THE Committee appointed by the Board of Publication in obedience to a direction of the General Assembly of 1884 to revise the Psalter, having completed their work, herewith present the results of their labors.

The following persons were appointed by the Board to assist the Committee in the work, by correspondence, viz. : Revs. D. A. Duff, W. A. McKenzie, J. M. French, W. T. Meloy, D. D., S. G. Irvine, D. D., J. F. Hutchison, M. F. McKirahan ; Messrs. P. W. Hill and John M. Donaldson.

These gentlemen entered very zealously upon the work and performed a large amount of excellent labor, but for a variety of reasons—among which was the fact that, having no opportunity to consult with each other, their work was unavoidably conflicting, each person presenting a different tune for each selection—their labor was of less service to the Committee than it otherwise would have been ; and as the correspondence was quite laborious and somewhat expensive, it was by mutual consent discontinued.

The endeavor of the Committee has been to search the field of sacred music and to select only that which has highest merit and best adaptation to the sentiment and to congregational use. Tunes which have received the widest acceptance by the Church at large have been given the preference. Many of the tunes in the Psalter have been retained. Some have been transferred to other selections. Two hundred and twenty-one tunes have been added. They are all of acknowledged merit and it is believed will find general acceptance. Where divisions of Psalms have been necessary, care has been taken to draw the lines where the sentiment clearly admits of them, but occasionally arbitrary divisions have been necessitated, as no others were possible. Each selection with its tune or tunes occupies a single page. For convenience in use each selection is numbered, and the number corresponds with the number of the page.

A few chants, voluntaries and anthems are added.

The utmost care has been taken by the Committee to give proper credit and obtain proper permission for the use of tunes from those owning the copyright, and thanks are due to the corresponding members and many others for valuable suggestions and assistance; also to Dr. H. R. Palmer, Prof. W. A. Lafferty and Judge C. C. Converse, for permission to use their valuable compositions without compensation.

The revision has been a work of much labor, and is now submitted to the Church with the hope and prayer that it may contribute something to the service of praise, and thereby to the glory of God.

| 1 How blest and happy is the manWho walketh not astrayIn counsel of ungodly men,Nor stands in sinners' way,                | 4 And all he does shall prosper well :The wicked are not so,But like the chaff before the wind,Are driven to and fro. |
| 2 Nor sitteth in the scorner's chair,But places his delightUpon God's law, and meditatesOn his law day and night.          | 5 In judgment therefore shall not standSuch as ungodly are ;Nor in th' assembly of the justShall wicked men appear.   |
| 3 He shall be like a tree that growsSet by a river's side,Which in its season yields its fruit,And green its leaves abide. | 6 Because the way of godly menIs to Jehovah known ;Whereas the way of wicked menShall quite be overthrown.            |

| 1 How blest the man that doth not stray         Where wicked counsel tempts his feet ;         Who stands not in the sinner's way,         And sits not in the scorner's seat,         But in God's law he takes delight,         And meditates both day and night. 2 He shall be like the tree that springs         Where streams of water gently glide ;         Which plenteous fruit in season brings, | And ever green its leaves abide.         Thus shall prosperity attend         The good man's work, till life shall end. 3 Not so ungodly men, for they         Like chaff before the wind are driven ;         Hence they'll not stand in judgment day,         Nor mingle with the saints in heaven.         The Lord approves the good man's path,         But sinners' ways shall end in wrath. |

| 1 | WHY rage the heathen? and vain thingsWhy do the people mind?The kings of earth do set themselves,And princes are combined,             | Thou art my only Son ; this dayI have begotten thee.  |
| 2 | To plot against the Lord, and hisAnointed, saying thus,Let us asunder break their bands,And cast their cords from us.                  | 6 Ask me, and for thy heritageThe heathen I'll make thine ;And, for possession, I to theeWill give earth's utmost line.   |
| 3 | But he that sits in heav'n shall laugh ;The Lord shall scorn them all ;Then shall he speak to them in wrath,In rage he vex them shall. | 7 Thou shalt as with a weighty rodOf iron break them all ;And them, as potter's vessel, thouShalt dash in pieces small.   |
| 4 | Yet I my King anointed haveUpon my holy hill ;And reign as King on Zion mountFor evermore he will.                                     | 8 Now, therefore, kings, be wise; be taught,Ye judges of the earth ;In holy fear Jehovah serve,And tremble in your mirth. |
| 5 | The sure decree I will declare ;The Lord hath said to me,  | 9 And kiss the Son, lest in his ireYe perish from the way,If once his wrath begin to burn.Blest all that on him stay.     |

PSALM 2. L. M.

- 1 WHY do the heathen storm with ire?      “Thou art proclaimed my only Son,
The people vanity devise?                      This day have I begotten thee.
The rulers craftily conspire,
The kings of earth rebellious rise.
- 2 Against the Lord they lift their hands,      6 “Ask for inheritance of me,
Against him and his Christ they say,              And I will make the heathen thine,
“Asunder let us break their bands,              And for possession, give to thee
And from us cast their cords away.”              The earth to its remotest line.
- 3 He that in heaven sits shall laugh,      7 “An iron sceptre thou shalt sway,
Jehovah shall deride them all;                      And with it break and crush them all;
Then as he speaks in burning wrath,              Even like the potter’s brittle clay, Dismay and dread shall on them fall.              Thou shalt them dash in pieces small.”
- 4 “Yet notwithstanding I ordain,”      8 And now, ye kings, be wise and hear;
Thus shall he speak his sov’rign will,              Be warned, ye judges of the earth;
“He my anointed King shall reign,              See that ye serve the Lord with fear,
On Zion, my own holy hill.”                      And mingle trembling with your mirth.
- 5 Thus spake to me the Holy One,      9 Unto the Son your homage pay,
I utter now the Lord’s decree,                      Lest, when his wrath begins to flame,
Ye fall and perish from the way.
Blest all confiding in his name.

PSALM 3. C. M.

1 O LORD, how are my foes increased !
 Against me many rise ;
 How many say of me, For him
 In God no safety lies !

2 Yet thou my shield and glory art,
 Thou liftest up my head ;
 I cried, and from his holy hill,
 The Lord me answer made.

3 I laid me down and slept, I waked,
 For God protected me.

I will not fear though thousands ten
 Arrayed against me be.

4 Arise, O Lord, save me, my God,
 Thou smitten hast my foes ;
 The face and teeth of wicked men
 Are broken by thy blows.

5 Salvation to the Lord belongs,
 In him his saints are blest ;
 Thy blessing, Lord, for evermore
 Shall on thy people rest.

PSALM 7. S. M. 1-7.

1 O LORD, my God, in thee
Do I my trust repose ;
O do thou save, and rescue me
From all my cruel foes.

2 Lest they my soul should tear,
And like a lion rend,
When no deliverer is near
To rescue and defend.

3 Lord, if thy searching eye
This crime in me hath seen ;
If on my hand the guilt do lie
Of this most grievous sin :

4 If evil I repaid
To one with me at peace,

(Yea, I my causeless foe did aid,
And freely did release ;)

5 Then let the foe in strife
Pursue me as his prey,
Tread down upon the earth my life,
In dust my honor lay.

6 In wrath lift up thy hand ;
My foes are filled with rage ;
Awake, and as thou didst command,
On my behalf engage.

7 So saints with one accord
Around thee shall draw nigh ;
And therefore for their sakes, O Lord,
Do thou return on high.

PSALM 7. 11s. 1-6.

- 1 JEHOVAH, my God, on thy help I depend ;
From all those who persecute, save and defend ;
Lest he like a lion, in rage tear my soul,
When no one is near me his rage to control.
- 2 My God, O Jehovah, if I have done this,
Or if in my hands this iniquity is ;
If him I have wronged who with me was at peace ;
(My foe without cause, I did even release ;)
- 3 My soul let the enemy seize for his prey,
My life and my honor in dust let him lay.
Arise, Lord, in anger, thy help interpose,
Arise, thou, because of the rage of my foes.
- 4 Awake, that my cause may by thee be sustained,
Awake to the judgment which thou hast ordained,
And then shall the people around thee draw nigh ;
For sake of them, therefore, return thou on high.
- 5 All nations of men shall be judged by the Lord ;
To me, O Jehovah, just judgment afford,
According as righteous in life I have been,
And ever integrity cherished within.
- 6 Establish the just, and let evil depart,
For God who is just tries the reins and the heart.
In God for defence I have placed all my trust ;
He saveth the upright, and judgeth the just.

PSALM 7. 11s. 7-9.

- 7 The Lord with the wicked is wroth every day,
 His sword, if they turn not, is sharpened to slay;
 His bow is now bent, and his arrows are aimed;
 His weapons of death for oppressors are framed.
- 8 Behold, he in wickedness labors with pain;
 He mischief conceives, but he brings forth in vain.
 He made a deep pit, other men to ensnare,
 But fell in the ditch which himself did prepare.
- 9 On him shall his mischievous plots return home,
 His violent deeds on his own head shall come:
 To God, for his righteousness, praises I'll sing;
 I'll sing to the name of Jehovah our King. >

PSALM 9. L. M. 1-9.

- 1 LORD, thee I'll praise with all my heart, In righteousness to judge the world,
 And all thy wondrous works proclaim; And justice give to every one.
 In thee, O thou Most High, I'll joy,
 And sing the praise of thy great name.
- 2 When back my enemies were turned, A Jehovah shall a refuge prove,
 They fell and perished at thy sight. A refuge strong for poor oppressed,
 Thou hast maintained my right and cause, A safe retreat, where weary souls
 And on thy throne sat judging right. In troublous times may find a rest.
- 3 The nations, Lord, thou hast rebuked, And they, O Lord, that know thy name,
 The wicked thou hast overthrown; Their confidence in thee will place;
 Their very names are blotted out, For thou, Jehovah, never hast
 That they may never more be known. Forsaken them that seek thy face.
- 4 Their ruin thou hast made complete; 8 Sing praises to the Lord most high,
 Their cities thou hast laid in heaps; To him that doth in Zion dwell;
 With them their name has passed away, Declare his mighty deeds abroad,
 Their mem'ry in oblivion sleeps. His deeds among all people tell.
- 5 The Lord forever shall endure, 9 When he inquiry makes for blood,
 He hath for judgment set his throne, He calls to mind the murderer's deed;
 Nor will forget the humble saints,
 Who cry to him in time of need.

PSALM 10. S. M. 12-18.

12 Do thou, O Lord, arise,
O God, lift up thy hand,
Do not forget the suffering poor,
The humble in the land.

13 Why doth the wicked man
The mighty God despise?
Because that thou wilt it require,
He in his heart denies.

14 But thou hast seen, thou wilt
Their wrongs and spite repay;
The poor commits himself to thee,
Thou art the orphan's stay.

15 Break thou the wicked's arm,
Subdue the evil one;

And search out all his wickedness
Until thou findest none.

16 Jehovah ever reigns,
And firm his throne shall stand.
The heathen nations are destroyed
Forever from his land.

17 Of those that humble are,
Thou, Lord, hast heard the prayer:
Thou also wilt prepare their heart,
And still incline thine ear;

18 To judge the fatherless,
And those by men distressed,
That they by man that is of earth
May be no more oppressed.

| 1 I IN Jehovah put my trust ;Then wherefore say to me,As timid birds a refuge seek,So to your mountain flee? 2 For, lo! the wicked bend the bow,On string their arrow fit,That those who upright are in heartIn secret they may hit; 3 For if foundations be destroyed,What hath the righteous done?Jehovah in his temple is,In heaven is his throne. | 4 His eyes do see, his eyelids tryMen's sons. The just he proves ;But his soul hates the wicked man,And him that vi'lence loves. 5 Snares, fire, and brimstone, raging storms,On sinners he shall rain ;This, as the portion of their cup,Shall unto them pertain. 6 Because the Lord most righteous dothIn righteousness delight ;And with a pleasant countenanceBeholdeth the upright. |

PSALM 18. C. M. 10-22.

- 10 He darkness made his secret place ;
 Around him gathered were
 For his pavilion, waters dark
 And clouds that fill the air.
- 11 And at the brightness of that light
 Which was before his eye,
 His thick clouds passed away, hailstones
 And coals of fire did fly.
- 12 Jehovah also in the heavens
 Did thunder in his ire ;
 And there the Highest gave his voice,
 Hailstones and coals of fire.
- 13 He sent his arrows forth, and they
 Were scattered far and near ;
 His lightnings also he shot out,
 And they confounded were.
- 14 The waters' channels then were seen,
 The world's foundations vast
 At thy rebuke discovered were,
 And at thy nostrils' blast.
- 15 And from above the Lord sent down,
 And took me from below ;
 From many waters drew me out,
 Which would me overflow.
- 16 He me relieved from my strong foes,
 And such as did me hate ;
- Because he saw that they for me
 Too strong were, and too great.
- 17 They rose against me in the day
 Of my calamity ;
 But even then the Lord himself
 A way was unto me.
- 18 He to a place where liberty
 And room was hath me brought ;
 Because he took delight in me,
 He my deliv'rance wrought.
- 19 According to my righteousness
 He did me recompense,
 He me repaid according to
 My hand's pure innocence.
- 20 For I have kept Jehovah's ways,
 From God turned not aside ;
 Before me still his judgments are,
 His statutes are my guide.
- 21 Sincere and upright in my heart
 Before his face was I ;
 And watchfully I kept myself
 From my iniquity.
- 22 According to my righteousness
 The Lord did me requite,
 According as my hands were clean
 Before his searching sight.

PSALM 18. C. M. 33-43.

- 33 My enemies I have pursued,
And them did overtake ;
Nor turned again till I of them
An utter end did make.
- 34 I wounded them, they could not rise,
They at my feet did fall.
Thou girdest me with strength for war,
My foes thou broughtst down all.
- 35 And thou hast given me the necks
Of such as are my foes ;
That I might them destroy who do
With hatred me oppose.
- 36 They in their trouble cried for help,
But there was none to save ;
Yea, they upon Jehovah called,
But he no answer gave.
- 37 Then did I beat them small as dust
Before the wind that flies ;
And I did cast them out like filth
Upon the street that lies.
- 38 Thou mad'st me free from people's strife,
The heathen's head to be ;
- A people whom I have not known
Shall service do to me.
- 39 At hearing they shall yield to me,
My will they shall obey :
From their enclosures, struck with fear,
Shall strangers fade away.
- 40 God lives, blest be my rock, and praised
Let God my Saviour be.
God doth avenge me, and subdues
The people under me.
- 41 He saves me from my enemies ;
Yea, thou hast lifted me
Above my foes ; and from the man
Of vi'lence set me free.
- 42 I therefore will to thee, O Lord,
In songs my thanks proclaim ;
And I among the heathen will Sing praises to thy name.
- 43 He great deliv'rance gives his king ;
He mercy doth extend
To David, his anointed one,
And his seed without end.

PSALM 18. L. M. 12-23.

- 12 He sent from heaven and rescued me
From many waters swelling high ;
From those that hate me set me free,
And foes that stronger were than I.
- 13 With fierce assault in sorrow's day,
My foes came on, but God was near ;
He saved me, and enlarged my way,
Because to him my soul was dear.
- 14 As I in life have righteous been,
Jehovah will his grace afford ;
According as my hands are clean,
He'll give to me a just reward.
- 15 Jehovah's ways I kept aright,
And from my God did not depart ;
I kept his judgments in my sight,
And all his statutes in my heart.
- 16 Sincere beneath his searching sight,
I kept from each besetting sin ;
So he my goodness doth requite,
According as my hands are clean.
- 17 To gracious men thou gracious art,
And pure to such as purely live,
Upright to men of upright heart,
But with the froward thou wilt strive.
- 18 For thou the troubled soul wilt save,
High looks wilt humble in thy might.
A lamp to me Jehovah gave,
And turned my darkness into light.
- 19 I on his mighty arm relied,
And over troops of foes prevailed ;
And with my God upon my side,
Their lofty walls I fearless scaled.
- 20 The way of God perfection shows,
Jehovah's holy word is tried ;
He is a buckler unto those
Who in his mighty power confide.
- 21 For who as God should be adored ?
Who but our God can us befriend ?
Who is a rock besides the Lord ?
Who else is able to defend ?
- 22 My loins with strength th' Almighty binds,
My way makes perfect by his hand ;
My feet he makes as swift as hinds',
On my high places makes me stand.
- 23 By him well trained in arts of war,
My arms the bow of steel shall break ;
Thy hand and shield my safety are,
And great thy kindness shall me make.

PSALM 19. H. M. 5-9.

5 God's perfect law converts
 The soul in sin that lies;
 His testimony sure
 Doth make the simple wise;
 His statutes just delight the heart;
 His holy precepts light impart.

