallow ground, and sow not among thorns.

Heb. vi. 8. But that which beareth thorns and briars is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.

(u) Ec. x. 18. By much slothfulness the building decayeth; and through idleness of the hands the house droppeth through.

32 Then I saw, and considered it well: (x) I looked upon it, and received instruction.

(x) Deut. xiii. 11. And all Israel shall hear, and fear, and shall no more do any such wickedness as this is among you.

xxi. 21. And all the men of his city shall stone him with stones that he die: so shalt thou put evil away from among you; and all Israel shall hear, and fear.

xxxii. 29. O that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end!

1 Cor. x. 6. Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.

11. Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples; and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.

33 Yet (y) a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

(y) Rom. xiii. 11. And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

Eph. v. 14. Wherefore he saith, Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

1 Thess. v. 6. Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober.

7. For they that sleep, sleep in the night, and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

8. But let us who are of the day be sober; putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet the hope of salvation.

34 So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth; and thy want as an armed man.

CHAPTER XXV.

THESSE are also (a) proverbs of Solomon, (b) which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.

(a) 1 Kings iv. 32. And he spake three thousand proverbs: and his songs were a thousand and five.

Ec. xii. 9. And moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs.

(b) Is. i. 1. The vision of Isaiah, the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

xxxvi. 22. Then came Eliakim, the son of Hilkiyah, that was over the household, and Sheb-nah the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

Ios. i. 1. The word of the Lord that came unto Hosea, the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam, the son of Joash, king of Israel.

2 It is (c) the glory of God to conceal a thing; but (d) the honour of kings is to search out a matter.

(c) Deut. xxix. 29. The secret things belong unto the Lord our God; but those things which are revealed belong unto us, and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law.

Job. xi. 7. Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection?

8. It is as high as heaven, what canst thou do? deeper than hell, what canst thou know?

Rom. xi. 33. O the depth of the riches, both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

34. For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?

(d) Exra iv. 15. That search may be made in the book of the records of thy fathers: so shalt thou find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful unto kings and provinces, and that they have moved sedition within the same, of old time: for which cause was this city destroyed.

19. And I commanded, and search hath been made, and it is found that this city of old time hath made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein.

vi. 1. Then Darius the king made a decree, and search was made in the house of the rolls, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon.

Job xxix. 16. I was a father to the poor; and the cause which I knew not, I searched out.

3 The (e) heaven for height, and the earth for depth, and the heart of kings is unsearchable.

(e) Ps. ciii. 11. For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

Is. vii. 11. Ask thee a sign of the Lord thy God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above.

iv. 9. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

Rom. viii. 39. Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

4 Take (f) away the dross from the silver, and there shall come forth a vessel for the finer.

(f) Prov. xvii. 3. The fining-pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold: but the Lord trieth the hearts.

Is. i. 25. And I will turn my hand upon thee, and purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin.

26. And I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, The faithful city.

27. Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness.

Mal. iii. 3. And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness.

2 Tim. ii. 20. But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21. If a man, therefore, purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work.

1 Pet. i. 7. That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise, and honour, and glory, at the appearing of Jesus Christ.

5 Take (g) away the wicked from before the king, and (h) his throne shall be established in righteousness.

(g) 1 Kings ii. 46. So the king commanded Benaiah, the son of Jehoïada; which went out, and fell upon him that he died: and the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

Ps. ci. 7. He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house; he that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight.

8. I will early destroy all the wicked of the land, that I may cut off all wicked doers from the city of the Lord.

(h) Prov. xx. 28. Mercy and truth preserve the king; and his throne is upholden by mercy. xxix. 14. The king that faithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established for ever.

Is. xvi. 5. And in mercy shall the throne be established: and he shall sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David, judging, and seeking judgment, and hasting righteousness.

6 Put not forth thyself (i) in the presence of the king, and stand not in the place of great men:

(i) Ex. iii. 11. And Moses said unto God, Who am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel, out of Egypt?

Ps. cxxxi. 1. Lord, my heart is not haughty, nor mine eyes lofty; neither do I exercise myself in great matters, or in things too high for me.

Prov. xvi. 19. Better it is to be of a humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.

7 For better it is that it be said unto thee, (k) Come up hither; (l) than that thou shouldst be put lower in the presence of the prince whom thine eyes have seen.

(k) Luke xiv. 8. When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room, lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him:

9. And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place: and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

10. But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

Rev. iv. 1. After this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will show thee things which must be hereafter.

(l) Luke xviii. 14. I tell you, This man went down to his house justified, rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

1 Pet. v. 5. Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder; yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

8 Go not forth (m) hastily to strive, lest thou know not (n) what to do in the end thereof, when thy neighbour hath put thee to shame.

(m) Prov. xviii. 6. A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.

xxx. 33. Surely the churning of milk bringeth forth butter, and the wringing of the nose bringeth forth blood; so the forcing of wrath bringeth forth strife.

Luke xiv. 31. Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth, whether he be able with ten thousand, to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?

32. Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace.

(n) Jer. v. 31. The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

Matt. v. 25. Agree with thine adversary quickly, while thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

9 Debate thy cause (o) with thy neighbour himself; and discover not a secret to another:

(o) Matt. xviii. 15. Moreover, if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother.

17. And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man and a publican.

10 Lest he that heareth it put thee to shame, and (p) thine infamy turn not away.

(p) Ps. cxix. 39. Turn away my reproach which I fear; for thy judgments are good.

11 A (q) word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver.

(q) Prov. xxiv. 26. Every man shall kiss his lips that giveth a right answer.

Ec. xii. 10. The Preacher sought to find out acceptable words; and that which was written was upright, even words of truth.

Is. i. 4. The Lord God hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning; he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned.

12 As (r) an ear-ring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is (s) a wise reprove upon an obedient ear.

(r) Job xlii. 11. Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house; and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the Lord had brought upon him; every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an ear-ring of gold.

(s) Ps. cxli. 5. Let the righteous smite me, it shall be a kindness; and let him reprove me, it shall be an excellent oil, which shall not break my head: for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities.

Prov. xxvii. 5. Open rebuke is better than secret love.

6. Faithful are the wounds of a friend: but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.

13 As (t) the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to them that send him: for he refresheth the soul of his masters.

(t) Prov. xiii. 17. A wicked messenger falleth into mischief: but a faithful ambassador is health.

Phil. ii. 25. Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labour, and fellow-soldier, but your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants.

26. For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27. For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28. I sent him therefore the more carefully; that when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29. Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and hold such in reputation:

30. Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service toward me.

14 Whoso (u) boasteth himself of a false gift, is like clouds and wind without rain.

(u) 1 Kings xxii. 11. And Zedekiah, the son of Chenaanah, made him horns of iron; and he said, Thus saith the Lord, With these shalt thou push the Syrians until thou have consumed them.

2 Cor. xi. 13. For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

15. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

16. I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17. That which I speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

18. Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

Jude 12. These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

13. Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

16. These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts: and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons in admiration, because of advantage.

Prov. xx. 6. Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man who can find?

15 By (x) long forbearing is a prince persuaded, and a soft tongue breaketh the bone.

(x) Prov. xvi. 14. The wrath of a king is as messengers of death: but a wise man will pacify it.

Ec. x. 4. If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, leave not thy place; for yielding pacifieth great offences.

16 (y) Hast thou found honey? eat so much as is sufficient for thee, (z) lest thou be filled therewith, and vomit it.

(y) Judg. xiv. 8. And after a time he returned to take her, and he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion; and, behold, there was a swarm of bees and honey in the carcass of the lion.

9. And he took thereof in his hands; and went on eating, and came to his father and mother, and he gave them, and they did eat: but he told not them that he had taken the honey out of the carcass of the lion.

Is. vii. 15. Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil and choose the good.

22. And it shall come to pass, for the abundance of milk that they shall give, that he shall eat butter: for butter and honey shall every one eat that is left in the land.

(z) Prov. xxiii. 8. The morsel which thou hast eaten shalt thou vomit up, and lose thy sweet words.

Luke xxi. 34. And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

17 Withdraw thy foot from thy neighbour's house; lest he be weary of thee, and so hate thee.

18 A man (a) that beareth false witness against his neighbour is a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow.

(a) Ps. lii. 2. Thy tongue deviseth mischiefs: like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

lv. 21. The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, but war was in his heart: his words were softer than oil, yet were they drawn swords.

lvii. 4. My soul is among lions; and I lie even among them that are set on fire, even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.

cxx. 3. What shall be given unto thee? or what shall be done unto thee, thou false tongue?

4. Sharp arrows of the mighty, with coals of juniper.

cxl. 3. They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent; adders' poison is under their lips. Selah.

Jer. ix. 8. Their tongue is as an arrow shot out, it speaketh deceit: one speaketh peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but in heart he layeth his wait.

James iii. 6. And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

19 (b) Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble, is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint.

(b) 2 Chr. xxviii. 20. And Tilgath-pilnezer, king of Assyria, came unto him, and distressed him, but strengthened him not.

21. For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of the Lord, and out of the house of the king, and of the princes, and gave it unto the king of Assyria: but he helped him not.

2 Tim. iv. 16. At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge.

20 As he (c) that taketh away a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar upon nitre; (d) so is he that singeth songs to an heavy heart.

(c) Job xxiv. 7. They cause the naked to lodge without clothing, that they have no covering in the cold.

8. They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and embrace the rock for want of a shelter.

9. They pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor;

10. They cause him to go naked without clothing, and they take away the sheaf from the hungry.

James ii. 15. If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16. And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body, what doth it profit?

(d) Ps. cxxxvii. 3. For there they that carried us away captive required of us a song; and they that wasted us required of us mirth, saying, Sing us one of the songs of Zion.

4. How shall we sing the Lord's song in a strange land?

Ec. iii. 4. A time to weep, and a time to laugh: a time to mourn, and a time to dance.

Rom. xii. 15. Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

James v. 13. Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms.

21 If (e) thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink:

(e) Ex. xxiii. 4. If thou meet thine enemy's ox or his ass going astray, thou shalt surely bring it back to him again.

5. If thou see the ass of him that hateth thee lying under his burden, and wouldest forbear to help him, thou shalt surely help with him.

Matt. v. 44. But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you.

Luke x. 33. But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was; and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,

34. And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35. And on the morrow, when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him: and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

36. Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

Rom. xii. 20. Therefore, if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink; for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

21. Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

22 For thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head, and (f) the LORD shall reward thee.

(f) 1 Cor. xv. 58. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

23 The (g) north wind driveth away rain: (h) so doth an angry countenance a backbiting tongue.

(g) Job xxxvii. 22. Fair weather cometh out of the north: with God is terrible majesty.

(h) Ps. xv. 3. He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbour, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour.

Prov. xvi. 20. Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out; so where there is no tale-bearer the strife ceaseth.

Rom. i. 30. Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents.

2 Cor. xii. 20. For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you such as ye would not; lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults.

24 It is (i) better to dwell in a corner of the house-top, than with a brawling woman and in a wide house.

(i) Prov. xxi. 19. It is better to dwell in the wilderness than with a contentious and angry woman.

xxvii. 15. A continual dropping in a very rainy day and a contentious woman are alike.

25 As (k) cold waters to a thirsty soul, (l) so is good news from a far country.

(k) Gen. xxi. 16. And she went, and sat her down over against him, a good way off, as it were a bow-shot: for she said, Let me not see the death of the child. And she sat over against him, and lifted up her voice, and wept.

17. And God heard the voice of the lad: and the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, Hagar? fear not: for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he is.

18. Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him in thine hand: for I will make him a great nation.

19. And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; and she went and filled the bottle with water, and gave the lad drink.

Ex. xvii. 2. Wherefore, the people did chide with Moses, and said, Give us water, that we may drink. And Moses said unto them, Why chide ye with me? wherefore do ye tempt the Lord?

3. And the people thirsted there for water; and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore is this, that thou hast brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us, and our children, and our cattle, with thirst?

6. Behold, I will stand before thee there, upon the rock in Horeb, and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.

2 Sam. xxiii. 15. And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, which is by the gate!

Ps. xlii. 1. As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.

2. My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God?

lxiii. 1. O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is.

Jer. xviii. 14. Will a man leave the snow of Lebanon, which cometh from the rock of the field? or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken?

(l) Is. lii. 7. How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth!

Luke ii. 10. And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11. For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

1 Tim. i. 15. This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief?

26 A righteous man falling down before the wicked, is as a troubled fountain and a corrupt spring.

27 It is not good to eat much honey: (m) so for men to search their own glory, is not glory.

(m) Prov. xxvii. 2. Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips.

John v. 44. How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only?

2 Cor. xii. 1. It is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

11. I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you; for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.

Phil. ii. 3. Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

28 He that hath no rule over his own spirit, is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.

CHAPTER XXVI.

AS snow (a) in summer, and as rain in harvest, so honour is not seemly for a fool.

(a) 1 Sam. xii. 17. Is it not wheat-harvest today? I will call unto the Lord, and he shall send thunder and rain; that ye may perceive and see that your wickedness is great which ye have done in the sight of the Lord, in asking you a king.

18. So Samuel called unto the Lord; and the Lord sent thunder and rain that day: and all the people greatly feared the Lord and Samuel.

2 As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying, (b) so the course causeless shall not come.

(b) Num. xxiii. 8. How shall I curse, whom God hath not cursed? or how shall I defy, whom the Lord hath not defied?

Ps. cix. 28. Let them curse, but bless thou: when they arise, let them be ashamed; but let thy servant rejoice.

3 A (c) whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass, and a rod for the fool's back.

(c) Judg. viii. 5. And he said unto the men of Succoth, Give, I pray you, loaves of bread unto the people that follow me; for they be faint, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian.

6. And the princes of Succoth said, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hand, that we should give bread unto thine army?

7. And Gideon said, Therefore, when the Lord hath delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into mine hand, then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness, and with briers.

16. And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness, and briers, and with them he taught the men of Succoth.

Ps. xxxii. 9. Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding; whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.

1 Cor. iv. 21. What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

2 Cor. x. 6. And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

xiii. 2. I told you before, and foretell you as if I were present the second time; and being absent, now I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that if I come again, I will not spare.

4 Answer (d) not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him.

(d) 1 Pet. iii. 9. Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing; but, contrariwise, blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing.

Jude 9. Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil, (he disputed about the body of Moses,) durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.

5 Answer (e) a fool according to his folly, (f) lest he be wise in his own conceit.

(e) Matt. xv. 1. Then came to Jesus scribes and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying, 2. Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.

3. But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God, by your tradition?

xvi. 1. The Pharisees also, with the Sadducees, came, and tempting, desired him that he would show them a sign from heaven.

2. He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather; for the sky is red:

3. And in the morning, It will be foul weather to-day; for the sky is read and lowering. O ye hypocrites! ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times?

4. A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. And he left them, and departed.

John viii. 7. So, when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

Tit. i. 13. This witness is true: wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith.

(f) Prov. xxviii. 11. The rich man is wise in his own conceit; but the poor that hath understanding searcheth him out.

Rom. xi. 25. For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, (lest ye should be wise in your own conceits,) that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles be come in.

6 He that (g) sendeth a message by the hand of a fool, cutteth off the feet, and drinketh damage.

(g) Num. xiii. 31. But the men that went up with him said, We be not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we.

Prov. xiii. 17. A wicked messenger falleth into mischief; but a faithful ambassador is health.

7 The legs of the lame are not equal: (h) so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

(h) Ps. i. 16. But unto the wicked, God saith,

What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldst take my covenant in thy mouth?

17. Seeing thou hatest instruction, and castest my words behind thee.

18. When thou sawest a thief, then thou consentedst with him, and hast been partaker with adulterers.

19. Thou givest thy mouth to evil, and thy tongue frameth deceit.

20. Thou sittest and speakest against thy brother; thou slanderest thine own mother's son.

21. These things hast thou done, and I kept silence; thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as thyself; but I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.

Prov. xvii. 7. Excellent speech becometh not a fool: much less do lying lips a prince.

8 As he that bindeth a stone in a sling, (i) so is he that giveth honour to a fool.

(i) Prov. xix. 10. Delight is not seemly for a fool; much less for a servant to have rule over princes.

xxx. 22. For a servant when he reigneth; and a fool when he is filled with meat.

9 As a thorn goeth up into the hand of a drunkard, so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

10 The great God that formed all things, (k) both rewardeth the fool, and rewardeth transgressors.

(k) Prov. xi. 31. Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth; much more the wicked and the sinner.

Rom. ii. 6. Who will render to every man according to his deeds.

11 As (l) a dog returneth to his vomit, so a fool returneth to his folly.

(l) Ex. viii. 15. But when Pharaoh saw that there was respite, he hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them; as the Lord had said.

Matt. xii. 45. Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in, and dwell there; and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.

2 Pet. ii. 22. But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed, to her wallowing in the mire.

12 Seest thou (m) a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

(m) Prov. xxix. 20. Seest thou a man that is hasty in his words? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

Rom. xii. 16. Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

1 Cor. iii. 18. Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God: for it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

viii. 1. Now as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

2. And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

Rom. iii. 17. Because thou sayest I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked.

13 The (n) slothful man saith, There is a lion in the way; a lion is in the streets.

(n) Prov. xix. 15. Slothfulness casteth into a deep sleep; and an idle soul shall suffer hunger. xxii. 13. The slothful man saith, There is a lion without, I shall be slain in the streets.

14 As (o) the door turneth upon his hinges, so doth the slothful upon his bed.

(o) Prov. xxiv. 33. Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep.

Heb. vi. 12. That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

15 The (p) slothful hideth his hand in his bosom; it grieveth him to bring it again to his mouth.

(p) Prov. xix. 24. A slothful man hideth his hand in his bosom, and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.

16 The sluggard is (q) wiser in his own conceit, than seven men that can render a reason.

(q) Prov. xii. 15. The way of a fool is right in his own eyes: but he that hearkeneth unto counsel is wise.

1 Pet. iii. 15. But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear.

17 ¶ He that (r) passeth by, and meddleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the ears.

(r) Prov. xviii. 6. A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.

7. A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul.

xx. 3. It is an honour for a man to cease from strife: but every fool will be meddling.

2 Tim. ii. 23. But foolish and unlearned questions avoid; knowing that they do gender strifes.

24. And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient.

18 As a mad man, who casteth fire-brands, arrows, and death;

19 So is the man that deceiveth his neighbour, (s) and saith, Am not I in sport?

(s) Prov. x. 23. It is a sport to a fool to do mischief: but a man of understanding hath wisdom.

xiv. 9. Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is favour.

xv. 21. Folly is joy to him that is destitute of wisdom: but a man of understanding walketh uprightly.

2 Pet. ii. 13. And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day-time: spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they feast with you.

20 Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out: (t) so where there is no tale-bearer, the strife ceaseth.

(t) Prov. xvi. 28. A froward man soweth strife; and a whisperer separateth chief friends. xxii. 10. Cast out the scorner, and contention shall go out; yea, strife and reproach shall cease.

James iii. 6. And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

21 As (u) coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire; so is a contentious man to kindle strife.

(u) Ps. cxx. 4. Sharp arrows of the mighty, with coals of juniper.

Prov. xv. 18. A wrathful man stirreth up strife: but he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife.

xxix. 22. An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

22 The (x) words of a tale-bearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

(x) Prov. xx. 19. He that goeth about as a tale-bearer, revealeth secrets; therefore meddle not with him that flattereth with his lips.

Ez. xxii. 9. In thee are men that carry tales to shed blood; and in thee they eat upon the mountains; in the midst of thee they commit lewdness.

23 (y) Burning lips and a wicked heart are like a potsherd covered with silver dross.

(y) 2 Sam. xx. 9. And Joab said to Amasa, Art thou in health, my brother? And Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kiss him.

10. But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand: so he smote him therewith in the fifth rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and struck him not again, and he died. So Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba, the son of Bichri.

Ez. xxxiii. 31. And they come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goeth after covetousness.

Luke xxii. 47. And while he yet spake, behold, a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him.

48. But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

24 He that hateth dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him;

25 When (z) he speaketh fair, believe him not; for there are seven abominations in his heart.

(z) Ps. xii. 2. They speak vanity, every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips, and with a double heart, do they speak.

xxviii. 3. Draw me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity: which speak peace to their neighbours, but mischief is in their hearts.

Jer. xii. 6. For even thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee; yea, they have called a multitude after thee: believe them not, though they speak fair words unto thee.

Mic. vii. 5. Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide; keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom.

Matt. xxiv. 23. Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not.

26 Whose hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be showed before the whole congregation.

27 Whoso (a) diggeth a pit shall fall therein; and he that rolleth a stone, it will return upon him.

(a) Ps. vii. 15. He made a pit, and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made.

16. His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate.

ix. 15. The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net which they hid is their own foot taken.

lvii. 6. They have prepared a net for my steps; my soul is bowed down: they have digged a pit before me, into the midst whereof they are fallen themselves. Selah.

Ec. x. 8. He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaketh an hedge, a serpent shall bite him.

28 A lying tongue hateth those that are afflicted by it; and (b) a flattering mouth worketh ruin.

(b) Prov. xxix. 5. A man that flattereth his neighbour spreadeth a net for his feet.

Luke xx. 20. And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.

21. And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God truly.

CHAPTER XXVII.

BOAST (a) not thyself of to-morrow; (b) for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.

(a) Is. lvi. 12. Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and to-morrow shall be as this day, and much more abundant.

Luke xii. 19. And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

20. But God said unto him, Thou fool! this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be which thou hast provided?

James iv. 13. Go to now, ye that say, To-day, or to-morrow, we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain;

14. Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow: for what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

15. For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this or that.

16. But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil.

(b) 1 Sam. xxviii. 19. Moreover, the Lord will also deliver Israel with thee into the hand of the Philistines; and to-morrow shalt thou and thy sons be with me: the Lord also shall deliver the host of Israel into the hand of the Philistines.

2 Let (c) another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips.

(c) 2 Cor. x. 12. For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.

18. For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

xii. 11. I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you; for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.

3 A stone is heavy, and the sand weighty; (d) but a fool's wrath is heavier than them both.

(d) Gen. xxxiv. 25. And it came to pass on the third day, when they were sore, that two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brethren, took each man his sword, and came upon the city boldly, and slew all the males.

26. And they slew Hamor, and Shechem his son, with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went out.

lxix. 7. Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel; I will divide them in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel.

1 Sam. xxii. 18. And the king said to Doeg, Turn thou, and fall upon the priests. And Doeg, the Edomite, turned, and he fell upon the priests, and slew, on that day, fourscore and five persons, that did wear a linen ephod.

19. And Nob, the city of the priests, smote he with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and sucklings, and oxen, and asses, and sheep, with the edge of the sword.

Dan. iii. 19. Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated.

20. And he commanded the most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

4 Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; (e) but who is able to stand before envy?

(e) Gen. xxvi. 14. For he had possession of flocks, and possession of herds, and great store of servants. And the Philistines envied him.

xxxvii. 11. And his brethren envied him; but his father observed the saying.

Job v. 2. For wrath killeth the foolish man, and envy slayeth the silly one.

Matt. xxvii. 18. For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.

5 Open (f) rebuke is better than secret love.

(f) Lev. xix. 17. Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart: thou shalt in anywise rebuke thy neighbour, and not suffer sin upon him.

Matt. xviii. 15. Moreover, if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother.

Gal. ii. 14. But when I saw that they walked not uprightly, according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter, before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

1 Tim. v. 20. Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear.

6 Faithful are (g) the wounds of a friend; but (h) the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.

(g) Ps. cxli. 5. Let the righteous smite me, it shall be a kindness; and let him reprove me, it shall be an excellent oil which shall not break my head: for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities.

Heb. xii. 10. For they verily, for a few days, chastened us after their own pleasure; but he, for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.

Rev. iii. 19. As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous, therefore, and repent.

(h) 2 Sam. xx. 9. And Joab said to Amasa, Art thou in health, my brother? And Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kiss him.

10. But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand: so he smote him therewith in the fifth rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and struck him not again, and he died. So Joab, and Abishai his brother, pursued after Sheba, the son of Bichri.

Matt. xxvi. 48. Now, he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; hold him fast.

49. And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, Master; and kissed him.

50. And Jesus said unto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.

7 The (i) full soul loatheth an honey-comb; but (k) to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.

(i) Num. xxi. 5. And the people spake against God, and against Moses, Wherefore have ye brought us out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? for there is no bread, neither is there any water; and our soul loatheth this light bread.

(k) Job vi. 7. The things that my soul refused to touch are as my sorrowful meat.

Luke xv. 16. And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

17. And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough, and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

8 As (l) a bird that wandereth from her nest, so is a (m) man that wandereth from his place.

(l) Job xxxix. 14. Which leaveth her eggs in the earth, and warmeth them in the dust,

15. And forgetteth that the foot may crush them, or that the wild beast may break them.

16. She is hardened against her young ones, as though they were not hers: her labour is in vain, without fear.

Is. xvi. 2. For it shall be, that as a wandering bird cast out of the nest, so the daughters of Moab shall be at the fords of Arnon.

(m) Gen. iv. 16. And Cain went out from the presence of the Lord, and dwelt in the land of Nod, on the east of Eden.

xvi. 6. But Abram said unto Sarai, Behold, thy maid is in thy hand; do to her as it pleaseth thee. And when Sarai dealt hardly with her, she fled from her face.

7. And the angel of the Lord found her by a fountain of water, in the wilderness, by the fountain in the way to Shur.

8. And he said, Hagar, Sarai's maid, whence camest thou? and whither wilt thou go? And she said, I flee from the face of my mistress Sarai.

1 Sam. xxii. 5. And the prophet Gad said unto David, Abide not in the hold; depart, and get thee into the land of Judah. Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hareth.

1 Kings xix. 9. And he came thither unto a cave, and lodged there; and, behold, the word of the Lord came to him, and he said unto him, What doest thou here, Elijah?

1 Cor. vii. 20. Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

9 (n) Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart: (o) so doth the sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel.

(n) Judg. ix. 9. But the olive-tree said unto them, Should I leave my fatness, wherewith by me they honour God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees?

Ps. xlv. 7. Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

8. All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.

Cant. i. 3. Because of the savour of thy good ointments, thy name is as ointment poured forth; therefore do the virgins love thee.

iv. 10. How fair is thy love, my sister, my spouse! how much better is thy love than wine! and the smell of thine ointments than all spices!

John xii. 3. Then took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

(o) 1 Sam. xxiii. 16. And Jonathan, Saul's son, arose, and went to David, into the wood, and strengthened his hand in God.

17. And he said unto him, Fear not; for the hand of Saul, my father, shall not find thee: and thou shalt be king over Israel, and I shall be next unto thee; and that also Saul my father knoweth.

Acts xxviii. 15. And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii Forum, and the Three Taverns; whom, when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

10 Thine (p) own friend, and thy father's friend, forsake not; (q) neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: for (r) better is a neighbour that is near, than a brother far off.

(p) 2 Chr. xxiv. 22. Thus Joash, the king, remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada, his father, had done to him, but slew his son: and, when he died, he said, The Lord look upon it, and require it.

Is. xli. 8. But thou, Israel, art my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend.

9. Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chief men thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant; I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away.

10. Fear thou not; for I am with thee; be not dismayed, for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

(g) Prov. xix. 7. All the brethren of the poor do hate him; how much more do his friends go far from him? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.

Ob. 12. But thou shouldest not have looked on the day of thy brother, in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldest thou have rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldest thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress.

13. Thou shouldest not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; yea, thou shouldest not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity:

14. Neither shouldest thou have stood in the cross-way, to cut off those of his that did escape; neither shouldest thou have delivered up those of his that did remain in the day of distress.

(r) Luke x. 30. And Jesus, answering, said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31. And by chance there came down a certain priest that way; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32. And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33. But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,

34. And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35. And on the morrow, when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him: and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again I will repay thee.

36. Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

37. And he said, He that showed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

11 My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him that reproacheth me.

12 A (s) prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself: but the simple pass on, and are punished.

(s) Ex. ix. 20. He that feared the Lord among the servants of Pharaoh, made his servants and his cattle flee into the houses:

21. And he that regarded not the word of the Lord, left his servants and his cattle in the field.

Is. xxvi. 20. Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast.

21. For, behold, the Lord cometh out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain.

Matt. iii. 7. But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers! who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

Heb. vi. 18. That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge, to lay hold upon the hope set before us.

xi. 7. By faith Noah, being warned of God, of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which, he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

13 Take (t) his garment that is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

(t) Ex. xxii. 26. If thou at all take thy neighbours raiment to pledge, thou shalt deliver it unto him by that the sun goeth down.

14 He that blesseth his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it shall be counted a curse to him.

15 A (u) continual dropping in a very rainy day and a contentious woman are alike.

(u) Prov. xix. 13. A foolish son is the calamity of his father; and the contentions of a wife are a continual dropping.

xxv. 24. It is better to dwell in the corner of the house-top, than with a brawling woman, and in a wide house.

16 Whosoever hideth her hideth the wind, and (x) the ointment of his right hand which bewrayeth itself.

(x) John xii. 3. Then took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

17 (y) Iron sharpeneth iron: (z) so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend.

(y) 1 Sam. xiii. 20. But all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his share, and his coulter, and his axe, and his mattock.

21. Yet they had a file for the mattocks, and for the coulters, and for the forks, and for the axes, and to sharpen the goads.

(z) 1 Sam. xxiii. 16. And Jonathan, Saul's son, arose and went to David, into the wood, and strengthened his hand in God.

Job iv. 3. Behold, thou hast instructed many, and thou hast strengthened the weak hands.

4. Thy words have upholden him that was falling, and thou hast strengthened the feeble knees.

Is. xxxv. 3. Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees.

4. Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not; behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompense; he will come and save you.

2 Tim. i. 8. Be not thou, therefore, ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me, his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel, according to the power of God:

12. For the which cause, I also suffer these things: nevertheless, I am not ashamed; for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

ii. 3. Thou, therefore, endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

Heb. x. 24. And let us consider one another, to provoke unto love, and to good works.

James i. 2. My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations.

1 Pet. iv. 12. Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you:

13. But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

18 Whoso (a) keepeth the fig-tree shall eat the fruit thereof: (b) so he that waiteth on his master (c) shall be honoured.

(a) Cant. viii. 12. My vineyard, which is mine, is before me: thou, O Solomon, must have a thousand, and those that keep the fruit thereof, two hundred.

1 Cor. ix. 7. Who goeth a warfare at any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

(b) Gen. xxiv. 2. And Abraham said unto his eldest servant of his house, that ruled over all that he had, Put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh;

3. And I will make thee swear by the Lord, the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites; among whom I dwell.

Acts x. 7. And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually.

(c) 1 Sam. ii. 30. Wherefore, the Lord God of Israel saith, I said, indeed, that thy house, and the house of thy father, should walk before me for ever: but now the Lord saith, Be it far from me; for them that honour me I will honour, and they that despise me shall be lightly esteemed.

Ps. cxxiii. 2. Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, until he have mercy upon us.

Matt. xxiv. 45. Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?

46. Blessed is that servant whom his lord, when he cometh, shall find so doing.

Luke xii. 37. Blessed are those servants, whom the lord, when he cometh, shall find watching: verily I say unto you, That he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.

John xii. 26. If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

19 As (d) in water face answereth to face, (e) so the heart of man to man.

(d) James i. 22. But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23. For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:

24. For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

(e) Gen. vi. 5. And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

Ps. xxxiii. 15. He fashioneth their hearts alike: he considereth all their works.

Mark vii. 21. For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders.

20 (f) Hell and destruction are never full: (g) so the eyes of man are never satisfied.

(f) Prov. xxx. 15. The horse-leach hath two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, yea, four things say not, It is enough:

16. The grave; and the barren womb; the earth that is not filled with water; and the fire, that saith not, It is enough.

Hab. ii. 5. Yea, also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people.

(g) Ec. i. 8. All things are full of labour; man cannot utter it: the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

ii. 10. And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them; I withheld not my heart from any joy: for my heart rejoiced in all my labour; and this was my portion of all my labour.

v. 10. He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase. This is also vanity.

11. When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes?

Jer. xxii. 17. But thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood; and for oppression, and for violence, to do it.

21 As (h) the fining-pot for silver, and the furnace for gold; (i) so is a man to his praise.

(h) Ps. xii. 6. The words of the Lord are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

Lxvi. 10. For thou, O God, hast proved us: thou hast tried us, as silver is tried.

Zech. xiii. 9. And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them; I will say, It is my people; and they shall say, The Lord is my God.

Mal. iii. 3. And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness.

1 Pet. i. 7. That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise, and honour, and glory, at the appearing of Jesus Christ.

iv. 12. Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you.

(i) 1 Sam. xviii. 7. And the women answered one another as they played, and said, Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands.

8. And Saul was very wroth, and the saying displeased him: and he said, They have ascribed unto David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands: and what can he have more but the kingdom?

15. Wherefore, when Saul saw that he behaved himself very wisely, he was afraid of him.

16. But all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out and came in before them.

30. Then the princes of the Philistines went forth: and it came to pass, after they went forth, that David behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul; so that his name was much set by.

2 Sam. xiv. 25. But in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as Absalom for his beauty: from the sole of his foot, even to the crown of his head, there was no blemish in him.

22 Though (k) thou shouldst bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, yet will not his foolishness depart from him.

(k) Is. i. 5. Why should he be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more. The whole head is sick, and the whole heart is faint.

Jer. v. 3. O Lord, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return.

xliv. 15. Then all the men which knew that their wives had burnt incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying,

16. As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the Lord, we will not hearken unto thee.

Rev. xvi. 10. And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

11. And blasphemed the God of heaven, because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

23 ¶ Be thou (l) diligent to know the state of thy flocks, and look well to thy herds.

(l) Gen. xxxi. 38. This twenty years have I been with thee; thy ewes and thy she-goats have not cast their young, and the rams of thy flock have I not eaten.

39. That which was torn of beasts I brought not unto thee, I bare the loss of it; of my hand didst thou require it, whether stolen by day, or stolen by night.

40. Thus I was; in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep departed from mine eyes.

xxxiii. 13. And he said unto him, My lord knoweth that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds with young are with me; and if men should overdrive them one day, all the flock will die.

Ez. xxxiv. 22. Therefore will I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between cattle and cattle.

23. And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.

24. And I the Lord will be their God, and my servant David a prince among them: I the Lord have spoken it.

31. And ye, my flock, the flock of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord God.

1 Pet. v. 2. Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind.

24 (m) For riches are not for ever: and (n) doth the crown endure to every generation?

(m) Prov. xxiii. 5. Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle toward heaven.

Zeph. i. 18. Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the Lord's wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

1 Tim. vi. 17. Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high-minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy;

18. That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate.

(n) 2 Sam. vii. 16. And thine house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established for ever.

Ps. lxxxix. 36. His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the sun before me.

Is. ix. 7. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice, from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this.

25 The (o) hay appeareth, and the tender grass showeth itself, and herbs of the mountains are gathered.

(o) Ps. civ. 14. He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man, that he may bring forth food out of the earth.

26 The (p) lambs are for thy clothing, and the goats are the price of the field:

(p) Job xxxi. 20. If his loins have not blessed me, and if he were not warmed with the fleece of my sheep.

27 And thou shalt have goats' milk (q) enough for thy food, for the food of thy household, and for maintenance for thy maidens.

(q) Prov. xxx. 8. Remove far from me vanity and lies; give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food convenient for me;

9. Lest I be full, and deny thee, and say, Who is the Lord? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain.

Matt. vi. 33. But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness: and all these things shall be added unto you.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

THE (a) wicked flee when no man pursueth; but (b) the righteous are bold as a lion.

(a) Lev. xxvi. 17. And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be slain before your enemies; they that hate you shall reign over you, and ye shall flee when none pursueth you.

36. And upon them that are left alive of you will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies, and the sound of a shaken leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall when none pursueth.

2 Kings vii. 6. For the Lord had made the host of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host; and they said one to another, Lo, the king of Israel hath hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us.

7. Wherefore they arose, and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life.

Ps. liii. 5. There were they in great fear where no fear was; for God hath scattered the bones of him that encampeth against thee; thou hast put them to shame, because God hath despised them.

Is. vii. 2. And it was told in the house of David, saying, Syria is confederate with Ephraim; and his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind.

(b) Ex. xi. 8. And all these thy servants shall come down unto me, and bow down themselves unto me, saying, Get thee out, and all the people that follow thee; and after that I will go out. And he went out from Pharaoh in a great anger.

Ps. xlii. 2. Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea; cxii. 7. He shall not be afraid of evil tidings: his heart is fixed, trusting in the Lord.

3. Though the waters thereof roar, and be troubled; though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Selah.

Acts xiv. 3. Long time, therefore, abode they, speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

1 Thess. ii. 2. But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention.

2 For (c) the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof; (d) but by a man of understanding and knowledge the state thereof shall be prolonged.

(c) 1 Kings xv. 25. And Nadab, the son of Jeroboam, began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned over Israel two years.

28. Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah, did Baasha slay him, and reigned in his stead.

Hos. xiii. 11. I gave thee a king in mine anger, and took him away in my wrath.

(d) Job xxii. 28. Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee; and the light shall shine upon thy ways.

29. When men are cast down then thou shalt say, There is lifting up; and he shall save the bumble person.

30. He shall deliver the island of the innocent; and it is delivered by the pureness of thine hands.

Ec. ix. 15. Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

Dan. iv. 27. Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by showing mercy to the poor; if it may be a lengthening of thy tranquillity.

3 A poor (e) man that oppresseth the poor is like a sweeping rain which leaveth no food.

(e) Matt. xviii. 28. But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, which owed him an hundred pence; and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29. And his fellow-servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30. And he would not; but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

4 They (f) that forsake the law praise the wicked; (g) but such as keep the law contend with them.

(f) Jer. v. 30. A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land;

Mul. iii. 15. And now we call the proud happy: yea, they that work wickedness are set up; yea, they that tempt God are even delivered.

Acts xii. 22. And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a God, and not of a man.

Rom. i. 32. Who, knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

(g) 1 Sam. xv. 14. And Samuel said, What meaneth then this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?

15. And Saul said, They have brought them from the Amalekites; for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice unto the Lord thy God, and the rest we have utterly destroyed.

16. Then Samuel said unto Saul, Stay, and I will tell thee what the Lord hath said to me this night. And he said unto him, Say on.

17. And Samuel said, When thou wast little in thine own sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel, and the Lord anointed thee king over Israel?

18. And the Lord sent thee on a journey, and said, Go, and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until they be consumed.

19. Wherefore then didst thou not obey the voice of the Lord, but didst flee upon the spoil, and didst evil in the sight of the Lord?

20. And Saul said unto Samuel, Yea, I have obeyed the voice of the Lord, and have gone the way which the Lord sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

21. But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice unto the Lord thy God in Gilgal.

22. And Samuel said, Hath the Lord as great delight in burnt-offerings and sacrifices as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice; and to hearken than the fat of rams.

23. For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry: because thou hast rejected the word of the Lord, he hath also rejected thee from being king.

24. And Saul said unto Samuel, I have sinned: for I have transgressed the commandment of the Lord, and thy words: because I feared the people and obeyed their voice.

Neh. xiii. 25. And I contended with them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters unto your sons, or for yourselves.

26. Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel; nevertheless, even him did outlandish women cause to sin.

27. Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to transgress against our God, in marrying strange wives?

28. And one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son-in-law to Sanballat, the Horonite: therefore I chased him from me.

5 (h) Evil men understand not judgment; but they that seek the Lord understand all things.

(h) Ps. xxv. 14. The secret of the Lord is with them that fear him; and he will show them his covenant.

xcii. 6. A brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this.

Jer. iv. 22. For my people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

John vii. 17. If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

1 Cor. ii. 14. But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him; neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15. But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.

6 (i) Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.

(i) Luke xvi. 19. There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:

20. And there was a certain beggar, named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate full of sores, 21. And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover, the dogs came and licked his sores.

22. And it came to pass that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried.

23. And in hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

7 Whoso keepeth the law is a wise son; but he that is a companion of riotous men shameth his father.

8 He (k) that by usury and unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor.

(k) Job xxvii. 16. Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay;

17. He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.

Prov. xiii. 22. A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children; and the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just.

Ec. ii. 26. For God giveth to man that is good in his sight, wisdom, and knowledge and joy: but to the sinner he giveth travail, to gather, and to heap up, that he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

9 He that (l) turneth away his ear from hearing the law, (m) even his prayer shall be abomination.

(l) Zech. vii. 11. But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

12. Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant-stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the Lord of hosts had sent in his spirit by the former prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the Lord of hosts.

13. Therefore it is come to pass, that as he cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would not hear, saith the Lord of hosts.

2 Tim. iv. 3. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

4. And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

(m) Ps. lxxvi. 18. If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me.

cix. 7. When he shall be judged, let him be condemned; and let his prayer become sin.

10 Whoso (n) causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, (o) he shall fall himself into his own pit; (p) but the upright shall have good things in possession.

(n) 1 Sam. xxvi. 19. Now, therefore, I pray thee, let my lord, the king, hear the words of his servant. If the Lord have stirred thee up against me, let him accept an offering: but if they be the children of men, cursed be they before the Lord; for they have driven me out this day from abiding in the inheritance of the Lord, saying, Go, serve other gods.

Acts xiii. 8. But Elymas the sorcerer, (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9. Then Saul, (who is also called Paul,) filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes upon him,

10. And said, O full of all subtilty, and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness! wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

Rom. xvi. 17. Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences, contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them.

18. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

Rev. ii. 14. But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumbling-block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

(o) Ps. vii. 15. He made a pit, and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made.

16. His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate.

ix. 15. The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net which they hid is their own foot taken.

(p) Deut. vii. 12. Wherefore it shall come to pass, if ye hearken to these judgments, and keep and do them, that the Lord thy God shall keep unto thee the covenant and the mercy which he swore unto thy fathers:

13. And he will love thee, and bless thee, and multiply thee: he will also bless the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy land, thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep, in the land which he swore unto thy fathers to give thee.

14. Thou shalt be blessed above all people: there shall not be male or female barren among you, or among your cattle.

Matt. vi. 33. But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

11 The (q) rich man is wise in his own conceit; but (r) the poor that hath understanding searcheth him out.

(q) Is. x. 13. For he saith, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man:

14. And my hand hath found, as a nest, the riches of the people: and as one gathereth eggs that are left, have I gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped.

1 Cor. iii. 18. Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God: for it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftings.

(r) Job xxxii. 9. Great men are not always wise; neither do the aged understand judgment.

12 When righteous men do rejoice, there is great glory; but when the wicked rise, a man is hidden.

13 He (s) that covereth his sins shall not prosper; but (t) whoso confesseth (u) and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

(s) Gen. iii. 12. And the man said, The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.

13. And the Lord God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.

iv. 9. And the Lord said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, I know not: Am I my brother's keeper?

Job xxxi. 33. If I covered my transgressions as Adam, by hiding mine iniquity in my bosom.

Jer. ii. 22. How canst thou say, I am not polluted; I have not gone after Baalim? See thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done: thou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways.

(t) Job xxxiii. 27. He looketh upon men; and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not.

Jer. iii. 12. Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the Lord, and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you: for I am merciful, saith the Lord, and I will not keep anger for ever.

13. Only acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the Lord thy God, and hast scattered thy ways to the strangers under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the Lord.

(u) 1 Sam. xv. 30. Then he said, I have sinned; yet honour me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and turn again with me, that I may worship the Lord thy God.

Matt. xxvii. 4. Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

5. And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself.

Acts xxvi. 20. But showed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

14 (x) Happy is the man that feareth alway; (y) but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief.

(x) Ps. cxii. 1. Praise ye the Lord. Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord, that delighteth greatly in his commandments.

Is. lxvi. 2. For all those things hath mine hand made, and all those things have been, saith the Lord: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor, and of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at my word.

Jer. xxxii. 40. And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me.

Rom. xi. 20. Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not high-minded, but fear.

Heb. iv. 1. Let us therefore fear, lest a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

1 Pet. i. 17. And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear.

(y) Ex. vii. 22. And the magicians of Egypt did so with their enchantments: and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, neither did he hearken unto them; as the Lord had said.

23. And Pharaoh turned and went into his house, neither did he set his heart to this also.

Job ix. 4. He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength; who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered?

15 As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; so is a wicked ruler over the poor people.

16 The (z) prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor; but (a) he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days.

(z) 1 Kings xii. 10. And the young men that were grown up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou speak unto this people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter unto us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11. And now, whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father hath chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

Ec. iv. 1. So I returned, and considered all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and, behold, the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter.

Is. iii. 12. As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths.

Amos iv. 1. Hear this word, ye kine of Bashan, that are in the mountain of Samaria, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

(a) Ex. xviii. 21. Moreover, thou shalt provide out of all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

Is. xxxiii. 15. He that walketh righteously, and speaketh uprightly; he that despiseth the gain of oppressions, that shaketh his hands from holding of bribes, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of blood, and shutteth his eyes from seeing evil;

16. He shall dwell on high; his place of defence shall be the munitions of rocks; bread shall be given him, his waters shall be sure.

17 A (b) man that doeth violence to the blood of any person shall flee to the pit; let no man stay him.

(b) Gen. ix. 6. Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man.

Ex. xxi. 14. But if a man come presumptuously upon his neighbour, to slay him with guile; thou shalt take him from mine altar, that he may die.

2 Kings ix. 26. Surely I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons, saith the Lord; and I will requite thee in this plat, saith the Lord. Now, therefore, take and cast him into the plat of ground, according to the word of the Lord.

18 Whoso (c) walketh uprightly shall be saved; (d) but he that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once.

(c) Ps. xxv. 20. Let integrity and uprightness preserve me; for I wait on thee.

xxvi. 11. But as for me, I will walk in mine integrity; redeem me, and be merciful unto me.

Gal. ii. 14. But when I saw that they walked not uprightly, according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

(d) Ps. cxxv. 5. As for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways, the Lord shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity: but peace shall be upon Israel.

2 Pet. ii. 1. But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2. And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3. And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

Rev. iii. 3. Remember, therefore, how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If, therefore, thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

19 He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread; (e) but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough.

(e) Judg. ix. 4. And they gave him threescore and ten pieces of silver out of the house of Baal-berith; wherewith Abimelech hired vain and light persons, which followed him.

Prov. xiii. 20. He that walketh with wise men shall be wise; but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.

20 A (f) faithful man shall abound with blessings; (g) but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be innocent.

(f) Neh. vii. 2. That I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jerusalem: (for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many.)

Ps. ci. 6. Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh in a perfect way, he shall serve me.

Luke xii. 42. And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season?

(g) Prov. xiii. 11. Wealth gotten by vanity shall be diminished: but he that gathereth by labour shall increase.

xx. 21. An inheritance may be gotten hastily at the beginning; but the end thereof shall not be blessed.

1 Tim. vi. 9. But they that will be rich fall into temptation, and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

10. For the love of money is the root of all evil; which, while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

21 To have (h) respect of persons is not good; for, (i) for a piece of bread that man will transgress.

(h) Ex. xxiii. 2. Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil; neither shalt thou speak in a cause to decline after many to wrest judgment.

8. And thou shalt take no gift; for the gift blindeth the wise, and perverteth the words of the righteous.

Prov. xviii. 5. It is not good to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment.

xxiv. 23. These things also belong to the wise. It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment.

(i) Ez. xiii. 19. And will ye pollute me among my people for handfuls of barley, and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people that hear your lies?

Hos. iv. 18. Their drink is sour: they have committed whoredom continually: her rulers with shame do love, Give ye.

Mic. vii. 3. That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man he uttereth his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

Rom. xvi. 18. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

2 Pet. ii. 3. And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

22 He that hasteth to be rich hath (k) an evil eye, (l) and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him.

(k) Prov. xxiii. 6. Eat thou not the bread of him that hath an evil eye, neither desire thou his dainty meats.

Matt. xx. 15. Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? is thine eye evil because I am good?

(l) Job xxvii. 16. Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay;

17. He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.

23 He (m) that rebuketh a man, afterwards shall find more favour, than he that flattereth with the tongue.

(m) 2 Sam. xii. 7. And Nathan said to David, Thou art the man. Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I anointed thee king over Israel, and I delivered thee out of the hand of Saul.

Ps. cxli. 5. Let the righteous smite me, it shall be a kindness; and let him reprove me, it shall be an excellent oil, which shall not break my head: for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities.

Matt. xviii. 15. Moreover, if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother.

Gal. ii. 11. But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

24 Whoso (n) robbeth his father or his mother, and saith, It is no transgression; the same is the companion of a destroyer.

(n) Judg. xvii. 2. And he said unto his mother, The eleven hundred shekels of silver, that were taken from thee, about which thou cursedst, and spakest of also in mine ears; behold, the silver is with me; I took it. And his mother said, Blessed be thou of the Lord, my son.

Matt. xv. 4. For God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

5. But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father, or his mother, It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me,

6. And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

25 He that is of a proud heart, stirreth up strife; but (o) he that putteth his trust in the LORD shall be (p) made fat.

(o) Ps. lxxxiv. 12. O Lord of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

(p) Is. lviii. 11. And the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.

26 He (q) that trusteth in his own heart is a fool; (r) but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.

(q) 2 Kings viii. 13. And Hazael said, But what, is thy servant a dog that he should do this great thing? And Elisha answered, The Lord hath showed me that thou shalt be king over Syria.

Jer. xvii. 9. The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?

Mark vii. 21. For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

22. Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness;

23. All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

(r) Job xxviii. 28. And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom, and to depart from evil is understanding.

2 Tim. iii. 15. And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

27 He (s) that giveth unto the poor shall not lack; but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.

(s) Deut. xv. 10. Thou shalt surely give unto him, and thine heart shall not be grieved when thou givest unto him: because that for this thing the Lord thy God shall bless thee in all thy works, and in all that thou puttest thine hand unto.

Ps. xli. 1. Blessed is he that considereth the poor; the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble.

2. The Lord will preserve him, and keep him alive; and he shall be blessed upon the earth: and thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies.

3. The Lord will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing: thou wilt make all his bed in his sickness.

28 When the wicked rise, men hide themselves; but when (t) they perish, the righteous increase.

(t) Esth. viii. 17. And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day. And many of the people of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews fell upon them.

Acts xii. 23. And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24. But the word of God grew and multiplied.

CHAPTER XXIX.

HE (a) that being often reproved (b) hardeneth his neck, (c) shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

(a) 2 Chr. xxv. 16. And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said unto him, Art thou mad of the king's counsel? forbear; why shouldest thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbore, and said, I know that God hath determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.

xxxiii. 10. And the Lord spake to Manasseh, and to his people; but they would not hearken.

xxxvi. 15. And the Lord God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers, rising up betimes, and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling-place:

16. But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the Lord arose against his people, till there was no remedy.

17. Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man, or him that stooped for age; he gave them all into his hand.

Prov. i. 24. Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;

25. But ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof:

26. I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh:

27. When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you:

28. Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me:

29. For that they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the Lord:

30. They would none of my counsel; they despised all my reproof:

31. Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.

Jer. xxv. 3. From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even unto this day, (that is, the three and twentieth year,) the word of the Lord hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye have not hearkened.

4. And the Lord hath sent unto you all his servants the prophets, rising early, and sending them; but ye have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear.

5. They said, Turn ye again now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the Lord hath given unto you and to your fathers for ever and ever.

xxxv. 13. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Go and tell the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not receive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the Lord.

14. The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye hearkened not unto me.

15. I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers; but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me.

16. Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but this people have not hearkened unto me.

Zech. i. 3. Therefore, say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Turn ye unto me, saith the Lord of hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the Lord of hosts.

4. Be ye not as your fathers, unto whom the former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the Lord.

5. Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?

6. But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not take hold of your fathers? and they returned, and said, Like as the Lord of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

(b) 2 Chr. xxxvi. 13. And he [Zedekiah] also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God: but he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart from turning unto the Lord God of Israel.

Neh. ix. 29. And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law; yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man do, he shall live in them,) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.

Is. xlviii. 4. Because I knew that thou art obstinate, and thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass.

Jer. xvii. 23. But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, nor receive instruction.

(c) Prov. vi. 15. Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly; suddenly shall he be broken without remedy.

xxviii. 18. Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved: but he that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once.

Is. xxx. 13. Therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant.

14. And he shall break it as the breaking of the potter's vessel that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare: so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit.

Zech. vii. 11. But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

12. Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant-stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the Lord of hosts hath sent in his Spirit by the former prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the Lord of hosts.

13. Therefore it is come to pass, that, as he cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would not hear, saith the Lord of hosts;

14. But I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not: thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned; for they laid the pleasant land desolate.

1 Thess. v. 3. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

2 When (d) the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice; but (e) when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn.

(d) Esth. viii. 15. And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad.

Ps. lxxii. 1. Give the king thy judgments, O God, and thy righteousness unto the king's son.

2. He shall judge thy people with righteousness, and thy poor with judgment.

3. The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills by righteousness.

4. He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor.

5. They shall fear thee as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.

6. He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass; as showers that water the earth.

7. In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth.

Prov. xi. 10. When it goeth well with the righteous, the city rejoiceth: and when the wicked perish, there is shouting.

xxviii. 12. When righteous men do rejoice, there is great glory: but when the wicked rise, a man is hidden.

23. When the wicked rise, men hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous increase.

Is. xxxii. 1. Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment.

2. And a man shall be as a hiding-place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place; as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

Jer. xxiii. 5. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.

6. In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely; and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

(e) Ezra. iii. 15. The posts went out, being hastened by the king's commandment; and the decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city of Shushan was perplexed.

Ec. x. 5. There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an error which proceedeth from the ruler.

Matt. ii. 3. When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

16. Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently inquired of the wise men.

3 Whoso (f) loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father; but (g) he that keepeth company with harlots, spendeth his substance.

(f) Prov. x. 1. The Proverbs of Solomon. A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.

xv. 20. A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish man despiseth his mother.

xxiii. 15. My son, if thy heart be wise, my heart shall rejoice, even mine.

24. The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice; and he that begetteth a wise child shall have joy of him.

25. Thy father and thy mother shall be glad, and she that bare thee shall rejoice.

xxvii. 11. My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him that reproacheth me.

Luke i. 13. But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elizabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John.

14. And thou shalt have joy and gladness, and many shall rejoice at his birth.

15. For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb.

16. And many of the children of Israel shall be torn to the Lord their God.

17. And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just: to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

(g) Prov. vi. 26. For by means of a whorish woman a man is brought to a piece of bread; and the adulteress will hunt for the precious life.

xxi. 17. He that loveth pleasure shall be a poor man; he that loveth wine and oil shall not be rich.

4 The king by judgment establisheth the land; but he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it.

5 A man (h) that flattereth his neighbour (i) spreadeth a net for his feet.

(h) Job xvii. 5. He that speaketh flattery to his friends, even the eyes of his children shall fail.

Ps. v. 9. For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; their inward part is very wickedness: their throat is an open sepulchre; they flatter with their tongue.

xii. 2. They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips, and with a double heart, do they speak.

(i) Lam. i. 13. From above hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaileth against them; he hath spread a net for my feet; he hath turned me back; he hath made me desolate and faint all the day.

Hos. v. 1. Hear ye this, O priests; and hearken, ye house of Israel; and give ye ear, O house of the king; for judgment is toward you, because ye have been a snare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor.

6 In (k) the transgression of an evil man there is a snare; (l) but the righteous doth sing and rejoice.

(k) Job xviii. 7. The steps of his strength shall be straitened, and his own counsel shall cast him down.

8. For he is cast into a net by his own feet, and he walketh upon a snare.

9. The gin shall take him by the heel; and the robber shall prevail against him.

10. The snare is laid for him in the ground; and a trap for him in the way.

Ps. xi. 6. Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.

Is. viii. 14. And he shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling, and for a rock of offence, to both the houses of Israel; for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

15. And many among them shall stumble and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.

(l) Ps. xcvi. 11. Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.

cxviii. 15. The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous: the right hand of the Lord doeth valiantly.

ccxxii. 16. I will also clothe her priests with salvation; and her saints shall shout aloud for joy.

1 Pet. i. 8. Whom, having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory.

1 John i. 4. And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.

7 The righteous (m) considereth the cause of the poor; (n) but the wicked regardeth not to know it.

(m) Job xxix. 16. I was a father to the poor: and the cause which I knew not I searched out. xxxi. 13. If I did despise the cause of my man-servant, or of my maid-servant, when they contended with me.

21. If I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless, when I saw my help in the gate.

Gal. vi. 1. Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

(n) Jer. v. 28. They are waxen fat, they shine; yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge.

Ez. xxii. 7. In thee have they set light by father and mother; in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger; in thee have they vexed the fatherless and the widow.

8 (o) Scornful men bring a city into a snare; but (p) wise men turn away wrath.

(o) Is. xxviii. 14. Wherefore, hear the word of the Lord, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem.

1 Thess. ii. 15. Who both killed the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men;

16. Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles, that they might be saved, to fill up their sins always; for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

(p) Num. xvi. 48. And he stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stayed.

xxv. 11. Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, hath turned my wrath away from the children of Israel, (while he was zealous for my sake among them,) that I consumed not the children of Israel in my jealousy.

Jer. xv. 1. Then said the Lord unto me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people; cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth.

Ez. xxii. 30. And I sought for a man among them that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none.

9 If (q) a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.

(q) Ec. x. 13. The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of his talk is mischievous madness.

Matt. vii. 6. Give not that which is holy unto the dogs; neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

xi. 17. And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

18. For John came neither eating nor drinking; and they say, He hath a devil.

19. The Son of man came eating and drinking; and they say, Behold, a man gluttonous, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners. But wisdom is justified of her children.

10 The blood-thirsty hate the upright; (r) but the just seek his soul.

(r) 1 Sam. xv. 11. It repenteth me that I have set up Saul to be king: for he is turned back from following me, and hath not performed my commandments. And it grieved Samuel; and he cried unto the Lord all night.

Jer. xiii. 15. Hear ye, and give ear; be not proud: for the Lord hath spoken.

16. Give glory to the Lord your God, before he cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness.

17. But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride; and mine eyes shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the Lord's flock is carried away captive.

xviii. 20. Shall evil be recompensed for good? for they have digged a pit for my soul. Remember that I stood before thee to speak good for them, and to turn away thy wrath from them.

Luke xxiii. 54. Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

Acts vii. 60. And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

Rom. x. 1. Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

11 A (s) fool uttereth all his mind; but a wise man keepeth it in till afterwards.

(s) Judg. xvi. 17. That he told her all his heart, and said unto her, There hath not come a razor upon my head; for I have been a Nazarite unto God from my mother's womb: if I be shaven, then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man.

Amos v. 13. Therefore the prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time.

Mic. vii. 5. Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide; keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom.

12 If (t) a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked.

(t) 1 Sam. xxiii. 19. Then came up the Ziphites to Saul, to Gibeath, saying, Doth not David hide himself with us in strong holds in the wood, in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the south of Jeshimon?

20. Now, therefore, O king, come down according to all the desire of thy soul to come down; and our part shall be to deliver him into the king's hand.

21. And Saul said, Blessed be ye of the Lord; for ye have compassion on me.

22. Go, I pray you, prepare yet, and know and see his place where his haunt is, and who hath seen him there: for it is told me that he dealeth very subtly.

23. See, therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking-places where he hideth himself, and come ye again to me with the certainty, and I will go with you: and it shall come to pass, if he be in the land, that I will search him out throughout all the thousands of Judah.

Ps. lii. 2. Thy tongue deviseth mischiefs, like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

3. Thou lovest evil more than good, and lying rather than to speak righteousness. Selah.

4. Thou lovest all-devouring words, O thou deceitful tongue.

5. Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: him that hath an high look and a proud heart, will not I suffer.

6. Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh in a perfect way, he shall serve me.

7. He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house; he that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight.

13 The poor and the deceitful man (u) meet together: the (x) LORD lighteneth both their eyes.

(u) Neh. v. 5. Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and, lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants; and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already, neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards.

6. And I was very angry when I heard their cry, and these words.

7. Then I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles and the rulers, and said unto them, You exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them.

Prov. xxii. 2. The rich and poor meet together: the Lord is the maker of them all.

(x) Ps. xliii. 3. Consider and hear me, O Lord my God; lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death.

Matt. v. 45. That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

14 The (y) king that faithfully judgeth the poor, (z) his throne shall be established for ever.

(y) Ps. lxxii. 2. He shall judge thy people with righteousness, and thy poor with judgment.

3. The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness.

4. He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor.

12. For he shall deliver the needy when he crieth; the poor also, and him that hath no helper.

13. He shall spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy.

Is. i. 17. Learn to do well: seek judgment; relieve the oppressed; judge the fatherless; plead for the widow.

(z) Is. ix. 6. For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

7. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice, from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this.

Heb. i. 8. But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

9. Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

15 The rod and reproof give wisdom; but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame.

16 When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increaseth; (a) but the righteous shall see their fall.

(a) Ps. xxxvii. 34. Wait on the Lord, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.

lviii. 10. The righteous shall rejoice when he seeth the vengeance: he shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.

xc. 8. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold, and see the reward of the wicked.

xcii. 11. Mine eye also shall see my desire on mine enemies; and mine ears shall hear my desire of the wicked that rise up against me.

Rev. xviii. 20. Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her.

17 Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest; yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.

18 Where (b) there is no vision, the people perish; (c) but he that keepeth the law, happy is he.

(b) 1 Sam. iii. 1. And the child Samuel ministered unto the Lord before Eli. And the word of the Lord was precious in those days; there was no open vision.

Hos. iv. 6. My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me; seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

Amos viii. 11. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the Lord:

12. And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east; they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the Lord, and shall not find it.

Matt. ix. 36. But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd.

Rom. x. 13. For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

14. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

15. And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things.

(c) Ps. xix. 11. Moreover, by them is thy servant warned; and in keeping of them there is great reward.

Luke xi. 28. But he said, Yea, rather blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

John xiii. 17. If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

James i. 25. But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

Rev. xxii. 14. Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.

19 A servant will not be corrected by words; for (d) though he understand he will not answer.

(d) Job xix. 16. I called my servant, and he gave me no answer; I entreated him with my mouth.

20 (e) Seest thou a man that is hasty in his words? there is (f) more hope of a fool than of him.

(e) Ec. v. 2. Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few.

James i. 19. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath.

(f) Prov. xxvi. 12. Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? There is more hope of a fool than of him.

21 He that delicately bringeth up his servant from a child, shall have him become his son at the length.

22 An (g) angry man stirreth up strife, and (h) a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

(g) Prov. x. 12. Hatred stirreth up stripes: but love covereth all sins.

xv. 18. A wrathful man stirreth up strife: but he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife.

(h) Prov. xvii. 19. He loveth transgression that loveth strife; and he that exalteth his gate seeketh destruction.

James iii. 16. For where envying and strife is, there is confusion, and every evil work.

23 A (i) man's pride shall bring him low; but (k) honour shall uphold the humble in spirit.

(i) 2 Chr. xxxii. 25. But Hezekiah rendered not again, according to the benefit done unto him; for his heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem.

26. Notwithstanding Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, (both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem,) so that the wrath of the Lord came not upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

Job xl. 12. Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place.

Is. ii. 11. The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and the Lord alone shall be exalted in that day.

12. For the day of the Lord of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up, and he shall be brought low.

17. And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be made low; and the Lord alone shall be exalted in that day.

Luke xiv. 11. For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

xviii. 14. I tell you, This man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

Acts xii. 23. And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

James iv. 6. But he giveth more grace: wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

7. Submit yourselves, therefore, to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

8. Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you.

you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double-minded.

9. Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

10. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

1 Pet. v. 5. Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder; yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

(k) Deut. viii. 2. And thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments or no.

3. And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know, that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lord doth man live.

16. Who fed thee in the wilderness with manna, which thy fathers knew not, that he might humble thee, and that he might prove thee, to do thee good at thy latter end.

Is. lvii. 15. For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

lxvi. 2. For all those things have mine hand made, and all those things have been, saith the Lord: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor, and of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at my word.

Matt. v. 3. Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

xviii. 4. Whosoever, therefore, shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

xxiii. 12. And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased: and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.

24 Whoso is (l) partner with a thief hateth his own soul: (m) he heareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not.

(l) Is. i. 23. Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves; every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

Mark xi. 17. And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of thieves.

(m) Lev. v. 1. And if a soul sin, and hear the voice of swearing, and is a witness, whether he hath seen or known of it: if he do not utter it, then he shall bear his iniquity.

Judg. xvii. 2. And he said unto his mother, The eleven hundred shekels of silver, that were taken from thee, about which thou cursedst, and spakest of also in mine ears; behold, the silver is with me; I took it.

25 The (n) fear of man bringeth a snare; but (o) whoso putteth his trust in the LORD shall be safe.

(n) Gen. xx. 2. And Abraham said of Sarah his wife. She is my sister: and Abimelech king of Gerar sent and took Sarah.

11. And Abraham said, Because I thought, Surely the fear of God is not in this place; and they will slay me for my wife's sake.

xxvi. 7. And the men of the place asked him of his wife; and he said, She is my sister: for he feared to say, She is my wife; lest, said he, the men of the place should kill me for Rebekah, because she was fair to look upon.

1 Sam. xv. 24. And Saul said unto Samuel, I have sinned; for I have transgressed the commandment of the Lord, and thy words; because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice.

Is. lvii. 11. And of whom hast thou been afraid or feared, that thou hast lied, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? have not I held my peace even of old, and thou fearest me not?

Matt. x. 28. And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

(o) 1 Chr. v. 20. And they were helped against them, and the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, and all that were with them; for they cried to God in the battle, and he was entreated of them, because they put their trust in him.

Ps. cxviii. 8. It is better to trust in the Lord than to put confidence in man.

cxv. 1. They that trust in the Lord shall be as Mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.

1 Pet. i. 21. Who by him do believe in God that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.

26 Many seek the ruler's favour; (p) but every man's judgment cometh from the LORD.

(p) Ezra vii. 27. Blessed be the Lord God of our fathers, which hath put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem:

28. And hath extended mercy unto me before the king, and his counsellors, and before all the king's mighty princes: and I was strengthened, as the hand of the Lord my God was upon me: and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

Ps. xx. 9. The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

Dan. iv. 35. And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou?

27 An (q) unjust man is an abomination to the just; and he that is upright in the way, is abomination to the wicked.

(q) Ps. cxxxix. 21. Do not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee?

John vii. 7. The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

xv. 23. He that hateth me, hateth my Father also.

1 John iii. 13. Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

CHAPTER XXX.

THE words of Agur the son of Jakeh, even the prophecy:

the man spake unto Ithiel, even unto Ithiel and Ucal,

2 Surely (a) I am more (b) brutish than any man, and have not the understanding of a man.

(a) Job xlii. 3. Who is he that hideth counsel without knowledge? therefore have I uttered that I understood not; things too wonderful for me, which I knew not.

4. Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

5. I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear; but now mine eyes seeth thee:

6. Wherefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes.

Ps. lxxiii. 22. So foolish was I and ignorant; I was as a beast before thee.

Is. vi. 5. Then said I, Wo is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts.

1 Cor. iii. 18. Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

viii. 2. And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

(b) Ps. xcii. 6. A brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this.

Jer. x. 14. Every man is brutish in his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

2 Pet. ii. 12. But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;

13. And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings, while they feast with you;

14. Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children:

15. Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16. But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass, speaking with man's voice, forbad the madness of the prophet.

3 I (c) neither learned wisdom, (d) nor have the knowledge of (e) the holy.

(c) Amos vii. 14. Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was a herdman, and a gatherer of sycamore-fruit:

15. And the Lord took me as I followed the flock, and the Lord said unto me, Go, prophesy unto my people Israel.

Matt. xvi. 17. And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.

(d) Job xi. 7. Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection?

8. It is as high as heaven; what canst thou do? deeper than hell; what canst thou know?

9. The measure thereof is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea.

Matt. xi. 27. All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.

Rom. xi. 33. O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

(e) Is. vi. 3. And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory.

lvii. 15. For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

Rev. iii. 7. And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth.

iv. 8. And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

4 (f) Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? (g) who hath gathered the wind in his fists? who hath bound the waters in a garment? who hath established all the ends of the earth? (h) what is his name, (i) and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell?

(f) Deut. xxx. 12. It is not in heaven, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it?

John iii. 13. And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man, which is in heaven.

(g) Job xxxviii. 4. Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding.

5. Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it?

6. Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? or who laid the corner-stone thereof,

7. When the morning-stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

8. Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it brake forth, as if it had issued out of the womb?

9. When I made the cloud the garment thereof, and thick darkness a swaddling-band for it,

10. And brake up for it my decreed place, and set bars and doors,

11. And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further; and here shall thy proud waves be stayed?

12. Hast thou commanded the morning since thy days; and caused the day-spring to know his place;

13. That it might take hold of the ends of the earth, that the wicked might be shaken out of it?

14. It is turned as clay to the seal; and they stand as a garment.

15. And from the wicked their light is withholden, and the high arm shall be broken.

16. Hast thou entered into the springs of the sea? or hast thou walked in the search of the depth?

17. Have the gates of death been opened unto thee? or hast thou seen the doors of the shadow of death?

18. Hast thou perceived the breadth of the earth? declare, if thou knowest it all.

19. Where is the way where light dwelleth? and as for darkness, where is the place thereof,

20. That thou shouldest take it to the bound thereof, and that thou shouldest know the paths to the house thereof?

21. Knowest thou it, because thou wast then born? or because the number of thy days is great?

22. Hast thou entered into the treasures of the snow? or hast thou seen the treasures of the hail,

23. Which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war?

24. By what way is the light parted, which scattereth the east wind upon the earth?

25. Who hath divided a water-course for the overflowing of waters? or a way for the lightning of thunder;

26. To cause it to rain on the earth, where no man is: on the wilderness, wherein there is no man;

27. To satisfy the desolate and waste ground, and to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring forth?

28. Hath the rain a father? or who hath begotten the drops of dew?

29. Out of whose womb came the ice? and the hoary frost of heaven, who hath gendered it?

30. The waters are hid as with a stone, and the face of the deep is frozen.

31. Canst thou bind the sweet influences of Pleiades, or loose the bands of Orion?

32. Canst thou bring forth Mazzaroth in his season? or canst thou guide Arcturus with his sons?

33. Knowest thou the ordinances of heaven? canst thou set the dominion thereof in the earth?

34. Canst thou lift up thy voice to the clouds, that abundance of waters may cover thee?

35. Canst thou send lightnings, that they may go; and say unto thee, Here we are?

36. Who hath put wisdom in the inward parts? or who hath given understanding to the heart?

37. Who can number the clouds in wisdom? or who can stay the bottles of heaven,

38. When the dust groweth into hardness, and the clods cleave fast together?

Is. xl. 12. Who hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance?

(h) Ex. iii. 13. And Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say to me, What is his name? what shall I say unto them?

14. And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you.

15. And God said, moreover, unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations.

vi. 3. And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God Almighty; but by my name JEHOVAH was I not known to them.

Deut. xxviii. 58. If thou wilt not observe to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, that thou mayest fear this glorious and fearful name, THE LORD THY GOD.

(i) Gen. xxxii. 29. And Jacob asked him, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, thy name. And he said, Wherefore is it that thou dost ask after my name? And he blessed him there.

Judg. xiii. 18. And the angel of the Lord said unto him, [Manoah] Why askest thou thus after my name, seeing it is secret?

Ps. ii. 7. I will declare the decree: the Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee.

Is. vii. 14. Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign: Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.

ix. 6. For unto us a child is born, unto us a Son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

Jer. xxiii. 6. In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely; and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

Mat. i. 21. And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.

22. (Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23. Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Immanuel, which, being interpreted, is, God with us.)

Luke x. 22. All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.

5 Every (k) word of God is pure: he is a (l) shield unto them that put their trust in him.

(k) Ps. xii. 6. The words of the Lord are pure words; as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

xix. 8. The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure.

cxix. 140. Thy word is very pure; therefore thy servant loveth it.

Rom. vii. 12. Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

James iii. 17. But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.

(l) Gen. xv. 1. After these things the word of the Lord came unto Abram in a vision, saying, Fear not, Abram: I am thy shield, and thy exceeding great reward.

Ps. lxxxiv. 11. For the Lord God is a sun and shield; the Lord will give grace and glory; no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

6 (m) Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, (n) and thou be found a liar.

(m) Deut. iv. 2. Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the Lord your God which I command you.

xii. 32. What thing soever I command you, observe to do it: thou shalt not add thereto, nor diminish from it.

Rev. xxii. 18. For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book.

19. And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

(n) Job xiii. 7. Will ye speak wickedly for God? and talk deceitfully for him?

8. Will ye accept his person? will ye contend for God?

9. Is it good that he should search you out? or as one man mocketh another, do ye so mock him?

1 Cor. xv. 15. Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God: because we have testified of God, that he raised up Christ; whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

7 ¶ Two things (o) have I required of thee; deny me them not before I die;

(o) 1 Kings iii. 5. In Gibeon the Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream by night: and God said, Ask what I shall give thee.

6. And Solomon said, Thou hast showed unto thy servant David, my father, great mercy, according as he walked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with thee: and thou hast kept for him this great kindness, that thou hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.

7. And now, O Lord my God, thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father; and I am but a little child: I know not how to go out or come in.

8. And thy servant is in the midst of thy people which thou hast chosen, a great people that cannot be numbered nor counted for multitude.

9. Give, therefore, thy servant an understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge thy thy so great a people?

Ps. xxvii. 1. One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after, that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to inquire in his temple.

Luke x. 42. But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

8 (p) Remove far from me vanity and lies: give me neither poverty nor riches; (q) feed me with food convenient for me:

(p) Ps. lxxii. 9. Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be laid in the balance they are altogether lighter than vanity.

10. Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery; if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

cxix. 37. Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity; and quicken thou me in thy way.

Is. lix. 4. None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies: they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.

(q) Gen. xxviii. 20. And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on.

xlvi. 15. And he blessed Joseph, and said, God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac did walk, the God which fed me all my life long unto this day.

Ex. xvi. 15. And when the children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, It is manna: for they wist not what it was. And Moses said unto them, This is the bread which the Lord hath given you to eat.

Mat. vi. 11. Give us this day our daily bread.

33. But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness: and all these things shall be added unto you.

9 Lest (r) I be full, and deny thee, and say, Who is the LORD? or lest I be poor, and steal, (s) and take the name of my God in vain.

(r) Deut. vi. 10. And it shall be when the Lord thy God shall have brought thee into the land which he swore unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give thee great and goodly cities which thou buildedst not,

11. And houses full of all good things which thou filledst not, and wells digged which thou diggedst not, vineyards and olive-trees which thou plantedst not; when thou shalt have eaten, and be full,

12. Then beware lest thou forget the Lord, which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

xxxi. 20. For when I shall have brought them into the land which I swear unto their fathers, that floweth with milk and honey, and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and waxen fat; then will they turn unto other gods, and serve them, and provoke me, and break my covenant.

Neh. ix. 25. And they took strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, wells digged, vineyards, and olive-yards, and fruit trees in abundance; so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness.

26. Nevertheless, they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy prophets, which testified against them to turn them to thee; and they wrought great provocations.

Hos. xiii. 6. According to their pasture, so were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted; therefore have they forgotten me.

(s) Ex. xx. 7. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain: for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

Lev. v. 1. And if a soul sin, and hear the voice of swearing, and is a witness, whether he hath seen or known of it: if he do not utter it, then he shall bear his iniquity.

10 ¶ Accuse (t) not a servant unto his master, (u) lest he curse thee, and thou be found guilty.

(t) Deut. xxiii. 15. Thou shalt not deliver unto his master the servant which is escaped from his master unto thee.

1 Sam. xxii. 9. Then answered Doeg the Edomite, which was set over the servants of Saul, and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub.

10. And he inquired of the Lord for him, and gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine.

xxiv. 9. And David said to Saul, Wherefore hearest thou men's words, saying, Behold, David seeketh thy hurt?

Rom. xiv. 4. Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth; yea, he shall be holden up; for God is able to make him stand.

(u) Prov. xxiv. 24. He that saith unto the wicked, Thou art righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him.

xxviii. 27. He that giveth unto the poor shall not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.

11 There is a generation (x) that curseth their father, and (y) doth not bless their mother.

(x) Lev. xx. 9. For every one that curseth his father or his mother shall be surely put to death: he hath cursed his father or his mother; his blood shall be upon him.

xxvii. 16. Cursed be he that setteth light by his father, or his mother: and all the people shall say, Amen.

(y) 1 Tim. v. 4. But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to show piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5. Now, she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

12 There is a generation (z) that are pure in their own eyes, and yet is not (a) washed from their filthiness.

(z) Judg. xvii. 5. And the man Micah had an house of gods, and made an ephod, and teraphim, and consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest.

6. In those days there was no king in Israel; but every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

13. Then said Micah, Now know I that the Lord will do me good, seeing I have a Levite to my priest.

Job xxxiii. 9. I am clean without transgression, I am innocent; neither is there iniquity in me.

Ps. xxxvi. 2. For he flattereth himself in his own eyes, until his iniquity be found to be hateful.

Is. lxxv. 5. Which say, Stand by thyself, come not near to me; for I am holier than thou. These are a smoke in my nose, a fire that burneth all the day.

1 John i. 8. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

9. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

(a) Ps. li. 2. Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

7. Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Is. i. 16. Wash you, make you clean, put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes: cease to do evil.

Jer. iv. 14. O Jerusalem, wash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved: how long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee?

Ez. xxxvi. 25. Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean; from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.

Zech. xiii. 1. In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness.

1 Cor. vi. 11. And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified, in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

Rev. i. 5. And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first-begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood.

13 There is a generation, (b) O how lofty are their eyes! and their eyelids are lifted up.

(b) Ps. ci. 5. Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: him that hath an high look and a proud heart will not I suffer.

cxxxi. 1. Lord, my heart is not haughty, nor mine eyes lofty; neither do I exercise myself in great matters, or in things too high for me.

Is. ii. 11. The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and the Lord alone shall be exalted in that day.

Ez. xxviii. 9. Wilt thou yet say before him that slayeth thee, I am God? but thou shalt be a man, and no god, in the hand of him that slayeth thee.

Hab. ii. 4. Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith.

14 There is a generation, (c) whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw-teeth as knives, (d) to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.

(c) Job xxix. 17. And I brake the jaws of the wicked, and plucked the spoil out of his teeth.

Pf. iii. 7. Arise, O Lord; save me, O my God: for thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek-bone: thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.

lvii. 4. My soul is among lions; and I lie even among them that are set on fire, and the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.

lviii. 6. Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth; break out the great teeth of the young lions, O Lord.

Rev. ix. 8. And they had hair as the hair of lions, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

(d) Is. xxxii. 7. The instruments also of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even when the needy speaketh right.

Amos iv. 1. Hear this word, ye kine of Bashan, that are in the mountain of Samaria, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

viii. 4. Hear this, O ye that swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail.

Hab. iii. 14. Thou didst strike through with his staves the head of his villages; they came out as a whirlwind to scatter me: their rejoicing was as to devour the poor secretly.

15 The (e) horse-leech hath two daughters, crying, (f) Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, yea, four things say not, It is enough:

(e) Is. lviii. 3. But draw near hither, ye sons of the sorceress, the seed of the adulterer and the whore.

4. Against whom do ye sport yourselves? against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue? are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood.

Ez. xvi. 44. Behold, every one that useth proverbs shall use this proverb against thee, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter.

45. Thou art thy mother's daughter, that loatheth her husband and her children; and thou art the sister of thy sisters which loathed their husbands and their children: your mother was an Hittite, and your father an Amorite:

46. And thine elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters that dwell at thy left hand; and thy younger sister that dwelleth at thy right hand is Sodom and her daughters.

John viii. 44. Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do: he was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar; and the father of it.

(f) Is. lvi. 11. Yea, they are greedy dogs, which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand; they all look to their own way, every one for his gain from his quarter.

12. Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and tomorrow shall be as this day, and much more abundant.

Hos. iv. 18. Their drink is sour: they have committed whoredom continually: her rulers with shame do love, Give ye.

Mic. vii. 3. That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man uttereth his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

16 (g) The grave, and the barren womb; the earth that is not filled with water; and the fire that saith not, It is enough.

(g) Prov. xxvii. 20. Hell and destruction are never full; so the eyes of man are never satisfied.

Hab. ii. 5. Yea, also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desires as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people.

17 The (h) eye that mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother, (i) the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it.

(h) Gen. ix. 22. And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brethren without.

23. And Shem and Japheth took a garment, and laid it upon both their shoulders, and went backward, and covered the nakedness of their father; and their faces were backward, and they saw not their father's nakedness.

Lev. xx. 9. For every one that curseth his father or his mother shall be surely put to death: he hath cursed his father or his mother; his blood shall be upon him.

(i) 1 Sam. xvii. 44. And the Philistine said to David, Come to me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field.

46. This day will the Lord deliver thee into mine hand, and I will smite thee, and take thine head from thee; and I will give the carcasses of the host of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the wild beasts of the earth: that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel.

2 Sam. xxi. 10. And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, took sackcloth, and spread it for her upon the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water dropped upon them out of heaven, and suffered neither the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the beast of the field by night.

18 There be three things which are (k) too wonderful for me; yea, four which I know not:

(k) Job xlii. 3. Who is he that hideth counsel without knowledge? therefore have I uttered that I understood not; things too wonderful for me, which I knew not.

Ps. cxxxix. 6. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it.

19 The (l) way of an eagle in the air; the way of a serpent upon a rock; the way of a ship in the midst of the sea; (m) and the way of a man with a maid.

(l) Job xxxix. 27. Doth the eagle mount up at thy command, and make her nest on high?

Is. xl. 31. But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary, and they shall walk and not faint.

(m) Ex. xxii. 16. And if a man entice a maid that is not betrothed, and lie with her, he shall surely endow her to be his wife.

20 Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness.

21 ¶ For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot bear:

22 For (n) a servant when he reigneth; and (o) a fool when he is filled with meat;

(n) Ec. x. 7. I have seen servants upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth.

Is. iii. 4. And I will give children to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them.

5. And the people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, and the base against the honourable.

(o) 1 Sam. xxv. 36. And Abigail came to Nabal: and, behold, he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king; and Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light.

37. But it came to pass in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, and his wife had told him these things, that his heart died within him, and he became as a stone.

38. And it came to pass, about ten days after, that the Lord smote Nabal, that he died.

1 Sam. xxx. 16. And when he had brought him down, behold, they were spread abroad upon all the earth, eating, and drinking, and dancing, because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah.

23 For an odious woman when she is married; and an handmaid that is heir to her mistress.

24 ¶ There be four things which are little upon the earth, but they are exceeding wise:

25 The ants are a people not strong; yet they prepare their meat in the summer:

26 The (p) conies are but a feeble folk; yet make they their houses in the rocks:

(p) Lev. xi. 5. And the coney, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.

Ps. civ. 18. The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats, and the rocks for the conies.

27 The (q) locusts have no king; yet go they forth all of them by bands:

(q) Ex. x. 4. Else, if thou refuse to let my people go, behold, to-morrow will I bring the locusts into thy coast:

5. And they shall cover the face of the earth, that one cannot be able to see the earth: and they shall eat the residue of that which is escaped, which remaineth unto you from the hail, and shall eat every tree which groweth for you out of the field:

6. And they shall fill thy houses, and the houses of all thy servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians; which neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers' fathers have seen, since the day that they were upon the earth unto this day. And he turned himself, and went out from Pharaoh.

Ps. cv. 34. He spake, and the locusts came, and caterpillars, and that without number.

Joel i. 4. That which the palmer-worm hath left, hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left, hath the canker-worm eaten; and that which the canker-worm hath left, hath the caterpillar eaten.

6. For a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek-teeth of a great lion.

7. He hath laid my vine waste, and barked my fig-tree; he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white.

25. And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the canker-worm, and the caterpillar, and the palmer-worm, my great army, which I sent among you.

Rev. ix. 3. And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth; and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4. And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads.

5. And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6. And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7. And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.

8. And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9. And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

10. And they had tails like unto scorpions; and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months.

11. And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.

28 The spider taketh hold with her hands, and is in kings' palaces.

29 ¶ There be three things which go well, yea, four are comely in going:

30 A lion, (r) which is strongest among beasts, and turneth not away for any;

(r) Num. xxiii. 24. Behold, the people shall rise up as a great lion, and lift up himself as a young lion: he shall not lie down until he eat of the prey, and drink the blood of the slain.

Judg. xiv. 18. And the men of the city said unto him on the seventh day, before the sun went down, What is sweeter than honey? and what is stronger than a lion? And he said unto them, If ye had not ploughed with my heifer, ye had not found out my riddle.

31 A greyhound; an he-goat also; and a king, (s) against whom there is no rising up.

(s) Dan. iii. 15. Now, if ye be ready, that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made, well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a fiery furnace: and who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?

16. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not careful to answer thee in this matter.

17. If it be so, our God, whom we serve, is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and he will deliver us out of thy hand, O king.

18. But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship thy golden image which thou hast set up.

32 ¶ If thou hast done foolishly in lifting up thyself, or if thou hast thought evil, (t) lay thine hand upon thy mouth.

(t) Job xxi. 5. Mark me, and be astonished, and lay your hand upon your mouth.

xl. 4. Once have I spoken, but I will not answer; yea, twice; but I will proceed no further.

Mic. vii. 16. The nations shall see, and be confounded at all their might: they shall lay their hand upon their mouth, their ears shall be deaf.

17. They shall lick the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes like worms of the earth: they shall be afraid of the Lord our God, and shall fear because of thee.

Rom. iii. 19. Now we know, that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law; that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

33 Surely the churning of milk bringeth forth butter, and the wringing of the nose bringeth forth blood: so the forcing of wrath bringeth forth strife.

CHAPTER XXXI.

THE words of king Lemuel, the prophecy that his (a) mother taught him.

(a) Prov. i. 8. My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother.

vi. 20. My son, keep thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother.

2 Tim. i. 5. When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

iii. 15. And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

2 What, my son? and what, (b) the son of my womb? and what, (c) the son of my vows?

(b) Is. xlix. 15. Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, yet will I not forget thee.

(c) 1 Sam. i. 11. And she vowed a vow, and said, O Lord of hosts, if thou wilt indeed look on the affliction of thine handmaid, and remember me, and not forget thy handmaid, but wilt give unto thy handmaid a man-child, then I will give him unto the Lord all the days of his life, and there shall no razor come upon his head.

28. Therefore also I have lent him to the Lord; as long as he liveth he shall be lent to the Lord. And he worshipped the Lord there.

3 Give not thy strength unto women, nor thy ways (d) to that which destroyeth kings.

(d) Deut. xvii. 17. Neither shall he multiply wives to himself, that his heart turn not away: neither shall he greatly multiply to himself silver and gold.

Neh. xiii. 26. Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless, even him did outlandish women cause to sin.

4 It is not (e) for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine, nor for princes strong drink:

(e) 1 Kings xx. 12. And it came to pass, when Benhadad heard this message, as he was drinking, he and the kings in the pavilions, that he said unto his servants, Set yourselves in array: and they set themselves in array against the city.

