And David sent and enquired after the woman. And one said, Is not this Bath-sheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite? 2 Sam. xi. 3.

And David sent messengers, and took her: and she came in unto him, and he lay with her; (for she was purified from her uncleanness;) and she returned unto her house. ——4.

Because David did that which was right in the eyes of the Lord, and turned not aside from any thing that he commanded him all the days of his life, save only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite. 1 Kings xv. 5.

When I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses. Jer. v. 7.

Because they have committed villany in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbors' wives, and have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them; even I know, and am a witness, saith the Lord. — xxix. 23.

For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife; for he had married her. Mar. vi. 17.

And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery: and, when they had set her in the midst, John viii. 3.

They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act. — — 4.

47. TEMPTATION VANQUISHED.

And it came to pass, after these things, that his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph; and she said, Lie with me. Gen. xxxix. 7.

But he refused; and said unto his master's wife, Behold, my master wotteth not what is with me in the house, and he hath committed all that he hath to my hand: —— 8.

There is none greater in this house than I; neither hath he kept back any thing from me but thee, because thou art his wife: how then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God? — — 9.

And it came to pass, as she spake to Joseph day by day, that he hearkened not unto her, to lie by her, or to be with her. —— 10.

48. RESTITUTION.

And Pharaoh called Abram, and said, What is this that thou hast done unto me? why didst thou not tell me that she was thy wife? Gen. xii. 18.

Why saidst thou, She is my sister? so I might have taken her to me to wife: now, therefore, behold thy wife, take her, and go thy way.

And Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him: and they sent him away, and his wife, and all that he had. —— 20.

And Abimelech took sheep, and oxen, and men servants, and women servants, and gave them unto Abraham, and restored him Sarah his wife.

— xx. 14.

49. COMMUNITY OF WIVES.

But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitanes, which I also hate. Rev. ii. 6.

So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate. — 15.

50. JEALOUSY.

And it came to pass, when his master heard the words of his wife, which he spake unto him, saying, After this manner did thy servant to me; that his wrath was kindled. Gen. xxxix.

For jealousy is the rage of a man; therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance. Prov. vi. 34.

He will not regard any ransom; neither will he rest content, though thou givest many gifts.

Then the king returned out of the palace garden, into the place of the banquet of wine: and Haman was fallen upon the bed whereon Esther was. Then said the king, Will he force the queen also before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth they covered Haman's face. Est. vii. 8.

51. CEREMONIAL CRITERION.

Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man's wife go aside, and commit a trespass against him, Num. v. 12.

And a man lie with her carnally, and it be hid from the eyes of her husband, and be kept close, and she be defiled, and there be no witness against her, neither she be taken with the manner; — 13.

And the priest shall bring her near, and set her before the Lord. —— 16.

And the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel; and of the dust that is in the floor of the tabernacle the priest shall take, and put it into the water. — 17.

And the priest shall set the woman before the Lord, and uncover the woman's head, and put the offering of memorial in her hands, which is the jealousy-offering: and the priest shall have in his hand the bitter water that causeth the curse. — — 18.

But if thou hast gone aside to another instead of thy husband, and if thou be defiled, and some man hath lain with thee besides thine husband;

And this water that causeth the curse shall go into thy bowels, to make thy belly to swell, and thy thigh to rot. And the woman shall say Amen, amen. — — 22.

And the priest shall write these curses in a book, and he shall blot them out with the bitter water. — — 23.

And he shall cause the woman to drink the bitter water that causeth the curse; and the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter. —— 24.

Then the priest shall take the jealousy-offering out of the woman's hand, and shall wave the offering before the Lord, and offer it upon the altar. --25.

And the priest shall take a handful of the offering, even the memorial thereof, and burn it upon the altar, and afterward shall cause the woman to drink the water. — 26.

And when he hath made her to drink the water, then it shall come to pass, that if she be defiled, and have done trespass against her husband, that the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter, and her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall rot; and the woman shall be a curse among her people. —

This is the law of jealousies, when a wife go eth aside to another instead of her husband, and is defiled; — 29.

Or when the spirit of jealousy cometh upor him, and he be jealous over his wife, and shall set the woman before the Lord, and the priest shall execute upon her all this law. —— 30.

Then shall the man be guiltless from iniquity, and this woman shall bear her iniquity. — — 31.

52. ALLUSION TO JEALOUSY.

For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. 2 Cor. xi. 2.

53. SPIRITUAL ADULTERY.

What hath my beloved to do in mine house, seeing she hath wrought lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from thee? when thou doest evil, then thou rejoicest. Jer. xi. 15.

I have seen thine adulteries, and thy neighings, the lewdness of thy whoredom, and thine abom inations on the hills in the fields: woe unto thee O Jerusalem! wilt thou not be made clean? when shall it once be? — xiii. 27.

How weak is thine heart, saith the Lord God, seeing thou doest all these things, the work of an imperious whorish woman; Ezek. xvi. 30.

In that thou buildest thine eminent place in the head of every way, and makest thine high place in every street; and hast not been as a harlot, in that thou scornest hire; — 31.

But as a wife that committeth adultery, which taketh strangers instead of her husband!

And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbors. — xxiii. 5.

Then said I unto her that was old in adulteries, Will they now commit whoredoms with her, and she with them? — 43.

Yet they went in unto her, as they go in unto a woman that playeth the harlot, so went they in unto Aholah and unto Aholibah the lewd women. — — 44.

Say ye unto your brethren, Ammi; and to your sisters, Ruhamah. Hos. ii. 1.

Plead with your mother, plead: for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her, therefore, put away her whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts. — — 2.

For their mother hath played the harlot; she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, my oil and my drink. — — 5.

54. RETRIBUTION.

And the righteous men they shall judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women that shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands. Ezek. xxiii. 45.

For thus saith the Lord God, I will bring up a company upon them, and will give them to be removed and spoiled. — 46.

And the company shall stone them with stones, and dispatch them with their swords; they shall slay their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire. —— 47.

Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness. — — 48.

Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation except they repent of their deeds. Rev. ii. 22.

DEVIATION FROM NATURE.

SECT. 55. EUNUCHS, &C.

HE that is wounded in the stones, or hath his privy member cut off, shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord. Deut. xxiii. 1.

And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. 2 Kings xx. 18.

And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. Is. xxxix. 7.

And the king spake upon Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring certain of the children of Israel, and of the king's seed, and of the princes; Dan. i. 3.

Now God had brought Daniel into favor and ender love with the prince of the enpuchs. — 9 tender love with the prince of the eunuchs. — 9.

And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel I fear my lord the king who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse liking than the children which are of your sort? then shall ye make me endanger my head to the king. — — 10.

Then said Daniel to Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. —— 11.

But he said unto them, All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given. Mat. xix. 11.

For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb; and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men; and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it let him receive it. — — 12.

And he arose and went: and behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem for to worship. Acts viii. 27.

56. SIN OF ONAN.

And Onan knew that the seed should not be his, and it came to pass, when he went in unto his brother's wife, that he spilled it on the ground, lest that he should give seed to his brother. Gen. xxxviii. 9.

And the thing which he did displeased the Lord: wherefore he slew him also. —— 10.

And if any man's seed of copulation go out from him, then he shall wash all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the even. Lev. xv. 16.

And every garment, and every skin, whereon is the seed of copulation, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the even. — — 17.

This is the law of him that hath an issue, and of him whose seed goeth from him, and is defiled therewith: — — 32.

57. IMAGES FOR WHOREDOM.

And it came to pass, through the lightness of her whoredom, that she defiled the land, and committed adultery with stones and with stocks. Jer. iii. 9.

Thou hast also taken thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself images of men, and didst commit whoredom with them: Ezek. xvi. 17.

58. EXCITING PICTURES.

For when she saw men portrayed upon the wall, images of the Chaldeans portrayed with vermilion, Ezek. xxiii. 14.

Girded with girdles upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity.

And, as soon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Chaldea. — — 16.

59. ON SODOMY.

But the men of Sodom were wicked, and sinners before the Lord exceedingly. Gen. xiii. 13.

And the Lord said, Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous, — xviii. 20.

I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me: and if not, I will know.

And the men turned their faces from thence, and went toward Sodom: but Abraham stood yet before the Lord. — 22.

And Lot went out at the door unto them, and shut the door after him, – xix. 6.

And said, I pray you, brethren, do not so wickedly.

Thou shalt not lie with mankind as with womankind: it is abomination. Lev. xviii. 22.

If a man also lie with mankind as he lieth ' with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them. xx. 13.

There shall be no whore of the daughters of Israel, nor a sodomite of the sons of Israel. Deut. xxiii. 17.

Thou shalt not bring the hire of a whore, or the price of a dog, into the house of the Lord thy God for any vow; for even both these are abomination unto the Lord thy God. -- 18.

For their vine is of the vine of Sodom, and of the fields of Gomorrah: their grapes are grapes of gall, their clusters are bitter: — xxxii. 32.

And the man, the master of the house, went out unto them, and said unto them, Nay, my brethren, nay, I pray you, do not so wickedly: seeing that this man is come into my house, do not this folly. Judges xix. 23.

Behold, here is my daughter, a maiden, and his concubine, them I will bring out now, and humble ye them, and do with them what seemeth good unto you: but unto this man do not so vile a thing.

And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked: 2 Peter ii. 7.

(For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds:) - -- 8.

60. SODOMITES,

But before they lay down the men of the city, even the men of Sodom, compassed the house round, both old and young, all the people from every quarter. Gen. xix. 4.

And they called unto Lot, and said unto him. Where are the men which came in to thee this night? bring them out unto us that we may know them. --5.

Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as is good in your eyes: only unto these men do nothing; for therefore came they under the shadow of my roof. —— 8.

And they said, Stand back. And they said again, This one fellow came in to sojourn, and he will needs be a judge: now will we deal worse with thee than with them. And they pressed sore upon the man, even Lot, and came near to break the door. --9.

But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the

Now as they were making their hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, certain sons of Belial, beset the house round about, and beat at the door, and spake to the master of the house, the old man, saying, Bring forth the man that came into thine house, that we may know him. Judges xix. 22.

And there were also Sodomites in the land, and they did according to all the abomination of the nations which the Lord cast out before the children of Israel. 1 Kings xiv. 24.

Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonor their own bodies between themselves: Rom. i. 24.

For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: - -- 26.

And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompense of their error which was meet. - --- 27.

61. ALLUSIONS.

Hear the word of the Lord, ye rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah: Is. i. 10.

The shew of their countenance doth witness against them: and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not: woe unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves. - iii. 9.

And thine elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters, that dwell at thy left hand: and thy younger sister, that dwelleth at thy right hand is Sodom and her daughters. Ezek. xvi. 46.

Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations; but as if that were a very little thing, thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways. -

As I live, saith the Lord God, Sodom thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, as thou hast done, thou and thy daughters. Ezek. xvi. 48.

Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom, pride, fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her, and in her daughters; neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. — — 49.

And they were haughty, and committed abomination before me; therefore I took them away as I saw good. — — 50.

When I shall bring again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then will I bring again the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them; — 53.

Thou mayest bear thine own shame, and mayest be confounded in all that thou hast done, in that thou art a comfort unto them. — 54.

When thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, then thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate. —— 55.

For thy sister Sodom was not mentioned by thy mouth in the day of thy pride. — — 56.

62. PENALTY.

For we will destroy this place, because the cry of them is waxen great before the face of the Lord; and the Lord hath sent us to destroy it. Gen. xxix. 13.

Then the Lord rained upon Sodom, and upon Gomorrah, brimstone and fire from the Lord out of heaven: — 24.

And he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground, — 25.

And he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, and beheld, and, lo, the smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace. ——28.

And he took away the Sodomites out of the tand, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made. I Kings xv. 12.

And the remnant of the Sodomites, which remained in the days of his father Asa, he took out of the land. — xxii. 46.

And he brake down the houses of the Sodomites, that were by the house of the Lord, where the women wove hangings for the grove. 2 Kings xxiii. 7.

But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all. Luke xvi. 29.

Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed. — — 30.

And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly: 2 Pet. ii. 6.

Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them, in like manner giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire. Jude 7.

63. ALLUSIONS THERETO.

So that the generation to come of your children that shall rise up after you, and the stranger that shall come from a far land, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses which the Lord hath laid upon it; — Deut. xxix. 22.

And that the whole land thereof is brinstone, and salt, and burning; that it is not sown, nor beareth, nor any grass groweth therein, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboiim, which the Lord overthrew in his anger, and in his wrath. —— 23.

As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, and the neighboring cities thereof, saith the Lord: no man shall abide there, neither shall a son of man dwell in it. Jer. xlix. 18.

As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and the neighboring cities thereof, saith the Lord; so shall no man abide there, neither shall any son of man dwell therein. — l. 40.

For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her. Lam., iv. 6.

I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord. Amos iv. 11.

And thou Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works which have been done in thee had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. Mat. xi. 23.

But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment than for thee. —— 24.

64. BESTIALITY.

Whosoever lieth with a beast shall surely be put to death. Ex. xxii. 19.

Neither shalt thou lie with any beast to defile thyself therewith; neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down thereto: it is confusion. Lev. xviii. 23.

Defile not ye yourselves in any of these things; for in all these the nations are defiled which I cast out before you. — 24.

Ye shall, therefore, keep my statutes and my judgments, and shall not commit any of these abominations; neither any of your own nation, nor any stranger that sojourneth among you. — 26.

That the land spue not you also, when ye defile it, as it spued out the nations that were before you. —— 28.

For whosoever shall commit any of these abominations, even the souls that commit them ! xviii. 29.

Therefore shall ye keep mine ordinance, that ye commit not any one of these abominable customs, which were committed before you, and that ye defile not yourselves therein: I am the Lord your God. — 30.

- xx. 15.

And if a woman approach unto any beast, shall be cut off from among their people. Lev. and lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman and the beast: they shall surely be put to deatn; their blood shall be upon them. — — 16.

Cursed be he that lieth with any manner of beast: and all the people shall say, Amen.

Deut. xxvii. 21.

CORPOREITY.

SECT. 1. HARMONIOUS UNITY OF THE BODY.

 $\mathbf{F^{OR}}$  the body is not one member, but many. 1 Cor. xii. 14.

If the foot shall say, because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body? — — 15.

And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? if the whole were hearing, where were the smelling? —— 17.

But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

And if they were all one member, where were the body? — — 19.

But now are they many members, yet but one – – 20.

And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee; nor again, the head to the feet, I have no need of you. ---

Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary.

And those members of the body, which we think to be less honorable, upon these we bestow more abundant honor; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness. — — 23.

For our comely parts have no need; but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honor to that part which -- 24.

That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another. — 25.

And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honored, all the members rejoice with it. — — 26

SENSES AND APPETITES.

And he smelled the smell of his raiment, and blessed him, and said, See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the Lord hath blessed: Gen. xxvii. 27.

And the Lord said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the Lord? Ex. iv. 11.

Is there iniquity in my tongue? cannot my taste discern perverse things? Job vi. 30.

Doth not the ear try words? and the mouth taste his meat: - xii. 11.

For the ear trieth words as the mouth tasteth --- xxxiv. 3.

Who hath put wisdom in the inward parts? or who hath given understanding to the heart? xxxviii. 36.

And the Lord said to Samuel, Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, at which both the ears of every one that heareth it shall tingle. 1 Sam.

The full soul loatheth an honey-comb; but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet. Prov. xxvii. 7.

The nations shall see, and be confounded at all their might: they shall lay their hand upon their mouth, their ears shall be deaf. Mic. vii.

The light of the body is the eye: if, therefore, thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. Mat. vi. 22.

But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If, therefore, the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness! —— 23.

But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of usa have their senses exercised to discern both good Heb. v. 14.

3. ERECT POSITION.

This thy stature is like to a palm-tree, and thy breasts to clusters of grapes. Sol. vii. 7.

I said, I will go up to the palm-tree, I will take hold of the boughs thereof: now also thy breasts shall be as clusters of the vine, and the smell of thy nose like apples. — — 8.

4. RIGHT HAND AND LEFT.

And Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it upon Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand upon Manasseh's head, guiding his hands wittingly; for Manasseh was the first-born. · — 14.

Among all this people there were seven hundred chosen men left-handed: every one could sling stones at an hair-breadth, and not miss. Judges xx. 16.

They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in hurling stones, and shooting arrows out of a bow, even of Saul's brethren of Benjamin.

5. DIMINUTIVE STATURE.

And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid; and she waited on Naaman's wife. 2 Kings v. 2.

Which of you, by taking thought, can add one cubit unto his stature? Mat. vi. 27.

And he sought to see Jesus who he was, and could not for the press, because he was little of stature. Luke xix. 3.

6. VERY TALL.

And they brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched unto the children of Israel, saying, The land, through which we have gone to search it, is a land that eateth up the inhabitants thereof: and all the people that we saw in it are men of a great stature. Num.

The Emims dwelt therein in times past, a people great, and many, and tall as the Anakims. Deut. ii. 10.

And they ran and fetched him thence: and when he stood among the people he was higher than any of the people from his shoulders and upward. 1 Sam. x. 23.

And he slew an Egyptian, a man of great stature, five cubits high; and in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear. 1 Chron. xi. 23.

- 7. GIANTS.

There were giants in the earth in those days: and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men, which were of old men of renown. Gen. vi. 4.

And there we saw the giants, the sons of Anak, which came of the giants: and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight. Num. xiii. 33.

Which also were accounted giants, as the Anakims; but the Moabites call them Emims. Deut. ii. 11.

That also was accounted a land of giants: giants dwelt therein in old time, and the Ammonites call them Zamzummims. — — 20

For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of giants; behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron; is it not in Rabbath of the children of Ammon? nine cubits was the length thereof, and four cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit of a man. — iii. 11.

And they gave Hebron unto Caleb, as Moses said: and he expelled thence the three sons of Judges i. 20.

And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span. I Sam.

And Ishbi-benob, which was of the sons of the giant, (the weight of whose spear weighed three hundred shekels of brass in weight,) he, being girded with a new sword, thought to have slain David. 2 Sam. xxi. 16.

·8. GIANTS SLAIN.

And at that time came Joshua, and cut off the Anakims from the mountains; from Hebron from Debir, from Anab, and from all the mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Israel: Joshua destroyed them utterly with their cities. Jos. xi. 21.

There was none of the Anakims left in the land of the children of Israel; only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod, there remained.

And it came to pass after this, that there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gob: then Sibbechai the Hushathite slew Saph, which was of the sons of the giant. 2 Sam. xxi. 18.

Behold, this have I found, (saith the Preacher,) counting one by one to find out the account; Ec. vii. 27.

So they sought for a fair damsel throughout all the coasts of Israel, and found Abishag, a Shunammite, and brought her to the king. 1

And the damsel was very fair, and cherished the king, and ministered to him: but the king knew her not. ---4.

After these things, when the wrath of King Ahasuerus was appeased, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her. Est. ii. 1.

Then said the king's servants that ministered to him, let there be fair young virgins sought for the king: —— 2.

And let the maiden which pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king; and he did so. —— 4.

So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women. — 8.

thereon. Ex. xx. 26.

And Michal, the daughter of Saul, came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel to-day, who uncovered himself today in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the vain fellows shamelessly uncovereth himself! 2 Sam. vi. 20.

And David said unto Michal, It was before the Lord, which chose me before thy father, and before all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of the Lord, over Israel: therefore will I play before the Lord. — 21.

And I will yet be more vile than thus, and will be base in mine own sight; and of the maidservants which thou hast spoken of, of them shall I be had in honor.

22. NAKED METAPHORICALLY.

But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbors, and he is not. Jer. xlix. 10.

Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she is removed: all that honored her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness; yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward. Lam. i. 8.

Take the millstones, and grind meal: uncover thy locks, make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers.

Therefore will I discover thy skirts upon thy face, that thy shame may appear. Jer. xiii. 26.

Thus saith the Lord God, Because thy filthiness was poured out, and thy nakedness discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and with all the idols of thy abominations, and by the blood of thy children, which thou didst give unto them. Ezek. xvi. 36.

Behold, therefore I will gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated; I will even gather them round about against thee, and will discover thy nakedness unto them, that they may see all thy nakedness. — — 37.

Thus will I make thy lewdness to cease from thee, and thy whoredom brought from the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more.

For thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will deliver thee into the hand of them whom thou hatest, into the hand of them from whom thy mind is alienated.

And they shall deal with thee hatefully, and shall take away all thy labour, and shall leave thee naked and bare; and the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be discovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms. --29.

Lest I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst. Hos. ii. 3.

Lust not after her beauty in thine heart; neither let her take thee with her eyelids: Prov.

Yet she multiplied her whoredoms, in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt. Ezek. xxiii. 19.

Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, in bruising thy teats by the Egyptians for the paps of thy youth.

But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh after a woman to lust after her, hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. Mat. v. 28.

Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities. Jude 8.

WANTON EYES.

But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints; Eph. v. 3.

For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries: 1 Peter iv. 3.

Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you. — — 4.

For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error. 2 Pet. ii. 18.

29. PENALTY.

The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished. 2 Pet. ii. 9.

But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous are they, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities. — 10.

And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day-time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they feast with you.

30. CHASTITY ENJOINED.

For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication: 1 Thess. iv. 3.

That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honor;

Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God. — 5.

For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. — 7.

Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteous ness, faith, charity, peace, with them that callon the Lord out of a pure heart. 2 Tim. ii. 22.

Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul. 1 Pet. ii. 11.

31. MODESTY EXEMPLIFIED.

the camels were coming. Gen. xxiv. 63.