6 The fear of God is clean,
 And ever doth endure;
 His judgments all are truth,
 And righteousness most pure.
 To be desired are they far more
 Than finest gold in richest store.

7 God's judgments to the taste
 More sweet than honey are,
 Than honey from the comb

That droppeth, sweeter far.
 With counsel they thy servant guard;
 In keeping them is great reward.

8 Who can his errors know?
 From secret faults me cleanse;
 Thy servant keep thou back
 From all presumptuous sins.
 O let them not my way control,
 Nor gain dominion o'er my soul.

9 Then in thy righteous way
 My life shall upright be;
 I shall be innocent —
 From great transgressions free.
 Accept my words and thoughts of heart;
 Lord, thou my strength and Saviour art.

PSALM 21. C. M.

1 JEHOVAH, in thy strength the king
Shall very joyful be ;
And in thy saving health exult
Exceedingly shall he.

2 For thou upon him hast bestowed
All that his heart would have ;
And thou from him hast not withheld
Whate'er his lips did crave.

3 Thou wilt him bless with timely gifts,
Of goodness manifold ;
And thou wilt set upon his head
A crown of purest gold.

4 And when of thee he life desired,
Thou life to him didst give,
Even such a length of days, that he
Forevermore should live.

5 In that salvation wrought by thee
His glory is made great ;
Yea, honor great and majesty
Thou hast upon him set.

6 For thou, O Lord, forevermore
Most blessed hast him made :
And with thy countenance thou hast
Him made exceeding glad.

7 Because the king his confidence
Upon the Lord doth place ;

And God Most High will him preserve
In his abundant grace.

8 Thy hand shall all those men find out
That en'mies are to thee,
And thy right hand discover those
Of thee that haters be.

9 Like furnace hot thou shalt them make,
When kindled is thy ire ;
God shall them swallow in his wrath,
Devour them shall the fire.

10 Their fruit from earth thou shalt destroy,
Their seed from men among ;
Because in fruitless malice they
Did mischief plot and wrong.

11 For thou shalt make them turn their back,
When arrows thou shalt place
Upon thy strings, and ready make
To fly against their face.

12 In thy great power and strength, O
Lord,
Do thou exalted be ;
So shall we sing with joyful hearts,
Thy power praise shall we.

THE PSALTER.

PSALM 21. 12s & 9s.

- 1 Now the king in thy strength shall be joyful, O Lord,
And shall in thy salvation rejoice ;
For the wish of his heart thou didst freely afford,
And request of his suppliant voice.
- 2 All the blessings he craved thou didst graciously give,
With the purest of gold he is crowned ;
When he asked of thee life, thou hast made him to live
While the ages shall circle around.
- 3 Through salvation from thee, has his fame spread abroad,
Thou didst glory and honor impart ;
Thou hast made him most blessèd forever, O God,
And thy presence has gladdened his heart.
- 4 For the king, in the name of Jehovah Most High
Did unwavering confidence place ;
On the name of Jehovah he still will rely,
And shall stand evermore in his grace.
- 5 Thou wilt stretch forth thy hand on the head of thy foes,
On thy haters a right hand of power ;
Then thy wrath shall around them like furnace flames close ;
Yea, the fire of God's wrath shall devour.
- 6 From the earth shall their race be consumed and destroyed,
And their offspring forever shall fail ;
By the evil they plotted, the schemes they employed,
They shall never against thee prevail.
- 7 But their back thou wilt make them to turn in swift flight,
When thy arrows are aimed at their face.
Be thou, O Jehovah, exalted in might,
We will sing of thy power and grace.

| 1 My God, my God, why me forsake?O why to me no answer make?In deep distress I cry, O Lord,Why stand afar — nor help afford?                            | 4 But I a worm, as no man prized,Reproached of men, by all despised;All shake the head, they mock and gaze,Each scornful lip contempt betrays.  |
| 2 All day, my God, I cry in vain,Nor can I in the night refrain:But thou art holy, who dost dwellAmid the songs of Israel.                              | 5 "He trusts in God; let God defendAnd save him, since he is his friend."Thou mad'st me first the light to see,In infant years to hope in thee. |
| 3 Our fathers put their trust in thee,They trusted and thou didst them free;To thee they cried, deliv'rance came;They hoped, and were not put to shame. | 6 From birth dependent on thy power,Thou art my God from childhood's hour;Be not far off: for trouble nears,And none to give me help appears.   |

PSALM 23. C. M.

- 1 THE Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want. For thou art with me, and thy rod
He makes me down to lie And staff me comfort still.
In pastures green ; he leadeth me
The quiet waters by.
- 2 My soul he doth restore again ;
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
Even for his own name's sake.
- 3 Yea, though I walk through death's dark vale,
Yet will I fear no ill ;
- 4 A table thou hast furnished me
In presence of my foes ;
My head thou dost with oil anoint,
And my cup overflows.
- 5 Goodness and mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me ;
And in God's house forevermore
My dwelling-place shall be.

PORTUGUESE HYMN. 11s.

PSALM 24. 11s.

- 1 THE earth and the fulness with which it is stored,
The world and its dwellers belong to the Lord ;
For he on the seas its foundation hath laid,
And firm on the waters its pillars hath stayed.
- 2 What man shall the hill of Jehovah ascend ?
And who in the place of his holiness stand ?
The man of pure heart, and of hands without stain,
Who swears not to falsehood, nor loves what is vain.
- 3 He shall from Jehovah the blessing receive,
The God of salvation shall righteousness give ;
For this is the people, yea, this is the race,
The Israel true who are seeking thy face.
- 4 Ye gates, lift your heads, and an entrance display,
Ye doors everlasting, wide open the way ;
The King of all glory high honors await,
The King of all glory shall enter in state.
- 5 What King of all glory is this that ye sing ?
The Lord, strong and mighty, the conquering King.
Ye gates, lift your heads, and an entrance display,
Ye doors everlasting, wide open the way.
- 6 The King of all glory high honors await,
The King of all glory shall enter in state.
What King of all glory is this that ye sing ?
Jehovah of hosts, he of glory is King.

PSALM 29. 12s and 11s.

- 1 YE sons of the mighty, give ye to Jehovah,
O give to him honor and strength evermore,
O give to the name of Jehovah due glory ;
In beauty of holiness bow and adore.
- 2 The voice of Jehovah comes over the waters ;
His voice o'er the vast and deep ocean is heard :
The God of all glory is speaking in thunder ;
How mighty, how awful the voice of the Lord !
- 3 The voice of Jehovah is breaking the cedars ;
The cedars which Lebanon's summit adorn ;
Yea, Lebanon, Sirion, too, he is making
To leap like a calf, or the young unicorn.
- 4 The voice of Jehovah the burning flame severs,
It makes the hinds calve, and the forest lays bare ;
It shakes the great desert, the desert of Kadesh ;
All join in his temple his praise to declare.
- 5 Upon the great waters Jehovah is seated,
A King whose dominion is never to cease.
Jehovah with power will strengthen his people ;
Jehovah will bless all his people with peace.

GERHARDT. 7s and 6s. D.

PSALM 30. 7s and 6s. D.

- 1 O LORD, by thee delivered,
 With songs I'll thee extol:
 No en'my hast thou suffered
 To glory o'er my fall.
 I cried to thee, Jehovah,
 Thou didst me heal and save;
 From death thou didst deliver,
 And ransom from the grave.
- 2 His holiness, remember,
 Ye saints give thanks and praise:
 A moment lasts his anger,
 His favor crowns our days.
 For sorrow, like a pilgrim,
 May sojourn for a night,
 But joy the heart shall gladden,
 When dawns the morning light.
- 3 In prosperous days I boasted,
 That nothing shall me move;
 Lord, thou hast made my mountain
 Stand firmly by thy love.

- But soon I was afflicted,
 For thou didst hide thy face;
 And then to thee, Jehovah,
 Arose my cry for grace.
- 4 What can my blood avail thee
 When in the grave I dwell?
 Shall dust repeat thy praises?
 Thy truth and glory tell?
 O Lord, on me have mercy,
 And my petition hear;
 That thou mayst be my helper
 In mercy, Lord, appear.
- 5 And now to joyous dancing
 My sorrow thou hast turned;
 And girded me with gladness,
 Who had in sackcloth mourned;
 That unto thee my glory
 May ceaseless praise accord.
 Forever I will render Thanksgiving to the Lord.

PSALM 31. S. M. D. 9-15.

9 My life in grief is past,
 My weary years in groans,
 For sin my strength is failing fast,
 Decayed are all my bones.

10 Reproached by every foe,
 And more, by neighbors near;
 Through fear, my friends no friendship show,
 They flee when I appear.

11 Forgotten like the dead,
 And spurned as broken ware;
 I hear the frequent slander spread;
 On every side is fear.

12 They join in dark accord,
 They plot my blood to shed:

I trusted have on thee, O Lord,
 "Thou art my God," I said.

13 My times are wholly thine,
 From cruel foes me take:
 Thy face make on thy servant shine,
 Save for thy mercy's sake.

14 From shame, O Lord, defend,
 For I to thee have cried;
 Let foes be shamed, to death descend,
 And, silent, there abide.

15 Do thou their tongues restrain,
 Who false reports do seek;
 And grievous things with proud disdain
 Against the righteous speak.

PSALM 31. C. P. M. 16-19.

16 How great the goodness thou hast stored

In secret for thy saints, O Lord,

Thy holy name who fear! [those

How great the mercies wrought for

Who do in thee their trust repose,

Before men's sons appear.

17 Thou in the secret of thy face,
Shalt find for them a hiding place

From proud oppressor's wrongs;

A safe retreat for them prepare,

And keep them in a covert there,

Secure from strife of tongues.

18 O let Jehovah blessed be,

Who showed his wondrous love to me

In city fortified;

"Cut off from thee," I said in fear,

Yet thou my suppliant voice didst hear,

When unto thee I cried.

19 O love the Lord all that him serve,

For he the faithful shall preserve,

And all the proud reward.

Be of good courage; he with strength

Will fill your steadfast hearts at length,

All ye who love the Lord.

104 PSALM 32. C. M. 8-12.

8 Thou art my hiding place, thou shalt
From trouble keep me free ;
With songs of my deliverance
Thou shalt encompass me.

Whose mouth, lest they come near to thee,
A bridle must command.

9 I will instruct thee, and thee teach
The way in which to go ;
And, with my eye upon thee set,
I will direction show.

11 The sorrows of the wicked man
Exceedingly abound ;
But him who trusts upon the Lord
Shall mercy compass round.

10 Then be not like the horse or mule,
Which do not understand ;

12 Ye righteous in the Lord be glad,
In him do ye rejoice :
All ye that upright are in heart,
For joy lift up your voice.

EDEN. 7s and 6s.

106 PSALM 32. 7s and 6s. 8-11.

8 I will instruct and teach thee,
And lest thou turn aside,
I'll in the way direct thee,
My eye shall be thy guide.

10 The sorrows of the wicked
In number shall abound ;
But those that trust Jehovah
His grace shall compass round.

9 Nor horse nor mule resemble,
Which do not understand ;
Whose mouths the bit and bridle
Must hold in safe command.

11 Ye righteous in Jehovah
Be glad, in him rejoice ;
All that in heart are upright,
For joy lift up your voice.

| 1 YE righteous in the Lord rejoice ;It comely is and right,That upright men with thankful voiceShould praise the Lord of might. 2 Praise God with harp, and unto himSing with the psaltery ;Upon a ten-stringed instrumentMake ye sweet melody. 3 A new song to him sing, and playWith loud noise skilfully ;For right is God's word, all his worksAre done in verity. 4 To judgment and to righteousnessA love he beareth still :The loving-kindness of the LordThe earth throughout doth fill. 5 The heavens by the word of GodDid their beginning take ;And by the breathing of his mouthHe all their hosts did make. 6 The waters of the seas he bringsTogether as a heap ; | And in storehouses by his powerHa layeth up the deep. 7 Let earth and all that live thereinWith rev'rence fear the Lord ;Let all the world's inhabitantsDread him with one accord. 8 For he did speak the word, and doneIt was without delay ;And it established firmly stood,Whatever he did say. 9 The Lord to naught the counsel bringsWhich heathen nations take ;And what the people have devisedOf no effect doth make. 10 The counsel of Jehovah standsForever firm and sure ;And of his heart the purposesFrom age to age endure. 11 That nation blessèd is whose GodJehovah is alone ;The people blessèd are whom heHath chosen for his own. |

PSALM 34. L. M. 6-11.

- 6 Ye children, come ; to me give ear,
 And learn how ye the Lord should fear :
 What man to length of life aspires,
 And many days of good desires ?
- 7 From evil let thy tongue abstain ;
 From speaking guile thy lips refrain ;
 From ev'ry wicked way depart ;
 Do good ; seek peace with all thy heart.
- 8 Upon the just God keeps his eyes ;
 His ears are open to their cries :
 Against the wicked sets his face,
 From earth their memory to erase.
- 9 When just men cry, Jehovah hears,
 And rescues them from all their fears ;
 The Lord draws nigh to broken hearts ;
 To contrite spirits, help imparts.
- 10 Though many ills the just befall,
 The Lord delivers from them all ;
 God shall him guard from every stroke,
 Nor shall a single bone be broke.
- 11 Ill slays the wicked ; ruin waits
 For him the righteous man who hates ;
 His servants' souls will God redeem ;
 None perish shall who trust in him.

| 8 My soul in God shall joy, and gladIn his salvation be ;And all my bones shall then exclaim,Lord, who is like to thee.          | 12 Had he my friend or brother been,I could have done no more ;I bowed in grief as one who dothA mother's loss deplore.      |
| 9 Thou dost the poor set free from himThat is for him too strong ;The poor and needy from the manThat spoils and does him wrong. | 13 But in my trouble they rejoiced,And they together met,Yea, abjects vile together didThemselves against me set.            |
| 10 False witnesses against me rose,And unknown charges made :They, to the spoiling of my soul,Me ill for good repaid.            | 14 I knew it not ; they did me tear,And quiet would not be.With mocking hypocrites, at feastsThey gnashed their teeth at me. |
| 11 But as for me, when they were sick,In sackcloth sad I mourned ;My humbled soul did fast, my prayerInto my bosom turned.       | 15 How long, O Lord, wilt thou look on ?From ruins they intendO save my soul, from lions youngMy darling do defend.          |

PSALM 35. L. M. 15-21.

- 15 Let not my causeless foes, elate
 With joy, o'er me triumphant cry;
 Nor they who me unjustly hate,
 With secret scorning wink the eye.
- 16 They speak not peace, but falsehoods they
 Against the quiet ones devise;
 Make wide their mouths at me, and say,
 "Aha! we've seen it with our eyes."
- 17 This thou hast seen, thy silence break!
 Lord, be from me not far away,
 Stir up thyself, my God awake
 To judgment; nor my cause delay.
- 18 Judge me in righteousness, O God;
 Let them not triumph over me;
- Nor from their hearts proclaim abroad,
 "Aha! our soul's desire we see."
- 19 Let them who glory in my fall,
 Not say, "We have him swallowed quite!"
 Dishonor, shame, confound them all,
 Who rise against me in their might.
- 20 But let them shout, let them rejoice,
 Who long to see me justified;
 Yea, let them say, with ceaseless voice,
 The Lord, the Lord be magnified.
- 21 The Lord who loves his servant's peace,
 To him prosperity doth give.
 My joyful tongue shall never cease
 To praise thy justice while I live.

| 2 For even like the fading grass,Soon be cut down shall they ;And, like the green and tender herb,They wither shall away.       | 7 Do thou from anger cease, and wrathSee thou forsake also ;Fret not thyself in any wise,That evil thou shouldst do.     |
| 3 Set thou thy trust upon the Lord,And be thou doing good ;And so thou in the land shalt dwell,And verily have food.            | 8 For they that evil-doers areShall be cut off and fall ;But they who wait upon the LordThe earth inherit shall.         |
| 4 Delight thyself in God ; he'll giveThy heart's desire to thee.Thy way to God commit, him trust,It bring to pass shall he.     | 9 For yet a little while, and thenThe wicked shall not be ;His place thou shalt consider well,But it thou shalt not see. |
| 5 And like the morning light he shallThy righteousness display ;And he thy judgment shall bring forthLike noon-tide of the day. | 10 But by inheritance the earthThe meek ones shall possess ;They also shall delight themselvesIn an abundant peace.      |

PSALM 37. C. M. D. 11-19.

|---|---|
| 11 The wicked plot and gnash their teeth ;Against the just they stand ;The Lord shall laugh at them, becauseHe sees their day at hand.      | He knows their days, and evermoreTheir heritage remains.  |
| 12 The wicked have drawn out the sword,And bent their bow, to slayThe poor and needy, and to killThe men of upright way.                    | 16 They shall not be ashamed when theyThe evil times shall see ;And when the days of famine areThey satisfied shall be.       |
| 13 But yet the sword which they have drawnShall enter their own heart ;Their bows which they have bent shallbreak,And into pieces part. | 17 But wicked men and foes of GodAs fat of lambs decay ;They shall consume, yea, into smokeThey shall consume away.           |
| 14 A little that a just man hathIs more and better farThan is the wealth of many suchAs lewd and wicked are.                                | 18 The wicked borrows, but the sameAgain he doth not pay ;Whereas the righteous mercy shows,And gives his own away.           |
| 15 For sinners' arms shall broken be ;But God the just sustains.  | 19 Because they whom the Lord doth blessThe earth as heirs shall own ;But all accursed of him shall beCut off and overthrown. |

| 20 The footsteps of the righteous manThe Lord directs aright ;And in the way in which he walksHe taketh great delight.     | 24 For God loves judgment, and his saintsLeaves not in any case ;They are kept ever ; but cut offShall be the sinner's race.       |

Joy and triumph when I fall.

