PREFACE

THE TEXT

THE Book of Psalms was prepared under the direction of the Holy Spirit to be sung in the worship of God. "The Spirit of the Lord spake by me", says the Royal Psalmist of Israel, "and his word was in my tongue". By the same Spirit the Great Apostle to the Gentiles, surveying the devotional needs of all the ages to come, instructed the worshippers in the New Dispensation to use the Book of Praises inspired of God, "Singing", as he said, "with grace in your hearts to the Lord". The church, in order to comply with the divine command, began from the earliest hours of the Reformation to put the Psalms into metrical form. "For ten generations", says Mr. Glass, in his STORY OF THE PSALTERS "our forefathers lifted their hearts in praise and prayer in the rugged rhymes of Sternhold and Hopkins, or the somewhat more polished verses of Rous, and Tate and Brady . . . In a strange Anglo-Saxon garb the aspirations of the Sweet Singer of Israel found an echo in the hearts of the Anglican, Independent, and Presbyterian alike . . . Next in importance to the translation of the whole Bible into the vulgar tongue, and declaring every man's right to read it and judge for himself, were the rhyming versions of the Psalms, which made the jubilant hymns of the Hebrew poets the songs of the people. Psalm-singing was a consequence of the Reformation. It carried the devout believer straight into the presence of his Maker and Deliverer . . . It helped to lay the foundations of the religious liberty which now spreads more or less over the whole of Christendom. Wherever the early colonies of England were planted the Psalter followed. The first printed book in America was the Bay Psalm-book, and the last of the stereotyped editions of Tate and Brady was used in the mission stations scattered over the four quarters of the globe". The Psalter is a heritage, and the present Version has been prepared under the consciousness that the gathered hosts of four centuries are looking down upon us and charging us to guard the songs that made the nations free.

The constant aim in the preparation of the present Version has been to conserve the old and utilize the new. Accordingly the first place throughout the Psalter has been reserved for the Rous Version as it stands to-day. All selections from other sources appear as second metres. The Rous Version, at times to make the rendering more faithful to the text, at times to remove some patent imperfections in rhythm or expression, has been carefully retouched. The second metres have been chosen largely from the Version "Prepared by a Joint Committee of American and Canadian Churches", and published in 1905. These selections were minutely examined, compared with the American Revised Version—with the Hebrew always at hand—and incorporated in the Psalter with such revisions as were thought to approach more nearly the ideals which our Lord would have us realize in the offering of praise. The Committee to whom the work was entrusted made generous use of the United Presbyterian Version of 1870, and the Reformed Presbyterian Version of 1889, of the Joint Committee's final Version, 1909, and indeed of any Version, old or new, that might be found to afford the slightest help. And for all the help received the Committee, on behalf of the Church of the Covenanters, and on behalf of the Associate Presbyterian Church, whose delegates co-operated in the work, desires to express its sincere and grateful acknowledgments.

THE MUSIC

The Committee entrusted with the task of selecting tunes for The Book of Psalms has earnestly sought for such and only such as are suitable for an inspired Psalter designed for use by all God's worshipping people. To reach the desired result certain definite principles and rules were constantly kept in mind giving a fixed standard according to which the selections were made: (1) Nothing but sacred music, in the strictest sense of the term, was deemed worthy of a place in this collection. (2) Each tune should be a suitable vehicle for giving expression to the sentiment of the Psalm or portion of Psalm to which it is to be sung. (3) Tunes should be such as the average congregation under efficient leadership can readily learn to sing. (4) All the tunes should have such durable qualities as will enable them to stand the test of long and frequent use. (5) The number of tunes should be so limited as to render it possible for congregations to learn to sing them all.

To accomplish these results the field of sacred music was carefully canvassed. Selections were made from the old composers as well as the new. Every tune was judged on its merits. Doubtless some people will miss certain favorites, but when any tune was rejected it was because, in the judgment of the majority of the Committee, it did not measure up to the standard, or because there was another and a better tune to take its place.

It is impossible to secure good congregational singing without persevering effort on the part of the people. Christians who believe in congregational singing should show the utmost willingness to prepare themselves for this part of public worship. The Committee believes that the more faithful the effort by the people of our congregations to use the Psalter according to the plan on which it is now presented, the more highly will the care with which it has been prepared be appreciated, and the better will our congregational singing become.

The Committee on the Selection of Music desires, on behalf of the Church, to make grateful acknowledgment of all indebtedness for the use of copyrights. This generous permission was granted by The United Presbyterian Board of Publication for Number 75; by Messrs. Jennings and Graham for Number 321; by the Rev. Charles L. Hutchins, D. D., for Numbers 119 and 400; by the Rev. Henry E. Cooke for Number 387; by the Rev. J. S. B. Hodges, S. T. D., for Number 73. Upon payment of a fee, Dr. John H. Gower granted his permission to use Number 24, (169, 301, 352). Great care has been taken not to trespass on the rights of Composers or Proprietors. If through any inadvertance the copyright in the use of tunes has been infringed, the Committee tenders its apologies.

The Committee further desires to record its sense of gratitude and debt of obligation to Hugh A. Clarke, Mus. Doc., Professor of Music in the University of Pennsylvania, for his assistance in editing the music, for his work in the final revision and proof reading, and for tunes Numbers 56, 70, 127, 260, 342, 384, 395. These by Dr. Clarke, and Numbers 5, 55, 71, 120, 193, 237, 274, 275, and 364 by S. A. S. Metheny, M. D., appear for the first time and were composed for the present Version of the Psalter.

Mention should also be made of the assistance received in the preparation of the indices. The Rev. Charles L. Hutchins, D. D., the Rev. A. Galloway, B. D., Dr. Cyrus Adler, Mr. Hubert P. Main, and Mr. James Love furnished important data. THE SCOTTISH METRICAL PSALTER OF 1635, by Livingston; THE SCOTTISH METRICAL PSALMS, by MacMeeken; THE STORY OF THE PSALTERS, by Glass; SCOTTISH CHURCH MUSIC, by Love; THE MUSIC OF THE CHURCH HYMNARY, by Cowan and Love; HYMN-TUNES AND THEIR STORY, by Lightwood; Julian's DICTIONARY OF HYMNOLOGY; Grove's DICTIONARY OF MUSIC; Rieman's DICTIONARY OF MUSIC; THE DICTIONARY OF NATIONAL BIOGRAPHY; THE JEWISH ENCYCLOPEDIA; The Historical Edition of HYMNS ANCIENT AND MODERN, and numerous Psalters and Hymnals were frequently consulted.

All communications as to the text should be addressed to the Rev. W. J. Coleman, D. D., 1205 Boyle Street, Allegheny, Pa.; those concerning the music to S. A. S. Metheny, M. D., 617 North Forty-Third Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

The Committees to whom this responsible task was entrusted by the Church unite in placing the results of their labors at the disposal of Jesus Christ, the Son of God and the Saviour of men, in the hope that under the guidance of the Holy Spirit something may have been accomplished toward making these incomparable songs, which exalt the Redeemer and the great Redemption, the songs of worshipping hosts, in ever widening circles, until the day when his Name shall be one and his praise one throughout a ransomed world.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

PITCH

GREAT care has been exercised in the preparation of the Psalter to keep the music within the vocal compass of the average singer. It is, therefore, strongly urged that the tunes be sung in the keys in which they are written. Few singers, even trained musicians, can "pitch a tune" with accuracy without the aid of an instrument. A pitch pipe or a tuning fork is commonly used. The tuning fork is recommended as being more reliable. The "A" fork is used by some, but for vocal music the "C" fork is to be preferred, as the pitch of any tune in the Psalter can be obtained with only one transition, whereas two transitions are frequently required if an "A" fork is used. The tuning fork should be of the "International pitch" which is nearly half a tone lower than "Concert pitch". The diagram given, shows how to find the "key-note" with a "C" fork. In each case the first quarter note (♩) represents the pitch of the tone given by the fork, the half note (♭) represents the "key-note" or "do".

"C" FORK, INTERNATIONAL PITCH

Diagram illustrating the "C" Fork, International Pitch, showing the relationship between the key-note (Do) and the pitch of the tone given by the fork (key-note) for various keys.

Row 1 (Keys: G, D, A, E, B):

- G: Do sol DO.
- D: Do re DO.
- A: Do la DO.
- E: Do mi DO.
- B: Do ti DO.

Row 2 (Keys: F, B $\flat$ , E $\flat$ , A $\flat$ , D $\flat$ ):

- F: Sol DO.
- B $\flat$ : Re DO.
- E $\flat$ : La DO.
- A $\flat$ : Mi DO.
- D $\flat$ : Ti DO.

TEMPO

The tempo or time marks, printed at the head, of each tune indicate the rate of speed at which that tune should be sung. In determining the tempo two factors have been carefully considered: first, the character of the tune itself; second, the sentiment of the words with which the music is associated. An earnest effort has been made to avoid "that unseemly haste which borders on the irreverent" without falling into what is equally objectionable, a slowness of movement which is ponderous and sluggish. The attainment of a reverent mien, in keeping with the grave sweet melody of the Songs of Zion, has been the aim.

The tempo has been indicated in two ways. The first number (or metronome marking) specifies the number of quarter notes which are sung to the minute; thus, ♩ = 60 means that the tune is to be sung at the rate of sixty quarter notes to the minute. The second number indicates the number of seconds required to sing the tune. For example: Tune Number 1, ST. FLAVIAN, is marked ♩ = 76 = 25 Seconds. It should be sung at the rate of seventy-six quarter notes to a minute, and would take twenty-five seconds to sing it in strict time. The tempo marks given are merely suggestive, and no provision has been made to indicate any departure from "strict time". Change in the sentiment may require two verses to be sung at different rates of speed; indeed it often happens that one line should be sung faster or slower than the one preceding. The precentor should, in every case, study carefully the structure of the tune and the character of the Psalm, and regulate the time accordingly.

EXPRESSION

Careful attention should be given to the meaning of the words sung, in order that they may produce the proper effect—this is singing with expression or, in other words, with the understanding and the heart. The chief elements of expression are: first, rate of movement; second, variations in loudness or softness—or Time and Volume. It has been thought better, to leave this matter to the judgment of those who conduct the singing, rather than disfigure the pages with markings which might only result in a mechanical style of performance.

| 1 O greatly blesséd is the manWho walketh not astrayIn counsel of ungodly men,Nor stands in sinners' way,                  | 4 And all he does shall prosper well.The wicked are not so,But are like chaff which by the windIs driven to and fro. |
| 2 Nor sitteth in the scorner's chair;But placeth his delightUpon God's law, and meditatesOn his law day and night.         | 5 In judgment therefore shall not standSuch as ungodly are,Nor in th' assembly of the justShall wicked men appear.   |
| 3 He shall be like a tree that growsSet by the waterside,Which in its season yields its fruit,And green its leaves abide ; | 6 Because the way of godly menIs to Jehovah known ;Whereas the way of wicked menShall quite be overthrown.           |

PSALM I

2 ST. WERBURGH. 8, 8, 8, 8, 8

J. B. Dykes

$\text{♩} = 88 = 33 \text{ Seconds}$

1. How blessed the man that walk-eth not Where wick-ed men would guide his feet,
Who stand-eth not in sin-ners' way, Nor sit-teth in the scorner's seat;
Je-ho-vah's law is his de-light, His med-i-ta-tion day and night.

- 1 How blessed the man that walketh not
Where wicked men would guide his feet,
Who standeth not in sinners' way,
Nor sitteth in the scorner's seat;
Jehovah's law is his delight,
His meditation day and night.
- 2 He shall be like a tree that grows
Near planted by the waterside,
Which in its season yields its fruit,
And ever green its leaves abide;
He shall prosperity enjoy
In all that may his hands employ.
- 3 Not so the wicked; they are all
Like chaff that flies before the wind;
They shall not in the judgment stand,
Nor place among the righteous find.
The just man's way Jehovah knows;
The sinner's way he overthrows.

PSALM II

4 ST. EDWARD. 7, 7, 7, 7. D.

C. Steggall

 $\text{♩} = 92 = 42 \text{ Seconds}$

1. Why do heath - en na - tions rage? Why do peo - ples fol - ly mind?

Kings of earth in plots en - gage, Rul - ers are in league com - bined;

Then a - gainst Je - ho - vah high, And a - gainst Mes - si - ah's sway,

Let us break their bands, they cry, Let us cast their cords a - way.

1 Why do heathen nations rage?
 Why do peoples folly mind?
 Kings of earth in plots engage,
 Rulers are in league combined;
 Then against Jehovah high,
 And against Messiah's sway,
 Let us break their bands, they cry,
 Let us cast their cords away.

2 But the Lord will scorn them all,
 He will laugh who sits on high;
 Then his wrath will on them fall,
 Sore displeased he will reply:
 Yet according to my will
 I have set my king to reign,
 And on Zion's holy hill
 Mine Anointed I'll maintain.

3 His decree I will make known;
 Unto me the Lord did say,
 Thou art my beloved Son;
 I've begotten thee this day.
 Ask of me and thee I'll make
 Heir to earth and nations all,
 Them with iron thou shalt break,
 Dashing them in pieces small.

4 Therefore, kings, be wise, give ear;
 Hearken, judges of the earth;
 Serve the Lord with godly fear;
 Mingle trembling with your mirth.
 Kiss the Son, his wrath to turn,
 Lest ye perish in the way,
 For His anger soon will burn.
 Blessed are all that on him stay.

|--|---|
| 1 O Lord, how are my foes increased!Against me many rise.How many say, In vain for helpHe on his God relies.         | 3 I laid me down and slept; I waked:The Lord sustaineth me.I will not fear though thousands tenSet round against me be. |
| 2 Thou art my shield and glory, Lord,Thou liftest up my head.I cried, and from his holy hillThe Lord an answer made. | 4 Arise, O Lord, save me, my God;Thou smitten hast my foes;The face and teeth of wicked menAre broken by thy blows.     |

5 Salvation to the Lord alone
 Doth surely appertain;
 O let thy blessing evermore
 Upon thy saints remain.

PSALM V

7 DUNDEE. C. M.

Scotch Psalter

 $\text{♩} = 72 = 27 \text{ Seconds}$

1. Give ear, Je - ho - vah, to my words, My med - i - ta - tion weigh;

O hear my cry, my King, my God, For un - to thee I pray.

1 Give ear, Jehovah, to my words,
My meditation weigh;
O hear my cry, my King, my God,
For unto thee I pray.

6 Lord, lead me in thy righteousness
Because my foes lay wait;
The way wherein my path should be
Before my face make straight.

2 Lord, thou shalt early hear my voice;
At morn I will direct
My prayer to thee, and looking up,
An answer will expect.

7 For in their mouth there is no truth,
Their inward part is vile;
Their throat is like an open grave,
Their tongue is smooth with guile.

3 For thou art not a God that doth
In wickedness delight;
No evil shall abide with thee,
Nor fools stand in thy sight.

8 O God, condemn them; let them fall,
By their own counsel quelled;
And cast them out in all their sins,
For they 'gainst thee rebelled.

4 Thou hatest evildoers all,
And liars wilt destroy;
Jehovah loathes the bloody man
And such as fraud employ.

9 Let all that trust in thee be glad,
With joy lift up their voice;
Because thou savest them, let all
That love thy name rejoice.

5 But as for me, I'll seek thy house
In thine abundant grace;
And I will worship in thy fear
Before thy holy place.

10 Because that to the righteous man
Thou wilt thy blessing yield;
Thou wilt encompass him, O Lord,
With favor as a shield.

PSALM V

8 ST. GEORGE'S WINDSOR. 7; 7, 7, 7. D.

G. J. Elvey

 $\text{♩} = 96 = 40 \text{ Seconds}$

1. O Je - ho - vah, hear my words; To my thoughts at - ten - tive be.

Hear my cry, my King, my God, For I make my prayer to thee.

With the morn - ing light, O Lord, Thou shalt hear my voice and cry;

In the morn my prayer ar - range, And keep con - stant watch will I.

1 O Jehovah, hear my words;
 To my thoughts attentive be.
 Hear my cry, my King, my God,
 For I make my prayer to thee.
 With the morning light, O Lord,
 Thou shalt hear my voice and cry;
 In the morn my prayer arrange,
 And keep constant watch will I.

2 Truly thou art not a God
 That in sin doth take delight;
 Evil shall not dwell with thee,
 Nor the proud stand in thy sight.

Evil doers thou dost hate,
 Liars thou wilt bring to naught.
 God abhors the man who loves
 Deed of blood or lying thought.

3 But in thine abundant grace
 To thy house will I repair;
 Looking to thy holy place,
 In thy fear I'll worship there.
 Since, O Lord, mine enemies
 For my soul do lie in wait,
 Lead me in thy righteousness,
 Make thy way before me straight.

4 For they flatter with their tongue,
In their mouth no truth is found,
Like an open grave their throat,
All their thoughts with sin abound.
Hold them guilty, O my God,
Them for all their sins expel,
Let them fall by their own craft,
For against thee they rebel.

5 But let all that trust thy care
Ever glad and joyful be;
Let them joy who love thy name,
For they guarded are by thee.
And a blessing rich, O Lord,
To the righteous thou wilt yield;
Thou wilt compass him about
With thy favor as a shield.

PSALM VI

9 WINDHAM. L. M. (First Tune)

D. Read

♩ = 46 = 32 Seconds

1 O Lord, in wrath rebuke me not,
Nor in thy hot displeasure chide.
Have mercy, Lord, for I am weak,
Heal me, my bones are sorely tried.

2 My soul is also troubled sore;
O Lord, how long stay wilt thou make?
Return, Jehovah, free my soul;
O save me for thy mercies' sake.

3 For they who sleep the sleep of death
Of thee shall no remembrance have;
And who is he that will to thee
Give praises, lying in the grave?

4 I with my groaning weary am;
And all the night till morn appears,
Through grief I make my bed to swim
And water all my couch with tears.

5 Mine eye consumed with grief grows old
Because of all mine enemies.
Depart, ye wicked workers all,
For God hath heard my weeping cries.

6 The Lord my supplication heard;
The Lord will hear my earnest cry.
Ashamed and vexed shall be my foes;
Ashamed they suddenly shall fly.

PSALM VII

W. Croft

 $\text{♩} = 72 = 27 \text{ Seconds}$

1 O Lord my God, in thee do I
My confidence repose;
Deliver me and save from all
My persecuting foes.

2 Lest that the enemy my soul
Should like a lion rend,
In pieces tearing it while none
Is able to defend.

3 O Lord my God, if it be so
That I committed this;
If it be so that in my hands
Iniquity there is;

4 If I rewarded ill to him
That was at peace with me;
(Yea, ev'n my causeless enemy
I set at liberty;)

5 Then let the foe pursue my soul
And overtake his prey;
Yea, let him tread my life to earth,
In dust my glory lay.

6 Rise, Lord, in anger; rouse thyself
Against my raging foes;
The judgment thou hast set for me
Awake to interpose.

7 The peoples shall assemble then,
Around thee drawing nigh;
And over them do thou return
To thine own place on high.

8 Jehovah is the peoples' judge;
My judge, Jehovah, be,
According to my righteousness
And mine integrity.

9 O let the wicked's malice end,
But let the just abide;
For God is righteous and by him
The mind and heart are tried.

13 DUNFERMLINE. C. M.

Hart's Psalter

1. O Lord, our Lord, in all the earth How ex - cel - lent thy name!

Thou hast thy glo - ry spread a - far Up - on the star - ry frame.

1 O Lord, our Lord, in all the earth
How excellent thy name!

Thou hast thy glory spread afar
Upon the starry frame.

4 O what is man, that thou dost him
Within thy thought retain?

Or what the son of man, that thou
To visit him dost deign?

2 From mouths of sucklings and of babes
Thou hast a strength ordained,
That adversaries should be stilled
And vengeful foes restrained.

5 For thou a little lower hast
Him than the angels made;
A crown of glory and renown
Hast placed upon his head.

3 When I regard the heav'ns above
Which thine own fingers framed,
And look upon the moon and stars
Which were by thee ordained;

6 Thou madst him lord of all thy works;
Beneath him all things be,
All flocks and herds, all beasts and birds,
And fishes of the sea;

7 And whatsoever living thing
The paths of ocean claim.

O Lord, our Lord, in all the earth
How excellent thy name!

15 PRÆTORIUS. C. M.

Görlitz Hymn Book

 $\text{♩} = 88 = 22 \text{ Seconds}$

8. O sing ye prais - es to the Lord, Who dwells on Zi - on hill ;

A - mong the na - tions ev - 'ry - where His deeds re - cord ye still.

8 O sing ye praises to the Lord,
Who dwells on Zion hill;
Among the nations ev'rywhere
His deeds record ye still.

12 The nations in the pit are sunk
Which they themselves prepared;
And in the net which they have hid
Their own feet are ensnared.

9 When he inquireth after blood,
He then remembers them;
The humble he will not forget
That call upon his name.

13 The Lord is by the judgment known
Which he himself hath wrought;
The hands of sinners make the snares
Wherewith themselves are caught.

10 Lord, pity me; behold the grief
Which I from foes sustain,
O thou, who from the gates of death
Dost raise me up again;

14 The wicked shall be backward turned
And enter death's abode,
Ev'n all the nations of the world
That have forgotten God.

11 That I in Zion's daughter's gates
May all thy praise relate;
And that I ever may rejoice
In thy salvation great.

15 For they that needy are shall not
Forgotten be for aye,
Nor shall the hope of lowly ones
Forever pass away.

16 Arise, O Lord, lest man prevail;
Judge nations in thy sight.
That they may know themselves but men
The nations, Lord, affright.

Alt. from F. R. Havergal

I. I now will give thanks with whole heart to the Lord; Thy mar - vel - lous deeds I will show and re - cord; In thee will be glad, and ex - ult - ing - ly cry, And praise to thy name will I sing, O Most High.

