My Lord,

T was Matter of Regrate, effecially about the Beginning of our Happy Revolution in the Year One Thoufand Six Hundred and Eighty Nine, that the Judicatories of this Church, very much wanted fix'd and effablish'd Rules, for directing their Proceedings; Or, tho', they had them, yet they lay fo fcattered and hid, that Intrants to the Holy Ministry, and the Younger Paftors, yea even fome among the more Aged of that Sacred Order, were too much Strangers to them. The Confideration

ration whereof, did chiefly move me to fet about this Work : And if my Endeavours herein, may but a little contribute to the Benefit or Service of the Office-Bearers and Guides of this Church, it is a Reward greater than I deferve. However, to testifie the Honour and Respect I have for your Lordship, I Dedicate them to You, one of Her Honourable Ruling Elders. It gives no fmall Satiffaction to all Honeft Men who know You, that Ye still Enjoy the Ancient Heretage of Your Honourable Family, in Defpite of all the Illegal Attempts made against both Your Excellent Father and Your Self, under the two Reigns before the Year One Thousand Six Hundred and Eighty Nine. But above all, it is Ground of Praise to G O D, That You Walk in the Steps of fuch a Father, and those of Your Pious Mother. That You may all the Days of Your Life go on, and Serve Your Generation according to the Will of GOD, and in the End be Gathered to Your Godly Progenitors in His Eternal Glory, is the Hope and Wilh of

 $\{\hat{S}_{i}\}$

My LORD,

Your Lordships very

Humble Servant,

WALTER STEUART.

The Preface.

Have already, in my Dedication, binted at the Defign and Usefulness of these Collections, unto the Office-Bearers in this Church ; And if there be yet among them any want of Uniformity or Exactness in the Exercife of the Discipline, Worship and Government thereof, it may not without Ground be imputed to our not Training up the Students of Theologie ex professo at Universities, in the Knowledge of these as well as in Her Doctrine. Therefore, to prevent all Grounds for fearing of such Ignorance, and the bad Effects thereof ; it were fit, that Professions of Divinity were injoined to give their Scholars Leffons on these Subjects : And till a better Compend be composed, these Collections are humbly offered, to be recommended by Professions to their Students: For, except this Subject be studied and understood by Ministers and Elders, their Memories may well be burdened with their Duty, but their Judgments, till then, Shall still remain ignorant and un (atisfied about it.

Now, as for those of our Neighbour Churches in this and the other Island, who now differ from us, I hereby present them with that Form of the House of GOD in SCOTLAND, with which their Pious, Wise and Learned Predecessions did once so Passionately desire Uniformity. So that when ever it shall please our Great and Good GOD to animate their Successions with the like Spirit, they may fall about Building conform to this Pattern. Not that I propose this Work as the Deed of the Church of SCOTLAND, or of any Judicatory therein; only in so far as what is Collected or Observed in it, shall be found Supported by their Acts or Universal Customs.

The Materials of these Collections, and in Particular, of what is said on that Title concerning Parochial Visitations by Presbyteries were chiefly gathered from, and lay (cattered among the Old and Late Manuscript and Printed Acts of General Affemblies, the Overtures concerning Discipline, Transmitted by them to Presbyteries, the Directory for Worthip and Church-Government; And the Conflictutions of some other Churches have been Helpful to the Compleating of the Composure. Befide, I thought it not Improper to Add, here and there, . some Hints of Civil Laws, which I hope the Reader will not find Unuseful or Impertinent, seing there are some Circumstances concerning the Worship of GOD, and the Government of His Church common to Humane Actions and Societies, which are to be Ordered by the Light of Nature and Christian Prudence, according to the General Rules of the Word.

I have divided these Collections into four Books. The First Treats of Church Government, which principally concerns Her Office-Bearers and Judicatories. The Second is concerning the Worship of GOD and Sacred Things, with what Relates to the Maintenance thereof. The Third and Fourth Books Treat of Church-Discipline; The One concerning Errors and Scandals: And the Other about the Method of Reclaiming and Censuring the Erroneous and-Scandalous. E R R A T A.

TITLE I.

Of the Election and Ordination of Pastors.

SI. O UR Lord Jefus Chrift hath inftituted a Government and Governours Ecclefiaftical in HisHoufe, fical Powwith Power to meet for the Order and Government thereof : And to that Purpofe the A-Church, the poffles did immediately receive the Keys from the Hands DivineWarof their Lord and Mafter Jefus Chrift, who hath, from rant and time to time, furnished fome in His Church, with Gifts for Government, and with Commission to exercise it when called thereunto. And it is also agreeable to, and warranted by the Word of God, that fome others, besides those who labour in the Word and Doctrine, be Church-Gover nours to joyn with the Ministers of the Word, in the Government of the Church, and Exercise of Discipline : Which Office-Bearers, Reformed Churches do commonly A call call Ruling Elders. It is likewife agreeable to the fame Word, that the Church be governed by feveral forts of Judicatories, fuch as, Kirk-Seflions, Presbyteries, Provincial and General Affemblies; All which have Power, one in Subordination to the other, to call before them any perfons within their own Bounds, whom the Ecclefiaftical Bufinefs, which is before them, doth concern, either as Party or Witnefs, vide Cap 1. Act 11. Affem. 1707. The Church of Scotland, by this Article, denys the Independency of Presbyteries and Provincial Synods, as much as they do the Independency of a fingle Congregation. But till the Churches become all of one Mind in the Lord, and Civil Rulers become Her Nurfing-Fathers, in their feveral Independent Kingdoms and Governments; It would feem, till these good Days come, the Churches are to manage their own Affairs Independently upon each other : Not that this Independency proceeds either from Scripture or the Nature of the Church, but from Restraint and Misunderstandings. See the last Title of this Book.

But seing the Heretors (especially such as refide in the Parish) and Magistrates, with their Town-Council, in Burghs, are the most lasting as well as the most confiderable Heads of Families, on whose Satisfaction and Afistrance, the comfortable Living of Ministers may much depend, the 33 Act, Self. 2. of K. William and Q. Marie's Parliament hath joyned them (being Protestants) with the Elders in fubscribing of Calls to Ministers. It is to be minded, that both Selfion and Town-Council do subscribe perfonally as the Heretors do. By the above-mentioned Act of Affembly, no perfon, under the Censure of the Kirk, is to be admitted to vote in the Election of a Minister. By

This Church maintains that the Patron's pretendnion of this ed Privilege of a Negative Interest in the Call and Main-Church of tenance of Ministers, is a finful and wronguous Usurpation, without Warrant from the Word of God, destructive of the true Liberties and Intereft of the Church, and most fcandaloufly offenfive to all Ranks of Chriftians therein. This is gathered from their Writings and Sermons, and Act of Affembly August 4. 1649.

Approbation, in that cafe thefe are to be particularly condefcended upon in their Records : Thus the Presbytery is vindicated from Arbitrary Procedure, and Parties concerned have Accefs to make Anfwer for themfelves.

§ 13. If the Call be to a Probationer within the Prefbyteries Bounds, then the Prefbytery is to put him upon Trylected to Expectants, als, in order to Ordination. But if he be under the Infpection of another Presbytery, then the Prefbytery to whom the Call was first prefented, and with which they have concurred, is to write, or fend one of their Number, together with the Parish Commissioners, and defire that Presbytery where the Probationer refides, to concurr with them in offering the Call to him, and Injoyning him to repair to the Bounds to which he is called, and there submitt to the ordinary Tryals, in order to Ordination. How the Call should be profecuted to a fixed Minister, fee in the following Title.

§ 14. It is to be remembred, that no Probationer or Mi-Calling and nifter, is to receive any Call to a vacant Congregation, but Entry of a from the Hands of the Presbytery to which they belong : Minister is For, it is by their Determination, that the Calling and En-to be directry of a Minister is to be ordered and concluded. As alfo, the 1cth Act, Cap. 1ft. of the French Church Difcipline: Wherein they agree, that Minifters fhall not be ordained, without afligning them a particular Flock.

S 16. By the fame Article Ministers must be fit for the fould be Flocks which shall be assigned unto them. And by the Assistant futed to ci their Post: of Assembly 1596, ratified December 1638, it is determined, That becaufe Men may be fit for some places, who are not meet for others: The principal Places are to be provided with Men of most worthy Gifts, and none are to accept of a greater Charge than they are able to discharge. Indeed when a Minister is endowed with Prudence, and hath Love and Refpect from his People, a greater Charge will be eafier to him than to another.

§ 17. On a Probationer's accepting of the Call of a Pa-Tryals of an rifh, which is understood to be done when he fubmitts . himfelf to the Presbytery to undergo his Tryals in order to Ordination, he is by them to be tryed, as when he was Licens'd (for which fee that Title) except the Homilies and previous Catechetick Tryals. When the Presbytery is fatisfied of his Tryals, they fend one of their Number to preach in that Congregation, and after Forenoons Sermon, to intimate to them, that the Probationer whom they have called to be their Minister, his Edict was now to be ferved. Which Edict, after Reading by him or the Precenter, is to be affixed by the Beddal upon the most patent Church-Door : The Tenor whereof is as followeth.

§ 18. This Prefbytery having received a Call from the Parish of to Mr. A. B. Preacher of the Gospel, to be their Minister, and finding the same orderly proceeded, and the faid Mr. A. B. having undergone all the parts of his Tryal, in order to his Ordination; And the Prefbytery upon the whole judging him Qualified to be a Minister of the Gofpel, and fit to be Paftor of this Congregation, have refolved to proceed, unlefs fomething occurr which may justly impede the fame: And therefore do hereby give notice to all perfons, especially the Members of this Congregation, that if any of them have any thing to object, why the faid Mr. A. The Presbytery meeting as it was appointed by The Edict the Preceeding, for receiving the Execution of the Edict, Returned & which ought to be ten free Days after ferving of the fame, the Minister who was appointed to preach at serving of the Edict, is to give an Account of his Diligence, and return the Edict indorfed by himfelf or the Precenter and Beddal. Then the Presbytery is to order their Officer three feveral times, at the most patent Door of the Church, to give Notice, that if there be any there who has any thing to object against the perfon called his being their Minister, they may come and do it to the Presbytery, with Certification, as in the Edict.

§ 20. If there be no material Impediment found, the Ordination Presbytery is to name a convenient Day within lefs than Day fet, and ten Days, if it can be, for their Meeting to ordain the intimated : Candidate at the Church of the Congregation to which he And what is to belong. The Day appointed for his Ordination, is to Day molt be intimated from the Pulpit on the Lord's Day preceed-convenient ing, inviting all to be prefent, and telling them that they for the Fast. are to set apart that Day as a Fast to be by them observed with more than ordinary Supplication, for the Affiftance and Bleffing of GOD upon the Ordinance of Chrift, and Labours of his Servant. But the Ordination Day is more proper for Thanksgiving than Fasting, and Experience may confirm us herein : For we find, that on the Account of fome things convenient to be done that Day, another before were fitter to be observed for the Fast.

Other Churches have likewife very ned. much regarded the Age of Intrants to the Ministery, for by the 14 Canon Concilii Sexti in Trullo, It is faid, Sanctorum Divinorumque patrum nostrorum Canon in kis quoque valeat, ut Presbyter ante trigesimum annum non ordinetur, etiamsi sit bomo valde dignus; Which Canon agrees with the 11th Concil. Neocasar. This Church hath likeways a special Regard to the Literature of Intrants (of which more afterterwards) And it is generally efteemed an Effential Accomplifhment, that they fhould have the Latine Tongue : For you'll fee in the Supplement to Calderwood's Hiftory, that in

Yet in the mean time, till fuch an Occasion of Removal be offered, they do appoint him to exerce his Ministry in that Parish; Whereby his Right to intromett with the Benefice continueth as formerly, the Act of Transportability being occasioned thro the Peoples Fault. But this Act will be but rarely fought in a well planted Church; And, without granting it, the Prefbytery may use innocent and prudent Methods for obtaining a Call to their grieved Brother from fome vacant Parish, which will as effectually answer the End as such an Act can do. Upon the whole, this Practice hath been but rare, and its Expediencie, to fay no more of it, is difputed by many.

Of Doctors, and Brofeffors of Theologie.

§ 1. A Coording to the fifth Chapter of the Policy of The Sensi-the Kirk in the General Affembly 1581. the ments of this Office of the Doctor or Catechizer, is one of Church a-the two ordinary and perpetual Functions that Travel in Doctor's Ofthe Word. He is to open up the Mind of the Spirit of fice. He is no God fimply, without fuch Applications as the Ministers Pastor as ufe : They are fuch properly who teach in Schools, Col-fuch. leges, or Universities. But to preach unto the People, to administer the Sacraments, and to celebrate Marriage, do not pertain to him, except he be Called and ordained thereto. If the Paftor be qualified for it, he may perform all the parts of the Doctor's Office, that being included in the Pastoral. By the 2d Article Cap. 11. of the Discipline of the French Church, a Doctor in the Church cannot preach nor administer the Sacraments, unless he be both Doctor and Minister. And when the General Assembly February 10. 1645. ratifies the Propositions sent to them from the Affembly of Divines at Westminster; concerning Church Government, and Ordination of Ministers. They expresly provide, that the present Ratification shall be noways ways prejudicial to the further Discussion and Examination of one of the Articles or Propositions, which holds forth, that the Doctor or Teacher hath power of the Administration of Sacraments, as well as the Pastor.

S 2. Though the Office of a Deacon is included in the or Doctors, Office of a Ruling Elder, yet it is fit that fome be appoinfould Teach ted Deacons, diffinct from that of the Elder : So, albeit the in Colleges Office of a Doctor be included in that of the Paftor, yet it and in large were very fit that fome not in the Sacred Order of the Mi-Parifhes. This Cumulative Power doth noways Pastor can be compelled prejudge or hinder the Faculty of an University (which to give him- hath Power and Right to Elect) from doing of the fame. It felftoteach-were to be wished, that this Custom of Synods reporting to ing & leave General Assemblies the Names of fuch as are fit to be Probis Pastoral fessors, were again Revived, and more exactly practifed : Charge. For it would prevent the Transporting of Ministers to be only Teachers or Masters in Universities which is an Ap-only Teachers or Mafters in Universities, which is an Appointing of him to exercise the Office of a Doctor, and difpensing with him from preaching of the Word and adminiftrating of the Sacraments : Which Dispensation, or the loosing of which Tye, if it be a Favour, it can never be imposed upon any Pastor without his own Confent; But if it be a Punishment, it can be inflicted upon none without their Fault. It is liker a Commutation of Offices than a Transportation : Or if he still continue to be a Pastor, his Pastoral Paftoral Talent is thereby but much hid in a Napkine; By the 3d Article 2d Chap. of the French Church Difcipline, Doctors and Professions of Divinity shall be Elected and Tryed by the Synods of the Province where the Academics are.

§ 4. By the 5th Chap. of the Policy of the Kirk of Scotland, the Doctor being an Elder is to affift the Paftor in as fuch no Ruthe Government of the Kirk. And by the Act of Affembly ling Elder, nor August 4. 1643. Professions of Theology cannot be elected as meerDoctor, Commissioners to General Affemblies, except they be Mi-ber of Affemnisters: So that, as Doctors they are not Ruling Elders, blies. and the Affembly consists of none tut Pastors and Elders : Therefore as Doctors they cannot be Members of Church Judicatories for Government and Ruling, vide §. 1. Where it follows, that, feing this Office is of Divine Inftitution, it is an Unwarrantable Omiffion in fome Congregations, that either they put no Difference betwixt Elders and Deacons, or elfe they Neglect to Appoint any to the Office of a Deacon. Vide § 2. Tit. 6. I do not think it Reafonable or very Confiftent, for any to be Zealous against adding to the Kinds of Office-Bearers of CHRIST'S Appointment, while, they are Active in, or Connive at the Diminution of any of them. If it be faid, the Elder is a Deacon : I Anfwer, Albeit the Paftor includes the Office of Doctor, Elder, and Deacon, Yet feing these are of Divine Institution, Reverence is in fo far due unto it as to fet up these distinct Offices : As nothing should be added to the Divine Institution, upon pretence of imagined Decency or Order in the Invention, fo no-thing ought to be Diminished therefrom, upon pretence

They are to take Care that what belongs to the Poor be not Dilapidated, or Mifapplyed. 6. They are to acquaint the Ministers and Elders of the Sick within their Quarters. that fo they may be Visited, and, if Need be, Supplied. 7. By the 9th Chap. of the Policy of the Kirk, Deacons were not only to Collect and Diftribute the Ordinar Alms, but all the Church-Goods, Tiends, Oc. and uplift and pay to the Ministers their Stipends. This were indeed a Work proper for their Office, an Eafe to the Minister, and would prevent much Noife and Offence that is raifed when Charges to make Payment are given, either at their own Iustance, or in Name of their Assignie's or Factors. 8. the Moderator be always a Minister. But if any affect this Office, he should be Opposed in his Ambitious Purpofes. The Perfon chofen to be a Moderator would be of fuch Abilities that he can Difcharge the following Work, viz. He is to look on himfelf as the Mouth of the Meeting; He is to take on him Authority, yet looking on it as theirs, not his; He is to fee all the Rules for Decency and Order, prefcribed by the Judicatorie, exactly kept and observed ; He is to acquaint the Judicatorie of all the Affairs that ly before them, and may propofe the most speedie Method how to Dispatch them; He is to keep the Members from Interrupting one another, and from fpeaking among themfelves, or from di-recting their Difcourfe to any other than to himfelf ; He would likwife keep Members, in their fpeaking, clofs to the prefent Bufinefs; Any thing that is fpoken Impertinentlie, he is calmlie to Refent it, according to its Demerit, that greater Heats may be prevented and diverted. Laftly, After the Matter hath been fully Reafoned on all hands, then he is Briefly to Refume the Subftance of what liath been spoke, and thereupon state the Vote, and put the Question. If the Vote be Equally Carried, then the Moderator (who never Votes but in that Cafe) may cast it : And if he be non liquet, then the Question may. be put again at fome other time. The Moderator may likewife upon any extraordinary Emergent by his Circular Letters, Conveen Prefbyteries and Synods before their ordinary time of Meeting. So may the Moderator of the last General Affembly, Only they would be fure to have fufficient Ground, and fo Cautions, as to have a Multitude of Counfellors to Warrand and Support their Adventure.

Every Prefbytebe Colleagues they Moderate by Turns. Every Prefbyteric, before they fall about Bufinefs, choofe one of their Brethren to be Moderator, who continues for Six Moneths, from one provincial Synod to another : But the Moderators of Synods and Affemblies are changed at every new Synod and Affemblie. The manner of choofing the Moderators of thefe Judicatories is this, A Lift is propofed by the former Moderator of Two or Three, which Lift is ordinarly Approved, with the Addition of One or Two more ; Out of which Lift, the Candidates having firft by Turns given their Voice and Removed, the Moderator is chofen by the Suffrages of the Minifters and Elders, and fet in the place of the former Moderator.

The Privi-S 4. It is the Privilege of all the Members of any free lege of Mem-Judicatory, to propole a Vote and have it put to the Oueffion, provided it be Seconded by another Member, and that albeit both the Moderator and other Members fhould Oppole the Motion.

A Clerk, his Election, Admiffion, Acts. They are, I think, as free Courts, as any Councils continuance. of Royal Burghs, on whom the Impofing a Clerk, is declared to have been contrary to Law, by the Meeting of Effates Eftates 1689. At his Admission he is to give his Oath de fideli, and continues either during Pleasure or Life as they please to make. But in case neither of these be clearly express in his Act of Admission, then it is to be understood only during Pleasure, because all Judicatories are still supposed to retain their Liberty to Dississ Servants when they will, unless a Surrender or Restriction of that Liberty be proven.

§ 2. Acts and Deeds under Clerks hands are probative Writs, and the Warrants thereof are prefumed; Yet fo as if they be Recently Quarrelled, the Warrants muft be produced. No wife Clerk will give an Extract till the Minutes of that Diet have first been read. The Extracts prove what was done by the Judge, or what was faid or alledged by Parties, but they do not prove that the Things alledged were True, except in fo far as the Instructions thereof are Exprest. Vide Stair's Institut. Pag. 688.

§ 3. They are in most Congregations Clerks to the Church-Seffions. Vid. Lib. 2. • Tit. of Singing of Pfalms.

§ 6. Beddals, or Beadles, are by our Judicatories called their Office & Officers : They are to the Church what the Apparitores were to Civil Courts, viz. Magistratuum Ministri, qui eorum jussa exequantur, so called, quia prosto sunt, obsequenturq; Magistratibus. At their Admission they give their Oath de fideli, because their Executions bear Faith. They should be Persons of a Blameless Life, and well Affected to the Church Eftablishment, who will not Difcover the Secrets of the Judicatory, and they should alfo be fuch as can Read and Write.

§ 6. In every Seffion there ought to be twice in the Year Pricy Cenprivy Cenfures of the Members, Clerk and Beddal. The Jures in Seffi-Minifters undergoing their privy Cenfures in the Prefbytery, are not to undergo them before the Seffion. In the managing of this Cenfure, the Members are one after another to be removed, and then the reft of the Members declare what they have Otferved concerning the Converfation of him removed, and of his Diligence and Prudence in his Station. It is to Remembred by all Church Judicatories at their privy Cenfures, that no Member Judicially delate another, unlefs fecret Satisfaction hath been fought and refufed. After Elders, Deacons, Clerk and Beddal have paft their Cenfure, each of them, as they are called in, is either to be Admonifhed before all, or others Impowered to do it privately, or elfe they are to be encouraged as need requireth.

§ 9. By the 4th Article of the fifth Chap. of the French The Church- Church Difcipline, it shall not be permitted to establish other Council for any Church Business whatsoever, and if in any for Reforma- other Church, there shall any other Council be established, tion of Man- different from the Confiftory, it shall forth-with be suppresners in a Pa- fed; Neverthelefs, the Confistory may fometimes call to its Aid fuch of the Church as shall be thought convenient, and that Ecclefiaftical Matters be treated of only in the place where the Confistory doth affemble. They have lately erected in England Societies for Reformation of Manners, not without fome feeming Succefs against Vice and Immorality, which is Commendable and Requilite there, until the Difcipline and Government of their Church be more Pure, and better Reformed. But for the Church of Scotland, as now established, to imitate that Example, beside that it might become an Introduction to Innovations, it would refemble a vain Youth his bringing wide fleev'd Coats in fafhion, becaufe fome Perfons of Quality, who had a Distemper in their Arms, were necessitated to cause make them wide for their own Eafe. The Author of The Stage condemn'd, page 45. proves Stage-plays to be condemn'd in Scrip-ture by this Argument, That which God hath appointed fufficient Means to accomplish, it is unlawful for Men to appoint other Means to accomplifh it. But God hath appointed fufficient Means for recommending Vertue and difcountenancing Vice without the Stage : Ergo, It is unlawful for Men to appoint the Stage for recommending Vertue and difcountenancing Vice. And the fame Argument, mutatis mutandis, militates against these new Lay-Societies for Reformation of Manners in the Church.

§ 1. THIS Judicatory confifts of all the Paftors with- The Confti-in the Bounds, and one Ruling Elder from thents of a each Parish therein who receives a Commissi- Presbytery, on from the Eldership to be a Member of the Presbytery, their Quor-um, and time and represent them there till the next Synod be over; of Meeting. Thus twice a Year there are new Elections of the Ruling Elders. The Number of Parishes affociated in Presbyteries for their mutual Help, is determined by Authority of the National Synod, December 17, 18. 1638. Art. 8. as the Adjacency of the Congregations, and the Eafinefs of Travelling doth beft allow. Where there are Collegiate Minifters, that Seffion may fend as many Ruling Elders. The Directory for Government faith, That, to perform any Claffical Act of Government or Ordination, there shall be present, at least, a Major part of the Ministers of the whole Claffis. Presbyteries should meet every third Week, and oftner if Business require it; But of this see § 3. b. t.

§ 2. Every Meeting of a Presbytery is to begin with a Presbyterial Sermon by one of the Brethren appointed formerly for that Exercises and Effect, upon a Text affigned him by them, except when Common Head! -Probationers or Intrants fupply the Pulpit in their publick Tryals. The half of the Time allowed for this Prefbyterial Exercife is to be taken up in the Explicatory and Analytick Part of the Text, and in answering Textual and Critical Questions and Difficulties ; This part of the Work . is called Making, & requires more especially the Gift of the Doctor. The other half of the time allowed is to be taken up

§ 3. By the forefaid Act 1638. Prefbyterial Meetings are to be Weekly, except in places far diftant, who between the first of October and first of April, are dispensed with for Meeting once in the fourteen Days, vide § 1. H.T. Likeways that Act appoints all Abfents to be cenfured, efpecially those that should Exercise and Add, according to the Act of Affembly 1582 April 24.

Matterstreabyteries.

§ 4. The Prefbytery treats of fuch Matters as concern ted of in Pres- the particular Churches within their Bounds, as, the Examination, Admission, Ordination, and Cenfuring of Minifters; The Licenfing of Probationers, Rebuking of grofs or contumacious Sinners; The directing of the Cenfure of Excommunication; The Cognoscing upon References and Appeals from Kirk Seffions; The Revifing and Rectifying what liath been ill done or negligently omitted by them, at their approving of the Kirk-Seffion Books and Records; The answering of Questions, Cases of Conscience, and solving of Difficulties in Doctrine or Discipline, with Petitions from their own or those in other Presbyteries; The Examining and Cenfuring according to the Word of God, any erroneous Doctrine, which hath been publickly or more privately vented within their Bounds, and the endeavouring the Re-

Reducing and Conversion of any that remain in Errour and Schifm; The appointing of Visitation of Churches by themfelves as Occasion offers, or the Perambulation of Parishes in Order to their Uniting or Difjoyning; All which are either concluded or continued to further Confideration, or -referr'd to the Synod.

§ 5. By the 6th Chap. II Act of Assemb. 1707. there are Proce Tes fome Proceffes which natively begin at the Kirk-Seffion, which begin but cannot be which for the Atrocity of the Scandal, or Difficulty in the determined by Affair, or general Concern ; The Sellion having frequent the Sellion, but Meetings of the Presbytery to have Recourse unto, do not referr'd to the determine of themfelves, such as Scandals of Incest, Adul-Presbytery, as tery, Trilaple in Fornication, Murder, Atheifm, Idolatry, Competent. Witch-craft, Charming, Herefy and Errour vented and made publick by any in the Congregation, Schifm and Separation from the publick Ordinances, Proceffes in Order to the highest Cenfure, and continued Contumacy. But Proceffes for all fuch Crimes and Scandals, are to be referr'd to the Prefbytery, by an Extract of their Procedure thereanent. And when there is no Confession of the Scandals above-mentioned, the Seffion is not fo much as to proceed to lead Probation by Witneffes or Prefumptions, till they be Authorized thereto by the Presbyteries Answer to their Reference forefaid.

§ 6. When the Process is fo clear, as in the case of a Ju-When the dicial Confession, then the Kirk-Session may fummond the Session may Delinquent when before them Apud Acta, to compear be- cite a perfore fore the Prefbytery : But where there is any Difficulty, tery. they should first inform the Presbytery, and get their Allowance before the Party be fummoned before them.

§ 7. It is Recommended, that a Correspondence be kept among Prefbyteries conftantly by Letters, whereby they may be mutually affifting to each other.

§ 9. In every Presbytery, at least twice a Year, on Days bures in Pres- for Prayer, as should be done in Sessions likeways, before byteries, their each Synod, there ought to be privy Cenfures, whereby each Minister is removed by Course, and then Enquiry is made at the Paftors and Elders, if there be any known Scandal, Fault, or Negligence in him, that it may be in a Brotherly Manner Cenfured; After the Ministers, the Presbytery Clerk's to pass these Censures likeways. By the 6th Article of the 7th Chapter of the French Church Difcipline, at the end of the Colloquies, Amicable and Brotherly Cenfures shall be made, as well by the Pastors as by the Elders, which shall be there prefent, of all things which shall be thought fit to Represent unto them.

TITLE XIII.

Of Parochial Visitations by the Presbytery.

Visitations Occasional or Ordinary.

§ 1. PARISHES are visited by Presbyteries, either Oc-casionally, pro re nata, according to the weight of the Emergent which doth require the Vifitation, or Ordinarly and in Courfe, whereby every Congregational Church is visited once a Year Astem. 1638. Seff. 23, 24. Art. 3. At least this Ordinary Visitation should be going round all the Parishes in Order till they be Visited, before others be Revisited in Ordinary: For by the 16th AE of Affem. 1706. The Confitwents of a Synod, their Time of Meeting, &c. m

1. The Synod or Provincial Affembly is immediate-ly Superior to the Prefbytery, and confifts of feveral Presbyteries met together for their mutual Help and Comfort, and for Managing the Affairs of publick Concern within their Bounds. The Number of Prefbyteries in each Synod is Determined by the National Affembly, and they meet ordinarly Twice every Year, and at fuch fet Times as the Neighbouring Synods may conveniently Correspond one with another, which is done by fending a Minister and Ruling-Elder mutually from one to another, viz. The Provincials of Lothian, Mers, &c. The Provincials of Drumfreis, Galloway, Glafgow, and Argyle, The Provincials of Perth, Fife and Angus, &c. The Provincials of Aberdeen and Murray; The Provincials of Rofs, Caitbness and Orknay; See likeways the Order of the Provincial Affemblies in Scotland, according to the Presbyteries therein contained in the Act of Affembly, Decem. 17, 18. 1638. In making up the Synod Roll it is ufual to change the Order thereof every Synod, fo that the Prefbytery that was first called in the Roll of the former Synod is now called last. Then the Synod proceeds to the choife of a New Moderator, who first calls for the Correspondents from the Neighbouring Synods : and their Commissions being Read, they are Inrolled as Correspondents.