Esth. iii. 15. The posts went out, being hastened by the king's commandment; and the decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city Shushan was perplexed.

Ec. x. 17. Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!

Hos. iv. 11. Whoredom, and wine, and new wine, take away the heart.

vii. 3. They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies.

4. They are all adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker, who ceaseth from raising after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be leavened.

5. In the day of our king the princes have made him sick with bottles of wine: he stretched out his hand with scorners.

5 Lest they drink, and forget the law, and pervert the judgment of any of the afflicted.

6 Give (f) strong drink unto him that is ready to perish, and wine unto those that be of heavy heart.

(f) Ps. civ. 15. And wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart.

1 Tim. v. 23. Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake, and thine often infirmities.

7 Let him drink, and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more.

8 (g) Open thy mouth for the dumb, in the cause of all such as are appointed to destruction.

(g) 1 Sam. xx. 32. And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, Wherefore shall he be slain? what hath he done?

Ps. lxxxii. 2. How long will ye judge unjustly, and accept the persons of the wicked? Selah.

3. Defend the poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and needy.

4. Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked.

Jer. xxvi. 24. Nevertheless, the hand of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

John vii. 51. Doth our law judge any man before it hear him, and know what he doeth?

9 Open thy mouth, (h) judge righteously, and plead the cause of the poor and needy.

(h) Lev. xix. 15. Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment: thou shalt not respect the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty: but in righteousness shalt thou judge thy neighbour.

Deut. i. 16. And I charged your judges at that time, saying, Hear the causes between your brethren, and judge righteously between every man and his brother, and the stranger that is with him.

2 Sam. viii. 15. And David reigned over all Israel; and David executed judgment and justice unto all his people.

Ps. lviii. 1. Do ye indeed speak righteousness, O congregation? do ye judge uprightly, O ye sons of men?

2. Yea, in heart you work wickedness; you weigh the violence of your hands in the earth.

Is. xi. 4. But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth; and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

xxxii. 1. Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment.

2. And a man shall be as an hiding-place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place; as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

Jer. xxii. 3. Thus saith the Lord, Execute ye judgment and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place.

Amos v. 11. Forasmuch, therefore, as your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat; ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.

12. For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.

Zeck. vii. 9. Thus speaketh the Lord of hosts, saying, Execute true judgment, and show mercy and compassions every man to his brother:

10. And oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

John vii. 24. Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

10 ¶ Who (i) can find a virtuous woman? for (h) her price is far above rubies.

(i) Ruth iii. 11. And now, my daughter, fear not; I will do thee all that thou requirest: for all the city of my people doth know that thou art a virtuous woman.

Prov. xii. 4. A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband: but she that maketh ashamed is as rottenness in his bones.

xviii. 22. Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the Lord.

xix. 14. House and riches are the inheritance of fathers; and a prudent wife is from the Lord.

Ec. vii. 28. Which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not: one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all those have I not found.

Cant. vi. 8. There are threescore queens, and fourscore concubines, and virgins without number.

9. My dove, my undefiled, is but one: she is the only one of her mother, she is the choice one of her that bare her: the daughters saw her, and blessed her; yea, the queens and the concubines, and they praised her.

(k) Prov. iii. 15. She is more precious than rubies: and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.

viii. 11. For wisdom is better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.

xx. 15. There is gold, and a multitude of rubies: but the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.

11 The (l) heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil.

(l) 2 Kings iv. 9. And she said unto her husband, Behold now, I perceive that this is a holy man of God which passeth by us continually.

10. Let us make a little chamber, I pray thee, on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick: and it shall be, when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in thither.

22. And she called unto her husband, and said, Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may run to the man of God, and come again.

23. And he said, Wherefore wilt thou go to him to-day? it is neither new moon nor sabbath. And she said, It shall be well.

1 Pet. iii. 1. Likewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that if any obey not the world, they also may, without the word, be won by the conversation of the wives;

2. While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear:

3. Whose adorning, let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4. But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5. For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands;

6. Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: whose daughters ye are as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7. Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered.

12 She (m) will do him good, and not evil, all the days of her life.

(m) 1 Sam. xxv. 18. Then Abigail made haste, and took two hundred loaves, and two bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched corn, and a hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on asses.

19. And she said unto her servants, Go on before me: behold, I come after you. But she told not her husband Nabal.

20. And it was so, as she rode on the ass, that she came down by the covert of the hill, and, behold, David and his men came down against her; and she met them.

(21. Now David had said, Surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow hath in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained unto him: and he hath required me evil for good.

22. So and more also do God unto the enemies of David, if I leave of all that pertain to him, by the morning light, any that pisseth against the wall.)

23. And when Abigail saw David, she hastened, and lighted off the ass, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground,

24. And fell at his feet, and said, Upon me, my lord, upon me let this iniquity be; and let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak in thine audience, and hear the words of thine handmaid.

25. Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard this man of Belial, even Nabal: for as his name is, so is he; Nabal is his name, and folly is with him: but I thine handmaid saw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didst send.

26. Now, therefore, my lord, as the Lord liveth and as thy soul liveth, seeing the Lord hath withholden thee from coming to shed blood, and from avenging thyself with thine own hand, now let thine enemies, and they that seek evil to my lord, be as Nabal.

27. And now this blessing, which thine handmaid hath brought unto my lord, let it even be given unto the young men that follow my lord.

13 She seeketh wool and flax, and (n) worketh willingly with her hands.

(n) Gen. xviii. 6. And Abraham hastened into the tent unto Sarah, and said, Make ready quickly three measures of fine meal, knead it, and make cakes upon the hearth.

xxiv. 13. Behold, I stand here by the well of water; and the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water:

14. And let it come to pass, that the damsel to whom I shall say, Let down thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink; and I will give thy camels drink also: let the same be she that thou hast appointed for thy servant Isaac, and thereby shall I know that thou hast showed kindness unto my master.

18. And she said, Drink, my lord: and she hastened, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink.

19. And when she had done giving him drink, she said, I will draw water for thy camels also, until they have done drinking.

20. And she hastened and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again unto the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels.

xxix. 9. And while he yet spake with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep, for she kept them.

Ex. ii. 16. Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters, and they came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock.

Ruth ii. 2. And Ruth, the Moabitess, said unto Naomi, Let me now go to the field, and glean ears of corn after him in whose sight I shall find grace. And she said unto her, Go, my daughter.

3. And she went, and came, and gleaned in the field after the reapers: and her hap was to light on a part of the field belonging unto Boaz, who was of the kindred of Elimelech.

23. So she kept fast by the maidens of Boaz, to glean unto the end of barley-harvest, and of wheat-harvest; and dwelt with her mother-in-law.

Acts ix. 39. Then Peter arose, and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas made while she was with them.

14 She (o) is like the merchants' ships, she bringeth her food from afar.

(o) 1 Kings ix. 26. And king Solomon made a navy of ships in Ezion-geber, which is beside Eloth, on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom.

27. And Hiram sent in the navy his servants, shipmen that had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomon.

28. And they came to Ophir, and fetched from thence gold, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to king Solomon.

2 Chr. ix. 10. And the servants also of Hiram, and the servants of Solomon, which brought gold from Ophir, brought alnum-trees, and precious stones.

21. For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram: every three years once came the ships of Tarshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and asses, and peacocks.

15 She (p) riseth also while it is yet night, (q) and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens.

(p) Ps. cxix. 147. I prevented the dawning of the morning, and cried: I hoped in thy word.

148. Mine eyes prevent the night-watches, that I might meditate in thy word.

Ec. ix. 10. Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

Mark i. 35. And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.

Rom. xii. 11. Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord.

(q) Matt. xxiv. 45. Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?

16 She (r) considereth a field, and buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard.

(r) Josh. xv. 18. And it came to pass, as she came unto him, that she moved him to ask of her father a field: and she lighted off her ass; and Caleb said unto her, What wouldest thou?

Cant. viii. 12. My vineyard which is mine is before me: thou, O Solomon, must have a thousand, and those that keep the fruit thereof two hundred.

Matt. xiii. 44. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which, when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

17 She (s) girdeth her loins with strength, and (t) strengtheneth her arms.

(s) 1 Kings xviii. 46. And the hand of the Lord was on Elijah: and he girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

2 Kings iv. 29. Then he said to Gehazi, Gird up thy loins, and take my staff in thine hand, and go thy way: if thou meet any man, salute him not; and if any salute thee, answer him not again: and lay my staff upon the face of the child.

Job xxxviii. 3. Gird up now thy loins like a man; for I will demand of thee, and answer thou me.

Luke xii. 35. Let your loins be girded about, and your light burning.

Eph. vi. 14. Stand, therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness.

1 Pet. i. 13. Wherefore, gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end, for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ.

(t) Gen. xlix. 24. But his bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong, by the hands of the mighty God of Jacob: from thence is the Shepherd, the stone of Israel.

Hos. vii. 15. Though I have bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me.

18 She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: (u) her candle goeth not out by night.

(u) Ps. cxxvii. 2. It is in vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows: for so he giveth his beloved sleep.

1 Thess. ii. 9. For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

19 She (x) layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff.

(x) Ex. xxxv. 25. And all the women that were wiser hearted did spin with their hands, and brought that which they had spun, both of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine linen.

26. And all the women whose heart stirred them up in wisdom, spun goats' hair.

20 She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, (y) she reacheth forth her hands to the needy.

(y) Ps. xli. 1. Blessed is he that considereth the poor: the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble.

cxii. 9. He hath dispersed: he hath given to the poor; his righteousness endureth for ever: his horn shall be exalted with honour.

Ec. xi. 1. Cast thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after many days.

2. Give a portion to seven, and also to eight; for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth.

Mark xiv. 7. For ye have the poor with you always, and whosoever ye will, ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

21 She is not afraid of the snow for her household; for all her household are clothed with scarlet.

22 She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her (z) clothing is silk and purple.

(z) Esth. v. 1. Now it came to pass, on the third day, that Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house.

viii. 15. And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king, in royal apparel, of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad.

Ps. xlv. 13. The king's daughter is all glorious within; her clothing is of wrought gold.

14. She shall be brought unto the king in raiment of needle-work: the virgins, her companions that follow her, shall be brought unto thee.

1 Pet. iii. 3. Whose adorning, let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4. But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

23 Her husband is known (a) in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land.

(a) Deut. xvi. 18. Judges and officers shalt thou make thee in all thy gates, which the Lord thy God giveth thee, throughout thy tribes: and they shall judge the people with just judgment.

xxi. 19. Then shall his father and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out unto the elders of his city, and unto the gate of his place.

Ruth iv. 1. Then went Boaz up to the gate, and sat him down there: and, behold, the kinsman, of whom Boaz spake, came by: unto whom he said, Ho, such an one! turn aside, sit down here. And he turned aside, and sat down.

2. And he took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, Sit ye down here. And they sat down.

Job xxix. 7. When I went out to the gate, through the city, when I prepared my seat in the street.

24 She (b) maketh fine linen, and selleth it; and delivereth girdles unto the merchant.

(b) 1 Kings x. 28. And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a price.

Ez. xxvii. 16. Syria was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of the wares of thy making: they occupied in thy fairs with emeralds, purple, and brodered work, and fine linen, and coral, and agate.

Luke xvi. 19. There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day.

25 (c) Strength and honour are her clothing; (d) and she shall rejoice in time to come.

(c) Job xl. 10. Deck thyself now with majesty and excellency; and array thyself with glory and beauty.

Ps. cxxxii. 9. Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness; and let thy saints shout for joy.

16. I will also clothe her priests with salvation; and her saints shall shout aloud for joy.

Rom. xiii. 14. But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

(d) Ps. xcvi. 11. Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.

12. Rejoice in the Lord, ye righteous; and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.

Is. lxx. 13. Therefore, thus saith the Lord God, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed:

14. Behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howl for vexation of spirit.

26 She (e) openeth her mouth with wisdom; and (f) in her tongue is the law of kindness.

(e) Judg. xiii. 23. But his wife said unto him, If the Lord were pleased to kill us, he would not have received a burnt-offering and a meat-offering at our hands; neither would he have showed us all these things, nor would, as at this time, have told us such things as these.

1 Sam. xxv. 23. And when Abigail saw David, she hastened and lighted off the ass, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground.

24. And fell at his feet, and said, Upon me, my lord, upon me let this iniquity be; and let thy handmaid, I pray thee, speak in thine audience, and hear the words of thy handmaid.

26. Now, therefore, my lord, as the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth, seeing the Lord hath withholden thee from coming to shed blood, and from avenging thyself with thine own hand, now let thine enemies, and they that seek evil to my lord, be as Nabal.

27. And now, this blessing, which thine handmaid hath brought unto my lord, let it even be given unto the young men that follow my lord.

28. I pray thee forgive the trespass of thine handmaid; for the Lord will certainly make my lord a sure house; because my lord fighteth the battles of the Lord, and evil hath not been found in thee all thy days.

29. Yet a man is risen to pursue thee, and to seek thy soul: but the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of life, with the Lord thy God; and the souls of thine enemies, them shall he sling out, as out of the middle of a sling.

30. And it shall come to pass, when the Lord shall have done to my lord according to all the good that he hath spoken concerning thee, and shall have appointed thee ruler over Israel,

31. That this shall be no grief unto thee, nor offence of heart unto my lord, either that thou hast shed blood causeless, or that my lord hath avenged himself: but when the Lord hath dealt well with my lord, then remember thine handmaid.

Eph. iv. 29. Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

Col. iv. 5. Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time.

6. Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

(f) Cant. iv. 11. Thy lips, O my spouse, drop as the honey-comb; honey and milk are under thy tongue; and the smell of thy garments is like the smell of Lebanon.

Mal. ii. 6. The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did turn many away from iniquity.

Acts xvi. 15. And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.

27 She (g) looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness.

(g) 1 Thess. iv. 11. And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you.

1 Tim. v. 10. Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

13. And withal, they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house, and not only idle, but tattlers also, and busy bodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14. I will, therefore, that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

Tit. ii. 4. That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children.

5. To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

28 Her (h) children arise up, and call her blessed; (i) her husband also, and he praiseth her.

(h) 1 Kings ii. 19. Bath-sheba therefore went unto king Solomon, to speak unto him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself unto her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a seat to be set for the king's mother; and she sat on his right hand.

(i) Is. lxii. 5. For as a young man marrieth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee: and as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice over thee.

29 Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all.

30 (k) Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain; but (l) a woman that feareth the LORD, (m) she shall be praised.

(k) Esth. i. 11. To bring Vashti the queen before the king, with the crown royal, to show the people and the princes her beauty; for she was fair to look on.

Job xlii. 15. And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job; and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.

Ez. xvi. 15. But thou didst trust in thine own beauty, and played the harlot, because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy fornications on every one that passed by; his it was.

1 Pet. i. 24. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away.

(h) Ps. cxlvii. 11. The Lord taketh pleasure in them that fear him, in those that hope in his mercy.

1 Pet. iii. 4. But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5. For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands.

(m) Rom. ii. 29. But he is a Jew which is one inwardly: and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

1 Cor. iv. 5. Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then shall every man have praise of God.

31 Give her (n) of the fruit of her hands; (o) and let her own works praise her in the gates.

(n) Ps. cxxviii. 2. For thou shalt eat the labour of thine hands: happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee.

Rom. vi. 21. What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

22. But now, being made free from sin, and become servants of God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

(o) Acts ix. 39. Then Peter arose, and went with them. When he was come they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas made while she was with them.

1 Tim. v. 25. Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

Heb. vi. 10. For God is not unrighteous, to forget your work, and labour of love, which ye have showed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

Rev. xiv. 13. And I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

THE BOOK OF ECCLESIASTES.

CHAPTER I.

THE words of (a) the Preacher, the son of David, (b) king of Jerusalem.

(a) Neh. vi. 7. And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah; and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now, therefore, and let us take counsel together.

Ps. xl. 9. I have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have not refrained my lips, O Lord, thou knowest.

Ec. vii. 27. Behold, this have I found (saith the preacher) counting one by one to find out the account.

Is. lxi. 1. The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek: he hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound.

Jom. iii. 2. Arise, go unto Ninevah, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

2 Pet. ii. 5. And spared not the old world, but saved Noe, the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly.

(b) 1 Kings xi. 42. And the time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years.

43. And Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David his Father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

2 Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, (c) vanity of vanities; all is vanity.

(c) Ps. xxxix. 5. Behold, thou hast made my days as an handbreadth, and mine age is as nothing before thee: verily every man at his best state is altogether vanity. Selah.

6. Surely every man walketh in a vain show; surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

Ixii. 9. Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be laid in the balance, they are altogether lighter than vanity.

10. Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery: if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

cxliv. 4. Man is like to vanity: his days are as a shadow that passeth away.

Rom. viii. 20. For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope.

3 What (d) profit hath a man of all his labour, which he taketh under the sun?

(d) Prov. xxiii. 4. Labour not to be rich; cease from thine own wisdom.

5. Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away, as an eagle toward heaven.

Is. lv. 2. Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? Hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

Hab. ii. 13. Behold, is it not of the Lord of hosts, that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity?

18. What profiteth the graven image that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols?

Mat. xvi. 26. For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

John vi. 27. Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed.

4 One (e) generation passeth away, and another generation cometh; (f) but the earth abideth for ever.

(e) Gen. xlvii. 9. And Jacob said unto Pharaoh, The days of the years of my pilgrimage are an hundred and thirty years: few and evil have the days of the years of my life been, and have not attained unto the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage.

Ex. i. 6. And Joseph died, and all his brethren, and all that generation.

7. And the children of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and waxed exceeding mighty; and the land was filled with them.

Ps. lxxxix. 47. Remember how short my time is: wherefore hast thou made all men in vain?

48. What man is he that liveth and shall not see death? shall he deliver his soul from the hand of the grave? Selah.

xc. 9. For all our days are passed away in thy wrath; we spend our years as a tale that is told.

10. The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow: for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

Zech. i. 5. Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?

(f) Ps. cii. 24. I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days: thy years are throughout all generations.

25. Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

26. They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed:

27. But thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end.

28. The children of thy servants shall continue, and their seed shall be established before thee.

civ. 5. Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed for ever.

cxix. 90. Thy faithfulness is unto all generations; thou hast established the earth, and it abideth.

91. They continue this day according to thine ordinances: for all are thy servants.

Matt. xxiv. 35. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my word shall not pass away.

2 Pet. iii. 10. But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also, and the works that are therein, shall be burnt up.

11. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness;

12. Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens, being on fire, shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?

13. Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens, and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

5 The (g) sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, (h) and hasteth to his place where he arose.

(g) Gen. viii. 22. While the earth remaineth, seed-time and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night, shall not cease.

Ps. xix. 4. Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun;

5. Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

6. His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

Lxxxix. 36. His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the sun before me.

37. It shall be established for ever as the moon, and as a faithful witness in heaven. Selah.

civ. 19. He appointeth the moon for seasons; the sun knoweth his going down.

20. Thou makest darkness, and it is night, wherein all the beasts of the forest do creep forth.

21. The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their meat from God.

22. The sun ariseth, they gather themselves together, and lay them down in their dens.

23. Man goeth forth to his work, and to his labour, until the evening.

Jer. xxxiii. 20. Thus saith the Lord, If ye can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season.

(h) Josh. x. 13. And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of Jasher, So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day?

Hab. iii. 11. The sun and moon stood still in their habitation: at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the shining of thy glittering spear.

6 The (i) wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north: it whirleth about continually; and the wind returneth again according to his circuits.

(i) Job xxxvii. 9. Out of the south cometh the whirlwind, and cold out of the north.

17. How thy garments are warm, when he quieteth the earth by the south wind.

Ps. cvii. 25. For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.

29. He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still.

Jon. i. 4. But the Lord sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken.

John iii. 8. The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

Acts xxvii. 13. And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.

14. But not long after there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon.

15. And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

7 All (k) the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full: into the place from whence the rivers come, thither they return again.

(k) Job xxxviii. 10. And brake up for it my decreed place, and set bars and doors,

11. And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further; and here shall thy proud waves be stayed?

Ps. civ. 6. Thou coveredst it with the deep as with a garment: the waters stood above the mountains.

7. At thy rebuke they fled; at the voice of thy thunder they hasted away.

8. They go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys unto the place which thou hast founded for them.

9. Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over, that they turn not again to cover the earth.

8 All things are (l) full of labour; man cannot utter it: (m) the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

(l) Matt. xi. 28. Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Rom. viii. 22. For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now:

23. And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the first-fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

(m) Ps. lxxiii. 5. My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips.

Prov. xxx. 15. The horse-leech hath two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, yea, four things say not, It is enough:

16. The grave; and the barren womb; the earth that is not filled with water; and the fire, that saith not, It is enough.

Matt. v. 6. Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

Rev. vii. 16. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat:

17. For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne, shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters; and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

9 The thing (n) that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done, is that which shall be done: (o) and there is no new thing under the sun.

(n) 2 Pet. ii. 1. But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

(o) Is. xliiii. 19. Behold, I will do a new thing: now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.

Jer. xxxi. 22. How long wilt thou go about, O thou backsliding daughter? for the Lord hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman shall compass a man.

Rev. xxi. 1. And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

5. And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

10 Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us.

11 There (p) is no remembrance of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come, with those that shall come after.

(p) Ps. ix. 6. O thou enemy! destructions are come to a perpetual end; and thou hast destroyed cities; their memorial is perished with them.

12 ¶ I the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem:

13 And (q) I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under heaven: (r) this sore travail hath God given to the sons of man, to be exercised therewith.

(q) Ps. cxii. 2. The works of the Lord are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

Prov. ii. 2. So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding;

3. Yea, if thou criest after knowledge, and liftest up thy voice for understanding;

4. If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures.

iv. 7. Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom; and with all thy getting, get understanding.

xxiii. 26. My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways.

1 Tim. iv. 15. Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them, that thy profiting may appear to all.

(r) Gen. iii. 19. In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return.

Ec. iii. 10. I have seen the travail which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it.

14 I have (s) seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

(s) Ps. xxxix. 5. Behold, thou hast made my days as an hand-breadth, and mine age is as nothing before thee: verily every man at his best state is altogether vanity. Selah.

6. Surely every man walketh in a vain show; surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

15 That which is (t) crooked cannot be made straight: and that which is wanting cannot be numbered.

(t) Is. xl. 4. Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain.

Lam. iii. 37. Who is he that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the Lord commandeth it not?

Matt. vi. 27. Which of you, by taking thought, can add one cubit unto his stature?

16 I (u) communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I am come to great estate, and have gotten more wisdom than all they that have been before me in Jerusalem: yea, my heart had great experience of wisdom and knowledge.

(u) Ps. iv. 4. Stand in awe, and sin not: commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still. Selah.

lxxvii. 6. I call to remembrance my song in the night: I commune with mine own heart; and my spirit made diligent search.

17 And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly: I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit.

18 For (x) in much wisdom is much grief; and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

(x) 1 Cor. iii. 18. Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise:

19. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God: for it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

20. And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

CHAPTER II.

I (a) SAID in mine heart, Go to, now, (b) I will prove thee with mirth; therefore enjoy pleasure: and, behold, this also is vanity.

(a) Ps. x. 6. He hath said in heart, I shall not be moved: for I shall never be in adversity.

xiv. 1. The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt; they have done abominable works; there is none that doeth good.

xxvii. 8. When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, Lord, will I seek.

Luke xii. 19. And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

(b) Luke xvi. 19. There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day.

23. And in hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

James v. 5. Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

Rev. xviii. 7. How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8. Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine: and she shall be utterly burnt with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

2 I said of laughter, (c) It is mad; and of mirth, What doeth it?

(c) Prov. xiv. 13. Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful; and the end of that mirth is heaviness.

Is. xxii. 12. And in that day did the Lord God of hosts call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth.

13. And, behold, joy and gladness, slaying oxen, and killing sheep, eating flesh and drinking wine: let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we shall die.

3 I (d) sought in mine heart to give myself unto wine, yet acquainting my heart with wisdom, (e) and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven all the days of their life.

(d) 1 Sam. xxv. 36. And Abigail came to Nabal; and, behold, he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a King; and Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light.

(e) Prov. xx. 1. Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.

Matt. vi. 24. No man can serve two masters; for, either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

4 I (f) made me great works; (g) I builded me houses; (h) I planted me vineyards:

(f) Gen. xi. 4. And they said, Go to, let us build us a city, and a tower whose top may reach unto heaven, and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.

2 Sam. xviii. 18. Now Absalom, in his lifetime, had taken and reared up for himself a pillar, which is in the king's dale: for he said, I have no son to keep my name in remembrance: and he called the pillar after his own name: and it is called unto this day, Absalom's place.

(g) Deut. viii. 12. Lest, when thou hast eaten, and art full, and hast built goodly houses, and dwelt therein;

13. And when thy herds and thy flocks multiply, and thy silver and thy gold is multiplied, and all that thou hast is multiplied;

14. Then thine heart be lifted up, and thou forget the Lord thy God, which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

1 Kings vii. 1. But Solomon was building his own house thirteen years, and he finished all his house.

2. He built also the house of the forest of Lebanon; the length thereof was an hundred cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits, upon four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars.

ix. 1. And it came to pass, when Solomon had finished the building of the house of the Lord, and the king's house, and all Solomon's desire, which he was pleased to do.

Ps. xlix. 11. Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling places to all generations: they call their lands after their own names.

(h) 1 Chr. xxvii. 27. And over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite: over the increase of the vineyards, for the wine-cellars, was Zabdi the Shiphmite.

Cant. i. 14. My beloved is unto me as a cluster of camphire in the vineyards of Eng-edi.

viii. 11. Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon; he let out the vineyard unto keepers: every one for the fruit thereof was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.

12. My vineyard, which is mine, is before me: thou, O Solomon, must have a thousand, and those that keep the fruit thereof two hundred.

Is. v. 1. Now will I sing to my well-beloved a song of my beloved, touching his vineyard. My well-beloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill.

5 I made (i) me gardens and orchards, and (k) I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits;

(i) Cant. vi. 2. My beloved is gone down into his garden, to the beds of spices, to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

Jer. xxxix. 4. And it came to pass, that when Zedekiah the king of Judah saw them, and all the men of war, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betwixt the two walls; and he went out the way of the plain.

(k) Gen. ii. 8. And the Lord God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed.

9. And out of the ground made the Lord God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food: the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

6 I made me (l) pools of water, (m) to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees:

(l) Neh. ii. 14. Then I went on to the gate of the fountain, and to the king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.

(m) Ps. i. 3. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season: his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

Jer. xvii. 8. For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh; but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit.

7 I got me servants and maidens, (n) and had servants born in my house; (o) also I had great possessions of great and small cattle, above all that were in Jerusalem before me;

(n) Gen. xvii. 12. And he that is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every man-child in your generations; he that is born in the house, or bought with money from any stranger, which is not of thy seed.

13. He that is born in thy house, and he that is bought with thy money, must needs be circumcised: and my covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

(o) Gen. xiii. 2. And Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold.

2 Kings iii. 4. And Mesha, king of Moab, was a sheep-master, and rendered unto the king of Israel an hundred thousand lambs, and an hundred thousand rams, with the wool.

Job i. 3. His substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she-asses, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the east.

xlii. 12. So the Lord blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she-asses.

8 I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces; I gat me (p) men-singers, and women-singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as musical instruments, and that of all sorts.

(p) 2 Sam. xix. 35. I am this day fourscore years old; and can I discern between good and evil? can thy servant taste what I eat, or what I drink? can I hear any more the voice of singing-men and singing-women? wherefore then should thy servant be yet a burden unto my lord the king?

Ezra ii. 65. Besides their servants and their maids, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and there were among them two hundred singing-men and singing-women.

9 So (q) I was great, and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom remained with me.

(q) 1 Kings iii. 12. Behold, I have done according to thy words; lo, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart, so that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee.

x. 7. Howbeit, I believed not the words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it; and, behold, the half was not told me: thy wisdom and prosperity exceedeth the fame which I heard.

23. So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth for riches and for wisdom.

10 And (r) whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them: I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labour, and this was my portion of all my labour.

(r) Gen. iii. 6. And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired, to make one wise; she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat; and gave also unto her husband with her, and he did eat.

vi. 2. That the sons of God saw the daughters of men, that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose.

Job xxxi. 1. I made a covenant with mine eyes; why then should I think upon a maid?

Ps. cxix. 37. Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity; and quicken thou me in thy way.

Prov. xxiii. 5. Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away, as an eagle toward heaven.

1 John ii. 16. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun.

12 ¶ And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and madness, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh after the king? even that which hath been already done.

13 Then (s) I saw that wisdom excelleth folly, as far as (t) light excelleth darkness.

(s) Prov. iv. 5. Get wisdom, get understanding; forget it not: neither decline from the words of my mouth.

6. Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee; love her, and she shall keep thee.

7. Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom; and with all thy getting get understanding.

(t) Ps. cxix. 105. Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

130. The entrance of thy word giveth light; it giveth understanding unto the simple.

Prov. iv. 18. But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

19. The way of the wicked is as darkness; they know not at what they stumble.

Matt. vi. 23. But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If, therefore, the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

Eph. v. 8. For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light.

14 The (u) wise man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also that one event happeneth to them all.

(u) Prov. xvii. 24. Wisdom is before him that hath understanding: but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.

1 John ii. 11. But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

15 Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it happeneth even to me; (x) and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity.

(x) 1 Kings iii. 12. Behold, I have done according to thy words: lo, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart, so that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee.

16 For (y) there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is, in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dieth the wise man? as the fool.

(y) Ps. ciii. 16. For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more.

Mal. iii. 16. Then they that feared the Lord spake often one to another; and the Lord hearkened, and heard it: and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his name.

17 Therefore (z) I hated life, because the (a) work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

(z) Num. xi. 15. And if thou deal thus with me, kill me, I pray thee, out of hand, if I have found favour in thy sight; and let me not see my wretchedness.

1 Kings xix. 4. But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat under a juniper-tree: and he requested for himself that he might die; and said, It is enough: now, O Lord, take away my life: for I am not better than my fathers.

Job iii. 20. Wherefore is light given to him that is in misery, and life unto the bitter in soul;

21. Which long for death, but it cometh not; and dig for it more than for hid treasures;

22. Which rejoice exceedingly, and are glad when they can find the grave?

vii. 15. So that my soul chooseth strangling, and death rather than my life.

16. I loath it; I would not live alway: let me alone, for my days are vanity.

xiv. 13. Oh that thou wouldst hide me in the grave, that thou wouldst keep me in secret until thy wrath be past, that thou wouldst appoint me a set time, and remember me!

Jon. iv. 3. Therefore now, O Lord, take, I beseech thee, my life from me: for it is better for me to die than to live.

8. And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live.

(a) Ez. iii. 14. So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of the Lord was strong upon me.

18 ¶ Yea, I hated all my labour which I had taken under the sun; because (b) I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me.

(b) Ps. xxxix. 6. Surely every man walketh in a vain show: surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

xlix. 10. For he seeth that wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their wealth to others.

19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have showed myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity.

20 Therefore I went about (c) to cause my heart to despair of all the labour, which I took under the sun.

(c) Job xvii. 11. My days are past, my purposes are broken off, even the thoughts of my heart.

12. They change the night into day: the light is short, because of darkness.

13. If I wait, the grave is mine house: I have made my bed in the darkness.

14. I have said to corruption, Thou art my father: to the worm, Thou art my mother, and my sister.

15. And where is now my hope? as for my hope, who shall see it?

1 Cor. xv. 19. If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

21 For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil.

22 For what (d) hath man of all his labour, (e) and of the vexation of his heart, wherein he hath laboured under the sun?

(d) Prov. xvi. 26. He that laboreth, laboreth for himself; for his mouth craveth it of him.

(e) Luke xii. 22. And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

29. And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind.

Phil. iv. 6. Be careful for nothing: but in every thing by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God.

23 For (f) all his days are sorrows, and his travail grief; yea, (g) his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity.

(f) Job v. 7. Yet man is born unto trouble, as the sparks fly upward.

xiv. 1. Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble.

Ps. xc. 7. For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled.

8. Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

9. For all our days are passed away in thy wrath; we spend our years as a tale that is told.

15. Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.

(g) Esth. vi. 1. On that night could not the king sleep; and he commanded to bring the book of records of the Chronicles; and they were read before the king.

Job vii. 13. When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint;

14. Then thou scarest me with dreams, and terrifiest me through visions.

Ps. vi. 6. I am weary with my groaning; all the night make I my bed to swim: I water my couch with my tears.

7. Mine eye is consumed because of grief: it waxeth old because of all mine enemies.

xxxii. 4. (For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me) my moisture is turned into the drought of summer. Selah.

lxxvii. 2. In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord: my sore ran in the night, and ceased not: my soul refused to be comforted.

3. I remembered God, and was troubled; I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah.

4. Thou holdest mine eyes waking: I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

Dan. vi. 18. Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting: neither were instruments of music brought before him; and his sleep went from him.

24 There is (h) nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, (i) that it was from the hand of God.

(h) Neh. viii. 10. Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord: neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the Lord is your strength.

1 Tim. vi. 17. Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high-minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy.

(i) Mal. ii. 2. If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the Lord of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings; yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

25 For who can eat, or who else can hasten hereunto, more than I?

26 For God giveth to a man that is good in his sight, (k) wisdom, and knowledge, and joy; but (l) to the sinner he giveth travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

(k) 2 Chr. xxxi. 20. And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah, and wrought that which was good, and right, and truth, before the Lord his God.

21. And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

Rom. xiv. 17. For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

18. For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

1 Cor. i. 30. But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption.

James iii. 17. But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.

(l) Job xxvii. 16. Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay;

17. He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.

Prov. xiii. 22. A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children; and the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just.

CHAPTER III.

TO (a) every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

(a) 2 Kings v. 26. And he said unto him, Went not mine heart with thee, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and olive-yards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and men-servants, and maid-servants?

Prov. xv. 23. A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth; and a word spoken in due season, how good is it?

2 A (b) time to be born, (c) and a time to die; (d) a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

(b) Gen. xvii. 21. But my covenant will I establish with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear unto thee at the set time in the next year.

xxi. 1. And the Lord visited Sarah as he had said, and the Lord did unto Sarah as he had spoken.

2. For Sarah conceived, and bare Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him.

2 Kings iv. 16. And he said, About this season, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son. And she said, Nay, my lord, thou man of God, do not lie unto thine handmaid.

17. And the woman conceived, and bare a son at that season that Elisha had said unto her, according to the time of life.

Acts vii. 17. But when the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt.

Gal. iv. 4. But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law.

(c) Gen. xlvii. 29. And the time drew nigh that Israel must die: and he called his son Joseph, and said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh, and deal kindly and truly with me; bury me not, I pray thee, in Egypt.

Deut. xxxiv. 5. So Moses, the servant of the Lord, died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the Lord.

Job vii. 1. Is there not an appointed time to man upon earth? are not his days also like the days of an hireling?

xiv. 5. Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months are with thee; thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass.

14. If a man die, shall he live again? All the days of my appointed time will I wait till my change come.

John vii. 30. Then they sought to take him; but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

Heb. ix. 27. And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment.

(d) Is. v. 2. And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a wine-press therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.

3. And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

4. What could have been done more to my vineyard that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?

5. And now, go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down.

Jer. i. 10. See, I have this day set thee over the nations, and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

xlv. 4. Thus shalt thou say unto him, The Lord saith thus, Behold, that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land.

Matt. xv. 13. But he answered and said, Every plant which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.

3 A (e) time to kill, and (f) a time to heal; (g) a time to break down, and a time to build up;

(e) Deut. xxxii. 39. See now that I, even I, am he, and there is no god with me: I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal: neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand.

1 Sam. ii. 6. The Lord killeth and maketh alive; he bringeth down to the grave, and bringeth up.

25. If one man sin against another, the judge shall judge him: but if a man sin against the Lord, who shall entreat for him? Notwithstanding, they hearkened not unto the voice of their father, because the Lord would slay them.

(f) Num. xxi. 6. And the Lord sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and much people of Israel died.

7. Therefore, the people came to Moses, and said, We have sinned; for we have spoken against the Lord, and against thee: pray unto the Lord, that he take away the serpents from us. And Moses prayed for the people:

8. And the Lord said unto Moses, Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it upon a pole; and it shall come to pass, that every one that is bitten, when he looketh upon it, shall live.

9. And Moses made a serpent of brass, and put it upon a pole: and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he beheld the serpent of brass he lived.

Jer. xxxiii. 6. Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth.

Luke ix. 54. And when his disciples, James and John, saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did?

55. But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.

56. For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

Acts v. 16. There came also a multitude out of the cities round about Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

(g) Is. v. 5. And now, go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down.

6. And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned nor digged; but there shall come up briars and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

xlv. 26. That confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers; that saith to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be inhabited; and to the cities of Judah, Ye shall be built; and I will raise up the decayed places thereof.

Jer. xxxi. 28. And it shall come to pass, that like as I have watched over them, to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them, to build, and to plant, saith the Lord.

xlv. 4. Thus shalt thou say unto him, The Lord saith thus, Behold, that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land.

4 A (h) time to weep, and (i) a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time (k) to dance;

(h) Ps. xxx. 5. For his anger endureth but a moment; in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

Ps. cxxvi. 1. When the Lord turned again the captivity of Zion, we were like them that dream.

2. Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing: then said they among the heathen, The Lord hath done great things for them.

5. They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.

6. He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall, doubtless, come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

Is. xxii. 12. And in that day did the Lord God of hosts call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth:

13. And, behold, joy and gladness, slaying oxen, and killing sheep, eating flesh and drinking wine: let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we shall die.

Matt. ix. 15. And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bride-chamber mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast.

John xvi. 20. Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21. A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22. And ye now, therefore, have sorrow; but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

(i) Gen. xxi. 6. And Sarah said, God hath made me to laugh, so that all that hear will laugh with me.

Luke i. 13. But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard: and thy wife Elizabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John.

14. And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth.

58. And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had showed great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her.

vi. 21. Blessed are ye that hunger now; for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now; for ye shall laugh.

22. Blessed are ye when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reprove you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.

23. Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

24. But wo unto you that are rich! for ye have received your consolation.

25. Wo unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. Wo unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep.

(k) Ex. xv. 20. And Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a timbrel in her hand; and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances.

2 Sam. vi. 16. And as the ark of the Lord came into the city of David, Michal, Saul's daughter, looked through a window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the Lord; and she despised him in her heart.

5 A time (l) to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; (m) a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

(l) Josh. iv. 5. And command ye them, saying, Take you hence out of the midst of Jordan, out of the place where the priests' feet stood firm, twelve stones, and ye shall carry them over with you, and leave them in the lodging-place where ye shall lodge this night.

4. Then Joshua called the twelve men, whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of every tribe a man;

5. And Joshua said unto them, Pass over before the ark of the Lord your God into the midst of Jordan, and take ye up every man of you a stone upon his shoulder, according unto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel:

6. That this may be a sign among you, that when your children ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What mean ye by these stones?

7. Then ye shall answer them, That the waters of Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the Lord; when it passed over Jordan, the waters of Jordan were cut off: and these stones shall be for a memorial unto the children of Israel for ever.

8. And the children of Israel did so as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the midst of Jordan, as the Lord spake unto Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and carried them over with them unto the place where they lodged, and laid them down there.

9. And Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests which bare the ark of the covenant stood: and they are there unto this day.

x. 27. And it came to pass, at the time of the going down of the sun, that Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave wherein they had been hid, and laid great stones in the cave's mouth, which remain until this very day.

2 Sam. xviii. 17. And they took Absalom, and cast him into a great pit in the wood, and laid a very great heap of stones upon him: and all Israel fled every one to his tent.

18. Now Absalom in his life-time had taken and reared up for himself a pillar, which is in the king's dale: for he said, I have no son to keep my name in remembrance; and he called the pillar after his own name: and it is called unto this day, Absalom's place.

2 Kings iii. 25. And they beat down the cities, and on every good piece of land cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the wells of water, and felled all the good trees: only in Kirharaseth left they the stones thereof; howbeit the slingers went about it, and smote it.

(m) Ex. xix. 15. And he said unto the people, Be ready against the third day: come not at your wives.

1 Sam. xxi. 4. And the priest answered David, and said, There is no common bread under mine hand: but there is hallowed bread, if the young men have kept themselves at least from women.

5. And David answered the priest, and said unto him Of a truth, women have been kept from us about these three days, since I came out, and the vessels of the young men are holy, and the bread is in a manner common, yea, though it were sanctified this day in the vessel.

Can. ii. 6. His left hand is under my head, and his right hand doth embrace me.

7. I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

1 Cor. vii. 5. Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 A (n) time to get, (o) and a time to lose; a time to keep, (p) and a time to cast away;

(n) Gen. xxx. 30. For it was little which thou hadst before I came, and it is now increased unto a multitude; and the Lord hath blessed thee since my coming: and now, when shall I provide for mine own house also?

xxxii. 18. And he carried away all his cattle, and all his goods which he had gotten, the cattle of his getting, which he had gotten in Padan-aram; for to go to Isaac his father in the land of Canaan.

Ex. xii. 35. And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses; and they borrowed of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment.

36. And the Lord gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they lent unto them such things as they required: and they spoiled the Egyptians.

2 Kings v. 26. And he said unto him, Went not mine heart with thee, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and olive-yards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and men-servants, and maid-servants?

(o) Matt. xvi. 25. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.

26. For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

xix. 29. And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundred-fold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

(p) 2 Kings vii. 15. And they went after them unto Jordan; and lo, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste: and the messengers returned and told the king.

Ps. cxii. 9. He hath dispersed; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness endureth for ever: his horn shall be exalted with honour.

Ec. xi. 1. Cast thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after many days.

Is. ii. 20. In that day a man shall cast his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which they made each one for himself to worship, to the moles and to the bats.

Jon. i. 5. Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his God; and cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them: but Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep.

Acts xxvii. 19. And the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

38. And, when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

7 A (q) time to rend, and a time to sew; a (r) time to keep silence, (s) and a time to speak;

(q) Gen. xxxvii. 29. And Reuben returned unto the pit: and, behold, Joseph was not in the pit; and he rent his clothes.

34. And Jacob rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his loins, and mourned for his son many days.

2 Sam. i. 11. Then David took hold on his clothes, and rent them, and likewise all the men that were with him.

iii. 31. And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were with him, Rend your clothes, and gird you with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. And king David himself followed the bier.

1 Kings xxi. 27. And it came to pass, when Ahab heard these words, that he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly.

Acts ix. 39. Then Peter arose, and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas made while she was with them.

(r) Job ii. 13. So they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great.

Ps. xxxix. 2. I was dumb with silence: I held my peace, even from good; and my sorrow was stirred.

Is. xxxvi. 21. But they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

Jer. viii. 14. Why do we sit still? assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the defenced cities, and let us be silent there; for the Lord our God hath put us to silence, and given us water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against the Lord.

Lam. iii. 28. He sitteth alone, and keepeth silence, because he hath borne it upon him.

Amos v. 13. Therefore the prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time.

viii. 3. And the songs of the temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord God: there shall be many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth with silence.

Mic. vii. 5. Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide; keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom:

(s) 1 Sam. xix. 4. And Jonathan spake good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, Let not the king sin against his servant, against David: because he hath not sinned against thee, and because his works have been to thee-ward very good.

5. For he did put his life in his hand, and slew the Philistine, and the Lord wrought a great salvation for all Israel: thou sawest it, and didst rejoice; wherefore then wilt thou sin against innocent blood, to slay David without a cause?

Esth. iv. 13. Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king's house more than all the Jews.

14. For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place: but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?

vii. 4. For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish: but if we had been sold for bond-men and bond-women, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not countervail the king's damage.

Prov. xxiv. 11. If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain;

12. If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works?

xxxii. 8. Open thy mouth for the dumb in the cause of all such as are appointed to destruction.

9. Open thy mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the poor and needy.

Luke xix. 37. And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice, and praise God with a loud voice, for all the mighty works that they had seen;

38. Saying, Blessed be the king that cometh in the name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39. And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40. And he answered and said unto them, I tell you, that if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out.

Acts iv. 20. For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.

8 A (t) time to love, and (u) a time to hate; (x) a time of war, and a time of peace.

(t) Ez. xvi. 8. Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness; yea, I swore unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord God, and thou becamest mine.

(u) 2 Chr. xix. 2. And Jehu, the son of Hanani the seer, went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the Lord? therefore is wrath upon thee from before the Lord.

Luke xiv. 26. If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.

(x) Gen. xiv. 14. And when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he armed his trained servants born in his own house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued them unto Dan.

15. And he divided himself against them, he and his servants, by night, and smote them, and pursued them unto Hobah, which is on the left hand of Damascus.

16. And he brought back all the goods, and also brought again his brother Lot, and his goods, and the women also, and the people.

17. And the king of Sodom went out to meet him, (after his return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer, and of the kings that were with him,) at the valley of Shaveh, which is the king's dale.

Josh. viii. 1. And the Lord said unto Joshua, Fear not, neither be thou dismayed; take all the people of war with thee, and arise, go up to Ai: see, I have given into thy hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land.

9 What (y) profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he labour-eth?

(y) Prov. xiv. 23. In all labour there is profit: but the talk of the lips tendeth only to penury.

Ec. i. 3. What profit hath a man of all his labour which he taketh under the sun?

ii. 11. Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do; and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun.

22. For what hath man of all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart, wherein he hath laboured under the sun?

23. For all his days are sorrows, and his travail grief; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity.

v. 16. And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came so shall he go: and what profit hath he that hath laboured for the wind?

Matt. xvi. 26. For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

10 I have (z) seen the travail which God hath given to the sons of men, to be exercised in it.

(z) Gen. iii. 19. In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return.

Ec. i. 13. And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under heaven: this sore travail hath God given to the sons of man, to be exercised therewith.

14. I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

ii. 26. For God giveth to a man that is good in his sight, wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth travail, to gather, and to heap up, that he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

1 Thess. ii. 9. For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

2 Thess. iii. 8. Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you.

11 He (a) hath made every thing beautiful in his time: (b) also he hath set the world in their heart, (c) so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.

(a) Gen. i. 31. And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

Deut. xxxii. 4. He is the Rock, his work is perfect; for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth, and without iniquity, just and right is he.

Ec. vii. 29. Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions.

Mark vii. 37. And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

(b) Matt. xiii. 22. He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

Rom. i. 19. Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath showed it unto them.

20. For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and godhead; so that they are without excuse.

28. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient.

(c) Job xi. 7. Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection?

xxxvii. 23. Touching the Almighty, we cannot find him out; he is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice: he will not afflict.

Ps. civ. 24. O Lord, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches.

Ec. viii. 17. Then I beheld all the work of God, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun; because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea, further, though a wise man think to know it, yet shall he not be able to find it.

Matt. xi. 27. All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.

Rom. xi. 33. O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

12 I know that there is no good in them, (d) but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life.

(d) Ec. ix. 7. Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart: for God now accepteth thy works.

8. Let thy garments be always white; and let thy head lack no ointment.

9. Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest under the sun.

Is. lxiv. 5. Thou meetest him that rejoiceth and worketh righteousness, those that remember thee in thy ways: behold, thou art wroth; for we have sinned: in those is continuance, and we shall be saved.

Phil. iv. 4. Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

5. Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.

6. Be careful for nothing: but in every thing by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God.

7. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

8. Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

9. Those things which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

1 Thess. v. 15. See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men.

16. Rejoice evermore.

13 And also (e) that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God.

(e) Deut. xxviii. 30. Thou shalt betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her: thou shalt build an house, and thou shalt not dwell therein: thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not gather the grapes thereof.

31. Thine ox shall be slain before thine eyes, and thou shalt not eat thereof: thine ass shall be violently taken away from before thy face, and shall not be restored to thee: thy sheep shall be given unto thine enemies, and thou shalt have none to rescue them.

47. Because thou servedst not the Lord thy God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, for the abundance of all things;

48. Therefore shalt thou serve thine enemies, which the Lord shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee.

Ps. cxxviii. 2. For thou shalt eat the labour of thine hands: happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee.

Ec. ii. 24. There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw that it was from the hand of God.

v. 18. Behold, that which I have seen: it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun all the days of his life, which God giveth him; for it is his portion.

19. Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour: this is the gift of God.

20. For he shall not much remember the days of his life; because God answereth him in the joy of his heart.

Is. lxxv. 21. And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

22. They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree are the days of my people, and mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

23. They shall not labour in vain, nor bring forth for trouble: for they are the seed of the blessed of the Lord, and their offspring with them.

14 I know that (f) whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: (g) nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and (h) God doeth it, that men should fear before him.

(f) Ps. xxxiii. 11. The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

cxix. 90. Thy faithfulness is unto all generations; thou hast established the earth, and it abideth.

91. They continue this day according to thine ordinances: for all are thy servants.

Is. xlvi. 10. Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure.

Dan. iv. 34. And at the end of the days, I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me: and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honoured him that liveth for ever, whose dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation.

35. And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou?

(g) Prov. xix. 21. There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless the counsel of the Lord, that shall stand.

xxi. 30. There is no wisdom, nor understanding, nor counsel, against the Lord.

(h) Ps. lxi. 9. And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God: for they shall wisely consider of his doing.

Is. lix. 18. According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompense to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompense.

19. So shall they fear the name of the Lord from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun: when the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord shall lift up a standard against him.

Rev. xv. 4. Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

15 That (i) which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already been; and God requireth that which is past.

(i) Ec. i. 9. The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done, is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun.

10. Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us.

16 ¶ And moreover, (h) I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there.

(k) Ps. lviii. 1. Do ye indeed speak righteousness, O congregation? do ye judge uprightly, O ye sons of men?

2. Yea, in heart ye work wickedness: ye weigh the violence of your hands in the earth.

lxxxii. 2. How long will ye judge unjustly, and accept the persons of the wicked? Selah.

3. Defend the poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and needy.

4. Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked.

5. They know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in darkness: all the foundations of the earth are out of course.

xciv. 20. Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law?

21. They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood.

Ec. iv. 1. So I returned, and considered all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and, behold, the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter.

v. 8. If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth: and there be higher than they.

Is. lix. 14. And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.

Mic. ii. 2. And they covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.

vii. 3. That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man he uttereth his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

Zeph. iii. 3. Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they gnaw not the bones till the morrow.

Matt. xxvi. 59. Now, the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death.

James ii. 6. But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment-seats?

17 I said in mine heart, (l) God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: (m) for there is a time there for every purpose, and for every work.

(l) Gen. xviii. 25. That be far from thee to do after this manner, to slay the righteous with the wicked; and that the righteous should be as the wicked, that be far from thee. Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?

Ps. xcvi. 9. Before the Lord: for he cometh to judge the earth: with righteousness shall he judge the world, and the people with equity.

Ec. xii. 14. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

Matt. xvi. 27. For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father, with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

xxv. 31. When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory:

32. And before him shall be gathered all nations; and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats:

33. And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

34. Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

35. For I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in:

36. Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

37. Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

38. When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

39. Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

40. And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

41. Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels;

42. For I was an hungered, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink:

43. I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

44. Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?

45. Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.

46. And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.

John v. 22. For the Father judgeth no man; but hath committed all judgment unto the Son.

26. For as the Father hath life in himself, so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself,

27. And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man.

28. Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

29. And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

Acts xvii. 31. Because he hath appointed a day in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

Rom. ii. 5. But, after thy hardness, and impenitent heart, treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath, and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;

6. Who will render to every man according to his deeds:

7. To them, who, by patient continuance in well doing, seek for glory, and honour, and immortality, eternal life:

8. But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath;

9. Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil; of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile.

1 Cor. iv. 5. Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then shall every man have praise of God.

2 Cor. v. 10. For we must all appear before the judgment-seat of Christ, that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

2 Thess. i. 6. Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;

7. And to you who are troubled, rest with us; when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels,

8. In flaming fire, taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:

9. Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;

10. When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

Rev. xx. 11. And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.

12. And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

13. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

14. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

15. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

(m) Acts i. 7. And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

1 Thess. v. 1. But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 Pet. iii. 7. But the heavens and the earth which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8. But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

18 I said in mine heart (n) concerning the estate of the sons of men, that God might manifest them, (o) and that they might see that they themselves are beasts.

(n) Job xiv. 1. Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble.

2. He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

3. And dost thou open thine eyes upon such an one, and bringest me into judgment with thee?

4. Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one.

Ps. xc. 5. Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep: in the morning they are like grass which groweth up.

6. In the morning it flourisheth and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

7. For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled.

8. Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

9. For all our days are passed away in thy wrath: we spend our years as a tale that is told.

10. The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

11. Who knoweth the power of thine anger? Even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath.

12. So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

Heb. ix. 27. And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment.

1 Pet. i. 24. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away.

(o) Ps. lxxiii. 22. So foolish was I and ignorant; I was as a beast before thee.

2 Pet. ii. 12. But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not, and shall utterly perish in their own corruption.

19 For (p) that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts;

even one thing befalleth them: (q) as the one dieth, so dieth the other: yea, they have all one breath: so that a man hath no pre-eminence above a beast; for all is vanity.

(p) Ps. xlix. 12. Nevertheless man being in honour abideth not: he is like the beasts that perish.

(q) 2 Sam. xiv. 14. For we must needs die, and are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again; neither doth God respect any person; yet doth he devise means that his banished be not expelled from him.

Job xiv. 10. But man dieth, and wasteth away; yea, man giveth up the ghost, and where is he?

11. As the waters fail from the sea, and the flood decayeth and drieth up;

12. So man lieth down, and riseth not: till the heavens be no more they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep.

civ. 29. Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled; thou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust.

20 All (r) go unto one place: (s) all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again.

(r) Gen. xxv. 8. Then Abraham gave up the ghost, and died in a good old age, an old man, and full of years; and was gathered to his people.

17. And these are the years of the life of Ishmael, an hundred and thirty and seven years: and he gave up the ghost and died, and was gathered unto his people.

Num. xxvii. 13. And when thou hast seen it thou also shalt be gathered unto thy people, as Aaron thy brother was gathered.

Job vii. 9. As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away, so he that goeth down to the grave shall come up no more.

xvii. 13. If I wait, the grave is mine house: I have made my bed in the darkness.

(s) Gen. iii. 19. In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return.

Job x. 9. Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast made me as the clay; and wilt thou bring me into dust again?

10. Hast thou not poured me out as milk, and curdled me like cheese?

Ps. civ. 29. Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled; thou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust.

21 Who (t) knoweth the spirit of man that goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth?

(t) Ec. xii. 7. Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was; and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

22 Wherefore, I perceive that there is (u) nothing better than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for that is his portion: for (x) who shall bring him to see what shall be after him?

(u) Deut. xii. 7. And there ye shall eat before the Lord your God; and ye shall rejoice in all that you put your hand unto, ye and your households, wherein the Lord thy God hath blessed thee.

18. But thou must eat them before the Lord thy God in the place which the Lord thy God shall choose, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy man-servant, and thy maid-servant, and the Levite that is within thy gates: and thou shalt rejoice before the Lord thy God in all that thou puttest thine hands unto.

xxvi. 10. And now, behold, I have brought the first-fruits of the land, which thou, O Lord, hast given me. And thou shalt set it before the Lord thy God, and worship before the Lord thy God.

11. And thou shalt rejoice in every good thing which the Lord thy God hath given unto thee, and unto thine house, thou, and the Levite, and the stranger that is among you.

Ec. ii. 10. And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them; I withheld not my heart from any joy: for my heart rejoiced in all my labour; and this was my portion of all my labour.

11. Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do; and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun.

24. There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw that it was from the hand of God.

viii. 15. Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry; for that shall abide with him of his labour, the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun.

(x) Job xiv. 21. His sons come to honour, and he knoweth it not; and they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them.

Ec. vi. 12. For who knoweth what is good for man in this life, all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as a shadow? for who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

viii. 7. For he knoweth not that which shall be: for who can tell him when it shall be?

x. 14. A fool also is full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him who can tell him?

CHAPTER IV.

SO (a) I returned, (b) and considered all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and, behold, (c) the tears of such as were oppressed, and (d) they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter.

(a) Mal. iii. 18. Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked; between him that serveth God, and him that serveth him not.

(b) Ex. i. 13. And the Egyptians made the children of Israel to serve with rigour.

14. And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, in mortar, and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field; all their service, wherein they made them serve, was with rigour.

22. And Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Every son that is born ye shall cast into the river, and every daughter ye shall save alive.

ii. 23. And it came to pass, in process of time, that the king of Egypt died; and the children of Israel sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried; and their cry came up unto God, by reason of their bondage.

24. And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.

Deut. xxviii. 33. The fruit of thy land, and all thy labours, shall a nation which thou knowest not eat up; and thou shalt be only oppressed and crushed alway.

48. Therefore shalt thou serve thine enemies, which the Lord shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee.

Job xxiv. 7. They cause the naked to lodge without clothing, that they have no covering in the cold;

8. They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and embrace the rock for want of a shelter;

9. They pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor:

10. They cause him to go naked without clothing, and they take away the sheaf from the hungry;

11. Which make oil within their walls, and tread their wine-presses, and suffer thirst.

12. Men groan from out of the city, and the soul of the wounded crieth out; yet God layeth not folly to them.

Psa. x. 9. He lieth in wait secretly as a lion in his den; he lieth in wait to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor when he draweth him into his net.

10. He croucheth, and humbleth himself, that the poor may fall by his strong ones.

(c) Psa. xlii. 3. My tears have been my meat day and night, while they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?

9. I will say unto God, my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me? why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

lxxx. 5. Thou feedest them with the bread of tears; and givest them tears to drink in great measure.

cii. 8. Mine enemies reproach me all the day; and they that are mad against me are sworn against me.

9. For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping.

James v. 4. Behold, the hire of the labourers which have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth; and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth.

(d) Job xvi. 4. I also could speak as ye do: if your soul were in my soul's stead, I could heap up words against you, and shake mine head at you.

xix. 21. Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O ye my friends; for the hand of God hath touched me.

22. Why do ye persecute me as God, and are not satisfied with my flesh?

Psa. lxi. 20. Reproach hath broken my heart, and I am full of heaviness: and I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none.

cxlii. 4. I looked on my right hand, and beheld; but there was no man that would know me: refuge failed me; no man cared for my soul.

Prov. xix. 7. All the brethren of the poor do hate him: how much more do his friends go far from him! he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.

Lam. i. 2. She weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks; among all her lovers she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they are become her enemies.

9. Her filthiness is in her skirts; she remembereth not her last end; therefore she came down wonderfully: she had no comforter. O Lord, behold my affliction; for the enemy hath magnified himself.

2 Wherefore (e) I praised the dead which are already dead, more than the living which are yet alive.

(e) Job iii. 17. There the wicked cease from troubling; and there the weary be at rest.

18. There the prisoners rest together; they hear not the voice of the oppressor.

19. The small and great are there; and the servant is free from his master.

20. Wherefore is light given to him that is in misery, and life unto the bitter in soul;

21. Which long for death, but it cometh not; and dig for it more than for hid treasures.

Ec. ii. 17. Therefore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

3 Yea, (f) better is he than both they which hath not yet been, (g) who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

(f) Job iii. 10. Because it shut not up the doors of my mother's womb, nor hid sorrow from mine eyes.

11. Why died I not from the womb? why did I not give up the ghost when I came out of the belly?

12. Why did the knees prevent me? or why the breasts that I should suck?

13. For now should I have lain still and been quiet, I should have slept: then had I been at rest.

14. With kings and counsellors of the earth, which built desolate places for themselves;

15. Or with princes that had gold, who filled their houses with silver:

16. Or as an hidden untimely birth I had not been: as infants which never saw light.

x. 18. Wherefore then hast thou brought me forth out of the womb? O that I had given up the ghost, and no eye had seen me!

19. I should have been as though I had not been: I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.

Ec. vi. 3. If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, and his soul be not filled with good, and also that he have no burial; I say, that an untimely birth is better than he:

4. For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness.

5. Moreover, he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing: this hath more rest than the other.

Jer. xx. 17. Because he slew me not from the womb; or that my mother might have been my grave, and her womb to be always great with me.

18. Wherefore came I forth out of the womb to see labour and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame?

(g) Psa. lv. 6. And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! for then would I fly away and be at rest.

7. Lo, then would I wander far off, and remain in the wilderness. Selah.

8. I would hasten my escape from the windy storm and tempest.

9. Destroy, O Lord, and divide their tongues: for I have seen violence and strife in the city.

10. Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof; mischief also and sorrow are in the midst of it.

11. Wickedness is in the midst thereof; deceit and guile depart not from her streets.

Jer. ix. 2. Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging-place of wayfaring men, that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they be all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men.

3. And they bend their tongues like their bow for lies; but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth: for they proceed from evil to evil, and they know not me, saith the Lord.

4 ¶ Again, I considered all travail, and every right work, that for this a man is envied of his neighbour. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

5 The (h) fool foldeth his hands together, and (i) eateth his own flesh.

(h) Prov. vi. 10. Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

11. So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth, and thy want as an armed man.

(i) Job xlii. 14. Wherefore do I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in mine hand?

Prov. xi. 17. The merciful man doeth good to his own soul; but he that is cruel troubleth his own flesh.

Is. ix. 20. And he shall snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied: they shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm.

6 Better is (k) an handful with quietness, than both the hands full with travail and vexation of spirit.

(k) Psa. xxxvii. 16. A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.

Prov. xv. 16. Better is little with the fear of the Lord, than great treasure, and trouble therewith.

17. Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox, and hatred therewith.

xvi. 8. Better is a little with righteousness than great revenues without right.

xvii. 1. Better is a dry morsel, and quietness therewith, than a house full of sacrifice with strife.

7 ¶ Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun.

8 There is (l) one alone, and there is not a second: yea, (m) he hath neither child nor brother; yet is there (n) no end of all his labour; neither (o) is his eye satisfied with riches; neither saith he, (p) For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, yea, it is a sore travail.

(l) Gen. ii. 18. And the Lord God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him.

Is. lvi. 3. Neither let the son of the stranger, that hath joined himself to the Lord, speak, saying, The Lord hath utterly separated me from his people: neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree.

4. For thus saith the Lord unto the eunuchs that keep my Sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my covenant;

5. Even unto them will I give in mine house, and within my walls, a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off.

(m) Gen. xv. 2. And Abram said, Lord God, what wilt thou give me, seeing I go childless, and the steward of my house is this Eliezer of Damascus?

3. And Abram said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed: and, lo, one born in my house is mine heir.

(n) Is. v. 8. Wo unto them that join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth!

(o) Prov. xxvii. 20. Hell and destruction are never full; so the eyes of man are never satisfied.

(p) Ps. xxxix. 6. Surely every man walketh in a vain show, surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

Luke xii. 20. But God said unto him, Thou fool! this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be which thou hast provided?

9 ¶ Two (q) are better than one; because they have (r) a good reward for their labour.

(q) Num. xi. 14. I am not able to bear all this people alone, because it is too heavy for me.

Mark vi. 7. And he calleth unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits.

Acts xiii. 2. As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them.

(r) Ruth ii. 12. The Lord recompense thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the Lord God of Israel, under whose wings thou art come to trust.

John iv. 36. And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal; that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

2 John 8. Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward.

10 For (s) if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: (t) but wo to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up.

(s) 1 Sam. xxiii. 16. And Jonathan, Saul's son, arose, and went to David into the wood, and strengthened his hand in God.

Job iv. 3. Behold, thou hast instructed many, and thou hast strengthened the weak hands.

4. Thy words have upholden him that was falling, and thou hast strengthened the feeble knees.

Is. xxxv. 3. Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees.

Gal. vi. 1. Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

(t) Gen. iv. 8. And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him.

2 Sam. xiv. 6. And thine handmaid had two sons, and they two strove together in the field, and there was none to part them, but the one smote the other, and slew him.

11 Again, (u) if two lie together, then they have heat; but how can one be warm alone?

(u) 1 Kings i. 1. Now king David was old, and stricken in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he gat no heat.

2. Wherefore, his servants said unto him, Let there be sought for my lord the king, a young virgin; and let her stand before the king, and let her cherish him, and let her lie in thy bosom, that my lord the king may get heat.

12 And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; (x) and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

(x) Eph. iv. 3. Endeavouring to keep the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace.

13 ¶ Better (y) is a poor and a wise child, than an old and foolish king, who will no more be admonished.

(y) Prov. xix. 1. Better is the poor that walketh in his integrity, than he that is perverse in his lips, and is a fool.

xxviii. 6. Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.

14 For (z) out of prison he cometh to reign; whereas (a) also he that is born in his kingdom becometh poor.

(z) Gen. xli. 14. Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon: and he shaved himself, and changed his raiment, and came in unto Pharaoh.

33. Now, therefore, let Pharaoh look out a man discreet and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt.

34. Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint officers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt in the seven plenteous years.

35. And let them gather all the food of those good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities.

36. And that food shall be for store to the land against the seven years of famine which shall be in the land of Egypt; that the land perish not through the famine.

37. And the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants.

38. And Pharaoh said unto his servants, Can we find such a one as this is, a man in whom the spirit of God is?

39. And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Forasmuch as God hath showed thee all this, there is none so discreet and wise as thou art.

40. Thou shalt be over my house, and according unto thy word shall all my people be ruled: only in the throne will I be greater than thou.

41. And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, See, I have set thee over all the land of Egypt.

42. And Pharaoh took off his ring from off his hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand, and arrayed him in vestures of fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck:

43. And he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had: and they cried before him, Bow the knee: and he made him ruler over all the land of Egypt.

44. And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I am Pharaoh, and without thee shall no man lift up his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt.

Ps. cxiii. 7. He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifeth the needy out of the dunghill;

8. That he may set him with princes, even with the princes of the people.

(a) Lam. iv. 20. The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the Lord, was taken in their pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen.

Dan. iv. 31. While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee.

15 I considered all the living which walk under the sun, with the second child that shall stand up in his stead.

16 There is no end of all the people, even of all that have been before them: they also that come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely (b) this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

(b) Ec. i. 14. I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

ii. 17. Therefore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAPTER V.

KEEP (a) thy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more (b) ready to hear, than to (c) give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil.

(a) Gen. xxviii. 16. And Jacob awaked out of his sleep, and he said, Surely the Lord is in this place, and I knew it not.

17. And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.

Ex. iii. 5. And he said, Draw not nigh hither: put off thy shoes from off thy feet; for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground.

Lev. x. 3. Then Moses said unto Aaron, This is that the Lord spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be glorified. And Aaron held his peace.

Josh. v. 15. And the captain of the Lord's host said unto Joshua, Loose thy shoe from off thy foot; for the place whereon thou standest is holy. And Joshua did so.

Ps. lxxxix. 7. God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him.

(b) Acts x. 33. Immediately, therefore, I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now, therefore, are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

xvii. 11. These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

James i. 19. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath.

(c) Gen. iv. 3. And in process of time it came to pass, that Cain brought of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the Lord:

4. And Abel, he also brought of the firstlings of his flock, and of the fat thereof. And the Lord had respect unto Abel, and to his offerings:

5. But unto Cain and to his offerings he had not respect. And Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell.

1 Sam. xiii. 12. Therefore, said I, The Philistines will come down upon me to Gilgal, and I have not made supplication unto the Lord: I forced myself, therefore, and offered a burnt-offering.

13. And Samuel said to Saul, Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandment of the Lord thy God, which he commanded thee; for now would the Lord have established thy kingdom upon Israel for ever.

xv. 21. But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice unto the Lord thy God in Gilgal.

22. And Samuel said, Hath the Lord as great delight in burnt-offerings and sacrifices as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice; and to hearken, than the fat of rams.

Ps. l. 8. I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices, or thy burnt-offerings, to have been continually before me.

9. I will take no bullock out of thy house, nor he-goat out of thy folds:

10. For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills.

11. I know all the fowls of the mountains; and the wild beasts of the field are mine.

12. If I were hungry, I would not tell thee; for the world is mine, and the fulness thereof.

13. Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?

14. Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows to the Most High:

15. And call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

16. But unto the wicked, God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldst take my covenant in thy mouth?

17. Seeing thou hatest instruction, and castest my words behind thee.

18. When thou sawest a thief, then thou consentedst with him, and hast been partaker with adulterers.

Prov. xv. 8. The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord: but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

xxi. 27. The sacrifice of the wicked is abomination: how much more when he bringeth it with a wicked mind?

Is. i. 12. When ye come to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts?

13. Bring no more vain oblations: incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with: it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting.

14. Your new moons, and your appointed feasts, my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them.

15. And, when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you; yea, when ye make many prayers I will not hear: your hands are full of blood.

Hos. vi. 6. For I desired mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt-offerings.

7. But they, like men, have transgressed the covenant; there have they dealt treacherously against me.

Mal. i. 10. Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the Lord of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand.

11. For from the rising of the sun, even unto the going down of the same, my name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the Lord of hosts.

2 Be (d) not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any thing before God: (e) for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore (f) let thy words be few.

(d) Gen. xviii. 27. And Abraham answered and said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord, which am but dust and ashes.

30. And he said unto him, Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak: Peradventure there shall thirty be found there? And he said, I will not do it if I find thirty there.

32. And he said, Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak yet but this once: Peradventure ten shall be found there? And he said, I will not destroy it for ten's sake.

Judg. xi. 30. And Jephthah vowed a vow unto the Lord, and said, If thou shalt, without fail, deliver the children of Ammon into mine hands, 31. Then it shall be, that whatsoever cometh forth of the doors of my house, to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, shall surely be the Lord's, and I will offer it up for a burnt-offering.

32. So Jephthah passed over unto the children of Ammon, to fight against them; and the Lord delivered them into his hands.

33. And he smote them from Aroer, even till thou come to Minnith, even twenty cities, and unto the plain of the vineyards, with a very great slaughter. Thus the children of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel.

34. And Jephthah came to Mizpeh, unto his house, and, behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels, and with dances; and she was his only child: besides her he had neither son nor daughter.

35. And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he rent his clothes, and said, Alas, my daughter! thou hast brought me very low, and thou art one of them that trouble me: for I have opened my mouth unto the Lord, and I cannot go back.

36. And she said unto him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth unto the Lord, do to me according to that which hath proceeded out of thy mouth: forasmuch as the Lord hath taken vengeance for thee of thine enemies, even of the children of Ammon.

Mark vi. 23. And he swore unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.

(e) Ps. cxv. 3. But our God is in the heavens; he hath done whatsoever he hath pleased.

Matt. vi. 9. After this manner, therefore, pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven; Hallowed be thy name.

(f) Prov. x. 19. In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin; but he that refraineth his lips is wise.

Matt. vi. 7. But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

3 For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; and (g) a fool's voice is known by multitude of words.

(g) Prov. xv. 2. The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright: but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness.

4 When thou (h) vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; (i) for he hath no pleasure in fools: (h) pay that which thou hast vowed.

(h) Num. xxx. 2. If a man vow a vow unto the Lord, or swear an oath to bind his soul with a bond; he shall not break his word, he shall do according to all that proceedeth out of his mouth.

Ps. l. 14. Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto the Most High.

lxxvi. 11. Vow, and pay unto the Lord your God: let all that be round about him bring presents unto him that ought to be feared.

cxix. 106. I have sworn, and I will perform it, that I will keep thy righteous judgments.

Matt. v. 33. Again, ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths.

(i) Mal. i. 10. Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the Lord of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand.

Heb. x. 6. In burnt-offerings and sacrifices for sin, thou hast had no pleasure.

(k) Ps. lxxvi. 13. I will go into thy house with burnt-offerings; I will pay thee my vows, 14. Which my lips have uttered, and my mouth hath spoken, when I was in trouble.

cxvi. 14. I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people.

Jon. ii. 9. But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the Lord.

5 (l) Better is it that thou shouldst not vow, than that thou shouldst vow and not pay.

(l) Deut. xxiii. 22. But if thou shalt forbear to vow, it shall be no sin in thee.

6 Suffer not (m) thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; neither say thou (n) before the angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and (o) destroy the work of thine hands?

(m) James i. 26. If any man among you seem to be religious, and brideth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

iii. 2. For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

(n) Gen. xlvi. 16. The angel which redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers, Abraham and Isaac: and let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth.

Hos. xii. 4. Yes, he had power over the angel, and prevailed; he wept and made supplication unto him: he found him in Beth-el, and there he spake with us;

5. Even the Lord God of hosts, the Lord is his memorial.

(o) Hag. i. 9. Ye looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did blow upon it. Why? saith the Lord of hosts. Because of mine house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house.

10. Therefore the heaven over you is stayed from dew, and the earth is stayed from her fruit.

11. And I called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labour of the hands.

2 John 8. Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward.

7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words, there are also divers vanities: (p) but fear thou God.

(p) Prov. xxiii. 17. Let not thine heart envy sinners: but be thou in the fear of the Lord all the day long.

8 ¶ If (q) thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, (r) marvel not at the matter: (s) for he that is higher than the highest (t) regardeth; and there be (u) higher than they.

(q) Ps. lv. 9. Destroy, O Lord, and divide their tongues: for I have seen violence and strife in the city.

Hab. i. 2. O Lord, how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save!

3. Why dost thou show me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me: and there are that raise up strife and contention.

(r) 1 John iii. 13. Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

Rev. xvii. 6. And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and, when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7. And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

(s) Is. lvii. 15. For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

Luke i. 32. He shall be great, and shall be called, The Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David.

76. And thou, child, shalt be called, The prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his way.

(t) Ps. x. 17. Lord, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear:

18. To judge the fatherless and the oppressed, that the man of the earth may no more oppress.

xii. 5. For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith the Lord: I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him.

Is. iii. 15. What mean ye that ye beat my people to pieces, and grind the faces of the poor? saith the Lord God of hosts.

Mal. iii. 5. And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the Lord of hosts.

(u) 1 Chr. xxi. 15. And God sent an angel unto Jerusalem, to destroy it; and as he was destroying, the Lord beheld, and he repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, It is enough, stay now thine hand. And the angel of the Lord stood by the thrashing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

16. And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of the Lord stand between the earth and the heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand, stretched out over Jerusalem: then David, and the elders of Israel, who were clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces.

Is. xxxvii. 36. Then the angel of the Lord went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians an hundred and fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

Matt. xiii. 41. The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity.

42. And shall cast them into a furnace of fire; there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

9 ¶ Moreover, (x) the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field.

(x) Gen. i. 29. And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed: to you it shall be for meat.

30. And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so.

Ps. civ. 14. He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man, that he may bring forth food out of the earth;

15. And wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart.

cxv. 16. The heaven, even the heavens, are the Lord's: but the earth hath he given to the children of men.

10 He (y) that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this is also vanity.

(y) Ps. lxxii. 10. Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery: if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

Ec. iv. 8. There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour, neither is his eye satisfied with riches; neither saith he, For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, yea it is a sore travail.

Hab. ii. 5. Yea also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people.

6. Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, Wo to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself with thick clay!

7. Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them?

Luke xii. 15. And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

1 Tim. vi. 10. For the love of money is the root of all evil; which, while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 When goods increase, (z) they are increased that eat them: and (a) what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes?

(z) Neh. v. 17. Moreover, there were at my table an hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, besides those that came unto us from among the heathen, that are about us.

18. Now, that which was prepared for me daily was one ox, and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days, store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this, required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people.

(a) Prov. xxiii. 5. Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away, as an eagle toward heaven.

Hab. ii. 13. Behold, is it not of the Lord of hosts, that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity?

12 The (b) sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much; but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

(b) Ps. iv. 8. I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for thou, Lord, only makest me dwell in safety.

cxxvii. 2. It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows: for so he giveth his beloved sleep.

Prov. iii. 24. When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid; yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet.

Jer. xxxi. 26. Upon this I awaked, and beheld, and my sleep was sweet unto me.

13 There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, (c) riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt.

(c) Luke xii. 16. And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully:

17. And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?

18. And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater: and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

19. And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

20. But God said unto him, Thou fool! this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?

21. So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich towards God.

1 Tim. vi. 9. But they that will be rich fall into temptation, and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction, and perdition.

James v. 3. Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days.

4. Behold, the hire of the labourers which have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth; and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth.

14 But (d) those riches perish by evil travail: (e) and he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand.

(d) Job v. 5. Whose harvest the hungry eateth up, and taketh it even out of the thorns, and the robber swalloweth up their substance.

xxvii. 16. Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay;

17. He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.

Ps. xxxix. 6. Surely every man walketh in a vain show; surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapech up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

Hag. i. 9. Ye looked for much, and lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home I did blow upon it. Why? saith the Lord of hosts. Because of mine house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house.

Matt. vi. 19. Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

20. But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal.

(c) 1 Sam. ii. 36. And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left in thine house shall come and crouch to him for a piece of silver, and a morsel of bread, and shall say, Put me, I pray thee, into one of the priest's offices; that I may eat a piece of bread.

15 As (f) he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand.

(f) Job i. 21. And said, Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord.

Ps. xlix. 17. For when he dieth he shall carry nothing away; his glory shall not descend after him.

Luke xii. 20. But God said unto him, Thou fool! this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be which thou hast provided?

1 Tim. vi. 7. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

16 And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and (g) what profit hath he that hath laboured (h) for the wind?

(g) 1 Sam. xii. 21. And turn ye not aside: for then should ye go after vain things, which cannot profit nor deliver; for they are vain.

Jer. ii. 8. The priests said not, Where is the Lord? and they that handle the law knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit.

Mark viii. 36. For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

(h) Prov. xi. 29. He that troubleth his own house shall inherit the wind; and the fool shall be servant to the wise of heart.

Is. xxvi. 18. We have been with child, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind; we have not wrought any deliverance in the earth, neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen.

Hos. viii. 7. For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk: the bud shall yield no meal; if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up.

17 All his days also (i) he eateth in darkness, and he hath (k) much sorrow and wrath with his sickness.

(i) Gen. iii. 17. And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life.

1 Kings xvii. 12. And she said, As the Lord thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but an handful of meal in a barrel, and a little oil in a cruse: and, behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in, and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die.

Job xxi. 25. And another dieth in the bitterness of his soul, and never eateth with pleasure.

Ps. cii. 9. For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping.

Ez. iv. 16. Moreover, he said unto me, Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem; and they shall eat bread by weight, and with care; and they shall drink water by measure, and with astonishment:

17. That they may want bread and water, and be astoned one with another, and consume away for their iniquity.

(k) 2 Kings i. 2. And Ahaziah fell down through a lattice in his upper chamber that was in Samaria, and was sick: and he sent messengers, and said unto them, Go, inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, whether I shall recover of this disease.

6. And they said unto him, There came a man up to meet us, and said unto us, Go turn again unto the king that sent you, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that thou sendest to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron? therefore thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.

2 Chr. xxiv. 25. And when they were departed from him [Joash] (for they left him in great diseases,) his own servants conspired against him, for the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him not in the sepulchres of the kings.

Ps. xc. 7. For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled.

9. For all our days are passed away in thy wrath; we spend our years as a tale that is told.

10. The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow: for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

11. Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear so is thy wrath.

18 Behold, that which I have seen: it is (l) good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun all the days of his life, which God giveth him: for (m) it is his portion.

(l) Ec. ii. 24. There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God.

ix. 7. Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God now accepteth thy works.

1 Tim. vi. 17. Charge them that are rich in this world that they be not high-minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy.

(m) Ec. ii. 10. And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them; I withheld not my heart from any joy: for my heart rejoiced in all my labour; and this was my portion of all my labour.

iii. 22. Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for that is his portion: for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him?

Jer. lii. 34. And for his diet there was a continual diet given him of the king of Babylon, every day a portion, until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

19 Every man also (n) to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour, this is the gift of God.

(n) Deut. viii. 18. But thou shalt remember the Lord thy God: for it is he that giveth thee power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant, which he swear unto thy fathers, as it is this day.

1 Kings iii. 13. And I have also given thee that which thou hast not asked, both riches and honour; so that there shall not be any among the kings like unto thee all thy days.

Ec. iii. 13. And also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God.

20 For he shall not much remember the days of his life; because God answereth him in the joy of his heart.

CHAPTER VI.

THERE is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men:

2 A (a) man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honour, (b) so that he wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he desireth; yet God giveth him not power to eat thereof, (c) but a stranger eateth it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

(a) 1 Kings iii. 13. And I have also given thee that which thou hast not asked, both riches and honour; so that there shall not be any among the kings like unto thee all thy days.

1 Chr. xxix. 25. And the Lord magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed upon him such royal majesty, as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

28. And he died in a good old age, full of days, riches, and honour; and Solomon, his son reigned in his stead.

Dan. v. 18. O thou king, the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour.

(b) Judg. xviii. 10. When ye go, ye shall come unto a people secure, and to a large land: for God hath given it into your hands; a place where there is no want of any thing that is in the earth.

Ps. xvii. 15. As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness.

lxxiii. 7. Their eyes stand out with fatness: they have more than heart could wish.

Luke xii. 19. And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

20. But God said unto him, Thou fool! this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?

(c) Ps. xxxix. 6. Surely every man walketh in a vain show: surely they are disquieted in vain; he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

Lam. v. 2. Our inheritance is turned to strangers, our houses to aliens.

Hos. vii. 9. Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not; yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he knoweth it not.

3 If (d) a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, (e) so that the days of his years be many, and his soul be not filled with good, (f) and also that he have no burial; I say, (g) that an untimely birth is better than he.

(d) Gen. xxxiii. 5. And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children, and said, Who are those with thee? And he said, The children which God hath graciously given thy servant.

1 Sam. ii. 20. And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife; and said, The Lord give thee seed of this woman, for the loan which is lent to the Lord. And they went unto their own home.

21. And the Lord visited Hannah, so that she conceived, and bare three sons and two daughters. And the child Samuel grew before the Lord.

2 Kings x. i. And Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, unto the rulers of Jezreel, to the elders, and to them that brought up Ahab's children, saying.

Esth. v. 11. And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king.

Prov. xvii. 6. Children's children are the crown of old men; and the glory of children are their fathers.

(e) Gen. xlvii. 9. And Jacob said unto Pharaoh, The days of the years of my pilgrimage are an hundred and thirty years: few and evil have the days of the years of my life been, and have not attained unto the days of the years of the life of my fathers, in the days of their pilgrimage.

(f) 2 Kings ix. 35. And they went to bury her: but they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands.

Is. xiv. 19. But thou art cast out of thy grave like an abominable branch, and as the raiment of those that are slain, thrust through with a sword, that go down to the stones of the pit; as a carcass trodden under feet.

20. Thou shalt not be joined with them in burial, because thou hast destroyed thy land, and slain thy people: the seed of evil-doers shall never be removed.

Jer. xxii. 19. He shall be buried with the burial of an ass, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

xxxvi. 30. Therefore, thus saith the Lord of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David; and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost.

(g) Job iii. 16. Or as an hidden untimely birth, I had not been; as infants which never saw light.

Ps. lviii. 8. As a snail which melteth, let every one of them pass away; like the untimely birth of a woman, that they may not see the sun.

4 For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness.

5 Moreover, he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing: (h) this hath more rest than the other.

(h) Job iii. 10. Because it shut not up the doors of my mother's womb, nor hid sorrow from mine eyes.

11. Why died I not from the womb? why did I not give up the ghost when I came out of the belly?

12. Why did the knees prevent me? or why the breasts that I should suck?

13. For now should I have lain still and been quiet, I should have slept: then had I been at rest.

6 Yea, (i) though he live a thousand years twice told, (k) yet hath he seen no good: (l) do not all go to one place?

(i) Gen. v. 5. And all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years: and he died.

Is. lxxv. 22. They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree are the days of my people, and mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

(k) Job vii. 7. O remember that my life is wind: mine eye shall no more see good.

Ps. iv. 6. There be many that say, Who will show us any good? Lord, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.

xxxiv. 12. What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good?

Jer. xvii. 6. For he shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, in a salt land and not inhabited.

(l) Job xxx. 23. For I know that thou wilt bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living.

Heb. ix. 27. And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment.

7 All (m) the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled.

(m) Prov. xvi. 26. He that laboreth, laboreth for himself; for his mouth craveth it of him.

Matt. vi. 25. Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

John vi. 27. Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed.

8 For what hath the wise more than the fool? what hath (n) the poor, that knoweth to walk before the living?

(n) Ps. ci. 2. I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way. O when wilt thou come unto me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.

cxvi. 9. I will walk before the Lord in the land of the living.

Prov. xix. 1. Better is the poor that walketh in his integrity, than he that is perverse in his lips, and is a fool.

Luke i. 6. And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

9 Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

10 That which hath been is named already, (o) and it is known that it is man: (p) neither may he contend with him that is mightier than he.

(o) Job xiv. 1. Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble.

2. He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

3. And dost thou open thine eyes upon such an one, and bringest me into judgment with thee?

4. Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one.

Ps. lxxxii. 6. I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the Most High.

7. But ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes.

ciii. 15. As for man, his days are as grass; as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.

(p) Job ix. 2. I know it is so of a truth: but how should man be just with God?

3. If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand.

4. He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength; who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered?

Rom. ix. 19. Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? for who hath resisted his will?

20. Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God. Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

11 ¶ Seeing there be many things that increase vanity, what is man the better?

12 For (q) who knoweth what is good for man in this life, all the days of (r) his vain life which he spendeth as a shadow? (s) for who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

(g) Ps. iv. 6. There be many that say, Who will show us any good? Lord, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us?

xvi. 5. The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot.

Mic. vi. 8. He hath showed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?

(r) Job viii. 9. For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, because our days upon earth are a shadow.

Ps. lxxxix. 47. Remember how short my time is: wherefore hast thou made all men in vain?

cii. 11. My days are like a shadow that declineth; and I am withered like grass.

cix. 23. I am gone like the shadow when it declineth: I am tossed up and down as the locust.

cxliv. 4. Man is like to vanity: his days are as a shadow that passeth away.

James iv. 14. Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow: for what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

(s) Job xiv. 20. His sons come to honour, and he knoweth it not; and they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them.

Ec. iii. 22. Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for that is his portion: for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him?

viii. 7. For he knoweth not that which shall be: for who can tell him when it shall be?

CHAPTER VII.

A GOOD (a) name is better than (b) precious ointment; and (c) the day of death than the day of one's birth.

(a) Prov. xxii. 1. A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favour rather than silver and gold.

Is. lvi. 5. Even unto them will I give in mine house, and within my walls, a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters; I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off.

Luke x. 20. Notwithstanding, in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

Heb. xi. 39. And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise.

(b) Ps. cxxxiii. 2. It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard; that went down to the skirts of his garments.

Prov. xxvii. 9. Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart; so doth the sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel.

Ec. x. 1. Dead flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour: so doth a little folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour.

Can. i. 3. Because of the savour of thy good ointments, thy name is as ointment poured forth, therefore do the virgins love thee.

iv. 10. How fair is thy love, my sister, my spouse! how much better is thy love than wine! and the smell of thine ointments than all spices!

John xii. 3. Then took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

(c) Job iii. 17. There the wicked cease from troubling; and there the weary be at rest.