- 1 I now will give thanks with whole heart to the Lord;
Thy marvellous deeds I will show and record;
In thee will be glad, and exultingly cry,
And praise to thy name will I sing, O Most High.
- 2 When backward my foes are all turned in despair,
They stumble and perish, thy presence is there.
For thou hast defended my right and my cause;
Thou sittest in judgment upholding thy laws.
- 3 Rebuked are the nations, the wicked destroyed,
Their names thou hast blotted, their places made void;
Consumed them forever, their cities o'erthrown,
Their very remembrance is perished and gone.
- 4 The Lord sitteth ever as king in the sky;
For judgment his throne he hath ordered on high.
In right he shall judge all the world from his seat,
And unto the people shall equity mete.
- 5 Jehovah will be as a lofty strong tower
For all the oppressed in their trouble's dark hour.
Who know thee will trust thee, O Lord, for thy grace;
Thou hast not forsaken those seeking thy face.

F. J. Haydn

$\text{♩} = 108 = 27 \text{ Seconds}$

6. O sing to the Lord who in Zi - on doth dwell; De - clare to the na - tions his deeds that ex - cel. When blood he a - veng - eth his mem - ry is clear, The cry of the poor nev - er fades from his ear.

6 O sing to the Lord who in Zion doth dwell;
 Declare to the nations his deeds that excel.
 When blood he avengeth his mem'ry is clear,
 The cry of the poor never fades from his ear.

7 Lord, see what I suffer from malice and hate.
 Have mercy, who liftest me up from death's gate,
 That I in the gates of thy Zion may voice
 Thy praises, and in thy salvation rejoice.

8 The nations are sunk in the pit they prepared;
 Their foot in the net which they hid is ensnared.
 Jehovah in judgment hath made himself known;
 For by their own works are the wicked o'erthrown.

9 The wicked to death's dark abode shall be brought,
 And all of the nations that God have forgot.
 Forgotten no longer the cause of the weak,
 Nor perished forever the hope of the meek.

10 Arise, O Jehovah, lest man should prevail;
 Let nations be judged in thy presence and quail.
 Yea, put them in fear, O Jehovah, that then
 The nations may know they are nothing but men.

Put not the hum - ble and the poor Out of thy mem - o - ry.

12 O Lord, do thou arise; O God,
Lift up thine hand on high;
Put not the humble and the poor
Out of thy memory.

13 O wherefore doth the wicked man
Contemn the God of might?
And wherefore say within his heart,
Thou never wilt requite?

14 Thou hast it seen; for thou their spite
And mischief wilt repay.
The poor commits himself to thee;
Thou art the orphan's stay.

15 O break the arm of wicked men;
As for the evil one,
Do thou seek out his wickedness
Until thou findest none.

16 The Lord is king through ages all,
Ev'n to eternity;
The heathen nations from his land
Are perished utterly.

17 The longing of the lowly ones,
Jehovah, thou didst hear;
Thou wilt prepare their hearts to speak,
And wilt incline thine ear,

18 To judge the fatherless, and those
Beneath oppression sore,
That man who is but sprung of earth,
May terrify no more.

Say to my soul, Swift as a bird
Now to your mountain flee?
- 2 For lo, the wicked bend their bow,
Their shaft on string they fit,
That those who upright are in heart
They secretly may hit.
- 3 If the foundations be destroyed,
What hath the righteous done?
The Lord is in his holy place,
In heav'n is his throne.

- 4 His eyes behold, his eyelids try
Men's sons. The just he proves;
But his soul hates the wicked man,
And him that vi'lence loves.
- 5 Snares, fire and brimstone, furious storms,
On sinners he shall rain;
This as the portion of their cup
Doth unto them pertain.
- 6 Because the Lord most righteous doth
In righteousness delight;
And with a pleasant countenance
Beholdeth the upright.

1. O thou, Je - ho - vah, grant us help, Be - cause the god - ly cease;
And from a - mong the sons of men The faith - ful now de - crease.

- 1 O thou, Jehovah, grant us help,
Because the godly cease;
And from among the sons of men
The faithful now decrease.
- 2 And to his neighbor ev'ry one
Doth utter vanity;
They with a double heart do speak
And lips of flattery.
- 3 False lips Jehovah will cut off,
Tongues that speak proudly thus,
We'll with our tongue prevail, our lips
Are ours; who's lord o'er us?
- 4 Because the poor are sore oppressed,
Because the needy sigh,
To give the safety they desire,
Saith God, Now rise will I.
- 5 Jehovah's words are words most pure,
They are like silver tried
In earthen furnace, seven times
That hath been purified.
- 6 Lord, thou shalt them preserve and keep
For ever from this race.
On ev'ry side the wicked walk,
With vile men high in place.

- 1 How long wilt thou forget me, Lord?
Shall it forever be?
O how long shall it be that thou
Wilt hide thy face from me?
- 2 How long take counsel in my soul,
Still sad in heart shall I?
How long exalted over me
Shall be mine enemy?
- 3 O Lord my God, consider me,
Give answer to my cries;
And lest I sleep the sleep of death,
Enlighten thou mine eyes;
- 4 Yea, lest mine enemy should say,
Against him I prevail;
And lest mine adversaries laugh,
When I am moved and fail.
- 5 But I have trusted in thy love,
And on thy grace relied;
In thy salvation shall my heart
With fervent joy confide.
- 6 I therefore to Jehovah will
Sing praises cheerfully,
Because he hath his bounty shown
To me abundantly.

sad in heart each day? How long shall foes ex - ult - ing, Sub-ject me to their sway?

1 How long wilt thou forget me?
Shall it forever be?
O Lord, how long neglect me,
And hide thy face from me?
How long my soul take counsel,
Thus sad in heart each day?
How long shall foes exulting,
Subject me to their sway?

2 O Lord my God, consider,
And hear my earnest cries;
Lest I in death should slumber,
Enlighten thou mine eyes;
Lest foes be heard exclaiming
Against him we prevailed;
And they that vex my spirit
Rejoice when I have failed.

3 But on thy tender mercy
I ever have relied;
With joy in thy salvation
My heart shall still confide.
And I with voice of singing
Will praise the Lord alone,
Because to me his favor
He hath so largely shown.

They all aside are gone;
And there is none that doeth good,
No, not so much as one.
- 4 Have all who work iniquity
No knowledge of his word,
Who eat his people as their bread
And call not on the Lord?
- 5 There were they overcome with fear,
For God is with the just;
Who, though their counsel may be shamed,
Still in Jehovah trust.
- 6 Let Isr'el's help from Zion come;
When back the Lord shall bring
His captives, Jacob shall rejoice
And Israel shall sing.

| 5 In my distress I called on God,Cry to my God did I;He from his temple heard my voice,To his ears came my cry.                     | 10 He darkness made his secret place;About him for his tentDark waters were, and thickest cloudsOf th' airy firmament.            |
| 6 The earth affrighted then did shake,And trembling on it seized;The hills' foundations moved and quaked,Because he was displeased. | 11 And at the brightness of that lightWhich was before his eye,His thick clouds passed away; hailstonesAnd coals of fire did fly. |
| 7 Up from his nostrils came a smoke,And from his mouth there cameDevouring fire, and coals by itWere kindled into flame.            | 12 Jehovah also in the heav'nsDid thunder in his ire,And there the Highest gave his voice,Hailstones and coals of fire.           |
| 8 The heav'ns also he bowed down,And thence he did descend;And thickest clouds of darkness didBeneath his feet attend.              | 13 Yea, he his arrows sent abroadAnd scattered them afar;His lightnings also he shot outAnd they confounded were.                 |
| 9 And he upon a cherub rode,And thereon he did fly;Yea, on the swift wings of the windHis flight was from on high.                  | 14 The waters' channels then were seen,The world's foundations vastAt thy rebuke discovered were,And at thy nostrils' blast.      |

23. Thou to the gra-cious show-est grace; To just men just thou art;

Pure to the pure; but fro-ward still To men of fro-ward heart.

23 Thou to the gracious showest grace; 26 By thee through troops of men I break,
 To just men just thou art; And them discomfit all;
 Pure to the pure; but froward still And by my God assisting me
 To men of froward heart. I overleap a wall.

24 For thou wilt the afflicted save, 27 For perfect is the way of God;
 In grief that low do lie; Jehovah's word is tried;
 But wilt bring down the countenance He is a buckler to all those
 Of them whose looks are high. Who do in him confide.

25 The Lord will light my candle so 28 Who but the Lord is God? but he
 That it shall shine full bright; Who is a rock and stay,
 The Lord my God will also make The God that girded me with strength
 My darkness to be light. And perfect makes my way?

29 My feet he makes as swift as hinds',
 On heights he made me stand.
 He taught my hands to war; my arms
 A bow of brass to bend.

37. Thou mad'st me free from peo - ple's strife; The heath-en's head to be.

A peo - ple whom I have not known Shall serv - ice ren - der me.

37 Thou mad'st me free from people's strife;
The heathen's head to be.

A people whom I have not known
Shall service render me.

38 At hearing they shall yield to me;
The aliens shall obey,
Yea, strangers in their hiding place
In fear shall fade away.

39 Jehovah lives, blessed be my rock,
Let God exalted be;
The God of vengeance who subdues
The people under me.

40 He saves me from mine enemies;
Yea, thou hast lifted me
Above my foes, and from the man
Of violence set me free.

41 I therefore will to thee, O Lord,
In songs my thanks proclaim;
And I among the nations will
Sing praises to thy name.

42 He great deliv'rance gives his king,
He mercy will display
To David, his anointed one,
And to his seed for aye.

PSALM XVIII

38 ELY. L. M.

 $\text{♩} = 76 = 25 \text{ Seconds}$

1. I love thee, O my Lord, my might, My rock, my for-ress, sav-ing power,
My God, my trust, my shield in fight, My great sal - va - tion, my high tower.

- 1 I love thee, O my Lord, my might,
My rock, my fortress, saving power,
My God, my trust, my shield in fight,
My great salvation, my high tower.
- 2 I to Jehovah lift my prayer,
To whose great name all praise we owe;
So shall I by his watchful care
Be kept in safety from my foe.
- 3 By floods of wickedness distressed,
With deadly sorrows compassed round,
My soul with mortal pain oppressed,
Within the snares of death was found.
- 4 Distressed I called upon the Lord,
And cried to God my prayer to hear;
My voice he from his temple heard;
My cry ascended to his ear.
- 5 Lo, then the mountains firm did quake;
The trembling earth throughout its frame
Did from its deep foundations shake,
For he in his fierce anger came.
- 6 Dark clouds of smoke, the signs of ire,
From out his glowing nostrils came.
His mouth sent forth devouring fire,
And coals were kindled into flame.
- 7 He bowed the heav'ns in his descent,
Beneath his feet the gloom of night;
And on a cherub swift he went,
The wings of wind were his for flight.
- 8 His hiding place he darkness made;
Dark waters and thick clouds his tent;
But at his brightness passed the shade;
With hailstones coals of fire were sent.
- 9 Then through the sky, with lightning
riven,
Jehovah thundered in his ire;
The voice of God Most High was given
'Mid storms of hail and coals of fire.
- 10 His deadly shafts around he threw;
His foes dispersed in wild retreat;
Like burning darts his lightning flew,
Consuming them in sore defeat.
- 11 The waters' channels were disclosed;
Laid bare the world's foundations vast,
At thy rebuke, O Lord, exposed,
And by thy nostrils' angry blast.

39 BRESLAU. I. M.

PSALM XVIII

Clauder's Psalmodia Nova

 $\text{♩} = 72 = 27 \text{ Seconds}$

12. He sent from heav'n and res - cued me From ma - ny wa - ters swell - ing high,

From those that hate me set me free, From foes that strong - er were than I.

- 12 He sent from heav'n and rescued me
From many waters swelling high,
From those that hate me set me free,
From foes that stronger were than I.
- 13 With fierce assault on sorrow's day
My foes came on, the Lord was near;
He saved me, and enlarged my way,
Because to him my soul was dear.
- 14 As I in life have righteous been
Jehovah doth his grace afford.
According as my hands were clean,
He gives to me a just reward.
- 15 Jehovah's ways I kept aright
And from my God did not depart;
I kept his judgments in my sight,
Nor put his statutes from my heart.
- 16 Sincere beneath his searching sight
I kept from each besetting sin.
The Lord my goodness doth requite
According as my hands are clean.
- 17 To gracious men thou gracious art,
And pure to such as purely live;
Yea, upright to the upright heart,
But with the froward thou wilt strive.
- 18 For thou afflicted men wilt save,
High looks wilt humble in thy might.
A lamp to me Jehovah gave;
My God turned darkness into light.
- 19 By thee upon a troop I run,
And by my God a wall I scale;
The Lord's way is the perfect one;
Jehovah's word shall never fail.
- 20 He will a refuge safe afford
To all behind his shield who walk;
For who is God beside the Lord?
Beside our God who is a rock?
- 21 For God my loins with strength upbinds,
My way makes perfect by his hand;
My feet he makes as swift as hinds';
On my high places makes me stand.
- 22 Mine arms a bow of brass can bend;
Hands trained by him for warfare wait.
Thy favor shields, thy hands defend;
Thy gentleness hath made me great.

PSALM XVIII

40 COMMANDMENTS. L. M.

Genevan French Psalter

 $\text{♩} = 72 = 27 \text{ Seconds}$

23 Thou makest room where'er I go;
My feet ne'er slip while I pursue;
I press upon the fleeing foe,
Nor turn till I them all subdue.

24 I smite them that they rise no more;
They at my feet are fallen now.
Thou girdest me with strength for war;
Beneath me all my foes shall bow.

25 That I might vanquish deadly foes
Thou makest them to turn and flee;
They called, but none to save them
rose;
In vain, O Lord, they cried to thee.

26 Then small as rising dust which flies
Before the wind, my foes I beat;
I cast them forth like mire which lies
Down-trodden in the busy street.

27 From strife thou hast secured my throne;
Of nations made me head to be;

A people whom I have not known
Shall render service unto me.

28 Where'er they hear they shall obey;
The sons of strangers shall submit.
The foreigners shall fade away,
Their strong enclosures trembling quit.

29 Jehovah lives! blessed be my strength!
The God who saves exalted be.
Yea, God shall vengeance show at length,
And humble nations under me.

30 He saves from foes, doth highly raise;
From vi'lent men he sets me free.
Jehovah, then thy name I'll praise;
Among the nations sing to thee.

31 He to his king deliv'rance sends,
To his anointed shows his grace;
His mercy evermore extends
To David and his promised race.

1. The spa - cious heav'ns de - clare The glo - ry of our God ;

The firm - a - ment dis - plays His hand - i - work a - broad ;

Day un - to day doth ut - ter speech, And night to night doth know - ledge teach.

1 The spacious heav'ns declare

The glory of our God ;

The firmament displays

His handiwork abroad ;

Day unto day doth utter speech,

And night to night doth knowledge teach.

3 In heav'n he set a tent,

A dwelling for the sun,

Which as a mighty man

Delights his course to run.

He, bridegroom like in his array,

Comes from his chamber, bringing day.

2 Aloud they do not speak,

They utter forth no word,

Nor into language break ;

Their voice is never heard ;

Yet through the world their line extends,

Their words to earth's remotest ends.

4 His daily going forth

Is from the end of heav'n ;

The firmament to him

Is for his circuit given ;

And ev'rywhere from end to end,

His radiant heat he doth extend.

His tes - ti - mo - ny sure Gives wis - dom un - to men;

The pre - cepts of the Lord are right, And fill the heart with great de - light.

5 Jehovah's perfect law
Restores the soul again;
His testimony sure
Gives wisdom unto men;
The precepts of the Lord are right,
And fill the heart with great delight.

6 The Lord's command is pure,
Enlightening the eyes;
Jehovah's fear is clean,
More lasting than the skies.
The judgments of the Lord express
His truth and perfect righteousness.

7 They're more to be desired
Than stores of finest gold;
Than honey from the comb
More sweetness far they hold.
With warnings they thy servant guard;
In keeping them is great reward.

8 His errors who can know?
Cleanse me from hidden stain.
Keep me from wilful sins,
Nor let them o'er me reign.
And then I upright shall appear
And be from great transgression clear.

9 Let all the words I speak
And all the thoughts within
Come up before thy sight
And thine approval win.
O thou Jehovah unto me,
My rock and my Redeemer be.

1. Je - ho - vah hear thee in the day When troub - le he doth send;

And let the name of Ja - cob's God From ev - 'ry ill de - fend.

1 Jehovah hear thee in the day
When trouble he doth send;
And let the name of Jacob's God
From ev'ry ill defend.

4 In thy salvation we will joy;
In our God's name we will Set up our banners; and the Lord
Thy prayers all fulfill.

2 O let him help thee from above,
From out his temple court;
From Zion, his own holy hill,
O let him send support.

5 Now know I that the Lord doth save
His own anointed king;
He'll hear him from his holy heav'n,
His right hand strength shall bring.

3 Let him remember all thy gifts,
Accept thy sacrifice;
Grant thee thine heart's wish and fulfil
Thy thoughts and counsel wise.

6 In chariots some put confidence,
Some horses trust upon;
But we remember will the name
Of our Lord God alone.

7 We rise and upright stand, when they
Are made to bow and fall.
Deliver, Lord, and let the King
Give answer when we call.

Scotch Psalter

1. My God, my God, why hast thou me For - sak - en? Why so far
Art thou from help - ing me and from My words that groan - ing are?

- 1 My God, my God, why hast thou me
Forsaken? Why so far
Art thou from helping me and from
My words that groaning are?
- 2 All day, my God, to thee I cry,
Yet am not heard by thee;
And in the season of the night
I cannot silent be.
- 3 But thou art holy, thou that dost
Inhabit Isr'el's praise.
Our fathers hoped in thee; they hoped,
And thou didst them release.
- 4 When unto thee they sent their cry,
To them deliv'rance came;
Because they put their trust in thee,
They were not put to shame.
- 5 But as for me, a worm I am,
And as no man am prized;
- 6 Reproach of men I am, and by
The people am despised.
- 6 All they that see me laugh in scorn;
Shoot out the lip do they;
They nod and shake their heads at me
And mocking thus do say:
- 7 This man did trust in God, that he
Would free him by his might;
Let him deliver him since he
Had in him such delight.
- 8 But thou art he out of the womb
That didst me safely take;
When I was on my mother's breast
Thou me to hope didst make.
- 9 And I was cast upon thy care
Ev'n from my birth till now;
And since my mother bare me, Lord,
My God and guide art thou.

| 20 For he despised not nor abhorredThe afflicted's misery;Nor from him hid his face, but heardWhen he to him did cry.                | 25 Earth's fat ones eat and worship shall;All who to dust descendShall bow to him; none of them canHis soul from death defend. |
| 21 Within the congregation greatMy praise shall be of thee;My vows before them that him fearShall be performed by me.                | 26 A seed shall service do to him;And to the Lord it shallBe reckoned through the coming yearsTo generations all.              |
| 22 The meek shall eat and shall be filled;They to the Lord shall giveTheir praise that after him do seek;Your heart shall ever live. | 27 Yea, they shall come and shall declareHis truth and righteousness,Ev'n to a people yet unborn,And that he hath done this.   |

51 BREMEN. 8, 8, 8, 8, 8, 8

PSALM XXII

G. Neumark

♩ = 72 = 40 Seconds

I. { My God, my God, O why hast thou In my dis-tress for - sa - ken me? }
 { O why so far from giv - ing help, And from mine ag - o - niz - ing plea? }

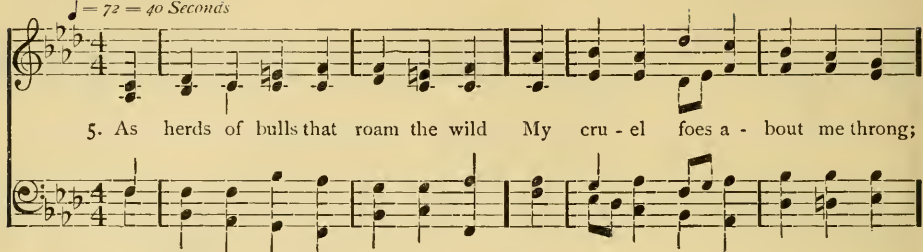

By day, my God, I cry in vain; By night, yet no re - lief I gain.

- 1 My God, my God, O why hast thou
 In my distress forsaken me?
 O why so far from giving help,
 And from mine agonizing plea?
 By day, my God, I cry in vain;
 By night, yet no relief I gain.
- 2 But still thou art the holy one,
 O thou in Isr'el's praise enthroned;
 Our fathers put their trust in thee,
 And found their prayer for succor owned;
 To thee they cried, deliv'rance came;
 They hoped, and were not put to shame.
- 3 Reproached of men, by all despised,
 A worm and not a man am I;
 All they that see me laugh in scorn,
 They nod, shoot out the lip and cry,
 He trusts the Lord, let him defend
 And save him, since he is his friend.
- 4 Thou gavest life, thou mad'st me trust
 When I was on my mother's breast;
 From birth dependent on thy care,
 Thou art my God, in thee I rest.
 Be not far off, for grief is nigh;
 There's none on whom I can rely.

5. As herds of bulls that roam the wild My cru-el foes a-bout me throng;

They com-pass and be-set me round, Like bulls of Ba-shan fierce and strong;

Like li-ons roar-ing for their prey, Their mouths they o-pen wide to slay.

53 ST. MATTHIAS. 8, 8, 8, 8, 8, 8

W. H. Monk

 $\text{♩} = 84 = 35 \text{ Seconds}$

9. To all my breth-ren I'll de-clare The glo-ry of thy ho-ly name;

I'll praise thee where the peo-ple meet. Who fear the Lord, his praise pro-claim;

Ye seed of Ja-cob, praise his grace; And stand in awe, all Is-r'el's race.

9 To all my brethren I'll declare
The glory of thy holy name;
I'll praise thee where the people meet.
Who fear the Lord, his praise proclaim;
Ye seed of Jacob, praise his grace;
And stand in awe, all Isr'el's race.

12 All ends of earth, rememb'ring him,
Shall turn, repenting, to the Lord;
The kindreds of the nations then
To him their homage shall accord;
Because the Lord the kingdom owns,
And rules above all earthly thrones.

10 For he hath not despised the poor,
Nor hath abhorred their wretched
He hath not turned away his face [state;
From those who are in trouble great;
But when they cried to him in grief,
He heard their prayer and sent relief.