§ 3. Committees are to prepare Matters, and to lop off Committees unneceffary Work for gaining of Time, and to hinder of Synods their Heats by publick Debates, and to facilitate their Work, Ufe they may Sub-commit any part thereof to a few of their own Number; And they may likewife Advife one with another in weighty Affairs, even before Report to the Synod, thereby the more to prevent Debates. Any Affair Tabled before them, though by them Rejected, may be brought in, in full Synod, Yet fo, as the Member or Party who bringeth in the Matter, be fure to have very much Reason or Necessity for so doing. All Synods may have the following Committees. 1. A Committee for. Overtures; 2. Another for Bills, References and Appeals; And a 3d For Revifing Presbyterie Books, who are to meet at fuch Times & Places as the Synod appoints : Each Committee and Sub-Committee is to confift of Ministers and Ruling-Elders : The Moderator and Clerk of the Synod is Moderator and Clerk to the Committee of Overtures. The Form now is more Solemn.

§ 17. But now these Commissions are more Pompous and Solemn, passing in Latine under the Great Seal. Sometimes they have been Complex, cloathing the Commissioners with somewhat of a Vice-Roy-ship in the State, as well as Commissioner miffioner to the Affembly : Thus it's faid the Marquifs of Hamilton, and Earl of Traquair their Commiffions were in the Years 1638. and 1639. The Commiffions granted fince the Revolution, you may fee in the printed Acts of Affemblies. Though these Commiffioners be respected in the Affemblies, and about Affembly Affairs, as Representing the Sovereign's Person; Yet I doubt if they could claim any Place or Precedency in Meetings of State, meerly as Commissioners to the Affembly. But this is still kept undecided, as appears by their Disappearing at such Mettings while the General Affembly is stiting.

Thus it was done in the Affembly at Glafgow 1638. After Sermon the Members go into the Affembly-Houfe, where, after Prayer by him who preached, a new Moderator is chofen in the manner before-mentioned, their Clerk continuing by Commiflion, fometimes during Life. It is to be remembred that before the new Moderator is chofen, the Rolls mult first be made up, and at the calling of each Prefbytery, Burgh and University, their Commission is Read. After the Affembly is thus conftitute, the Person reprefenting the Sovereign, produceth their Commission to Him for that Effect, and ordinarly a Letter alfo from the Sovereign to the Affembly, both which are publickly read with

And all the time of the Commiffioner's Prefence, the Members fit difcovered. The Commiffioner ordinarly has a Difcourfe to the Affembly, affuring them of their Majeftie's Protection, and continued Favour, and he Intreats them to Unanimity and Difpatch in their Affairs; To which the new Moderator useth in Name of the Affembly to make a fhort and futeable Return, both which are likewife Recorded.

Therefore by the 17th Act

Act of Affembly 1700. All Perfons are Difcharged to prefume to print any Petition, Appeal, Reafons, or Anfwers, or any part of any Process to be brought in to the General Affembly, or any other Church Judicatory, without Leave given by them, with Certification that the fame shall not be Read nor Confidered.

Prayer.

A Diet for § 24. It is the laudable Cuftom of Affemblies, before they begin clofs to their Work, to appoint betwixt Nine and Twelve in the Fore-noon, to be fet apart by the Members for publick Prayer in the Affembly-Houfe, to the Almighty GOD, for His Countenancing and Directing them in the Matters that shall come before them : Where the Commissioner is likewife pleased to attend and join in Prayer : As may be feen in the first Three printed As of Affembly fince the Revolution, and among the Indices of Unprinted Acts thereafter.

Matters treated in A Temblies.

$ 25. Conform to Antient Cuftom, by the 3d. At of Affembly 1702. All Synod Books are appointed to be punctually brought in and prefented to the General Affembly Yearly, in the Beginning thereof : Which Books, after hearing a Report concerning them, from the Committee appointed to Revife them, the Affembly does Approve or Diffallow thereof as they find Ground. All References from Synods, Appeals, Grievances, Petitions and Complaints are here Examined and Anfwered : Acts and Conftitutions for all the Churches are Agreed upon with common Confent, conform to the 9th AEt of Allembly 1697, of which hereafter about preventing of Innovations. Here Courfe is taken for Planting of Churches with well Qualified Ministers : Rules are fet down, by which Inferiour Judicatories shall be directed in all their Proceedings. It is their Business to see that the fmall part of the Patrimony of the Church yet remaining be preferved and rightly Applyed. They join or disjoin Parishes from Presbyteries, and Presbyteries from Synods : They

They Indict National Fafts and Thankf-givings : They are concerned to appoint fit Perfons and Methods for drawing up the Hiftory of the Church : They alfo ought to take care that Works of Charity, for Sustentation of the Poor, be promoted. By the Wildom and Authority of this Affembly, Gangrens of Errours and Divisions are prevented, that they fpread not against Truth and Unity. But they Decline to Meddle in these 'Matters they judge' Civil, as being Incompetent to them, as may be feen by the Index of Unprinted Acts of Affembly 1690. Church Judicatories ought not to meddle formally with Civil Matters, no more than the State ought to meddle formally with Matters Ecclefiaftick ; but the Object materially Confidered may be the fame, and fall under Confideration, both of Church and State, in different Respects. By the 5th Article of the 31 Chapter of our Confession, Synods or Councils are to handle or Conclude nothing but what is Ecclefiaftical, and are not to Intermeddle with Civil Affairs which concern the Common-Wealth, unlefs by way of Humble Petition in Cafes Exteaordinary, or by way of Advice for Satisfaction of Confcience, if they be thereunto required by the Civil Magistrate.

§ 26. What Matters General Affemblies cannot overtake Committions themfelves, they do Refer to their Committions; In of General Afpropriety of Speech they do Import the fame thing with Jemblies, their Committees; Yet, de praxi, a Committee is appointed only to prepare Matters, whereas a Committion determines in Matters committed to them, and from whofe Sentence therein there lieth no Appeal to the Enfuing General Affemblie, though a Complaint may be Tabled before the next Affemblie against the Commission their Proceedings. The Power of the General Affemblie is never Lodged in them, as to making Acts in any Cafe : And it is both more Expedient and Decent that the Affemblie Determine in Cafes of Appeals from Synods, where they have been L † unanimous unanimous in their Sentence, than to Refer the final Decifion to a Commission, who may be of a smaller Number than the Synod, and whofe Quorum is but about the Eighth Part of fome Synods. Delegation, or Commission to Determine, feems inconfistent with the Principles of Prefbyterial Government : For if the Affemblies of the Church can give Power to Delegates to determine in one Point, they may in more, and confequently in all, and thereby may introduce a Prelacy. General Affemblies should not give any other Delegations but Executive, except in Extraordinary Cafes : For they being Delegates themfelves, ought least of any Church Affembly to Delegate : And if they can commit their Power to Twenty one, certainly they may commit the fame to Fourteen. Commissions may have Sub-Committees for Preparing and Reporting, but not to Determine, or fo as to Roll the Commission upon them. The Commission and the Pro-ceedings, and Register of their Actings are always subject. to the Cenfure of a General Affembly; If the Affembly do not, appoint their Moderator and Clerk to attend them in those Stations, they may then Nominate their own Moderator and Clerk. Their Quorum is Twenty One, whereof Fifteen to be always Ministers, and they continue till a New General Affembly meet, as may be feen in the Printed Commissions in the Acts of Assemblies.

^d § 27. The General Affembly by their 6th Aft 1705. Does appoint that the whole Prefbyteries of this National Church be Equally Reprefented in Commiss, and that their Reprefentation be proportioned to the Number of Ministers that are in each Prefbyterie; The Old Minifters which were Ordained before the Year 1662, being always supernumerary : and that two or three of the Members of the General Affemblie in each Synod, be appointed as a Committee to Name the Members of the Commission. Commission, and that the whole Representatives of Presbyteries in the feveral Synods at Affemblies, do meet by themfelves, and Name their Respective Members of the faid Committee. And the General Affemblie by the fame Act, does appoint the Expenses of the faids Commiffioners to be born and Defrayed by the feveral Prefbyteries which they Reprefent, according to the Number of the Days of their Attendance; and that their Presbyteries take Care to Supplie their Charges with Preaching during their Absence, on the Account forefaid.

§ 28. The General Affemblie by their 6th Act 1703, Abfents from does Require the Members of the Commission to give all how centured. due Attendance thereon, as they will be Anfwerable, which Members are Condefcended upon by the 15th Act of Assemblie 1705, to be one at least of that Number of the feveral Prefbyteries who are Members of the Commiffion, and they are to attend the Meetings thereof by Turns. And Prefbyteries are Ordained to fend in to the Commission, the Names of such as they have appointed to attend the feveral Diets thereof. And by the forefaid Act 1703, the Clerks of the Commission are Ordained to Record Lifts of the Absents from each Quarterly Meeting, and from the Meetings in time of Parliament, or who shall go away therefrom without Leave first obtained, and fend an Extract of their Names to the Respective Synods, who are Impartially to Cenfure them, and make Report thereof to the next General Assemblie : And to this Effect, the Clerks of the Commission are Ordered to lay before that Assemblie the Lifts of these Absents. And in the Instructions to the Commission 1708, all Presbyteries within Twelve Miles of Edinburgh are Difcharged to Meet during Sitting of the Commission.

§ 29. Some few Years ago, the Presbyteries of this Delegates Church, conform to what had been before practifed, did from Presby-Delegate One of their Number, being a Minister, to Re-teries to attend L 2 † pair pair to the City where the Parliament did fit, and during that time attend, and Watch ne guid detrimenti caperet Ecclesia. But the Commission confisting of both Ministers 'No lawful and Elders, without which no Ecclefiaftical Judicatorie or Church Court Committee thereof can be Lawful (vid. § 4. b. t.) and without Elders. alfo, that all the Prefbyteries are therein Reprefented, and that the Commission now is Ordered to Attend in time of Parliament; the former Meeting of fuch Delegates is now-Supplied more conveniently by the Meeting of the Commiffion; and I am fure, much more Legally both by Church and State Conftitutions : For neither do Authorize any other Ecclefiaftical Judicatorie but Affemblies, Synods, Prefbyteries and Kirk-Seffions, or their Committees, confifting of Minifters and Ruling-Elders. And the Act of Parliament 1690, Ratifying the Confession of Faith, and Settling Presbyterian Church Government, doth Eftablifh the Exercise of that Church Government in the Hands of Ministers and Ruling Elders. And it may be doubted if the State would Correspond with fuch Delegates, or Regard Addreffes from them, their Meetings. wanting the Stamp, both of Civil and Ecclefiaftical Authority.

Members of Allembly should have Tickets for Access. § 30. In the Act of Affemblie, 29th July 1640. Art. 2d. Concerning Ordering the Affemblie Houfe, The Commiflioners to General Affemblies are to receive Tickets from the Magistrates of the Burgh where the Affemblie fits at the Delivery of their Commiflions, whereby they may have ready Accefs to the Affembly Houfe : and this Act is renewed by the Affemblie 1690, and is among the Unprinted Acts.

Abjents from Affemblies how Cenfared.

§ 31. By that fame Act, Whatfoever Prefbyterie, Burgh or Universitie shall not fend Commissioners, is to be Summoned to the next General Assemblie, to be Cenfured by them as they find reasonable. And by the 6th Act of Assemblie 1699, Such Commissioners as do not attend attend duely from the beginning and through the whole Diets of the General Affembly, and the Committees which they may be put upon, not having a Relevant Excufe, may be Cenfured as the Affembly fhall think fit.

§ 32. The Stile of Acts of the General Affembly, runs thus; The General Affembly Appoints and Ordains, and Acts of Af-fometimes Recommends. Thir Acts fhould rather be like fembly, and Directions from the Chair, than Difcourses from the pul-Petitions pit. Which Authority doth not fo properly confift in making of Laws, as it doth in declaring what their Lord and Mafter hath already appointed. And though Ecclefiaftical Conftitutions should be Enacted in the Sovereign's Name and Authority, yet thefe could never bind the Subjects as fuch, becaufe the Legiflative Power 1s lodged in the Sovereign and Eftates of Parliament, and in them only : Hence all Petitions to the General Affembly are only Addreffed to the Moderator and Members thereof, and not to the Sovereign nor His Commissioner, though present: For Petitions can be prefented to none, but to fuch as those in whose Name and Authority they are granted.

And by the Book of Canons put in Form for the Government of the Church of Scotland, by English Bishops their Counfel and Influence and approved by King Charles I. His Proclamation dated at Greenwich the 23d day of May 1635, It is appointed, that National Synods called by His Majeftie's Authority, for Matters concerning the State of the Church in general, shall bind all perfons as well abfent as prefent, to the Obedience of the Decrees thereof in Matters Ecclefiaftical. And if any shall affirm or maintain that a National Synod fo affembled ought not to be obeyed, he shall be Excommunicated till he publickly Repent and Revoke his Errour.

Advocate or Procurator, Sollieitor or Kirk.

§ 34. Befide the Clerk of Affembly there ufeth to be an Advocate or Procurator for the Kirk chosen by them who Agent for the was to advise them in Matters of Civil Right, and to plead what concerns the Right of the Church before Civil Courts, and in his Name Summonds are raifed before the Commission of Parliament for Plantation of Kirks, or Lords of Seffion. The Agent or Sollicitor for the Kirk is likewife Elected by the Affembly, and he Acts and Agents their Business in fuch Order as they appoint him. Their Agent was priviledg'd to be present at all the Meetings of that Commission of Parliament, even when they acted with clofs Doors. In the late Prelatick Times, the King's Sollicitor was by His Patent conftitute Solicitor for the Church too : But whether in this Government Her Majestie's Advocate be also by his Patent conftitute Advocate for the Church, is a Thing I cannot cannot certainly affert. The Agent has the Care put upon him of fending Difpatches to the feveral Prefbyteries.

§ 35. All Church Judicatories at every Rifing appoint The Adjour-their next Sitting, fo that their Meetings are not precari-ning and Dif-ous and uncertain, but Intirely and Intrinfically, as to their folving of Af-Time and Frequency, lodged in the Will and Difcretion Jemblies and other Church-of the Plurality of the Members of Her Respective Judica-Judicatories. tories. The Kirk-Sefsion, being properly the only Radical Church Judicatory, not confifting of Delegate, but of perpetuat and fixed Members, cannot be at any time diffolved. but by themfelves are adjourned from time to time : Albeit. they use to begin and conclude the Number of their Sefsions, at and after the Presbytery hath approved of their Proceedings. All Church Judicatories, but efpecially this, were called Confistories, where the Judges did stand in Administring Justice (vide STAIR's Instit. pag. 524) And. even yet, their Moderators, Presidents, or Prolocutors do ftand; as the Mouth of their Meetings: Prefbyteries are . Radical as to the Paftors, and Delegate as to the Ruling Elders, (vide Tit. 12. § 1.) For the first Presbytery after each ordinary Meeting of the Synod, when new Elections of Elders are returned, that Prefbytery doth begin the first Session thereof, and so other Sessions of the fame continue till the next Synod in ordinary be over. And Provincial Synods confifting of Prefbyteries, they do in part diffolve twice a Year, and fo the Synodical Seffions are counted from one ordinary Synod to the next ordinary Meeting of another Synod: But National Affemblies being Annual, and confifting all of Delegates, as liath been faid, the Seffions thereof are counted from their first Meeting until they part and diffolve in the fame place, at least by the Conftitutions and Practice of this Church, until, and no longer than the ordinary time for a new Annual Affembly : For no doubt, an Astembly, if the Affairs of the Church fo require, may Translate, and also continue their Meeting, as was -

was done Anno 1641. but it neceffarly diffolves before the Year. At the clofing of every Seffion of the Affembly, the Moderator appoints the next Dyet, in Prefence, and with Confent of the Members; Then He turns to the Commiffioner and acquaints His Grace thereof, to which He ordinarly Anfwers, Be it fo, Or, I am fatisfied ; Whereupon the Adjournment is Intimated publickly at the Door by the Beddal, afterwards the Moderator closes with Prayer.

Committee for Revising printing Acts.

§ 36. At clofing of the General Affembly, fome few of the their Number are Nominated to Affift the Moderator and Minutes and Clerk, in Revifing the Minutes and Proceedings of that the Assembly, before the fame be Recorded in their Registers, and to determine what of their Acts are fit to be printed : But it were as proper for the Affembly to give Orders therein, as the Acts are paffed.

The Ordinary way of Diffolving A femblies.

§ 37. All the Affairs which the Affembly could overtake, being brought to a Clofe, the Moderator caufeth read the Minutes of the last Sederunt, these of former Sederunts being always read at the beginning of each Seffion; Which being done, he difcourfeth to the Affembly concerning the good Providence of God that brought them together, and in allowing them the Countenance and Protection of the Supreme Magistrate, and exhorteth the Members to Faithfulnefs, Loyalty and Diligence in their Stations. The Moderator having underftood the Mind of the Affembly from previous Communings with the Members, as to the particular time and place of the next Affemblies Meeting, which Dyet being concerted before also with the Commissioner, he doth in their Name reprefent the fame to the King or Queen, or Their Commissioner, if present, and upon their agreeing thereto, it is to be recorded and publickly Intimate at the Door of the Affembly-Houfe by their Order. The Commissioner agrees ordinarly thereto in these or the like words (to many offenfive enough) I do in my Mafter's Name (or Her Majefties Name) diffolve this Affembly, and and in the fame Name and Authority I appoint the next General Affembly to meet at fuch a Time and Place, which ordinarly is the fame with that which the Moderator in Name of the Affembly did reprefent. Then the Moderator clofeth the Affembly with Prayer, finging of Pfalms, and pronouncing of the Blefling.

$ 38. Indeed when it happens that a Commissioner doth How two Afrather Crofs than Countenance the Affembly, either by an Jemblies were abrupt and interrupting Diffolution, or by not appointing diffelved in an the next Annual Affembly according to Law : In these Cafes Manner, and their Behaviour 1s different, as may appear in the two fol- their Behavi-lowing Inftances. The first was in the Assembly 1638. our in the fe there the M. of H. His Majefties Commissioner, having Cales. diffolved them after fome few days fitting, both in the Affembly-Houfe and by publick Proclamation; They did notwithstanding (laving protested against their Disolution) continue their Sitting till they ended the Work they met for, and appointed the time for their next General Affembly, for which you will find their Apologetical Vindication in their printed Letter to the King. Another Instance is this, The E. of Lothian Their Majesties Commissioner to the General Affembly 1692, He upon Saturday the 12. of February (the Assembly being met and constitute by Prayer) did immediately thereafter deliver himfelf as foll lows. Moderator, what I faid laft had fo little Succefs. that I intend to give yon no more trouble of that Nature Only this, You have now fate about a Moneth, which was a competent time both to have done what was the principal Defign in calling this Affembly, (of Uniting with your Brethren) and to have done what elfe related unto the Church, but His Majesty perceiving no great Inclination among you to comply with His Demands, hath commanded me to diffolve this prefent General Affembly. So I in Their Majefties Name and Authority do diffolve this prefent General Affembly. Whereupon the Moderator asked his Grace,

[90] if this Affembly was diffolved, without naming a Diet for another? To this His Grace made Return in these Words, His Majefty will appoint another Affembly in due time, wherewith You will be timeoufly advertifed. Upon this, the Moderator defiring of His Grace, that he might be heard a few Words, His Grace told him that he could not hear him as Moderator, but only as a private Perfon . The Moderator answered, In whatever Capacity Your Grace pleafeth, I begg to be heard a few Words. His Grace Replyed, That as a private Man he might fpeak; Whereupon the Moderator delivered Himfelf as follows. May is pleafe Your Grace, This Affembly, and all the Members of this National Church, are under the greatest Obligations poslible to His Majesty, and if His Majesties Commands to Us had been in any or all Our Concerns in the World, We would have laid Our Hands on Our Mouths and been filent : But they being for a Diffolution of this Affembly. without Indicting another to a certain Day : Therefore, (having been Moderator to this Affembly). in their Name; they adhering to me, I humbly crave leave to de-The Church- clare, that the Office-Bearers in the House of God, have as Intrinsfick a Spiritual Intrinsfick Power from Jefus Chrift the only Power Affer- Head of His Church to meet in Affemblies about the Af-

And further, I humbly crave, that the Diffolution of this Affembly, without Indicting a new one to a certain Day, may not be to the prejudice of Our Yearly General Affemblies granted to Us by the Laws of this Kingdom. Here the Members role up, and with ne Voice declared their Adherence to what the Moderator ad faid; Whereupon the Moderator turning himfelf to 1e Affembly, Cryed, Brethren, Let us Pray : But the vlembers by a general Cry preffed to name a Diet for the next General Affembly. Whereupon the Moderator faid, If they pleafed, the next General Affembly might meet here

How Minifters take Place of one mother.

S 2. All Ministers are Inrolled in Presbyteries, and have Place only according to the Seniority of their Ordination; A Prefbyter labouring in the Word and Doctrine being the Highest Office in the Church, to be fure no Office-bearer of an inferiour Order will ever compete with him : and therefore a Minister of a later Ordination, albeit he have the Character and Station of Almoner or Chaplainto the Royal Family, or of being Hiftoriographer, Principal, or Profeffor of Theology, or Philosophy in any University, set he will not prefume thereupon to take place from one of a prior Ordination : Becaufe all thefe Stations and Obas racters, Ecclefiaftically confidered, are of an Inferiour Order to that of the Paftor, unlefs he pretend unto it by virtue of Civil Place and Power, which is condemned in Paftors as incompatible with their Spiritual Function by Assembly 1638, Decem. 19. But the Order in which Minifters deliver the Prefbyterial Exercifes, is according to the Seniority of Erection of the Parish Churches where they Officiate.

No Roll of the former Synod, is now called last (as was faid Act to hinder Elders to Vote above) and that which was in the fecond place is now when they may called first: And the Members are called according to be imperate the Roll of each Prefbyterie, prefented to the Clerk by the merary to Mi-Moderators thereof, with the Ruling Elders therein Infert.

And though a Parifh be Vacant, or the Minister thereof not prefent, yet the Ruling Elder for that Church-Session, is to be called for and Inrolled. But those who are against Ruling Elders their being Supernumerary, to Ministers in Judicatories may diflike this. Yet if once a Judicatorie fix on a Quorum, whereof always fo many are to be Ministers, though double their Number of Elders should come and be prefent, there is nothing as yet to hinder them all from Voting. § 4. The Rolls of General Affemblies do begin with the Rolls of Ge-Synod, which in the former Affemblie was called in the neral Affemfecond place, leaving the Synod which was then first called, now laft, by which Rotation the Equality is better preferved, Commissioners from Prefbyteries are placed in their Commissions according to the Seniority of their Ordination. Next to them are Inrolled the Commissioners from the Universities within the Bounds; and next to them fuch as have Commissions from Royal Burghs therein. In General Affemblies, Ruling-Elders are called immediately after the Ministers their Colleague Commissioners.

§ 5. The first thing to be done at every Diet, after Minutes calling the Rolls, is the hearing the Minutes of the last Signed before Sederunt or Session, Read, and till they be passed and al-Extract, or lowed by the Judicatorie, and also Subscribed by the Mo-Recording. derator, there ought no Extracts thereof to be given, nor, till then, should it be Warrantable for the Clerk to enter them into the Register.

Order in filling up Blanks, Delatings, Interlinings, and Omiffions in 'Registers.

§ 8. All Sentences and Acts are to be filled up in the Records as all other things fhould be according to the Prioririty of their being Voted or Agreed unto, and that although no Extract hath been, or perhaps never may be called for. And when any thing is omitted in the Body of a Record, it may be written on the Margine, which the Moderator and Clerk muft Subfcribe again; When any thing is Delete, let it be marked Delete on the Margine, and Subfcribed as the other, counting the Lines or Words blotted out. But Interlinings are most Improper, and Derogatory to that Credit which a Record should bear. Further, when any Blank is left in the Record, and yet there is nothing wanting, it may be Scored, or which is more proper, filled up with (nibil bic deest) which Words may may be lengthened or shortened according to the Bounds of the Blank. § 2. The Power of Visitations of Universities, Colleges and Schools is now Claimed by the Sovereigns to be Their Undoubted Right and Prerogative, as is Evident from the Visitors Powers Narrative of the Act of Parliament 1690, for the Visitation of Universities. The Power granted to the Visitors by that Act, is only Executive or Judicative, and not Legiflative, which neither can nor fhould be : For feing the Trust wherewith the Legislators themfelves are cloathed. is only Perfonal, it cannot be Delegated to others, unlefs they Receive Power from their Conftituents for that Effect and Purpofe. But though their Power could be Delegated, it should not be done : For fome Defigning and Difaffected

Difaffected Members in fuch Commissions might fo Manage the Plurality of a Quorum to Plant and Regulate these Nurferies of Church and State, as might path the Way, and Difpofe the Nation more eafily for fome pernicious Revolution. The Vifitors Appointed in that Commission are both Members of Parliament and Ministers : The one Sort I think, is Appointed to Remove Difloyal Teachers, and to confider the Foundations of these Seminaries with the Rents and Revenues thereof, and how the fame have been Managed, and to fet down Good Rules for the Good Management thereof. And Ministers, I think, are Named, to take Tryal if the Teachers be Erroneous, Scandalous, Negligent, or Infufficient, and for Ordering the Manner of Teaching; and thereupon prefent their Humble Advice to the States-Men : for Authoritatively they cannot Act without Delegation from the Church. See the Title about Extraordinary Synods, § 1.

§ 3. The Congregation being Affembled, the Minister, haviour in the after Solemn Calling on them to the Worthipping of the Great Name of GOD is to begin with Prayer. The publick Worship being begun, the People are wholly to attend on it : forbearing to Read any thing, except what the Minister is then Reading or Citing : Much more are they to abstain from all private Whisperings, Conferences, Salutations, or doing Reverence to any Perfon prefent, or coming in, as also from all Gazing, Sleeping, or other Indecent Behaviour.

§ 4. Reading of the Word in the Congregation, being a part of the publick Worship of GOD (wherein we ac-Word is to be knowledge our Dependence upon him, and Subjection publickly read, and by whom 3 to him) And one Mean Sanctifyed by Him for the Edifying of His People, is to be performed by the Paftors and .. Teachers, and Preachers Licenfed by the Prefbytery thereunto, who should (as Ezra and his Companions did Nebem. 8. 8:) Read in the Book, in the Law of GOD diftinctly, and give the Senfe, and caufe them to Understand the Reading.

How much A time, and the Order of Reading and Expounding.

§ 5. How Large a Portion is to be Read at once, is is to be read at left to the Wifdom and Difcretion of the Minister : But it is Convenient that Ordinarily one Chapter of each Teftament be Read at every Meeting, and fometimes more, where the Chapters be fhort, or the Coherence of the Matter requireth it. It is also Requisite that all the Canonical Books be Read over in Order, that the People may be the better acquainted with the whole Body of the Scriptures, and where the Reading in either Testament endeth on one LORD's Day, it is to begin the next : The more more frequent Reading of fuch Scriptures is alfo Commended, as he that Readeth fhall think beft for Edification of his Hearers, as the Book of Pfalms and fuch like; and when he fhall judge it neceffary to Expound any part of what is Read, that Work is not to begin, until the Reading of the whole Chapter or Pfalm be ended.

§ 6. Regard is always to be had to the Time, that nei-When Le ther Preaching nor other Ordinance be straitened or ren- Etwring begins dered Tedious; Which Rule is to be Observed in all o- and how long ther publick Performances, And therefore, by the AEt of according to Affembly, Feb. 7th, 1645, for Regulating of that Exercise old and later of Reading and Expounding the Scriptures upon the Acts. LORD's Day, mentioned in the Directory, they Ordain the Minister and People to Repair to the Church half an. Hour before that Time, at which ordinarly the Minister now entereth to the publick Worship; And that that Exercise of Reading and Expounding, together with the ordinary Exercife of Preaching be perfected and ended at the time, which formerly closed the Exercise of publick Worship. And for Recovering the Old Custom Established -by the Directory, the General Affembly 1694, Seff. 9. Appoints Minifters to Read and Open to the People, fome Large and Confiderable Portion of GOD's Word. And the Diligence of Ministers in this is to be Enquired into by Prefbyteries at their privy Cenfures, Astern. 1704, Sess. 8, and also at Parochial Visitations, Astern. 1706, Alt 10.

§ 7. Preaching of the Word being the Power of GOD Preaching, unto Salvation, and one of the Greateft and moft Excellent and Subject Works belonging to the Miniftery of the Gofpel, fhould Matter. be fo performed that the Workman need not be afhamed, but may Save himfelf and those that hear him. Ordinarily the Subject of his Sermon is to be fome Text of the Scripture holding forth fome Principle or Head of Religion, or fuitable to the special Occasion emergent. Or he may go, on in fome Chapter, Pfalm or Book of the Scripture as he shall see fit. By the 8th Art. Cap. 3d. of our Confession of Faith, the Doctrine of the high Mystery of Predestination is to be handled with fpecial Prudence and Care. And albeit Mr. Turretine in his Instit. Theol. Loc. 4. Quaft. 6. maintains very warrantably, that it fhould be publickly taught, yet he thinks it a Subject more proper for the Schools than the Pulpits.

Introduction. Sum, and Division of the Text.

§ 8. The Introduction to the Text is to be Brief and Perspicuous, drawn from the Text it felf or Context, or fome parallel place of Scripture. If the Text be long (as in Hiftories and Parables fometimes it must be) he is to give a briefSum of it, if fhort, a Paraphrafe thereof, if need be; In both looking diligently to the Scope of the Text, and pointing at the chief Heads and Grounds of Doctrines which he is to raife from it. In Analyfing and dividing his Text, he is to regard more the Order of Matter than of Words, and neither to burden the Memory of the Hearers in the beginning with too many Members of Division, nor to trouble their Minds with obscure Terms of Art.

How Docsrated and Confirmed.

§ 9. In raifing Doctrines from the Text, his Care ought rines are to be; 1/t, That the Matter be the Truth of God, 2/y, be Raifed, Ex- That it be a Truth grounded on or contained in that Text, plained, Illus- that the Hearers may discern how God teacheth it from thence. 3ly, That he chiefly infift upon these Doctrines which are principally intended, and make most for the Edification of the Hearers. The Doctrine is to be expressed in plain Terms, or if any thing in it need Explication, it is to be opened, and the Confequence alfo from the Text cleared. The parallel Places of Scripture confirming the Doctrine are rather to be plain and pertinent than many; And, if need be, fomewhat infifted upon, and applyed to the Purpose in Hand. The Reasons or Arguments are to be folid, and, as much as may be, Convincing. The Illustra-tions, of what kind foever, ought to be full of Light, and fuch fuch as may convey the Truth into the Hearers Hearts with Spiritual Delight.