12 Great in power, life, and number,

Evil they for kindness render,
Hating me for doing good.

11 Ready now to halt and stumble,
Griefs before me still have been;
I'll confess with spirit humble,
And be sorry for my sin.

To my Saviour I betake me;
Hasten, Lord, give help to me.

| 2 As dumb, I silent stood,From words I did refrain,I held my peace from speaking good,My soul was filled with pain.        | 5 Lord, thou hast made my yearsTo measure but a span;As naught to thee my age appears;How vain, at best, is man!      |
| 3 My heart was all on fire,With burning thoughts suppressed;Then, with my tongue, my soul's desireI thus to God addressed: | 6 Man lives in empty show,His anxious care is vain,He hoards his wealth, and doth not knowWho shall possess his gain. |

GREENWOOD. S. M.

The musical score consists of three systems of two staves each. The top staff is in treble clef and the bottom staff is in bass clef. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 3/4. The music is a simple harmonic setting of the psalm text, using mostly quarter and eighth notes with some rests.

134 PSALM 40. C. M. 1-4.

1 I WAITED for the Lord my God,
And patiently did bear;
At length to me he did incline
My voice and cry to hear

2 He took me from a fearful pit,
And from the miry clay,
Upon a rock he set my feet,
Establishing my way.

3 He put a new song in my mouth,
Our God to magnify;
Many shall see it, and shall fear,
And on the Lord rely.

4 O blessèd is the man whose trust
Upon the Lord relies;
Respecting not the proud, nor such
As turn aside to lies.

137 PSALM 40. L. H. M. 1-6.

1 I WAITED long for God Most High,
 And he inclined to hear my cry ;
 He took me from a fearful pit,
 And from the miry clay ;
 Upon a rock he set my feet,
 Establishing my way.

2 He taught my mouth and lips to fram
 New songs to magnify his name.
 This many seeing, filled with fear,
 Shall on the Lord rely ;
 Blest in their trust, they shun with care
 The proud, and such as lie.

3 O Lord my God, thy wonders wrought,
 And thy kind thoughts exceed all thought ;
 No mind can their vast sum contain.
 If them I would declare,
 And speak of them, the task is vain,
 So numberless they are.

4 Sin-offering thou hast not desired,
 Burnt sacrifice hast not required.
 O Lord, thou opened hast my ears ;
 I come, said I to thee.
 Lo, this within thy book appears ;
 There it is said of me :

5 To do thy holy will aright,
 O Lord my God, is my delight ;
 Thy law within my heart doth reign,
 Thy justice I have shown ;
 That I my lips did not refrain,
 To thee, O Lord, is known.

6 I have not in my heart concealed,
 But to the saints thy truth revealed ;
 The righteousness which thou hast wrought,
 And faithfulness made known ;
 And thy salvation I have taught,
 Thy love and truth have shown.

PSALM 40. L. H. M. 7-11.

7 I for thy tender mercies cried,
 O Lord, let them not be denied;
 To me thy loving-kindness show,
 Thy truth be still my stay.
 Let them preserve me where I go,
 And keep me every day.

8 Encompassed round with ills untold,
 On me my sins have taken hold,
 They're more than hairs upon my head,
 And shame my face hath veiled.
 Lord, save me, haste to give me aid,
 My very heart hath failed.

9 All those who seek my soul to kill,
 Together let confusion fill.
 Those who desire my hurt, O Lord,

Drive backward in their way;
 Make desolate as their reward,
 To me "aha" that say.

10 Let all who seek to see thy face
 Be glad and joyful in thy grace;
 Let those who thy salvation love
 Continually proclaim,
 "O praise the Lord who dwells above,
 And magnify his name."

11 I'm poor and needy, yet the Lord
 With kindest thoughts will me regard.
 Thy helping grace thou wilt impart,
 And keep me in the way,
 Thou only my deliv'rer art,
 My God, do not delay.

DEVIZES. C. M.

142 PSALM 42. C. M. 1-6.

1 As in its thirst the panting hart
To water-brooks doth flee,
So pants my longing soul, O God,
That I may come to thee.

2 My soul for God, the living God,
Doth thirst; when shall I near
Before thy countenance approach,
And in God's sight appear?

3 My tears have unto me been meat,
Both in the night and day;
While unto me continually,
Where is thy God? they say.

4 My soul within me is poured out
When this I think upon;
Because that with the multitude
I heretofore had gone:

5 With them into God's house I went
With voice of joy and praise;
Yea, with the multitude that kept
The solemn holy days.

6 O why art thou cast down, my soul?
Why in me so dismayed?
Trust God, for I shall praise him yet,
His presence is my aid.

| 7 My God, my soul's cast down in me ;I thee remember willFrom Jordan's land, from Hermon'sheights,And even Mizar-hill. | Beneath oppression of my foesWhy do I mourning go?  |
| 8 In answer to thy water-spouts,Deep unto deep doth call ;Thy breaking waves pass over me,Yea, and thy billows all.         | 11 'Tis as a sword within my bones,When me my foes upbraid ;When it by them, Where is thy God?Is daily to me said.        |
| 9 His loving-kindness yet the LordCommand will in the day ;His song is with me in the night ;To God, my life, I'll pray.    | 12 O why art thou cast down, my soul?Why thus with grief oppressed,Art thou disquieted in me?In God still hope and rest ; |
| 10 I'll say to God my rock, O whyDost thou forget me so?  | 13 For yet I know I shall him praiseWho graciously to meThe health is of my countenance,Yea, my own God is he.            |

SNOWDEN. 8s &amp; 4s.

144 PSALM 42. 8s & 4s. 1-4.

1 As pants the hart for cooling flood,
 So pants my soul, O living God,
 To taste thy grace.
 When unto thee shall I draw near?
 O when within thy courts appear,
 And see thy face?

2 Tears day and night have been my bread,
 Whilst, "Where is now thy God?" is said
 By foes to me.
 I call these things to mind with grief.
 My soul I then, to find relief,
 Pour out to thee.

3 With numbers gathered from abroad
 I went to seek the house of God,
 With joy and praise.
 I ever joined with true delight
 The multitude which kept aright
 The holy days.

4 O thou my soul, why so depressed?
 Why thus with vexing thoughts oppressed?
 On God rely;
 For I shall yet behold his face;
 My God, who helps me by his grace
 I'll magnify.

PSALM 42. 8s &amp; 4s. 5-8.

- 5 My God, my soul's cast down, yet still
 From Jordan, Hermon, Mizar-hill,
 I'll think of thee.
 Deep calls to deep with deafening roar,
 Thy water-spouts and billows pour
 Their floods on me.
- 6 God will command his love by day,
 And I by night will sing and pray
 To God my life.
 To God my rock I'll make my plea,
 O why hast thou forgotten me
 Amidst this strife?
- 7 Why ever restless do I mourn,
 Oppressed by foes whose words of scorn
 Are spread abroad?
 And daily their reproachful words
 Have pierced my soul like cutting swords:
 "Where is thy God?"
- 8 O thou my soul, why so depressed?
 Why thus with vexing thoughts op-
 pressed?
 On God rely;
 For I shall yet behold his face;
 My God, who helps me by his grace,
 I'll magnify.

RESIGNATION. 11s.

151

PSALM 44. 11s. 1-6.

- 1 O GOD, we have heard, and our fathers have taught
The works which of old, in their day, thou hadst wrought.
The nations were crushed, and expelled by thy hand,
Cast out that thy people might dwell in their land.
- 2 They gained not the land by the edge of the sword,
Their own arm to them could no safety afford ;
But by thy right hand, and the light of thy face,
The strength of thy arm, and because of thy grace.
- 3 To Jacob, O God, thou my Saviour and King,
Command, and thy word shall deliverance bring.
We through thy assistance will push down our foes ;
In thy name we'll trample on all that oppose.
- 4 No trust will I place in my bow to defend,
Nor yet on my sword for my safety depend,
In God who has saved us, and put them to shame,
We boast all the day, ever praising his name.
- 5 But now we're cast off, and with shame are brought low ;
No more to the field with our troops dost thou go.
From foes thou hast made us turn back with dismay,
And those who have hated us seize on the prey.
- 6 Like sheep to the slaughter, for meat we are given,
And widely dispersed 'midst the heathen are driven.
Thy people thou sellest for naught, and in vain,
Their price has returned thee no increase of gain.

THE SAINT'S HOME. 11s.

The musical score consists of two systems, each with a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment (bass clef). The key signature is B-flat major (two flats) and the time signature is 4/4. The first system includes first and second endings, marked '1st.' and '2nd.' respectively. The second system also includes first and second endings, marked '1st.' and '2nd.' respectively. The music is written in a simple, hymn-like style with block chords and melodic lines.

PSALM 44. 11s. 7-12.

- 7 Our name have our neighbours reproached in their pride,
They cease not around us to scoff and deride.
A bye-word and proverb 'midst heathen we're made;
Against us the people in scorn shake their head.
- 8 Before me I constantly see my disgrace,
And shame and confusion have covered my face;
For foes in revilings and slanders delight,
Their hearts full of hate and revengeful despise.
- 9 Though all these sore evils have been our sad lot,
Our God and his cov'nant we have not forgot.
Our heart turned not back, our feet have not strayed,
Though broken 'midst dragons, and clothed with death's shade.
- 10 If we have forgotten the name of our God,
Or unto some idol our hands spread abroad,
Shall not the Almighty, who sees all within,
And knows the heart's secrets, discover this sin?
- 11 Yea, all the day long for thy sake we're consumed;
Like sheep for the slaughter to death we are doomed.
Awake, O Jehovah, and sleep thou no more;
Arise for our help, cast not off evermore.
- 12 O why hast thou hidden the light of thy face,
Forgetting how enemies grieve and oppress?
Our soul's crushed to earth, and we cleave to its dust,
Rise, help, and redeem us, thy mercy we trust.

|---|---|
| 1 GOD is our strength and refuge high ;A sure and present help is he,When dark and troublous days are nigh ;Hence free from fear our hearts shallbe.Tho' earthquakes move the world,And hills 'midst seas be hurled,Though waters of the deepIn turmoil roar and leap,And swelling shake the mountains steep. | 3 The nations rage, the kingdoms shake,His voice goes forth, earth meltsaway.The Lord of hosts our part doth take,And Jacob's God is shield and stay.Come, then, let all draw near,And view with holy fearThe works surpassing thoughtJehovah's arm hath wrought,What ruins he on earth hath brought. |
| 2 A river flows, whose waters clearThe city of our God make glad,The holy tabernacles, whereThe Highest One his dwelling made,In midst of her hath GodEstablished his abode ;No trouble can her move,For God her help will prove,When morning light dawns from above.  | 4 To earth's remotest bounds he turnsWars into peace : He breaks the bow ;He cuts the spear, the chariot burns.That I am God, be still and know ;Among the heathen IWill be exalted high ;On earth supreme. The LordOf hosts doth aid afford,And Jacob's God is shield and sword.                          |

163 PSALM 48. S. M. D. 1-6.

1 THE Lord our God is great,
And greatly to be praised,
Within his city where his throne
Is on Mount Zion raised.

2 The joy of all the earth,
The walls of Zion rise
Most beautiful, and on the north
The great King's city lies.

3 God in her palaces
Is known a refuge high ;
For, lo, assembled kings drew near,
But quickly hasted by.

4 They saw, they were amazed,
And seized with sudden dread,
With anguish like sore travail pains,
They turned their backs and fled.

5 By thee the Tarshish ships
On stormy seas are tossed,
And broken by an Eastern wind
Are with their treasures lost.

6 Such things our eyes have seen,
As we had heard before,
In our God's city, which he will Establish evermore.

LOUISVILLE. S. M.

PSALM 48. S. M. 7-12.

7 Within thy temple, Lord,
 In that most holy place,
 We on thy loving-kindness thought,
 And wonders of thy grace.

8 According to thy name
 Through all the earth's thy praise :
 And every work of thy right hand
 Thy righteousness displays.

9 Let Zion now rejoice,
 And Juda's daughters sing ;
 Let them with joyfulness proclaim
 The judgments of their King.

10 About Mount Zion walk,
 Survey her walls with care,
 And look upon her lofty towers ;
 See what their numbers are.

11 Observe her palaces,
 And mark her ramparts well,
 That so what you have seen you may
 To future ages tell.

12 Because this God, our God,
 Forever will abide ;
 And till life's journey close in death
 Will be our faithful guide.

WARSAW. H. M.

165 PSALM 48. H. M.

1 WITHIN thy temple, Lord,
 We on thy mercies dwell ;
 As is thy name adored,
 So let thy praise excel :
 Thy praises sound through every land,
 And right thy sceptre shall command.

2 Let Zion Mount rejoice,
 Let Judah's daughters praise
 The Lord with cheerful voice,

For judgment he displays ;
 Go round the walls on Zion's Mount,
 Go round her splendors to recount.

3 The towers of Zion tell,
 Her palaces survey,
 Mark all her bulwarks well,
 And to your children say :
 This God forever shall abide,
 Ev'n unto death our God and guide.

166 PSALM 49. C. M. D. 1-8.

|---|---|
| 1 HEAR this, all people, and give ear,All in the world that dwell;Both low and high, both rich and poor:My mouth shall wisdom tell. | 5 Yet none of these his brother canRedeem by any way;Nor can he unto God for himSufficient ransom pay.                          |
| 2 My heart shall knowledge meditate:I will incline my earTo parables, and on the harpMy sayings dark declare.                       | 6 (Their soul's redemption precious is,And it can never be,)That still he should forever live,And not corruption see.           |
| 3 Amidst those days that evil are,Why should I, fearing, doubt?When enemies supplanting meShall compass me about.                   | 7 Because he sees that wise men die,The fools, the brutish, too,They all shall perish, and their wealthMust then to others go.  |
| 4 Who'er they be whose confidenceUpon their wealth is placed,And who do boast themselves becauseTheir riches are increased:         | 8 Their inward thought is, that their houseAnd dwelling-places shallContinue evermore; their landsBy their own names they call. |

| 9 But yet in honor shall not manAbide continually,But passing hence may therefore beCompared to beasts that die.                  | 13 Be not afraid when one advancedIn riches thou dost see ;Nor when his house in glory isIncreased exceedingly.                      |
| 10 Thus brutish folly plainly isTheir wisdom and their way ;Yet their posterity approveWhat they do fondly say.                   | 14 For he shall carry nothing henceWhen death his days shall end ;Nor shall his glory after himInto the grave descend.               |
| 11 Like sheep they in the grave are laid,And death shall them devour ;And in the morning upright menShall over them have power.   | 15 For though his soul he fondly blessWhile he on earth doth live ;(And when thou to thyself dost well,Men will thee praises give ;) |
| 12 Their beauty from their dwelling shallConsume within the grave ;But from hell's hand God will me free,For he shall me receive. | 16 He to his father's race shall go,They never shall see light.Man honored wanting knowledge isLike beasts that perish quite.        |

177 PSALM 51. 7s. 6 lines, 1-4.

1 LORD, to me compassion show,
As thy tender mercies flow ;
In thy vast and boundless grace,
My transgressions all erase ;
Wash me wholly from my sins,
Cleanse me from my guilty stains.

2 For my great transgression lies
Ever present to my eyes ;
I have sinned 'gainst thee alone,
In thy sight this evil done ;
That thy judgment may be clear,
And thy speaking just appear.