Ec. iv. 2. Wherefore, I praised the dead which are already dead more than the living which are yet alive.

Is. lvii. 1. The righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart; and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come.

2. He shall enter into peace: they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness.

2 Cor. v. 1. For we know that, if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

8. We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

Phil. i. 21. For me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22. But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not.

23. For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better.

Rev. xiv. 13. And I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

2 It is (d) better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for (e) that is the end of all men; and the (f) living will lay it to his heart.

(d) Job i. 4. And his sons went and feasted in their houses, every one his day; and sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.

5. And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt-offerings according to the number of them all; for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and cursed God in their hearts. Thus did Job continually.

Is. v. 11. Wo unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine inflame them!

12. And the harp and the viol, the tabret and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts: but they regard not the work of the Lord, neither consider the operation of his hands.

xxii. 12. And in that day did the Lord God of hosts call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth:

13. And, behold, joy and gladness, slaying oxen, and killing sheep, eating flesh and drinking wine: let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we shall die.

14. And it was revealed in mine ears by the Lord of hosts, Surely this iniquity shall not be purged from you till ye die, saith the Lord God of hosts.

Amos vi. 3. Ye that put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near;

4. That lie upon beds of ivory, and stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall;

5. That chant to the sound of the viol, and invent to themselves instruments of music, like David;

6. That drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments; but they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.

Matt. v. 4. Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

(e) Num. xxiii. 10. Who can count the dust of Jacob, and the number of the fourth part of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his!

Deut. xxxii. 29. Oh that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end!

Rom. vi. 21. What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

22. But now, being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

Heb. ix. 27. And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment.

(f) Is. xlvii. 7. And thou saidst, I shall be a lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end of it.

Hag. i. 5. Now, therefore, thus saith the Lord of hosts, Consider your ways.

Mal. ii. 2. If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the Lord of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings; yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

3 Sorrow (g) is better than laughter; for (h) by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better.

(g) Ps. cxix. 67. Before I was afflicted I went astray; but now have I kept thy word.

71. It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes.

cxxvi. 5. They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.

6. He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall, doubtless, come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

Jer. xxxi. 8. Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the coasts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child, and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall return thither.

9. They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble; for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born.

15. Thus saith the Lord, A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping; Rachel weeping for her children, refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not.

16. Thus saith the Lord, Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work shall be rewarded, saith the Lord; and they shall come again from the land of the enemy.

17. And there is hope in thine end, saith the Lord, that thy children shall come again to their own border.

18. I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus; Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the Lord my God.

19. Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did hear the reproach of my youth.

20. Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still; therefore my bowels are troubled for him: I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the Lord.

1. 4. In those days, and in that time, saith the Lord, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, going and weeping: they shall go, and seek the Lord their God.

5. They shall ask the way to Zion, with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the Lord in a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.

Dan. x. 2. In those days I, Daniel, was mourning three full weeks.

3. I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

19. And said, O man greatly beloved, fear not; peace be unto thee; be strong, yea, be strong. And, when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

Zech. xii. 10. And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications; and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his first-born.

11. In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon.

12. And the land shall mourn, every family apart: the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart;

13. The family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of Shimei apart, and their wives apart;

14. All the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

Luke vi. 21. Blessed are ye that hunger now; for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now; for ye shall laugh.

25. Wo unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. Wo unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep.

John xvi. 20. Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice; and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21. A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22. And ye now therefore have sorrow; but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

2 Cor. vii. 9. Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry; but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10. For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11. For, behold, this self-same thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

James iv. 8. Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners, and purify your hearts, ye double-minded.

9. Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

10. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

(h) Rom. v. 3. And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

4. And patience, experience; and experience, hope.

2 Cor. iv. 17. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory.

Heb. xii. 10. For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness:

11. Now, no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

4 The (i) heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but (h) the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

(i) Neh. ii. 2. Wherefore the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid,

3. And said unto the king, Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire?

4. Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed to the God of heaven,

5. And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it.

Matt. viii. 14. And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever.

15. And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered unto them.

16. When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick.

John xi. 31. The Jews then, which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary that she rose up hastily, and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

32. Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33. When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled.

34. And said, Where have ye laid him? They say unto him, Lord, come and see.

35. Jesus wept.

(h) 1 Sam. xxv. 36. And Abigail came to Nabal; and, behold, he held a feast in his house like the feast of a king; and Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light.

xxx. 16. And, when he had brought him down, behold, they were spread abroad upon all the earth, eating, and drinking, and dancing, because of the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah.

2 Sam. xiii. 28. Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon's heart is merry with wine: and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon, then kill him, fear not: have not I commanded you? be courageous, and be valiant.

1 Kings xx. 16. And they went out at noon: but Benhadad was drinking himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty and two kings that helped him.

Is. xxi. 4. My heart panted, fearfulness afflicted me: the night of my pleasure hath he turned into fear unto me.

Jer. li. 39. In their heat I will make their feasts, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the Lord.

57. And I will make drunk her princes, and her wise men, her captains, and her rulers, and her mighty men: and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the King, whose name is the Lord of hosts.

Dan. v. 1. Belshazzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

2. Belshazzar, whiles he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem: that the king and his princes, his wives and his concubines, might drink therein.

3. Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king and his princes, his wives and his concubines, drank in them.

4. They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

30. In that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain.

Hos. vii. 5. In the day of our king the princes have made him sick with bottles of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorners.

Nah. i. 10. For while they be folden together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

5 It is (l) better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear (m) the song of fools.

(l) Ps. cxli. 5. Let the righteous smite me, it shall be a kindness; and let him reprove me, it shall be an excellent oil, which shall not break my head: for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities.

Prov. ix. 8. Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: rebuke a wise man, and he will love thee.

xiii. 13. Whoso despiseth the word shall be destroyed: but he that feareth the commandment shall be rewarded.

xv. 31. The ear that heareth the reproof of life abideth among the wise.

32. He that refuseth instruction despiseth his own soul: but he that heareth reproof getteth understanding.

xvii. 10. A reproof entereth more into a wise man than an hundred stripes into a fool.

xxvii. 6. Faithful are the wounds of a friend: but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.

Rev. iii. 19. As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous, therefore, and repent.

(m) Ps. lxxix. 12. They that sit in the gate speak against me; and I was the song of the drunkards.

6 For (n) as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is (o) the laughter of the fool: this also is vanity.

(n) Ps. lviii. 9. Before your pots can feel the thorns, he shall take them away as with a whirlwind, both living and in his wrath.

cxviii. 12. They compassed me about like bees; they are quenched as the fire of thorns: for in the name of the Lord I will destroy them.

Ec. ii. 2. I said of laughter, It is mad: and of mirth, What doeth it?

Luke vi. 25. Wo unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. Wo unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep.

(o) Prov. xxix. 9. If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.

7 ¶ Surely (p) oppression maketh a wise man mad; and (q) a gift destroyeth the heart.

(p) Deut. xxviii. 33. The fruit of thy land, and all thy labours, shall a nation which thou knowest not eat up; and thou shalt be only oppressed and crushed away:

34. So that thou shalt be mad, for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

65. And among these nations shalt thou find no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot have rest: but the Lord shall give thee there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind.

(q) Ex. xxiii. 8. And thou shalt take no gift; for the gift blindeth the wise, and perverteth the words of the righteous.

Deut. xvi. 19. Thou shalt not wrest judgment; thou shalt not respect persons, neither take a gift; for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous.

1 Sam. xii. 3. Behold, here I am: witness against me before the Lord, and before his anointed; whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I received any bribe to blind mine eyes therewith? and I will restore it you.

Prov. xvii. 23. A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosom to pervert the ways of judgment.

Is. i. 23. Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves; every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

8 (r) Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof; and (s) the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

(r) Luke xvi. 25. But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy life time receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

James v. 11. Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

1 Pet. i. 13. Wherefore, gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end, for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ.

(s) Prov. xiii. 10. Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well-advised is wisdom.

xiv. 29. He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding: but he that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly.

xv. 18. A wrathful man stirreth up strife: and he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife.

xvi. 32. He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.

xxviii. 25. He that is of a proud heart stirreth up strife: but he that putteth his trust in the Lord shall be made fat.

Luke xxi. 19. In your patience possess ye your souls.

Rom. ii. 7. To them who, by patient continuance in well doing, seek for glory, and honour, and immortality, eternal life;

8. But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath.

Heb. x. 36. For ye have need of patience; that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise.

James v. 8. Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

1 Pet. ii. 20. For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God.

21. For even hereunto were ye called; because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps.

v. 5. Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder: yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility; for God resisteth the proud and giveth grace to the humble.

6. Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time.

9 Be not (t) hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for (u) anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

(t) 1 Sam. xxv. 21. Now David had said, Surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow [Nabal] hath in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained unto him: and he hath required me evil for good.

22. So and more also do God unto the enemies of David, if I leave of all that pertain to him, by the morning light, any that pisseth against the wall.

2 Sam. xix. 43. And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, We have ten parts in the king, and we have also more right in David than ye: why then did ye despise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king? And the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

Esth. iii. 5. And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath.

6. And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had showed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.

Prov. xiv. 17. He that is soon angry dealeth foolishly: and a man of wicked devices is hated.

xvi. 32. He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.

Jon. iv. 9. And God said to Jonah, Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, I do well to be angry even unto death.

Eph. iv. 26. Be ye angry, and sin not; let not the sun go down upon your wrath;

27. Neither give place to the devil.

James i. 19. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath.

(u) Gen. iv. 5. But unto Cain and to his offering he had no respect. And Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell.

6. And the Lord said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen?

8. And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him.

Prov. xxvi. 23. Burning lips, and a wicked heart, are like a potsherd covered with silver dross.

24. He that hateth dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him;

25. When he speaketh fair, believe him not: for there are seven abominations in his heart.

26. Whose hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be showed before the whole congregation.

10 Say not thou, (x) What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not inquire wisely concerning this.

(x) Judg. vi. 13. And Gideon said unto him, Oh, my Lord, if the Lord be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and where be all his miracles which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the Lord bring us up from Egypt? but now the Lord hath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites.

Jer. xlv. 17. But we will certainly do whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of victuals, and were well, and saw no evil.

18. But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine.

19. And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink-offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink-offerings unto her, without our men?

11 ¶ Wisdom is good with an inheritance: and by it there is profit to them that see the sun.

12 For (y) wisdom is a defence, and money is a defence: but (z) the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

(y) Job i. 10. Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.

Prov. xiv. 20. The poor is hated even of his own neighbour: but the rich hath many friends.

xviii. 10. The name of the Lord is a strong tower: the righteous runneth into it, and is safe.

11. The rich man's wealth is his strong city; and as a high wall in his own conceit.

Is. xxxiii. 6. And wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times, and strength of salvation: the fear of the Lord is his treasure.

(z) Deut. xxx. 19. I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you, life and death, blessing and cursing:

therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live;

20. That thou mayest love the Lord thy God, and that thou mayest obey his voice, and that thou mayest cleave unto him; for he is thy life, and the length of thy days: that thou mayest dwell in the land which the Lord sware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them.

xxii. 47. For it is not a vain thing for you; because it is your life; and through this thing ye shall prolong your days in the land whither ye go over Jordan to possess it.

Prov. iii. 18. She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her; and happy is every one that retaineth her.

ix. 11. For by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased.

xi. 4. Riches profit not in the day of wrath; but righteousness delivereth from death.

John xii. 50. And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak, therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

xvii. 3. And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.

13 (a) Consider the work of God: for (b) who can make that straight, which he hath made crooked?

(a) Job xxxvii. 14. Hearken unto this, O Job: stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.

Ps. viii. 3. When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers; the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained.

cvi. 43. Whoso is wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the loving-kindness of the Lord.

Is. v. 12. And the harp and the viol, the tabret and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts: but they regard not the work of the Lord, neither consider the operation of his hands.

(b) Job ix. 12. Behold, he taketh away, who can hinder him? who will say unto him, What doest thou?

xi. 10. If he cut off, and shut up, or gather together, then who can hinder him?

xii. 14. Behold, he breaketh down, and it cannot be built again: he shutteth up a man, and there can be no opening.

Ec. i. 15. That which is crooked cannot be made straight; and that which is wanting cannot be numbered.

14 In (c) the day of prosperity be joyful, (d) but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath set the one over against the other, (e) to the end that man should find nothing after him.

(c) Ps. xxx. 11. Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness.

12. To the end that my glory may sing praise to thee, and not be silent. O Lord my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever.

xl. 3. And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God: many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the Lord.

(d) Deut. viii. 3. And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know, that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lord doth man live.

2 Chr. xxxiii. 12. And when he was in affliction he besought the Lord his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers,

13. And prayed unto him; and he was entreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the Lord he was God.

Pa. xciv. 12. Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O Lord, and teachest him out of thy law;

13. That thou mayest give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit be digged for the wicked.

cxix. 71. It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes.

Hug. i. 5. Now, therefore, thus saith the Lord of hosts, Consider your ways.

6. Ye have sown much, and bring in little: ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages, earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes.

7. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Consider your ways.

(c) Hos. ii. 6. Therefore, behold, I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

7. And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to my first husband; for then was it better with me than now.

15 All things (f) have I seen in the days of my vanity: (g) there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and (h) there is a wicked man that longeth his life in his wickedness.

(f) Gen. xlvii. 9. And Jacob said unto Pharaoh, The days of the years of my pilgrimage are an hundred and thirty years: few and evil have the days of the years of my life been, and have not attained unto the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage.

Ps. xxxix. 6. Surely every man walketh in a vain show; surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

Ec. ii. 23. For all his days are sorrows, and his travail grief; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity.

vi. 12. For who knoweth what is good for man in this life, all the days of his vain life, which he spendeth as a shadow? for who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

(g) 1 Sam. xxii. 18. And the king said to Doeg, Turn thou, and fall upon the priests. And Doeg the Edomite, turned, and he fell upon the priests, and slew on that day fourscore and five persons that did wear a linen ephod.

19. And Nob, the city of the priests, smote he with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and sucklings, and oxen, and asses, and sheep, with the edge of the sword.

1 Kings xxi. 13. And there came in two men, children of Belial, and sat before him: and the men of Belial witnessed against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did blaspheme God and the king. Then they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he died.

2 Chr. xxiv. 21. And they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones, at the commandment of the king, in the court of the house of the Lord.

22. Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada, his father, had done to him, but slew his son: and, when he died, he said, The Lord look upon it, and require it.

Job ix. 22. This is one thing, therefore I said it, He destroyeth the perfect and the wicked.

23. If the scourge slay suddenly, he will laugh at the trial of the innocent.

Ec. viii. 14. There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that there be just men, unto whom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked: again, there be wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous. I said, that this also is vanity.

Matt. xxiii. 34. Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes; and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city:

35. That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias, son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.

Acts vii. 52. Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which showed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers.

(h) Job xxi. 7. Wherefore do the wicked live, become old, yea, are mighty in power?

8. Their seed is established in their sight with them, and their offspring before their eyes.

9. Their houses are safe from fear, neither is the rod of God upon them.

10. Their bull gendereth, and faileth not; their cow calveth, and casteth not her calf.

11. They send forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.

12. They take the timbrel and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the organ.

13. They spend their days in wealth, and in a moment go down to the grave.

14. Therefore they say unto God, Depart from us, for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.

15. What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? and what profit should we have, if we pray unto him?

Ps. lxxiii. 3. For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

4. For there are no bands in their death; but their strength is firm.

5. They are not in trouble, as other men; neither are they plagued like other men.

6. Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain; violence covereth them as a garment.

7. Their eyes stand out with fatness: they have more than heart could wish.

8. They are corrupt, and speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak loftily.

9. They set their mouth against the heavens; and their tongue walketh through the earth.

10. Therefore his people return hither; and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them:

11. And they say, How doth God know? and is there knowledge in the Most High?

12. Behold, these are the ungodly who prosper in the world; they increase in riches.

13. Verily I have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocency.

Ec. viii. 12. Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him.

13. But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

Jer. xii. 1. Righteous art thou, O Lord, when

I plead with thee; yet let me talk with thee of thy judgments: Wherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? wherefore are all they happy that deal very treacherously?

2. Thou hast planted them; yea, they have taken root: they grow; yea, they bring forth fruit: thou art near in their mouth, and far from their reins.

16 Be (i) not righteous over-much; (k) neither make thyself over-wise: why shouldst thou destroy thyself?

(i) Math. vi. 1. Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.

ix. 14. Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?

xxiii. 5. But all their works they do for to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments.

23. Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint, and anise, and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

24. Ye blind guides! which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.

29. Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous.

Luke xviii. 12. I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

Phil. iii. 6. Concerning zeal, persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

(k) Gen. iii. 6. And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat; and gave also unto her husband with her, and he did eat.

Job xi. 12. For vain man would be wise, though man be born like a wild ass's colt.

xxviii. 28. And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding.

Prov. xxiii. 4. Labour not to be rich; cease from thine own wisdom.

Rom. xii. 3. For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.

I Cor. iii. 18. Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

20. And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

17 Be (l) not over-much wicked, neither be thou foolish: (m) why shouldst thou die before thy time?

(l) Jer. ii. 33. Why trimmest thou thy way to seek love? therefore hast thou also taught the wicked ones thy ways.

34. Also in thy skirts is found the blood of the souls of the poor innocents: I have not found it by secret search, but upon all these.

Ez. viii. 17. Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah, that they commit abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger; and, lo, they put the branch to their nose.

xvi. 20. Moreover, thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast borne unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them to be devoured. Is this, of thy whoredoms, a small matter?

James i. 1. Wherefore, lay apart all filthiness, and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

(m) Gen. xxxviii. 7. And Er, Judah's first-born, was wicked in the sight of the Lord; and the Lord slew him.

I Sam. xxv. 38. And it came to pass, about ten days after, that the Lord smote Nabal, that he died.

Job xv. 32. It shall be accomplished before his time, and his branch shall not be green.

33. He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine, and shall cast off his flower as the olive.

Ps. lv. 23. But thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction: bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days; but I will trust in thee.

Prov. x. 27. The fear of the Lord prolongeth days: but the years of the wicked shall be shortened.

18 It is (n) good that thou shouldst take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw not thine hand: (o) for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all.

(n) Prov. iv. 25. Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee.

26. Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established.

27. Turn not to the right hand, nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil.

viii. 20. I lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment.

Ec. xi. 6. In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thy hand: for thou knowest not whether shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good.

(o) Ec. viii. 12. Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him.

xii. 13. Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter; Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

Ps. xxv. 12. What man is he that feareth the Lord? him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose:

13. His soul shall dwell at ease; and his seed shall inherit the earth.

14. The secret of the Lord is with them that fear him; and he will show them his covenant.

19 Wisdom (p) strengtheneth the wise more than ten mighty men which are in the city.

(p) 2 Sam. xx. 16. Then cried a wise woman out of the city, Hear, hear; say, I pray you, unto Joab, Come near hither, that I may speak with thee.

17. And when he was come near unto her, the woman said, Art thou Joab? And he answered, I am he. Then she said unto him, Hear the words of thine handmaid. And he answered, I do hear.

18. Then she spake, saying, They were wont to speak in old time, saying, They shall surely ask counsel at Abel: and so they ended the matter.

19. I am one of them that are peaceable and faithful in Israel: thou seekest to destroy a city and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou swallow up the inheritance of the Lord?

20. And Joab answered and said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy.

21. The matter is not so: but a man of Mount Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, hath lifted up his hand against the king, even against David: deliver him only, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said unto Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall.

22. Then the woman went unto all the people in her wisdom: and they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and cast it out to Joab. And he blew a trumpet, and they retired from the city, every man to his tent. And Joab returned unto Jerusalem, unto the king.

Prov. xxi. 22. A wise man scaleth the city of the mighty, and casteth down the strength of the confidence thereof.

xxiv. 5. A wise man is strong; yea, a man of knowledge increaseth strength.

Ec. ix. 15. Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he, by his wisdom, delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

16. Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless, the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

17. The words of wise men are heard in quiet more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.

20 For (q) there is not a just man upon earth, that (r) doeth good, and sinneth not.

(q) 1 Kings viii. 46. If they sin against thee, (for there is no man that sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captives unto the land of the enemy, far or near.

Job xv. 14. What is man, that he should be clean? and he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?

15. Behold, he putteth no trust in his saints; yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight:

16. How much more abominable and filthy is man, which drinketh iniquity like water?

Ps. cxxx. 3. If thou, Lord, shouldst mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand?

cxliii. 2. And enter not into judgment with thy servant: for in thy sight shall no man living be justified.

Prov. xx. 9. Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin?

Is. liiii. 6. All we, like sheep, have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

Rom. iii. 23. For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God.

(r) Is. lxiv. 6. But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousness are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

21 Also take no heed (s) unto all words that are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant curse thee:

(s) 2 Sam. xvi. 10. And the king said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah? So let him curse, because the Lord hath said unto him, Curse David. Who shall then say, Wherefore hast thou done so?

22 For oftentimes (t) also thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others.

(t) Matt. xv. 19. For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies.

23 ¶ All this have I proved by wisdom: (u) I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me.

(u) 1 Kings iii. 11. And God said unto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself long life; neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies; but hast asked for thyself understanding to discern judgment;

12. Behold, I have done according to thy words: lo, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart; so that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee.

xi. 1. But king Solomon loved many strange women, together with the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, and Hittites;

2. Of the nations concerning which the Lord said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall not go in to them, neither shall they come in unto you; for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods: Solomon clave unto these in love.

3. And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines: and his wives turned away his heart.

4. For it came to pass, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods: and his heart was not perfect with the Lord his God, as was the heart of David his father.

5. For Solomon went after Ashtoreth, the goddess of the Zidonians, and after Milcom, the abomination of the Ammonites.

6. And Solomon did evil in the sight of the Lord, and went not fully after the Lord, as did David his father.

7. Then did Solomon build an high place for Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, in the hill that is before Jerusalem, and for Molech, the abomination of the children of Ammon.

8. And likewise did he for all his strange wives, which burnt incense, and sacrificed unto their gods.

Rom. i. 22. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools.

24 That (x) which is far off, and exceeding deep, who can find it out?

(x) Deut. xxx. 11. For this commandment, which I command thee this day, it is not hidden from thee, neither is it far off.

12. It is not in heaven, that thou shouldst say, Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it?

13. Neither is it beyond the sea, that thou shouldst say, Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it?

14. But the word is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it.

Job xi. 7. Canst thou by searching find out God? Canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection?

8. It is as high as heaven, what canst thou do? deeper than hell, what canst thou know?

Ps. xxxvi. 6. Thy righteousness is like the great mountains; thy judgments are a great deep: O Lord, thou preservest man and beast.

Is. lv. 8. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord.

9. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

Rom. xi. 33. O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

25 I applied mine heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to (y) know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness:

(y) Josh. vii. 13. Up, sanctify the people, and say, Sanctify yourselves against to-morrow; for thus saith the Lord God of Israel, There is an accursed thing in the midst of thee, O Israel: thou canst not stand before thine enemies, until ye take away the accursed thing from among you.

2 Sam. xiii. 12. And she answered him, Nay, my brother, do not force me: for no such thing ought to be done in Israel: do not thou this folly.

Prov. xvii. 12. Let a bear robbed of her whelps meet a man rather than a fool in his folly.

Ec. ix. 3. This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

x. 13. The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness; and the end of his talk is mischievous madness.

26 And (z) I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: whoso pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her.

(z) Judg. xvi. 18. And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come up this once; for he hath showed me all his heart. Then the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and brought money in their hand.

19. And she made him sleep upon her knees: and she called for a man, and she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head; and she began to afflict him, and his strength went from him.

20. And she said, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and said, I will go out, as at other times before, and shake myself. And he wist not that the Lord was departed from him.

21. But the Philistines took him, and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters of brass; and he did grind in the prison-house.

Prov. ii. 18. For her house inclineth unto death, and her paths unto the dead.

19. None that go unto her return again, neither take they hold of the paths of life.

v. 3. For the lips of a strange woman drop as an honey-comb, and her mouth is smoother than oil:

4. But her end is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword.

5. Her feet go down to death, her steps take hold on hell.

xxii. 14. The mouth of strange women is a deep pit; he that is abhorred of the Lord shall fall therein.

27 Behold, this have I found, saith the Preacher, counting one by one, to find out the account;

28 Which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not: (a) one man among a thousand have I found; (b) but a woman among all those have I not found.

(a) Job xxxiii. 23. If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to show unto man his uprightness.

Ps. xii. 1. Help, Lord, for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.

(b) 1 Kings xi. 1. But king Solomon loved many strange women, together with the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, and Hittites;

2. Of the nations concerning which the Lord said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall not go in to them, neither shall they come in unto you: for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods. Solomon clave unto these in love.

3. And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines: and his wives turned away his heart.

29 Lo, this only have I found, that (c) God hath made man upright; but (d) they have sought out many inventions.

(c) Gen. i. 26. And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness, and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

27. So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

v. 1. This is the book of the generations of Adam: In the day that God created man, in the likeness of God made he him.

(d) Gen. iii. 6. And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat; and gave also unto her husband with her, and he did eat.

7. And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked: and they sewed fig-leaves together, and made themselves aprons.

vi. 5. And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

11. The earth also was corrupt before God; and the earth was filled with violence.

12. And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt: for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

xi. 4. And they said, Go to, let us build us a city, and a tower whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.

5. And the Lord came down to see the city, and the tower, which the children of men builded.

6. And the Lord said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do.

Ps. xcix. 8. Thou answeredst them, O Lord our God; thou wast a God that forgavest them, though thou tookest vengeance of their inventions.

cv. 29. Thus they provoked him to anger with their inventions; and the plague brake in upon them.

39. Thus were they defiled with their own works, and went a whoring with their own inventions.

Jer. ii. 12. Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the Lord:

13. For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

Mark vii. 8. For, laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

9. And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

CHAPTER VIII.

WHO is as the wise man? and (a) who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? (b) a man's wisdom maketh his face to shine, (c) and the boldness of his face shall be changed.

(a) Gen. xl. 8. And they said unto him, We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Joseph said unto them, Do not interpretations belong to God? tell me them, I pray you.

xli. 15. And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it: and I have heard say of thee, that thou canst understand a dream to interpret it.

16. And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, It is not in me: God shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace.

Prov. i. 6. To understand a proverb, and the interpretation: the words of the wise, and their dark sayings.

Dan. ii. 28. But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these;

29. As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter; and he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass:

30. But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.

47. The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret.

2 Pet. i. 20. Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scriptures is of any private interpretation.

(b) Ex. xxxiv. 29. And it came to pass, when Moses came down from Mount Sinai with the two tables of testimony in Moses' hand, (when he came down from the mount,) that Moses wist not that the skin of his face shone, while He talked with him.

30. And when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone: and they were afraid to come nigh him.

Matt. xvii. 2. And was transfigured before them; and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

Acts vi. 15. And all that sat in the council, looking steadfastly on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

(c) Deut. xxviii. 50. A nation of fierce countenance, which shall not regard the person of the old, nor show favour to the young.

2 ¶ (d) I counsel thee to keep the king's commandment, and that (e) in regard of the oath of God.

(d) Prov. xxiv. 21. My son, fear thou the Lord and the king; and meddle not with them that are given to change.

Rom. xiii. 1. Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers; for there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God.

2. Whosoever, therefore, resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God; and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation:

3. For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? Do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

4. For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain; for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

Tit. iii. 1. Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work.

1 Pet. ii. 13. Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme;

14. Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evil-doers, and for the praise of them that do well.

15. For so is the will of God, that with well-doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

16. As free, and not using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness, but as the servants of God.

17. Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.

(e) 1 Kings ii. 43. Why then hast thou not kept the oath of the Lord, and the commandment that I have charged thee with?

Ez. xvii. 18. Seeing he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, when, lo, he had given his hand, and hath done all these things, he shall not escape.

19. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, As I live, surely mine oath that he hath despised, and my covenant that he hath broken, even it will I recompense upon his own head.

3 Be (f) not hasty to go out of his sight: (g) stand not in an evil thing; (h) for he doeth whatsoever pleaseth him.

(f) Prov. xiv. 29. He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding: but he that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly.

Ec. x. 4. If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, leave not thy place; for yielding pacifieth great offences.

(g) 1 Kings i. 50. And Adonijah feared because of Solomon, and arose and went, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.

51. And it was told Solomon, saying, Behold, Adonijah feareth king Solomon: for, lo, he hath caught hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let king Solomon swear unto me to-day, that he will not slay his servant with the sword.

52. And Solomon said, If he will show himself a worthy man, there shall not an hair of him fall to the earth: but if wickedness shall be found in him he shall die.

Is. xlviii. 4. Because I knew that thou art obstinate, and thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass.

(h) Prov. xvi. 14. The wrath of a king is as messengers of death: but a wise man will pacify it.

15. In the light of the king's countenance is life; and his favour is as a cloud of the latter rain.

Dan. iv. 35. And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou?

v. 19. And, for the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would, he slew; and whom he would, he kept alive; and whom he would, he set up; and whom he would, he put down.

4 Where (i) the word of a king is, there is power: and who may say unto him, (k) What doest thou?

(i) 1 Kings ii. 29. And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled unto the tabernacle of the Lord, and, behold, he is by the altar; then Solomon sent Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go, fall upon him.

30. And Benaiah came to the tabernacle of the Lord, and said unto him, Thus saith the king, Come forth. And he said, Nay; but I will die here. And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me.

31. And the king said unto him, Do as he hath said, and fall upon him, and bury him; that thou mayest take away the innocent blood, which Joab shed, from me, and from the house of my father.

32. And the Lord shall return his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, my father David not knowing thereof, to wit, Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and Amasa, the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah.

33. Their blood shall therefore return upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for ever: but upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be peace for ever from the Lord.

34. So Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, went up, and fell upon him, and slew him; and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.

Dan. iii. 15. Now, if ye be ready, that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made, well; but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?

(k) Job xxxiii. 12. Behold, in this thou art not just; I will answer thee, that God is greater than man.

13. Why dost thou strive against him? for he giveth not account of any of his matters.

Rom. ix. 20. Nay, but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

5 Whoso (l) keepeth the commandment shall feel no evil thing; and (m) a wise man's heart discerneth both time and judgment.

(l) Luke xx. 25. And he said unto them, Render, therefore, unto Cesar the things which are Cesar's, and unto God the things which be God's.

Acts v. 29. Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men.

Rom. xiii. 5. Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.

6. For, for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7. Render, therefore, to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

1 Pet. iii. 13. And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

14. But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye; and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled.

(m) Luke xii. 56. Ye hypocrites! ye can discern the face of the sky, and of the earth; but how is it that ye do not discern this time?

57. Yea, and why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right?

6 ¶ Because (n) to every purpose there is time and judgment, (o) therefore the misery of man is great upon him.

(n) Ec. iii. 1. To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven.

17. I said in mine heart, God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every purpose, and for every work.

(o) Luke xix. 42. Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

43. For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side,

44. And shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

7 For (p) he knoweth not that which shall be: for who can tell him when it shall be?

(p) Prov. xxiv. 22. For their calamity shall rise suddenly; and who knoweth the ruin of them both?

Ec. vi. 12. For who knoweth what is good for man in this life, all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as a shadow? for who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

x. 14. A fool also is full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him who can tell him?

Matt. xxiv. 44. Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not, the Son of man cometh.

1 Thess. v. 1. But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

2. For yourselves know perfectly, that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

8 There (q) is no man that hath power over the spirit, to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no discharge in that war; (r) neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it.

(q) 2 Sam. xiv. 14. For we must needs die, and are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again; neither doth God respect any person; yet doth he devise means that his banished be not expelled from him.

Job xiv. 5. Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months are with thee; thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass.

Ps. xlix. 7. None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him;

8. (For the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever;)

9. That he should still live for ever, and not see corruption.

lxxxix. 48. What man is he that liveth, and shall not see death? shall he deliver his soul from the hand of the grave? Selah.

(r) Ps. lii. 5. God shall likewise destroy thee for ever: he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling-place, and root thee out of the land of the living. Selah.

6. The righteous also shall see, and fear, and shall laugh at him.

7. Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.

Is. xxviii. 15. Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehoods have we hid ourselves.

18. And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it.

9 All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: (s) there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his own hurt.

(s) Deut. ii. 30. But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him: for the Lord thy God hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, that he might deliver him into thy hand, as appeareth this day.

Ec. v. 8. If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they.

10 And (t) so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from (u) the place of the holy; and (x) they were forgotten in the city where they had so done: this is also vanity.

(t) 2 Kings ix. 34. And when he [Jehu] was come in he did eat and drink, and said, Go, see now this cursed woman, and bury her: for she is a king's daughter.

35. And they went to bury her; but they found no more of her than the scull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands.

Job xxi. 13. They spend their days in wealth, and in a moment go down to the grave.

Luke xvi. 22. And it came to pass that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried.

(u) Ps. cxiii. 1. I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord.

2. Our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Jerusalem.

3. Jerusalem is builded as a city that is compact together:

4. Whither the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord, unto the testimony of Israel, to give thanks unto the name of the Lord.

5. For there are set thrones of judgment, the thrones of the house of David.

Acts vi. 13. And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law.

(x) Ps. xxxi. 12. I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like a broken vessel.

Prov. x. 7. The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot.

Ec. ii. 16. For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is, in the days to come shall all be forgotten: and how dieth the wise man? as the fool.

ix. 5. For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten.

11 Because (y) sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily; therefore the heart of the sons of men is (z) fully set in them to do evil.

(y) Ex. viii. 15. But when Pharaoh saw that there was respite, he hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them; as the Lord had said.

Ps. i. 21. These things hast thou done, and I kept silence; thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as myself: but I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.

22. Now, consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver.

Is. v. 18. Wo unto them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart-ropes:

19. That say, Let him make speed, and hasten his work, that we may see it; and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it!

lvii. 11. And of whom hast thou been afraid or feared, that thou hast lied, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? have not I held my peace even of old, and thou fearest me not?

2 Pet. iii. 3. Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking in their own lusts,

4. And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5. For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water:

6. Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:

7. But the heavens and the earth which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8. But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

9. The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

10. But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night: in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also, and the works that are therein, shall be burnt up.

(z) Jer. xlii. 15. And now, therefore, hear the word of the Lord, ye remnant of Judah, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, If ye wholly set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there;

16. Then it shall come to pass, that the sword, which ye feared, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine, whereof ye were afraid, shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there ye shall die.

12 Though (a) a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet (b) surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which (c) fear before him.

(a) Prov. xiii. 21. Evil pursueth sinners: but to the righteous good shall be repaid.

Is. lxx. 20. There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old; but the sinner, being an hundred years old, shall be accursed.

Rom. ix. 22. What if God, willing to show his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much long-suffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction.

2 Pet. ii. 9. The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished.

(b) Ps. xxxvii. 11. But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

18. The Lord knoweth the days of the upright; and their inheritance shall be for ever.

Prov. i. 32. For the turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.

33. But whose hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.

Ec. vii. 18. It is good that thou shouldest take hold of this: yea, also from this withdraw not thine hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all.

Is. iii. 10. Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him; for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

11. Wo unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him: for the reward of his hands shall be given him.

Matt. xxv. 34. Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

(c) 1 Chr. xvi. 30. Fear before him, all the earth: the world also shall be stable, that it be not moved.

Ps. xcvi. 9. O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth.

13 But (d) it shall not be well with the wicked, (e) neither shall he prolong his days, which are (f) as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

(d) Job xviii. 5. Yea, the light of the wicked shall be put out, and the spark of his fire shall not shine.

Ps. xi. 5. The Lord trieth the righteous: but the wicked, and him that loveth violence, his soul hateth.

Is. lvii. 21. There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

Mal. iii. 18. Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked; between him that serveth God, and him that serveth him not.

Matt. xiii. 49. So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just,

50. And shall cast them into the furnace of fire; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

John v. 29. And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

(e) Ps. lv. 23. But thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction: bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days; but I will trust in thee.

Is. xxx. 13. Therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant.

2 Pet. ii. 3. And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

(f) Job vii. 6. My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope.

7. O remember that my life is wind: mine eye shall no more see good.

xiv. 2. He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

Ps. xxxix. 5. Behold, thou hast made my days as an hand-breadth, and mine age is as nothing before thee: verily every man at his best state is altogether vanity. Selah.

cxliv. 4. Man is like to vanity: his days are as a shadow that passeth away.

James iv. 14. Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow: for what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

14 ¶ There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that (g) there be just men, unto whom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there be wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous: I said, that this also is vanity.

(g) Job ix. 22. This is one thing, therefore I said it, He destroyeth the perfect and the wicked.

Ec. vii. 15. All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that longeth his life in his wickedness.

ix. 1. For all this I considered in my heart, even to declare all this, that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them.

2. All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath.

Mal. iii. 15. And now we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness are set up; yea, they that tempt God are even delivered.

15 Then (h) I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry: for that shall abide with him of his labour, the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun.

(h) Ec. ii. 24. There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw that it was from the hand of God.

16 When I applied mine heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth: (for also (i) there is that neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes:)

(i) Gen. xxxi. 40. Thus I was; in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep departed from mine eyes.

Ps. cxxvii. 2. It is vain for you to rise up early, to set up late, to eat the bread of sorrows: for so he giveth his beloved sleep.

Ec. ii. 23. For all his days are sorrows, and his travail grief; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity.

v. 12. The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

17 Then I beheld all the work of God, (k) that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it: yea, farther; though a wise man think to know it, yet shall he not be able to find it.

(k) Job v. 9. Which doeth great things and unsearchable; marvellous things without number.

xi. 7. Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection?

8. It is as high as heaven, what canst thou do? deeper than hell, what canst thou know?

9. The measure thereof is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea.

Ps. civ. 24. O Lord, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches.

Prov. xxx. 3. I neither learned wisdom, nor have the knowledge of the holy.

4. Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? who hath gathered the wind in his fists? who hath bound the waters in a garment? who hath established all the ends of the earth? what is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell?

Ec. iii. 11. He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart; so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.

Rom. xi. 33. O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

CHAPTER IX.

FOR all this I considered in my heart, even to declare all this, that (a) the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: (b) no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them.

(a) Deut. xxxiii. 3. Yea, he loved the people; all his saints are in thy hand: and they sat down at thy feet: every one shall receive of thy words.
1 Sam. ii. 9. He will keep the feet of his saints, and the wicked shall be silent in darkness; for by strength shall no man prevail.

2 Sam. xv. 25. And the king said unto Zadok, Carry back the ark of God into the city; if I shall find favour in the eyes of the Lord, he will bring me again, and show me both it and his habitation.

26. But if he thus say, I have no delight in thee; behold, here am I, let him do to me as seemeth good unto him.

Job v. 8. I would seek unto God, and unto God would I commit my cause.

Psa. xxxi. 5. Into thine hand I commit my spirit: thou hast redeemed me, O Lord God of truth.

John x. 27. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

28. And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any pluck them out of my hand.

29. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and none is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.

30. I and my Father are one.

(b) Psa. lxxiii. 3. For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

11. And they say, How doth God know? and is there knowledge in the Most High?

12. Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world; they increase in riches.

13. Verily I have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocency.

Mal. iii. 15. And now we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness are set up; yea, they that tempt God are even delivered.

16. Then they that feared the Lord spake often one to another; and the Lord hearkened, and heard it: and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his name.

17. And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

2 All things come (c) alike to all: there is one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: (d) as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that (e) feareth an oath.

(c) Job xxi. 7. Wherefore do the wicked live, become old, yea, are mighty in power?

Ec. ii. 14. The wise man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also that one event happeneth to them all.

15. Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it happeneth even to me: and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity.

16. For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is, in the days to come shall all be forgotten: and how dieth the wise man? as the fool.

(d) Ec. viii. 14. There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that there be just men, unto whom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked: again, there be wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous. I said, that this also is vanity.

(e) Gen. xxiv. 3. And I will make thee swear by the Lord, the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites; among whom I dwell.

8. And if the woman will not be willing to follow thee, then thou shalt be clear from this my oath: only bring not my son thither again.

9. And the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and swore to him concerning that matter.

Josh. ii. 17. And the men said unto her, [Rahab] We will be blameless of this thine oath which thou hast made us swear.

18. Behold, when we come into the land, thou shalt bind this line of scarlet thread in the window, which thou didst let us down by; and thou shalt bring thy father, and thy mother, and thy brethren, and all thy father's household, home unto thee.

19. And it shall be, that whosoever shall go out of the doors of thy house into the street, his blood shall be upon his head, and we will be guiltless; and whosoever shall be with thee in the house, his blood shall be on our head, if any hand be upon him.

20. And if thou utter this our business, then we will be quit of thine oath which thou hast made us to swear.

1 Sam. xiv. 26. And when the people were come into the wood, behold, the honey dropped, but no man put his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the oath.

Ex. xvii. 18. Seeing he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, when, lo, he had given his hand, and hath done all these things, he shall not escape.

19. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, As I live, surely mine oath that he hath despised, and my covenant that he hath broken, even it will I recompense upon his own head.

Zech. v. 3. Then said he unto me, This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side, according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side, according to it.

4. I will bring it forth, saith the Lord of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it, with the timber thereof, and the stones thereof.

3 This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea, (f) also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, (g) and madness is in their heart while they live, and (h) after that they go to the dead.

(f) Gen. vi. 5. And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

viii. 21. And the Lord smelled a sweet savour; and the Lord said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake; for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth: neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done.

Job xv. 16. How much more abominable and filthy is man, which drinketh iniquity like water?

Psa. li. 5. Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

Ec. viii. 11. Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

Ser. xvii. 9. The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?

(g) Ec. i. 17. And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly; I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit.

Luke vi. 11. And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

Acts xxvi. 11. And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

2 Pet. ii. 16. But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass, speaking with man's voice, forbade the madness of the prophet.

(h) Prov. xiv. 32. The wicked is driven away in his wickedness: but the righteous hath hope in his death.

Ec. xii. 7. Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was; and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

4 For (i) to him that is joined to all the living, there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

(i) Is. xxxviii. 18. For the grave cannot praise thee; death cannot celebrate thee: they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.

5 For (k) the living know that they shall die; but (l) the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; (m) for the memory of them is forgotten.

(k) Job xxx. 23. For I know that thou wilt bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living.

Ec. vii. 2. It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart.

(l) Job xiv. 21. His sons come to honour, and he knoweth it not; and they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them.

Psa. vi. 5. For in death there is no remembrance of thee; in the grave who shall give thee thanks?

lxxxviii. 10. Wilt thou show wonders to the dead? shall the dead arise and praise thee? Selah.

11. Shall thy loving-kindness be declared in the grave? or thy faithfulness in destruction?

(m) Ps. cix. 15. Let them be before the Lord continually, that he may cut off the memory of them from the earth.

Is. xxvi. 14. They are dead, they shall not live; they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore hast thou visited and destroyed them, and made all their memory to perish.

6 Also (n) their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither (o) have they any more a portion for ever, in any thing that is done under the sun.

(n) Job iii. 17. There the wicked cease from troubling; and there the weary be at rest.

18. There the prisoners rest together; they hear not the voice of the oppressor.

Ps. cxlvi. 3. Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.

4. His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish.

(o) Ec. vi. 12. For who knoweth what is good for man in this life, all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as a shadow? for who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

7 (p) Go thy way, (q) eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; (r) for God now accepteth thy works.

(p) Gen. xii. 19. Why saidst thou, She is my sister? so I might have taken her to me to wife: now, therefore, behold thy wife, take her, and go thy way.

Mark vii. 29. And he [Jesus] said unto her, For this saying, go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

John iv. 50. Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

(q) Deut. xvi. 14. And thou shalt rejoice in thy feast, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy man-servant, and thy maid-servant, and the Levite, the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are within thy gates.

15. Seven days shalt thou keep a solemn feast unto the Lord thy God, in the place which the Lord shall choose: because the Lord thy God shall bless thee in all thy increase, and in all the works of thy hands, therefore thou shalt surely rejoice.

1 Kings viii. 66. On the eighth day he [Solomon] sent the people away: and they blessed the king, and went unto their tents joyful and glad of heart, for all the goodness that the Lord had done for David his servant, and for Israel his people.

(r) Gen. iv. 4. And Abel, he also brought of the firstlings of his flock, and of the fat thereof. And the Lord had respect unto Abel and to his offering:

5. But unto Cain and to his offering he had not respect. And Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell.

Acts x. 35. But in every nation, he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

8 Let (s) thy garments be always white; and (t) let thy head lack no ointment.

(s) 2 Sam. xix. 24. And Mephibosheth, the son of Saul, came down to meet the king, and had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came again in peace.

Esth. viii. 15. And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king, in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad.

Rev. iii. 4. Thou hast a few names even in Sardis, which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.

5. He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

vii. 9. After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands.

13. And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?

14. And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

xix. 8. And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

14. And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

(t) Ruth iii. 3. Wash thyself, therefore, and anoint thee, and put thy raiment upon thee, and get thee down to the floor; but make not thyself known unto the man, until he shall have done eating and drinking.

2 Sam. xiv. 2. And Joab sent to Tekoah, and fetched thence a wise woman, and said unto her, I pray thee, feign thyself to be a mourner, and put on now mourning apparel, and anoint not thyself with oil, but be as a woman that had a long time mourned for the dead.

Dan. x. 3. I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

Matt. vi. 17. But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thy head, and wash thy face.

9 Live joyfully (u) with the wife whom thou lovest, (x) all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: (y) for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest under the sun.

(u) Prov. v. 18. Let thy fountain be blessed; and rejoice with the wife of thy youth.

19. Let her be as the loving hind and pleasant roe; let her breasts satisfy thee at all times, and be thou ravished always with her love.

Mal. ii. 15. And did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.

(x) Ps. xxxix. 5. Behold, thou hast made my days as an hand-breadth, and mine age is as no-thing before thee: verily every man at his best state is altogether vanity. Selah.

cxliv. 4. Man is like to vanity: his days are as a shadow that passeth away.

(y) Ec. ii. 10. And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them; I withheld not my heart from any joy: for my heart rejoiced in all my labour; and this was my portion of all my labour.

v. 18. Behold that which I have seen: it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun, all the days of his life, which God giveth him; for it is his portion.

10 Whatsoever (z) thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; (a) for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

(z) Num. xiii. 30. And Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it.

Jer. xxix. 13. And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart.

Eph. v. 16. Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.

Col. iii. 23. And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men.

(a) Ps. vi. 5. For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the grave, who shall give thee thanks?

Is. xxxviii. 18. For the grave cannot praise thee; death cannot celebrate thee: they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.

19. The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day; the father to the children shall make known thy truth.

John ix. 4. I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.

11 ¶ I (b) returned, and saw under the sun, (c) that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; (d) but time and chance happeneth to them all.

(b) Mal. iii. 18. Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked; between him that serveth God, and him that serveth him not.

(c) 1 Sam. xvii. 50. So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand of David.

Ps. xxxiii. 16. There is no king saved by the multitude of a host: a mighty man is not delivered by much strength.

17. A horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great strength.

cxlvii. 10. He delighteth not in the strength of the horse; he taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man.

Jer. ix. 23. Thus saith the Lord, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches.

xlvi. 6. Let not the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; they shall stumble, and fall toward the north, by the river Euphrates.

(d) Job xxxiv. 29. When he giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only.

Prov. xxi. 30. There is no wisdom, nor understanding, nor counsel, against the Lord.

31. The horse is prepared against the day of battle: but safety is of the Lord.

Lam. iii. 37. Who is he that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the Lord commandeth it not?

38. Out of the mouth of the Most High proceedeth not evil and good?

12 For (e) man also knoweth not his time: (f) as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are (g) the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

(e) Ec. viii. 6. Because to every purpose there is time and judgment; therefore the misery of man is great upon him.

2 Cor. vi. 2. For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee; behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.

(f) Hab. i. 14. And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that have no ruler over them.

15. They take up all of them with the angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their drag: therefore they rejoice and are glad.

16. Therefore they sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag: because by them their portion is fat, and their meat plenteous.

17. Shall they therefore empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations?

2 Tim. ii. 26. And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

(g) Job xviii. 8. For he is cast into a net by his own feet, and he walketh upon a snare.

9. The gin shall take him by the heel, and the robber shall prevail against him.

10. The snare is laid for him in the ground, and a trap for him in the way.

Ps. xi. 6. Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and a horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.

Prov. vi. 15. Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly; suddenly shall he be broken without remedy.

Is. xxx. 13. Therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant.

1 Thess. v. 3. For when they shall say, Peace and safety: then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

13 ¶ This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great unto me:

14 There (h) was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it:

(h) 2 Sam. xx. 15. And they came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-maach, and they cast up a bank against the city, and it stood in the trench: and all the people that were with Joab battered the wall, to throw it down.

16. Then cried a wise woman out of the city, Hear, hear; say, I pray you, unto Joab, Come near hither, that I may speak with thee.

17. And when he was come near unto her, the woman said, Art thou Joab? And he answered, I am he. Then she said unto him, Hear the words of thine handmaid. And he answered, I do hear.

18. Then she spake, saying, They were wont to speak in old time, saying, They shall surely ask counsel at Abel: and so they ended the matter.

19. I am one of them that are peaceable and faithful in Israel: thou seekest to destroy a city and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou swallow up the inheritance of the Lord?

20. And Joab answered and said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy.

21. The matter is not so: but a man of Mount Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, hath lifted up his hand against the king, even against David: deliver him only, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said unto Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall.

22. Then the woman went unto all the people in her wisdom. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and cast it out to Joab. And he blew a trumpet, and they retired from the city, every man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem unto the king.

15 Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; (i) yet no man remembered the same poor man.

(i) Gen. xl. 23. Yet did not the chief butler remember Joseph, but forgot him.

Esth. vi. 2. And it was found written, That Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the door, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

3. And the king said, What honour and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this? Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, There is nothing done for him.

16 Then said I, (k) Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless (l) the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

(k) Prov. xxi. 22. A wise man scaleth the city of the mighty, and casteth down the strength of the confidence thereof.

xxiv. 5. A wise man is strong; yea, a man of knowledge increaseth strength.

Ec. vii. 19. Wisdom strengtheneth the wise more than ten mighty men which are in the city.

(l) Prov. x. 15. The rich man's wealth is his strong city: the destruction of the poor is their poverty.

Mark vi. 2. And when the sabbath-day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?

3. Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, and Joses, and of Juda, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended at him.

17 The words (m) of wise men are heard in quiet, more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.

(m) James iii. 17. But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.

18. And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war; but (n) one sinner destroyeth much good.

(n) Josh. vi. 11. Israel hath sinned, and they have also transgressed my covenant which I commanded them: for they have even taken of the accursed thing, and have also stolen, and dissembled also, and they have put it even among their own stuff.

12. Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they were accursed: neither will I be with you any more, except ye destroy the accursed from among you.

xxii. 20. Did not Achan, the son of Zerah, commit a trespass in the accursed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? and that man perished not alone in his iniquity?

Tit. i. 10. For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:

11. Whose mouths must be stopped; who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

Heb. xii. 15. Looking diligently, lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled.

CHAPTER X.

DEAD flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour: so doth (a) a little folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour.

(a) Neh. xiii. 26. Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless even him did outlandish women cause to sin.

2 A (b) wise man's heart is at his right hand; (c) but a fool's heart is at his left.

(b) Prov. xv. 8. The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way: but the folly of fools is deceit.

(c) Prov. xvii. 16. Wherefore is there a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, seeing he hath no heart to it?

3 Yea also, when he that is a fool walketh by the way, his wisdom faileth him, (d) and he saith to every one that he is a fool.

(d) Prov. xiii. 16. Every prudent man dealth with knowledge: but a fool layeth open his folly.

xviii. 2. A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself.

4 ¶ If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, leave not thy place; (e) for yielding pacifieth great offences.

(e) Prov. xxv. 15. By long-forbearing is a prince persuaded, and a soft tongue breaketh the bone.

5 ¶ There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an error which proceedeth from the ruler :

6 (f) Folly is set in great dignity, and (g) the rich sit in low place.

(f) 1 Kings xii. 13. And the king answered the people roughly, and forsook the old men's counsel that they gave him;

14. And spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, and I will add to your yoke: my father also chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

Esth. iii. 1. After these things did king Ahasuerus promote Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him.

Ps. xii. 8. The wicked walk on every side, when the vilest men are exalted.

(g) James ii. 3. And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4. Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5. Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?

7 I (h) have seen servants upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth.

(h) Prov. xix. 10. Delight is not seemly for a fool; much less for a servant to have rule over princes.

xxx. 22. For a servant when he reigneth, and a fool when he is filled with meat.

8 He (i) that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaketh an hedge, (k) a serpent shall bite him.

(i) Esth. vii. 10. So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

Ps. vii. 15. He made a pit, and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made.

16. The mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate.

ix. 15. The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net which they hid is their own foot taken.

16. The Lord is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah.

Prov. xxvi. 27. Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein; and he that rolleth a stone, it will return upon him.

(k) Amos v. 19. As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

ix. 3. And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them.

9 Whoso removeth stones shall be hurt therewith; and he that cleaveth wood shall be endangered thereby.

10 If the iron be blunt, and he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but (l) wisdom is profitable to direct.

(l) 1 Kings iii. 9. Give, therefore, thy servant an understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy so great a people?

Matth. x. 16. Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye, therefore, wise as serpents, and harmless as doves.

11 ¶ Surely (m) the serpent will bite without enchantment; and a babbler is no better.

(m) Ps. lviii. 4. Their poison is like the poison of a serpent; they are like the deaf adder that stoppeth her ear;

5. Which will not hearken to the voice of charmers, charming never so wisely.

Jer. viii. 17. For, behold, I will send serpents, cockatrices, among you, which will not be charmed, and they shall bite you, saith the Lord.

12 The (n) words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; (o) but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.

(n) Job xvi. 5. But I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the moving of my lips should assuage your grief.

Ps. xxxvii. 30. The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgment.

xl. 9. I have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have not refrained my lips, O Lord, thou knowest.

10. I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy loving-kindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

Luke iv. 22. And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this Joseph's son?

Eph. iv. 29. Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

Col. iv. 6. Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

(o) 2 Sam. i. 16. And David said unto him, Thy blood be upon thy head: for thy mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I have slain the Lord's anointed.

Ps. lxiv. 8. So they shall make their own tongue to fall upon themselves: all that see them shall flee away.

cxl. 9. As for the head of those that compass me about, let the mischief of their own lips cover them.

Luke xix. 22. And he saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow.

13 The (p) beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness; and the end of his talk is mischievous madness.

(p) Prov. xxix. 9. If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.

Acts xix. 24. For a certain man, named Demetrius, a silver-smith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen;

25. Whom he called together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

26. Moreover, ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they be no gods which are made with hands:

27. So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worshippeth.

28. And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

14 A fool also is full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him, who can tell him?

15 The (q) labour of the foolish wearieth every one of them: because he knoweth not how to go to the city.

(q) Is. xlvii. 12. Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail.

13. Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee.

Hab. ii. 13. Behold, is it not of the Lord of hosts, that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity?

16 ¶ Wo to thee, O land, (r) when thy king is a child; (s) and thy princes eat in the morning!

(r) 2 Chr. xiii. 7. And there are gathered unto him vain men, the children of Belial, and have strengthened themselves against Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tender-hearted; and could not withstand them.

Is. iii. 4. And I will give children to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them.

5. And the people shall be oppressed every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, and the base against the honourable.

12. As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths.

(s) Is. v. 11. Wo unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine inflame them!

12. And the harp and the viol, the tabret and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts: but they regard not the work of the Lord, neither consider the operation of his hands.

17 Blessed art thou, O land, (t) when thy king is the son of nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!

(t) Jer. xxx. 21. And their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall proceed from the midst of them; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach unto me: for who is this that engaged his heart to approach unto me? saith the Lord.

18 By much (u) slothfulness the building decayeth; and through idleness of the hands the house drop-peth through.

(u) Prov. xiv. 1. Every wise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands.

xxi. 25. The desire of the slothful killeth him; for his hands refuse to labour.

xxiii. 21. For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty; and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.

xxiv. 30. I went by the field of the slothful, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding;

31. And, lo, it was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered the face thereof, and the stone wall thereof was broken down.

19 A (x) feast is made for laughter, (y) and wine maketh merry; (z) but money answereth all things.

(x) Gen. xliii. 34. And he took and sent messes unto them from before him: but Benjamin's mess was five times so much as any of theirs. And they drank, and were merry with him.

(y) Ps. civ. 15. And wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart.

(z) Ezra i. 6. And all they that were about them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, besides all that was willingly offered.

Matt. xvii. 27. Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth thou shalt find a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

Luke xvi. 9. And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

20 (a) Curse not the king, no, not in thy thought; and curse not the rich in thy bed-chamber: for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter.

(a) Ex. xxii. 28. Thou shalt not revile the gods, nor curse the ruler of thy people.

Is. viii. 21. And they shall pass through it hardly bestead and hungry: and it shall come to pass, that, when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and curse their king and their God, and look upward.

CHAPTER XI.

CAST (a) thy bread upon the waters; (b) for thou shalt find it after many days.

(a) Deut. xv. 7. If there be among you a poor man of one of thy brethren within any of thy gates, in thy land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not harden thine heart, nor shut thine hand, from thy poor brother:

8. But thou shalt open thine hand wide unto him, and shalt surely lend him sufficient for his need, in that which he wanteth.

9. Beware that there be not a thought in thy wicked heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand; and thine eye be evil against thy poor brother, and thou givest him nought, and he cry unto the Lord against thee, and it be sin unto thee.

10. Thou shalt surely give him, and thine heart shall not be grieved when thou givest unto him: because that for this thing the Lord thy God shall bless thee in all thy works, and in all that thou puttest thine hand unto.

11. For the poor shall never cease out of the land: therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy in thy land.

Prov. xi. 24. There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty.

25. The liberal soul shall be made fat; and he that watereth shall be watered also himself.

xxii. 9. He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed; for he giveth of his bread to the poor.

Is. xxxii. 8. But the liberal deviseth liberal things, and by liberal things shall he stand.

(b) Ps. cxxvi. 5. They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.

6. He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall, doubtless, come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

Prov. xi. 18. The wicked worketh a deceitful work: but to him that soweth righteousness shall be a sure reward.

xix. 17. He that hath pity upon the poor, lendeth unto the Lord; and that which he hath given will he pay him again.

Matt. xxv. 40. And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

Luke xiv. 14. And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just.

2 Cor. ix. 6. But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

Gal. vi. 8. For he that soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reap corruption: but he that soweth to the Spirit, shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

9. And let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

2 Give (c) a portion to seven, and also to eight; (d) for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth.

(c) Neh. viii. 10. Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord: neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the Lord is your strength.

Esth. ix. 19. Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwelt in the unwall'd towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another.

Ps. cxii. 9. He hath dispersed; he hath given to the poor; his righteousness endureth for ever: his horn shall be exalted with honour.

Luke vi. 30. Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.

31. And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

32. For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.

33. And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.

34. And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

35. But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

1 Tim. vi. 18. That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate;

19. Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

(d) Gal. vi. 1. Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

Eph. v. 16. Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.

Heb. xiii. 3. Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

3 If (e) the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be.

(e) 1 Kings xviii. 45. And it came to pass, in the meanwhile, that the heaven was black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel.

Ps. lxxv. 9. Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water: thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it.

10. Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly; thou settlest the furrows thereof; thou makest it soft with showers: thou blessest the springing thereof.

11. Thou crownest the year with thy goodness: and thy paths drop fatness.

12. They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness; and the little hills rejoice on every side.

13. The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, they also sing.

Is. lv. 10. For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater;

11. So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void; but it shall accomplish that which I please: and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

4 He (f) that observeth the wind shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap.

(f) Prov. xx. 4. The sluggard will not plough by reason of the cold: therefore shall he beg in harvest, and have nothing.

xxii. 13. The slothful man saith, There is a lion without, I shall be slain in the streets.

5 As (g) thou knowest not what is the way of the spirit, (h) nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child; (i) even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all.

(g) John iii. 8. The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

(h) Ps. cxxxix. 14. I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well.

15. My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.

16. Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being imperfect; and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.

(i) Job v. 9. Which doeth great things and unsearchable; marvellous things without number.

xxxvii. 23. Touching the Almighty, we cannot find him out; he is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice: he will not afflict.

Ps. xl. 5. Many, O Lord my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward; they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

xcii. 5. O Lord, how great are thy works! and thy thoughts are very deep.

civ. 24. O Lord, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches.

Ec. vii. 24. That which is far off, and exceeding deep, who can find it out?

Is. xl. 28. Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding.

Rom. xi. 33. O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

6 In the morning (k) sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand; for (l) thou knowest not whether shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good.

(k) Is. lv. 10. For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater.

Mark iv. 26. And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground;

27. And should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

28. For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

29. But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

John iv. 36. And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal; that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

37. And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.

38. I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

2 Cor. ix. 6. But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

2 Tim. iv. 2. Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort, with all long-suffering and doctrine.

(l) Acts xi. 20. And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus.

21. And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord.

1 Cor. iii. 5. Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?

6. I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase.

7. So then, neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

7 ¶ Truly (m) the light is sweet, and (n) a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun:

(m) Prov. xv. 30. The light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart; and a good report maketh the bones fat.

(n) Matt. v. 45. That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

8 But if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all; (o) yet let him remember the days of darkness; for they shall be many. All that cometh is vanity.

(o) Deut. xxxii. 29. Oh that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end!

Job xviii. 18. He shall be driven from light into darkness, and chased out of the world.

Jer. xiii. 16. Give glory to the Lord your God before he cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness.

Joel ii. 2. A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations.

Matt. xxii. 13. Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall he weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Jude 13. Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

9 (p) Rejoice, O young man, (q) in thy youth; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and (r) walk in the ways of thine heart, and (s) in the sight of thine eyes: but (t) know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment.

(p) 1 Kings xviii. 27. And it came to pass at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry aloud; for he is a god: either he is talking, or he is pursuing, or he is in a journey, or peradventure he sleepeth, and must be awaked.

(q) 1 Kings xviii. 12. And it shall come to pass, as soon as I am gone from thee, that the Spirit of the Lord shall carry thee whither I know not; and so, when I come and tell Ahab, and he cannot find thee, he shall slay me: but I thy servant fear the Lord from my youth.

Lam. iii. 27. It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

(r) Deut. xxix. 19. And it come to pass, when he heareth the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the imagination of mine heart, to add drunkenness to thirst.

Job xxxi. 7. If my step hath turned out of the way, and mine heart walked after mine eyes, and if any blot hath cleaved to my hands.

Ps. lxxxii. 12. So I gave them up unto their own hearts' lust; and they walked in their own counsels.

Jer. vii. 24. But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but walked in the counsels and in the imagination of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward.

Acts xiv. 16. Who, in times past, suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

(s) Gen. iii. 6. And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise; she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat; and gave also unto her husband with her, and he did eat.

vi. 2. That the sons of God saw the daughters of men, that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose.

Matt. v. 28. But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her, hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

(t) Acts xvii. 30. And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent:

31. Because he hath appointed a day in the which he will judge the world in righteousness, by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

xxiv. 25. And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season I will call for thee.

Rom. xiv. 10. But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment-seat of Christ.

1 Cor. iv. 5. Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then shall every man have praise of God.

2 Cor. v. 10. For we must all appear before the judgment-seat of Christ, that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

10 Therefore (u) remove sorrow from thy heart, (x) and put away evil from thy flesh; (y) for childhood and youth are vanity.

(u) Ps. xxv. 7. Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions: according to thy mercy, remember thou me, for thy goodness sake, O Lord.

(x) Job xx. 11. His bones are full of the sin of his youth, which shall lie down with him in the dust.

2 Tim. ii. 22. Flee also youthful lusts; but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

(y) Ps. xxxix. 5. Behold, thou hast made my days as an hand-breadth, and mine age is as nothing before thee: verily every man at his best state is altogether vanity. Selah.

Prov. xxii. 15. Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child; but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him.

CHAPTER XII.

REMEMBER (a) now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, (b) while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, (c) when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them;

(a) 1 Sam. i. 28. Therefore also I have lent him to the Lord; as long as he liveth he shall be lent to the Lord. And he worshipped the Lord there.

ii. 18. But Samuel ministered before the Lord, being a child, girded with a linen ephod.

1 Kings xviii. 12. And it shall come to pass, as soon as I am gone from thee, that the Spirit of the Lord shall carry thee whither I know not; and so, when I come and tell Ahab, and he cannot find thee, he shall slay me: but I thy servant fear the Lord from my youth.

2 Chr. xxxiv. 2. And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the right hand nor to the left.

3. For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images.

Ps. xxii. 9. But thou art he that took me out of the womb: thou didst make me hope when I was upon my mother's breasts.

10. I was cast upon thee from the womb: thou art my God from my mother's belly.

Prov. viii. 17. I love them that love me: and those that seek me early shall find me.

xxii. 6. Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old he will not depart from it.

Lam. iii. 27. It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

Dan. i. 17. As for these four children, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams.

Luke xviii. 16. But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

2 Tim. iii. 15. And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

(b) Job xxx. 2. Yea, whereto might the strength of their hands profit me, in whom old age was perished?

Ps. xc. 10. The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow: for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

Hos. vii. 9. Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not; yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he knoweth it not.

(c) 2 Sam. xix. 35. I am this day fourscore years old; and can I discern between good and evil? can thy servant taste what I eat, or what I drink? can I hear any more the voice of singing-men and singing-women? wherefore then should thy servant be yet a burden unto my lord the king?

2 While (d) the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain:

(d) Gen. xxvii. 1. And it came to pass, that when Isaac was old, and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called Esau his eldest son, and said unto him, My son. And he said unto him, Behold, here am I.

xlviii. 10. (Now the eyes of Israel were dim for age; so that he could not see.) And he brought them near unto him; and he kissed them, and embraced them.

1 Sam. iii. 2. And it came to pass at that time, when Eli was laid down in his place, and his eyes began to wax dim, that he could not see.

3 In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the (e) strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out at the windows be darkened,

(e) Ps. cii. 23. He weakened my strength in the way; he shortened my days.

Zech. viii. 4. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, There shall yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand for very age.

4 And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low;

5 Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the (f) almond-tree shall flourish, and the grass-hopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail: (g) because man goeth to his long home, (h) and the mourners go about the streets:

(f) Gen. xlii. 38. And he said, My son shall not go down with you, for his brother is dead, and he is left alone: if mischief befall him by the way in the which ye go, then shall ye bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.

Prov. xvi. 31. The hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness. xx. 29. The glory of young men is their strength; and the beauty of old men is their gray head.

Is. xli. 4. And even to your old age I am he; and even to hoar hairs will I carry you: I have made, and I will bear: even I will carry, and will deliver you.

(g) Job xvii. 13. If I wait, the grave is mine house: I have made my bed in the darkness.

xxx. 23. For I know that thou wilt bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living.

Heb. ix. 27. And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment.

(h) Ser. ix. 17. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Consider ye, and call for the mourning women, that they may come; and send for cunning women, that they may come:

18 And let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters.

19. For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because our dwellings have cast us out.

20. Yet hear the word of the Lord, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailing, and every one her neighbour lamentation.

21. For death is come up into our windows, and is entered into our palaces, to cut off the children from without, and the young men from the streets.

6 Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern;

7 Then shall the (i) dust return to the earth as it was; and (k) the spirit shall return unto (l) God who gave it.

(i) Gen. iii. 19. In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return.

xviii. 27. And Abraham answered and said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord, which am but dust and ashes.

Job iv. 19. How much less in them that dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which are crushed before the moth?

20. They are destroyed from morning to evening: they perish for ever without any regarding it.

vii. 21. And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust, and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

xxxiv. 14. If he set his heart upon man, if he gather unto himself his spirit and his breath, 15. All flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again unto dust.

Ps. xc. 3. Thou turnest man to destruction: and sayest, Return, ye children of men.

(k) Ec. iii. 21. Who knoweth the spirit of man that goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth?

(l) Gen. ii. 7. And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

Num. xvi. 22. And they fell upon their faces, and said, O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation?

Is. lvii. 16. For I will not contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should fail before me, and the souls which I have made.

Zech. xii. 1. The burden of the word of the Lord for Israel, saith the Lord, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him.

8 ¶ Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher; all is vanity.

9 And moreover, because the preacher was wise, (m) he still taught the people knowledge; yea, (n) he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs.

(m) 1 Kings x. 8. Happy are thy men, happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and that hear thy wisdom.

(n) 1 Kings iv. 32. And he spake three thousand and proverbs: and his songs were a thousand and five.

Prov. i. 1. The proverbs of Solomon, the son of David, king of Israel.

xxv. 1. These are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah, king of Judah, copied out.

10 The (o) preacher sought to find out acceptable words: and that which was (p) written was upright, even words of truth.

(o) Ec. i. 1. The words of the preacher, the son of David, king of Jerusalem.

(p) John iii. 11. Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness.

Col. i. 5. For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel.

11 The words of the wise are (q) as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are (r) given from one shepherd.

(q) Jer. xxiii. 29. Is not my word like as a fire, saith the Lord, and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces?

Aets ii. 37. Now, when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter, and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?

Heb. iv. 12. For the word of God is quick and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

(r) Gen. xlix. 24. But his bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong, by the hands of the mighty God of Jacob: (from thence is the Shepherd, the stone of Israel.)

Ps. xxiii. 1. The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

lxxx. 1. Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel; thou that leadest Joseph like a flock, thou that dwellest between the cherubims, shine forth.

Is. xl. 11. He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young.

Ez. xxxiv. 23. And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.

John x. 14. I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine.

Heb. xiii. 20. Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant.

1 Pet. v. 4. And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

12 And further, by these, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

13 Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: (s) Fear God, and keep his commandments; (t) for this is the whole duty of man.

(s) Gen. xxii. 12. And he said, Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son, from me.

Deut. vi. 2. That thou mightest fear the Lord thy God, to keep all his statutes, and his commandments, which I command thee; thou, and thy son, and thy son's son, all the days of thy life, and that thy days may be prolonged.

x. 12. And now, Israel, what doth the Lord thy God require of thee, but to fear the Lord thy God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him; and to serve the Lord with all thy heart, and with all thy soul.

Ps. cxi. 10. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments: his praise endureth for ever.

cxii. 1. Praise ye the Lord. Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord, that delighteth greatly in his commandments.

Prov. i. 7. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

xxiii. 17. Let not thine heart envy sinners; but be thou in the fear of the Lord all the day long.

1 Pet. ii. 17. Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.

(t) Job xxviii. 28. And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding.

14 For (u) God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

(u) Ps. xcvi. 13. Before the Lord: for he cometh; for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

Luke xii. 2. For there is nothing covered that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.

John v. 29. And shall come forth; they that have done good unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil unto the resurrection of damnation.

Rom. ii. 16. In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ, according to my gospel.

1 Cor. iv. 5. Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the heart; and then shall every man have praise of God.

2 Cor. v. 10. For we must all appear before the judgment-seat of Christ, that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

THE SONG OF SOLOMON.

CHAPTER I.

THE (a) Song of songs, which is (b) Solomon's.

(a) Is. v. 1. Now will I sing to my well-beloved a song of my beloved, touching his vineyard. My well-beloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill.

(b) 1 Kings iv. 32. And he spake three thousand and proverbs: and his songs were a thousand and five.

2 Let (c) him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth; for (d) thy love is better than wine.

VOL. III.

(c) Gen. xxix. 11. And Jacob kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice, and wept.

xlv. 15. Moreover, we kissed all his brethren, and wept upon them: and after that his brethren talked with him.

Luke xv. 20. And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

(d) Ps. xxxvi. 7. How excellent is thy loving-kindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

3 Because of (e) the savour of thy good ointments, (f) thy name is as ointment poured forth, therefore do (g) the virgins love thee.

(e) Ps. xlv. 7. Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

8. All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.

cxxxiii. 2. It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard; that went down to the skirts of his garments.

Prov. xxvii. 9. Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart; so doth the sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel.

John xii. 3. Then took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

(f) Is. ix. 6. For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given, and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of peace.

Jer. xxiii. 5. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous branch, and a king shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.

6. In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely; and this is the name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

Phil. ii. 9. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name;

10. That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth.

(g) Ps. xlv. 14. She shall be brought unto the king in raiment of needle-work; the virgins, her companions, that follow her, shall be brought unto thee.

4 (h) Draw me, (i) we will run after thee: (k) the king hath brought me into his chambers: (l) we will be glad and rejoice in thee, we will (m) remember thy love more than wine: the upright love thee.

(h) Jer. xxxi. 3. The Lord hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love; therefore with loving-kindness have I drawn thee.

Hos. xi. 4. I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love; and I was to them as they that take off the yoke on their jaws, and I laid meat unto them.

John vi. 44. No man can come to me, except the Father, which hath sent me, draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

xii. 32. And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.

(i) Ps. cxix. 32. I will run the way of thy commandments, when thou shalt enlarge my heart.

60. I made haste, and delayed not, to keep thy commandments.

(k) Ps. xlv. 15. With gladness and rejoicing shall they be brought: they shall enter into the king's palace.

Matt. xxv. 10. And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.

John xiv. 2. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

3. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

Eph. ii. 6. And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus.

(l) Ps. cxlix. 2. Let Israel rejoice in him that made him; let the children of Zion be joyful in their king.

Is. xxv. 9. And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the Lord; we have waited for him, we will be glad, and rejoice in his salvation.

xlv. 25. In the Lord shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory.

Phil. iv. 4. Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

1 Pet. i. 8. Whom, having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable, and full of glory.

(m) Ps. xlviii. 9. We have thought of thy loving-kindness, O God, in the midst of thy temple.

Luke xxii. 19. And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body, which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me.

5 I am (n) black, but (o) comely, (p) O ye daughters of Jerusalem, (q) as the tents of Kedar, as the curtains of Solomon.

(n) Is. liii. 2. For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

(o) Ps. xc. 17. And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us; and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

Ez. xvi. 14. And thy renown went forth among the heathen for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my comeliness, which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord God.

(p) Ps. xlv. 9. Kings' daughters were among thy honourable women; upon thy right hand did stand the queen in gold of Ophir.

Luke xxiii. 28. But Jesus turning unto them, said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

Gal. iv. 26. But Jerusalem, which is above, is free, which is the mother of us all.

(q) Ps. cxx. 5. Wo is me, that I sojourn in Mesech, that I dwell in the tents of Kedar!

6 Look not upon me, (r) because I am black, because the sun hath looked upon me: (s) my mother's children were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards; but mine own vineyard have I not kept.

(r) Job xxx. 30. My skin is black upon me, and my bones are burnt with heat.

Jer. viii. 21. For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt; I am black; astonishment hath taken hold on me.

Lam. iv. 8. Their visage is blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.

v. 10. Our skin was black, like an oven, because of the terrible famine.

Mark iv. 6. But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and, because it had no root, it withered away.

(s) Ps. lxxix. 8. I am become a stranger unto my brethren, and an alien unto my mother's children.

Jer. xii. 6. For even thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee; yea, they have called a multitude after thee: believe them not, though they speak fair words unto thee.

Mic. vii. 6. For the son dishonoureth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law: a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

Matt. x. 35. For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

36. And a man's foes shall be they of his own household.

Gal. iv. 29. But as then, he that was born after the flesh, persecuted him that was born after the spirit, even so it is now.

7 ¶ Tell me, (t) O thou whom my soul loveth, where (u) thou feedest, where thou makest thy flock to rest at noon; (x) for why should I be as one that turneth aside by the flocks of thy companions?

(t) Ps. xviii. 1. I will love thee, O Lord, my strength.

Is. xxvi. 9. With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

John xxi. 17. He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved, because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

1 Pet. i. 8. Whom, having not seen, ye love: in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable, and full of glory.

(u) Gen. xxxvii. 16. And he said, I seek my brethren: tell me, I pray thee, where they feed their flocks.

Ps. xxiii. 1. The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

2. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

Is. xl. 11. He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young.

Mic. v. 4. And he shall stand and feed in the strength of the Lord, in the majesty of the name of the Lord his God; and they shall abide: for now shall he be great unto the ends of the earth.

Rev. vii. 17. For the Lamb, which is in the midst of the throne, shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters; and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

(x) 1 Sam. xii. 20. And Samuel said unto the people, Fear not: ye have done all this wickedness; yet turn not aside from following the Lord, but serve the Lord with all your heart.

21. And turn ye not aside: for then should ye go after vain things, which cannot profit nor deliver; for they are vain.

John vi. 67. Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68. Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life.

69. And we believe, and are sure, that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.

8 If thou know not, (y) O thou fairest among women, (z) go thy way forth by the footsteps of the flock, and feed thy kids beside the shepherds' tents.

(y) Ps. xiv. 11. So shall the king greatly desire thy beauty; for he is thy Lord, and worship thee him.

13. The king's daughter is all glorious within; her clothing is of wrought gold.

Eph. v. 27. That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy, and without blemish.

(z) Prov. viii. 34. Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.

Jer. vi. 16. Thus saith the Lord, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein.

1 Cor. xi. 1. Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.

Heb. vi. 12. That ye be not slothful, but followers of them, who, through faith and patience, inherit the promises.

xiii. 7. Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God; whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation.

9 ¶ I have compared thee, O my love, to a company of horses in Pharaoh's chariots.

10 Thy (a) cheeks are comely with rows of jewels, (b) thy neck with chains of gold.

(a) Gen. xxiv. 22. And it came to pass, as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden ear-ring, of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her hands, of ten shekels weight of gold.

47. And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she said, The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bare unto him: and I put the ear-ring upon her face, and the bracelets upon her hands.

Ez. xvi. 11. I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put bracelets upon thine hands, and a chain on thy neck.

12. And I put a jewel on thy forehead, and ear-rings in thine ears, and a beautiful crown upon thine head.

13. Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and brodered work: thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil; and thou wast exceeding beautiful, and thou didst prosper into a kingdom.

(b) Gen. xli. 42. And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand, and arrayed him in vestures of fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck.

Prov. i. 9. For they shall be an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.

11 (c) We will make thee borders of gold, with studs of silver.

(c) Ps. cxlix. 4. For the Lord taketh pleasure in his people: he will beautify the meek with salvation.

Cant. viii. 9. If she be a wall, we will build upon her a palace of silver; and if she be a door, we will enclose her with boards of cedar.

12 ¶ While the king (d) sitteth at his table, (e) my spikenard sendeth forth the smell thereof.

(d) Matt. xxii. 4. Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

Rev. iii. 20. Behold, I stand at the door and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

(e) John xii. 3. Then took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

Phil. iv. 18. But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well pleasing to God.

13 A (f) bundle of myrrh is my well-beloved unto me; (g) he shall lie all night betwixt my breasts.

(f) Gen. xliii. 11. And their father Israel said unto them, If it must be so now, do this; Take of the best fruits in the land in your vessels, and carry down the man a present, a little balm, and a little honey, spices and myrrh, nuts and almonds.

Ps. xlv. 8. All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.

John xix. 39. And there came also Nicodemus, (which at the first came to Jesus by night,) and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

(g) Cant. viii. 3. His left hand should be under my head, and his right hand should embrace me.

4. I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, until he please.

Eph. iii. 17. That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith: that ye, being rooted and grounded in love.

14 My beloved is unto me as a cluster of camphire in the vineyards of En-gedi.

15 Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes.

16 Behold, (h) thou art fair, my beloved, yea, pleasant: also our bed is green.

(h) Ps. xlv. 2. Thou art fairer than the children of men; grace is poured into thy lips: therefore God hath blessed thee for ever.

Zech. ix. 17. For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty! Corn shall make the young men cheerful, and new wine the maids.

17 The (i) beams of our house are cedar, and our rafters of fir.

(i) Ps. cxcii. 12. The righteous shall flourish like the palm-tree; he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

Heb. xi. 10. For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

CHAPTER II.

I AM (a) the rose of Sharon, and the (b) lily of the valleys.

(a) Is. xxxv. 1. The wilderness, and the solitary place, shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.

2. It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing; the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon; they shall see the glory of the Lord, and the excellency of our God.

(b) Cant. vi. 3. I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine: he feedeth among the lilies.

Is. lvii. 15. For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

2 As the (c) lily among thorns, so is my love among the daughters.

(c) Is. lv. 13. Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir-tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle-tree: and it shall be to the Lord for a name, for an everlasting sign, that shall not be cut off.

Phil. ii. 15. That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world.

3 As (d) the apple-tree among the trees of the wood, so is (e) my beloved among the sons. I (f) sat down under his shadow with great delight, and (g) his fruit was sweet to my taste.

(d) Is. iv. 2. In that day shall the branch of the Lord be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely for them that are escaped of Israel.

Ez. xvii. 23. In the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it; and it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and under it shall dwell all fowl of every wing; in the shadow of the branches thereof shall they dwell.

24. And all the trees of the field shall know that I the Lord have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish: I the Lord have spoken, and have done it.

(e) Ps. lxxxix. 6. For who in the heaven can be compared unto the Lord? who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the Lord?

(f) Ps. lvii. 1. Be merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me; for my soul trusteth in thee: yea, in the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge, until these calamities be overpast.

xci. 1. He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High, shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

Is. iv. 6. And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the day-time from the heat, and a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm, and from rain.

xxv. 4. For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.

xxxii. 2. And a man shall be as a hiding-place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place; as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

(g) Ez. xlvi. 12. And by the river, upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for meat, whose leaf shall not fade; neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth new fruit according to his months, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary; and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine.

Rev. xxii. 2. In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

4 He brought me to the banquetting-house, and (h) his banner over me was love.

(h) Ps. ix. 4. Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah.

Is. xi. 10. And on that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek: and his rest shall be glorious.

5 Stay me with (i) flagons, comfort me with apples; (k) for I am sick of love.

(i) 2 Sam. vi. 19. And he dealt among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine. So all the people departed every one to his house.

Hos. iii. 1. Then said the Lord unto me, Go, yet love a woman beloved of her friend, yet an adulteress, according to the love of the Lord toward the children of Israel, who look to other gods, and love flagons of wine.

(k) 2 Sam. xiii. 1. And it came to pass after this, that Absalom, the son of David, had a fair sister, whose name was Tamar, and Amnon, the son of David, loved her.

2. And Amnon was so vexed, that he fell sick for his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin: and Amnon thought it hard for him to do any thing to her.

6 His left hand is under my head, and his right hand doth embrace me.

7 I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, (l) by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

(l) Prov. v. 19. Let her be as the loving hind and pleasant roe; let her breasts satisfy thee at all times, and be thou ravished always with her love.

8 ¶ The (m) voice of my beloved! behold, he cometh (n) leaping upon the mountains, skipping upon the hills.

(m) John iii. 29. He that hath the bride is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly, because of the bridegroom's voice. This my joy, therefore, is fulfilled.

x. 4. And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

5. And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

27. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.

Rev. iii. 20. Behold, I stand at the door and knock: if any man hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

(n) 2 Sam. vi. 16. And as the ark of the Lord came into the city of David, Michal, Saul's daughter, looked through a window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the Lord; and she despised him in her heart.

Is. xxxv. 6. Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing: for in the wilderness shall water break out, and streams in the desert.

Jer. xlviii. 27. For was not Israel a derision unto thee? was he found among thieves? for since thou spakest of him thou skippedst for joy.

Luke vi. 23. Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy; for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

Acts iii. 8. And he, leaping up, stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 My beloved is like a roe, or a young hart: behold, (o) he standeth behind our wall, he looketh forth at the windows, showing himself through the lattice.

(o) 1 Cor. xiii. 12. For now we see through a glass darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

Eph. ii. 14. For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;

15. Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace.

10 ¶ My beloved (p), spake, and said unto me, (q) Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away:

(p) 2 Sam. xxiii. 3. The God of Israel said, the Rock of Israel spake to me, He that ruleth over men must be just, ruling in the fear of God.

Ps. lxxxv. 8. I will hear what God the Lord will speak: for he will speak peace unto his people and to his saints; but let them not turn again to folly.

Jer. xxxi. 3. The Lord hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love; therefore with loving-kindness have I drawn thee.

(q) Ps. xlv. 10. Hearken, O daughter, and consider, and incline thine ear; forget also thine own people, and thy father's house.

11. So shall the king greatly desire thy beauty: for he is thy Lord, and worship thou him.

2 Cor. vi. 17. Wherefore, come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,

18. And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

Rev. xxii. 17. And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst, come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

11 For, lo, (r) the winter is past, the rain is over and gone;

(r) Is. xl. 2. Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the Lord's hand double for all her sins.

liv. 6. For the Lord hath called thee as a woman forsaken, and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God.

7. For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee.

8. In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the Lord thy Redeemer.

12 The (s) flowers appear on the earth; the (t) time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land.

(s) Is. xxxv. 1. The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.

2. It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing; the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon; they shall see the glory of the Lord, and the excellency of our God.

Hos. xiv. 5. I will be as the dew unto Israel; he shall grow as the lily, and cast forth his roots as Lebanon.

6. His branches shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the olive-tree, and his smell as Lebanon.

7. They that dwell under his shadow shall return; and they shall revive as the corn, and grow as the vine: the scent thereof shall be as the wine of Lebanon.

(t) Is. xlii. 10. Sing unto the Lord a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth, ye that go down to the sea, and all that is therein; the isles, and the inhabitants thereof.

11. Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar doth inhabit: let the inhabitants of the rock sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains.

12. Let them give glory unto the Lord, and declare his praise in the islands.

13 The (u) fig-tree putteth forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell.

(x) Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

(u) Is. xviii. 5. For afore the harvest, when the bud is perfect, and the sour grape is ripening in the flower, he shall both cut off the sprigs with pruning-hooks, and take away and cut down the branches.

ixi. 11. For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

Hag. ii. 19. Is the seed yet in the barn? yea, as yet the vine, and the fig-tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive-tree, hath not brought forth: from this day will I bless you.

(x) 2 Cor. v. 20. Now, then, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you, in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

vi. 1. We, then, as workers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

2. (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time: behold, now is the day of salvation.)

14 ¶ O (y) my dove, (z) that art in the (a) clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let me see thy countenance, (b) let me hear thy voice; (c) for sweet is thy voice, and (d) thy countenance is comely.

(y) Ps. lxxiv. 19. O deliver not the soul of thy turtle-dove unto the multitude of the wicked: forget not the congregation of thy poor for ever.

(z) Ex. iii. 6. Moreover he said, I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face: for he was afraid to look upon God.

(a) Ex. xxxiii. 22. And it shall come to pass, while my glory passeth by, that I will put thee in a cleft of the rock, and will cover thee with my hand while I pass by:

23. And I will take away mine hand, and thou shalt see my back-parts; but my face shall not be seen.

Is. ii. 21. To go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the ragged rocks, for fear of the Lord, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.

Jer. xlix. 16. Thy terribleness hath deceived thee, and the pride of thine heart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the height of the hill; though thou shouldst make thy nest as high as the eagle, I will bring thee down from thence, saith the Lord.