§ 10. If any Doubt obvious from Scripture or Reafon, What kind of or prejudice of the Hearers, feem to arife, it is very requi-Doubts and fite to remove it, by reconciling the feeming Differences, Controverfies anfwering the Reafons, and difcovering and taking away are to be raithe Caufes of Prejudice and Miftakes. Otherwife it is not ved. fit to detain the Hearers with propounding or anfwering vain or wicked Cavils, which as they are endlefs, fo the propounding and anfwering of them, doth more hinder than promote Edification.

§ 11. The Doctrine is to be brought home to special Doctrines are Use by Application to the Hearers, that they may feel the to be Applied Word of God to be quick and powerful, and a Difcerner in Uses of In-of the Thoughts and Intents of the Heart. In the Use of futation, Ex-Instruction or Information in the Knowledge of fome Truth, hortation, Rewhich is a Confequence from his Doctrine, he may, when proof, Confoconvenient, confirm it by a few firm Arguments, from the Tryal; A And Text in Hand, and other Places of Scripture, or from the How? Nature of that common Place of Divinity, whercof that Truth is a Branch. In Confutation of falle Doctrines, he is neither to raife an old Herefy from the Grave, nor to mention a Blasphemous Opinion unnecessiarily, but if the People be in danger of an Errour, he is to confute it foundly, and endeavour to fatisfie their Judgments and Confciences against all Objection. In Exhortation to Duties, he is, as he feeth Caufe to teach alfo the Means that help to the performance of them. In Dehortation, Reprehension, and Admonition, which requireth fpecial Wifdom, He is, as need requires, not only to difcover the nature and greatnefs of the fin, with the mifery attending it, but alfo to shew the danger the Hearers are in to be overtaken and furprized by it, together with the Remedies and best way to avoid it. In applying Comfort, whether General against all Tentations, or Particular against fome special Troubles 2 O Ť and and Terrours, He is carefully to anfwer fuch Objections as a troubled Heart and afflicted Spirit may fuggeft to the contrary. It is alfo fometimes requifite to give fome Notes of Tryal, which is very profitable, efpecially when performed by able and experienced Minifters, with Circumfpection and Prudence, and the Signs clearly grounded on the Holy Scripture, whereby the Hearers may be able to examine themfelves, whether they have attained thofe Graces, and performed thofe Duties to which he exhorteth, or be guilty of the Sin reprehended, and in danger of the Judgment threatned, or are fuch to whom the Confolations propounded do belong.

The Design of this Method.

1 ----

§ 12. This Method is not prefcribed in the Directory, Meas neceffary for every Man, or upon every Text : Nor is it neceffary to profecute every Doctrine which lyes in the Text, and fuch Ufes as are wifely to be made choife of, as by the Minister's Refidence and Conversing with his Flock he findeth most needful and feasonable for them; But only it is recommended as a Method which hath in Experience, been found much bleffed of God, and very helpful for the Peoples Understandings and Memories.

Catechetical § 13. It is in a plain way to instruct those of their Charge in the first Principles of the Christian Religion. This was the Apostolical way of Teaching the Churches at their first Plantation, Heb. 5. 12. and 6. 1, 2. 1 Cor. 3. 1, 2. CATECHUMENI, was a word ufed by the Primitive Church, to fignifie fuch as learned the Principles of Religion, and were not yet Baptized, and fince, fuch as are Catechized, but who have not received the Lord's Supper. These Catechumeni, were of two Sorts: One Sort was; of those who had not access to Baptism till they made publick Profession of their Faith in Jesus Christ, because their Parents were Heathens, and themselves Strangers to the Christian Doctrine, fuch were Catechized before Baptism. The other Sort of Catechumeni was, the Children of professed Believers, who were Baptized when Infants, having a Right to that Seal by virtue of that Promife made to Believers and to their Children ; These after their Infancy was over, and they had been privately inftructed in the Principles of the Christian Religion, offered themselves to publick Catechizing. Both thefe Sorts, after they had made fuch Proficiency in the Knowledge of Religion, as thereupon they were admitted to the Lord's Table, they got the Name of PERFECTI.

To Pray for Sanctification by His Spirit, the Mortification of Sin dwelling in, and many times Tyranizing over us, the Quickning of our dead Spirits, with the Life of GOD in CHRIST, Grace to enable us for all Duties of our Conversation, and Callings towards GOD and Men, Strength against Temptations, the fanctifyed Ufe of Bleflings and Croffes, and Perfeve-rance in Faith and Obedience unto the End. To Pray for the propagation of the Gofpel and Kingdom of CHRIST to all Nations, for the Conversion of the Jews, and the Fullness of the Gentiles, the Fall of Anticbrift, and the Haftening of the fecond Coming of Our LORD : for the Deliverance of the Diftreffed Churchesabroad, from the Tyranny of the Antichriftian Faction, and from the Cruel Oppressions and Blasphemies of the Turk ; For the Blefling of GOD upon all the Reformed Churches, especially upon the Churches and Kingdoms of Scotland, England and Ireland, more particularly for that Church and Kingdom whereof whereof we are Members, that therein GOD would Efta. blish Peace and Truth, the Purity of all His Ordinances, and the Power of Godlines, prevent and Remove Herefy, Schifm, Profaneness, Superstition, Security and Unfruit-fulness under the Means of Grace, Heal all our Rents and Divisions, and Preferve us from Breach of our Solemn Covenant. Prayers are to be put up for all in Supreme Authority, and those in Subordinate Authority to them, I Tim. 2. I, 2, 4. Which Prayers are to be directed by their Circumstances. We are to Pray for all Pastors and Teachers, that GOD would fill them with His Spirit, and make them Powerful in their Ministry, and give unto all His People Paftors according to His own Heart; For the Univerfities and Schools, and Religious Seminaries for Church and Common-Wealth, that they may flourish more in Learning and Piety, for the particular City or Congregation, that GOD would pour out a Blefling upon the Ministry of the Word, Sacraments and Discipline, upon the Civil Government, and all the Families and Perfons therein; For Mercy to the Afflicted in any inward or outward Diftrefs ; For Seafonable Weather, and Fruitful Seafons, as Time may require; For Averting Judgments that we either Feel or Fear, or are liable unto, as Famine, Sword, Pestilence, and fuch like. To pray earneftly for His Grace and Effectual Afliftance to the Sanctification of His Holy Sabbath, the LORD's Day, in all the Duties thereof, that the LORD who teacheth to profite, would gracioufly pleafe to pour out the Spirit of Grace, together with the outwardMeans thereof, caufing us to attain fuch a Measure of the Excellency of the Knowledge of CHRIST JESUS our LORD that we may account all things but as Drofs, in comparison of Him, and that we tafting the first-fruits of the Glory to come, may long for a more full and perfect Communion with Him. That GOD would in special manner furnish His Servant

Publick Prayer: after Sermon.

§ 23. The Sermon being ended, the Minister is to give Thanks for the Great Love of GOD in fending of his Son JESUS CHRIST unto us, for the Communication of His Holy Spirit, for the Light and Liberty of the glorious Gofpel, for the Admirable Goodness of GOD; in treeing the Land from Antichristian Darkness and Tyranny, for the Reformation of Religion, and many Temporal Bleffings : And to Pray for the Continuance of the Gofpel, and all Ordinances thereof in their Purity, Power and Liberty : and to turn fome of the most useful Heads of the Sermon into fome few Petitions, and to Pray that it may abide in the Heart, and bring forth Fruit in the Life and Conversation. To pray for Preparation for Death and Judgment, and a Watching for the Coming of our LORD JESUS CHRIST; To Intreat of GOD the Forgivenels of the Iniquity of our Holy Things, and the Acceptation of our Spiritual Sacrifice, through the Merit and Mediation of our Great High Prieft and Saviour, the LORD JESUS CHRIST.

The mean-S 24. Notwithstanding of the Above-Directory for puing of the Di-blick Prayers, the Minister may (as in prudence he shall rectors. fee meet) make use of some part of these Petitions after the Sermon, or he may offer up to GOD some of the Thankfgivings in his Prayer before Sermon.

§ 25. By the Act of Affembly, August 6. 1649, Their Of Singing Commission being Impowered to Emit the Paraphrase of of Plalms, and the Psalms, and Establish the same for publick Use, they of the present did accordingly Conclude and Establish the Paraphrase of Paraphrase. the Psalms in Meeter, now used in this Church, after the Presbyteries had fent their Animadversions thereupon.

§ 26. It was the Antient Practice of the Church, as it Singing is is yet of fome Reformed Churches abroad, for the Mini- not'to be inter-fter or Precentor to Read over as much of the Pfalm in ingofthe Line. Meeter together, as was intended to be Sung at once, and then the Harmony and Melody 'followed without Interruption, and People did either Learn to Read, or get most of the Pfalms by Heart; But afterwards it being found, that when a New Paraphrafe of the Pfalms was Appointed, it could not at first be fo Eafy for the People to follow, then became it Cuftomary, that each Line was Read by it felf, and then Sung. But now having for fo long time made use of this Paraphrafe, and the Number of these who can Read being Increased, it is but Reasonable that the Antient Cuftom should be Revived, according to what is infinuated by the Directory on this Subject. And that fuch who cannot Read may know what Pfalms to get by Heart, let fuch be Affixed on fome confpicuous part of the Pulpit as are to be Sung in publick at next Meeting of the Congregation. It were to be wished that Masters of Families would path the way for the more Eafy Introducing of our former Practice by Reviving and Obferving the fame in their Family Worfhip.

§ 27, In the 38 Seff. of Affem. 1648. There is an Scripture Act for Examining the Labours of Mr. Zachary Boyd upon Songs to be the other Scripture-Songs. And by Affem. 1706, Seff. 4. "Jed in Famil-The Scripture-Songs by Mr. Patrick Sympson Minister at pared for pa-Renfrew, are Recommended to be used in private Famillies: And in Order to prepare them for the publick Use of the Church, this was Renewed in Affem. 1707. And by the the 15 Act of Assembly 1708, Their Commission is In-ftructed and Appointed to Consider the Printed Version of the Scripture Songs, with the Remarks of Presbyteries-thereupon, and after Examination thereof, they are Authorized and Impowered to Conclude and Emit the fame, for the publick use of the Church : The prefent Version of the Pfalms having been Ordered in the fame manner in the Year 1649.

The Design of the Soul in Singing.

§ 28. Though a Believer be Afflicted, yet he is to Sing and Intention fince it is fuch a Duty as Prayer is, tendeth to Cheer the Souls Difposition, and to Sweeten and Mitigate the Crofs unto it. Complaints of our Sin and Failings may be Mournful Songs. And becaufe GOD hath Redeemed, Par-doned and Comforted others; Therefore we are to Rejoice in the Hope and Defires of the fame to our felves. Though the Subject of a Song doth not always quadrate with our Cafe, yet unto a judicious attentive Perfon there is always fome Attribute of GOD, fome Providence or Word of His, in that very Subject to be praifed. In the Imprecatory Pfalms, we fing to the Praife of Divine Justice, against the Malicious Enemies of His Church, like unto these that the Pfalmist did aim against.

Ministerial Benchiction.

§ 29. The Minister useth to Difmiss the Congregation with a Solemn Bleffing or Prayer to GOD for them, which ordinarly is in these or the like Words, 2 Cor. 13. 14. The Grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the Love of God the Father, and the Communion of the Holy Ghost be with you all, AMEN; But when Probationers for the Miniftry are Preaching, they use to pronounce the Bleffing with this Variation, In stead of be with TOU, they fay, be with US. And the Moderators of General Affemblies Obferve the fame Stile in pronouncing of the Bleffing at their Diffolution. Yet feing no Minister of a Congregation, doeth put up that publick Prayer alone, it would therefore feem, it should always run in the Ordinar Stile of other Congregational Petitions, viz. Be with Us. $ 30.

Reading of § 4. The Master of a Family though of the best Qua-the Scriptures lifications, is not to take on him to interpret the Scriptobe Improved tures; Yet, it is commendable, that, by way of Conference, they make fome good Ufe of what hath been read and heard. As for Example, if any Sin be reproved in the Word read, Ufe may be made thereof, to make all the Fa-mily Circumfpect and Watchful against the fame; Or, if any Judgment be threatned, or mentioned to have been inflicted in that Portion of Scripture which is read, Ufe may be made, to make all the Family fear, left the fame or a worfe Judgment befal them, unlefs they beware of the Sins that procured it. And finally, if any Duty be required, or Comfort held forth in a Promife, Ufe may be made to ftirr up themfelves to implore Chrift for Strength to enable them for doing commanded Duty, and to apply the offered Comfort : In all which the Mafter of the Family is to have the chief Hand, and any Member of the Family may propound a Question or Doubt for Resolution.

Chaplains Abufe.

§ 5. Perfons of Quality are allowed to entertain One aptheir Use and proved by the Presbytery for performing the Worship of God in their Families. And in other Families where the Head is unfit, One conftantly refiding in the Family, and approved by the Minister and Session may be imployed in that Service. Yet it was never the Mind of the Church, that Perfons of Quality should lay their Family Worship intirely upon their Chaplains, and never perform it in their own Perfons, as appears from the folenn acknowledgement of Sins, where they confess, The Ignorance of GOD and of His Son prevails exceedingly in the Land; The greatest part of Masters of Families amongst Noblemen, Barons, Gentlemen, Burgessies and Commons, neglect to seek GOD in their Families, and to endeavour the Reformation thereof; And albeit it hath been much pressed, yet few of our Nobles and great Ones ever to this Day could be perfwaded to perform Family-duties themselves, and in their own perfons.

The not obferving of this Direction, hath been of fad Confequence to fome Families in this Land in the late times. Neither are Perfons from divers Families, to be Invited or admitted into Family-Worfhip, unlefs it be thefe who are Iodged with them or at Meat, or otherwife with them upon fome lawful Occafion.

§ 7. So many as can conceive Prayer, ought to make use Set Forms of that Gift of GOD; albeit those who are rude and wea- for Prayer in ker may begin with a fet Form of Prayer, but so as they cafes of necesbe not fluggish in flirring up in themselves the Spirit of Prayer, which is given to all the Children of GOD in fome measure.

Of Baptism.

What Bep- § I. B Aptifm is a Sacrament of the New Teftament, wherein Chrift hath ordained the washing with Water in the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, to be a Sign and Seal of Ingrasting into Himfelf, felf, and of partaking of the Benefits of the Covenant of Grace, and whereby the Parties Baptized are folemnly admitted into the visible Church, and enter into an open and. profeffed Engagement to be Only and Wholly the LORDS.

§ 2. The visible Church which is Catholick or Universal under the Gospel, confifts of all these throughout the World, whom to be add that profess the true Religion, together with their Chil- ministred. dren: And Baptifin is not to be administred to any that are out of the fame, they being Strangers to the Covenant of Promife, till they profess their Faith in Christ, and Obedience to Him: But Infants defcending from Parents, either both or but one of them, professing Faith in Christ and Obedience to Him, are in that refpect within the Covenant, and to be Baptized. The Directory for Worship fays, that Children of profeffing Parents are Christians and federally Holy before Baptifin, and therefore are they Baptized : For their Baptifin fuppofeth them to be Church Members, and doth not make or conftitute them fuch. And therefore the practice of denying Burial among Christians unto Children unbaptized is unagreeable to this Doctrine, and is most unwarrantable : If we confider, that the Sacraments are Ordinances to be administred in the Church, and to the Church, they neceffarily suppose the Pre-existence of a Church, and the Child's previous Right to that Seal.

§ 3. By that Covenant whereof Baptifm is a Seal, the TheEngage-LORD promifeth to be our GOD, and we are in His pro-ment of Pamifed Strength to engage to be His People, which En-rents in Bap-gagement, tho' Christian Infants be not capable to come their Chilunder of themfelves, formally ; Yet by their Parents vow- dren. ing in their name and flead, they do thereby become abfolutely bound to the performance thereof, becaufe their Obligation and Duty to be the LORD's, were fuppofed, and previous unto their being Baptized. The Parent is to be required to provide fome fit Perfon, and, if it can be, one related as a Parent to the Child should be Sponfor. Yet it feems Ignorant Parents are to be admitted to prefent their Children : For by Act of Affembly 1648. Seff. 38. § 9. He is to Promife to Bring up the Child in the Knowledge of the Grounds of the Chriftian Religion, as they are contained in the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Teftament : And laftly, He is to Bring up the Child in that Holy Life and Practice which GOD hath Commanded in His Word. The Engagments to be given in Name of Children at Baptifm, fhould be Exprest in these or the like general Terms, conform to the Directory for Worship, Approven by the General Assembly, Feb. 7. 1645. § 10. The Sacrament of Baptism is to be Administrate The Form in the Face of the Congregation after Sermon, and before of Ministra-pronouncing of the Blefling, (See AEt of Assemble 7. tism and the 1645.) The Child to be Baptized, after Notice given to Prayer. the Minister the Day before, is to be presented, the Paftor remaining in the fame place where he hath Preached, and having Water provided in a Large Bafon ; He is before Baptism to use fome Words of Instruction, touching the Author, Institution, Nature, Use, and End of this Sacrament : He is also to Admonish all that are present to Repent of their Sins against their Covenant with GOD, and to Improve and make the Right Use of their Baptism : Next, the Parent, or Sponfor, is to be Exhorted to Order his Conversation aright, and walk Circumspectly, when he is to be Engaged in the Words of the Form above. This being done, Prayer is also to be joyned with the Word of Inftitution, for Sanctifying the Water to this Spiritual Use. The Prayer is to this or the like Effect, That the LORD, who hath not left us as Strangers without the Covenant of Promise, but called us to the Privileges of His Ordinances, would Gracioufly Vouchfafe to Sanctify & Blefs His own Ordinance of Baptifm at this time : That He would join the inward Baptifin of His Spirit with the outward Baptism of Water; Make this Baptism to this Infant a Seal of Adoption, Regeneration, and Eternal Life, and of all other Promifes of the Covenant of Grace; That the Child may be planted in the Likenefs of the Death and Refurrection of CHRIST, and that the Body of Sin being Deftroyed in him, he may Serve GOD in Newnefs of Life all his Days. Then the Minister is to Demand the Name of the Child, which being Told him, He is to fay (calling the Child by his Name) I BAP-TISE THEE In The NAME Of The FATHER, Of The SON, And Of The HOLY GHOST. As he pronounceth these Words, he is to Baptize the Child with Water, Water, which for the manner of doing, it is not only Lawful but Sufficient, and most Expedient, to be by Pouring or Sprinkling of the Water on the Face of the Child, without adding any other Ceremony. This done, He is to give Thanks and Pray to this or the like purpofe; Acknowledging with all Thankfulnefs, that the LORD is True and Faithful in keeping Covenant and Mercy, that He is Good and Gracious, not only that he Numbereth us among his Saints, but is pleafed alfo to beftow upon our Children this fingular Token and Badge of His Love in CHRIST; That in his Truth and fpecial Providence, he daily bringeth fome into the Bofom of his Church, to be Partakers of His Ineftimable Benefites purchased by the Blood of His Dear Son for the Continuance and Increase of His Church; And praying that the LORD would ftill continue and daily confirm more and more this His unfpeakable Favour: That He would Receive the Infant now Baptized, and Solemnly entered into the Houfehold of Faith, into His Fatherly Tuition and Defence, and Remember him with the Favour He sheweth unto His People : That if he shall be taken out of this Life in his . Infancy, the LORD, who is Rich in Mercy, would be pleafed to Receive him up into Glory, and if he Live and attain the Years of Difcretion, that the LORD would fo Teach him by his Word and Spirit, and make his Baptifm Effectual to him, and fo Uphold him by His Divine Power and Grace, that by Faith he may prevail against the Devil, the World and the Flesh : till in the End he Obtain a full and final Victory, and to be kept by the Power of GOD through Faith unto Salvation, through IESUS CHRIST Our LORD.

Ministers ere to Reject Indecent Names to Children.

December 10. 1638. and Feb. 7. 1645. The private Use of them hath been Condemned : As alfo, that by allowing the private Ufe of the fame in pretended Cafes of Neceflity, the Superstitious Opinion is Nourished, that they are necessary unto Salvation, not only as Commanded Duties, but as Means without which Salvation cannot be attained. Therefore they Discharge the Administration of the LORD's Supper to Sick Perfons in their Houfes, and all other Ufe of the fame, except in the publick Affemblies of the Church. And alfo, they Difcharge the Administration of Baptifm in private, that is, in any place, or at any time, when the Congregation is not Orderly called together to wait on the Difpenfing of the Word. Which is agreeable to the 6th Article, Chap. 11. of the French Church Discipline, and not to be Difpenfed with, except in Times of Perfecution. And when a Child is Baptized in a private House, as is used in England; In that case the Minister is to Certify the Congregation to which the Child belongs, that the fame was Baptized by him, at fuch a time, and in fuch a place before divers Witnesse. When it is an Inceftuous Child, it shall fuffice to Name the Mother, with the Prefenter of the Child, that the Remembrance of fo Hainous a Sin may be Extinguished. This is conform to the 19th Article of the forefaid 11. Chapter.

Baptism to be but once Administred.

§ 14. Baptism is not to be Administred but once unto any Person. It is not the practice of the Reformed Churches to Re-baptize those who were Baptized by the Popifh Clergy: For they Baptize with Water in the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghoft as we do. But Quakers, and others, who want this External Seal of the Covenant of Grace, though fuch should make Profeffion of the true Faith, that Sacrament of Baptism doth remain to be Administred unto them, before they or their Children can enjoy the Privileges of Church Members.

He who Baptizeth must be Ordained and led.

§ 15. Neither of the Sacraments may be Difpenfed by any, but by a Minister of the Word Lawfully Ordained, faith our Confession of Faith, Cap. 27. Art. 4. And Per-Lawfully Cal-; fons are to be Baptized by a Minister of the Gospel lawfully called thereunto, according to Art. 2. Cap. 28. Our Law makes Infeftments Void and Null, where they are not given by fuch as it Appoints and Authorizeth to give . them : Thus are all Infeftments in Royal Burghs, not given by fome of the Magistrates or Clerks thereof. Yet Baptifm, when it is Administred by a Person, whose Ordination and Call is not agreeable to the Principles, Conftitutions and Practice of this Church, the Effentials of the Sacrament being Observed, that Baptism is Esteemed as Valid, tho' not as Lawful. And although the Reformed Churches, (fo far as I can learn) would Inflict the higheft Cenfure upon Women or Laicks, as Profaners and Mockers of the Holy Sacraments, if they prefumed to Difpenfe them:

them : and would not have the leaft Scruple to Baptize thofe on whom they had wickedly Ufurped a Power to Impofe a Mock of it ; Yet I find they have Declined to Determine fo clearly in the cafe of Re-baptizing of thefe who were Baptized by Depofed Minifters : Which, I think, doth not proceed fo much from the want of a parity of Reafon, as it doth from the Offence, which may fometimes be taken by a great part of a Church, who do not underftand, or are not fatisfyed with the Grounds of their Depofition, or perhaps may be altogether Ignorant of their being Depofed. But when a Depofed Minifter hath fo little Intercit, and fo few Followers, that he is Efteemed by moft, yea by a vaft Majority, to be Lawfully Depofed : In that Cafe it might give Offence, not to Rebaptize a Child who was fo Unlawfully Baptized.

TITLE IV.

Of the LORD's Supper.

S 1. The LORD's Supper, fo called from the time What the of its Inflitution and firft Celebration, is a LORD's Sx-Sacrament of the New Teftament, wherein by per is. giving and receiving Bread and Wine, according to the Appointment of JESUS CHRIST, His Death is fhewed forth, and they that Worthily Communicate, not after a Corporal and Carnal manner, but by Faith, feed upon His Body and Blood, to their Spiritual Nourifbment and Growth in Grace, have their Union and Communion with Him Confirmed, Teftify and Renew their Thankfulnes and Engagements to GOD, and their mutual Love and R 2

[132]

Fellowship each with other, as Members of the fame Myftical Body.

Who may be Admitted thereto, and who not ?.

§ 2. These who are to be Admitted to this Saerament, must be found to have a Competent Knowledge of the Fundamentals of the Christian Religion, and to be of fuch an Inoffenfive Walk and Conversation, both towards GOD. and their Neighbours, that they are not known to be Guilty of any Scandal that Meriteth Church-Cenfure. By the 12. Chap. of the French Church Difcipline Art. 2. Perfons shall not be Admitted to the LORD's Supper, till they be above Twelve Years of Age.But I'm fure, if Children at Nine Years of Age can Express themfelves Pioufly and Knowingly, thewing that they have the Grace Signifyed and Promised, The Seal of the Promise cannot Warrantably be Denyed unto them. By the 6. Art. of that Chapter, a Man that is Deaf and Dumb, shewing his Piety and Religion what he can, by evident Signs, Tokens, and Geflures, may be Admitted to Partake, when by a long Experience of the Holinefs of his Life, the Church shall perceive he has Faith. By the 7. Art. thereof, The Bread of the Sacrament is to be Administred to those who cannot drink Wine, they Protefting that it is not through Contempt, and they doing what they can towards it, by putting the Cup as near their Mouth as they may do to avoid giving any manner of Offence. And by the 10. Art. of the fame 12. Chapter, they fay : In as much as feveral Sick Perfons come to receive this Sacrament, which gives Occafion that feverals make. Scruple of drinking the Wine after them, the Paftors and Elders shall be Warned to take b good Heed that Care and Prudence be used in this Matter. They may Communicate laft.

The Ordi-S 3. Ordinary Bread is to be used, and it is most decent nary Elements it be Leaven'd Wheat Bread. Any kind of Wine may be to be used in the LORD's used in the LORD's Supper, yet Wine of a Red Colour the LORD's feemeth most fuitable. In case a Society of Christians fhould fhould want the Fruits of the Vine of all Sorts, I cannot think but it might be Supplyed by fome Composure as like unto it as could be made : And if any Church laboured under that Invincible Neceflity, were it not fafer for them to Interpret that as a Call and Warrant to Communicate, though wanting the Fruit of the Vine, than to Conftruct it an Authorizing them in a perpetual Neglect of that Sacrament?

§ 4. When the Admiffion of thefe who are allowed to Communi-Partake of the LORD's Supper, is once Recorded by a cants to be Re-Sentence of the Church Seffion, which is to proceed either corded by the upon the Minifters Examining of the Parties in their SeffionsOrder, prefence, or at leaft of two or three of the Elders, that fo by their Senthe Reft may pass their Sentence on their Testimony and tence after Report. In that Case there will never be any Necessity Tryal. of coming afterwards to Ministers and Elders for Re-admission, unless by after Scandal they be judicially Suspended from that Privilege. See the Vindication of Presbyterial Government, Printed at London 1659, page 143.

§ 5. When the Sacrament of the LORD's Supper is to How Stratbe Celebrated in a Neighbouring Congregation, who have gers are Adnot Leifure, and whofe Work is not to Examine Strangers mitted with, (as above) The Minister, or any Two Elders in his Teftimonials. Absence, may give Testimonials, yea should give to any of their Parish, who Communicate ordinarily at their own Parish Church, and are without Scandal in their Life for the time, who are thereupon to be Admitted ex debito, and by reason of the Communion of Saints. But this is not to prejudge the Admission of any Honess Person, who occasionally is in the place where the Communion is Celebrate, or such as by Death or Absence of their own Minister or Elders, could not have a Testimonial. Act of Assence. Feb. 7. 1645, Art. 12. about Uniformity of Worship.

to all Minifters, to take as ftrict a Tryal as can be of fuch

Minister's Behaviour, especially with Per fons when as they Admit to the LORD's Supper, especially before firft Admitted, their firft Admiffion thereto, and that they Diligently Instruct them, particularly as to the Covenant of Grace, and the Nature and End of that Ordinance as a Seal thereof, and Charge upon their Confciences the Obligations they ly under from their Baptismal Covenant, and scriously. Exhort them to Renew the fame. This fully Anfwers the End that any Protestant Bishop can have in Ministring of Confirmation, or laying on of Hands upon those that are Baptized and come to Years of Difcretion : Neither doth it Savour of any Superstition, or any Scandalous like Approach to the Papists their Confirmation (by Chrism on Infants) for the receiving of the Holy Ghoft, which is nothing elfe but an audacious and apish Imitation of Conveighing Miraculous Operations by the Apostles hands.

§ 7. It is Agreeable to the Law of Nature to feek and F Perlons Guilty of more promote the Good of others, according to our Ability and private Sean-Opportunity, by Admonishing them to Forbear Sin and dals, how to be Repent for it, Lev. 19. 17. Thou Shalt not hate thy Bro-Admitted. ther in thy Heart, thou shalt in any ways Rebuke thy Neighbour, and not suffer Sin upon him. See Matth. 18. 15. I fuppose that the Sovereigns on Earth did publish their Intentions of Pardoning all Traitors, who should express their Sorrow and Hatred at former Treasons, and as a Mean to Reduce them to that Happy Temper, had ftrictly Commanded and Required all their Good Subjects, to put them in Mind of the Ingratitude, Folly, and Dan-ger of their Treafon : Would not we conclude that a Neighbour feeing his Fellow commit Treafon, and not Reproving him therefore, did neither Regard his Sovereign's Honour and Authority, nor yet Valued his Neighbour's Happinefs ? How much more juftly may Our LORD

LORD and SAVIOUR load and charge Church Rulers with this Sin, if they fail to perform that Duty, feing he hath laid His fpecial Commands upon them to do it? And therefore, if any Elder or Minister, shall fuffer one whom they know to be guilty of fome fcandalous or hainous Sin, though not publick, to approach unto the LORD's Table, without fatisfying Acknowledgements made in private for it, they do thereby, for ought they know, fuffer him to partake of that holy Supper with un-repented Sin upon him.