13 The rich and mighty of the earth
Shall eat and low before him bend;
And in his presence all shall bow
Who helpless to the dust descend;
Yea, ev'n the very poor who strive,
But cannot keep their souls alive.

11 Amid th' assembly of the saints
My praises shall arise to thee;
I'll pay my vows with them that fear;
The meek shall eat and filled shall be;
Who seek the Lord shall him adore;
Your heart shall live for evermore.

14 A seed shall serve him evermore;
And of the Lord it shall be told
To ev'ry age; yea, they shall come
And shall his righteousness unfold,
Ev'n to a people yet unknown,
That this was done by him alone,

$\text{♩} = 88 = 33 \text{ Seconds}$

1. The Lord's my Shep-herd, I'll not want. He makes me down to lie

In past-ures green; he lead-eth me The qui-et wa-ters by.

1 The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want.
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; he leadeth me
The quiet waters by.

2 My soul he doth restore again;
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
Ev'n for his own name's sake.

3 Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale,
Yet will I fear no ill;

For thou art with me, and thy rod
And staff me comfort still.

4 A table thou hast furnished me
In presence of my foes;
My head thou dost with oil anoint,
And my cup overflows.

5 Goodness and mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me;
And in God's house for evermore
My dwelling place shall be.

S. A. S. Metheny

$\text{♩} = 92 = 41 \text{ Seconds}$

1. The Lord is my Shep-herd; no want shall come nigh. In past-ures of verd-ure he makes me to lie; Be-side the still wa-ters he leads me to rest; My soul he re - stor - eth when faint and op-pressed.

- 1 The Lord is my Shepherd; no want shall come nigh.
In pastures of verdure he makes me to lie;
Beside the still waters he leads me to rest;
My soul he restoreth when faint and oppressed.
- 2 In right ways he leads me for his own name's sake;
Yea, though through the vale of death's shadow I walk,
Since thou wilt be with me, no ill shall I fear;
Thy rod and thy staff give me comfort and cheer.
- 3 Thou spreadest my table in face of my foes;
My head thou anointest, my cup overflows.
Thy goodness and mercy attend my life's ways;
At home with Jehovah I'll dwell endless days.

PSALM XXIV

57 EVAN. C. M. (First Tune)

W. H. Havergal

 $\text{♩} = 80 = 24 \text{ Seconds}$

- 1 The earth belongeth to the Lord,
And all that it contains;
The world that is inhabited
And all that there remains.
- 2 For he upon the waters vast
Did its foundation lay;
He firmly hath established it
Upon the floods to stay.
- 3 Who is the man that shall ascend
Into the hill of God?
Or who within his holy place
Shall have a firm abode?
- 4 Whose hands are clean, whose heart is pure,
And unto vanity
Who hath not lifted up his soul,
Nor sworn deceitfully.
- 5 This is the man who shall receive
The blessing from the Lord;
The God of his salvation shall
Him righteousness accord.

- 6 Lo, this the generation is
That after him inquire,
O Jacob, who do seek thy face
With all their heart's desire.
- 7 Ye gates, lift up your heads on high;
Ye doors that last for aye,
Be lifted up that so the King
Of glory enter may.
- 8 But who of glory is the King?
The mighty Lord is this;
Ev'n that same Lord that great in might
And strong in battle is.
- 9 Ye gates lift up your heads on high;
Ye doors that last for aye,
Be lifted up, that so the King
Of glory enter may.
- 10 But who is he that is the King
Of glory? Who is this?
The Lord of Hosts and none but he
The King of glory is.

The Stonyhurst Manuscript

♩ = 100 = 48 Seconds

1. The earth and the ful - ness with which it is stored, The world and its dwellers be - long to the Lord; For he on the seas its foun - da - tion hath laid, And firm on the wa - ters its pil - lars hath stayed, And firm on the wa - ters its pil - lars hath stayed.

- 1 The earth and the fulness with which it is stored,
The world and its dwellers belong to the Lord;
For he on the seas its foundation hath laid,
And firm on the waters its pillars hath stayed.
- 2 What man shall the hill of Jehovah ascend?
And who in the place of his holiness stand?
The man of pure heart, and of hands without stain,
Who swears not to falsehood, nor loves what is vain.
- 3 He shall from Jehovah the blessing receive,
The God of salvation shall righteousness give;
For this is the people, yea, this is the race,
The Israel true that are seeking his face.
- 4 Ye gates everlasting, be lifted on high,
The great King of glory to enter draws nigh.
O who is the King that in glory draws near?
Jehovah, the mighty in battle, is here.
- 5 Ye doors everlasting, be lifted on high,
The great King of glory to enter draws nigh.
This great King of glory, O who can he be?
Jehovah of Hosts, King of glory is he.

G. W. Martin
Arr. by A. S. Sullivan

♩ = 80 = 48 Seconds

1. To thee I lift my soul; O Lord, I trust in thee;

My God, let me not be a-shamed Nor foes ex - ult o'er me.

2. Yea, none that wait on thee Shall be a - shamed at all;

But those that wan - ton - ly trans-gress, Up - on them shame shall fall.

1 To thee I lift my soul;
O Lord, I trust in thee;
My God, let me not be ashamed
Nor foes exult o'er me.

2 Yea, none that wait on thee
Shall be ashamed at all;
But those that wantonly transgress,
Upon them shame shall fall.

3 Show me thy ways, O Lord;
Thy paths, O teach thou me;
And do thou lead me in thy truth;
Therein my teacher be.

4 For thou art God that dost
To me salvation send,
And I upon thee all the day
Expecting do attend.

5 Thy tender mercies, Lord,
To mind do thou recall,
And lovingkindnesses, for they
Have been through ages all.

6 My sins and faults of youth
Do thou, O Lord, forget;
In lovingkindness think on me
And for thy goodness great.

62 OLD 134TH. (St. Michael) S. M.

Day's Psalter

$\text{♩} = 80 = 24 \text{ Seconds}$

7. The Lord is good and just; The way he'll sin - ners show;

The meek in judg - ment he will guide And make his path to know.

- 7 The Lord is good and just;
The way he'll sinners show;
The meek in judgment he will guide
And make his path to know.
- 8 All pathways of the Lord
Are truth and mercy sure,
To such as keep his covenant
And testimonies pure.
- 9 Now for thine own name's sake,
O Lord, I thee entreat
To pardon mine iniquity,
For it is very great.
- 10 Who fears the Lord is taught
The way to understand;
His soul shall ever dwell at ease,
His seed possess the land.
- 11 The secret of the Lord
Shall all who fear him know;
The knowledge of his covenant
He unto them will show.
- 12 Mine eyes upon the Lord
Continually are set;
For he it is that shall bring forth
My feet out of the net.

13. O turn to me thy face, To me thy mercy show;

For I am ver - y des - o - late, And brought ex - ceed - ing low.

13 O turn to me thy face,
 To me thy mercy show;
 For I am very desolate,
 And brought exceeding low.

14 My griefs of heart abound;
 My sore distress relieve.
 See mine affliction and my pain,
 And all my sins forgive.

15 Consider thou my foes
 Because they many are;
 And it a cruel hatred is
 Which they against me bear.

16 O do thou keep my soul,
 Do thou deliver me;
 And let me not be put to shame
 Because I trust in thee.

17 Because I wait for thee
 Let truth and right defend;
 Redemption, Lord, to Israel
 From all his troubles send.

70 ELLORA. 12, 11, 12, 11. (First Tune)

H. A. Clarke

 $\text{♩} = 100 = 29 \text{ Seconds}$

1. Give ye to Je - ho - vah, O sons of the might - y, Give glo - ry and strength to the Lord ev - er - more; O give to the name of Je - ho - vah due glo - ry; In beau - ty of ho - li - ness bow and a - dore.

- 1 Give ye to Jehovah, O sons of the mighty,
Give glory and strength to the Lord evermore;
O give to the name of Jehovah due glory;
In beauty of holiness bow and adore.
- 2 The voice of Jehovah comes over the waters,
In thunder the God of all glory draws nigh;
Yea, over the waves of the darkening tempest
The voice of Jehovah is heard in the sky.
- 3 The voice of Jehovah is mighty, is mighty;
The voice of Jehovah in majesty speaks.
The voice of Jehovah is breaking the cedars;
Jehovah the cedars of Lebanon breaks.

- 4 Like young kine disporting, they skip when he speaketh.
 Lo, Lebanon leaps at the sound of his name.
 Like antelope bounding, Mount Hermon is skipping;
 The voice of Jehovah divideth the flame.
- 5 The voice of Jehovah—it shaketh the desert;
 The desert of Kadesh it shaketh with fear;
 The hind of the field into travail it casteth;
 The voice of Jehovah the forest strips bare.
- 6 Each one in his temple his glory proclaimeth;
 God ruled at the flood—yea, forever his throne.
 Jehovah all strength to his people imparteth;
 Jehovah with peace ever blesseth his own.

J. S. B. Hodges

♩ = 88 = 44 Seconds

I. O Lord, by thee de-liv-ered, I'll thee with songs ex-tol; My foes thou hast not suf-fered To glo-ry o'er my fall. O Lord my God, I sought thee, And thou didst heal and save; Thou, Lord, from death didst ransom, And keep me from the grave.

1 O Lord, by thee delivered,
I'll thee with songs extol;
My foes thou hast not suffered
To glory o'er my fall.
O Lord my God, I sought thee,
And thou didst heal and save;
Thou, Lord, from death didst ransom,
And keep me from the grave.

2 His holy name remember;
Ye saints, Jehovah praise;
His anger lasts a moment,
His favor all our days.
For sorrow, like a pilgrim,
May tarry for the night;
But joy the heart will gladden
When dawns the morning light.

3 In prosp'rous days I boasted,
Unmoved I shall remain;
For, Lord, thou by thy favor
My mountain didst maintain.

I soon was sorely troubled,
For thou didst hide thy face;
I cried to thee, Jehovah,
I sought Jehovah's grace.

4 What can my blood avail thee,
When in the grave I dwell?
Shall dust repeat thy praises?
Thy truth and glory tell?
O Lord, on me have mercy,
And my petition hear;
That thou mayst be my helper,
In mercy, Lord, appear.

5 And now to joyous dancing
My sorrow thou hast turned,
And girded me with gladness,
Who had in sackcloth mourned.
That unto thee my glory
May ceaseless praise accord
Forever will I render
Thanksgiving to the Lord.

1. In thee, O Lord, I put my trust; A-shamed let me not be;

Ac - cord - ing to thy right-eous-ness Do thou de - liv - er me.

1 In thee, O Lord, I put my trust;
Ashamed let me not be;
According to thy righteousness
Do thou deliver me.

2 Bow down thine ear to my request,
And swift deliv'rance send;
To save me be a rock of strength,
A fortress to defend.

3 Since thou my rock and fortress art
For thy name's sake now guide,
And rescue me from secret nets;
Thou dost my strength abide.

4 I to thy hand with confidence
My spirit do commend;
For unto me, Lord God of truth,
Redemption thou dost send.

5 Who lying vanities observe
I greatly have abhorred;
But as for me, my confidence
Is fixed upon the Lord.

6 I'll in thy mercy gladly joy;
For thou my miseries
Considered hast; thou hast my soul
Known in adversities;

7 Thou hast not shut me up within
The adversary's hand;
But in an open place my feet
By thee were made to stand.

- 1 O blessed is the man to whom
Hath freely pardoned been
All the transgression he hath done,
And covered is his sin.
- 2 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord
Imputeth not his sin,
And in whose spirit is no guile,
Nor fraud is found therein.
- 3 When I from speaking had refrained
And silent was my tongue,
My bones were waxing old because
I cried out all day long.
- 4 Because upon me day and night
Thine hand did heavy lie;
So that my moisture has been turned
To summer's drought thereby.
- 5 I thereupon have unto thee
Acknowledged all my sin,
And likewise mine iniquity
I have not hid within.
- 6 I to Jehovah will confess
My trespasses, said I;
And of my sin thou freely didst
Forgive th' iniquity.
- 7 For this shall every godly one
His prayer direct to thee;

- In such a time he shall thee seek
As found thou mayest be.
- 8 Yea, when the floods of waters great
Are swelling to the brim,
They shall not overwhelm his soul
Nor once come near to him.
- 9 Thou art my hiding place, thou shalt
From trouble keep me free;
With songs of my deliverance
Shalt thou encompass me.
- 10 I will instruct thee and thee teach
The way that thou shalt go;
And with mine eye upon thee set
I will direction show.
- 11 Then be not like the horse or mule
Which do not understand;
Whose mouth, that they may come to
A bridle must command. [thee,
- 12 The sorrows of the wicked man
Exceedingly abound;
But him that trusteth in the Lord
Shall mercy compass round.
- 13 Ye righteous, in the Lord be glad,
In him do ye rejoice;
All ye that upright are in heart,
For joy lift up your voice.

1. Ye right-eous, in the Lord re-joyce; 'Tis meet the saints should raise their voice
Je-ho-vah's name to praise. The harp and ten-stringed vi-ol bring;
With skill re-sound-ing prais-es sing; A new song to him raise.

- 1 Ye righteous, in the Lord rejoice;
'Tis meet the saints should raise their
Jehovah's name to praise. [voice
The harp and ten-stringed viol bring;
With skill resounding praises sing;
A new song to him raise.
- 2 For upright is Jehovah's word;
And all the doings of the Lord
In faithfulness are wrought.
In justice and in judgment right
The Lord doth ever take delight;
With goodness earth is fraught.
- 3 Jehovah's word the heav'ns hath made,
And all the host of them arrayed
His breath has caused to be.
He rolls the water heap on heap;
He stores away the mighty deep
In garners of the sea.
- 4 Let all the earth Jehovah fear;
Let all that dwell both far and near
In awe before him stand.
For lo, he spake and it was done;
Yea, steadfast stood each work begun,
When once he gave command.
- 5 He makes the nations' counsel vain:
The plans the peoples would maintain
Jehovah makes to fail.
Jehovah's counsel shall endure;
His purposes of heart most sure
Through ages all prevail.
- 6 O truly is the nation blessed,
Whose God before the world confessed
Jehovah is alone.
And blessed the people is whom he
Hath made his heritage to be,
And chosen for his own.

7 The Lord looks down from heav'n on high,

On sons of men he bends his eye.

From his abode above

He looketh forth on all mankind;

He fashions them in heart and mind,

And all their works doth prove.

9 On those who worship him in fear,

And trust his lovingkindness here,

Jehovah sets his eye;

That he may save their souls from death,

And keep them living by his breath

When famine bids them die.

8 No king is saved by gathered hosts;

'Tis not the strength the warrior boasts

That safety shall afford.

'Tis vain to trust the warlike steed,

Nor can he by his strength or speed

Avail to save his lord.

10 Our soul hath waited for the Lord;

Our shield, he will us help afford;

Our hearts shall joyful be.

Because we trust thy holy name;

Thy grace, O Lord, we ever claim,

As we have hoped in thee.

- 1 At all times I will bless the Lord,
In praise my mouth employ;
My soul shall in Jehovah boast;
The meek shall hear with joy.
- 2 O magnify the Lord with me,
Let us exalt his name.
In all my fears I sought the Lord,
From him deliv'rance came.
- 3 They looked to him and radiant were;
Ashamed they shall not be.
This poor man cried, Jehovah heard,
From trouble set him free.
- 4 The angel of the Lord encamps,
And round encompasseth
All those about that do him fear,
And them delivereth.
- 5 O taste and see the Lord is good;
Who trust in him are blessed.
Fear God, his saints; none that him fear
Shall be with want oppressed.
- 6 The lions young may hungry be,
And they may lack their food;
But they that truly seek the Lord
Shall not lack any good.

I shall you teach to un - der - stand How ye the Lord should fear.

- 7 O children, hither do ye come
And unto me give ear;
I shall you teach to understand
How ye the Lord should fear.
- 8 What man is he that life desires
And loveth many days,
Ev'n to the end that he may see
The good that life conveys?
- 9 Refrain thy lips from speaking guile,
Withhold thy tongue from ill;
Depart from evil, do thou good;
Seek peace, pursue it still.
- 10 Upon the race of righteous men
Jehovah sets his eye;
His ears are open unto them,
That he may hear their cry.
- 11 The face of God is set against
Those that do wickedly,
- That he may quite out from the earth
Cut off their memory.
- 12 The righteous to Jehovah cry,
He unto them gives ear;
And they out of their troubles all
By him delivered are.
- 13 The Lord is ever nigh to them
That are of broken heart;
To those of contrite spirit he
Salvation doth impart.
- 14 Though many troubles try the just,
From all the Lord doth free;
He safely keepeth all his bones,
Not one shall broken be.
- 15 Ill shall the wicked slay; condemned
Shall be who hate the just.
The Lord redeems his servants' soul;
None perish that him trust.

- 1 The Lord at all times I will bless,
My mouth his praise shall still express;
My soul, O Lord, shall boast in thee;
The meek shall hear and joyful be.
- 2 O magnify the Lord with me,
Let us to praise his name agree;
I sought the Lord, he bowed his ear,
He set me free from ev'ry fear.
- 3 They looked to him, their faces shone;
No shame to them shall e'er be known.
This poor man cried, the Lord gave heed
And him from all his troubles freed.
- 4 Round them that fear him, keeping ward,
Encamps the angel of the Lord.
The Lord is good, O taste and see,
Who trusts in him, how blest is he.
- 5 O ye his saints, the Lord revere;
There is no want to those who fear.
Young lions pine for lack of food;
Who seek the Lord shall want no good.

C. E. Willing

 $\text{♩} = 88 = 22 \text{ Seconds}$

6. O chil- dren, come, to me give ear, And learn how ye the Lord should fear.

What man to length of days as - pires, And seek - ing good, long life de - sires?

6 O children, come, to me give ear,
And learn how ye the Lord should fear.
What man to length of days aspires,
And seeking good, long life desires?

7 From evil let thy tongue refrain;
From speaking guile thy lips restrain;
From ev'ry wicked way depart;
Do good, seek peace with all thy heart.

8 The Lord on just men keeps his eye;
His ears are open to their cry.
Against the vile he sets his face,
From earth their mem'ry to erase.

9 The righteous cried, the Lord gave heed
And them from all their troubles freed.
On broken hearts the Lord attends;
To spirits crushed salvation sends.

10 Though many ills the righteous see,
From all Jehovah sets him free;
Preserves his bones in ev'ry fall,
That none can broken be at all.

11 But evil shall the wicked slay;
Who hate the just condemned be they.
The Lord redeems his saints each one;
Who trust in him condemned are none.

| 7 My soul shall in the Lord rejoiceAnd in his saving name.O Lord, who is like unto thee?Shall all my bones exclaim;            | 11 As though for friend or brother dearI did myself behave;As one in deepest sorrow bowedBeside his mother's grave.       |
| 8 Who dost the poor set free from himThat is for him too strong,The poor and needy from the manThat spoils and does him wrong. | 12 But in my trouble they rejoiced,And they together met;The vilest men with one accordThemselves against me set;         |
| 9 False witnesses against me rose,They groundless charges made;Bereaving my afflicted soul,They ill for good repaid.           | 13 I knew it not; they did me tearAnd quiet would not be.With mocking hypocrites at feastsThey gnashed their teeth at me. |
| 10 But as for me, when they were sickIn sackcloth sad I mourned;My humbled soul did fast; my prayerWas to my bosom turned.     | 14 How long, O Lord, wilt thou look on?From ruin they intendO save my soul; from lions youngMy precious life defend.      |

1. Strive thou, O Lord, a - gainst my foes, And fight with them that fight with me ;

The buckler take, thy shield op - pose, Stand forth and my de - fend - er be.

- 1 Strive thou, O Lord, against my foes,
And fight with them that fight with me;
The buckler take, thy shield oppose,
Stand forth and my defender be.
- 2 Draw out the spear and stop the way
Against the men that press on me,
And to my soul in mercy say,
I am salvation unto thee.
- 3 Let those that would discomfit me,
Themselves confounded, shamed of face,
Be driven back and made to flee,
Ev'n those devising my disgrace.
- 4 Jehovah's angel in his wrath
Drive them like chaff before the wind;
All dark and slipp'ry be their path,
His angel pressing hard behind.
- 5 Without a cause a snare they laid
Within a pit which they prepared;
Without a cause a pit they made
In which my soul might be ensnared.
- 6 Let him with sudden ruin meet;
Let him be caught within the snare
Which he hath spread for other feet;
Yea, let him meet destruction there.

| 7 I in the Lord will joy that dayWhen I his saving power shall see;And all my bones exulting say,Jehovah, who is like to thee?             | 11 As though for friend or brother dear,In their distress I grieved aloud;As one beside his mother's bierWith deepest sorrow I was bowed.              |
| 8 For thou art faithful to defendThe helpless poor against the strong,To all the needy help to sendAnd save from violence and wrong.       | 12 But when I halted they rejoiced;Unknown to me they met to plot.The vile their hate together voiced,In malice rent me, ceasing not.                  |
| 9 False witnesses against me stood,Of things I knew not chargesmade.They ill rewarded me for good;To rob my soul they ill repaid.      | 13 As men profane who feasting mock,They with their teeth have gnashedon me;How long, Jehovah, wilt thou look?How long wilt thou unheeding see?    |
| 10 But I in mourning garb was clad,When they in sickness sufferedpain;I made my soul with fasting sad;My prayers to me returned again. | 14 From their destructions pluck my soul,And snatch my life from lions strong;Then with thy saints I will extolAnd praise thy name amid thethrong. |

15. Let none who is my foe for naught Raise o - ver me ex - ult - ant cry;
Nor those whose hate I mer - it not With se - cret scorn - ing wink the eye.