Ob. 3. The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

(b) Prov. xv. 8. The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord: but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

Heb. iv. 16. Let us, therefore, come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

(c) Is. li. 3. For the Lord shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places, and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the Lord; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

(d) Cant. vi. 10. Who is she that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners?

15 Take us the foxes, the little foxes, that spoil the vines; for our vines have tender grapes.

16 ¶ My (e) beloved is mine, and I am his: he feedeth among the lilies.

(c) Ps. xlvi. 14. For this God is our God for ever and ever; he will be our guide even unto death.

Jer. xxxi. 33. But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

Rev. xxi. 2. And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

3. And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

17 Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved; and be thou like a roe or a young hart upon the mountains of Bether.

CHAPTER III.

BY (a) night on my bed I sought him whom my soul loveth: (b) I sought him, but I found him not.

(a) Ps. iv. 4. Stand in awe, and sin not: commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still. Selah.

xxii. 2. O my God, I cry in the day-time, but thou hearest not; and in the night-season, and am not silent.

Is. xxvi. 9. With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

(b) Is. lv. 6. Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near.

Luke. xiii. 24. Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

2 I (c) will rise now, and go about the city in (d) the streets, and in the broad ways I will seek him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

(c) Is. lxiv. 7. And there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast consumed us, because of our iniquities.

Jon. i. 6. So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

Rom. xiii. 11. And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

(d) Prov. i. 20. Wisdom crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets;

21. She crieth in the chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates; in the city she uttereth her words, saying,

3 The watchmen that go about the city found me; to whom I said, (e) Saw ye him whom my soul loveth?

(e) John. xx. 15. Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

4 It was but a little that I passed from them, (f) but I found him whom my soul loveth: (g) I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.

(f) Prov. viii. 17. I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me.

Jer. xxix. 13. And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart.

Lam. iii. 25. The Lord is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.

Matt. vii. 7. Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

(g) Gen. xxxii. 26. And he said, Let me go, for the day breaketh. And he said, I will not let thee go, except thou bless me.

Prov. iv. 13. Take fast hold of instruction; let her not go: keep her; for she is thy life.

Matt. xxviii. 9. And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came, and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.

5 I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

6 ¶ Who is (h) this that cometh out of the wilderness (i) like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant?

(h) Jer. ii. 2. Go, and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the Lord, I remember thee, the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals, when thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

Rev. xii. 6. And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

14. And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place; where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

(i) Ex. xiii. 21. And the Lord went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light, to go by day and night.

22. He took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people.

Joel. ii. 30. And I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.

7 Behold his bed, which is Solomon's: (k) threescore valiant men are about it, of the valiant of Israel.

(k) 1 Sam. xiv. 52. And there was sore war against the Philistines all the days of Saul; and when Saul saw any strong man, or any valiant man, he took him unto him.

xxviii. 2. And David said to Achish, Surely thou shalt know what thy servant can do. And Achish said to David, Therefore will I make thee keeper of mine head for ever.

1 Kings. ix. 22. But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no bondmen: but they were men of war, and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his horsemen.

Heb. i. 14. Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?

8 They all hold swords, being expert in war: every man hath his sword upon his thigh, (l) because of fear in the night.

(l) Neh. iv. 21. So we laboured in the work; and half of them held the spears, from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared.

22. Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day.

1 Thess. v. 6. Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober.

9 King Solomon made himself a chariot of the wood of Lebanon.

10 He made (m) the pillars thereof of silver, the bottom thereof of gold, the covering of it of purple; (n) the midst thereof being paved with love for the daughters of Jerusalem.

(m) 1 Tim. iii. 15. But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

Rev. iii. 12. Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.

(n) Eph. iii. 17. That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith: that ye, being rooted and grounded in love,

18. May be able to comprehend with all saints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height:

19. And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God.

11 (o) Go forth, O (p) ye daughters of Zion, and (q) behold king Solomon with the crown where-with his mother crowned him (r) in the day of his espousals, and (s) in the day of the gladness of his heart.

(o) Heb. xiii. 13. Let us go forth, therefore, unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach.

(p) Ps. ix. 14. That I may show forth all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion: I will rejoice in thy salvation.

xlviii. 11. Let Mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad, because of thy judgments.

(q) Matt. xii. 42. The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

Heb. ii. 9. But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.

(r) Is. lxii. 5. For as a young man marieth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee: and as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice over thee.

Jer. ii. 2. Go, and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the Lord, I remember thee, the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals, when thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

Hos. ii. 19. And I will betroth thee unto me for ever, yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in loving-kindness, and in mercies;

20. I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness; and thou shalt know the Lord.

Rev. xix. 7. Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

(s) Jer. xxxii. 41. Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart, and with my whole soul.

Zeph. iii. 17. The Lord thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love; he will joy over thee with singing.

CHAPTER IV.

BEHOLD, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes within thy locks: thy hair is as a flock of goats that appear from (a) Mount Gilead.

(a) Nam. xxxii. 1. Now the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, had a very great multitude of cattle: and when they saw the land of Jazer, and the land of Gilead, that, behold, the place was a place for cattle.

2 Thy teeth are like a flock of sheep that are even shorn, which came up from the washing; whereof every one bare twins, and (b) none is barren among them.

(b) Ex. xxiii. 26. There shall nothing cast their young, nor be barren, in thy land: the number of thy days I will fulfil.

Deut. vii. 13. And he will love thee, and bless thee, and multiply thee: he will also bless the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy land, thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep, in the land which he swore unto thy fathers to give thee.

14. Thou shalt be blessed above all people: there shall not be male or female barren among you, or among your cattle.

3 Thy (c) lips are like a thread of (d) scarlet, and thy speech is comely: thy temples are like a piece of a pomegranate within thy locks.

(c) Ps. xxxvii. 30. The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgment.

xlv. 2. Thou art fairer than the children of men; grace is poured into thy lips: therefore God hath blessed thee for ever.

cxix. 13. With my lips have I declared all the judgments of thy mouth.

Prov. x. 13. In the lips of him that hath understanding wisdom is found: but a rod is for the back of him that is void of understanding.

20. The tongue of the just is as choice silver: the heart of the wicked is little worth.

21. The lips of the righteous feed many: but fools die for want of wisdom.

Luke iv. 22. And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this Joseph's son.

(d) Josh. ii. 18. Behold, when we come into the land, thou shalt bind this line of scarlet thread in the window which thou didst let us down by:

and thou shalt bring thy father, and thy mother, and thy brethren, and all thy father's household, home unto thee.

4 Thy (e) neck is like the tower of David, builded for an armory, whereon there (f) hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men.

(e) 2 Sam. xxii. 51. He is the tower of salvation for his king; and showeth mercy to his anointed, unto David, and to his seed for evermore.

(f) 2 Chr. ix. 15. And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to one target.

16. And three hundred shields made he of beaten gold: three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

5 Thy (g) two breasts are like two young roes that are twins, which feed among the lilies.

(g) Prov. v. 19. Let her be as the loving hind and pleasant roe; let her breasts satisfy thee at all times, and be thou ravished always with her love.

6 Until the (h) day break, and the shadows flee away, I will get me (i) to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense.

(h) Mal. iv. 2. But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

Luke i. 78. Through the tender mercy of our God; whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us.

2 Pet. i. 19. We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts.

1 John ii. 8. Again, a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him, and in you; because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth.

Rev. xxii. 16. I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning-star.

(i) Mal. i. 11. For from the rising of the sun, even unto the going down of the same, my name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the Lord of hosts.

Luke i. 9. According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10. And the whole multitude of the people were praying without, at the time of incense.

Rev. v. 8. And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints.

7 Thou art all fair, my love; there is no spot in thee.

8 ¶ Come (k) with me from Lebanon, my spouse, with me from Lebanon: look from the top of Amana, from the top of (l) Shenir and Hermon, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards.

(k) Ps. xlv. 10. Hearken O daughter, and consider, and incline thine ear; forget also thine own people, and thy father's house.

Prov. ix. 6. Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding.

(l) Deut. iii. 9. Which Hermon the Sidonians call Sirion, and the Amorites call it Shenir.

9 Thou hast ravished my heart, (m) my sister, (n) my spouse; thou hast ravished my heart with one of thine eyes, with one chain of thy neck.

(m) Gen. xx. 12. And yet indeed she is my sister; she is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife.

Matt. xii. 50. For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

1 Cor. ix. 5. Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

(n) Is. liv. 5. For thy Maker is thine husband; The Lord of hosts is his name: and thy Redeemer, the holy One of Israel; The God of the whole earth shall he be called.

2 Cor. xi. 2. For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.

Rev. xix. 7. Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

10 How fair is thy love, my sister, my spouse! how much better is thy love than wine! and the smell of thine ointments than all spices!

11 Thy (o) lips, O my spouse, drop as the honey-comb: (p) honey and milk are under thy tongue; and (q) the smell of thy garments is like the smell of Lebanon.

(o) Prov. xvi. 24. Pleasant words are as an honey-comb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.

(p) Is. vii. 15. Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good.

(q) Gen. xxvii. 27. And he came near, and kissed him: and he smelled the smell of his raiment, and blessed him, and said, See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the Lord hath blessed.

Ps. xlv. 8. All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.

Hos. xiv. 7. They that dwell under his shadow shall return; they shall revive as the corn, and grow as the vine: the scent thereof shall be as the wine of Lebanon.

12 A (r) garden enclosed is my sister, my spouse; a spring shut up, a fountain (s) sealed.

(r) Is. lviii. 11. And the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.

Jer. xxxi. 12. Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow together to the goodness of the Lord, for wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock, and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all.

(s) 2 Cor. i. 22. Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

Eph. i. 13. In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also, after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise.

iv. 30. And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

Rev. vii. 3. Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads.

13 Thy plants (t) are an orchard of pomegranates, with pleasant fruits; camphire, with spikenard;

(t) Ps. xcii. 14. They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing.

Is. lx. 21. Thy people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land for ever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands; that I may be glorified.

Lxi. 11. For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

Phil. i. 11. Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

14 Spikenard and saffron; calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense; myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices:

15 A (u) fountain of gardens, (x) a well of living waters, and (y) streams from Lebanon.

(u) Ec. ii. 6. I made me pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees.

(x) Ps. xxxvi. 8. They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.

9. For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light.

xlvi. 4. There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High.

Jer. ii. 13. For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns that can hold no water.

xvii. 13. O Lord, the hope of Israel, all that forsake thee shall be ashamed, and they that depart from me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken the Lord, the fountain of living waters.

John iv. 14. But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him, shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

vii. 38. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

Rev. xxii. 1. And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

(y) Jer. xviii. 14. Will a man leave the snow of Lebanon, which cometh from the rock of the field? or shall the cold-flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken?

16 ¶ (z) Awake, O north wind; and come, thou south; blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasant fruits.

(z) Ec. i. 6. The wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north; it whirleth about continually, and the wind returneth again according to his circuits.

Is. li. 9. Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the Lord; awake, as in the ancient days, in the generations of old. Art thou not it that hath cut Rahab, and wounded the dragon?

Ez. xxxvii. 9. Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord God; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.

Acts ii. 1. And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all, with one accord, in one place.

2. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

iv. 31. And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

CHAPTER V.

I AM (a) come into my garden, (b) my sister, my spouse: (c) I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honey-comb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk: (d) eat, O (e) friends; drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved.

(a) Cant. iv. 16. Awake, O north wind; and come, thou south; blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasant fruits.

Is. v. 1. Now will I sing to my well-beloved a song of my beloved, touching his vineyard. My well-beloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill.

li. 3. For the Lord shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places, and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the Lord; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

lviii. 11. And the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.

(b) Cant. iv. 9. Thou hast ravished my heart, my sister, my spouse; thou hast ravished my heart with one of thine eyes, with one chain of thy neck.

10. How fair is thy love, my sister, my spouse! how much better is thy love than wine! and the smell of thine ointments than all spices!

11. Thy lips, O my spouse, drop as the honey-comb; honey and milk are under thy tongue; and the smell of thy garments is like the smell of Lebanon.

12. A garden enclosed is my sister, my spouse; a spring shut up, a fountain sealed.

(c) Cant. iv. 13. Thy plants are an orchard of pomegranates, with pleasant fruits; camphire, with spikenard;

14. Spikenard and saffron; calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense; myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices.

(d) Is. lxii. 8. The Lord hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I will no more give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured:

9. But they that have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the Lord; and they that have brought it together, shall drink it in the courts of my holiness.

lxv. 13. Therefore, thus saith the Lord God, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry; behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty; behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed.

(e) John xv. 14. Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15. Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

2 ¶ I (f) sleep, but my heart waketh: it is (g) the voice of my beloved that (h) knocketh, saying, (i) Open to me, my sister, my love, (k) my dove, my undefiled: for (l) my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night.

(f) Dan. viii. 18. Now, as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and set me upright.

Zech. iv. 1. And the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep.

(g) Cant. ii. 8. The voice of my beloved! behold, he cometh, leaping upon the mountains, skipping upon the hills.

10. My beloved spake, and said unto me, Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away.

John x. 4. And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

(h) Rev. iii. 20. Behold, I stand at the door and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

(i) Ps. xxiv. 7. Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors, and the King of glory shall come in.

(k) Ps. cxix. 1. Blessed are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the Lord.

Rev. iii. 4. Thou hast a few names even in Sardis, which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.

(l) Gen. xxix. 20. And Jacob served seven years for Rachel; and they seemed unto him but a few days, for the love he had to her.

xxx. 40. Thus I was; in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep departed from mine eyes.

41. Thus have I been twenty years in thy house; I served thee fourteen years for thy two daughters, and six years for thy cattle; and thou hast changed my wages ten times.

Is. l. 6. I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting.

Matt. viii. 17. That it might be fulfilled, which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

3 I (m) have put off my coat; how shall I put it on? I have washed my feet; how shall I defile them?

(m) Prov. iii. 28. Say not unto thy neighbour, Go, and come again, and to-morrow I will give; when thou hast it by thee.

Matt. xxv. 5. While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.

Luke xi. 7. And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not; the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise, and give thee.

4 My beloved (n) put in his hand by the hole of the door, and (o) my bowels were moved for him.

(n) Ps. cx. 3. Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holiness, from the womb of the morning: thou hast the dew of thy youth.

(o) Gen. xliii. 30. And Joseph made haste; for his bowels did yearn upon his brother: and he sought where to weep, and he entered into his chamber, and wept there.

1 Kings iii. 26. Then spake the woman, whose the living child was, unto the king, for her bowels yearned upon her son, and she said, O my lord, give her the living child, and in no wise slay it: but the other said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it.

Is. xxvi. 9. With my soul have I desired thee in the night: yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

5 I (p) rose up to open to my beloved; and (q) my hands dropped with myrrh, and my fingers with sweet-smelling myrrh, upon the handles of the lock.

(p) Luke xii. 36. And ye yourselves, like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that, when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

Rev. iii. 20. Behold, I stand at the door and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

(q) Cant. iii. 6. Who is this that cometh out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant?

6 I opened to my beloved: (r) but my beloved had withdrawn himself, and was gone: (s) my soul failed when he spake; (t) I sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no answer.

(r) Ps. xxx. 7. Lord, by thy favour thou hast made my mountain to stand strong: thou didst hide thy face, and I was troubled.

Is. viii. 17. And I will wait upon the Lord, that I might hide his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him.

Hos. v. 6. They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the Lord; but they shall not find him; he hath withdrawn himself from them.

Rev. iii. 19. As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous, therefore, and repent.

(s) Gen. xlii. 28. And he said unto his brethren, My money is restored; and, lo, it is even in my sack: and their heart failed them, and they were afraid, saying one to another, What is this that God hath done unto us.

Ps. lix. 3. I am weary of my crying, my throat is dried: mine eyes fail while I wait for my God.

Is. lvii. 16. For I will not contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirits should fail before me, and the souls which I have made.

(t) 1 Sam. xxviii. 6. And when Saul inquired of the Lord, the Lord answered him not, neither by dreams, nor by prophets.

Ps. xxii. 1. My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my roaring?

2. O my God, I cry in the day-time, but thou hearest not; and in the night-season, and am not silent.

Zech. vii. 13. Therefore it came to pass, that as he cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would not hear, saith the Lord of hosts.

7 The (u) watchmen that went about the city found me, (x) they smote me, they wounded me: (y) the keepers of the walls (z) took away my veil from me.

(u) Cant. iii. 3. The watchmen that go about the city found me, to whom I said, Saw ye him whom my soul loveth?

Is. lvi. 10. His watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber.

11. Yea, they are greedy dogs, which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand; they all look to their own way, every one for his gain from his quarter.

Hos. ix. 8. The watchman of Ephraim was with my God: but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred in the house of God.

(x) John xvi. 2. They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.

(y) Cant. viii. 11. Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon; he let out the vineyard unto keepers: every one for the fruit thereof was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.

Is. lxii. 6. I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention of the Lord, keep not silence.

(z) Luke vi. 22. Blessed are ye when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.

Heb. xi. 36. And others had trials of cruel mockings and scourgings; yea, moreover, of bonds and imprisonment:

37. They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheep-skins and goat-skins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented.

8 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, (a) if ye find my beloved, that ye tell him, that (b) I am sick of love.

(a) Gal. vi. 1. Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such a one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

2. Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

James v. 16. Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual, fervent prayer of the righteous man availeth much.

(b) Ps. xlii. 1. As the hart panteth after the water-brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.

2. My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God?

3. My tears have been my meat day and night, while they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?

lxiii. 1. O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is.

cxix. 81. My soul fainteth for thy salvation; but I hope in thy word.

9 ¶ What (c) is thy beloved more than another beloved, (d) O thou fairest among women? what is thy beloved more than another beloved, that thou dost so charge us?

(c) Is. liii. 2. For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty, that we should desire him.

(d) Ps. lxxxvii. 3. Glorious things are spoken of thee, O city of God. Selah.

Cant. i. 8. If thou know not, O thou fairest among women, go thy way forth by the footsteps of the flock, and feed thy kids beside the shepherds' tents.

vi. 1. Whither is thy beloved gone, O thou fairest among women? whither is thy beloved turned aside, that we may seek him with thee?

10 My (e) beloved is white and ruddy, the (f) chiefest among ten thousand.

(e) Heb. vii. 26. For such a high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens.

(f) Phil. ii. 9. Wherefore, God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name;

10. That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

11. And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Col. i. 18. And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the first-born from the dead; that in all things he might have the pre-eminence.

Heb. ii. 10. For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

11 His (g) head is as the most fine gold, (h) his locks are bushy, and black as a raven.

(g) Dan. ii. 37. Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

38. And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold.

Eph. i. 21. Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come;

22. And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church.

(h) Dan. vii. 9. I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire.

Rev. i. 14. His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire.

12 His (i) eyes are as the eyes of doves by the rivers of waters, washed with milk, and fitly set.

(i) Cant. i. 15. Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes.

iv. 1. Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes within thy locks: thy hair is as a flock of goats that appear from Mount Gilead.

13 His (k) cheeks are (l) as a bed of spices, as sweet flowers: (m) his lips like lilies, dropping sweet-smelling myrrh.

(k) Cant. i. 10. Thy cheeks are comely with rows of jewels, thy neck with chains of gold.

Is. l. 6. I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting.

(l) Cant. iii. 6. Who is this that cometh out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant.

(m) Luke iv. 22. And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this Joseph's son?

14 His (n) hands are as gold rings set with the beryl: (o) his belly is as bright ivory overlaid with sapphires.

(n) Ex. xv. 6. Thy right hand, O Lord, is become glorious in power: thy right hand, O Lord, hath dashed in pieces the enemy.

Ps. xlv. 4. And in thy majesty ride prosperously, because of truth, and meekness, and righteousness; and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

(o) Ex. xxiv. 10. And they saw the God of Israel: and there was under his feet as it were a paved work of a sapphire-stone, and as it were the body of heaven in his clearness.

Is. liv. 11. O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will lay thy stones with fair colours, and lay thy foundations with sapphires.

Ez. i. 26. And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire-stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it.

27. And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire round about within it; from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about.

28. As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the Lord. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake.

15 His (p) legs are as pillars of marble, set upon (q) sockets of fine gold: (r) his countenance is (s) as Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.

(p) Rev. i. 15. And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.

(q) Ex. xxvi. 19. And thou shalt make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards: two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

(r) Judg. xiii. 6. Then the woman came, and told her husband, saying, A man of God came unto me, and his countenance was like the countenance of an angel of God, very terrible; but I asked him not whence he was, neither told he me his name.

Matt. xvii. 2. And was transfigured before them; and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

xxviii. 3. His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow.

Acts ii. 28. Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

Rev. i. 16. And he had in his right hand seven stars; and out of his mouth went a sharp two-edged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

(s) Ps. xcii. 12. The righteous shall flourish like the palm-tree; he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

16 His mouth is (t) most sweet: yea, he is altogether lovely. This is (u) my beloved, and this is my (x) friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

(t) Ps. xlv. 2. Thou art fairer than the children of men; grace is poured into thy lips: therefore God hath blessed thee for ever.

(u) Gal. ii. 20. I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

(x) Johns ii. 23. And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called The friend of God.

iv. 4. Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever, therefore, will be a friend of the world, is the enemy of God.

CHAPTER VI.

WHITHER is thy beloved gone, O thou fairest among women? whither is thy beloved turned aside? (a) that we may seek him with thee.

(a) Ruth i. 16. And Ruth said, Entreat me not to leave thee, or to return from following after thee: for whither thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge: thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God.

17. Where thou diest will I die, and there will I be buried: the Lord do so to me, and more also, if aught but death part thee and me.

Is. ii. 5. O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the Lord.

Zech. viii. 21. And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily to pray before the Lord, and to seek the Lord of hosts: I will go also.

22. Yea, many people and strong nations shall come to seek the Lord of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before the Lord.

23. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold, out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.

2 My beloved is (b) gone down into his garden, to the beds of spices, to (c) feed in the gardens, (d) and to gather lilies.

(b) Ec. ii. 5. I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits.

Is. lviii. 11. And the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.

Lxi. 11. For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

Matt. xviii. 20. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

(c) Is. xl. 11. He shall feed his flock like a shepherd; he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young.

Ec. xxxiv. 23. And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.

Rev. vii. 17. For the Lamb, which is in the midst of the throne, shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

(d) Is. lviii. 1. The righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart; and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come.

John xiv. 3. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

3 I am (e) my beloved's; and my beloved is mine: he feedeth among the lilies.

(e) Heb. viii. 10. For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts; and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people.

Rev. xxi. 2. And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

3. And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

4 ¶ Thou art (f) beautiful, O my love, (g) as Tirzah, (h) comely as Jerusalem, (i) terrible as an army with banners.

(f) Ec. xvi. 13. Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and brodered work: thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil; and thou wast exceeding beautiful, and thou didst prosper into a kingdom.

14. And thy renown went forth among the heathen for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my comeliness, which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord God.

Eph. v. 27. That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.

(g) 1 Kings xiv. 17. And Jeroboam's wife arose, and departed, and came to Tirzah: and when she came to the threshold of the door, the child died.

xv. 21. And it came to pass, when Baasha heard thereof, that he left off building of Ramah, and dwelt in Tirzah.

33. In the third year of Asa king of Judah began Baasha the son of Ahijah to reign over all Israel in Tirzah, twenty and four years.

(h) Ps. xlviii. 2. Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is Mount Zion; on the sides of the north, the city of the great King.

Lam. ii. 15. All that pass by clap their hands at thee; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?

(i) Zech. xii. 3. And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

2 Cor. x. 4. For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds.

5 Turn (k) away thine eyes from me, for they have overcome me: thy hair is as a flock of goats that appear from Gilead.

(k) Gen. xxxii. 26. And he said, Let me go, for the day breaketh. And he said, I will not let thee go, except thou bless me.

6 Thy teeth are as a flock of sheep which go up from the washing, whereof every one beareth twins, and there is not one barren among them.

7 As a piece of a pomegranate are thy temples within thy locks.

8 There are (l) threescore queens, and fourscore concubines, and virgins without number.

(l) 1 Kings xi. 1. But king Solomon loved many strange women, together with the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, and Hittites.

2 Chr. xi. 21. And Rehoboam loved Maacah, the daughter of Absalom, above all his wives and his concubines: (for he took eighteen wives, and threescore concubines; and begat twenty and eight sons, and threescore daughters.)

9 My dove, my undefiled is but

(m) one; she is the only one of her mother, she is the choice one of her that bare her. (n) The daughters saw her, and blessed her; yea, the queens and the concubines, and they praised her.

(m) Num. xxiii. 9. For from the top of the rocks I see him, and from the hills I behold him: lo, the people shall dwell alone, and shall not be reckoned among the nations.

Ps. xlv. 9. Kings' daughters were among thy honourable women: upon thy right hand did stand the queen in gold of Ophir.

Gal. iv. 26. But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

Eph. iv. 3. Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

4. There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;

5. One Lord, one faith, one baptism,

6. One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

(n) Deut. xxxiii. 29. Happy art thou, O Israel; who is like unto thee, O people saved by the Lord, the shield of thy help, and who is the sword of thy excellency! and thine enemies shall be found liars unto thee, and thou shalt tread upon their high places.

Ps. cxvii. 2. Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing: then said they among the heathen, The Lord hath done great things for them.

Prov. xxxi. 28. Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.

29. Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all.

Rev. xxi. 9. And there came unto me one of the seven angels, which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will show thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.

10. And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God.

10 (o) Who is she that (p) looketh forth as the morning, (q) fair as the moon, (r) clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners?

(o) Is. lxiii. 1. Who is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

(p) 2 Sam. xxiii. 4. And he shall be as the light of the morning, when the sun riseth, even a morning without clouds; as the tender grass springing out of the earth by clear shining after rain.

Job xi. 17. And thine age shall be clearer than the noon-day; thou shalt shine forth, thou shalt be as the morning.

Prov. iv. 18. But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

Is. lviii. 8. Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily; and thy righteousness shall go before thee: the glory of the Lord shall be thy reward.

Rev. xxii. 16. I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning-star.

(g) Job xxxi. 26. If I beheld the sun when it shineth, or the moon walking in brightness.

(r) Mal. iv. 2. But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

Matt. xiii. 43. Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

xvii. 2. And was transfigured before them; and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

Rev. xxi. 23. And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

xvii. 5. And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.

11 I went down into (s) the garden of nuts, (t) to see the fruits of the valley, and to see whether the vine flourished, and the pomegranates budded.

(s) Gen. ii. 9. And out of the ground made the Lord God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

Psa. xcii. 12. The righteous shall flourish like the palm-tree; he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

13. Those that be planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God.

14. They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing;

15. To show that the Lord is upright: he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

(t) Is. v. 2. And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a wine-press therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.

3. And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah; judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

4. What could have been done more to my vineyard that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?

Mark xi. 13. And seeing a fig-tree afar off, having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.

Luke xiii. 7. Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig-tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?

12 Or ever I was aware, (u) my soul made me like the chariots of Ammi-nadib.

(u) Luke xv. 20. And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

13 Return, (x) return, O Shulamite; return, return, that we may look upon thee. What will ye see in the (y) Shulamite? (z) As it were the company of two armies.

(x) Jer. iii. 12. Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the Lord, and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you; for I am merciful, saith the Lord, and I will not keep anger for ever.

13. Only acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the Lord thy God, and hast scattered thy ways to the strangers under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the Lord.

14. Turn, O backsliding children, saith the Lord; for I am married unto you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion.

22. Return, ye backsliding children, and I will heal your backslidings. Behold, we come unto thee; for thou art the Lord our God.

Hos. xiv. 1. O Israel, return unto the Lord thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity.

2. Take with you words, and turn to the Lord: say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously: so will we render the calves of our lips.

3. Asshur shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses; neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods: for in thee the fatherless findeth mercy.

4. I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him.

(y) Gen. xlix. 10. The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be.

Is. viii. 6. Forasmuch as this people refuseth the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son.

John ix. 7. And said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is, by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

Heb. vii. 2. To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all: first being, by interpretation, King of righteousness, and after that also, King of Salem, which is, King of peace.

(z) Eph. ii. 14. For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;

15. Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances: for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace;

16. And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby;

17. And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.

CHAPTER VII.

HOW beautiful are (a) thy feet with shoes, (b) O prince's daughter! (c) the joints of thy thighs are like jewels, (d) the work of the hands of a cunning workman.

(a) Luke xv. 22. But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet.

Eph. vi. 15. And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace.

(b) Ps. xlv. 13. The king's daughter is all glorious within; her clothing is of wrought gold.

2 Cor. vi. 18. And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

(c) Dan. ii. 32. This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass.

Eph. iv. 15. But, speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:

16. From whom the whole body fitly joined together, and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

Col. ii. 19. And not holding the head, from which all the body, by joints and bands, having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.

(d) Ex. xxviii. 15. And thou shalt make the breast-plate of judgment with cunning work; after the work of the ephod thou shalt make it; of gold, of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine twined linen, shalt thou make it.

xxxv. 35. Them hath he filled with wisdom of heart, to work all manner of work, of the engraver, and of the cunning workman, and of the embroiderer, in blue, and in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, even of them that do any work, and of those that devise cunning work.

2 Thy (e) navel is like a round goblet, which wanteth not liquor: (f) thy belly is like an heap of wheat set about with lilies.

(e) Prov. iii. 8. It shall be health to thy navel, and marrow to thy bones.

(f) Is. xlv. 3. Hearken unto me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, which are borne by me from the belly, which are carried from the womb.

Jer. i. 5. Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee; and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

3 Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins.

4 Thy neck is as a tower of ivory; thine eyes like the fish-pools in (g) Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rabbin: thy nose is as (h) the tower of Lebanon, which looketh toward (i) Damascus.

(g) Num. xxi. 25. And Israel took all these cities: and Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all the villages thereof.

Is. xv. 4. And Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh: their voice shall be heard, even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out; his life shall be grievous unto him.

(h) 1 Kings vii. 2. He built also the house of the forest of Lebanon; the length thereof was an hundred cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits, upon four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars.

2 Chr. viii. 6. And Baalath, and all the store cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion.

(i) Gen. xv. 2. And Abram said, Lord God, what wilt thou give me, seeing I go childless, and the steward of my house is this Eliezer of Damascus?

2 Sam. viii. 6. Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became ser-wants to David, and brought gifts. And the Lord preserved David whithersoever he went.

5 Thine (k) head upon thee is like Carmel, and the hair of thine head like purple: the king is held in the galleries.

(k) Is. xxxv. 2. It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing; the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon; they shall see the glory of the Lord, and the excellency of our God.

Eph. i. 22. And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church.

Col. i. 18. And he is the head of the body, the church; who is the beginning, the first-born from the dead; that in all things he might have the pre-eminence.

6 ¶ How fair and how pleasant art thou, O love, for delights!

7 This (l) thy stature is like to a palm-tree, and (m) thy breasts to clusters of grapes.

(l) Ps. xcii. 12. The righteous shall flourish like the palm-tree; he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

Jer. x. 5. They are upright as the palm-tree, but speak not: they must needs be borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good.

Eph. iv. 13. Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ.

(m) Is. lxvi. 10. Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her; 11. That ye may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.

8 I said, (n) I will go up to the palm-tree, I will take hold of the boughs thereof; now also thy breasts shall be as clusters of the vine, and (o) the smell of thy nose like apples;

(n) Jer. xxxii. 41. Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart, and with my whole soul.

(o) 2 Cor. ii. 14. Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

9 And (p) the roof of thy mouth like (q) the best wine for my beloved, that goeth down sweetly, causing the lips of those that are (r) asleep to speak.

(p) Prov. xvi. 24. Pleasant words are as a honey-comb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.

Eph. iv. 29. Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

Col. iv. 6. Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

(q) Is. lxiii. 8. The Lord hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I will no more give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine for the which thou hast laboured:

9. But they that have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the Lord; and they that have brought it together shall drink it in the courts of my holiness.

Zech. ix. 15. The Lord of hosts shall defend them; and they shall devour, and subdue with sling-stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they shall be filled like bowls, and as the corners of the altar.

16. And the Lord their God shall save them in that day as the flock of his people: for they shall be as the stones of a crown, lifted up as an ensign upon his land.

17. For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty! corn shall make the young men cheerful, and new wine the maids.

(r) 1 Thess. iv. 13. But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.

14. For if we believe that Jesus died, and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

Rev. xiv. 13. And I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

10 ¶ I am (s) my beloved's, and (t) his desire is toward me.

(s) 1 Cor. vi. 19. What! know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?

20. For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

Gal. ii. 20. I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

(t) Job xiv. 15. Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee: thou wilt have a desire to the work of thy hands.

Ps. cxlvii. 11. The Lord taketh pleasure in them that fear him, in those that hope in his mercy.

John xvii. 24. Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.

11 Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field; let us lodge in the villages:

12 Let us (u) get up early to the vineyards; (x) let us see if the vine flourish, whether (y) the tender grape appear, and the pomegranates bud forth: there (z) will I give thee my loves.

(u) Prov. viii. 17. I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me.

(x) Prov. xxiv. 30. I went by the field of the slothful, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding;

31. And lo, it was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered the face thereof, and the stone wall thereof was broken down.

Acts xv. 36. And some days after, Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren, in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

(y) Is. xviii. 5. For afore the harvest, when the bud is perfect, and the sour grape is ripening in the flower, he shall both cut off the sprigs with pruning-hooks, and take away and cut down the branches.

(z) Ps. lxxiii. 25. Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire besides thee.

Ez. xx. 40. For in mine holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord God, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, serve me: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the first-fruits of your oblations, with all your holy things.

41. I will accept you with your sweet savour, when I bring you out from the people, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered, and I will be sanctified in you before the heathen.

13 The (a) mandrakes give a smell, and (b) at our gates are all manner of pleasant fruits, (c) new and old, which (d) I have laid up for thee, O my beloved.

(a) Gen. xxx. 14. And Reuben went, in the days of wheat-harvest, and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them unto his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, Give me, I pray thee, of thy son's mandrakes.

(b) John xv. 8. Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

Gal. v. 22. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, 23. Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

Eph. v. 9. (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness, and righteousness, and truth.)

Phil. i. 11. Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ unto the glory and praise of God.

(c) Matt. xiii. 52. Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe, which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven, is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

(d) Is. xxiii. 18. And her merchandise and her hire shall be holiness to the Lord: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the Lord, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.

1 Cor. xvi. 2. Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

Col. iii. 17. And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

CHAPTER VIII.

O (a) THAT thou wert as my brother, that (b) sucked the breasts of my mother; when I should find thee without, (c) I would kiss thee; yea, I should not be despised.

(a) Is. vii. 14. Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign: Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.

ix. 6. For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given, and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

Matt. xiii. 16. But blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears for they hear.

17. For verily I say unto you, that many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

1 Tim. iii. 16. And, without controversy, great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

(b) Gal. iv. 26. But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

(c) Ps. ii. 12. Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

Luke ix. 26. For whosoever shall be ashamed of me, and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.

2 I would lead thee, and bring thee into my mother's house, who would instruct me: I would cause thee to drink of (d) spiced wine of the juice of my pomegranate.

(d) Prov. ix. 2. She hath killed her beasts; she hath mingled her wine; she hath also furnished her table.

3 His (e) left hand should be under my head, and his right hand should embrace me.

(e) Deut. xxxiii. 27. The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms: and he shall thrust out the enemy from before thee, and shall say, Destroy them.

4 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, until he please.

5 ¶ Who is this that cometh up (f) from the wilderness, (g) leaning upon her beloved? I raised thee up under the apple-tree: there thy mother brought thee forth; there she brought thee forth that bare thee.

(f) Is. xl. 3. The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

xliii. 19. Behold, I will do a new thing: now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen.

Jer. ii. 2. Go, and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the Lord, I remember thee, the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals, when thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

(g) Ps. lxxiii. 8. My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me.

Is. xxvi. 3. Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee; because he trusteth in thee.

4. Trust ye in the Lord for ever: for in the Lord JEHOVAH is everlasting strength.

Mic. iii. 11. The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the Lord; and say, Is not the Lord among us? none evil can come upon us.

John xiii. 23. Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom, one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved.

2 Cor. xii. 9. And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee; for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly, therefore, will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10. Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

6 ¶ Set me (h) as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm: for (i) love is strong as death; (k) jealousy is cruel as the grave: (l) the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame.

(h) Is. xlix. 16. Behold, I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me.

Jer. xxii. 24. As I live, saith the Lord, though Coniah, the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, were the signet upon my right hand, yet would I pluck thee thence.

2 Tim. ii. 19. Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ, depart from iniquity.

(i) Ps. xlii. 1. As the hart panteth after the water-brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.

2. My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God? lxiii. 1. O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is.

lxxxiv. 2. My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God.

Acts xx. 24. But none of these things move me; neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God. xxi. 13. Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep, and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem, for the name of the Lord Jesus.

Rev. xii. 11. And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.

(k) Num. v. 14. And the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be defiled; so if the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be not defiled.

Deut. xxxii. 21. They have moved me to jealousy with that which is not God; they have provoked me to anger with their vanities: and I will move them to jealousy with those which are not a people; I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.

Prov. vi. 34. For jealousy is the rage of a man; therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

(l) Ps. cxx. 4. Sharp arrows of the mighty, with coals of juniper.

Prov. xxv. 22. For thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head, and the Lord shall reward thee.

Rom. xii. 20. Therefore, if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink; for in so doing, thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head.

7 Many (m) waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would utterly be contemned.

(m) Is. xliiii. 2. When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire thou shalt not be burnt; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.

Matt. vii. 24. Therefore, whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock;

25. And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house, and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.

8 ¶ We have (n) a little sister, and (o) she hath no breasts: (p) what shall we do for our sister, (q) in the day when she shall be spoken for?

(n) Ex. xv. 46. And thine elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters that dwell at thy left hand; and thy younger sister that dwelleth at thy right hand is Sodom and her daughters.

55. When thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, then thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate.

56. For thy sister Sodom was not mentioned by thy mouth in the day of thy pride.

61. Then thou shalt remember thy ways, and be ashamed, when thou shalt receive thy sisters, thine elder and thy younger: and I will give them unto thee for daughters, but not by thy covenant.

(o) Rom. iii. 1. What advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

2. Much every way: chiefly because that unto them were committed the oracles of God.

Eph. ii. 12. That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenant of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world.

(p) Ps. ii. 8. Ask of me, and I shall give the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

Is. xlix. 6. And he said, It is a light thing that thou shouldst be my servant, to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel; I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth.

Acts xxii. 21. And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles.

(q) Luke xix. 44. And shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

1 Pet. ii. 12. Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles; that, whereas they speak against you as evil-doers, they may, by your good works which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.

9 If she be a wall, (r) we will build upon her a palace of silver; and if she be (s) a door, we will inclose her with boards of cedar.

(r) Is. lviii. 12. And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations, and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.

lvi. 4. And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

Acts xv. 16. After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up.

(s) Acts xiv. 27. And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles.

10 I am a wall, and my breasts like towers: (t) then was I in his eyes as one that found favour.

(t) Gen. vi. 8. But Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord.

Deut. vii. 7. The Lord did not set his love upon you, nor choose you, because ye were more in number than any people; for ye were the fewest of all people:

8. But because the Lord loved you; and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn unto your fathers, hath the Lord brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bond-men, from the hand of Pharaoh, king of Egypt.

Prov. iii. 4. So shalt thou find favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man.

Luke i. 30. And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary; for thou hast found favour with God.

11 ¶ Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon; he let out the vineyard unto keepers; every one for the fruit thereof was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.

12 My (u) vineyard, which is mine, is before me: thou, O Solomon, must have a thousand, and those that keep the fruit thereof two hundred.

(u) Prov. iv. 23. Keep thy heart with all diligence: for out of it are the issues of life.

13 Thou that dwellest in the gardens, the companions hearken to thy voice: cause me to hear it.

14 ¶ Make haste, my beloved, and be thou like to a roe, or to a young hart upon the mountains of spices.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET ISAIAH.

CHAPTER I.

THE (a) vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in (b) the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

(a) Num. xii. 6. And he said, Hear now my words: if there be a prophet among you, I the Lord will make myself known unto him in a vision, and will speak unto him in a dream.

xxiv. 4. He hath said, which heard the words of God, which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open.

16. He hath said, which heard the words of God, and knew the knowledge of the Most High, which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open.

2 Chr. xxxii. 32. Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his goodness, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

Ps. lxxxix. 19. Then thou spakest in vision to thy holy one, and saidst, I have laid help upon one that is mighty; I have exalted one chosen out of the people.

Jer. xxiii. 16. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain: they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the Lord.

Nah. i. 1. The burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

Hab. ii. 2. And the Lord answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.

Matt. xvii. 9. And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.

Acts x. 17. Now, while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius had made inquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate.

xxvi. 19. Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision.

2 Cor. xii. 1. It is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

(b) Hos. i. 1. The word of the Lord that came unto Hosea, the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam, the son of Joash, king of Israel.

Amos i. 1. The words of Amos, who was among the herdmen of Tekoah, which he saw concerning Israel, in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam, the son of Joash, king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

Mic. i. 1. The word of the Lord that came to Micah the Morasthite, in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 (c) Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth; (d) for the LORD hath spoken, (e) I have nourished and brought up children, and (f) they have rebelled against me.

(c) Deut. iv. 26. I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that ye shall soon utterly perish from off the land whereunto ye go over Jordan to possess it; ye shall not prolong your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed.

xxx. 19. I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore, choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live.

xxxii. 1. Give ear, O ye heavens, and I will speak; and hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.

Ps. l. 4. He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people.

Jer. ii. 12. Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the Lord.

vi. 19. Hear, O earth: behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words, nor to my law, but rejected it.

xxii. 29. O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the Lord.

Mic. i. 2. Hear, all ye people: hearken, O earth, and all that therein is; and let the Lord God be witness against you, the Lord from his holy temple.

(d) Jer. xiii. 15. Hear ye, and give ear; be not proud: for the Lord hath spoken.

Amos iii. 1. Hear this word that the Lord hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying, (e) Deut. i. 31. And in the wilderness, where thou hast seen how that the Lord thy God bare thee, as a man doth bear his son, in all the way that ye went, until ye came into this place.

iv. 7. For what nation is there so great, who hath God so nigh unto them, as the Lord our God is in all things that we call upon him for?

Jer. xxxi. 9. They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble; for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born.

(f) Deut. ix. 22. And at Taberah, and at Massah, and at Kibroth-hattaavah, ye provoked the Lord to wrath.

23. Likewise, when the Lord sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you; then ye rebelled against the commandment of the Lord your God, and ye believed him not, nor hearkened to his voice.

24. Ye have been rebellious against the Lord from the day that I knew you.

Mal. i. 6. A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the Lord of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my name. And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name?

3 The (g) ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib; (h) but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider.

(g) Prov. vi. 6. Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise.

Jer. viii. 7. Yea, the stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and the turtle, and the crane, and the swallow, observe the time of their coming: but my people know not the judgment of the Lord.

(h) Deut. xxxii. 28. For they are a nation void of counsel, neither is there any understanding in them.

29. Oh that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end!

Ps. xciv. 8. Understand, ye brutish among the people; and ye fools, when will ye be wise?

Jer. iv. 22. For my people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

4 (i) Ah, sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, (k) a seed of evil-doers, (l) children that are corrupters! They (m) have forsaken the LORD, they (n) have provoked (o) the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.

(i) Gen. xiii. 13. But the men of Sodom were wicked, and sinners before the Lord exceedingly.

Is. x. 6. I will send him against an hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

Acts vii. 51. Ye stiff-necked, and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye.

52. Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which showed before of the coming of the Just One: of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers.

Hee. xviii. 5. For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

(k) Num. xxxii. 14. And, behold, ye are risen up in your fathers' stead, an increase of sinful men, to augment yet the fierce anger of the Lord toward Israel.

L. lvii. 3. But draw near hither, ye sons of the sorcerers, the seed of the adulterer and the whore.

4. Against whom do ye sport yourselves? against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue? are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood?

Jer. vii. 26. Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but hardened their neck; they did worse than their fathers.

xvi. 11. Then shalt thou say unto them, Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith the Lord, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law:

12. And ye have done worse than your fathers: (for, behold, ye walk every one after the imagination of his evil heart, that they may not hearken unto me.)

Matt. iii. 7. But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers! who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

xxiii. 33. Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers! how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

(l) Jer. ii. 33. Why trimmest thou thy way to seek love? therefore hast thou also taught the wicked ones thy ways.

Ez. xvi. 33. They give gifts to all whores; but thou givest thy gifts to all thy lovers, and hirest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredom.

(m) Deut. xxxix. 25. Then men shall say, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the Lord God of their fathers, which he made with them, when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt.

Judg. x. 10. And the children of Israel cried unto the Lord, saying, We have sinned against thee, both because we have forsaken our God, and also served Baalim.

Jer. ii. 13. For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

17. Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the Lord thy God, when he led thee by the way?

19. Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know, therefore, and see, that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the Lord thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord God of hosts.

(n) Deut. xxxii. 19. And when the Lord saw it, he abhorred them, because of the provoking of his sons, and of his daughters.

Ps. lxxviii. 40. How oft did they provoke him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert?

Jer. vii. 19. Do they provoke me to anger? saith the Lord: do they not provoke themselves to the confusion of their own faces?

1 Cor. x. 22. Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he?

(o) Ps. lxxxix. 18. For the Lord is our defence, and the Holy One of Israel is our King.

Jer. li. 5. For Israel hath not been forsaken, nor Judah of his God, of the Lord of hosts; though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel.

5 Why (p) should ye be stricken any more? (q) ye will revolt more and more: (r) the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

(p) Jer. ii. 30. In vain have I smitten your children; they received no correction: your own sword hath devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.

v. 3. O Lord, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return.

(q) 2 Chr. xxviii. 22. And in the time of his distress did he trespass yet more against the Lord: this is that king Ahaz.

Jer. ix. 3. And they bend their tongues like their bow for lies; but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth: for they proceed from evil to evil, and they know not me, saith the Lord.

(r) Jer. v. 5. I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for they have known the way of the Lord, and the judgment of their God: but these have altogether broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.

6 From (s) the sole of the foot even unto the head, there is no soundness in it; but wounds, (t) and bruises, and putrefying sores: (u) they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment.

(s) Job ii. 7. So went Satan forth from the presence of the Lord, and smote Job with sore boils, from the sole of his foot unto his crown.

8. And he took him a potsherd to scrape himself withal; and he sat down among the ashes.

Luke xvi. 20. And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate full of sores,

21. And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came, and licked his sores.

(t) Ps. lxxvii. 2. In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord: my soul ran in the night, and ceased not: my soul refused to be comforted.

Jer. vi. 14. They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

Nah. iii. 19. There is no healing of thy bruise: thy wound is grievous: all that hear the bruit of thee shall clap the hands over thee: for upon whom hath not thy wickedness passed continually?

(u) Job v. 18. For he maketh sore, and bindeth up; he woundeth, and his hands make whole.

Jer. viii. 21. For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt; I am black; astonishment hath taken hold on me.

22. Is there no balm in Gilead? is there no physician there? why then is not the health of the daughter of my people recovered?

7 Your (x) country is desolate, your cities are (y) burned with fire: your land, (z) strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers.

(x) Lev. xxvi. 34. Then shall the land enjoy her sabbaths as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her sabbaths.

Ps. cvii. 34. A fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

Jer. vi. 8. Be thou instructed, O Jerusalem, lest my soul depart from thee; lest I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited.

(y) Jer. ii. 15. The young lions roared upon him, and yelled, and they made his land waste: his cities are burned without inhabitant.

(z) Lam. v. 2. Our inheritance is turned to strangers, our houses to aliens.

Ez. xxx. 12. And I will make the rivers dry, and sell the land into the hand of the wicked; and I will make the land waste, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I the Lord have spoken it.

Hos. vii. 9. Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not; yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he knoweth not.

8 And (a) the daughter of Zion is left (b) as a cottage in the vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, (c) as a besieged city.

(a) Ps. ix. 14. That I may show forth all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion: I will rejoice in thy salvation.

Lam. ii. 1. How hath the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, and cast down from heaven unto the earth the beauty of Israel, and remembered not his footstool in the day of his anger!

Zech. ii. 10. Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the Lord.

ix. 9. Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee; he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

(b) Job xxvii. 18. He buildeth his house as a moth, and as a booth that the keeper maketh.

Lam. ii. 6. And he hath violently taken away his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden; he hath destroyed his places of the assembly: the Lord hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised, in the indignation of his anger, the king and the priest.

(c) Luke xix. 43. For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side,

44. And shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

9 Except the LORD of hosts had (d) left unto us (e) a very small remnant, (f) we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

(d) Rom. ix. 29. And as Esaias said before, Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we had been as Sodom, and been made like unto Gomorrha.

(e) 1 Kings xix. 18. Yet I have left me seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth which hath not kissed him.

Ez. vi. 8. Yet will I leave a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries.

xiv. 22. Yet, behold, therein shall be left a remnant that shall be brought forth, both sons and daughters; behold, they shall come forth unto you, and ye shall see their way and their doings: and ye shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought upon it.

Joel ii. 32. And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be delivered: for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the Lord hath said, and in the remnant whom the Lord shall call.

Matt. vii. 14. Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

Rom. ix. 27. Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved.

(f) Gen. xviii. 26. And the Lord said, If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes.

32. And he said, Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak yet but this once: Peradventure ten shall be found there? And he said, I will not destroy it for ten's sake.

xix. 24. Then the Lord rained upon Sodom, and upon Gomorrah, brimstone and fire from the Lord out of heaven.

Deut. xxix. 23. And that the whole land thereof is brimstone, and salt, and burning, that it is not sown, nor beareth, nor any grass groweth therein, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboim, which the Lord overthrew in his anger, and in his wrath.

Lam. iv. 6. For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her.

Amos iv. 11. I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning; yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

10 ¶ (g) Hear the word of the Lord, ye rulers of (h) Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah.

(g) Amos iii. 1. Hear this word that the Lord hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying,

8. The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord God hath spoken, who can but prophesy?

(h) Gen. xiii. 13. But the men of Sodom were wicked, and sinners before the Lord exceedingly.

Deut. xxxii. 32. For their vine is of the vine of Sodom, and of the fields of Gomorrah: their grapes are grapes of gall, their clusters are bitter.

Rev. xi. 8. And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.

11 To (i) what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt-offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts, and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he-goats.

(i) 1 Sam. xv. 22. And Samuel said, Hath the Lord as great delight in burnt-offerings and sacrifices as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice; and to hearken than the fat of rams.

Ps. i. 8. I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices or thy burnt-offerings, to have been continually before me.

9. I will take no bullock out of thy house, nor he-goats out of thy folds.

li. 16. For thou desirest not sacrifice, else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt-offering.

17. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

Prov. xv. 8. The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord: but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

Jer. vi. 20. To what purpose cometh there to me incense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? your burnt-offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet unto me.

Mic. vi. 7. Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my first-born for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

12 When (k) ye come to appear before me, who hath (l) required this at your hand, to tread my courts?

(k) Ex. xxiii. 17. Three times in the year all thy males shall appear before the Lord God.

(l) Ps. xl. 6. Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire; mine ears hast thou opened: burnt-offering and sin-offering hast thou not required.

Mic. vi. 8. He hath showed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?

13 Bring no more (m) vain oblations: incense is an abomination unto me: (n) the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with: (o) it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting.

(m) Mal. i. 10. Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the Lord of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand.

(n) Joel i. 14. Sanctify ye a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the elders, and all the inhabitants of the land, into the house of the Lord your God, and cry unto the Lord.

ii. 15. Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly.

(o) 1 Cor. xi. 17. Now, in this that I declare unto you, I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.

Phil. i. 15. Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will.

14 Your new moons and your appointed feasts (p) my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; (q) I am weary to bear them.

(p) Amos v. 21. I hate, I despise your feasts, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies.

(q) Amos ii. 13. Behold, I am pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves.

Mal. ii. 17. Ye have wearied the Lord with your words: yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the Lord, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?

15 And (r) when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you; yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood.

(r) 1 Kings viii. 22. And Solomon stood before the altar of the Lord, in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven.

Ezra ix. 5. And at the evening sacrifice I arose up from my heaviness; and, having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto the Lord my God.

Ps. cxxxiv. 2. Lift up your hands in the sanctuary, and bless the Lord.

16 (s) Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; (t) cease to do evil;

(s) Job xi. 13. If thou prepare thine heart, and stretch out thine hands toward him;

14. If iniquity be in thine hand, put it far away, and let not wickedness dwell in thy tabernacles.

Ps. xxvi. 6. I will wash mine hands in innocency: so will I compass thine altar, O Lord.

Jer. iv. 14. O Jerusalem, wash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved: how long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee?

Acts xxii. 16. And now, why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord.

James iv. 8. Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners, and purify your hearts, ye double-minded.

Rev. vii. 14. And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

(t) Ps. xxxiv. 14. Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it.

xxxvii. 27. Depart from evil, and do good; and dwell for evermore.

Amos v. 15. Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: it may be that the Lord God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph.

Rom. xii. 9. Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

17 Learn to do well; (u) seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.

(u) Ps. lxxxii. 3. Defend the poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and needy.

4. Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked.

Prov. xxxi. 9. Open thy mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the poor and needy.

Zech. vii. 9. Thus speaketh the Lord of hosts, saying, Execute true judgment, and show mercy and compassions every man to his brother:

10. And oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

18 Come now, (x) and let us reason together, saith the LORD:

(y) though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

(x) 1 Sam. xii. 7. Now, therefore, stand still, that I may reason with you before the Lord, of all the righteous acts of the Lord, which he did to you, and to your fathers.

Mic. vi. 2. Hear ye, O mountains, the Lord's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the Lord hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

3. O my people, what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me.

(y) Ps. li. 7. Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Mic. vii. 18. Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.

19. He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

Rom. v. 20. Moreover, the law entered, that the offence might abound: but where sin abounded, grace did much more abound.

19 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land:

20 But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: (z) for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

(z) Num. xxxiii. 19. God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good?

1 Sam. xv. 29. And also the Strength of Israel will not lie, nor repent: for he is not a man, that he should repent.

Tit. i. 2. In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began.

21 ¶ How is (a) the faithful city (b) become an harlot! (c) it was full of judgment: righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers.

(a) Zech. viii. 3. Thus saith the Lord, I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem, and Jerusalem shall be called, A city of truth, and the mountain of the Lord of hosts, The holy mountain.

Heb. xii. 22. But ye are come unto Mount Zion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels.

(b) Jer. ii. 20. For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not transgress; when upon every high hill, and under every green tree, thou wanderest, playing the harlot.

iii. 1. They say, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, shall he return unto her again? shall not that land be greatly polluted? but thou hast played the harlot with many lovers; yet return again to me, saith the Lord.

(c) 2 Sam. viii. 15. And David reigned over all Israel: and David executed judgment and justice unto all his people.

22 Thy (d) silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water:

(d) Lam. iv. 1. How is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the sanctuary are poured out in the top of every street.

2. The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!

23 Thy princes are rebellious, (e) and companions of thieves; (f) every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: (g) they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

(e) Prov. xxix. 24. Whoso is partner with a thief, hateth his own soul: he heareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not.

Matt. xxi. 13. And said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves.

(f) Ez. xxiii. 8. And thou shalt take no gift; for the gift blindeth the wise, and perverteth the words of the righteous.

Prov. xvii. 23. A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosom to pervert the ways of judgment.

Hos. iv. 18. Their drink is sour: they have committed whoredom continually: her rulers with shame do love, Give ye.

(g) Mal. iii. 5. And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the Lord of hosts.

24 Therefore, saith the LORD, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, (h) Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies.

(h) Deut. xxviii. 63. And it shall come to pass, that, as the Lord rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you; so the Lord will rejoice over you to destroy you, and to bring you to nought: and ye shall be plucked from off the land whither thou goest to possess it.

xxxii. 43. Rejoice, O ye nations, with his people: for he will avenge the blood of his servants, and will render vengeance to his adversaries, and will be merciful unto his land, and to his people.

Prov. i. 26. I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh.

Ez. v. 13. Thus shall mine anger be accomplished, and I will cause my fury to rest upon them, and I will be comforted: and they shall know that I the Lord have spoken it in my zeal, when I have accomplished my fury in them.

25 And I will turn my hand upon thee, and purely (i) purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin.

(i) Jer. ix. 7. Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, Behold, I will melt them, and try them; for how shall I do for the daughter of my people?

Mal. iii. 3. And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offer in righteousness.

Matt. iii. 12. Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner: but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

26 And I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward (k) thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, The faithful city.

(k) Zech. viii. 8. And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

Rev. xxi. 27. And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie, but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness.

28 And (l) the destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and (m) they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

(l) Job xxxi. 3. Is not destruction to the wicked? and a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity?

Ps. i. 6. For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

xxxvii. 38. But the transgressors shall be destroyed together; the end of the wicked shall be cut off.

2 Thess. i. 8. In flaming fire; taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ;

9. Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power.

(m) 1 Sam. xii. 25. But if ye shall still do wickedly, ye shall be consumed, both ye and your king.

1 Chr. xxviii. 9. And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart, and with a willing mind; for the Lord searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever.

29 For they shall be (n) ashamed of (o) the oaks which ye have desired, and ye shall be confounded for the gardens that ye have chosen.

(n) Ez. xvi. 63. That thou mayest remember, and be confounded, and never open thy mouth any more because of thy shame, when I am pacified toward thee for all that thou hast done, saith the Lord God.

xxxvi. 31. Then shall ye remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and shall loathe yourselves in your own sight, for your iniquities, and for your abominations.

(o) Ez. vi. 13. Then shall ye know that I am the Lord, when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars, upon every high hill, in all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the place where they did offer sweet savour to all their idols.

Hos. iv. 13. They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks, and poplars, and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery.

30 For (p) ye shall be as an oak whose leaf fadeth, and as a garden that hath no water.

(p) Jer. xvii. 5. Thus saith the Lord, Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the Lord;

6. For he shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, in a salt land and not inhabited.

Ez. xvii. 9. Say thou, Thus saith the Lord God, Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof;

10. Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither when the east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

31 And the strong shall be as tow, and the maker of it as a spark, and (q) they shall both burn together, and none shall quench them.

(q) Ez. xx. 47. And say to the forest of the south, Hear the word of the Lord: Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour every green tree in thee, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burnt therein.

48. And all flesh shall see that I the Lord have kindled it: it shall not be quenched.

Mal. iv. 1. For, behold, the day cometh that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

Rev. xiv. 10. The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11. And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

xix. 20. And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

CHAPTER II.

THE word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

2 And it shall come to pass (a) in the last days, that (b) the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; (c) and all nations shall flow unto it.

(a) Gen. xlix. 1. And Jacob called unto his sons, and said, Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you that which shall befall you in the last days.

Num. xxiv. 14. And now, behold, I go unto my people: come, therefore, and I will advertise thee what this people shall do to thy people in the latter days.

Job xix. 25. For I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth.

Jer. xxiii. 20. The anger of the Lord shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly.

Acts ii. 17. And it shall come to pass in the last days, (saith God,) I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams.

2 Tim. iii. 1. This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come.

Heb. i. 2. Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds.

2 Pet. iii. 3. Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts.

(b) Ps. lxxviii. 15. The hill of God is as the hill of Bashan; an high hill as the hill of Bashan.

16. Why leap ye, ye high hills? this is the hill which God desireth to dwell in; yea, the Lord will dwell in it for ever.

(c) Jer. iii. 17. At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the Lord; and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of the Lord, to Jerusalem; neither shall they walk any more after the imagination of their evil heart.

Mal. iii. 12. And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delightsome land, saith the Lord of hosts.

Rev. xi. 15. And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.

3 And many people shall go and say, (d) Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and (e) he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: (f) for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

(d) Ps. cxxii. 1. I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord.

Jr. xxxi. 6. For there shall be a day that the watchmen upon the mount Ephraim shall cry, Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion unto the Lord our God.

1. 4. In those days, and in that time, saith the Lord, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, going and weeping: they shall go, and seek the Lord their God.

5. They shall ask the way to Zion, with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the Lord in a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.

(e) Ps. xxv. 8. Good and upright is the Lord: therefore will he teach sinners in the way.

9. The meek will he guide in judgment, and the meek will he teach his way.

(f) Ps. cx. 2. The Lord shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.

Luke xxiv. 47. And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

4 And (g) he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people; (h) and they shall beat their swords into plough-shares, and their spears into pruning-hooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

(g) 1 Sam. ii. 10. The adversaries of the Lord shall be broken to pieces; out of heaven shall he thunder upon them: the Lord shall judge the ends of the earth, and he shall give strength unto his king, and exalt the horn of his anointed.

Ps. lxxxii. 8. Arise, O God, judge the earth: for thou shalt inherit all nations.

xvii. 13. Before the Lord: for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

cx. 6. He shall judge among the heathen, he shall fill the places with the dead bodies; he shall wound the heads over many countries.

Acts xvii. 31. Because he hath appointed a day in the which he will judge the world in righteousness, by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

(h) Ps. xlvi. 9. He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder: he burneth the chariot in the fire.

Hos. ii. 18. And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bow, and the sword, and the battle, out of the earth, and will make them to lie down safely.

Joel iii. 10. Beat your plough-shares into swords, and your pruning-hooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong.

Mic. iv. 3. And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off: and they shall beat their swords into plough-shares, and their spears into pruning-hooks; nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

Zech. ix. 10. And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle-bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak peace unto the heathen; and his dominion shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth.

5 O house of Jacob, (i) come ye, and let us walk in the light of the LORD.

(i) Ps. lxxxix. 15. Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: they shall walk, O Lord, in the light of thy countenance.

Luke i. 79. To give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

1 John i. 7. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another: and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

6 ¶ Therefore (k) thou hast forsaken thy people, the house of Jacob, because they be replenished from the east, (l) and are soothsayers like the Philistines, (m) and they please themselves in the children of strangers.

(k) Deut. xxxi. 16. And the Lord said unto Moses, Behold, thou shalt sleep with thy fathers; and this people will rise up, and go a whoring after the gods of the strangers of the land whither they go to be among them, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them.

17. Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall befall them; so that they will say in that day, Are not these evils come upon us because our God is not among us?

2 Chr. xv. 2. And he went out to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin; The Lord is with you while ye be with him: and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.

(l) Ex. xxii. 18. Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live.

Lev. xix. 31. Regard not them that have familiar spirits, neither seek after wizards, to be defiled by them: I am the Lord your God.

xx. 6. And the soul that turneth after such as have familiar spirits, and after wizards, to go a whoring after them, I will even set my face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people.

(m) Ex. xxxiv. 16. And thou take of their daughters unto thy sons, and their daughters go a whoring after their gods, and make thy sons go a whoring after their gods.

1 Kings xi. 1. But king Solomon loved many strange women, together with the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, and Hittites;

2. Of the nations concerning which the Lord said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall not go in to them, neither shall they come in unto you; for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods. Solomon clave unto these in love.

Ps. cvi. 35. But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works.

7 Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures; (n) their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots:

(n) Deut. xvii. 16. But he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he should multiply horses: forasmuch as the Lord hath said unto you, Ye shall henceforth return no more that way.

1 Kings iv. 26. And Solomon had forty thousand stall of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.

Ps. xx. 7. Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of the Lord our God.

8 Their land also (o) is full of idols; they (p) worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made:

(o) Jer. xi. 13. For according to the number of thy cities were thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to that shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal.

Hos. xii. 11. Is there iniquity in Gilead? surely they are vanity: they sacrifice bullocks in Gilead; yea, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields.

Acts xvii. 16. Now, while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.

(p) Deut. iv. 28. And there ye shall serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.

Hos. xiv. 3. Asshur shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses; neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods: for in thee the fatherless findeth mercy.

9 And (q) the mean man boweth down, and the great man humbleth himself: (r) therefore forgive them not.

(q) Ps. xlix. 2. Both low and high, rich and poor, together.

Rom. iii. 23. For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God.

(r) Josh. xxiv. 19. And Joshua said unto the people, Ye cannot serve the Lord: for he is a holy God; he is a jealous God; he will not forgive your transgressions, nor your sins.

Jer. xviii. 23. Yet, Lord, thou knowest all their counsel against me to slay me: forgive not their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from thy sight; but let them be overthrown before thee: deal thus with them in the time of thine anger.

Mark iii. 29. But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation.

10 ¶ Enter (s) into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, (t) for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty.

(s) Job xxx. 5. They were driven forth from among men, (they cried after them as after a thief;)

6. To dwell in the cliffs of the valleys, in caves of the earth, and in the rocks.

Luke xxiii. 30. Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.

Rev. vi. 15. And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free-man, hid themselves in the dens, and in the rocks of the mountains;

16. And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb.

(t) Job xxxi. 23. For destruction from God was a terror to me; and by reason of his highness I could not endure.

Jer. x. 7. Who would not fear thee, O King of nations? for to thee doth it appertain: forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none like unto thee.

10. But the Lord is the true God, he is the living God, and an everlasting King: at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.

11 The (u) lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, (x) and the LORD alone shall be exalted (y) in that day.

(u) Ps. xviii. 27. For thou wilt save the afflicted people; but wilt bring down high looks.

Jer. l. 31. Behold, I am against thee, O thou most proud, saith the Lord God of hosts; for thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee.

32. And the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up: and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him.

Luke xviii. 4. I tell you, This man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

(x) Jer. ix. 24. But let him that glorieth, glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lord which exercise loving-kindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the Lord.

2 Cor. x. 17. But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

(y) Jer. xxx. 7. Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it.

8. For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him.

ix. 11. In that day will I raise up the remnant of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof: and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old.

Ob. 8. Shall I not in that day, saith the Lord, even destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau?

12 For (z) the day of the LORD of hosts shall be (a) upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up; and he shall be brought low;

(z) Jer. xli. 10. For this is the day of the Lord God of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and the sword shall devour, and it shall be satiate and made drunk with their blood; for the Lord God of hosts hath a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates.

Amos v. 18. Wo unto you that desire the day of the Lord! to what end is it for you? the day of the Lord is darkness, and not light.

Mal. iv. 5. Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord.

1 Thess. v. 2. For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

(a) Dan. iv. 37. Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise, and extol, and honour the King of heaven, all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment: and those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

Matt. xxiii. 12. And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased: and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.

James iv. 6. But he giveth more grace: wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

13 And (b) upon all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan, (b) Zech. xi. 1. Open thy doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour thy cedars.

2. Howl, fir-tree, for the cedar is fallen; because the mighty are spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bashan, for the forest of the vintage is come down.

14 And (c) upon all the high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up,

(c) Ps. lxxviii. 16. Why leap ye, ye high hills? this is the hill which God desireth to dwell in; yea, the Lord will dwell in it for ever.

2 Cor. x. 5. Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ.

15 And upon every high tower, and upon every fenced wall,

16 And upon all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all pleasant pictures:

17 And (d) the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be made low: and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

(d) Is. xliii. 11. And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.

Jer. xlvi. 29. We have heard the pride of Moab, (he is exceeding proud) his loftiness, and his arrogancy, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart.

30. I know his wrath, saith the Lord: but it shall not be so; his lies shall not so effect it.

18 And (e) the idols he shall utterly abolish.

(e) Ez. xxxvi. 25. Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean; from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.

xxxvii. 23. Neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will save them out of all their dwelling-places wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God.

Hos. xiv. 8. Ephraim shall say, What have I to do any more with idols? I have heard him, and observed him: I am like a green fir-tree; from me is thy fruit found.

Zeph. i. 3. I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and the stumbling blocks with the wicked: and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the Lord.

19 And (f) they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, (g) when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.

(f) 1 Sam. xiii. 6. When the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait (for the people were distressed) then the people did hide themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in high places, and in pits.

xiv. 11. And both of them discovered themselves unto the garrison of the Philistines; and the Philistines said, Behold, the Hebrews come forth out of the holes where they had hid themselves.

Hos. x. 8. The high places also of Aven, the son of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

Mic. vii. 17. They shall lick the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes like worms of the earth: they shall be afraid of the Lord our God, and shall fear because of thee.

Rev. vi. 15. And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free-man, hid themselves in the dens, and in the rocks of the mountains.

(g) Ps. vii. 6. Arise, O Lord, in thine anger; lift up thyself, because of the rage of mine enemies; and awake for me to the judgment that thou hast commanded.

Mic. i. 3. For, behold, the Lord cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth.

4. And the mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down a steep place.

Hag. ii. 6. For thus saith the Lord of hosts, Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land.

Ileb. xii. 26. Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.

Rev. xi. 13. And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

20 In that day a man shall cast his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which they had made each one for himself to worship, to the moles and to the bats;

21 To go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the ragged rocks, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.

22 (h) Cease ye from man, (i) whose breath is in his nostrils; (h) for wherein is he to be accounted of?

(h) Ps. cxlvi. 3. Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.

4. His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish.

(i) Gen. vii. 22. All in whose nostrils was the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died.

Job xxvii. 3. All the while my breath is in me, and the spirit of God is in my nostrils.

(k) Ps. viii. 4. What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

cxliv. 3. Lord, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him? or the son of man, that thou makest account of him?

4. Man is like to vanity: his days are as a shadow that passeth away.

CHAPTER III.

FOR, behold, the LORD, the LORD of hosts, doth take away from Jerusalem, and from Judah, (a) the stay and the staff, the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water,

(a) Lev. xxvi. 26. And when I have broken the staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver you your bread again by weight: and ye shall eat, and not be satisfied.

Ps. cv. 16. Moreover, he called for a famine upon the land; he brake the whole staff of bread.

Ez. iv. 16. Moreover, he said unto me, Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem; and they shall eat bread by weight, and with care; and they shall drink water by measure, and with astonishment:

17. That they may want bread and water, and be astonished one with another, and consume away for their iniquity.

xiv. 13. Son of man, when the land sinneth against me by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out mine hand upon it, and will break the staff of the bread thereof, and will send famine upon it, and will cut off man and beast from it.

2 The (b) mighty man, and the man of war, the judge, and the prophet, and the prudent, and the ancient,

(b) Ps. lxxiv. 9. We see not our signs; there is no more any prophet: neither is there among us any that knoweth how long.

Lam. v. 12. Princes are hanged up by their hand: the faces of elders were not honoured.

13. They took the young men to grind, and the children fell under the wood.

14. The elders have ceased from the gate, the young men from their music.

Amos ii. 3. And I will cut off the judge from the midst thereof, and I will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the Lord.

3 The (c) captain of fifty, and the honourable man, and the counsellor, and the cunning artificer, and the eloquent orator.

(c) Ez. xviii. 21. Moreover, thou shalt provide out of all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

Deut. i. 15. So I took the chief of your tribes, wise men, and known, and made them heads over you, captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, and captains over fifties, and captains over tens, and officers among your tribes.

1 Sam. viii. 12. And he will appoint him captains over thousands, and captains over fifties, and will set them to ear his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and instruments of his chariots.

4 And I will give (d) children to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them.

(d) 2 Chr. xxxiii. 1. Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem.

xxxiv. 1. Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years.

Ec. x. 16. Wo to thee, O land, when thy king is a child, and thy princes eat in the morning.

5 And (e) the people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, and the (f) base against the honourable.

(e) Jer. xxii. 17. But thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it.

Amos iv. 1. Hear this word, ye kine of Bashan, that are in the mountain of Samaria, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

James ii. 6. But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment-seats?

v. 4. Behold, the hire of the labourers which have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth; and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth.

(f) Ec. x. 5. There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an error which proceedeth from the ruler:

6. Folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in low place.

7. I have seen servants upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth.

Matt. xxvii. 67. Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others smote him with the palms of their hands,

68. Saying, Prophecy unto us, thou Christ; Who is he that smote thee?

6 When (g) a man shall take hold of his brother of the house of his father, saying, Thou hast clothing; be thou our ruler, and let this ruin be under thy hand:

(g) Judg. xi. 6. And they said unto Jephthah, Come, and be our captain, that we may fight with the children of Ammon.

7. And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, Did not ye hate me, and expel me out of my father's house? and why are ye come unto me now when ye are in distress?

8. And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, Therefore we turn again to thee now, that thou mayest go with us, and fight against the children of Ammon, and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

John vi. 15. When Jesus, therefore, perceived that they would come and take him by force to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

7 In that day shall he swear, saying, I will not be (h) an healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: make me not a ruler of the people.

(h) Is. lviii. 12. And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.

Jer. xiv. 19. Hast thou utterly rejected Judah? hath thy soul loathed Zion? why hast thou smitten us, and there is no healing for us? we looked for peace, and there is no good; and for the time of healing, and behold trouble.

Lam. ii. 13. What thing shall I take to witness for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy breach is great like the sea; who can heal thee?

Hos. v. 13. When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to the Assyrian, and sent to king Jareb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound.

8 For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen: (i) because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD, (k) to provoke the eyes of his glory.

(i) Ps. lxxiii. 8. They are corrupt; and speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak loftily.

9. They set their mouth against the heavens; and their tongue walketh through the earth.

Hos. vii. 16. They return, but not to the Most High; they are like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue. This shall be their derision in the land of Egypt.

Jude 15. To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds, which they have ungodly committed; and of all their hard speeches, which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

(k) Ez. viii. 17. Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah, that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger; and, lo, they put the branch to their nose.

18. Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

9 The (l) show of their countenance doth witness against them; (m) and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not. (n) Wo unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves.

(l) 2 Kings ix. 30. And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window.

Ps. x. 4. The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God: God is not in all his thoughts.

Prov. xxx. 13. There is a generation, O how lofty are their eyes! and their eye-lids are lifted up.

Jer. iii. 3. Therefore the showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; and thou hadst a whore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed.

Dan. vii. 20. And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell, even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.

(m) Gen. xiii. 13. But the men of Sodom were wicked, and sinners before the Lord exceedingly.

(n) Lam. v. 16. The crown is fallen from our head: wo unto us that we have sinned.

Hos. xiii. 9. O Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself; but in me is thine help.

10 ¶ Say (o) ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him; for (p) they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

(o) Ec. viii. 12. Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him.

Jer. xv. 11. The Lord said, Verily it shall be well with thy remnant; verily I will cause the enemy to entreat thee well in the time of evil, and in the time of affliction.

Zeph. ii. 3. Seek ye the Lord, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness; it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the Lord's anger.

(p) Ps. cxxviii. 1. Blessed is every one that feareth the Lord; that walketh in his ways.

2. For thou shalt eat the labour of thine hands: happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee.

Gal. vi. 7. Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8. For he that soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reap corruption: but he that soweth to the Spirit, shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

11 (q) Wo unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him; (r) for the reward of his hands shall be given him.

(q) Ps. xi. 5. The Lord trieth the righteous: but the wicked, and him that loveth violence, his soul hateth.

6. Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.

Ec. viii. 13. But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

(r) Prov. i. 31. Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.

2 Cor. v. 10. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

12 ¶ As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths.

13 The LORD (s) standeth up to plead, and standeth to judge the people.

(s) Ps. xii. 5. For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith the Lord: I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him.

Prov. xxii. 22. Rob not the poor, because he is poor; neither oppress the afflicted in the gate:

23. For the Lord will plead their cause, and spoil the soul of those that spoiled them.

xxiii. 10. Remove not the old land-mark; and enter not into the fields of the fatherless;

11. For their Redeemer is mighty; he shall plead their cause with thee.

Mic. vi. 2. Hear ye, O mountains, the Lord's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the Lord hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

14 The LORD will (t) enter into judgment with the ancients of his people, and the princes thereof: for (u) ye have eaten up the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses.

(t) Job xxii. 4. Will he reprove thee for fear of thee? will he enter with thee into judgment? xxxiv. 23. For he will not lay upon man more than right, that he should enter into judgment with God.

Ps. cxliii. 2. And enter not into judgment with thy servant: for in thy sight shall no man living be justified.

(u) Jer. v. 27. As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit; therefore they are become great, and waxen rich.

Mic. ii. 2. And they covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.

vi. 10. Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is abominable?

15 What mean ye that (x) ye beat my people to pieces, and grind the faces of the poor? saith the Lord God of hosts.

(x) Amos ii. 6. Thus saith the Lord, For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes;

7. That pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and turn aside the way of the meek; and a man and his father will go in unto the same maid, to profane my holy name.

Mic. iii. 2. Who hate the good, and love the evil, who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones;

3. Who also eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron.

16 ¶ Moreover the LORD saith, Because the daughters of Zion (y) are haughty, and walk with stretched-forth necks (z) and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet:

(y) Prov. xvi. 18. Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.

Ez. xvi. 50. And they were haughty, and committed abomination before me; therefore I took them away as I saw good.

Zeph. iii. 11. In that day shalt thou not be ashamed for all thy doings, wherein thou hast transgressed against me: for then will I take away out of the midst of thee them that rejoice in thy pride; and thou shalt no more be haughty because of my holy mountain.

(z) Prov. vii. 10. And, behold, there met him a woman with the attire of an harlot, and subtle of heart.

11. She is loud and stubborn; her feet abide not in her house.

17 Therefore the LORD will (a) smite with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and the LORD will discover their secret parts.

(a) Lev. xiii. 29. If a man or woman have a plague upon the head or the beard;

30. Then the priest shall see the plague: and, behold, if it be in sight deeper than the skin, and there be in it a yellow thin hair; then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a dry scall, even a leprosy, upon the head or beard.

Deut. xxviii. 27. The Lord will smite thee with the botch of Egypt, and with the emerods, and with the scab, and with the itch, whereof thou canst not be healed.

18 In that day the LORD will take away the bravery of their tinkling ornaments about their feet, and their cauls, and their round tires like the moon,

19 The chains, and (b) the bracelets, and the mufflers,

(b) Gen. xxiv. 22. And it came to pass, as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden ear-ring, of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her hands, of ten shekels weight of gold.

xxxviii. 18. And he said, What pledge shall I give thee? And she said, Thy signet, and thy bracelets, and thy staff that is in thine hand: and he gave it her, and came in unto her; and she conceived by him.

Ex. xxxv. 22. And they came, both men and women, as many as were willing-hearted, and brought bracelets, and ear-rings, and rings, and tablets, all jewels of gold; and every man that offered, offered an offering of gold unto the Lord.

Num. xxxi. 50. We have, therefore, brought an oblation for the Lord, what every man hath gotten, of jewels of gold, chains, and bracelets, rings, ear-rings, and tablets, to make an atonement for our souls before the Lord.

Ez. xvi. 11. I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put bracelets upon thine hands, and a chain on thy neck.

20 The bonnets, and the ornaments of the legs, and the headbands, and the tablets, and (c) the ear-rings,

(c) Gen. xxxv. 4. And they gave unto Jacob all the strange gods which were in their hand, and all their ear-rings which were in their ears: and Jacob hid them under the oak which was by Shechem.

Ex. xxxii. 2. And Aaron said unto them, Break off the golden ear-rings which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me.

Ez. xvi. 12. And I put a jewel on thy forehead, and ear-rings in thine ears, and a beautiful crown upon thine head.

Hos. ii. 13. And I will visit upon her the days of Baalim, wherein she burnt incense to them, and she decked herself with her ear-rings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and she forgot me, saith the Lord.

21 The (d) rings, and (e) nose-jewels,

(d) Gen. xli. 42. And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand, and arrayed him in vestures of fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck.

Esth. viii. 2. And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.

Cant. v. 14. His hands are as gold rings set with the beryl; his belly is as bright ivory overlaid with sapphires.

Luke xv. 22. But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet.

James ii. 2. For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment.

(e) 1 Tim. ii. 9. In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with brodered hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10. But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

1 Pet. iii. 3. Whose adorning, let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4. But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

22 The changeable suits of apparel, and the mantles, and the wimples, and the crisping-pins, 23 The (f) glasses, and the (g) fine linen, and the hoods, and the (h) vails.

(f) Ex. xxxviii. 8. And he made the laver of brass, and the foot of it of brass, of the looking glasses of the women assembling, which assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

(g) Ez. xvi. 10. I clothed thee also with brodered work, and shod thee with badger's skin, and I girded thee about with fine linen, and I covered thee with silk.

Luke xvi. 19. There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day.

Rev. xix. 8. And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

14. And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

(h) Gen. xxiv. 65. For she had said unto the servant, What man is this that walketh in the field to meet us? And the servant had said, It is my master; therefore she took a veil and covered herself.

Ruth iii. 15. Also he said, Bring the veil that thou hast upon thee, and hold it. And, when she held it, he measured six measures of barley, and laid it on her: and she went into the city.

Cant. v. 7. The watchmen that went about the city found me, they smote me, they wounded me; the keepers of the walls took away my veil from me.

24 And it shall come to pass, that (i) instead of sweet smell, there shall be stink; and instead of a girdle, a rent; and instead of well set hair, (k) baldness; and instead of a stomacher, (l) a girding of sackcloth; and (m) burning instead of beauty.

(i) Prov. vii. 17. I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

(k) Ez. vii. 18. They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads.

Mic. i. 16. Make thee bald, and poll thee for thy delicate children; enlarge thy baldness as the eagle; for they are gone into captivity from thee.

(l) Job xvi. 15. I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin, and defiled my horn in the dust.

Jer. iv. 8. For this gird you with sackcloth; lament and howl; for the fierce anger of the Lord is not turned back from us.

vi. 26. O daughter of my people, gird thee with sackcloth, and wallow thyself in ashes; make thee mourning as for an only son, most bitter lamentation: for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us.

Lam. ii. 10. The elders of the daughter of Zion set upon the ground, and keep silence: they have cast dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth; the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

(m) Deut. xxviii. 22. The Lord shall smite thee with consumption, and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with the sword, and with blasting, and with mildew: and they shall pursue thee until thou perish.

Rev. xvi. 9. And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory.

xviii. 9. And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication, and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning.

25 Thy (n) men shall fall by the sword, and thy mighty in the war.

(n) 2 Chr. xxix. 9. For, lo, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons, and our daughters, and our wives, are in captivity for this.

Jer. xi. 22. Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, Behold, I will punish them; the young men shall die by the sword, their sons and their daughters shall die by famine.

Lam. ii. 21. The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets: my virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword; thou hast slain them in the day of thine anger; thou hast killed, and not pitied.

Amos ix. 10. All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, which say, The evil shall not overtake nor prevent us.

26 And (o) her gates shall lament and mourn; and she being desolate, (p) shall sit upon the ground.

(o) Jer. xiv. 2. Judah mourneth, and the gates thereof languish: they are black unto the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up.

Lam. i. 4. The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts; all her gates are desolate; her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

(p) Job ii. 8. And he took him a potsherd to scrape himself withal; and he sat down among the ashes.

13. So they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great.

Ez. xxvi. 16. Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay away their robes, and put off their brodered garments: they shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit upon the ground, and shall tremble at every moment, and be astonished at thee.

Luke xix. 44. And shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

CHAPTER IV.

AND in that day (a) seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, (b) We will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel; only let us be called by thy name, to take away our (c) reproach.

(a) Is. xiii. 12. I will make a man more precious than fine gold; even a man than the golden wedge of Ophir.

(b) 2 Thess. iii. 12. Now them that are such, we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

(c) Gen. xxx. 23. And she conceived, and bare a son; and said, God hath taken away my reproach.

1 Sam. i. 6. And her adversary also provoked her sore, for to make her fret, because the Lord had shut up her womb.

Luke i. 25. Thus hath the Lord dealt with me, in the days wherein he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.

2 ¶ In that day shall (d) the Branch of the LORD be beautiful and glorious, and (e) the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely, for them (f) that are escaped of Israel.

(d) Jer. xxiii. 5. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.

xxxiii. 15. In those days, and at that time, will I cause the Branch of righteousness to grow up into David; and he shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land.

Zech. iii. 8. Hear now, O Joshua, the high priest, thou and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are men wondered at; for, behold, I will bring forth my servant, The Branch.

(e) Ps. lxxvii. 6. Then shall the earth yield her increase; and God, even our own God, shall bless us.

lxxxv. 11. Truth shall spring out of the earth; and righteousness shall look down from heaven.

12. Yea, the Lord shall give that which is good; and our land shall yield her increase.

Joel iii. 18. And it shall come to pass on that day, that the mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Judah shall flow with waters, and a fountain shall come forth of the house of the Lord, and shall water the valley of Shittim.

(f) Jer. xlv. 28. Yet a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah; and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, mine, or theirs.

Ez. vii. 16. But they that escape of them shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them mourning, every one for his iniquity.

3 And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zion, and he that remaineth in Jerusalem, (g) shall be called holy, even every one that is (h) written among the living in Jerusalem:

(g) Ez. xlvi. 12. This is the law of the house; Upon the top of the mountain, the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

Zech. xiv. 20. In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD; and the pots in the Lord's house shall be like the bowls before the altar.

21. Yea, every pot in Jerusalem, and in Judah, shall be holiness unto the Lord of hosts; and all they that sacrifice shall come, and take of them, and see the therein; and in that day there shall be no more the Canaanite in the house of the Lord of hosts.

(h) Ez. xxxii. 32. Yet now, if thou wilt, forgive their sin; and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written.

33. And the Lord said unto Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book.

Ez. xiii. 9. And mine hand shall be upon the prophets that see vanity, and that divine lies; they shall not be in the assembly of my people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into the land of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

4 When the LORD shall have (i) washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof, (k) by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning.

(i) Lam. i. 9. Her filthiness is in her skirts: she remembereth not her last end; therefore she came down wonderfully: she had no comforter. O Lord, behold my affliction; for the enemy hath magnified himself.

Ez. xxii. 15. And I will scatter thee among the heathen, and disperse thee in the countries, and thou shalt consume thy filthiness out of thee.

Jud. iii. 21. For I will cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed: for the Lord dwelleth in Zion.

Zech. xiii. 1. In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness.

(k) Mel. iii. 2. But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fuller's soap:

3. And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness.

Matt. iii. 11. I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire:

12. Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner: but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

5 And the LORD will create (l) upon every dwelling place of Mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, (m) a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for upon (n) all the glory shall be a defence.

(l) Ps. lxxxvii. 2. The Lord loveth the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

3. Glorious things are spoken of thee, O city of God. Selah.

lxxxix. 7. God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him.

cxi. 1. Praise ye the Lord. I will praise the Lord with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation.

(m) Ez. xiii. 21. And the Lord went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light, to go by day and night.

22. He took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people.

Neh. ix. 12. Moreover, thou leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein he should go.

(n) Ps. lxxxv. 9. Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him; that glory may dwell in our land.

6 And there shall be (o) tabernacle for a shadow in the day-time from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and (p) for a covert from storm and from rain.

(o) Ps. xxvii. 5. For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock.

xc. 1. He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High, shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

ccxi. 5. The Lord is thy keeper; the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.

6. The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.

Prov. xviii. 10. The name of the Lord is a strong tower; the righteous runneth into it, and is safe.

Is. viii. 14. And he shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling, and for a rock of offence, to both the houses of Israel; for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

xxv. 4. For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.

Ez. xi. 16. Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God, Although I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet I will be to them as a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come.

Heb. vi. 18. That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge, to lay hold upon the hope set before us.

