Meeting of Directors seasons mission 5.30.

Thurs. May 4 '86.

At the meeting last evening read my letter of July 12 & Oct. 20 '83 to Mr Thompson insisting that no
"promise" was made him since $200. a mo. currency; other things in the letter only show what that amt was then equal to. From speaking of to "Standp." - I insisted asking him was there any other promise made to him? It was silent.

He changed his amount to $1600. a y<sup>r</sup>
for 1880 or on Friday; had made enquiries & was satisf<sup>d</sup> he need 4000.
of line. W. R. Hunt. & then he sh<sup>d</sup>
want to dissolve the Ch. Miss. Soc.
came out to Am. Sea - Fr. Society contib. what we can to their Funding this natly was sd.

Gen. Hardie fav<sup>d</sup> the increase if we c<sup>d</sup> afford it. H<sup>o</sup>. that we c<sup>d</sup> not - ought to do justice to our own ministers of the Ch.

Truman did not incline to me.
etc of that; I then urge they c<sup>d</sup> not be set. low - that the suppt. of min.
of the C. is $5000. & add<sup>d</sup> some thing abt<sup>l</sup> 3000. each is sh<sup>d</sup> be. This sum they is not app<sup>o</sup> much with them. H<sup>o</sup>. withdrew his no. of Friday to decline to give wh<sup>o</sup>
the ask<sup>d</sup> for. His no. 2<sup>d</sup> of D. D.
was call<sup>d</sup> Geo. Hoy. Hardie refuz<sup>d</sup> for it; and so did I.

My feeling is rather than
have the wk. stop & post vacated; as it might alien

at Dr. Hall & Seane's
A. Society.

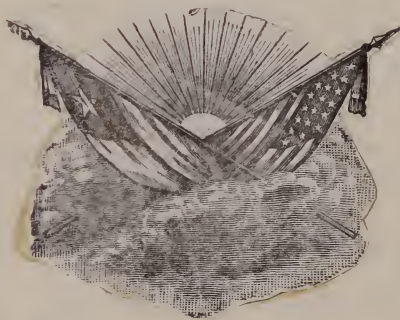

I sd. if Dr. Th. had
sd. a promise was made
him of more than 200. cc
I sd. feel bound to make up to him the diff<sup>ce</sup>. I justified that c<sup>d</sup> not be that of. That I. reproach to Th. had been "intentionally" broken.

I sd. what Mr. T. had sd. on Friday & that effect had been the worst pt<sup>r</sup> in the business: that he had omit

been in - just I know not.
They had inform John & D.

Mr. says this settles it
for him - shall not leave us. Has thinking to go in to Nap to study in N. Amer.

My fear is that Sr. strength was overlaid at the Hosp. inst<sup>d</sup> of 3 they had only 2 internes, so that he had half of ano. man's work to attend to during his last 4 months. John begs me to wait till we get the facts on the

THE MAY MEMORIAL CHURCH.

This beautiful church, erected to the memory of Rev. Samuel J. May by the Unitarian Congregational church of Syracuse, was dedicated with appropriate and impressive ceremonies on the afternoon and evening of Oct. 20, 1885.

The church is located on James Street, one of the principal streets of the city, is built of rock dressed gray limestone, with fine dressed trimmings and black slated roofs.

The pews are constructed with cherry, in a crescent form, the floor descending toward the pulpit thirty inches. The rental capacity is four hundred and fifty sittings, with ample accommodation for five hundred.

On each side of the pulpit are large fire-places and mantels, with fire grates and large flues to assist ventilation.

In the rear of the auditorium, with the floor on a level with the pulpit platform, are the Sunday-school and class-rooms, which will accommodate one hundred and fifty pupils, over which are the parlor, kitchen, and other needed conveniences for social gatherings. The cost of the church structure was $35,000, the lot, organ, and other furnishings costing $13,000,—all of which is paid and the society free from debt.

Dos carros se salieron de la línea, y con la alarma se dejaron caer algunos pasajeros, quebrándose uno de ellos una pierna cerca del tobillo. Fué atendido con mucho interes por el doctor Trumbull, quien le entablilló provisionalmente el hueso y lo acompañó en seguida hasta Valparaiso para hacerle la curacion mas detenidamente. Tenemos encargo de dar las gracias al jóven facultativo.

No comprenden los pasajeros cómo el maquinista no vió ni sintió el extraordinario movimiento de los carros desrielados, andando como cuatro o cinco cuabras a saltos y en medio de la griteria de pasajeros y de la jente que habia en la estacion del Matadero. Afortunadamente tenia que parar en esa estacion, pues de lo contrario habria ocurrido una gran catástrofe en el puente inmediato.

A cablegram from Callao received on Thursday by John Prain Esq., the agent of the P. S. N. Co., brought the painful announcement to the family of the decease of Dr. Stephen Trumbull of this city, on board of the S. S. Serena en route from Panamá to Callao. More than this fact, and that the burial took place at sea, is not yet known.

Dr. Stephen was born in Valparaiso in 1858. He was educated here in the school formerly taught by Messrs. Mackay and Sutherland until 1874, when he went to the United States and prepared for college, first at Stamford, later on at New Haven, Connecticut, where he graduated from the Yale University in a class of 121 members, in 1880. He then proceeded to Boston entering the Harvard Medical School, whence he received his diploma of M. D. in 1884, having in the interval revisited Valparaiso and spent a year at home.