- 15 Let none who is my foe for naught
Raise over me exultant cry;
Nor those whose hate I merit not
With secret scorn- ing wink the eye.
- 16 They speak not peace; deceit they frame
Against the men of quiet mien,
And op'ning wide their mouth exclaim,
Aha, aha, our eye hath seen.
- 17 Thou, Lord, hast seen; thy silence
Jehovah, be not far away; [break;
Arouse thyself; to justice wake;
My God, do not my cause delay.
- 18 O Lord my God, judge me in right,
Let them not triumph over me,
- Nor in their heart say with delight,
Aha, our soul's desire we see.
- 19 Let none who seek my hurt exclaim,
Aha, we have devoured him quite;
Be they confounded, clothed with shame,
Who thus would magnify their might.
- 20 But let them shout and loud rejoice
Who long to see me justified;
Yea, let them say with ceaseless voice,
Jehovah's name be magnified,
- 21 Ev'n he who loves his servant's peace
And makes him prosper in the way;
And then my tongue shall never cease
To sing his praises all the day.

96 WOODSTOCK. C. M.

D. Dutton

1. The tres - pass of the wick - ed man With - in my heart thus says,

Un - doubt - ed - ly the fear of God Is not be - fore his eyes.

1 The trespass of the wicked man
Within my heart thus says,
Undoubtedly the fear of God
Is not before his eyes.

3 The words he utters with his mouth
Are wickedness and lies;
He has refrained from doing good,
And ceases to be wise.

2 Because himself he flattereth
In his own blinded eye,
Until the hatefulness be found
Of his iniquity.

4 Iniquity upon his bed
He cunningly doth plot;
He sets himself in ways not good,
And ill abhorreth not.

5. Thy mer - cy, Lord, is in the heav'ns; Thy truth doth reach the clouds;

Thy jus - tice is like mountains great; Thy judg - ments deep as floods;

5 Thy mercy, Lord, is in the heav'ns;
Thy truth doth reach the clouds;
Thy justice is like mountains great;
Thy judgments deep as floods;

8 Because of life the fountain pure
Remains alone with thee;
And in that purest light of thine
We clearly light shall see.

6 Lord, thou preservest man and beast.
How precious, Lord, thy grace!
Beneath the shadow of thy wings
Men's sons their trust shall place.

9 To them that know thee, evermore
Thy loving kindness show,
And still on men of upright heart
Thy righteousness bestow.

7 They with the fatness of thy house
Shall be well satisfied;
From rivers of thy pleasures thou
Wilt drink to them provide.

10 Let not the foot of cruel pride
Against me come and stand;
And let me never be removed
By any wicked hand.

11 There fallen to the earth are they
Who wickedness devise;
Thrust down are they and never shall
Be able to arise.

1. For e - vil do - ers fret thou not Thy - self un - qui - et - ly;

Nor bear thou en - vy un - to them That work in - i - qui - ty.

- 1 For evil-doers fret thou not
Thyself unquietly;
Nor bear thou envy unto them
That work iniquity.
- 2 For even like the growing grass
Soon be cut down shall they;
And like the green and tender herb
They wither shall away.
- 3 Set thou thy trust upon the Lord
And be thou doing good;
And so thou in the land shalt dwell
And verily have food.
- 4 Delight thyself in God, he'll give
Thine heart's desire to thee;
Thy way to God commit, him trust,
It bring to pass shall he.
- 5 And like the morning light he shall
Thy righteousness display;
And he thy judgment shall bring forth
Like noontide of the day.
- 6 Rest in the Lord, in patience wait,
Nor for the wicked fret,
Who, prosp'ring in his evil way,
Success in sin doth get.

1. In thy great in - dig - na - tion, Lord, Do thou re - buke me not;

Nor on me lay thy chast'ning hand In thy dis - pleas - ure hot.

1 In thy great indignation, Lord,
Do thou rebuke me not;
Nor on me lay thy chast'ning hand
In thy displeasure hot.

4 Because gone up above mine head
My great transgressions be;
And as a weighty burden they
Too heavy are for me.

2 For in me fast thine arrows stick,
Thine hand doth press me sore;
And in my flesh there is no health
Nor soundness any more.

5 My wounds are loathsome and corrupt;
My folly makes it so;
I troubled am, and much bowed down;
All day I mourning go.

3 This grief I have because thy wrath
Is forth against me gone;
And in my bones there is no rest
For sin that I have done.

6 Because an inflammation great
So fills my loins with pain,
That in my weak and weary flesh
No soundness doth remain.

7 I am so feeble and infirm,
So sorely bruised am I,
That through disquietness of heart
I make a groaning cry.

- 2 For thy hand most sorely presses;
Fast thine arrows stick within;
Wrath my weary flesh distresses,
Gives my bones no rest for sin.
- 3 For my manifold transgression
Has gone up above mine head;
Like a burden its oppression
Weighs me down with constant dread.
- 4 Loathsome are my wounds neglected;
Mine own folly makes it so;
Bowed with pain, with grief dejected,
All day long I mourning go.

All my flesh with sore distress;
Faint and bruised I'm ever mourning
In my heart's disquietness.

I. I will take heed and guard my ways, I said, That from my tongue no sin - ful word shall glide; Yea, with a bri - dle
I will keep my mouth, While in my pres-ence wick-ed men a - bide.

- 1 I will take heed and guard my ways, I said,
That from my tongue no sinful word shall glide;
Yea, with a bridle I will keep my mouth,
While in my presence wicked men abide.
- 2 In silence dumb I ceased from speaking good;
My heart within was hot, my sorrow stirred;
And while I mused the fire began to burn;
Then spake I with my tongue this earnest word:
- 3 O Lord, mine end and measure of my days
Make me to know, and thus my frailty see.
Lo, thou hast made my days an handbreadth long;
My life-time is as nothing unto thee.
- 4 Each man at best is altogether vain;
Each man doth surely walk in empty show;
They heap up wealth and vex themselves for naught,
Nor know to whom their garnered riches go.

 But now remove thy stroke away from me;
 I am consumed beneath thy smiting hand.
- 7 When with rebukes thou chast'nest man for sin
 His beauty fades beneath the touch of death;
 It is consumed as by the fretting moth.
 Oh, surely ev'ry man is but a breath.
- 8 Lord, hear my prayers, heed thou my cry and tears;
 A stranger here I pass as all before.
 O spare me that I may recover strength
 Before I go away and be no more.

1. I wait - ed long up - on the Lord, Yea, pa - tient - ly drew near;

And he at length in - clined to me, My plead - ing cry to hear.

- 1 I waited long upon the Lord,
 Yea, patiently drew near;
 And he at length inclined to me,
 My pleading cry to hear.
- 2 He took me from a fearful pit,
 From out the miry clay;
 He set my feet upon a rock,
 Establishing my way.
- 3 He put a new song in my mouth,
 Our God to magnify;
 And many, seeing it, shall fear,
 And on the Lord rely.
- 4 O greatly blessed is the man
 Who on the Lord relies;
 Respecting not the proud, nor such
 As turn aside to lies.

To us - ward thou dost car - ry out Full many a gra - cious thought ;

5 O Lord my God, how manifold
The wonders thou hast wrought;
To us-ward thou dost carry out
Full many a gracious thought;

9 To do thy will I take delight,
O thou my God that art;
Yea, that most holy law of thine
I have within my heart.

6 They cannot be in order set,
Nor reckoned unto thee;
If I would tell and speak of them
They cannot numbered be.

10 Within the congregation great
I righteousness did preach;
Lo, thou dost know, O Lord, that I
Have not refrained my speech.

7 Mine ear thou opened hast; and thou
No off'ring hast desired,
Nor sacrifice; sin-off'ring thou
And burnt hast not required.

11 I never did within my heart
Conceal thy righteousness;
I thy salvation have declared
And shown thy faithfulness.

8 Then unto thee these were my words,
I come; behold and see,
Within the volume of the book
It written is of me:

12 Thy kindness which most loving is
I ever have revealed;
And from the congregation great
Thy truth have not concealed.

When this I think upon;
How with the thronging multitude

7. But we are now cast off by thee, Thou put - test us to shame;

And when our hosts go forth to war Thou art not with the same.

- 7 But we are now cast off by thee,
Thou putttest us to shame;
And when our hosts go forth to war
Thou art not with the same.
- 8 And from the adversary thou
Hast made us to turn back;
And they who hate us for themselves
Our spoils away do take.
- 9 Like sheep for meat thou gavest us;
'Mong heathen cast are we.
Thou didst thy people sell for naught;
Their price enriched not thee.
- 10 Thou makest us a great reproach
To neighbors near and far;
Derision and a scorn to them
That round about us are.
- 11 A by-word also thou dost us
Among the heathen make;
The people in contempt and spite
At us their heads do shake.
- 12 Before me all the livelong day
I see my sad disgrace;
And I am covered with the shame
That clouds my troubled face;
- 13 Because of him that doth reproach
And speaketh blasphemy;
- By reason of th'avenging foe
And cruel enemy.
- 14 All this is come on us, yet we
Have not forgotten thee;
Nor falsely in thy covenant
Behaved ourselves have we.
- 15 Our heart, our steps have not turned back
Nor from thy way have strayed;
Though crushed by thee in dragon's place
And covered with death's shade.
- 16 If God's name we forgot or stretched
To alien gods our hands,
Will not God search out this? For he
Heart secrets understands.
- 17 Yea, for thy sake we're killed all day,
And deemed as slaughter sheep.
Rise, Lord, cast us not ever off,
Awake, why dost thou sleep?
- 18 O wherefore hidest thou thy face?
Forget'st our case distressed,
And our oppression? For our soul
Is to the dust down pressed;
- 19 Our body fallen to the earth
Upon it hold doth take.
Rise for our help, redeem thou us
Ev'n for thy mercy's sake.

 O God, unto Jacob, for thou art my King.
 Through thee we will surely put down all our foes,
 Through thy name will trample on them that oppose.

- 5 But thou hast forsaken, to shame brought our boasts;
No more to the field dost thou go with our hosts.
Thou turnest us back from the foe in dismay,
And spoilers who hate us have made us their prey.
- 6 Like sheep to the slaughter for meat we are given;
Dispersed through the nations afar we are driven.
Thou sellest thy people to strangers for naught;
Their price to thy treasure no increase hath brought.
- 7 Thou makest our neighbors reproach us in pride,
And those that are near us to scoff and deride.
Our name as a by-word the nations have made,
The peoples in scorn of us wagging the head.
- 8 Yea, all the day long I behold my disgrace;
And covered am I with confusion of face;
The voice of blasphemers and scoffers I hear;
The foe and avenger against me appear.
- 9 All this we have suffered, yet never forgot
Thy covenant goodness, nor falsely have wrought.
Our heart is not turned and our steps have not strayed,
Though crushed amid ruins and under death's shade.
- 10 If we have forgotten the name of our God,
Or unto an idol our hands spread abroad,
Shall not the Almighty uncover this sin,
Who knoweth our hearts and the secrets within?
- 11 Yea, all the day long for thy sake we're consumed;
Like sheep for the slaughter to death we are doomed.
Then why dost thou sleep? O Jehovah, awake!
Nor spurn us forever. Arise, for our sake!
- 12 O why art thou hiding the light of thy face,
Forgetting the burden and grief of our race?
Our soul is bowed down; yea, we cleave to the dust;
Rise, help and redeem us, thy mercy we trust.

Do thou for - get thy fa - ther's house And peo - ple that are thine.

10 O daughter, hearken and regard,
To me thine ear incline;
Do thou forget thy father's house
And people that are thine.

14 She shall be brought before the King
In robes with needle wrought;
Her fellow-virgins following,
Shall unto thee be brought.

11 And then the king thy beauty shall
Desire most fervently;
Because he is thy Lord, do thou
Him worship rev'rently.

15 With gladness and rejoicing great
Thou all of them wilt bring;
And they together enter shall
The palace of the King.

12 The daughter there of Tyre shall be
With gifts and off'rings great;
Those of the people that are rich
Thy favor shall entreat.

16 Instead of those thy fathers dear,
Thy children thou shalt take,
And in all places of the earth
Them noble princes make.

13 Behold the daughter of the King
All glorious waits within;
And with embroideries of gold
Her garments wrought have been.

17 Thy name remembered I will make
Through ages all to be;
The people, therefore, evermore
Shall praises give to thee.

- 5 Thy shafts shall pierce the heart
Of those that hate the King;
And under thy dominion strong
The peoples thou shalt bring.
- 6 Thy royal throne, O God,
Forever shall endure;
The sceptre of thy kingdom is
A sceptre right and pure.
- 7 Since thou hast loved the right
And hast the wrong abhorred,
On thee, 'bove all, hath God thy God,
The oil of gladness poured.
- 8 Of myrrh and spices sweet
Thy garments fragrance had;

* CORONATION may be sung as a C. M. D. by repeating the music set to the first two lines of the Psalm.

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| 1 All people clap your hands for joy,To God in triumph shout;For dreadful is the Lord Most High,Great King the earth throughout. | 4 God is ascended with a shout,The Lord with trumpet sound.Sing praise to God our King, sing praise,Yea, let his praise resound. |
| 2 The heathen people under usHe surely shall subdue;The nations he shall also makeBeneath our feet to bow.                       | 5 For God is King of all the earth;With knowledge praise express.God rules the nations, God sits onHis throne of holiness.       |
| 3 The lot of our inheritanceHe doth for us select,And he the glory gives to usOf Jacob his elect.                                | 6 The princes of the people areAssembled willingly;Ev'n of the God of AbrahamThey who the people be;                             |
| 7 Because the shields that do defendThe earth are surely his;They unto God belong; yea, heExalted greatly is.                    |  |

W. Knapp

 $\text{♩} = 84 = 33 \text{ Seconds}$

1. O all ye peo - ples, clap your hands! To God with voice of tri - umph sing,

The Lord Most High is ter - ri - ble, O'er all the earth the might - y King.

- 1 O all ye peoples, clap your hands!
To God with voice of triumph sing.
The Lord Most High is terrible,
O'er all the earth the mighty King.
- 2 He peoples under us subdues,
And nations underneath our feet.
Of Jacob's glory whom he loved
Selects our heritage most meet.
- 3 God hath ascended with a shout,
Jehovah with the trumpet's sound.
Sing praise to God our King, sing praise;
Yea, let his glorious praise abound.
- 4 For God is King of all the earth;
With thoughtful heart his praise make
God over all the nations reigns; [known.
God sitteth on his holy throne.
- 5 The princes of the people meet,
The race of Abr'am's God to be;
The shields of earth belong to God;
Exalted very high is he.

PSALM XLVIII

130 ASPURG. C. M. (First Tune)

J. G. Frech

 $\text{♩} = 88 = 22 \text{ Seconds}$

1. Great is Je - ho - vah, and his praise Should be proclaimed a - broad,

- 1 Great is Jehovah, and his praise
Should be proclaimed abroad,
Within his hill of holiness,
The city of our God.
- 2 Mount Zion stands most beautiful,
The joy of ev'ry land;
The city of the mighty King
On her north side doth stand.
- 3 The Lord within her palaces
Is for a refuge known.
For, lo, the kings assembled were;
They are together gone.
- 4 When they beheld it, all amazed,
They fled in great dismay;
And being troubled at the sight
They thence did haste away.
- 5 They seized with trembling were as she
Whom travail pains o'ertake.
Thou with a mighty eastern wind
Dost ships of Tarshish break.
- 6 In our God's city we have seen
What we before were told,
That God who is the Lord of hosts
Will ever it uphold.
- 7 Within thy courts, O God, we thought
Upon thy gracious ways;
O God, according to thy name
Through all the earth's thy praise.
- 8 Thy hand is full of righteousness,
Let Zion's joy be great;
Let Judah's daughters joyfully
Thy judgments celebrate.
- 9 Encompass Zion, count her towers,
And mark her bulwarks well;
Consider ye her palaces,
To sons her story tell.
- 10 Because this God will be our God
To all eternity;
Yea, even unto death itself
Our constant guide is he.

10. Thus brut - ish fol - ly plain - ly is Their wis - dom and their way ;

Yet aft - er them do men ap - prove What - ev - er they may say.

- 10 Thus brutish folly plainly is
 Their wisdom and their way,
 Yet after them do men approve
 Whatever they may say.
- 11 They are as sheep for death's abode,
 And shepherd them shall he;
 And in the morning over them
 The just man's power shall be.
- 12 Their beauty then shall death consume,
 For it no place shall leave;
 But from death's hand God will redeem
 My soul, and me receive.
- 13 Fear not when one becomes enriched,
 Whose house in honor grows;
 For dying he takes nothing hence;
 No glory with him goes.
- 14 For though his soul he greatly blessed,
 While he on earth did live,
 (And when thou to thyself dost well Men will thee praises give,)
- 15 He to his father's race shall go;
 They never shall see light.
 Man honored, wanting knowledge, is
 Like beasts that perish quite.

1. O God, ac - cord - ing to thy grace Be mer - ci - ful to me,

In thine a - bound - ing love blot out All mine in - i - qui - ty.

2. O wash me whol - ly from my guilt And make me clean with - in;

For my trans - gres - sions I con - fess, I ev - er see my sin.

1 O God, according to thy grace
Be merciful to me,
In thine abounding love blot out
All mine iniquity.

2 O wash me wholly from my guilt
And make me clean within;
For my transgressions I confess,
I ever see my sin.

3 Against thee only have I sinned,
Done evil in thy sight;
So in thy judgment thou art just,
And in thy sentence right.

4 Behold, in evil I was formed,
Conceived and born in sin;
But thou wilt make me wise in heart;
Thou seekest truth within.

5 Do thou with hyssop sprinkle me,
I shall be clean, and, lo,
When thou hast washed me then I shall
Be whiter than the snow.

6 Of gladness and of joyfulness
Make me to hear the voice,
That so these very bones which thou
Hast broken may rejoice.

142 OLD 137TH. (Norwich) C. M. D.

Day's Psalter

 $\text{♩} = 80 = 45 \text{ Seconds}$

7. All mine in - i - qui - ties blot out; My sins hide from thy view;

Cre - ate in me a spir - it right; O God, my heart re - new.

8. O from thy pres - ence cast me not, Thy face no more to see;

Thy Ho - ly Spir - it ut - ter - ly Take not a - way from me.

7 All mine iniquities blot out;
My sins hide from thy view;
Create in me a spirit right;
O God, my heart renew.

10 Then in thy ways will I instruct
Those that transgressors be,
And those that sinners are shall then
Return again to thee.

8 O from thy presence cast me not,
Thy face no more to see;
Thy Holy Spirit utterly
Take not away from me.

11 O God, of my salvation God,
Free me from guilt of blood;
Then of thy perfect righteousness
My tongue shall sing aloud.

9 The joy which thy salvation brings
Again to me restore;
And with a willing spirit then
Uphold me evermore.

12 My lips which have so long been closed
Now open thou, O Lord;
And when thou hast restored my speech
I will thee praise accord.

13 No sacrifice dost thou desire,
Else would I give it thee;
Nor wilt thou with burnt-offering
At all delighted be.

14 A broken spirit is to God
A pleasing sacrifice;
A broken and a contrite heart
Thou, God, wilt not despise.

15 In thy good pleasure favor show
To Zion thine own hill;
The walls of thy Jerusalem
Build up of thy good will.

16 Then righteous off' rings shall thee please,
And off' rings burnt which they
With whole burnt-off' rings, and with
Shall on thine altar lay. [calves]

I, God be mer - ci - ful to me, On thy grace I rest my plea;

In thy vast, a - bound - ing grace, My trans - gres - sions all e - rase.

Wash me whol - ly from my sin, Cleanse from ev - 'ry ill with - in.

1 God be merciful to me,
On thy grace I rest my plea;
In thy vast, abounding grace,
My transgressions all erase.
Wash me wholly from my sin,
Cleanse from ev'ry ill within.

2 For my sins before me rise
Ever present to mine eyes.
I have sinned 'gainst thee alone,
In thy sight this evil done;
That thy judgment may be clear,
And thy sentence just appear.

3 Lo, brought forth was I in sin;
When conceived I was unclean.
Lo, thou dost desire to find
Truth sincere within the mind;
And thou wilt within my heart
Wisdom unto me impart.

4 Then with hyssop sprinkle me,
And from sin I clean shall be.
Wash me from its stain and, lo,
I shall whiter be than snow.
Make me hear joy's cheering voice;
Make my broken bones rejoice.

Cast me not a - way from thee, Nor thy Spir - it take from me.

5 From my sins hide thou thy face;
 Mine iniquities erase.
 O my God, renew my heart,
 And a spirit right impart.
 Cast me not away from thee,
 Nor thy Spirit take from me.

6 Give salvation's joy again,
 And a willing mind sustain.
 Then thy perfect ways I'll show
 That transgressors may them know;
 They converted then shall be;
 Sinners shall be turned to thee.

7 Free me from the guilt of blood,
 God, of my salvation God;
 Then with joy my tongue shall raise
 Songs thy righteousness to praise.
 Open thou my lips, O Lord,
 Then my mouth shall praise accord.

8 Sacrifice thou wilt not take,
 Else would I the off'ring make.
 Off'rings burnt bring no delight,
 But a broken heart, contrite,
 God's accepted sacrifice,
 Thou, O God, wilt not despise.

9 Prosper Zion in thy grace;
 Salem's broken walls replace.
 Then shall sacrifices right,
 Whole burnt-off'rings thee delight;
 So will men, their vows to pay,
 Bullocks on thine altar lay.

J. B. Dykes

 $\text{♩} = 84 = 34 \text{ Seconds}$

I. Give ear to this my prayer, O God, Nor hide thee from my cry;

At-tend my sad com-plaint and hear My rest-less moan and sigh;

- 1 Give ear to this my prayer, O God,
Nor hide thee from my cry;
Attend my sad complaint and hear
My restless moan and sigh;
- 2 Because I hear the voice of foes,
Because the vile oppress,
Who cast on me iniquity
And me in wrath distress.
- 3 Sore pained within me is my heart,
Death's terrors o'er me roll;
Great trembling, fearfulness and dread
Have overwhelmed my soul.
- 4 O that I, like a dove, had wings,
Said I, then would I flee
Far hence, that I might find a place
Where I at rest might be.
- 5 Lo, wand'ring far my rest should be
In some lone desert waste;
I from the stormy wind would fly
And from the tempest haste.

152 OLD 116TH. (Windsor) C. M.

Arr. from C. Tye

 $\text{♩} = 72 = 27 \text{ Seconds}$

6 Destroyed, O Lord, now let them be;

Their tongues confuse, divide;

For in the city violence

And bitter strife abide.