And Rebekah lifted up her eyes; and when she saw Isaac she lighted off the camel.

For she had said unto the servant, What man is this that walketh in the field to meet us? And the servant had said, It is my master: there fore she took a vail and covered herself. — — 65.

Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning; let us solace ourselves with loves.

Prov. vii. 18.

And it came to pass after this, that Absalom; the son of David had a fair sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her. 2 Sam. xiii. 1.

And Amnon was so vexed that he fell sick for his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin: and Amnon thought it hard for him to do anything

And he said unto him, Why art thou, being the king's son, lean from day to day? wilt thou not tell me? And Amnon said unto him, I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister. — — 4.

upon thine arm: for love is strong as death; jealousy is cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame. Sol. viii. 6.

Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would utterly be contemned. -- 7.

34. SUPERSEDED.

Neither shall he regard the god of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all. Dan.

36. INDUCEMENTS—(FEMALE.) (ANCIENT.)

And now is not Boaz of our kindred, with whose maidens thou wast? behold, he winnoweth barley to night in the threshing floor. Ruth

Wash thyself, therefore, and anoint thee, and put thy raiment upon thee, and get thee down to the floor: but make not thyself known to the man, until he have done eating and drinking. 3.

And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house; and he preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women. Est. ii. 9.

Now, when every maid's turn was come to go in to the king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odors, and with other things for the purifying of the women,) --12.

Then thus came erery maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her, to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house.

Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail, the uncle of Mordecai, (who had taken her for his daughter,) was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the

And he said, Speak, I pray thee, unto Solomon the king, (for he will not say thee nay,) that he give me Abishag the Shunammite to wife. - 17.

And Bath sheba said, Well; I will speak for thee unto the king. ---18.

Bath-sheba, therefore, went unto king Solomon, to speak unto him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself unto her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a seat to be set for the king's mother; and she sat on his right hand. — — 19.

Then she said, I desire one small petition of thee; I pray thee, say me not nay. And the king said unto her, Ask on, my mother; for I will not say thee nay. — 20.

And she said, Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah thy brother to wife. — 21.

And king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, And why dost thou ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? ask for him the kingdom also; (for he is mine elder brother;) even for him, and for Abithar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah.

42. WITHOUT CEREMONY.

Therefore they commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, Go and lie in wait in the vinerds; Judges xxi. 20.
And see, and, behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in dances, then come ye out of the vineyards, and catch you every man his wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin. -- -- 21.

And it shall be, when their fathers or their brethren come unto us to complain, that we will say unto them, Be favorable unto them for our sakes; because we reserved not to each man his wife in the war: for ye did not give unto them at this time that ye should be guilty. — 22.

And the children of Benjamin did so, and took them wives according to their number of them that danced, whom they caught, and they went and returned unto their inheritance, and repaired the cities, and dwelt in them. Judges xxi. 23.

43. DISAPPOINTMENTS.

And now it is true, that I am thy near kinsman: howbeit there is a kinsman nearer than I.

Tarry this night, and it shall be in the morning, that if he will perform unto thee the part of a kinsman, well; let him do the kinsman's part; but if he will not do the part of a kinsman to thee, then will I do the part of a kinsman to thee, as the Lord liveth: lie down until the morning, — 13.

And she lay at his feet until the morning: and she rose up before one could know another. And he said, Let it not be known that a woman came into the floor. —— 14.

Then said she, Sit still, my daughter, until thou know how the matter will fall: for the man will not be in rest until he have finished the thing this day. —— 18.

CHAP. IV.

MATRIMONY.

SECT. 45. ORIGIN OF MATRIMONY.

AND the Lord God said, It is not good that the man should be alone: I will make him a helpmeet for him. Gen. ii. 18.

Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife; and they shall be one flesh —— 24.

And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife; and they twain shall be one flesh. Mat. xix. 5.

Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. — — 6.

For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife; Mar. x. 7.

And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh. — 8.

46. REQUISITE.

Then the elders of the congregation said, How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing the women are destroyed out of Benjamin? Judges xxi. 16.

Would ye tarry for them till they were grown? would ye stay for them from having husbands? nay, my daughters: for it grieveth me much for your sakes, that the hand of the Lord is gone out against me. Ruth i. 13.

Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; that ye may be increased there, and not diminished. Jer. xxix. 6.

Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband. 1 Cor. vii. 2.

But if they cannot contain let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn. — — 9.

And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction. —— 35.

I will, therefore, that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. 1 Tim. v. 14.

Marriage is honorable in all, and the bed undefiled; but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. Heb. xiii. 4.

47. LIBERTY.

Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife. 1 Cor. vii. 27.

But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned; nevertheless, such shall have trouble in the flesh; but I spare you. — 28.

But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not; let them marry.

Nevertheless, he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well. — 37.

So then, he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage do eth better. — 38.

48. CAUTIONS.

Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons or daughters in this place. Jer. xvi. 2.

Now concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me; It is good for a man not to touch a woman. 1 Cor. vii. 1.

For I would that all men were even as I myself: but every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

I say, therefore, to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I.

Now, concerning virgins, I have no commandment of the Lord; yet I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful. ——25.

I suppose, therefore, that this is good for the present distress; I say, that it is good for a man eo to be. — 26.

But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord.

— 32.

There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy, both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband. —— 34.

And she said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thy acts, and of thy wisdom. — 6.

Howbeit I believed not the words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the half was not told me: thy wisdom and prosperity exceedeth the fame which I heard.

Happy are thy men, happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and that hear thy wisdom. — 8.

Blessed be the Lord thy God which delighted in thee, to set thee on the throne of Israel; because the Lord loved Israel for ever, therefore made he thee king, to do judgment and justice.

And when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great company, and camels that bare spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and, when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart. 2 Chron.

And Solomon told her all her questions; and there was nothing hid from Solomon which he told her not.

And when the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, — — 3.

And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel; his cup bearers also, and their apparel; and his ascent by which he went up into the house of the Lord, there was no more spirit in her.

And she said to the king, It was a true report which I heard in mine own land of thine acts, and of thy wisdom. -- 5.

Howbeit I believed not their words until I came, and mine eyes had seen it; and, behold, the one half of the greatness of thy wisdom was not told me; for thou exceedest the fame that I heard.

Happy are thy men, and happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and hear thy wisdom. — 7.

Blessed be the Lord thy God, which delighted in thee, to set thee on his throne, to be king for the Lord thy God: because thy God loved Israel, to establish them for ever, therefore made he thee king over them, to do judgment and justice. — 8.

22. ADVANTAGES OF WISDOM.

And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom that God had put in his heart. 2 Chron. ix. 23.

And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, harness, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year. — — 24.

The wise man's eyes are in his head, but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also that one event happeneth to them all.

Then said I in my heart, As it happenet to the fool, so it happeneth even to me: and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity. — — 15.

I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled Dan. vii. 15.

24. IMPERFECTIONS.

He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end. Ec. iii.

All this have I proved by wisdom: I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me.

That which is far off, and exceeding deep, who can find it out? — 24.

I applied mine heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness: — 25.

Hell and destruction are never full; so the eyes of man are never satisfied. — xxvii. 20.

WORLDLY WISDOM.

For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. 1 Cor. i. 19.

Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

For after that, in the wisdom of God, the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. --21.

For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom. — 22.

WISDOM AND FOLLY CONTRASTED.

A man shall be commended according to his wisdom: but he that is of a perverse heart shall be despised. Prov. xii. 8.

The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way: but the folly of fools is deceit.

The simple believeth every word: but the prudent man looketh well to his going. — 15.

CHAP. III.

DREAMS.

sect. 29. dreams from god.

FOR God speaketh once, yea, twice, yet man perceiveth it not. Job xxxiii. 14.

In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed; — — 15.

Then he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction. — — 16

That he may withdraw man from his purpose, and hide pride from man. — — 17.

30. VAIN DREAMS.

For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; and a fool's voice is known by multitude of words. Ec. v. 3.

For in the multitude of dreams, and many words, there are also diverse vanities: but fear thou God. --7.

And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all that fight against her and her munition, and that distress her, shall be as a dream of a night-vision. Is. xxix. 7.

It shall even be as when an hungry man dreameth, and, behold, he eateth: but he awaketh, and his soul is empty: or, as when a thirsty man dreameth, and, behold, he drinketh; but he awaketh, and, behold, he is faint, and his soul hath appetite: so shall the multitude of all the nations be that fight against mount Zion.

31. DISTRESSING DREAMS.

When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint; Job vii. 13.

Then thou scarest me with dreams, and terri-and flourishing in my palace: - iv. 4.

I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed, and the visions of my head troubled me. --5.

32. (INSTANCES.) ABIMELECH'S.

But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him, Behold, thou art but a dead man, for the woman which thou hast taken; for she is a man's wife. Gen. xx. 3.

But Abimelech had not come near her: and he said, Lord, wilt thou slay also a righteous nation?

Said he not unto me, She is my sister? and she, even she herself, said, He is my brother: in the integrity of my heart, and innocency of my hands, have I done this. _____ 5.

And God said unto him in a dream, Yea, I know that thou didst this in the integrity of thy heart; for I also with held thee from sinning against me: therefore suffered I thee not to touch

Now, therefore, restore the man his wife; for he is a prophet, and he shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live: and if thou restore her not, know thou that thou shalt surely die, thou, and all that are thine. — 7.

Therefore Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ears: and the men were sore afraid. — — 8.

33. JACOB'S DREAM.

And he dreamed, and behold a ladder set upon the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and, behold, the angels of God ascending and descending on it. Gen. xxviii. 12.

And, behold, the Lord stood above it, and said, I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed; Gen. xxviii. 13.

And thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth; and thou shalt spread to the west, and to the east, and to the north and to the south: and in thee, and in thy seed, shall all the families of the earth be blessed. ——14.

And, behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land: for I will not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of. --15.

And it came to pass, at the time that the cat-tle conceived, that I lifted up mine eyes, and saw in a dream, and, behold, the rams which leaped upon the cattle were ring straked, speckled, and grisled. --- xxxi. 10.

And the angel of God spake unto me in a dream, saying, Jacob. And I said, Here am I. -- 11.

And he said, Lift up now thine eyes and see, All the rams which leap upon the cattle are ringstraked, speckled, and grisled: for I have seen all that Laban doeth unto thee. -

34. LABAN'S.

And God came to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and said unto him, Take heed, that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad. Gen. xxxi. 24.

35. DREAMS OF JOSEPH.

And Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told it his brethren: and they hated him yet the more. Gen. xxxvii. 5.

And he said unto them, Hear, I pray you, this dream which I have dreamed; -

For, behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and, lo, my sheaf arose, and also stood upright; and, behold, your sheaves stood round about, and made obeisance to my sheaf. — 7.

And his brethren said to him, Shalt thou indeed reign over us? and shalt thou indeed have dominion over us? and they hated him yet the more for his dreams, and for his words.

And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream more; and, behold, the sun, and the moon, and the eleven stars, made obeisance to

And he told it to his father, and to his brethren; and his father rebuked him, and said unto him, What is this dream that thou hast dreamed? Shall I, and thy mother, and thy brethren, indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth? -- — 10.

36. OF A BUTLER.

And the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said unto him, In my dream, behold, a vine was before me; Gen. xl. 9.

And in the vine were three branches: and it was as though it budded, and her blossoms shot forth; and the clusters thereof brought forth they were still ill-favored as at the beginning. rpe grapes. —— 10.

So I awoke. —— 21. ripe grapes. — — 10.

And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand: and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand. - 11.

And Joseph said unto him, This is the interpretation of it: The three branches are three days. —— 12.

Yet within three days shall Pharaoh lift up thine head, and restore thee unto thy place: and thou shalt deliver Pharaoh's cup into his hand, after the former manner when thou wast his butler. — — 13.

AND BAKER.

When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said unto Joseph, I also was in my dream, and, behold, I had three white baskets on my head, Gen. xl. 16.

And in the uppermost basket there was of all manner of bake-meats for Pharaoh; and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon my

And Joseph answered and said, This is the interpretation thereof: The three baskets are three days. — — 18.

Yet within three days shall Pharaoh lift up thy head from off thee, and shall hang thee on a tree; and the birds shall eat thy flesh from off

38. KING PHARAOH'S DREAM.

And it came to pass, at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh dreamed, and behold he stood by the river. Gen. xli. 1.

And, behold, there came up out of the river seven well-favored kine, and fat-fleshed; and they fed in a meadow.

And, behold, seven other kine camp up after them out of the river, ill-favored, and lean-fleshed; and stood by the other kine, upon the brink of the river. — 3.

And the ill-favored and lean-fleshed kine did eat up the seven well-favored and fat kine. So Pharaoh awoke. — — 4.

And he slept and dreamed the second time:

and, behold, seven ears of corn came up upon one stalk, rank and good. - 5.

And, behold, seven thin ears, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them. — 6.

And the seven thin ears devoured the seven rank and full ears. And Pharaoh awoke, and behold, it was a dream. - 7.

And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, In my dream, behold, I stood upon the bank of the river.

And, behold, there came up out of the river seven kine, fat-fleshed, and well-favored; and they fed in a meadow. — — 18.

And, behold, seven other kine came up after them, poor, and very ill-favored, and lean-fleshed, such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for badness. — — 19.

And the lean and the ill-favored kine did eat up the first seven fat kine. — 20.

And when they had eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them; but And I saw in my dream, and, behold, seven ears came up in one stalk, full and good. Gen. xli. 22.

And, behold, seven ears withered, thin, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them.

And the thin ears devoured the seven good ears. And I told this unto the magicians; but there was none that could declare it to me. — 24.

39. EXPOUNDED.

And Joseph said unto Pharaoh, The dream of Pharaoh is one: God hath shewed Pharaoh what he is about to do. Gen. xli. 25.

The seven good kine are seven years; and the seven good ears are seven years: the dream is one. — 26.

And the seven thin and ill-favored kine, that came up after them, are seven years; and the seven empty ears, blasted with the east wind, shall be seven years of famine. — 27.

This is the thing which I have spoken unto Pharaoh: what God is about to do he sheweth unto Pharaoh. —— 28.

Behold, there come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. — 29.

And there shall arise after them seven years of famine; and all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt; and the famine shall consume the land: —— 30.

And the plenty shall not be known in the land, by reason of that famine following; for it shall be very grievous. — — 31.

And for that the dream was doubled unto Pharaoh twice; it is because the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass. — — 32.

40. A SOLDIER'S DREAM.

And when Gideon was come, behold, there was a man that told a dream unto his fellow, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and, lo, a cake of barley-bread tumbled into the host of Midian, and came unto a tent, and smote it that it fell, and overturned it, that the tent lay along. Judges vii. 13.

And his fellow answered and said, This is nothing else save the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel: for into his hand hath God delivered Midian, and all the host. — 14.

And it was sq, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and the interpretation thereof, that he worshipped, and returned into the host of Israel, and said, Arise; for the Lord hath delivered into your hand the host of Midian. — 15.

41. DREAM OF SOLOMON.

In Gibeon the Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream by night: and God said, Ask what I shall give thee. 1 Kings iii. 5.

And thy servant is in the midst of thy people, which thou hast chosen, a great people, that cannot be numbered nor counted for multitude.

Give, therefore, thy servant an understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy so great a people? — 9.

And the speech pleased the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing. - - 10.

And God said unto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself long life, neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies; but hast asked for thyself understanding to discern judgment: ——11.

And if thou wilt walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as thy father David did walk, then I will lengthen thy

And Solomon awoke; and, behold, it was a dream. — 15.

42. NEBUCHADNEZZAR'S FIRST DREAM.

Thou, O king, sawest, and behold a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee, and the form thereof was terrible. Dan. ii. 31.

This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay. — — 33.

Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces. — — 34.

Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together and became like the chaff of the summer thresh ing floors; and the wind carried them away that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth. — — 35.

43. INTERPRETATION.

Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength and glory. Dan. ii. 37.

And wheresoever the children of men dwell,

And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold. ——38.

And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes part of potters' clay and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay. Dan. ii. 41.

And as the toes of the feet were part of iron and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong and partly broken. —— 42.

And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men; but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever. — 44.

Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure. — 45.

44. NEBUCHADNEZZAR'S SECOND DREAM.

Thus were the visions of mine head in my bed: I saw, and, behold, a tree, in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great: Dan. iv. 10.

The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth: —— 11.

The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all: the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it. — — 12.

I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a watcher and a holy one came down from heaven: ———13.

This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof; forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation; but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy Gods is in thee. ——18.

45. EXPOSITION

Then Daniel (whose name was Belteshazzar) was astonied for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spake and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies. Dan. iv. 19.

The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth.

Whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation: — 21.

It is thou, O king, that are grown, and become strong; for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth. —— 22.

And whereas the king saw a watcher and a holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him: — 23.

This is the interpretation, O King, and this is the decree of the Most High, which is come upon my lord the king. — 24.

46. DANIEL.

In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream, and visions of his head upon his bed; then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters. Dan. vii. 1.

47. MAGI.

And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way. Mat. ii. 12.

48. JOSEPH, HUSBAND OF MARY.

49. OF PILATE'S WIFE.

When he was set down on the judgment-seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him. Mat. xxvii. 19.

my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation; but thou art able; for each man his dream in one night, each man act the spirit of the holy Gods is in thee. ——18.

butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, which were bound in the prison. Gen. xl. 5.

And Joseph came in unto them in the morning, and looked upon them, and, behold, they were sad.

And he asked Pharaoh's officers, that were with him in the ward of his lord's house, saying, Wherefore look ye so sadly to day? -

And they said unto him, We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Joseph said unto them, Do not interpretations belong to God? tell me them, I pray you. — 8.

Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to show the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king. Dan. ii. 2.

And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream. —— 3.

Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriac, O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation. -

The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill: ——5.

But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards, and great honor; therefore shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof.

They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation thereof. —— 7.

51. INTERPRETERS FOILED.

And it came to pass in the morning that his spirit was troubled; and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof: and Pharaoh told them his dreams; but there was none that could interpret them unto Pharaoh. Gen. xli. 8.

The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me. Dan. ii. 8.

But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, there is but one decree for you; for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.

The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean. – 1Ŏ.

And it is a rare thing that the king requireth: and there is none other that can shew it before the king except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh. —— 11.

For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. — 12.

And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain. — — 13.

Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream. — iv. 6.

Then came in the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers: and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known unto me the interpretation thereof. — 7.

52. DREAMS CHALLENGED.

Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon: Dan. ii. 14.

He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel.

Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would wise men of Babylon; he went and said thus unto him, Destroy not the wise men of Bubylon: bring me in before the king, and I will show unto the king the interpretation.

Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man, of the captives of Judah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation.

The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof? — 26.

Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret, which the king hath demanded, cannot the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king; -27.

But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these. — 28.

(As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed what should come to pass hereafter; and he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass:

But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for auy wisdom that I have more than any living, but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.) — 30.

This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.

And I have heard of thee, that thou canst make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now, if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in - v. 16. the kingdom.

Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation. Dan. v. 17.

53. TRUE INTERPRETERS.

And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it: and I have heard say of thee, 'that thou canst understand a dream to interpret it. Gen. xli. 15.

And Joseph answered Pharach, saying, It is not in me: God shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace. - --- 16.

As for these four children, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams. Dan. i. 17.

But at the last Daniel came in before me, (whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods,) and before him I told the dream, saying, — iv. 8.

O Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy Gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof.

There is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy Gods: and in the days of thy father, light, and understanding, and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchadnezzar thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers: - v. 11.

Forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and shewing of hard sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will shew the interpretation.

Then was Daniel brought in before the king. And the king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Jewry? —— 13.

I have even heard of thee that the spirit of the Gods is in thee, and that light, and understanding, and excellent wisdom, is found in thee.

54. VERIFICATION.

And he restored the chief butler unto his butlership again; and he gave the cup into Pharach's hand: Gen. xl. 21.

But he hanged the chief baker, as Joseph had interpreted to them. --22.

And we dreamed a dream in one night, I and he; we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream. - xli. 11.

And there was there with us a young man, a Hebrew, servant to the captain of the guard; and we told him, and he interpreted to us our dreams: to each man according to his dream he did interpret. --- 12.

And it came to pass, as he interpreted to us, so it was: me he restored unto mine office, and him he hanged. -- 13.

55. TRANCES.

And when the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and, lo, an horror of great darkness fell upon him. Gen. xv. 12.

And Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Israel abiding in his tents according to their tribes; and the Spirit of God came upon him.

Num. xxiv. 2.

And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor hath said, and the man whose eyes are open hath said; — - 3.

He hath said, which heard the words of God, which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open: -

And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor hath said, and the man whose eyes are open hath said; - 15.

He hath said, which heard the words of God, and knew the knowledge of the most High, which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open: — 16.

And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready he fell into a trance, Acts x. 10.

And saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the

Wherein were all manner of four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air. —— 12.

And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat. — — 13.

But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.

And the voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common. — 15.

This was done thrice; and the vessel was received up again into heaven. — — 16.

But Peter rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it by order unto them, saying, — xi. 4.

I was in the city of Joppa, praying; and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me:

Upon the which, when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air. --- 6.

And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise,

Peter; slay, and eat.

But I said, Not so, Lord; for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

And it came to pass, that, when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance; — xxii. 17.

And saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me. - --- 18.

TRANSPORTATIONS AND VISIONS.

In the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was smitten, in the self-same day the hand of the Lord was upon me, and brought me thither. Ezek. xl. 1.

In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me upon a very high mountain, by which was as the frame of a city on the scuth. — 2.