Rev. vii. 16. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.

(p) Is. xxxii. 18. And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting-places;

19. When it shall hail, coming down on the forest; and the city shall be low in a low place.

Heb. xi. 7. By faith, Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

CHAPTER V.

NOW (a) will I sing to my (b) well-beloved a song of my beloved, (c) touching his vineyard. My well-beloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill:

(a) Ps. ci. 1. I will sing of mercy and judgment: unto thee, O Lord, will I sing.

(b) Cant. ii. 16. My beloved is mine, and I am his: he feedeth among the lilies.

(c) Ps. lxxx. 8. Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt; thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it.

Cant. viii. 11. Solomon had a vineyard at Baalhamon; he let out the vineyard unto keepers: every one for the fruit thereof was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.

12. My vineyard, which is mine, is before me: thou, O Solomon, must have a thousand, and those that keep the fruit thereof two hundred.

Is. xxvii. 2. In that day sing ye unto her, A vineyard of red wine.

3. I the Lord do keep it; I will water it every moment; lest any hurt it, I will keep it night and day.

Matt. xxi. 33. Hear another parable: There was a certain householder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a wine-press in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

John xv. 1. I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

2 And (d) he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and (e) planted it with the choicest vine, (f) and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made (g) a wine-press therein: and (h) he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth (i) wild grapes.

(d) Ez. xxxiii. 16. For wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? Is it not in that thou goest with us? So shall we be separated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth.

Num. xxiii. 9. For from the top of the rocks I see him, and from the hills I behold him: lo, the people shall dwell alone, and shall not be reckoned among the nations.

Deut. xxxii. 8. When the Most High divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel.

9. For the Lord's portion is his people; Jacob is the lot of his inheritance.

(c) Jer. ii. 21. Yet I had planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me?

(f) Is. i. 8. And the daughter of Zion is left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city.

Mic. iv. 8. And thou, O tower of the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion, the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.

(g) Neh. xiii. 15. In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine-presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath-day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals.

Is. lxiii. 2. Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the wine-fat?

3. I have trodden the wine-press alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment.

Rev. xiv. 18. And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire: and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

19. And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great wine-press of the wrath of God.

20. And the wine-press was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the wine-press even unto the horse-bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

(h) Deut. xxxii. 6. Do ye thus requite the Lord? O foolish people and unwise! is not he thy father that hath bought thee? hath he not made thee, and established thee?

Matt. xxi. 34. And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it.

Mark xi. 13. And seeing a fig-tree afar off, having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.

1 Cor. ix. 7. Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

(i) Deut. xxxii. 32. For their vine is of the vine of Sodom, and of the fields of Gomorrah: their grapes are grapes of gall, their clusters are bitter:

33. Their wine is the poison of dragons, and the cruel venom of asps.

Hos. x. 1. Israel is an empty vine, he bringeth forth fruit unto himself: according to the multitude of his fruit he hath increased the altars; according to the goodness of his land they have made goodly images.

3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, (k) judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

(k) Jer. ii. 4. Hear ye the word of the Lord,

O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel:

5. Thus saith the Lord, What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain?

Mic. vi. 2. Hear ye, O mountains, the Lord's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the Lord hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

3. O my people, what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me.

Luke xx. 15. So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16. He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

4 What (l) could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?

(l) 2 Chr. xxxvi. 14. Moreover, all the chief of the priests, and the people, transgressed very much, after all the abominations of the heathen, and polluted the house of the Lord, which he had hallowed in Jerusalem.

15. And the Lord God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers, rising up betimes, and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling-place:

16. But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the Lord arose against his people, till there was no remedy.

Jer. ii. 30. In vain have I smitten your children: they received no correction: your own sword hath devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.

31. O generation, see ye the word of the Lord: Have I been a wilderness unto Israel? a land of darkness? Wherefore say my people, We are lords; we will come no more unto thee?

Ez. xxiv. 13. In thy filthiness is lewdness: because I have purged thee, and thou wast not purged, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more, till I have caused my fury to rest upon thee.

Matt. xxiii. 37. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!

5 And now, (m) go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: (n) I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down:

(m) Gen. xi. 4. And they said, Go to, let us build us a city, and a tower whose top may reach unto heaven, and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.

7. Go to, let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech.

(n) Ps. lxxx. 12. Why hast thou then broken down her hedges, so that all they which pass by the way do pluck her?

13. The boar out of the wood doth waste it, and the wild beast of the field doth devour it.

14. Return, we beseech thee, O God of hosts: look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine;

15. And the vineyard which thy right hand hath planted, and the branch that thou madest strong for thyself.

16. It is burnt with fire; it is cut down: they perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.

Lam. iv. 12. The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jerusalem.

6 And (o) I will lay it waste: (p) it shall not be pruned, nor digged; but there shall come up briars and thorns: (q) I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

(o) Is. vi. 11. Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate,

12. And the Lord have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land.

Jer. xlv. 4. Thus shalt thou say unto him, The Lord saith thus, Behold, that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land.

Luke xxi. 24. And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

(p) Hos. iii. 4. For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim.

(q) Deut. xxviii. 23. And the heaven that is over thy head shall be brass, and the earth that is under thee shall be iron.

24. The Lord shall make the rain of thy land powder and dust: from heaven shall it come down upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

Amos iv. 7. And also I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest; and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.

Zech. xiv. 16. And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem, shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the Lord of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.

17. And it shall be, that whoso will not come up of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem to worship the King, the Lord of hosts, even upon them shall be no rain.

Rev. xi. 6. These have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

7 For (r) the vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and (s) he looked for judgment, but behold, oppression; for righteousness, but (t) behold, a cry.

(r) Jer. xii. 10. Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard; they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

(s) Matt. xxiii. 23. Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint, and anise, and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

(t) Gen. iv. 10. And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground.

Ex. ii. 23. And it came to pass, in process of time, that the king of Egypt died; and the children of Israel sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried; and their cry came up unto God by reason of the bondage.

Job xxxiv. 28. So that they cause the cry of the poor to come unto him, and he heareth the cry of the afflicted.

Prov. xxi. 13. Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard.

Luke xviii. 7. And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

James v. 4. Behold, the hire of the labourers which have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth; and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth.

8 ¶ Wo unto (u) them that join house to house, that lay (x) field to field, till there be no place, that they may be (y) placed alone in the midst of the earth!

(u) Mic. ii. 2. And they covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.

Matt. xxiii. 14. Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.

(x) 1 Kings xxi. 16. And it came to pass, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

20. And Ahab said to Elijah, Hast thou found me, O mine enemy? And he answered, I have found thee; because thou hast sold thyself to work evil in the sight of the Lord.

(y) Ex. xi. 15. Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get ye far from the Lord; unto us is this land given in possession.

xxxiii. 24. Son of man, they that inhabit those wastes of the land of Israel speak, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance.

9 In mine ears, said the LORD of hosts, Of a truth, many houses shall be (z) desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant.

(z) Amos v. 11. Forasmuch, therefore, as your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat; ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.

vi. 11. For, behold, the Lord commandeth, and he will smite the great house with breaches, and the little house with clefts.

Matt. xxii. 7. But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

xxiii. 38. Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.

10 Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield (a) one bath, and the seed of an homer shall yield an ephah.

(a) Lev. xxvii. 16. And if a man shall sanctify unto the Lord some part of a field of his possession; then thy estimation shall be according to the seed thereof: an homer of barley-seed shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver.

Ez. xlv. 10. Ye shall have just balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath.

11. The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of an homer; the measure thereof shall be after the homer.

11 ¶ Wo unto them that (b) rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine inflame them!

(b) Prov. xxiii. 29. Who hath wo? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes?

30. They that tarry long at the wine, they that go to seek mixed wine.

Hab. ii. 15. Wo unto him that giveth his neighbour drink, that putteth thy bottle to him, and maketh him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness!

Luke xxi. 34. And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

1 Cor. vi. 10. Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

12 And (c) the harp, and the viol, the tabret, and pipe, and wine are in their feasts: but (d) they regard not the work of the LORD, neither consider the operation of his hands.

(c) Gen. xxxi. 27. Wherefore didst thou flee away secretly, and steal away from me? and didst not tell me, that I might have sent thee away with mirth, and with songs, with tabret, and with harp?

Amos vi. 5. That chant to the sound of the viol, and invent to themselves instruments of music, like David;

6. That drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments; but they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.

(d) Job xxxiv. 27. Because they turned back from him, and would not consider any of his ways.

Ps. xxviii. 5. Because they regard not the works of the Lord, nor the operation of his hands, he shall destroy them, and not build them up.

xcii. 5. O Lord, how great are thy works! and thy thoughts are very deep.

6. A brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this.

13 Therefore my people are gone into captivity, (e) because they have no knowledge: and their honourable men are famished, and

(f) their multitude dried up with thirst.

(e) Jer. viii. 7. Yea, the stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and the turtle, and the crane, and the swallow, observe the time of their coming: but my people know not the judgment of the Lord.

Hos. iv. 6. My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me; seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

Luke xix. 44. And they shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

John iii. 19. And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

Rom. i. 28. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient.

(f) Jer. xiv. 3. And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters: they came to the pits, and found no water; they returned with their vessels empty; they were ashamed and confounded, and covered their heads.

Amos viii. 13. In that day shall the fair virgins and young men faint for thirst.

14 Therefore (g) hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and (h) he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it.

(g) Ps. xlix. 14. Like sheep they are laid in the grave; death shall feed on them; and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning; and their beauty shall consume in the grave from their dwelling.

Prov. xxvii. 20. Hell and destruction are never full; so the eyes of man are never satisfied.

Hab. ii. 5. Yea also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people.

(h) Ps. lv. 15. Let death seize them, and let them go down quick into hell: for wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them.

Nah. i. 10. For while they be folded together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

Luke xii. 19. And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

20. But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be which thou hast provided?

15 And (i) the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and (k) the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled:

(i) Ps. lxii. 9. Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be hid in the balance, they are altogether lighter than vanity.

Jer. v. 4. Therefore I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish: for they know not the way of the Lord, nor the judgment of their God.

5. I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for they have known the way of the Lord, and the judgment of their God: but these have altogether broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.

Rev. vi. 15. And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every freeman, hid themselves in the dens, and in the rocks of the mountains;

16. And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb.

(k) Ex. ix. 17. As yet exaltest thou thyself against my people, that thou wilt not let them go?

Job xl. 11. Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath, and behold every one that is proud, and abase him.

12. Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place.

Dan. iv. 37. Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise, and extol, and honour the King of heaven, all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment; and those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

16 But (l) the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgment; and God that is holy shall be (m) sanctified in righteousness.

(l) Ps. ix. 16. The Lord is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah.

xxi. 13. Be thou exalted, Lord, in thine own strength: so will we sing and praise thy power.

xlvi. 10. Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

Ez. xxviii. 22. And say, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I am against thee, O Zidon: and I will be glorified in the midst of thee: and they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be sanctified in her.

(m) Lev. x. 3. Then Moses spake unto Aaron, This is it that the Lord spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be glorified. And Aaron held his peace.

Ez. xxxvi. 23. And I will sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, saith the Lord God, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes.

17 Then (n) shall the lambs feed after their manner, and (o) the waste places of the fat ones shall (p) strangers eat.

(n) Zeph. ii. 6. And the sea-coast shall be dwellings and cottages for shepherds, and folds for flocks.

14. And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of the nations: both the cormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the upper lintels of it; their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in the thresholds: for he shall uncover the cedar-work.

(o) Deut. xxxii. 15. But Jeshurun waxed fat, and kicked: thou art waxen fat, thou art grown thick, thou art covered with fatness; then he forsook God which made him, and lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation.

Ps. xvii. 10. They are enclosed in their own fat: with their mouth they speak proudly.

Jer. v. 28. They are waxen fat, they shine; yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge.

(p) Deut. xxviii. 33. The fruit of thy land, and all thy labours, shall a nation which thou knowest not, eat up; and thou shalt be only oppressed and crushed alway.

Neh. viii. 37. And it yieldeth much increase unto the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins: also they have dominion over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.

Lam. v. 2. Our inheritance is turned to strangers, our houses to aliens.

Hos. viii. 7. For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk: the bud shall yield no meal; if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up.

18 ¶ Wo unto them that (q) draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart-rope:

(q) Ps. x. 11. He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten: he hideth his face; he will never see it.

xiv. 1. The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt; they have done abominable works; there is none that doeth good.

Jer. v. 31. The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

Zeph. i. 12. And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men that are settled on their lees; that say in their heart, The Lord will not do good, neither will he do evil.

19 That say, (r) Let him make speed, and hasten his work, that we may see it: and (s) let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it!

(r) Is. lxvi. 5. Hear the word of the Lord, ye that tremble at his word; your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the Lord be glorified: but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed.

Jer. xvii. 15. Behold, they say unto me, Where is the word of the Lord? let it come now.

Amos v. 18. Wo unto you that desire the day of the Lord! to what end is it for you! the day of the Lord is darkness, and not light.

19. As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

2 Pet. iii. 3. Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts,

4. And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

(s) Jer. xxiii. 18. For who hath stood in the council of the Lord, and hath perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it?

36. And the burden of the Lord shall ye mention no more; for every man's word shall be his burden: for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the Lord of hosts, our God.

20 ¶ Wo unto (t) them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

(t) Prov. xvii. 15. He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just; even they both are abomination to the Lord.

Mat. ii. 17. Ye have wearied the Lord with your words: yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the Lord, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?

iii. 15. And now we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness are set up; yea, they that tempt God are even delivered.

Mat. xv. 3. But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your traditions?

4. For God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

5. But ye say, Whosoever shall say, to his father or his mother, It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me,

6. And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

21 Wo unto them that are (u) wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight!

(u) Job xi. 12. For vain man would be wise, though man be born like a wild ass's colt.

Prov. iii. 7. Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the Lord, and depart from evil.

xxvi. 16. The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven men that can render a reason.

John ix. 41. Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see: therefore your sin remaineth.

Rom. i. 22. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools.

xii. 16. Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

22 Wo unto them that are (x) mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink.

(x) Prov. xxiii. 19. Hear thou, my son, and be wise, and guide thine heart in the way.

20. Be not among wine-bibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh.

Hab. ii. 15. Wo unto him that giveth his neighbour drink, that putteth thy bottle to him, and maketh him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness!

23 Which (y) justify the wicked (z) for reward, and (a) take away the righteousness of the righteous from him!

(y) Prov. xvii. 15. He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, even they both are abomination to the Lord.

xxiv. 24. He that saith unto the wicked, Thou art righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him.

(z) Deut. xvi. 19. Thou shalt not wrest judgment, thou shalt not respect persons, neither take a gift: for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous.

2 Chr. xix. 7. Wherefore now, let the fear of the Lord be upon you; take heed and do it: for there is no iniquity with the Lord our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of gifts.

Prov. xvii. 23. A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosom to pervert the ways of judgment.

Mic. iii. 11. The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the Lord, and say, is not the Lord among us? none evil can come upon us.

vii. 3. That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man he uttereth his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

(a) Ps. xciv. 21. They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood.

Matt. xxiii. 35. That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias, son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.

James v. 6. Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you.

24 Therefore, (b) as the fire devoureth the stubble, and (c) the flame consumeth the chaff; so (d) their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have (e) cast away the law of the LORD of hosts, and (f) despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

(b) Ex. xv. 7. And in the greatness of thine excellency thou hast overthrown them that rose up against thee: thou sentest forth thy wrath, which consumed them as stubble.

Joel ii. 5. Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.

Nah. i. 10. For while they be folded together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

Mal. iv. 1. For, behold, the day cometh that shall burn as an oven, and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

1 Cor. iii. 12. Now, if any man build upon this foundation, gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble:

13. Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work, of what sort it is.

(c) Matt. iii. 12. Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner: but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

(d) Job xviii. 16. His roots shall be dried up beneath, and above shall his branch be cut off.

Hos. ix. 16. Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit; yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even the beloved fruit of their womb.

Amos ii. 9. Yet destroyed I the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath.

(e) 1 Sam. xv. 23. For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry: because thou hast rejected the word of the Lord, he hath also rejected thee from being king.

Ps. i. 17. Seeing thou hatest instruction, and castest my words behind thee.

Jer. vi. 19. Hear, O earth: behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words, nor to my law, but rejected it.

viii. 9. The wise men are ashamed, they are dismayed, and taken: lo, they have rejected the word of the Lord; and what wisdom is in them?

(f) 2 Sam. xii. 9. Wherefore hast thou despised the commandment of the Lord, to do evil in his sight? Thou hast killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon.

Luke x. 16. He that heareth you, heareth me; and he that despiseth you, despiseth me; and he that despiseth me, despiseth him that sent me.

Acts xiii. 41. Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

1 Thess. iv. 8. He, therefore, that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his Holy Spirit.

25 Therefore is the anger of the LORD kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them: and (g) the hills did tremble, and their carcasses were torn in the midst of the streets. (h) For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

(g) Ps. xviii. 7. Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved, and were shaken, because he was wroth.

lxviii. 8. The earth shook, the heavens also dropped at the presence of God: even Sinai itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

Jer. iv. 24. I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly.

Mic. i. 4. And the mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down a steep place.

Hab. iii. 10. The mountains saw thee, and they trembled; the overflowing of the water passed by: the deep uttered his voice, and lifted up his hands on high.

(h) Ps. lxxviii. 38. But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not; yea, many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath.

Dan. ix. 16. O Lord, according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us.

Hos. xiv. 4. I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him.

26 ¶ And he (i) will lift up an ensign to the nations from far, and will (k) hiss unto them (l) from the end of the earth: and, behold, (m) they shall come with speed swiftly:

(i) Jer. li. 27. Set ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashchenaz; appoint a captain against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough caterpillars.

(k) Zech. x. 8. I will hiss for them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them: and they shall increase as they have increased.

(l) Deut. xxviii. 49. The Lord shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand.

Ps. lxxii. 8. He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth.

9. They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him; and his enemies shall lick the dust.

Jer. v. 15. Lo, I will bring a nation upon you from far, O house of Israel, saith the Lord: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say.

(m) Jer. iv. 13. Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as a whirlwind: his horses are swifter than eagles. Wo unto us! for we are spoiled.

Lam. iv. 19. Our persecutors are swifter than the eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.

27 None (n) shall be weary nor stumble among them; none shall slumber nor sleep; (o) neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, (p) nor the latchet of their shoes be broken:

(n) Joel ii. 7. They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks:

8. Neither shall one trust another; they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall upon the sword they shall not be wounded.

(o) Ps. xviii. 32. It is God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect.

xciii. 1. The Lord reigneth; he is clothed with majesty: the Lord is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself: the world also is established, that it cannot be moved.

Dan. v. 6. Then the king's countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against another.

(p) Deut. xxxiii. 25. Thy shoes shall be iron and brass; and as thy days so shall thy strength be.

28 Whose (q) arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent; (r) their horses' hoofs shall be counted like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind:

(q) Ps. xlv. 5. Thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's enemies; whereby the people fall under thee.

cxx. 4. Sharp arrows of the mighty, with coals of juniper.

Jer. v. 16. Their quiver is an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men.

(r) Judg. v. 22. Then were the horse hoofs broken by means of the prancings, the prancings of their mighty ones.

Jer. xlvii. 3. At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong horses, at the rushing of his chariots, and at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers shall not look back to their children for feebleness of hands.

Mic. iv. 13. Arise and thrash, O daughter of Zion; for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass; and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the Lord, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth.

29 Their (s) roaring shall be like a lion, they shall roar like young lions: yea, they shall roar, and (t) lay hold of the prey, and shall carry it away safe, and none shall deliver it.

(s) Gen. xlix. 9. Judah is a lion's whelp; from the prey, my son, thou art gone up: he stooped down, he couched as a lion, and as an old lion; who shall rouse him up?

Num. xxiv. 9. He couched, he lay down as a lion, and as a great lion: who shall stir him up? Blessed is he that blesseth thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee.

Jer. iv. 7. The lion is come up from the thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place to make thy land desolate; and thy cities shall be laid waste without an inhabitant.

Hos. xi. 10. They shall walk after the Lord; he shall roar like a lion: when he shall roar, then the children shall tremble from the west.

Amos iii. 8. The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord God hath spoken, who can but prophesy?

(t) Ps. l. 22. Now, consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver.

Mic. v. 8. And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many people, as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep; who, if he go through, both treadeth down, and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver.

30 And in that day they shall roar against them, (u) like the roaring of the sea: and (x) if one look unto the land, behold, darkness and sorrow, and the light is darkened in the heavens thereof.

(u) Ps. xciii. 3. The floods have lifted up, O Lord, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves.

4. The Lord on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty waves of the sea.

Jer. vi. 23. They shall lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy: their voice roareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against thee, O daughter of Zion.

1. 42. They shall hold the bow and the lance; they are cruel, and will not show mercy: their voice shall roar like the sea, and they shall ride upon horses, every one put in array, like a man to the battle, against thee, O daughter of Babylon.

(x) Lam. iii. 2. He hath led me, and brought me into darkness, but not into light.

Ez. xxxii. 7. And when I shall put thee out, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.

8. All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord God.

Joel ii. 10. The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble; the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining.

Amos viii. 9. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord God, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day.

Matt. xxiv. 29. Immediately after the tribulation of those days, shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heaven shall be shaken.

Rev. vi. 12. And I beheld, when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood.

xvi. 10. And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

11. And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

CHAPTER VI.

IN the year that king Uzziah died, (a) I saw also the LORD (b) sitting upon a throne, (c) high and lifted up, and his train (d) filled the temple.

(a) Ex. xxiv. 10. And they saw the God of Israel: and there was under his feet as it were a paved work of a sapphire-stone, and as it were the body of heaven in his clearness.

11. And upon the nobles of the children of Israel he laid not his hand: also they saw God, and did eat and drink.

Num. xii. 8. With him will I speak mouth to mouth, even apparently, and not in dark speeches; and the similitude of the Lord shall he behold: wherefore then were ye not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?

Ez. i. 1. Now it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives by the river of Chebar, that the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God.

25. And there was a voice from the firmament that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings.

26. And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire-stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it.

27. And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire round about within it; from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward; I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about.

28. As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the Lord. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake.

John i. 18. No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

xii. 41. These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

45. And he that seeth me, seeth him that sent me.

1 Tim. vi. 16. Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen.

(b) 1 Kings xxii. 19. And he said, Hear thou, therefore, the word of the Lord: I saw the Lord sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him, on his right hand and on his left.

Ez. x. 1. Then I looked, and, behold, in the firmament that was above the head of the cherubims there appeared over them as it were a sapphire-stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne.

Dan. vii. 9. I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire.

Matt. xxv. 31. When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory.

Rev. iii. 21. To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

xx. 11. And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.

(c) Ps. xlvii. 10. Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

cviii. 5. Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens; and thy glory above all the earth.

cxliii. 5. Who is like unto the Lord our God, who dwelleth on high?

Eph. i. 20. Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

21. Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come.

(d) 1 Kings viii. 10. And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place, that the cloud filled the house of the Lord,

11. So that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud: for the glory of the Lord had filled the house of the Lord.

Rev. xv. 8. And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

2 Above it (e) stood the (f) seraphims: each one had six (g) wings; (h) with twain he covered his face, and (i) with twain he covered his feet, and (k) with twain he did fly.

(e) 1 Kings xxii. 19. And he said, Hear thou, therefore, the word of the Lord: I saw the Lord sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him, on his right hand, and on his left.

Job i. 6. Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan came also among them.

Dan. vii. 10. A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened.

Zech. iii. 4. And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment.

Luke i. 19. And the angel answering, said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to show thee these glad tidings.

Rev. vii. 11. And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders, and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God.

(f) Ps. civ. 4. Who maketh his angels spirits; his ministers a flaming fire.

Ez. i. 4. And I looked, and, behold, a whirlwind came out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire infolding itself, and a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof, as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire.

Heb. i. 7. And of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

(g) Ez. xxxvii. 9. And the cherubims spread out their wings on high, and covered with their wings over the mercy-seat, with their faces one to another; even to the mercy-seat-ward were the faces of the cherubims.

1 Kings vi. 24. And five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub: from the uttermost parts of the one wing unto the uttermost parts of the other, were ten cubits.

Ez. x. 21. Every one had four faces a piece, and every one had four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings.

Rev. iv. 8. And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

(h) Gen. xvii. 3. And Abram fell on his face: and God talked with him, saying.

Ez. iii. 6. Moreover he said, I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face: for he was afraid to look upon God.

1 Kings xix. 13. And it was so, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entering in of the cave: and, behold, there came a voice unto him, and said, What dost thou here, Elijah?

Ps. lxxxix. 7. God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all that are about him.

(i) Job xv. 15. Behold, he putteth no trust in his saints; yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight.

Ez. i. 11. Thus were their faces: and their wings were stretched upward; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and two covered their bodies.

(k) Ps. ciii. 20. Bless the Lord, ye his angels that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.

Dan. ix. 21. Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation.

Rev. viii. 13. And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Wo, wo, wo to the inhabitants of the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!

xiv. 6. And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people.

3 And one (l) cried unto another, and said, (m) Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the (n) whole earth is full of his glory.

(l) Ezra iii. 11. And they sung together by course, in praising and giving thanks unto the Lord; because he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever towards Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout when they praised the Lord, because the foundation of the house of the Lord was laid.

(m) Ex. xv. 11. Who is like unto thee, O Lord, among the gods? who is like thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?

Rev. xv. 3. And they sing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.

4. Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

(n) Num. xiv. 21. But as truly as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the Lord.

Ps. lxxii. 19. And blessed be his glorious name for ever: and let the whole earth be filled with his glory. Amen, and amen.

Hab. ii. 14. For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

Zech. xiv. 9. And the Lord shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one Lord, and his name one.

4 And (o) the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and (p) the house was filled with smoke.

(o) Ez. i. 24. And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of great waters, as the voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of an host: when they stood they let down their wings.

x. 5. And the sound of the cherubims' wings was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of the Almighty God when he speaketh.

Amos ix. 1. I saw the Lord standing upon the altar, and he said, Smite the lintel of the door, that the posts may shake; and cut them in the head of all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: he that fleeth of them shall not flee away; and he that escapeth of them shall not be delivered.

(p) Ez. xl. 34. Then a cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle.

Ps. xviii. 8. There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

5 ¶ Then (q) said I, Wo is me! for I am undone; because I am (r) a man of unclean lips, and (s) I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for (t) mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.

(q) Ez. xxxiii. 20. And he said, Thou canst not see my face: for there shall no man see me, and live.

Judg. vi. 22. And when Gideon perceived that he was an angel of the Lord, Gideon said, Alas, O Lord God! for because I have seen an angel of the Lord face to face.

xiii. 22. And Manoah said unto his wife, We shall surely die, because we have seen God.

Job xlii. 5. I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear, but now mine eye seeth thee;

6. Wherefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes.

Luke v. 8. When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me: for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9. For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken.

(r) Ex. iv. 10. And Moses said unto the Lord, I am not eloquent, neither heretofore, nor since thou hast spoken unto thy servant: but I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue.

vi. 12. And Moses spake before the Lord, saying, Behold, the children of Israel have not hearkened unto me; how then shall Pharaoh hear me, who am of uncircumcised lips?

Jer. i. 6. Then said I, Ah, Lord God! behold, I cannot speak; for I am a child.

(s) Ez. ii. 6. And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions; be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

7. And thou shalt speak my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear; for they are most rebellious.

8. But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee; Be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, and eat that I give thee.

xxxiii. 31. And they come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness.

(t) Is. xxxiii. 17. Thine eyes shall see the King in his beauty; they shall behold the land that is very far off.

6 Then (u) flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, (x) which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar:

(u) Heb. i. 14. Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?

(x) Lev. xvi. 12. And he shall take a censer full of burning coals of fire from off the altar before the Lord, and his hands full of sweet incense beaten small, and bring it within the veil.

Rev. viii. 3. And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne.

4. And the smoke of the incense which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.

5. And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

7 And (y) he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips: and (z) thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged.

(y) Jer. i. 9. Then the Lord put forth his hand, and touched my mouth: and the Lord said unto me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth.

Dan. x. 16. And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

(z) Matt. ix. 2. And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed; and Jesus, seeing their faith, said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee.

1 John i. 7. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another: and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

ii. 1. My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

2. And he is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

8 Also I heard the voice of the LORD, saying, (a) Whom shall I send, and who will go for (b) us? (c) Then said I, Here am I; send me.

(a) 1 Kings xxii. 20. And the Lord said, Who shall persuade Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one said on this manner, and another said on that manner.

Acts xxii. 21. And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles.

xxvi. 16. But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness, both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

17. Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee.

(b) Gen. i. 26. And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

iii. 22. And the Lord God said, Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil. And now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever.

xi. 7. Go to, let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech.

(c) Acts xx. 24. But none of these things move me; neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

Eph. iii. 8. Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ.

9 And he said, (d) Go, and tell this people, (e) Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not.

(d) Is. xxix. 13. Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men.

Hos. i. 9. Then said God, Call his name Lo-ammi: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.

(e) Matt. xiii. 14. And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive:

15. For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed, lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

Luke viii. 10. And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

John xii. 40. He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart, that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

10 Make (f) the heart of this people (g) fat, and make (h) their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; (i) lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, (k) and convert, and be healed.

(f) Ex. vii. 3. And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and multiply my signs and my wonders in the land of Egypt.

x. 27. But the Lord hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let them go.

Deut. ii. 30. But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him: for the Lord thy God hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, that he might deliver him into thy hand, as appeareth this day.

2 Cor. iii. 16. Nevertheless, when it shall turn to the Lord, the veil shall be taken away.

(g) Deut. xxxii. 15. But Jeshurun waxed fat, and kicked: thou art waxen fat, thou art grown thick, thou art covered with fatness; then he forsook God which made him, and lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation.

Ps. xvii. 10. They are enclosed in their own fat: with their mouth they speak proudly.

cxix. 70. Their heart is as fat as grease: but I delight in thy law.

(h) Jer. vi. 10. To whom shall I speak and give warning, that they may hear? Behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken; behold, the word of the Lord is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it.

Zech. vii. 11. But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

Acts vii. 51. Ye stiff-necked, and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye.

(i) Jer. v. 21. Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding; which have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not.

John iii. 19. And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20. For every one that doeth evil, hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

(k) Acts iii. 19. Repent ye, therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord.

11 Then said I, (l) LORD, how long? And he answered, (m) Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate,

(l) Ps. lxxiv. 10. O God, how long shall the adversary reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever?

xc. 13. Return, O Lord, how long? and let it repent thee concerning thy servants.

xciv. 3. Lord, how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph?

Hab. i. 2. O Lord, how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save!

Rev. vi. 10. And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge, and revenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

(m) Jer. xxvi. 6. Then will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.

9. Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the Lord, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the Lord.

Mic. iii. 12. Therefore shall Zion for your sake be ploughed as a field; and Jerusalem shall become heaps; and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

12 And (n) the LORD have removed men far away, and there be (o) a great forsaking in the midst of the land.

(n) 2 Kings xxv. 11. Now the rest of the people that were left in the city, and the fugitives that fell away to the king of Babylon, with the remnant of the multitude, did Nebuzar-adan, the captain of the guard, carry away.

21. And the king of Babylon smote them and slew them at Riblah, in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away out of their land.

Jer. xv. 4. And I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh, the son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.

(o) Jer. iv. 29. The whole city shall flee for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen; they shall go into thickets, and climb up upon the rocks: every city shall be forsaken, and not a man dwell therein.

Lam. v. 20. Wherefore dost thou forget us for ever, and forsake us so long time?

13 But (p) yet in it shall be a tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten; as a teil-tree, and as an oak, whose substance is in them, when they cast their leaves: (q) so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof.

(p) Matt. xxiv. 22. And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake, those days shall be shortened.

Rom. xi. 5. Even so then, at this present time also, there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6. And if by grace, then is it no more of works; otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace; otherwise work is no more work.

(q) Gen. xxii. 18. And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice.

Ezra ix. 2. For they have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons; so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass.

Mat. ii. 15. And did not he make one? yet had he the residue of the Spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.

Rom. ix. 5. Whose are the fathers, and of whom, as concerning the flesh, Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

CHAPTER VII.

AND it came to pass (a) in the days of Ahaz, the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that (b) Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up towards Jerusalem to war against it, (c) but could not prevail against it.

(a) 2 Kings xvi. 1. In the seventeenth year of Pekah, the son of Remaliah, Ahaz, the son of Jotham, king of Judah, began to reign.

(b) 2 Kings xv. 37. In those days the Lord began to send against Judah, Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah.

(c) 2 Sam. vii. 16. And thine house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established for ever.

Is. xxxvii. 35. For I will defend this city to save it, for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.

2 And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria is confederate with Ephraim. (d) And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind.

(d) Lev. xxvi. 36. And upon them that are left alive of you, I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies, and the sound of a shaken leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall when none pursueth.

37. And they shall fall one upon another, as it were before a sword, when none pursueth; and ye shall have no power to stand before your enemies.

Deut. xxviii. 65. And among these nations shalt thou find no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot have rest; but the Lord shall give thee a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind:

66. And thy life shall hang in doubt before thee; and thou shalt fear day and night, and shalt have none assurance of thy life.

2 Kings vii. 6. For the Lord had made the host of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host; and they said one to another, Lo, the king of Israel hath hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us.

7. Wherefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life.

Ps. xi. 1. In the Lord put I my trust; how say ye to my soul, Flee as a bird to your mountain?

Prov. xxviii. 1. The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

Mat. ii. 3. When Herod the king had heard these things he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

3 Then said the Lord unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou and Shear-jashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, in the highway of the fuller's field;

4 And say unto him, (e) Take heed, and be quiet; (f) fear not, neither be faint-hearted, for (g) the two tails of these smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.

(e) Ex. xiv. 13. And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the Lord, which he will show to you to-day: for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to-day, ye shall see them again no more for ever:

14. The Lord shall fight for you, and ye shall hold your peace.

2 Chr. xx. 17. Ye shall not need to fight in this battle; set yourselves, stand ye still, and see the salvation of the Lord with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: fear not, nor be dismayed; to-morrow go out against them; for the Lord will be with you.

Is. xxx. 7. For the Egyptians shall help in vain, and to no purpose: therefore have I cried concerning this, Their strength is to sit still.

15. For thus saith the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel, In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength; and ye would not.

Lam. iii. 26. It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the Lord.

(f) Is. xxxv. 4. Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not; behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompense; he will come and save you.

xli. 14. Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye men of Israel; I will help thee, saith the Lord, and thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

li. 12. I, even I, am he that comforteth you: who art thou, that thou shouldest be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as grass;

13. And forgettest the Lord thy Maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and hast feared continually every day, because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he were ready to destroy? and where is the fury of the oppressor?

Mat. x. 28. And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

xxiv. 6. And ye shall hear of wars, and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

(g) 2 Kings xv. 29. In the days of Pekah king of Israel, came Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and took Ijon, and Abel-beth-maachah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali, and carried them captive to Assyria.

30. And Hoshea, the son of Elah, made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and smote him, and slew him, and reigned in his stead, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah.

Amos iv. 11. I have overcome some of you as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning; yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have taken evil counsel against thee, saying,

6 Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal:

7 Thus saith the Lord God, (h) It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.

(h) Ps. xxxiii. 11. The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

lxxvi. 10. Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee: the remainder of wrath shalt thou restrain.

Prov. xxi. 30. There is no wisdom, nor understanding, nor counsel, against the Lord.

Lam. iii. 37. Who is he that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the Lord commandeth it not?

Dan. iv. 35. And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou?

8 For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin: and (i) within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, that it be not a people.

(i) Is. viii. 4. For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father and my mother, the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria.

xvii. 1. The burden of Damascus. Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it shall be a ruinous city.

2. The cities of Aroer are forsaken; they shall be for flocks, which shall lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

3. The fortress shall also cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria: they shall be as the glory of the children of Israel, saith the Lord of hosts.

9 And (k) the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If ye (l) will not believe, surely ye shall not be established.

(k) 2 Kings xv. 27. In the two and fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah the son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned twenty years.

(l) 2 Chr. xx. 20. And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood, and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem: Believe in the Lord your God, so shall you be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper.

Acts xxvii. 11. Nevertheless, the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

25. Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer; for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

Rom. xi. 20. Well; because of unbelief they were broken off; and thou standest by faith. Be not high-minded, but fear.

1 John v. 10. He that believeth on the Son of God, hath the witness in himself; he that believeth not God, hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

10 ¶ Moreover the LORD spake again unto Ahaz, saying,

11 Ask thee (m) a sign of the LORD thy God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above.

(m) Judg. vi. 36. And Gideon said unto God, If thou wilt save Israel by my hand, as thou hast said,

37. Behold, I will put a fleece of wool in the floor; and if the dew be on the fleece only, and it be dry upon all the earth besides, then shall I know that thou wilt save Israel by my hand, as thou hast said.

38. And it was so: for he rose up early on the morrow, and thrust the fleece together, and wringed the dew out of the fleece, a bowl-full of water.

39. And Gideon said unto God, Let not thine anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once: Let me prove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece; let it now be dry only upon the fleece, and upon all the ground let there be dew.

40. And God did so that night: for it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

Jer. li. 63. And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates;

64. And thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her, and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

12 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, (n) neither will I (o) tempt the LORD.

(n) Ez. xxxiii. 31. And they come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness.

(o) Deut. vi. 16. Ye shall not tempt the Lord your God, as ye tempted him in Massah.

Mal. iii. 15. And now we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness are set up; yea, they that tempt God are even delivered.

Acts v. 9. Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

1 Cor. x. 9. Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents.

13 And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David, (p) is it a small thing for you to (q) weary men, but (r) will ye weary my God also?

(p) Gen. xxx. 15. And she said unto her, Is it a small matter that thou hast taken away my husband? and wouldest thou take away my son's mandrakes also? And Rachel said, Therefore he shall lie with thee to-night for thy son's mandrakes.

Num. xvi. 9. Seemeth it but a small thing unto you, that the God of Israel hath separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself, to do the service of the tabernacle of the Lord, and to stand before the congregation, to minister unto them?

Ez. xvi. 20. Moreover, thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast borne unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them to be devoured. Is this of thy whoredoms a small matter?

47. Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations; but, as if that were a very little thing, thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways.

(q) Chr. xxxvi. 15. And the Lord God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers, rising up betimes, and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place.

16. But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the Lord arose against his people, till there was no remedy.

(r) Amos ii. 13. Behold, I am pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves.

Mal. ii. 17. Ye have wearied the Lord with your words: yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the Lord, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?

Acts vii. 51. Ye stiff-necked, and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye.

Heb. iii. 10. Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do always err in their hearts; and they have not known my ways.

11. So I swear in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest.

14 Therefore the LORD himself shall give you a sign, (s) Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name (t) Immanuel.

(s) Jer. xxxi. 22. How long wilt thou go about, O thou backsliding daughter? for the Lord hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman shall compass a man.

Matt. i. 23. Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son; and they shall call his name Emmanuel; which being interpreted, is, God with us.

Luke i. 35. And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee; therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee, shall be called the Son of God.

(t) John i. 1. In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

2. The same was in the beginning with God. 14. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

Rom. ix. 5. Whose are the fathers, and of whom, as concerning the flesh, Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

1 Tim. iii. 16. And, without controversy, great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

15 (u) Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may (x) know to refuse the evil, and choose the good.

(u) Matt. iii. 4. And the same John had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins: and his meat was locusts and wild honey.

(x) Amos v. 15. Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: it may be that the Lord God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph.

Rom. xii. 9. Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

16 For (y) before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, (z) the land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of both her kings.

(y) Deut. i. 39. Moreover, your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, and your children, which in that day had no knowledge between good and evil, they shall go in thither, and unto them will I give it, and they shall possess it.

Jon. iv. 11. And should I not spare Nineveh, that great city, wherein are more than six-score thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle?

(z) 2 Kings xv. 29. In the days of Pekah, king of Israel, came Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and took Ijon, and Abel-beth-maachah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali, and carried them captive to Assyria.

30. And Hoshea the son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and smote him, and slew him, and reigned in his stead, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son Uzziah.

xvi. 9. And the king of Assyria hearkened unto him: for the king of Assyria went up against Damascus, and took it, and carried the people of it captive to Kir, and slew Rezin.

17 ¶ The LORD shall bring upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon thy father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria.

18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall hiss for (a) the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee (b) that is in the land of Assyria:

(a) Ex. viii. 21. Else, if thou wilt not let my people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses; and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground whereon they are.

Deut. vii. 20. Moreover, the Lord thy God will send the hornet among them, until they that are left, and hide themselves from thee, be destroyed.

Josh. xxiv. 12. And I sent the hornet before you, which drove them out from before you, even the two kings of the Amorites; but not with thy sword, nor with thy bow.

(b) Deut. i. 44. And the Amorites which dwelt in that mountain, came out against you, and chased you as bees do, and destroyed you in Seir, even unto Hormah.

Ps. cxviii. 12. They compassed me about like bees; they are quenched as the fire of thorns: for in the name of the Lord will I destroy them.

19 And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and (c) in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all bushes.

(c) 2 Chr. xxxiii. 11. Wherefore the Lord brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the thorns, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

Jer. xvi. 16. Behold, I will send for many fishers, saith the Lord; and they shall fish them; and after I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks.

Mic. vii. 17. They shall lick the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes like worms of the earth; they shall be afraid of the Lord our God, and shall fear because of thee.

20 In that same day shall the LORD (d) shave with a razor that is hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the feet; and it shall also consume the beard.

(d) 2 Kings xvi. 7. So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, saying, I am thy servant, and thy son: come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, which rise up against me.

8. And Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent it for a present to the king of Assyria.

Jer. xxvii. 6. And now have I given all these hands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon my servant; and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

7. And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the very time of his land come: and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a man shall nourish a young cow and two sheep;

22 And it shall come to pass, for the abundance of milk that they shall give, that he shall eat butter: for butter and honey shall every one eat that is left in the land.

23 And it shall come to pass in that day, that every place shall be, where there were (e) a thousand vines at a thousand silverings, it shall even (f) be for briers and thorns.

(e) Cant. viii. 11. Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon; he let out the vineyard unto keepers: every one for the fruit thereof was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.

12. My vineyard, which is mine, is before me: thou, O Solomon, must have a thousand, and those that keep the fruit thereof two hundred.

(f) Jer. iv. 26. I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the Lord, and by his fierce anger.

Heb. vi. 8. But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is high unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.

24 With arrows and with bows shall men come thither; because all the land shall become briers and thorns.

25 And on all hills that shall be digged with the mattock, there shall not come thither the fear of briers and thorns: (g) but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of lesser cattle.

(g) Is. xvii. 2. The cities of Aroer are forsaken; they shall be for flocks, which shall lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

Zeph. ii. 6. And the sea-coast shall be dwellings and cottages for shepherds, and folds for flocks.

CHAPTER VIII.

MOREOVER, the LORD said unto me, (a) Take thee a great roll, and (b) write in it with (c) a man's pen, concerning Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

(a) Jer. xxxvi. 2. Take thee a roll of a book, and write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, from the days of Josiah, even unto this day.

28. Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah hath burnt.

(b) Job xix. 23. Oh that my words were now written! oh that they were printed in a book!

24. That they were graven with an iron pen, and lead, in the rock for ever!

Hab. ii. 2. And the Lord answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.

(c) Rev. xiii. 18. Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is six hundred threescore and six.

2 And I took unto me faithful witnesses to record, Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah.

3 And I went unto (d) the prophetess; and (e) she conceived and bare a son. Then said the LORD to me, Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz:

(d) Judg. iv. 4. And Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, she judged Israel at that time.

2 Kings xxii. 14. So Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asahiah, went unto Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the college;) and they communed with her.

(e) Hos. i. 3. So he went and took Gomer, the daughter of Diblaim; which conceived, and bare him a son.

4. And the Lord said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel.

4 For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and my mother, the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria.

5 ¶ The LORD spake also unto me again, saying,

6 Forasmuch as this people refuseth the waters of (f) Shiloah, (g) that go softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son;

(f) Neh. iii. 15. But the gate of the fountain repaired Shallum the son of Col-hozeh, the ruler of part of Mizpah: he built it, and covered it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and the wall of the pool of Siloah by the king's garden, and unto the stairs that go down from the city of David.

John ix. 7. And said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloan, (which is, by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

(g) Jer. ii. 13. For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

18. And now, what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river?

xviii. 14. Will a man leave the snow of Lebanon which cometh from the rock of the field? or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken?

7 Now, therefore, behold, (h) the LORD bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, (i) strong and many, even the king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks:

(h) Deut. xxviii. 49. The Lord shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand;

50. A nation of fierce countenance, which shall not regard the person of the old, nor show favour to the young:

51. And he shall eat the fruit of thy cattle, and the fruit of thy land, until thou be destroyed: which also shall not leave thee either corn, or wine, or oil, or the increase of thy kine, or flocks of thy sheep, until he have destroyed thee.

Jer. xlvii. 7. Who is this that cometh up as a flood, whose waters are moved as the rivers?

8. Egypt riseth up like a flood, and his waters are moved like the rivers; and he saith, I will go up, and will cover the earth; I will destroy the city, and the inhabitants thereof.

Dan. ix. 26. And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come, shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

Amos viii. 8. Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.

(i) Ps. lxxii. 8. He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth.

8 And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over, he shall reach even to the neck; and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel.

9 ¶ (k) Associate yourselves, O ye people, and ye (l) shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces.

(k) Jer. xlvii. 9. Come up, ye horses; and rage, ye chariots; and let the mighty men come forth; the Ethiopians and the Libyans, that handle the shield; and the Lydians, that handle and bend the bow.

Mic. iv. 11. Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion.

12. But they know not the thoughts of the Lord, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor.

13. Arise and thrash, O daughter of Zion; for I will make thy horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass; and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the Lord, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth.

Zech. xiv. 1. Behold, the day of the Lord cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

2. For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3. Then shall the Lord go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.

(l) Ps. xxxvii. 14. The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay such as be of upright conversation.

15. Their sword shall enter into their own heart, and their bows shall be broken.

10 Take (m) counsel together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: (n) for God is with us.

(m) Job v. 12. He disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their hands cannot perform their enterprise.

Ps. ii. 1. Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?

2. The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lord, and against his anointed, saying.

Lam. iii. 37. Who is he that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the Lord commandeth it not?

Acts v. 38. And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought:

39. But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God.

(n) Deut. xx. 1. When thou goest out to battle against thine enemies, and seest horses and chariots, and a people more than thou, be not afraid of them: for the Lord thy God is with thee, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

Josh. i. 5. There shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life: as I was with Moses, so I will be with thee: I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

Ps. xlvii. 7. The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

Rom. viii. 31. What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?

11 ¶ For the LORD spake thus to me with a strong hand, and (o) instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying,

(o) Ps. xxxii. 8. I will instruct thee, and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye.

Jer. xv. 19. Therefore thus saith the Lord, If thou return, then will I bring thee again, and thou shalt stand before me: and if thou take forth the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth: let them return unto thee; but return not thou unto them.

12 Say ye not, A confederacy, to all them to whom this people shall say, A confederacy: neither (p) fear ye their fear, nor be afraid.

(p) Ps. liii. 5. There were they in great fear where no fear was; for God hath scattered the bones of him that encampeth against thee: thou hast put them to shame, because God hath despised them.

Luke xii. 4. And I say unto you, my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

5. But I will forewarn you whom you shall fear: Fear him which, after he hath killed, hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him.

xxi. 9. But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not by and by.

1 Pet. iii. 14. But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled;

15. But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts; and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear.

13 (q) Sanctify the LORD of hosts himself: (r) and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread.

(q) Lev. x. 3. Then Moses said unto Aaron, This is it that the Lord spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be glorified. And Aaron held his peace.

Num. xx. 12. And the Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron, Because ye believe me not, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them.

13. This is the water of Meribah; because the children of Israel strove with the Lord, and he was sanctified in them.

(r) Gen. xxxi. 53. The God of Abraham, and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge betwixt us. And Jacob swear by the fear of his father Isaac.

Ps. lxxvi. 7. Thou, even thou, art to be feared; and who may stand in thy sight when once thou art angry?

Mal. ii. 5. My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my name.

Rev. xv. 4. Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

14 And (s) he shall be for a sanctuary: but for (t) a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for (u) a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

(s) Ps. xlvii. 1. God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble:

2. Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea.

Prov. xviii. 10. The name of the Lord is a strong tower; the righteous runneth into it, and is safe.

Is. xxvi. 20. Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast.

Ez. xi. 16. Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God, Although I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them as a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come.

(t) Is. xxviii. 16. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner-stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste.

Luke ii. 34. And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against.

Rom. ix. 32. Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law: for they stumbled at that stumbling-stone;

33. As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumbling-stone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

1 Pet. ii. 8. And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed.

(u) Ps. xi. 6. Upon the wicked he shall rain snare, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.

Ixix. 22. Let their table become a snare before them: and that which should have been for their welfare, let it become a trap.

15 And many among them shall (x) stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.

(x) Matt. xv. 14. Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

xxi. 44. And whosoever shall fall on this stone, shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

Rom. xi. 9. And David saith, Let their table be made a snare and a trap, and a stumbling-block, and a recompense unto them.

1 Cor. i. 23. But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumbling-block, and unto the Greeks foolishness.

16 Bind up (y) the testimony, (z) seal the law (a) among my disciples.

(y) Deut. iv. 45. These are the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments, which Moses spake unto the children of Israel, after they came forth out of Egypt.

John iii. 32. And what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth; and no man receiveth his testimony.

33. He that hath received his testimony hath set to his seal that God is true.

Heb. iii. 5. And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after.

Rev. xix. 10. And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

(z) Dan. ix. 24. Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the Most Holy.

Rev. x. 4. And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

(a) Ps. xxv. 14. The secret of the Lord is with them that fear him; and he will show them his covenant.

Matt. xiii. 11. He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

1 Cor. ii. 14. But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

Rev. ii. 17. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

17 And (b) I will wait upon the LORD, that (c) hideth his face from the house of Jacob, and (d) I will look for him.

(b) Gen. xlix. 18. I have waited for thy salvation, O Lord.

Ps. xxvii. 14. Wait on the Lord; be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the Lord.

xxxiii. 20. Our souls waiteth for the Lord; he is our help and our shield.

xxvii. 34. Wait on the Lord, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.

xl. 1. I waited patiently for the Lord, and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

Hos. xii. 6. Therefore turn thou to thy God: keep mercy and judgment, and wait on thy God continually.

Mic. vii. 7. Therefore I will look unto the Lord; I will wait for the God of my salvation; my God will hear me.

1 Thess. i. 10. And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come.

2 Thess. iii. 5. And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

(c) Deut. xxxi. 18. And I will surely hide my face in that day, for all the evils which they shall have wrought, in that they are turned unto other gods.

xxxii. 20. And he said, I will hide my face from them, I will see what their end shall be: for they are a very froward generation, children in whom is no faith.

Mic. iii. 4. Then shall they cry unto the Lord, but he will not hear them; he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

(d) Luke ii. 38. And she coming in that instant, gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem.

Heb. ix. 28. So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time, without sin, unto salvation.

18 Behold, (e) I and the children whom the LORD hath given me, are (f) for signs and for wonders in Israel, from the LORD of hosts, (g) which dwelleth in Mount Zion.

(e) Ps. xxii. 30. A seed shall serve him; it shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation.

Heb. ii. 13. And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold, I and the children which God hath given me.

14. Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil.

(f) Ps. lxxi. 7. I am as a wonder unto many: but thou art my strong refuge.

Ez. xiv. 8. And I will set my face against that man, and will make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

Zech. iii. 8. Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are men wondered at; for, behold, I will bring forth my servant, The BRANCH.

Luke ii. 34. And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against.

(g) 1 Chr. xxiii. 25. For David said, The Lord God of Israel hath given rest unto his people, that they may dwell in Jerusalem for ever.

Ps. ix. 11. Sing praises to the Lord, which dwelleth in Zion: declare among the people his doings.

Zech. viii. 3. Thus saith the Lord, I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and Jerusalem shall be called, A city of truth; and the mountain of the Lord of hosts, The holy mountain.

19 And when they shall say unto you, (h) Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter: (i) should not a people seek unto their God? (k) for the living to the dead?

(h) Lev. xx. 6. And the soul that turneth after such as have familiar spirits, and after wizards, to go a whoring after them, I will even set my face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people.

Deut. xviii. 11. Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer.

(i) 1 Sam. xxviii. 16. Then said Samuel, Wherefore then dost thou ask of me, seeing the Lord is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy?

2 Kings i. 3. But the angel of the Lord said to Elijah the Tishbite, Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say unto them, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that ye go to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron?

(k) Ps. cvi. 28. They joined themselves also unto Baal-peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead.

Jer. x. 10. But the Lord is the true God, he is the living God, and an everlasting King; at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.

1 Thess. i. 9. For they themselves show of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God.

20 To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, (l) it is because there is no light in them.

(l) Ps. xix. 7. The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple:

8. The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.

Jer. viii. 9. The wise men are ashamed, they are dismayed and taken: lo, they have rejected the word of the Lord; and what wisdom is in them?

Matt. vi. 23. But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

xxii. 29. Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.

Rom. i. 22. Professing themselves to be wise, they become fools.

21 And they shall pass through it, (m) hardly bestead and hungry: and it shall come to pass, that when they shall be hungry, (n) they shall fret themselves, and (o) curse their king and their God, and look upward.

(m) Deut. xxviii. 33. The fruit of thy land, and all thy labours, shall a nation which thou know-eat not, eat up; and thou shalt be only oppressed and crushed always:

34. So that thou shalt be mad for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

Jer. xiv. 18. If I go forth into the field, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine! yea, both the prophet and the priest go about into a land that they know not.

Lam. iv. 4. And the tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst; the young children ask bread, and no man breaketh it unto them.

(n) Prov. xix. 3. The foolishness of man perverteth his way: and his heart fretteth against the Lord.

(o) Ex. xxii. 28. Thou shalt not revile the gods, nor curse the ruler of thy people.

Job i. 11. But put forth thy hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face.

Rev. xvi. 9. And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory.

10. And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

11. And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

22 And they shall (p) look unto the earth; and, behold, trouble and darkness, dimness of anguish; and they shall be (q) driven to darkness.

(p) Jer. xiii. 16. Give glory to the Lord your God, before he cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness.

Jude 13. Raging waves of the sea, foaming to their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

(q) Job xviii. 18. He shall be driven from light into darkness, and chased out of the world.

Prov. xiv. 32. The wicked is driven away in his wickedness; but the righteous hath hope in his death.

Jer. xxiii. 12. Wherefore, their way shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness; they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the Lord.

Matt. xxii. 13. Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

CHAPTER IX.

NEVERTHELESS, the dimness shall not be such as was in her vexation, (a) when at the first he lightly afflicted the land of Zebulun, and the land of Naphtali, and (b) afterward did more grievously afflict her (c) by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, in Galilee of the nations.

(a) 2 Kings xv. 29. In the days of Pekah king of Israel, came Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and took Ijon, and Abel-beth-maacah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilcad, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali, and carried them captive to Assyria.

2 Chr. xvi. 4. And Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel; and they smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all the store cities of Naphtali.

(b) Lev. xxvi. 24. Then will I also walk contrary unto you; and will punish you yet seven times for your sins.

2 Kings xvii. 5. Then the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years.

6. In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away into Assyria, and placed them in Halah, and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

(c) Matt. iv. 15. The land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephthaim, by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles.

2 The people that (d) walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell (e) in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

(d) Mic. viii. 8. Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the Lord shall be a light unto me.

9. I will bear the indignation of the Lord, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me; he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness.

Matt. iv. 16. The people which sat in darkness saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death, light is sprung up.

Eph. v. 8. For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light.

1 Pet. ii. 9. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

(e) Job x. 21. Before I go whence I shall not return, even to the land of darkness, and the shadow of death.

Ps. xxiii. 4. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Amos v. 8. Seek him that maketh the seven stars and Orion, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night: that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth. The Lord is his name.

3 Thou (f) hast multiplied the nation, and not increased the joy: (g) they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, (h) and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

(f) Neh. ix. 23. Their children also multiplied thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.

Ps. cvii. 38. He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly, and suffereth not their cattle to decrease.

Hos. iv. 7. As they were increased, so they sinned against me; therefore will I change their glory into shame.

Zech. ii. 11. And many nations shall be joined to the Lord in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee; and thou shalt know that the Lord of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

x. 8. I will hiss for them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them: and they shall increase as they have increased.

(g) Ps. iv. 7. Thou hast put gladness in my heart, more than in the time that their corn and their wine increased.

cxxvi. 5. They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.

6. He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall, doubtless, come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

Acts viii. 8. And there was great joy in that city.

Phil. iv. 4. Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

(h) Judg. v. 30. Have they not sped? have they not divided the prey? to every man a damsel or two; to Sisera a prey of divers colours, a prey of divers colours of needle-work, of divers colours of needle-work on both sides, meet for the necks of them that take the spoil.

Ps. cxix. 162. I rejoice at thy word, as one that findeth great spoil.

Luke xi. 22. But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overthrow him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

4 For thou hast (i) broken the yoke of his burden; and (k) the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of Midian.

(i) Gen. xxvii. 40. And by thy sword shalt thou live, and shalt serve thy brother: and it shall come to pass, when thou shalt have the dominion, that thou shalt break his yoke from off thy neck.

Lev. xxvi. 13. I am the Lord your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that ye should not be their bond-men; and I have broken the bands of your yoke, and made you go upright.

Jer. xxx. 8. For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him.

Nah. i. 13. For now will I break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder.

(k) Is. xxx. 31. For through the voice of the Lord shall the Assyrian be beaten down; which smote with a rod.

5 For every battle of the warrior is with (l) confused noise, and garments rolled in blood; but this shall be with (m) burning and fuel of fire.

Jos. ii. 5. Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.

Nah. iii. 2. The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the prancing horses, and of the jumping chariots.

(m) Ps. xlvii. 9. He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder: he burneth the chariot in the fire.

Mal. iii. 2. But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fuller's soap:

3. And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness.

Matt. iii. 11. I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire.

2 Thess. i. 8. In flaming fire, taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

6 For (n) unto us a child is born, (o) unto us a son is given: and (p) the government shall be upon his shoulder: and (q) his name shall be called Wonderful, (r) Counsellor, (s) The mighty God, (t) The everlasting Father, (u) The Prince of Peace.

(n) Luke i. 35. And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee; therefore also that holy thing, which shall be born of thee, shall be called, The Son of God.

ii. 11. For unto you is born, this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

(o) John iii. 14. And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the son of man be lifted up.

16. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

Rom. viii. 32. He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he be not with him also freely give us all things?

(p) Jer. xxiii. 5. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.

6. In his day Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

Zech. ix. 9. Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee: he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

10. And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle-bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak peace unto the heathen; and his dominion shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth.

1 Cor. xv. 25. For he must reign till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

(q) Judg. xiii. 18. And the angel of the Lord said unto him, Why askest thou thus after my name, seeing it is secret?

1 Tim. iii. 16. And, without controversy, great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

(r) Zech. vi. 13. Even he shall build the temple of the Lord; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne; and he shall be a priest upon his throne: and the counsel of peace shall be between them both.

Luke xxi. 15. For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay, nor resist.

Col. ii. 3. In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

(s) Ps. l. 1. The mighty God, even the Lord, hath spoken, and called the earth, from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.

John i. 1. In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2. The same was in the beginning with God.

Tit. ii. 13. Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God, and our Saviour Jesus Christ.

1 John v. 20. And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true; and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life.

(t) Prov. viii. 23. I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.

(u) Ps. lxxii. 3. The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills by righteousness.

7. In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth.

lxxxv. 10. Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

Mic. v. 5. And this man shall be the peace, when the Assyrian shall come into our land; and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight principal men.

Luke ii. 14. Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

John xiv. 27. Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

Col. i. 20. And (having made peace through the blood of his cross,) by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

Heb. xiii. 20. Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant.

7 Of (x) the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and (y) to establish it with judgment and with justice, from henceforth even for ever. (z) The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.

(x) 2 Sam. vii. 16. And thine house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established for ever.

Ps. ii. 8. Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

Dan. ii. 38. And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field, and the fowls of the heaven, hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold.

(y) Ps. xlv. 4. And in thy majesty ride prosperously, because of truth, and meekness, and righteousness; and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

5. Thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's enemies; whereby the people fall under thee.

6. Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre.

Rev. xix. 11. And I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True; and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

(z) Ez. xxxvii. 21. But I had pity for mine holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen, whither they went.

22. Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, I do not this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for mine holy name's sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went.

23. And I will sanctify my great name which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, saith the Lord God, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes.

8 ¶ The LORD (a) sent a word into Jacob, and it hath lighted upon Israel.

(a) Zech. i. 6. But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not take hold of your fathers? and they returned, and said, Like as the Lord of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

Matt. xxiv. 35. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my word shall not pass away.

9 And (b) all the people shall know, even Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, that say, (c) in the pride and stoutness of heart,

(b) 1 Kings xxii. 25. And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see in that day, when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself.

Job xxi. 19. God layeth up his iniquity for his children; he rewardeth him, and he shall know it.

20. His eyes shall see his destruction, and he shall drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

Jer. xlv. 28. Yet a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah; and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, mine, or theirs.

29. And this shall be a sign unto you, saith the Lord, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil.

Ez. xxxiii. 33. And when this cometh to pass, (lo, it will come,) then shall they know that a prophet hath been among them.

(c) Prov. xvi. 18. Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.

Mal. iii. 13. Your words have been stout against me, saith the Lord: yet ye say, What have we spoken so much against thee?

iv. 1. For, behold, the day cometh that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

1 Pet. v. 5. Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder; yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

10 The (d) bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones: the sycamores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars.

(d) 1 Kings vii. 9. All these were of costly stones, according to the measures of hewed stones, sawed with saws within and without, even from the foundation unto the coping, and so on the outside toward the great court.

10. And the foundation was of costly stones, even great stones, stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits.

11. And above were costly stones, (after the measures of hewed stones,) and cedars.

12. And the great court round about was with three rows of hewed stones, and a row of cedar-beams, both for the inner court of the house of the Lord, and for the porch of the house.

x. 27. And the king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycamore-trees that are in the vale, for abundance.

Mal. i. 4. Whereas Edom saith, We are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places; thus saith the Lord of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the Lord hath indignation for ever.

11 Therefore the LORD shall (e) set up the adversaries of Rezin against him, and join his enemies together;

(e) 2 Kings xvi. 9. And the king of Assyria hearkened unto him; for the king of Assyria went up against Damascus, and took it, and carried the people of it captive to Kir, and slew Rezin.

12 The (f) Syrians before, and the Philistines behind: and they shall (g) devour Israel with open mouth. (h) For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

(f) 2 Kings xvi. 6. At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered Elath to Syria, and drove the Jews from Elath; and the Syrians came to Elath, and dwelt there unto this day.

Jer. xxxv. 11. But it came to pass, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so we dwell at Jerusalem.

(g) Deut. xxxi. 17. Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall befall them; so that they will say in that day, Are not these evils come upon us because our God is not among us?

Ps. lxxix. 7. For they have devoured Jacob, and laid waste his dwelling-place.

Jer. x. 25. Pour out thy fury upon the heathen that know thee not, and upon the families that call not on thy name: for they have eaten up

Jacob, and devoured him, and consumed him, and have made his habitation desolate.

(h) Is. v. 25. Therefore is the anger of the Lord kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them; and the hills did tremble, and their carcasses were torn in the midst of the streets.

Jer. iv. 8. For this gird you with sackcloth; lament and howl: for the fierce anger of the Lord is not turned back from us.

13 For (i) the people turneth not unto him that smiteth them, (k) neither do they seek the LORD of hosts.

(i) Job xxxvi. 13. But the hypocrites in heart heap up wrath; they cry not when he bindeth them.

Jer. v. 3. O Lord, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return.

Hos. v. 15. I will go and return to my place till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early.

(k) Deut. iv. 29. But if from thence thou shalt seek the Lord thy God, thou shalt find him, if thou seek him with all thy heart, and with all thy soul.

Hos. iii. 4. For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim.

5. Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the Lord their God, and David their king; and shall fear the Lord and his goodness in the latter days.

14 Therefore the LORD (l) will cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and rush, (m) in one day.

(l) Hos. i. 4. And the Lord said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel.

iv. 5. Therefore, shalt thou fall in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will destroy thy mother.

Amos iii. 12. Thus saith the Lord, As the shepherd taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Israel be taken out that dwell in Samaria in the corner of a bed, and in Damascus in a couch.

v. 2. The virgin of Israel is fallen, she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up.

3. For thus saith the Lord God, The city that went out by a thousand shall leave an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Israel.

(m) Hos. x. 15. So shall Beth-el do unto you because of your great wickedness: in a morning shall the king of Israel utterly be cut off.

Rev. xviii. 8. Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine: and she shall be utterly burnt with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

10. Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas! that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

17. For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every ship-master, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off.

15 The ancient and honourable, he is the head; and (n) the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail.

(n) 1 Kings xiii. 18. He said unto him, I am a prophet also as thou art, and an angel spake unto me by the word of the Lord, saying, Bring him back with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied unto him.

Jer. v. 31. The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bare rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

xxviii. 15. Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah, The Lord hath not sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie.

16. Therefore thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, because thou hast taught rebellion against the Lord.

Matt. vii. 15. Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

xxiv. 24. For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

1 John iv. 1. Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

16 For the leaders of this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.

17 Therefore the LORD (o) shall have no joy in their young men, neither shall have mercy on their fatherless and widows: (p) for every one is an hypocrite and an evildoer, and (q) every mouth speaketh folly. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

(o) Ps. cxlvii. 10. He delighteth not in the strength of the horse; he taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man.

Jer. xviii. 21. Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and pour out their blood by the force of the sword; and let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows; and let their men be put to death; let their young men be slain by the sword in battle.

Zech. ix. 17. For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty! corn shall make the young men cheerful, and new wine the maids.

(p) Job xv. 34. For the congregation of hypocrites shall be desolate, and fire shall consume the tabernacles of bribery.

Mic. vii. 2. The good man is perished out of the earth; and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net.

(q) Matt. xii. 34. O generation of vipers! how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

18 For (r) wickedness burneth as the fire: it shall devour the briars and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest, and they shall (s) mount up like the lifting up of smoke.

(r) Num. xi. 1. And when the people complained, it displeased the Lord: and the Lord heard it; and his anger was kindled; and the fire of the Lord burnt among them, and consumed them that were in the uttermost parts of the camp.

2. And the people cried unto Moses; and when Moses prayed unto the Lord, the fire was quenched.

3. And he called the name of the place Taberah: because the fire of the Lord burnt among them.

Job xxxi. 12. For it is a fire that consumeth to destruction, and would root out all mine increase.

Amos vii. 4. Thus hath the Lord God showed unto me; and, behold, the Lord God called to contend by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and did eat up a part.

Nah. i. 6. Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

(s) Psa. xxxvii. 20. But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the Lord shall be as the fat of lambs: they shall consume; into smoke shall they consume away.

Hos. xiii. 3. Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the early dew that passeth away, as the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney.

19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts (t) is the land darkened, and the people shall be as the fuel of the fire: (u) no man shall spare his brother.

(t) Jer. xiii. 16. Give glory to the Lord your God before he cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness.

Joel ii. 2. A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations.

Amos v. 18. Wo unto you that desire the day of the Lord! to what end is it for you? the day of the Lord is darkness, and not light.

Matt. xxvii. 45. Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.

(u) Ez. ix. 5. And to the others he said in mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city and smite; let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity.

Mic. vii. 2. The good man is perished out of the earth; and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net.

20 And (x) he shall snatch on the right hand, and be hungry: and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied: they shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm:

(x) Lev. xxvi. 26. And when I have broken the staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver you your bread again by weight: and ye shall eat, and not be satisfied.

29. And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat.

Jer. xix. 9. And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons, and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend, in the siege and straitness wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their lives, shall straiten them.

21 Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh; and they together shall be against Judah. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

CHAPTER X.

WO unto (a) them that decree unrighteous decrees, and that write grievousness which they have prescribed;

(a) 1 Kings xxi. 13. And there came in two men, children of Belial, and sat before him: and the men of Belial witnessed against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did blaspheme God and the king. Then they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones that he died.

Psa. lviii. 2. Yea, in heart ye work wickedness: ye weigh the violence of your hands in the earth.

xciv. 20. Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law?

21. They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood.

Dan. vi. 8. Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

9. Wherefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree.

Mic. iii. 1. And I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob, and ye princes of the house of Israel: Is it not for you to know judgment?

2. Who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones;

3. Who also eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron.

4. Then shall they cry unto the Lord, but he will not hear them; he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

John ix. 22. These words spake his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue.

xix. 6. When the chief priests, therefore, and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, Crucify him! Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.

2 To (b) turn aside the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, (c) that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherless.

(b) Lam. iii. 35. To turn aside the right of a man before the face of the Most High,
36. To subvert a man in his cause, the Lord approveth not.

Amos ii. 7. That pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and turn aside the way of the meek; and a man and his father will go in unto the same maid, to profane my holy name.

v. 11. Forasmuch, therefore, as your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat; ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.

12. For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.

Mal. iii. 5. And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the Lord of hosts.

(c) Jer. vii. 6. If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt.

Ez. xxii. 7. In thee have they set light by father and mother; in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger: in thee have they vexed the fatherless and the widow.

Matt. xxiii. 14. Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.

3 And (d) what will ye do in the day of visitation, and (e) in the desolation which shall come from far? (f) to whom will ye flee for help? and (g) where will ye leave your glory?

(d) Job xxxi. 14. What then shall I do when God riseth up? and when he visiteth, what shall I answer him?

Jer. v. 31. The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

Hos. ix. 7. The days of visitation are come, the days of recompense are come; Israel shall know it; the prophet is a fool, the spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred!

Luke xix. 44. And shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another: because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

(e) Deut. xxviii. 49. The Lord shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand.

(f) Hos. v. 13. When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to the Assyrian, and sent to king Jareb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound.

(g) Gen. xxxi. 1. And he heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, Jacob hath taken away all that was our father's: and of that which was our father's hath he gotten all this glory.

Ps. xlix. 16. Be not thou afraid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased.

17. For when he dieth he shall carry nothing away; his glory shall not descend after him.

Prov. xi. 4. Riches profit not in the day of wrath; but righteousness delivereth from death.

Zeph. i. 18. Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the Lord's wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

4 (h) Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

(h) Lev. xxvi. 17. And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be slain before your enemies; they that hate you shall reign over you; and ye shall flee when none pursueth you.

36. And upon them that are left alive of you, I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; and the sound of a shaken leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall, when none pursueth.

37. And they shall fall one upon another, as it were before a sword, when none pursueth: and ye shall have no power to stand before your enemies.

Deut. xxxii. 30. How should one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, except their rock had sold them, and the Lord had shut them up?

Jer. xxxvii. 10. For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

Hos. ix. 12. Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yea, wo also to them when I depart from them!

5 ¶ O Assyrian, (i) the rod of mine anger, and the staff in their hand is mine indignation.

(i) Ps. cxxv. 3. For the rod of the wicked shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous; lest the righteous put forth their hands unto iniquity.

Jer. li. 20. Thou art my battle-axe and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations; and with thee will I destroy kingdoms;

21. And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider;

22. With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces old and young; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid;

23. I will also break in pieces with thee the shepherd and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in pieces captives and rulers.

24. And I will render unto Babylon, and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea, all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, saith the Lord.

6 I will send him (k) against an hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath (l) will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

(k) Jer. iii. 10. And yet for all this, her treacherous sister Judah hath not turned unto me with her whole heart, but feignedly, saith the Lord.

iv. 14. O Jerusalem, wash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved: how long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee?

Matt. xv. 7. Ye hypocrites! well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying.

(l) Jer. xxxiv. 22. Behold, I will command, saith the Lord, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without an inhabitant.

xlvii. 6. O thou sword of the Lord, how long will it be ere thou be quiet? Put up thyself into thy scabbard, rest, and be still.

7. How can it be quiet, seeing the Lord hath given it a charge against Ashkelon, and against the sea-shore? there hath he appointed it.

7 Howbeit, (m) he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations not a few.

(m) Gen. i. 20. But as for you, ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive.

Mic. iv. 11. Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion.

12. But they know not the thoughts of the Lord, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor.

8 For he saith, Are not my princes altogether kings?

9 Is not Calno as Carchemish? is not Hamath as Arpad? is not Samaria as Damascus?

10 As my hand hath found the kingdoms of the idols, and whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria;

11 Shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols?

12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, that when the LORD hath performed his whole work upon Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of (n) the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and (o) the glory of his high looks.

(n) Job xl. 11. Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath, and behold every one that is proud, and abase him.

12. Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place.

(o) Prov. xxx. 13. There is a generation, O how lofty are their eyes! and their eye-lids are lifted up.

Ez. xxxi. 10. Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height.

13 (p) For he saith, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I am prudent: and (q) I have removed the bounds of the people, and have (r) robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man:

(p) Deut. viii. 17. And thou say in thine heart, My power, and the might of mine hand, hath gotten me this wealth.

Ez. xxix. 3. Speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself.

Amos vi. 13. Ye which rejoice in a thing of nought, which say, Have we not taken to us horns, by our own strength?

(q) Amos v. 27. Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus, saith the Lord, whose name is, The God of hosts.

(r) 2 Kings xvi. 8. And Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent it for a present to the king of Assyria.

xviii. 15. And Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the king's house.

14 And (s) my hand hath found as a nest the riches of the people: and as one gathereth eggs that are left, have I gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped.

(s) Job xxxi. 25. If I rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because mine hand had gotten much.

Prov. xviii. 12. Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, and before honour is humility.

xxi. 6. The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death.

Hos. xii. 7. He is a merchant, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to oppress.

8. And Ephraim said, Yet I am become rich, I have found me out substance: in all my labours they shall find none iniquity in me that were sin.

15 Shall (t) the axe boast itself against him that heweth therewith? or shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? as if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up itself, as if it were no wood.

(t) Ps. xvii. 13. Arise, O Lord; disappoint him, cast him down: deliver my soul from the wicked, which is thy sword!

Jer. li. 20. Thou art my battle-axe and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations; and with thee will I destroy kingdoms;

21. And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider;

22. With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces old and young; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid;

23. I will also break in pieces with thee the shepherd and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers.

Ez. xxviii. 9. Wilt thou yet say before him that slayeth thee, I am God? but thou shalt be a man, and no God, in the hand of him that slayeth thee.

Rom. ix. 20. Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21. Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

16 Therefore shall the LORD, (u) the LORD of hosts, send among his fat ones leanness; and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire.

(u) Is. xxxvii. 6. And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say unto your master, Thus saith the Lord, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.

7. Behold, I will send a blast upon him; and he shall hear a rumour, and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

17 And (x) the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One (y) for a flame: and it shall burn and (z) devour his thorns and his briars in one day;

(x) Ps. xxvii. 1. The Lord is my light, and my salvation, whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life, of whom shall I be afraid?

xxxiv. 11. For the Lord God is a sun and shield; the Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

Rev. xxi. 23. And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it; for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

xxxii. 5. And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun: for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.

(y) Ps. xviii. 8. There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

Jer. iv. 4. Circumcise yourselves to the Lord, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

vii. 20. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

Matth. iii. 12. Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner: but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

Heb. xii. 29. For our God is a consuming fire.

(z) Ps. xcvi. 3. A fire goeth before him, and burneth up his enemies round about.

Nah. i. 10. For while they be folded together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

18 And (a) shall consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, both soul and body: and they shall be as when a standard-bearer fainteth.

(a) Is. ix. 18. For wickedness burneth as the fire; it shall devour the briars and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest; and they shall mount up like the lifting up of smoke.

Jer. xxi. 14. But I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, saith the Lord: and I will kindle a fire in the forest thereof, and it shall devour all things round about it.

19 And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be few, that a child may write them.

20 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that (b) the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, shall (c) no more again stay upon him that smote them; but shall stay upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.

(b) Ezra ix. 14. Should we again break thy commandments, and join in affinity with the people of these abominations, wouldest thou not be angry with us till thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping?

Is. xxxvii. 4. It may be the Lord thy God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which the Lord thy God hath heard; wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that is left.

(c) Hos. v. 13. When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to the Assyrian, and sent to king Jareb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound.

xiv. 3. Asshur shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses; neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods: for in thee the fatherless findeth mercy.

21 The remnant shall (d) return, even the remnant of Jacob, unto the mighty God.

(d) Hos. vi. 1. Come, and let us return unto the Lord: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

vii. 10. And the pride of Israel testifieth to his face; and they do not return to the Lord their God, nor seek him for all this.

16. They return, but not to the Most High; they are like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue. This shall be their derision in the land of Egypt.

xiv. 1. O Israel, return unto the Lord thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity.

Acts xxvi. 20. But showed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent, and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

22 For (e) though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return: (f) the consumption decreed shall overflow with righteousness.

(e) 1 Kings iv. 20. Judah and Israel were many, as the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking, and making merry.

Hos. i. 10. Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God.

Rom. ix. 27. Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved.

Rev. xx. 8. And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog: to gather them together to battle; the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

(f) Is. xxviii. 22. Now, therefore, be ye not mockers, lest your hands be made strong: for I have heard from the Lord God of hosts a consumption, even determined upon the whole earth.

Rom. ix. 28. For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness; because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

23 For the Lord God of hosts shall make a consumption, even determined, in the midst of all the land.

24 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God of hosts, O my people that dwellest in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian: he shall smite thee with a rod, and shall lift up his staff against thee, after the manner of Egypt.

25 For (g) yet a very little while, and the indignation shall cease, and mine anger in their destruction.

(g) Ps. xxxvii. 10. For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be; yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

Heb. x. 37. For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

26 And the LORD of hosts shall stir up a scourge for him, (h) according to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb; and as (i) his rod was upon the sea, so shall he lift it up after the manner of Egypt.

(h) Judg. vii. 25. And they took two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb; and they slew Oreb upon the rock Oreb, and Zeeb they slew at the wine-press of Zeeb, and pursued Midian, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other side Jordan.

Ps. lxxxiii. 11. Make their nobles like Oreb, and like Zeeb; yea, all their princes as Zebah and as Zalmunna.

(i) Ez. xiv. 25. And took off their chariot-wheels, that they drave them heavily: so that the Egyptians said, Let us flee from the face of Israel: for the Lord fighteth for them against the Egyptians.

26. And the Lord said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand over the sea, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen.

Ps. cvi. 10. And he saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

11. And the waters covered their enemies; there was not one of them left.

Rev. xix. 15. And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations; and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the wine-press of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

27 And it shall come to pass in that day, that (k) his burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed (l) because of the anointing.

(k) 2 Kings xviii. 13. Now in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, did Sennacherib king of Assyria come up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them.

14. And Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to Lachish, saying, I have offended; return from me: that which thou puttest on me I will bear. And the king of Assyria appointed unto Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver, and thirty talents of gold.

(l) Ps. xx. 6. Now know I that the Lord saveth his anointed: he will hear him from his holy heaven with the saving strength of his right hand.

xiv. 7. Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

Acts iv. 27. For of a truth, against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were gathered together.

28 ¶ He is come to Aiath, he is passed to Migron: at Michmash he hath laid up his carriages:

29 They are gone over (m) the passage: they have taken up their lodging at (n) Geba; (o) Ramah is afraid; (p) Gibeah of Saul is fled.

(m) 1 Sam. xiii. 23. And the garrison of the Philistines went out to the passage of Michmash.

xiv. 4. And between the passages, by which Jonathan sought to go over unto the Philistines' garrison, there was a sharp rock on the one side, and a sharp rock on the other side: and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.

(n) Josh. xxi. 17. And out of the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon with her suburbs, Geba with her suburbs.

(o) Josh. xviii. 25. Gibeon, and Ramah, and Beeroth.

1 Sam. vii. 17. And his return was to Ramah; for there was his house: and there he judged Israel; and there he built an altar unto the Lord.

xv. 34. Then Samuel went to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house to Gibeah of Saul.

Jer. xxxi. 15. Thus saith the Lord, A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping; Rachel weeping for her children, refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not.

(p) 1 Sam. xiii. 2. Saul chose him three thousand men of Israel; whereof two thousand were with Saul in Michmash, and in Mount Beth-el, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin: and the rest of the people he sent every man to his tent.

Ho. ix. 9. They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Gibeah: therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

30 Lift up thy voice, O daughter of Gallim: cause it to be heard unto Laish, O poor (q) Anathoth.

1 Kings ii. 26. And unto Abiathar the priest said the king, Get thee to Anathoth, unto thine own fields, for thou art worthy of death: for I will not at this time put thee to death, because thou barest the ark of the Lord God before David my father, and because thou hast been afflicted in all wherein my father was afflicted.

Jer. i. 1. The words of Jeremiah, the son of Hilkiah, of the priests that were in Anathoth, in the land of Benjamin.

xxxii. 8. So Hanameel, mine uncle's son, came to me in the court of the prison, according to the word of the Lord, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine: buy it for thyself. Then I knew that this was the word of the Lord.

31 Madmenah is removed; the inhabitants of Gebim gather themselves to flee.

32 As yet shall he remain at Nob that day: he shall (r) shake his hand against the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

(r) Is. xiii. 2. Lift ye up a banner upon the high mountain, exalt the voice unto them, shake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles.

xix. 16. In that day shall Egypt be like unto women; and it shall be afraid and fear, because of the shaking of the hand of the Lord of hosts, which he shaketh over it.

Zech. ii. 9. For, behold, I will shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ye shall know that the Lord of hosts hath sent me.

33 Behold, the LORD, the LORD of hosts, shall lop the bough with terror: and the high ones of stature shall be hewn down, (s) and the haughty shall be humbled.

(s) Job xl. 11. Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath, and behold every one that is proud, and abase him.

12. Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place.

Dan. iv. 37. Now, I Nebuchadnezzar praise, and extol, and honour the King of heaven, all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment: and those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

Luke xiv. 11. For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

34 And he shall (t) cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and (u) Lebanon shall fall by (x) a mighty one.

(t) Jer. xxii. 7. And I will prepare destroyers against thee, every one with his weapons; and they shall cut down thy choice cedars, and cast them into the fire.

xlvi. 22. The voice thereof shall go like a serpent: for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as hewers of wood.

23. They shall cut down her forest, saith the Lord, though it cannot be searched; because they are more than the grasshoppers, and are innumerable.

xlviii. 2. There shall be no more praise of Moab: in Heshbon they have devised evil against it; come, and let us cut it off from being a nation; also thou shalt be cut down, O Madmen; the sword shall pursue thee.

Nah. i. 12. Thus saith the Lord, Though they be quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be cut down, when he shall pass through. Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more.

(u) Zech. xi. 1. Open thy doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour thy cedars.

2. Howl, fir-tree, for the cedar is fallen; because the mighty are spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bashan; for the forest of the vintage is come down.

(x) Dan. iv. 13. I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a watcher and an holy one came down from heaven:

14. He cried aloud, and said thus, Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit; let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches.

2 Pet. ii. 11. Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring no railing accusation against them before the Lord.

Rev. x. 1. And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud, and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire.

xviii. 21. And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

CHAPTER XI.

AND (a) there shall come forth A Rod out of the stem of (b) Jesse, and (c) a Branch shall grow out of his roots:

(a) Rev. v. 5. And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

xxii. 16. I, Jesus, have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star.

(b) Ruth iv. 17. And the women, her neighbours, gave it a name, saying, There is a son born to Naomi; and they called his name Obed: he is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

1 Sam. xvii. 58. And Saul said to him, Whose son art thou, thou young man? And David answered, I am the son of thy servant Jesse the Beth-lehemite.

Rom. xv. 12. And again, Esaias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

(c) Jer. xxxiii. 5. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.

xxxiii. 15. In those days, and at that time, will I cause the Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David; and he shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land.

Zech. iii. 8. Hear now, O Joshua, the high priest, thou and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are men wondered at; for, behold, I will bring forth my servant, The Branch.

2 And (d) the Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him, (e) the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge, and of the fear of the LORD;

(d) Num. xi. 25. And the Lord came down in a cloud, and spake unto him, and took of the spirit that was upon him, and gave it unto the seventy elders: and it came to pass, that, when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied, and did not cease.

Matt. iii. 16. And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him.

John i. 32. And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33. And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.

iii. 34. For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him.

(e) Deut. xxxiv. 9. And Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom; for Moses had laid his hands upon him: and the children of Israel hearkened unto him, and did as the Lord commanded Moses.

John xv. 26. But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me.

Eph. i. 17. That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him:

18. The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints.

James iii. 17. But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.

3 And (f) shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the LORD: and (g) he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears:

(f) Prov. ii. 5. Then shalt thou understand the fear of the Lord, and find the knowledge of God.

9. Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity; yea, every good path.

Luke ii. 52. And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man.

(g) 1 Sam. xvi. 7. But the Lord said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature, because I have refused him: for the Lord seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart.

2 Sam. xiv. 17. Then thine handmaid said, The word of my lord the king shall now be comfortable: for as an angel of God, so is my lord the king, to discern good and bad; therefore the Lord thy God will be with thee.

John vii. 24. Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

viii. 15. Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man.

16. And yet if I judge, my judgment is true; for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

4 But (h) with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity (i) for the meek of the earth: and (k) he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and (l) with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

(h) 2 Sam. viii. 15. And David reigned over all Israel: and David executed judgment and justice unto all his people.

1 Kings x. 8. Happy are thy men, happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and that hear thy wisdom.

9. Blessed be the Lord thy God, which delighted in thee, to set thee on the throne of Israel; because the Lord loved Israel for ever, therefore made he thee king, to do judgment and justice.

Matt. xi. 5. The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk; the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear; the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them.

Rev. xix. 11. And I saw heaven opened, and, behold, a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True; and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

(i) Zeph. ii. 3. Seek ye the Lord, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the Lord's anger.

Matt. v. 5. Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

2 Cor. x. 1. Now I Paul myself beseech you, by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you.

Gal. v. 23. Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

Tit. iii. 2. To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, showing all meekness unto all men.

James iii. 13. Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him show, out of a good conversation, his works with meekness of wisdom.

(k) Job iv. 9. By the blast of God they perish, and by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed.

Ps. ii. 9. Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron: thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

cx. 2. The Lord shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.

Mal. iv. 6. And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

2 Thess. ii. 8. And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming.

Rev. i. 16. And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp two-edged sword; and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

ii. 16. Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

xix. 15. And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations; and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the wine-press of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

(l) Ps. xviii. 8. There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

Is. xxx. 33. For Tophet is ordained of old; yea, for the king it is prepared; he hath made it deep and large; the pile thereof is fire and much wood: the breath of the Lord, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it.

Acts ix. 1. And Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest.