7 They day and night upon the walls

Encompass it around;

Iniquity and mischief there

In midst of it are found.

8 Abundant wickedness there is

Within its inward part;

And from its streets oppression, fraud

And guile do not depart.

9 He was no foe reproaching me,

For that I could endure;

Nor hater boasting over me,

Else had I hid secure.

10 But it was thou, mine equal, friend,

Thou my companion wast;

We took sweet counsel, to God's house

Amidst the throng we passed.

11 But death shall seize them, to the grave

Alive let them depart;

For wickedness is in their house

And evil in their heart.

H. Smart

 $\text{♩} = 80 = 24 \text{ Seconds}$

- 12 I'll call on God, the Lord will save; 15 Against the men that were his friends
 I'll make complaint and sigh He hath put forth his hand;
 At evening, morning and at noon, The covenant that he had made
 And he shall hear my cry. By breaking he profaned.
- 13 He hath redeemed my soul in love 16 More smooth than butter were his
 That I in peace might be Yet he in heart would slay; [words,
 From battle that against me was, His speeches were more soft than oil
 For many strove with me. And yet drawn swords were they.
- 14 Yea, God will hear and answer them—17 Cast thou thy burden on the Lord,
 Of old abideth he— And he shall thee sustain;
 Ev'n them that have no fear of God, Yea, he shall cause that still unmoved
 Since they no changes see. The righteous shall remain.

18 But thou, O God, wilt bring them down
 The woeful pit to see;
 The false shall not live half their days,
 But I will trust in thee.

154 CAITHNESS. C. M.

Scotch Psalter

 $\text{♩} = 80 = 24 \text{ Seconds}$

- 1 Be merciful to me, O God,
For man would me devour;
He fights against me all day long,
Oppressing by his power.
- 2 Mine enemies would swallow me,
They watch from morn till night;
For they are many and are proud,
That do against me fight.
- 3 When I'm afraid I'll trust in thee,
In God I'll praise his word;
I will not fear what flesh can do,
My trust is in the Lord.
- 4 All day they wrest my words; their 8 In God I trust; I will not fear;
Are all conceived in hate. [thoughts Can man do aught to me?
They meet, they lurk, they mark my Thy vows upon me are, O God;
As for my soul they wait. [steps, I'll render thanks to thee.
- 5 But shall they by iniquity
Escape thy judgments just?
O God, in indignation cast
The peoples in the dust.
- 6 Thou numberest my wanderings,
Not one dost overlook;
Within thy bottle put my tears;
Are they not in thy book?
- 7 My foes shall when I cry turn back;
I know God is for me.
In God—for I will praise his word,—
The Lord, his word praise ye.
- 9 For thou from death didst save my soul,
My feet from falling free,
To walk before God in the light
Of those that living be.

1. Be mer - ci - ful to me, O God, Be mer - ci - ful to me;
Be - cause my soul with con - fi - dence A re - fuge finds in thee.

1 Be merciful to me, O God,
Be merciful to me;
Because my soul with confidence
A refuge finds in thee.

3 My cry shall unto him ascend,
Ev'n unto God Most High;
To God, who doth all things for me
Perform most perfectly.

2 Yea, in the shadow of thy wings
In hiding I will stay
Until these sad calamities
Shall wholly pass away.

4 From heav'n he shall send and save,
From his reproach defend
Who would devour me; God his truth
And mercy forth shall send.

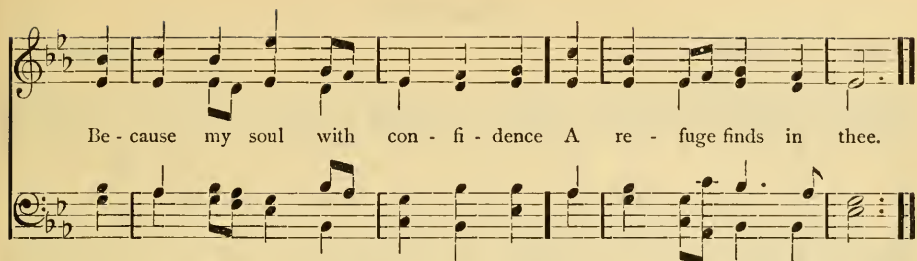

5 Among the lions is my soul,
I firebrands lie among,
Men's sons, whose teeth are spears and darts,
A sharpened sword their tongue.

6. Be thou ex - alt - ed, O my God, A - bove the heav'ns to stand;

And let thy glo - ry be ad - vanced A - bove both sea and land.

6 Be thou exalted, O my God,
Above the heav'ns to stand;
And let thy glory be advanced
Above both sea and land.

9 But I will render thanks to thee
Among the peoples, Lord;
And I among the nations all
Will praise to thee accord.

7 Bowed down within me is my soul;
My steps they would ensnare.
Before me they have digged a pit
In which they fallen are.

10 Because thy lovingkindness great
To heav'n doth arise;
And thine unfailing faithfulness
Extendeth to the skies.

8 My heart is fixed, my heart is fixed,
O God; I'll sing and praise.
My glory, wake; wake, psalt'ry, harp;
Myself I'll early raise.

11 Be thou exalted, O my God,
Above the heav'ns to stand,
And let thy glory be advanced
Above both sea and land.

Scotch Psalter

 $\text{♩} = 76 = 25 \text{ Seconds}$

I. Do ye in - deed keep si - lence still That should speak right - eous - ness?

And do ye judge, O sons of men, In truth and up - right - ness?

- 1 Do ye indeed keep silence still
That should speak righteousness?
And do ye judge, O sons of men,
In truth and uprightness?
- 2 Nay, even in your very heart
Ye wickedness have planned,
And violence upon the earth
Ye weigh out with your hand.
- 3 The wicked even from their birth
Are strangers to the way;
And speaking lies as soon as born,
They wander far astray.
- 4 Their poison is the serpent's fang;
They have the adder's ear
That will not hear the charmer's song,
Though charming it appear.

H. J. Gauntlett

 $\text{♩} = 72 = 27 \text{ Seconds}$

5. Their teeth, O God, break in their mouth That they no prey may take ;
O Lord, the sharp and cru - el teeth Of these young li - ons break.

- 5 Their teeth, O God, break in their mouth
That they no prey may take;
O Lord, the sharp and cruel teeth
Of these young lions break.
- 6 Let them as quickly melt away
As running waters flow;
Their arrows be as though cut off
When on the bended bow.
- 7 As snails that melt and pass away,
So let their course be run;
Or like to one untimely born,
That hath not seen the sun.
- 8 Before your pots can feel the heat
Which under them you lay,
The green and burning thorns alike
His whirlwind sweeps away.
- 9 The righteous, when he vengeance sees,
Shall be exultant then;
The righteous one shall wash his feet
In blood of wicked men.
- 10 So they shall say, For righteous men
There is a sure reward;
There surely is a God on earth
That judgment doth afford.

Thou hast thine an - ger shown to us, O once a - gain re - store,

- 1 O God, thou hast rejected us,
And hast afflicted sore;
Thou hast thine anger shown to us,
O once again restore.
- 2 The earth to tremble thou hast made;
Therein a breach didst make;
Do thou thereof the rendings heal
Because the land doth shake.
- 3 To thine own people thou hard things
Hast shown and on them sent;
And thou hast made us drink the wine
Of dread astonishment.
- 4 And yet a banner thou hast given
To them who thee revere,
That for the sake of truth by them
Displayed it may appear.
- 5 That thy beloved may be saved,
May all delivered be,
Save with the power of thy right hand;
In mercy answer me.

163 DOWNS. C. M.

 $\text{♩} = 66 = 22 \text{ Seconds}$

- 6 God in his holiness hath said—
 With joy his word I hail—
 The land of Shechem I'll divide
 And mete out Succoth's vale.
- 7 I Gilead claim as mine by right,
 To me Manasseh yields,
 My head's defence is Ephraim,
 My scepter Judah wields.
- 8 My laver I will Moab make,
 My shoe on Edom throw;
 Because of me a shout of joy
 Shall from Philistia go.
- 9 O who is he will bring me to
 The city fortified?
 O who is he that to the land
 Of Edom will me guide?
- 10 Hast thou, O God, not cast us off
 And stood from us afar?
 Ev'n thou, O God, who dost no more
 Go forth with us to war?
- 11 Against oppressors give us help,
 Man's help is empty show;
 Through God we shall do valiantly,
 For he treads down our foe.

PSALM LXV

171 WEBB. 7, 6, 7, 6. D. (First Tune)

G. J. Webb

 $\text{♩} = 96 = 40 \text{ Seconds}$

1. Praise waits for thee in Zi - on; To thee vows paid shall be;

O God, of prayer the hear - er, All flesh shall come to thee.

In - i - qui - ties a - gainst me Pre - vail from day to day;

But as for our trans - gres - sions, Thou tak - est them a - way.

- 1 Praise waits for thee in Zion;
 To thee vows paid shall be;
 O God, of prayer the hearer,
 All flesh shall come to thee.
 Iniquities against me
 Prevail from day to day;
 But as for our transgressions,
 Thou takest them away.

- 2 How blest the man thou choosest,
 And bringest near to thee,
 That in thy courts forever
 His dwelling-place may be.

We shall within thy temple
 Be wholly satisfied,
 And filled with all the goodness
 Thy sacred courts provide.

- 3 O God of our salvation,
 Thou in thy righteousness
 By deeds that are most dreadful
 Thine answer wilt express;
 O thou in whom confiding
 All ends of earth agree,
 And people who are sailing
 Far out upon the sea.

4 Thy might sets fast the mountains;
 Strength girds thee evermore
 To calm the raging peoples
 And still the ocean's roar.
 Thy dreadful signs and wonders
 Make distant lands afraid;
 Of morn and eve the going
 By thee is joyful made.

5 Thy visits bring the showers,
 Thy floods enrich the field;
 The streams of God prepare it
 That earth her fruit shall yield.

Thou waterest her furrows;
 Her ridges down are pressed;
 With showers they are softened;
 The springing plants are blest.

6 Thy paths are lined with fatness,
 The year with good is crowned;
 The pastures of the desert,
 The hills with joy resound.
 The fields with flocks are covered;
 The vales with grain are clad.
 They all rejoice with shouting;
 Yea, they with songs are glad.

173 MILES' LANE. C. M.

W. Shrubsole

 $\text{♩} = 96 = 30 \text{ Seconds}$

1 All lands to God in joyful sounds
Aloft your voices raise;
Sing forth the honor of his name,
And glorious make his praise.

4 O come, behold the works of God,
His mighty doings see;
In dealing with the sons of men
Most terrible is he.

2 Say unto God, How terrible
In all thy works art thou!
Through thy great power thy foes to
Shall be constrained to bow. [thee

5 To solid land he turned the sea,
And they a pathway had;
They through the river went on foot;
There we in him were glads.

3 Yea, all the earth shall worship thee,
And unto thee shall sing;
And to thy name most glorious
Their songs of praise shall bring.

6 He ruleth ever by his might,
His eyes the nations try;
Let not the proud rebellious ones
Exalt themselves on high.

7 O all ye people, bless our God;
Aloud proclaim his praise,
Who holdeth safe our soul in life,
Our feet from sliding stays.

PSALM LXVI

174 ST. DAVID. C. M.

Ravenscroft's Psalter

 $\text{♩} = 84 = 23 \text{ Seconds}$

8 For thou, O God, hast tested us,
As men try silver ore;
Hast brought our feet within the net,
On us laid burdens sore.

11 With incense I will fatlings bring,
Burnt sacrifice will take;
And from the bullocks and the goats
To thee an off'ring make.

9 Thou madest men ride o'er our heads;
Through fire and flood we passed;
But thou hast brought us out to share
A wealthy place at last.

12 All ye that fear him, come and hear
What God did for my soul;
I with my mouth have cried to him,
My tongue did him extol.

10 I'll bring burnt-off'rings to thy house;
To thee my vows will pay,
As I gave promise with my lips
When trouble on me lay.

13 If in my heart I sin regard,
The Lord will never hear;
But surely God hath heard my voice;
He to my prayer gave ear.

14 Forever blessed be our God;
My prayer he hath not spurned,
Nor hath he ever yet from me
His lovingkindness turned.

König's Harmonischer Lieder-Schatz

 $\text{♩} = 80 = 24 \text{ Seconds}$

1. God bless and pit - y us, Shine on us with thy face;

That earth thy way, and na - tions all May know thy sav - ing grace.

1 God bless and pity us
Shine on us with thy face;
That earth thy way, and nations all
May know thy saving grace.

2 Let peoples praise, O God;
Let peoples all thee praise.
O let the nations all be glad,
In songs their voices raise.

3 Thou'lt justly peoples judge,
On earth rule nations all.
Let peoples give thee praise, O God,
Praise thee both great and small.

4 The earth her fruit did yield;
God our God blessing sends.
God will us bless; men shall him fear
To earth's remotest ends.

S. S. Wesley

 $\text{♩} = 88 = 44 \text{ Seconds}$

1. O God, to us show mer - cy, And bless us in thy grace; Cause thou to shine upon us The bright-ness of thy face; That so thy way most ho - ly On

1 O God, to us show mercy,
And bless us in thy grace;
Cause thou to shine upon us
The brightness of thy face;
That so thy way most holy
On earth may soon be known,
And unto ev'ry people
Thy saving grace be shown.

2 O God, let peoples praise thee;
Let all the people sing;
Let nations now be joyful;
Let songs of gladness ring;

For thou wilt judge the peoples
In truth and righteousness;
And o'er the earth shall nations
Thy leadership confess.

3 O God, let peoples praise thee;
Let all the people sing;
For earth in rich abundance
To us her fruit will bring.
God, our own God, will bless us,
Yea, God will blessing send;
And all the earth shall fear him
To its remotest end.

179 PRÆTORIUS. C. M.

PSALM LXVIII

Görlitz Hymn Book

 $\text{♩} = 92 = 21 \text{ Seconds}$

- 7 O God, when thou wast going forth
Before thy people's face,
And when thy glorious marching was
Within the wilderness;
- 8 Then at God's presence shook the earth,
'Then drops from heaven fell;
This Sinai shook before the Lord,
The God of Israel.
- 9 O God, thou to thine heritage
Didst send a plenteous rain,
Whereby thou when it weary was Didst it refresh again.
- 10 Thy congregation then did make
Their habitation there;
Of thine own goodness for the poor,
O God, thou didst prepare.
- 11 The message given by the Lord
At his command is shown;
The women are a mighty host
Who make the tidings known.
- 12 The kings of armies were subdued,
They flee, they flee away;
And she that tarried at her home
Distributed the prey.
- 13 Though ye have lain among the folds,
Like doves ye shall appear,
Whose wings with silver, and with gold
Whose feathers covered are.
- 14 When there th' Almighty scattered kings
Like Zalmon's snow 'twas white.
A mount of God is Bashan hill,
Mount Bashan great in height.
- 15 Why look askance, ye mountains high,
Upon the holy hill
Where God the Lord desires to dwell?
Yea, here abide he will.
- 16 God's chariots twenty thousand are,
Yea, thousands multiplied;
As in Mount Sinai's holy place
The Lord is on their side.
- 17 Thou didst ascend on high and lead
Those captive who rebel;
Take gifts for men, that God the Lord
In midst of them might dwell.

182 CHESHIRE. C. M. (First Tune)

Este's Psalter

 $\text{♩} = 80 = 24 \text{ Seconds}$

1. Save me, O God, be - cause the floods Come in up - on my soul;

I sink in mire where none can stand; Deep wa - ters o'er me roll.

- 1 Save me, O God, because the floods
Come in upon my soul;
I sink in mire where none can stand;
Deep waters o'er me roll.
- 2 I with my crying weary am,
My throat is parched and dried;
Mine eyes grow dim while for my God
Still waiting I abide.
- 3 The men that with no cause at all
Bear hatred unto me,
Than are the hairs upon my head
In number more they be.
- 4 They who are wrongful enemies,
And seek my soul to slay
Are great in might; then I restored
What I took not away.
- 5 O God, my foolishness and sins
Are not concealed from thee.
Let none that wait on thee be shamed,
LORD God of hosts, through me.

- 6 O thou, the God of Israel,
 Let none that seek thy face
 Be ever made to suffer shame
 Because of my disgrace.
- 7 For I have borne reproach for thee;
 My face is veiled with shame.
 To brethren strange, to mother's sons,
 An alien I became.
- 8 Because the zeal did eat me up
 Which to thine house I bear;
 And all reproaches cast at thee
 Upon me fallen are.
- 9 I wept, with fasting bowed my soul;
 And that was made my shame;
 When I in sackcloth clothed myself,
 Their byword I became.
- 10 The men who sit within the gate
 Against me evil spake;
 And those that gave themselves to drink
 Of me their song did make.

184 STAINER. C. M.

J. Stainer

$\text{♩} = 76 = 25 \text{ Seconds}$

11. But in a time ac - cept - ed, Lord, To thee my prayers as - cend;
In thine a - bound - ing love and truth, O God, sal - va - tion send.

11 But in a time accepted, Lord,
To thee my prayers ascend;
In thine abounding love and truth,
O God, salvation send.

16 Well known to thee is my reproach,
My shame and my disgrace;
The adversaries of my soul
Are all before thy face.

12 Deliver me from out the mire,
And me from sinking keep;
Deliver me from those that hate,
And from the waters deep.

17 My heart is broken by reproach,
And I am full of grief;
I looked in vain for comforters,
For pity and relief.

13 Let not the flood on me prevail,
Whose water overflows;
Nor deep engulf me; nor the pit
Its mouth upon me close.

18 They also bitter gall did give
To me instead of meat;
They gave me vinegar to drink
When as my thirst was great.

14 Hear me, O God, because thy love
And kindness are most good;
Turn thou to me according to
Thy mercies' multitude.

19 O let their peace become a trap,
A snare their table make.
With darkness veil their fading sight
And cause their loins to shake.

15 Nor from thy servant hide thy face;
I'm troubled, soon attend.
Draw near to me, redeem my soul
And from my foes defend.

20 On them thine indignation pour;
O'ertake with anger great.
And in their tents let no one dwell;
Their homes be desolate.

21 For they have persecuted him
Whom thou didst smite before;
They tell abroad the grief of those
Whom thou hast wounded sore.

22 Add thou iniquity to all
Their former wickedness;
And let them never enter in
To share thy righteousness.

23 And from the book of life let them
Be blotted out by thee;
Among the men of righteousness
Their names not written be.

R. R. Chope

 $\text{♩} = 84 = 27 \text{ Seconds}$

24 But now become exceeding poor
And sorrowful am I;
By thy salvation, O my God,
Let me be set on high.

27 When this the humble men shall see,
It joy to them shall give.
All ye that after God do seek,
Your heart shall ever live.

25 The name of God I with a song
Most cheerfully will praise;
And I in giving thanks to him
His name will highly raise.

28 Because Jehovah hears the prayers
That from the needy rise,
And those that are his prisoners
He never will despise.

26 And to the Lord an offering
More pleasing this shall prove,
Than oxen, or than any beast
That hath both horn and hoof.

29 Let heav'n and earth give praise, and all
Wherewith the sea is filled;
For God will Zion surely save,
And Judah's cities build.

30 It shall be their abiding rest,
Their children's heritage;
Therein all they that love his name
Shall dwell from age to age.

- 13 Of grain a handful in the earth
On tops of mountains high,
With prosp'rous fruit shall shake, like trees
On Lebanon that be.
- 14 The city shall be flourishing,
Her citizens abound
In number shall, like to the grass
That grows upon the ground.
- 15 His name forever shall endure;
Last like the sun it shall;
Men shall be blessed in him, and blessed
All nations shall him call.
- 16 Now blessèd be the Lord our God,
The God of Israel,
For he alone doth wondrous works,
In glory that excel.
- 17 And blessèd be his glorious name
To all eternity.
The whole earth let his glory fill;
Amen, so let it be.

1. Yet, God is good to Is - ra - el, To ev - 'ry one whose heart is pure;
 Though as for me, I well nigh fell, My foot-steps were no lon - ger sure;
 For I was en - vious, I con-fess, At pros-pered pride and wick-ed - ness.

- 1 Yet, God is good to Israel,
 To ev'ry one whose heart is pure;
 Though as for me, I well nigh fell,
 My footsteps were no longer sure;
 For I was envious, I confess,
 At prospered pride and wickedness.
- 2 For in their death no pangs they know;
 Their strength is firm from day to day;
 They have no part in others' woe,
 Nor plagued as other men are they.
 A chain of pride adorns their neck;
 With robes of wrong themselves they deck.
- 3 Their eyes with fatness stand far out,
 They more enjoy than heart could seek.
- 4 His people therefore hither turn,
 To share the streams that overflow.
 For how, say they, can God discern?
 Of this how doth the Highest know?
 Behold the wicked, such are these,
 Who riches gain and live at ease.
- 5 Then surely I have toiled in vain
 To cleanse my heart from all offense,
 And vainly from each guilty stain
 Have washed my hands in innocence.
 For grievous plagues all day I bore,
 And every morn was chastened sore.

6. If I had said, I thus will speak, I to thy chil-dren false had been;
 Yet when my trou-bled heart would seek How I might know what this may mean,
 The cause of this I could not see; It was too dif - fi - cult for me.

- 6 If I had said, I thus will speak,
 I to thy children false had been;
 Yet when my troubled heart would seek
 How I might know what this may mean,
 The cause of this I could not see;
 It was too difficult for me.
- 7 But when God's holy house I sought,
 And pondered o'er their latter end,
 To slipp'ry ground I saw them brought,
 And down to ruin fast descend.
 Swift desolation whelms them o'er,
 And terrors waste for evermore.
- 8 As dreams when one from sleep awakes,
 Their image, Lord, thou wilt despise.
 My heart with grief within me breaks,
 And bitter thoughts within me rise;
 And blind was I, and brutish quite,
 A very beast before thy sight.
- 9 Yet evermore I am with thee:
 Thou holdest me by my right hand.
 And thou, ev'n thou, my guide shalt be,
 Thy counsel shall my way command;
 And afterward in glory bright,
 Shalt thou receive me to thy sight.
- 10 For whom have I in heav'n but thee?
 None else on earth I long to know.
 My flesh may faint and weary be,
 My heart may fail and heavy grow;
 With strength doth God my heart
 He is my portion evermore. [restore,
- 11 They perish that are far from thee,
 Lo, in their lewdness they shall die.
 But surely it is good for me
 That unto God I should draw nigh.
 I refuge take in God the Lord,
 That all thy works I may record.