In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which apeared unto me at the first. Dan. viii. 1.

And I saw in a vision, (and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam,) and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai. - -- 2.

It is not expedient for me, doubtless, to glory; I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. 2 Cor. xii. 1.

I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth,) such a one caught up to the third heaven. -2.

And I knew such a man, whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth, --3.

How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. -

Of such a one will I glory: yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

EMBLEMS.

SECT. 57. BOW AND ARROWS.

NOW Elisha was fallen sick of his sickness whereof he died. And Joash the king of Israel came down unto him, and wept over his face, and said, O my father, my father! the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof! 2 Kings xiii. 14.

And Elisha said unto him, Take bow and arrows. And he took unto him bow and arrows.

And he said to the king of Israel, Put thine hand upon the bow. And he put his hand upon it: and Elisha put his hands upon the king's hands. — — 16.

And he said, Open the window eastward: and he opened it. Then Elisha said, Shoot: and he shot. And he said, The arrow of the Lord's deliverance, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria: for thou shalt smite the Syrians in Aphek till thou have consumed them. -- 17.

And he said, Take the arrows: and he took them. And he said unto the king of Israel, Smite upon the ground: and he smote thrice, and stayed. — — 18.

And the man of God was wroth with him, and said, Thou shouldest have smitten five or six times, then hadst thou smitten Syria till thou hadst consumed it; whereas now thou shalt smite Syria but thrice. — — 19.

58. BOTTLES.

Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Every bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine. Jer.

Thus saith the Lord, Go and get a potter's earthen bottle, and take of the ancients of the people, and of the ancients of the priests;

And go forth into the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the east gate, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell

Then shalt thou break the bottle in the sight of the men that go with thee. --- 10.

59. RAZOR.

And thou, son of man, take thee a sharp knife, take thee a barber's razor, and cause it to pass upon thine head, and upon thy beard; then take thee balances to weigh and divide the hair. Ezek. v. 1.

Thou shalt burn with fire a third part in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled; and thou shalt take a third part, and smite about it with a knife; and a third part thou shalt scatter in the wind; and I will draw out a sword after them. — 2.

Thou shalt also take thereof a few in number, and bind them in thy skirts. - - 3.

Then take of them again, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; for thereof shall a fire come forth in all the house of Israel.

Thus saith the Lord God, This is Jerusalem: I have set it in the midst of the nations and countries that are round about her. — 5.

60. COMPOUND ANIMAL.

And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of Blasphemy. Rev. xiii. 1.

And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion; and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority. - 2.

And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast.

61. CANDLESTICK.

And the angel that talked with me came again and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep. Zech. iv. 1.

And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and, behold, a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps which are upon the top thereof; Zech. iv.  $\bar{2}$ .

And two olive-trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof. --3.

So I answered, and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my

Then the angel that talked with me answered, and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord. - 5.

Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive-trees upon the right side of the candlestick, and upon the left side thereof? -- 11.

And I answered again and said unto him, What be these two olive-branches, which, through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves? —— 12.

And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

Then said he, These are the two anointed ones, that stand by the Lord of the whole earth.

62. CEDAR.

Son of man, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude, Whom art thou like in thy greatness? Ezek. xxxi. 2.

Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with fair branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs.

The waters made him great, the deep set him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and sent out her little rivers unto all the trees of the field. ___ 4.

Therefore his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long, because of the multitude of waters when he shot forth.

All the fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations.

Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches; for his root was by great waters. -- 7.

The cedars in the garden of God could not hide him; the fir-trees were not like his boughs, and the chesnut-trees were not like his branches; nor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty. ---- 8.

I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him. _ — 9.

Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height;

I have, therefore, delivered him into the hand surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness. -- -- 11.

And strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains, and in all the vallies, his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left - --- 12.

Upon his ruin shall all the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches. — — 13.

63. CHARIOTS AND HORSES.

And I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains: and the mountains were mountains of brass. Zech. vi. 1.

In the first chariot were red horses, and in the second chariot black horses. --2.

And in the third chariot white horses, and in the fourth chariot grisled and bay horses. — 3.

Then I answered and said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord? — 4.

And the angel answered and said unto me, These are the four spirits of the heavens, which go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth. ___ 5.

The black horses which are therein go forth into the north country; and the white go forth after them; and the grisled go forth toward the south country. — — 6.

And the bay went forth, and sought to go, that they might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get ye hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth. --7.

Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these that go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country. -

64. COOKERY.

And the word of the Lord came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see a seething pot, and the face thereof is toward the north. Jer. i. 13.

Take thee also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and fitches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side; three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof. Ezek. iv. 9.

And thy meat which thou shalt eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shalt thou eat it. - 10.

Thou shalt drink also water by measure, the sixth part of an hin: from time to time shalt thou - 11.

And thou shalt eat it as barley-cakes, and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man in their sight. --- 12.

And the Lord said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them. — — 13.

Then said I, Ah, Lord God! behold my soul hath not been polluted; for from my youth up of the mighty one of the heathen; he shall even till now have I not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth. Ezek. iv. 14.

Then he said unto me, Lo I have given thee cow's dung for man's dung, and thou shalt prepare thy bread therewith. -- 15.

And utter a parable unto the rebellious house, and say unto them, thus saith the Lord God, Set on a pot, set it on, and also pour water into it: — xxiv. 3.

Gather the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones. — — 4.

Take the choice of the flock, and burn also the bones under it, and make it boil well, and let them see the bones of it therein. — — 5.

65. REGAL CROWNS.

Take of them of the captivity, even of Haldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaian, which are come from Babylon, and come thou the same day, and go into the house of Josiah, the son of Zephania; Zech. vi. 10.

66. DEATH.

Son of man, behold I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke; yet neither shalt thou mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears run down. Ezek. xxiv. 16.

Forbear to cry, make no mourning for the dead, bind the tire of thine head upon thee, and put on thy shoes upon thy feet, and cover not thy lips and eat not the bread of men. — — 17.

So I spake unto the people in the morning, and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded. —— 18.

67. ернан.

Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth. Zech.

And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an ephah that goeth forth. He said, moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth.

And, behold, there was lifted up a talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah. — — 7.

Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; (for they had wings like the wings of a stork;) and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven. — 9.

Then said I to the angel that talked with me, whither do these bear the ephah? — — 10.

And he said unto me, To build it a house in the land of Shinar; and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base. —— 11.

68. FLYING BOOK.

Then I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, a flying roll. Zech. v. 1.

And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered; I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits. —— 2.

69. RIPE FRUIT.

The Lord shewed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the Lord, after that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah, the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon. Jer. xxiv. 1.

One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe: and the other basket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad. — 2.

Then said the Lord unto me, What seest thou, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs: the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil. —— 3.

Thus hath the Lord God showed unto me; and behold a basket of summer fruit. Amos viii. 1.

And he said, Amos, what seest thou? and I said, A basket of summer-fruit. Then said the Lord unto me, The end is come upon my people of Israel: I will not again pass by them any more. — — 2.

70. CONFINED POSTURE.

Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity. Ezek.

For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel. — 5.

And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah, forty days: I have appointed thee each day for a year. — 6.

Therefore thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and thine arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it. — 7.

And, behold, I will lay hands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee from one side to another, till thou hast ended the days of thy siege. 8.

71. GIRDLE (LINEN.)

Thus saith the Lord unto me, Go and get thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water. Jer. xiii. 1.

So I got a girdle according to the word of the Lord, and put it on my loins. — 2.

And the word of the Lord came unto me the second time, saying, —— 3.

Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock. —— 4.

So I went and hid it by Euphrates, as the Lord commanded me. —— 5.

And it came to pass, after many days, that the Lord said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there. Jer. xiii. 6.

Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it; and behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing. --7.

72. HORNS AND CARPENTERS.

Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and behold, four horns. Zech. i. 18.

And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What be these? And he answered, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem. - 19.

And the Lord shewed me four carpenters.

Then said I, What come these to do? And he spake, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the Gentiles, which lifted up their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it. — 21.

73. EQUESTRIAN SCENE.

I saw by night, and, behold, a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle-trees that were in the bottom; and behind him were there red horses, speckled, and white. Zech. i. 8.

Then said I, O my lord, what are these? And the angel that talked with me said unto me, I will show thee what these be. - 9.

And the man that stood among the myrtletrees answered and said, these are they whom the Lord hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth. — — 10.

And they answered the angel of the Lord that stood among the myrtle-trees, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest.

SUBMERSION.

Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in the brick kiln, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah; Jer. xliii. 9.

And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When thou comest to Babylon, and shalt see, and shalt read all these words, - li. 61.

Then shalt thou say, O Lord thou hast spoken against this place to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate for ever. — 62.

And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates;

And thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her; and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

And a mighty angel took up a stone like a reat millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, all. Rev. xviii. 21.

75. NAKED PROPHET.

At the same time spake the Lord by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go, and loose the sackcloth from off thy loins, and put off thy shoe from off thy foot: and he did so, walking naked and barefoot. Is. xx. 2.

And the Lord said, Like as my servant Isaiah hath walked naked and barefoot three years, for a sign and wonder upon Egypt, and upon Ethiopia; — -

So shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.

76. PLUMBLINE.

Thus he shewed me; and, behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by a plumbline, with a plumbline in his hand. Amos vii. 7.

And the Lord said unto me, Amos, What seest thou? And I said, A plumbline. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a plumbline in the midst of my people Israel: I will not again pass by them any more. — 8.

77. REMOVING FURNITURE.

Therefore, thou son of man prepare thee stuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight; and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they be a rebellious house. Ezek. xii. 3.

Then shalt thou bring forth thy stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for removing: and thou shalt go forth at even in their sight, as they that go forth into captivity. ----

Dig thou through the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby.

In their sight shalt thou bear it upon thy shoulders, and carry it forth in the twilight: thou shalt cover thy face that thou see not the ground; for I have set thee for a sign unto the house of Israel.

And I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for captivity, and in the even I digged through the wall with mine hand; I brought it forth in the twilight, and I bare it upon my shoulder in their sight. — — 7.

78. PLAN OF A SIEGE.

Thou also, son of man, take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and pourtray upon it the city, even Jerusalem. Ezek. iv. 1.

And lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it: set the camp also against it and set battering rams against it round about.

Moreover, take thou unto thee an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city, and set thy face against it, and it shall be be-sieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it: this shall be a sign to the house of Israel. ---

79. STICKS AND STAVES.

Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, I see a rod of an almond tree. Jer. i. 11.

seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it.

Moreover, thou son of man, take thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions: Ezek. xxxvii. 16.

And join them one to another into one stick; and they shall become one in thine hand. — 17.

And I will feed the flock of slaughter, even you, O poor of the flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands: and I fed the flock. Zech.

And I took my staff, even Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people. — — 10.

And it was broken in that day: and so the poor of the flock that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the Lord.

Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel. - -

80. VINE TREE.

Son of man, What is the vine tree more than any tree, or than a branch which is among the trees of the forest? Ezek. xv. 2.

Shall wood be taken thereof to do any work? or will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon? — 3.

Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire devoureth both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burnt: is it meet for any work? — — 4.

Behold, when it was whole it was meet for no work, how much less shall it be meet for any work, when the fire hath devoured it, and it is burned? ---- 5.

Thy mother is like a vine in thy blood, planted by the waters: she was fruitful, and full of branches, by reason of many waters. — xix. 10.

And she had strong rods for the sceptres of them that bare rule, and her stature was exalted among the thick branches, and she appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches.

But she was plucked up in fury, she was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up her fruit; her strong rods were broken and withered, the fire consumed them. — — 12.

And now she is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty ground. - 13.

And fire is gone out of a rod of her branches, which hath devoured her fruit, so that she hath no strong rod to be a sceptre to rule. This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation. - 14.

81. THE WHALE.

Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharach king of Egypt, and say into him, Thou art like a young lion of the nations, and thou art as a whale in the seas: and thou camest forth with thy rivers, and troubledst the waters with thy feet, and fouledst their rivers. Ezek. xxxii. 2.

Then said the Lord unto me, Thou hast well | spread out my net over thee with a company of many people, and they shall bring thee up in my net.

> Then will I leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and will cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee.

> And I will lay thy flesh upon the mountains, and fill the vallies with thy height. ---5.

> I will also water with thy blood the land wherein thou swimmest, even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of thee. — 6.

82. CUP OF WINE.

For thus saith the Lord God of Israel unto me, Take the wine-cup of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send thee, to drink it. Jer. xxv. 15.

And they shall drink, and be moved, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them. - -- 16.

Then took I the cup at the Lord's hand, and made all the nations to drink, unto whom the Lord had sent me. — — 17.

83. VOLUNTARY WOUNDS.

And a certain man of the sons of the prophets said unto his neighbor in the words of the Lord, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man refused to smite him. 1 Kings xx. 35.

Then said he unto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of the Lord, behold, as soon as thou art departed from me a lion shall slay thee. And as soon as he was departed from him, a lion found him and slew him. — — 36.

Then he found another man, and said, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man smote him, so that in smiting him he wounded him.

So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself with ashes upon his face. ---- 38.

And as the king passed by he cried unto the king; and he said, Thy servant went out into the midst of the battle; and behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man unto me, and said, Keep this man: if by any means he be missing, then shall thy life be for his life, or else thou shalt pay a talent of silver. — 39.

And as thy servant was busy here and there he was gone. And the king of Israel said unto him, So shall thy judgment be; thyself hast decided it. — 40.

84. YOKES.

Thus saith the Lord to me, Make thee bonds and yokes, and put them upon thy neck. Jer.

And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyrus, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah;

85. SATAN IMPLEADED.

Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Thus saith the Lord God, I will therefore Satan came also among them. Job i. 6.

And the Lord said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the Lord, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. Job i. 7.

And the Lord said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil.

Then Satan answered the Lord, and said, Doth

Job fear God for nought? --- 9.

Hast thou not made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.

But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face. - 11.

And the Lord said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power, only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the Lord.

And the Lord said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? and still he holdeth fast his integrity, although thou movedst me against him to destroy him without cause. — ii. 3.

And Satan answered the Lord, and said, Skin for skin; yea all that a man hath will he give for his life: — 4.

But put forth thine hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face.

And the Lord said unto Satan, Behold he is in thine hand; but save his life. — 6.

So went Satan forth from the presence of the Lord, and he smote Job with sore boils, from the sole of his foot unto his crown. --7.

86. HEAVEN IN COUNCIL.

So he came to the king, And the king said unto him, Macaiah, shall we go against Ramothgilead to battle, or shall we forbear? And he answered him, Go and prosper: for the Lord shall deliver it into the hand of the king. Kings xxii. 15.

And the king said unto him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou tell me nothing but that which is true in the name of the Lord?

And he said, I saw all Israel scattered upon the hills, as sheep that have not a shepherd: and the Lord said, These have no master; let them return every man to his house in peace.

And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would prophesy no good concerning me, but evil?

And he said, Hear thou, therefore, the word of the Lord: I saw the Lord sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him, on his right hand and on his left.

And the Lord said, Who shall persuade Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one said on this manner, and another said on that manner.

And there came forth a spirit, and stood before the Lord, and said, I will persuade him. | parable unto the bouse of Israel. Ezek. xvii. 2. - - 21.

87. JOSHUA AND SATAN.

And he shewed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the Lord, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him. Zech. iii. 1.

And the Lord said unto Satan, The Lord rebuke thee, O Satan; even the Lord, that hath chosen Jerusalem, rebuke thee: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire? - 2.

Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments.

88. RIDDLES.

And Samson said unto them, I will now put forth a riddle unto you: if ye can certainly declare it me within the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty sheets, and thirty change of garments: Judges xiv. 12.

But if ye cannot declare it me, then shall ye give me thirty sheets, and thirty change of gar-And they said unto him, Put forth thy riddle, that we may hear it. ----

And he said unto them, out of the eater came forth meat, and out of the strong came forth sweetness. And they could not in three days expound the riddle. — — 14.

And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they said unto Samson's wife, Entice thy husband, that he may declare unto us the riddle, lest we burn thee and thy father's house with fire: have ye called us to take that we have? is it not so? — 15.

And Samson's wife wept before him, and said, Thou dost but hate me, and lovest me not: thou hast put forth a riddle unto the children of my people, and hast not told it me. And he said unto her, Behold, I have not told it my father nor my mother, and shall I tell it thee?

And she wept before him the seven days, while their feast lasted: and it came to pass on the seventh day that he told her, because she lay sore upon him; and she told the riddle to the ---- 17. children of her people.

And the men of the city said unto him on the seventh day, before the sun went down, What is sweeter than honey? and what is stronger than a lion? And he said unto them, If ye had not plowed with my heifer, ye had not found out - --- 18. my riddle.

And the Spirit of the Lord came upon him, and he went down to Ashkelon, and slew thirty men of them, and took their spoil, and gave change of garments unto them which expounded the riddle: and his anger was kindled, and he went up to his father's house. -- 19.

SECT. 24. DESCRIPTION OF PARADISE.

AND the Lord God planted a garden eastward in Eden, and there he put the man whom he had formed Gen. ii. 8.

And out of the ground made the Lord God and good for food: the tree of life also in the of good and evil. Gen. ii. 9.

And a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads. — — 10.

The name of the first is Pison: that is it which compasseth the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold.

And the gold of that land is good: there is bdellium and the onyx-stone. — — 12.

And the name of the second river is Gihon: the same is it that compasseth the whole land of Ethiopia.

And the name of the third river is Hiddekel: that is it which goeth toward the east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates.

And the Lord God took the man, and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it, and to keep it. - 15.

And the Lord God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest - -- 16. freely eat;

But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.

RESURRECTION.

SECT. 158. FORETOLD AND ASSERTED.

AND many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. Dan. xii. 2.

I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death: O death I will be thy plagues; O grave, I will be thy destruction; repentance shall be hid from mine eyes. Hos. xiii. 14.

Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice. John v. 28.

And shall come forth; they that have done good unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of dam-— — 29.

And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. — vi. 39.

For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive, and remain unto the coming of the Lord, shall not prevent them which are asleep. 1 Thess. iv. 15.

For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first. —— 16.

159. ARGUMENTS FOR.

And as touching the dead that they rise; have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? Mar. xii. 26.

He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye, therefore, do greatly err. Mar.

Now that the dead are raised, even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Luke xx. 37.

For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto him. --38.

For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection. Rom. vi. 5.

But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen. 1 Cor. xv. 13.

And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain. -

Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God: because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ; whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not. - - 15.

For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised; — — 16.

And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins. - --- 17.

Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished —— 18.

If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept. - 20.

For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. — — 21.

For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. – 22.

I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.

If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we die. 1 Cor. xv. 32.

And as we have borne the image of the earthy we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

- 49.

Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

MODE AND ORDER.

But every man in his own order: Christ the first-fruits, afterward they that are Christ's at his coming. 1 Cor. xv. 23.

So also is the resurrection of the dead: it is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption;

It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power; ---- 43.

It is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. --- 44.

And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul, the last Adam was made a quickening spirit. — — 45.

Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that - --- 46. which is spiritual. -

The first man is of the earth, earthy; the second man is the Lord from heaven.

As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. — — 48.

Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself. Philip. iii. 27.

161. BELIEVED.

Oh that my words were now written! oh that they were printed in a book! Job. xix. 23.

That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock for ever! - 24.

For I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: ___ 25.

And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God; — 26. Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another; though my reins be consumed within me. -27.

But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave; for he shall receive me. Selah. Ps. xlix. 15.

Thy dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise. Awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead. Is. xxvi.

Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again. John xi. 23.

Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day. 24.

And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust. Acts xxiv. 15.

Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day. — — 21.

And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers:

× x x v 1. 6.

Unto which promise our twelve tribes instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. for which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews. — — 7.

Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you that God should raise the dead? — 8.

Accounting that God was able to raise him up even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure. Heb. xi. 19.

Women received their dead raised to life again; and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection: — 35.

162. ASPIRATIONS AFTER.

For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God. Rom. viii. 19.

For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope: - 20.

Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. -

For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the first-fruits of the Spirit, even we our selves groan within ourselves waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

163. ILLUSTRATION.

The hand of the Lord was upon me, and carried me out in the Spirit of the Lord, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones, Ezek. xxxvii. 1.

And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry.

And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord God thou knowest.

Again he said unto me, Prophesy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the Lord. ----

Thus saith the Lord God unto these bones, Behold I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live.

And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the Lord. — 6.

So I prophesied as I was commanded: and, as I prophesied, there was a noise, and, behold, a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone. --7.

And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above; but there was no breath in them. — — 8.

Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord God, Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live. — — 9.

So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army. — — 10.

Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost; we are cut off for our parts. --11.

Therefore prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel. —— 12.

And ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves.

And shall put my Spirit in you, and ye shall live; and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the Lord have spoken it, and performed it, saith the Lord. — — 14.

And the graves were opened, and many bodies of the saints which slept arose. Mat. xxvii.

And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many. — 53.

Much people of the Jews, therefore, knew that he was there; and they came, not for Je sus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead. John

164. SPIRITUAL

Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live. John v. 25.

If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead. Philip. iii. 11.

165. CHANGE OF THE LIVING.

Behold, I show you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed. 1 Cor.

In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump; (for the trumpet shall sound;) and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. — - 52.

For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. — — 54.

O death! where is thy sting? O grave! where is thy victory? — 55.

The sting of death is sin; and the strength of  $\sin is$  the law. ---56.

Then we, which are alive, and remain, shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so we shall ever be with the Lord. 1. Thess. iv. 17.