3 Lo, conceived was I in sin,
Born unholy and unclean ;
Yet thou dost desire to find
Truth sincere within the mind,
And thou wilt within my heart
Wisdom unto me impart.

4 Wash from every guilty stain,
Cleanse with hyssop, make me clean ;
Then from all pollution free,
Whiter than the snow I'll be.
Let me hear joy's cheering tones,
Making glad these broken bones.

ALETTA. 7s. 6 lines.

178 PSALM 51. 7s. 6lines. 5-9.

5 From my sins hide thou thy face,
Blot them out in thy rich grace;
Free my heart, O God, from sin,
Spirit right renew within.
Cast me not away from thee,
Nor thy Spirit take from me.

6 Give salvation's joy again,
Let thy Spirit me sustain,
Then shall sinners, taught by me,
Learn thy ways and turn to thee.
Free me from the guilt of blood,
God, of my salvation God.

7 Freed from guilt, my tongue shall raise
Songs thy righteousness to praise;
Open thou my lips, O Lord,

Then my mouth shall praise accord;
Sacrifice thou wilt not take,
Else would I the off'ring make.

8 Sacrifice, or burnt-off'ring,
Can to to thee no pleasure bring;
But a spirit crushed for sin,
Contrite, broken heart within,
Thine accepted sacrifice,
Thou, O God, wilt not despise.

9 Zion favor in thy grace,
Yea, Jerus'lem's ramparts raise;
Then shall sacrifices right,
Whole burnt-off'rings thee delight;
So shall men, their vows to pay,
Victims on thine altar lay.

|---|---|---|--|
| 1 | WHY dost thou boast, O mighty man,Of mischief and of ill?The goodness of Almighty GodEndureth ever still.                       | 5 | The righteous shall it see, and fear,And laugh at him they shall:Lo, this the man is that did notMake God his strength at all. |
| 2 | Thy tongue doth slanders mischievousDevise most cunningly,Like to a razor sharp to cut,It works deceitfully.                    | 6 | But he in his abundant wealthHis confidence did place;He also to himself took strengthFrom his own wickedness.                 |
| 3 | Ill more than good, and more than truthThou lovest speaking wrong:Thou lovest all-devouring words,O thou deceitful tongue.      | 7 | But I within the house of GodAm like an olive green;My confidence forever hathUpon God's mercy been.                           |
| 4 | So God shall thee destroy for aye,Remove thee, pluck thee outQuite from thy house, and from the landOf life he shall thee root. | 8 | And I forever will thee praise,Because thou hast done this;I on thy name will wait, for goodBefore thy saints it is.           |

| 1 O MIGHTY man, why boast in sin?Forever merciful is God.Thy tongue is like a razor keen,Devising wrong, and working fraud.                      | 5 But placed his confidence in gold,And wealth increased to ample store;In wickedness he grew more bold,In sin increased yet more and more. |
| 2 Yea, more than good thou lovest wrong,Lies more than truth thy lips employ,O thou deceitful, lying tongue,Thou lovest words that life destroy. | 6 But I within God's holy placeAm like a fruitful olive tree;My trust on God's abundant graceShall ever and forever be.                     |
| 3 So God shall thee destroy for aye,And pluck thee from thy dwelling place;The Lord shall thee remove away,And from the earth thy name erase.    | 7 Thy praise I ever will proclaim,Because, O Lord, thou hast done this;And I will wait upon thy name,For good before thy saints it is.      |

In power my judge appear ;
My earnest prayer do thou regard,
And to my voice give ear.
- 2 For foes against me rise,
Oppressors seek my soul ;
They set not God before their eyes,
Nor own his just control.
- 3 My helper is the Lord,
With those who me defend ;

With ill he shall my foes reward,
On them destruction send.

- 4 I'll free-will off'rings bring,
And sacrifice with joy.
Thy name is good ; its praise to sing
My tongue I will employ.
- 5 Because from all my woes
The Lord hath set me free ;
And he the ruin of my foes
Hath made my eyes to see.

|--|---|
| 1 My God, deliver me from thoseThat are my enemies ;And do thou me defend from thoseThat up against me rise.             | 5 Thou therefore, Lord, the God of hosts,The God of Israel,Awake to visit heathen all,Nor spare those who rebel.                        |
| 2 Do thou deliver me from themThat work iniquity ;And keep me safely from the menOf bloody cruelty.                      | 6 They at the evening time return,They make a howling sound,Even like a dog, and often walkAbout the city round.                        |
| 3 For, lo, they for my soul lay wait :The mighty do combineAgainst me, Lord, not for my fault,Nor any sin of mine.       | 7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth,And in their lips are swords ;For thus with confidence they say,Who now doth hear our words ? |
| 4 They run, and, without wrong in me,Themselves they ready make :Awake to meet me with thy help,And do thou notice take. | 8 But thou, O Lord, wilt laugh at them ;And all the heathen mock.While he's in power I'll wait on thee ;For God is my high rock.        |

| 9 The God of all my mercies willWith speed give help to me ;He my desire upon my foesWill cause my eyes to see.  | 13 Let them at evening time return,And make a howling sound,Even like a dog, and often walkAbout the city round.          |
| 10 O Lord our shield, destroy them not,My people would forget ;But scatter thou, and humble themBeneath thy power great.   | 14 And let them wander up and downIn seeking food to eat ;And let them grudge, when they shall notBe satisfied with meat. |
| 11 For their mouth's sin, and for the wordsWhich from their lips do fly,Let them be taken in their pride,Because they curse and lie.                               | 15 But of thy power I'll sing ; at mornAloud thy mercy praise ;For thou a tower and refuge wastTo me in troublous days.   |
| 12 In wrath consume them, them consume, 16 O God, thou art my strength, and IThat so they may not be ;And that in Jacob God doth ruleTo earth's ends let them see. | Will praises sing to thee ;For God is my defence, a GodOf mercy unto me.   |

PSALM 63. C. P. M. 1-3.

1 THOU art my God, O God Most High,
 And early seek thy face will I;
 My soul doth thirst for thee.
 My spirit thirsts to taste thy grace,
 My flesh longs in this barren place
 In which no waters be.

2 I long as in the times of old
 Thy power and glory to behold
 Within thy holy place;

Because to me thy wondrous love
 Than life itself doth dearer prove,
 My lips shall praise thy grace.

3 Thus will I bless thee while I live,
 And with uplifted hands will give
 Praise to thy holy name.
 As when with fatness well supplied,
 So shall my soul be satisfied,
 My mouth shall praise proclaim:

GANGES. C. P. M.

201 PSALM 63. C. P. M. 4-6.

4 My lips shall in thy praise delight
When on my bed I rest at night,
And meditate on thee.

Because thy hand assistance brings,
Beneath the shadow of thy wings
My heart shall joyful be.

5 My soul, O Lord, cleaves fast to thee,
And thy right hand upholdeth me ;
It doth my life defend :

But those who seek me for a prey,
That they may take my life away,
Shall into earth descend.

6 They by the sword shall fall and die,
Their flesh a prey for foxes lie.
In God the king shall joy :
Who swears by him shall still rejoice,
But mouths which speak with lying voice
He'll silence and destroy.

9 Thy visit brings the showers,
 Thy floods enrich the field :
 Thy blessing so provides it,
 That earth our food shall yield.

10 Thou waterest her ridges,
 Her furrows down are pressed ;
 With showers they are softened,
 Her spring by thee is blest.

11 The year is crowned with goodness,
 Thy paths drop fatness round ;
 The little hills and pastures
 With joyfulfulness resound.

12 The fields with flocks are covered,
 The vales with corn are clad ;
 They shout, yea, they are singing,
 For thou hast made them glad.

214 PSALM 68. C. M. 1-10.

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 1 LET God arise, and scattered farLet all his en'mies be ;And let all those who do him hateBefore his presence flee.          | 6 God doth the solitary setIn families ; and from bandsThe chained he frees, but rebels dwellIn dry and desert lands.     |
| 2 As smoke is driv'n, so drive thou them ;As fire melts wax away,Before God's face let wicked menSo perish and decay.         | 7 O God, when thou wast going forthBefore thy people's face,And when thy glorious marching wasWithin the wilderness ;     |
| 3 But let the righteous all be glad ;Rejoice before God's sight ;Let them exult exceedingly,And joy with all their might.     | 8 Then at God's presence shook the earth,Then drops from heaven fell ;This Sinai shook before the Lord,The God of Israel. |
| 4 O sing to God and praise his name ;Extol him with your voice,That rides on heav'n by his name JAH ;Before his face rejoice. | 9 O God, thou to thy heritageDidst send a plenteous rain,By which thou when it weary was,Didst it refresh again.          |
| 5 Because the Lord a father isTo children fatherless ;He is the widow's judge, withinHis place of holiness.                   | 10 Thy congregation then did makeTheir habitation there :Of thy own goodness for the poor,O God, thou didst prepare.      |

215 PSALM 68. C. M. D. 11-21.

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 11 The Lord himself did give the word,The mighty word of God ;Great was the company of themWho published it abroad.                    | As once on Sinai's holy mount,The Lord is them among.   |
| 12 Kings of great armies vanquished were,And forced to flee away ;And women, who remained at home,Distributed the prey.                | 17 Thou hast, O Lord, most gloriouslyAscended up on high,And captive thou triumphantlyHast led captivity,                         |
| 13 Though ye have lain among the pots,Like doves ye shall appear,Whose wings with silver, and with goldWhose feathers covered are.     | 18 And gifts thou hast received for men,For such as did rebel ;Yea, even for them, that God the LordIn midst of them might dwell. |
| 14 When thereth'Almighty scattered kings,Like Salmon's snow 'twas white.God's hill is like to Bashan hill,Like Bashan hill for height. | 19 Blest be the Lord, who is to usOf our salvation God,Who daily with his benefitsUs plenteously doth load.                       |
| 15 Why do ye leap, ye mountains high ?This is the hill of God ;He here desires to dwell, and hereWill ever make abode.                 | 20 He of salvation is the God,Who is our God most strong ;And unto God the Lord from deathThe issues do belong.                   |
| 16 God's chariots twenty thousand are,Of angels thousands strong ;   | 21 But surely God shall wound the headOf those that are his foes,The hairy scalp of him that onIn his transgression goes.         |

GLADNESS. C. M.

216 PSALM 68. C. M. 22-31.

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 22 God said, My people I will bring         Again from Bashan hill;         Yea, from the sea's devouring depths         Them bring again I will;    | 27 Their prince, young Benjamin, is there,         And Judah's rulers high,         The chiefs of Zebulon are there,         And those of Naphtali.                         |
| 23 That in the blood of enemies         Thy foot imbrued may be,         And of thy dogs dipped in the same         The tongues thou mayest see.     | 28 Thy God commands thy strength; for us         Make strong thy work, O Lord.         For thy house at Jerusalem         Kings shall thee gifts afford.                    |
| 24 O God, thy goings they have seen,         The goings of my God,         The stately steppings of my King         In his divine abode.             | 29 The spearmen's host, the multitude         Of bulls which fiercely look,         Those calves which people have sent         forth,         O Lord our God, rebuke, |
| 25 Before went singers, next to them         The players took their way;         Among them also damsels were         Who did on timbrels play.      | 30 Till every one submit himself,         And silver pieces bring:         The people that delight in war         Disperse, O God and King.                                 |
| 26 Within the congregations great         Bless God with one accord,         From Isr'el's fountain do ye bless,         And praise the mighty Lord. | 31 They who are princes great shall then         Come out of Egypt lands;         And Ethiopia to God         Shall soon stretch out her hands.                             |

217 PSALM 68. C. M. 32-35.

32 O all ye kingdoms of the earth,
Sing praises to this King ;
To him who is the Lord of all,
O do ye praises sing.

34 All strength to God do ye ascribe ;
His glorious majesty
Is over Isr'el, and his strength
Is in the clouds most high.

33 To him that rides on heav'ns of heav'ns,
Which he of old did found ;
Lo, he sends out his voice, a voice
In might that doth abound.

35 How dreadful from thy temple, Lord !
Isr'el's own God is he,
Who gives his people strength and power ;
O let God blessèd be.

| 1 O God, preserve me, for the floodsDo so encompass me,That even to my very soulCome in the waters be.                        | 6 O God, my folly and my sinsAre not concealed from thee.Let none that wait on thee be shamed,Lord God of hosts, for me. |
| 2 I downward in deep mire do sink,Where standing there is none,And into waters deep have come,Where floods have o'er me gone. | 7 O Lord, the God of Israel,Let none who seek thy faceBe ever made to suffer shameBecause of my disgrace.                |
| 3 I weary with my crying am,My throat is also dried;My sight decays, while for my GodI waiting do abide.                      | 8 For I have borne reproach for thee,My face is hid with shame.To brethren strange, to mother's sonsAn alien I became.   |
| 4 The men who do without a causeBear hatred unto me,Ev'n than the hairs upon my headIn number more they be.                   | 9 Because the zeal did eat me upWhich to thy house I bear;And the reproaches cast at theeUpon me fallen are.             |
| 5 They who are wrongful enemies,And seek my soul to slayAre great in might; then I restoredWhat I took not away.              | 10 I wept and fasted in my soul,And that was to my shame;When I with sackcloth clothed myself,A by-word I became.        |

| 11 The men who sit within the gateAgainst me evil spake ;They also that vile drunkard's were,Of me their song did make. | 15 Thy loving-kindness, Lord, is good,My prayer therefore hear ;Turn thou to me, for very greatThy tender mercies are.     |
| 12 But in a time accepted, Lord,My prayer is to thee ;In thy salvation's truth, O Lord,In mercy great hear me.          | 16 Nor from thy servant hide thy face ;I'm troubled, soon attend.Draw near my soul, and it redeem ;Me from my foes defend. |
| 13 Deliver me out of the mire,And me from sinking keep ;Free me from those that do me hate,And from the waters deep.    | 17 To thee is my reproach well known,My shame and my disgrace ;Those that to me are enemiesAre all before thy face.        |
| 14 Let not the flood on me prevail,Whose water overflows ;Nor deep me swallow, nor the pitHer mouth upon me close.      | 18 My heart is broken by reproach,My soul is full of grief :I looked in vain for those who wouldGive pity and relief.      |

SEIR. S. M.

227 PSALM 69. S. M. 11-18.

11 Those sitting in the gate
 Against me evil spake,
 And drunkards also in their cups
 Of me their songs did make.

12 But in th'accepted time,
 Lord, I will pray to thee ;
 In truth of thy salvation, Lord,
 And mercy great, hear me.

13 O take me from the mire,
 And me from sinking keep ;
 From those who hate me save thou me
 And from the waters deep.

14 Let not the flood prevail,
 Whose water overflows,
 Nor deep me swallow, nor the pit
 Her mouth upon me close.

15 Lord, hear me, for thy love
 And kindness is most good ;
 O turn, and manifest to me
 Thy mercies' multitude.

16 Hide not thy face from me,
 I'm troubled, soon attend,
 Draw near, thy servant's soul redeem,
 Me from my foes defend.

17 Thou my reproach dost know,
 My shame and my disgrace ;
 Those that are enemies to me
 Are all before thy face.

18 Reproach hath broke my heart ;
 I'm full of grief ; for one
 To pity me I looked in vain,
 All comforters were gone.

229 PSALM 69. S. M. 27-32.

27 I, with a song to God,
His praises will proclaim,
And I, in giving thanks to him,
Will magnify his name.

28 To God this sacrifice
Shall be more pleasing far
Than ox or bullock, beasts on which Both horns and hoofs there are.

29 When this the humble see
It joy to them shall give ;
All ye who truly seek the Lord,
He'll make your hearts to live.

30 God hears the poor, nor will
His prisoners contemn.
Let heaven and earth and seas him
praise,
And all that move in them.

31 He'll Judah's cities build,
And Zion he will save,
That they may dwell therein, and it
A sure possession have.

32 His servants' children, too,
Inherit shall the same :
And those shall have their dwelling there
Who love his blessèd name.

| 1 YET God is good to Israel,To each pure-hearted one.With me, my steps had nearly slipped,My feet were almost gone.                 | 5 Their eyes stand out with fat, they haveMore than their hearts could wish.They are corrupt; their talk of wrongBoth lewd and lofty is. |
| 2 For I was envious, and grudgedThe foolish ones to see,When I perceived that wicked menEnjoyed prosperity.                         | 6 They set their mouth against the heavensIn their blaspheming talk;And their reproaching tongue at largeThroughout the earth doth walk. |
| 3 Because their strength continues firm,Their death from bands is free.They are not toiled like other men,Nor plagued as others be. | 7 His people, therefore, oftentimesLook back, and turn about;And in abundance unto themThe waters are wrung out.                         |
| 4 Their pride doth therefore like a chainEncompass them about;And, as a garment, violenceDoth cover them throughout.                | 8 And thus they say, How can it beThat God these things doth know?Or, Can there in the Highest beKnowledge of things below?              |

PSALM 76. L. M.