§ 8. As there are divers kinds of good Gifts, fo there Perfons who are divers Degrees of them, according to which we may converse not and ought to love our Neighbour, more or lefs, becaufe together; How we are commanded to do good unto all Men, both with our Spiritual Advice, and with our Worldly Goods, Miniftring to their Neceffities, but especially unto them who are of the Houshold of Faith, Gal. 6. 10. We are bound to shew our Love to our Enemies, by overcoming Evil with Good. Rom. 12. 21. Which is the way, not only to be even with them that wrong us, but to be above them. Every Man is called to provide for his own, efpecially for those of his own House, 1 Tim. 5.8. We are to have a Natural Affection for fuch as be near to us in Blood, and the want thereof is discovered by their want of Converse. The Apostle 1 Cor. 5. 11. forbids to keep company with fome fcandalous Perfons, and admitting that Precept to be prohibitive of a Civil Intimacy, it holds as a ftronger Argument against Religious Communion with, or at least Admission of them to fuch a diftinguishing Ordinance. Solomon, Prov. 22. 24. forbids us to go into the company of a furious Man, and to converse frequently and familiarly with an angry Man, as Friends use to do. So that, though there are common Offices due to all Men, yet that diftinguishing Practice of Friends in frequent conversing together, is free and optional, as the bestowing of Gifts is. Indeed, when when nottour fcandalous breaches and differences do happen, in that cafe, the Parties should be obliged to a formal Agreement, by conversing in presence of those, whose Work it is to Compose fuch Differences : But even then, they can be obliged to continue in no more Friendship than accommon Converse imports, especially the lefed Party. They may be indeed both obliged to profess a fincere Reconciliation, tho not unto a familiar Conversation. But as to the ufual converse with those of our Houshold and Blood-Relations, as Husband with Wife, and Father with Children or the like, it is agreeable both to the Laws of Nature and Interest, firmly to preferve and perfevere in that. Wherefore upon the whole, where fuch near Relations refuse usual converse with one another, or Neighbours at variance shall refuse to renew or continue a common converse, in that cafe, neither of the guilty Parties ought to be admitted to the LORD's Table.

Per fons fcanattested.

§ 9. Fama clamofa, publica & frequens, doth fupply the dalous per fa- part of an Accufer, fo that any who ly under the lath of mam clamo- fuch Reports, must be fo far from being admitted to the fam; How to LORD's Table, or yet attested of, as free of Scandal, that be admitted, or they should be process'd thereupon, and have the Benefit of neither, till they justifie themselves, vide Tit. Of Visitation of Families.

How to adtake.Jome dif-ferent Me--Church.

SIC. When one Church Government is established, if the mitt those who Church shall even then be fo unhappy as to be afflicted with Schifin from those who own the fame. In that cafe, there thods from the ought to be Union and Communion fought and admitted, notwithstanding failings and defects of feveral kinds : Providing Union and Communion may be had without acceffion to the Guilt or Defects of others : That is, without being obliged to approve of them, or condemn in our own Practice what we judged Right, or that we be not by any Engagement reftrained from a Duty. Indeed where there is no Union in Church Government, Mr. DURHAM on ScanScandal, Chap. 13. fays, He cannot nor dares not offer any Directions for making up an Union here. As for allowing thefe who in their Judgment differ about Church Government to Communicate with us: It is fafer to allow them to Communicate with us, than for us to Communicate with them; For by this way, they may be brought unto us, and we out of hazard of being led away by them. But for all this, fuch Perfons are not to be admitted, if they be in their Practice culpable of any thing which would juftly keep back those of our own Communion; that would be truely a contracting of too much guilt, for gaining of any occasional Profelite or Communicant.

§ 11. When there hath been a great and general De-How the fe fection by a Church and Kingdom, then the National who are guil-Affembly ufeth to appoint a National Faft and Humiliation al Sins fload for thefe Caufes. See the Act for a Faft November 12th. be admitted. 1690. And whoever had been guilty or acceffory to the Sins and Evils therein acknowledged : If they joined in the publick Fafting, they did thereby acknowledge the Caufes thereof to be juft and true, and profeffed their Sorrow and Humiliation therefore : Wherewith the Seffion ought to be fatisfied, if they fignifie their Meaning to have been fo, or that they judge the Caufes of the Faft True and Relevant.

S 12. By the Act of Affembly, August 3d. 1642. every How Non-Prefbytery is enjoined to proceed againft Non-Communi-Communicants cants. And by the 11. Art. Cap. 12. of the French Church fould be treated. Difcipline, these who have been a long time in the Church, and will not Communicate of the LORD's Supper, if they do it through Contempt, or for fear of being obliged to forfake all manner of Idolatry, after several Admonitions, they shall be cut off from the Body of the Church: But if it be through Infirmity, they shall be born with for some time, until they can be established. And by the Act of Parliament 16. Jam. 6. Cap. 17. which is never yet Re-S $\frac{1}{2}$ fcinded, feinded, but rather Included in the Acts made and Ratified againft Profanenefs. By it all Men are to Communicate once a Year, without respect to the Excuse of deadly Feuds, under Pecunial Pains according to the Quality of the Tranfgressors. This Act is Ratified by the Parliament 1641. Tho' People ought not, nor cannot, be compelled to Communicate, yet Non-Communicating, not being a Matter Indifferent, but a palpable Disordedience to GOD's Voice in the Gospel, (Luke 22. 19.) they ought to account for that scandalous Neglect and Intermission, e're they be of-new admitted:

The Defign § 13. None must prefume to fit down at the LORD's C Distributi- Table, but fuch as are admitted according to Order, except on of Tickets. those whose Fitness is unquestioned and notour. Each Perfon before Communicating doth deliver the Parifh Lead Ticket, when fought for, to one of the Elders or Deacons when fitting at the Table : But it were fafer to demand thefe Warrants or Tokens at their entry to the Tables : For a Perfon unwarrily or defignedly approaching to the Table without a Token, may with lefs Obfervation or Offence, be thus kept from it, than raifed from it. Thefe Tickets are diffributed by the Seffion, or Members thereof by their Allowance, to fuch as they have admitted, or know to be lawfully attefted from other Parifhes.

Fenting and S 14. The Minister and Session having according to the Opening of the Rules of Discipline, admitted unto, or debarr'd Perfons Tables; It's from the Lord's Table, the Pastor doth now, immediately Use and End. before he read the Words of Institution, Doctrinally debarr from, and inviteth all unto the Lord's Table according to the State and Condition they really are in. If there has been an Un-exactness or Omission in the Exercise of Discipline, through which fome are admitted whom the Word of GOD forbids to approach on their Peril; This Doctrinal debarring may fcarr such from partaking. But if there hath been an imprudent and uncharitable Exercise of Discipline, cipline, in debarring of some wrongously, then the Pastor's Doctrinal opening of the Tables, and inviting fuch from the Word of GOD to approach, albeit debarred by the Key of Difcipline, may neverthelels comfort themfelves in the Lord, who will be a little Sanctuary unto them who are thus roughly and indifcreetly treated by the Watch-men. From all which, we may gather, that it's fafer to err on the right Hand of Charity, than on the left Hand of Strictnefs and Severity; The Civil Law gives this Rule, Sem-per in dubiis benigniora præferenda sunt.

§ 15. It is fo far from being a Warrant, and fatisfying Server Pre-to a Man's Conficience, for approaching the Lord's Table, paration. because the Discipline of the Church admitts him, that even a Man habitually Gracious and prepared, will not for ordinar adventure to approach it, except he hath made Confcience of getting himfelf actually prepared, and his Graces put in Exercife, and fet apart fome confiderable time for that purpofe.

§ 16. By the Act of Affembly 7 February 1545, about Publick Pre-Worship, Congregations are still to be Tryed and Examined before the Communion. - Item, That when the Communion is to be celebrate, one Minister may be imployed for affifting the Minister of the Parish, or at the most two. Item, That there be one Sernion of Preparation delivered in the ordinary Place of publick Worship upon the Day immediately preceeding. Item, That the Minister who cometh to affift, have a special care to provide his own Parifh. Item, That before ferving of the Tables, there be only one Sermon delivered to thefe who are to Communicate, and that there be one Sermon of Thankfgiving after the Communion is ended. Item, When the Parishioners are fo numerous, that many of them cannot conveniently have place; In that cafe, the Brother who affifts the Minifter of the Parish, is to preach to them who are not to Com-

Practice.

The present $ 17. But by the present Practice, the Thursday, or fome other Day of the Week, preceeding the Communion, is kept as a Fast-day, on which there are three Sermons, delivered by fo many Neighbouring Ministers, which yet to some seems not very proper : For the Design of that Day being a Congregational Faft, on which, the Sins of that Parish are to be mourned over before the LORD, no. other Minister can have fuch particular Knowledge thereof, as he who Labours and Travels among them. Upon Saturday there are two preparation Sermons; And upon the LORD's Day there are in fome Churches two Action Sermons, befide the Thankfgiving in the After-noon; And on the Monday there are two Thankfgiving Sermons. There will be at these Occasions, three, five, or perhaps moe Ministers affifting the Pastor of the Congregation, because of the great Confluence of People that refort thereto. Intimation of the Celebration of the Supper, is made two or three Sabbaths before: (the Directory fpeaks but of one) And on the Sabbath immediately preceeding publick Intimation is made of the Faft.

What interveens'trixt the Action Sermon and Jelf.

.§ 18. Upon the Day of the Communion, a large Table being fo placed, as the Communicants may beft fit, and the Congregation may both fee and hear, the publick Worfhip the Action it is begun as on other Sabbaths. And immediately after Sermon, the Minister Prays and sings a part of some Pfalm, then, having had an Exhortation, he defires the Elders and Deacons to bring foreward the Elements, while he cometh from the Pulpit, and fiteth down at the Table, and the Congregation again Sing ; Thereafter, he fenceth and openeth the Tables, as before was faid. The Bread now ftanding before him in large Difhes, fitly prepared for Breaking and Diffribution, and the Wine in large Cups; He Reads, and and may fhortly expound the Words of Inftitution, T Cor. 11. 23.---27. Next, He ufeth a Prayer, wherein he both giveth Thanks for the Ineftimable Benefit of Redemption, and prays to GOD to fanctifie the Elements, and accompany His own Ordinance with the effectual Working of His Spirit.

§ 19. The Elements being thus Sanctified by Word and The Mini-Prayer, the Minister is to take the Bread, and fay, Accor- Ster's Beha-ding to the Holy Inftitution, Command, and Example of Action. our Bleffed LORD and SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST, I take this Bread, and having given Thanks, I break it, and give it unto you, Take ye, Eat ye; this is the Body of CHRIST which is broken for you, do this in Remembrance of Him. In like manner, the Minister is to take the Cup, and fay, According to the Inftitution, Command, and Example of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, I take this Cup, and give it unto you, This Cup is the New Teftament, in the Blood of CHRIST, which is shed for the Remission of the Sins of many, Drink ye all of it : For as oft as ye eat this Bread, and drink this Cup, ye do shew the LORD's Death till He come. If the Minister have no other Brethren aflifting him in the Administration, from whom he is rather to take the Communion at the next Table, he is to Communicate himfelf at the first breaking of the Bread, and distributing the Cup.

§ 2C. All the while the Elders and Deacons in a comservice of petent Number, and in a grave and reverent Manner, do Tables by Elattend about the Table, to fee that none be admitted without Tokens, as in § 13. Huj. Tit. and that all who are admitted, may have the Bread and Wine in their own Place and Order of Sitting, which is without Difference of Degrees, or Refpect of Perfons.

§ 21. By the last mentioned Act of Assembly, there is our of Minito be no Reading in the time of Communicating, but the Mi-fters and Comnister maketh a short Exhortation at every Table; That municants during the Ser-there vice.

there be Silence during the time of the Communicants receiving, only the Minifter may drop a flort and futeable Sentence. By that fame Act, the diffribution of the Elements among the Communicants is to be univerfally ufed, after the Minifter hath broken and delivered it to the neareft. Item, That while the Tables are diffolving, and filling, there be always finging of fome Portion of a Pfalm. Item, That the Communicants both before their going to, and after their coming from the Table, fhall only joyn themfelves to the prefent publick Exercise then in Hand. Item, That none of those who are prefent in the Kirk, where the Communion is celebrate, be permitted to go forth, till the whole Tables be ferved, and the Blefling pronounced, unlefs it be for more Commodious Order, and in other Cafes of Neceflity.

Exhortation § 22. The laft Table, after they have Received, ordiand Thanksgiving after all have Com- own Places. Then the Minister goes to the Pulpit, where, municate; and in a few Words, he puttoth them in mind of the Grace of the Conclusi-GOD in JESUS CHRIST, held forth in this Sacrament, and Exhorts them to walk worthy of it. Then he gives folemn Thanks to GOD for His rich Mercy in JESUS CHRIST, Begs His Pardon for the Defects of the whole Scrvice, and Intreats His Affiftance to walk as becometh thofe who have received fo great Pledges of Salvation, and then concludes with the ufual Petitions in the publick Prayers of the Church. After Prayer, all joyn in finging a part of a Pfalm, futeable to the Occasion, and are difmiffed with the Blefling.

The frequent § 23. In the Manufcript Acts of Affembly, there is an Celebration of Act December 1562. appointing the Communion to be the LORD's celebrate four times a Year in Towns, and twice a Year in Supper Recommended. Country Parifhes; yea, it was Miniftred then once a Moneth, as may be feen by the old Difcipline bound in with the old Pfalms, and Forms for Prayer in Mr.KNOX's time.

And

And by the 14th Art. Cap. 12. of the French Difsipline, It is Recommended to their National Synod, to give Directions about the more frequent Celebration of the LORD's Supper, and their Custom then was four times a Year. But our Acts of Assembly 1638, Seff. 23. Act 12. Act 19. of Astem. 1701, and Directory for Worship, do only Recommend the Frequent Celebration of the LORD's Supper : But how often is to be Determined by the Kirk-Seffions, as they shall find most Convenient for the People, their Comfort and Edification. These Recommendations feem to be Treated with little or no Regard among us, for as yet, fo far as I know, not one Parish hatly Celebrate it once more than Ordinary upon their Account. I'm fure, if they will have it but once a Year, yet Parishes, in the Neighbourhood may fo Correspond, as to have it in that Bounds all the Months of the Year, which will Supply the want of its Frequency in one Parish, at least unto fuch as may well Travel unto their Neighbour Cliurches.

§ 24. By the Act Jam. 6. Parl. 3. Cap. 54. fub fin: the How Com-Parfons of all Parifh-Kirks are to furnish Bread and Wine ments are payto the Communion to oft as it shall be Administrate. And ed, and applyed by the Act of Astern. 1638, Sest. 23. Art. 12. Where the when the Com-Minister of a Parish has only Allowance for furnishing munion is not Communion Elements once a Year; It is Declared, that the Charges should rather be payed out of that Days Collection, than that the Congregation want the more frequent Use of the Sacrament. Spanbemius, in his Introduction. to Sacred History, tells us, that in the Second Century, the LORD's Supper was then Expressed by feveral Names, and among others it was called the OBLA-TION, from the Peoples Offering: the Bread and Wine. And truely, if the People were defired to Contribute Money for that End, it were but Reafonable, and not to be Grudged, even though it were but once a Year Celebrated,

ed, where the Minister has no Allowance even for that once, and wants likeways a Legal Maintenance, Allocated and Secured unto him. But where the Communion is but once a Year, and the Minister hath a Legal Stipend fecured to him, he ought to be Discharged to take or Defray the Expences of the Elements out of the Money given and Mortified for the Ufe of the Poor : And this Practice is rendered yet the more Scandalous and Inexcufable, in Parishes where this Sacrament is but once a Year Celebrate, and where there be Colleagues who have both Legal Stipends. The Sum ordinarily Modified for Communion Elements doth not Exceed Fifty Merks Scots; which the Heretors are lyable yearly to pay, albeit the Communion be not Administrate in the Parish, providing the Minister offer to Apply it for the Use of the Poor.

TITLE V.

Of the Solemnization of Marriage.

Marriage § 1. MATRIMONIUM Is Defined by Modesti-described. mus to be Maris & Fæminæ conjunctio, & omnis vitæ Confortium, Divini & Humani juris communicatio, i. e. The Conjunction of Man and Woman to be Conforts for all their Life, with a Communication of Rights Divine and Humane. By the Laws of the Church of England, as they are Reformed by Henry the 8th, and Edward the 6th, in the Latter Edition Printed at London 1641, Marriage is Defin'd, Legitimus contractus mutuam & perpetuam viri cum fæmina conjunctionem, Dei jussi inducens & perficiens; in quo tradit uterque uterque alteri potestatem sui corporis, vel ad prolem suscipiendam, vel ad scortationem evitandam. NUPTIÆ are fometimes taken pro ritu nuptiali, for Wedding Ceremonies.

§ 2. The Sponfalia, or Espoufals, funt mentio & repro- Sponfalio miffio futurarum nuptiarum, or, de futuro Matrimonio, It on Elpoufales is only a Confent de presenti that makes Marriage .: But what? the Confent de futuro; which is given at the Contract of Marriage or Proclamation of Banns, is only the Effoufals, which are premifed to Marriage, it being fo Solemn an Act, should be performed with due Deliberation. By the Civil Law and Cuftom of this Nation, there is place, rebus integris for either Party to Repent, and Renounce the Espousals. Vide Stairs Instit. page 25. And by the 9th Art. Cap: 13. of the French Church Discipline, tho'it be Prohibited to Marry the Sifter of the Deceased, yet. it doth not condemn Marrying the Sifter of one Contracted, that is Dead, becaufe it fuppofes that an Alliance is not Confummated but by Commixtion of Blood or Sex. See the Commentary on that Article.

§ 3. Marriage ought not to be within the Degrees of Degrees. Confanguinity or Affinity, forbidden by the Eighteenth Degrees. Chapter of Leviticus; The Man may not Marry any of his Wifes Kindred nearer in Blood than he may of his own, nor the Woman of the Hufbands Kindred nearer in Blood than of her own. (See the Confession of Faith) Otherwife the Marriage may be Declared to have been Null. A Man may Marry any of his Wifes Allys, or a Woman any of her Hufbands Allys; nam. non datur Affinitas Affinitatis.

§ 4. Marriage being Ordained for the Increase of Mankind, and for Preventing of Uncleanness, Persons Natumaybe declared rally Impotent are therefore Incapable to Marry. Yet by potency, and the Laws of the Church of England, as Reformed by K. when not? Hen. 8th, and King Edward the 6th, De Matrimonio, Cap. 7.

Cap. 7. their Canon runs thus, Verum si nota sit utrique perversitas, & tamen mutus perducet de Matrimonio consensus, nuptiæ procedant; quoniam volentibus nulla injuria potest fieri:

Who cannot § 5. Thefe who cannot Confent cannot Marry, fuch as Confent, can-Idiots and Furious Perfons durante furore, neither they not Marry. who have not the Ufe of their Reafon, as Infants and thofe under Age who are not come to the Ufe of Difcretion, that is when the Perfon is within the Years of Pupillarity, commonly Eftablished in Law to be Fourteen in Males, and Twelve in Females, nisi malitia suppleat etatem, which without further Probation Declares them to be Arrived at that Difcretion which fits them for Marriage.

Confent of § 6. If it be asked, whether the Confent of Parents, Parents, and of Curators or nearest Friends in their place be Effential to Promiles of Marriage ? The Common Sentence will Refolve it, Mul-Marriage .. made by Mi-ta Impediunt Matrimonium contrabendum, que non dirinors. munt contractum. So that their Confent becomes necessary, as it were, necessitate præcepti, sed non necessitate medii. And by an Overture of Affemby, June 4. 1644, It is proposed to be Confidered on, and Reported by the Prefbyteries, that Promifes of Marriage made by Minors, to Women with whom they have Committed Fornication, be Declared Null and of no Effect; Effectally when the Youth is not willing to Obferve the fame, becaufe his Parents Threaten him with the Lofs of their Bleffing and of his Birth-right. This is propofed as being agreeable to the Word of GOD.

Errors that Mnnull the Confent in Marriage.

§ 7. Errors in the Subftantials make void the Confent, unlefs future Confent Superveen, as it did in Jacob, who fuppofed that he had Married and received Rachel, but by miftake got Leab, yet was content to Retain her, and to Serve for the other alfo: But Errors in Qualities or Circumftantials vitiate not, as if One fuppofing he had Married

Married a Maid or Chaft Woman, had Married a Whore according to Stairs Inst. pag. 26. Yet by Deut. 22. 21. That Errour feemeth to be accounted Substantial: For by that Text a Woman fo Deceiving a Man was to be put to Death. And by the 38 Art. Cap. 13. French Church Discipline, If it should happen, that after Contracts and Promifes made, and before the Accomplishment of Marriage, the Bride is found to have Committed Fornication, before or after the faid Promifes, and that it was unknown to him who had promifed her Marriage, the Confiftory may proceed to a New Marriage : And the Bride shall have the fame Liberty, if it be found that the Bridegroom has been guilty of Fornication befcre the faid Promise. By the 5th Art. Cap. 24. of our Confession of Faith, that Cafe is only Determined thus far, viz. Adultery or Fornication committed after a Contract, being detected before Marriage, giveth just Occasion to the Innocent Party to Diffolve that Contract, and they Support this from that Scripture, Matth, 1. 18, 19, 20.

$ 8. Parties cannot be Married without they be known Testimonials to be fingle Perfons, either by the Ministers own proper for Marriage, Knowledge; or by a Teftimonial from fome Minister, Elders, or Seffion, bearing the fame. But albeit they cannot procure a Teftimonial in common Form, through their being Scandalous, yet the Benefite of Marriage cannot be Denyed them after the Proclamation of Banns. But by. the 21 Art. Cap. 23. of the French Church Discipline, if one of the Parties who defire to be Married, is Excommunicated, the Marriage shall not be Admitted in the Church, unless the Excommunicate Perfon make Confession of his Faults, but those that are Suspended from the LORD's Supper they allow to be Married.

$ 9. By the 3d Article, Chap. 24. of our Confession of Marriage Faith, fuch as profess the true Reformed Religion, should with Papilts. not Marry with Infidels, Papifts, or with other Idolaters, or with fuch as maintain Damnable Herefies. And in purfuance purfuance of that by an Overture of the Affembly 1701, The Transgreffors were to be Excommunicated. But our States-men Difliking the fame, this Overture in the Affembly 1704, Act 22. Islued only in a Recommendation. By the 72 Canon Concilii Sexti in Trullo, It is Determined thus, Non licere virum Orthodoxum cum muliere baretica konjungi, neque verò Orthodoxam cum viro hæretico copu-lari, fed & fi quid ejusmodi ab ullo ex omnibus factum apparuerit, irritas nuptias existimare & nefarium conjugium Diffolvi. But if two Infidels Marry, and one of them becometh Christian, the Person Converted is not thereuporr Warranted to Defert or put away the other. Party who continues Blind, I Cor. 7. 13, 14. And by Can. 31. Concilii Laodiceni, Quod non oportet cum omni Haretico Matrimonium contrabere, vel dare silios aut filias, sed potius accipere si se Christanos futuros profiteantur. And by the 20 Article, Cap. 13. of the French Church Discipline, when one of the Parties is of a Contrary Religion, the purposes of Marriage shall not be published in the Church, until the Party doth publickly profess in the Church, that with full Resolution he Renounceth all Idolatry and Superfition, particularly the Mass: And if any Pastor or Confiftory do otherwife, they may be Sufpended or Turned out of their Office : Thus Difference in Religion justly Impedes but doth not Annull Marriage.

Marriage delayed 40. Days: after Proclamation and Scorning she Kirk.

§ 10. If Parties Delay their Marriage Fourty Days after Proclamation, they are to be put to the Renewing of the fame before they be Married : And the French Difcipline, Cap. 13. Art. 26. doth Recommend, not to Delay the Celebration after Proclamation of Banns, above Six Weeks, to prevent Inconveniences and ill Confequences. The Refiling of Parties after Proclamation, is commonly called among us, a Scorning of the Kirk, tho the Injury or Affront redounds mostly against themselves, and not fo much upon the Congregation. Indeed, if it could be known known that Parties never had a ferious Purpofe for Marriage, but only from a profane, mocking and vain Temper, had defired themfelves to be proclaimed; In this cafe, they deferve to be treated as Mockers of GOD and His People. There are other ways whereby GOD and His Church may be mocked, when Perfons, who be found in Body and Mind, are given up to be minded in the publick Prayers of the Church, when they are truely diffressed in neither, the Authors of which Mocking and Forgery deferve to be proceeded against with the Cenfures of the Church.

§ 11. Adultery and willful Defertion do not annul the When Adul-Marriage on any abfolute Neceflity, but they are just Oc- ful Defertion casions upon which the Perfons Injured may annul it, and annul Marbe free; Otherways, if they pleafe to continue, the Mar-riage. riage remains Valid, excepting when the Adultery is Committed or Accompanyed with Inceft, as if a Man flould ly with his Wife's Sifter, in which cafe the Wife cannot free her felf from the Scandal of Inceft, if the, after Knowledge thereof, continue to Co-habite with him as her Husband. And by the Parl. 1572. Cap. 55. it is Ordered, that the Deserter, after four years Wilful Desertion without a Reafonable Caufe, mult be first purfued, and Decern'd to Adhere, and being there upon Denounced, and also after Piivate and publick Admonitions, by the Church Excommunicate, the Commiffars are warranted to proceed to Divorce. But fimple absence will not be accounted wilful Defertion, if he be following any Lawful Employment Abroad. In Cafe then, A party be out of the Countrey, I fee not how. this Order can be Ufed and Proceeded in, unlefs 'it were Sufficiently Verifyed and made appear, that he knew of his being Cited before these Confistorial Courts, and that his Absence was Wilful and not Necessary.

Of Ministerial Visitation of Families.

S1. IT hath been the laudable Practice of this Annual Church, at leaft once a Year, (if the Largenefs Visitations of of the Parish, or bodily inability, or other fuch like do Castom of this not hinder) for Ministers to Visite all the Families in Churchs their Parish, and oftner if the Bounds be small, and they able to perform it. Among other Reasons for these Annual nual Visitations of Families, this may be one, That becaufe by the Order prefcribed by our LORD, Matth. 18. there may be feveral Offences known to Ministers, Elders or Neighbours, which may justly keep back Offenders from partaking of the LORD's Supper, and yet it were Diforderly and Unedifying to remove these Offences in a publick way; thefe Visitations may ferve to Purge a Congregation of fuch private Scandals.

National Church,

Canjes of a § 7. The Caufes of the Faft enumerate in the Act of Faft in this Affembly 1690. November 12. were these and the like. 1. Perjury, Dealing treacheroufly with the LORD, and being unstedfast in His Covenant. 2. Unfruitfulness under the Purity of Doctrine, Worship and Government, having a Form of Godlinefs, but denying the Power thereof. 3. Abuse of GOD's great Goodness and Deliverance, Evidenced by a Courfe of manifest Wickedness, and shameful Debauchery, such as Drunkenness, Cursing, Swearing, Adultery, and Uncleannefs of all forts. 4. The Supremacy, Which was advanced in fuch a way, and to fuch a height, as never any Chriftian Church acknowledged, and whereby the Interest of our LORD JESUS CHRIST was intirely facrificed to the lawlefs Lufts and Wills of Men. 5. Abjured Prelacy was Introduced, and the Government of the Church was Overturned, without the Church's Confent, and contrary to the ftanding Acts of our National Affemblies. 6. Complyance with that Defection, both in Minifters and others, some from a Principle of Pride and Covetoufnefs, or. Man-pleafing, and others through Infirmity and Weaknefs, or fear of Man and want of Courage and Zeal for GOD. 7. Perfecution of the Godly for Non-complyance with that finful Courfe : Many faithful Ministers were caft out, and many Infufficient and Scandalous Men thruft in on their Charges, and many Families ruined becaufe they would not own them as their Paftors. 8. Decay of Piety under the late Prelacy, fo that it was enough to make a Man be Nick-nam'd a Phanatick, if he did not run to the fame Excess of Ryot with others. 9. Atheism, Which difcovered it felf in fome by their dreadful Boldnefs against GOD, in difputing His Beeing, and Providence, the Divine Authority of the Scriptures, the Life to come, and Immortality of the Soul; Yea, and fcoffed at those things. 10.Imposing

10. Imposing and Taking Unlawful Oaths and Bonds : Lawful Oaths have been broken, and ungodly and Confciencepolluting Oaths have been Imposed and Taken, whereby the Confciences of many through the Land are become fo debauch'd that they fcruple at no Oath, tho' many have been Opprefs'd and Ruin'd for Refufing them. 11. Neglect of the VV orship of GOD, both in Publick, in private Families, and in Secret. 12. Profanation of the LORD's Day, fucceeded in place of that wonted Care of Strict and Religious Sanctifying of it. 13. The shedding of Innocent Blood. 14. Pride and Vanity, yea Sodom's Sins have abounded among us, Idlenefs, Fulnefs of Bread, Vanity of Apparel, and shameful Senfuality fill'd the Land. 15. As alfo, Great perverting of Justice, by making and executing un-righteous Statutes. 16. Silence of Ministers in the time of fuch a great Defection, as well as too general a Fainting among Profestors: And as fome shewed no Zeal in giving feafonable and neceffary Testimony against the Defections and Evils of the Time, nor keeped a due diftance from them; So, on the other Hand, fome managed their Zeal with too little Difcretion and Meeknefs. 17. The abominable Idolatry of the Mass was fet up in many places, and Popish Schools erected, whereby shameful Advances were made towards Popery. 18. Great Ignorance of the way of Salva-tion through the Lord Jesus Christ. Though we profess to acknowledge there can be no Pardon of Sins, no Peace and Reconciliation with God but by His Blood, yet few know Him, or fee the Neceflity and Excellency of Him, and . few efteem, defire, or receive Him as He is offered in the Gospel: And as few are acquainted with Faith in Him, and living by Faith on Him, fo few walk as becometh the Gofpel, and Imitate our Holy Lord in Humility, Meeknefs, Self-denyal, Heavenly Mindednefs, Zeal for God and Charity towards Men. 19. Great Contempt of the Gospel, Barrennefs under it, and a deep Security under our Sin and Danger

Danger. 20. Tho' the Lord, by cafting us into the Fur-nace of Affliction, hath been giving us a fight of the Vanity of all things befide Himfelf; Yet, to this day, there is a woeful selfibness among us, every one feeking his own Things, few or none the Things of Jefus Chrift, the publick Good, or one anothers Welfare. 21. A bitter Spirit of Cenforiousness, whereby the most part are more ready to Carp at the Sins and Defections of others, than to Repent and Mourn for their own. Thefe and the like were the Caufes of the Fast in the Year 1690, and to them the Fasts appointed fince, do Ordinarily Referr. The Sundays were Appointed for fome Fafts, as being for the greater eafe of the people : And fince, by the Laft Act of Affembly 1646. A Faft is Appointed on the Sabbath next except one, preceeding the then following General Affembly : Yet feing the Work to be performed on the first day of the Week is by Divine Institution already Determined, we ought to fet about it Exactly, which we all acknowledge to be a Thankfgiving and not a Faft. Extraordinary Duties are not to Interfere with the Ordinary, nor is one Duty to fhuffle out another. If either should be allowed, it would look fomewhat like the Reverse of Redeeming the time, for thereby diligence is rather diminished, than doubled in the Service of God.

received, are wholly to be fpent in the publick and private Exercises of Divine Worship and Praises: The people are to Rejoice with Trembling, and to beware of all Excess in Eating or Drinking. And Demonstrations of Civil Mirth, fuch as Ringing of Bells, Fireing of Guns, Bonefires, and Illuminating of Windows should not be Intermixed with the Religious Duties of that Day: But as upon Fasts, fo upon those Days, there should be Liberal Collections for the poor, that their Bowels may bless us, and Rejoice the more with us. In the 6 the Church was cautioned against appointing Fasts for Strife and Debate, so I hope they shall be directed to avoid injoining of thanks giving days from any fasts or unjust ends.