166. STATE OF THE FUTURE MAN.

Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife. Luke xx. 33

And Jesus answering, said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage: — — 34.

But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage. - — 35.

Neither can they die any more; for they are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection. ---- 36.

167. INFERENCE.

But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. 1 Thess. iv. 13.

For if we believe that Jesus died, and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. — — 14.

Wherefore comfort one another with these words. — — 18.

^{*} See this article further illustrated by many instances in Book XIX. Chap. v. Sect. 48.

168. OBJECTIONS.

Saying, Master, Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. Mat. xxii. 24.

Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased; and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother: -- 25.

Likewise the second also, and the third, unto - -- 26. the seventh.

And last of all the woman died also. — -27.

Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her. -28.

Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God. —— 29.

For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels of God in heaven. — — 30.

But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, — 31.

· I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living. - 32.

In the resurrection, therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife. Mar. xii. 23.

But some man will say, How are the dead raised up, and with what body do they come? 1 Cor. xv. 35.

Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened except it die. — — 36.

And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain. - 37.

But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body. — — 38.

169. DISCREDITED.

The same day came to him the Sadducees, which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him. Mat. xxii. 23.

Then came to him certain of the Sadducees, which deny that there is any resurrection, and they asked him. Luke xx. 27.

And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked; and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter. Acts xvii.

But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question. — xxiii. 6.

For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess both.

Now, if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? 1 Cor. xv. 12.

Who concerning the truth have erred, saying, that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some. 2 Tim. ii. 18.

LAST JUDGMENT.

SECT. 170. APPARATUS.

THE earth is utterly broken down, the earth is clean dissolved, the earth is moved exceeding-Is. xxiv. 19.

The earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard, and shall be removed like a cottage; and the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it: and it shall fall, and not rise again.

And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fall down as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig-tree. — xxxiv. 4.

And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. Joel ii. 30.

The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the Lord come. — 31.

Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken. Mat. xxiv. 29.

And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; Luke xxi. 25.

Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be __ _ 26.

And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud, with power and great glory.

And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh. - 28.

And I will show wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath: blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke: Acts ii. 19.

The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable / day of the Lord come. —— 20.

And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain. Heb. xii. 27.

But the heavens and the earth which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men. 2 Pet. iii. 7.

But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also, and the works that are therein, shall be burnt up. - 10.

Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, — — 11.

Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat? 2 Pet. iii. 12.

And I beliefd, when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood; Rev. vi. 12.

And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig-tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind: --13.

And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places. — — 14.

171. FORETOLD AND CERTIFIED.

For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good or whether it be evil. .Ec. xii. 14.

When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: Mat. xxv. 31.

And before him shall be gathered all nations; and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats;

And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. — 33.

But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for you.

Because he hath appointed a day in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. Acts xvii. 31.

And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousand of his saints,

To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of their ungodly deeds, which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God: and the books were opened; and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. Rev. xx. 12.

Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand. Philip. iv. 5.

But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you. 1 Thess.

For yourselves know perfectly, that the day of the Lord cometh as a thief in the night.

For when they shall say, Peace and safety, then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape. --3.

But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief. — 4.

PRIESTHOOD OF THE OLD TESTAMENT.

SECT. 1. PRIOR ANTIQUITY OF PRIESTS.

A ND Melchizedek king of Salem brought forth bread and wine: and he was the priest of the most high God. Gen. xiv. 18.

And he blessed him, and said, Blessed be Abram of the most high God, possessor of heaven and earth. - --- 19.

For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him. Heb. vii. 1.

To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all: first being, by interpretation, King of righteousness, and after that also, King of Salem, which is, King of peace;

Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but, made like unto the son of God, abideth a priest continually.

2. HIGH PRIEST.

And he that is the high priest among his brethren, upon whose head the anointing oil was poured, and that is consecrated to put on the garments, shall not uncover his head, nor rend his clothes; Lev. xxi. 10.

Neither shall he go in to any dead body, nor defile himself for his father, or for his mother;

Neither shall he go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God: for the crown of the anointing oil of his God is upon him: I am the Lord. - --- 12.

And he shall take a wife in her virginity. —13. A widow, or a divorced woman, or profane, have given your priests office unto you as a ser or a harlot, these shall he not take; but he vice of gift. Num. xviii. 7.

Neither shall he profane his seed among his people: for I the Lord do sanctify him. — 15. Then said the high priest, are these things so?

For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for Heb. v. 1.

Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself, also is compassed with infirmity. -2.

And by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins. ---3.

And no man taketh this honor unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron. — 4.

SANCTITY REQUIRED IN PRIESTS.

And let the priests, also, which come near to the Lord, sanctify themselves, lest the Lord break forth upon them. Ex. xix. 22.

They shall be holy unto their God, and not profane the name of their God: for the offerings of the Lord made by fire, and the bread of their God, they do offer; therefore they shall be holy. Lev. xxi. 6.

Thou shalt sanctify him therefore; for he offereth the bread of thy God: he shall be holy unto thee; for I the Lord, which sanctify you, am holy. ---- 8.

PRIESTS.

And take thou unto thee Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him, from among the children of Israel, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office, even Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's sons. Ex. xxviii. 1.

11. ROTATION OF PRIESTS.

And he appointed, according to the order of David his father, the courses of the priests to their service, and the Levites to their charges to praise and minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required; the porters also by their courses at every gate: for so had David the man of God commanded. 2 Chron. viii. 14.

13. JEWISH ELDERS.

Then went up Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel. Ex. xxiv. 9.

And Moses rose up and his minister Joshua; and Moses went up into the mount of God.

And he said unto the elders, Tarry ye here for us, until we come again unto you: and, behold, Aaron and Hur are with you; if any man have any matters to do, let him come unto them.

14. *NAZARITES' VOW, AND DIET.

Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When either man or woman shall separate themselves to vow a vow of a Nazarite, to separate themselves unto the Lord: Num. vi. 2.

He shall separate himself from wine and strong drink, and shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of strong drink, neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat moist grapes, or dried.

All the days of his separation shall he eat nothing that is made of the vine-tree, from the kernels even to the husk. — — 4.

And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for Nazarites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the Lord. Amos ii. 11.

But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, saying, Prophesy not. - — 12.

^{*}A voluntary character which any person might assume.

15. MATERNAL REGIMEN IN GESTATION.

Now, therefore, beware, I pray thee, and drink not wine nor strong drink, and eat not any unclean thing. Judges xiii. 4.

For, lo, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and no razor shall come on his head; for the child shall be a Nazarite unto God from the womb; and he shall begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines. — — 5.

But he said unto me, Behold, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son: and now drink no wine nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean thing: for the child shall be a Nazarite to God from the womb to the day of his death. ——7.

And Manoah said, Now let thy words come to pass: how shall we order the child? and how shall we do unto him? —— 12.

And the angel of the Lord said unto Manoah, Of all that I said unto the woman let her beware. — 13.

16. NAZARITE'S SACRED HAIR.

All the days of the vow of his separation there shall no razor come upon his head: until the days be fulfilled, in the which he separateth himself unto the Lord, he shall be holy, and shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow. Num. vi. 5.

That he told her all his heart, and said unto her, There hath not come a razor upon mine head; for I have been a Nazarite unto God from my mother's womb: If I be shaven, then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man. Judges xvi. 17.

And she made him sleep upon her knees; and she called for a man, and she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head; and she began to afflict him, and his strength went from him. ——19.

And she said, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and said, I will go out, as at other times before, and shake myself. And he wist not that the Lord was departed from him. — — 20.

17. APPOINTED RITUALS.

All the days that he separateth himself unto the Lord he shall come at no dead body. Num. vi. 6.

He shall not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, for his brother, or for his sister, when they die; because the consecration of his God is upon his head. —— 7.

Her Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was of sapphire. Lam. iv. 7.

18. INTERRUPTION.

And if any man die very suddenly by him, and he hath defiled the head of his consecration; then he shall shave his head in the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day shall he shave it. Num. vi. 9.

And on the eighth day he shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons, to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. — 10.

And the priest shall offer the one for a sinoffering, and the other for a burnt-offering, and make an atonement for him, for that he sinned by the dead, and shall hallow his head that same day. — — 11.

19. solution.

And this is the law of the Nazarite; When the days of his separation are fulfilled, he shall be brought unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: Num. vi. 13.

And he shall offer his offering unto the Lord, one he lamb of the first year without blemish for a burnt offering, and one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish for a sin offering, and one ram without blemish for peace-offerings, — 14.

And the priest shall bring them before the Lord, and shall offer his sin-offering, and his burnt-offering. — — 16.

And the Nazarite shall shave the head of his separation at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation; and shall take the hair of the head of his separation, and put it in the fire which is under the sacrifice of the peace offerings. —— 18.

And the priest shall take the sodden shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them upon the hands of the Nazarite, after the hair of his separation is shaven. —— 19.

And the priest shall wave them for a waveoffering before the Lord; this is holy for the priest, with the wave-breast and heave-shoulder:
and after that the Nazarite may drink wine.

This is the law of the Nazarite who hath vowed, and of his offering unto the Lord for his separation, besides that that his hand shall get: according to the vow which he vowed, so he must do after the law of his separation. —21.

and be unto me a father and a priest, and I will give thee ten shekels of silver by the year, and a suit of apparel, and thy victuals. So the Levite went in. — — 10.

And the Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man was unto him as one of his sons. — — 11.

And, by the good hand of our God upon us, they brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli, the sons of Levi, the son of Israel, and Sherebiah, with his sons and his

CHRISTIAN MINISTERS.

SECT. 67. APOSTLES (PREACHING FORETOLD.)

THE wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose. Is. xxxv. 1.

It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing; the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon: they shall see the glory of the Lord, and the excellency of our God. — 2.

O Zion, that bringest good tidings, get thee up into the high mountain; O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength: lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God! — xl. 9.

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace: that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth. — liii. 7.

Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the Lord shall bring again Zion. — 8.

68. APOSTLES ORDAINED.

70. APOSTOLIC POWERS.

Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas, surnamed Barsabus, and Silas, chief men among the brethren. Acts xv. 22.

And they wrote letters by them after this manner: The apostles, and elders, and brethren, send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch, and Syria, and Cicilia: -

And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem. — xvi. 4.

71. APOSTOLIC LABORS.

And the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught. Mar. vi. 30.

73. A VACANCY SUPPLIED.

And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.

And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen, -- 24.

That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place. — 25.

And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles. --26.

74. PAVL.

We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honorable, but we are despised. 1 Cor. iv. 10.

If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord. - ix. 2.

For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace, which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I labored more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. · — 10.

Therefore, whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed. —— 11.

Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's. 2 Cor. x. 7.

For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles. — xi. 5.

I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me; for I ought to have been commended of you, for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing. — xii. 11.

Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs and wonders, and mighty deeds.

Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus. Gal. i. 17.

75. THE SEVENTY.

After these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place whither he himself would come. Luke x. i.

And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you. — — 9.

76. BISHOPS.

This is a true saying, If a man desire the of fice of a bishop, he desireth a good work. 1 Tim. iii. 1.

Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not

Moreover, he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach, and the snare of the devil. --7.

77. DEACONS APPOINTED.

And in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration. Acts vi. 1.

Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God and serve Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

And the saying pleased the whole multitude and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch. — 5.

78. QUALIFICATIONS OF DEACONS.

Likewise must the deacons be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre; 1 Tim. iii. 8.

Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. --9.

And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found

Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers; sober, faithful in all things.

Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. - 12.

For they that have used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus. — — 13.

79. ELDERS ORDAINED, &C.

And when they had ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed. Acts xiv. 23.

And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church. — xx. 17.

80. PAUL INTENDS TRAVELLING.

After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia, and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome. Acts xix. 21.

Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God, to come unto you. Rom. i. 10.

For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you. — xv. 22.

But now, having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to

Now I will come unto you, when I shall pass through Macedonia: (for I do pass through Macedonia:) — xvi. 5.

81. PAUL'S TRAVELS.

And from thence to Philippi, which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain | bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me days. Acts xvi. 19.

And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul, to go as it were to the sea; but Silas and Timotheus abode there still. — xvii. 14.

And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus for to come to him with all speed, they departed. — — 15.

And after he had spent some time there he departed, and went over all the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the – xviii. 23. disciples,

And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul, having passed through the upper coasts, came to Ephesus; and, finding certain — xix. 1.

And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into

And there abode three months: and when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Mace-

And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

Furthermore, when I came to Tross to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord. 2 Cor. ii. 12.

I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.

Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days. Gal. i. 18.

Afterward I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia; — 21.

Then fourteen years after I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also. - ii. 1.

82. OTHER ITINERANTS.

And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the Gospel in many villages of the Samaritans. Acts viii. 25.

And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and to Antioch. - xiv. 21.

And after they had passed throughout Pisidia they came to Pamphylia. — 24.

And when they had preached the word in Perga they went down into Attalia; —-

And thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.

As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you, with the broth-ren: but his will was not at all to come at this time, but he will come when he shall have convenient time. 1 Cor. xvi. 12.

Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me. 2 fort your hearts; --8. Tim. iv. 9.

Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia.

Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and for the ministry. --11.

And Tychicus have I sent to Ephesus.

Tim. iv. 12.

When I shall send Artemas unto thee, or Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me to Nicopolis: for I have determined there to winter.

Bring Zanas the lawyer, and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them. -

83. MISSIONARIES.

It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you, with our beloved Barnabas and Paul; Acts xv. 25.

Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. — -

We have sent, therefore, Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth. 27.

And after they had tarried there a space, they were let go in peace from the brethren unto the - 33. apostles.

And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, helped them much which had believed through grace; xviii. 27.

So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season. xix. 22.

For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church. 1 Cor. iv. 17.

Now, if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do. -- xvi. 10.

And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent upon the great confidence which I have in you. Cor. viii. 22.

But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, Tychicus, a beloved brother, and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things: Eph. vi. 21.

Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts. — 22.

But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort when I know your state. Phil.

Him, therefore, I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me. — 33.

All my state shall Tychicus declare unto you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister, and fellow-servant in the Lord: Col. iv. 7.

Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and com-

With Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you: they shall make known unto you all things which are done here. — 9.

Wherefore, when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone.

And sent Timotheus our brother, and minister, of God, and our fellow-laborer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith. ---2.

84. FATHERS.

I write not these things to shame you, but, as my beloved sons, I warn you. 1 Cor. iv. 14.

For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel. ——15.

But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel. Phil. ii. 22.

85. WITNESSES.

And ye are witnesses of these things. Luke xxiv. 48.

And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning. John xv. 27.

For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard. Acts xxii. 15.

DIGNITIES OF GOD'S MINISTERS.

SECT. 86. PREVIOUS NEED.

HOW then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? Rom.

And how shall they preach except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things! — — 15.

And he gave some, apostles, and some, prophets; and some, evangelists, and some, pastors and teachers; Eph. iv. 11.

For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: — — 12.

Till we all come in the unity of faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ; ——13.

Nevertheless, to abide in the flesh is more needful for you. Phil. i. 24.

And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all, for your forbearance and joy of faith; —— 25.

87. INTRODUCTION TO OFFICE.

And he said, O my Lord, send, I pray thee, by the hand of him whom thou wilt send. Ex. iv. 13.

The Lord gave the word; great was the company of those that published it. Ps. lxviii. 11.

Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you. John xx. 21.

88. SUCCESSION (WHAT KIND.)

Wherefore, of these men which have accompanied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, Acts i. 21.

went in and out among us, Acts i. 21.

Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained, to be a witness with us of his resurrection. — 22.

And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also. 2 Time ii. 2.

89. PEOPLE'S OBEDIENCE REQUIRED.

Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ. 1 Cor. xi. 1.

Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and keep the ordinances as I delivered them to you. —— 2.

Let no man, therefore, despise him; but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren. xvi. 11.

I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first-fruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,) ——15.

That ye submit yourselves unto such and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboreth.

Aristarchus my fellow-prisoner saluteth you, and Marcus, sister's son to Barnabas (touching whom ye received commandments; if he come unto you, receive him.) Col. iv. 10.

And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you; 1 Thess. v. 12.

And to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. And be at peace among yourselves. —— 13.

Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation. Heb. xiii. 7.

Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief; for that is unprofitable for you. ——17.

90 SPIRITUAL POWER OF GOD'S MINISTERS.

What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness? 1 Cor. iv. 21.

Mine answer to them that do examine me is is this: — ix. 3.

Have we not power to eat and to drink? — 4. Have we not power to lead about a sister, e wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas. — — 5.

Sufficient to such a man is this punishment which was inflicted of many. 2 Cor. ii. 6.

So that contrariwise, ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a

Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him. —— 8.

For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things. — 9.

And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him. — vii. 15.

I rejoice therefore, that I have confidence in you in all things, — — 16.

For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed; -x. 8.

I told you before and foretell you, as if I were present the second time, and being absent, now I write to them which heretofore have sinned and to all other, that if I come again, I will not spare. — xiii. 2.

Therefore, I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction. —— 10.

And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you. 2 Thess. iii. 4.

These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee. Tit. ii. 15.

Having confidence in thy obedience, I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say. Philem. 21.

91. USE OF POWER DECLINED.

Now I Paul myself beseech you, by the meek ness and gentleness of Christ, who in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you. 2 Cor. x. 1.

But I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present, with that confidence wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the Wherefore, though I might be much bold in Christ, to enjoin thee that which is convenient. Philem. 8.

Yet for love's sake, I rather beseech thee, being such a one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ. — 9.

But without thy mind would I do nothing; that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly. - 14.

92. THEIR SECULAR POWER.

And the priests the sons of Levi shall come near; (for them the Lord thy God hath chosen to minister unto him, and to bless in the name of the Lord;) and by their word shall every controversy and every stroke be tried. Deut. xx. 5.

And Samuel did that which the Lord spake, and came to Beth-lehem: and the elders of the town trembled at his coming, and said, Comest thou peaceably? 1 Sam. xvi. 4.

And in controversy they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it according to my judgments: and they shall keep my laws and one should be swallowed up with overmuch sor- | my statutes in all mine assemblies; and they shall hallow my sabbaths. Ezek. xliv. 24.

ABSOLUTION OF SINS (NOT JUDICIALLY.)

Now, therefore, I pray thee, pardon my sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship the Lord. 1 Sam. xv. 25.

Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Mat. xviii. 18.

Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained. John xx. 23.

To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also; for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it in the person of Christ. 2 Cor. ii. 10.

94. TEACHING SUPERSEDED.

And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the Lord: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more. Jer. xxxi. 34.

And they shall not teach every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest. Heb. viii. 11.

DUTIES OF THE LAITY.

SECT. 95. TO SEND FOR MINISTERS.

AND for a smuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them. Acts ix. 38.

And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter; - x. 5.

He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do. -- 6.

Then Peter went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cornelius, and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come? -- 21.

And they said Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee. - 22.

Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him. _ — 23.

And the morrow after they entered into Cesacalled together his kinsmen and near friends. Acts x. 24.

Send, therefore, to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter: he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner, by the sea-side; who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

Immediately, therefore, I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now, therefore, are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of — 33.

Which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God. — xiii. 7.

96. AND TO RECEIVE THEM.

And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, enquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence. Mat. x. 11.

And when ye come into a house, salute it. - 12.

And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you. ---- 13.

And he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into a house, there abide till ye depart from that place. Mar. vi. 10.

He that heareth you, heareth me; and he that despiseth me, despiseth him that sent me.

Luke x. 16. Receive him, therefore, in the Lord with all gladness, and hold such in reputation: Phil.

We, therefore, ought to receive such, that we might be fellow-helpers to the truth. 3 John 8.

97. PROMISES TO SUCH.

He that receiveth you, receiveth me; and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me. Mat. x. 40.

He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet, shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man, shall receive a righteous man's reward.

And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones, a cup of cold water only, in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, He shall in no wise lose his reward.

Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me; and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me. Mar. ix. 37.

For whoseever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, He shall not lose his reward. — 41.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send, receiveth me; and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me. John xiii. 20.

98. AFFECTION OF HEARERS.

For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man and an holy, and observed him; and eth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwith-

And Cornelius waited for them, and had when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly. Mar. vi. 20.

As also ye have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as ye also are our's, in the day of the Lord Jesus. 2 Cor.

But I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me? --2.

Nevertheless, God that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus: — vii. 6.

And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more. — 7.

Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me. Gal. iv. 15.

Am I, therefore, become your enemy, because I tell you the truth. — — 16.

As ye also learned of Epaphras, our dear fellow-servant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ. Col. i. 7.

Who also declared unto us your love in the

But now, when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you; 1 Thess. iii. 6.

Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith; — — 7.

For now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord.

For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God; — 9.

99. NON-RECIPIENTS THREATENED.

And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet. Mat. x. 14.

Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrha, in the day of judgment, than for that city. — -15.

And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrha, in the day of judgment, than for that city. Mark vi. 11.

And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

But in whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say, — x. 10.

Even the very dust of your city, which cleavstanding, be ye sure of this, that the kingdom | to whom be praise and dominion for ever and of God is come nigh unto you. Luke x. 11.

100. HEARERS' PARTIALITIES.

For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is yet among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men. 1 Cor. iii. 3.

For while one saith I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal?

Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man? — 5.

CHAP. VIII.

DUTIES OF MINISTERS.

SECT. 101. GENERAL EXHORTATIONS.

MY sons, be not now negligent: for the Lord hath chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that ye should minister unto him, and burn incense. 2 Chron. xxix. 11.

For the priests' lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth; for he is the messenger of the Lord of hosts. ii. 7.

So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs. John xxi. 15

He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep.  $\rightarrow -16$ .