I. To thee, O God, we ren - der thanks, To thee give thanks sin - cere;
Be - cause thy won - drous works de - clare That thy great name is near.

- 1 To thee, O God, we render thanks,
To thee give thanks sincere;
Because thy wondrous works declare
That thy great name is near.
- 2 When mine appointed time is come,
I'll judge with even hand.
Though earth and all therein dissolve,
I make its pillars stand.
- 3 I bade the haughty cease from pride;
Ye vile, lift not the horn;
O lift not up your horn on high,
Nor speak with neck of scorn.
- 4 For not from east nor west nor south
Doth exaltation flow;
But God is judge, uplifting one,
Another humbling low.
- 5 A cup is in Jehovah's hand,
It foaming wine contains;
Of mixture full, he pours it forth;
The dregs each sinner drains.
- 6 But I forever will declare;
I Jacob's God will praise.
The might of sinners I'll cut off,
The just on high will raise.

For in their heart they tempt - ed God, Bade him their lust sup - ply.

- 13 Yet in the desert still they sinned,      17 For they would not believe in God,
Provoking the Most High;      Nor trust his saving love,
For in their heart they tempted God,      Yet opened he the doors of heav'n,
Bade him their lust supply.      Commanded skies above.
- 14 They spake against their God; they      18 He rained down manna from above,
Can ev'n God provide      [said,      He sent them bread from heav'n;
A table in the wilderness      And man partook of angels' food,
That we may be supplied?      In rich abundance giv'n.
- 15 Behold, he smote the rock and thence      19 In heav'n he made the east wind blow,
Came streams of water great;      The south wind owned his hand.
But can he give his people bread      As dust he rained down flesh on them,
And send them flesh to eat?      Winged fowl as ocean's sand.
- 16 Jehovah heard, his wrath arose      20 He let it fall amid their camp
And kindled to a flame;      And all their lust supplied,
On Jacob, yea, on Israel      So they did eat and well were filled;
His indignation came.      Their greed he satisfied.
- 21 They from their lust were not estranged;
While flesh their mouth supplied
The wrath of God against them rose,
The flower of Isr'el died.

- 22 But still they sinned, nor yet believed 27 For he remembered that they were
 His wondrous works and ways. But dust and mortal men,
 With terror he consumed their years, A breath that passeth soon away
 In vanity their days. And cometh not again.
- 23 But when he slew them then they did 28 How oft they grieved him in the wilds;
 To seek him show desire; How oft did they rebel;
 Yea, they returned and after God Provoked and tried the Holy One,
 Right early did inquire. The God of Israel.

- 25 Yet with their mouth they flattered him 30 How he in Egypt wonders wrought
 And with their tongue they lied; And signs in Zoan's field;
 Their heart was not sincere with him, He turned their rivers into blood,
 His cov'nant they denied. Their streams no drink would yield.
- 26 But their perverseness he forgave, 31 He sent among them swarms of flies,
 In mercy would not slay; And frogs their land to spoil;
 Nor stirred up all his wrath, but oft He gave their increase to the worm,
 His anger turned away. To locusts all their toil.

- 32 He killed their tender vines with hail, 34 He did not spare their soul from death,
 Their sycamores with frost; [bolts, But for his wrath made way;
 He smote their flocks with thunder- And over to the pestilence
 'Mid hail their herds were lost. He gave their life a prey.
- 33 He poured upon them all his wrath; 35 And over Egypt's land he smote
 His anger on them turned; Their firstborn, and their pride,
 He sent his angels to destroy; Until in all the tents of Ham
 His indignation burned. Their chief of strength had died.

47 Then waked the Lord as one from sleep,
 As one whom wine doth cheer;
 His foes he backward drove and smote
 With endless shame and fear.

48 The tent of Joseph he refused,
 Nor Ephr'im's tribe approved;
 But made his choice of Judah's tribe,
 The Zion Mount he loved.

49 And he his sanctuary built
 Ev'n like a palace high;
 And like the earth which he did found
 'To perpetuity.

50 Of David his own servant then
 He also choice did make;
 And even from the folds of sheep
 He called and did him take.

51 From waiting on the ewes with lambs
 He brought him forth to feed
 His Israel, his heritage,
 His people, Jacob's seed.

52 So with integrity of heart
 He did them rule and feed;
 And by his skilfulness of hand
 He did them safely lead.

Come thou to save; O God, a-gain re - store; We shall be saved when shines thy face once more.

- 1 O Shepherd of thine Israel, give ear,
     Who like a flock didst Joseph lead aright;
     Enthroned amid the cherubim appear;
     In sight of Ephr'im's camp stir up thy might;
     Come thou to save; O God, again restore;
     We shall be saved when shines thy face once more.
- 2 Lord God of hosts, how long disdain our prayer;
     Thy people thou dost feed with bread of tears;
     Abundant tears for drink thou dost prepare;
     O'er us our neighbors strive with scornful jeers.
     O God of hosts, us once again restore;
     We shall be saved when shines thy face once more.
- 3 A vine didst thou bring out from Egypt's land,
     Didst drive the nations forth and give it room.
     It took deep root, it spread on ev'ry hand;
     The hills were covered with its shade and bloom.
     Its boughs were like great cedars spreading wide;
     They reached the sea, its shoots the River's side.
- 4 Why hast thou broken down its circling wall,
     That all may pluck who pass along the way?
     The boar from out the wood doth waste it all,
     Thereon do feed the beasts in field that stray.
     O God of hosts, we pray thee now restore;
     Turn us again as we thy face implore.
- 5 Look down, behold, and visit this thy vine,
     Which thou hast planted with thine own right hand;
     The branch thou madest strong and owned it thine,
     For it is burned with fire, no more doth stand.
     Thy people perish in thine anger sore,
     Because thy face doth shine on them no more.
- 6 The man of thy right hand do thou sustain,
     The son of man thou madest strong for thee;
     So shall we faithful to thy cause remain.
     Revive thou us and on thee call will we.
     Jehovah, God of hosts, again restore;
     We shall be saved when shines thy face once more.

1. To God our strength, to Ja - cob's God, A song and shout now raise;
 With psalm and tim - brel, harp and lute, A - wake to joy - ous praise.
 With chang - ing moons the trum - pets blow, On sol - emn fes - tal days.

- 1 To God our strength, to Jacob's God,
 A song and shout now raise;
 With psalm and timbrel, harp and lute,
 Awake to joyous praise.
 With changing moons the trumpets blow,
 On solemn festal days.
- 2 For 'tis a law of Jacob's God,
 To Isr'el his command;
 For Joseph he this witness set
 When smiting Egypt's land;
 And where I heard an alien speech
 I did not understand.
- 3 I from thy shoulder took the load,
 Thy hands from toil set free,
 Delivered thee from trouble sore
 When thou didst call on me;
 Proved thee at streams of Meribah,
 In thunder answered thee.
- 4 I now to thee will testify;
 O ye, my people, hear;
 O Isr'el, if thou only wouldst
 Attend with willing ear;
 Thou shalt not worship foreign gods,
 Nor idols vain revere.
- 5 No alien god shall be in thee.
 The Lord thy God, am I,
 Who brought thee up from Egypt's land
 And will thy needs supply;
 In longing open wide thy mouth,
 And thee I'll satisfy.
- 6 My people would not hear my voice,
 My counsel Isr'el spurned.
 I let them go the way their hearts
 In stubbornness were turned;
 That they might walk in counsel vain
 For which their souls had yearned.
- 7 O that my people would me hear,
 And Isr'el choose my way,
 Right soon I would their foes subdue,
 Their enemies dismay.
 Who hate the Lord should yield to him,
 And his commands obey.
- 8 But as for Israel their time
 Should evermore abide;
 He with the finest of the wheat
 Had all their wants supplied;
 And thee with honey from the rock
 Would I have satisfied.

How long ac - cept - ing per - sons vile Will ye give judg - ment wrong?

1 God stands in council of the great.

He judgeth gods among.

How long accepting persons vile

Will ye give judgment wrong?

2 Judge ye the weak and fatherless,

To poor, distressed do right;

The weak and needy ones set free,

Save them from ill men's might.

3 But neither do they understand,

They knowledge do not take;

In darkness they walk to and fro;

All earth's foundations shake.

4 I said that ye are gods, the sons

Of him that is Most High;

But as the princes ye shall fall

And ye as men shall die.

5 O mighty God, do thou arise,

The earth to judgment call;

For thou as thine inheritance

Shalt take the nations all.

- 1 Rest not, O God, nor hold thy peace;
O God, thy silence break;
For, lo, thy haters raise the head,
Thy foes a tumult make.
- 2 Against thine own, thy hidden ones,
With craft they meet and plot;
Come now, say they, their race destroy;
Be Isr'el's name forgot.
- 3 Against thee they with one accord
In covenant combine;
The tents of Edom, Ishmael,
With Moab, Hagar's line;
- 4 Yea, Gebal, Ammon, Amalek,
Philistines, those of Tyre,
And joined with them Assyria
To help Lot's race conspire.
- 5 Do thou to them as once of old
Thou didst to Midian's pride;
To Jabin and to Sisera
At Kishon's river-side;
- 6 When they at Endor were destroyed
And fell to fat the earth.
- Like Oreb and like Zeëb make
Their men of noble birth.
- 7 Yea, like Zalmunna make their chiefs,
Like Zeba let them die;
Who said, 'The dwelling-place of God
We'll take and occupy.
- 8 O thou, my God, make them to be
Like whirling dust that flies,
Like stubble blown before the wind
When winter storms arise.
- 9 As fire the forest burns, as flame
The mountain sets on fire,
Affright and chase them with the storm
And tempest of thine ire.
- 10 With shame their faces fill, O Lord,
That they may seek thy name;
Dismayed forever let them be
And perish in their shame.
- 11 So shall they know that thou alone,—
Jehovah is thy name—
That thou, Most High, o'er all the earth
Art evermore the same.

J. Crüger

 $\text{♩} = 88 = 22 \text{ Seconds}$

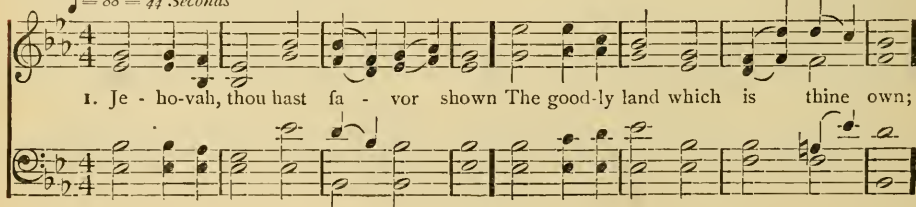

I. O Lord thou hast thy fa - vor shown To thy be - lov - ed land;
And Ja - cob's cap - tive state thou hast Re - called with might - y hand.

- 1 O Lord thou hast thy favor shown
To thy beloved land;
And Jacob's captive state thou hast
Recalled with mighty hand.
- 2 Thou to thy people all their sins
Most freely pardoned hast;
And over all their trespasses
Thou hast a cov'ring cast.
- 3 Thou all thine anger hast removed;
From wrath hast turned to peace;
O God our Saviour, turn thou us
And cause thy wrath to cease.
- 4 Shall thy displeasure thus endure
Against us to the end?
Wilt thou to generations all
Thine anger yet extend?
- 5 That in thee may thy people joy,
Wilt thou not us revive?
- Show us thy lovingkindness, Lord,
And thy salvation give.
- 6 I'll hear what God the Lord will speak;
For he will speak in peace
To all his people and his saints;
Let them from folly cease.
- 7 To such alone as fear his name
His saving grace is near,
That as a dweller in our land
True glory may appear.
- 8 Truth meets with mercy, righteousness
And peace kiss mutu'lly;
Truth springs from earth and righteous-
Looks down from heaven high. [ness
- 9 Yea, what is good the Lord will give;
Our land shall yield increase.
And right to set us in his steps
Shall go before his face.

1. O thou Je - ho - vah, bow thine ear And hear me gra - cious - ly;

Be - cause I am in so - rest need, I am in pov - er - ty.

- 1 O thou Jehovah, bow thine ear
And hear me graciously;
Because I am in sorest need,
I am in poverty.
- 2 Because I'm godly let my soul
By thee delivered be;
O thou my God, thy servant save
That puts his trust in thee.
- 3 Since all day long to thee I cry,
Be gracious, Lord, to me.
Rejoice thy servant's soul; for, Lord,
I lift my soul to thee.
- 4 For thou, O Lord, thyself art good
And ready to forgive;
Yea, rich in mercy, all that call
Upon thee to relieve.
- 5 O thou Jehovah, hear my prayer,
My pleading cry attend;
In troublous times I'll call on thee
For thou wilt answer send.

232 ST. GREGORY. C. M.

R. Wainright

 $\text{♩} = 84 = 35 \text{ Seconds}$

6. A-mong the ma - ny gods, O Lord, Like thee there is not one;

Nor are their works to be com - pared With works which thou hast done.

6 Among the many gods, O Lord,
Like thee there is not one;
Nor are their works to be compared
With works which thou hast done.

11 Because thy mercy unto me
In greatness doth excel;
And thou delivered hast my soul
Out from the lowest hell.

7 All nations, Lord, whom thou hast made
Shall come and praise proclaim;
Before thy face they worship shall
And glorify thy name.

12 O God, the proud against me rise,
The violent have met;
They for my soul have sought, and thee
Before them have not set.

8 Because thou art exceeding great,
And works by thee are done
Which are to be admired, and thou
Art God thyself alone.

13 Thou art, O Lord, a gracious God,
In whom compassions flow;
Thy mercy and thy truth abound,
Thou art to anger slow.

9 Teach me thy way and in thy truth,
O Lord, then walk will I;
Unite my heart that I thy name
May fear continu'ly.

14 O turn to me thy countenance
And mercy on me have;
Thy servant strengthen and the son
Of thine own handmaid save.

10 O Lord my God, with all my heart
I will thy praise proclaim;
I also glory will ascribe
Forever to thy name;

15 Show me a sign for good which they
Who do me hate may see
And be ashamed, for thou, O Lord,
Didst help and comfort me.

Thou city of our God.
Both Egypt, Babylon, as friends
I will proclaim abroad;
- 3 Behold ev'n Tyrus and with it
The land of Palestine,
And likewise Ethiopia;
This one was born therein.
- 4 This man and that was born in her,
Of Zion they shall say;
And he that is himself Most High

1. Lord God my Sav - iour, day and night Be - fore thee cried have I.

Be - fore thee let my pray - er come; Give ear to this my cry.

- 1 Lord God my Saviour, day and night
Before thee cried have I.
Before thee let my prayer come;
Give ear to this my cry.
- 2 For troubles great do fill my soul;
My life draws nigh the grave.
I'm counted with those that go down
To pit and no help have;
- 3 Cast off among the dead as slain,
Removed from off the land,
Whom thou rememberest no more;
And severed from thy hand.
- 4 Thou hast me laid in lowest pit,
In deeps and darksome caves;
Thy wrath lies hard on me and I
Am pressed with all thy waves.
- 5 Thou hast put far from me my friends,
Made me their scorn to know;
And I am so shut up that I
No longer forth can go.
- 6 By reason of affliction great
Mine eye doth waste away;
I call upon Jehovah's name
With hands spread forth each day.

7. Wilt thou show won - ders to the dead? Shall they rise and thee bless?

Shall in the grave thy love be told? In death thy faith - ful - ness?

- 7 Wilt thou show wonders to the dead?
 Shall they rise and thee bless?
 Shall in the grave thy love be told?
 In death thy faithfulness?
- 8 Shall thy great wonders in the dark,
 Or shall thy righteousness
 Be known to any in the land
 Of deep forgetfulness?
- 9 But, Lord, to thee I cried, my prayer
 Each morn shall rise to thee.
 Why, Lord, dost thou cast off my soul,
 Why hide thy face from me?
- 10 Distressed am I and from my youth
 I ready am to die;
 Thy terrors I have borne and am
 Distracted fearfully.
- 11 By thy fierce wrath I'm overwhelmed;
 Cut off by dread of thee;
 Like floods thy terrors round me close,
 All day they compass me.
- 12 My friends thou hast put far from me
 And him that did me love;
 And those that mine acquaintance were
 To darkness didst remove.

My weary life draws nigh the silent tomb.
I'm held as those that to the pit descend,
As one to whom no helping hands extend.
- 3 As one cast off among the dead am I;
I'm like the slain that in the grave do lie,
Whom thou no more in mem'ry dost retain,
Who in thy saving hand no more remain.
- 4 By thee within the lowest pit I'm laid,
In deeps and in the place of darkest shade;
Thy weighty wrath lies heavy on my soul;
And all thy waves of trouble o'er me roll.

5. My former friends thou hast estranged from me, Yea, their ab-hor-rence I am made by thee;

Shut up am I, imprisoned here must stay; Thro' deep distress mine eye doth waste away.

- 5 My former friends thou hast estranged from me;
Yea, their abhorrence I am made by thee;
Shut up am I, imprisoned here must stay;
Through deep distress mine eye doth waste away.
- 6 O Lord, I've daily called upon thy name,
Spread forth my hands thy gracious help to claim.
Thy wonders wilt thou make the dead to know?
And shall the dead arise thy praise to show?
- 7 Shall thy great love within the grave be shown?
Or shall thy truth be in destruction known?
Who shall thy wondrous righteousness confess
In that dark land of deep forgetfulness?
- 8 But unto thee, Jehovah, I have cried;
My prayer shall rise to thee with morningtide.
O Lord, why dost thou cast my soul from thee?
Why dost thou hide thy gracious face from me?
- 9 From youth distressed and nigh to death am I;
Distracted while thy terrors on me lie.
Thine anger fierce has overwhelmed my soul,
To cut me off thy terrors round me roll.
- 10 Around they surge like billows all day long;
About my soul they gather dark and strong.
Each lover, friend, thou hast put far from me.
And mine acquaintance into darkness flee.

Görlitz Hymn Book

♩ = 96 20 Seconds

1. The lov - ing - kind - ness of the Lord For - ev - er I will sing;

Thy faith - ful - ness to ev - 'ry age My mouth in song shall bring.

1 The lovingkindness of the Lord
Forever I will sing;
Thy faithfulness to ev'ry age
My mouth in song shall bring.

4 Thy seed I will establish firm
Forever to remain;
And unto generations all
Thy throne I will maintain.

2 For mercy shall be built, said I,
Forever to endure;
Thy faithfulness ev'n in the heav'ns
Thou wilt establish sure.

5 The praises of thy wonders, Lord,
The heavens shall express,
And in the throng of holy ones
Thy faithfulness confess.

3 I with my chosen one have made
A cov'nant graciously;
And to my servant whom I loved,
To David sworn have I:

6 Who with the Lord can be compared
In all the lofty sky?
And who among the sons of might
Is like the Lord Most High?

7 In councils of the holy ones
He is a God revered,
Above all them that round him stand
Most greatly to be feared.

Up - on a might - y one raised up, Of whom I choice have made.

- 18 Thou saidst in vision to thy saints,
Deliverance I laid
Upon a mighty one raised up,
Of whom I choice have made.
- 19 My servant David I have found
And have anointed king;
My hand shall ever be with him
And strength mine arm shall bring.
- 20 The foe shall not exact from him,
Nor son of mischief wrong;
His haters I will smite, and crush
His adversaries strong.
- 21 My mercy and my faithfulness
With him shall ever be;
And in my name his kingly power
Exalted they shall see.
- 22 I also will impose his hand
Upon the mighty sea;
And I will set his strong right hand
Where'er the rivers be.
- 23 Thou art my Father and my God,
He unto me shall cry;
Thou also art the rock on which
For safety I rely.
- 24 I'll make him my first born, more high
Than kings of any land;
- My love I'll ever keep for him,
My cov'nant fast shall stand.
- 25 And I will also make his seed
Forever to endure;
And as the days of heaven are
His throne shall stand secure.
- 26 But if his seed forsake my law
Nor walk as I ordain;
If they my statutes disobey
And my commands profane;
- 27 Then for their faults I'll visit them;
My rod I'll on them lay;
And I will their iniquity
With heavy stripes repay.
- 28 Yet I'll not take my love from him
Nor false my promise make;
I will not break my covenant
Nor change the word I spake.
- 29 Once by my holiness I swear
To David I'll not lie;
His seed and throne shall still endure
While lasts the sun on high.
- 30 It like the moon shall ever be Established most secure;
And like the witness in the sky
It ever shall endure.

Let it repent thee now for those
That servants are to thee.

15 According as the days have been
Wherein we grief have had,
And years wherein we ill have seen,
So do thou make us glad.

14 O with thy lovingkindness, Lord,
Us early satisfy;
So we rejoice shall all our days
And still be glad in thee.

16 O let thy work and power appear
Thy servants' face before;
And unto all their children show
Thy glory evermore.

17 And let the beauty of the Lord
Our God be us upon;
Our handiworks establish thou,
Establish them each one.

PSALM XC

246 ADORO TE. 8, 8, 8, 8, 8

J. Barnby

 $\text{♩} = 80 = 54 \text{ Seconds}$

1. Lord, thou hast been our dwell - ing place Through all the a - ges of our race.

Be- fore the mountains had their birth, Or ev - er thou hadst formed the earth,

From years which no be - gin - ning had To years un - end - ing, thou art God.