Their Perfons are accounted fo Sacred among our People, and they judge themfelves fo Secure from that Venerable Impression, they very well know, is generally received of their Character, that they rarely make Ordinary Journeys with Arms, as Gentlemen and other Travellers do. Of Churches, Church-Dikes, Manses, Yards, Glebes, Bells, Utenfils, Ornaments, Books, and High-Roads to Churches.

§ 1. CHurches are Publick Houfes Erected for Publick What a Divine Worthip, and for hearing the Preaching by whom to be of the Word of GOD; They are to be Repaired Respaired. out of the Vacant Stipend: For that 18 Act, Jam. 7. Par. 1. is never yet in fo far Refcinded. And when the Vacant Stipends fail, the Burden of Building and Repairing the Church doth ly upon the Heretors, whether Refiding in the Parish or not; The Majority of these that meet, must Stint themselves for that Effect, according to their Rents. But if the Heretors Refuse, being Required thereto by the Minister from the Kirk-Seffion; The Lords of Seffion upon a Bill given in by the Minister will grant Warrant to him and his Seffion to Conveen at a certain Day, for trying what Sum will Repair the Church, and to Stent the Heretors in that Sum conform to their valued Rents, and to appoint a Collector to Uplift the fame. But before the making up of that Stent-Roll, the Heretors ought again to be publickly Advertifed to meet, and then to make the fame. If after this Order is used, they Fail, the Seffion then concludes the Stent, and Letters will be Direct at their Collectors Inftance against the Heretors for paying the Proportions they are Stented in, Stair's Instit. page 192, and Act ult. Of Tithes, Stipends, and Mortifications.

1. THE Maintenance belonging to Ministers for their Labours we call Stipends, but more What is meant by Sticommonly and by the Canon Law they are pend, Benefice, and the named Benefices. Calvin, in his Lexicon Juridicum tells. Churches Paus, that the Rewards and Privileges given and granted of grimony. old to Souldiers for their Service, were called Benefices. and Stipends. The Canonists define a Stipend or Bene-fice thus, Est jus perpetuum percipiendi fructus ex bonis Ecclesiasticis, propter aliquod officium spirituale, auctoritute Ecclesia constitution. Whatever belongs to Church-men is likeways called the Patrimony of the Church, the word fignifying an Inheritance left by a Father; Becaufe when Legislators or private perfons do Authorize or Destinate futeable Encouragement for the Comfortable Life of Church-Guides and Pastors, they do, in so far, act the part of Nurfing Fathers unto the Church, in the 9 Chap. of the Policy of the Kirk, they Comprehend under the Churches Patrimony, all things given, or to be given to the Kirk, and Service of God, as Lands, Buildings, Poffeffions, Annualrents, and all fuch like wherewith the Kirk is Doted, either by Donations, Mortifications, or any other Lawfull Titles, together with the continual. Oblations of the Faithful; As alfo Teinds, Manfes, Glebes and fuch like, which by Common and Municipal Laws, and Universal Customs are possessed by the Kirk.

Kirk. And to take any of this Patrimony and convert it to the particular and private Ufe of any Perfon, is reputed a deteftable Sacriledge before God, by our Church.

French Church Discipline, It is found, that Minifters who are Rich, and have of their own, should neverthelefs take Wages of their Flocks, left their Example do prejudice to other Paffors and Churches. And M'kenzie and Stairs in their Institutions do maintain that some part ot our Goods is due, by Divine Right, towards the Maintenance of the Clergy, but that the Proportion may be determined by Humane Laws, according to Circumfunces. By the 19 Act of Parliament 1633. all Ministers are appointed to be provided with fufficient Stipends, being eight Chalders of Victual, or eight hundred Merks at least, befide Manfe and Glebe, except in fingular Cafes referr'd to the Commission for Plantation of Kirks. In some Places of Scotland, Ministers may maintain their Families for lefs than the half, which must be allowed to maintain the fame Families in other Parts of the Kingdom. Seing Ministers do deny themfelves to the Gain of Civil Imployments, whereby they might have a more unlimited Profpect, not only of maintaining their Families, but of purchasing Stocks for their Posterity, therefore the Dutch Custom is not Unreafonable, which alloweth to Ministers fo much for every Son, in Order to his better Education and Breeding.

§ 5. By the 4th Act. Parl. 22. Jac. 6th. Bishops are difcharged to fet in Tack longer than nineteen Years, and Inferiour Beneficed Perfons for longer Space than their own Lifetime, and five Years thereafter (except the Commiffion Authorize it) under the pain of Deprivation; And further, the Contraveeners declared Infamous and Incapable of any Church Office. Longer Tacks were ordained to be Registrate within fourty Days, in a particular Book to be kept by the Clerk-Register for that Effect, otherwife to be null. And where it is faid, that the Inferiour Clergy can fet Tacks to run five Years after their Decease, that is always to be underftood with Confent of the Patron, obtained .either either before or after the Setting of the Tacks : For without that they can fet but Three Years Tacks, Act 15. Par. 23. Jac. 6. And that the Ecclefiaftical Rents may fuffice to their Ufes, all Alienations, fetting of Feus, or Tacks of the Rents of the Kirk, as well Lands as Teinds, in Hurt and Diminution of the Old Rentals, ought to be Reduced and Annull'd. And likewife that in all times coming, the Teinds be fet to none but to the Labourers of the Ground, or elfe not fet at all. Vide Cap. 12. of the Policy of the Kirk, fub fin.

§ 6. The Legal Terms of Paying or Vaiking of Beneof Payment, fices and Stipends, are, Whitfunday, at which time the and Vaiking Fruits are held to be fully Sown, and Michaelmafs, when of Stipends, they are prefumed to be fully feparated : If the Incumbents Entry be after Michaelmafs, and before Whitfunday, he hath that whole Year, if after Whitfunday the half of that Year : Or if he Die, be Depofed, or Transported before Whitfunday he hath no part of that Year, if after Whitfunday and before Michaelmafs, he hath the Half of that Year.

§ 7. Albeit a Benefice Vaik when a Minister is De-Benefices posed, yet till the fame be Intimate, the Parishioners may vaik upon Inpay their Stipends in to him, and his Discharges will Defend Sentences, them. But after Intimation is made, no Payment will be fustained. Vid. Stair's Inst. pag. 151.

§ 8. The Annat due to the Executors of Deceast Mi-Annat, nifters, is Declared to be Half a Years Rent, over what is what it is, due to the Defunct for his Incumbency, to wit, if he furit falls, vive Whitfunday, the Half of that Year is due for his Incumbency, and the other Half for the Ann: And if he furvive Michaelmass, the whole Year is due for his Incumbency, and the Half of the next Year for the Ann, And the Executors need not to Confirm it, Par. 2. Seff. 3. Cap. 13. Car. 2. neither can it be Difponed to Strangers by the Defunct, nor Affected by his Creditors, for it did did never belong unto him, it being only a Gratuity which the Law Indulgeth, upon the Account that Ministers are fuppofed not to die Rich. The Annat Divides betwixt the Relict and the nearest of Kin, if there be no Children, and is Extended to the Profite of the Glebe, if there be no new Intrant : But where there is an Intrant, the Glebe belongs to him, and is no part of the Ann, nor did belong to the former Minister, unlefs it was fown by him, and the Crop upon it at the Entry of the Intrant, Vid. There were in Chrift's Time abundance of idle Pharifees, Scribes and Priefts, that fpent their time in teaching the People their Rites, Ceremonies and Traditions: But there were always but a few Labourers in God's Harveft; Hence Chryfostome thought that but few Minifters will be faved. Of Papists, Quakers, and Bourignianists.

Hereticks who they are.

I.

A Ccording to the Canon Law, Haretici funt illi qui vana gloria principatusque sui causa, falsas Opiniones gignunt vel sequuntur. Anciently the

the Word Harefis was taken for a firm Opinion, whether the fame was Good or Bad. It is Committed by Chriftians when they pertinacioufly propogate or follow Opinions contrary to the Received Fundamental Doctrine of the Church.

§ 2. That no Man should be Compelled by Temporal Punishment Punishments to profess the true Faith, is a Doctrine Uni- of Herefy. verfally Received among the Reformed Churches. It is Crimen mere Ecclesiasticum, at least as to it's Cognition primâ instantiâ. The Reformed Churches never Deliver any they find Hereticks to the Civil Judge, or rather, according to the Imployment given the Judges by Papifts, the Civil Executioners. One continuing a Heretick ought to be Rejected and Excommunicated, Compare Tit. 3. 10. with I Tim. I. 20. Our Sovereigns by their Coronation Oath, are to Root out all Hereticks, that shall be Convict by the true Kirk of GOD, from their Empire of Scotland, which doth not Oblige them to Perfecution, nor to pay blind Obedience to the Church, but only it binds them, at least chiefly, to Execute the Laws against Papist, who are declared common Enemies to all Protestant States, Jac. 6. Par. 16. Cap. 18.

§.3. The feverity of our Laws against Papists will be further liament ajustified, if we confider, that by the Law of GOD Idolaters gainst Papists. were to be put to Death, Deut. 17. and agreeable thereto, Popish Idolaters are to be punished with Death, by the 104 AEParl. 7. None are to go on Pilgrimage to Kirks, Chappels, Croffes, or the like, keep Saints Days, Sing Carols within and about Kirks, or observe other Superstitious Papistical Rites, under the Pecunial Pains therein contained, for the first Fault, and under the pain of Death to the Continuers therein. By K. W. Par. Seff. 5. Cap. 26. No Papist can make any Gratuitous Dispolition or Deed in prejudice of their appearand Heirs; Declaring fuch Difpolition or Deed to be Null: And that it be judged Gratuitous, unlefs the Granter, Writer, and Witneffes, Declare upon Oath before the Judge of the Bounds, That it was Granted for an Onerous Adequate Caufe, by K. W. Par. Seff. 9. Cap. 3. Thefe above mentioned Acts are Ratified, with all other Laws made against Popery and Papists, especially these against Jeluites, Priests, or Tafficking Papifts, and all Sayers and Hearers of Mafs, and Concealers of the fame. Item, Whoever feizes any Prieft, Jesuit, or Trafficking Papist, or their Resetters, upon Certificate of the Conviction of the Perfon feized by the Judge, shall have 500 Merks for his Reward from the Treasury; For which the Receiver General may be purfued before the Lords of Seffion. Item, If it be proven that the faid Priest, Jesuit, or Trafficking Papist was held in Repute fuch, or that he changed his Name, and shall refuse the Formula of Purgation subjoyned to this Act, it shall be sufficient Ground for the Council to Banish him, never to return a Papist under pain of Death, to be Inflicted by the Lords of Justiciary. Item, If any perfon be found in any Meeting where there is any Altar, Mafs-Book, or other Inftruments of Popish Superstition, and shall refule to purge, as above, it shall be fufficient Ground to the Council to Banish, under any Certification they shall think think fit, even to that of Death ; And whofoever difcovers and feizes the faid banished person, after his Return, shall have the forefaid Reward of 500 Merks. Item, The 8. AE Par. 1. Car. 2. is Ratified, and any Protestant Relation, or His Majesties Advocator Sollicitor, may pursue for the Exhibition and Education of Children in the Keeping of Papifts : And the Lords of Seffion are Impowered to Modifie an Aliment out of the Childrens or their Parents Means : And it is Recommended to Presbyteries to Inform in this Matter. Item, No Papist profest, or not purging, can receive any voluntar Deed or Disposition made to him of any Lands, or real Rights, or Tacks of Lands, or Teinds, but the fame are declared Null, and to remain with the Granter, and no Action for Warrandice or Repetition of the Price. Item, No Papist past the Age of Fisteen Years, can fucceed either as Heir, or by other Conveyance from the perfon to whom he may be Heir, until he pnrge himfelf of Popery, as above; And if being Educate in the Popifh Religion, he fucceed as above, before the faid Age, then he shall be obliged to purge before he attain the same; And the perfon fo fucceeding, failzieing in either of thefe Cafes, Devolves to the next Protestant Heir, who is to be Served as such to the Defunct, and to have Right to the Estate and Rents, from the faid Irritancy, ay and while the perfon Excluded, or his Heir purge himfelf, as above : In which cafe he is to be Reponed as before the Exclusion ; The interveening Rents, with the Burden of the current Annualrents of Debts, remaining with the Protestant Succeffor, but this Exclusion to be without prejudice of Creditors before the Exclusion. Item, No Papist may grant any gratuitous Deed in prejudice of his Heir, but the fame is declared Null, fave as to the affecting the Granters Perfon and Moveables : See the forecited 26. Act. Seff. 5. K. W. Par. Item, The Protestant on whom the Succeffion Devolves by the faid Exclusion, must profecute his Ŧ Bb Right

Right within two years, else it falls to the next, and fo on. Item, The Papift and his Heir must Renounce Popery within ten years, after the faid Irritancy (Minority not reckoned) or is to be Excluded for ever; And the Estate thus Devolving, Devolves with all its lawful Conditions and Burdens. Item, No voluntar Right by a Papist in favours of his appearand Heir alfo a Papist, shall be of Force, tho' prior to this A&, unless Cled with Infeftment or Poffession, or proceeded in Judgment prior thereto. Item. All Dispositions or Deeds in Favours of Cloyfters, or other Popish Societies, are declared Void, and to accresce to the next Protestant Heir to the Granter. Item, No Adjudication is to expire in the perfon of a Papift, but coming in the person of a Protestant, the Legal being run, it Expires within Year and Day thereafter, and no Adjudication or real Diligence is competent to a Papist, upon any gratuitous Bond or Deed. Item, That the Formula of purgation be taken before the Council, or before the Presbycery, and Reported within Fourty Days to the Council. Item, A Protestant Apostatizing to Popery, Forfaults his Estate immediately to his next Heir, being Protestant, as if he were Dead; And this next Heir, if in Pupillarity, is to be reckoned Protestant, if his Education be fuch, or if it be Popish, he is Excluded until he purge, as above. Item, That no suspected Papist be capable of any Trust of the Person or Affairs of Minors, and that none imploy them in fuch Trusts, until they purge as above, under the pain of a years valued Rent, or a Thousand Merks, if the valued Rent be lefs. Item, No fuspect Papift may Teach any Science, Art, or Exercise in Families, or out with, nor may a Protestant have a Popish Domestick Servant, under the pain of Five Hundred Merks, which may be purfued by any Protestant, and upon Conviction, to have the same for Reward. By the 28. Act Seff. 6. of K. Williams Parl. Whoever perverts a Protestant Subject to Popery, shall be proceeded against as a Trafficking Papist : That a Protestant Servant turning Papist in a Popish Family, be punished as an Apostate, and the Master when required is obliged to Difmifs that Servant, never more to be received by him, or any other PopishMaster, under pain of an Hundred Pounds; and that Popish Masters allow their Servants due Liberty to attend Worship and Catechifing, under the faid pain, and that these Servants use that Liberty, under the pain of being banished the Parish: By the 5th Act 1. Par. Jac. 6. The Sayers and Hearers of Mals, or fuch as are prefent thereat, are punished by Confiscation of all their Goods, Moveable and Immoveable, and an Arbitrary punishment of their perfons for the first Fault, Banishment for the fecond, and Death for the third Fault. By the 122. Att Jac. 6. Parl. 12. The Sayers of Mass, Resetters of Jesuits, Seminary Priefts, and Trafficking Papifts, against the Kings Majefty, and Religion prefently profeffed within this Realm, is, and shall be a just Caule to infer the Crime and pain of Treason, providing how scon they fatisfie the Prince and the Kirk, the penalty forefaid shall not strike against the Resetter. By the Declaration of the Estates, containing the Claim of Right, April 11. 1689. It is De-clared, That by the Law of this Kingdom, no Papist can be King or Queen of this Realm, nor bear any Office whatfoever therein.

§ 4. The lateft and most comprehensive Acts of Assembly Acts of, against Popery, are these, By Act July 29. 1640. All Ido-Assembly latrous Monuments are appointed to be taken down and against better and Presbyteries and Synods are to see this Work with all diligence performed. This is conform to the 64 and 90 CANONS, Concil. Carthag. Ut Reliquia Idolorum radicitus extirpentur, similiter placuit peti a gloriofission Imperatoribus, ut reliquia Idololatria non folum qua funt in statuis; sed qua sunt in quibus locis vel lucis vel arboribus, omni modo deleantur. By Assembly 1642, Ses. B b 2 7: and 7. and 1648, Seff. 38. Presbyteries are appointed to Con-veen known Papifts in their Bounds, and oblige them within a Month, to put from their company Popish Friends and Servants, and give their Children above feven years of Age, to be Educated at their Charges, by fuch Protestant Friends as the Presbytery shall Approve, and find Caution within three Months, to bring Home fuch of their Children as are Abroad, to be Educated at the fight of the Presbytery: The Obstinate are to be Proceffed instanter, and those who comply are to confer with Profeffors in the next University, in order to their Conversion. Item, The Government is to be Supplicate for an Act, that in no Regiment that goes out of the Kingdom, any Papist bear Office, and the Collonel to find Caution for this effect. But the substance of this defired Act, is already declared in the Claim of Right, and Enacted by 9. Act Parl. 1. Jac. 6. and the 5 Act Farl. 2. Jac. 6. By the 8: Act of Affembly 1699, They appoint all Ministers to Study Popish Controversies more. Item, That all due Endeavours be used to Unite Protestants among themselves. Item, That Ministers faithfully Watch the Flock committed to them, that fo by publick Preaching, private Instruction and Conference, Apostacy may be prevented. Item, Ministers are to deal wifely and convincingly with those who have fallen to Popery, and other corrupt Practices, for their Recovery: Item, When other Means are ineffectual, Pref. byteries are appointed to proceed to Church Cenfure. TITLE III.

Of Schifm and Prelacy, and of the Laws and Acts for preventing Innovations and Errours.

S 1. A Ccording to the Canon Law, Schifmaticus est schifm, What, qui ab Unitate Ecclefia fe feparat, Schifm is to the Church what a Cutt is to the Natural Body, it may be where no Herefy in Doctrine is; It is a breaking of that Church Union and Communion which ought to be among her Members.

§ 2. Schifm in Church Government is either about Schifm above the Government it felf, or about the Perfons in whom it Church Gois lodged, which Difference may occafion the Erecting of vernment. Altare contra Altare. Schifm may be in Worfhip, when both the fame Doctrine and Government is acknowledged, but Communion is not kept in the Lord's Supper, according to Chrift's Appointment : This feems in part to have been the Schifm among the Corintbians, occafioned perhaps through the Corruption of fome Members with whom others have fcrupled to Communicate.

§ 3. The Underftanding having fuch Influence upon the When Schifm Will and Affections, and Union having fo much Intereft in is to be proboth, the fame will be more eafily attained by perfwafive ceeded against. Reafonings than Authoritative Injunctions. Though the Authority of a Church may be Interposed to condemn Heretical and Scandalous Members, yet it is rarely found to be the way of Uniting a Rent Church, but rather the way to Govern an United Church : For it often happens, where fuch Divisions arife, that Parties do reciprocally decline each others Authority : Indeed where Schifm is only a fpreading, Ipreading, or but among few, who cannot be otherways gained; In that cafe, the Cenfures of the Church may be Prelacy de- more fuccesfully applyed against them.

And, Whether by that Connal Fasts; It feffion, as it was then professed, all other Episcopacy is ab-never recei-ved the Chur- jured, and ought to be removed out of this Kirk? The ches confent, haill Affembly most unanimously (one only Hesitating) did Voice, That all Episcopacy, different from that of a Pastor over a particular Flock, was abjured in this Kirk, and therefore prohibites, under the pain of Ecclefiastical Cenfure, any to Ufurp, Accept, Defend, or Obey the pretended Authority of Bishops in time coming. By the Act of Affembly August 17. 1639. It is Declared, That the changing of the Government of the Kirk from the Affemblies thereof to the Perfons of fome Kirk-men, under the name of Episcopal Government, was against the Confession of Faith 1580. against the Order set down in the Book of Policy, and against the Intention, and Constitution of this Kirk, and which from the beginning hath been one of the Chief Caufes of the bygone Evils therein. The Affembly in their Answer August 9. 1641. to the English Ministers, Declare, they are perfwaded Prefbyterial Kirk Government to be of God, and Episcopal Government to be only of Men : and they Refolve to hold the fame Conftantly. Again, by their Answer August 3. 1642. to the Declaration of the Parliament of England, they fay, The Reformed Kirks do hold without doubting their Kirk Officers and Kirk Government by Affemblies Higher and Lower in their ftrong ftrong and beautiful Subordination, to be Jure Divino, yet Prelacy, as it differeth from the Office of a Paftor, is almoft univerfally acknowledged by the Prelats themfelves, to be but an Humane Ordinance fettled by Humane Law for fuppofed Conveniency : Wherefore, by Humane Authority, without wronging any Man's Confcience, the fame may be abolifhed upon fo great a Neceflity as is a hearty Conjunction with all the Reformed Kirks. Among the Caufes of that Faft appointed by Affembly 1690, this is one, That the Government of the Church was altered, and Prelacy Re-introduced without the Churches confent, and contrary to the ftanding Acts of our National Affemblies. From all which it appears, that the Re-introducing of Prelacy, was always Lay, and Parliamentary only, and the Government of the Church by Prefbyters was Orderly and Synodically Eftablifhed by the Guides and Governours of the Church, her Preaching and Ruling Elders.

OUr General Affembly, July 29, 1640: Ordains Acts of all Ministers carefully to take notice of Char- Assembly for mers, Witches, and all such abusers of the peo- Witches of, Witches of the peo- Witches of; ple, and to urge the Acts of Parliament to be Execute Grounds for against them. By another Act August 19, 1643: Ministers apprehending must be careful to Instruct the people, press Holiness of Life of, and how to upon them, and use the Censure of the Kirk against pro-them. fane persons; Moreover, let the people seek Knowledge, Study to Believe, walk in Holinefs, and be inftant in Prayer; all which is proposed as Means to prevent the growth of Witchcraft; And further, Presbyteries are Ordained, to take under Confideration by what other Ways or Means these Sins may be Tryed, Restrain'd, and condignly cenfured and punished, Ecclefiaftically and Civilly. In pursuance whereof, the Affembly August 6, 1649, for Adviling anent the tryal and punishment of Witchcraft, Charming, and Confulting, there is a Commission granted to One and Twenty Ministers, for a Conference in the faid Matter, with Nine Lawyers and Three Phyficians. D d And

And in the Affembly 1700, among the Unprinted A&s, you'll find a Committee of Ministers appointed to Attend the Lords of Council and Justiciary concerning Witchcraft, when called thereto by their Lordships. By the Aflembly August 5, 1642, Presbyteries are Ordained to give up to the Lords of Jufficiary, the Names of Witches, Sorcerers and Charmers, and becaufe fuch Sins proceed many times from Ignorance, therefore all Ministers are Ordained (efpecially in the North where these Sins are more frequent) to be diligent in Preaching, Catechifing, and Conferring, to Inform their people therein. By the forecited A& Affembly 1643, they Declare the Occasions of Witchcraft to be these especially, viz. Extremity of Grief. Malice, Paffion, and defire of Revenge, pinching Poverty, and Sollicitation of other Witches. They fay the Reafons of Satans prevailing, are, groß Ignorance, Infidelity, want of Love to the Truth, and profanenels of Life. The means they propole, for bringing them to a just punishment, are, That a Commission be Granted to some Gentlemen and Magistrates, within the Bounds of fuch Presbyteries, as shall crave it, giving them power to caufe Apprehend, Try, and Execute Justice upon perfons guilty of fuch Crimes: They Declare the Grounds for Apprehending Witches, to be these, viz. A reigning Bruit of Witchcraft, backed with Delations of confelling Witches, being Con-fronted with them : for it is found, that the Delations of Two or Three Confeffing Witches, hath ordinarily proved true : As alfo, Depolitions of honeft perfons concerning Malefices committed, or Cures used by them, may be a ground for Apprehending them. Mackenzie on this Title, fays, That none should be Apprehended for Witches except it appear by the Event of the Inquisition, that they ly under many and pregnant prefumptions, fuch as, That they are Defamed by other Witches, That they have been themfelves of an ill Fame, That they have been found Charming, Charming, or that the ordinary Inftruments of Charming, be found in their Houses; And it is to be remembred, that Ad assumendas Informationes, Sufficiunt levia Indicia, sed gravia requiruntur ad hoc ut citetur reus & ut Judex specialiter inquirat. By the forefaid Act of Affembly, after they are Apprehended, honeft and difcreet perfons thould be appointed to Watch them, to prevent their being fuborned, and hardned by others, or deftroying themfelves, and Minifters would be careful at all times, especially Morning and Evening, to deal with them by Prayer and Conference, while they are in prilon or reftraint.

§ 2. Witchcraft was Crimen utriusque fori, by the Canon Law, Who are and with us, the Kirk Seffion did use to Inquire into it Judges comin order to the Scandal, and take the Confession of Parties, petent thereis, or receive Witneffes against them : But fince fo much weight is laid upon the Depositions there Emitted, they should be very Cautious in their procedure. By the 73, Att Parl. 9. Qu. Indeed if the perfon who used the Charms, knew them to be fuch, as Witches and Sorcerers do make use of, for procuring fuch Mischief, it is Relevant to infer Witchcraft, as hath been faid. The using of Magick Arts or Charms, though for good Uling of Ends, as for the Curing of Diseases in Men or Cattel, has Charms tho no place to make a relevant Defence. Since the Law canfor good Ends punishable. not know exactly, what Efficacy there is in natural Caufes, it may very well Discharge all such Acts. wherein there is no neceffary Connexion, inter causan & effectum, as it pleases, under the pain of Witchcraft : Nor can thele who are Accuied,

Albeit Hic non Confession, or hyprobation of semper requiritur ut constet de Corpore delicti, this being a Winneffes. Crime which confilts in animo, yet the Confession ought to be fuch, as contains nothing in it that is impofiable : It is Condescended by Lawyers, that succubi & incubi funt polfibiles; That the Devil may ly in the fhape of a Man with a Woman, or in the fhape of a Woman with a Man, having first formed to himself a Body of Condensed Air; Or that he may Transport Witches to their publick Conventions, and upon fuch Contessions some have been punished as Witches. The Probation of this Crime by Witneffes is very difficult, and therefore Socii Criminis, or other other confessing Witches are adduced : But yet, these do not prove Witchcraft folely, though dying and penitent: Whereas it may be doubted if the Confulting of Witches may not be proved by Two of them who were Confulted: For if this be not a sufficient Probation, it may sometimes be impossible to prove Confulting any other way: But if such be substained, why may not Socii Criminis be allowed as habile Witneffes. The perfons injured by Witches, are admitted Witneffes against them, but cum nota, Women are received Witneffes in this Crime : Witches do rarely Weep, becaufe they are ordinarily Hardned.

Yet it is not unlawful for any to remove the Charm, or Sign of it, if it be in their power to do it, without any Application to the Devil or his Inftruments.

How they Torment by the punishment of Witches.

§ 7. Witches do likewise Torment Mankind, by making Images of Clay or Wax, and when they prick them, the Images, and of Persons do find extreme Torment, which doth not proceed from any Influence these Images have upon the Body Tormented, but the Devil doth by natural means raife these Torments in the Person, at the very same time that the Witches do prick, or pounce, or hold to the Firethefe Images: Witches confeffing this manner of Torment, may very judicially be found Guilty. fince constat de Corpore delicti, de modo delinquendi, & inimicitiis præviis. . The Affembly likeways Declares, That these Acts made against Breach of the Sabbath, shall not only reach the Servants, who actually Work, but alfo the fame shall be Extended against their Mafters and Hirers, August 14th 1642. By Act of Affeinbly June 18th 1646. all fuch Skippers and Sailers, who begin any Voyage, or loofe any Ships, Barks, or Boats, out of Road or Harbour on the Lord's Day, are to be cenfured. By Seff. 38. 1648. Elders are to take notice, how fuch as are within their Bounds keep the Kirk, and how the time is fpent before and after publick Worship. By the 25th A& Affembly 1690. all unneceffary Sailing and Travelling is prohibited on the Lord's Day. Item, By Act Affembly 1705. Self. 12. By the 12th Act of Assembly 1708. for the better Observation of the Lord's Day, they appoint fome to be fent from each Pref-bytery within this Church to attend the Lords of Jufficiary at their Circuit within their Bounds, and then to reprefent the Profanation of the Lord's Day by Travelling thereupon, carrying Goods, driving of Cattel, and other Abufes : And they ferioufly recommend it to the faids Lords, to reftrain and punish the forefaid Abuses, which the Affembly will acknowledge as a fingular Service done to God and this Church. And all Minifters are Injoined, to advertife their People, among whom fuch Practices are, of the great hazard their Immortal Souls are thereby in; And that if they continue therein, there will be a necessity to reprefent them as fuch Transgreffours to the forefaid Lords. So much Respect doth our Law pay to the Sabbath or Lord's Day, that it cannot be taken for Redemption of Lands, and a Wood-fetter cannot be obliged to attend and perform the Requilites of Confignation, by Numeration of Money, perufal of Writs, and fubfcribing a Renunciation on the Sabbath Day. It is Relevant to alledge, that an Arreftment or Horning is Null, as being execute upon a Sabbath Day : And poinding on the Lord's Day, or on Solemn Days appointed by Church or State for Humiliation or Thankfgiving, are void and punishable, vide STAIR's Instit. pag. 336, 375, 411, and 728. And if the Law did not thus order it, the Confcientious Obfervers of the Lord's Day would certainly be molefted, and advantage taken of them by Worldly Wretches and Contemners of Holy Things. By Cap. 7c. Parl. 6. Jac. 6. The Church bashno Anniver fary Falt or Feast Days.