And say to Archippus, take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it. Col. iv. 17.

And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient. 2 Tim. ii. 24.

But watch thou in all things, endure affliction, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry. — iv. 5.

But speak thou the things which become sound doctrine. Tit. ii. 1.

Sound speech, that cannot be condemmed; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind. 1 Peter v. 2.

As every man hath received the gift, even so ministers the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. — iv. 10.

If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth; that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ: delivered thy soul. — — 9.

ever. Amen. — — 11.

102. STUDIES RECOMMENDED.

Now there were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. Acts wiii. 1.

If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained. 1 Tim. iv. 6.

Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. —— 13.

Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all. — — 15.

Take heed unto thyself, and unto thy doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself and them that hear thee.

Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. 2 Tim. ii. 15.

103. DUTY AS WATCHMEN.

Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from Ezek. iii. 17.

When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity: but his blood will I require - - 18. at thine hand.

Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity: but thou hast delivered thy soul. ---- 19.

Again, when a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumbling-block before him, he shall die; because thou hast not given him warning he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered: but his blood will I require at thine hand. — — 20.

Nevertheless, if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin; he shall surely live, because he is warned: also thou hast delivered thy soul. - 21.

So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me. — xxxiii. 7.

When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die: if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast

104. TO SET GOOD EXAMPLES.

Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity. 1 Tim. iv. 12.

In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works; in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity. Tit. ii. 7.

Neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock. 1 Peter v. 3.

105. EXAMPLE PROPOUNDED.

Wherefore, I beseech you, be ye followers of me. 1 Cor. iv. 16.

Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying. 2 Cor. xii. 19.

Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all.

Gal. iv. 12.

Those things which ye have both learned and received, and heard and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you. Philip. iv. 9.

Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily, and justly, and unblameably, we behaved ourselves among you that believe. 1 Thess. ii. 10.

For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you. 2 Thess. iii. 7.

106. EXAMPLE APPEALED TO.

And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons, Acts xx. 18.

Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations which befell me by the laying in wait of the Jews. — - 19.

Therefore, seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not; 2 Cor.

iv.

But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth, commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. ——2.

Giving no offence in any thing, that the minis ry be not blamed: — vi. 3.

But in all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses. — 4.

In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in watchings, in fastings.

bors, in watchings, in fastings, —— 5.

By pureness, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned, —— 6.

By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, —— 7.

By honor and dishonor, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true; — 8.

As unknown, and yet well known: as dying, and behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed; — — 9.

As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things. ——10.

But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things. — xi. 6.

107. AFFECTION TO THE PEOPLE.

For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established; Rom. i. 11.

That is, that I may be comforted, together with you, by the mutual faith both of you and

b. — — 12

And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all. 2 Cor. ii. 3.

For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that you should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you. — — 4.

But if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part; that I may not over-charge you all. — — 5.

O ye Corinthians! our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged. — vi. 11.

Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own bowels. ——12.

Now, for a recompense in the same, (I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged. —

I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you. — vii. 3.

Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying of you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation. — — 4.

Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, not for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you. — 12.

Therefore we were comforted in your comfort; yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all. —— 13.

But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you. — viii. 16.

For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you. — — 17.

SUCCESS THEREOF.

For we are unto God a sweet savor of Christ in them that are saved, and in them that perish. 2 Cor. ii. 15.

CHARACTERISTICS OF MINISTERS. GOOD AND BAD.

SECT. 118. DESCRIPTION AND BLESSINGS OF THE GOOD.

THE Lord hath been mindful of us; he will bless us: he will bless the house of Israel; he will bless the house of Aaron. Ps. cxv. 12.

But ye shall be named the Priests of the Lord: men shall call you the Ministers of our God: ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves. Is.

As for me, I have not hastened from being a pastor to follow thee; neither have I desired the woeful day thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was right before thee. Jer. xvi.

And I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the Lord. - xxxi. 14.

But the priests the Levites, the sons of Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary, when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near unto me, and they shall stand before me to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord God; Ezek. xliv. 15.

They shall enter into my sanctuary, and they And many of the children of Israel shall he shall come near to my table, to minister unto me, and they shall keep my charge. — — 16.

And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant might be | est, is given to covetousness; from the prophet with Levi, saith the Lord of hosts. Mal. ii. 4.

My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my name.

The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did turn many away from iniquity.

NEGLIGENCE OF THE BAD. 119.

But the priests were too few, so that they could not slay all the burnt-offerings: wherefore their brethren the Levites did help them till the work was ended, and until the other priests had sanctified themselves: for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests. 2 Chron. xxix. 34.

His watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber. Is. lvi.

And they were scattered, because there is no shepherd: and they became meat to all the beasts of the field when they were scattered. Ezek. xxxiv. 5.

My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill; yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them. — 6.

My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge; because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of God, I will also forget thy children. Hosea iv. 6.

The days of visitation are come, the days of recompense are come; Israel shall know  $\dot{u}$ : the prophet is a fool, the spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great --- ix. 7.

And the Lord said unto me, Take unto thee yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd. Zech. xi. 15.

For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, which shall not visit those that be cut off, neither shall seek the young one, nor heal that that is broken, nor feed that that standeth still; but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and tear their ---- 16. claws in pieces.

Woe to the idol shepherd that leaveth the flock! the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

- 17.

120. COVETOUSNESS.

Yea, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, every one for his gain from his quarter. Is. lvi.

For from the least of them, even unto the greatest of them, every one is given to covetousness; and, from the prophet even unto the priest, every one dealeth falsely. Jer. vi. 13.

Therefore will I give their wives unto others, for every one, from the least even unto the great offerings of Israel my people? — 29.

even unto the priest, every one dealeth falsely. - viii. 10.

Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel; prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God unto the shepherds, Woe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks? Ezek. xxxiv. 2.

Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock. ----3.

Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the Lord of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand. Mal. i. 10.

For I have no man like minded, who will naturally care for your state. Phil. ii. 20.

For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's. —— 21.

For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, especially they of the circum-Tit. i. 10.

Whose mouths must be stopped; who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not for filthy lucre's sake. — — 11.

And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not. 2 Peter ii. 3.

121. DRUNKENNESS.

Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and tomorrow shall be as this day, and much more abundant. Is. lvi. 12.

122. GLUTTONY.

Now the sons of Eli were sons of Belial, they knew not the Lord. 1 Sam. ii. 12.

And the priest's custom with the people was, that when any man offered sacrifice, the priest's servant came, while the flesh was in seething, with a flesh-hook of three teeth in his hand.

And he struck it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the flesh-hook brought up the priest took for himself. So they did in Shiloh unto all the Israelites that came thither. -14

Also before they burnt the fat, the priest's servant came, and said to the man that sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priest; for he will not have sodden flesh of thee, but raw. - 15.

And if any man said unto him, Let them not fail to burn the fat presently, and then take as much as thy soul desireth; then he would answer him, Nay; but thou shalt give it me now: and if not, I will take it by force. - 16.

Wherefore the sin of the young men was very great before the Lord; for men abhorred the offering of the Lord.

Wherefore kick ye at my sacrifice, and at my offering, which I have commanded in my habitation; and honorest thy sons above me, to and their fields to them that shall inherit them: | make yourselves fat with the chiefest of ull the

TEMPORIZING.

A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land. Jer. v. 30.

The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end — — 31.

They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. — vi. 14.

For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. — viii. 11.

124. REBELLIOUS.

And he spoke unto Korah, and unto all his company, saying, Even to morrow the Lord will shew who are his, and who is holy; and will cause him to come near unto him: even him whom he hath chosen will he cause to come near unto him. Num. xvi. 5.

This do; Take you censers, Korah and all his company; — — 6.

And put fire therein, and put incense in them before the Lord to-morrow; and it shall be, that the man whom the Lord doth choose, he shall be holy: ye take too much upon you, ye sons of Levi.

And Moses said unto Korah, Hear, I pray

you, ye sons of Levi; — — 8.

Seemeth it but a small thing unto you, that the God of Israel hath separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself, to do the service of the tabernacle of the Lord, and to stand before the congregation, to minister unto them? - 9.

And he hath brought thee near to him, and all thy brethren the sons of Levi with thee: and seek ye the priesthood also? — -

For which cause both thou, and all thy company are gathered together against the Lord: and what is Aaron that ye murmur against him?

And Moses said unto Korah, Be thou and all thy company before the Lord, thou, and they, and Aaron, to-morrow: ———16.

And take every man his censer, and put incense in them, and bring ye before the Lord every man his censer, two hundred and fifty censers; thou, also, and Aaron, each of you his - 17.

And they took every man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood in the door of the tabernacle of the congregation with Moses and Aaron. — 18.

And Korah gathered all the congregation against them, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the glory of the Lord appeared unto all the congregation.

MISTAKEN OR INVIDIOUS JEALOUSIES

And when Saul was come to Jerusalem he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple. Acts ix. 26.

But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem. — 28.

For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance, and not in heart. 2 Cor. v. 12.

For we dare not make ourselves of the num ber, or compare ourselves with some that com mend themselves: but they, measuring them selves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise. — x. 12.

But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you. — — 13.

For we stretch out ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you; for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ. - 14.

Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you, according to our rule abundantly. — 15.

To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you; and not to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand.

But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we. — xi. 12.

For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. - 13.

Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will. Phil. i. 15.

The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds; - 16.

But the other of love, knowing that I am set ____ 17. for the defence of the gospel.

What then? notwithstanding every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice. — - 18.

For I know that this shall turn to my saivation through your prayer, and the supply of the spirit of Jesus Christ.

126. CONTENTIONS.

And some days after Paul said unto Barnabas, let us go again and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the name of the Lord, and see how they do. Acts xv. 36.

And Barnabas determined to take with them

John, whose surname was Mark. —— 37.

And Paul thought not good to take him with them, who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work - 38.

And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus. — 39.

And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being [ 510 ]

God. Acts xv. 40.

127. CRUELTY.

The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither nave ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was lost; but with force and with cruelty have ye ruled them. Ezek. xxxiv. 4.

Thus saith the Lord my God, Feed the flock of the slaughter. Zech. xi. 4.

Whose possessors slay them, and hold themselves not guilty; and they that sell them say, Blessed be the Lord; for I am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not.

And by chance there came down a certain priest that way; and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. Luke x. 31.

And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by - 22. on the other side.

128. LOVE OF PRE-EMINENCE.

I wrote unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the pre-eminence among them, receiveth us not. 3 John 9.

Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words; and not content therewith; neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church. — 10.

129. PROFANE.

The priests said not, Where is the Lord? and they that handled the law knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit. Jer. ii. 8.

For the pastors are become brutish, and have not sought the Lord: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered.

- x. 21.

Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard. they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness. — xii. 10.

They have made it desolate, and being desolate it mourneth unto me; the whole land is made desolate, because no man layeth it to

For both prophet and priest are profane; yea, in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the Lord. — xxiii. 11.

Her priests have violated my law, and have profaned my holy things; they have put no dif-ference between the holy and the profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them. Ezek. xxii. 26.

Her prophets are light and treacherous persons; her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law. Zeph. iii. 4.

recommended by the brethren unto the grace of | honor? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the Lord of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my name: and ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name? Mal. i. 6.

130. ILLEGALLY MARRIED.

And of the children of the priests: the children of Habsiah, the children of Koz, the children of Barzillai, (which took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their name;) Ezra ii. 61.

These sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but they were not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood. — 62.

These sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but it was not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood. Neh. vii. 64.

Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites. — xiii. 29.

131. FORNICATORS.

Now Eli was very old and heard all that his sons did unto all Israel; and how they lay with the women that assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. 1 Sam. ii. 22.

And he said unto them, Why do ye such things? for I hear of your evil dealings by all this people. — 23.

Nay, my sons; for it is no good report that I

132. SEDUCERS.

Hear ye this, O priests; and hearken, ye house of Israel; and give ye ear, O house of the king; for judgment is toward you, because ye have been a snare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor. Hos. v. 1.

The watchman of Ephraim was with my God. but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred in the house of his God. -

ix. 8.

But ye are departed out of the way; ye have caused many to stumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the Lord of hosts: Mal. ii. 8.

Let them alone, they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch. Mat. xv. 14.

For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ. 2 Cor.

And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. 2 Peter ii. 2.

133. IDOLATERS.

And the Levites that are gone away far from me, when Israel went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols, they shall even bear their iniquity. Ezek. xliv. 10.

Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary A son honoreth his father, and a servant his having charge at the gates of the house, and burnt-offering and the sacrifice for the people, them. Ezek. xliv. 1.

Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity; therefore have I lifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord, and they shall bear their iniquity. — — 12.

And they shall not come near unto me to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in the most holy place: but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed:

But I will make them keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that be done therein.

134. MURDERERS.

For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her. Lam. iv. 13.

They have wandered as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood, so that men could not touch their garments.

They cried unto them, Depart ye; it is unclean; depart, depart, touch not: when they fled away and wandered, they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there. —15.

And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way by consent: for they commit lewdness. Hos. vi. 9.

135. PERTINACIOUS.

Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among them that fall; at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith the Lord. Jer. vi. 15.

Yet let no man strive nor reprove another: for thy people are as they that strive with the priest. Hos. iv. 4.

Therefore shalt thou fall in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will destroy thy mother.

136. GENERAL ANIMADVERSION

Woe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the Lord. Jer. xxiii. 1.

Therefore thus saith the Lord God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people, Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them; behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the Lord.

Wherefore their ways shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness; they shall be driven on and fall therein; for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the Lord. -- 12.

Howl, ye shepherds, and cry; and wallow yourselves in the ashes, ye principal of the flock: for the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions, are accomplished; and ye shall fall like a pleasant vessel. — xxv. 34.

And the shepherds shall have no way to flee, and they shall stand before them to minister unto | nor the principal of the flock to escape. — 35.

A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and a howling of the principal of the flock, shall be heard: for the Lord nath spoiled their pasture.

And there shall be, like people, like priest: and I will punish them for their ways, and reward them for their doings. Hos. iv. 9.

And now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you. Mal. ii. 1.

If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the Lord of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings; yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have been partial in the law.

And all that Samuel the seer, and Saul the son of Kish, and Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah, had dedicated; and whosoever had dedicated any thing, it was under the hand of Shelomith, and of his brethren.

Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare chambers in the house of the Lord; and they prepared them, 2 Chron. xxxi. 11.

166. ENDOWMENTS.

And when a man shall sanctify his house to be holy unto the Lord; then the priest shall estimate it, whether it be good or bad: as the priest shall estimate it, so shall it stand.

And if he that sanctified it will redeem his house, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be his.

And if a man shall sanctify unto the Lord some part of a field of his possession; then thy estimation shall be according to the seed thereof; an homer of barley-seed shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver.

If he sanctify his field from the year of jubilee, according to thy estimation it shall stand.

But if he sanctify his field after the jubilee, then the priest shall reckon unto him the money according to the years that remain, even unto the year of the jubilee, and it shall be abated from thy estimation. -

And if he that sanctified the field will in any wise redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be assured to him. - 19.

And if he will not redeem the field, or if he have sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more. --20.

Or I only and Barnabas, have not we power to forbear working? 1 Cor. ix. 6.

Who goeth a warfare at any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock? — — 7.

Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also? — — 8.

For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God care for oxen? 9.

Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope. — — 10.

If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal

Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things. Gal. vi. 6.

190. GOSPEL MAINTENANCE INSTANCED.

I am glad of the coming of Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part they have supplied. 1 Cor. xvi. 17.

For they have refreshed my spirit and your's: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.

But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath flourished again: wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity. Philip. iv. 10.

Notwithstanding ye have well done that ye did communicate with my affliction. — — 14.

Now, ye Philippians, know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me, as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.

For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and

But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odor of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well-pleasing to God.—18.

Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass, in your purses, Mat. x. 9.

Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give. Mat. x. 8.

If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? nevertheless we have not used this power: but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ. 1 Cor. ix. 12.

But I have used none of these things; neither have I written these things that it should be be done unto me: for it were better for me to die than that any man should make my glorying void. —— 15.

What is my reward then? Verily, that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel. — — 18.

Have I committed an offence in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely? 2 Cor. xi. 7.

I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service. — 8.

And when I was present with you and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied; and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself. — 9.

For what is it wherein ye were inferior to the churches, except it be that I myself was not burdensome to you; forgive me this wrong.

- xii. 13.

But be it so, I did not burden you: nevertheless being crafty, I caught you with guile. —16.

Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you? ——— 17.

Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you nor yet of others, when we might have been burdensome as the apostles of Christ. 1 Thess.

And because he was of the same craft he abode with them and wrought: (for by their occupation they were tent-makers.) Acts xviii. 3.

I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or

Yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me. — — 34.

For ye remember, brethren, our labor and travail: for laboring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God. 1 Thess.

Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought, but wrought with labor and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of

Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us.

So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, who brought the vessels

And when they arose early on the morrow morning, behold Dagon was fallen upon his face to the ground before the ark of the Lord; and the head of Dagon, and both the palms of his hands, were cut off upon the threshold; only the stump of Dagon was left to him.

Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any that came into Dagon's house, tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod unto this day.

SECT. 90. SUN AND MOON ARRESTED.

THEN spake Joshua to the Lord, in the day when the Lord delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon: and thou, Moon, in the valley of Aja-Josh. x. 12.

And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of Jasher, So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day? — — 13.

And there was no day like that before it or after it, that the Lord hearkened unto the voice of a man: for the Lord fought for Israel. — 14.

And Hezekiah answered, It is a light thing for the shadow to go down ten degrees; nay, but let the shadow return backward ten degrees. 2 Kings xx. 10.

And the Lord said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even darkness which may be felt. Ex. x. 21

And Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven; and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days: --22.

He sent darkness, and make it dark; and they rebelled not against his word. Ps. cv. 28.

And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. Mar. x. 33.

And Moses and Aaron came before the tabernacle of the congregation. - - 43.

94. GUIDANCE THEREBY.

And when the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the children of Israel went onward in all their journeys: Ex. xl. 36.

But if the cloud were not taken up, then they journeyed not till the day that it was taken up.

And when the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle, then after that the children of Israel journeyed: and in the place where the cloud abode there the children of Israel pitched their Num. ix. 17. tents.

At the commandment of the Lord the children of Israel journeyed, and at the commandment of the Lord they pitched: as long as the cloud abode upon the tabernacle they rested in their tents. - --- 18.

And when the cloud tarried long upon the tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel kept the charge of the Lord, and journeyed not.

And so it was, when the cloud was a few days upon the tabernacle; according to the commandment of the Lord they abode in their tents, and according to the commandment of the Lord they journeyed. — 20.

And so it was, when the cloud abode from even unto the morning, and that the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed: whether it was by day or by night that the  — 21. choud was taken up they journeyed.

Yet thou, in thy manifold mercies, forsookest them not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way, neither the pillar of fire by night to shew them light, and the way therein they should go. - 19.

96. MIRACULOUS HAIL STONES.

And the Lord said unto Moses, Stretch forth thy hand toward heaven, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt; upon man, and upon beast, and upon every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt. Ex. ix. 22.

And Moses stretched forth his rod toward heaven, and the Lord sent thunder and hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground; and the Lord rained hail upon the land of Egypt. Ex.

ix. 23.

So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as there was none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation. — 24.

And the hail smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail smote every herb of the field, and brake every tree of the field. -- + 25.

And it came to pass, as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going down to Beth-horon, that the Lord cast down great stones from heaven upon them unto Azekah, and they died: they were more which died with hail stones than they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword. Jos. x. 11.

97. MIRACULOUS DEW.

And Gideon said unto God, If thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said, Judges vi. 36.

Behold, I will put a fleece of wool in the floor; and if the dew be on the fleece only, and it be dry upon all the earth beside, then shall I know that thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said.

And it was so: for he rose up early on the morrow, and thrust the fleece together, and

And Gideon said unto God, Let not thine anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once: Let me prove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece; and upon all the ground let there be dew. Judges vi. 39.

And God did so that night: for it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground. — — 40.

98. MIRACULOUS VOICES.

While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and, behold, a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him. Mat. xvii. 4.

And when the disciples heard it they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

And Jesus came and touched them, and said, --- 7. Arise, and be not afraid.

And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man save Jesus only. —— 8.

And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son; hear him. Luke ix. 35.

And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? Acts ix. 4.

And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks. 5.

And he, trembling and astonished, said, Lord what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me. — xxii. 9.

And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks. — xxvi. 14.

And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. — 15

99. MIRACULOUS SOUNDS.

For the Lord had made the host of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots, and the noise of horses, even the noise of a great host: and they said one to another, Lo, the king of Israel hath hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us. 2 Kings vii. 6.

Wherefore they arose, and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life.

And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled gether all the elders of the children of Israel. all the house where they were sitting. Acts ii. 2. Ex. iv. 29.

And he looked up, and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury. Luke xxi. 1.

And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites.

And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, That this poor widow hath cast in more than they

For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had. — 4.

5. MADE CHEERFULLY.

Thou shalt surely give him, and thine heart shall not be grieved when thou givest unto him; because that for this thing the Lord thy God shall bless thee in all thy works, and in all that thou puttest thine hand unto. Deut. xv. 10.

Withhold not good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thine hand to do

Prov. iii. 27.

Say not unto thy neighbor, Go, and come again, and to-morrow I will give, when thou hast - -- 28. it by thee.

And herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago. 2 Cor. viii. 10.

Now, therefore, perform the doing of it; that, as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

For as touching the ministering to the saints; it is superfluous for me to write to you: -ix. 1.

For I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many. - 2.

Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready. — — 3.

Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we, (that we say not you,) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up before hand your bounty, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness. — 5.

But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. — —6.

Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver. —7.

6. MODESTY.

Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven. Mat.

Therefore, when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues, and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. --2.

But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth; — —3.

That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, himself shall reward thee openly.

7. LARGESS. INSTANCES.

And he returned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen, and slew them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave unto the people, and they did eat: then he arose and went after Elijah, and ministered unto him. 1 Kings xix. 21.

And he dealt among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine. So all the people departed, every one to his house. 2 Sam. vi. 19.

And he dealt to every one of Israel, both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine. I Chron. xvi. 3.

Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea: Acts xi. 29.

Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul. Now, after many years, I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings. — xxiv. 17.

Moreover, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia: 2 Cor. viii. 1.

How that, in a great trial of affliction, the abundance of their joy, and their deep poverty, abounded unto the riches of their liberality. 2.

For to their power, (I bear record,) yea, and beyond their power, they were willing of themselves.

And this they did, not as we hoped; but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God. — 5.

Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also. - 6.

Only they would that we should remember the poor: the same which I also was forward to do. Gal. ii. 10.

Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard. Prov. xxi. 13.

He that giveth unto the poor shall not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse. — xxviii. 27.

CHAP. III.

FRIENDLY PASSIONS.

SECT. 23. UNIVERSAL CHARITY. (RULE.)

AND the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.

Mar. xii. 31.

Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law. Rom. xiii. 8.

For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet: and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. — 9.

For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. Gal. v. 14.

Let brotherly love continue. Heb. xiii. 1.

If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself, ye do well: James ii. 8.

And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins. 1 Peter iv. 8.

Brethren, I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning. 1 John ii. 7.

Again, a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him, and in you; because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth. -- 8.

For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. — iii. 11.

My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed, and in truth.

— — 18.

24. THE PLEASURES OF CONCORD.

Behold, how good and how pleasant ii is for brethren to dwell together in unity! Ps. exxxiii. 1.

It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard; that went down to the skirts of his garments: ——2.

As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the Lord commanded the blessing, even life for evermore. —— 3.

25. GRAND CRITERION.

He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him. 1 John ii. 10.

In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother. — iii. 10.

We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death. — 14.

26. SYMPATHY. (RULE.)

Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep. Rom. xii. 15.

Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits. Rom. xii. 16.

28. LOVE TO ENEMIES. (RULE.)

If thou meet thine enemy's ox or his ass going astray, thou shalt surely bring it back to him again. Ex. xxiii. 4.

If thou see the ass of him that hateth thee lying under his burden, and wouldst forbear to help him; thou shalt surely help with him.

If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink: Prov. xxv. 21.

For thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head, and the Lord shall reward thee. --22.

But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you; Luke vi. 27.

Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you. — 28.

Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not. Rom. xii. 14.

Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good. — 21.

29. ARGUMENTS AND REASONS.

Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth; Prov. xxiv. 17.

Lest the Lord see it, and it displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him. — —18.

Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbor, and hate thine enemy: Mat. v. 43.

But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; — — 44.

That ye may be the children of your Father which is in Heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. — — 45.

For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the

And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so? — 47.

For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them. Luke vi. 32.

And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same. — — 33.

And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again. — 34.

But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful, and to the evil. ———35.

30. EXEMPLIFIED.

And he said to David, Thou art more righteous than I; for thou hast rewarded me good, whereas I have rewarded thee evil. 1 Sam. xxiv. 17.

For if a man find his enemy, will he let him go well away? Wherefore the Lord reward thee good for that thou hast done unto me this day. — — 19.

Neither have I suffered my mouth to sin, by wishing a curse to his soul. — — 30.

At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge. 2 Tim. iv. 16.

31. FORGIVING INJURIES. (RULE.)

Thus speaketh the Lord of hosts, saying, Execute true judgment, and shew mercy and compassion every man to his brother. Zech. vii. 9.

Therefore, if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee; Mat. v. 23.

Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift. —— 24.

Then came Poter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times? — xviii. 21.

Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times; but, Until seventy times seven.

Be ye, therefore, merciful, as your Father also is merciful. Luke vi. 36.

Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive and ye shall be forgiven. —— 37.

Take heed to yourselves: If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him. — xvii. 3.

And if he treepass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him. — — 4.

And be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you. Eph. iv. 32.

32. WHY TO FORGIVE.

Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy. Mat. v. 7.

For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you: Mat. vi. 14.

But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your heavenly Father forgive your

So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses. xviii. 35.

35. PLEASURE OR JOY. (A GOOD.)

There is nothing better for a man, than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labor. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God. Eccl. ii. 24.

Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for that is his portion: for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him? iii. 22,

Behold, that which I have seen; it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labor that he taketh under the sun all the days of his life, which God giveth him: for it is his portion. — v. 18.

behold, this also is vanity. Eccl. ii. 1.

For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool. This also is vanity. – vii. 6.

37. BOLEMN CAUTIONS.

Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment. Eccl. xi. 9.

145. DISAPPOINTED.

And it shall come to pass, when the Lord shall have done to my lord according to all the good that he hath spoken concerning thee, and shall have appointed thee ruler over Israel, 1 Sam. xxv. 30.

That this shall be no grief unto thee, nor offence of heart unto my lord, either that thou hast shed blood causeless, or that my lord hath avenged himself: but when the Lord shall have dealt well with my lord, then remember thine handmaid. —— 31.

And David said to Abigail, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meet me: — 32.

For in very deed, as the Lord God of Israel liveth, which hath kept me back from hurting thee, except thou hadst hasted and come to meet me, surely there had not been left unto Nabal, by the morning light, any that pisseth against the wall. —— 34.

MAN-SLAUGHTER.

SECT. 148. CORONER'S INQUEST.

IF one be found slain in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee to possess it, lying in the field, and it be not known who hath slain him; Deut. xxi. 1.

Then thy elders and thy judges shall come forth, and they shall measure unto the cities which are round about him that is slain:

And it shall be, that the city which is next unto the slain man, even the elders of that city, shall take an heifer which hath not been wrought with, and which hath not drawn in the yoke;

And the elders of that city shall bring down the heifer unto a rough valley, which is neither eared nor sown, and shall strike off the heifer's neck there in the valley. ——4.

And all the elders of that city, that are next unto the slain man, shall wash their hands over the heifer that is beheaded in the valley; ——6.

And they shall answer and say, Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it. — 7.

Be merciful, O Lord, unto thy people Israel, whom thou hast redeemed, and lay not innocent blood unto thy people of Israel's charge: And the blood shall be forgiven them. —— 8.

So shalt thou put away the guilt of innocent blood from among you, when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the Lord.

149. MANSLAUGHTER DESCRIBED.

Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come over Jordan into the land of Canaan, Num. xxxv. 10.

Then ye shall appoint you cities to be cities of refuge for you; that the slayer may flee thither which killeth any person at unawares.

But if he thrust him suddenly without comity, or have cast upon him any thing without laying of wait; — 22.

And this is the case of the slayer which shall flee thither, that he may live; Whoso killeth his neighbor ignorantly, whom he hated not in time past: Deut. xix. 4.

As when a man goeth into the wood with his neighbor to hew wood, and his hand fetcheth a stroke with the axe to cut down the tree, and the head slippeth from the helve, and lighteth upon his neighbor that he die: he shall flee unto one of those cities, and live: — 5.

Lest the avenger of blood pursue the slayer while his heart is hot, and overtake him, because the way is long, and slay him; whereas he was not worthy of death, in as much as he hated him not in time past. — — 6.

150. REFUGES APPOINTED.

And if a man lie not in wait, but God deliver him into his hand; then I will appoint thee a place whither he shall flee. Ex. xxi. 13.

And they shall be unto you cities for refuge from the avenger; that the man-slaver die not, until he stand before the congregation in judg-Num. xxxv. 12.

And of these cities which ye shall give, six cities shall ye have for refuge. —— 13.

Ye shall give three cities on this side Jordan, and three cities shall ye give in the land of Canaan, which shall be cities of refuge. — — 14.

These six cities shall be a refuge, both for the children of Israel, and for the stranger, and for the sojourner among them: that every one that killeth any person unawares may flee thither. - -- 15.

Then the congregation shall judge between the slayer and the revenger of blood according to these judgments. — 24.

And the congregation shall deliver the slayer out of the hand of the revenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to the city of his refuge, whither he was fled: and he shall abide in it unto the death of the high priest, which was anointed with the holy oil.

When the Lord thy God hath cut off the nations, whose land the Lord thy God giveth thee, and thou succeedest them, and dwellest in their cities, and in their houses; Deut. xix. 1.

Thou shalt separate three cities for thee in the midst of thy land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee to possess it. — 2.

Thou shalt prepare thee a way, and divide the coasts of thy land, which the Lord thy Godgiveth thee to inherit, into three parts, that every slayer may flee thither. - 3.

Wherefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt separate three cities for thee.

And if the Lord thy God enlarge thy coast, as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, and give thee all the land which he promised to give unto

If thou shalt keep all these commandments to do them, which I command thee this day, to love the Lord thy God, and to walk ever in his ways; then shalt thou add three cities more for thee, besides these three. ----

That innocent blood be not shed in thy land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and so blood be upon thee. — 10.

Speak to the children of Israel, saying, Appoint out for you cities of refuge, whereof I spake unto you by the hand of Moses;

That the slayer that killeth any person unawares, and unwittingly, may flee thither; and they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood. — — 3.

151. CITIES OF REFUGE, (WHICH.)

Then Moses severed three cities on this side Jordan, toward the sun-rising; Deut. iv. 41.

That the slayer might flee thither, which should kill his neighbor unawares, and hated he shall pay for the loss of the time, and shall him not in times past, and that fleeing unto one cause him to be thoroughly healed. Ex. xxi. 19. of these cities, he might live: - 42.

Namely, Bezer in the wilderness, in the plain country of the Reubenites, and Ramoth in Gilead of the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan of the Manassites. — — 43.

And they appointed Kedesh in Galilee in mount Naphtali, and Shechem in mount Ephraim, and Kirjath arba (which is Hebron) in the mountain of Judah. Jos. xx. 7.

And on the other side Jordan, by Jericho eastward, they assigned Bezer in the wilderness upon the plain out of the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of Mannasseh.

These were the cities appointed for all the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them, that whosoever killeth any person at unawares might flee thither, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stood before the congregation. — 9

152. ENTRANCE THEREIN.

And when he that doth flee unto one of those cities shall stand at the entering of the gate of the city, and shall declare his cause in the ears of the elders of that city, they shall take him into the city unto them, and give him a place, that he may dwell among them. Jos. xx. 4.

And if the avenger of blood pursue after him, then they shall not deliver the slayer up into his hand; because he smote his neighbor unwittingly, and hated him not before-time. -- 5.

153. TIME OF ABODE.

And ye shall take no satisfaction for him that is fled to the city of his refuge, that he should come again to dwell in the land, until the death of the high priest. Num. xxxv. 32.

And he shall dwell in that city until he stand before the congregation for judgment, and until the death of the high priest that shall be in those days: then shall the slayer return, and come unto his own city, and unto his own house, unto the city from whence he fled. Jos. xx. 6.

154. STRAYING THEREFROM.

But if the slayer shall at any time come without the border of the city of his refuge, whither he was fled, Num. xxxv. 26.

And the revenger of blood find him without the borders of the city of his refuge, and the revenger of blood kill the slayer: he shall not be guilty of blood: - 27.

Because he should have remained in the city of his refuge until the death of the high priest: but after the death of the high priest the slayer shall return into the land of his possession. 28.

155. LAW OF WOUNDING.

And if men strive together, and one smite another with a stone, or with his fist, and he die not, but keepeth his bed; Ex. xxi. 18.

If he rise again, and walk abroad upon his staff, then shall he that smote him be quit: only

156. MOSES AND THE EGYPTIAN.

And it came to pass in those days, when Moses was grown, that he went out unto his brethren, and looked on their burdens: and he spied an Egyptian smiting a Hebrew, one of his brethren. Ex. ii. 11.

And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no man he slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand. — — 12.

And he said, Who made thee a prince and a judge over us? Intendest thou to kill me as thou killedst the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely this thing is known. —— 14.

Now, when Pharaoh heard this thing he sought to slay Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian: and he sat down by a well. — 15.

And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian: Acts vii. 24.

For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not. — 25.

But he that did his neighbor wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us? — 27.

Wilt thou kill me, as thou didst the Egyptian yesterday? — -28.

Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Midian, where he begat two sons. — — 29.

Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord God, The city sheddeth blood in the midst of it, that her time may come; and maketh idols against herself to defile herself. — — 3.

For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the top of a rock; she poured it not upon the ground to cover it with dust; xxiv. 7.

That it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance, I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered.

And he passed through mount Ephraim, and passed through the land of Shalisha, but they found them not: then they passed through the land of Shalim, and there they were nor; and he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they found them not.

And when when they were come to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant that was with him, Come, and let us return; let my father leave caring for the asses, and take thought for

A wild ass used to the wilderness, that snuffeth up the wind at her pleasure; in her occasion who can turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her. Jer. ii. 24.

88. CAMEL AND DROMEDARY.

And he made his camels to kneel down without the city by a well of water, at the time of the evening, even the time that women go out to draw water. Gen. xxiv. 11.

While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands, fell upon the camels, and have carried them away; yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. Job i. 17.

And David smote them from the twilight even unto the evening of the next day: and there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men which rode upon camels and fled. 1 Sam. xxx. 17.

The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah: all they from Sheba shall come; they shall bring gold and incense, and they shall shew forth the praises of the Lord. Is. lx. 6.

How canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalam? See thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done: thou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways. Jer. ii. 23.

89. ELEPHANT.

Behold now behemoth, which I made with thee; he eateth grass as an ox. Job xl. 15.

Lo now, his strength is in his loins, and his force is in the navel of his belly. —— 16.

He moveth his tail like a cedar; the sinews of his stones are wrapped together.

His bones are as strong pieces of brass; his  — 18. bones are like bars of iron.

He is the chief of the ways of God: he that made him can make his sword to approach unto him. — — 19.

Surely the mountains bring him forth food, where all the beasts of the field play.

He lieth under the shady trees, in the covert of the reed and fens. — — 21.

The shady trees cover him with their shadow; the willows of the brook compass him about. 22.

Behold, she drinketh up a river, and hasteth not: he trusteth that he can draw up Jordan into his mouth. - 23.

He taketh it with his eyes; his nose pierceth through snares. — 24.

90. DEER.

Naphtali is a hind let loose: he giveth goodly Gen. xlix. 21.

It is God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect. Ps. xviii. 32.

He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places. — 33.

I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love till he please. Sol. iii. 5.

Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins, which feed among the lilies. — iv. 5.

Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins: - vii. 3.

91. DOG, FOX, AND CONEY.

They return at evening: they make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city. Ps.

But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs. Mat. xv. 26.

And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs est of the crumbs which fall from their master's table. — — 27.

But those that seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth. Ps.

They shall fall by the sword; they shall be a portion for foxes. — — 10.

For this our heart is faint; for these things our eyes are dim. Lam. v. 17.

Because of the mountain of Zion, which is desolate; the foxes walk upon it. — — 18.

The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats, and the rocks for the conies. Ps. civ. 18.

The conies are but a feeble folk, yet make they their houses in the rocks. Prov. xxx. 26.

92. LION.

Behold, the people shall rise up as a great lion, and lift up himself as a young lion: he shall not lie down until he eat of the prey, and drink the blood of the slain. Num. xxiii. 24.

And of Dan he said, Dan is a lion's whelp: he shall leap fron Bashan. Deut. xxxiii. 22.

The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and the teeth of the young lions are Job iv. 10.

The old lion perisheth for lack of prey, and the stout lion's whelps are scattered abroad. 11.

They have now compassed us in our steps: they have set their eyes bowing down to the earth. Ps. xvii. 11.

Like as a lion that is greedy of his prey, and as it were a young lion lurking in secret places. — 12.

They gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravining and a roaring lion. — xxii. 13.

Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth; break out the great teeth of the young lions, O Lord. - lviii. 6,

Their roaring shall be like a lion, they shall roar like young lions; yea, they shall roar, and lay hold of the prey, and shall carry it away safe, and none shall deliver it. Is. v. 29.

Mine heritage is unto me as a lion in the forest, it crieth out against me: therefore have I hated it. Jer. xii. 8.

They shall roar together like lions; they shall yell as lions' whelps. — li. 38.

Will a lion roar in the forest when he hath no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den if he have taken nothing? Amos iii. 4.

And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many people, as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep; who, if he go through, both treadeth down and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver. Micah v. 8.

Where is the dwelling of the lions, and the feeding place of the young lions, where the lion, even the old lion walked, and the lion's whelp, and none made them afraid? Nahum ii. 11.

The lion did tear in pieces enough for his it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey, and his dens with ravin. Nahum ii. 12.

Behold, I am against thee, saith the Lord of hosts, and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions; and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

93. WOLF, BOAR, AND LEOPARD.

Benjamin shall ravin as a wolf: in the morning he shall devour the prey, and at night he shall divide the spoil. Gen. xlix. 27.

The boar out of the wood doth waste it, and the wild beast of the field doth devour it. Ps.

Wherefore a lion out of the forest shall slay them, and a wolf of the evenings shall spoil them: a leopard shall watch over their cities: every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces; because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings are increased. Jer. v. 6.

94. UNICORN:

His glory is like the firstling of his bullock, and his horns are like the horns of unicorns; with them he shall push the people together to the ends of the earth: and they are the ten thousands of Ephraim, and they are the thousands of Manasseh. Deut. xxxiii. 17.

Will the unicorn be willing to serve thee, or abide by thy crib? Job xxxix. 9.

Canst thou bind the unicorn with his band in the furrow? or will he harrow the vallies after

Wilt thou trust him, because his strength is great? or wilt thou leave thy labor to him? -

Wilt thou believe him that he will bring home thy seed, and gather it into thy barn?

And the unicorns shall come down with them, and the bullocks with the bulls; and their land shall be soaked with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness. Is. xxxiv. 7.

95. BEASTS METAPHORICAL.

And four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another. Dan. vii. 3.

The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings; I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

And behold, another beast, a second, like to a bear, and it raised itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it; and they said unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

After this I beheld, and, lo, another like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it. --6.

After this I saw in the night visions, and, behold, a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and | the residue with the feet of it; and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns.

I beheld then, because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: I beheld, even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame. ___ 11.

As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth. -- 17.

I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward, so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great. - viii. 4.

And as I was considering, behold, a he-goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes.

And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power.

And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns; and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand. -- 7.

FOWLS.

SECT. 96. DOVE.

ALSO he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground: Gen. viii. 8.

But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him in the ark; for the waters were on the face of the whole earth. Then he put forth his hand, and took her, and pulled her in unto him into the ark. —-

And he stayed yet other seven days, and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark.

And the dove came in to him in the evening, and, lo, in her mouth was an olive leaf plucked off. So Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth. —— 11.

And he stayed yet other seven days, and sent forth the dove; which returned not again unto him any more. —— 12.

Though ye have lain among the pots, yet shall ye be as the wings of a dove covered with silver, and her feathers with yellow gold. Ps. lxviii. 13.

Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair: thou hast doves' eyes. Sol. i. 15.

O my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock, strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: in the secret places of the stairs, let me see thy countenance, let me hear thy voice; for sweet is thy voice, and thy countenance is comely. Sol.

His eyes are as the eyes of doves by the rivers of waters, washed with milk, and fitly set. v. 12.

Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows? Is. lx. 8.

But they that escape of them shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the vallies, all of them mourning, every one for his iniquity. Ezek. vii. 16.

They shall tremble as a bird out of Egypt, and as a dove out of the land of Assyria: and I will place them in their houses, saith the Lord. Hos.

97. EAGLE.

As an eagle stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young, spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings. Deut. xxxii. 11.

Doth the eagle mount up at thy command, and make her nest on high? Job xxxix. 27.

She dwelleth and abideth on the rock, upon the crag of the rock, and the strong place. - 28.

From thence she seeketh the prey, and her ---- 29. eyes behold afar off.

Her young ones also suck up blood: and where the slain are, there is she.

For thus saith the Lord, Behold, he shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread his wings over Moab. Jer. xlviii. 40.

Behold, he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread his wings over Bozrah: and at that day shall the heart of the mighty men of Edom be as the heart of a woman in her pangs. xlix. 22.

Our persecutors are swifter than the eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness. Lam. iv. 19.

For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together. Mat. xxiv. 28.

And they answered and said unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Wheresoever the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered together. Luke xvii. 37.

RAVEN, HAWK, AND OSTRICH.

And it came to pass, at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made: Gen. viii. 6.

And he sent forth a raven, which went forth to and fro, until the waters were dried up from off the earth. - 7.

His head is as the most fine gold; his locks are bushy and black as a raven. Sol. v. 11.

Doth the hawk fly by thy wisdom, and stretch her wing toward the south? Job xxxix. 26.

What time she lifteth up herself on high, she scorneth the horse and his rider. —— 18. (Ostrich.)

99. PREDATORY.

A sower went out to sow his seed; and, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it: Luke viii. 5.

100. NESTS.

If a bird's nest chance to be before thee in the way, in any tree, or on the ground, whether they be young ones or eggs, and the dam sitting upon the young or upon the eggs, thou shalt not take the dam with the young: Deut. xxii. 6.

But thou shalt in any wise let the dam go and take the young to thee; that it may be well with thee, and that thou may est prolong thy days.

Where the birds make their nest: as for the stork, the fir-trees are her house. Ps. civ. 17.