- 1 IN Judah God is known and feared,
 In Israel his name is great,
 His tent in Salem he hath reared,
 In Zion fixed his royal seat.
- 2 He there brake arrows of the bow,
 The shield, the sword, and war's array ;
 More excellent, O Lord, art thou,
 More glorious far than hills of prey.
- 3 The stout of heart are spoiled in fight,
 A deadly sleep the warrior slept ;
 No hand of all the men of might
 Its wonted strength or cunning kept.
- 4 O Jacob's God, at thy command
 The chariot and the horse went down ;
 For thou art dreadful ; who can stand
 Before the tempest of thy frown ?
- 5 From heaven Jehovah judgment gave ;
 The trembling earth stood still and feared,
 When all the meek on earth to save,
 For righteous judgment God appeared.
- 6 The wrath of man thee praise shall bring
 Redeeming wrath thy hand shall stay,
 Vow to the Lord your God and King,
 Be faithful all your vows to pay.
- 7 Let all around their presents bring
 To him whom all the world should fear :
 He cuts off princes ; God the King
 Shall dreadful to earth's kings appear.

PSALM 77. L. M.

- 1 I CRIED to God, I cried, he heard ;
 In day of grief I sought the Lord ;
 All night with hands stretched out I wept,
 My soul no comfort would accept.
- 2 I thought of God, and was distressed ;
 Complained, yet trouble round me press'd ;
 Thou holdest, Lord, my eyes awake ;
 So great my grief I cannot speak.
- 3 The days of old I called to mind,
 The ancient years when God was kind ;
 I called to mind my song by night,
 My musing spirit sought for light.
- 4 Will God cast off forevermore ?
 His favor will he ne'er restore ?
 Has grace forever passed away ?
 Or, doth his promise fail for aye ?
- 5 Hath God forgotten to be kind ?
 His tender love in wrath confined ?
 My weakness this, yet faith doth stand
 Recalling years of God's right hand.
- 6 The works of old done by the Lord,
 Thy wondrous works I will record ;
- I'll muse on all thy works so vast,
 And talk of all thy doings past.
- 7 The holy place is thy abode ;
 What god so great as is our God ?
 Thy wondrous works thou hast made known,
 Thy strength among the people shown.
- 8 Thy arm the sons of Jacob saved,
 And Joseph's offspring when enslaved.
 The waters saw thee, God of might,
 The waters saw thee with affright.
- 9 Then troubled was the mighty main ;
 The clouds poured out abundant rain ;
 The lowering skies send out a sound,
 And far thy arrows blazed around.
- 10 Thy lightnings flashed, thy thunders
 pealed,
 The trembling earth in terror reeled ;
 Thou through the sea thy way didst keep,
 Thy path was in the mighty deep.
- 11 Thy footsteps were to all unknown ;
 Thy goodness to thy flock was shown.
 By Moses' and by Aaron's hand
 Thou didst them guide to Canaan's land.

253 PSALM 78. C. M. 12-22.

- 12 By him divided was the sea,
He led them through the flood;
The waters on each side he raised,
Till as a heap they stood.
- 13 With cloud by day, with light of fire
All night he did them guide.
In desert, rocks he cleft, and drink,
As from great depths, supplied.
- 14 He also from the rock brought streams,
Like floods made waters run.
Yet, sinning more, in desert they Provoked the highest One.
- 15 For in their heart they tempted God,
And, speaking with mistrust,
They greedily did meat require
To satisfy their lust.
- 16 Against the Lord himself they spoke,
And, murmuring, said thus,
"A table in the wilderness
Can God prepare for us?"
- 17 Behold, he smote the rock, and thence
Came streams and waters great;

- But can he give his people bread,
And send them flesh to eat?"
- 18 Jehovah heard, his wrath arose:
Then kindled was a flame
On Jacob, and on Israel
His indignation came.
- 19 For they believed not God, nor trust
In his salvation had;
Though clouds above he did command,
And heaven's doors open made,
- 20 And manna rained on them, and gave
Them corn of heav'n to eat.
Man angel's food did eat; to them
He to the full sent meat.
- 21 He in the heaven also caused
An eastern wind to blow;
And by his power he let out
The southern wind to go.
- 22 Then flesh he rained on them like dust
Which cannot numbered be;
And feathered fowls in numbers vast
Like sands along the sea.

AGAWAM. C. M.

256 PSALM 78. C. M. 43-52.

- 43 He did not spare their soul from death,
But for his wrath made way ;
And to the fearful pestilence
He gave their life a prey.
- 44 And over Egypt's land he smote
Their first-born, and their pride,
Till everywhere in tents of Ham
Their chief of strength had died.
- 45 But forth from thence like sheep he brought
His own, his chosen band,
And led his people like a flock
Across the desert land.
- 46 And on their journey he them led,
Secure from every fear.
But by the sea's o'erwhelming waves
Their en'mies covered were.
- 47 To borders of his holy place
The Lord his people brought,
Ev'n to the mountain which for them
His own right hand had bought.
- 48 The nations which in Canaan dwelt,
He also by his hand,
Before his people's face, expelled
Beyond their native land ;
- 49 Which for inheritance to them
By line he did divide,
And made the tribes of Israel
Within their tents abide.
- 50 But God Most High they did provoke,
They tempted him again ;
His testimonies to observe
Their will did not incline :
- 51 But, like their fathers, they turn'd back
In faithlessness and pride,
And like a false, deceitful bow,
They all were turned aside.
- 52 Because to anger they provoked
The Lord with places high,
And with their graven images
Moved him to jealousy.

BROWN. C. M.

257 PSALM 78. C. M. 53-63.

- 53 When God heard this, he angry was,
And much loathed Isr'el then :
So Shiloh's tent he left, the tent
Which he had placed with men.
- 54 And he his strength delivered o'er
To long captivity ;
He left his glory in the hand
Of his proud enemy.
- 55 His people also to the sword
In anger o'er he turned :
Against his own inheritance
His wrath so fiercely burned.
- 56 The fire consumed their choice young men ;
Their maids no marriage had ;
And when their priests fell by the sword, 62
Their wives no mourning made.
- 57 But then the Lord arose, as one
That doth from sleep awake ;
And like a giant, that by wine
Refreshed, a shout doth make.
- 58 And on the backs of fleeing foes
He caused his strokes to fall,
- And to reproach perpetual
He put his en'mies all.
- 59 Moreover Joseph's tent he spurned,
Nor Ephraim's tribe approved ;
But Judah's tent Jehovah chose,
The Zion Mount he loved.
- 60 And like the firm and lofty hills
He built his holy place ;
Yea, strong as earth's foundations fast,
He gave it changeless base.
- 61 Of David as his servant then
He sov'reign choice did make,
And him, from out the folds of sheep,
The Lord was pleased to take.
- 62 From waiting on the suckling ewes,
He brought him forth to feed
His Israel, his heritage,
His people, Jacob's seed.
- 63 So with integrity of heart
He did them wisely feed ;
And with his skilfulness of hands
He did them safely lead.

| 1 O God, the heathen hostsThy heritage invade ;Thy holy house they have defiled,In heaps Jerus'lem laid.                         | A scorn and laughing stock we areTo all the nations round.   |
| 2 Thy servants they when deadHave given to fowls for meat ;And thy saints' flesh they have cast forthFor beasts of earth to eat. | 5 How long, O Lord, how longWilt thou retain thine ire ?How long shall thy fierce jealousyBurn like devouring fire ? |
| 3 About Jerusalem,Like water, they have shedThy servants' blood, and none was leftTo bury them when dead.                        | 6 On heathen pour thy wrathLike fierce consuming flame ;On kingdoms which have never known,Nor called upon thy name. |
| 4 Our scoffing neighbors nowWith base reproach us wound ;  | 7 Because they have devouredThy servant Jacob's race ;They have made desolate and wasteHis pleasant dwelling-place.  |

| 8 A vine from Egypt thou hast brought,By thy almighty hand ;And thou hast cast the heathen out,To plant it in their land.    | 14 O God of hosts, we thee beseech,Return now unto thine ;Look down from heaven, and behold,And visit thou this vine :                   |
| 9 Before it thou a place didst make,And give it room to stand ;Thou causedst it deep root to take,And it did fill the land.  | 15 Ev'n this thy vineyard planted here,The work of thy right hand,And that same branch, which for thyselfThou hast made strong to stand. |
| 10 Its shadow veiled the highest hills,It covered mountains o'er ;And like the goodly cedars wereThe branches which it bore. | 16 Burnt up it is with flaming fire,It also is cut down :And perished utterly are they,Because thy face did frown.                       |
| 11 Upon the one hand, to the sea,Her boughs she forth did send ;Upon the other, to the flood,Her branches did extend.        | 17 O let thy hand be laid uponThe man of thy right hand,The Son of man, whom for thyselfThou hast made strong to stand.                  |
| 12 Why hast thou broken down her hedge,And taken it away,So that all passers by do pluckAnd make of her a prey ?             | 18 So henceforth we will not go back,Nor turn from thee at all :O do thou quicken us, and weUpon thy name will call.                     |
| 13 The boar that from the forest comesDoth waste it at his will ;The wild beast also of the fieldDevours of it his fill.     | 19 Turn us again, Lord God of hosts,Restore us unto thee ;O cause thy face to shine on us,And saved we then shall be.                    |

PSALM 80. 11s. 1-4.

- 1 O THOU who the Shepherd of Israel art,
Give ear to our prayer, and thy favor impart;
Thou leader of Joseph, thou guide of his way,
'Mid cherubim dwelling, thy glory display.
- 2 In Ephraim's, Manassch's and Benjamin's sight,
O come thou and save us: awake in thy might.
O God, give us favor, restore to thy grace;
And then we shall live in the light of thy face.
- 3 How long wilt thou turn in fierce anger away,
O Lord God of hosts, when thy people do pray?
With tear-bread of sorrow their table is laid;
Of tears' bitter mixture their drink thou hast made.
- 4 A strife thou hast made us to neighbors around,
Our foes in their laughter and scoffing abound.
O Lord God of hosts, us restore to thy grace,
And then we shall live in the light of thy face.

PSALM 80. 11s. 5-10.

- 5 From Egypt's dark border a vine thou didst take :
 Destroying the heathen didst room for it make.
 Where planted it grew at thy sov'reign command,
 With roots deeply set and boughs filling the land.
- 6 The mountains were covered beneath its deep shade,
 The cedars of God with the boughs it displayed ;
 Her boughs to the sea afar off she did send,
 Her branches far out to the river extend.
- 7 O why hast thou taken her hedges away,
 That all who pass by her may make her a prey ?
 The boar from the forest destroys at his will,
 The beasts of the field are devouring her still.
- 8 Return, God of hosts, O return unto thine ;
 Look down from the heavens and visit this vine :
 This vine, which was planted by thy mighty hand :
 This branch for thyself, which thou madest to stand.
- 9 The axe hews it down ; it is burned in the fire ;
 They perish, rebuked in thy terrible ire.
 O lay then thy hand on the man of thy might,
 The Son of man made to stand strong in thy sight.
- 10 No more shall we wander, delighting in shame :
 Revive us, O Lord ; we will call on thy name.
 O Lord God of hosts, us restore to thy grace,
 And then we shall live in the light of thy face.

PSALM 81. C. M.

- 1 SING loud to God our strength ; with joy 7 In midst of thee there shall not be
To God of Jacob sing. A heathen god at all ;
Take up a psalm, the pleasaut harp, Nor unto any god unkown
Timbrel and psalt'ry bring. Thou, bowing down, shalt fall.
- 2 Blow trumpets at new-moon, what day 8 I am the Lord thy God, who did
Our feast appointed is : From Egypt land thee guide ;
For charge to Isr'el, and a law I'll fill thy mouth abundantly,
Of Jacob's God was this : Do thou it open wide.
- 3 This testimony he ordained 9 My people would not hear my voice,
In Joseph, when the land My presence Isr'el spurned ;
Of Egypt he passed thro', whose speech I gave them then to stubborn hearts,
I did not understand. And where they would, they turned.
- 4 His shoulder I from burdens took, 10 O that my people had me heard,
His hands from pots did free. Isr'el my ways had chose !
Thou didst in trouble on me call, I had their en'mies soon subdued,
And I delivered thee : My hand turned on their foes.
- 5 In secret place of thundering 11 The haters of the Lord to him
I did thee auswer make ; Submission should have feigned ;
And at the streams of Meribah But as for them, their time should have
Of thee a proof did take. For evermore remained.
- 6 O thou, my people, give an ear, 12 He should have also fed them with
I'll testify to thee ; The finest of the wheat:
To thee, O Isr'el, if thou wilt Of honey from the rock thy fill
But hearken unto me. I should have made thee eat.

278 PSALM 88. C. M.

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 1 LORD God, my Saviour, day and night,Before thee cried have I.Before thee let my prayer come ;Give ear unto my cry.              | 7 Wilt thou show wonders to the dead?Shall they rise, and thee bless?Shall in the grave thy love be told?In death thy faithfulness?  |
| 2 For troubles great do fill my soul ;My life draws nigh the grave.I'm numbered with the buried deadAnd such as no strength have. | 8 Shall thy great wonders in the dark,Or shall thy righteousnessBe known to any in the landOf deep forgetfulness?                    |
| 3 But like the slain in grave that lie,Among the dead I'm free ;Like slain, whom thou forgotten hast,Who are cut off from thee.   | 9 But, Lord, to thee I cried ; my prayerEach morn shall rise to thee.Lord, why dost thou cast off my soul,Why hide thy face from me? |
| 4 Thou hast me laid in lowest pit,In deep and darksome caves.Thy wrath lies hard on me, thou hastMe pressed with all thy waves.   | 10 Distressed am I, and from my youthI ready am to die ;Thy terrors I have borne ; I amDistracted fearfully.                         |
| 5 Thou hast put far from me my friends,By them I am abhorred.I am shut up, and there is noneWho freedom can afford.               | 11 By thy fierce wrath I'm overwhelmed :Cut off by dread of thee.Like water they around me come,They daily compass me.               |
| 6 By reason of my deep distress,Mine eye mourns dolefully :To thee, O Lord, I call, and stretchMy hands continually.              | 12 My friends thou hast put far from me,And him that did me love ;And those that my acquaintance wereTo darkness didst remove.       |

279 PSALM 88. 8s & 7s. D.

|--|---|
| 1 O THOU God of my salvation,Day and night I cried to thee ;Hear my humble supplication,Quickly bow thine ear to me.                           | 7 Shall the dead, to life returning,Rise and sing thy wonders, Lord ?Shall the grave thy love be learning,Death thy faithfulness record ? |
| 2 Filled with grief, my soul is sighing,To the grave my life draws near,Numbered now among the dying ;Like one helpless I appear.              | 8 Shall thy works and wondrous doing,Be proclaimed in darkness deep ?Righteousness shall they be viewing,Wrapt in cold oblivion's sleep ? |
| 3 Free to sleep in death's dark chamber,Like the slain within the grave ;Whom thou dost no more remember,Whom thy hand no more shall save.     | 9 But, O Lord, at dawn awaking,Prayer and cries I'll send to thee :Why, my God, my soul forsaking,Hidest thou thy face from me ?          |
| 4 In the pit thy hand has laid me,In the darkness and in deeps ;Sorely has thy wrath dismayed me ;O'er my soul affliction sweeps.              | 10 All my days I've been afflicted,Ready from my youth to die ;I with sufferings am distracted,While thy terrors on me lie.               |
| 5 Friendship's ties by thee are broken,Friends are banished from my sight ;Scorned by them, my name is spoken ;Closed on me is sorrow's night. | 11 Flames of wrath are o'er me leaping,Horror great upon me roll ;Round they come like waters sweeping,Daily compassing my soul.          |
| 6 Mourns my eye, my powers languish,Sore affliction presses me ;Lord, I cry to thee in anguish,Daily stretch my hands to thee.                 | 12 Thou my dearest friends hast banished,My companions put to flight ;All acquaintances have vanished,Driven to the shades of night.      |

PSALM 89. C. M. D. 1-10.

|---|---|----|--|
| 1 | GOD'S mercies I will ever sing ;And with my mouth I shallThy faithfulness make to be knownTo generations all.             | 6  | For who in heaven with the LordMay once himself compare ?Who is like God among the sonsOf those that mighty are ?        |
| 2 | For mercy shall be built, said I,Forever to endure ;Thy faithfulness, ev'n in the heav'ns,Thou wilt establish sure.       | 7  | Great fear in meeting of the saintsIs due unto the Lord ;And he of all about him shouldWith rev'rence be adored.         |
| 3 | I with my chosen One have madeA cov'nant graciously ;And to my servant, whom I loved,To David sworn have I :              | 8  | O thou that art the Lord of hosts,What Lord in mightinessIs like to thee ? who compassed roundArt with thy faithfulness. |
| 4 | That I thy seed establish willForever to remain,And will to generations allThy throne build and maintain.                 | 9  | Ev'n in the raging of the seaThou over it dost reign ;And when the waves thereof do swell,Thou stillest them again.      |
| 5 | The praises of thy wonders, Lord,The heavens shall express ;The congregation of thy saints,Shall praise thy faithfulness. | 10 | Rahab in pieces thou didst break,Like one that slaughtered is ;And with thy mighty arm thou hastDispersed thine enemies. |

WARWICK. C. M.