§ 6. This Church hath no Anniverfary Feaft or Festival of Scotland Days, but doth only fet apart a Day or Days for Thankfgiving or Humiliation, as emergent Providences do call for. By the 1st Ast Parl. 15th. fac. 6th. The 5th Day of August is appointed to be a Day of Thanksgiving to GOD, for King James his Prefervation from the Treasonable Attempt of the Earl of Goverie and his Brother : But the Truth of this Matter being much questioned by many, it never received Universal Obedience, and at length turned wholly into Defuetude. By Parl. 1. Seff. 1. Cap. 17. and Parl. 2. Seff. 2. Cap. 12. of Car. 2. The 29th Day of May is appointed for the folemn Commemoration of his Birth and Reftoration: And for that end, that it be fet apart as a Holy Day unto the LORD. But one of the Reafons why the Presbyterians did not keep this Day is, because in the Act of Parliament appointing it, there is a long Preface full of black Afperfions upon the whole Church and Nation, and fuch Reflections upon Religion and the Work of GOD, as cannot be read without Horror. And they were followed with Acts that destroyed the Church Government, contrary to National folemn Engagements, and gave a deep Wound to true Religion : So that however the King's Reftoration might otherways have been Matter of Joy, yet in this Refpect it could not be fo to any in this Land, that had a true Regard for the Interest of Religion. Our Prelatists did use to observe the 30th Day of January, as an Humiliation Day, because upon it King Charles the First was Beheaded in England, by the Authority and Power of the Usurpers and Sectaries there; But the' that horrid Fact was ftill fill detefted and abhorred, both by this Church and Kingdom, yet we never would obferve it, becaufe of our notour Innocence in that Matter. It is true, it is our Duty to Mourn for the Sins of others, but not as our own Sins, except we have had fome finful active Acceffion thereto.

The faid Delinquents be found within their Bounds Haunting openly for Ten Days; that they be holden as Connivers, and be obliged to Exhibit them under the like Punishment. But by the 37 Act of Parl. 1685, It is Ordained, That whofoever shall be found guilty of Affaulting the Lives of Ministers, or of Invading or Robbing their Houfes, or actually attempting the fame, shall be punished with Death.

§ 3. By the 20 Act Seff. I. Parl. I. Car. 2. Beating or Curfing of Pa- Curfing of Parents, is declared to be punishable by the Law of GOD with Death, and therefore Ordains, That whatfoever Son or Daughter above the Age of Sixteen Years, and not Distracted, shall Beat or Curse his Father or Mother, he shall Die without Mercy: But if they be within the Age of Sixteen, and past Pupillarity, they are to be punished Arbitrarily.

§ 4. Verbal Injuries are committed by unwarrantable Expressions, as to call a Man a Cheat. Calvin in his Lexicon Juridicum, fays, That Diffamare est per diversas partes famam divulgare, facta vitiorum commemoratione. In Libelling of fuch Injuries, there is requisite, First, That the particular Expressions be distinctly condescended on, that the Injury may be accordingly Estimate. Next, That the Calumniandi, or Injuriandi animus, the defign of Injuring, as well as the Injuring Words, must be Libelled and Proven, except the Words infer fo clearly the Injury, that there is no neceffity to Libel the Defign. In the last Place, That the Purfuer did prefently Refent the Injury, and thereupon did fignifie, either expresly, or by fome other Acts, his Diffatisfaction therewith : For, if he was of fuch a Temper as not to fignifie any Resentment thereof at first, the Law will not allow him to Repent of that good Humour. § 5. Since Injuries are Effimate, according to the Defign What defends of the Offender, it follows that Men who are Fools, Idiots, against the puvery Young, or very Drunk, are not punishable for Verbal Injuries, except the Offender did become Drunk upon Defign to Offend: And great Passion, which breaks off all Defigning, Justa & non affect at a ira, excuse the also in this Cafe. The relating also what we have heard from good Authors, who defign no Prejudice, is fufficient also to defend against the Punishment due to Injurers.

But Real Injuries may be purfued before the Council or Criminal Court. By the Civil Law Verbal Injuries are extinguished, if they be not purfued within a Year, or by posteriour express Friendship.

How Church Fudicatories are to behave in Proceffes for Calumny.

§ 9. When the Complaint confifts of fome Injurie done to the Complainer, it is fit that the Church should endeavour to compose and remove such Differences privately; but if the bringing of it before them cannot be got avoided, let it rather be Tabled by Order of the Eldership, than purfued at the Inftance of the Complainer, becaufe thus the thing as Scandalous may be more Abstractly Confidered, the Perfon more eafily Convinced, and the Heat of Parties prevented. But if Parties will enter their own Complaint, let them be acquainted, that they are not to expect that the Church can Civilly punish the injury, but they are to be Exhorted to pardon it as to any Vindictive Humour, and told, that it is only their Bufinefs to remove the Scandal, and gain and pleafe Parties, to their Edification. And I fuppofe the Calumniator complained of fhould prove what he alledged against the Pursuer, yet even that cannot vindicate him altogether, except the End of his divulging it appeareth really to be his Brother's Edification: See Durb. on Upon the whole, where there Scandal, Part Cap.

And if they be taken upon that Account, whether by the Judges, their Wives, Children, or Servants; The Judge is thereby guilty as if done by himfelf: Providing the fame be done by his Command or Ratihabition.

§ 2. Judges are Partial, when they are moved to Act, Partial Judges or Forbear, either from fear of angring and difobliging Parties; Or from a defign and love to gain their Favour. By Act of Affembly 10th August 1648, Impartial Church Procedure is proposed as a general Remedy against the growing of Sins in the Land. And the Affembly 11th June 1697, appoints Ministers and Members of Kirk-Seffions Impartially to exercise Church Discipline; And excites them thereunto, by putting them in mind, that in these Matters, they have to do with the Great and Terrible GOD, whose Honour and Favour is to be preferr'd, and whose Wrath and Anger is to be feared before all other Considerations whatsoever. By the 104 Act, 7 Parl. Ja. 5. F f 2 Confulting, or giving partial Judgment, or taking of Bribes, is declared Infamous in any Judge. By the 93 Act, 6 Parl. Ja. 6. the taking of Bribes is difcharged to the Lords of Seffion, their Wives and Servants, under the pain of Infamy and Deprivation.

Negligence of Ecclesiastical Judges, Censurable. § 3. By the Laws of this and other well govern'd Nations, Judges negligent in putting Laws to Execution, are punishable for their Remission and Negligence. And by Act of Assembly January 30. 1699. It is Enacted, That whatever Minister or Member of Session, be found Faulty in neglecting to pursue the Scandals therein mentioned, in their Stations, the faid Minister or Member of Session be complained of, and censured by the Presbytery for the first Fault, and that the Censure be Recorded, and that the fecond Negligence be delated to, and censured by the Synod; And for the third Neglect, they be censured by the Syncd with Suspension from their Office, which is to be Recorded in the Synod Register, vide Tit. 5. Lib. 4.

TITLE IX.

Of Deforcement of Officers.

Deforcement, § 1. HOW Citations are fometimes appointed to be Execute, for preventing of Deforcement, vide Lib. 1. Tit. 2. §. 6. Deforcement is that Force or Violence which oppofeth Church Officers while they are in the Execution of the Orders & Appointments of Church Judicatories. But if any Officer want his Orders in writ along with him, the Violence offered to him in that Cafe cannot be efpoufed by Church-Courts, as an Indignity offered to them, otherways Strangers might be Emboldened to affront [229] affront others by affuming and pretending their Authority. Therefore, when any Injurie is offered or committed against fo unexact and negligent Church Officer, it is only to be Refented as if it had been done him when going about his own Affairs.

§ 2. Whoever may be admitted Witneffes for proving Who are hat of other Offences may be fuftained as Witneffes to prove bile Witneffes the Deforcement, otherways it may never be proven; But of Deforcethen the Witneffes mult not be Purfuers or Complainers, even though they were abufed; And if they do depone of any Wrong done to themfelves, they may be Rejected as prejudicate Witneffes.

TITLE X.

Of Murder, Parricide, Duels, and Self-Murder.

S 1. A Mong the Ecclefiaftical Remedies Enacted a-That thefe gainft Profanenefs, August 1Ctb 1648, Art. 5. Crimes come It is proposed to the Confideration of Prefby-under Church teries how Murder should be censured, in case the Magifirate do not his Duty in punishing ir Capitally. And in that Form of Process, Enacted by Assembly 1707, Cap 6. Art. 1. Murder, among divers horrible Crimes, is there Enumerated as the Object of the Churches Cognizance; It is not improper that Church-men understand fomewhat of the Laws and Customs relating to Criminal Matters, the Relevancy and Punishment of many Crimes being either founded upon or expressed in the Word of God, whereof they are the Authorized Ministerial Interpreters. It is true, it may be feared, that Church Discipline shall have but small-Success upon obdured or monstruous Criminals; Yet, it being being a Mean appointed by Jefus Chrift for Reclaiming of Sinners, it should on that account be Tryed, and no more Neglected than His Word and Sacraments, which very often have no better Effects. This Church hath very clearly Expressed her Opinion about the Extent of the Object of Church Discipline, Assent 1638. Self. 23, 24. Art. 13. Where they ordain, That Discipline in Kirk-Selfions (for there all Processes against Church Members do first begin) strike, not only upon gross Sins, as Blood-shed, Ore. but against all Sins repugnant to the Word of GOD.

S 2. Civilians define Murder to be the Killing Man by Man, unlawfully; And they divide it into that which is committed Casually, in Defence, Culpably, or Wilfully: Cafual Homicide is, when a Man is killed without either the fault or defign of the Killer, as if an Ax-head fhould fall off and kill a By-stander, or, a Rider should kill with his Horfes hinder Feet. Cafual Slaughter or Homicide then, is that, which is occasioned by Mistake and just Ignorance : for if it proceed from affected Ignorance, as for instance, if a Man will not know what he may know, his Ignorance in that cafe will not make the Murder following upon it to be constructed cafual Homicide; But if it proceed from gross and supina Ignorantia, it may be punished by an Extraordinary or Arbitrary punishment, but not by Death. It is then neceffary, that the Committer used all exact diligence to evite the Crime, else, he is not in the cafe of cafual Homicide. Further inftances whereof are, if a Mason before he throw down Stones, advertife all below, tho' in the Throwing he Kill, he is to be cleared from Murder. Or if a Hunter shoot at a Beast, but a Man come in the way and be killed: and yet if either the Mason Cry not, or if the Hunter did shoot in a place where people use to be, he is judged by some Lawyers to be guilty of Faulty Murder. If the Committer do what is against the Law of Nature, or what is Criminal: Or if what Murder, what, and of Cajual Homiside. what he doth may produce ill Confequences and Murder, tho' he defigned not the fame: In all which Cafes, he ought to be lyable. And it feems reafonable, that he who Killed, when he was doing what was unlawful, may be Arbitrarily punifhed, tho' he did exact diligence to fhun Killing.

§ 3. Homicidium necessarium, or Homicide committed Homicide in Self-defence, is, when a Man being pursued, or reduced committed in Self-defence, to inevitable Neceffity, has no way left him to evite his and how lawown Death, but by killing the Aggreffor: This is in Law ful Bounds called Inculpata Tutela, or, Moderamen inculpate tutele; are Exceeded. within which Moderation, if the Defender contain himfelf, he is noway punishable; And so favourable is Selfdefence, that the Exceeder is not lyable to the ordinary punishment, but is punishable according to the Excels, at the difcretion of the Judge. This Moderation is faid to be Exceeded in these Three, First, In Arms, as if the Aggreffor have only a Staff, and the Defender Wound him with a Sword or Pistol, the Defender" is in that cafe punishable. And yet this Conclusion is not infallible, for if the Defender was much weaker than the Aggreffor, he might be excufed to use fuch unequal Weapons, according to Mackenzie on this Title. Secondly, The Defender is faid to Exceed in Time, if he strike the Aggressor, antequam sit in actu proximo occidendi, for else it should be lawful to every Man, upon the first apprehension of Fear to kill the Aggreffor. If he Threaten to Kill, and be one who is known to have any defign to Murder, or be a perfon who ufeth to Execute what he Threatens, and if he have a Sword, tho' not drawn, or a Pistol, tho' not cock'd, if he hath either of these, according to the forecited Author, he may be lawfully Killed, because he is in actin proximo offendendi, and yet he thinks the Defender may be Arbitrarily punished. Thirdly, The Defender is faid to Exceed in the Meafure, as if he Killed him for Wounding, whom he might have have shunn'd, or if he followed the Aggressor. Albeit much be left to the Arbitration of the Judge, as to all the Three; Yet the general Rule is, That if the Defender Exceed only in either of the Three, as v. g. in the Arms or Time, the Excels is faid to be culpa levisima: if in Two of these, as in Time and Arms, then it is accounted culpa levis, and is punishable : But if the Defender Exceed all the Three, as in Time, Arms and Way of profecution, then it is culpa lata, but yet he is not punishable as if he had dolofe murdered, for tho' it be a Rule in Civilibus, that culpa lata aquiparatur dolo, yet it is a Rule in Criminalibus, that culpa lata nunquam equiparatur dolo, ubi agitur de pena This Exception of Self-defence must be How Self-corporis afflictiva. defence is to proponed against the Relevancy, and must be condescended upon, thus, the Defender, or Pannel nowife acknowledging the Killing, yet if he Kill'd, it was done in his own Defence, in fo far as the Defunct drew a Sword, and Throft, or offered a Pistol. And though he prove not his Exception of Self-defence, he will not therefore be Condemned, except the Purfuer prove the Libel. The way of proving this Exception of Self-defence is fo favourable, that it may be proved by Prefumptions, and by Witneffes, otherways Declinable, as Coufins, Servants, and Witneffes who depone only upon Credulity.

What is Culpofum, or Faulty Homicide.

proven,

§ 4. Homicidium Culposum, or Faulty Slaughter, is, Homicidium where the Murder was not defigned, and yet it was committed meerly by Accident, as if one fhould Hound a Dog at another, who should Bite him at whom he was Hounded, fo that he should Die thereby, in that and the like cafe, the Offender is not to be punished with Death, but Arbitrarily, because aberat animus occidendi. The difference betwixt this and Cafual Homicide, is in this, The Committer versatur in illicito, but not fo in the other, yet they both agree in this, That they wanted all defign of Killing. $ 5

S 5. Wilful Murder is committed by fore-thought Fel- Wilful lony, and if he who intended to Kill one, did not by a Murder what miltake Kill him, but Killed another, yet he is to Die, be- Wound is to be cause he Killed a Man defignedly. Since the defign of judged mortal. Killing depends much upon the Nature of the Wound given, then where the Wound was not deadly, the Inflictor thereof cannot be punished as a Murderer, tho' the Perlon Wounded, thereafter Die : And tho' fome be of Opinion, That if the Party live three Days after receiving of the Wound, the fame is thereby prefumed not to be Mortal: Yet generally this is referred to the Arbitriment of the Judge, who is in this to follow the Opinion of Phyficians, or of one Phyfician, if more were not prefent: But if they Vary, then the Judge shall not incline to punish by Death, but by an Extraordinary punishment: For Murder is not to be inferred but from a concluding probation : and if the Wound be but fmall, and a Feaver follow, then it is prefumed that the Partie Died rather of a Feaver, especially if the perfon Wounded walked a Foot for fourty Days: And feing ordinarly, Wounds that are Mortal do kill the Receiver in that Time, it were therefore not hard to conclude, that he who dies thereafter, dies not of his Wounds if he has walked a Foot all that Time.

§ 6. Night Thieves, Robbers, and Murderers, may be Killing of Killed without any punifhment, when private perfons are derers and warranted to purfue them by Sheriffs, Juftices of the Peace, Adulterers, or Privy Counfellors, and the Robber or Murderer Refifts how marrane to be Apprehended. And by the Civil Law, it was lawful for a Father to Kill his own Daughter, if he found her committing Adultery, and to Kill alfo her Adulterer : And if the Husband Kill the Adulterer of his Wife, he was only to be punifhed by fome Arbitrary punifhment, but not by Death. See the Title of the Pandeets de Adulter. But there is no fuch Decifion yet happened in this Countrey: In the Memoirs of the Marquifs of Langallerie Prin-() G g ted ted at London this year 1708, Page 85, the following Paffage is related, viz. A Citizen of Madrid, finding a Frenchman and his Wife on the Bed, Stobbed them both. After the Execution, he goes out with his Dagger in his hand, ftain'd with the Blood of these two persons, and presents himself before the Judges, who were then upon the Bench. The Court of Justice, without any other Formality upon the recital of the Astion, declared him Innocent; This he fays happned in the year 1700, and the Frenchman was a Gentleman of the Retinue of the French Ambassador.

Fighters of Duels, how punished and Censured.

§ 7. Monomachus, or, the Fighter of a fingle Combat, is, fingulus qui pugnat cum fingulo. By the 12. Act of the 16. Par. Jac. 6. All fuch Fighters are punishable with Death, albeit none of them be Killed, and the Provoker is to be punished with a more Ignominious Death than the Defender. The giving or accepting Challenges to Fight, and those who carry them, and the Seconds of fuch, may be punished by the Council Arbitrarie, although Combat follow not, because they tend to disturb the Peace: The Gen. Affemb. by their Act 1648, discharges Duels, and ordains all who shall Fight them, or Make, Write, or Receive, or with their Knowledge carry Challenges, or go to the Fields, either as Principals or Seconds to Fight, the Contraveeners are to be brought into publick twice, once in order to their being Rebuked, and again, in order to the profeffing their Repentance. (but the Method of Cenfuring fuch now, is to be Regulate according to the Form of Process Enacted by Affembly 1707, of which more hereafter Lib. 4.) If the perfon guilty be Elder or Deacon, he is to be Deposed, and wholoever shall refuse to fubmit to the Cenfure appointed by the Church, shall be Proceffed to Excommunication. And by Cap. 14. Art. 22. of the French Church Discipline, the same upon the matter is Enacted. 8.

§ 8. Self murder is punished with Confication of Move- Self-Murder ables, and Christian Burial is denyed them. Furiofity and know punished, Madnefs ought to defend against this punishment, even fends agains the he hath Lucid Intervals, feing its more Humane to its punished prefume he killed himfelf in his Madnefs, except it can ment, be proved, that he used even in his Lucid Intervals to with he were dead, or to commend Self-murder. An endeavour to kill ones felf, is punishable by Confiscation, as Self-murder. But it may be reasonably feared, that the inflicting that Punishment upon it, will tempt the poor Creature to renew its Endeavour with better Success. Selfmurder may likeways be committed by Omission, as if a Man should defignedly Starve himfelf.

§-9. Parricide is a Crime which is committed by Killing Parricide our Parents, or, by the Civil Law, Afcendents or De-what, and how fcendents in any Degree, By the 220 A& Parl. 14. Jac. punifhed, 6. Paricide is punifhed only in him who Kills his Father, or Mother, Good-fire, or Good-dame, and they are ordained to be Difinherited in linea recta:

§ 10. By the 21 Act of K. W. & M. Par. For preventing the Murder of Children, It is Enacted, That if any Children, how Woman shall conceal her being with Child, during the provenwhole space, and shall not call ter and make use of Assistance in the Birth, the Child being found Dead or a Misfing, the Mother shall be holden and repute the Murderer of her own Child, tho' there be no appearance of Bruise or Wound upon the Body of the Child.

§ 11. The taking of Potions to cause Abortion, after Abortive the Child was Quick, should be Capitally punished, the Potions, kon the using such means before the fatus fuit animatus, panishable or to hinder Conception, is to be punished Arbitrarily. By the 91 Canon Concilii fexti in Trullo, it is thus determined, has que dant Abortionem facientia Medicamenta, & que fetus necantia venena accipiunt, Homicide panis subjicimus. Gg 2

The Exposers of Infants, how punified, and if they be Bastards.

§ 12. If the Exposed Infants do thereby die, the Expofers are as guilty as the Takers of Abortive Potions, efpecially if the place was folitary and remote from Society, and where Beafts might devour them . But if they were Exposed where people refort, and might eafily be feen, these who laid them down are only to be punished Arbitrarily. Since in this Land most rarely are Children lawfully begotten ever Exposed, therefore we are not obliged to repute them otherways than 'unlawfully begotten, fee Mattheus de Crim. Expos. Infant. The Parish where such Children are found, is certainly at first, to bear the burden of their Maintenance and Education.

TITLE XI.

Of Incest, Adultery, Bigamy, Rapes, Fornication, Et de Venere Monstrosa.

its kinds, and how punished.

Incess what, S I. I Ncest is Defined by Civilians, to be, fada & ne-kinds, and faria maris & famina Commixtio, contra reverentiam sanguini debitam; and they divide it into two kinds, viz. That which is against the Law of Nature, of this fort is all Copulation between Afcendants and Defcendants; The other Branch, is that, which is against the Municipal Law of the Countrey, but our Law does not observe this distinction, for it is Enacted by Parl. 1. Jac. 6. Act. 14. That whofoever pollutes his Body with fuch perfons in degree, as GOD's Word doth contain, Levit. 18. shall be punished with Death. By the Act of Assembly 1648. Self. 38. Incestuous perfons, in cafe the Magistrate doth not punish them Capitally, are to make publick profeffion of Repentance for the space of 52 Sabbaths; But this this Act is Innovate and Amended by the 4th Act of Affemb. 1705, and the 11. Act of Affem. 1707.

§ 2. Adultery is the violation of anothers Bed; Hence Adultery, fome give its Derivation ad alterius thorum, and is com-what. mitted by Married perfon's lying with an Unmarried, or an Unmarried perfons lying with one who is Married. If the Woman with whom the Adultery is committed was at that Time living as a common Whore, and the Committer was a fingle Man, and knew nothing of her being Married, his Punifhment fhould be moderated on that account, but if the Man was Married, the Crime is the fame, whether the Woman was a Whore or not, it being ftill a Violation on his part. And that the lying with a Man's Betrothed or Affidat Spoufe, may be conftructed Adultery, fee Pag. 146, 147. For he who lyes with one who is to be fhortly Married, renders the Succeffion as doubtful as he who lyes with a Married Wife.

§ 3. Notour Adultery is by the 74 Act Parl. 9. Qu. M. The diffe-Declared to be punishable by Death, after Premonition is rence betwixt made to abstain from the fame manifest and notour Crime. Instant Yet by the Explication of this Act given by 105 Act Par. tery. 7. Jac. 6. That is only declared to be notour Adultery, where, First, There are Bairns and or mae procreated betwixt Adulterers. Secondly, When they keep Company or Bed together notoriously known. Thirdly, When they are suspected of Adultery, and thereby give Slander to the Kirk, whereupon being Admonished to fatisfie the Kirk, they contemptuously refule, and for their Refusal are Excommunicate. If either of which three Degrees be proved before the Justices the Committers are punishable by Death.

§ 4. Albeit there be no express Law for inflicting Death Adultery, upon ordinary Adulterers, yet Mackenzie on this Title thinks, how punifithat Judges are not hindred to inflict the punifiment of able. Death upon ordinary Adulterers, by any thing expressed in that forecited Act of Jac. 6. Otherwise, it should be an Act A& in prejudice of the Law of GOD, which exprelly ordains Adulterers to be put to Death, Deut. 22. by Juffimian's 134. N. Cap. 11. The Civil Law is altered, appointing Death to be inflicted upon Adulterers. And by the Law of most Nations, Adultery is only punished by pecuniary Muicts. With us notour Adultery has been punified with Death, and fingle Adultery Arbitrar'e.

How the Church Cen-Jures Adulterers.

$ 5. By the Act of Affemb. Aug. 5. 1642. All Presbyteris are ordained to give up to the Lords of Jufficiary, the Names of the Adulterers and Inceftuous perfons, Witches and Sorcerers within their Bounds, that they may be Proceffed and punished according to Law. By Affembly 1648. Seff. 38. A perfon being once guilty of Adultery, is to make publick profession of Repentance twenty fix Sabbaths in Sackcloth; and a Relapfe in Adultery three Quarters of a Year: But this Act is Innovate and Amended by the forecited fourth A& of Affembly 1705. And by that fame A& 1648, persons guilty of Relapse in Adultery are to be more fummarly Excommunicated.

The Marwhat Probatiin Adultery.

§ 6. Since Adultery is only committed by married Perringe ought to lons, it is therefore requilite that the Libel in Adultery be proved, and bear, that fuch perfons were Married, and except it be on is requisite proven or be notour to the Affize, they should not File the Pannel, tho' Copulation be proved. Adultery may be proven by ftrong and violent Prefumptions, as the being in Bed together alone, and being Naked, and the being frequently alone together : Likewife Gifts, Love-Letters, Clofe Doors, the Wife's being Abroad all Night, the Entertaining perfons that are known to be Pimps, and Cohabitation, are all Prefumptions, upon which it is ordinary for Affizes to File Pannels, with the affiftance of any other Probation.

§ 7. By the 11. Act of Assemb. 1707. Cap. 4. If the Wo-How The is to be Cenfured, man who hath brought forth the Child, doth declare she who lyes with knoweth not the Father, & that fhe was not Forced, whether an unknown Married Man.

Married or Unmarried, the fame Cenfure is to be inflicted upon her as in the cafe of Adultery. But if the alledge fhe was Forced in the Fie'ds by a perfon unknown, in that cafe the former Behaviour of the Woman thould be inquired into, and the ferioufly dealt with to be ingenuous; And if the hath been of intire Fame, the may be put to it to declare the Truth, as if the were upon Oath, but not without the Advice of the Presbytery, and no formal Oath thould be taken.

§ 8. In our Law a Man marrying two Wives, or a Wo-Bigamy man marrying two Husbands, commits Bigamy : And what, and its this is accounted by the 19 A& Parl: 5. Q. M. a Breach punishment. of the Oath made at Marriage, and therefore is punishable as Perjury, by Confication of all their Moveables, Warding of their Persons for Year and Day, and longer during the Queens Will, and as infamous perfons never to bruik Office, Honour, Dignity, or Benfice in time coming. It may be doubted if Quakers can be punished as Perjurers, feing they give no Oath at Marriage, and certainly they should, feing Marriage implyes a Vow, tho' no Explicite Oath be given. It may be doubted also if the two perfons marrying be guilty of Bigamy eo ipfo that they Marry, though because of some interveening Accident they Bed not, but feing by the fecond Marriage they give contrary Oaths, certainly they are guilty of Perjury: for Perjury being the Medium peccati in this Crime, and not copulatio or coitus as in Adultery. Reatus contrahitur per contraria 2010

§ 9. Rape, or Ravishment, is that Crime which is A Rape, committed in the violent carrying away a Woman from what, and its one place to another, for fatisfying the Ravishers Lust, punishment. and is in the Civil Law punishable by Death. L. Un. C, de Rap. Pirg. &c. The Canon Law deferibes it thus, Est napina & violentia quædam, qua mulier de cujas nuptus nihil actum est antea, abducitur, invitis parentibus. By the 4-Act Act Parl. 21. Jac. 6. It is declared, That albeit the Con: fent and Declaration of the Woman Ravished, declaring that fhe went away of her own free Will : may free the Committer from Capital Punishment, yet shall it not free him from Arbritrary Punishment ; Which A& infinuates that the Crime with us is otherwife Capital.

Minors, and such as force common Whores, how punishable.

Censured.

$ 10. Since Minors are punishable for Adultery, much more ought they for a Rape : for Men in these Years, are more prone and liable to perpetrate fuch Extravagancies. than when at a greater Age. Though it may feem that Whores are infra legum observantiam, and ought not to have Protection from Law, who offend against it; Yet if the Whore be now become a Penitent, and Reconciled to the Church, and for a long Tract of Time hath had a Chaste and Laudabe Conversation : It may be doubted, if the Ravisher of fuch a person, may not be punished pena ordinaria.

§ 11. Fornication is committed by the carnal knowwhat, and how ledge of unmarried Persons, the Canon Law diftinguisheth Fornication, thus, stuprum (fay they) est Virginis defloratio, & illicitus punished and cum vidua concubitus. That Law commands fuch Abusers of Virgins to Marry them, the Parents confenting thereto, and if they refuse to do so, his Body is to be Chastifed, and himfelf Excommunicated. But if the Father of the Corrupted Virgin will not beftow her upon him in Marriage, then the Man is obliged to give her fuch a Dowry as Virgins of her Degree and Quality use to get. That fame Law fays, fimple Fornication is Concubitus Soluti cum soluta & impudica, The punishment whereof is left unto the Judges difcretion. That there should be a distinction of punishment inflicted upon the Deflowrers of Virgins, and Abusers of honest Widows, from these who abuse themselves with such Women who have finned to already is very reasonable. By the Act of Assemb. Ang. 10, 1648. Fornicators are to make profession of their Repentance three three feveral Sabbaths; Who is guilty of a Relapfe therein, fix Sabbaths; Who is guilty of a Trilaple, twenty fix Sabbaths; And of a Quadrilaple, three Quarters of a Year, all in Sack-cloath, and are first to appear before the Prefbytery, confelling their Sin there, e're they be admitted to publick profession of Repentance for it : But this Act is Reformed and Amended by the Form of Process Enacted Affembly 1707, of which hereafter. By Cap. 38. Seff. 1. Parl. 1. Car. 2. Fornication is Fineable in 400 libs. to Nollemen, 200 libs. the Baron, 100 lib. the Gentleman and Burgefs, and ten pounds every Inferiour Perfon; And that the Pain be doubled Toties Quoties, and to be Levied off the Man as well as the Woman, to be applyed to Pious Uses. But if Fornicators be Infolvent, they are to be punished Corporally, according to the 13th Act, Parl. 1st, Tac. 6th.