And my hand hath found, as a nest, the riches of the people; and as one gathereth eggs that are left, have I gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped. Is. x. 14.

For it shall be, that as a wandering bird cast out of the nest, so the daughters of Moab shall be at the fords of Arnon. – xvi. 2.

101. MIGRATIONS.

Yea, the stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and the turtle, and the crane, and the swallow; observe the time of their coming, but my people know not the judgment of the Lord. Jer. viii. 7.

102. MELODY.

By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation, which sing among the branches. Ps. civ. 12.

103. ANIMOSITIES,

Mine heritage is unto me as a speckled bird; the birds round about are against her: come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, come to devour. Jer. xii. 9.

CHAP. IX.

SERPENTS.

SECT. 104. ON SERPENTS.

DAN shall be a serpent by the way, an adder in the path, that biteth the horse-heels, so that his rider shall fall backward. Gen. xlix. 17.

Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder; the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet. Ps. xci. 13.

And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice' den. Is. xi. 8.

Rejoice not thou, whole Palestina, because the rod of him that smote thee is broken: for out of the serpent's root shall come forth a cockatrice, and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent.

As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him. Amos

They shall lick the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes like worms of the earth: they shall be afraid of the Lord our God, and shall fear because of thee. Micah vii. 17.

Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing shall by any means hurt you. Luke x. 19.

105. SERPENTS POISONOUS.

They shall be burnt with hunger, and devoured with burning heat, and with bitter destruction: I will also send the teeth of beasts upon them, with the poison of serpents of the dust. Deut. xxxvii. 24.

Their wine is the poison of drugons, and the cruel venom of asps. — — 33.

He shall suck the poison of asps: the viper's tongue shall slay him. Job xx. 16.

They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent; adders' poison is under their lips. Selah. Ps. cxl. 3.

They hatch cockatrice' eggs, and weave the spider's web; he that eateth of their eggs dieth, and that which is crushed breaketh out into a viper. Is. lix. 5.

106. INCANTATION.

Their poison is like the poison of a serpent; they are like the deaf adder that stoppeth her Ps. lviii. 4.

ear; Ps. 1viii. 4.
Which will not hearken to the voice of charmers, charming never so wisely. — 5.

Surely the serpent will bite without enchant-•ment; and a babler is no better. Ec. x. 11.

For, behold, I will send serpents, cockatrices, among you, which will not be charmed, and they shall bite you, saith the Lord. Jer. viii. 17.

INSECTS.

SECT. 107. VARIOUS INSECTS.

AND I will send hornets before thee, which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite, from before thee. Ex. xxiii. 28.

And I sent the hornet before you, which drave them out from before you, even the two kings of the Amorites, but not with thy sword, nor with thy bow. Josh. xxiv. 12.

The locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them by bands; Prov. xxx. 27.

The spider taketh hold with her hands, and is in king's palaces.

And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria: Is. vii. 18.

And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate vallies, and in the holes of bushes. — 19.

108. DESTRUCTIVE.

All thy trees, and fruit of thy land, shall the locust consume. Deut. xxviii. 42.

And your spoil shall be gathered like the gathering of the caterpiller: as the running to and fro of locusts shall he run upon them. Is.

That which the palmer-worm hath left hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath the canker-worm eaten; and that which the canker-worm hath left hath the caterpiller eaten. Joel i. 4.

And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the canker-worm, and the caterpiller, and the palmer-worm, my great army which I sent among you. — ii. 25.

I have smitten you with blasting and mildew: when your gardens, and your vineyards, and your fig-trees, and your olive-trees increased, the palmer worm devoured them; yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord. Amos iv. 9.

Thus hath the Lord God shewed unto me; and behold, he formed grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth: and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings. — vii. 1.

CHAP. XI.

FISHES.

SECT. 109. ORIGIN AND PROGENY.

AND God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life and fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven. Gen. i. 20.

And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good. ——21.

So is this great and wide sea, wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts. Ps. civ. 25.

There go the ships; there is that leviathan whom thou hast made to play therein. — 26.

And it shall come to pass, that every thing that liveth, which moveth, whithersoever the rivers shall come, shall live; and there shall be s very great multitude of fish, because these wa ters shall come thither: for they shall be healed, and every thing shall live whither the river com eth. Ezek. xlvii. 9.

110. RIVER DRAGON (METAPHORICAL.)

Speak and say, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon that lieth in the midst of his the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all rivers, which hath said, My river is mine own and I have made it for myself. Ezek. xxix. 8. But I will put hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales; and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy scales. Ezek. xxix. 4.

And I will leave thee thrown into the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the open fields; thou shalt not be brought together nor gathered: I have given thee for meat to the beasts of the field, and to the fowls of the heaven. —— 5.

111. LEVIATHAN (HIS SIZE.)

He maketh the deep to boil like a pot: he maketh the sea like a pot of ointment. Job xli. 31.

He maketh a path to shine after him; one would think the deep to be hoary. — — 32.

112. ANIMATION.

By his neesings a light doth shine, and his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning. Job xii. 18.

Out of his mouth go burning lamps, and sparks of fire leap out. — 19.

Out of his nostrils goeth smoke, as out of a seething pot or caldron. — 20.

His breath kindleth coals, and a flame goeth out of his mouth. — 21.

113. DEPENSIVE ARMOR.

Canst thou draw out leviathan with a hook? or his tongue with a cord which thou lettest down? Job xli. 1.

Canst thou put a hook into his nose? or bore his jaw through with a thorn? — 2.

Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons? or bis head with fish spears? — 7.

I will not conceal his parts, nor his power, nor his comely proportion. — 12.

Who can discover the face of his garment? or who can come to him with his double bridle?

Who can open the doors of his face? his teeth are terrible round about. — 14.

His scales are his pride, shut up together as with a close seal. — 15.

They are joined one to another, they stick together, that they cannot be sundered. — — 17.

The flakes of his flesh are joined together; they are firm in themselves; they cannot be moved. — 23.

The sword of him that layeth at him cannot hold, the spear, the dart, nor the habergeon. — 26.

He esteemeth iron as straw, and brass as rotten wood. -27.

.The arrow cannot make him flee: sling stones are turned with him into stubble. —— 28.

Darts are counted as stubble; he laugheth at the shaking of a spear. —— 29.

Sharp stones are under him: he spreadeth sharp-pointed things upon the mire. — 30.

114. UNCONQUERABLE.

Will he make any supplications unto thee? will he speak soft words unto thee? Job xli. 3.

Will he make a covenant with thee? wilt thou take him for a servant for ever? — 4.

Wilt thou play with him as with a bird? or wilt thou bind him for thy maidens? — 5.

Shall thy companions make a banquet of him? shall they part him among the merchants?

Lay thine hand upon him, remember the battle, do no more. — 8.

Behold the hope of him is in vain; shall not one be cast down, even at the sight of him?

— 9.

None is so fierce that dare stir him up: who then is able to stand before me? — — 10.

In his neck remaineth strength, and sorrow is turned into joy before him. —— 22.

His heart is as firm as a stone; yea, as hard as a piece of the nether millstone. — 24.

When he raiseth up himself the mighty are afraid: by reason of breakings they purify themselves. ——,25.

Upon earth there is not his like, who is made without fear. — — 33.

He beholdeth all high things: he is a king over all the children of pride. — — 34.

PASTORALS.

SECT. 115. SHEPHERDS AND SHEPHERDESSES.

AND she again bare his brother Abel. And Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground. Gen. iv. 2.

And, while he yet spake with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep; for she kept them. - xxix. 9.

And he removed that day the he-goats that were ring straked and spotted, and all the she-goats that were speckled and spotted, and every one that had some white in it, and all the brown among the sheep, and gave them into the hand of his sons. — xxx. 35.

And he set three days' journey betwixt himself and Jacob: and Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flocks. — 36.

And his brethren went to feed their father's flock in Shechem. — xxxvii. 12.

And Joseph said unto his brethren, and unto his father's house, I will go up and shew Pharaoh, and say unto him, My brethren, and my father's house, which were in the land of Canaan, are come unto me: — xlvi. 31.

And the men are shepherds, for their trade hath been to feed cattle; and they have brought their flocks and their herds, and all that they have. — — 32.

And it shall come to pass, when Pharaoh shall call you, and shall say, What is your occupation? — — 33.

That ye shall say, Thy servants' trade hath | been about cattle from our youth even until now, both we and also our fathers; that ye may dwell in the land of Goshen: for every shepherd is an abomination unto the Egyptians. Gen. xlvi. 34.

And Pharaoh said unto his brethren, What is your occupation? And they said unto Pharaoh, Thy servants are shepherds, both we and also our fathers. — xlvii. 3.

They said moreover unto Pharaoh, For to sojourn in the land are we come: for thy servants have no pasture for their flocks: for the famine is sore in the land of Canaan: now therefore, we pray thee, let thy servants dwell in the land of Goshen. — 4.

And Pharaoh spake unto Joseph, saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come unto thee;

The land of Egypt is before thee; in the best of the land make thy father and brethren to dwell; in the land of Goshen let them dwell: and if thou knowest any men of activity among them, then make them rulers over my cattle. -

Now Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father in law, the priest of Midian: and he led the flock to the back side of the desert, and came to the mountain of God, even to Horeb. Ex. iii. 1.

But David went and returned from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Beth-lehem. 1 Sam.

And David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the trench as the host was going forth to the fight, and shouted for the battle.

But the men were very good unto us, and we were not hurt, neither missed we any thing, as long as we were conversant with them, when we were in the fields. — xxv. 15.

They were a wall unto us both by night and day all the while we were with them keeping the sheep. — — 16.

And there shall dwell in Judah itself, and in all the cities thereof together, husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks. Jer. xxxi. 24.

And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. Luke ii. 8.

116. METAPHORICAL.

As I live, saith the Lord, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd; neither did my shepherds search for my flock, but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my flock: Ezek. xxxiv. 8.

Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the Lord:

Thus saith the Lord God, behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more: for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them. -10.

Feed thy people with thy rod, the flock of thine heritage, which dwell solitarily in the wood, in the midst of Carmel: let them feed in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old. Mic.

Three shepherds also I cut off in one month; and my soul loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me.

phorred me. Zech. xi. 1.

Then said I, I will not feed you: that that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest cat every one the flesh of another.

117. SHEEP-SHEARING.

And there was a man in Maon, whose possessions were in Carmel; and the man was very great, and he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats: and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel. 1 Sam. xxv. 2.

And David heard in the wilderness that Na.

And it came to pass, after two full years, that Absalom had sheep-shearers in Baal-hazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king's sons. 2 Sam. xiii. 23.

And Absalom came to the king, and said, Behold now, thy servant hath sheep shearers; let the king, I beseech thee, and his servants, go with thy servant. — 24.

This I say, therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind. Eph. iv. 17.

And ye shall divide the land by lot, for an inheritance among your families; and to the more ye shall give the more inheritance, and to the fewer ye shall give the less inheritance: every man's inheritance shall be in the place where his lot falleth: according to the tribes of your fathers ye shall inherit. — xxxiii. 54.

Then let him count the years of the sale thereof, and restore the overplus unto the man to whom he sold it, that he may return unto his possession. - - 27.

Therefore thus saith the Lord, Ye have not hearkened unto me, in proclaiming liberty every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbor; behold, I proclaim a liberty for you, saith the Lord, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth. --17.

LAW.

SECT. 157. JUDGES APPOINTED.

WHEN they have a matter they come unto me, and I judge between one and another, and I do make them know the statutes of God, and his laws. Ex. xviii. 16.

And Moses' father in law said unto him, The thing that thou doest is not good. -- 17.

Thou wilt surely wear away, both thou and this people that is with thee: for this thing is too heavy for thee; thou art not able to perform it thyself alone. — — 18.

Hearken now unto my voice, I will give thee counsel, and God shall be with thee. Be thou for the people to God-ward, that thou mayest bring the causes unto God: — — 19.

And thou shalt teach them ordinances and laws, and shall shew them the way wherein they must walk and the work that they must do. 20.

Moreover thou shalt provide out of all the people, able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place such over them to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. — 21.

And let them judge the people at all seasons: and it shall be, that every great matter they shall bring unto thee; but every small matter they shall judge: so shall it be easier for thy self, and they shall bear the burden with thee. - 22.

If thou shalt do this thing, and God command thee so, then thou shalt be able to endure, and all this people shall also go to their place in – – 23. peace.

So Moses hearkened to the voice of his fatherin law, and did all that he had said. --24.

And Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. - --- 35.

Judges and officers shalt thou make thee in all thy gates which the Lord thy God giveth thee, throughout thy tribes: and they shall judge the people with just judgment. -– xvi. 18.

Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints? 1 Cor. vi. 1.

And Esther said, The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen.

Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law. Acts xviii. 13.

And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went, and entered into the castle, and told Paul. - xxiiii. 16.

Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him. --- 17.

So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee. --18.

Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul tomorrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly. -20.

But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee. — 21.

So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ring-leader of the sect of the Nazarenes: - xxiv. 5.

Who also hath gone about to profane the temple, whom we took, and would have judged according to our law: --- 6.

But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands, — — 7.

Commanding his accusers to come unto thee; by examining of whom, thyself mayest take knowledge of these things whereof we accuse him. - 8.

And the Jews also assented, saying, that these things were so. — 9.

Against whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed: — xxv. 18.

177. ALLUSION.

Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust. John v. 45.

178. DEFENCE.

But Paul said, I am a man which am a Jew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and I beseech thee suffer me to speak unto the people. Acts xxi. 39.

And when he had given him licence, Paul unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying, . - 40.

Men, brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence, which I make now unto you.

And Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day. — xxiii. 1.

And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him to smite him on the mouth.

Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself: — xxiv. 10.

Because that thou mayest understand that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship. —— 11.

And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues nor in the city; - 12.

Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me. --13.

While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cesar, have I offended any thing at all. — xxv. 8. To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man' to die before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have license to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him. --16.

Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself. xxvi. 1.

I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee, touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews; — 2.

Especially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently. — — 3.

179. COUNCIL.

Doth our law judge any man before it hear him, and know what he doeth? John vii. 51.

But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council they conferred among themselves. Acts iv. 15.

Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space; – v. 34.

And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them: — xxvi. 30.

And when they were gone aside they talked between themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death, or of bonds. — 31.

180. APPEAL.

Then said Paul, I stand at Cesar's judgment-seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest. Acts xxv. 10.

For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Cesar. ——11.

But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cesar.

But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself had appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him. — 25.

Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write. ——26.

For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him. — 27.

Then said Agrippa unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Cesar. — xxvi. 32.

And it came to pass, that, after three days, Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and, when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people or customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans; — xxviii.

Who, when they examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me. — 18

But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to appeal unto Cesar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of. — — 19.

For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain. — 20.

181. CAUSE REMOVED.

If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in the house of your prison: go ye, carry corn for the famine of your houses; Gen. xlii. 19.

But bring your youngest brother unto me: so shall your words be verified, and ye shall not die. And they did so. —— 20.

If there arise a matter too hard for thee in judgment, between blood and blood, between plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke, being matters of controversy within thy gates; then shalt thou arise, and get thee up into the place which the Lord thy God shall choose. Deut. xvii. 8.

And thou shalt come unto the priests and Levites, and unto the judge that shall be in those days, and enquire; and they shall shew thee the sentence of judgment. — — 9

And he wrote a letter after this manner. Acts xxiii. 25.

Claudius Lysias, unto the most excellent Governor Felix, sendeth greeting. — 26.

This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman. —— 27.

And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council. —— 28.

Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death, or of bonds. ——29.

And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell. — 30.

And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter. — xxiv. 22.

Now when Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Cesarea to Jerusalem. — xxv. 1.

Then the high priest, and the chief of the Jews, informed him against Paul, and besought him. — — 2.

And desired favor against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him. —— 3.

But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesaren, and that he himself would depart shortly thither. —— 4.

Let them, therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him. — 5.

And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down unto Cesarea; and the next day, sitting on the judgment seat, commanded Paul to be brought. ——6.

And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove. — — 7.

But Festus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me? —— 9.

182. SENTENCE TO HANG.

But the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bare unto Saul, ment; and so the plague was stayed. Ps. cvi. 30. Armoni and Mephibosheth, and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she brought up for Adriei, the son of Barzillai the Meholahite: 2 Sam. xxi. 8.

Then said Zereth his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and to morrow speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made. Est. v. 14.

And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordein the house of Haman. Then the king said, in his own house in the wilderness. — 34. Hang him thereon. — vii. 9.

So the king commanded Benaiah the son of

So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do to morrow also according unto this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows. — ix. 13.

And the king commanded it so to be done: and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons. — — 14.

183. TIME OF HANGING.

And if a man have committed a sin worthy of death, and he be to be put to death, and thou hang him on a tree; Deut. xxi. 22.

His body shall not remain all night upon the tree, but thou shalt in any wise bury him that day: (for he that is hanged is accursed of God;) that thy land be not defiled, which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance. - 23.

And they were hanging upon the trees until the evening. Jos. x. 26.

And it came to pass at the time of the going down of the sun, that Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave wherein they had been hid, and laid great stones in the cave's mouth, which remain until this very day.

185. STRIPES.

And it shall be, if the wicked man be worthy to be beaten, that the judge shall cause him to lie down, and to be beaten before his face, according to his fault, by a certain number. Deut. xxv. 2.

Forty stripes he may give him, and not exceed: lest, if he should exceed, and beat him. above these with many stripes, then thy brother should seem vile unto thee.

186. REMARKS ON LAW.

He that is first in his own cause, seemeth just: but his neighbor cometh and searcheth him. Prov. xviii. 17.

And, moreover, I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there. Ec. iii. 16.

If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they. - v. 8.

AND many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. Mat. xxiv. 11.

But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. 2 Pet. ii. 1.

72. INSTANCES.

Then the Lord said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name; I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart. Jer. xiv. 14.

I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem a horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies; they strengthen also the hands of evil-doers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah. xxiii. 14.

I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran; I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed. - --- 25.

How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? yea, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart; — 26.

And when Pharaoh saw that the rain, and the hail, and the thunders, were ceased, he sinned yet more, and hardened his heart, he and his servants. — ix. 34.

* See Sect. 33 of this Book.

And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, neither would he let the children of Israel go; as the Lord had spoken by Moses. Ex. ix 35.

Wherefore then do ye harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? whed he had wrought wonderfully among them; did they not let the people go, and they departed? 1 Sam. vi. 6.

PROVIDENCE DISTRIBUTIVE.

SECT. 42. INDISCRIMINATE.

THIS is one thing, therefore I said it, He destroyeth the perfect, and the wicked. ix. 22.

If the scourge slay suddenly, he will laugh at the trial of the innocent. --23.

All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that prolongeth his life in his wickedness.

There is a vanity which is done upon the earth, that there be just men, unto whom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked: again, there be wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous. I said, that this also is vanity. — viii. 14.

For all this I considered in my heart, even to declare all this, that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them. — ix. 1.

All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good, and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not; as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath

This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all; yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

I returned and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favor to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all. — — 11.

Son of man set thy face toward Jerusalem, and drop thy word toward the holy places, and ophesy against the land of Israel. Ezek i. 2.

Thou hast planted them; yea, they have taken root: they grow; yea, they bring forth fruit: thou art near in their mouth, and far and drop thy word toward the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel.

Lord, Behold, I am against thee, and will draw from their reins. — 2. forth my sword out of his sheath, and will cut

Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of his sheath against all flesh from the south to the north; -4.

That all flesh may know that I the Lord have drawn forth my sword out of his sheath, it shall not return any more. — 5.

43. WICKED INCREASE IN WEALTH.

The earth is given into the hand of the wicked: he covereth the faces of the judges thereof; if not, where, and who is he? Job ix. 24.

The tabernacles of robbers prosper, and they that provoke God are secure; into whose hand God bringeth abundantly. — xii. 6.

They spend their days in wealth, and in a moment go down to the grave. — xxi. 13.

Yet he filled their houses with good things: but the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

They are not in trouble as other men; neither are they plagued like other men: Ps. lxxiii. 5.

Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain; violence covereth them as a garment.

Their eyes stand out with fatness: they have more than heart could wish. - 7.

Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world; they increase in riches.

44. OFFENCE (TAKEN.)

Even when I remember I am afraid, and trembling taketh hold on my flesh. Job xxi. 6.

Wherefore do the wicked live, become old, yea, are mighty in power? — 7.

Their seed is established in their sight with them, and their offspring before their eyes.

Their houses are safe from fear, neither is the rod of God upon them. — 9,

Men groan from out of the city, and the soul of the wounded crieth out; yet God layeth not folly to them. — xxiv. 12.

But as for me, my feet were almost gone, my steps had well-nigh slipped. Ps. lxxiii. 2.

For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked:

For there are no bands in their death; but their strength is firm. — 4.

Verily I have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocency. — — 13.

For all the day long have I been plagued, and offend against the generation of thy children.

Righteous art thou, O Lord, when I plead with thee; yet let me talk with thee of thy judgments: Wherefore doth the way of the wicked

Why dost thou shew me iniquity, and cause off from thee the righteous and the wicked. 3. me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me: and there are that raise up strife and contention. Hab. i. 3.

Therefore the law is slacked, and judgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore wrong judgment proceedeth. —— 4.

Wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he? —— 13.

Shall they, therefore, empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations? ———17.

Ye have wearied the Lord with your words: yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doth evil is good in the sight of the Lord, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment? Mal. ii. 17.

And now we call the proud happy: yea, they that work wickedness are set up: yea, they that tempt God are even delivered. — iii. 15.