5 And (m) righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, (n) and faithfulness the girdle of his reins.

(m) Is. lix. 17. For he put on righteousness as a breast-plate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head: and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloak.

2 Cor. vi. 7. By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left.

Eph. vi. 14. Stand, therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breast-plate of righteousness.

1 Pet. iv. 1. Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin.

Rev. i. 13. And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

(n) Is. xxv. 1. O Lord, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name: for thou hast done wonderful things; thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth.

Hos. ii. 20. I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness; and thou shalt know the Lord.

Heb. ii. 17. Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren; that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

1 John i. 9. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Rev. iii. 14. And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true Witness, the beginning of the creation of God.

6 The (o) wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf, and the young lion, and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them.

(o) Ez. xxxiv. 25. And I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land; and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods.

Hos. ii. 18. And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bow, and the sword, and the battle, out of the earth, and will make them to lie down safely.

Rev. v. 9. And they sung a new song, saying,

Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood, out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; 10. And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

7 And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

8 And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice's den.

9 They shall (p) not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: (q) for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

(p) Mic. iv. 2. And many nations shall come and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

3. And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off: and they shall beat their swords into plough-shares, and their spears into pruning-hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

4. But they shall sit every man under his vine, and under his fig-tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the Lord of hosts hath spoken it.

Phil. ii. 14. Do all things without murmurings and disputings;

15. That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world.

•1 Thess. v. 15. See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men.

(q) Ps. xcvi. 3. He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Hab. ii. 14. For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

Zech. xiv. 9. And the Lord shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one Lord, and his name one.

10 ¶ And in (r) that day there shall be a root of Jesse, (s) which shall stand for an ensign of the people; (t) to it shall the Gentiles seek: and (u) his rest shall be glorious.

(r) Rom. xv. 12. And again, Esaias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

Rev. xxii. 16. I, Jesus, have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star.

(s) Gen. xlix. 10. The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be.

John iii. 14. And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up;

15. That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

xii. 32. And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.

(t) Matt. ii. 1. Now, when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east of Jerusalem,

2. Saying, Where is he that is born king of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

John xii. 20. And there were certain Greeks among them that came up to worship at the feast:

21. The same came, therefore, to Philip, which was of Bethsaida, of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

Acts xi. 18. When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Thus hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life.

xxviii. 28. Be it known, therefore, unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it.

(u) Ps. cxvi. 7. Return unto thy rest, O my soul; for the Lord hath dealt bountifully with thee.

Jer. vi. 16. Thus saith the Lord, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein.

Matt. xi. 28. Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

29. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

30. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall (x) set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people, which shall be left, (y) from Assyria, and from (z) Egypt, and from (a) Pathros, and from (b) Cush, and from (c) Elam, and from (d) Shinar, and from (e) Hamath, and from (f) the islands of the sea.

(x) Deut. xxx. 3. That then the Lord thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee, and will return and gather thee from all the nations whither the Lord thy God hath scattered thee.

4. If any of thine be driven out unto the utmost parts of heaven, from thence will the Lord thy God gather thee, and from thence will he fetch thee.

Jer. xxxiii. 7. Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that they shall no more say, The Lord liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

8. But the Lord liveth, which brought up, and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land.

Amos ix. 14. And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

15. And I will plant them upon their land, and they shall no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them, saith the Lord thy God.

(y) Mic. vii. 12. In that day also he shall come even to thee from Assyria, and from the fortified cities, and from the fortress even to the river, and from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain.

(z) Jer. xlv. 1. The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews which dwell in the land of Egypt, which dwell at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Noph, and in the country of Pathros, saying,

(a) Ez. xxx. 14. And I will make Pathros desolate, and will set fire in Zoan, and will execute judgments in No.

(b) Gen. x. 6. And the sons of Ham; Cush, and Mizraim, and Phut, and Canaan.

7. And the sons of Cush; Seba, and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabtecha: and the sons of Raamah; Sheba, and Dedan.

(c) Gen. x. 22. The children of Shem; Elam, and Ashur, and Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram.

Jer. xxv. 25. And all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes.

(d) Gen. x. 10. And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.

Zech. v. 11. And he said unto me, To build it an house in the land of Shinar: and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base.

(e) Jer. xlix. 23. Concerning Damascus. Hamath is confounded, and Arpad; for they have heard evil tidings; they are faint-hearted: there is sorrow on the sea; it cannot be quiet.

Zech. ix. 2. And Hamath also shall border thereby; Tyrus and Zidon, though it be very wise.

(f) Gen. x. 5. By these were the isles of the Gentiles divided in their lands; every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations.

Jer. xxxi. 10. Hear the word of the Lord, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd doth his flock.

Zeph. ii. 11. The Lord will be terrible unto them: for he will fathom all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

12 And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and (g) shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah, from the four corners of the earth.

(g) Deut. xxxii. 26. I said, I would scatter them into corners, I would make the remembrance of them to cease from among men.

Ps. lxxvii. 22. The Lord said, I will bring again from Bashan; I will bring my people again from the depths of the sea.

Zeph. iii. 10. From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia my suppliants, even the daughter of my dispersed, shall bring my offering.

James i. 1. James, a servant of God, and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

13 The (h) envy also of Ephraim shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off: Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim.

(k) Jer. iii. 18. In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have given for an inheritance unto your fathers.

Hos. i. 11. Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

14 But they shall fly upon the shoulders of the Philistines toward the west: they shall spoil them of the east together: they shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab; and the children of Ammon shall obey them.

15 And (i) the LORD shall utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and (k) with his mighty wind shall he shake his hand over the river, and shall smite it in the seven streams, and make men go over dry-shod.

(i) Zech. x. 11. And he shall pass through the sea with affliction, and shall smite the waves in the sea, and all the deeps of the river shall dry up; and the pride of Assyria shall be brought down, and the sceptre of Egypt shall depart away.

(k) Ex. xiv. 21. And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the Lord caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided.

16 And (l) there shall be an highway for the remnant of his people, which shall be left from Assyria; (m) like as it was to Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.

(l) Is. xix. 23. In that day shall there be an highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria; and the Egyptians shall serve with the Assyrians.

xl. 3. The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

4. Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain.

(m) Ex. xiv. 26. And the Lord said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand over the sea, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen.

27. And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to his strength when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it; and the Lord overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

28. And the waters returned, and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them: there remained not so much as one of them.

29. But the children of Israel walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea; and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand and on their left.

CHAPTER XII.

AND in that day thou shalt say, (a) O LORD, I will praise thee: (b) though thou wast angry with me, thine anger is turned away, and thou comfortedst me.

(a) Ps. lxxix. 34. Let the heaven and earth praise him, the seas, and every thing that moveth therein.

35. For God will save Zion, and will build the cities of Judah; that they may dwell there, and have it in possession.

36. The seed also of his servants shall inherit it; and they that love his name shall dwell therein.

Rev. xv. 3. And they sing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.

4. Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee: for thy judgments are made manifest.

(b) Is. xl. 1. Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God.

2. Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the Lord's hand double for all her sins.

li. 3. For the Lord shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places, and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the Lord: joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

liv. 8. In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the Lord thy Redeemer.

lxvi. 13. As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

Jer. xxxi. 18. I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus: Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the Lord my God.

19. Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth.

20. Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my bowels are troubled for him: I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the Lord.

Hos. xi. 8. How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? Mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

2 Behold, (c) God is my salvation: I will trust, and not be afraid: for (d) the LORD JEHOVAH is my strength and my song; he also is become my salvation.

(c) Ps. xxvii. 1. The Lord is my light, and my salvation, whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life, of whom shall I be afraid?

Jer. iii. 23. Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills, and from the multitude of mountains: truly in the Lord our God is the salvation of Israel.

xxiii. 6. In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely; and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

Jon. ii. 9. But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the Lord.

(d) Ex. xv. 2. The Lord is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation: he is my God, and I will prepare him an habitation; my father's God, and I will exalt him.

Ps. cxviii. 14. The Lord is my strength and song, and is become my salvation.

Is. xxvi. 4. Trust ye in the Lord for ever: for in the Lord JEHOVAH is everlasting strength.

Hos. i. 7. But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the Lord their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

3 Therefore (e) with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation.

(e) Ps. xxxvi. 9. For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light.

Jer. ii. 13. For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

John i. 16. And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

iv. 10. Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.

11. The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12. Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

13. Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:

14. But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst: but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

vii. 37. In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me and drink.

38. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

39. (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)

Rev. vii. 17. For the Lamb, which is in the midst of the throne, shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters; and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

xxii. 1. And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

17. And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

4 And (f) in that day shall ye say, Praise the LORD, call upon his name, (g) declare his doings among the people, make mention that (h) his name is exalted.

(f) Ps. cvi. 47. Save us, O Lord our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy name, and to triumph in thy praise.

48. Blessed be the Lord God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting, and let all the people say, Amen. Praise ye the Lord.

cxiii. 1. Praise ye the Lord. Praise, O ye servants of the Lord, praise the name of the Lord.

2. Blessed be the name of the Lord, from this time forth and for evermore.

3. From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same, the Lord's name is to be praised.

cxvii. 1. O praise the Lord, all ye nations: praise him, all ye people.

2. For his merciful kindness is great toward us; and the truth of the Lord endureth for ever. Praise ye the Lord.

(g) Ps. ix. 11. Sing praises to the Lord, which dwelleth in Zion: declare among the people his doings.

xxii. 31. They shall come, and shall declare his righteousness unto a people that shall be born, that he hath done this.

xl. 5. Many, O Lord my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward; they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

Jer. li. 9. We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country; for her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.

10. The Lord hath brought forth our righteousness; come, and let us declare in Zion the work of the Lord our God.

Joh. xvii. 26. And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it; that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them.

(h) 1 Chr. xxix. 11. Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all.

Neh. ix. 5. Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, Stand up, and bless the Lord your God for ever and ever; and blessed be thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

Ps. xviii. 46. The Lord liveth; and blessed be my Rock; and let the God of my salvation be exalted.

xlvi. 10. Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

xcvii. 9. For thou, Lord, art high above all the earth; thou art exalted far above all gods.

5 (i) Sing unto the LORD, for he hath done excellent things: (k) this is known in all the earth.

(i) Ex. xv. 1. Then sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the Lord, and spake, saying, I will sing unto the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

Ps. xcvi. 1. O sing unto the Lord a new song; for he hath done marvellous things: his right hand and his holy arm hath gotten him the victory.

cv. 2. Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him: talk ye of all his wondrous works.

(k) Pt. lxxii. 19. And blessed be his glorious name for ever: and let the whole earth be filled with his glory. Amen, and amen.

Hab. ii. 14. For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

6 Cry out and shout, thou inhabitant of Zion; for (l) great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee.

(l) Ps. ix. 11. Sing praises to the Lord, which dwelleth in Zion: declare among the people his doings.

lxxxix. 18. For the Lord is our defence; and the Holy One of Israel is our King.

Ez. xliii. 7. And he said unto me, Son of man, the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever, and my holy name, shall the house of Israel no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by the carcasses of their kings in their high places.

Zech. ii. 5. For I, saith the Lord, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the midst of her.

10. Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the Lord.

11. And many nations shall be joined to the Lord in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee; and thou shalt know that the Lord of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

CHAPTER XIII.

THE (a) burden of (b) Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz did see.

(a) Ez. xii. 10. Say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, This burden concerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among them.

Nah. i. 1. The burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

Hab. i. 1. The burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see.

Zech. ix. 1. The burden of the word of the Lord in the land of Hadrach, and Damascus shall be the rest thereof: when the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Israel, shall be toward the Lord.

(b) Is. xliii. 14. Thus saith the Lord, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel, For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their nobles, and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships.

Jer. li. 1. Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against them that dwell in the midst of them that rise up against me, a destroying wind.

2 (c) Lift ye up a banner upon the high mountain, exalt the voice unto them, shake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles.

(c) Jer. l. 2. Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

li. 27. Set ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashchenaz; appoint a captain against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough caterpillars.

3 I have commanded my sanctified ones, I have also called my (d) mighty ones for mine anger, even them that rejoice in my highness.

(d) Joi. iii. 11. Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about; thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O Lord.

4 The noise of a multitude in the mountains, like as of a great people; a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together: (e) the LORD of hosts mustereth the host of the battle.

(e) Jer. l. 14. Put yourselves in array against Babylon round about: all ye that bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows; for she hath sinned against the Lord.

15. Shout against her round about: she hath given her hand: her foundations are fallen, her walls are thrown down; for it is the vengeance of the Lord: take vengeance upon her; as she hath done, do unto her.

Rev. xviii. 8. Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine: and she shall be utterly burnt with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

5 They come (f) from a far country, from the end of heaven, even the LORD, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.

(f) Jer. l. 3. For out of the north there cometh up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast.

li. 11. Make bright the arrows; gather the shields; the Lord hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes: for his device is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of the Lord, the vengeance of his temple.

Mat. xxiv. 31. And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

6 ¶ (g) Howl ye; (h) for the day of the LORD is at hand: it shall come (i) as a destruction from the Almighty.

(g) Jer. xxv. 34. Howl, ye shepherds, and cry; and wallow yourselves in the ashes, ye principal of the flock: for the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are accomplished; and ye shall fall like a pleasant vessel.

xlix. 3. Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled: cry, ye daughters of Kabbah, gird you with sackcloth; lament, and run to and fro by the hedges: for their king shall go into captivity, and his priests and his princes together.

li. 8. Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: howl for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed.

Ez. xxi. 12. Cry and howl, son of man; for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the princes of Israel; terrors, by reason of the sword, shall be upon my people: smite therefore upon thy thigh.

xxx. 2. Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord God, Howl ye, Wo worth the day!

Joel i. 5. Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine; because of the new wine: for it is cut off from your mouth.

James v. 1. Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

(h) Ez. xxx. iii. For the day is near, even the day of the Lord is near, a cloudy day; it shall be the time of the heathen.

Amos v. 18. Wo unto you that desire the day of the Lord! to what end is it for you? the day of the Lord is darkness, and not light.

Mal. iv. 5. Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet, before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord.

(i) Job xxxi. 23. For destruction from God was a terror to me, and by reason of his highness I could not endure.

Joel i. 15. Alas for the day! for the day of the Lord is at hand, and as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come.

7 Therefore (k) shall all hands be faint, and (l) every man's heart shall melt:

(k) Jer. i. 43. The king of Babylon hath heard the report of them, and his hands waxed feeble; anguish took hold of him, and pangs, as of a woman in travail.

Ez. vii. 17. All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water.

xxi. 7. And it shall be, when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shalt answer, For the tidings, because it cometh; and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it cometh, and shall be brought to pass, saith the Lord God.

(l) Ez. xv. 15. Then the dukes of Edom shall be amazed; the mighty men of Moab, trembling shall take hold upon them; all the inhabitants of Canaan shall melt away.

Nah. ii. 10. She is empty, and void, and waste; and the heart melteth, and the knees smite together, and much pain is in all loins, and the faces of them all gather blackness.

8 And they shall be afraid: (m) pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman that travaileth: they shall be amazed one at another; their faces shall be as flames.

(m) Ps. xlvi. 5. They saw it, and so they marvelled; they were troubled, and hasted away.

6. Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

Jer. xxx. 6. Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth travail with child; wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness?

1. 43. The king of Babylon hath heard the report of them, and his hands waxed feeble; anguish took hold of him, and pangs, as of a woman in travail.

Dan. v. 5. In the same hour came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick, upon the plaster of the wall of the king's palace; and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

6. Then the king's countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against another.

1 Thess. v. 3. For when they shall say, Peace and safety: then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

9 Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, (n) cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and (o) he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it.

(n) Jer. vi. 22. Thus saith the Lord, Behold, a people cometh from the north country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth.

23. They shall lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy: their roareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against thee, O daughter of Zion.

Nah. i. 2. God is jealous, and the Lord revengeth; the Lord revengeth, and is furious: the Lord will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

6. Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

Mal. iv. 1. For, behold, the day cometh that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

(o) Ps. civ. 35. Let the sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more: Bless thou the Lord, O my soul. Praise ye the Lord.

Prov. ii. 22. But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and the transgressors shall be rooted out of it.

10 For (p) the stars of heaven, and the constellations thereof, shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine.

(p) Joel ii. 10. The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble; the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining.

31. The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the Lord come.

Zeph. i. 15. That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness.

Matt. xxiv. 29. Immediately after the tribulation of these days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heaven shall be shaken.

Mark xii. 24. But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light;

25. And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.

Luke xxi. 25. And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring.

Rev. vi. 12. And I beheld, when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;

13. And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig-tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind:

14. And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places.

viii. 12. And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

11 And (q) I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; (r) and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.

(q) Jer. li. 34. Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon hath devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.

35. The violence done to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon, shall the inhabitant of Zion say; and, My blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldaea, shall Jerusalem say.

36. Therefore thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; and I will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry.

37. And Babylon shall become heaps, a dwelling-place for dragons, an astonishment and an hissing without an inhabitant.

38. They shall roar together like lions; they shall yell as lions' whelps.

Rev. xii. 9. And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10. And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

xviii. 2. And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3. For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

(r) Jer. i. 29. Call together the archers against Babylon: all ye that bend the bow camp against it round about; let none thereof escape: recompense her according to her work: according to all that she hath done, do unto her: for she hath been proud against the Lord, against the Holy One of Israel.

30. Therefore shall her young men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the Lord.

31. Behold, I am against thee, O thou most proud, saith the Lord God of hosts; for thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee.

32. And the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up: and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him.

12 I will make a man more precious than fine gold; even a man than the golden wedge of Ophir.

13. Therefore (s) I will shake the heavens, and (t) the earth shall remove out of her place, (u) in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger.

(s) Joel iii. 16. The Lord also shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the Lord will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel.

Hag. ii. 6. For thus saith the Lord of hosts, Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land;

7. And I will shake all nations, and the Desire of all nations shall come: and I will fill this house with glory, saith the Lord of hosts.

Rev. vi. 13. And the stars of heaven fell upon the earth, even as a fig-tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind:

14. And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places.

(t) Jer. iv. 23. I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was without form and void; and the heavens, and they had no light.

24. I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly.

2 Pet. iii. 10. But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also, and the works that are therein, shall be burned up.

Rev. xx. 11. And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.

(u) Ps. cx. 5. The Lord at thy right hand shall strike through kings in the day of his wrath.

6. He shall judge among the heathen, he shall fill the places with the dead bodies; he shall wound the heads over many countries.

Lam. i. 12. Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by? behold, and see if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, wherewith the Lord hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

14 And it shall be as the chased roe, and as a sheep that no man taketh up: (x) they shall every man turn to his own people, and flee every one into his own land.

(x) Jer. i. 16. Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him that handleth the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land.

ii. 9. We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country; for her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.

Rev. xviii. 9. And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication, and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

10. Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas! that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

15 Every one that is found shall be thrust through; and every one that is joined unto them shall fall by the sword.

VOL. III.

16 Their (y) children also shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled, (z) and their wives ravished.

(y) Ps. cxxxvii. 8. O daughter of Babylon, who art to be destroyed; happy shall he be that rewardeth thee as thou hast served us.

9. Happy shall he be that taketh and dasheth thy little ones against the stones.

Hos. x. 14. Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as Shalman spoiled Beth-arbel in the day of battle: the mother was dashed in pieces upon her children.

Nah. iii. 10. Yet was she carried away, she went into captivity: her young children also were dashed in pieces at the top of all the streets: and they cast lots for her honourable men, and all her great men were bound in chains.

(z) Lam. v. 11. They ravished the women in Zion, and the maids in the cities of Judah.

Zech. xiv. 2. For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

17 Behold, (a) I will stir up the Medes against them, which (b) shall not regard silver: and as for gold, they shall not delight in it.

(a) Jer. i. 9. For lo, I will raise, and cause to come up against Babylon, an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall set themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken; their arrows shall be as of a mighty expert man; none shall return in vain.

ii. 11. Make bright the arrows; gather the shields; the Lord hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes: for his device is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of the Lord, the vengeance of his temple.

(b) Prov. vi. 34. For jealousy is the rage of a man; therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

35. He will not regard any ransom; neither will he rest content, though thou givest many gifts.

18 Their bows also (c) shall dash the young men to pieces, and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; (d) their eye shall not spare children.

(c) 3 Kings viii. 12. And Hazeel said, Why weepeth my lord? And he answered, Because I know the evil that thou wilt do unto the children of Israel: their strong holds wilt thou set on fire, and their young men wilt thou slay with the sword, and wilt dash their children, and rip up their women with child.

Hos. xiii. 16. Samaria shall become desolate; for she hath rebelled against her God: they shall fall by the sword; their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ripped up.

Nah. ii. 1. He that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily.

(d) Ez. ix. 5. And to the others he said in mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite; let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity;

6. Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women; but come not near any man upon whom is the mark: and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house.

10. And as for me also, mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; but I will recompense their way upon their head.

19 ¶ And (e) Babylon the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.

(e) Jer. li. 41. How is Sheshach taken! and how is the praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations!

Dan. ii. 37. Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

38. And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field, and the fowls of the heaven, hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold.

iv. 30. The king spake and said, Is not this great Babylon that I have built for the house of the kingdom, by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?

20 It (f) shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation; neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there, neither shall the shepherds make their fold there.

(f) Jer. i. 3. For out of the north there cometh up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast.

13. Because of the wrath of the Lord it shall not be inhabited, but it shall be wholly desolate: every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues.

21. Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod: waste and utterly destroy after them, saith the Lord, and do according to all that I have commanded thee.

45. Therefore hear ye the counsel of the Lord, that he hath taken against Babylon, and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: surely the least of the flock shall draw them out; surely he shall make their habitation desolate with them.

21 But wild beasts of the desert shall lie there; and their houses shall be full of doleful creatures; and owls shall dwell there, and satyrs shall dance there.

22 And the wild beasts of the island shall cry in their desolate houses, and dragons in their pleasant palaces: and (g) her time is near to come, and her days shall not be prolonged.

(g) Deut. xxxii. 35. To me belongeth vengeance and recompense; their foot shall slide in due time: for the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that shall come upon them make haste.

Jer. li. 33. For thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; The daughter of Babylon is like a thrashing-floor, it is time to thrash her: yet a little while, and the time of her harvest shall come.

Hab. ii. 3. For the vision is yet for an appointed time: but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

2 Pet. ii. 3. And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

iii. 9. The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

10. But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also, and the works that are therein, shall be burned up.

CHAPTER XIV.

FOR (a) the LORD will have mercy on Jacob, and will yet (b) choose Israel, and (c) set them in their own land: and (d) the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob.

(a) Deut. iv. 29. But if from thence thou shalt seek the Lord thy God, thou shalt find him, if thou seek him with all thy heart, and with all thy soul.

30. When thou art in tribulation, and all these things are come upon thee, even in the latter days, if thou turn to the Lord thy God, and shalt be obedient unto his voice;

31. (For the Lord thy God is a merciful God;) he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers which he swore unto them.

Neh. i. 8. Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations:

9. But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there.

Ps. xcvi. 3. He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

(b) Zech. i. 17. Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, My cities through prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; and the Lord shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet choose Israel.

ii. 12. And the Lord shall inherit Judah his portion in the holy land, and shall choose Jerusalem again.

(c) Deut. xxx. 3. That then the Lord thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion on thee, and will return, and gather thee from all the nations whither the Lord thy God hath scattered thee.

4. If any of thine be driven out unto the utmost parts of heaven, from thence will the Lord thy God gather thee, and from thence will he fetch thee:

5. And the Lord thy God will bring thee into the land which thy fathers possessed, and thou shalt possess it; and he will do thee good, and multiply thee above thy fathers.

Jer. xxiv. 6. For I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

xxix. 14. And I will be found of you, saith the Lord; and I will turn away your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the Lord; and I will bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive.

(d) Ruth i. 14. And they lifted up their voice, and wept again: and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law; but Ruth clave unto her.

15. And she said, Behold, thy sister-in-law is gone back unto her people, and unto her gods: return thou after thy sister-in-law.

16. And Ruth said, Entreat me not to leave thee, or to return from following after thee: for whither thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge: thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God.

17. Where thou diest will I die, and there will I be buried: the Lord do so to me, and more also, if aught but death part thee and me.

18. When she saw that she was steadfastly minded to go with her, then she left speaking unto her.

Esth. viii. 17. And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day. And many of the people of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews fell upon them.

Zech. ii. 11. And many nations shall be joined to the Lord in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee; and thou shalt know that the Lord of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

viii. 22. Yea, many people and strong nations shall come to seek the Lord of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before the Lord.

23. Thus saith the Lord of hosts: In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you; for we have heard that God is with you.

2 And the people shall take them, and bring them to their place: (e) and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the LORD, for servants and handmaids: (f) and they shall take them captives, whose captives they were; and (g) they shall rule over their oppressors.

(e) Ezra ii. 65. Besides their servants and their maids, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and there were among them two hundred singing men and singing women.

2 Cor. viii. 4. Praying us with much entreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5. And this they did, not as we hoped; but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

Gal. v. 13. For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.

(f) Ps. lxxviii. 18. Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led captivity captive: thou hast received gifts for men; yea, for the rebellious also, that the Lord God might dwell among them.

2 Cor. x. 5. Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ.

(g) Jer. xxx. 16. Therefore all they that devour thee shall be devoured; and all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity; and they that spoil thee shall be a spoil, and all that prey upon thee will I give for a prey.

Dan. vii. 18. But the saints of the Most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

Rev. iii. 9. Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, (which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie,) behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

3 ¶ And it shall come to pass (h) in the day that the LORD shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve,

(h) Deut. xxviii. 48. Therefore shalt thou serve thine enemies, which the Lord shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things; and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee.

Ezra ix. 8. And now for a little space grace hath been showed from the Lord our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage.

9. For we were bondmen; yet our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair the desolations thereof, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

Jer. xxx. 10. Therefore fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the Lord; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid.

Rev. xviii. 20. Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her.

4 That thou shalt take up this proverb against the king of Babylon, and say, (i) How hath the oppressor ceased! (k) the golden city ceased!

(i) Jer. xxvii. 6. And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant: and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

7. And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the very time of his land come; and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him.

Hab. ii. 17. For the violence of Lebanon shall cover thee, and the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

Rev. xvi. 5. And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus:

6. For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink: for they are worthy.

(k) Lam. iv. 1. How is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the sanctuary are poured out in the top of every street.

Dan. ii. 38. And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold.

Rev. xviii. 16. And saying, Alas, alas! that great city that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

5 The LORD hath (l) broken the staff of the wicked, and the sceptre of the rulers.

(l) Ps. cxxv. 3. For the rod of the wicked shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous; lest the righteous put forth their hands unto iniquity.

cxxix. 4. The Lord is righteous: he hath cut asunder the cords of the wicked.

6 He (m) who smote the people in wrath with a continual stroke, he that ruled the nations in anger, (n) is persecuted, (o) and none hindereth.

(m) 2 Chr. xxxvi. 17. Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man or him that stooped for age: he gave them all into his hand.

James ii. 13. For he shall have judgment without mercy that hath showed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

(n) Jer. i. 31. Behold, I am against thee, O thou most proud, saith the Lord God of hosts; for thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee.

Rev. xvii. 16. And the ten horns, which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

17. For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

(o) Job ix. 13. If God will not withdraw his anger, the proud helpers do stoop under him.

Prov. xxi. 30. There is no wisdom, nor understanding, nor counsel, against the Lord.

Dan. iv. 35. And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou?

7 The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: (p) they break forth into singing.

(p) Ps. xevi. 11. Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof.

12. Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice

13. Before the Lord: for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

Prov. xi. 10. When it goeth well with the righteous, the city rejoiceth; and when the wicked perish there is shouting:

Jer. li. 48. Then the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Babylon: for the spoilers shall come unto her from the north, saith the Lord.

Rev. xviii. 20. Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her.

8 Yea, (q) the fir-trees rejoice at thee, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up against us.

(q) Ez. xxxi. 16. I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit; and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth.

Zech. xi. 2. Howl, fir-tree, for the cedar is fallen; because the mighty are spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bashan, for the forest of the vintage is come down.

9 Hell (r) from beneath (s) is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth up the dead for thee, even all the chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations.

(r) Prov. xv. 24. The way of life is above to the wise, that he may depart from hell beneath.

(s) Ez. xxxii. 21. The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of hell with them that help him: they are gone down, they lie uncircumcised, slain by the sword.

22. Aslur is there, and all her company: his graves are about him; all of them slain, fallen by the sword:

23. Whose graves are set in the sides of the pit, and her company is round about her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which caused terror in the land of the living.

10 All they shall speak and say unto thee, (t) Art thou also become weak as we? art thou become like unto us?

(t) Ps. xlix. 20. Man that is in honour, and understandeth not, is like the beasts that perish.

lxxxii. 6. I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the Most High:

7. But ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes.

Ec. ii. 16. For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is, in the days to come shall all be forgotten: and how dieth the wise man? as the fool.

11 Thy (u) pomp is brought down to the grave, and the noise of thy viols: (x) the worm is spread under thee, and the worms cover thee.

(u) Ez. xxvi. 13. And I will cause the noise of thy songs to cease; and the sound of thy harps shall be no more heard.

xxxii. 19. Whom dost thou pass in beauty? go down, and be thou laid with the uncircumcised.

20. They shall fall in the midst of them that are slain by the sword: she is delivered to the sword: draw her and all her multitudes.

(x) Job xvii. 13. If I wait, the grave is mine house: I have made my bed in the darkness.

14. I have said to corruption, Thou art my father; to the worm, Thou art my mother and my sister.

xxiv. 19. Drought and heat consume the snow-waters; so doth the grave those which have sinned.

20. The womb shall forget him; the worm shall feed sweetly on him: he shall be no more remembered; and wickedness shall be broken as a tree.

12 (y) How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst (z) weaken the nations!

(y) Is. xxxiv. 4. And all the hosts of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their hosts shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from a fig-tree.

Ez. xxviii. 13. Thou hast been in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created.

14. Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.

15. Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.

16. By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God; and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.

17. Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty: thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee.

Luke x. 18. And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven.

2 Pet. ii. 4. For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment.

(z) Jer. i. 23. How is the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations!

li. 24. And I will render unto Babylon, and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea, all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, saith the Lord.

13 For (a) thou hast said in thine heart, (b) I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north:

(a) Ez. xxviii. 2. Son of man, say unto the prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord God; Because thine heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, I am a god, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas; yet thou art a man, and not God, though thou set thine heart as the heart of God.

Dan. iv. 30. The king spake, and said, Is not this great Babylon that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty.

31. While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee.

Zeph. ii. 15. This is the rejoicing city that dwelt carelessly, that said in her heart, I am, and there is none beside me: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! every one that passeth by her shall hiss, and wag his hand.

Rev. xviii. 7. How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8. Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine: and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

(b) Ez. xxviii. 9. Wilt thou yet say before him that slayeth thee, I am God? but thou shalt be a man, and no God, in the hand of him that slayeth thee.

14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; (c) I will be like the Most High.

(c) Gen. iii. 5. For God doth know, that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened; and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.

2 Thess. ii. 4. Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he, as God, sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.

15 Yet (d) thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit.

(d) Ez. xxviii. 8. They shall bring thee down to the pit, and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas.

Matt. xi. 23. And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

Rev. xix. 20. And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

16 They that see thee, (e) shall narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying, (f) Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms;

(e) Ps. lvi. 10. The righteous shall rejoice when he seeth the vengeance: he shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.

11. So that a man shall say, Verily there is a reward for the righteous: verily he is a God that judgeth in the earth.

Xiv. 9. And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God: for they shall wisely consider of his doing.

(f) Ps. lii. 7. Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.

Jer. li. 20. Thou art my battle-axe and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations; and with thee will I destroy kingdoms; 21. And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider;

22. With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces old and young; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid.

17 That (g) made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; that opened not the house of his prisoners?

(g) Ez. vi. 14. So I will stretch out my hand upon them, and make the land desolate, yea, more desolate than the wilderness toward Diblah, in all their habitations: and they shall know that I am the Lord.

Joel ii. 3. A fire devoureth before them, and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them.

Zeph. ii. 13. And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy Assyria: and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.

14. And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of the nations: both the cormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the upper lintels of it; their voice shall sing in the windows, desolation shall be in the thresholds: for he shall uncover the cedar-work.

18 All the kings of the nations, even (h) all of them, lie in glory, every one in his own (i) house.

(h) 2 Chr. xxiv. 16. And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both toward God, and toward his house.

Ec. vi. 3. If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, and his soul be not filled with good, and also that he have no burial; I say, that an untimely birth is better than he.

(i) Job xxx. 23. For I know that thou wilt bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living.

Ec. xii. 5. Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond-tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail; because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets.

19 But (k) thou art cast out of thy grave, like an abominable branch, and as the raiment of those that are slain, thrust through with a sword, that (l) go down to the stones of the pit; as a carcass trodden under feet.

(k) 1 Kings xxi. 19. And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the Lord, Hast thou killed, and also taken possession? And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the Lord, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth, shall dogs lick thy blood, even thine.

24. Him that dieth of Ahab in the city the dogs shall eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat.

Jer. viii. 1. At that time, saith the Lord, they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves:

2. And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have worshipped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried; they shall be for dung upon the face of the earth.

(l) Jer. xli. 7. And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, slew them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men that were with him.

9. Now the pit wherein Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men, (whom he had slain because of Gedaliah) was it which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel; and Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, filled it with them that were slain.

20 Thou shalt not be joined with them in burial, because thou hast destroyed thy land, and slain thy people: the seed of evil-doers shall never be renowned.

21 Prepare (m) slaughter for his children for the iniquity of their fathers; that (n) they do not rise, nor possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities.

(m) Ex. xx. 5. Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them; for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me.

Lev. xxvi. 39. And they that are left of you shall pine away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also in the iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them.

Matt. xxiii. 35. That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias, son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.

(n) Is. xxvii. 6. He shall cause them that come of Jacob to take root; Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit.

22 For (o) I will rise up against them, saith the LORD of hosts, and cut off from Babylon, (p) the name, and remnant, and son, and nephew, saith the LORD.

(o) Jer. i. 26. Come against her from the utmost border, open her store-houses; cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly: let nothing of her be left.

27. Slay all her bullocks; let them go down to the slaughter: wo unto them! for their day is come, the time of their visitation.

(p) Job xxviii. 16. His root shall be dried up beneath, and above shall his branch be cut off.

17. His remembrance shall perish from the earth, and he shall have no name in the street.

18. He shall be driven from light into darkness, and chased out of the world.

19. He shall neither have son nor nephew among his people, nor any remaining in his dwellings.

Prov. x. 7. The memory of the just is blessed, but the name of the wicked shall rot.

23 I will also (q) make it a possession for the bittern, and pools of water: and (r) I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the LORD of hosts.

(g) Zeph. ii. 14. And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of the nations: both the cormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the upper lintels of it; their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in the thresholds: for he shall uncover the cedar-work.

Rev. xviii. 2. And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

(r) 2 Kings xxi. 13. And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down.

Jer. li. 25. Behold, I am against thee, O destroying mountain, saith the Lord, which destroyest all the earth; and I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and roll thee down from the rocks, and will make thee a burnt mountain.

26. And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but thou shalt be desolate for ever, saith the Lord.

24 The LORD of hosts hath sworn, saying, (s) Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand:

(s) Job xxiii. 13. But he is in one mind, and who can turn him? and what his soul desireth, even that he doeth.

Ps. xxxiii. 10. The Lord bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

Prov. xix. 21. There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless the counsel of the Lord, that shall stand.

xxi. 30. There is no wisdom, nor understanding, nor counsel, against the Lord.

Jer. xxiii. 20. The anger of the Lord shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly.

Lam. iii. 37. Who is he that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the Lord commandeth it not?

Acts iv. 28. For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done.

25 That I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders.

26 This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth: and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations.

27 For (t) the LORD of hosts hath purposed, and who shall disannul it? and (u) his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?

(t) Job xl. 8. Wilt thou also disannul my judgment? wilt thou condemn me, that thou mayest be righteous?

Jer. iv. 28. For this shall the earth mourn, and the heavens above be black: because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and will not repent, neither will I turn back from it.

Jer. li. 29. And the land shall tremble and sorrow: for every purpose of the Lord shall be performed against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant.

Rom. viii. 28. And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

31. For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the first-born among many brethren.

(u) 2 Chr. xx. 6. And said, O Lord God of our fathers, art not thou God in heaven? and rulest not thou over all the kingdoms of the heathen? and in thine hands is there not power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee?

Job ix. 12. Behold, he taketh away, who can hinder him? who will say unto him, What doest thou?

28 In the year that king Ahaz died was this burden.

29 ¶ (x) Rejoice not thou, (y) whole Palestina, because the rod of him that smote thee is broken; for out of the serpent's root shall come forth a cockatrice, and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent.

(x) Prov. xxiv. 17. Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thy heart be glad when he stumbleth.

Ez. xxvi. 2. Son of man, because that Tyrus hath said against Jerusalem, Aha, she is broken that was the gates of the people; she is turned unto me; I shall be replenished, now she is laid waste.

Hos. ix. 1. Rejoice not, O Israel, for joy, as other people: for thou hast gone a whoring from thy God; thou hast loved a reward upon every corn-floor.

Ob. 12. But thou shouldest not have looked on the day of thy brother, in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldest thou have rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldest thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress.

Mic. vii. 8. Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the Lord shall be a light unto me.

(y) Josh. xiii. 3. From Sihor, which is before Egypt, even unto the borders of Ekron northward, which is counted to the Canaanite: five lords of the Philistines; the Gazathites, and the Ashdothites, the Eshkalonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites; also the Avites.

30 And (z) the first-born of (a) the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie down in safety: (b) and I will kill thy root with famine, and he shall slay thy remnant.

(z) Job xviii. 13. It shall devour the strength of his skin: even the first-born of death shall devour his strength.

(a) Is. vii. 21. And it shall come to pass in that day, that a man shall nourish a young cow and two sheep.

22. And it shall come to pass, for the abundance of milk that they shall give, he shall eat butter: for butter and honey shall every one eat that is left in the land.

xxxiii. 16. He shall dwell on high: his place of defence shall be the munitions of rocks: bread shall be given him; his waters shall be sure.

xxxvii. 30. And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such as growth of itself; and the second year that which springeth of the same; and in the third year sow ye, and reap and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof.

(b) Ez. xxv. 15. Thus saith the Lord God, Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with a despiteful heart, to destroy it for the old hatred;

16. Therefore, thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will stretch out my hand upon the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethims, and destroy the remnant of the sea-coast.

17. And I will execute great vengeance upon them with furious rebukes; and they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall lay my vengeance upon them.

31 Howl, O gate; cry, O city; thou, whole Palestina, art dissolved: for there shall come from the north a smoke, and none shall be alone in his appointed times.

32 What shall one then answer the messengers of the nation? That (c) the LORD hath founded Zion, (d) and the poor of his people shall trust in it.

(c) Ps. lxxxvii. 1. His foundation is in the holy mountains.

5. And of Zion it shall be said, This and that man was born in her; and the Highest himself shall establish her.

Matt. xvi. 18. And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter; and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

(d) Zeph. iii. 12. I will also leave in the midst of thee an afflicted and poor people, and they shall trust in the name of the Lord.

Zech. xi. 7. And I will feed the flock of slaughter, even you, O poor of the flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands: and I fed the flock.

11. And it was broken in that day: and so the poor of the flock that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the Lord.

CHAPTER XV.

THE burden of Moab. Because in the night (a) Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence; because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence:

(a) Num. xxi. 28. For there is a fire gone out of Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon; it hath consumed Ar of Moab, and the lords of the high places of Arnon.

Deut. ii. 9. And the Lord said unto me, Distress not the Moabites, neither contend with them in battle; for I will not give thee of their land for a possession, because I have given Ar unto the children of Lot for a possession.

18. Thou art to pass over through Ar, the coast of Moab, this day.

2 He (b) is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: (c) Moab shall howl over Nebo and over Medeba; (d) on all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off.

(b) Josh. xiii. 17. Heshbon, and all the cities that are in the plain; Dibon, and Bamoth-baal, and Beth-baal-meon.

Jer. xlviii. 18. Thou daughter that dost inhabit Dibon, come down from thy glory, and sit in thirst; for the spoiler of Moab shall come upon thee, and he shall destroy thy strong holds.

(c) Jer. xlviii. 31. Therefore will I howl for Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab; my heart shall mourn for the men of Kir-heres.

(d) Lev. xix. 27. Ye shall not round the corners of your heads, neither shalt thou mar the corners of thy beard.

28. Ye shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor print any marks upon you: I am the Lord.

Deut. xiv. 1. Ye are the children of the Lord your God: ye shall not cut yourselves, nor make any baldness between your eyes for the dead.

Job i. 20. Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped.

Jer. vii. 29. Cut off thy hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on high places; for the Lord hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.

Ez. vii. 18. They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads.

3 In (e) their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth: (f) on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, weeping abundantly.

(e) 2 Sam. iii. 31. And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were with him, Rend your clothes, and gird you with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. And king David himself followed the bier.

Matt. xi. 21. Wo unto thee, Chorazin! wo unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

(f) Deut. xxii. 8. When thou buildest a new house, then thou shalt make a battlement for thy roof, that thou bring not blood upon thy house, if any man fall from thence.

Jer. xix. 13. And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, shall be defiled, as the place of Tophet, because of all the houses upon whose roofs they have burnt incense unto all the host of heaven, and have poured out drink-offerings unto other gods.

xlvi. 38. There shall be a lamentation generally upon all the house-tops of Moab, and in the streets thereof: for I have broken Moab like a vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the Lord.

4 And (g) Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh: their voice shall be heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out; (h) his life shall be grievous unto him.

(g) Num. xxxii. 3. Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Shebam, and Nibo, and Beon.

Jer. xlviii. 34. From the city of Heshbon even unto Elealeh, and even unto Jahaz, have they uttered their voice, from Zoar even unto Horonaim, as an heifer of three years old; for the waters also of Nimrim shall be desolate.

(h) Gen. xxvii. 46. And Rebekah said to Isaac, I am weary of my life, because of the daughters of Heth: if Jacob take a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these which are of the daughters of the land, what good shall my life do me?

Num. xi. 15. And if thou deal thus with me, kill me, I pray thee, out of hand, if I have found favour in thy sight; and let me not see my wretchedness.

1 Kings xix. 4. But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper-tree: and he requested for himself that he might die; and said, It is enough; now, O Lord, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers.

Job vii. 15. So that my soul chooseth strangling, and death rather than my life.

16. I loathe: I would not live always: let me alone; for my days are vanity.

Jer. viii. 3. And death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue of them that remain of this evil family, which remain in all the places whither I have driven them, saith the Lord of hosts.

5 My heart shall cry out for Moab; his fugitives shall flee unto Zoar, an heifer of (i) three years old: for by (k) the mounting up of Luhith (l) with weeping shall they go it up; for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of destruction.

(i) Is. xvi. 14. But now the Lord hath spoken, saying, Within three years, as the years of an hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be contemned, with all that great multitude; and the remnant shall be very small and feeble.

(k) Jer. xlviii. 5. For in the going up of Luhith continual weeping shall go up; for in the going down of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.

(l) 2 Sam. xv. 23. And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over: the king also himself passed over the brook Kidron, and all the people passed over toward the way of the wilderness.

30. And David went up by the ascent of Mount Olivet, and wept as he went up, and had his head covered; and he went barefoot: and all the people that was with him covered every man his head, and they went up, weeping as they went up.

6 For the waters of Nimrim shall be desolate: for the hay is withered away, (m) the grass faileth, there is no green thing.

(m) Joel i. 10. The field is wasted, the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted: the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth.

11. Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vine-dressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

12. The vine is dried up, and the fig-tree languisheth: the pomegranate-tree, the palm-tree also, and the apple-tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because joy is withered away from the sons of men.

Hab. iii. 17. Although the fig-tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls:

18. Yet I will rejoice in the Lord, I will joy in the God of my salvation.

Rev. viii. 7. The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

7 Therefore (n) the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away to the brook of the willows.

(n) Is. v. 29. Their roaring shall be like a lion, they shall roar like young lions; yea, they shall roar, and lay hold of the prey, and shall carry it away safe, and none shall deliver it.

Nah. ii. 12. The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey, and his dens with ravin.

13. Behold, I am against thee, saith the Lord of hosts, and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions; and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of thy messengers shall be no more heard.

8 For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab; the howling thereof into Eglaim, and the howling thereof unto Beer-elim.

9 For the waters of Dimon shall be full of blood: for I will bring more upon Dimon, (o) lions upon him that escapeth of Moab, and upon the remnant of the land.

(o) Lev. xxvi. 22. I will also send wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number; and your highways shall be desolate.

2 Kings xvii. 25. And so it was, at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they feared not the Lord; therefore the Lord sent lions among them, which slew some of them.

Jer. xv. 3. And I will appoint over them four kinds, saith the Lord; the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and destroy.

Amos v. 19. As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

CHAPTER XVI.

SEND ye (a) the lamb to the ruler of the land from Sela to the wilderness, unto the mount of the daughter of Zion.

(a) 2 Sam. viii. 2. And he smote Moab, and measured them with a line, casting them down to the ground; even with two lines measured he to put to death, and with one full line to keep alive; and so the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

2 Kings iii. 4. And Mesha king of Moab was a sheep-master, and rendered unto the king of Israel a hundred thousand lambs, and a hundred thousand rams, with the wool.

Ezra vii. 17. That thou mayest buy speedily with this money, bullocks, rams, lambs, with their meat-offerings, and their drink-offerings, and offer them upon the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem.

2 For it shall be, that, (b) as a wandering bird cast out of the nest, so the daughters of Moab shall be at (c) the fords of Arnon.

(b) Prov. xxvii. 8. As a bird that wandereth from her nest, so is a man that wandereth from his place.

(c) Deut. ii. 36. From Aroer, which is by the brink of the river of Arnon, and from the city that is by the river, even unto Gilead, there was not one city too strong for us: the Lord our God delivered all unto us.

ii. 8. And we took at that time, out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites, the land that was on this side Jordan, from the river of Arnon unto Mount Hermon.

Josh. xiii. 16. And their coast was from Aroer, that is on the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain by Medeba.

Judg. xi. 18. Then they went along through the wilderness, and compassed the land of Edom and the land of Moab, and came by the east side of the land of Moab, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, but came not within the border of Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab.

3 Take counsel, (d) execute judgment; (e) make thy shadow as the night in the midst of the noon-day; (f) hide the outcasts; bewray not him that wandereth.

(d) Ps. lxxxii. 3. Defend the poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and needy.

4. Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked.

Jer. xxi. 12. O house of David, thus saith the Lord, Execute judgment in the morning, and deliver him that is spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my fury go out like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

xxii. 3. Thus saith the Lord, Execute judgment and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place.

Zech. vii. 9. Thus speaketh the Lord of hosts, saying, Execute true judgment, and show mercy and compassion every man to his brother.

(e) Judg. ix. 15. And the bramble said unto the trees, If in truth ye anoint me king over you, then come and put your trust in my shadow; and if not, let fire come out of the bramble, and devour the cedars of Lebanon.

(f) Ob. 13. Thou shouldst not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; yea, thou shouldst not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity:

14. Neither shouldst thou have stood in the crossway, to cut off those of his that did escape; neither shouldst thou have delivered up those of his that did remain in the day of distress.

Matt. xxv. 35. For I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in.

Heb. xiii. 2. Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained strangers unawares.

4 Let (g) mine outcasts dwell with thee, Moab; be thou a covert to them from the face of the spoiler: (h) for the extortioner is at an end, the spoiler ceaseth, the oppressors are consumed out of the land.

(g) Deut. xxiii. 15. Thou shalt not deliver unto his master the servant which is escaped from his master unto thee:

16. He shall dwell with thee, even among you in that place which he shall choose in one of thy gates, where it liketh him best: thou shalt not oppress him.

xxiv. 14. Thou shalt not oppress a hired servant that is poor and needy, whether he be of thy brethren, or of thy strangers that are in thy land within thy gates.

(h) Jer. xlviii. 8. And the spoiler shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape; the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the Lord hath spoken.

Zech. ix. 8. And I will encamp about my house because of the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth; and no oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now have I seen with mine eyes.

5 And (i) in mercy shall the throne be established: and he shall sit upon it in truth, in the tabernacle of David, (k) judging, and seeking judgment, and (l) hastening righteousness.

(i) Ps. lxi. 6. Thou wilt prolong the king's life; and his years as many generations.

7. He shall abide before God for ever: O prepare mercy and truth, which may preserve him.

Prov. xx. 28. Mercy and truth preserve the king; and his throne is upheld by mercy.

xxix. 14. The king that faithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established for ever.

(k) 2 Sam. xxiii. 3. The God of Israel said, The Rock of Israel spake to me, He that ruleth over men must be just, ruling in the fear of God.

2 Chr. xxx. 20. And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah, and wrought that which was good and right and truth before the Lord his God.

21. And in every work that he begun in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

Ps. xcvi. 13. Before the Lord: for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

(l) 2 Pet. iii. 11. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness;

12. Looking for and hastening unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens, being on fire, shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat!

6 ¶ We (m) have heard of the pride of Moab; he is very proud: even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his wrath: but his lies shall not be so.

(m) Jer. xlviii. 26. Make ye him drunken; for he magnified himself against the Lord: Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision.

29. We have heard of the pride of Moab, (he is exceeding proud,) his loftiness, and his arrogancy, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart.

30. I know his wrath, saith the Lord: but it shall not be so; his lies shall not so effect it

Ob. 3. The pride of thy heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

4. Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the Lord.

Zeph. ii. 9. Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even the breeding of nettles, and salt-pits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

10. This shall they have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the Lord of hosts.

7 Therefore shall Moab howl for Moab, every one shall howl; for the foundations of Kir-hareseth shall ye mourn: surely they are stricken.

8 For (n) the fields of Heshbon languish, and (o) the vine of Sibmah: (p) the lords of the heathen have broken down the principal plants thereof, they are come even unto (q) Jazer, they wandered through the wilderness; her branches are stretched out, they are gone over the sea.

(n) Is. xv. 4. And Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh: their voice shall be heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out; his life shall be grievous unto him.

(o) Num. xxxii. 38. And Nebo and Baal-meon, (their names being changed,) and Shihmah; and gave other names unto the cities which they builded.

Josh. xiii. 19. And Kerjathaim, and Sibmah, and Zareth-shahar in the mount of the valley.

(p) Jer. xxvii. 6. And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

7. And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the very time of his land come: and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him.

(q) Num. xxxii. 3. Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Shebam, and Nebo, and Beon.

Josh. xxi. 39. Heshbon with her suburbs, Jazer with her suburbs; four cities in all.

9 Therefore I will bewail with the weeping of Jazer, the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my tears, O Heshbon and Elealeh; (r) for the shouting for thy summer-fruits and for thy harvest is fallen.

(r) Judg. ix. 27. And they went out into their fields, and gathered their vineyards, and trode the grapes, and made merry, and went into the house of their god, and did eat and drink, and cursed Abimelech.

Is. ix. 3. Thou hast multiplied the nation, and not increased the joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

Is. xl. 10. As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to serve the Chaldeans which will come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine, and summer-fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken.

12. Even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer-fruits very much.

10 And (s) gladness is taken away, and joy out of the plentiful field; and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: the treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses; I have made their vintage shouting to cease.

(s) Jer. xlviii. 33. And joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to fail from the wine-presses: none shall tread with shouting: their shouting shall be no shouting.

Amos v. 11. Forasmuch, therefore, as your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat; ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.

17. And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for I will pass through thee, saith the Lord.

Hab. iii. 17. Although the fig-tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls:

18. Yet I will rejoice in the Lord, I will joy in the God of my salvation.

Zeph. i. 13. Therefore their goods shall become a booty, and their houses a desolation: they shall also build houses, but not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but not drink the wine thereof.

11 Wherefore (t) my bowels shall sound like an harp for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kir-haresh.

(t) Jer. iv. 19. My bowels, my bowels! I am pained at my very heart; my heart maketh a noise in me: I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.

xxxi. 29. Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? For since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still; therefore my bowels are troubled for him: I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the Lord.

xlviii. 36. Therefore my heart shall sound for Moab like pipes, and my heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kir-haresh: because the riches that he hath gotten is perished.

Hos. xi. 8. How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? My heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

Phil. ii. 1. If there be, therefore, any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the spirit, if any bowels and mercies.

12 And it shall come to pass, (u) when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place, that (x) he shall come to the sanctuary to pray, but he shall not prevail.

(u) Nun. xxii. 41. And it came to pass on the morrow, that Balak took Balaam, and brought him up into the high places of Baal, that thence he might see the utmost part of the people.

xxiii. 14. And he brought him into the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered a bullock and a ram on every altar.

Jer. xlviii. 35. Moreover, I will cause to cease in Moab, saith the Lord, him that offereth in the high places, and him that burneth incense to his gods.

(x) 2 Kings iii. 27. Then he took his eldest son, that should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt-offering upon the wall. And there was great indignation against Israel: and they departed from him, and returned to their own land.

Is. xxxvii. 38. And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Armenia: and Esar-haddon his son reigned in his stead.

13 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning Moab since that time.

14 But now the LORD hath spoken, saying, Within (y) three years, as the years of an hireling, and (z) the glory of Moab shall be contemned, with all that great multitude; and the remnant shall be very small and feeble.

(y) Deut. xv. 18. It shall not seem hard unto thee, when thou sendest him away free from thee; for he hath been worth a double hired servant to thee, in serving thee six years: and the Lord thy God shall bless thee in all that thou doest.

(z) Gen. xxxi. 1. And he heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, Jacob hath taken away all that was our father's; and of that which was our father's hath he gotten all this glory.

Esth. v. 11. And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king.

Jer. ix. 23. Thus saith the Lord, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches.

CHAPTER XVII.

THE burden of Damascus. Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it shall be (a) a ruinous heap.

(a) Is. xxv. 2. For thou hast made of a city an heap; of a defenced city a ruin: a palace of strangers to be no city; it shall never be built.

xxxvii. 26. Hast thou not heard long ago how I have done it; and of ancient times that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste defenced cities into ruinous heaps.

Jer. xlix. 2. Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in Rabbah of the Ammonites; and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burnt with fire: then shall Israel be heir unto him that were his heirs, saith the Lord.

Mic. i. 6. Therefore I will make Samaria as an heap of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard:

and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will discover the foundations thereof.

iii. 12. Therefore shall Zion for your sake be ploughed as a field; and Jerusalem shall become heaps; and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

2 The cities of Aroer are forsaken: (b) they shall be for flocks, which shall lie down, and (c) none shall make them afraid.

(b) Ez. xxv. 5. And I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, and the Ammonites a couching-place for flocks; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

Zeph. ii. 6. And the sea-coast shall be dwellings and cottages for shepherds, and folds for flocks.

(c) Jer. vii. 33. And the carcasses of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall fray them away.

3 The (d) fortress also shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria: they shall be as the glory of the children of Israel, saith the LORD of hosts.

(d) 2 Kings xvi. 9. And the king of Assyria hearkened unto him: for the king of Assyria went up against Damascus, and took it, and carried the people of it captive to Ker, and slew Rezin.

Hos. i. 4. And the Lord said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel.

iii. 4. For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim.

Amos v. 25. Have ye offered unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?

26. But ye have borne the tabernacle of your Moloch and Chiun your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves.

27. Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus, saith the Lord, whose name is The God of hosts.

viii. 14. They that swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, Thy god, O Dan, liveth; and, The manner of Beer-sheba liveth; even they shall fall, and never rise up again.

4 And in that day it shall come to pass, that the glory of Jacob shall be made thin, and (e) the fatness of his flesh shall wax lean.

(e) Deut. xxxii. 15. But Jeshurun waxed fat, and kicked; thou art waxen fat, thou art grown thick, thou art covered with fatness: then he forsook God which made him, and lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation.

Is. xxiv. 16. From the uttermost parts of the earth have we heard songs, even glory to the righteous. But I said, My leanness, my leanness, wo unto me! the treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously; yea, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously.

Ez. xxxiv. 20. Therefore, thus saith the Lord God unto them, Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle.

Zeph. ii. 11. The Lord will be terrible unto thee: for he will famish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

5 And it shall be (f) as when the harvest-man gathereth the corn, and reapeth the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he that gathereth ears in the valley of Rephaim.

(f) Jer. ix. 22. Speak, Thus saith the Lord, Even the carcasses of men shall fall as dung upon the open field, and as the handful after the harvest-man, and none shall gather them.

li. 33. For thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, The daughter of Babylon is like a thrashing-floor, it is time to thrash her: yet a little while, and the time of her harvest shall come.

Hos. vi. 11. Also, O Judah, he hath set a harvest for thee, when I returned the captivity of my people.

Joel iii. 13. Put ye in the sickle; for the harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the press is full, the fats overflow; for the wickedness is great.

Matt. xiii. 30. Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

6 Yet (g) gleanings shall be left in it; as the shaking of an olive-tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outmost fruitful branches thereof, saith the LORD God of Israel.

(g) Deut. iv. 27. And the Lord shall scatter you among the nations, and ye shall be left few in number among the heathen, whither the Lord shall lead you.

Judg. viii. 2. And he said unto them, What have I now done in comparison of you? Is not the gleanings of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abi-ezer?

Ob. 5. If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not have stolten till they had enough? if the grape-gatherers came to thee, would they not leave some grapes?

Mic. vii. 1. Wo is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer-fruits, as the grape-gleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat: my soul desired the first ripe fruit.

7 At that day (h) shall a man look to his Maker, and his eyes shall have respect to the Holy One of Israel.

(h) Judg. x. 15. And the children of Israel said unto the Lord, We have sinned, do thou unto us whatsoever seemeth good unto thee: deliver us only, we pray thee, this day.

16. And they put away the strange gods from among them, and served the Lord: and his soul was grieved for the misery of Israel.

Hos. iii. 5. Afterwards shall the children of Israel return, and seek the Lord their God, and David their king; and shall fear the Lord and his goodness in the latter days.

vi. 1. Come, and let us return unto the Lord: for he hath torn, and he will heal us: he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

Mic. vii. 7. Therefore I will look unto the Lord; I will wait for the God of my salvation; my God will hear me.

8 And (i) he shall not look to the altars, (k) the work of his hands, neither shall respect that which his fingers have made, either the groves or the images.

(i) 2 Chr. xxxiv. 6. And so did he in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, with their mattocks round about.

7. And when he had broken down the altars and the groves, and had beaten the graven images into powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

Ez. xxxvi. 25. Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.

Hos. xiv. 8. Ephraim shall say, What have I to do any more with idols? I have heard him, and observed him: I am like a green fir-tree. From me is thy fruit found.

Zech. xiii. 2. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered; and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.

(k) Hos. x. 1. Israel is an empty vine, he bringeth forth fruit unto himself: according to the multitude of his fruit he hath increased the altars; according to the goodness of his land they have made goodly images.

2. Their heart is divided; now shall they be found faulty: he shall break down their altars, he shall spoil their images.

xiii. 1. When Ephraim spake trembling, he exalted himself in Israel; but when he offended in Baal, he died.

2. And now they sin more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let the men that sacrifice kiss the calves.

Mic. v. 13. Thy graven images also will I cut off, and thy standing images, out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt no more worship the work of thy hands.

14. And I will pluck up thy groves out of the midst of thee: so will I destroy thy cities.

9 In that day shall his strong cities be as a forsaken bough, and an uppermost branch, which they left because of the children of Israel: and there shall be desolation.

10 Because (l) thou hast forgotten (m) the God of thy salvation, and hast not been mindful of (n) the Rock of thy strength, therefore (o) shalt thou plant pleasant plants, and shalt set it with strange slips:

(l) Deut. viii. 11. Beware that thou forget not the Lord thy God, in not keeping his commandments, and his judgments, and his statutes, which I command thee this day.

Ps. ix. 17. The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God.

Jer. ii. 32. Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people have forgotten me days without number.

Hos. iv. 6. My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

viii. 14. For Israel hath forgotten his Maker, and buildeth temples; and Judah hath multiplied fenced cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.

(m) Ps. lxxv. 5. By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation; who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea.

Hub. iii. 18. Yet I will rejoice in the Lord, I will joy in the God of my salvation.

(n) Deut. xxxii. 4. He is the Rock, his work is perfect; for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he.

Ps. xviii. 2. The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

xxxi. 2. Bow down thine ear to me; deliver me speedily: be thou my strong rock, for an house of defence to save me.

(o) Lev. xxvi. 20. And your strength shall be spent in vain: for your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their fruits.

Deut. xxviii. 30. Thou shalt betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her: thou shalt build an house, and thou shalt not dwell therein: thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not gather the grapes thereof.

Jer. xii. 13. They have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns; they have put themselves to pain, but shall not profit; and they shall be ashamed of your revenues, because of the fierce anger of the Lord.

Amos v. 11. Forasmuch, therefore, as your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat; ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.

11 In the day shalt thou make thy plant to grow, and in the morning shalt thou make thy seed to flourish: but (p) the harvest shall be a heap in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow.

(p) Job. iv. 8. Even as I have seen, they that plough iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.

Hos. viii. 7. For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk: the bud shall yield no meal; if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up.

ix. 16. Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit; yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even the beloved fruit of their womb.

Gal. vi. 7. Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8. For he that soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reap corruption: but he that soweth to the Spirit, shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

12 ¶ Wo to the multitude of many people, which (q) make a noise like the noise of the seas; and to the rushing of nations, that make a rushing like the rushing of mighty waters!

(g) Ps. xviii. 4. The sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of ungodly men made me afraid.

lxv. 6. Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains; being girded with power:

7. Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people.

Jer. vi. 23. They shall lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy: their voice roareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against thee, O daughter of Zion.

Luke xxi. 25. And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring.

13 The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but God shall rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and (r) shall be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like a rolling thing before the whirlwind.

(r) Joh xxi. 18. They are as stubble before the wind, and as chaff that the storm carrieth away.

Ps. i. 4. The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

xxxv. 5. Let them be as chaff before the wind: and let the angel of the Lord chase them.

Dan. ii. 35. Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer thrashing-floors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

Hos. xiii. 3. Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the early dew that passeth away, as the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney.

14 And behold, at evening-tide trouble; and before the morning he is not. This is (s) the portion of them that spoil us, and the lot of them that rob us.

(s) Joh xx. 29. This is the portion of a wicked man from God, and the heritage appointed unto him by God.

Prov. xxii. 23. For the Lord will plead their cause, and spoil the soul of those that spoiled them.

Jer. xiii. 25. This is thy lot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the Lord; because thou hast forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood.

Ez. xxxix. 10. So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: and they shall spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord God.

Zeph. ii. 9. Therefore as I live, saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even the breeding of nettles, and salt pits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

10. This shall they have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the Lord of hosts.

CHAPTER XVIII.

WO to the land (a) shadowing with wings, (b) which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia:

(a) Ruth ii. 12. The Lord recompense thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the Lord God of Israel, under whose wings thou art come to trust.

Ps. xvii. 8. Keep me as the apple of the eye; hide me under the shadow of thy wings.

xxxvi. 7. How excellent is thy loving-kindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

lvii. 1. Be merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me; for my soul trusteth in thee: yea, in the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge, until these calamities be overpast.

xc. 4. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

Matt. xxiii. 37. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!

(b) 2 Kings xix. 9. And when he heard say of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight against thee; he sent messengers again unto Hezekiah, saying.

Ez. xxx. 4. And the sword shall come upon Egypt, and great pain shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt, and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundations shall be broken down.

5. Ethiopia, and Libya, and Lydia, and all the mingled people, and Chub, and the men of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.

Zeph. ii. 12. Ye Ethiopians also, ye shall be slain by my sword.

iii. 10. From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia my suppliants, even the daughters of my dispersed, shall bring mine offering.

2 That (c) sendeth ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of bulrushes upon the waters, saying, Go, ye swift messengers, to a nation scattered and peeled, (d) to a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden down, whose land the rivers have spoiled!

(c) Ez. xxx. 9. In that day shall messengers go forth from me in ships, to make the careless Ethiopians afraid, and great pain shall come upon them, as in the day of Egypt: for, lo, it cometh.

(d) Gen. x. 8. And Cush begat Nimrod; he began to be a mighty one in the earth.

9. He was a mighty hunter before the Lord; wherefore it is said, Even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before the Lord.

2 Chr. xiv. 9. And there came out against them Zerah the Ethiopian, with an host of a thousand thousand, and three hundred chariots, and came unto Maresiah.

xvi. 8. Were not the Ethiopians and the Lubims a huge host, with very many chariots and horsemen? yet, because thou didst rely on the Lord, he delivered them into thine hand.

3 (e) All ye inhabitants of the world, and dwellers on the earth, (f) see ye, when he lifteth up an ensign on the mountains; and when he bloweth a trumpet, hear ye.

(e) Ps. xlix. 1. Hear this, all ye people; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world:

2. Both low and high, rich and poor, together. 1. The mighty God, even the Lord, hath spoken and called the earth, from the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same.

Jer. xxii. 29. O earth, earth, earth, hear ye the word of the Lord.

Mic. vi. 2. Hear ye, O mountains, the Lord's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the Lord hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

(f) Is. xlii. 2. Lift ye up a banner upon the high mountain, exalt the voice unto them, shake the hand that they may go into the gates of the nobles.

4. The noise of a multitude in the mountains, like as of a great people; a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together; the Lord of hosts mustereth the host of the battle.

Zech. ix. 14. And the Lord shall be seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the Lord God shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with whirlwinds of the south.

4 For so the Lord said unto me, (g) I will take my rest, and I will consider in my dwelling-place (h) like a clear heat upon herbs, and like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.

(g) Ps. cxxxii. 13. For the Lord hath chosen Zion; he hath desired it for his habitation.

14. This is my rest for ever: here will I dwell; for I have desired it.

Hos. v. 15. I will go and return to my place till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early.

(h) 2 Sam. xxiii. 4. And he shall be as the light of the morning, when the sun riseth, even a morning without clouds; as the tender grass springing out of the earth by clear shining after rain.

Ps. lxxii. 6. He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass; as showers that water the earth.

5 For (i) afore the harvest, when the bud is perfect, and the sour grape is ripening in the flower, he shall both cut off the sprigs with pruning-hooks, and take away and cut down the branches.

(i) Cant. ii. 13. The fig-tree putteth forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

15. Take us the foxes, the little foxes, that spoil the vines: for our vines have tender grapes.

Ez. xvii. 6. And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned towards him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

7. There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and, behold, this vine did bend her roots toward him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation.

8. It was planted in a good soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.

9. Say thou, Thus saith the Lord God, Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof.

10. Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither when the east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

6 They (k) shall be left together unto the fowls of the mountains, and to the beasts of the earth: and the fowls shall summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them.

(k) Jer. vii. 33. And the carcasses of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth: and none shall fray them away.

xv. 3. And I will appoint over them four kinds, saith the Lord; the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and destroy.

Ez. xxxii. 4. Then will I leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and will cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee.

5. And I will lay thy flesh upon the mountains, and fill the valleys with thy height.

6. I will also water with thy blood the land wherein thou swimmest, even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of thee.

Rev. xix. 17. And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

18. That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

7 In that time (l) shall the present be brought unto the LORD of hosts, of a people scattered and peeled, and from a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden under foot, whose land the rivers have spoiled, to the place of the name of the LORD of hosts, the mount Zion.

(l) 2 Chr. xxxii. 23. And many brought gifts unto the Lord to Jerusalem, and presents to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that he was magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.

Is. xxiii. 17. And it shall come to pass, after the end of seventy years, that the Lord will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire, and shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth.

18. And her merchandise and her hire shall be holiness to the Lord: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for, her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the Lord, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.

Zeph. iii. 10. From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia my suppliants, even the daughter of my dispersed, shall bring mine offerings.

Mal. i. 11. For from the rising of the sun, even unto the going down of the same, my name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the Lord of hosts.

Matt. ii. 11. And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

Acts viii. 27. And he arose and went: and, behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem for to worship,

28. Was returning, and, sitting in his chariot, read Esaias the prophet.

CHAPTER XIX.

THE burden of Egypt. Behold, the LORD (a) rideth upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt: and (b) the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and (c) the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it.

(a) Deut. xxxiii. 26. There is none like unto the God of Jeshurun, who rideth upon the heaven in thy help, and in his excellency on the sky.

Ps. xviii. 10. And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly; yea, he did fly upon the wings of the wind.

11. He made darkness his secret place; his pavilion round about him were dark waters, and thick clouds of the skies.

12. At the brightness that was before him, his thick clouds passed; hail-stones and coals of fire.

Ixviii. 4. Sing unto God, sing praises to his name: extol him that rideth upon the heavens by his name Jah, and rejoice before him.

33. To him that rideth upon the heaven of heavens which were of old; lo, he doth send out his voice, and that a mighty voice.

34. Ascribe ye strength unto God: his excellency is over Israel, and his strength is in the clouds.

civ. 3. Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters; who maketh the clouds his chariot; who walketh upon the wings of the wind.

Matt xxvi. 64. Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless, I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

Rev. i. 7. Behold, he cometh with clouds, and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him; and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

(b) Ez. xii. 12. For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the Lord.

Is. xlvi. 1. Bel boweth down, Nebo stoopeth; their idols were upon the beasts, and upon the cattle: your carriages were heavy laden: they are a burden to the weary beast.

2. They stoop; they bow down together; they could not deliver the burden, but themselves are gone into captivity.

Jer. xliii. 12. And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captives; and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence in peace.

1. 2. Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces: her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

li. 44. And I will punish Bel in Babylon; and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up; and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him; yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall.

(c) Ez. xv. 14. The people shall hear and be afraid: sorrow shall take hold on the inhabitants of Palestine.

15. Then the dukes of Edom shall be amazed; the mighty men of Moab, trembling shall take hold upon them; all the inhabitants of Canaan shall melt away.

16. Fear and dread shall fall upon them; by the greatness of thine arm they shall be as still as a stone; till thy people pass over, O Lord, till the people pass over which thou hast purchased.

Josh. ii. 9. And she said unto the men, I know that the Lord hath given you the land, and that your terror is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land shall faint because of you.

Jer. xli. 5. Wherefore have I seen them dismayed, and turned away back? and their mighty ones are beaten down, and are fled apace, and look not back: for fear was round about, saith the Lord.

2 And (d) I will set the Egyptians against the Egyptians: and they shall fight every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbour; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom.

(d) Judg. vii. 22. And the three hundred blew the trumpets, and the Lord set every man's sword against his fellow, even throughout all the host: and the host fled to Beth-shittah, in Zere-rath, and to the border of Abel-meholah, unto Tabbath.

ix. 23. Then God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech.

1 Sam. xiv. 16. And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked, and, behold, the multitude melted away, and they went on beating down one another.

20. And Saul and all the people that were with him assembled themselves, and they came to the battle; and, behold, every man's sword was against his fellow, and there was a very great discomfiture.

Ez. xxxviii. 21. And I will call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord God: every man's sword shall be against his brother.

Matt. xii. 25. And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand.

3 And the spirit of Egypt shall fail in the midst thereof; (e) and I will destroy the council thereof; and they shall seek to the idols, and to the charmers, and to them that have familiar spirits, and to the wizards.

(e) 2 Sam. xv. 31. And one told David, saying, Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom. And David said, O Lord, I pray thee, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness.

Job v. 12. He disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their hands cannot perform their enterprise.

13. He taketh the wise in their own craftiness: and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong.

Prov. xxi. 30. There is no wisdom, nor understanding, nor counsel, against the Lord.

4 And the Egyptians will I give over into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, saith the LORD, the LORD of hosts.

5 And (f) the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and dried up.

(f) Jer. li. 36. Therefore thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; and I will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry.

Ez. xxx. 12. And I will make the rivers dry, and sell the land into the hand of the wicked; and I will make the land waste, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I the Lord have spoken it.

Zech. x. 11. And he shall pass through the sea with affliction, and shall smite the waves in the sea, and all the deeps of the river shall dry up; and the pride of Assyria shall be brought down, and the sceptre of Egypt shall depart away.

6 And they shall turn the rivers far away; and the brooks of defence shall be emptied and dried up: (g) the reeds and flags shall wither.

(g) Ez. ii. 3. And when she could not longer hide him, she took for him an ark of bulrushes, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and put the child therein; and she laid it in the flags by the river's brink.

Job viii. 11. Can the rush grow up without mire? can the flag grow without water?

7 The paper-reeds by the brooks, by the mouth of the brooks, and (h) every thing sown by the brooks, shall wither, be driven away, and be no more.

(h) Jer. xiv. 4. Because the ground is chapt, for there was no rain in the earth, the ploughmen were ashamed, they covered their heads.

Ez. xix. 13. And now she is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty ground.

Joel i. 17. The seed is rotten under their clods, the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the corn is withered.

18. How do the beasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

8 The (i) fishers also shall mourn, and all they that cast angle into the brooks shall lament, and they that spread nets upon the waters shall languish.

(i) Ex. vii. 21. And the fish that was in the river died; and the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river; and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

Ez. xlvii. 10. And it shall come to pass, that the fishers shall stand upon it, from En-gedi even unto En-eglaim; they shall be a place to spread forth nets: their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceeding many.

9 Moreover, they that (k) work in fine flax, and they that weave net-works, shall be confounded.

(k) 1 Kings x. 28. And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a price.

Prov. vii. 16. I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with fine linen of Egypt.

Ez. xxvii. 7. Fine linen with brodered work from Egypt was that which thou spreadest forth to be thy sail: blue and purple from the isles of Elishah was that which covered thee.

10 And they shall be broken in the purposes thereof, all that make sluices and ponds for fish.

11 Surely the princes of (l) Zoan are fools, the counsel of the wise counsellors of Pharaoh is become (m) brutish: how say ye unto Pharaoh, (n) I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?

(l) Num. xiii. 22. And they ascended by the south, and came unto Hebron, where Ahiman, Shishai, and Talmi, the children of Anak, were. (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)

Ps. lxxviii. 12. Marvellous things did he in the sight of their fathers in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.

Ez. xxx. 14. And I will make Pathros desolate, and will set fire in Zoan, and will execute judgments in No.

(m) Ps. lxxiii. 22. So foolish was I and ignorant; I was as a beast before thee.

xcii. 6. A brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this.

Prov. xxx. 2. Surely I am more brutish than any man, and have not the understanding of a man.

Jer. x. 14. Every man is brutish in his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

21. For the pastors are become brutish, and have not sought the Lord: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered.

(n) Gen. xli. 38. And Pharaoh said unto his servants, Can we find such a one as this is, a man in whom the Spirit of God is?

39. And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Forasmuch as God hath showed thee all this, there is none so discreet and wise as thou art.

1 Kings iv. 30. And Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the children of the east country, and all the wisdom of Egypt.

Acts vii. 22. And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds.

12 Where are they? (o) where are thy wise men? and (p) let them tell thee now, and let them know what the LORD of hosts hath purposed upon Egypt.

(o) Judg. ix. 38. Then said Zebul unto him, Where is now thy mouth wherewith thou saidst, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? is not this the people that thou hast despised? go out, I pray now, and fight with them.

Jer. ii. 28. But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah.

1 Cor. i. 20. Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

(p) Job xi. 6. And that he would show thee the secrets of wisdom, that they are double to that which is! Know, therefore, that God exacteth of thee less than thine iniquity deserveth.

7. Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection?

Is. xli. 22. Let them bring them forth, and show us what shall happen: let them show the former things, what they be, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or declare us things for to come.

23. Show the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are gods: yea, do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and behold it together.

xliv. 7. And who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, and I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them show unto them.

13 The princes of Zoan are become fools, the princes of (q) Noph are deceived; they have also seduced Egypt, even they that are the stay of the tribes thereof.

(q) Jer. ii. 16. Also the children of Noph and Tahpanes have broken the crown of thy head.

xlvi. 14. Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Noph, and in Tahpanes: say ye, Stand fast, and prepare thee: for the sword shall devour round about thee.

19. O thou daughter dwelling in Egypt, furnish thyself to go into captivity: for Noph shall be waste and desolate without an inhabitant.

Ez. xxx. 13. Thus saith the Lord God, I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause their images to cease out of Noph; and there shall be no more a prince of the land of Egypt; and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt.

14 The LORD (r) hath mingled a perverse spirit in the midst thereof: and they have caused Egypt to err in every work thereof, (s) as a drunken man staggereth in his vomit.

(r) Is. xlvii. 10. For thou hast trusted in thy wickedness: thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath perverted thee; and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me.

11. Therefore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know from whence it riseth: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to put it off: and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know.

Ez. xiv. 7. For every one of the house of Israel, or of the stranger that sojourneth in Israel, which separateth himself from me, and setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumbling-block of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to a prophet to inquire of him concerning me; I the Lord will answer him by myself:

8. And I will set my face against that man, and will make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

9. And if the prophet be deceived when he hath spoken a thing, I the Lord have deceived that prophet; and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel.

2 Thess. ii. 11. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie;

12. That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

(s) Job xii. 25. They grope in the dark without light, and he maketh them to stagger like a drunken man.

Jer. xxv. 15. For thus saith the Lord God of Israel unto me, Take the wine-cup of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations to whom I send thee to drink it.

16. And they shall drink, and be moved, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.

27. Therefore thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Drink ye, and be drunken, and spew, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.

xlviii. 26. Make ye him drunken; for he magnified himself against the Lord: Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision.

15 Neither (t) shall there be any work for Egypt, which the head or tail, branch or rush, may do.

(t) Psa. cxxviii. 2. For thou shalt eat the labour of thine hands: happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee.

Prov. xiv. 23. In all labour there is profit: but the talk of the lips tendeth only to penury. •

Hab. iii. 17. Although the fig-tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vine; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls.

Hag. i. 11. And I called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labour of the hands.

16. In that day shall Egypt be (u) like unto women: and it shall be afraid and fear because of (x) the shaking of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which he shaketh over it.

(u) Psa. xlviii. 6. Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

Jer. li. 30. The mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight, they have remained in their holds: their might hath failed; they became as women; they have burnt her dwelling-places; her bars are broken.

Nah. iii. 13. Behold, thy people in the midst of thee are women: the gates of thy land shall be set wide open unto thine enemies: the fire shall devour thy bars.

(x) Zech. ii. 9. For, behold, I will shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ye shall know that the Lord of hosts hath sent me.

• 17 And the land of Judah shall be a terror unto Egypt, every one that maketh mention thereof shall be afraid in himself, because of the counsel of the LORD of hosts, which he hath determined against it.

18 ¶ In that day shall five cities in the land of Egypt speak the language of Canaan, (y) and swear to the LORD of hosts; one shall be called, The city of destruction.

(y) Deut. x. 20. Thou shalt fear the Lord thy God; him shalt thou serve, and to him shalt thou cleave, and swear by his name.

Neh. x. 29. They clave to their brethren, their nobles, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in God's law, which was given by Moses, the servant of God, and to observe, and do all the commandments of the Lord our Lord, and his judgments, and his statutes.

Jer. xii. 16. And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, The Lord liveth; (as they taught my people to swear by Baal:) then shall they be built in the midst of my people.

19 In that day shall (z) there be an altar to the LORD, in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar at the border thereof to the LORD.

(z) Gen. xii. 7. And the Lord appeared unto Abram, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an altar unto the Lord, who appeared unto him.

xxviii. 18. And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put for his pillows, and set it up for a pillar, and poured oil upon the top of it.

Ex. xxiv. 4. And Moses wrote all the words of the Lord, and rose up early in the morning, and builded an altar under the hill, and twelve pillars, according to the twelve tribes of Israel.

20 And it shall be for a sign and for a witness unto the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt: for they shall cry unto the LORD, because of the oppressors, and he shall send them a saviour, and a great one, and he shall deliver them.

21 And (a) the LORD shall be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know the LORD in that day, and shall do sacrifice and oblation; yea, they (b) shall vow a vow unto the LORD, and perform it.

(a) Psa. lxxvii. 2. That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations. xcviii. 2. The Lord hath made known his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly showed in the sight of the heathen.

3. He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Hab. ii. 14. For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

John xvii. 3. And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.

Gal. iv. 8. Howbeit then, when ye knew not

God, ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9. But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, wherewith ye desire again to be in bondage?

(b) Ec. v. 4. When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed.

Jon. i. 16. Then the men feared the Lord exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice unto the Lord, and made vows.

22 And the LORD shall smite Egypt; (c) he shall smite and heal it: and (d) they shall return even to the LORD, and he shall be entreated of them, and shall heal them.

(c) Deut. xxxii. 39. See now that I, even I, am he, and there is no god with me: I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal: neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand.

Job v. 18. For he maketh sore, and bindeth up; he woundeth, and his hands make whole.

Hos. vi. 1. Come, and let us return unto the Lord: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

2. After two days will he revive us; in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.

(d) Hos. xiv. 1. O Israel, return unto the Lord thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity.

23 In that day shall there be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians shall serve with the Assyrians.

24 In that day shall Israel be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, even (e) a blessing in the midst of the land:

(e) Gen. xii. 2. And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing.

Ez. xxxiv. 26. And I will make them, and the places round about my hill, a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season: there shall be showers of blessing.

Zech. viii. 13. And it shall come to pass, that as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong.

Gal. iii. 14. That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

25 Whom (f) the LORD of hosts shall bless, saying, (g) Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel mine inheritance.

(f) Num. vi. 24. The Lord bless thee, and keep thee.

27. And they shall put my name upon the children of Israel, and I will bless them.

xxiv. 1. And when Balaam saw that it pleased the Lord to bless Israel, he went not, as at other times, to seek for enchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness.

Ps. lxxvii. 6. Then shall the earth yield her increase; and God, even our own God, shall bless us.

7. God shall bless us; and all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

cxv. 15. You are blessed of the Lord, which made heaven and earth.

Eph. i. 3. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ.

(g) Ps. c. 3. Know ye, that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves: we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

cxlviii. 3. The Lord will perfect that which concerneth me: thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever: forsake not the works of thine own hands.

Is. xxix. 23. But when he seeth his children, the work of my hands, in the midst of him, they shall sanctify my name, and sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and shall fear the God of Israel.

Hos. ii. 23. And I will sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God.

Rom. iii. 29. Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also.

Gal. vi. 15. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.

Eph. ii. 10. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

Col. iii. 10. And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him.

CHAPTER XX.

IN the year that Tartan came unto Ashdod, (when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him,) and fought against Ashdod, and took it;

2 At the same time spake the LORD by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go, and loose (a) the sackcloth from off thy loins, and (b) put off thy shoe from thy foot. And he did so, walking (c) naked and barefoot.

(a) Zech. xiii. 4. And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied: neither shall they wear a rough garment to deceive.

Matt. iii. 4. And the same John had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins: and his meat was locusts and wild honey.

Rev. xi. 3. And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

(b) Ex. iii. 5. And he said, Draw not nigh hither: put off thy shoes from off thy feet; for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground.

Josh. v. 15. And the captain of the Lord's host said unto Joshua, Loose thy shoe from off thy foot, for the place whereon thou standest is holy. And Joshua did so.

(c) 1 Sam. xix. 24. And he stripped off his clothes also, and prophesied before Samuel in like manner, and lay down naked all that day, and all that night. Wherefore they say, Is Saul also among the prophets?

3 And the LORD said, Like as my servant Isaiah hath walked naked and barefoot (d) three years, for a sign and wonder upon Egypt and upon Ethiopia;

(d) Num. xiv. 34. After the number of the days in which ye searched the land, even forty days, each day for a year, shall ye bear your iniquities, even forty years; and ye shall know my breach of promise.

Ez. iv. 5. For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

6. And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee each day for a year.

4 So (e) shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even (f) with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.

(e) Is. xix. 4. And the Egyptians will I give over into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, saith the Lord, the Lord of hosts.

Jer. xlvi. 26. And I will deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants: and afterwards it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, saith the Lord.

Ez. xxx. 18. At Tehaphnehes also the day shall be darkened, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt: and the pomp of her strength shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity.

(f) 2 Sam. x. 4. Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved off the one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away.

Jer. xliii. 22. And if thou say in thy heart, Wherefore come these things upon me? For the greatness of thine iniquity are thy skirts discovered, and thy heels made bare.

Mic. i. 11. Pass ye away, thou inhabitant of Saphir, having thy shame naked: the inhabitant of Zaanan came not forth in the mourning of Beth-ezel; he shall receive of you his standing.

5 And they shall be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt (g) their glory.

(g) Jer. ix. 23. Thus saith the Lord, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches:

24. But let him that glorieth, glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lord which exercise loving-kindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the Lord.

xvii. 5. Thus saith the Lord, Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the Lord.

1 Cor. iii. 21. Therefore let no man glory in men: for all things are yours.

6 And the inhabitant of this isle shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, (h) whither we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria: (i) and how shall we escape?

(h) Is. xxviii. 17. Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet; and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding-place.

xxxi. 1. Wo to them that go down to Egypt for help, and stay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, neither seek the Lord!

2. Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and will not call back his words: but will arise against the house of the evil-doers, and against the help of them that work iniquity.

3. Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When the Lord shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fail together.

(i) Matt. xxiii. 33. Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers! how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

1 Thess. v. 3. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

Heb. ii. 3. How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him.

CHAPTER XXI.

THE burden of (a) the desert of the sea. As (b) whirlwinds in the south pass through; so it cometh from the desert, (c) from a terrible land.

(a) Jer. li. 42. The sea is come up upon Babylon: she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof.

(b) Job xxxvii. 9. Out of the south cometh the whirlwind; and cold out of the north.

Dan. xi. 40. And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

Zech. ix. 14. And the Lord shall be seen over them; and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the Lord God shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with whirlwinds of the south.

(c) Ez. xxx. 11. He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought to destroy the land: and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.

xxxi. 12. And strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him.

2 A grievous vision is declared.

unto me; (d) the treacherous dealer dealeth treacherously, and the spoiler spoileth. (e) Go up, O Elam: besiege, O Media: (f) all the sighing thereof have I made to cease.

(d) 1 Sam. xxiv. 13. As saith the proverb of the ancients, Wickedness proceedeth from the wicked: but my hand shall not be upon thee.

Is. xxxiii. 1. Wo to thee that spoilest, and thou wast not spoiled; and dealest treacherously, and they dealt not treacherously with thee! when thou shalt cease to spoil, thou shalt be spoiled; and when thou shalt make an end to deal treacherously, they shall deal treacherously with thee.

Jer. li. 48. Then the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Babylon: for the spoilers shall come unto her from the north, saith the Lord.

49. As Babylon hath caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all the earth.

53. Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the Lord.

Rev. xiii. 10. He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword, must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

(e) Jer. l. 14. Put yourselves in array against Babylon round about: all ye that bend the bow shoot at her, spare no arrows; for she hath sinned against the Lord.

li. 11. Make bright the arrows, gather the shields: the Lord hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes: for his device is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of the Lord, the vengeance of his temple.