§ 12. Albeit the fubfequent Marriage of Fornicators What defends may Defend them from Civil punifhment, and likewife Le- against the gitimates the Children begotten before Marriage, according Punishment. to the prefent practice, Yet the Church doth not Judge the Scandal given to be thereby Removed; and therefore by their Act June 11. 1646. they Appoint all Married perfons, under publick Scandal of Fornication before Marriage, although the Scandal thereof hath not appeared before Marriage, to Satisfy publickly therefore, their being in the state of Marriage notwithstanding, and in the fame manner they should have done if they were not Married.

§ 13. According to Mattheus de Criminibus, Mon-VenusMonfirofa Venus est quacunque vel virum vel faminam menti-strosa, how tur. With us the Confession of Sodomy it felf, without punished. any other Adminicles is sufficient to Inferr the punishment of Death, except the Confession be known, or at least fufpected to be Distempered. Immodesty of § 4. By the 25th Art. of the above-cited Cap. of the Apparel con-French Church Difcipline, The Churches shall advertise Believers to use great Modesty in Apparel, and shall give order to abate the Superfluity therein Committed. Neverthelefs the Churches shall make no Law thereabout, the making of fuch appertaining to the Magistrate. And by the 26 Art. All perfons who wear Habits that have open Marks of Diffoluteness, Shame, and too much Newness, as, Painting, Naked Breafts and the like, the Confiftory shall ufe all poffible Means to fupprefs fuch Badges of Immodefty by Cenfures. All Obscene pictures, which are apt to difpose and incite to unclean Thoughts and Defires, are most Improper Furniture for the Houses of Christians, and therefore the Ufers of them may fall under Church Cenfure if they be not removed.

§ 5. Temperance is the Golden Mids between Absti-Means and Confiderations nence and Intemperance; for attaining whereof, when we for prevent- are fufficiently strengthened and Refreshed with our Oring Drunken- dinary Diets, we should abstain betwixt them, and if we ne so. will not fuffer our felves to be thus Rationally bounded I cannot fee how we can otherways efchew the evil of being tempted to Excefs in Drinking, both from the fpeci-

ous pretences and Solicitations of our own Voluptuous Tempers, and the Inticement and Example of others : And if we Tranfgrefs the Bound above-proposed, we cannot but fall into Tentation; For as Card. Bona, de vitæ Christiana principiis faith, sape nescimus utrum subsidium petat inevitabilis corporis cura, an fallacia concupiscentiæ nos decipiat, & in bac incertitudine bilarescit infelix anima, ut salutis obtentu intemperantiam excuset. Our Law feems to Approve and appoint this manner of Bounding, for the 20 Act, Par. 22. Fac. 6. Difchargeth all haunting of Taverns and Ale-houses after Ten hours at night, Tipling pu-or any time of the Day, excepting time of Travel, or for Drunkenness. Ordinary Refreshments, under the pain of being punished as Drunkards. And therefore, if one Accufed for Drunkennefs, deny the fame, or Impute the Signs and Effects thereof proven against him, to other Causes, as Sickness of the Stomack, Giddiness of the head or the like; these Defences, though they may be true, Yet are not Relevant to defend the Accused against the punishment of Drunk-. ennefs, providing his Tipling be proven by the unfeafonable haunting of Taverns; And it needs not be thought hard that no Diftinction is made betwixt Drunkennefs and Tipling, feing it is a common Observation, that Tiplers are harder to be Reclaimed than Drunkards themfelves.

§ 6. Among the Remedies proposed against the Cor- Drinking of ruption of the Ministery, by Assembly June 13. 1646. Healths a Act 11. Ministers are not only to forbear Drinking of Snare: Drankennels, called Satans Snare, leading to Excess, but like-punisted.
wife to Reprove it in others; And the following Act of Parliament punishing the Sin of Drunkennels, doth Appoint Excetsive Drinking, especially under the Name of Healths to be punished. The Act I mean is 19. Seff. 1. Par.

If such as punishable for Crimes, and can Contract.

§ 7. Such as Committ Crimes in their Drink, are fomeare drunk be times for want of Defign and Malice, more meekly punished than others, especially if they were Cheated, upon Defign, into that Condition by others. And in this Cafe, the Law Diftinguisheth inter Ebrios, who are rarely Drunk, and Ebriofos, who are habitually fuch; For thefe last should be most feverely punished, both for their Drunkennefs, and the Crimes occafioned by it. And fuch as make themfelves drunk, upon defign to excufe or leffen thereby the Sin they are to committ, merit no favour; And fuch as know they were fubject to Extravagancies in their Drink, merit as little. Perfons that are Incapable and Stupid through Drink, the Law not only forbids People to Contract with them, but makes all Contracts then made Reducible on that Head : The Law is fo far from countenancing Fraud, that it Repairs the Injured against it; See Stair's Instit. pag. 98. and 602.

Presbyteries may appoint gainst Vice. And how Judpunish the fame are lyable.

§ 8. By the 40 AE, Seff. 4. Parl. K. W. and Q. M. Presbyteries are ordained to appoint Informers againft, and Informers a- Profecuters of profane Perfons, within their Bounds before the Civil Magistrate. And by the 13th Act of the followges refnsing to ing Seflion of that Parliament, all Magistrates are strictly required to execute the Laws against Profaneness at all times, and against all perfons, whether Officers, Souldiers, or others without Exception. And if any of these Judges fhall refuse or delay to put the faids Laws to execution upon Application from Minister, Kirk-Session, or any in their Name, giving Information, and offering fufficient Probation against the Offender, that every one of the Judges fo refusing or neglecting, shall, Toties Quoties, be fubject lect and lyable to a Fine of an hundred pounds, to be applyed for the use of the Poor of the Parish where the Scandal was committed. Declaring hereby, that any for the Kirk Seffion or Minister, having their Warrant, may purfue any of these negligent Judges before the Lords of Seffion, who are ordained to proceed Summarly, and that it shall be a sufficient Probation of the Judges Refusal, if the Pursuer Instruct by an Instrument under a Nottar's Hand, and Witneffes thereto Subscribing, and Deponing thereupon, that he made Application to the faid Judge, unlefs the Judge fo purfued, condefcend and instruct, that within the space of ten Days after the faid Application, he gave Order to cite the Party complained on, within the fpace of ten Days, and at the Day of Compearance, he was ready to have taken Cognition of the Scandal complained on, and instruct and condescend on a Relevant Reason why the Laws were not put to Execution. By the 31 Act of the 6 Seff. of K. W. Parl. It is Ordained, that in every Parifh, Parifb Ma-where any of the ordinary Inferiour Judges happen to Re-giftrates for fide, they thall execute the Laws against Professional and punifhing fide, they shall execute the Laws against Profaneness, and Vice. Mocking Religion and the Exercife thereof, at the Inftance Sentences not of any Person whatsoever who shall pursue the fame; Cer- to be Advocat tifying them if they failzie therein, either by themselves, or their Deputs, the Lords of Seflion will appoint Judges in that part. And in other Parishes where no fuch Magiftrates do Refide, It is Ordained, That the forefaid Perfons shall appoint Deputs for the faid Parishes, with the Power and for the End forefaid, fuch as shall be named to them by the Heretors and Kirk-Seffion thereof. But, really, it is Forreign to Members of a Church-Seffion, confidered as fuch, too chofe or prefent a Civil Magistrate, even as it is to a Civil Court, as fuch, to choose or present the Members of a Kirk-Seflion. And farder, they Discharge Advocation, Simpliciter, of Processes, against Immorality from these Parish Judges; And likeways, all Suspensions of their their Sentences without Confignation or Liquidate Difcharges. It is alfo Ordained, that in Cafe of Calumnious Suspending, the Lords of Seffion, decern a third part more than is Decerned, for Expences; And Likeways, they Appoint the Fines to be Instantly payed in to the Parish Collector for the poor, or the party Imprisoned till fufficient Caution be found for payment of the fame, or otherways to be Exemplarly punished in his perfon in Difference in cafe of Inability. It is also Enacted, that no pretence of Religion ex- Different perswasion in Matters of Religion, shall Exeem eems not from the Delinquent from being Cenfured and punished for fuch Immoralities, as by the Laws of this Kingdom are Declared to be punishable by Fineing. And it is Recommended to the Privy Council, to take further Effectual Course against profaneness, and for Encouraging of fuch as shall Execute the Laws against it.

§ 9. By the Acts of Affembly for fupprefling profane-Discipline to be faithfully nefs, they Appoint as follows. TITLE XIII.

Of Theft, Sacriledge, Usury, Falshood, Beggars and Vagabonds.

Theft what S how punished, and when Excusable.

I. Heft is defcribed by Lawyers to be Fraudulofa contrectatio, lucri faciendi gratiâ, vel ipfius rei, vel etiam usus ejus pesses pesses quod lege naturali probibitum est. By the word contrectatio they understand, not only the away-taking of a Thing, for Theft is commited not only by concealing what was taken from another, but likewise the using a Thing Depositate or Impignorate to other Ends and Uses than was agreed upon. When one is urged by Necessity, not from a desire to Gain, to take Food or Raiment from the Owners thereof, without their Confent, he is not to be Despised, but rather Pitied Pitied and Pardoned, Prov. 6. 30. By the 83: Act Par: 11. Jac. 6. It is Statute, That whofoever deftroys Pleugh, or Pleugh-graith in time of Tilling, or wilfully deftroys the Corus, fhall be punifhed therefore by the Juffices to the Death as Thieves. But our Practique in this is a little Arbitrary and uncertain. By the 26 Act Seff. 1. Par. 1. Car. 2. It is appointed, That the perfons from whom How foller Goods are Stollen, purfuing the Thief, usque ad fententiam, Goods are to be thall have his own Goods again, where ever they can be recovered. had, or the Value, and he is to have his Expences of profecuting the Thief, out of the readieft of the Thief his Goods.

§ 2. Sacrilegus dicitur qui facra legit. By the Canon Law, Sacriledge Sacriledge is committed, either properly, when a Thing what, and how Sacred is taken out of a Sacred place : or lefs properly, when a Sacred Thing is taken out of a profane place, or when a profane Thing is taken out of a Sacred place : This Crime is likewife committed when Sacred Things are Imbezeled. Though with us, there be no formal Confecrations of Churches, Veftments, Cups, & Yet to fteal any Thing deftinate to GOD's Service, or even to fteal any Thing out of a Church, ought to be looked on as an Aggravation of the Crime of Theft.

§ 2. The taking of more Annualrent, than the Quota U fury what? stated by Law, is the first Branch of Usury; The Second its Jeveral is, To take Annualrents before the Term of payment; The Branches, how Third is, To take Wadiets in defraud of the Law; By do- it is proven and punifhed. ing this, they do not take more Annualrent directly than what is prefcribed by the Law, but they take Wadfets of Land from the Debitor, for more than their Annualrents can Extend to, and then they fet Back-tacks to him, for payment of what is agreed upon. The Fourth Branch of Usury with us, is, To take Bud or Bribe for the Loan of Money, or for continuing it. But it were against Reason, that by Lending Money to my Friend, I should become Ii 2 ()InIncapable of a Donation from him. By the Seventh A& Parl. 16. Jac. 6. It is appointed, That Usury shall be proved by the Oath of the Party Receiver, of the unlawful Annualrent, and Witneffes infert, without receiving the Oath of the Giver of the Ulury, for eviting Perjury. The pain of Ulury with us, is, That the Debitor shall be free from his Obligation, or have back his Pledge, or if the Debitor conceal, then the Revealer shal have Right to the Sums. Act 222. Parl. 14. Jac. 6. And by 248. Act Parl. 15. Jac. 6. It is appointed, That the Ulurary Bond or Contract fhall be Reduced, and being Reduced, the Sum fhall belong to His Majesty or his Donators; And the Party to have Repetition of the unlawful Annualrent payed by him, in cafe only he concur with the Donator in the Reduction. Usury is called Crimen utriusque fori, and how Ministers are to be Cenfured for it, fee Lib. 4. Tit. 5.

§ 4. Falshood is a fraudulent Suppression, or Imitation of Truth in prejudice of another. This Description of Crimen falsi, or Falsitas, doth agree with that given by the Canonists, viz. Est fraudelenta sive dolosa veritatis imi-Falshood in tatio, vel occultatio. This Crime is committed in Write, either by producing a falfe Write, if they knew it to be falfe, and abide by it, or by fabricating a falfe Write. Again, it is committed by Omiffion, in a Nottars not fetting down what he was required to infert in his Inftrument, or the omitting to express the Day and Place, when the omitting thereof might have been Difadvantageous. By the 22 Act Par. 23. Jac. 6. The Makers or Ulers of false Writes, or Acceffory to the making thereof, are to punished with the pains of Falshood ; and the Counterfeiter, Fallifyer, or Acceffory cannot by paffing from the Write quarrelled, free himfelf from the punishment. The punishment of Forgery is declared by Act 22 Parl. 5. Q. M. to be. Profcription, Difmembring of the Hand or Tongue, and other pains of the Canon or Civil Law. The Second

Second Species of Falshood is, That which is committed by Fallbood Witneffes in their Depositions, by taking Money to Depone committed by or not Depone; by concealing the Truth, or Expressing more Witneffes. than the Truth, though they received no Money. And Thirdly, by Deponing Things exprelly contradictory, but in this Cafe, the Contradiction must be palpable, and not consequential, Nam omnis Interpretatio praferenda est ut dicta testium reconcilientur. By Cap. 46. Parl. 6. Qu. M. Falle Witneffes, and their Inducers, are to be punished by piercing their Tongues, Escheat of Moveables, and Infamy, and farder at the Judges difcretion. Perjury differs not Perjury much herefrom, for it is Defined by Lawyers to be a Lie what, and how affirmed judicially upon Oath, and it is punishable by punished. Confiscation of all their moveable Goods, Warding of their Perfons for Year and Day, and longer during the Queens Will, & that as Infamous perfons they shall never be able to bruik Office, Honour, Dignity, nor Benefice in Time coming. For this fee the 19 Act Parl. 5. Qu. M. There is a Third Species of Falshood committed by Forging true Forging of Money without Authority, by Coining falfe Money, or Money, how by Mixing and Allayng Worfer with Nobler Mettals in current Coins, or by Venting and Paffing the Adulterate Money Coined by others, or Entertaining the Forgers, or being Art and Part with these Coiners. This Crime is commonly punished by Death. The Fourth Species of Falshood is committed by using of false Weights and Measures. By their punish-the 19 Parl. 2. Att Jac. 6. The Users of false Weights ment. and Measures, are to Tine their hail Goods and Gear. Having of false Weights in the Shop, presumes Using, except this Presumption be taken off, by alledging that the Weights were prefently Bought or Borrowed, or laid aside as Light. Falshood is also committed by Assuming Assuming a false Name, and by prefenting one. Person for another of a false at the subscribing of Papers: for such Impostors the Pu-^{Name, how} nishment

Beggars S 5. By the 22 Act. Parl. 4. Jac. 5. No Beggar Born in & Vagabonds, one Parish, is to be allowed to beg in another, and Badges and punished, are to be made by the Headsmen of each Parish for that effect; which Law agrees with those of other Nations, fee Matth. de Crim. de improba Mendicitate. And by the 25. Title Lib. 11. of the Codex de validis Mendicantibus, they are diftinguished from the Pocr, and punished as we do sturdy Beggars and Vagabonds, Car. 2. Parl. 1. Seff. 3. Cap. 16. It is ordained, That all Masters of Manufactories, may, with Advice of the Magistrates of the place, feize Vagabonds, and idle poor perfons, and imploy them in their Work, and Exact off the Parishes where they were Born, or if not known, the Parishes where they have Haunted for three Years before, two shilling per diem, in manner prescribed in the Act. And thereafter may Retain them in their Service for feven Years for Meat and Cloaths. Sturdy Beggars and Vagabonds should be proceeded against by the Sheriffs, and other Judges, and they may Exact Caution of them, but if they find none, they should be denounced Fugitives, and they may be fent to publick Work-Houses, or Correction-Houses, or put in the Stocks, and if they be Refet after they are Denounced Fugitives, their Refetters are liable for the prejudice fustained, and the Parties Damnified will have Action against the Magistrates, within whole Bounds these Vagabonds are willingly Refet. Secondly, In the cafe of Advice, the Advifers Age is much to be confidered : for tho' Minors, and those who are Drunk may be punished for Murder, yet it were hard to punish them for Advice. Thirdly, The Words in which the Advice were conceived, should still be Interpreted most favourably for the Adviser, for Words are capable of feveral and diffinct fenfes, as they are underftood by the respective Speakers, and they Vary by the very Accent or Punctation. Fourthly, If the Adviser retracted his Opinion, he ought not to be punished with

TITLE I. Of Scandals and Church Discipline in General. Of the Method of Proceeding with the Scandalous, and how Scandals are to be Tabled before Church Judicatories.

E are not here to underftand by Scandal, Scandal, a Thing actually difpleafing the Party offended; Nor is it always to be judged by the Matter, feing Offence in Lawful Matter may be taken, where it is not given, as in that Eating and Drinking mentioned Rom. 14. Or, in taking Wages for preaching the Gofpel, 1 Cor. 9. Neither is it the Pleafing of Men that doth always Edify them, nor the Difpleafing of them that doth Stumble or Scandalize them; But Scandal is fomething accompanying Word or Deed, with fuch Circumstances as maketh that Word or Deed Inductive to Sin, or Impeditive of the Spiritual Life or Comfort of others.

§ 2. Church Difcipline ferves chiefly to curb and re- When Offen ftrain the more Peccant Humors of Professions, and therefore ces are to be Sins of Infirmity, strictly fo called, which are not in them-Publick, and felves fo Scandalous to others, should not be any part of when not. the Object thereof, otherwife its Exercife might prove more N10-

Molefting and Offenfive than Edifying and Sanative. Again, Offences from difputable Practices, or Things indifferent, are not properly the Object of Church Cenfure, becaufe there is not a folid Ground therefrom for thorough Conviction to the Party. Further, Offences which the Church may find cannot be proven, ought not to be profecute, for thus her Authority is much weakned, and neither is the Offender Edifyed. In the last place, Though fome grofs Scandals (which are not publick or flagrant) may be proven by two or three Witneffes (efpecially if it be against a perfon otherwise Orderly) yet he is not therefore to be cited to appear in publick, except upon Suppofition of his Obstinacy to acknowledge the Offence to those who knew and were offended therewith : Which Method is agreeable to that of Chrift's prefcribing Matth. 18. for the Removal of private Offence. But on the other Hand, Scandal should be taken publick notice of, when they are of their own Nature Grofs and Infectious, Next, When the Offence becometh publick, tho' at first it was not fo, and when it is accompanyed with Contempt of private Admonition, or with frequent Relapfes therein.

§ 3. Church Difcipline and Cenfures are for vindicating The Ends and Use of the Honour of Chrift, that fuffers in the Mifcarriage of any Member: Again, they are Inflicted on the Churches Church Dissi-Account, for preferving of her Authority, Discipline being pline. as the Ecclefiaftical Whip for that End, and for preferving her from Corruption by the fpreading of the Leaven of Profanity. Another End of Church Difcipline is for the Offenders good, that they may be ashamed to the destruction of the Flesh, and faving of the Spirit in the Day of the Lord Jefus, 1 Cor. 5. 5. Act 11. Affem. 1707. Cap. 1. Sect. 3. Offences of the § 4. The fame Offences upon the Matter are not to be Same kind not to be always profecute at all times, nor against all perfons, and in all managed after places, in the fame manner : Thus we fee the Apostle Paul the fame man- in fome Cafes cenfuring corrupt Men, as Hymeneus and, aser. Philetus, I Tim. I. 20. Sometimes he threatneth, and yet spareth, albeit the Scandal did merit Censure, Gal. 5. 12. He faith, I will they were cut off that trouble you; Yet he cuts them not then off, becaufe he found not the prefent Circumstances of the Church to require it. See alfo 2 Cor. 10.6. where he faith, Having in a Readiness to Revenge all Disobedience, when your Obedience is fulfilled: Therefore it ought not always to be accounted Partiality, when fuch Differences in Church Procedure are observed : Providing nothing be done with Refpect of Perfons, on Civil. or Natural Accounts: And alfo, providing the Difference, be rather in the manner and Circumstances of proceeding against fome Offences (efpecially if they be fuch where no Rule how to proceed against them is fixed) than in difpenfing with what feemeth to be Material.

§ 5. The Order prefcribed by our Lord Jefus Chrift, The Order, Matth. 18. for repairing and profecuting of private Offen-prefcribed, Ces, Implies, First, That whether they be in leffer Parti-tobe observed, culars, or in greater, yet if known to but a few, they are and what it not instantly to be brought to publick (except fome Cir- Implies. cumstance necessitate the same for greater Edification) which Order ought to be observed by Ministers, Elders, and private Perfons, Act 11. Alfem. 1707. Cap. 2. Sect. 1. It implies further, That when the Perfon offending doth accept of a private Admonition, there is then no more mention to be made thereof. Again, if that private Admonition prevail not, then the Perfon offended is purpofely and ferioully to take two or three with him, for the further Reclaiming and Admonition of the Offender, before it come to the Church, which may be fitly done at Ministerial-Vifitation of Families. Moreover, it Implies, if this hath not the defired Effect, then is the Offence to be delated unto the Church-Seffion : And when it is brought there, it were fit, that fome who had been Witneffes to the private Admonition, were brought with the Parties, to Inform the Ju-K k 2 dicatory, dicatory, and Instruct that the Offender hath been ferioust ly admonifhed in private, but without Succefs: Therefore it is convenient that the Witneffes to the private Admonition be Members of the Seffion. In the last Place, We may draw from this Order, that if the Seffional Admonition have Weight with the Offender, fo as to Reclaim him, and Satisfy those he had Scandalized, there is no need for Rebuking him before the Congregation ; Except the forbearing a Congregational Rebuke may Hazard the Infection of others, and Encourage them to follow the Offenders Practice.

§ 6. One is Obstinate when he doth refuse either to fon is to be hear private Admonition, or doth decline to appear and anaccounted Ob- fwer before Church Judicatories, after a third Citation, either perfonally apprehended, or a Copy thereof left at his Dwelling Houfe: But one Citation given apud acta, is Peremptory, and Difobedience thereunto may infer Contumacy likewife, Act 11. Affemb. 1707. Cap. 2. Sect. 4, 5. In the next Place, it is Contempt in one, when appearing, to Juftify his Offence, or deny it when evidently proven. It is alfo Contempt, when one acknowledges his Offence, but with a proud and infolent Behaviour; Or, who ufeth haughty, reflecting, or irreverent Expreffions; Such as an-Offender doth thereby vilify the Ordinance of Chrift more than if he had made no Compearance at all. Laftly, Itmay be constructed a not hearing of the Church, when one continues to committ the fame Sins, notwithstanding of his Serious-like Penitence for the fame.

§ 7. Every verbal Acknowledgement and Promife of A-What Satilmendment, ought not always to be fo Satisfying as to Sift ging, and what not for Process; for notwithstanding of 'all that, the Offenders Removing of Gesture when Compearing, his Expressions elfe-where, Seandel. 3and his common Walk and Conversation, may convince the Judicatory that he is but a Mocker; On the other Hand, Church Officers ought not to delay the removing of an-Offence Offence, till they be fatisfied that the Offender is fincerely and gracioufly Penitent, for that would engage Church Judica tories to Decide as to the state of souls, which is bold for them judicially to Dive into, and when all is done, impossible to arrive at any certainty about it. It is to be noticed, that in Church Discipline, a difference is to be made between what is fatisfactory unto a Church Judicatory, fo as to admit the Offender unto all Church Privileges, as if the Offence had never been; and what may be fatisfying, fo as to fift Procedure for the time. Upon Simon Magus his Confession Acts 8. 24. It is probable, that as he then did thereby prevent Excommunication; So upon it, it is not probable that he was thereupon immediately admitted' into Church Communion. There is requisite then in the Offender, who intendeth to have Accels to Church Privileges, a fober, ferious acknowledgment of the Offence, with the Expression of an Unfeigned like purpose to walk Ineffensively, and especially to watch , against Relapses; And if there appear no ground for hindering the Judicatory to esteem the Offender one, who purpofeth as he expresseth, they should accept of his Expreffions as fatisfactory.

§ 8. By the Act of Affembly 1596, Ratified 1638. It Who are to is appointed, That none falling into publick Slanders be be admitted to. received into the Fellowship of the Kirk, except the Mini-publick Refter have fome Appearance and Warrant in Confcience, when to be that he hath both a feeling of Sin & apprehension of Mercy, Abjelved. and for this effect, that the Minister travel with him in Doctrine, and in private Instruction, to bring him hereto, and especially in the Doctrine of Repentance, which being neglected, the publick place of Repentance is turned into a Mock. By the 4. Act of Association 1705. They do Appoint and Ordain (with respect to Scandals, the groffness whereof makes it neceffary to bring the perfons guilty oftner, than once before the Congregation) that after fuch perfons. fons are Convict before the Seffion, it be judicially declared unto them, That they have rendred themfelves Incapable of Communion with the people of GOD in Sealing Ordinances, and that they be appointed to appear in publick to be Rebuked for their Sin, whether they appear Penitent or not, conform to the Divine Institution, 1 Tim. 5. 20. And it is referred to the respective Church Judicatories concerned, to Determine how often fuch Delinquents shall appear in publick : And they Ordain, that after a publick Rebuke, the Minister and Elders be at further pains in Inftructing the Minds of the Scandalous, and that the Seffion upon Satisfaction with their Knowledge, and Senfe of their Sin, do admit them to publick profession of their Repentance, in order to Abfolution. But, if after taking pains on them for fome competent Time, they still remain grofly Ignorant, Infenfible and Unreformed, the Seffion is to advise with the Presbytery, and if the Presbytery shall fee Caule, that then the Sentence of the leffer Excommunication be pronounced against them in Face of the Congregation, from which they are not to be Relaxed, nor admitted to make publick profession of their Repentance, in order thereto, till the Seffion be fatisfied with their Knowledge, Serioufnefs and Reformation.

Drunkennefs, Swearing, 8zc. how to be proceeded against.

§ 9. By the 111 A& Affemb. 1707. Cap. 3. In Offences, fuch as Swearing, Curling, Profaning of the LORD's Day, Drunkennefs, and other Scandals of that nature, ordinarly the guilt for the first Fault would ibe spoken to in private by the Minister or an Elder, and on promise (from a fense of Guilt) to amend after Admonition, they may fiss there; But if the Person Relaple, he should be called before the Session, and if found guilty, may be there judicially Rebuked, where the Session on promise, from a due sense, to amend, may again so fiss and if the person amend not after that, the Session should orderly proceed, unless Repentance appear, and due Satisfaction be offered, till [263] till they inflict the Cenfure of the leffer Excommunication.

§ 10. Perhaps an Offender may make fuch fatisfying Publick place Acknowledgments for his Scandal, that the Judicature can of Repentance, not but judge them fufficient to remove the fame, but only how a Civil he refufes to appear in the accuftomed Place, where Scandalous Perfons do publickly profess their Repentance, in which cafe, I am fure that Formality and Circumftance of a fixed Place is not of fuch moment, as to bear the Strefs and Weight of one fatisfying the Church. For the Apoftolical order, 1 Tim 5: 20. Joyning all who have offended, publickly to be Rebuked before all, is fufficiently Anfwered by their receiving a publick Rebuke for their Scandal, in the ufual Place and Seat where they hear the Word-Preached, and that without putting of their perfon under Arreft in fome certain place, for fome time.

§ 11. The Key of Doctrine differs from the Key of Dif- Keyes of cipline, thus; The first doth only Absolve a Sinner upon Discipline, the condition of faving Grace, but the other doth Absolve how they differ: upon an outward ferious Profession of Repentance; By the one Mens Faults are only Reproved, but by the other, particular perfons are by Name Reprehended. Tho' a perfon be guilty of some alledged scandalous Sin, yet a Minister cannot, in publick, give him an Ecclesiastick Rebuke for it, without the previous Trial, and thereafter the Sentence of a Church Judicatorie, otherwise he usurpeth their Authority, and sheweth more of himself than of respect to Church Order and Edification. Indeed I confels a Minifter may fometimes very confequentially from his Text reprove fuch Sins and their Aggravations, as may make Impreffion upon all the Hearers, that the Application does . agree with such circumstantiate Sins, whereof they know fuch perfons to be guilty. In which cafe, the Reproof is to be regarded as coming from the Word of GOD: But if there must be a plain Deviation from the Text, ere the Preacher Preacher can get that Sin then Reproved, in that cafe it looks fomewhat like a Defign, and cannot but be feared it may want its due Authority. Now a Minister may eafily prevent this, if he shall but choose those Texts which point, without any violence, against fuch Sins.

When necellary that Offenders Thoused Speak in publick, or how a publick Rebuke is to be given.