- 1 Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place
Through all the ages of our race.
Before the mountains had their birth,
Or ever thou hadst formed the earth,
From years which no beginning had
To years unending, thou art God.
- 2 Thou turnest man to dust again;
And say'st, Return, ye sons of men.
As yesterday, when past, appears,
So are to thee a thousand years;
They like a day are in thy sight,
Yea, like a passing watch by night.
- 3 As with a flood thou makst them pass;
They like a sleep are; like the grass
That in the morning may be seen
To grow and flourish fresh and green;
At morn its growing blades arise,
At eve cut down it withered lies.
- 4 For in thine anger we're consumed,
And by thy wrath to trouble doomed.
Our sins thou in thy sight dost place,
Our secret faults before thy face;
For in thy wrath our days we spend;
Yea, like a sigh our years we end.
- 5 Threescore and ten the years we see,
Or if by strength fourscore they be,
Their pride is labor, grief, decay;
For soon 'tis gone,—we fly away.
Who knows the power thine anger
As is thy fear so is thy wrath. [hath?]
- 6 O teach thou us to count our days,
And set our hearts on wisdom's ways.
How long, O Lord? Return, relent,
And for thy servants' sake repent.
O fill us early with thy grace,
And we'll have gladness all our days.
- 7 According to the days wherein
Thou has afflicted us for sin,
The years of evil and of grief,
Now make us glad and send relief.
Thy doings to thy servants show,
Thy glory let their children know.
- 8 So let there be on us bestowed
The beauty of the Lord our God.
Our handiwork, O let it be
Established evermore by thee;
Yea, let our handiwork now be
Established evermore by thee.

| 5 Thou shalt not need to be afraidFor terrors of the night;Nor for the arrow that doth flyBy day while it is light;         | 11 They in their hands shall bear thee upLest thou, if left aloneWithout their guarding care, shouldstThy foot against a stone. [dash] |
| 6 Nor for the pestilence that walksIn darkness secretly;Nor for destruction that doth wasteAt noonday openly.               | 12 Upon the adder thou shalt treadAnd on the lion strong;On serpents trample shall thy footAnd on the lions young.                     |

13 Because on me he set his love
Deliver him will I;
Because my great name he hath known
I will him set on high.

14 He'll call on me, I'll answer him;
I will be with him still
In trouble to deliver him,
And honor him I will.

15 With length of days to his desire
I will him satisfy;
And my salvation unto him
Make manifest will I.

249 O SALUTARIS. L. M. (Second Tune)

Arr. from a Gregorian Chant

$\text{♩} = 60 = 32 \text{ Seconds}$

1. The man who once has found a - bode, With - in the se - cret place of God

Shall with Al-migh - ty God a - bide, And in his shad - ow safe - ly hide.

- 1 The man who once has found abode,
Within the secret place of God
Shall with Almighty God abide,
And in his shadow safely hide.
- 2 I therefore of the Lord will say,
He is my refuge and my stay;
My citadel of strength is he—
My God in whom my trust shall be.
- 3 For he shall with his watchful care
Preserve thee from the fowler's snare;
Yea, he shall be thy sure defence
Against the deadly pestilence.
- 4 His outspread pinions shall thee hide,
Beneath his wings shalt thou confide.
His faithfulness shall ever be
A shield and buckler unto thee.
- 5 No nightly terrors shall alarm,
No deadly shaft by day shall harm;
Nor pestilence that walks by night,
Nor plagues that waste in noonday light.
- 6 At thy right hand ten thousand fall,
No harm shall come to thee at all.
Thou with thine eyes shalt only see
What wicked men's reward shall be.

250 GERMANY. L. M.

L. van Beethoven

 $\text{♩} = 80 = 36 \text{ Seconds}$

7. Thy dwelling place is God Most High, —For, Lord, thou art my re - fuge nigh,—

No e - vil shall on thee be sent, Nor an - y plague come nigh thy tent.

- 7 Thy dwelling place is God Most High,
—For, Lord, thou art my refuge nigh.—
No evil shall on thee be sent,
Nor any plague come nigh thy tent.
- 8 Because his angels he commands
To bear thee safely in their hands,
To guard thy ways, lest left alone,
Thou dash thy foot against a stone.
- 9 Thou shalt tread down the lion's wrath,
And crush the adder in thy path;
On lions young, on serpents dread,
Thy trampling feet unharmed shall tread.
- 10 Because he set his love on me,
From danger I will set him free.
Because to him my name is known,
On high I'll set him as mine own.
- 11 As oft as he shall call to me,
Most gracious shall mine answer be.
I will be with him in distress,
And in his troubles I will bless.
- 12 Yea, great salvation give will I,
With length of life will satisfy.
On him I honor will bestow,
To him my full salvation show.

251 BRADFORD. C. M. (First Tune)

G. F. Handel

 $\text{♩} = 88 = 33 \text{ Seconds}$

I. To ren - der thanks to thee, O Lord, It is a come-ly thing,

And to thy name, O thou Most High, Due praise a - loud to sing;

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 1 To render thanks to thee, O Lord,It is a comely thing,And to thy name, O thou Most High,Due praise aloud to sing;       | 4 For thou, Jehovah, by thy worksHast gladness to me brought;And I will triumph in the worksWhich by thy hands are wrought. |
| 2 Thy lovingkindness to show forthWhen shines the morning light,And to declare thy faithfulnessWith pleasure ev'ry night; | 5 How great, Jehovah, are thy works!A deep thine ev'ry thought.A brutish person doth not know,Fools understand it not;      |
| 3 Upon a ten-stringed instrumentAnd on a psaltery,Upon the harp with solemn sound,With grave sweet melody.                | 6 When quickly like the growing grassSprings up the wicked race,And workers of iniquityDo flourish all apace;               |
| 7 It is that they for evermoreMay be destroyed and slain;But thou, Jehovah, art Most HighForever to remain.               |   |

- 8 For lo, thy foes, O Lord, thy foes
Shall perish by thy might;
The workers of iniquity
Shall all be put to flight.
- 9 But as the wild ox lifts his horn
My power exalt shall he;
And with abundance of fresh oil
I shall anointed be.
- 10 Mine eye shall also my desire
See on mine enemies;
Mine ears shall of the wicked hear
That do against me rise.
- 11 But like the palm tree flourishing
Shall be the righteous one;
He shall like to the cedar grow
That is in Lebanon.
- 12 Those that within Jehovah's house
Are planted by his grace,
They shall grow up and flourish all
In our God's holy place.
- 13 And in old age when others fade
They fruit still forth shall bring;
They shall be green and full of sap
And ever flourishing;
- 14 To show that upright is the Lord;
He is a rock to me,
And he from all unrighteousness
Is altogether free.

8 Man's thoughts to be but vanity,
The Lord doth well discern.
Blessed is the man thou chast'nest,
Lord,
That he thy law may learn;

13 Unless the Lord had been my help,
I had in silence lain.
Lord, when I said, my foot doth slip,
Thy love did me sustain.

9 That thou mayst give him rest from
Of sad adversity, [days
Until the pit be digged for those
That work iniquity.

14 Amid the multitude of thoughts
And doubts within my breast,
Thy gracious comforts to my soul
Afford delightful rest.

10 Because the Lord will not cast off
Those that his people be,
Nor yet his own inheritance
Forsake at all will he.

15 But shall the throne of wickedness
Have fellowship with thee,
Which mischief in a statute framed
Doth as a law decree?

11 But judgment unto righteousness
Shall yet return again;
And all shall follow after it
That are right hearted men.

16 They join against the righteous souls,
Condemn the guiltless blood;
But my high tower has been the Lord,
My rock of refuge, God.

12 Who will rise up for me against
Those that do wickedly?
And stand for me against the men
That work iniquity?

17 On them their own iniquity
Our God himself shall lay;
He in their sin will cut them off,
Jehovah will them slay.

- 1 O sing a new song to the Lord
For wonders he hath done;
His right hand and his holy arm
The victory have won.
- 2 The great salvation wrought by him
Jehovah hath made known;
His justice in the nations' sight
He openly hath shown.
- 3 He mindful of his grace and truth
To Isr'el's house hath been;
The great salvation of our God
All ends of earth have seen.
- 4 Let all the earth sing to the Lord
And make a joyful noise;

- Lift up your voice aloud to him,
Sing praises and rejoice.
- 5 With harp, with harp and voice of psalms
Jehovah's praises sing;
With trumpets, cornets, gladly sound
Before the Lord the King.
- 6 Let seas and all their fulness roar,
The world and dwellers there;
Let floods clap hands and let the hills
Together joy declare,
- 7 Before the Lord, because he comes
To judge the earth comes he;
He'll judge the world with righteousness
All men with equity.

264 OLD 100TH. I. M.

Genevan Psalter

 $\text{♩} = 76 = 25 \text{ Seconds}$

1. All peo - ple that on earth do dwell, Sing to the Lord with cheer - ful voice.

Him serve with mirth, his praise forth tell, Come ye be - fore him and re - joice.

- 1 All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice.
Him serve with mirth, his praise forth tell,
Come ye before him and rejoice.
- 2 Know that the Lord is God indeed;
Without our aid he did us make.
We are his flock, he doth us feed,
And for his sheep he doth us take.
- 3 O enter then his gates with praise,
Within his courts your thanks proclaim;
With grateful hearts your voices raise
To bless and magnify his name.
- 4 Because the Lord our God is good,
His mercy is forever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

265 SOUTHWELL. C. M.

H. S. Irons

♩ = 80 = 24 Seconds

1 I mercy will and judgment sing
O Lord, I'll sing to thee;
With wisdom in a perfect way
Shall my behavior be.

2 O when in kindness unto me
Wilt thou be pleased to come?
I with a perfect heart will walk
Within my house at home.

3 No wicked thing will I endure
Before mine eyes to be;
I hate their work who turn aside,
It shall not cleave to me.

4 A stubborn and a froward heart
Away from me shall go;
No wicked man or evil thing
Will I consent to know.

5 I'll cut him off that slandereth
His neighbor privily;
The haughty heart I will not bear,
Nor him that looketh high.

6 Upon the faithful of the land
Mine eyes shall be that they
May dwell with me; he shall me serve
That walks in perfect way.

7 No man that works deceitfully
Within my house shall dwell;
Nor in my presence shall remain
The man that lies doth tell.

8 Each morn, the wicked of the land
Shall be destroyed by me;
To free the city of the Lord
From all iniquity.

1. Of mer-cy and of jus-tice, O Lord, I'll sing to thee; In up-right-ness and wis-dom Shall my be-ha-vior be. O when in lov-ing-kind-ness Wilt thou to me come near? I'll walk with-in my dwell-ing With heart and life sin-cere.

1 Of mercy and of justice,
 O Lord, I'll sing to thee;
 In uprightness and wisdom
 Shall my behavior be.
 O when in lovingkindness
 Wilt thou to me come near?
 I'll walk within my dwelling
 With heart and life sincere.

2 No base thing will I suffer
 Before mine eyes to be.
 I hate unfaithful doing;
 It shall not cleave to me.
 The man whose heart is froward
 Shall from my presence go;
 And nothing that is evil
 Will I consent to know.

3 I'll cut him off that slanders
 His neighbor secretly;
 A proud heart I'll not suffer,
 Nor him whose looks are high.
 Mine eyes shall see the faithful,
 That they may dwell with me;
 The man whose walk is perfect
 My minister shall be.

4 No man of works deceitful
 Within my house shall dwell;
 Nor in my sight shall tarry
 The man who lies doth tell.
 Each morn to all the wicked
 I judgment will accord,
 To free from evil doers
 The city of the Lord.

I. Je - ho-vah, hear my prayer in grace; And let my cry come un - to thee;

In day of grief hide not thy face, Thine ear in-cline thou un - to me.

- 1 Jehovah, hear my prayer in grace;
And let my cry come unto thee;
In day of grief hide not thy face,
Thine ear incline thou unto me.
- 2 Hear when I call to thee; that day
An answer speedily return.
My days like smoke consume away,
And as a hearth my bones do burn.
- 3 My smitten heart like grass is dried,
And I my bread forgotten leave;
Because with groans I long have cried,
My flesh and bones together cleave.
- 4 The pelican of wilderness,
The owl of ruins drear I match;
And sparrow-like companionless,
Upon the housetop I keep watch.
- 5 All day my foes their taunts repeat,
In madness they against me swear;
For I like bread did ashes eat,
And in my drink tears mingled were.
- 6 I by thy wrath and anger pine,
Thou hast me raised and cast away;
My days, a shadow, swift decline,
Like grass I wither all the day.

8 Thou shalt arise and mercy yet
Thou unto Zion shalt extend.
The time is come which thou hast set,
When thou wilt favor to her send.

9 Thy saints take pleasure in her stones,
Her very dust to them is dear.
So heathen lands and kingly thrones
Jehovah's glorious name shall fear.

10 The Lord in glory doth appear,
He buildeth Zion strong and fair;
He to the needy giveth ear
Nor doth despise their humble prayer.

11 Lest coming ages should forget,
This wondrous work shall men record,
And peoples uncreated yet
Shall praise and magnify the Lord.

12 He from his holy place looked down,
God viewed the earth from heaven on high;
To hear the pris'ner's mourning groan,
And free them that are doomed to die.

13 That Zion and Jerus'lem too,
His name and praise may well record;
When people and the kingdoms do
Assemble all to praise the Lord.

7. The Lord is ev - er mer - ci - ful, And gra - cious he is found;

6 The Lord doth judgment execute

7 'The Lord is ever merciful,
And gracious he is found;
'To wrath and anger he is slow,
In mercy doth abound.

8 He will not chide for evermore,
Nor keep his anger still;
With us he dealt not as we sinned
Nor did requite our ill.

9 For as the heav'n in its height
The earth surmounteth far;
So great to those that do him fear
His tender mercies are.

10 As far as east is distant from
The west so far hath he
From us removed in gracious love
All our iniquity.

11 Such pity as a father hath
And shows his children dear,
Like pity shows the Lord to such
As worship him in fear.

12 For he remembers we are dust
And he our frame well knows;
Frail man his days are like the grass,
As flower in field he grows;

13 For over it the wind doth pass
And it away is gone;
And of the place where once it was
It shall no more be known.

14 But unto them that fear the Lord
His mercy never ends;
And to their children's children still
His righteousness extends;

15 To such as keep his covenant
Nor from it go astray,
Who his commandments bear in mind
And faithfully obey.

- 5 He made known his ways to Moses,
And his acts to Isr'el's race;
Tender, loving is Jehovah,
Slow to anger, rich in grace.
- 6 He will not forever chide us
Nor will keep his anger still;
Hath not dealt as we offended
Nor requited us our ill.
- 7 For as high as is the heavèn,
Far above the earth below,
Ever great to them that fear him
Is the mercy he will show.
- 8 Far as east from west is distant
He hath put away our sin;
Like the pity of a father
Hath Jehovah's pity been.
- 9 For our frame he well remembers,
That we are but dust he knows;
As for man like grass he rises,
As the flower in field he grows;
- 10 Over it the wind now passeth,
In a moment it is gone;
In the place where once it flourished
It shall never more be known.

- 11 But Jehovah's lovingkindness
Unto them that fear his name
From eternity abideth
To eternity the same;
- 12 And his righteousness remaineth
To their children and their seed,
Who his covenant remember
And his precepts hear and heed.

Thou ro-best thy-self with a gar-ment of light, And stretchest the sky as a cur-tain by night.

- 1 My soul bless the Lord; O God, thou art great,
With honor arrayed, majestic in state.
Thou robest thyself with a garment of light,
And stretchest the sky as a curtain by night.
- 2 The beams of his courts in waters he laid,
On wings of the wind his pathway he made.
The clouds are his chariot, the winds do his will,
The flames and the lightning his pleasure fulfil.
- 3 For earth he hath laid foundations secure,
That steadfast it should forever endure.
The deep as a vesture about it he cast;
The waters rose high, o'er the mountains they passed.
- 4 But at thy rebuke they fled in dismay,
Thy thunder they heard and hastened away.
The mountains arise and the valleys subside,
They came to the place where they were to abide.
- 5 That they may not pass thou settest a bound
Lest turning again they cover the ground.
He sendeth the springs in the valley below,
And causeth the streams in the mountains to flow.
- 6 The beast of the field is furnished with drink,
The wild asses quench their thirst at the brink.
The birds build their nests in the trees by the spring,
And there in the branches they joyfully sing.

7 He waters the hills with rain from his stores,
The fruit of his works on earth he outpours.
The grass for the cattle he maketh to grow,
And herb for the service of man doth bestow.

8 He food from the earth to man doth impart,
And wine that doth cheer and gladden his heart.
To make his face shine he provides him with oil,

11. He called for fa - mine on the land, Their staff of bread he brake;

And Jo - seph, sent be - fore, was sold A serv - ant for their sake.

- 11 He called for famine on the land,
 Their staff of bread he brake;
 And Joseph, sent before, was sold
 A servant for their sake;
- 12 They hurt his feet with iron chains;
 With fetters he was bound
 Until Jehovah's message came;
 Approved he then was found.
- 13 The ruler of the people sent
 To loose and set him free;
 And master of his house and wealth
 Appointed him to be.
- 14 He gave him power to bind at will
 The princes of the land;
 And bade him teach his senators
 That they might understand.
- 15 When Israel to Egypt came,
 In Ham's land to abide,
 He made them stronger than their foes;
 They greatly multiplied.
- 16 He turned their hearts in subtle hate
 His people to oppose;
 Then he his servant Moses sent,
 And Aaron whom he chose.

I. O praise the Lord, give thanks to God For boun - ti - ful is he;

Be - cause his lov - ing - kind - ness lasts To all e - ter - ni - ty.

1 O praise the Lord, give thanks to God
For bountiful is he;
Because his lovingkindness lasts
To all eternity.

2 Who can express Jehovah's praise
Or tell his deeds of might?
O blessed are they who justice keep,
And ever do the right.

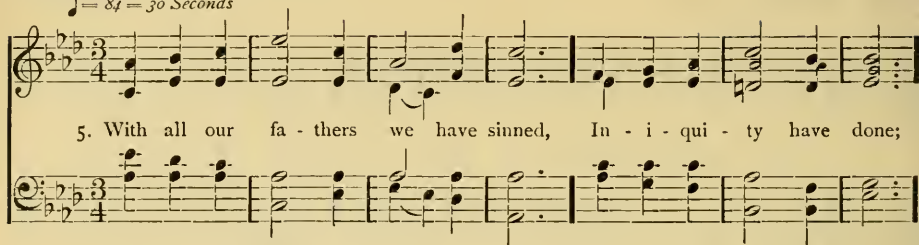

3 Regard me with the favor, Lord,
Which thou dost bear to thine.
O visit thou my soul in love;
Make thy salvation mine.

4 That I may see thy people's good
And in their joy rejoice;
And may with thine inheritance
Exult with cheerful voice.

We have gone on in wick - ed - ness, In e - vil ways have run.

- 5 With all our fathers we have sinned,
Iniquity have done;
We have gone on in wickedness,
In evil ways have run.
- 6 Our fathers did not understand
Thy deeds in Egypt wrought;
Of all thy many mercies shown
They did remember nought.
- 7 Though at the sea, ev'n Egypt's sea,
They were rebellious grown,
He saved them for his own name's sake,
To make his greatness known.
- 8 The Red Sea also he rebuked,
It dried at his command;
And so he led them through the depths
As through a pasture land.
- 9 And from the land that hated them
He did his people save,
And from the hand of enemies
To them redemption gave.
- 10 The water overwhelmed their foes
None lived of all their throng.
His people then believed his words
And praised his name in song.

But murm'ring in their tents re-fused To heark-en to the Lord.

- 18 Yea, they despised the pleasant land,
Nor would believe his word;
But murm'ring in their tents refused
To hearken to the Lord.
- 20 To Baal-Peor they were joined,
Ate off'rings of the dead,
Provoked his anger with their deeds;
The plague among them spread.
- 19 And so he sware to cast them down
Within the desert place,
Among the nations to disperse
And scatter all their race.
- 21 Then Phinehas rose and judgment wrought;
And so the plague was stayed;
And this for endless righteousness
To his account was laid.

They so provoked his wrath that he
His heritage abhorred.

Their foes did them command.
Their en'mies them oppressed, they Made subject to their hand. [were

Ofttimes he set them free,
Until at last they were brought low
In their iniquity.

And he for them his covenant
Did call to memory;
- 31 And in his mercies manifold
He did repent and make

29 Contempt on princes poureth he
And causeth them to stray
And wander in the wilderness
Wherein there is no way.

30 From trouble he will save the poor
By setting them on high,
And like a flock he maketh them
In fam'lies multiply.

31 When this the upright shall behold

- 1 My heart is fixed, O God; I'll sing
And with my glory praise;
Awake both psaltery and harp,
Myself I'll early raise.
- 2 I'll praise thee 'mong the people, Lord,
'Mong nations sing will I;
Above the heav'ns thy love is great,
Thy truth doth reach the sky.
- 3 Be thou above the heav'ns, O God,
Exalted very high;
Above all places of the earth
Thy glory magnify.
- 4 That those who thy beloved are
May all delivered be,
O do thou save with thy right hand,
And answer give to me.
- 5 God in his holiness hath said,
In this exult I will,
I Shechem will divide and I
Will mete out Succoth's vale.
- 6 I Gilead claim as mine by right,
To me Manasseh yields;
My head's defence is Ephraim,
My sceptre Judah wields.
- 7 In Moab I will wash, my shoe
I will to Edom throw;
And o'er the land of Palestine
I will in triumph go.
- 8 O who is he will bring me to
The city fortified?
O who is he that to the land
Of Edom will me guide?
- 9 Hast thou, O God, not cast us off,
And stood from us afar?
Ev'n thou, O God, who dost no more
Go forth with us to war?
- 10 From trouble help thou us, for vain
The help that man bestows;
Through God we shall do valiantly;
He shall tread down our foes.

He never will depart,
Of th' order of Melchizedek
A priest thou ever art.

5 The Lord at thy right hand shall smite
Earth's rulers in his wrath;
Among the nations he shall judge;
The slain shall fill his path.

6 In many lands he'll overthrow
Their kings with ruin dread;
And in his march he'll quaff the brook,
And so lift up his head.

I. O praise the Lord, with all my heart Thanks to the Lord I'll bring,

With - in the coun - cil of the just And con - gre - ga - tion sing.