PSALM 89. C. M. 38-44.

38 How long, O Lord, wilt thou thyself
 Hide always in thine ire?
 And shall thy indignation great
 Forever burn like fire?

39 Remember, Lord, how short a time
 I shall on earth remain :
 O wherefore is it so that thou
 Hast made all men in vain?

40 What man is he that liveth here,
 And death shall never see?
 Or from the power of the grave
 Who can his soul set free?

41 Thy former loving-kindnesses,
 O Lord, where are they now?

Those which in truth and faithfulness
 To David sworn hast thou?

42 Mind, Lord, thy servant's sad reproach ;
 How I in bosom bear
 The scorings of the people all,
 Who strong and mighty are ;

43 And how thy enemies reproached,
 Jehovah, think upon ;
 Ev'n how they have reproach'd the steps
 Of thine anointed One.

44 All blessings to Jehovah be Ascribed forever then,
 Forevermore, so let it be.
 Amen, yea, and Amen.

| 16 Yea, I have raised to honor great,One chosen from the people's state ;My servant David I have found,And him as my anointed crowned.                 | 22 But if his sons my law forsake ;If they my holy statutes break ;If from my judgments they shall stray,And my commands will not obey ;                 |
| 17 With him my hand shall still remain,Mine arm with strength shall himsustain ;The foe shall never him annoy,Nor son of wrong his peace destroy. | 23 Then with a rod their sins I'll smite,Their guilt with stripes will I requite ;Yet him my grace shall not forsake,My truth I will not falsehood make. |

291 PSALM 90. L. M. 6 lines. 5-8.

- 5 Our days are threescore years and ten,
And if, through strength, fourscore, yet <sup>7</sup> O do thy mercy soon impart
then To satisfy our longing heart,
'Tis labor, sorrow and decay ; So we rejoice shall all our days,
'Tis soon cut off ;— we fly away. And happy be in thee always.
Who knows the pow'r thine anger hath? For days of grief that we have had,
As is thy fear so is thy wrath. And years of evil, make us glad.
- 6 O teach thou us to count our days, 8 Thy work unto thy servants show,
And set our hearts on wisdom's ways. Thy glory let their children know,
Return, O Lord, at length relent, And let there be on us bestowed
And for thy servants' sake repent. The beauty of the Lord our God :
How long—how long—thus shall it be ? The work accomplished by our hand
Return, that we may joy in thee. Let it by thee established stand.

11 But like the palm-tree flourishing
 Shall be the righteous one ;
 And he shall like the cedar grow
 That is in Lebanon.

13 And in old age, when others fade,
 They fruit still forth shall bring ;
 They shall be fat, and full of sap,
 And always flourishing ;

12 Those that within the house of God
 Are planted by his grace,
 They shall grow up, and flourish all
 In our God's holy place.

14 To show that upright is the Lord ;
 He is a rock to me ;
 And he from all unrighteousness
 Is altogether free.

| 9  | Man's thoughts to be but vanityThe Lord doth well discern.Blest is the man thou chast'nest, Lord,And mak'st thy law to learn : | My soul had almost in the houseOf silence been at rest.   |
| 10 | That thou mayst give him rest from daysOf sad adversity,Until the pit be digged for themThat work iniquity.                    | 15 When I through fear had spoken thus," My foot doth slip away,"Thy mercy held me up, O Lord,Thy goodness did me stay.         |
| 11 | Because the Lord will not cast offHis people utterly,Nor shall his own inheritanceBy him forsaken be.                          | 16 When anxious tho'ts my heart oppress,And fill my soul with grief,The consolations of thy graceTo me afford relief.           |
| 12 | But judgment unto righteousnessShall yet return again ;And all shall follow after itThat are right-hearted men.                | 17 Shall of iniquity the throneHave fellowship with thee,Which mischief, cunningly contrived,Doth by a law decree ?             |
| 13 | O who will rise for me againstThose that do wickedly ?And who will stand for me 'gainst thoseThat work iniquity ?              | 18 Against the righteous souls they join,They guiltless blood condemn.But of my refuge God's the rock,And my defence from them. |
| 14 | Unless the Lord had been my helpWhen I was sore opprest,   | 19 On them their own iniquityThe Lord himself shall lay.He'll cut them off in their own sin :The Lord our God them slay.        |

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 1 THE Lord Jehovah reigns as King,Let all the people quake :He sits between the cherubim,Let earth be moved and shake. | 5 Moses and Aaron, with his priests,Samuel, with them that callUpon his name : these called on God,And he them answered all.  |
| 2 Jehovah is in Zion great,Above all people high ;Thy fearful, great, and holy name,O let them magnify.                | 6 Within the pillar of the cloudHe unto them did speak ;His statutes they observed ; the lawsHe gave they did not break.      |
| 3 The King's strength also judgment loves ;Thou settlest equity :Thou judgment just dost executeIn Jacob righteously.  | 7 O Lord, our God, thou wast a God,Who didst them answer send ;Though punishing their deeds, to themThou pardon didst extend. |
| 4 The Lord our God exalt on high,And rev'rently do yeBefore his footstool worship him :The Holy One is he.             | 8 Do ye exalt the Lord our God,And at his holy hillDo ye him worship : for the Lord,Our God, is holy still.                   |

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 1 I MERCY will and judgment sing,         Lord, I will sing to thee.         With wisdom in a perfect way         Shall my behavior be.        | 5 I'll cut him off that slandereth         His neighbor privily :         The haughty heart I will not bear,         Nor him whose looks are high.    |
| 2 O when, in kindness unto me,         Wilt thou be pleased to come?         I with a perfect heart will walk         Within my house at home. | 6 Upon the faithful of the land         Mine eyes shall be, that they         May dwell with me ; he shall me serve         Who walks in perfect way. |
| 3 I will endure no wicked thing         Before mine eyes to be ;         I hate their work that turn aside,         It shall not cleave to me. | 7 Who of deceit a worker is         In my house shall not dwell ;         Nor in my presence shall remain         The man that lies doth tell.        |
| 4 A stubborn and a froward heart         Depart quite from me shall ;         A person giv'n to wickedness         I will not know at all.     | 8 Yea, all the wicked of the land         I early will destroy ;         And from God's city cut them off         That work iniquity.                 |

| 1 JEHOVAH, hear my pray'r, and letMy cry come up to thee;And in the day of my distressHide not thy face from me.               | 5 I like an owl in desert am,That nightly there doth moan;I watch, and like a sparrow amOn the house-top alone.      |
| 2 Give ear to me; what time I call,To answer me make haste:For, as a hearth, my bones are burnt,My days, like smoke, do waste. | 6 My bitter foes reproaches castUpon me all the day;And, being mad at me, with rageAgainst me sworn are they.        |
| 3 My smitten heart is like the grass,When withered by the heat;And so I have forgetful been,My daily bread to eat.             | 7 Because I ashes eaten haveLike bread, in sorrows deep;My drink I also mingled haveWith tears that I did weep.      |
| 4 By reason of my groaning voiceMy bones cleave to my skin.Like pelican in wilderness,Forsaken I have been:                    | 8 Thy indignation and thy wrathDid cause this grief and pain;For thou hast lifted me on high,And cast me down again. |

|---|---|
| 9 My days are like a fleeting shadeSo swiftly do they pass ;And I am withered all away,Ev'n like the fading grass.    | 13 So shall the heathen people fearThe Lord's most holy name ;And all the kings on earth shall dreadThy glory and thy fame. |
| 10 But thou, O Lord, forever art,And thy remembrance shallContinually endure, and beTo generations all.               | 14 When Zion, by the mighty LordBuilt up again shall be,In glory then and majestyTo men appear shall be.                    |
| 11 Thou shalt arise, and mercy haveUpon thy Zion yet ;The time to favor her is come,The time that thou hast set.      | 15 The prayer of the destituteHe surely will regard ;Their prayer he will not despise,By him it shall be heard.             |
| 12 For in her rubbish and her stonesThy servants pleasure take ;Yea, they the very dust thereofDo favor for her sake. | 16 For generations yet to comeThis truth they shall record :So shall the people that shall beCreated praise the Lord.       |

| 1 BLESS God, my soul. O Lord my God,Thou art exceeding great ;With honor and with majestyThou clothèd art in state.           | 6 But at the voice of thy rebukeThey fled, and would not stay ;They at thy thunder's dreadful voiceDid hasten fast away.              |
| 2 With light, as with a robe, thyselfThou coverest about ;And, like the curtain of a tent,The heavens stretchest out.         | 7 They by the mountains do ascend,And by the valley-groundDescend again to that same placeWhich thou for them didst found.            |
| 3 He of his chambers doth the beamsWithin the waters lay ;He doth the clouds his chariot make,On wings of wind make way.      | 8 To them a limit thou hast set,O'er which they may not go,That they do not return againThe earth to overflow.                        |
| 4 He doth the flames his ministers,The winds his angels make :He earth's foundations firmly laidThat it should never shake.   | 9 He to the valleys sends the springs,Which run among the hills :They to all beasts of field give drink.Wild asses drink their fills. |
| 5 Thou didst it cover with the deep,As with a garment spread :The waters stood above the hills,When thou the word hadst said. | 10 The fowls of heav'n their dwellings haveBeside each flowing spring,And there among the branches theyWith joyful voices sing.       |

| 14 He called for famine on the land,He broke the staff of bread :But yet he sent a man before,By whom they should be fed ; | To him of all that he possessedHe did the charge commit :  |
| 15 Even Joseph, whom, by envy moved,Sell for a slave did they ;Whose feet they with the fetters hurt,And he in irons lay ; | 19 That at his pleasure he might bindThe princes of the land ;And also make his senatorsTrue wisdom understand.          |
| 16 Until the time that his word cameTo give him liberty ;The word and purpose of the LordDid him in prison try.            | 20 The people then of IsraelDown into Egypt came ;And Jacob for a time sojournedWithin the land of Ham.                  |
| 17 Then sent the king, and did commandThat he enlarged should be :He that the people's ruler wasDid send to set him free.  | 21 And he did greatly by his pow'rIncrease his people there ;And stronger than their enemiesThey by his blessing were.   |
| 18 To be the lord of all his houseHe raised him, as most fit ;   | 22 Their heart he then to hatred turnedAgainst his people there,To deal in subtlety with thoseWho his own servants were. |

MEAR. C. M.

333 PSALM 105. C. M. 23-33.

- 23 His servant Moses then he sent,
And Aaron, chosen one,
And they his signs and wonders great,<sup>29</sup>
In land of Ham, made known.
- 24 He darkness sent, and made it dark;
His word they did obey.
He turned their waters into blood,
And he their fish did slay.
- 25 The land in plenty brought forth frogs
In chambers of their kings.
His word all sorts of flies and lice
In all their borders brings.
- 26 Hail stones for rain, and flaming fire
Into their land he sent;
And he their vines and fig-trees smote;
Trees of their coasts he rent.
- 27 He spake, and caterpillars came,
And locusts did abound;
Which in their land all herbs consumed,
And fruits of all their ground.
- 28 He smote all first-born in their land,
Chief of their strength each one.
- With gold and silver brought them forth,
Weak in their tribes were none.
Egypt was glad when forth they went,
Their fear on them did light.
He spread a cloud for covering,
And fire to shine by night.
- 30 They asked, and he brought quails:
with bread
Of heaven filled he them.
He opened rocks, floods gushed, and ran
In deserts like a stream.
- 31 For on his holy promise he,
And servant Abr'ham thought.
With joy his people, his elect,
With gladness, forth he brought.
- 32 And so the heathen's land to them,
He for possession gave;
That of the people's labor they Inheritance might have.
- 33 That they his statues might observe
According to his word;
And that they might his laws obey.
Give praises to the Lord.

| 1 PRAISE ye the Lord, and give him thanks,For bountiful is he ;His tender mercy shall endureTo all eternity.                     | But at the sea, ev'n the Red sea,Provoked him grievously.   |
| 2 God's mighty works who can express?Or show forth all his praise?O blest are they that judgment keep,And justly do always.      | 8 Yet notwithstanding he them saved,Ev'n for his own name's sake ;That so he might, to be well known,His mighty power make.   |
| 3 Remember me, O Lord, with love,Which thou to thine dost bear ;With thy salvation, O my God,To visit me draw near.              | 9 The Red sea also he rebuked,And then dried up it was :Through depths, as thro' the wilderness,He made them safely pass.     |
| 4 That I thy chosen's good may see,And in their joy rejoice ;And may with thine inheritanceExult with cheerful voice.            | 10 From hands of him that hated them,He did his people save ;And from the en'my's cruel handTo them redemption gave.          |
| 5 We with our fathers have transgressed,And done iniquity ;With them we have transgressors been,We have done wickedly.           | 11 The waters overwhelmed their foes ;Not one was left alive.Then they believed his word, and praiseTo him in songs did give. |
| 6 The wonders great, which thou, O Lord,Didst work in Egypt land,Our fathers, though they saw, yet themThey did not understand : | 12 But soon they did his mighty worksUnthankfully forget,And on his council and his willDid not with patience wait ;          |
| 7 And they thy mercies' multitudeKept not in memory ;  | 13 But much did lust in wilderness,And God in desert tempt.He gave them what they sought, but toTheir soul he leanness sent.  |

| 11 O that men to the Lord would givePraise for his goodness then,And for his work of wonder doneUnto the sons of men ! 12 Because the mighty gates of brassIn pieces he did tear ;By him in sunder also cutThe bars of iron were. 13 Fools, for their sin, and their offence,Do sore affliction bear ;All kind of meat their soul abhors ;They to death's gates draw near. 14 In grief they cry to God ; he savesThem from their miseries.He sends his word, them heals, andthemFrom their destruction frees. 15 O that men to the Lord would givePraise for his goodness then,And for his works of wonder doneUnto the sons of men ! 16 And let them sacrifice to himOfferings of thankfulness :And let them show abroad his worksIn songs of joyfulness. | 17 To those who go to sea in ships,And in great waters trade,Jehovah's works and wonders greatAre in the deep displayed. 18 For he commands, and forth in hasteThe stormy tempest flies,Which makes the sea with rolling wavesAloft to swell and rise. 19 They mount to heav'n, then to the depthsThey downward go again ;Their soul doth faint and melt awayWith trouble and with pain. 20 They reel and stagger like one drunk,They are at their wit's end ;Then they to God in trouble cry,And he relief doth send. 21 The storm is changed into a calmAt his command and will ;And so the waves which raged before,Now quiet are and still. 22 Then they are glad, because at restAnd quiet now they be :So to the haven he them brings.Which they desired to see. |

| 1 My heart is fixed, O Lord ; I'll sing,And with my glory praise.Awake both psaltery and harp ;Myself I'll early raise.                 | 6 I Gilead claim as mine by right ;Manasseh mine shall be ;My head has strength in Ephraim,Judah gives laws for me ;            |
| 2 I'll praise thee 'mong the people, Lord :'Mong nations sing will I :Above the heav'ns thy mercy's great,Thy truth doth reach the sky. | 7 In Moab I will wash ; my shoeI will to Edom throw,And o'er the land of PalestineI will in triumph go.                         |
| 3 Be thou above the heavens, Lord,Exalted very high,And far above the earth do thouThy glory magnify ;                                  | 8 O who is he will bring me toThe city fortified ?O who is he that to the landOf Edom will me guide ?                           |
| 4 That thy belovèd people mayFrom bondage be set free :O do thou save with thy right hand,And answer give to me.                        | 9 O God, who hadst rejected us,This thing wilt thou not do ?Ev'n thou, O God, thou who didst notForth with our armies go ?      |
| 5 God in his holiness hath said,In this rejoice I will ;I Shechem will divide, and IWill measure Succoth's vale.                        | 10 Help us from trouble, for the helpIs vain which man supplies.Thro' God we'll do great acts ; he shallTread down our enemies. |

|--|---|
| 1 My heart is firmly fixed, O God,I'll sing and praise thy name to laud;My glory, harp, and lute awake,The morning I will vocal make.              | 5 Manasseh, Gilead too, are mine,On Ephraim shall my head recline;My ruler I shall Judah greet,In Moab I shall wash my feet.            |
| 2 I'll thank thee 'mid the nations, Lord,Among the people praise accord;The heavens vast thy grace transcends,And to the clouds thy truth extends. | 6 To Edom I will cast my shoe,In triumph o'er Philistia go.Who to the city fortified —To Edom, who will be my guide?                    |
| 3 Be thou o'er heavens high, O God,Thy glory o'er the earth abroad;That thy belovèd free may stand,Hear us, and save with thy right hand.          | 7 O God, do thou our leader be,Though we now are cast off from thee:And when our hosts to battle go,O God, do thou thy presence show.   |
| 4 God spoken hath with holy voice,And I will triumph and rejoice;I'll Shechem's fields by lot assign,O'er Succoth's vale will draw the line.       | 8 From trouble help, and us relieve,For vain the help that man can give;In God will we great valor show,And he our foes will overthrow. |

PSALM 109. C. M. 1-9.