S 12. At the Offenders first appearance, he is to acknow. ledge himself guilty of the Sin for which he is to be Rebuked. Again, he should Edifyingly declare his Sorrow for it before Abfolution, that the Congregation may the more cordially Re-admit him into their Communion. But much or oft speaking is to be demanded or allowed, as it may be found molt Edifying: Yet all Recantations of Errors are always to be made Explicitly. A publick-Rebuke ought to be fo managed, that there be no ground given for Constructing it a Pennance, Punishment, or Mark of Reproach, but the Minister is to carry therein, as one much affected and afflicted with the Sin, he is to behave Authoritatively, having Words fitted for Edifying the Congregation, and humbling of the Offender. And that the Authority and Solemnity of the Rebuke may have the deeper Impression on all, it were fit that GOD were Addreffed in reference thereto, either before or after the Rebuke:

A formal Accuser is not necessary when the Offence is publick. If a Party cited either upon Accusation, or Order of the Judicatory, be found Innocent and Acquitted, these who Inform them thereof, whether the Party require it or not, ought to be noticed, either for their Calumny or Impudence, as they shall find cause, Act 11: Assemb. 1707, Cap. 2. If the Uncleanness be committed where neither Party Refides, as perhaps in the Fields, or in time of Fairs or Markets, in these Cafes. they are to be Proceffed and Cenfured where their ordinary Abode is, except the place of their Abode be at a confiderable distance from the place where the Sin was committed, and the Scandal be most flagrant where it was committed. TITLE III.

Of Libels Probation, and Citation.

A Libel, whate

S I. A Libel is a Law Syllogifm, confifting of the Proposition or Relevancy, which is founded upon the Laws of GOD, or fome Ecclefiaftical Conftitution agreeable thereto, as, whofoever is abfent from publick Divine Service on the LORD's Day, ought to be Cenfured. The fecond Part confifts of the fub-fumption or probation, which condefeends on matter of Fact, viz. But fuch a perfon did, upon fuch or fuch a LORD's Day, abfent unneceffarily from the publick Worfhip of GOD. The third Part confifts of the Conclusion or Sentence, which contains a Defire, that the Profaner of the LORD's Day, according to the Laws and Customs mentioned in the first Part, may be Cenfured.

$ 2. By Cap. 2. Sect. 7. Act 11: Affem. 1707. The Mo-A Copy of the Libel with derator is to Inform the Offender appearing, of the Occafia Lift of Wit- on of his being Called, and to give him, if defired, a nesses to be deshort Note thereof in Writing, with the Names of the livered, it Witneffes that are to be made use of against him, that for must condescendon Time he may be prepared to Defend himself, which is agreeable and Place. to the common principles of Justice and Equity. The Libel must condescend on Time and Place, when and where the Facts and Offences libelled were committed, that fo the Offender may not be precluded from proving himfelf to have been Alibi, and fo impoffible for him to have done fuch a Deed, or fo Offended at the Time and Place Libelled.

Cap. 1. forecited Act. Albeit one Article of the Libel, per je, be not Relevant, Yet if three or four Articles conjunctim be Relevant, the fame may be admitted to Probation. The Relevancy of a Libel is fo much to be regarded, that, I think, it's Unlawful for any to be either Witneffes or Members of Inquest upon irrelevant Libels. What? Is not this to be a Witnefs against thy Neighbour without Cause, Prov. 24. 28. It was a Truth that Abimelech the Prieft gave Hallowed Bread, and the Sword of Goliab to David; Yet it was a Bloody Sin for Doeg the Edomite, to Inform the wicked King against the Lord's Priest, I Sam. 21 and 22 Chap. It was a Presbyterian Minister's Duty to preach the Gofpel under the late Perfecution, fecretly and cautioufly, to honeft Hearers at their Defire; Yet it would have been a Doeg-like Sin, to have withefied the Truth in that Matter before our then Judges, feing by the 8th Act of Parl. 1685. It was Denth for fuch, even to preach in Houses. What is here faid against fuch Witness-bearing, strikes with as much Force against the Members of Inquests finding fuch Irrelevant Libels proven, for tho' it was both true, what the one Witneffed, and the other found, yet I would be affraid, if I were in their Cafe, that before God I should be condemn'd as acceflory to the fhedding of Innocent Blood. Before the Witneffes be Judicially Examined, the When the accufed Party is to be called, and the Relevancy of the Relevancy is Libel discussed, Sect. 10. Cap. 2. Act forefaid. But in fed. Caufes Caufes Intricate and Difficult, the Difcuffing of the Relevancy may be delayed till Probation be taken : And then, greater Light being thereby given, both Relevancy and Probation may be advifed joyntly, as the Lords of Seffion and Privy Council have often-times done.

Exculpation when to be granted.

§ 4. When the Libel is Read, the Defender fometimes Defcribed, O propofeth a Defenee, which if admitted and proven, Exculpates and Clears him from the Fault libelled, either in whole or in part; As, if the Libel be Murder, and the Defence inculpata tutela; Or if the Libel be Adultery, at fuch a time and place, and the Defence be Alibi. But the Party accused must before Probation offer the Grounds of Exculpation to be proven by Witneffes; In which Cafe the Moderator and Clerk, if required, are to give Warrant to cite Witnesses upon the Parties Charges, the Relevancy of the offered Exculpation being first fustained by the Judicatory: And if the Exculpation be fully proven, all further Proof of the Libel must there fift. But if the Substance of the Scandal be once proven, there can be no place for Exculpation, unlefs it be as to fome extenuating Circumflances, not contrary to, but confifting with the Depolitions already taken.

Probation. What, and by Confession.

§ 5. Probation is that, whereby the Judge is convinced, that what is afferted is true, and he must be convinced either by Confession or Oath of Party, or Writ, Witnesses, or Prefumptions as follows. Probation by Confession, if Judicial, is the ftrongeft of all Probation; But if Men confels a Crime, rather from Wearinels of, or Averlion to Life, than from Confcience of Guilt; Or, if there appear any Signs of Diffraction or Madnefs, then fuch Confessions ought not to be refted upon, except they be Adminiculate with other Probation. Confessions before a Church Judicatory, are not rested upon before civil Courts, except they be Renewed before themselves; And fo it is e contra, for Men may incline to confess Things before Church JudiJudicatories, knowing that Church Difcipline is Medicina, non Pæna, or Ob Levamen Confcientiæ, which ought not to be difcouraged; Whereas they may deny the fame Fault, and Refile before the civil Judge, for fear of Corporal Punifhment.

§ 6. An Oath of Calumny may be exacted of either Oath of Ca-Party, whereby they Swear that they believe or judge, lumny, Verity, that the Points they infift on, are both juft and true, and they will be holden as Confeffed, if they refufe to Depone when required. By an Oath of Verity, or for Confirmation, the Swearer politively affirmeth by his Oath, that what he afferteth is true; And it is the only Oath fworn by a Party which can Terminate the Plea and Strife. But by an Oath of Credulity, the Swearer doth not affert the Verity of the Matter, but the Verity of his Belief of the Matter, which only terminates the Plea in fo far as to Exclude him who Sweareth, from Infifting on thefe Points contrary to his own Belief or Perfwalion, vide Stair's Infit. pag. 698. 701.

§ 7. If the delated Father of a Child, after private Con-Probation by ferences, do ftill deny, then the Seffion is to caufe cite him Oath of Partyto appear before them : If he perfift in his Denyal, when Instanced; It compearing, he is to be Confronted with the Woman, and is not to be prefied. The Prefumptions held forth as particularly as poffible : And if after all this he deny, tho' the Woman's Teftimony can be no fufficient Evidence againft him, yet pregnant Prefumptions, fuch as, fufpicious frequenting her Company, or being folus cum fola, in loco fufpecto, or in fufpect Poftures, and fuch like, which he cannot difprove, may fo lay the Guilt upon him, as to fnew him, that there appears no other way of Removing the Scandal, but his appearance to be publickly Rebuked therefore : If he will not fubmitt himfelf to be Rebuked, it is eafier that a true Narrative of the Cafe be laid before the Congregation, and Intimation given, that there can be no further Procedure in the Matter, till God God in His Providence give further Light; than that an Oathbe preffed, and upon Refufal proceed to the higher Excommunication. But if the perfon accufed do offer his Oath of Purgation, and crave the privilege thereof, the Presbytery may allow the fame, the Form whereof may be as follows.

D. And hereby I call the Great God, the Judge and Avenger of all Falfhood, to be Witnefs and Judge against me in this Matter if I be guilty, and this I do by taking His bleffed Name in my Mouth, and in Swearing by Him who is the great Judge, Punisher and Avenger as faid is, and that in the Sincerity of my Heart, according to the Truth of the Matter, and my own Innocence, as I shall answer to God in the last and great Day, when I shall stand before Him, to answer for all that I have done in the Flesh, and as I would parpartake of His Glory in Heaven, after this Life is at an end.

It is to be taken, either before the Seffion, Presbytery, or Congregation, as the Presbytery shall determine. And if it be taken before the Seffion Seffion or Presbytery, it is to be Intimate to the Congregation, that fuch a perfon hath taken fuch an Oath, and the Party may be obliged to be prefent in the Congregation, and may be put publickly to own his Purging himfelf by Oath, and thereupon be declared free from the alledged Scandal. All what concerns this Oath, is Recommended by Cap. 4. Sect. 6, Oc. of the forecited Act of Affembly.

§ 1c. After an end is made, as above, with the perfon How the Wodelated as Father, the Woman is to be dealt with to give man is to be the true Father; And if after all ferious Dealing and due Cenfured when Diligence, the give no other, the is to be cenfured accor- proven agains ding to the Quality of the Offence confelled by her, with the Man. out naming the perfon delated; The Judicatory referving place for further Cenfure, upon further Difcovery.

§ 11. If a perfon do voluntarly confefs Uncleannefs How a vewhere there is no Child, and the cafe be brought to the luntar and Kirk-Seflion, they are to Inquire whether it floweth from Dif-malicious Conquietnefs of Mind, or from Sinistrous Defign; As when a feffor of Unquietnefs of Mind, or from Sinistrous Defign; As when a feffor of Uncleannefs is to Man fuing to a Woman for Marriage, is denyed, but be Cenjured. fpreads the Report that he hath been Guilty with her. If it be found that there is no Ground for the Confession, the perfon confessing is to be Cenfured as defaming himfelf, and likewife as a Slanderer of the other Party : And withal, Application is to be made by the Session to the Civil Magistrate, that he may be punished according to Law: See that forecited fourth Chapter of the Act of Assembly.

§ 12. It is rare to prove a Scandal by Writ, but yet it Probation by may happen fo to be proven, and the want of the Writer's Writ. Name and Witneffes, ought to be no Objection in Church Courts against Writs, more than in Bills of Exchange. If one denyeth that to be his Subscription, it is hard to fuftain its being proven to be his per comparationem Literarum, which is but a Prefumption, and Men's Hands may be fometimes fo Artificially Imitated, that it shard to hard M m to to difcern which is which ; Befide, one Man's Writ may differ from it felf at feveral Occasions.

Probation by $ 13. Probable Prefumptions, and many Concurring, Prefumptions. may do much to prove, especially in fuch things which rarely can be proven with ordinary Clearness. The Prefumption of Cohabitation, after the Parties are discharged, is fufficient, as may be seen on that Title, to Inferr Adultery : Also, Cohabitation, and behaving as Man and Wife, for some considerable time, presumeth Marriage : And the Depositions of Witnesses, are sometimes founded upon Prefumptions, as when they depone upon Things which depend upon Acts of the Mind, as, Ebriety, & dolus malus. But when a Libel is only proven by Presumptions, it is not so fase to pass the ordinary Censure thereupon, as if it had been proven by Unexceptionable Witnesses and full Probation.

Form of A § 14. Witnesses may be cited on fewer days than Par-Diligence A ties. The Diligence against them may run in this Form, gainfi Winef- viz. Mr. A. B. Moderator, O.c. Forafmuchas Pur-Jestheir Non- fuer, Oc. having applyed to us for a Diligence to cite Witcompearance to be Cenjur. neffes in the faid Matter, in Manner and to the Effect underwritten. Given, &c. by Warrant, &c. If Witness refuse after three Citations to compear, then they may be proceeded against as Contumacious : Or, if judged needful, after the first or fecond Citation is disobeyed, Application fhould be made to the civil Magistrate, that he may oblige them [275] them to appear. See that 9th Sett. Cap. 2d. of that frequently above cited Act of Affembly.

§ 15. In Church Judicatories, Women and Minors paft Objections afourteen Years of Age, are received Witneffes. If the De-gainft Witfender appear, he may Object againft any of them, and if neffes, the Objection be Relevant, and made Evident to the Judicatory, the Witneffes are to be caft: For which fee that fame Act. The Witnesse are to be Sworn and Examined in prefence of the accufed Party, if compearing, and he may defire the Moderator to propofe fuch Queffions, or crofs Queffions, to the Witneffes, as may tend to his Exculpation, which if the Judicatory think pertinent, are to be proposed. The Initialia Testimoniorum, fuch as, their Age, Married, or Un-married, or Soluti, that is, Widows, and the like, are propofed, that the Deponents Veracity may by thefe be traced. If Witneffes cannot fubscribe their Names to their Deposition, the Clerk M m 2 ()15 is to Mark, that they declare, they cannot Write, and the Moderator is always to fubscribe the fame, whether they can Write or not. If they can but fubfcribe the Initial Letters of their Names, they should do it, and the Clerk is to write about their Mark thus (Adam A. B. Bruce his Mark.)

Singularity of Witneffes, What.

§ 17. A fingular Witnefs is one that hath no concurring Witnefs. This Singularity is either, Obstativa, which is, in a Crime, not Reiterable; As if one should depone, that a Man was Murdered at one place, and another depone he was Murdered at another place. Again, there is a Singularitas Adminiculativa, which is, where the Witneffes do not concur in their Depositions; Yet they are not Contrary, but the one affifts the other, as in the proving that an Horfe was stolen, one should depone that he faw the Thief go in without a Horfe, and another faw him take the Horfe. In the third place, there is a Singularitas Diversificativa, when Witnesse depone different Acts in a Crime, which is Reiterable; As if one Witness depone upon an Adultery, committed at one time, and another of an •Adultery committed at another time. Is that perfon's being guilty of Adultery fufficiently proven?

TITLE IV.

Of the vocational and perfonal Faults of Ministers and Probationers, how they are Censured, and of the Method of proceeding to Censure, and of Reponing them against these Censures.

1. BY the 132 Cap. Parle 8. Jac. 6. Non-refidence is Non-refiwithin the Parish, but is absent therefrom, and and how from his Kirk, and using of his Office, for the space of are Deferters, four Sabbath Days in the Year, without a lawful Caufe and how. allowed by the Presbytery; which Nonrefidence is De-Cenfured, and privation. By parity of Reason the same pain may be apply- against the ed against Principals & Masters of Universities, who attend fame. not upon their Charges. The Ministry is faid to be Militia spiritualis, they are Watch-men fixed by their Superiours as Sentinels at fuch Posts, which if they Defert without Warrant, all the Order of the Spiritual Discipline is overturned. Agreeable hereunto is the A& of Affembly 1596, Ratified by Affembly 1638, whereby it is Appointed. That Ministers not Refident with their Flocks be Deposed, according to the Acts of the General Affembly, and Laws of this Realm, otherwife the Burden is to ly on the Presbytery, and they to be Cenfured for the fame. Nn And

And by the 5. Art. of the fame A&, It is appointed conform to the old Acts of Affemblies therein mentioned, that Ministers Refide in their own Parishes or at their ordinary Manses. By the 4 Cap. of the Policy of the Kirk, they who are once called of GOD, and duly Elected by Man, and have once accepted the Charge of the Ministry, may not leave their Functions, otherwife the Deferters are to be Admonished, and in case of Obstinacy Excommunicated. And by the M. S. Acts of Affembly at Edinburgh, 1570. It is appointed that Ministers at their publick In-Ralment, shall promise solemnly never to leave their Ministry at any time thereafter, under the pain of Infamy and Perjury. Conform hereunto, in the I Cap. Art 14. of the French Church Discipline, Ministers with their Families, must actually Refide in their Parishes, under pain of Deposition; and by the 23. Art. Deferters of the Ministry shall be Excommunicated, if they do not repent, and reaffume the Office GOD hath committed unto them, By the Affembly 1690, Self. 15. Albeit Ministers have received their Ordination from Foreign Churches, yet if they have a standing Relation to any Charge in this Church, they are not to remove out of the Kingdom, without confent of the respective Judicatories of this Church, otherwife they may be Treated as Deferters, vid. Ordination Engagements, Lib. 1. If perfecution be particular against one Minister, in that cafe, it is generally thought, he may warrantably Flee, without being efteemed a Deferter: But it will fcarcely defend against Defertion, when the Perfecution becomes general. A Minister seems to be particularly Tied to wait upon his Charge in the Time of a publick Calamity: And therefore the Commission 16 May 1645, found that Mr. Mungo Law Minister at Edinburgh, could not be spared from his Charge, to attend the General's Regiment, in respect of the fear of the Infection in the City.

S 2. Surine Negligence is, an habitual or customary Supine Ne-Neglect of some one or other of the Pastoral Duties, but gligence what every Ficape cannot infer it, the Pastoral Office being in and how some tense a Burden too heavy for the shoulders of Angels. Censured, Br jour Law, Supine Negligence is Relevant to infer Depolition, even as Error, Scandal, Ignorance and Contumacy are, fee the Act of Parl. 1690, fettling the Church Government: And by the forecited Act of Affemb. 1596. It is appointed, That fuch Ministers as be floathful in the Ministration of the Sacrament of the LORD's Supper, be sharply Rebuked, and if they continue therein: that they be Deposed. And by the Act of Assembly June 13, 1646. Among the Enormities and Corruptions of the Ministerial Calling, the following is mentioned, viz. Idlenefs, That is, feldom Preaching, as once on the LORD's Day, or in preparation for publick Duties, not being given to Reading and Meditation, but only now and then, not like other Tradefmen, continually at their Work.

§ 3. Dilapidation of Benefices is, the Deed of any Dilapidate Church-man, whereby his Rents are Wasted, Diminished, on what, or Altered to the worse from what they were. And the and how punishment is, Disannulling of the Deed, and Deprivation to the Granter, Jac. 6. Parl. 7. Cap. 101. By that forecited Act of Assembly 1596. It is declared that Delapidation of Benefices, demitting of them for Favour or Money, without Advice of the Kirk; Interchanging of Benefices, by Transaction, or Transporting of themselves by that occasion, without Advice of the Kirk, are precisely to be punished. Suchlike, fetting of Tacks without consent of the Assembly, is to be punished as Dilapidation.

ing the Sacraments: By Jac. 6. Parl. 21. Act I. Any Condition made by the Intrant with the Patron, releving to himfelf a fufficient Maintenance answerable to the Fate of the Benefice, is declared not to be Simony. In this Crime, Witneffes who are not very habile, or omni exceptione majores, fuch as Whores and Infamous perfons, may be admitted, and it may be proven by prefumption or Oath of Party, according to the Opinion of fome Lawyers, and all because it is ordinarily carried on with much privacy and clandestine dealing. Ambitus is Crimen mere Ecclesiasticum, and not usually punished by Laicks. By the forecited Act of Affembly 1596. It is provided, that none feek Prefentations to Benefices, without Advice of the Presbytery, and if any do in the contrary, they are to be Repelled as rei ambitus. They further appoint that it be Enquired, if any by Soliftation or Moyen, directly or indirectly, prefs to enter into the Ministry; And if it be found, the person fo Solliciting, is to be Repelled; These three Crimes, Dilapidation, Simony, and Ambitus, do often meet in one and the same person, and the Crime is Denominate from that which most predomines in it.

TITLE V.

Of Sentences and their Reviews, of Declinatures, References, and Appeals.

§ 1. Judicial Sentences are either Interloquitors, that Several is a Sentence intermediate between the Depen-kinds of dence and Termination of Proceffes; Or they Semences are Definitive, that is, they Terminate Proceffes. And thefe are either Abfolvitures, whereby the Defender is freed and Affoilzied from the Conclusion of the Libel or Procefs, or they are Condemnatory, whereby the Conclusion of the Procefs is found just and true against the Defender. Or they are mixed, whereby the Defender is Abfolved from fome part of the Conclusion of the Process, and is Condemned in other parts thereof.

§ 2. The Moderator of no Judicatory ought to give Sentences forth their Sentence, till the fame be first put in Writing, must be writand then he is to order the Clerk to read it in prefence of ten before they all Parties. Thus no Judicatory can be in the least wronged be pronounced by any Clerks Unfaithfulness or Omission.

Parties being first fully heard must close what they have to fay, and after they have concluded their Defences and Anfwers, then the Judicatory begins to Advise what Sentence to pronounce; And feing the Purfuer speaks first by his Libel, the Defender is allowed to be the last Speaker.

§ 5. When Faults are Singular and Monstruous, it is not to be Tried the Laudable Practice of Judges, to order the Punishment and Trial of fuch Crimes in private; I am fure, to acquaint the People of fome Unnatural Sins, whereof they had never heard, were but a Scandalous and Pernicious Instruction. The Nature. of Reviews, and who can Review.

§ 6. Sentences are in themfelves Null, when pronounced against the General Acts of the Church, or by an incompetent Judge, fuch as the Sentences of Kirk-Seffions against Ministers, or even by Presbyteries and Synods, when the Process is carried and admitted before their Superiour Judicatories.

§ 7. When the Party neglects to use the ordinary Re-Use and End medy of Appeal, he is allowed (where the Sentence is palpably gravaminous) to purfue a Review thereof before a Superiour Judicatory. They are like Reductions, and ought to be fo Libelled, calling the Parties and Judge to produce what is craved, to be reviewed. They are not much in use with us, and if they were, some Selfwill'd and Litigious perfons would take too much Encouragement from it. If a Party shall omit to propone a competent and proper Defence; with a fraudulent and vexatious Intention to protract and refume Debates; in that cafe he ought not to he heard in his making thereof out of due Time and Order. But to hear emergent and new difcovered Defences fince the conclusion of the Caufe, is but just.

§ 9. Declinatures are ante latam sententiam definitivam: Jures. But Appeals are made from and after that Sentence. Thefe Difference Declinatures are of two forts, the first Unwarrantable, when between Refe-a Judicatory is Declined, as having no Authority, as if a Appeals: Minister should Decline his own Presbytery, or the other When warran-Superiour Judicatories of the Church to be his Lawful tably made, Judges, which is a higher Degree of Contumacy, than that and when not which follows upon Non-compearance, and may be warrantably cenfured with Deposition by the 5th Act of Parliament 1690. There is a warrantable Declinature, when a Judicatory is Declined as having committed Injuffice in fome Interlocutor-Sentence. There is likewife a warrantable Declinature, which may be made against particular Members, who are related to the Party by Confanguinity or Affinity, nearer than a Coufin-german, or who have behaved themfelves as Parties in the Caufe. It is just now faid, that Appeals are properly made from Definitive-Sentences, but they are likeways made from Interlocutory-Sentences, when they contain fuch Damage to the Party, whereof no Reparation can be expected, from the Definitive Sentence that is to enfue. Thus Paul's Appeal was Pp2 Juft, Excommunicate Perfons are to be charged by the Minister to depart from the Church in time of Ministration of Sacraments and Prayer, and not to difobey, under the Penalties therein mentioned.

§ 13. The Minister is to conclude this Censure with Conclusion by Prayer to this Purpose, That GOD who hath appointed and pronounthis terrible Sentence for removing of Offences, and redu- cing the Blefcing of obstinate Sinners, would ratify in Heaven, what fing. in His Name, and by His Warrant hath now been done on Earth, and that the flutting him out of the Church may fill him with Fear and Shame, break his obstinate Heart, and be a Mean to deftroy the Flesh, and recover from the power of the Devil, that his Spirit may yet be faved, and alfo that others may be ftricken with Fear, and not dare to fin fo prefumptuoufly, or contemn the Authority Qq2 and and Voice of His Church. See Knox's Forms prefixed to the old Pfalms. Then the Congregation is to be difmiffed with the Bleffing, after finging the last part of the 101 Pialm.

The Diffethe Greater and Leffer Excommunication.

§ 14. The 4 Art. Cap: 30 of our Confession of Faith Saith, rence betwixt That for the better attaining the Endsof Church Cenfures, the Officers of the Church are to proceed by Admonition and Sulpenfion from the Sacrament of the Lord'sSupper for a time, and by Excommunication from the Church. The Difference then betwixt these two Censures is: Suspension from the Lord's Supper, Imports that the perfon fo Cenfured is in Imminent Danger of beingExcommunicated and cut off from the Church, but before that heavy and finishing Stroke be Inflicted, there are further Means to be uled, fuch as Prayers and Admonitions, in order to his Reclaiming, 2 Theff. 3. 6, 14, 15. Now we command you Brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw your felves from every Brother that walketh diforderlie: And if any Man obey not our word by this Epifile, note that Man, and have no companie with him, that he may be ashamed, yet count him not as an Enemy, but admonifs him as a Brother. Whereas when a perfon is cut off by that high Cenfure, he is to be looked on as a Heathen Man, Matth. 18. 17. Upon which the Church ceafeth to be his Reprover, they give him over for dead or desperate, and will administer no more of the Medicine of Church Discipline unto him, 1 Cor. 12. 12. For what hath the Church to do to judge them that are without? do not they judge them that are within? but them that are without, God judgeth.

And, pray, what can a Church do more ? Or, what have they to do more with a perfon that out of their Communion ? The Anathematization among the Canonists hath no other Effects, but is the same upon the Matter with their greater Excommunication ; Only, when the fame is Inflicted with a number of more Solemnities and Formalities, because of that Parade it is then called Anathematization. And we find by KNOX's Forms, that he useth the Words Excommunicated and Accursed, as Synonymous or Equipollent : See the Form of Process both on this and the Subsequent Title Assemb. 1707.

Of the Order of proceeding to Abfolution.

S 1. B Y the Manuscript Acts of Affembly at Edin- The old and burgh March 1569, Persons Excommicated present Me-for their Offences, in order to their Absolu-tion, shall stand Bare-headed at the Kirk-door till Prayers folkion. and Singing be ended, and then enter the Kirk, and fit at the publick place of Repentance Bare-headed all the time of the Sermon, and again depart before the last Prayer, which is agreeable to KNOX's Forms, concluded Anno 1567. and ordered to be printed by Affembly 1571. and is not difagreeable to the Primitive Practice of the Church. But now, if after Excommunication the Signs of Repen. tance appear in the Person Excommunicated, such as Godly Sorrow for Sin, as having thereby Incurred God's heavy Displeasure, occasioned Grief to his Brethren, and justly provoked them to cast him out of their Communion, together with a full Purpole of Heart to turn from his Sin unto God, with a humble Defire of recovering Peace with God and His People. All which the Presbytery being fatisfyed with, they give Warrant for his Absolution : But in order thereto, he is to be brought before the Congrega. tion, and there also make free Confession and express Sorrow for his Sin, call upon God for Mercy in Chrift, feek to be reftored to the Communion of the Church, and he must promife, through the Lord's Strength, new Obedience and more holy and circumspect Walking: Which ApAppearance before the Congregation, shall be as often as Church Judicatories shall find may be for Edification and Tryal of the professing Penitent's Sincerity.

§ 2. A Minister may warrantably without Licence from Absolution in Extremis, the Presbytery, haunt the Company of Excommunicate Perfons in extremis, as is faid, Tit. Prac. And if he shall then find in the dying Perfon true Signs of Repent-ance, what is there to forbid his administrating the comfortable Sentence of Absolution to him, feing it is due to the Signs of his Repentance, and his dying Condition cannot admitt of longer delay. But that Minifters might have better Warrant, & the Fears of dying Penitents be more eafily removed, I with there were fome Church Act expressly 'Authorizing Ministers to abfolve Persons in fuch Circumftances.

§ 3. In the preceeding Title there is an Edict of Ex-communication mentioned, fo in like manner, and on the fame Ground, there should be published an Edict of Abfolution, at least a Sabbath before the fame, that fo the Penitent may be reftored to the Apparent and Tacite Satisfaction of that Congregation who had to confented to his Seclution.

§ 4. The Day being come, the Minister is to preach a The Mini-Sermon fuited to that Occasion; Then, after the ordinary ster's Beha-Prayers and Praises of the Congregation are ended, he is to Prayer before call upon the professed Penitent, and make him Declare, Promise, and Call upon GOD as above : Thereaster he is to defire the Congregation to joyn with him in Prayer to this purpose, That the Lord Jesus Christ who hath pronounced, that whofoever by His Ministers is bound on Earth, shall be bound in Heaven; And alfo, that whofoever is loofed by the fame, fhall be loofed and abfolved with Him in Heaven, would mercifully accept his Creature this professing Penitent N. whom Sathan of a long time hath held in bondage, fo that he not only drew him to Iniquity, but but alfo fo hardened his Heart, that he defpifed all Admonitions, for the which his Sin and Contempt, they were compelled to Excommunicate him from the Society of the Faithful. But now feing the Holy Spirit hath fo far prevailed, that he profession Repentance for his Sin, that it may pleafe Gcd by His Spirit and Grace, to make him a fincere and unfeigned Penitent : And for the Obedience of our Lord Jefus Chrift unto Death, fo to accept of this poor returning Sinner, that his former difobedience be never laid to his charge, and that he may increase in all Godlinefs, fo that Sathan in the end may be trodden under foot by the Power of our Lord Jefus, and GOD may be Glorified, the Church Edifyed, and the Penitent faved in the Day of the LORD.

§ 5. After Prayer, the Sentence of Abfolution is to be Sentence of pronounced in thefe or the like Words. Whereas thou N. Abfolution & haft been flut out, for thy Sin, from the Congregation of Exhortation the Faithful, and haft now manifefted thy Repentance, ved. wherein the Church refteth fatisfyed; In the Name of the Lord Jefus Chrift, before this Congregation, I pronounce and declare thee abfolved from the Sentence of Excommunication formerly denounced against thee, and do receive thee into the Communion of the Church, and the free Ufe of all the Ordinances of Chrift, that thou mayeft be Partaker of all His Benefits to thy Eternal Salvation. After this is pronounced, the Minister speaketh to him as a Brother, Exhorting him to Watch and Pray, or Comforting him, if there be need, the Elders Imbrace him, and the whole Congregation holdeth Communion with him as one of their own.

Conclusion of § 7. The Minister is to conclude the Absolution with Prayer, thanking GOD who delighteth not in the Death of a Sinner, but rather that he should Repent and Live! and Magnifying the Mercy of GOD through Jefus Chrift, in pardoning and receiving into His Favour the most grievous Offenders, whenever by his Grace they unfeignedly Repent and forfake their Sins. Thereafter the Congregation is Difmiffed with the Bleffing, after finging a part of fome Penitential Pfalm.