After graduation he took service as resident physician in the Rhode Island Hospital, Providence, and continued there eighteen months, the regular term of service. This being closed the 1st of March, he planned to attend extra lectures in New York, and to return home in July; but being anxious about the health of his parents, he considered it to be his duty rather to come out without further delay, and accordingly left New York April 20th for Panamá en route for Valparaiso. This filial purpose he was not permitted to fulfil, and they who would have welcomed him have only to mourn his loss and recall his genial and intelligent and affectionate traits of character.

It is an honor to be allowed to speak near this tomb: it contains remains of a man who for ages of 14 made his own way; who settled and married and traced up a family in the Land, instilling the Gospel in his mind, showing to them a living penitential faith.
And now his posterity who came unflinchingly to the Gospel and had it as lamp

to her feet as the shades of evening of dream, age advanced and strength fail? A life unusually long clos'd like the sun imperceptibly gliding into the sea. It was cherish'd and pro-long'd by unceasing filial affection and care. There is little occas. for mourning, and no reason for saying the Deign'd, the D<sup>d</sup> hath taken away and kiss'd be the Name of the Lord.

Such a life <sup>offer</sup> to any couple,
such a death <sup>leave</sup> a solace;
let it also be for all an incomparable to set the Lord always before you, for they who

Church real confid<sup>ed</sup> in them as Mr. Zion wh shall not be moved.

El oratorio de Colmo.—Sobre la inauguracion del oratorio de Colmo que anunciamos el 25 en esta misma seccion del diario, hemos recibido de un amigo nuestro las siguientes líneas escritas en la propia hacienda del señor Vicuña Mackenna:

«La ceremonia de inauguracion del oratorio tuvo lugar, en efecto, ayer. Se dijeron tres misas por el señor Casanova y dos presbíteros que lo acompañaban. Conmóvedor, tierno por demas fué ver a catorce niños de ambos sexos y que pertenecen a la escuela «Benjamin Vicuña Mackenna, núm. 11,» hacer su primera comunión y cantar en seguida con voz dulce y cadenciosa una plegaria, que a todos hizo derramar lágrimas y cuya letra, según nuestros apuntes tomados al vuelo, fué poco más o menos:

¡Salve Virgen amorosa,
Estrella y guía del mar,
Ven nuestra pena a calmar
Con tu influencia poderosa!

Ven a calmar nuestra pena,
Diciéndonos que a tu lado
Con amor has colocado
Al gran Vicuña Mackenna.

¡Salve, Virgen del amor,
Nuestra plegaria escuchad
Y del Eterno alcanzad
Para nosotros perdon!

ATHENS 28th.—Greece has been visited by earthquakes which have been most disastrous. In Morea the loss of life reached an enormous figure.

Three hundred villages, Pyrago, and the town of Philiatra are the chief sufferers.

Philiatra has been swallowed up.

Shocks have been experienced throughout the entire country.

ALEXANDRIA 28th.—Violent shocks of earthquake have been felt here.

CHARLESTON 28th.—Another shock of earthquake occurred here this morning.

Un amor infortunado merece compasion; pero un amor ilejítimo, nó. Solo una fatalidad, una verdadera estravagancia del destino, puede castigar al corazon con una plaga igual. Esa desgracia trae la desesperacion o la ignominia. ¿Será ese mi destino? Vergüenza para mí, si alguna vez el desaliento o la desesperacion me arrastrasen a la turbia corriente del vicio!

No, una mujer amada podrá hacer de mí lo que quiera, pero nunca un criminal.

WASHINGTON 4th.—Col. R. M. Batchelor, Depot-Quartermaster, has been ordered to Charleston to distribute aid to the homeless, and render such assistance as may be within the power of his department to extend.

WASHINGTON 4th.—At eleven o'clock last night another shock of earthquake was felt all along the Southern Atlantic Coast from Washington to Jacksonville.

CHARLESTON (S. C.) 4th.—At a minute to eleven last night another terrific shock of earthquake passed through the city.

The people are camping in the public squares, and continue singing and praying.

SCRANTON, PA., 4th.—A distinct shock of earthquake was felt last night.

AUGUSTA 4th.—The shock last night upset everything, and all feel nervous.

SAVANNAH 4th.—Since last night slight vibrations have been felt at ten minute intervals.

CHARLESTON 4th.—There can be no doubt that the shocks had their origin in the Islands of the Mediterranean (Greece and Italy.)

It is rumored that the Government will be asked for a loan of ten millions to rebuild the city.

Monday Nov. 1st. 1886.

I thank the Lord for health and life
to day & till to day. Reflections

1. Have I ever prospered in entire and faultless obed<sup>ce</sup> to God:
to keep my law?

2. Lord I displease

- my former sins

- and presumptions - since

in wh have failed to realize my relation to You as ministers.

O, blot out my offenses &
his own blood! and heal my soul thro the stripes he bore!

3. I now surrender to thee and will keep thy commandments
1. in abstaining from evil
2. And in seeking to bring others to be holy and to repent.