(f) Ps. xii. 5. For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith the Lord; I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him.

lxxix. 11. Let the sighing of the prisoner come before thee; according to the greatness of thy power, preserve thou those that are appointed to die.

Lam. i. 22. Let all their wickedness come before thee; and do unto them as thou hast done unto me for all my transgressions: for my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

3 Therefore (g) are my loins filled with pains: (h) pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman that travaileth: (i) I was bowed down at the hearing of it; I was dismayed at the seeing of it.

(g) Is. xvi. 11. Wherefore my bowels shall sound like a harp for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kir-haresh.

Hab. iii. 16. When I heard, my belly trembled; my lips quivered at the voice: rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up unto the people, he will invade them with his troops.

(h) Ps. xlviii. 6. Fear took hold upon them there, and pain as of a woman in travail.

Is. xxvi. 17. Like as a woman with child, that draweth near the time of her delivery, is in pain, and crieth out in her pangs; so have we been in thy sight, O Lord.

(i) Deut. xxviii. 67. In the morning thou shalt say, Would God it were even! and at even thou shalt say, Would God it were morning! for the fear of thy heart, wherewith thou shalt fear, and for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

Dan. v. 5. In the same hour came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaster of the wall of the king's palace; and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

6. Then the king's countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against another.

4 My heart panted, fearfulness affrighted me: (k) the night of my pleasure hath he turned into fear unto me.

(k) 2 Sam. xiii. 28. Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon's heart is merry with wine; and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon; then kill him, fear not: have not I commanded you? be courageous, and be valiant.

29. And the servants of Absalom did unto Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and every man gat him up upon his mule, and fled.

Jer. li. 39. In their heat I will make their feasts, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the Lord.

Dan. v. 1. Belshazzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

30. In that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain.

5 Prepare the table, watch in the watch-tower, (l) eat, drink; arise, ye princes, and anoint the shield.

(l) 1 Cor. xv. 32. If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for to-morrow we die.

6 For thus hath the LORD said unto me, Go, set a watchman, let him declare what he seeth.

7 And he saw a chariot with a couple of horsemen, a chariot of asses, and a chariot of camels; and (m) he hearkened diligently with much heed.

(m) Heb. ii. 1. Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.

8 And he cried, (n) A lion: My lord, (o) I stand continually upon the watch-tower in the day-time, and I am set in my ward whole nights.

(n) Jer. iv. 7. The lion is come up from his thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place to make thy land desolate; and thy cities shall be laid waste without an inhabitant.

1 Pet. v. 8. Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour.

(o) Hab. ii. 1. I will stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see what he will say unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved.

9 And behold, here cometh a chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, (p) Babylon is fallen, is fallen; and all the graven images of her gods he hath broken unto the ground.

(p) Jer. l. 2. Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken; Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

Rev. xiv. 8. And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

xviii. 2. And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

10 O (q) my thrashing, and the corn of my floor; that which I have heard of the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared unto you.

(q) 2 Kings xiii. 7. Neither did he leave of the people to Jehoahaz but fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria had destroyed them, and had made them like the dust by thrashing.

Jer. li. 33. For thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, The daughter of Babylon is like a thrashing-floor, it is time to thrash her: yet a little while, and the time of her harvest shall come.

Mic. iv. 13. Arise and thrash, O daughter of Zion; for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass; and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the Lord, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth.

Hab. iii. 12. Thou didst march through thy land in indignation, thou didst thrash the heathen in anger.

Mat. iii. 12. Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner: but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

11 ¶ The burden of (r) Dumah. He calleth to me out of Seir, Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?

(r) Gen. xxv. 14. And Mishma, and Dumah, and Massa.

1 Chr. i. 30. Mishma, and Dumah, Massa, Hadad, and Zema.

12 The watchman said, The morning cometh, and also the night: if ye will inquire, inquire ye: return, come.

13 ¶ The burden upon (s) Arabia. In the forest in Arabia shall ye lodge, (t) O ye travelling companies of Dedanim.

(s) 1 Kings x. 15. Besides that he had of the merchant-men, and of the traffic of the spice-merchants, and of all the kings of Arabia, and of the governors of the country.

Gal. iv. 25. For this Agar is Mount Sina in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem, which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

(t) Ez. xxvii. 15. The men of Dedan were thy merchants; many isles were the merchandise of thine hand: they brought thee for a present horns of ivory and ebony.

20. Dedan was thy merchant in precious clothes for chariots.

14 The inhabitants of the land of (u) Tema brought water to him that was thirsty, they prevented with their bread him that fled.

(u) Gen. xxv. 15. Hadar, and Tema, Jetur, Naphtish, and Kedemah.

Job vi. 19. The troops of Tema looked, the companies of Sheba waited for them.

15 For they fled from the swords, from the drawn sword, and from the grievousness of war.

16 For thus hath the LORD said unto me, Within a year, according to the years of an hireling, and all the glory of (x) Kedar shall fail.

(x) Ps. cxx. 5. Wo is me, that I sojourn in Mesech, that I dwell in the tents of Kedar!

Cant. i. 5. I am black, but comely, O ye daughters of Jerusalem; as the tents of Kedar, as the curtains of Solomon.

Jer. xlix. 28. Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the Lord, Arise ye, go up to Kedar, and spoil the men of the east.

Ez. xxvii. 21. Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they occupied with thee in lambs, and rams, and goats; in these were thy merchants.

17 And the residue of the number of archers, (y) the mighty men of the children of Kedar, shall be diminished: (z) for the LORD God of Israel hath spoken it.

(y) Ps. cvii. 39. Again, they are diminished, and brought low, through oppression, affliction, and sorrow.

Is. xvii. 4. And in that day it shall come to pass, that the glory of Jacob shall be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh shall wax lean.

5. And it shall be as when the harvest-man gathereth the corn, and reapeth the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he that gathereth ears in the valley of Rephaim.

(z) Num. xxiii. 19. God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good?

Jer. xlv. 29. And this shall be a sign unto you, saith the Lord, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil.

Matt. xxiv. 35. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

CHAPTER XXII.

THE burden of the valley (a) of vision. (b) What aileth thee now, (c) that thou art wholly gone up to the house-tops?

(a) 1 Sam. iii. 1. And the child Samuel ministered unto the Lord before Eli. And the word of the Lord was precious in those days; there was no open vision.

Ps. cxlvii. 19. He showeth his word unto Jacob, his statutes and his judgments unto Israel.

20. He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them. Praise ye the Lord.

Prov. xxix. 18. Where there is no vision, the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he.

Mic. iii. 6. Therefore night shall be unto you, that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them.

(b) Gen. xxi. 17. And God heard the voice of the lad: and the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, Hagar? fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he is.

Judg. xviii. 23. And they cried unto the children of Dan: and they turned their faces, and said unto Micah, What aileth thee, that thou comest with such a company?

(c) Is. xv. 3. In their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth: on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, weeping abundantly.

Jer. xlviii. 33. There shall be lamentation generally upon all the house-tops of Moab, and in the streets thereof: for I have broken Moab like a vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the Lord.

2 Thou (d) that art full of stirs, a tumultuous city, a joyous city: (e) thy slain men are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battle.

(d) Is. xxxii. 13. Upon the land of my people shall come up thorns and briers, yea, upon all the houses of joy in the joyous city.

(e) Jer. xiv. 13. If I go forth into the field, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine! yea, both the prophet and the priest go about into a land that they know not.

xxxviii. 2. Thus saith the Lord, He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live.

Lam. ii. 20. Behold, O Lord, and consider to whom thou hast done this. Shall the women eat their fruit, and children of a span long? shall the priest and prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord?

iv. 9. They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger: for these pine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field.

10. The hands of the pitiful women have sodden their own children: they were their meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

3 All (f) thy rulers are fled together, they are bound by the archers: all that are found in thee are bound together, which have fled from far.

(f) 2 Kings xxv. 4. And the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled by night, by the way of the gate, between two walls, which is by the king's garden: (now the Chaldees were against the city round about:) and the king went the way toward the plain.

5. And the army of the Chaldees pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho: and all his army were scattered from him.

6. So they took the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah; and they gave judgment upon him.

7. And they slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him with fetters of brass, and carried him to Babylon.

4 Therefore said I, (g) Look away from me: I will weep bitterly, (h) labour not to comfort me, because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people.

(g) Jer. ix. 1. Oh that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!

xiii. 17. But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride; and mine eyes shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the Lord's flock is carried away captive.

(h) Ps. lxxvii. 2. In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord: my sore ran in the night, and ceased not: my soul refused to be comforted.

Jer. viii. 18. When I would comfort myself against sorrow, my heart is faint in me.

xxxii. 15. Thus saith the Lord, A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping; Rachel weeping for her children, refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not.

5 For it is (i) a day of trouble, and of (k) treading down, and of (l) perplexity by the Lord God of hosts in the valley of vision, (m) breaking down the walls, and of (n) crying to the mountains.

(i) 2 Kings xix. 3. And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and blasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.

Jer. xxx. 7. Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it.

(k) Is. xxv. 10. For in this mountain shall the hand of the Lord rest, and Moab shall be trodden down under him, even as straw is trodden down for the dunghill.

(l) Esth. iii. 15. The posts went out, being hastened by the king's commandment; and the decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city Shushan was perplexed.

Mic. vii. 4. The best of them is as a brier; the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watchmen and thy visitation cometh; now shall be their perplexity.

(m) 2 Kings xxv. 10. And all the army of the Chaldees, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down the walls of Jerusalem round about.

Lam. ii. 2. The Lord hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah; he hath brought them down to the ground: he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof.

(n) Hos. x. 8. The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

Matt. xxiv. 16. Then let them which be in Judea flee into the mountains.

Luke xxiii. 30. Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.

Rev. vi. 16. And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17. For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?

6 And Elam bare the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and Kir uncovered the shield.

7 And it shall come to pass, that thy choicest valleys shall be (o) full of chariots, and the horsemen shall set themselves in array at the gate.

(o) Is. x. 28. He is come to Aiath, he is passed to Migron; at Michmash he hath laid up his carriages.

Jer. xxxix. 1. In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it.

2. And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the city was broken up.

3. And all the princes of the king of Babylon came in and sat in the middle gate, even Nergal-sharezar, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim, Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon.

8 And he discovered the covering of Judah, and thou didst look in that day to (p) the armour of the house of the forest.

(p) 1 Kings vii. 2. He built also the house of the forest of Lebanon; the length thereof was an hundred cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits, upon four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars.

x. 17. And he made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three pound of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

Cant. iv. 4. Thy neck is like the tower of David, builded for an amory, whereon there hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men.

9 Ye have also seen the breaches of the city of David, that they are many: and ye gathered together the waters of the lower pool.

10 And ye have numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses have ye broken down to fortify the wall.

11 Ye made also a ditch between the two walls, for the water of the old pool: but (q) ye have not looked unto the maker thereof, neither had respect unto him that fashioned it long ago.

(q) Is. xxxi. 1. Wo to them that go down to Egypt for help, and stay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong: but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, neither seek the Lord!

xxxvii. 26. Hast thou not heard long ago how

I have done it; and of ancient times that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldst be to lay waste defenced cities into ruinous heaps.

Jer. xxxiii. 2. Thus saith the Lord, the maker thereof, the Lord that formed it, to establish it; The Lord is his name;

3. Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and show thee great and mighty things which thou knowest not.

Mic. vii. 7. Therefore I will look unto the Lord; I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me.

12 And in that day did the Lord God of hosts (r) call to weeping, and to mourning, and (s) to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth:

(r) Ec. iii. 4. A time to weep, and a time to laugh: a time to mourn, and a time to dance.

Joel i. 13. Gird yourselves, and lament, ye priests; howl, ye ministers of the altar; come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God; for the meat-offering and the drink-offering is withholden from the house of your God.

ii. 17. Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

James v. 1. Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

(s) Ezra ix. 3. And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down astonished.

Amos viii. 10. And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation: and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as bitter day.

Jon. iii. 6. For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.

Mic. i. 16. Make thee bald, and poll thee for thy delicate children; enlarge thy baldness as the eagle; for they are gone into captivity from thee.

13 And (t) behold, joy and gladness, slaying oxen, and killing sheep, eating flesh, and drinking wine; (u) let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we shall die.

(t) Luke xvii. 26. And as it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.

27. They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all.

28. Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot: they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded;

29. But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

(u) Is. lvi. 12. Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink, and to-morrow shall be as this day, and much more abundant.

1 Cor. xv. 32. If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantage it me if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for to-morrow we die.

James v. 5. Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

14 And (x) it was revealed in mine ears by the Lord of hosts, (y) Surely this iniquity shall not be purged from you till ye die, saith the Lord God of hosts.

(x) 1 Sam. ix. 15. Now, the Lord had told Samuel in his ear a day before Saul came, saying.

Amos iii. 7. Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.

(y) 1 Sam. iii. 14. And therefore have I sworn unto the house of Eli, that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offering for ever.

Ez. xxiv. 13. In thy filthiness is lewdness: because I have purged thee, and thou wast not purged, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more, till I have caused my fury to rest upon thee.

Heb. x. 26. For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins,

27. But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

Rev. xxii. 11. He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still; and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12. And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be.

15 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God of hosts, Go, get thee unto this treasurer, even unto Shebna, (z) which is over the house, and say,

(z) 1 Kings iv. 6. And Ahishar was over the household; and Adoniram, the son of Abda, was over the tribute.

16 What hast thou here? and whom hast thou here, that thou hast (a) hewed thee out a sepulchre here, as he that heweth him out a sepulchre on high, and that graveth an habitation for himself in a rock?

(a) 2 Sam. xviii. 18. Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself a pillar, which is in the king's dale: for he said, I have no son to keep my name in remembrance: and he called the pillar after his own name: and it is called unto this day Absalom's place.

2 Chr. xvi. 14. And they buried him in his own sepulchres, which he had made for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled with sweet odours, and divers kinds of spices, prepared by the apothecaries' art; and they made a very great burning for him.

Job iii. 14. With kings and counsellors of the earth, which built desolate places for themselves.

Is. xiv. 18. All the kings of the nations, even all of them, lie in glory, every one in his own house.

Math. xxvii. 60. And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock; and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

17 Behold, the LORD will carry thee away with a mighty captivity, and will surely (b) cover thee.

(b) Job ix. 24. The earth is given into the hand of the wicked: he covereth the faces of the judges thereof; if not, where, and who is he?

Jer. xiv. 3. And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters: they came to the pits, and found no water; they returned with their vessels empty; they were ashamed and confounded, and covered their heads.

18 He will (c) surely violently turn and toss thee like a ball into a large country; there shalt thou die, and there the chariots of thy glory shall be the shame of thy lord's house.

(c) Is. xvii. 13. The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but God shall rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and shall be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like a rolling thing before the whirlwind.

Amos vii. 17. Therefore thus saith the Lord, Thy wife shall be a harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou shalt die in a polluted land: and Israel shall surely go into captivity forth of his land.

19 And (d) I will drive thee from thy station, and from thy state shall he pull thee down.

(d) Job xl. 11. Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath, and behold every one that is proud, and abase him.

12. Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place.

Ps. lxxv. 6. For promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the south:

7. For God is the judge; he putteth down one, and setteth up another.

Ez. xvii. 24. And all the trees of the field shall know that I the Lord have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish: I the Lord have spoken, and have done it.

Luke i. 52. He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

20 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah:

21 And I will (e) clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen him with thy girdle, and I will commit thy government into his hand: and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house Judah.

(e) Gen. xli. 42. And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand, and arrayed him in vestures of fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck:

43. And he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had; and they cried before him, Bow the knee: and he made him ruler over all the land of Egypt.

1 Sam. xviii. 4. And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle.

Esth. viii. 2. And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.

15. And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king, in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple; and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad.

22 And (f) the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder; (g) so he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open.

(f) Matt. xvi. 18. And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter; and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

19. And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth, shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven.

Rev. i. 18. I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death.

(g) Job xii. 14. Behold, he breaketh down, and it cannot be built again: he shutteth up a man, and there can be no opening.

Matt. xviii. 18. Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth, shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven.

Rev. iii. 7. And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David; he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and he that shutteth, and no man openeth.

23 And (h) I will fasten him as a nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a (i) glorious throne of his father's house.

(h) Ezra ix. 8. And now for a little space grace hath been showed from the Lord our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage.

Ec. xiii. 11. The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.

(i) 1 Sam. ii. 8. He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth up the beggar from the dunghill, to set them among princes, and to make them inherit the throne of glory: for the pillars of the earth are the Lord's, and he hath set the world upon them.

Job xxxvii. 7. He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous: but with kings are they on the throne; yea, he doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.

Rev. iii. 21. To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

24 And they shall (k) hang upon him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, all (l) vessels of small quantity, from the vessels of cups, even to all the vessels of flacons.

(k) Dan. vi. 1. It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom an hundred and twenty princes, which should be over the whole kingdom;

2. And over these three presidents, of whom Daniel was first; that the princes might give accounts unto them, and the king should have no damage.

3. Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

Matt. xxviii. 18. And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

(l) Rom. ix. 22. What, if God willing to show his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much long-suffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction;

23. And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory.

25 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall the nail that is fastened in the sure place be removed, and be cut down, and fall; and the burden that was upon it shall be cut off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

CHAPTER XXIII.

THE burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; (a) for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from (b) the land of Chittim it is revealed to them.

(a) Jer. xxv. 10. Moreover, I will take from them the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the sound of the mill-stones, and the light of the candle.

11. And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

(b) Num. xxiv. 24. And ships shall come from the coasts of Chittim, and shall afflict Asshur, and shall afflict Eber, and he also shall perish for ever.

Jer. ii. 10. For pass over the isles of Chittim, and see; and send unto Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing.

Ez. xxvii. 6. Of the oaks of Bashan have they made thine oars; the company of the Ashurites have made thy benches of ivory, brought out of the isles of Chittim.

Dan. xi. 30. For the ships of Chittim shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant.

2 Be still, ye inhabitants of the isle; thou whom (c) the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished.

(c) Ez. xxvii. 8. The inhabitants of Zidon and Aryad were thy mariners: thy wise men, O Tyrus, that were in thee, were thy pilots.

9. The ancients of Gebal, and the wise men thereof, were in thee thy calkers: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in thee to occupy thy merchandise.

3 And by great waters the seed of Sihor, (d) the harvest of the river, is her revenue; and (e) she is a mart of nations.

(d) Deut. xi. 10. For the land, whither thou goest in to possess it, is not as the land of Egypt, from whence ye came out, where thou sowedst thy seed, and wateredst it with thy foot, as a garden of herbs.

Is. xxxii. 20. Blessed are ye that sow beside all waters, that send forth thither the feet of the ox and the ass.

(e) Ex. xxvii. 33. When thy wares went forth out of the seas, thou filledst many people; thou didst enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of thy riches, and of thy merchandise.

xxviii. 4. With thy wisdom and with thine understanding thou hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures:

5. By thy great wisdom, and by thy traffic, hast thou increased thy riches, and thine heart is lifted up because of thy riches.

Rev. xviii. 11. And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her: for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:

12. The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

13. And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men.

4 Be thou ashamed, O Zidon: for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, (f) I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins.

(f) Hos. ix. 11. As for Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception.

12. Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yea, wo also to them when I depart from them!

13. Ephraim, as I saw Tyrus, is pleased in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the murderer.

14. Give them, O Lord; what wilt thou give? give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

5 As (g) at the report concerning Egypt, (h) so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.

(g) Is. xix. 16. In that day shall Egypt be like unto women; and it shall be afraid and fear, because of the shaking of the hand of the Lord of hosts, which he shaketh over it.

(h) Ex. xxvi. 15. Thus saith the Lord God to Tyrus; Shall not the isles shake at the sound of thy fall, when the wounded cry, when the slaughter is made in the midst of thee?

Rev. xviii. 17. For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off,

18. And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city!

19. And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas! that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea, by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.

6 Pass ye over to Tarshish: howl, ye inhabitants of the isle.

7 Is this your joyous city, (i) whose antiquity is of ancient days?

(i) Josh. xix. 29. And then the coast turneth to Ramah, and to the strong city of Tyre; and the coast turneth to Hosah; and the outgoings thereof are at the sea from the coast to Achzib.

(k) Ec. x. 7. I have seen servants upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth.

(k) Ec. x. 7. I have seen servants upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth.

8 Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honourable of the earth?

9 The (l) LORD of hosts hath purposed it, (m) to stain the pride of all glory, and to (n) bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth.

(l) Jer. xlvi. 6. O thou sword of the Lord, how long will it be ere thou be quiet? Put up thyself into thy scabbard, rest, and be still.

7. How can it be quiet, seeing the Lord hath given it a charge against Ashkelon, and against the sea-shore? there hath he appointed it.

ii. 62. Then shalt thou say, O Lord, thou hast spoken against this place, to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate for ever.

Acts iv. 28. For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done.

Eph. i. 11. In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will.

(m) Job xl. 11. Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath, and behold every one that is proud, and abase him.

12. Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place.

Mal. iv. 1. For, behold, the day cometh that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

James iv. 6. But he giveth more grace: wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

(n) Job xii. 21. He poureth contempt upon princes, and weakeneth the strength of the mighty.

Psa. cvii. 40. He poureth contempt upon princes, and causeth them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way.

10 Pass through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is (o) no more strength.

(o) Lam. i. 6. And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find no pasture: and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

Rom. v. 6. For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.

11 He (p) stretched out his hand over the sea, he shook the kingdoms: the LORD hath given a commandment against the merchant city, to destroy the strong holds thereof.

(p) Ex. xv. 8. And with the blast of thy nostrils the waters were gathered together: the floods stood upright as an heap, and the depths were congealed in the heart of the sea.

9. The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; my lust shall be satisfied upon them: I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them.

10. Thou didst blow with thy wind, the sea covered them; they sank as lead in the mighty waters.

Ps. xli. 6. The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted.

12 And he said, Thou shalt no more rejoice, O (q) thou oppressed virgin, (r) daughter of Zidon: arise, (s) pass over to Chittim; there also shalt thou have no rest.

(q) Jer. xiv. 17. Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them, Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease: for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow.

Lam. i. 15. The Lord hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me; he hath called an assembly against me, to crush my young men: the Lord hath trodden the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a wine-press.

(r) Gen. xlix. 13. Zebulun shall dwell at the haven of the sea; and he shall be for an haven of ships: and his border shall be unto Zidon.

(s) Num. xxiv. 24. And ships shall come from the coast of Chittim, and shall afflict Ashur, and shall afflict Eber, and he also shall perish for ever.

Ez. xxvii. 6. Of the oaks of Bashan have they made thine oars; the company of the Ashurites have made thy benches of ivory, brought out of the isles of Chittim.

13 Behold the (t) land of the Chaldeans: this people was not, till (u) the Assyrian founded it for them that dwell in the wilderness: they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof; and he brought it to ruin.

(t) Gen. xi. 28. And Haran died before his father Zerah, in the land of his nativity, in Ur of the Chaldees.

Hab. i. 6. For lo, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land, to possess the dwelling-places that are not theirs.

(u) Gen. ii. 14. And the name of the third river is Hiddekel; that is it which goeth toward the east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates.

14 Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for your strength is laid waste.

15 And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of (x) one king: after the end of seventy years shall Tyre sing as an harlot.

(x) Dan. viii. 21. And the rough goat is the king of Grecia: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king.

Rev. xvii. 10. And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh he must continue a short space.

16 Take an harp, (y) go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered.

(y) Prov. vii. 10. And, behold, there met him a woman, with the attire of an harlot, and subtle of heart.

11. (She is loud and stubborn; her feet abide not in her house:

12. Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in wait at every corner.)

17 And it shall come to pass after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will (z) visit Tyre, (a) and she shall turn to her hire, and shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world, upon the face of the earth.

(z) Jer. xxix. 10. For thus saith the Lord, That after seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place.

(a) Mic. i. 7. And all the graven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the hires thereof shall be burned with fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate: for she gathered it of the hire of an harlot, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot.

18 And (b) her merchandise and her hire shall be holiness to the LORD: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be (c) for them that dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.

(b) Zech. xiv. 20. In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD; and the pots in the Lord's house shall be like the bowls before the altar.

21. Yea, every pot in Jerusalem, and in Judah, shall be holiness unto the Lord of hosts; and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and scethe therein: and in that day there shall be no more the Canaanite in the house of the Lord of hosts.

(c) Deut. xii. 18. But thou must eat them before the Lord thy God in the place which the Lord thy God shall choose, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy man-servant, and thy maid-servant, and the Levite that is within thy gates: and thou shalt rejoice before the Lord thy God in all that thou puttest thine hands unto.

Prov. xiii. 22. A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children; and the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just.

Ec. ii. 26. For God giveth to a man that is good in his sight, wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth travail, to gather, and to heap up, that he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

Mal. iii. 10. Bring ye all the tithes into the store-house, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

Luke. viii. 3. And Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance.

Phil. iv. 18. But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well-pleasing to God.

19. But my God shall supply all your need, according to his riches in glory, by Christ Jesus.

CHAPTER XXIV.

BEHOLD, (a) the LORD maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste, and (b) turneth it upside down, and (c) scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.

(a) Jer. iv. 7. The lion is come up from his thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place to make thy land desolate: and thy cities shall be laid waste without an inhabitant.

Ez. v. 14. Moreover, I will make thee waste, and a reproach among the nations that are round about thee, in the sight of all that pass by.

vi. 6. In all your dwelling-places the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished.

Nah. ii. 10. She is empty, and void, and waste; and the heart melteth, and the knees smite together, and much pain is in all loins, and the faces of them all gather blackness.

(b) 2 Kings xxi. 13. And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down.

Psa. cxlvi. 9. The Lord preserveth the strangers, he relieveth the fatherless and widow: but the way of the wicked he turneth upside down.

(c) Deut. iv. 27. And the Lord shall scatter you among the nations, and ye shall be left few in number among the heathen, whither the Lord shall lead you.

Neh. i. 8. Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations.

Jer. i. 17. Israel is as scattered sheep, the lions have driven him away: first the king of Assyria hath devoured him, and last this Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones.

James i. 1. James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 And it shall be (d) as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress;

as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him.

(d) 2 Chr. xxxvi. 14. Moreover, all the chief of the priests, and the people, transgressed very much, after all the abominations of the heathen, and polluted the house of the Lord which he had hallowed in Jerusalem.

Jer. v. 3. O Lord, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return.

4. Therefore I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish: for they know not the way of the Lord, nor the judgment of their God.

5. I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them: for they have known the way of the Lord, and the judgment of their God: but these have altogether broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.

xliv. 12. And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; they shall even be consumed by the sword and by the famine; and they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach.

Lam. iv. 13. For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her.

Ez. vii. 12. The time is come, the day draweth near: let not the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn; for wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

13. For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, although they were yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude thereof, which shall not return; neither shall any strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life.

Hos. iv. 9. And there shall be, like people, like priest: and I will punish them for their ways, and reward them their doings.

3 The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled; for the LORD hath spoken this word.

4 She (e) mourneth and fadeth away, the world languisheth and fadeth away, the haughty people of the earth do languish.

(e) Is. xxxiii. 9. The earth mourneth and languisheth; Lebanon is ashamed and hewn down; Sharon is like a wilderness; and Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits.

xiv. 6. But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

Jer. iv. 28. For this shall the earth mourn, and the heavens above be black: because I have spoken it, and will not repent, neither will I turn back from it.

xii. 4. How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein? the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our last end.

Hos. iv. 3. Therefore shall the land mourn; and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

5 The earth also is (f) defiled under the inhabitants thereof; (g) because they have transgressed the laws, (h) changed the ordinance, (i) broken the everlasting covenant.

(f) Gen. iii. 17. And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life.

18. Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee; and thou shalt eat the herb of the field.

vi. 11. The earth also was corrupt before God; and the earth was filled with violence.

12. And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

13. And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them: and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

Mic. ii. 10. Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction.

Rom. viii. 20. For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope;

21. Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

(g) Ezra ix. 6. And said, O my God! I am ashamed, and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up unto the heavens.

7. Since the days of our fathers have we been in a great trespass unto this day: and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to confusion of face, as it is this day.

Ez. xx. 13. But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they despised my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly polluted: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness, to consume them.

(h) Josh. xxiv. 25. So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and set them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem.

Dan. vii. 25. And he shall speak great words against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand, until a time, and times, and the dividing of time.

Heb. ix. 1. Then verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.

(i) Gen. xvii. 13. He that is born in thy house, and he that is bought with thy money, must needs be circumcised: and my covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

14. And the uncircumcised man-child, whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised, that soul shall be cut off from his people; he hath broken my covenant.

Ps. cv. 10. And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant.

Jer. l. 5. They shall ask the way to Zion, with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the Lord in a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.

Ez. xxxvii. 26. Moreover, I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them: and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore.

6 Therefore (k) hath the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are desolate; therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, (l) and few men left.

(k) Deut. xxx. 18. I denounce unto you this day, that ye shall surely perish, and that ye shall not prolong your days upon the land, whither thou passest over Jordan to go to possess it.

19. I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live.

Zech. v. 3. Then said he unto me, This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side, according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side, according to it.

4. I will bring it forth, saith the Lord of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it, with the timber thereof, and the stones thereof.

Mal. ii. 2. If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the Lord of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and curse your blessings; yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

iii. 9. Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.

iv. 6. And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

(l) Deut. xxviii. 62. And ye shall be left few in number, whereas ye were as the stars of heaven for multitude; because thou wouldest not obey the voice of the Lord thy God.

Ez. v. 3. Thou shalt also take thereof a few in number, and bind them in thy skirts.

Rom. ix. 27. Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved.

7 The (m) new wine mourneth, the vine languisheth, all the merry-hearted do sigh.

(m) Hos. ix. 1. Rejoice not, O Israel, for joy, as other people: for thou hast gone a whoring from thy God; thou hast loved a reward upon every corn-floor.

2. The floor and the wine-press shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in her.

Joel i. 10. The field is wasted; the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted: the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth.

11. Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vine-dressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

12. The vine is dried up, and the fig-tree languisheth; the pomegranate-tree, the palm-tree also, and the apple-tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because joy is withered away from the sons of men.

8 The (n) mirth of tabrets ceaseth, the noise of them that rejoice endeth, the joy of the harp ceaseth.

(n) Jer. vii. 34. Then will I cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride; for the land shall be desolate.

xxv. 10. Moreover, I will take from them the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the candle.

Ez. xxvi. 13. And I will cause the noise of thy songs to cease; and the sound of thy harps shall be no more heard.

Hos. ii. 11. I will cause all her mirth to cease, her feast-days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.

Rev. xviii. 22. And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee.

9 They shall not (o) drink wine with a song; strong drink shall be bitter to them that drink it.

(o) Ps. lxxix. 12. They that sit in the gate speak against me; and I was the song of the drunkards.

Ec. ix. 7. Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God now accepteth thy works.

Amos viii. 3. And the songs of the temples shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord God: there shall be many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth with silence.

10. And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

Eph. v. 18. And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;

19. Speaking to yourselves in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord.

10 The (p) city of confusion is broken down: every house is shut up, that no man may come in.

(p) Gen. xi. 9. Therefore is the name of it called Babel; because the Lord did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the Lord scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.

Rev. xi. 7. And when they have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8. And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.

xvii. 6. And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

xviii. 2. And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

11 There is (q) a crying for wine in the streets; (r) all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone.

(q) Prov. xxxi. 6. Give strong drink unto him that is ready to perish, and wine unto those that be of heavy hearts.

Hos. vii. 14. And they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

Joel i. 5. Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth.

(r) Jer. xlviii. 33. And joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to fail from the wine-presses: none shall tread with shouting; their shouting shall be no shouting.

Lam. v. 14. The elders have ceased from the gate, the young men from their music.

15. The joy of our heart is ceased; our dance is turned into mourning.

12 In (s) the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.

(s) Jer. ix. 11. And I will make Jerusalem heaps, and a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant.

Lam. i. 1. How doth the city sit solitary that was full of people! how is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and princess among the provinces, how is she become tributary!

4. The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts: all her gates are desolate; her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

v. 18. Because of the mountain of Zion, which is desolate, the foxes walk upon it.

Matt. xxii. 7. But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed these murderers, and burned up their city.

13 ¶ When thus it shall be in the midst of the land among the people, (t) there shall be as the shaking of an olive-tree, and as the gleaning grapes when the vintage is done.

(t) Jer. xlv. 28. Yet a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah; and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, mine, or theirs.

Ez. vii. 16. But they that escape of them shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valley, all of them mourning, every one for his iniquity.

Matt. xxiv. 22. And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

Rev. iii. 4. Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.

14 They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing for the majesty of the LORD, they shall cry aloud from the sea.

15 Wherefore (u) glorify ye the LORD in the fires, even the name of the LORD God of Israel (x) in the isles of the sea.

(u) Job xxxv. 9. By reason of the multitude of oppressions, they make the oppressed to cry; they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty:

10. But none saith, Where is God my maker, who giveth songs in the night?

Hab. iii. 17. Although the fig-tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls:

18. Yet I will rejoice in the Lord, I will joy in the God of my salvation.

Zech. xiii. 8. And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the Lord, two parts therein shall be cut off, and die; but the third shall be left therein.

9. And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them; I will say, It is my people; and they shall say, The Lord is my God.

Acts xvi. 25. And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

1 Pet. i. 7. That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise, and honour, and glory, at the appearing of Jesus Christ.

(x) Zeph. ii. 11. The Lord will be terrible unto them: for he will famish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

Mal. i. 11. For from the rising of the sun, even unto the going down of the same, my name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the Lord of hosts.

16 From (y) the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs, even (z) glory to the righteous. But I said, My leanness, my leanness, wo unto me! (a) the treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously; yea, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously.

(y) Ps. ii. 8. Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

xviii. 3. He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Mic. v. 4. And he shall stand and feed in the strength of the Lord, in the majesty of the name of the Lord his God; and they shall abide: for now shall he be great unto the ends of the earth.

Mark xiii. 27. And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

Acts xiii. 47. For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

(z) Ez. xv. 11. Who is like unto thee, O Lord, among the gods? who is like thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?

Rev. xv. 3. And they sing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty: just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.

(a) Jer. iii. 20. Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the Lord.

Lam. i. 2. She weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks; among all her lovers she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they are become her enemies.

Hos. v. 7. They have dealt treacherously against the Lord; for they have begotten strange children: now shall a month devour them with their portions.

17 ¶ Fear, (b) and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth.

(b) Jer. viii. 3. And death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue of them that remain of this evil family, which remain in all the places whither I have driven them, saith the Lord of hosts.

xlviii. 43. Fear, and the pit, and the snare, shall be upon thee, O inhabitant of Moab, saith the Lord.

44. He that fleeth from the fear shall fall into the pit, and he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring upon it, even upon Moab, the year of their visitation, saith the Lord.

Ez. xiv. 21. For thus saith the Lord God; How much more when I send my four sore judgments upon Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the noisome beast, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and beast?

18 And it shall come to pass, that (c) he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: (d) for the windows from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth do shake.

(c) Josh. x. 10. And the Lord discomfited them before Israel, and slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goeth up to Beth-horon, and smote them to Azekah, and unto Makkedah.

11. And it came to pass, as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going down to Beth-horon, that the Lord cast down great stones from heaven upon them unto Azekah, and they died: they were more which died with hailstones than they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword.

Job xx. 24. He shall flee from the iron weapon, and the bow of steel shall strike him through.

Amos v. 19. As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

(d) Gen. vii. 11. In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.

2 Kings vii. 2. Then a lord, on whose hand the king leaned, answered the man of God, and said, Behold, if the Lord would make windows in heaven, might this thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof.

19 The earth is (e) utterly broken down, the earth is clean dissolved, the earth is moved exceedingly.

(e) Nah. i. 5. The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burnt at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein.

Hab. iii. 6. He stood and measured the earth; he beheld, and drove asunder the nations; and the everlasting mountains were scattered, the perpetual hills did bow: his ways are everlasting.

Matt. xx. 11. And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.

20 The earth shall (f) reel to and fro like a drunkard, and shall be removed like a cottage: and (g) the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it; (h) and it shall fall, and not rise again.

(f) Is. xix. 14. The Lord hath mingled a perverse spirit in the midst thereof: and they have caused Egypt to err in every work thereof, as a drunken man staggereth in his vomit.

xxix. 9. Stay yourselves, and wonder; cry ye out, and cry: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink.

(g) Lam. i. 14. The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand; they are wreathed, and come up upon my neck: he hath made my strength to fall; the Lord hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up.

Matt. xxiii. 35. That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias, son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.

36. Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

(h) Jer. viii. 4. Moreover, thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord, Shall they fall, and not arise? shall he turn away, and not return?

xxv. 27. Therefore thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Drink ye, and be drunken, and spew, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.

Dan. xi. 19. Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble, and fall, and not be found.

Rev. xviii. 21. And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great mill-stone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

21 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that (i) the LORD shall punish the host of the high ones that are on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth.

(i) Ps. lxxvi. 12. He shall cut off the spirit of princes: he is terrible to the kings of the earth.

Hag. ii. 21. Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, I will shake the heavens and the earth;

22. And I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms; and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen; and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses and their riders shall come down, every one by the sword of his brother.

Rev. xvii. 14. These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

22 And they shall be gathered together as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days shall they be visited.

23 Then (k) the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed, (l) when the LORD of hosts shall reign in Mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and before his ancients gloriously.

(k) Ez. xxxii. 7. And when I shall put thee out, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.

8. All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord God.

Joel ii. 31. The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the Lord come.

iii. 15. The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining.

Rev. xxi. 23. And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

(l) Ez. xv. 21. And Miriam answered them, Sing ye to the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

Ps. xcvi. 1. The Lord reigneth, let the earth rejoice; let the multitude of isles be glad thereof.

Zech. ix. 9. Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee; he is just, and having salvation, lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

Matt. vi. 10. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

13. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

Rev. xi. 15. And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.

xix. 6. And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth.

CHAPTER XXV.

O LORD, (a) thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name: for (b) thou hast done wonderful things; (c) thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth.

(a) Ex. xv. 2. The Lord is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation: he is my God, and I will prepare him an habitation; my father's God, and I will exalt him.

Ps. xcix. 5. Exalt ye the Lord our God, and worship at his footstool, for he is holy.

cxviii. 28. Thou art my God, and I will praise thee; thou art my God, I will exalt thee.

Rev. vii. 12. Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

(b) Ps. xl. 5. Many, O Lord my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward; they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

Dan. iv. 2. I thought it good to show the signs and wonders that the high God hath wrought toward me.

5. How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

Rev. xv. 3. And they sing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.

(c) Num. xxiii. 19. God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good?

Ps. xxxiii. 10. The Lord bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

11. The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

Eph. i. 11. In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will.

2 For thou hast made (d) of a city an heap; of a defenced city a ruin; (e) a palace of strangers to be no city: it shall never be built.

(d) Deut. xiii. 16. And thou shalt gather all the spoil of it into the midst of the street thereof, and shalt burn with fire the city, and all the spoil thereof every whit, for the Lord thy God: and it shall be an heap for ever; it shall not be built again.

Jer. li. 26. And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but thou shalt be desolate for ever, saith the Lord.

Nah. iii. 12. All thy strong holds shall be like fig-trees with the first ripe figs: if they be shaken, they shall even fall into the mouth of the eater.

13. Behold, thy people in the midst of thee are women: the gates of thy land shall be set wide open unto thine enemies, the fire shall devour thy bars.

14. Draw thee waters for the siege, fortify thy strong holds, go into clay, and tread the mortar, make strong the brick-kiln.

15. There shall the fire devour thee, the sword shall cut thee off: it shall eat thee up like the canker-worm: make thyself many as the canker-worm, make thyself many as the locusts.

(e) Rev. xviii. 2. And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3. For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

3 Therefore (f) shall the strong people glorify thee, the city of the terrible nations shall fear thee.

(f) Ps. xiv. 10. Be still, and know that I am

God; I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

11. The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

Ez. xxxviii. 23. Thus will I magnify myself, and sanctify myself; and I will be known in the eyes of many nations; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

Zech. xiv. 9. And the Lord shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one Lord, and his name one.

Rev. xi. 13. And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

4 For (g) thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, (h) when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.

(g) Job v. 15. But he saveth the poor from the sword, from their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty.

16. So the poor hath hope, and iniquity stoppeth her mouth.

Zeph. iii. 12. I will also leave in the midst of thee an afflicted and poor people, and they shall trust in the name of the Lord.

(h) Ez. xiii. 11. Say unto them which daub it with untempered mortar, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and ye, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it.

12. Lo, when the wall is fallen shall it not be said unto you, Where is the daubing wherewith ye have daubed it?

13. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my fury; and there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger, and great hailstones in my fury, to consume it.

5 Thou shalt bring down the noise of strangers (i) as the heat in a dry place; even the heat with the shadow of a cloud: the (k) branch of the terrible ones shall be brought low.

(i) Ps. cv. 39. He spread a cloud for a covering, and fire to give light in the night.

Is. xviii. 4. For so the Lord said unto me, I will take my rest, and I will consider in my dwelling-place like a clear heat upon herbs, and like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.

xlix. 10. They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun smite them: for he that hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall he guide them.

Jon. iv. 5. So Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

6. And the Lord God prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jonah was exceeding glad of the gourd.

(k) Job viii. 16. He is green before the sun, and his branch shooteth forth in his garden.

17. His roots are wrapped about the heap, and seeth the place of stones.

18. If he destroy him from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, I have not seen thee.

19. Behold, this is the joy of his way, and out of the earth shall others grow.

6 ¶ And (l) in this mountain shall the Lord of hosts make unto (m) all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow (n) of wines on the lees well refined.

(l) Mic. iv. 1. But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the Lord shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills: and people shall flow unto it.

2. And many nations shall come and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

Zech. viii. 3. Thus saith the Lord, I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and Jerusalem shall be called, A city of truth; and the mountain of the Lord of hosts, The holy mountain.

Heb. xii. 22. But ye are come unto Mount Zion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels.

(m) Dan. vii. 14. And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

Matt. viii. 11. And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven.

Mark xvi. 15. And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

(n) Cant. i. 2. Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth: for thy love is better than wine.

4. Draw me, we will run after thee. The king hath brought me into his chambers; we will be glad and rejoice in thee; we will remember thy love more than wine: the upright love thee.

Jer. xlviii. 11. Moab hath been at ease from his youth, and he hath settled on his lees, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remained in him, and his scent is not changed.

Matt. xxvi. 29. But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

7 And (o) he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering cast over all people, and the veil that is spread over all nations.

(o) Matt. xxvii. 51. And behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom: and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent.

Luke ii. 32. A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

Acts xvii. 30. And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent.

Eph. iv. 18. Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart.

v. 8. For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light.

8 He will (p) swallow up death in victory; and the (q) LORD God will wipe away tears from off all faces; and (r) the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it.

(p) Hos. xiii. 14. I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death: O death, I will be thy plagues; O grave, I will be thy destruction: repentance shall be hid from mine eyes.

1 Cor. xv. 26. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

54. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

2 Tim. i. 10. But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

(q) Is. xxxv. 10. And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs, and everlasting joy upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Rev. vii. 17. For the Lamb, which is in the midst of the throne, shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters; and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

xxi. 4. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

(r) Ps. lxxix. 9. For the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up; and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me.

Matt. v. 11. Blessed are ye when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely for my sake.

12. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad; for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

1 Pet. iv. 14. If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the Spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

9 And (s) it shall be said in that day, (t) Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD; we have waited for him, (u) we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

(s) Is. xii. 1. And in that day thou shalt say, O Lord, I will praise thee; though thou wast angry with me, thine anger is turned away, and thou comfortedst me.

(t) Gen. xlix. 18. I have waited for thy salvation, O Lord.

Ps. xxvii. 14. Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart; wait, I say, on the Lord.

Mic. vii. 7. Therefore I will look unto the Lord; I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me.

Luke ii. 25. And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Ghost was upon him.

Ty. ii. 13. Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

2 Pet. iii. 12. Looking for and hastening unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?

13. Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens, and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

(u) Zech. ix. 9. Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee; he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

Rom. v. 2. By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

3. And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience.

1 Pet. i. 6. Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season (if need be) ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations.

8. Whom, having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable, and full of glory.

10 For (x) in this mountain shall the hand of the LORD rest, and Moab shall be trodden down under him, (y) even as straw is trodden down for the dunghill.

(z) Ps. cxxxii. 13. For the Lord hath chosen Zion; he hath desired it for his habitation.

14. This is my rest for ever: here will I dwell, for I have desired it.

Ez. xlvi. 35. It was round about eighteen thousand measures: and the name of the city from that day shall be, The Lord is there.

(y) Ps. lxxxiii. 10. Which perished at En-dor: they became as dung for the earth.

Lam. i. 15. The Lord hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me; he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men: the Lord hath trodden the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a wine-press.

11 And he shall spread forth his hands in the midst of them, as he that swimmeth spreadeth forth his hands to swim: and (z) he shall bring down their pride, together with the spoils of their hands.

(z) Jer. xlvi. 29. We have heard the pride of Moab (he is exceeding proud) his loftiness, and his arrogancy, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart.

42. And Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he hath magnified himself against the Lord.

Dan. iv. 37. Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise, and extol, and honour the King of heaven, all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment: and those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

James iv. 6. But he giveth more grace: wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

12 And (a) the fortress of the high fort of thy wall shall he bring down, lay low, and bring to the ground, even to the dust.

(a) Jer. li. 58. Thus saith the Lord of hosts,

The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly broken, and her high gates shall be burnt with fire; and the people shall labour in vain, and the folk in the fire, and they shall be weary.

64. And thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her: and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

2 Cor. x. 4. For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;

5. Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ.

Heb. xi. 30. By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

Rev. xviii. 21. And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great mill-stone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

CHAPTER XXVI.

IN that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah; We have a strong city; (a) salvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks.

(a) Ps. xlviii. 12. Walk about Zion, and go round about: tell the towers thereof.

13. Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generation following.

cxxv. 1. They that trust in the Lord shall be as Mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.

2. As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the Lord is round about his people from henceforth, even for ever.

Zech. ii. 5. For I, saith the Lord, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the midst of her.

2 (b) Open ye the gates, that the (c) righteous nation which keepeth the truth may enter in.

(b) Ps. cxviii. 19. Open to me the gates of righteousness: I will go into them, and I will praise the Lord;

20. This gate of the Lord, into which the righteous shall enter.

Ez. xlvi. 31. And the gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Israel: three gates northward; one gate of Reuben, one gate of Judah, one gate of Levi.

32. And at the east side four thousand and five hundred and three gates; and one gate of Joseph, one gate of Benjamin, one gate of Dan.

33. And at the south side four thousand and five hundred measures: and three gates; one gate of Simeon, one gate of Issachar, one gate of Zebulun.

34. At the west side four thousand and five hundred, with their three gates; one gate of Gad, one gate of Asher, one gate of Naphtali.

(c) Ex. xix. 6. And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

1 Pet. ii. 9. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

Rev. v. 9. And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof; for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood, out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation.

xxi. 27. And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie, but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

3 Thou (d) wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee; (e) because he trusteth in thee.

(d) Ps. lxxxv. 8. I will hear what God the Lord will speak: for he will speak peace unto his people and to his saints; but let them not turn again to folly.

Mic. v. 5. And this man shall be the peace, when the Assyrian shall come into our land; and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight principal men.

John xiv. 27. Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

xvi. 33. These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

Rom. v. 1. Therefore, being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Phil. iv. 7. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

(e) Ps. ix. 10. And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, Lord, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.

Jer. xvii. 7. Blessed is the man that trusteth in the Lord, and whose hope the Lord is.

4 (f) Trust ye in the LORD for ever: for (g) in the LORD JEHOVAH is everlasting strength.

(f) 2 Chr. xxxii. 8. With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the Lord our God, to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

Ps. lv. 22. Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.

lxii. 8. Trust in him at all times, ye people; pour out your heart before him; God is a refuge for us. Selah.

Prov. iii. 5. Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

6. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

(g) Job ix. 19. If I speak of strength, lo, he is strong: and if of judgment, who shall set me a time to plead?

Ps. xlv. 1. God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

xciii. 1. The Lord reigneth; he is clothed with majesty: the Lord is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself: the world also is stablished, that it cannot be moved.

Phil. iv. 13. I can do all things through Christ, which strengtheneth me.

5 For he bringeth down them that dwell on high; the lofty city, he layeth it low: he layeth it low, even to the ground; he bringeth it even to the dust.

6 The (h) foot shall tread it down, even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy.

(h) Josh. x. 24. And it came to pass, when they brought out those kings unto Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said unto the captains of the men of war which went with him, Come near, put your feet upon the necks of these kings. And they came near, and put their feet upon the necks of them.

25. And Joshua said unto them, Fear not, nor be dismayed, be strong and of good courage: for thus shall the Lord do to all your enemies against whom ye fight.

Dan. vii. 27. And the kingdom, and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.

Zeph. iii. 11. In that day shalt thou not be ashamed for all thy doings, wherein thou hast transgressed against me: for then I will take away out of the midst of thee them that rejoice in thy pride; and thou shalt no more be haughtily because of my holy mountain.

12. I will also leave in the midst of thee an afflicted and poor people, and they shall trust in the name of the Lord.

Mal. iv. 3. And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet, in the day that I shall do this, saith the Lord of hosts.

7 ¶ The (i) way of the just is upright; thou, (h) most upright, dost weigh the path of the just.

(i) Job xxvii. 5. God forbid that I should justify you: till I die I will not remove mine integrity from me.

6. My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go: my heart shall not reproach me so long as I live.

Prov. xx. 7. The just man walketh in his integrity; his children are blessed after him.

xxi. 8. The way of man is froward and strange: but as for the pure, his work is right.

1 John iii. 7. Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.

(k) Job xxxi. 6. Let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know mine integrity.

Zeph. iii. 5. The just Lord is in the midst thereof; he will not do iniquity; every morning doth he bring his judgment to light, he faileth not; but the unjust knoweth no shame.

8 Yea, (l) in the way of thy judgments, O LORD, have we waited for thee; (m) the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee.

(l) Num. xxxvi. 13. These are the commandments and the judgments which the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses, unto the children of Israel, in the plains of Moab, by Jordan near Jericho.

Job xxiii. 10. But he knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold.

11. My foot hath held his steps; his way have I kept, and not declined.

(m) 2 Sam. xxiii. 5. Although my house be not so with God; yet he hath made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things, and sure: for this is all my salvation, and all my desire, although he make it not to grow.

Ps. xlii. 1. As the hart panteth after the water-brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.

2. My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God?

9 With my soul (n) have I desired thee in the night; yea, with (o) my spirit within me will I seek thee early: (p) for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

(n) Ps. lxiii. 6. When I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night watches.

7. Because thou hast been my help, therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

Cant. iii. 1. By night upon my bed I sought him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

v. 2. I sleep, but my heart waketh; it is the voice of my beloved that knocketh, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled: for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night.

Luke vi. 12. And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.

(o) Ps. lxiii. 1. O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is.

Prov. viii. 17. I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me.

Matt. vi. 33. But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness: and all these things shall be added unto you.

Mark i. 35. And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.

(p) Ps. lxiv. 9. And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God: for they shall wisely consider of his doing.

10. The righteous shall be glad in the Lord, and shall trust in him; and all the upright in heart shall glory.

Hos. v. 15. I will go and return to my place till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early.

Rev. xi. 13. And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

xv. 4. Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

10 Let (q) favour be showed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness: (r) in the land of uprightness will he deal unjustly, and (s) will not behold the majesty of the LORD.

(q) Ps. cvi. 43. Many times did he deliver them; but they provoked him with their counsel, and were brought low for their iniquity.

Prov. i. 32. For the turning away of the wicked shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.

Ec. viii. 11. Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

Hos. xiii. 6. According to their pasture so were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted; therefore have they forgotten me.

(r) Jer. ii. 7. And I brought you into a plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof, and the goodness thereof: but when ye entered, ye defiled my land, and made mine heritage an abomination.

Hos. ix. 3. They shall not dwell in the Lord's land; but Ephraim shall return to Egypt, and they shall eat unclean things in Assyria.

(s) Ps. xxviii. 4. Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavours: give them after the work of their hands, render to them their desert.

5. Because they regard not the works of the Lord, nor the operation of his hands, he shall destroy them, and not build them up.

Hos. xi. 7. And my people are bent to backsliding from me: though they called them to the Most High, none at all will exalt him.

11 LORD, when thy hand is lifted up, (t) they will not see: but they (u) shall see, and (x) be ashamed for their envy at the people; yea, (y) the fire of thine enemies shall devour them.

(t) Job xxxiv. 27. Because they turned back from him, and would not consider any of his ways.

Jer. v. 3. O Lord, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock: they have refused to return.

Mic. vi. 9. The Lord's voice crieth unto the city, and the man of wisdom shall see thy name: hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it.

(u) Ex. ix. 14. For I will at this time send all my plagues upon thine heart, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, that thou mayest know that there is none like me in all the earth.

1 Kings xxii. 25. And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see in that day, when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself.

Jer. xiv. 23. Yet a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah; and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, mine, or theirs.

(x) 1 Pet. iii. 16. Having a good conscience: that, whereas they speak evil of you as of evil-doers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

Rev. iii. 9. Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, (which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie,) behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

(y) Deut. xxxii. 22. For a fire is kindled in mine anger, and shall burn unto the lowest hell, and shall consume the earth with her increase, and set on fire the foundations of the mountains.

Mal. iv. 1. For, behold, the day cometh that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

Matt. xxv. 41. Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels.

2 Thess. i. 8. In flaming fire, taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

12 ¶ LORD, thou wilt (z) ordain peace for us: (a) for thou also hast wrought all our works in us.

(z) Prov. xvi. 7. When a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.

Jer. xxxiii. 6. Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth.

Mic. v. 5. And this man shall be the peace, when the Assyrian shall come into our land; and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight principal men.

(a) Deut. xxx. 6. And the Lord thy God will circumcise thine heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live.

Ps. li. 10. Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

Jer. xxxi. 33. But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After these days, saith the Lord, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

John iii. 21. But he that doeth truth, cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

Eph. ii. 10. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

Phil. ii. 13. For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

13 O LORD our God, (b) other lords beside thee have had dominion over us: but (c) by thee only will we make mention of thy name.

(b) Neh. ix. 28. But after they had rest they did evil again before thee: therefore ledest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them; yet when they returned and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven, and many times didst thou deliver them, according to thy mercies.

Lam. v. 8. Servants have ruled over us: there is none that doth deliver us out of their hand.

Rom. vi. 22. But now, being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

(c) Ex. xxiii. 13. And in all things that I have said unto you be circumspect: and make no mention of the names of other gods, neither let it be heard out of thy mouth.

Josh. xxiii. 7. That ye come not among these nations, these that remain among you, neither make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear by them, neither serve them, nor bow yourselves unto them.

Heb. xiii. 15. By him, therefore, let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to his name.

14 They are (d) dead, they shall not live; they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore hast thou visited and destroyed them, and (e) made all their memory to perish.

(d) Ex. xiv. 30. Thus the Lord saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea-shore.

Matt. ii. 20. Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life.

(e) Ps. ix. 6. O thou enemy! destructions are come to a perpetual end; and thou hast destroyed cities; their memorial is perished with them.

Prov. x. 7. The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot.

15 Thou hast (f) increased the nation, O LORD, thou hast increased the nation; thou art glorified: (g) thou hadst removed it far unto all the ends of the earth.

(f) Num. xxiii. 10. Who can count the dust of Jacob, and the number of the fourth part of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his!

Deut. x. 22. Thy fathers went down into Egypt with threescore and ten persons; and now the Lord thy God hath made thee as the stars of heaven for multitude.

Jer. xxx. 19. And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving, and the voice of them that make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.

(g) Deut. iv. 27. And the Lord shall scatter you among the nations, and ye shall be left few in number among the heathen, whither the Lord shall lead you.

28. And there ye shall serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.

Jer. xxxii. 37. Behold, I will gather them out of all countries whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely.

16 LORD, (h) in trouble have they visited thee, (i) they poured out a prayer when thy chastening was upon them.

(h) Deut. iv. 29. But if from thence thou shalt seek the Lord thy God, thou shalt find him, if thou seek him with all thy heart, and with all thy soul.

30. When thou art in tribulation, and all these things come upon thee, even in the latter days, if thou turn to the Lord thy God, and shalt be obedient unto his voice.

Jer. xxii. 23. O inhabitant of Lebanon, that makest thy nest in the cedars, how gracious shalt thou be when pangs come upon thee, the pain as of a woman in travail!

Hos. v. 15. I will go and return to my place till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early.

(i) 1 Sam. i. 15. And Hannah answered and said, No, my lord; I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have poured out my soul before the Lord.

Lam. ii. 19. Arise, cry out in the night; in the beginning of the watches pour out thine heart like water before the face of the Lord: lift up thy hands toward him for the life of thy young children, that faint for hunger in the top of every street.

17 Like (k) as a woman with child, that draweth near the time of her delivery, is in pain, and crieth out in her pangs; so have we been in thy sight, O LORD.

(k) Ps. xlviii. 6. Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

Jer. iv. 31. For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child; the voice of the daughter of Zion, that bewaileth herself, that spreadeth her hands, saying, Wo is me now! for my soul is wearied because of murderers.

vi. 24. We have heard the fame thereof; our hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of us, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

John xvi. 24. Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.

1 Thess. v. 3. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

18 We have been with child, (l) we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind; we have not wrought any deliverance in the earth; neither have (m) the inhabitants of the world fallen.

(l) 2 Kings xix. 3. And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and blasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.

Hos. xiii. 13. The sorrows of a travelling woman shall come upon him: he is an unwise son; for he should not stay long in the place of the breaking forth of children.

(m) Ps. xvii. 14. From men which are thy hand, O Lord, from men of the world, which have their portion in this life, and whose belly thou fillest with thy hid treasure: they are full of children, and leave the rest of their substance to their babes.

John vii. 7. The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

1 John v. 19. And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.

19 Thy (n) dead men shall live, together with (o) my dead body shall they arise. Awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for (p) thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and (q) the earth shall cast out the dead.

(n) Hos. vi. 2. After two days will he revive us; in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.

xiii. 14. I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death: O death, I will be thy plagues; O grave, I will be thy destruction: repentance shall be hid from mine eyes.

Acts xxiv. 15. And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

1 Thess. iv. 14. For if we believe that Jesus died, and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

Rev. xx. 5. But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

(o) Matt. xxvii. 52. And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose.

John xi. 25. Jesus said unto her, I am the reurrection and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live;

26. And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

(p) Gen. ii. 5. And every plant of the field, before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field, before it grew: for the Lord God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground.

6. But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground.

Deut. xxxii. 2. My doctrine shall drop as the rain, my speech shall distil as the dew; as the small rain upon the tender herb, and as the showers upon the grass.

Job xxix. 19. My root was spread out by the waters, and the dew lay all night upon my branch.

Zech. viii. 12. For the seed shall be prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.

(q) Rev. xx. 13. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

20 ¶ Come, my people, (r) enter thou into thy chambers, and (s) shut thy doors about thee: (t) hide thyself as it were (u) for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast.

(r) Gen. vii. 1. And the Lord said unto Noah, Come thou, and all thy house, into the ark: for there have I seen righteous before me in this generation.

16. And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him; and the Lord shut him in.

Ex. xii. 22. And ye shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintel and the two side-posts with the blood, that is in the basin; and none of you shall go out at the door of his house until the morning.

23. For the Lord will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side-posts, the Lord will pass over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you.

Prov. xviii. 10. The name of the Lord is a strong tower; the righteous runneth into it, and is safe.

(s) Matt. vi. 6. But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet; and, when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret, and thy Father which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

(t) Ps. xvii. 8. Keep me as the apple of the eye; hide me under the shadow of thy wings.

cxliii. 9. Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies: I flee unto thee to hide me.

(u) 2 Cor. iv. 17. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory.

21 For, behold, (x) the LORD cometh out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: (y) the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain.

(x) Hos. v. 14. For I will be unto Ephraim as a lion; and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

15. I will go and return to my place till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early.

Jude 14. And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousand of his saints,

15. To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds, which they have ungodly committed; and of all their hard speeches, which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

(y) Gen. iv. 10. And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground.

11. And now art thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand.

Job xvi. 18. O earth, cover not thou my blood, and let my cry have no place.

CHAPTER XXVII.

IN that day, the LORD, (a) with his sore, and great, and strong sword, shall punish leviathan the piercing serpent, even leviathan that (b) crooked serpent; and he shall slay (c) the dragon that is (d) in the sea.

(a) Deut. xxxii. 41. If I whet my glittering sword, and mine hand take hold on judgment, I will render vengeance to mine enemies, and will reward them that hate me.

42. I will make mine arrows drunk with blood, and my sword shall devour flesh; and that with the blood of the slain, and of the captives, from the beginning of revenges upon the enemy.

Job xl. 19. He is the chief of the ways of God: he that made him can make his sword to approach unto him.

Ps. xlv. 3. Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, O most mighty, with thy glory and with thy majesty.

(b) Job xxvii. 13. By his spirit he hath garnished the heavens; his hand hath formed the crooked serpent.

(c) Ps. lxxiv. 13. Thou didst divide the sea by thy strength: thou brakest the heads of the dragons in the waters.

14. Thou brakest the heads of leviathan in pieces, and gavest him to be meat to the people inhabiting the wilderness.

Ex. xxix. 3. Speak and say, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself.

(d) Rev. xiii. 1. And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.

xvii. 1. And there came one of the seven angels, which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will show unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters.

2 In that day sing ye unto her, A vineyard of red wine.

3 I the LORD (e) do keep it; I will water it every moment: lest any hurt it, I will keep it night and day.

(e) Deut. xxxiii. 26. There is none like unto the God of Jeshurun, who rideth upon the heaven in thy help, and in his excellency on the sky.

27. The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms: and he shall thrust out the enemy from before thee, and shall say, Destroy them.

28. Israel then shall dwell in safety alone: the fountain of Jacob shall be upon a land of corn and wine; also his heavens shall drop down dew.

29. Happy art thou, O Israel: who is like unto thee, O people saved by the Lord, the shield of thy help, and who is the sword of thy excellency! and thine enemies shall be found liars unto thee, and thou shalt tread upon their high places.

1 Sam. ii. 9. He will keep the feet of his saints, and the wicked shall be silent in darkness; for by strength shall no man prevail.

Ps. xlii. 5. God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early.

John xv. 1. I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

2. Every branch in me that beareth not fruit, he taketh away; and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

4 (f) Fury is not in me: (g) who would set the briers and thorns against me in battle? I would go through them, I would burn them together.

(f) Ps. lxxxv. 3. Thou hast taken away all thy wrath: thou hast turned thyself from the fierceness of thine anger.

ciii. 9. He will not always chide; neither will he keep his anger for ever.

Ex. xvi. 63. That thou mayest remember, and be confounded, and never open thy mouth any more because of thy shame, when I am pacified toward thee for all that thou hast done, saith the Lord God.

2 Pet. ii. 9. The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished.

(g) 2 Sam. xxiii. 6. But the sons of Belial shall be all of them as thorns thrust away, because they cannot be taken with hands.

Mal. iv. 3. And ye shall tread down the wicked, for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet, in the day that I shall do this, saith the Lord of hosts.

Matt. iii. 12. Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner: but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

Heb. vi. 8. But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.

5 Or (h) let him take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me; (i) and he shall make peace with me.

(h) Josh. ix. 24. And they answered Joshua, and said, Because it was certainly told thy servants, how that the Lord thy God commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you, therefore we were sore afraid of our lives, because of you, and have done this thing.

25. And now, behold, we are in thine hand: as it seemeth good and right unto thee to do unto us, do.

x. 6. And the men of Gibeon sent unto Joshua, to the camp to Gilgal, saying, Slack not thy hand from thy servants; come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us: for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the mountains are gathered together against us.

Luke xiv. 32. Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace.

xix. 42. Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

(i) Ez. xxxiv. 25. And I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land; and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods.

26. And I will make them, and the places round about my hill, a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season: there shall be showers of blessing.

Eph. ii. 16. And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby;

17. And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.

6 He shall (k) cause them that come of Jacob to take root; Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit.

(k) Jer. xxx. 19. And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving, and the voice of them that make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.

Hos. ii. 23. And I will sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy, and I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God.

Zech. x. 8. I will hiss for them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them: and they shall increase as they have increased.

9. And I will sow them among the people: and they shall remember me in far countries; and they shall live with their children, and turn again.

Rev. xi. 15. And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.

7 ¶ Hath (l) he smitten him, as he smote those that smote him? or is he slain according to the slaughter of them that are slain by him?

(l) Jer. xxx. 33. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together; and all that took them captives held them fast; they refused to let them go.

34. Their Redeemer is strong; the Lord of hosts is his name; he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

li. 24. And I will render unto Babylon, and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea, all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, saith the Lord.

8 In (m) measure, when it shooteth forth, (n) thou wilt debate with it: he sayeth (o) his rough wind in the day of the east wind.

(m) Jer. x. 24. O Lord, correct me, but with judgment; not in thine anger, lest thou bring me to nothing.

xvi. 28. Fear thou not, O Jacob my servant, saith the Lord; for I am with thee: for I will make a full end of all the nations whither I have driven thee: but I will make not a full end of thee, but correct thee in measure; yet will I not leave thee wholly unpunished.

(n) Hos. iv. 1. Hear the word of the Lord, ye children of Israel; for the Lord hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land.

(o) Jer. iv. 11. At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to cleanse.

Ez. xix. 12. But she was plucked up in fury, she was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up her fruit; her strong rods are broken and withered, the fire consumed them.

Hos. xiii. 15. Though he be fruitful among his brethren, an east wind shall come, the wind of the Lord shall come up from the wilderness, and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up; he shall spoil the treasure of all pleasant vessels.

9 By (p) this therefore shall the iniquity of Jacob be purged; and this is all the fruit to take away his sin: when he maketh all the stones of the altar as chalk-stones that are beaten in sunder, (q) the groves and images shall not stand up.

(p) Prov. xx. 30. The blueness of a wound cleanseth away evil; so do stripes the inward parts of the belly.

Is. xlviii. 10. Behold, I have refined thee, but not with silver; I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction.

Ez. xxiv. 13. In thy filthiness is lewdness: because I have purged thee, and thou wast not purged, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more, till I have caused my fury to rest upon thee.

Mal. iii. 2. And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness.

(q) Hos. xiv. 8. Ephraim shall say, What have I to do any more with idols? I have heard him, and observed him: I am like a green fir-tree; from me is thy fruit found.

Mic. v. 13. Thy graven images also will I cut off, and thy standing images out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt no more worship the work of thine hands.

10 Yet (r) the defenced city shall be desolate, and the habitation forsaken, and left like a wilderness: there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down, and consume the branches thereof.

(r) Jer. xxvi. 6. Then will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.

18. Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Zion shall be ploughed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

Lam. i. 4. The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts; all her gates are desolate: her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

Mic. iii. 12. Therefore shall Zion for your sake be ploughed as a field; and Jerusalem shall become heaps; and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

11 When (s) the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off: the women come, and set them on fire: (t) for it is a people of no understanding; (u) therefore he that made them will not have mercy on them, and he that formed them will show them no favour.

(s) Ps. lxxx. 15. And the vineyard which thy right hand hath planted, and the branch that thou madest strong for thyself.

16. It is burned with fire; it is cut down: they perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.

Matt. iii. 10. And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

John xv. 6. If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

(t) Deut. iv. 6. Keep, therefore, and do them: for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.

Jer. iv. 22. For my people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

Rom. i. 28. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient.

(u) Ps. cvi. 40. Therefore was the wrath of the Lord kindled against his people, inasmuch that he abhorred his own inheritance.

Ez. ix. 10. And as for me also, mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; but I will recompense their way upon their head.

James ii. 13. For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath showed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

12 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall beat off from the channel of the river unto the stream of Egypt, and (x) ye shall be gathered one by one, O ye children of Israel.

(x) Deut. xxx. 3. That then the Lord thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee, and will return, and gather thee from all the nations whither the Lord thy God hath scattered thee.

4. And the Lord thy God will circumcise thine heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live.

Jer. iii. 14. Turn, O backsliding children, saith the Lord; for I am married unto you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that (y) the great trumpet shall be blown, and they shall come which were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and (z) the outcasts in the land of Egypt, and (a) shall worship the LORD in the holy mount at Jerusalem.

(y) Ps. xlvii. 5. God is gone up with a shout, the Lord with the sound of a trumpet.

Matt. xxiv. 31. And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

Rev. viii. 2. And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets.

(z) Jer. xliii. 7. So they came into the land of Egypt; for they obeyed not the voice of the Lord. Thus came they even to Tahpanhes.

xliv. 28. Yet a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah; and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, mine, or theirs.

(a) Is. xxv. 6. And in this mountain shall the Lord of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees; of fat things full of marrow of wines on the lees well refined.

7. And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering cast over all people, and the veil that is spread over all nations.

Zech. xiv. 16. And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem, shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the Lord of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.

John iv. 21. Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.

22. Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship; for salvation is of the Jews.

23. But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

WO to the crown of pride, to the (a) drunkards of Ephraim, (b) whose glorious beauty is a fading flower, which are on the head of the fat valleys of them that are overcome with wine!

(a) Prov. xxiii. 29. Who hath wo? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes?

30. They that tarry long at the wine, they that go to seek mixed wine.

Hos. iv. 11. Whoredom, and wine, and new wine, take away the heart.

Amos vi. 6. That drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments; but they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.

(b) Is. vii. 8. For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, that it be not a people.

9. And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established.

2 Behold, the LORD hath a mighty and strong one, which (c) as a tempest of hail and a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing, shall cast down to the earth with the hand.

(c) Is. xxix. 6. Thou shalt be visited of the Lord of hosts with thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with storm, and tempest, and the flame of devouring fire.

xxx. 30. And the Lord shall cause his glorious voice to be heard, and shall show the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, and hailstones.

Ez. xiii. 11. Say unto them which daub it with untempered mortar, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and ye, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it.

Nah. i. 8. But with an over-running flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.

Rev. xviii. 8. Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine: and she shall be utterly burnt with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

3 The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim, (d) shall be trodden under feet:

(d) 2 Kings ix. 33. And he said, Throw her down. So they threw her down; and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he trode her under foot.

Lam. i. 15. The Lord hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me; he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men: the Lord hath trodden the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a wine-press.

Dan. viii. 13. Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

Rev. xi. 2. But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months.

4 And the glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley, shall (e) be a fading flower, and as (f) the hasty summer fruit before the summer; which when he that looketh upon it seeth it, while it is yet in his hand he eateth it up.

(e) Hos. vi. 4. O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee: for your goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away.

ix. 10. I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the first ripe in the fig-tree at her first time: but they went to Baal-peor, and separated themselves unto that shame; and their abominations were according as they loved.

11. As for Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception.

James i. 10. But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11. For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

(f) Mic. vii. 1. Wo is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer-fruits, as the grape-gleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat; my soul desired the first ripe fruit.

Nah. iii. 12. All thy strong holds shall be like fig-trees with the first ripe figs: if they be shaken, they shall even fall into the mouth of the eater.

Rev. vi. 13. And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig-tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

5 In that day (g) shall the LORD of hosts be for a crown of glory, and (h) for a diadem of beauty, unto the residue of his people,

(g) Jer. ix. 23. Thus saith the Lord, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches:

24. But let him that glorieth, glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lord, which exercise loving-kindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the Lord.

Luke ii. 32. A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

1 Cor. i. 30. But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

31. That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

2 Cor. iv. 17. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory.

1 Pet. v. 4. And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

(h) Job xxix. 14. I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: my judgment was as a robe and a diadem.

6 And (i) for a spirit of judgment to him that sitteth in judgment, (k) and for strength to them that turn the battle to the gate.

(i) Gen. xli. 38. And Pharaoh said unto his servants, Can we find such a one as this is, a man in whom the Spirit of God is?

39. And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Forasmuch as God hath showed thee all this, there is none so discreet and wise as thou art.

Num. xi. 16. And the Lord said unto Moses, Gather unto me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom thou knowest to be the elders of the people, and officers over them; and bring them unto the tabernacle of the congregation, that they may stand there with thee.

17. And I will come down, and talk with thee there: and I will take of the spirit which is upon thee, and will put it upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with thee, that thou bear it not thyself alone.

John iii. 34. For he, whom God hath sent, speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him.

(k) Deut. xx. 4. For the Lord your God is he that goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.

Josh. i. 9. Have not I commanded thee? Be strong, and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed; for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

7 ¶ But they also have (l) erred through wine, and have through strong drink are out of the way; the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink: they (m) err in vision, they stumble in judgment.

(l) Lev. x. 9. Do not drink wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: it shall be for a statute for ever throughout your generations.

Prov. xx. 1. Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.

Ec. x. 17. Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness.

Ez. xlv. 21. Neither shall any priest drink wine when they enter into the inner court.

(m) Jer. xiv. 14. Then the Lord said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name; I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart.

Lam. ii. 14. Thy prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee; and they have not discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens, and causes of banishment.

Ez. xiii. 7. Have ye not seen a vain vision, and have ye not spoken a lying divination, whereas ye say, The Lord saith it, albeit I have not spoken?

Hos. iv. 12. My people ask counsel at their stocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for the spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

8 For (n) all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean.

(n) Prov. xxvi. 11. As a dog returneth to his vomit, so a fool returneth to his folly.

Jer. xlviii. 26. Make ye him drunken; for he magnified himself against the Lord: Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision.

Hab. ii. 15. Wo unto him that giveth his neighbour drink, that putteth thy bottle to him, and maketh him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness!

16. Thou art filled with shame for glory: drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered: the cup of the Lord's right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on thy glory.

9 Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand doctrine? them that are (o) weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts.

(o) Ps. cxxxi. 2. Surely I have behaved and quieted myself, as a child that is weaned of his mother: my soul is even as a weaned child.

Matt. xi. 25. At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.

Mark x. 15. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

1 Pet. ii. 2. As new born babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby.

10 For (p) precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little:

(p) Neh. ix. 29. And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man do, he shall live in them,) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.

30. Yet many years didst thou forbear them, and testifiedst against them by thy Spirit in thy prophets; yet would they not give ear: therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands.

Phil. iii. 1. Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 Tim. iii. 7. Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

Heb. v. 12. For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong drink.

11 For with stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people.

12 To whom he said, (q) This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest, and this is the refreshing: (r) yet they would not hear.

(q) 2 Chr. xiv. 11. And Asa cried unto the Lord his God, and said, Lord, it is nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power: help us, O Lord our God; for we rest on thee, and in thy name we go against this multitude.

Jer. vi. 16. Thus saith the Lord, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein.

Matt. xi. 28. Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

29. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

(r) Jer. xlv. 16. As for the word which thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the Lord, we will not hearken unto thee.

Heb. xii. 25. See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven.

13 But the word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; (s) that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.

(s) Ps. lxxix. 22. Let their table become a snare before them: and that which should have been for their welfare, let it become a trap.

Matt. xxi. 44. And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

Rom. xi. 9. And David said, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumbling-block, and a recompense unto them.

2 Cor. ii. 16. To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things?

14 Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, (t) ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem.

(t) Prov. i. 22. How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity, and the scornful delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge.

iii. 34. Surely he scorneth the scornful: but he giveth grace unto the lowly.

xxix. 8. Scornful men bring a city into a snare: but wise men turn away wrath.

Hos. vii. 5. In the day of our king the princes have made him sick with bottles of wine: he stretched out his hand with scornful.

Acts xiii. 41. Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

15 Because ye have said, (u) We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for (x) we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves.

(u) Job xv. 25. For he stretched out his hand against God, and strengthened himself against the Almighty.

26. He rumeth upon him, even on his neck, upon the thick bosses of his bucklers;

27. Because he covereth his face with his fatness, and maketh collops of fat on his flanks.

(x) Jer. v. 31. The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

xvi. 19. O Lord, my strength, and my fortress, and my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come unto thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanities, and things wherein there is no profit.

Jon. ii. 8. They that observe lying vanities forsake their own mercy.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD God, (y) Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation, a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner-stone, a sure foundation: (z) he that believeth shall not make haste.

(y) Ps. cxviii. 22. The stone which the builders refused is become the head-stone of the corner.

Zech. iii. 9. For, behold, the stone that I have laid before Joshua; upon one stone shall be seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith the Lord of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.

Luke xx. 17. And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

Rom. ix. 33. As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumbling-stone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

x. 11. For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord, shall be saved.

1 Cor. iii. 11. For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

(z) Hab. ii. 3. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

James v. 7. Be patient, therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain.

8. Be ye also patient; establish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

17 (a) Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: (b) and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, (c) and the waters shall overflow the hiding place.

(a) 2 Kings xxi. 13. And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down.

Rom. ii. 2. But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth, against them which commit such things.

Rev. xix. 2. For true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

(b) Ex. ix. 18. Behold, to-morrow about this time, I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail, such as hath not been in Egypt since the foundation thereof even until now.

19. Send therefore now, and gather thy cattle, and all that thou hast in the field; for upon every man and beast which shall be found in the field, and shall not be brought home, the hail shall come down upon them, and they shall die.

Jer. xxx. 23. Behold, the whirlwind of the Lord goeth forth with fury, a continuing whirlwind; it shall fall with pain upon the head of the wicked.

(c) Job xxii. 16. Which were cut down out of time, whose foundation was overflowed with a flood.

Dan. xi. 22. And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflowed from before him, and shall be broken; yea, also the prince of the covenant.

Matt. vii. 27. And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.

18 And (d) your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; (e) when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it.

(d) Jer. xlv. 28. Yet a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah; and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, mine, or theirs.

Ez. xvii. 15. But he rebelled against him, in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and much people. Shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such things? or shall he break the covenant, and be delivered?

(e) Jer. xlvii. 2. Thus saith the Lord, Behold, waters rise up out of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land, and all that is therein; the city, and them that dwell therein: then the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall howl.

Dan. xi. 40. And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

19 From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night: (f) and it shall be a vexation only to understand the report.

(f) 1 Sam. iii. 11. And the Lord said to Samuel, Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, at which both the cars of every one that heareth it shall tingle.

Jer. xix. 3. And say, Hear ye the word of the Lord, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem; Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, the which whosoever heareth, his ears shall tingle.

Dan. viii. 27. And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days: afterward I rose up, and did the king's business; and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it.

Hab. iii. 16. When I heard, my belly trembled; my lips quivered at the voice: rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up unto the people, he will invade them with his troops.

Luke xxi. 25. And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring;

26. Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.

20 For (g) the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it: and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it.

(g) Is. lxiv. 6. But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

Rom. ix. 30. What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith.

31. But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness.

32. Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law: for they stumbled at that stumbling-stone.

21 For the LORD shall rise up as in Mount Perazim, he shall be wrath as in the valley of Gibeon, that he may do his work, (h) his strange work; and bring to pass his act, his strange act.

(h) Lam. ii. 15. All that pass by clap their hands at thee; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?

Ez. xxxiii. 21. And it came to pass in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, The city is smitten.

22 Now therefore be ye not mockers, (i) lest your bands be made strong: for I have heard from the Lord God of hosts a consumption, even determined upon the whole earth.

(i) 2 Chr. xxxiii. 11. Wherefore the Lord brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the thorns, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

Ps. cvii. 16. For he hath broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder.

Jer. xxxix. 7. Moreover, he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with chains, to carry him to Babylon.

Lam. i. 14. The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand; they are wreathed, and come up upon my neck; he hath made my strength to fall; the Lord hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up.

23 ¶ Give (k) ye ear, and hear my voice; hearken, and hear my speech.

(k) Deut. xxxii. 1. Give ear, O ye heavens, and I will speak; and hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.

Jer. xxii. 29. O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the Lord.

Rev. ii. 7. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

29. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

24 Doth the ploughman plough all day to sow? doth he open and (l) break the clods of his ground?

(l) Jer. iv. 3. For thus saith the Lord to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, Break up your fallow ground, and sow not among thorns.

Hos. x. 11. And Ephraim is as an heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon her fair neck: I will make Ephraim to ride; Judah shall plough, and Jacob shall break his clods.

12. Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the Lord, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

25 When he hath made plain the face thereof, doth he not cast abroad the fitches, and scatter the cummin, and cast in the principal wheat, and the appointed barley, and the rye in their place?

26 For (m) his God doth instruct him to discretion, and doth teach him.

(m) Ex. xxviii. 3. And thou shalt speak unto all that are wise-hearted, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they may make Aaron's garments to consecrate him, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office.

xxxvi. 2. And Moses called Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise-hearted man, in whose heart the Lord had put wisdom, even every one whose heart stirred him up to come unto the work to do it.

Job xxxv. 11. Who teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven.

xxxix. 17. Because God hath deprived her of wisdom, neither hath he imparted to her understanding.

Ps. cxliv. 1. Blessed be the Lord my strength, which teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight.

Dan. i. 17. As for these four children, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams.

James i. 17. Every good gift, and every perfect gift, is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights; with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

27 For the fitches are not (n) thrashed with a thrashing instrument, neither is a cart-wheel turned about upon the cummin; but (o) the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod.

(n) 2 Kings xiii. 7. Neither did he leave of the people to Jehoahaz but fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria had destroyed them, and had made them like the dust by thrashing.

Amos i. 3. Thus saith the Lord, For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have thrashed Gilead with thrashing instruments of fire.

(o) Is. xxvii. 7. Hath he smitten him, as he smote those that smote him? or is he slain according to the slaughter of them that are slain by him?

8. In measure, when it shooteth forth, thou wilt debate with it: he stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind.

28 (p) Bread corn is bruised; because he will not ever be thrashing it, nor break it with the wheel of his cart, nor bruise it with his horsemen.

(p) Matt. iii. 12. Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

Luke xxii. 31. And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat:

32. But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.

1 Cor. ix. 9. For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

10. Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that plougheth should plough in hope; and that he that thrasheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.

29 This also (q) cometh forth from the LORD of hosts, which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working.

(q) Job v. 9. Which doeth great things and unsearchable; marvellous things without number.

xxxvii. 23. Touching the Almighty, we cannot find him out: he is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice: he will not afflict.

Ps. xcii. 5. O Lord, how great are thy works! and thy thoughts are very deep.

Dan. iv. 2. I thought it good to show the signs and wonders that the high God hath wrought toward me.

3. How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

CHAPTER XXIX.

WO to Ariel, to Ariel, the city where David dwelt: (a) add ye year to year; let them kill sacrifices.

(a) Jer. vii. 21. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; Put your burnt-offerings unto your sacrifices, and eat flesh.

Hos. v. 6. They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the Lord; but they shall not find him: he hath withdrawn himself from them.

Amos iv. 4. Come to Beth-el, and transgress; at Gilgal multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after three years;

5. And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim and publish the free-offerings; for this liketh you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord God.

2 Yet I will distress Ariel, and there shall be heaviness and sorrow: (b) and it shall be unto me as Ariel.

(b) Is. xxxiv. 6. The sword of the Lord is filled with blood: it is made fat with fatness, and with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams: for the Lord hath a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Idumea.

Ez. xxxix. 17. And thou, son of man, thus saith the Lord God, Speak unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come: gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood.

Zeph. i. 7. Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord God; for the day of the Lord is at hand: for the Lord hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath bid his guests.

8. And it shall come to pass in the day of the Lord's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, and the king's children, and all such as are clothed with strange apparel.

3 And I will (c) camp against thee round about, and will lay siege against thee with a mount, and I will raise forts against thee.

(c) 2 Kings xxiv. 11. And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came against the city, and his servants did besiege it.

12. And Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and his officers; and the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign.

Ez. xxi. 22. At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort.

Matt. xxii. 7. But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

4 And thou shalt be brought down, and shalt speak out of the ground, and thy speech shall be low out of the dust, and thy voice shall be, as of one that hath a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and thy speech shall whisper out of the dust.

5 Moreover, the multitude of thy strangers shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones shall be (d) as chaff that passeth away: yea, it shall be (e) at an instant suddenly.

(d) Job xxi. 18. They are as stubble before the wind, and as chaff that the storm carrieth away.

Ps. i. 4. The ungodly are not so; but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

xxxv. 5. Let them be as chaff before the wind: and let the angel of the Lord chase them.

(e) Ps. xli. 5. God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early.

1 Thess. v. 3. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

6 Thou shalt be (f) visited of the LORD of hosts with thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with storm and tempest, and the flame of devouring fire.

(f) 1 Sam. ii. 10. The adversaries of the Lord shall be broken to pieces; out of heaven shall he thunder upon them; the Lord shall judge the ends of the earth; and he shall give strength unto his king, and exalt the horn of his anointed.

xii. 17. Is it not wheat-harvest to-day? I will call upon the Lord, and he shall send thunder and rain; that ye may perceive that your wickedness is great, which ye have done in the sight of the Lord, in asking you a king.

18. So Samuel called unto the Lord; and the Lord sent thunder and rain that day: and all the people greatly feared the Lord and Samuel.

Matt. xxiv. 7. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.

Rev. xi. 19. And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament: and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunders, and an earthquake, and great hail.

7 And (g) the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all that fight against her and her munition, and that distress her, shall be (h) as a dream of a night vision.

(g) Jer. li. 42. The sea is come up upon Babylon: she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof.

43. Her cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby.

44. And I will punish Bel in Babylon; and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up; and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him; yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall.

Zech. xii. 3. And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

4. In that day, saith the Lord, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness; and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

Rev. xx. 8. And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle; the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9. And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God, out of heaven, and devoured them.

(h) Job xx. 8. He shall fly away as a dream, and shall not be found; yea, he shall be chased away as a vision of the night.

Psa. lxxiii. 20. As a dream when one awaketh; so, O Lord, when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.

8 It shall even be as when an hungry man dreameth, and, behold, he eateth; but he awaketh, and his soul is empty: or as when a thirsty man dreameth, and, behold, he drinketh; but he awaketh, and, behold, he is faint, and his soul hath appetite: so shall the multitude of all the nations be, that fight against Mount Zion.

9 ¶ Stay yourselves, and (i) wonder; cry ye out, and cry: (h) they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink.

(i) Jer. ii. 12. Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the Lord.

Hab. i. 5. Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously: for I will work a work in your days which ye will not believe, though it be told you.

Acts xiii. 40. Beware, therefore, lest that come upon you which is spoken of in the prophets;

41. Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

(k) Jer. xxiii. 9. Mine heart within me is broken because of the prophets; all my bones shake: I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of the Lord, and because of the words of his holiness.

Lam. iv. 21. Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of Uz: the cup also shall pass through unto thee; thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked.

10 For (l) the LORD hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and (m) hath closed your eyes: the prophets, and your rulers, (n) the seers hath he covered.

(l) Psa. lxxix. 23. Let their eyes be darkened that they see not, and make their loins continually to shake.

Mic. iii. 6. Therefore night shall be unto you, that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them.