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 1 O praise the Lord, with all my heartThanks to the Lord I'll bring,Within the council of the justAnd congregation sing.   | 5 He hath provided food for themThat truly do him fear;And evermore his covenantHe in his mind will bear.             |
| 2 The works that by the Lord are wroughtAre very great in might;Sought out are they of ev'ry oneThat doth therein delight. | 6 He hath the power of his worksTo his own people shown,In giving them the heritageOf nations for their own.          |
| 3 His work is full of majesty,Gives honor to his name;And his eternal righteousnessIs evermore the same.                   | 7 His handiworks are truth and right,His precepts all are sure;And done in truth and uprightnessThey evermore endure. |
| 4 His works most wondrous he hath madeRemembered still to be;Jehovah is compassionate,And merciful is he.                  | 8 He sent redemption to his folk,His cov'nant did proclaimTo last for aye; yea, reverendAnd holy is his name.         |
| 9 To fear Jehovah is to learnThe first of wisdom's ways;They who obey will understand.For ever lasts his praise.           |   |

- 1 Praise ye the Lord, ye servants praise, 3 And with the Lord our God that dwells
 Jehovah's name adore;
 O blessed be Jehovah's name
 From this time evermore.
- 2 From rising sun to where it sets
 Jehovah's name be praised;
 O'er nations all the Lord is high,
 'Bove heav'ns his glory raised.
- 4 He from the dunghill lifts the poor,
 The needy from the earth;
 That he may him with princes set,
 With men of noble birth.
- 5 The barren woman house to keep
 He maketh, and to be
 Of sons a mother full of joy.
 Praise to the Lord give ye.

- 1 Praise Jehovah, praise the Lord.
Ye his servants praise accord.
Blessèd be Jehovah's name;
Evermore his praise proclaim.
- 2 From the dawn to setting sun,
Praise the Lord, the Mighty One.
O'er all nations he is high,
Yea, his glory crowns the sky.
- 3 Who is like the Lord our God?
High in heav'n is his abode,
- Who himself doth humble low
Things in heav'n and earth to know.
- 4 He the lowly makes to rise
From the dust in which he lies,
That exalted he may stand
With the princes of the land.
- 5 He the childless woman takes
And a joyful mother makes;
Keeping house she finds reward.
Praise Jehovah, praise the Lord.

- 1 When Isr'el out of Egypt went,
And from a speech unknown;
He Judah made his dwelling-place,
And Israel his throne.
- 2 The sea beheld and fled away;
The Jordan turned its flow.
Like rams the mountains and like lambs
The hills skipped to and fro.
- 3 O sea, why fled'st thou? Jordan stream,
Why didst thou turn thy tide?
Ye mountains and ye little hills,
Why leap on ev'ry side?
- 4 O tremble, earth, before the Lord,
The God of Jacob fear,
Who made the rock a water pool,
The flint a fountain clear.

315 JACKSON. C. M.

T. Jackson

 $\text{♩} = 80 = 24 \text{ Seconds}$

13. I shall not die, but live and tell Je-ho-vah's power to save;

The Lord hath sore-ly chas-tened me, But spared me from the grave.

13 I shall not die, but live and tell
 Jehovah's power to save;
 The Lord hath sorely chastened me,
 But spared me from the grave.

17 This is the day the Lord hath made,
 Let us be glad and sing.
 Send now prosperity, O Lord;
 O Lord, salvation bring.

14 O set ye open unto me
 The gates of righteousness;
 Then will I enter into them
 And I the Lord will bless.

18 O blessed be the one that comes
 In God's most holy name;
 The blessing from Jehovah's house
 Upon you we proclaim.

15 This is Jehovah's gate, by it
 The just shall enter in.
 I'll praise thee who hast heard my prayer
 And hast my safety been.

19 The Lord is God, and he to us
 Hath made the light arise;
 O bind ye to the altar's horns
 With cords the sacrifice.

16 That stone is made head corner stone 20 Thou art my God, I'll thee exalt,
 Which builders did despise;
 This is the doing of the Lord,
 And wondrous in our eyes. My thanks to God endure.
 O praise the Lord, for he is good;
 His grace is ever sure.

Who in the Lord's most holy law
Do walk and do not stray.
- 2 O blessed are they who to observe
His statutes are inclined;
And those who seek the living God
With their whole heart and mind.
- 3 They walk within his ways and they
Do no iniquity.
Thou hast commanded us to keep
Thy precepts carefully.
- 4 O that thy statutes to observe

How blessed are they who keep his word, And seek him with a per-fect heart;
Yea, they do no un-right-eous-ness, But in his way they on-ward press.

- 1 How blessed the upright in the way,
Who from God's law do not depart;
How blessed are they who keep his word,
And seek him with a perfect heart;
Yea, they do no unrighteousness,
But in his way they onward press.
- 2 Thy precepts thou hast given us
With diligence to be obeyed.
O that my ways were firmly fixed
- To keep the statutes thou hast made.
Then shall I not be put to shame
When thy commands are all my aim.
- 3 Then unto thee I will give thanks

♩ = 80 = 24 Seconds

1. Ac - cord - ing to thy word, O Lord, Thou hast thy ser - vant blessed.

In - struct in knowl - edge, judg - ment teach; On thy com - mands I rest.

- 1 According to thy word, O Lord,
Thou hast thy servant blessed.
Instruct in knowledge, judgment teach;
On thy commands I rest.
- 2 Ere I afflicted was I strayed;
Thy word I now obey.
For good thou art and doest good;
Teach me thy statutes' way.
- 3 The proud against me forged a lie;
Thy law I'll keep aright.

Their heart is grown as fat as grease;
Thy law is my delight.

- 4 It hath been very good for me
That I afflicted was,
That I might well instructed be
And learn thy holy laws.
- 5 The word which cometh from thy
To me is better far [mouth
Than many thousands and great sums
Of gold and silver are.

1. Thy hands have made and fash - ioned me; Make wise, thy laws to learn;

Then they that fear thee shall be glad When they my hope dis - cern.

- 1 Thy hands have made and fashioned me;
Make wise, thy laws to learn;
Then they that fear thee shall be glad
When they my hope discern.
- 2 That righteous all thy judgments are
I know and do confess;
And that thou hast afflicted me,
O Lord, in faithfulness.
- 3 O let thy lovingkindnesses
I pray thee, comfort me,
As to thy servant promised was
In faithfulness by thee.
- 4 And let thy tender mercies come
To me that I may live;
Because thy holy laws to me
Sweet delectation give.
- 5 O let the proud be put to shame
For they without a cause
With me perversely dealt, but I
Will muse upon thy laws.
- 6 Let those that fear thee turn to me,
Thy truth will I proclaim.
My heart make perfect in thy laws
Lest I be put to shame.

1. My soul for thy sal - va - tion faints; Yet I thy word be - lieve.

Mine eyes are fail - ing for thy word; When wilt thou com - fort give?

- 1 My soul for thy salvation faints;
Yet I thy word believe.
Mine eyes are failing for thy word;
When wilt thou comfort give?
- 2 For like a wine-skin I'm become
That in the smoke is set;
But yet the statutes thou hast giv'n
I never will forget.
- 3 How many are thy servant's days?
When wilt thou execute
Just judgment on these wicked men
That do me persecute?
- 4 The proud have digged a pit for me,
They disregard thy laws;
Thy words all faithful are; help me
Pursued without a cause.
- 5 They so consumed me that on earth
My life they scarce did leave;
Thy precepts yet forsook I not
But close to them did cleave.
- 6 According to thy love and grace
Me quicken and preserve;
The testimony of thy mouth
So shall I still observe.

 Yet do I put all my hope in thy word.
 Dim are mine eyes for thy word while I'm saying,
 When wilt thou give me thy comfort deferred?
- 2 I'm like a wine-skin in smoke that is withered;
 Yet I thy statutes will never forget.
 What are the days to thy servant remaining?
 When wilt thou judge those who me have beset?
- 3 Proud men have digged hidden pits to ensnare me,
 Men who are not in accord with thy word.
 All thy commandments are faithfulness ever;
 Wrongly they persecute, help now afford.
- 4 Here on the earth they had almost consumed me;
 Yet from thy precepts I never will swerve.
 Quicken me after thy great lovingkindness;
 So I the word of thy mouth shall observe.

4 O let my footsteps in thy word

Blessed be the Lord who to their teeth

1. Now Is - ra - el may say and that in truth, If that the Lord had not our right maintained, If that the Lord had not with us re-mained, When cru - el men a - gainst us rose to strive, We sure - ly had been swallowed up a - live.

- 1 Now Israel may say and that in truth,
If that the Lord had not our right maintained,
If that the Lord had not with us remained,
When cruel men against us rose to strive,
We surely had been swallowed up alive.
- 2 Yea, when their wrath against us fiercely rose,
Then as fierce floods before them all things down,
So had they brought our soul to death quite down.
The raging streams with their proud swelling waves,
Had then our soul o'erwhelmed as in the grave.
- 3 Blessed be the Lord who made us not their prey;
As from the snare a bird escapeth free,
Their net is rent and so escaped are we.
Our only help is in Jehovah's name,
Who made the earth and all the heav'nly frame.

A mount which nev - er can be moved But ev - er doth a - bide,

- 1 Like Zion's steadfast mount are they
Who in the Lord confide,
A mount which never can be moved
But ever doth abide.
- 2 As round about Jerusalem
The mountains stand for aye,
The Lord his people compasseth,
For evermore their stay.
- 3 For ill men's rod upon the lot
Of just men shall not lie;
Lest righteous men stretch forth their hands
To work iniquity.
- 4 Do thou to all those that are good
Thy goodness, Lord, impart;
And also do thou good to them
Who upright are in heart.
- 5 But as for such as turn aside
To their own crooked way,
The Lord leads forth with wicked men;
On Isr'el peace shall stay.

I. They oft - en vexed me from my youth, Let Is - ra - el now say;

They oft - en vexed me from my youth Nor yet pre-vailed have they.

1 They often vexed me from my youth,
Let Israel now say;

They often vexed me from my youth
Nor yet prevailed have they.

2 The plowers plowed upon my back;
They long their furrows made.

The righteous Lord did cut the cords
Which sinners on me laid.

3 Let Zion's haters be turned back
And in confusion thrown.

As grass on house tops let them be
Which fades ere it be grown;

4 Whereof enough to fill his hand
The mower cannot find;
Nor can the man his bosom fill
Whose work is sheaves to bind.

5 Nor say the passers by, On you
Jehovah's blessing rest;
We in Jehovah's holy name
Do wish you to be blest.

They of Jehovah's ways will sing,
For great in glory is our King.
- 4 Although Jehovah is most high,
On lowly ones he bends his eye;
But those that proud and haughty are
He knoweth only from afar.
- 5 Through trouble though my pathway be,
Thou wilt revive and comfort me.
Thine outstretched hand thou wilt oppose
Against the wrath of all my foes.
- 6 Thy hand, O Lord, shall set me free
And perfect what concerneth me;
Thy mercy, Lord, forever stands;
Leave not the work of thine own hands.

379 GRIMMA. C. M.

Arr. from J. M. Haydn

 $\text{♩} = 80 = 24 \text{ Seconds}$

- 9 For thou hast formed my inward parts    14 If I should count them than the sand
And thou hast covered me,    They more in number be;
Ev'n when within my mother's womb    What time soever I awake
Inclosed I was by thee.    I ever am with thee.
- 10 I'm fearfully and strangely made,    15 Thou wilt the wicked slay, O God;
To thee my thanks shall flow;    Hence from me, bloody men;
That all thy works are wonderful    Thy foes against thee loudly speak
My soul right well doth know.    And take thy name in vain.
- 11 When as in secret I was made    16 Do not I hate all those, O Lord,
My frame was known by thee;    That hatred bear to thee?
When in the lowest parts of earth    With those that up against thee rise
'Twas wrought most curiously.    Can I but troubled be?
- 12 Thine eyes mine unformed substance    17 With perfect hatred them I hate;
My days were ev'ry one [saw;    My foes I them do hold; [heart,
Ordained and written in thy book,    Search me, O God, and know my
When of them there was none.    Try me, my thoughts unfold;
- 13 How precious also are thy thoughts,    18 And see if any wicked way
O gracious God, to me,    There be at all in me,
And in their sum how passing great    And in thine everlasting way
And numberless they be.    To me a leader be.

1 Lord, thou hast searched me, thou hast known
My rising and my sitting down;
And from afar thou knowest well
The very thoughts that in me dwell.

2 Thou knowest all the ways I plan,
My path and lying down dost scan;
For in my tongue no word can be,
But, lo, O Lord, 'tis known to thee.

3 Behind, before me, thou dost stand
And lay on me thy mighty hand;
Such knowledge is for me too strange
And high beyond my utmost range.

4 Where shall I from thy Spirit flee,
Or from thy presence hidden be?
In heav'n thou art, if there I fly,
In death's abode, if there I lie.

5 If I the wings of morning take
And utmost sea my dwelling make,
Ev'n there thy hand shall guide my way,
And thy right hand shall be my stay.

6 If I say, Darkness covers me,
The darkness hideth not from thee.
To thee both night and day are bright,
The darkness shineth as the light.

7. My in - ward parts were formed by thee, Thou in the womb didst cov - er me;

And I thy prais - es will pro-claim, For strange and won-drous is my frame.

- 7 My inward parts were formed by thee, 10 Thy thoughts, O God, to me are dear;
 Thou in the womb didst cover me; How great their sum! they more appear
 And I thy praises will proclaim, In number than the sand to me.
 For strange and wondrous is my frame. When I awake, I'm still with thee.
- 8 Thy wondrous works I surely know; 11 The wicked thou wilt slay, O God;
 When as in depths of earth below Depart from me, ye men of blood;
 My frame in secret first was made, They speak of thee in words profane,
 'Twas all before thine eyes displayed. The foes who take thy name in vain.
- 9 Mine unformed substance thou didst see; 12 Do not I hate thy foes, O Lord?
 The days that were ordained to me, And thine assailants hold abhorred?
 Were written in thy book, each one, I truly hate all foes of thine,
 When as of them there yet was none. I count them enemies of mine.

13 Search me, O God, my heart discern;
 And try me, ev'ry thought to learn,
 And see if any sin holds sway.
 Leail in the everlasting way.

Pour out my plaint be - fore the Lord, To him my trou - ble take.

- 1 To thee, O Lord, I lift my voice,
I supplication make;
Pour out my plaint before the Lord,
To him my trouble take.
- 2 Ev'n when my soul is overwhelmed,
Thou knowest well my way.
Within the way in which I walk
A snare for me they lay.
- 3 Upon my right hand look and see;
There's none to know me there.
All refuge faileth me and none
Hath for my soul a care.
- 4 To thee I cried, O Lord, and said,
Thou my sure refuge art,
And in the land of those that live
The portion of my heart.
- 5 Since I am brought exceeding low
Attend upon my cry;
Save me from persecuting foes
Who stronger are than I.
- 6 From prison bring my soul that I
With thanks thy name may bless;
When thou art bountiful to me
The just shall round me press.

385 LEONI. 6, 6, 6, 6. D.

Old Jewish Chant, the "Yigdal", by Leoni

♩ = 72 = 27 Seconds

1. My prayer, Je- ho- vah, hear, And to my suppliant cry In faith- ful-ness give ear, In right- eous - ness re - ply. In judg-ment call not me Thy ser- vant to be tried; No liv- ing man can be In thy sight jus - ti - fied.

- 1 My prayer, Jehovah, hear,
And to my suppliant cry
In faithfulness give ear,
In righteousness reply.
In judgment call not me
Thy servant to be tried;
No living man can be
In thy sight justified.
- 2 The foe my soul hath sought,
My life to earth doth tread ;
To darkness I am brought,
As those that long are dead.

- My spirit, therefore, vexed,
Is overwhelmed within;
My heart in me perplexed
And desolate hath been.
- 3 Yet I recall to mind
What ancient days record;
Thy works of ev'ry kind,
Which thought to me afford.
And I spread forth my hands
To thee beseechingly;
My soul as weary lands
Is thirsting after thee.

4. Lord, let my prayer pre-vail, To an-swer it make speed. My spir - it quite doth fail, Hide not thy face in need; Lest I be like to those That do in dark-ness sit, Or him that downward goes To share the dreadful pit.

4 Lord, let my prayer prevail,
To answer it make speed.
My spirit quite doth fail,
Hide not thy face in need;
Lest I be like to those
That do in darkness sit,
Or him that downward goes
To share the dreadful pit.

5 Because I trust in thee,
O cause thou me to hear
Thy lovingkindness free,
When morning doth appear.
Make me to know the way
Wherein my path should be,
Because my soul each day
Do I lift up to thee.

6 O Lord, deliver me
From all who me oppose.
To thee alone I flee
To hide me from my foes.
No God have I but thee,
Teach me to do thy will;
Thy Spirit's good; lead me
On even pathway still.

7 O Lord, for thy name's sake
Be pleased to quicken me;
In righteousness, O take
My soul from misery.
In mercy cut off those
That en'mies are to me;
Slay of my soul the foes;
I servant am to thee.

- 1 O blessed forever be the Lord
Who is my rock of might,
Who doth instruct my hands to war,
My fingers teach to fight.
- 2 My goodness, fortress, my high tower,
Deliverer and shield,
In whom I trust; who unto me
My people makes to yield.
- 3 Lord, what is man to have thy care?
His son to have thy thought?
For man is like a breath, a shade,
His days soon come to naught.
- 4 O thou Jehovah, bow the heav'ns,
Descend thou from the skies;
Touch thou the everlasting hills,
Their smoke shall then arise.
- 5 Cast forth thy lightning, scatter them;
Thine arrows shoot, them rout.
Stretch forth thy hand and rescue me;
From waters draw me out.
- 6 And from the hand of aliens save,
Whose mouth speaks vanity;
And whose right hand a right hand is
That works deceitfully.

Salvation will afford;
Who rescues David from all hurt,
His servant from the sword.

11 When to afford all kind of store

When our sheep thousands in our fields,
Ten thousands they shall yield;

9 And from the hand of aliens save
Whose mouth speaks vanity;
And their right hand a right hand is
That works deceitfully.

12 When strong our oxen are for work;
When not a foe is nigh,
Nor is there going forth to war,
Within our streets no cry;

Who take the Lord to be their God,
They are a blessèd race.

PSALM CXLVIII

399 OLD 148TH. (Darwall) 6, 6, 6, 6, 4, 4, 4, 4. (First Tune) J. Darwall

$\text{♩} = 100 = 74 \text{ Seconds}$

1. From heav'n O praise the Lord; Ye heights, his glo - ry raise, All an-gels, praise ac - cord; Let all his host give praise. Praise him on high,

Sun, moon and star, Ye heav'ns a - far, And cloud - y sky.

1 From heav'n O praise the Lord;
Ye heights, his glory raise.
All angels, praise accord;
Let all his host give praise.
Praise him on high,
Sun, moon and star,
Ye heav'ns afar,
And cloudy sky.

2 Yea, let them glorious make
Jehovah's matchless name;
For when the word he spake,
They into being came.
And from that place
Where fixed they be
By his decree
They cannot pass.

3 From earth O praise the Lord,
 Ye deeps and all below;
 Wild winds that do his word,
 Ye clouds, fire, hail and snow;
 Ye mountains high,
 Ye cedars tall,
 Beasts great and small,
 And birds that fly.

4 Let all the people praise,
 And kings of ev'ry land;
 Let all their voices raise
 Who judge and give command.
 By young and old,
 By maid and youth,
 His name in truth
 Should be extolled.

5 Jehovah's name be praised
 Above the earth and sky;
 For he his saints hath raised
 And set their power on high.
 Him praise accord,
 O Isr'el's race,
 Near to his grace.
 Praise ye the Lord.

400 PITTSBURGH. 6, 6, 6, 6, 4, 4, 4, 4. (Second Tune)

E. H. Russell

$\text{♩} = 100 = 3\frac{1}{2}$  Seconds

1. From heav'n O praise the Lord; Ye heights, his glo - ry raise. All

PSALM CXLIX

401 BETHLEHEM. C. M. D.

Arr. by A. S. Sullivan

 $\text{♩} = 100 = 38 \text{ Seconds}$

1. O give ye prais - es to the Lord, A new song to him raise;

In the as - sem - bly of the saints Sing ye Je - ho - vah's praise.

2. Let Is - r'el in his Mak - er joy And to him prais - es sing;

Let all that Zi - on's chil - dren are Be joy - ful in their king.

1 O give ye praises to the Lord
A new song to him raise;
In the assembly of the saints
Sing ye Jehovah's praise.

2 Let Isr'el in his Maker joy
And to him praises sing;
Let all that Zion's children are
Be joyful in their king.

3 O let them all to his great name
Give praises in the dance;
Let them with timbrel and with harp
In songs his praise advance.

4 For in the people that are his
The Lord doth pleasure take;
The meek with his salvation's grace,
He beautiful will make.<sup>9</sup>

- 5 And in his glory let his saints
Exult with cheerful voice;
Let them to him upon their beds
Sing praises and rejoice.
- 7 On nations vengeance to inflict,
'Mong peoples punish wrong;
To bind their kings with chains, their
With iron fetters strong; [chiefs]
- 6 O let the lofty praise of God
From out their throat be poured,
And let them have within their hand
A sharp two-edged sword;
- 8 On them the judgment to perform
Found written in his word;
This honor is to all his saints.
O do ye praise the Lord.

PSALM CL

402 ST. COLUMBA. C. M.

J. A. MacMeikan

 $\text{♩} = 92 = 21 \text{ Seconds}$

1. Praise ye the Lord. The praise of God With - in his tem - ple raise;

With - in his fir - ma - ment of power To him O give ye praise.

- 1 Praise ye the Lord. The praise of God
Within his temple raise;
Within his firmament of power
To him O give ye praise.
- 3 O praise him with the trumpet sound,
With harp his praise advance;
With psalt'ry, pipe, stringed instruments
And timbrels in the dance.
- 2 O praise him for his wondrous works,
His mighty acts of fame;
Because in greatness he excels
His glorious praise proclaim.
- 4 Praise him with cymbals sounding high,
With cymbals loud accord;
Let all that breathe Jehovah praise.
O do ye praise the Lord.