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 1 O THOU the God of all my praise,Do thou not hold thy peace ;For mouths of wicked men to speakAgainst me do not cease :  | Give to his greatest enemy,Ev'n Satan, leave to stand.   |
| 2 The mouths of vile, deceitful menAgainst me opened be ;And with a false and lying tongueThey basely slandered me.       | 6 And when by thee he shall be judged,Condemned then let him be ;And let his pray'r be turned to sin,When he shall call on thee. |
| 3 They did beset me round aboutWith words of hateful spite :And though to them no cause I gave,Against me they did fight. | 7 Make few his days, and in his roomHis charge another take.His children let be fatherless,His wife a widow make.                |
| 4 They for my love became my foes,But constantly I prayed ;Yea, ill for good and hate for loveTo me they have repaid.     | 8 His children let be vagabonds,And beg continually ;And from their places desolateSeek bread for their supply.                  |
| 5 Set thou the wicked over him ;Do thou, on his right hand,   | 9 Let covetous extortionersCatch all he hath away :Of all for which he labored hath,Let strangers make a prey.                   |

| 19 O God the Lord, for thy name's sake,Do thou appear for me;Since good and sweet thy mercy is,From trouble set me free.    | 24 That they thereby may know that thisIs thy almighty hand;And that, O Lord, thou hast done this,They well may understand.             |
| 20 I am afflicted very much;I needy am and poor;My heart within me smitten isAnd wounded very sore.                         | 25 Although they curse with spite, yet, Lord,Bless thou with loving voice:Them fill with shame when they arise:Thy servant let rejoice. |
| 21 I like a shade declining pass,I'm like the locust tossed;My knees thro' fasting weakened are,My flesh hath fatness lost. | 26 Those that my adversaries are,Let them be clothed with shame;And as a mantle, let their ownConfusion cover them.                     |
| 22 A vile reproach I also amMade unto them to be;And they that did upon me lookDid shake their heads at me.                 | 27 But as for me, I with my mouthWill greatly praise the Lord;And I among the multitudeHis praises will record.                         |
| 23 O do thou grant thy help to me,Who art my God and Lord:And, for thy tender mercy's sake,Deliverance afford;              | 28 For at the right hand of the poorShall stand the Lord Most High,To save him from all those that wouldCondemn his soul to die.        |

345 PSALM 109. L. M. 1-9.

|---|---|
| 1 O God, whom I in praise adore,Be silent in my cause no more.Their mouths the wicked open wide;Against me hypocrites have lied.                    | Let them be scattered far from home,And begging bread thro' deserts roam.   |
| 2 With words of hate they throug around,And fight, although no cause be found.My love provokes their bitter spite,But I in constant pray'r delight. | 6 Extortioners his substance take,His toil a prey let strangers make.Let him from none compassion know,None to his orphans favor show.  |
| 3 With evil they my good reward,With hatred meet my kind regard.Place him beneath the wicked's hand,And on his right let Satan stand.               | 7 His seed let perish in their shame,The coming age blot out their name;His father's sin Jehovah mind,His mother's sin no pardon find.  |
| 4 In judgment let his plea be spurned,And let his prayer to sin be turned.His days be few, and in his roomTo office let another come.               | 8 Let them with God ne'er be forgot,Till he from earth their mem'ry blot;For he remembered not to showCompassion to the sons of woe.    |
| 5 A widow let his wife be left,His children of their sire bereft;   | 9 The poor and those with want distressed,He persecuted and oppressed;He them pursued to make his prey,And broken-hearted ones to slay. |

| 1 JEHOVAH to my Lord thus spake,Till I thy foes thy footstool make.Sit thou in state at my right hand ;God shall from Zion send abroadO'er nations all thy mighty rod,Amid thy foes thy throne shall stand.      | 3 The Lord unchanging oath has made," Melchisedec's thy priestly grade,In everlasting priesthood crowned ;"The sovereign Lord, at thy right hand,Shall strike through princes of the land,While awful anger flames around. |
| 2 Thee, in thy power's triumphant day,The willing nations shall obey ;And when thy rising beams they view,Shall all, redeemed from error's night,Appear as numberless and brightAs crystal drops of morning dew. | 4 Among the heathen judge he will ;Unnumbered dead the land shall fill,The nations' chief shall smitten lie.The brook that runneth in the way,His burning thirst shall slake that day,And he shall lift his head on high.  |

HOLY CROSS. C. M.

350 PSALM 111. C. M.

|---|---|
| 1 PRAISE ye the Lord : with all my heartI will God's praise declare,Ev'n where assemblies of the justAnd congregations are. | 6 He did the power of his worksTo his own people show,That he the heathen's heritageUpon them might bestow.                     |
| 2 Jehovah's works are very great,The wonders of his might ;Sought out they are of every oneWho in them takes delight.       | 7 His hands' works all are truth and right ;All his commands are sure :And, done in truth and uprightness,They evermore endure. |
| 3 His work most honorable is,Most glorious and pure,And his untainted righteousnessForever doth endure.                     | 8 He to his chosen people sentRedemption by his pow'r ;His covenant he did commandTo be forevermore.                            |
| 4 His works of wonder he hath madeTo be remembered well :In grace and in compassion greatJehovah doth excel.                | 9 His name alone most holy is,In fear to be adored.Of wisdom the beginning isTo truly fear the Lord.                            |
| 5 The Lord provideth food for allWho truly do him fear ;And evermore his covenantHe in his mind will bear.                  | 10 Good understanding have they allWho carefully obeyHis just commandments ev'ry one ;His praise endures for aye.               |

351 PSALM 112. C. M.

|---|--|
| 1 PRAISE ye the Lord ; that man is blestWho doth Jehovah fear ;Yea, blest is he whose great delightHis holy precepts are. | 6 There surely is not any thingThat ever shall him move :The righteous man's memorialShall everlasting prove.              |
| 2 His offspring for their might shall beUpon the earth renowned ;The generation of the justIn blessings shall abound.     | 7 When evil tidings he shall hear,He shall not be afraid :His heart is fixed, his confidenceUpon the Lord is stayed.       |
| 3 Abundant wealth within his houseShall ever be in store ;And his unspotted righteousnessEndures forevermore.             | 8 Established firmly is his heart,Afraid he shall not be,Until upon his enemiesHe his desire shall see.                    |
| 4 Light to the upright doth arise,Though he in darkness be ;Compassionate, and merciful,And ever just is he.              | 9 He hath dispersed his wealth abroad,And given to the poor ;His horn with honor shall be raised,His righteousness endure. |
| 5 A good man doth his favor showAnd doth to others lend :He with descretion his affairsWill guide unto the end.           | 10 The wicked shall it see, and grieve,His teeth gnash, melt away :What wicked men do most desireShall utterly decay.      |

PSALM 112. L. M.

- 1 How blest the man that fears the Lord, 4 No evil tidings shall he fear ;
 And makes his law his chief delight ; His heart doth on the Lord repose ;
 His seed shall share his great reward, He stands unmoved by dangers near,
 And on the earth be men of might. 'Till he shall see his prostrate foes.
- 2 Abounding wealth shall bless his home, 5 Dispensing gifts among the poor.
 His righteousness shall still endure, His lib'ral hands their wants supply ;
 To him shall light arise in gloom ; His righteousness shall still endure.
 He's kind, compassionate and pure. His pow'r shall be exalted high.
- 3 The good will favor show, and lend, 6 The wicked shall his honor see,
 And his affairs discreetly guide ; Consume with grief, and gnash and wail ;
 Unmoved he stands till life shall end, Their hopes shall disappointed be.
 His name and honor shall abide. And their desires forever fail.

PART V.

25 Teach me, O Lord, the perfect way
Of thy commands divine,
And to observe it to the end
I will my heart incline.

26 Give understanding unto me,
So keep thy law shall I;
I'll with integrity of heart
Observe it carefully.

27 In thy law's path make me to go:
For I delight therein.
My heart unto thy precepts turn,
And not to worldly gain.

28 O do thou turn away mine eyes
From viewing vanity;
And in thy good and holy way
Be pleased to quicken me.

29 Confirm to me thy gracious word,
Which I did gladly hear.
To me, thy servant, Lord; I am
Devoted to thy fear.

30 Turn thou away my feared reproach;
For good thy judgments be.
Lo, for thy precepts I have longed:
In thy truth quicken me.

379 PSALM 119. C. M. 73-78.

PART XIII.

73 O how I love thy law ! it is
My study all the day :
It makes me wiser than my foes ;
For it doth with me stay.

74 Than all my teachers now I have
More understanding far ;
Because my meditations all,
Thy testimonies are.

75 In understanding I excel
Those that the ancients are ;
Because to keep thy precepts all
Has been my constant care.

76 My feet from each ill way I stayed,
That I might keep thy word.
I from thy judgments have not swerv'd ;
For thou hast taught me, Lord.

77 How sweet unto my taste, O Lord,
Are all thy words of truth !
Yea, I do find them sweeter far
Than honey to my mouth.

78 I through thy precepts that are pure,
Do understanding get ;
I therefore ev'ry way that's false
With all my heart do hate.

PART XXI.

121 The princes persecuted me,
 Although no cause they saw :
 But still of thy most holy word
 My heart doth stand in awe.

122 I at thy word rejoice, as one
 Of spoils that finds great store.
 Thy law I love ; but lying all
 I hate and do abhor.

123 To praise thy name sev'n times a day
 Hath been my constant care ;
 Because of all thy judgments, Lord,
 Which righteous ever are.

124 Great peace have they who love thy law ;
 Offence they shall have none.
 I hoped for thy salvation, Lord,
 And thy commands have done.

125 My soul thy testimonies all
 Observed most carefully ;
 On them my heart is set, and them
 I love exceedingly.

126 Thy testimonies and thy laws
 I kept with special care ;
 For all my works and ways each one
 Before thee open are.

389 PSALM 120. C. M.

1 IN my distress to God I cried,
 And he gave ear to me.
 From lying lips and guileful tongue,
 O Lord, my soul set free.

3 Alas for me, that I abide
 In Mesech's land so long!
 That I in tabernacles dwell,
 To Kedar that belong.

2 What shall be given thee? or what
 Be done to thee, false tongue?
 Ev'n burning coals of juniper,
 Sharp arrows of the strong.

4 My soul with him that hateth peace
 Hath long a dweller been.
 I am for peace; but when I speak,
 For battle they are keen.

1 I to the hills will lift mine eyes,
From whence doth come mine aid.
My safety cometh from the Lord,
Who heav'n and earth hath made.

2 Thy foot he'll not let slide, nor will
He slumber that thee keeps.
Behold, he that keeps Israel,
He slumbers not, nor sleeps.

3 The Lord thee keeps, the Lord thy shade
On thy right hand doth stay :
The moon by night thee shall not smite,
Nor yet the sun by day.

4 The Lord shall keep thy soul ; he shall Preserve thee from all ill.
Henceforth thy going out and in God keep forever will.

392 PSALM 121. 7s. D.

|---|---|
| 1 To the hills I'll lift mine eyes,Whence my hopes of succor rise ;From the Lord comes all my aid,Who the earth and heav'n hath made. | 3 God thy keeper still shall stand,As a shade on thy right hand ;Neither sun by day shall smite,Nor the silent moon by night. |
| 2 He will ever be thy guide,And thy foot shall never slide ;God his Israel that keeps,Never slumbers, never sleeps.                   | 4 God shall guard from every ill,Keep thy soul in safety still ;Both without and in thy door,He will keep thee evermore.      |

393 PSALM 122. C. M.

1 I JOY'D when to the house of God,
Go up, they said to me.
Jerusalem, within thy gates
Our feet shall standing be.

2 Jerus'lem as a city is
Compactly built, and fair ;
To it the tribes go up ; to it,
The tribes of God repair ;

3 To Isr'el's testimony, there
To God's name thanks to pay.
For thrones of judgment, ev'n the thrones
Of David's house, there stay.

4 Pray that Jerusalem may have
Peace and felicity :
All those who love thee and thy peace
Shall have prosperity.

5 I therefore wish that peace may still Within thy walls remain,
And ever may thy palaces
Prosperity retain.

6 And now, for friends' and brethren's sakes,
Peace be in thee, I'll say.
Yea for the house of God our Lord,
I'll seek thy good away.

399 PSALM 125. C. M.

- 1 THEY in the Lord that firmly trust,
 Shall be like Zion hill,
 Which at no time can be removed,
 But standeth ever still.
- 2 As round about Jerusalem
 The mountains ever stand,
 So God his people will surround,
 And evermore defend.
- 3 For ill men's rod upon the lot
 Of just men shall not lie ;

Lest righteous men stretch forth their hands
 To work iniquity.

- 4 Do thou to all those who are good
 Thy goodness, Lord, impart ;
 And also do thou good to them
 Who upright are in heart.

- 5 But as for such as turn aside
 In their own crooked way,
 God shall lead forth with wicked men :
 On Isr'el peace shall stay.

403 PSALM 126. H. M.

1 WHEN Zion by the Lord
From her captivity
Was graciously restored,
Like men that dream were we.

Great things the Lord hath done,
Which joy to us have brought.
As southern streams sweep o'er the plain,
Lord, turn our captive state again.

Our mouths were filled with mirth, our 3 tongues
Were ever singing joyful songs.

The man in tears who sows,
With joyfulness shall reap ;
With precious seed he goes,
And going forth doth weep.

2 Great things the heathen own,
The Lord for them hath wrought ;

Yet doubtless he his sheaves shall bring,
And coming back, with joy shall sing.

| 1 LORD, remember thou for David,All his trouble and his care ;How he vowed to God of Jacob,To the great Jehovah sware : 2 I my dwelling will not enter,To my couch will not arise ;I'll not give my eyelids slumber,Nor in sleep will close my eyes ; 3 Till I find a place of dwelling,Where the Lord may make abode ;Till I find a habitationMeet for Jacob's mighty God. 4 Lo, at Ephratah we heard it,And of it we understood ;In the fields we also found it,In the city of the wood. 5 Let us seek his courts, and worshipAt his footstool with delight :Rise, O Lord, thy rest to enter ;Come, and bring thy ark of might. 6 Let thy priests be clothed with justice ;Let thy saints rejoicing make ; | See the face of thy anointed,For thy servant David's sake. 7 God hath sworn in truth to David,And his oath will not disown :Of the children which I give thee,I will place upon thy throne. 8 If thy sons will keep my cov'nant,And observe what I command,On thy throne forever sitting,Shall their children rule the land. 9 For the Lord hath chosen Zion,'Tis the dwelling loved of God ;Here I'll rest and dwell forever,I delight in this abode. 10 Richly blessing her provision,I will fill her poor with bread ;Clothe her priests with my salvation,Make her saints exceeding glad. 11 There shall David's power flourish,For my king a lamp's ordained ;I with shame his foes will cover,But his crown shall be maintained. |

1 BEHOLD, how good and pleasant,
And how becoming well,
Where brethren all united,
In peace together dwell.

2 'Tis like the precious ointment
That on the head did flow,

Which down the beard of Aaron,
Did o'er his vesture go.

3 Like dews which on Mount Hermon
And Zion hills descend ;
There God commands the blessing,
Life that shall never end.

1 BEHOLD, O bless the Lord, all ye
That his attendants are,
Ev'n you who in God's temple stand,
And praise him nightly there.