(m) 2 Cor. iv. 4. In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

2 Thess. ii. 11. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie.

(n) Amos vii. 12. Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, go, flee thee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there:

13. But prophesy not again any more at Bethel: for it is the king's chapel, and it is the king's court.

11 And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, (o) I cannot; for it is sealed.

(o) Dan. xii. 4. But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

Matt. xi. 25. At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.

xiii. 11. He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

xvi. 17. And Jesus answered, and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon-barjona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.

Rev. v. 1. And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne, a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals.

5. And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

9. And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood, out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation.

12 And the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying,

Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, (p) I am not learned.

(p) Jer. v. 4. Therefore I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish; for they know not the way of the Lord, nor the judgment of their God.

Hos. iv. 6. My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

John vii. 15. And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knowest this man letters, having never learned?

16. Jesus answered them, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

13 Wherefore the LORD said, (q) Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and (r) their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men:

(q) Psa. xvii. 1. Hear the right, O Lord, attend unto my cry; give ear unto my prayer, that goeth not out of feigned lips.

Jer. iii. 10. And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah hath not turned unto me with her whole heart, but feignedly, saith the Lord.

v. 2. And though they say, The Lord liveth, surely they swear falsely.

(r) Matt. xv. 2. Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.

3. But he answered and said unto them, Why do you also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?

4. For God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

5. But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me;

6. And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

14 Therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder: (s) for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid.

(s) Job v. 13. He taketh the wise in their own craftiness; and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong.

Jer. viii. 7. Yea, the stork in the heavens knoweth her appointed times; and the turtle, and the crane, and the swallow, observe the time of their coming; but my people know not the judgment of the Lord.

8. How do ye say, We are wise, and the law of the Lord is with us? Lo, certainly in vain made he it: the pen of the scribes is in vain.

9. The wise men are ashamed, they are dismayed and taken: lo, they have rejected the word of the Lord; and what wisdom is in them?

xlix. 7. Concerning Edom, thus saith the Lord of hosts, Is wisdom no more in Teman? is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished?

Ob. 8. Shall I not in that day, saith the Lord, even destroy the wise men out of Teman, and understanding out of the mount of Esau?

Acts xxviii. 26. Saying, Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive:

27. For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

1 Cor. iii. 19. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God: for it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

15 Wo unto them that (t) seek deep to hide their counsel from the LORD, (u) and their works are in the dark, and they say, (x) Who seeth us? and who knoweth us?

(t) Job xxii. 13. And thou sayest, How doth God know? can he judge through the dark cloud?

14. Thick clouds are a covering to him, that he seeth not; and he walketh in the circuit of heaven.

Ps. lxxv. 5. They encourage themselves in an evil matter: they commune of laying snares privily; they say, Who shall see them?

6. They search out iniquities; they accomplish a diligent search: both the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart, is deep.

(u) John iii. 19. And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

1 Cor. iv. 5. Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the heart: and then shall every man have praise of God.

(x) Mal. ii. 17. Ye have wearied the Lord with your words: yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the Lord, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?

16 Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed (y) as the potter's clay: for shall the work say of him that made it, He made me not? (z) or shall the thing framed say of him that framed it, He had no understanding?

(y) Is. xlv. 9. Wo unto him that striveth with his maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherd of the earth. Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands?

Rom. ix. 19. Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? for who hath resisted his will?

20. Nay, but, O man, who art thou that resistest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21. Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

(z) Ps. xciv. 8. Understand, ye brutish among the people; and, ye fools, when will ye be wise?

9. He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? he that formed the eye, shall he not see?

17 ¶ Is it not yet a very little while, and (a) Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and (b) the fruitful field shall be esteemed as a forest?

(a) Hos. i. 9. Then said God, Call his name Loammi: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.

10. Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered: and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God.

Matt. xxi. 43. Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

(b) Mic. iii. 12. Therefore shall Zion for your sake be ploughed as a field; and Jerusalem shall become heaps; and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

Matt. xxi. 18. Now in the morning, as he returned into the city, he hungered.

19. And when he saw a fig-tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only; and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig-tree withered away.

18 And in that day shall the (c) deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity, and out of darkness.

(c) Deut. xxix. 4. Yet the Lord hath not given you a heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, unto this day.

Ps. cxix. 18. Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law.

Prov. xx. 12. The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, the Lord hath made even both of them.

Matt. xi. 5. The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them.

Luke iv. 18. The spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised.

19 The (d) meek also shall increase their joy in the LORD, (e) and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

(d) Ps. xxv. 9. The meek will he guide in judgment, and the meek will he teach his way.

Zeph. ii. 3. Seek ye the Lord, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the Lord's anger.

Matt. v. 5. Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

(e) Ps. ix. 18. For the needy shall not always be forgotten: the expectation of the poor shall not perish for ever.

xii. 5. For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith the Lord; I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him.

Matt. v. 3. Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

James ii. 5. Hearken, my beloved brethren. Hath not God chosen the poor of this world, rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?

20 For (f) the terrible one is brought to nought, and the scorner is consumed, and all that watch for iniquity are cut off:

(f) Dan. vii. 7. After this I saw in the night visions, and, behold, a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns.

Hab. i. 6. For, lo, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land, to possess the dwelling-places that are not theirs.

7. They are terrible and dreadful: their judgment and their dignity shall proceed of themselves.

21 That (g) make a man an offender for a word, and (h) lay a snare for him that reproveth in the gate, and turn aside the just for a thing of nought.

(g) Judg. xii. 6. Then said they unto him, Say now, Shibboleth; and he said, Sibboleth: for he could not frame to pronounce it right. Then they took him, and slew him at the passages of Jordan; and there fell at that time of the Ephraimites forty and two thousand.

Matt. xxii. 15. Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk.

(h) Jer. xviii. 18. Then said they, Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet: come, and let us smite him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words.

Amos v. 10. They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they abhor him that speaketh uprightly.

22 Therefore thus saith the LORD, (i) who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob; (k) Jacob shall not now be ashamed, neither shall his face now wax pale.

(i) Gen. xlviii. 16. The angel which redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth.

Neh. ix. 7. Thou art the Lord the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of Abraham:

8. And foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him, to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give it, I say, to his seed, and hast performed thy words; for thou art righteous.

(k) Joel ii. 27. And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the Lord your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.

23 But when he seeth his children, (l) the work of mine hands, in the midst of him, they shall (m) sanctify my name, and sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and shall fear the God of Israel.

(l) Is. xix. 25. Whom the Lord of hosts shall bless, saying, Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel mine inheritance.

Is. 21. Thy people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land for ever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.

Eph. ii. 10. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

(m) Lev. x. 3. Then Moses said unto Aaron, This is it that the Lord spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be glorified. And Aaron held his peace.

24 They (n) also that erred in spirit shall come to understanding, and they that murmured shall learn doctrine.

(n) Acts ii. 37. Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter, and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?

vi. 7. And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

ix. 19. And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20. And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God.

CHAPTER XXX.

WO to the rebellious children, saith the LORD, (a) that take counsel, but not of me; and that (b) cover with a covering, but not of my spirit, that they may add (c) sin to sin:

(a) Hos. iv. 10. For they shall eat, and not have enough; they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase: because they have left off to take heed to the Lord.

11. Whoredom, and wine, and new wine, take away the heart.

12. My people ask counsel at their stocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for the spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

(b) Ps. lxi. 4. I will abide in thy tabernacle for ever; I will trust in the covert of thy wings. Selah.

Is. xxxii. 2. And a man shall be as a hiding place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place; as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

(c) Hos. xiii. 2. And now they sin more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let the men that sacrifice kiss the calves.

2 Tim. iii. 13. But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

2 That (d) walk to go down into Egypt, and (e) have not asked at my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt!

(d) Deut. xxviii. 68. And the Lord shall bring thee into Egypt again with ships, by the way whereof I spake unto thee, Thou shalt see it no more again: and there ye shall be sold unto your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and no man shall buy you.

Jer. xliii. 7. So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the Lord. Thus came they even to Tahpanhes.

(e) Josh. ix. 14. And the men took of their victuals, and asked not counsel at the mouth of the Lord.

Jer. xlii. 2. And said unto Jeremiah the prophet, Let, we beseech thee, our supplication be accepted before thee, and pray for us unto the Lord our God, even for all this remnant; (for we are left but a few of many, as thine eyes do behold us.)

20. For ye dissembled in your hearts, when ye sent me unto the Lord your God, saying, Pray for us unto the Lord our God; and according unto all that the Lord our God shall say, so declare unto us, and we will do it.

21. And now I have this day declared it to you; but ye have not obeyed the voice of the Lord your God, nor any thing for the which he hath sent me unto you.

3 Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt (f) your confusion.

(f) Jer. xvii. 5. Thus saith the Lord, Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the Lord:

6. For he shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, in a salt land and not inhabited.

Rom. v. 5. And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost, which is given unto us.

4 For his princes were at Zoan, and his ambassadors came to Hanes.

5 They were all ashamed of a people that could not profit them, nor be an help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach.

6 The burden of the beasts of the south: (g) into the land of trouble and anguish, from whence come the young and old lion, (h) the viper and fiery flying serpent, they will carry their riches upon the shoulders of young asses, and their treasures upon the bunches of camels, to a people that shall not profit them.

(g) Ex. i. 14. And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, in mortar, and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field: all their service, wherein they made them serve, was with rigour.

Deut. iv. 20. But the Lord hath taken you, and brought you forth out of the iron furnace, even out of Egypt, to be unto him a people of inheritance, as ye are this day.

Jer. xi. 4. Which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so shall ye be my people, and I will be your God.

(h) Num. xxi. 6. And the Lord sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and much people of Israel died.

7. Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, We have sinned, for we have spoken against the Lord, and against thee; pray unto the Lord, that he may take away the serpents from us. And Moses prayed for the people.

Deut. viii. 15. Who led thee through that great and terrible wilderness, wherein were fiery serpents, and scorpions, and drought; where there was no water; who brought thee forth water out of the rock of flint.

7 For the Egyptians shall help in vain, and to no purpose: therefore have I cried concerning this, (i) Their strength is to sit still.

(i) Ex. xiv. 13. And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the Lord, which he will show to you to-day: for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to-day, ye shall see them again no more for ever.

Ps. lxxvi. 8. Thou didst cause judgment to be heard from heaven; the earth feared, and was still.

Lam. iii. 26. It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the Lord.

8 ¶ Now go, (k) write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever:

(k) Deut. xxxi. 19. Now therefore write ye this song for you, and teach it the children of Israel: put it in their mouths, that this song may be witness for me against the children of Israel.

Job xix. 23. Oh that my words were now written! oh that they were printed in a book!

24. That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock for ever!

Hab. ii. 2. And the Lord answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.

9 That this is a rebellious people, (l) lying children, children that (m) will not hear the law of the LORD:

(l) Deut. xxxii. 20. And he said, I will hide my face from them, I will see what their end shall be: for they are a very froward generation, children in whom is no faith.

Is. i. 4. Ah, sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evil-doers, children that are corrupters! they have forsaken the Lord, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.

(m) Prov. xxviii. 9. He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination.

Jer. vii. 13. And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the Lord, and I spake unto you, rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I called you, but ye answered not.

10 Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophecy not unto us right things, (n) speak unto us smooth things, prophecy deceits:

(n) Jer. vi. 13. For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them, every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest, every one dealeth falsely.

14. They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

Mic. ii. 11. If a man, walking in the spirit and falsehood, do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of wine, and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people.

John vii. 7. The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

Gal. iv. 16. Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

11 Get you out of the way, turn aside out of the path, (o) cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us.

(o) John xv. 23. He that hateth me hateth my Father also.

24. If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin; but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.

Rom. i. 28. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient.

viii. 7. Because the carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

12 Wherefore thus saith the Holy One of Israel, (p) Because ye despise this word, (q) and trust in oppression and perverseness, and stay thereon:

(p) 2 Sam. xii. 9. Wherefore hast thou despised the commandment of the Lord, to do evil in his sight? Thou hast killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword; and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon.

Amos ii. 4. Thus saith the Lord, For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have despised the law of the Lord, and have not kept his commandments, and their lies caused them to err, after the which their fathers have walked.

(q) Ps. lii. 7. Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.

Ixii. 10. Trust not in oppression, become not vain in robbery: if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

Jer. xiii. 25. This is thy lot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the Lord; because thou hast forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood.

13 Therefore this iniquity shall be to you (r) as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking (s) cometh suddenly at an instant.

(r) Ps. lxxiii. 3. How long will ye imagine mischief against a man? ye shall be slain all of you: as a bowing wall shall ye be, and as a tottering fence.

Matt. vii. 27. And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.

Luke vi. 49. But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that, without a foundation, built an house upon the earth, against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great.

(s) Job xxxvi. 18. Because there is wrath, beware lest he take thee away with his stroke: then a great ransom cannot deliver thee.

Ps. lxxiii. 19. How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors.

Prov. xxix. 1. He that, being often reproved, hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

14 And (t) he shall break it, as the breaking of the potters' vessel that is broken in pieces; (u) he shall not spare: (x) so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit.

(t) Ps. ii. 9. Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

Jer. xix. 10. Then shalt thou break the bottle in the sight of the men that go with thee,

11. And shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Even so will I break this people, and this city, as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot be made whole again; and they shall bury them in Tophet, till there be no place else to bury.

Rev. ii. 27. (And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers:) even as I received of my Father.

(u) Deut. xxix. 20. The Lord will not spare him, but then the anger of the Lord and his jealousy shall smoke against that man, and all the curses that are written in this book shall lie upon him, and the Lord shall blot out his name from under heaven.

Job. xxvii. 22. For God shall cast upon him, and not spare: he would fain flee out of his hand.

Ez. v. 11. Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, Surely, because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee; neither shall mine eye spare, neither will I have any pity.

(x) Ps. xxxi. 12. I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like a broken vessel.

Jer. xlviii. 38. There shall be lamentation generally upon all the house-tops of Moab, and in the streets thereof: for I have broken Moab like a vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the Lord.

Lam. iv. 2. The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!

15 For thus saith the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel; In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength: and ye would not.

16 But ye said, No: (y) for we will flee upon horses; therefore shall ye flee: and, We will ride upon the swift; (z) therefore shall they that pursue you be swift.

(y) Deut. xxviii. 25. The Lord shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them; and shalt be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

Jer. iii. 7. And I said, after she had done all these things, Turn thou unto me: but she returned not. And her treacherous sister Judah saw it.

Mic. i. 13. O thou inhabitant of Lachish, bind the chariot to the swift beast: she is the beginning of the sin to the daughter of Zion; for the transgressions of Israel were found in thee.

(z) Jer. iv. 13. Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as a whirlwind: his horses are swifter than eagles. Wo unto us, for we are spoiled!

Lam. iv. 19. Our persecutors are swifter than the eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.

Hab. i. 8. Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly as the eagle that hasteth to cat.

17 One (a) thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee: (b) till ye be left as a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on an hill.

(a) Lev. xxvi. 8. And five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight: and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.

Josh. xxiii. 10. One man of you shall chase a thousand: for the Lord your God, he it is that fighteth for you, as he hath promised you.

Prov. xxviii. 1. The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

(b) Is. xxxvii. 3. And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of blasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.

4. It may be the Lord thy God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which the Lord thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that is left.

18 ¶ And therefore will the LORD (c) wait, that he may be gracious unto you, and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you: for the LORD is a God of judgment: blessed are all they that wait for him.

(c) Jer. xxxi. 18. I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus; Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the Lord my God.

19. Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth.

20. Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still; therefore my bowels are troubled for him: I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the Lord.

Hos. v. 15. I will go and return to my place till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face; in their affliction they will seek me early.

vi. 1. Come, and let us return unto the Lord: for he hath torn, and he will heal us: he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

2. After two days will he revive us; in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.

Rom. ix. 22. What if God, willing to show his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much long-suffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction.

19 For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem: thou shalt weep no more: (d) he will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry; when he shall hear it, he will answer thee.

(d) Ps. l. 15. And call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

Jer. xxxiii. 3. Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and show thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not.

1 John v. 14. And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:

15. And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

20 And though the LORD give you (e) the bread of adversity, and the water of affliction, (f) yet shall not thy teachers be removed into a corner any more, but thine eyes shall see thy teachers:

(e) Deut. xvi. 3. Thou shalt eat no leavened bread with it; seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread therewith, even the bread of affliction; (for thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt in haste;) that thou mayest remember the day when thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt all the days of thy life.

Ps. lxxx. 5. Thou feedest them with the bread of tears; and givest them tears to drink in great measure.

Ez. xxiv. 22. And ye shall do as I have done: ye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men.

23. And your tires shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet: ye shall not mourn nor weep; but ye shall pine away for your iniquities, and mourn one toward another.

(f) Amos viii. 11. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land; not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the Lord:

12. And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east; they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the Lord, and shall not find it.

Eph. iv. 11. And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers.

21 And (g) thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, (h) when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.

(g) Ps. xxv. 8. Good and upright is the Lord: therefore will he teach sinners in the way.

9. The meek will he guide in judgment, and the meek will he teach his way.

Prov. iii. 5. Trust in the Lord with all thy heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

6. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

(h) Deut. v. 32. Ye shall observe to do therefore as the Lord your God hath commanded you: you shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

Josh. i. 7. Only be thou strong and very courageous, that thou mayest observe to do according to all the law which Moses my servant commanded thee: turn not from it to the right hand or to the left, that thou mayest prosper whithersoever thou goest.

22 Ye shall defile also the covering of thy graven images of silver, and the ornament of thy molten images of gold: thou shalt cast them away as a menstruous cloth; thou shalt say unto it, Get thee hence.

23 Then (i) shall he give the rain of thy seed, that thou shalt sow the ground withal; and bread of the increase of the earth, and it shall be fat and plenteous: in that day shall (k) thy cattle feed in large pastures.

(i) Jer. xiv. 22. Are there any among the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain? or can the heavens give showers? Art not thou he, O Lord our God: therefore we will wait upon thee; for thou hast made all these things.

Amos iv. 7. And also I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city; one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not, withered.

Zech. viii. 12. For the seed shall be prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.

Mal. iii. 10. Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in my house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open to you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

(k) Ps. xxxvii. 8. They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.

24 The (l) oxen likewise, and the young asses that (m) ear the ground, shall eat clean provender, which hath been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan.

(l) Deut. xxv. 4. Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn.

1 Cor. ix. 9. For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

(m) Gen. xlv. 6. For these two years hath the famine been in the land; and yet there are five years, in the which there shall neither be earing nor harvest.

Ez. xxxiv. 21. Six days thou shalt work; but on the seventh day thou shalt rest: in earing-time and in harvest thou shalt rest.

Deut. xxi. 4. And the elders of the city shall bring down the heifer unto a rough valley, which is neither eared nor sown, and shall strike off the heifer's neck there in the valley.

25 And there shall be (n) upon every high mountain, and upon every high hill, rivers and streams of waters, in the day of the great slaughter, (o) when the towers fall.

(n) Ez. xvii. 22. Thus saith the Lord God, I will also take of the highest branch of the high cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the crop of his young twigs a tender one, and will plant it upon a high mountain, and eminent.

John vii. 38. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

Rev. xxii. 1. And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

(o) Nah. iii. 12. All thy strong holds shall be like fig-trees with the first ripe figs: if they be shaken, they shall even fall into the mouth of the eater.

2 Cor. x. 4. For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds.

26 Moreover, (p) the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun; and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD (q) bindeth up the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound.

(p) Zech. xii. 7. But it shall be one day which shall be known to the Lord, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at evening-time it shall be light.

Rev. xxi. 23. And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

xxii. 5. And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.

(q) Deut. xxxii. 39. See now that I, even I, am he, and there is no God with me: I kill, and I make alive: I wound and I heal: neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand.

Job v. 18. For he maketh sore, and bindeth up; he woundeth, and his hands make whole.

Hos. vi. 1. Come, and let us return unto the Lord: for he hath torn, and he will heal us: he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

27 ¶ Behold, the name of the LORD cometh from far, (r) burning with his anger, and the burden thereof is heavy: his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a devouring fire:

(r) Deut. xxxii. 22. For a fire is kindled in mine anger, and shall burn unto the lowest hell, and shall consume the earth with her increase, and set on fire the foundations of the mountains.

Dan. vii. 9. I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire.

2 Thess. ii. 8. And then shall that wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming.

Heb. xii. 29. For our God is a consuming fire.

28 And his breath, as an overflowing stream, shall reach to the midst of the neck, (s) to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity: and there shall be (t) a bridle in the jaws of the people, (u) causing them to err.

(s) Amos ix. 9. For, lo, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth.

Matt. iii. 12. Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

(t) 2 Kings xix. 28. Because thy rage against me and thy tumult is come up into mine ears, therefore I will put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

Ps. xxxii. 9. Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding; whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.

(u) 2 Thess. ii. 11. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie.

29 Ye shall have a song, as (x) in the night when a holy solemnity is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come into the mountain of the LORD, to the mighty One of Israel.

(x) Lev. xxiii. 32. It shall be unto you a sabbath of rest, and ye shall afflict your souls: in the ninth day of the month at even, from even unto even, shall ye celebrate your sabbath.

Deut. xvi. 6. But at the place which the Lord thy God shall choose to place his name in, there thou shalt sacrifice the passover at even, at the going down of the sun, at the season that thou camest forth out of Egypt.

Matt. xxvi. 30. And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

30 And the LORD shall cause his glorious voice to be heard, and shall show (y) the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, and hailstones.

(y) Ex. xv. 16. Fear and dread shall fall upon them: by the greatness of thine arm they shall be as still as a stone; till thy people pass over, O Lord, till the people pass over which thou hast purchased.

Ps. xcvi. 1. O sing unto the Lord a new song; for he hath done marvellous things; his right hand and his holy arm hath gotten him the victory.

Luke i. 51. He hath showed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

31 For through the voice of the LORD shall the Assyrian be beaten down, which smote with a rod.

32 And in every place where the grounded staff shall pass, which the LORD shall lay upon him, it shall be with tabrets and harps; and in battles of shaking will he fight with it.

33 For (z) Tophet is (a) ordained of old; yea, for the king it is prepared: he hath made it deep and large: the pile thereof is fire and much wood: (b) the breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it.

(z) 2 Kings xxiii. 10. And he defiled Tophet, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Moloch.

(a) Matt. xxv. 41. Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels.

Jude 4. For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation; ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

(b) Gen. xix. 24. Then the Lord rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah, brimstone and fire from the Lord out of heaven.

Rev. xiv. 10. The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb.

CHAPTER XXXI.

WO (a) to them that go down to Egypt for help; and (b) stay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but (c) they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, neither seek the LORD!

(a) Ex. xvii. 15. But he rebelled against him, in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and much people. Shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such things? or shall he break the covenant, and be delivered?

Hos. xi. 5. He shall not return into the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian shall be his king, because they refused to return.

(b) Deut. xvii. 16. But he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he should multiply horses: forasmuch as the Lord hath said unto you, Ye shall henceforth return no more that way.

Ps. xx. 7. Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of the Lord our God.

(c) Jer. ii. 13. For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

xvii. 5. Thus saith the Lord, Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the Lord.

2 Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and (d) will not call back his words; but will (e) arise against the house of the evil-doers, and against the help of them that work iniquity.

(d) Num. xxiii. 19. God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good?

Jer. xxxvi. 32. Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein, from the mouth of Jeremiah, all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burnt in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many like words.

Matt. xxiv. 35. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

(e) Num. x. 35. And it came to pass, when the ark set forward, that Moses said, Rise up, Lord, and let thine enemies be scattered, and let them that hate thee flee before thee.

Ps. xii. 5. For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith the Lord; I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him.

3 Now (f) the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When the LORD shall stretch out his hand, (g) both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fail together.

(f) Ps. ix. 20. Put them in fear, O Lord; that the nations may know themselves to be but men. Selah.

Acts xii. 22. And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

23. And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

(g) Jer. xxxvii. 7. Thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel, Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, that sent you unto me to inquire of me; Behold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land.

4 For thus hath the LORD spoken unto me, (h) like as a lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor abase himself for the noise of them: so shall the LORD of hosts come down to fight for Mount Zion, and for the hill thereof.

(h) Num. xxiv. 8. God brought him forth out of Egypt; he hath as it were the strength of an unicorn: he shall eat up the nations his enemies, and shall break their bones, and pierce them through with his arrows.

9. He couched, he lay down as a lion, and as a great lion: who shall stir him up? Blessed is he that blest thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee.

Hos. xi. 10. They shall walk after the Lord; he shall roar like a lion: when he shall roar, then the children shall tremble from the west.

Amos iii. 8. The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord God hath spoken, who can but prophesy?

5 As (i) birds flying, so will the LORD of hosts defend Jerusalem; (k) defending also he will deliver it; and (l) passing over he will preserve it.

(i) Ex. xix. 4. Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I bare you on eagles' wings, and brought you unto myself.

Deut. xxxii. 11. As an eagle stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young, spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings;

12. So the Lord alone did lead him, and there was no strange god with him.

(k) Ps. xxxvii. 40. And the Lord shall help them, and deliver them; he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, because they trust in him.

(l) Ex. xii. 27. That ye shall say, It is the sacrifice of the Lord's passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. And the people bowed the head, and worshipped.

6 ¶ Turn ye unto him from whom the children of Israel have deeply revolted.

7 For (m) in that day every man shall cast away his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which your own hands have made unto you for a sin.

(m) Deut. vii. 25. The graven images of their gods shall ye burn with fire; thou shalt not desire the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it unto thee, lest thou be snared therein: for it is an abomination to the Lord thy God.

Ez. xxxvi. 25. Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.

Hos. xiv. 8. Ephraim shall say, What have I to do any more with idols? I have heard him, and observed him: I am like a green fir-tree. From me is thy fruit found.

8 Then shall the Assyrian fall with the sword, not of a mighty man; and the sword, not of a mean man, shall devour him: but he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall be discomfited.

9 And he shall pass over to his strong hold for fear, and his princes shall be afraid of the ensign, saith the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Jerusalem.

CHAPTER XXXII.

BEHOLD, (a) a King shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment.

(a) Ps. xlv. 6. Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre.

7. Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

Zech. ix. 9. Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee; he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

Rev. xix. 11. And I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True; and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

2 And (b) a man shall be as (c) an hiding-place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as (d) rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

(b) Mic. v. 5. And this man shall be the peace, when the Assyrian shall come into our land; and, when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight principal men.

Zech. xiii. 7. Awake, O sword, against my Shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the Lord of hosts: smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered; and I will turn my hand upon the little ones.

(c) Ps. xxxii. 7. Thou art my hiding-place; thou shalt preserve me from trouble; thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Selah.

cxliii. 9. Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies: I fly unto thee to hide me.

(d) Is. xli. 18. I will open rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys: I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.

xlvi. 20. The beasts of the field shall honour me, the dragons and the owls: because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen.

3 And (e) the eyes of them that see shall not be dim; and the ears of them that hear shall hearken.

(e) Matt. xiii. 11. He answered and said unto them: Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

Mark vii. 37. And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

2 Cor. iv. 6. For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

4 The (f) heart also of the rash shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak plainly.

(f) Matt. xi. 25. At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.

Acts vi. 7. And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

Gal. i. 23. But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past, now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.

5 The vile person shall be no more called liberal, nor the churl said to be bountiful.

6 For (g) the vile person will speak villany, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise hypocrisy, and to utter error against the LORD, to make (h) empty the soul of the hungry; and he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.

(g) 1 Sam. xxiv. 13. As saith the proverb of the ancients, Wickedness proceedeth from the wicked: but my hand shall not be upon thee.

Matt. xv. 19. For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies.

James iii. 5. Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold how great a matter a little fire kindleth!

(h) Amos ii. 6. Thus saith the Lord, For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes.

viii. 6. That we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat.

7 The instruments also of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even when the needy speaketh right.

8 But (i) the liberal deviseth liberal things; and by liberal things shall he stand.

(i) Ps. cxii. 9. He hath dispersed: he hath given to the poor; his righteousness endureth for ever: his horn shall be exalted with honour.

Prov. xi. 24. There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty.

Acts ix. 39. Then Peter arose, and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas had made while she was with them.

xi. 29. Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea:

30. Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

9 ¶ Rise up, ye women that are at ease; hear my voice, ye careless daughters; give ear unto my speech.

10 Many (k) days and years shall ye be troubled, ye careless women: (l) for the vintage shall fail, the gathering shall not come.

(k) Jer. xxv. 10. Moreover, I will take from them the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the candle.

11. And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

Hos. iii. 4. For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim.

(l) Jer. viii. 13. I will surely consume them, saith the Lord: there shall be no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig-tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them.

Hos. ii. 12. And I will destroy her vines, and her fig-trees, whereof she hath said, These are my rewards, that my lovers have given me: and I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.

11 Tremble, ye women that are at ease; be troubled, ye careless ones; (m) strip you, and make you bare, and gird sackcloth upon your loins.

(m) Deut. xxviii. 48. Therefore shalt thou serve thine enemies, which the Lord shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in wickedness, and in want of all things; and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee.

Hos. ii. 3. Lest I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst.

12 They shall lament for the teats, for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine.

13 Upon the land of my people shall come up thorns and briars; yea, upon all the houses of joy in the joyous city:

14 Because the palaces shall be forsaken; the multitude of the city shall be left; the forts and towers shall be for dens for ever, a joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks;

15 Until (n) the spirit be poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest.

(n) Prov. i. 23. Turn you at my reproof; behold, I will pour out my spirit unto you, I will make known my words unto you.

Ez. xxxix. 29. Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have poured out my spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord God.

Joel ii. 28. And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions.

29. And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.

Acts ii. 33. Therefore, being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

16 Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field.

17 And (o) the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness, (p) quietness and assurance for ever.

(o) Ps. lxxii. 2. He shall judge the people with righteousness, and the poor with judgment.

3. The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness.

Rom. xiv. 17. For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

(p) Prov. xiv. 26. In the fear of the Lord is strong confidence; and his children shall have a place of refuge.

Mic. iv. 4. But they shall sit every man under his vine, and under his fig-tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the Lord of hosts hath spoken it.

Heb. vi. 11. And we desire that every one of you, do show the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end.

18 And (q) my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting-places;

(q) Jer. xxxiii. 16. In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely: and this is the name wherewith she shall be called, The Lord our righteousness.

Ez. xxxiv. 26. And I will make them, and the places round about my hill, a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season: there shall be showers of blessing.

1 John iv. 15. And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

19 When (r) it shall hail, (s) coming down on the forest; and the (t) city shall be low in a low place.

(r) Matt. vii. 25. And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.

Rev. viii. 7. The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

(s) Zech. xi. 2. Howl, fir-tree; for the cedar is fallen; because all the mighty are spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bashan; for the forest of the vintage is come down.

(t) Rev. xviii. 21. And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

20 Blessed are ye that sow beside all waters, that send forth thither the feet of the ox and the ass.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

WO to thee that spoilest, and thou wast not spoiled; and dealest treacherously, and they dealt not treacherously with thee: (a)

when thou shalt cease to spoil, thou shalt be spoiled; and when thou shalt make an end to deal treacherously, they shall deal treacherously with thee.

(a) Matt. vii. 2. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

Rev. xiii. 10. He that leadeth into captivity, shall go into captivity; he that killeth with the sword, must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

xvi. 6. For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink: for they are worthy.

2 O LORD, (b) be gracious unto us; we have waited for thee: (c) be thou their arm every morning, (d) our salvation also in the time of trouble.

(b) Ps. lxii. 1. Truly my soul waiteth upon God: from him cometh my salvation.

5. My soul, wait thou only upon God: for my expectation is from him.

cxlii. 2. Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, until that he have mercy upon us.

Lam. iii. 25. The Lord is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.

26. It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the Lord.

(c) Ex. xiv. 27. And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to his strength when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it; and the Lord overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

Ps. cxliii. 8. Cause me to hear thy loving-kindness in the morning; for in thee do I trust: cause me to know the way wherein I should walk; for I lift up my soul unto thee.

Lam. iii. 23. They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness.

(d) Ps. xxxvii. 39. But the salvation of the righteous is of the Lord; he is their strength in the time of trouble.

xlvi. 1. God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

xc. 15. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.

Jer. xiv. 8. O the Hope of Israel, the Saviour thereof in time of trouble, why shouldst thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man, that turneth aside to tarry for a night?

2 Cor. i. 3. Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

4. Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

3 At the noise of the tumult the people fled; at the lifting up of thyself the nations were scattered.

4 And your spoil shall be gathered like the gathering of the caterpillar: as (e) the running to and fro of locusts shall he run upon them.

(e) Joel ii. 9. They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall; they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief.

25. And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the canker-worm, and the caterpillar, and the palmer-worm, my great army, which I sent among you.

5 (f) The LORD is exalted; for (g) he dwelleth on high: (h) he hath filled Zion with judgment and righteousness.

(f) Ex. ix. 16. And in very deed for this cause have I raised thee up, for to show in thee my power; and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth.

17. As yet exaltest thou thyself against my people, that thou wilt not let them go?

xv. 1. Then sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the Lord, and spake, saying, I will sing unto the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

6. Thy right hand, O Lord, is become glorious in power: thy right hand, O Lord, hath dashed in pieces the enemy.

xviii. 11. Now I know that the Lord is greater than all gods: for in the thing wherein they dealt proudly, he was above them.

Ps. xlvi. 9. He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder: he burneth the chariot in the fire.

10. Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

xcvii. 9. For thou, Lord, art high above all the earth; thou art exalted far above all gods.

cxv. 1. Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.

cxviii. 16. The right hand of the Lord is exalted; the right hand of the Lord doeth valiantly.

(g) Ps. cxliii. 5. Who is like unto the Lord our God, who dwelleth on high;

6. Who humbleth himself to behold the things that are in heaven, and in the earth!

cxliii. 1. Unto thee lift I up mine eyes, O thou that dwellest in the heavens.

Eph. i. 20. Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

21. Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion; and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come.

(h) 2 Chr. xxxi. 20. And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah, and wrought that which was good, and right, and truth, before the Lord his God.

21. And in every work that he begun in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

Rom. xi. 26. And so all Israel shall be saved; as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob.

6 And (i) wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times, and strength of salvation: (k) the fear of the LORD is his treasure.

(i) Ps. xlv. 4. And in thy majesty ride prosperously, because of truth, and meekness, and righteousness; and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

Prov. xxiv. 3. Through wisdom is an house builded, and by understanding it is established;

4. And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

5. A wise man is strong; yea, a man of knowledge increaseth strength.

6. For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war; and in multitude of counsellors there is safety.

7. Wisdom is too high for a fool; he openeth not his mouth in the gate.

xxviii. 2. For the transgression of a land, many are the princes thereof: but by a man of understanding and knowledge, the state thereof shall be prolonged.

Ec. vii. 12. For wisdom is a defence, and money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

(k) Ps. cxlii. 1. Praise ye the Lord. Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord, that delighteth greatly in his commandments.

2. His seed shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the upright shall be blessed.

3. Wealth and riches shall be in his house; and his righteousness endureth for ever.

Prov. xv. 16. Better is little with the fear of the Lord, than great treasure, and trouble therewith.

xix. 23. The fear of the Lord tendeth to life, and he that hath it shall abide satisfied; he shall not be visited with evil.

2 Cor. vi. 10. As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

7 Behold, their valiant ones shall cry without: the ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly.

8 The (l) highways lie waste, the way-faring man ceaseth: he hath broken the covenant, he hath despised the cities, (m) he regardeth no man.

(l) Judg. v. 6. In the days of Shamgar, the son of Anath, in the days of Joel, the highways were unoccupied, and the travellers walked through by-ways.

Lam. i. 4. The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts; all her gates are desolate; her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

(m) 1 Sam. xvii. 10. And the Philistine said, I defy the armies of Israel this day; give me a man, that we may fight together.

Ps. x. 5. His ways are always grievous; thy judgments are far above out of his sight: as for all his enemies, he puffeth at them.

9 The (n) earth mourneth and languisheth: (o) Lebanon is ashamed and hewn down: (p) Sharon is like a wilderness; (q) and Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits.

(n) Is. xxiv. 19. The earth is utterly broken down, the earth is clean dissolved, the earth is moved exceedingly.

20. The earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard, and shall be removed like a cottage; and the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it; and it shall fall, and not rise again.

(o) Is. xxxvii. 24. By thy servants hast thou reproached the Lord, and hast said, By the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon; and I will cut down the tall cedars thereof, and the choice fir-trees thereof: and I will enter into the height of his border, and the forest of his Carmel.

Zech. xi. 1. Open thy doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour thy cedars.

2. Howl, fir-tree, for the cedar is fallen: because the mighty are spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bashan; for the forest of the vintage is come down.

3. There is a voice of the howling of the shepherds; for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the pride of Jordan is spoiled.

(p) Is. lxxv. 10. And Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for the herds to lie down in, for my people that have sought me.

(q) Deut. iii. 4. And we took all his cities at that time; there was not a city which we took not from them, threescore cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

Jer. l. 19. And I will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon Mount Ephraim and Gilead.

Mic. vii. 14. Feed thy people with thy rod, the flock of thine heritage, which dwell solitarily in the wood, in the midst of Carmel; let them feed in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.

10 (r) Now will I rise, saith the LORD: (s) now will I be exalted: now (t) will I lift up myself.

(r) Ps. xii. 5. For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith the Lord; I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him.

lxxviii. 65. Then the Lord awaked as one out of sleep, and like a mighty man that shouted by reason of wine.

(s) Ex. xiv. 18. And the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I have gotten me honour upon Pharaoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

Ps. xlvi. 10. Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

(t) Ps. vii. 6. Arise, O Lord, in thine anger; lift up thyself, because of the rage of mine enemies; and awake for me to the judgment that thou hast commanded.

11 Ye shall (u) conceive chaff, ye shall bring forth stubble; your breath, as fire, shall devour you.

(u) Job xv. 35. They conceive mischief, and bring forth vanity, and their belly prepareth deceit.

Ps. vii. 14. Behold, he travaileth with iniquity, and hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood.

James i. 15. Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin; and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

12 And the people shall be as (x) the burnings of lime: as (y) thorns cut up, shall they be burned in the fire.

(x) Amos ii. 1. Thus saith the Lord, For three transgressions of Moab, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he burnt the bones of the king of Edom into lime.

(y) 2 Sam. xxiii. 6. But the sons of Belial shall be all of them as thorns thrust away, because they cannot be taken with hands.

7. But the man that shall touch them must be fenced with iron, and the staff of a spear; and they shall be utterly burnt with fire in the same place.

13 ¶ (z) Hear, ye that are far off, what I have done; and (a) ye that are near, acknowledge my might.

(z) Ex. xv. 14. The people shall hear and be afraid: sorrow shall take hold upon them; all the inhabitants of Canaan shall melt away.

15. Fear and dread shall fall upon them; by the greatness of thine arm they shall be as still as a stone; till thy people pass over, O Lord, till the people pass over which thou hast purchased.

Josh. ix. 9. And they said unto him, From a very far country thy servants are come, because of the name of the Lord thy God: for we have heard the fame of him, and all that he did in Egypt.

10. And all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites, that were beyond Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon, and to Og king of Bashan, which was at Ashtaroth.

Ps. xlviii. 10. According to thy name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of righteousness.

(a) Ps. xcvi. 8. Zion heard, and was glad; and the daughters of Judah rejoiced, because of thy judgments, O Lord.

xcix. 2. The Lord is great in Zion, and he is high above all people.

3. Let them praise thy great and terrible name; for it is holy.

cxlviii. 14. He also exalteth the horn of his people, the praise of all his saints; even of the children of Israel, a people near unto him. Praise ye the Lord.

14 The (b) sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness hath surprised the hypocrites. (c) Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? who among us shall dwell with (d) everlasting burnings?

(b) Num. xvii. 12. And the children of Israel spake unto Moses, saying, Behold, we die, we perish, we all perish.

13. Whosoever cometh any thing near unto the tabernacle of the Lord, shall die: shall we be consumed with dying?

Job xv. 21. A dreadful sound is in his ears: in prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him.

22. He believeth not that he shall return out of darkness, and he is waited for of the sword.

xviii. 11. Terrors shall make him afraid on every side, and shall drive him to his feet.

Prov. xxviii. 1. The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

(c) Deut. v. 24. And ye said, Behold, the Lord our God hath showed us his glory, and his greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the midst of the fire; we have seen this day that God doth talk with man, and he liveth.

25. Now, therefore, why should we die? for this great fire will consume us. If we hear the voice of the Lord our God any more, then we shall die.

Ps. xi. 6. Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.

1. 3. Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him.

Nah. i. 6. Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

Heb. xii. 29. For our God is a consuming fire.

(d) Is. lxvi. 24. And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcases of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched: and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh.

Matt. xviii. 8. Therefore, if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands, or two feet, to be cast into everlasting fire.

xxv. 41. Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire; prepared for the devil and his angels.

46. And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.

2 Thess. i. 8. In flaming fire, taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ;

9. Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power.

Rev. xiv. 10. The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11. And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

xx. 10. And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

15 He (e) that walketh righteously, and speaketh uprightly; (f) he that despiseth the gain of oppressions, (g) that shaketh his hands from holding of bribes, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of blood, and shutteth his eyes from seeing evil;

(e) Ps. xv. 1. Lord, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

2. He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.

cvi. 3. Blessed are they that keep judgment, and he that doeth righteousness at all times.

Mat. ii. 6. The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did turn many away from iniquity.

Luke i. 6. And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

1 John iii. 7. Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.

(f) Luke xix. 8. And Zaccheus stood, and said unto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him four-fold.

James v. 4. Behold, the hire of the labourers which have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped, are entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth.

(g) Num. xvi. 15. And Moses was very wroth, and said unto the Lord, Respect not thou their offering: I have not taken one ass from them, neither have I hurt one of them.

Deut. xvi. 19. Thou shalt not wrest judgment; thou shalt not respect persons, neither take a gift; for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous.

1 Sam. xii. 3. Behold, here I am: witness against me before the Lord, and before his anointed; whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I received any bribe to blind mine eyes therewith? and I will restore it you.

Matt. xxvi. 15. And said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

16 He (h) shall dwell on high: his place of defence shall be the munitions of rocks: (i) bread shall be given him; his waters shall be sure.

(h) Ps. xc. 1. Lord, thou hast been our dwelling-place in all generations.

xcii. 14. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

cvi. 41. Yet setteth he the poor on high from affliction; and maketh him families like a flock.

Prov. i. 33. But whoso hearkeneth unto me, shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.

xviii. 10. The name of the Lord is a strong tower; the righteous runneth into it, and is safe.

Hub. iii. 19. The Lord God is my strength, and he will make my feet like hinds' feet, and he will make me to walk upon mine high places. To the chief singer on my stringed instruments.

(i) Ps. xxxiii. 18. Behold, the eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him; upon them that hope in his mercy;

19. To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.

xxxiv. 10. The young lions do lack and suffer hunger: but they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing.

xxxvii. 3. Trust in the Lord, and do good, so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

cxv. 5. He hath given meat unto them that fear him: he will ever be mindful of his covenant.

17 Thine (k) eyes shall see the king in his beauty: they shall behold the land that is very far off.

(k) Ps. xlv. 2. Thou art fairer than the children of men; grace is poured into thy lips: therefore God hath blessed thee for ever.

Cant. v. 10. My beloved is white and ruddy, the chiefest among ten thousand.

Zech. ix. 17. For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty! Corn shall make the young men cheerful, and new wine the maids.

Matt. xvii. 2. And was transfigured before them; and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

1 John iii. 2. Beloved, now are we the sons of God; and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.

18 Thine (l) heart shall meditate terror. (m) Where is the scribe? where is the receiver? where is he that counted the towers?

(l) 1 Sam. xxx. 6. And David was greatly distressed: for the people spake of stoning him:

because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons, and for his daughters: but David encouraged himself in the Lord his God.

Ps. xxxi. 22. For I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes: nevertheless, thou hearest the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee.

(m) 1 Cor. i. 20. Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

19 Thou (n) shalt not see a fierce people, a people of (o) a deeper speech than thou canst perceive; of a stammering tongue, that thou canst not understand.

(n) Ex. xiv. 13. And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the Lord, which he will show to you to-day: for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to-day, ye shall see them again no more for ever.

Deut. xxviii. 49. The Lord shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand;

50. A nation of fierce countenance, which shall not regard the person of the old, nor show favour to the young.

(o) Jer. v. 15. Lo, I will bring a nation upon you from far, O house of Israel, saith the Lord: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say.

Ez. iii. 5. For thou art not sent to a people of a strange speech, and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel:

6. Not to many people of a strange speech, and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand: surely, had I sent thee to them, they would have hearkened unto thee.

1 Cor. xiv. 21. In the law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

20 (p) Look upon Zion, (q) the city of our solemnities: (r) thine eyes shall see Jerusalem a quiet habitation, a tabernacle that shall not be taken down; (s) not one of the stakes thereof shall ever be removed, neither shall any of the cords thereof be broken.

(p) Ps. xlviii. 12. Walk about Zion, and go round about her: tell the towers thereof.

13. Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generation following.

(q) Deut. xii. 5. But unto the place which the Lord your God shall choose out of all your tribes, to put his name there, even unto his habitation shall ye seek, and thither thou shalt come.

Ps. lxxviii. 68. But chose the tribe of Judah, the mount Zion which he loved.

69. And he built his sanctuary like high palaces, like the earth which he hath established for ever.

cxxxii. 13. For the Lord hath chosen Zion; he hath desired it for his habitation.

(r) Ps. xlv. 5. God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early.

cxxv. 1. They that trust in the Lord shall be as Mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.

2. As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the Lord is round about his people from henceforth, even for ever.

cxxviii. 5. The Lord shall bless thee out of Zion; and thou shalt see the good of Jerusalem all the days of thy life.

6. Yea, thou shalt see thy children's children, and peace upon Israel.

(s) Is. liv. 2. Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes.

Matt. xvi. 18. And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter; and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

21 But there (t) the glorious LORD will be unto us (u) a place of broad rivers and streams; wherein shall go no galley with oars, neither shall gallant ship pass thereby.

(t) Ps. xxix. 3. The voice of the Lord is upon the waters: the God of glory thundereth; the Lord is upon many waters.

Acts vii. 2. And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran.

(u) Ps. xli. 4. There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High.

5. God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early.

22 For (x) the LORD is our judge, (y) the LORD is our lawgiver, (z) the LORD is our king; he will save us.

(x) Gen. xviii. 25. That be far from thee to do after this manner, to slay the righteous with the wicked; and that the righteous should be as the wicked, that be far from thee. Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?

Ps. i. 6. And the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for God is judge himself. Selah.

lxxv. 7. But God is the Judge; he putteth down one, and setteth up another.

xciv. 2. Lift up thyself, thou Judge of the earth: render a reward to the proud.

2 Cor. v. 10. For we must all appear before the judgment-seat of Christ, that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

(y) Deut. xxxiii. 2. And he said, The Lord came from Sinai, and rose up from Seir unto them; he shined forth from Mount Paran, and he came with ten thousands of saints: from his right hand went a fiery law for them.

Neh. ix. 14. And madest known unto them thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant.

James iv. 12. There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?

(z) Ps. xlv. 4. Thou art my king, O God; command deliverances for Jacob.

lxxv. 12. For God is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.

Jer. xxiii. 5. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.

6. In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely; and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

Zech. ix. 9. Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee; he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

Rev. xix. 16. And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

23 Thy tacklings are loosed; they could not well strengthen their mast, they could not spread the sail: (a) then is the prey of a great spoil divided; (b) the lame take the prey.

(a) 2 Chr. xx. 25. And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches with the dead bodies, and precious jewels (which they stripped off for themselves) more than they could carry away: and they were three days in gathering of the spoil, it was so much.

(b) 1 Sam. xxx. 10. But David pursued, he and four hundred men: for two hundred abode behind, which were so faint that they could not go over the brook Besor.

22. Then answered all the wicked men, and men of Belial, of those that went with David, and said, Because they went not with us, we will not give them aught of the spoil that we have recovered, save to every man his wife and his children, that they may lead them away and depart.

23. Then said David, Ye shall not do so, my brethren, with that which the Lord hath given us, who hath preserved us, and delivered the company that came against us into our hand.

24. For who will hearken unto you in this matter? but as his part is that goeth down to the battle, so shall his part be that tarrieth by the stuff: they shall part alike.

2 Kings vii. 8. And when these lepers came to the uttermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink; and carried thence silver and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it; and came again, and entered into another tent, and carried thence also, and went and hid it.

Ps. lxxviii. 12. Kings of armies did flee apace; and she that tarried at home divided the spoil.

24 And (c) the inhabitant shall not say, I am sick: the people that dwell therein (d) shall be forgiven their iniquity.

(c) Ex. xv. 26. And said, If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the Lord thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the Lord that healeth thee.

Deut. vii. 15. And the Lord will take away from thee all sickness, and will put none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which thou knowest, upon thee; but will lay them upon all them that hate thee.

Rev. xxi. 4. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

(d) Is. xlv. 22. I have blotted out as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me; for I have redeemed thee.

Jer. l. 20. In those days, and in that time, saith the Lord, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none: and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I reserve.

Mic. vii. 18. Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.

19. He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us: he will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

COME (a) near, ye nations, to hear; and hearken, ye people: (b) let the earth hear, and all that is therein; the world, and all things that come forth of it.

(a) Judg. v. 3. Hear, O ye kings; give ear, O ye princes: I, even I, will sing unto the Lord; I will sing praise to the Lord God of Israel.

Ps. xlix. 1. Hear this, all ye people; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world:

2. Both low and high, rich and poor, together. 1. The mighty God, even the Lord, hath spoken, and called the earth, from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.

Mark xvi. 15. And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

16. He that believeth, and is baptized, shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.

(b) Deut. iv. 26. I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that ye shall soon utterly perish from off the land whereunto ye go over Jordan to possess it; ye shall not prolong your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed.

xxxii. 1. Give ear, O ye heavens, and I will speak; and hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.

Jer. xxii. 29. O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the Lord.

Mic. vi. 1. Hear ye now what the Lord saith; Arise, contend thou before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.

2. Hear ye, O mountains, the Lord's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the Lord hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

2 For (c) the indignation of the LORD is upon all nations, (d) and his fury upon all their armies: he hath utterly destroyed them, he hath delivered them to the slaughter.

(c) Rom. i. 18. For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness.

(d) Nah. i. 2. God is jealous, and the Lord revengeth; the Lord revengeth, and is furious: the Lord will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

3. The Lord is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: the Lord hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

4. He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: Bashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languisheth.

5. The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein.

3 Their (e) slain also shall be cast out, and their stink shall come up out of their carcasses, (f) and the mountains shall be melted with their blood.

(e) Jer. viii. 1. At that time, saith the Lord, they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem out of their graves:

2. And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have worshipped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried; they shall be for dung upon the face of the earth.

xxii. 19. He shall be buried with the burial of an ass, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

Ez. xxxix. 4. Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field, to be devoured.

Joel ii. 20. But I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face toward the east sea, and his hinder part toward the utmost sea, and his sting shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because he hath done great things.

(f) Ez. xxxii. 5. And I will lay thy flesh upon the mountains, and fill the valleys with thy height.

6. I will also water with thy blood the land wherein thou swimst even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of thee.

Rev. xiv. 20. And the wine-press was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the wine-press even unto the horse-bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

4 And (g) all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll; and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig-tree.

(g) Ps. cii. 25. Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

26. They shall perish, but thou shalt endure; yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed.

Jer. iv. 23. I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was without form, and void; and the heavens, and they had no light.

24. I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly.

Ez. xxxii. 7. And when I shall put thee out, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.

8. All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord God.

Joel ii. 30. And I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.

31. The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the Lord come.

iii. 15. The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining.

Matt. xxiv. 29. Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heaven shall be shaken.

35. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my word shall not pass away.

5 For (h) my sword shall be bathed in heaven; behold, it shall come down upon Idumea, and upon the people of my curse, to judgment.

(h) Deut. xxxii. 41. If I whet my glittering sword, and mine hand take hold on judgment, I will render vengeance to mine enemies, and will reward them that hate me.

42. I will make mine arrows drunk with blood, and my sword shall devour flesh; and that with the blood of the slain, and of the captives, from the beginning of revenges upon the enemy.

Ps. xvii. 13. Arise, O Lord; disappoint him, cast him down: deliver my soul from the wicked, which is thy sword.

Jer. xli. 10. For this is the day of the Lord God of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and the sword shall devour, and it shall be satiate and made drunk with their blood; for the Lord God of hosts hath a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates.

xlvi. 6. O thou sword of the Lord, how long will it be ere thou be quiet? Put up thyself into thy scabbard, rest, and be still.

Zeph. ii. 12. Ye Ethiopians also, ye shall be slain by my sword.

6 The sword of the LORD is (i) filled with blood, it is made fat with fatness, and with the blood of lambs and goats, with (k) the fat of the kidneys of rams: for (l) the Lord hath a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Idumea.

(i) Is. lxiii. 3. I have trodden the wine-press alone; and of the people there was none with me, for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment.

Ez. xxi. 4. Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of her sheath against all flesh from the south to the north.

(k) Deut. xxxii. 14. Butter of kine, and milk of sheep, with fat of lambs, and rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats, with the fat of kidneys of wheat, and thou didst drink the pure blood of the grape.

(l) Jer. l. 27. Slay all her bullocks; let them go down to the slaughter; wo unto them! for their day is come, the time of their visitation.

ii. 40. I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he-goats.

Zeph. i. 7. Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord God; for the day of the Lord is at hand: for the Lord hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath bid his guests.

Rev. xix. 17. And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven,

Come, and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

18. That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

7 And (m) the unicorns shall come down with them, and (n) the bullocks with the bulls; and their land shall be soaked with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness.

(m) Num. xxiii. 22. God brought them out of Egypt: he hath as it were the strength of an unicorn.

Deut. xxxiii. 17. His glory is like the firstling of his bullock, and his horns are like the horns of unicorns; with them he shall push the people together to the ends of the earth: and they are the ten thousands of Ephraim, and they are the thousands of Manasseh.

(n) Ps. lxxviii. 30. Rebuke the company of spearmen, the multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the people, till every one submit himself with pieces of silver: scatter thou the people that delight in war.

Jer. xlvi. 21. Also her hired men are in the midst of her like fatted bullocks; for they also are turned back, and are fled away together: they did not stand, because the day of their calamity was come upon them, and the time of their visitation.

8 For it is (o) the day of the LORD's vengeance, and the year of recompenses for the controversy of Zion.

(o) Deut. xxxii. 35. To me belongeth vengeance and recompense; their foot shall slide in due time: for the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that shall come upon them make haste.

Ps. xciv. 1. O Lord God, to whom vengeance belongeth; O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, show thyself.

9 And (p) the streams thereof shall be turned into pitch, and the dust thereof into brimstone, and the land thereof shall become burning pitch.

(p) Gen. xix. 28. And he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, and beheld, and, lo, the smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace.

Deut. xxix. 23. And that the whole land thereof is brimstone, and salt, and burning, that it is not sown, nor beareth, nor any grass groweth therein, like the overthrow of Sodom, and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboim, which the Lord overthrew in his anger, and in his wrath.

Job. xviii. 15. It shall dwell in his tabernacle, because it is none of his: brimstone shall be scattered upon his habitation.

Ps. xi. 6. Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.

Luke xvii. 29. But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

10 It (q) shall not be quenched night nor day; (r) the smoke thereof shall go up for ever; (s) from generation to generation it shall lie waste;

none shall pass through it for ever and ever.

(q) Jer. vii. 20. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

Ez. xx. 47. And say to the forest of the south, Hear the word of the Lord: Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour every green tree in thee, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burned therein.

48. And all flesh shall see that I the Lord have kindled it: it shall not be quenched.

Mark ix. 43. And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off; it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that shall never be quenched.

(r) Lev. xiv. 10. The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11. And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

xix. 3. And again they said, Alleluia. And her smoke rose up for ever and ever.

(s) Ez. xxix. 11. No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years.

Mal. i. 3. And I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness.

4. Whereas Edom saith, We are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places; thus saith the Lord of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the Lord hath indignation for ever.

11 But (t) the cormorant and the bittern shall possess it; the owl also, and the raven shall dwell in it: and he shall (u) stretch out upon it the line of confusion, and the stones of emptiness.

(t) Is. xiv. 23. I will also make it a possession for the bittern, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the Lord of hosts.

Zeph. ii. 14. And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of the nations: both the cormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the upper lintels of it; their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in the thresholds: for he shall uncover the cedar work.

Rev. xviii. 2. And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

(u) 2 Sam. viii. 2. And he smote Moab, and measured them with a line, casting them down to the ground; even with two lines measured he to put to death, and with one full line to keep alive: and so the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

2 Kings xxi. 13. And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down.

Lam. ii. 8. The Lord hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion; he hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from destroying; therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together.

12 They shall (x) call the nobles thereof to the kingdom, but none shall be there, and all her princes shall be nothing.

(x) Ec. x. 16. Wo to thee, O land, when thy king is a child, and thy princes eat in the morning!

17. Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!

13 And (y) thorns shall come up in her palaces, nettles and brambles in the fortress thereof: and it shall be an habitation of dragons, and a court for owls.

(y) Hos. ix. 6. For, lo, they are gone because of destruction; Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them: the pleasant places for their silver, nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their tabernacles.

Zeph. ii. 9. Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even the breeding of nettles, and salt-pits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

14 The wild beasts of the desert shall also meet with the wild beasts of the island, and the satyr shall cry to his fellow; the screech-owl also shall rest there, and find for herself a place of rest.

15 There shall the great owl make her nest, and lay, and hatch, and gather under her shadow: there shall the vulture also be gathered, every one with her mate.

16 ¶ (z) Seek ye out of the book of the LORD, and read: no one of these shall fail, none shall want her mate: for (a) my mouth it hath commanded; and his spirit it hath gathered them.

(z) Deut. xxxi. 21. And it shall come to pass, when many evils and troubles are befallen them, that this song shall testify against them as a witness; for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed: for I know their imaginations which they go about even now, before I have brought them into the land which I swear.

Amos iii. 7. Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.

Mal. iii. 16. Then they that feared the Lord spake often one to another; and the Lord hearkened, and heard it: and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his name.

John v. 39. Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

(a) Gen. vi. 17. And behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven: and every thing that is in the earth shall die.

Ps. xxxiii. 6. By the word of the Lord were the heavens made: and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

9. For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.

17 And (b) he hath cast the lot for them, and his hand hath divided it unto them by line: they shall possess it for ever; from generation to generation shall they dwell therein.

(b) Josh. xviii. 8. And the men arose, and went away; and Joshua charged them that went to describe the land, saying, Go and walk through the land, and describe it, and come again to me, that I may here cast lots for you before the Lord in Shiloh.

Ps. lxxviii. 55. He cast out the heathen also before them, and divided them an inheritance by line; and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

Acts xiii. 19. And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan, he divided their land to them by lot.

CHAPTER XXXV.

THE (a) wilderness and the solitary place (b) shall be glad for them; and (c) the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.

(a) Ez. xxxvi. 35. And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of Eden; and the waste, and desolate, and ruined cities, are become fenced, and are inhabited.

(b) Ps. xlviii. 11. Let Mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad, because of thy judgments.

xvii. 8. Zion heard, and was glad; and the daughters of Judah rejoiced, because of thy judgments, O Lord.

(c) Is. xxvii. 6. He shall cause them that come of Jacob to take root; Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit.

Hos. xiv. 5. I will be as the dew unto Israel; he shall grow as the lily, and cast forth his roots as Lebanon.

6. His branches shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the olive-tree, and his smell as Lebanon.

2 It shall blossom abundantly, (d) and rejoice even with joy and singing: the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon: (e) they shall see the glory of the LORD, and the excellency of our God.

(d) 1 Chr. xvi. 33. Then shall the trees of the wood sing out at the presence of the Lord, because he cometh to judge the earth.

Ps. lxxv. 12. They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness; and the little hills rejoice on every side.

13. The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, they also sing.

lxxxix. 12. The north and the south, thou hast created them: Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name.

(e) Ez. xxxiii. 18. And he said, I beseech thee, show me thy glory.

19. And he said, I will make all my goodness pass before thee, and I will proclaim the name of the Lord before thee; and will be gracious, to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy.

Ps. l. 2. Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined.

lxxii. 19. And blessed be his glorious name for ever: and let the whole earth be filled with his glory. Amen, and amen.

xvii. 6. The heavens declare his righteousness; and all the people see his glory.

cii. 15. So the heathen shall fear the name of the Lord, and all the kings of the earth thy glory.

16. When the Lord shall build up Zion, he shall appear in his glory.

Hab. ii. 14. For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

John xii. 41. These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

xvii. 24. Father, I will that they also whom thou hast given me be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.

2 Cor. iii. 18. But we all with open face, beholding, as in a glass, the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image, from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

Rev. xxi. 23. And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

3 ¶ (f) Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees.

(f) Judg. vii. 11. And thou shalt hear what they say, and afterward shall thine hands be strengthened to go down unto the host. Then went he down with Pharaoh his servant unto the outside of the armed men that were in the host.

Job iv. 3. Behold, thou hast instructed many, and thou hast strengthened the weak hands.

4. Thy words have upholden him that was falling, and thou hast strengthened the feeble knees.

xvi. 5. But I will strengthen you with my mouth, and the moving of my lips shall assuage your grief.

Luke xxii. 32. But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not; and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.

43. And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

Acts xviii. 23. And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples.

Ilb. xii. 12. Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees.

4 Say to them that are of a fearful heart, (g) Be strong, (h) fear not: (i) behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompense; he will come and save you.

(g) Josh. i. 6. Be strong and of a good courage; for unto this people shalt thou divide for an inheritance the land which I swore unto their fathers to give them.

7. Only be thou strong and very courageous, that thou mayest observe to do according to all the law which Moses my servant commanded thee: turn not from it to the right hand or to the left, that thou mayest prosper whithersoever thou goest.

1 Chr. xxviii. 20. And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong, and of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be dismayed: for the Lord God, even my God, will be with thee, he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the house of the Lord.

Dan. x. 19. And said, O man greatly beloved, fear not; peace be unto thee; be strong, yea, be strong. And, when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

Ilag. ii. 4. Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, saith the Lord; and be strong, O Joshua, son of Josedech, the high priest; and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the Lord, and work: for I am with you, saith the Lord of hosts.

Eph. vi. 10. Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

2 Tim. ii. 1. Thou, therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

(h) Zeph. iii. 16. In that day it shall be said to Jerusalem, Fear thou not; and to Zion, Let not thine hands be slack.

17. The Lord thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love; he will joy over thee with singing.

Rev. ii. 10. Fear none of these things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried: and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.

(i) Ps. l. 3. Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him.

Hos. i. 7. But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the Lord their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

Mal. iii. 1. Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the Lord of hosts.

Heb. ix. 28. So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time, without sin, unto salvation.

Rev. i. 7. Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him; and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

xxii. 20. He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly; Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

5 Then (k) the eyes of the blind shall be opened, (l) and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped.

(k) Ps. cxlvi. 8. The Lord openeth the eyes of the blind: the Lord raiseth them that are bowed down: the Lord loveth the righteous.

Is. xliii. 8. Bring forth the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears.

Matt. xi. 4. Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and show John again those things which ye do hear and see;

5. The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk; the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear; the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them.

Acts xxvi. 18. To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.

(l) Ex. iv. 11. And the Lord said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the Lord?

Job xxxiii. 16. Then he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction.

Prov. xx. 12. The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, the Lord hath made even both of them.

Is. xviii. 8. Yea, thou heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldest deal very treacherously, and wast called a transgressor from the womb.

Jer. vi. 10. To whom shall I speak and give warning, that they may hear? Behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken; behold, the word of the Lord is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it.

Mark ix. 25. When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26. And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead.

6 Then (m) shall the lame man leap as an hart, (n) and the tongue of the dumb sing: (o) for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert.

(m) Matt. xv. 30. And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet, and he healed them;

31. Insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Israel.

(n) Ps. li. 15. O Lord, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall show forth thy praise.

Matt. ix. 32. As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil.

33. And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake; and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel.

Luke i. 64. And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, and praised God.

(o) Ex. xvii. 6. Behold, I will stand before thee there upon the rock in Horeb; and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.

Ps. xlvii. 4. There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High.

Zech. xiv. 8. And it shall be in that day, that living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.

7 And (p) the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water: (q) in the habitation of dragons, where each lay, shall be grass with reeds and rushes.

(p) Is. xlv. 3. For I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will pour my spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring:

4. And they shall spring up as among the grass, as willows by the water-courses.

(q) Is. xxxiv. 13. And thorns shall come up in her palaces, nettles and brambles in the fortresses thereof; and it shall be an habitation of dragons, and a court for owls.

8 And (r) an highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called, (s) The way of holiness: (t) the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: (u) the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein.

(r) Jer. xxxi. 21. Set thee up way-marks, make thee high heaps; set thine heart toward the highway, even the way which thou wentest: turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities.

John xiv. 6. Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no man cometh unto the Father but by me.

(s) 1 Thess. iv. 7. For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness.

2 Tim. i. 9. Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus, before the world began.

Heb. xii. 14. Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord.

(t) Ez. xlv. 9. Thus saith the Lord God, No stranger, uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel.

Joel iii. 17. So shall ye know that I am the Lord your God, dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall no strangers pass through her any more.

Rev. xxi. 27. And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie; but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

(u) Ps. cxix. 136. The entrance of thy words giveth light; it giveth understanding unto the simple.

9 (x) No lion shall be there, nor any ravenous beast shall go up thereon, it shall not be found there; (y) but the redeemed shall walk there.

(x) Lev. xxvi. 6. And I will give peace in the land, and ye shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid: and I will rid evil beasts out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land.

Ez. xxxiv. 25. And I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land; and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods.

Hos. ii. 18. And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bow, and the sword, and the battle, out of the earth, and will make them to lie down safely.

(y) Ex. xv. 13. Thou in thy mercy hast led forth the people which thou hast redeemed: thou hast guided them in thy strength unto thy holy habitation.

Ps. cvii. 2. Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy.

Gal. iii. 13. Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree.

Tit. ii. 14. Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

Rev. v. 9. And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood, out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation.

10 And (z) the ransomed of the LORD shall return, (a) and come to Zion with songs, and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, (b) and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

(z) Matt. xx. 28. Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister; and to give his life a ransom for many.

1 Tim. ii. 6. Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time.

(a) Ps. lxxxiv. 7. They go from strength to strength; every one of them in Zion appeareth before God.

(b) Rev. xxi. 4. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

NOW (a) it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them.

(a) 2 Kings xviii. 13. Now, in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, did Sennacherib king of Assyria come up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them.

2 Chr. xxxii. 1. After these things, and the establishment thereof, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fenced cities, and thought to win them for himself.

2 And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem, unto king Hezekiah, with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field.

3 Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Hilkiah's son, which was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, Asaph's son, the recorder.

4 ¶ And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, (b) Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, (c) What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

(b) Prov. xvi. 18. Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.

Dan. iv. 30. The king spake and said, Is not this great Babylon that I have built for the house of the kingdom, by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty.

Acts xii. 22. And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

23. And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

Jude 16. These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons in admiration because of advantage.

(c) 2 Kings xviii. 5. He trusted in the Lord God of Israel; so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor any that were before him.

19. And Rab-shakeh said unto them, Speak ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

xix. 10. Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

Ps. xlii. 3. My tears have been my meat day and night, while they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?

10. As with a sword in my bones mine enemies reproach me, while they say daily unto me, Where is thy God?

5 I say, sayest thou, (but they are but vain words,) I have counsel and strength for war: now, on whom dost thou trust, (d) that thou rebellest against me?

(d) 2 Kings xviii. 7. And the Lord was with him, and he prospered whithersoever he went forth; and he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and served him not.

xxiv. 1. In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant three years; then he turned and rebelled against him.

6 Lo, thou trustest in the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust in him.

7 But if thou say to me, (e) We trust in the LORD our God: (f) is it not he whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar?

(e) 2 Kings xviii. 22. But if ye say unto me, We trust in the Lord our God: is not that he whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath said to Judah and Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem?

1 Chr. v. 20. And they were helped against them, and the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, and all that were with them: for they cried to God in the battle, and he was entreated of them, because they put their trust in him.

2 Chr. xxxii. 7. Be strong and courageous, be not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him: for there be more with us than with him.

8. With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the Lord our God, to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

Ps. xxii. 4. Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them.

5. They cried unto thee, and were delivered; they trusted in thee, and were not confounded.

xliii. 5. Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted in me? Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise him for the help of his countenance.

(f) Deut. xii. 13. Take heed to thyself, that thou offer not thy burnt-offerings in every place that thou seest.

14. But in the place which the Lord shall choose in one of thy tribes, there thou shalt offer thy burnt-offerings, and there thou shalt do all that I command thee.

2 Chr. xxx. 14. And they arose, and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron.

xxxii. 12. Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places, and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it?

8 Now therefore give pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, (g) and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

(g) 2 Kings xviii. 23. Now, therefore, I pray thee, give pledges to my lord the king of Assyria, and I will deliver thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

Ps. cxxiii. 3. Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.

4. Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud.

9 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of (h) the least of my master's servants, (i) and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

(h) 2 Kings xviii. 24. How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

(i) Deut. xvii. 16. But he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he should multiply horses: forasmuch as the Lord hath said unto you, Ye shall henceforth return no more that way.

Prov. xxi. 31. The horse is prepared against the day of battle: but safety is of the Lord.

10 And (k) am I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? The LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

(k) 1 Kings xiii. 18. He said unto him, I am a prophet also as thou art, and an angel spake unto me by the word of the Lord, saying, Bring him back with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied unto him.

2 Kings xviii. 25. Am I now come up without the Lord against this place to destroy it? The Lord said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

2 Chr. xxxv. 21. But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against the house wherewith I have war; for God commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not.

11 Then said Eliakim and Shebna and Joah unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants (l) in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

(l) 2 Kings xviii. 26. Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, to thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and talk not with us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

Ezra iv. 7. And in the days of Artaxerxes wrote Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions, unto Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of the letter was written in the Syrian tongue, and interpreted in the Syrian tongue.

12 But Rabshakeh said, Hath my master sent me to thy master and to thee to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, (m) that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you?

(m) Lev. xxvi. 29. And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat.

Jer. xix. 9. And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons, and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend, in the siege and straitness wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their lives, shall straiten them.

13 Then Rabshakeh stood, and (n) cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear ye the words of the great king, the king of Assyria.

(n) 2 Kings xviii. 28. Then Rabshakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spake, saying, Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria.

2 Chr. xxxii. 18. Then they cried with a loud voice, in the Jews' speech, unto the people of Jerusalem that were on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them, that they might take the city.

Ps. lxxiii. 8. They are corrupt, and speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak loftily.

9. They set their mouth against the heavens; and their tongue walketh through the earth.

14 Thus saith the king, (o) Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you.

(o) 2 Chr. xxxii. 11. Doth not Hezekiah persuade you to give over yourselves to die by famine and by thirst, saying, The Lord our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

Dan. vi. 20. And when he came to the den he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel; and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?

2 Thess. ii. 4. Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped: so that he, as God, sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.

15 Neither let Hezekiah (p) make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us: this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

(p) Ps. iv. 2. O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame? how long will ye love vanity, and seek after leasing? Selah.

xxii. 7. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,

8. He trusted on the Lord, that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him.

16 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, Make an agreement with me by a present, and (q) come out to me: and (r) eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig-tree, and drink ye every one of the waters of his own cistern;

(q) 1 Sam. xi. 3. And the elders of Jabesh said unto him, Give us seven days' respite, that we may send messengers unto all the coasts of Israel: and then, if there be no man to save us, we will come out to thee.

(r) 1 Kings iv. 20. Judah and Israel were many, as the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking, and making merry.

25. And Judah and Israel dwelt safely, every man under his vine and under his fig-tree, from Dan even unto Beer-sheba, all the days of Solomon.

Mic. iv. 4. But they shall sit every man under his vine, and under his fig-tree: and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the Lord of hosts hath spoken it.

Zech. iii. 10. In that day saith the Lord of hosts, shall ye call every man his neighbour under the vine and under the fig-tree.

17 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, (s) a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

(s) E.c. iii. 8. And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land, and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

Deut. viii. 7. For the Lord thy God bringeth thee into a good land; a land of brooks of water, of fountains, and depths that spring out of valleys and hills;

8. A land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig-trees, and pomegranates; a land of oil-olive and honey:

9. A land wherein thou shalt eat bread without scarceness, thou shalt not lack any thing in it; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills thou mayest dig brass.

xi. 12. A land which the Lord thy God careth for; the eyes of the Lord thy God are always upon it, from the beginning of the year, even unto the end of the year.

18 Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, The LORD will deliver us. (t) Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

(t) 2 Kings xix. 12. Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed; as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in the Thelasar?

17. Of a truth, Lord, the kings of Assyria have destroyed the nations and their lands,

18. And have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them.

Ps. cxxxiv. 5. For I know that the Lord is great, and that our Lord is above all gods.

6. Whatsoever the Lord pleased, that did he in heaven, and in earth, in the seas, and all deep places.

Hab. ii. 19. Wo unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

19 Where are the gods of (u) Hamath and Arpad? where are the gods of (x) Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

(u) Num. xxxiv. 8. From Mount Hor ye shall point out your border unto the entrance of Hamath: and the goings forth of the border shall be to Zedad.

2 Sam. viii. 9. When Toi king of Hamath heard that David had smitten all the host of Hadadezer.

(x) 2 Kings xvii. 24. And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria, instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

20 Who are they among all the gods of these lands, that have delivered their land out of my hand, (y) that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

(y) Ex. v. 2. And Pharaoh said, Who is the Lord, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not the Lord, neither will I let Israel go.

2 Chr. xxxii. 15. Now, therefore, let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you on this manner, neither yet believe him: for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your God deliver you out of mine hand?

Job xv. 25. For he stretcheth out his hand against God, and strengtheneth himself against the Almighty.

26. He runneth upon him, even on his neck, upon the thick bosses of his bucklers.

Ps. lxxiii. 9. They set their mouth against the heavens; and their tongue walketh through the earth.

Dan. iii. 15. Now, if ye be ready, that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made, well; but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?

21 But (z) they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

(z) 2 Kings xviii. 36. But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

Ps. xxxix. 1. I said, I will take heed to my ways, that I sin not with my tongue; I will keep my mouth with a bridle while the wicked is before me.

Prov. ix. 7. He that reproveth a scorner,getteth to himself shame; and he that rebuketh a wicked man getteth himself a blot.

xxvi. 4. Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him.

Amos v. 13. Therefore the prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time.

Matt. vii. 6. Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearl before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

22 Then came Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

AND (a) it came to pass, when a king Hezekiah heard it, that (b) he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

(a) 2 Kings xix. 1. And it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the Lord.

(b) 2 Kings xxii. 11. And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the book of the law, that he rent his clothes.

Jer. xxxvi. 24. Yet they were not afraid, nor rent their garment, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words.

Jon. iii. 5. So the people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

6. For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.

Matt. xi. 21. Wo unto thee, Chorazin! wo unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

2 And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, unto Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.

3 And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, (c) This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of blasphemy; (d) for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.

(c) 2 Kings xix. 3. And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and blasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.

Ps. l. 15. And call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

Jer. xxx. 7. Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it.

(d) Is. xxvi. 17. Like as a woman with child, that draweth near the time of her delivery, is in pain, and crieth out in her pangs; so have we been in thy sight, O Lord.

18. We have been with child, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind; we have not wrought any deliverance in the earth, neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen.

Is. lvi. 9. Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? saith the Lord: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God.

Hos. xiii. 13. The sorrows of a travailing woman shall come upon him: he is an unwise son; for he should not stay long in the place of the breaking forth of children.

4 (e) It may be the LORD thy God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent (f) to reproach the living God, (g) and will reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore (h) lift up thy prayer for the remnant that is left.

(e) 1 Sam. xiv. 6. And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over unto the garrison of these uncircumcised; it may be that the Lord will work for us: for there is no restraint to the Lord to save, by many or by few.

2 Sam. xvi. 12. It may be that the Lord will look on mine affliction, and that the Lord will requite me good for his cursing this day.

Amos v. 15. Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: it may be that the Lord God of hosts shall be with you, as ye have spoken.

(f) 1 Sam. xvii. 26. And David spake to the men that stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the reproach from Israel? for who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God?

2 Kings xix. 4. It may be the Lord thy God will hear all the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God; and will reprove the words which the Lord thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that are left.

(g) Ps. l. 21. These things hast thou done, and I kept silence; thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as thyself: but I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.

(h) 1 Sam. vii. 8. And the children of Israel said to Samuel, Cease not to cry unto the Lord our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistines.

xii. 19. And all the people said unto Samuel, Pray for thy servants unto the Lord thy God, that we die not: for we have added unto all our sins this evil, to ask us a king.

2 Chr. xxxii. 20. And for this cause Hezekiah the king, and the prophet Isaiah, the son of Amoz, prayed and cried to heaven.

Ps. cvi. 23. Therefore he said, that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

Joel ii. 17. Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, keep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

James v. 16. Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say unto your master, Thus saith the LORD, (i) Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.

(i) Ex. xiv. 13. And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the Lord, which he will show to you to-day: for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to-day, ye shall see again no more for ever.

Lev. xxvi. 8. And five of you shall chase an hundred, and an hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight: and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.

Josh. xi. 6. And the Lord said unto Joshua, Be not afraid because of them; for to-morrow about this time will I deliver them up all slain before Israel: thou shalt hough their horses, and burn their chariots with fire.

Mark iv. 40. And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith? v. 36. As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe.

7 Behold, (k) I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and return to his own land; and (l) I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

(k) 2 Kings vii. 6. For the Lord had made the host of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host; and they said one to another, Lo, the king of Israel hath hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us.

Job iv. 9. By the blast of God they perish, and by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed. xv. 21. A dreadful sound is in his ears: in prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him.

Ps. lviii. 9. Before your pots can feel the thorns, he shall take them away as with a whirlwind, both living and in his wrath.

(l) 2 Chr. xxxii. 21. And the Lord sent an angel, which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria: so he returned with shame of face to his own land. And, when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth out of his own bowels slew him there with the sword.

8 ¶ So (m) Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.

(m) 2 Kings xix. 8. So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.

9 And (n) he heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come forth to make war with thee. And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

(n) 1 Sam. xxiii. 27. But there came a messenger unto Saul, saying, Haste thee, and come: for the Philistines have invaded the land.

28. Wherefore Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Philistines: therefore they called that place Sela-hammahlekoth.

10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God, in whom thou trustest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them utterly: and shalt thou be delivered?

12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Telassar?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Henah, and Ivah?

14 ¶ And Hezekiah, (o) received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: (p) and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

(o) 2 Kings xix. 14. And Hezekiah received the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the house of the Lord, and spread it before the Lord.

(p) Ps. cxliii. 6. I stretch forth my hands unto thee: my soul thirsteth after thee, as a thirsty land. Selah.

15 And Hezekiah (q) prayed unto the LORD, saying,

(q) 1 Sam. vii. 8. And the children of Israel said to Samuel, Cease not to cry unto the Lord our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistines.

9. And Samuel took a sucking lamb, and offered it for a burnt-offering wholly unto the Lord: and Samuel cried unto the Lord for Israel; and the Lord heard him.

2 Chr. xiv. 11. And Asa cried unto the Lord his God, and said, Lord, it is nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power: help us, O Lord our God; for we rest on thee, and in thy name we go against this multitude. O Lord, thou art our God; let not man prevail against thee.

Phil. iv. 6. Be careful for nothing: but in every thing by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God.

7. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

James v. 13. Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms.

16 O (r) LORD of hosts, God of Israel, that (s) dwellest between the cherubims, (t) thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth: (u) thou hast made heaven and earth.

(r) 2 Sam. vii. 26. And let thy name be magnified for ever, saying, The Lord of hosts is the God over Israel: and let the house of thy servant David be established before thee.

Ps. xlii. 7. The Lord of hosts is with us, the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

(s) Ex. xxv. 22. And there I will meet with thee, and I will commune with thee from above the mercy-seat, from between the two cherubims which are upon the ark of the testimony, of all things which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel.

Ps. lxxx. 1. Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel; thou that leadest Joseph like a flock, thou that dwellest between the cherubims, shine forth.

Heb. iv. 16. Let us, therefore, come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

(t) 1 Kings xviii. 39. And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces; and they said, The Lord, he is the God; the Lord, he is the God.

2 Kings v. 15. And he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came and stood before him: and he said, Behold, now I know that there is no God in all the earth but in Israel; now, therefore, I pray thee, take a blessing of thy servant.

(u) Gen. i. 1. In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.

Ps. cxlvi. 6. Which made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that therein is; which keepeth truth for ever.

Is. xl. 28. Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding.

xliv. 24. Thus saith the Lord, thy Redeemer, and he that formed thee from the womb, I am the Lord that maketh all things; that stretcheth forth the heavens above; that spreadeth abroad the earth by myself.

John i. 3. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

Col. i. 16. For by him were all things created that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers; all things were created by him, and for him.

17 (x) Incline thine ear, O LORD, and hear; open thine eyes, O LORD, and see: and (y) hear all the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach the living God.

(x) 2 Chr. vi. 40. Now, my God, let I beseech thee, thine eyes be open, and let thine ears be attent unto the prayer that is made in this place.

Ps. xvii. 6. I have called upon thee; for thou wilt hear me, O God: incline thine ear unto me, and hear my speech.

lxxi. 2. Deliver me in thy righteousness, and cause me to escape: incline thine ear unto me, and save me.

cxxx. 1. Out of the depths have I cried unto thee, O Lord.

2. Lord, hear my voice; let thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.

1 Pet. iii. 12. For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers; but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil.

(y) Ps. lxxiv. 10. O God, how long shall the adversary reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever?

22. Arise, O God, plead thine own cause: remember how the foolish man reproacheth thee daily.

lxxix. 12. And render unto our neighbours seven-fold into their bosom their reproach, wherewith they have reproached thee, O Lord.

18 Of a truth, LORD, (z) the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations, and their countries,

(z) Nah. ii. 11. Where is the dwelling of the lions, and the feeding-place of the young lions, where the lion, even the old lion, walked, and the lion's whelp, and none made them afraid?

12. The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey, and his dens with ravine.

19 And (a) have cast their gods into the fire: for they were (b) no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them.

(a) Ex. xxxii. 20. And he took the calf which they had made, and burnt it in the fire, and ground it to powder, and strewed it upon the water, and made the children of Israel drink of it.

2 Sam. v. 21. And there they left their images, and David and his men burnt them.

(b) Hos. viii. 6. For from Israel was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is not God: but the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

20 Now, therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, (c) that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD, even thou only.

(c) Ps. lix. 13. Consume them in wrath, consume them, that they may not be; and let them know that God ruleth in Jacob unto the ends of the earth. Selah.

lxvii. 1. God be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us. Selah.

2. That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations.

lxxxiii. 17. Let them be confounded and troubled for ever; yea, let them be put to shame, and perish:

18. That men may know that thou, whose name alone is JEHOVAH, art the Most High over all the earth.

Ez. xxxvi. 23. And I will sanctify my great name which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, saith the Lord God, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes.

Mal. i. 11. For from the rising of the sun, even unto the going down of the same, my name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the Lord of hosts.

21 ¶ Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria:

22 This is the word which the LORD hath spoken concerning him; (d) The virgin, the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath (e) shaken her head at thee.

(d) Jer. xiv. 17. Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them, Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease: for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow.

Lam. i. 15. The Lord hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me; he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men: the Lord hath trodden the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a wine-press.

ii. 13. What thing shall I take to witness for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy breach is great like the sea; who can heal thee?

Amos v. 2. The virgin of Israel is fallen, she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up.

(e) Job xvi. 4. I also could speak as ye do: if your soul were in my soul's stead, I could heap up words against you, and shake mine head at you.

23 (f) Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed; and (g) against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against (h) the Holy One of Israel.

(f) Ex. v. 2. And Pharaoh said, Who is the Lord, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not the Lord, neither will I let Israel go.

2 Kings xix. 22. Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Israel.

2 Chr. xxxii. 17. He wrote also letters to rail on the Lord God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand.

Ps. xliv. 16. For the voice of him that reproacheth and blasphemeth; by reason of the enemy and avenger.

lxxiii. 9. They set their mouth against the heavens; and their tongue walketh through the earth.

(g) Ex. ix. 17. As yet exaltest thou thyself against my people, that thou wilt not let them go?

Prov. xxx. 13. There is a generation, O how lofty are their eyes! and their eye-lids are lifted up.

Ez. xxviii. 2. Son of man, say unto the prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord God, Because thine heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, I am a god, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas; yet thou art a man, and not God, though thou set thine heart as the heart of God.

(h) Ez. xxxix. 7. So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let them pollute my holy name any more: and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, the Holy One of Israel.

Hab. i. 12. Art thou not from everlasting, O Lord my God, mine Holy One? We shall not die. O Lord, thou hast ordained them for judgment; and, O mighty God, thou hast established them for correction.

13. Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity: wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he?

24 By thy servants hast thou reproached the LORD, and hast said, (i) By the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon: and I will cut down the tall cedars thereof, and the choice fir-trees thereof: and I will enter into the height of his border, and the forest of his Carmel.

(i) Ez. xv. 9. The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; my lust shall be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them.

Ps. xx. 7. Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of the Lord our God.

Dan. iv. 30. The king spake and said, Is not this great Babylon that I have built for the house of the kingdom, by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?

25 I have digged and drunk water; and (k) with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of the besieged places.

(k) 2 Kings xix. 24. I have digged and drunk strange waters, and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of besieged places.

26 Hast thou not heard long ago, (l) how I have done it; and of ancient times that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste defended cities into ruinous heaps.

(l) Gen. i. 20. But as for you, ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive.

Ps. lxxvi. 10. Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee, the remainder of wrath shalt thou restrain.

Is. xlv. 7. I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil. I the Lord do all these things.

xlvi. 10. Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure:

11. Calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man that executeth my counsel from a far country: yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it.

Amos iii. 6. Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, and the Lord hath not done it?

Acts ii. 23. Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain.

Jude 4. For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation; ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 Therefore (m) their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded: they were (n) as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the house-tops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

(m) Num. xiv. 9. Only rebel not ye against the Lord, neither fear ye the people of the land; for they are bread for us: their defence is departed from them, and the Lord is with us; fear them not.

2 Kings xix. 26. Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the house-tops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

Jer. xxxvii. 10. For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

(n) Ps. xxxvii. 2. For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.

xc. 5. Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep: in the morning they are like grass which groweth up.

6. In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth. ciii. 15. As for man, his days are as grass; as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.

James i. 10. But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11. For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

1 Pet. i. 24. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away.

28*But (o) I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me.

(o) Prov. v. 21. For the ways of man are before the eyes of the Lord, and he pondereth all his goings.

xv. 3. The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

Jer. xxiii. 23. Am I a God at hand, saith the Lord, and not a God afar off?

24. Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the Lord: do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the Lord.

Rev. ii. 13. I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you where Satan dwelleth.