2 Your hands within God's holy place
Lift up, and praise his name.
From Zion hill the Lord thee bless,
That heav'n and earth did frame.

422 PSALM 134. C. P. M.

1 BEHOLD, all ye that serve the Lord,
Lift up your voice with one accord,
Jehovah's name to bless.
To bless his holy name unite,
Ye that are standing night by night,
Within his holy place.

2 Yea, in his place of holiness,
Lift up your hands the Lord to bless ;
And unto you be given,
From out of Zion, by the Lord,
His blessing rich, who by his word
Created earth and heaven.

PSALM 136. H. M.

1 PRAISE God, for he is kind :

His mercy lasts for aye :
 Give thanks with heart and mind
 To God of gods always :

For certainly

His mercies dure
 Most firm and sure
 Eternally.

2 The Lord of lords praise ye,
 Whose mercies always last :

The Lord alone is he
 Who doeth wonders vast.
 For certainly, etc.

3 To him, by wisdom's hand,
 Who heavens did create ;
 To him who stretched the land
 Above the waters great.

For certainly, etc.

4 To him great lights that made,
 The sun to rule by day ;
 The moon and stars arrayed ;
 To rule the night are they.

For certainly, etc.

5 To him who Egypt smote
 In first-born everywhere ;
 And Isr'el thence he brought,
 From those who en'mies were.

For certainly, etc.

6 Who, with strong hand to guide,
 And arm that stretched out was,
 The Red sea did divide,
 And through made Isr'el pass.
 For certainly. etc.

7 But Phar'oh overthrew
 In Red sea with his host ;
 And led his people through
 The deserts to their coast.
 For certainly, etc.

8 To him who great kings smote,
 Yea famous kings he slew ;
 Sihon of Am'rites lot,
 And Og of Bashan, too.
 For certainly, etc.

9 By lot he gave their lands
 To Israel for aye :
 To those who his commands
 Did faithfully obey.
 For certainly, etc.

10 He thought on us when foes
 Had brought to low estate ;
 And he from all our woes
 Did grant deliv'rance great.
 For certainly, etc.

11 And from his bounty he
 All flesh its food hath given.
 O thanks to God give ye ;
 He is the God of heav'n.
 For certainly, etc.

433 PSALM 138. L. M.

- 1 With all my heart I'll praise thy name, 4 The Lord, though high, respects the low ;
Before the gods thy praise proclaim ; But he the proud far off doth know ;
I'll worship in thy holy place, Though waves of trouble round me roll,
And praise thee for thy truth and grace. Thou, Lord, wilt yet receive my soul.
- 2 For thou o'er all thy name, O Lord, 5 My foes enraged, my way withstand ;
Hast magnified thy faithful word ; Against them thou wilt stretch thy hand ;
Thou didst me answer when I cried, Thine own right hand shall set me free,
Thou hast my soul with strength supplied. And perfect make thy work for me.
- 3 All kings of earth shall give thee praise, 6 O Lord, thy mercy never ends,
When from thy mouth they learn thy ways ; Throughout all ages it extends ;
They in Jehovah's ways shall sing, Then on thy servant pity take,
For great in glory is our King. Thine own hands' work do not forsake.

| 1 O LORD, thou hast me searched andknown.Thou know'st my sitting down,And rising up; yea, all my thoughtsAfar to thee are known. | 5 Where from thy Spirit shall I go?Or from thy presence fly?Ascend I heaven, lo, thou art there;There, if in hell I lie.        |
| 2 My footsteps, and my lying down,Thou compassest always;Thou also most entirely artAcquaint with all my ways.                        | 6 Take I the wings of morn and dwellIn utmost parts of sea;Yet there, O Lord, thy hand shall lead,Thy right hand hold shall me. |
| 3 For in my tongue, before I speak,Not any word can be,But altogether, lo, O Lord,It is well known to thee.                           | 7 Or if I say that darkness shallMe cover from thy sight,Then surely shall the very nightAbout me be as light.                  |
| 4 Behind, before, thou hast beset,And laid on me thine hand.Such knowledge is too strange for me,Too high to understand.              | 8 Yea, darkness hideth not from thee,But night doth shine as day:Because the darkness and the lightAre both alike alway.        |

| 9 Because thou hast my reins possessed,And thou didst cover me,Ev'n when within my mother's wombEnclosed I was by thee. 10 I will thee praise, for fearfullyAnd strangely made I am.Thy works are wonderful, and wellMy soul doth know the same. 11 My substance was not hid from thee,When as in secret IWas made ; and in earth's lowest partsWas wrought most curiously. 12 Ere yet my substance shape receivedThine eyes on it did look ;And all my members even thenWere written in thy book ; 13 Then afterwards thou didst impartIts form to ev'ry one ;Although as yet they shapeless were,And of them there was none. 14 How precious unto me, O God,Thy gracious thoughts appear, | And in their sum how very great,How numberless they are. 15 If I should count them, than the sandThey more in number be :What time soever I awake,I ever am with thee. 16 Thou, Lord, wilt surely sinners slay :Hence from me bloody men.Thy foes against thee loudly speak,And take thy name in vain. 17 Do not I hate all those, O Lord,That hatred bear to thee ?With those that up against thee rise,Can I but grievèd be ? 18 With perfect hatred them I hate,My foes I them do hold.Search me, O God, and know my heart,Try me, my thoughts unfold : 19 And see if any wicked wayThere be at all in me ;And in thine everlasting wayTo me a leader be. |

| 1 LORD, thou hast searched me, and hastknownMy rising up and lying down,And from afar thy searching eyeBeholds my thoughts that secret lie. 2 Thou know'st my path and lying down,And all my ways to thee are known ;For in my tongue no word can be,But, lo, O Lord, 'tis known to thee. 3 Behind, before me, thou dost stand,And lay on me thy mighty hand ;Such knowledge is for me too strange,'Tis high beyond my utmost range. 4 O whither shall my footsteps fly,Beyond thy Spirit's searching eye?To what retreat shall I repair,And find not thy dread presence there? | 5 If I to heaven shall ascend,Thy presence there will me attend ;If in the grave I make my bed,Lo, there I find thy presence dread. 6 If on the morning wings I flee,And dwell in utmost parts of sea ;Even there thy hand shall guide my way,And thy right hand shall be my stay. 7 Or, if I say, to shun thine eye,In shades of darkness I will lie,Around me then the very nightWill shine as shines the noon-day light. 8 From thee the shades can nought dis-guise,The night is day before thine eyes ;The darkness is to thee as brightAs are the beams of noon-day light. |

| 1 JEHOVAH, from the evil man,Do thou deliver me ;And from the man of violence,O keep me safe and free.                             | 7 O God the Lord, who art the strengthOf my salvation great ;A cov'ring in the day of war,Thou on my head hast set.               |
| 2 They in their heart imagine wrong,And evil meditate ;And they for battle and for warFrom day to day are met.                     | 8 Unto the wicked man, O Lord,His wishes do not grant ;Nor further thou his ill device,Lest they themselves should vaunt.         |
| 3 For like a serpent's piercing tongueTheir tongues they sharp do make ;And underneath their lips there liesThe poison of a snake. | 9 As for the head and chief of thoseAbout that compass me,Ev'n by the mischief of their lipsLet thou them covered be.             |
| 4 Lord, keep me from the wicked's hands, 10From vi'lent men me save ;Who utterly to overthrowMy goings purposed have.              | Let burning coals upon them fall,Them throw in fiery flame,And in deep pits, that they no moreMay rise up from the same.          |
| 5 The proud a snare and cords have laid, 11And they a secret netHave by the way-side for me spread ;They traps for me have set.    | Let not a man of evil tongueOn earth established be ;Let mischief hunt the violent,Till ruined utterly.                           |
| 6 I to Jehovah said, Thou artMy God ; then to the cryOf all my supplications, Lord,Do thou thine ear apply.                        | 12 I know God will th' afflicted save,The poor defend will he :The just shall surely praise thy name,The upright dwell with thee. |

| 1 O LORD, my God, to thee I cry ;Swift to my aid in mercy fly ;And when to thee my cries ascend,In pity to my voice attend.                  | 5 Let righteous lips my errors chide,Like healing oil the accents glide :If voice of faithful friend reprove,Such smiting comes to me in love.    |
| 2 As fragrant incense on the air,So mount to heaven my early prayer ;And let my hands uplifted be,As evening sacrifice to thee.              | 6 For them, when they are in distress,To God I will my prayer address ;Their judges cast on rocky ground,Then sweet to them my words shall sound. |
| 3 Set, Lord, a watch my mouth before,And of my lips keep thou the door ;Nor leave my sinful heart to strayWhere evil footsteps lead the way. | 7 Around the graves our bones are left,As branches by the woodman cleft :To thee, Lord God, I lift my eyes ;On thee my helpless soul relies.      |
| 4 Let me not of the feast partakeWhich wicked men delight to make ;Let righteous men in mercy smite,In their reproofs I'll take delight.     | 8 Preserve me from the secret net,The toils which impious hands have set,In their own snares let sinners fall,While I by grace escape them all.   |

444 PSALM 143. C. M. (Second.)

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 1 LORD, hear my pray'r, and to my cryIn faithfulness attend;To me in righteousness reply,A gracious answer send.                   | 7 O hear me, Lord, nor more delay,For griefs my life consume;Nor hide thy face lest I decay,Like those within the tomb.         |
| 2 Nor at thy just tribunal callThy servant to be tried;For in thy sight, of mortals all,Shall none be justified.                   | 8 When morning lights the eastern skies,Thy mercy, Lord, disclose;And let thy loving-kindness rise:On thee my hopes repose.     |
| 3 For foes against my soul unite;My life to dust they tread;I dwell where darkness veils my sight,And midst those long since dead. | 9 Teach me the way where I should go;I lift my soul to thee;Redeem me from the raging foe;To thee, O Lord, I flee.              |
| 4 My spirit, overwhelmed with woes,Within me sighs for rest;And desolate, without repose,My heart is sore oppressed.               | 10 Because thou art my God, I pray,Teach me to do thy will;O lead me in the perfect way,By thy good Spirit still.               |
| 5 Yet I recall the days of old,Thy works of wonder trace:Thy works which ages past unfold;I muse upon thy grace.                   | 11 Revive me, Lord, for thy great name,And for thy judgment's sake;From all my woes, O Lord, reclaim,My soul from trouble take. |
| 6 And now, O Lord, my outstretch'd handsI lift to thee again;For thee I long, as thirsty landsFor genial showers of rain.          | 12 In mercy bare thy mighty arm,To crush my foes in shame;Cut off, who work thy servant harm,Devoted to thy name.               |

445 PSALM 143. 6s 1-5.

1 O LORD, my prayer hear,
And to my suppliant cry
In faithfulness give ear,
In righteousness reply.

2 Nor into judgment call
Thy servant to be tried;
With thee, of mortals all,
Can none be justified!

3 I'm followed by the foe,
My life to earth they tread,

As men dead long ago,
I dwell in darkness dread.

4 My spirit therefore vexed
Is overwhelmed within;
My heart in me perplexed
And desolate hath been.

5 Yet I recall to mind
What ancient days record;
Thy works of every kind
I think upon, O Lord.

FONTANA. 6s.

| 6 To thee I stretch my hands ;Do thou my helper be :As long the thirsting lands,So longs my soul for thee.  | Because to thee I pray,And lift my soul to thee.  |
| 7 O Lord, send quick relief,I humbly pray to thee :My spirit fails through grief,Thy face hide not from me. | 11 O Lord, deliver meFrom all who me oppose ;To thee alone I fleeTo hide me from my foes.                       |
| 8 Unless thou interpose,And help to me extend,I shall be like to thoseWho to the grave descend.             | 12 Thou art my God in need,Teach me thy just command,Thy Spirit's good ; me leadInto the perfect land.          |
| 9 Because I trust in thee,O Lord, cause me to hearThy lovingkindness free,When morning doth appear.         | 13 O Lord, for thy name's sake,Revive and quicken me ;And for thine own truth's sake.My soul from trouble free. |
| 10 Cause me to know the wayIn which my path should be ;   | 14 In mercy cut off allMy foes, and put to shameAll who afflict my soul ;For I thy servant am.                  |

| 1 O LORD, thou art my God and King ;I'll thee exalt, thy praise proclaim ;I will thee bless, and gladly singForever to thy holy name.             | They shall sing praises cheerfully,Whilst they thy righteousness relate.  |
| 2 Each day I rise I will thee bless,And praise thy name time without end.Much to be praised, and great God is ;His greatness none can comprehend. | 6 The Lord our God most gracious is,In him compassionate also flow ;In mercy he is rich to bless,But unto anger he is slow.                       |
| 3 Race shall thy works praise unto race,The mighty acts show done by thee.And I will speak the glorious grace,And honor of thy majesty.           | 7 To all the Lord is very good,O'er all his works his mercy is.Thy works all praise to thee afford :Thy saints, O Lord, thy name shallbless. |
| 4 Thy wondrous works I will declare ;By men the might shall be extolledOf all thy acts which dreadful are,And I thy greatness will unfold.        | 8 Thy kingdom's glory they shall show ;They also shall thy power tell :That so men's sons his deeds may know,His kingdom's grace that doth excel. |
| 5 They utter shall abundantlyThe mem'ry of thy goodness great ;   | 9 Thy kingdom hath no end at all,It shall to ages all remain.The Lord upholdeth all that fall,The cast-down raiseth up again.                     |

452 PSALM 146. C. M.

- 1 PRAISE God. The Lord praise, O my soul.
I'll praise God while I live ;
While I have being, to my God
In songs I'll praises give.
- 2 Trust not in princes, nor man's son
In whom there is no stay ;
His breath departs, to earth he turns ;
That day his thoughts decay.
- 3 O happy is that man, and blest,
Whom Jacob's God doth aid ;
Whose hope upon Jehovah rests,
And on his God is stayed :
- 4 Who made the earth and heavens high.
Who made the swelling deep,
And all that is within the same ;
Who truth doth ever keep.
- 5 God righteous judgment executes
For those oppressed that be ;
He to the hungry giveth food ;
God sets the pris'ners free.
- 6 The Lord doth give the blind their sight,
The bowèd down doth raise :
Jehovah dearly loves all those
That walk in upright ways.
- 7 The stranger's shield, the widow's stay,
The orphan's help is he :
But yet by him the wickèd's way
Turned upside down shall be.
- 8 The Lord shall reign for evermore :
Thy God, O Zion, he Shall reign to generations all.
Praise to the Lord give ye.

- No. 1. L. M. 354
 PRAISE God, ye servants of the Lord,
 Praise, praise his name with one accord ;
 Bless ye the Lord, his name adore
 From this time forth forevermore.
- No. 2. L. M. DOUBLE. 238
 Now blessèd be the mighty One,
 Jehovah, God of Israel,
 For he alone hath wonders done,
 And deeds in glory that excel.
 And blessèd be his glorious name,
 Long as the ages shall endure.
 O'er all the earth extend his fame.
 Amen, amen, forevermore.
- No. 3. L. M. 6 LINES. 454
 PRAISE God, my soul! while I have breath,
 Until my voice is lost in death,
 His praise shall all my powers employ.
 My days of praise shall ne'er be past ;
 While life and breath and being last,
 My God I'll praise with songs of joy.
- No. 4. C. M. 336
 BLEST be Jehovah, Isr'el's God,
 To all eternity :
 Let all the people say, Amen.
 Praise to the Lord give ye.
- No. 5. S. M. 311
 Do ye exalt the Lord,
 Our God in praises laud ;
 And at his footstool worship him,
 For holy is our God.
- No. 6. C. M. DOUBLE. 236
 Now blessèd be Jehovah, God,
 The God of Israel,
 Who only doeth wondrous works,

 All throughout his vast dominion ;
 Bless Jehovah, O my soul.
- No. 8. 7s. & 6s. D. 213
 O GOD, let people praise thee ;
 Thy praises let them sing ;
 And then in rich abundance
 The earth her fruit shall bring.
 The Lord our God shall bless us :
 God shall his blessing send ;
 And people all shall fear him
 To earth's remotest end.
- No. 9. 8s & 7s. DOUBLE. 362
 PRAISE Jehovah, all ye nations,
 All ye people praise proclaim ;
 For his grace and lovingkindness,
 O sing praises to his name.
 Great to us hath been his mercy,
 Ever faithful is his word ;
 Through all ages it endureth,
 Halleluiah, praise the Lord.
- No. 10. H. M. 460
 O LET God's name be praised
 Above both earth and sky ;
 For he his saints hath raised,
 And set their horn on high :
 Even those that be
 Of Isr'el's race,
 Near to his grace.
 The Lord praise ye.