45. PROSPERITY OF THE WICKED IS BUT SHORT.

I have seen the foolish taking root: but suddenly I cursed his habitation. Job v. 3.

He draweth also the nighty with his power: he riseth up, and no man is sure of life. — xxiv. 22.

Though it be given him to be in safety whereon he resteth, yet his eyes are upon their ways.

— 23.

They are exalted for a little while, but are gone and brought low; they are taken out of the way as all other, and cut off as the tops of the ears of corn. — 24.

Wait on the Lord, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land; when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see  $\dot{u}$ . Ps.

I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like a green bay-tree. — 35.

When I thought to know this, it was too painful for me. — lxxiii. 16.

Until I went into the sanctuary of God; then understood I their end. —— 17.

How are they brought into desolation as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors. — — 19.

As a dream when one awaketh; so, O Lord, when thou awakest thou shalt despise their image. — 20.

A brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this. — xcii. 6.

When the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; it is that they shall be destroyed for ever. — 7.

Though a sinner do evil a hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him. Ec. viii. 12.

46. CHANGES IN LIFE.

Oh, that I were as in months past, as in the days when God preserved me; Job xxix. 2.

When his candle shined upon my head, and when by his light I walked through darkress.

As I was in the days of my youth, when the secret of God was upon my tabernacle. — 4.

But now they that are younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flock. — xxx. 1.

The bows of the mighty men are broken, and they that stumbled are girded with strength. 1 Sam. ii. 4.

And in my prosperity I said, I shall never be moved. Ps. xxx. 6.

Lord, by thy favor thou hast made my mountain to stand strong: thou didst hide thy face, and I was troubled. — — 7.

I will sing of mercy and judgment: unto thee, O Lord will I sing. — ci. 1.

Because of thine indignation and thy wrath: for thou hast lifted me up, and cast me down.
— cii. 10.

He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree. Luke i. 52.

He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath sent empty away. — 53.

47. TO BE EXPECTED.

For he maketh sore, and bindeth up: he woundeth, and his hands make whole. Job v. 18.

He shall break in pieces mighty men without number, and set others in their stead. — xxxiv. 24.

The Lord killeth, and maketh alive: he bringeth down to the grave, and bringeth up. 1 Sam. ii. 6

The Lord maketh poor, and maketh rich: he bringeth low, and lifteth up. — 7.

Thou, which hast shewed me great and sore troubles, shalt quicken me again, and shalt bring me up again from the depths of the earth. Ps. lxxi. 20.

Thou shalt increase my greatness, and comfort me on every side. — — 21.

And the Lord shall smite Egypt; he shall smite and heal it: and they shall return even to the Lord, and he shall be entreated of them, and shall heal them. Is. xix. 22.

I spake unto thee in thy prosperity; but thou saidst, I will not hear: this hath been thy manner from thy youth, that thou obeyedst not my voice. Jer. xxii. 21.

The wind shall eat up all thy pastors, and thy lovers shall go into captivity: surely then shalt thou be ashamed and confounded for all thy - 22. wickedness.

Thus saith the Lord God, When the whole earth rejoiceth, I will make thee desolate. Ezek. xxxv. 14.

As thou didst rejoice at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do unto thee: thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Idumea, even all of it; and they shall know that I am the Lord. —— 15.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. John xvi. 20.

48. EXALTATION.

Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase. Job viii. 7.

He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth up the beggar from the dunghill, to set them among princes, and to make them inherit the throne of glory: for the pillars of the earth are the Lord's, and he hath set the world upon them. 1 Sam. ii. 8.

He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth the needy out of the dunghill;

That he may set him with princes, even with the princes of his people. — — 8.

49. INFERENCES THEREFROM.

And Samuel said, When thou wast little in thine own sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel, and the Lord anointed thee king over Israel? 1 Sam. xv. 17.

Now, therefore, so shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, I took thee from the sheep-cote, from following the sheep, to be ruler over my people, over Israel: 2 Sam. vii. 8.

And I was with thee whithersoever thou wentest, and have cut off all thine enemies out of thy sight, and have made thee a great name, like unto the name of the great men that are in the earth. — — 9.

Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I anointed thee king over Israel, and I delivered thee out of the hand of Saul; — xii. 7.

And I gave thee thy master s house, and thy master's wives into thy bosom, and gave thee the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that had been too little, I would moreover have given unto thee such and such things.

Now, therefore, thus shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, I took thee from the sheep-cote, even from following the sheep, that thou shouldest be ruler over from thy state shall be pull thee down my people. 1 Chron. xvii. 7.

And I have been with thee whithersoever thou hast walked, and have cut off all thine enemies from before thee, and have made thee a name like the name of the great men that are in the the crown from my head. Job xix. 9.

Again they are minished, and brought low through oppression, affliction and sorrow.

Moab hath been at ease from his youth, and he hath settled on his lees, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remained in him, and his scent is not changed. xlviii. 11.

Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will send unto him wanderers that shall cause him to wander, and shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles. — — 12.

51. A LESSON ON.

They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms. Is. xiv. 16.

That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; that opened not the house of his prisoners?

Thus saith the Lord God of hosts, Go, get thee unto this treasurer, even unto Shebna, which is over the house, and say,

What hast thou here? and whom hast thou here, that thou hast hewed thee out a sepulchre here, as he that heweth him out a sepul-chre on high, and that graveth an habitation for himself in a rock? — — 16.

Behold, the Lord will carry thee away with a mighty captivity, and will surely cover thee. - 17.

He will surely violently turn and toss thee like a ball into a large country: there shalt thou die, and there the chariots of thy glory shall be the shame of thy lord's house. — — 18.

And I will drive thee from thy station, and #### 52. REFLECTIONS ON.

PROVIDENCES AFFLICTIVE.

SECT. 53. AFFLICTION TO BE EXPECTED.

ALTHOUGH affliction cometh not forth of the dust, neither doth trouble spring out of the ground. Job v. 6.

Yet man is born unto trouble, as the sparks fly upward. --- 7.

In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him. Ec. vii. 14.

The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hasteth fast. Jer. xlviii. 16.

If his children forsake my law, and walk not in my judgments. Ps. lxxxix. 30.

If they break my statutes, and keep not my commandments; — — 31.

Then will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes. — 32.

Nevertheless, my loving-kindness will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness to fail. — — 33.

I know, O Lord, that thy judgments are right, and that thou in faithfulness hast afflicted — cxix. 75.

For whom the Lord leveth he correcteth, even as a father the son in whom he delighteth. Prov. iii. 12.

55. ADVICE TO THE AFFLICTED.

For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth. 6.

If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not? — 7.

But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

SECT. 41. DIVINE ORIGIN.

AND the Lord spake by his servants the prophets, saying. 2 Kings xxi. 10.

I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy loving-kindness, and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name. Ps. cxxxviii. 2

What! came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only? 1 Cor. xiv. 36.

If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord. — 37.

For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because when ye received the word of God, which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but (as it is in truth) the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you 1 Thess. ii. 13. that believe.

Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation. 2 Pet. i. 20.

For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man; but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. -

42. LIGHT.

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path. Ps. exix. 105.

For the commandment is a lamp: and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life; Prov. vi. 23.

Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good. Rom. vii. 12.

44. VERACITY.

As for God, his way is perfect; the word of the Lord is tried; he is a buckler to all them that trust in him. 2 Sam. xxii. 31.

The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether. Ps. xix. 9.

Therefore I esteem all thy precepts concerning all things to be right; and I hate every false way. cxix. 128.

Thy testimonies that thou hast commanded are righteous and very faithful. — 138.

45. POWER.

My doctrine shall drop as the rain, my speech shall distil as the dew; as the small rain upon the tender herb, and as the showers upon the grass. Deut. xxxii. 2

The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple. Ps. xix. 7.

I have seen an end of all perfection: but thy commandment is exceeding broad. — cxix. 96.

For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bread to the eater; Is. lv. 10.

So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void; but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

Is not my word like as a fire, saith the Lord. and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces. Jer. xxiii. 29.

That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters. – x. 9.

For his letters (say they) are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible. - --- 10.

Let such a one think this, that such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also indeed when we are present.

For the word of God is quick and powerful, and sharper than any two edged-sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Heb. iv. 12.

46. DURATION.

So these things shall be as a statute of judgment unto you, throughout your generations, in all your dwellings. Num. xxxv. 29.

SECT. 1. INTRODUCTORY DIALOGUE.

NOW the serpent was more subtile than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden? Gen. iii. 1.

And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden:

__ _ 2

And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die: — 4.

For God doth know, that in the day ye eat thereof then your eyes shall be opened; and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.

— 5.

2. FORBIDDEN FRUIT EATEN.

And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat; and gave also unto her husband with her, and he did eat. Gen. iii. 6.

3. IMMEDIATE EFFECTS THEREOF.

And they heard the voice of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day; and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden. Gen. iii. 8.

And the Lord God called unto Adam, and said unto him, Where art thou? —— 9.

And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden,

And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself. —— 10.

And the man said, The woman, whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat. — — 12.

And the Lord God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done: And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat. —— 13.

4. DEATH INTRODUCED.

Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned; Rom, v. 12.

For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law. — 13.

5. ALLUSIONS TO THE FALL.

If I covered my transgressions as Adam by hiding mine iniquity in my bosom: Job xxxi. 33.

Lo, this only have I found, that God 1 ath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions. Ec. vii. 29.

that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in | imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth: thee. Ezek. xxviii. 15.

But they, like men, have transgressed the covenant, there have they dealt treacherously against me. Hos. vi. 7.

But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. 2 Cor. xi. 3.

6. HEREDITARY CORRUPTION.

Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one. Job xiv. 4.

What is man, that he should be clean? and he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous? — xv. 14.

Behold he putteth no trust in his saints; yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight; — 15.

How much more abominable and filthy is man, which drinketh iniquity like water; -

How then can man be justified with God? or how can he be clean that is born of a woman?

Behold, even to the moon, and it shineth not; yea, the stars are not pure in his sight: -

How much less man that is a worm, and the son of man which is a worm? — 6.

Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me. Ps. li. 5.

Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart: Eph. iv. 18.

8. EARLY MANIFESTATIONS OF SIN.

And the Lord smelled a sweet savour; and the Lord said in his heart, I will not again curse neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done. Gen. viii. 21.

The wicked are estranged from the womb; they go astray as soon as they be born, speaking lies. Ps. lviii. 3.

Yea, thou heardest not; yea, thou knowest not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldest deal very treacherously, and wast called a transgressor from the womb. Is. xlviii. 8.

9. HARDNESS OF HEART.

Remember, and forget not, how thou provokedst the Lord thy God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came unto this place ye have been rebellious against the Lord. Deut. ix. 7.

Also in Horeb ye provoked the Lord to wrath, so that the Lord was angry with you to have destroyed you. — — 8.

Furthermore, the Lord spake unto me, saying, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people. —— 13.

And at Taberah, and at Massah, and at Kibroth-hattaavah, ye provoked the Lord to wrath.

Likewise, when the Lord sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you; then ye rebelled against the commandment of the Lord your God, and ye believed him not, nor hearkened to his voice. - -- 23.

Ye have been rebellious against the Lord from the day that I knew you. Dcut. ix. 24.

Because I knew that thou art obstinate, and thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass; Is. xlviii, 4.

Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the Lord; that ye might provoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt. Jer.

And I will punish him, and his seed, and his servants, for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them; but they hearkened not. — xxxvi. 31.

And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellous nation that hath rebelled against me, they and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day. Ezek. ii. 3.

For they are impudent children, and stiffhearted: I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God.

And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet shall know that there hath been a prophet among them. -- 5.

But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; for they will not hearken unto me: for all the house of Israel are impudent and hard-hearted. — iii. 7.

Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of a the ground any more for man's sake; for the rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: for | wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. they are a rebellious house. Ezek xii. 2.

But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people. Rom. x. 21.

10. INSUFFICIENCY OF MEANS.

O Lord, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved: thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock: they have refused to return. Jer. v. 3.

But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, nor receive instruction. — xvii. 23.

Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Go and tell the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not receive in-struction to hearken to my words? saith the Lord. — xxxv. 13.

The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, rising early, and speaking; but ye hearkened not unto

And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law; yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man do, he shall live in them,) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear. Neh. ix. 29.

But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear. Zech. vii. 11.

Yea, they made their hearts as an adamantstone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the Lord of hosts hath sent in his Spirit by the former prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the Lord of hosts. --12.

11. DEPRAVITY INCAPABLE OF GOOD.

Because the carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. Rom. viii. 7.

So then, they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God; for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. 1 Cor. ii. 14.

For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other; so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. Gal. v. 17.

12. HUMAN DEPRAVITY DISCOVERED BY THE LAW.

Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law; for sin is the transgression of the law. 1 John iii. 4.

What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet. Rom. vii. 7.

For without the law sin was dead. — -

For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and - -- 9.

And the commandment which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death. — — 10.

For sin taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me. — 11.

Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by commandment might become exceeding sinful. -- - 13.

13. PROVED BY UNIVERSAL EXPERIENCE.

The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence. Gen. vi. 11.

And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt: for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth. - 12.

They are corrupt; they have done abominable works; there is none that doeth good. Ps.

They are all gone aside; they are all together become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no, not one. — — 3.

Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity: there is none that doeth good. - liii. 1.

God looked down from heaven upon the children of men. to see if there were any that did understand, hat did seek God. — 2.

Every one of them is gone back; they are altogether become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no, not one. - 3.

For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness. Is. lix. 3.

None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.

Wherefore will ye plead with me? ye all have transgressed against me, saith the Lord. Jer.

The good man is perished out of the earth; and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net. Micah vii. 2.

The best of them is as a brier, the most upright is sharper than a thorn-hedge; the day of thy watchmen and thy visitation cometh: now shall be their perplexity. --4.

What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin; Rom. iii. 9.

As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one: — 10.

There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God. — — 11.

They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, doeth good, no, not one. — 12.

There is no fear of God before their eyes. Rom. iii. 18.

Now we know, that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law; that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. — 20.

For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. Titus iii. 3.

BY WILFULNESS IN SIN.

And they sinned yet more against him, by provoking the Most High in the wilderness. Ps. lxxviii. 17.

To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear. Is. xxviii.

Also I set watchmen over you, saying, Hearken to the sound of the trumpet: but they said, We will not hearken. — — 17.

But this thing commanded I them, saying, Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people; and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you. — vii. 23.

But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but walked in the counsels and in the imagination of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward. — 21.

Then all the men which knew that their wives had burnt incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying. - xliv.

As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the Lord, we will not hearken unto thee. — — 16.

15. BY PLENTY OF BAD FRUITS.

Is not thy wickedness great? and thine ini-quities infinite? Job xxii. 5.

For there is no faithfulness in their mouth, their inward part is very wickedness: their throat is an open sepulchre; they flatter with their tongue. Ps. v. 9.

Day and night they go about it upon the wall thereof; mischief also and sorrow are in the midst of it. — lv. 10.

Wickedness is in the midst thereof; deceit and guilt depart not from her streets. — — 11.

These six things doth the Lord hate; yea, seven are an abomination unto him:

A proud look, a lying tongue and hands that shed innocent blood, — — 17.

A false witness that speaketh lies, and him that soweth discord among brethren.

Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood; their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity, wasting and destruction are in their paths. Is. lix. 7.

The way of peace they know not; and there is no judgment in their goings: they have made them crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace. —— 8.

Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense upon Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not. Jer. vii. 9.

And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations? ——10.

Hear the word of the Lord, ye children of Israel: for the Lord hath a controversy with the -inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God, in the land. Hos. iv. 1.

By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and blood toucheth blood. --2.

Therefore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient: Rom. i. 28.

Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers, — 29.

Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, — — 30.

Without understanding, covenant-breakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful: — — 31.

Who knowing the judgment of God, (that they which commit such things are worthy of death,) not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them. — 32.

Their feet are swift to shed blood. — iii. 15. Destruction and misery are in their ways. -

And the way of peace have they not known:

Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, 1 Cor. vi. 9.

Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. — — 10.

Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, Gal. v. 19.

Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies. — 20.

Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings A heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, and such like; of the which I tell you before feet that be swift in running to mischief, - 18. as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the king-dom of God. Gal. v. 21.

Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers. 1 Tim. i. 9.

For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for men-stealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine; — 10.

16. BY SINNING WITHOUT REMORSE.

Woe unto them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart-rope: Is. v. 18.

That say, Let him make speed, and hasten his work that we may see it; and let the counsel of the holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it! —— 19.

Will he reserve his anger for ever, will he keep it to the end? Behold, thou hast spoken and done evil things as thou couldest. Jer. iii. 5.

Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among them that fall; in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, saith the Lord. — viii. 12.

Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger; and, lo, they put the branch to their nose. Ezek. viii. 17.

Neither hath Samaria committed half of thy sins; but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they, and hast justified thy sisters in all thine abominations which thou hast done. — xvi. 51.

Thou also, which hast judged thy sisters, bear thine own shame for thy sins that thou hast committed more abominable than they; they are more righteous than thou; yea, be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame, in that thou hast justified thy sisters. —— 52.

17. CAUTIONS.

Now, be ye not stiff-necked, as your fathers were, but yield yourselves unto the Lord, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever; and serve the Lord your God, that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you. 2 Chron. xxx. 8.

Harden not your heart, as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness; Ps. xcv. 8.

And the Lord said unto Moses, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiff-necked people. Ex. xxxii. 9.

Now therefore let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and I will make of thee a great nation. —— 10.

And if ye will not be reformed by me by these things, but will walk contrary unto me; Lev. xxvi. 23.

19. CONTINUATION OF SIN IN THE WORLD.

This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. 2 Tim. iii. 1.

For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, --2.

Without natural affection, truce-breakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

Traitors, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God. — 4.

20. ST. PAUL'S DESCRIPTION OF DEPRAVITY.

For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin. Rom. vii. 14.

For that which I do I allow not: for what I would that do I not; but what I hate, that do I. -- -- 15.

If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good. --16.

Now then, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. — 17.

I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then, with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the fiesh the law of sin.

For I fear, lest when I come I shall not find you such as I would, and that I should be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults. 2 Cor. xii. 20.

21. HIS COMPLAINT THEREON.

For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me: but how to perform that which is good I find not. Rom. vii. 18.

For the good that I would, I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do. - 19.

Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. — 20.

I find then a law, that when I would do good, evil is present with me. --21.

For I delight in the law of God after the inward man. —— 22.

But I see another law in my members warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin, which is in my members. - 23.

O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death? — 24. CHAP. II.

And when I passed by thee, and saw thee poluted in thine own blood, I said unto thee, when thou wast in thy blood, Live; yea, I said unto thee, when thou wast in thy blood, Live. Ezek. xvi. 6.

What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin that grace may abound? Rom. vi. 1.

Christ down from above;) — 6.

Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead:)

But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart; that is, the word of faith, which we preach. — — 8.

But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. Phil. iii. 7.

37. INFERENCES FROM THE DOCTRINE OF FAITH.

Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect. — iv. 14.

Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed: not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all, — — 16.

(As it is written, I have made thee a father of inany nations,) before him whom he believed, voice: for they will say, The even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth appeared unto thee. Ex. iv. 1.

(For we walk by faith, not by sight.) 2 Cor. 7.

For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. Gal. v. 5.

39. INSTANCES OF UNBELIEF.

And Moses answered and said, But, behold, they will not believe me, nor hearken unto my voice: for they will say, The Lord hath not Lord left his servants and his cattle in the field. Ex. ix. 21.

And Moses said, The people, among whom I am, are six hundred thousand footmen: and thou hast said, I will give them flesh, that they may eat a whole month. Num. xi. 21.

Shall the flocks and the herds be slain for them, to suffice them? or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them to suffice them? - 22.

40. PENALTY OF UNBELIEF.

And the Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron, Because ye believed me not, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them. Num. xx. 12.

Therefore the Lord heard this, and was wroth; so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel. Ps.

lxxviii. 21.

And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not? Heb. iii. 18.

So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief: - 19.

Seeing, therefore, it remainsth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief: — iv. 6.

41. NECESSITY OF GOOD WORKS.

And it shall be our rightcourness, if we observe to do all these commandments before the Lord our God, as he hath commanded us. Deut. vi. 25.

For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory, but not before God. -

Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. — 4.

Know ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work. – xi. 6.

For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse; for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. Gal. iii. 10.

But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. -- 11.

And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them.

Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law. ---

Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law? - iv. 21.

For it is written, that Abraham had two sons; the one by a bond-maid, the other by a free wo-

But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are: depart from me, all ye workers

SECT. 55. DIVINE KNOWLEDGE.

O HOUSE of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the Lord. Is. ii. 5.

Israel shall cry unto me, My God, we know thee. Hos. viii. 2.

Nicodemus answered, and said unto him, How can these things be? John iii. 9.

Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel and knowest not these things?

Verily, verily, I say unto thee, we speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness. — — 11.

If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe it I tell you of heavenly things? - 12.

The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us, therefore, cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light.

Let us walk honestly as in the day, not in rioting and drunkenness, not in cnambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying: - 13.

And I myself also am persuaded of you, my orethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admenish one - xv. 14. another.

Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me of God.  — — 15.

I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say.

The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints. Eph. i. 18.

And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power. — — 19.

Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth. 2 Peter i. 12.

56. INCREASE OF GRACE.

The righteous also shall hold on his way, and he that hath clean hands shall be stronger and stronger. Job xvii. 9.

The Lord will perfect that which concerneth me; thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever: forsake not the works of thine own hands. Ps. cxxxviii. 8.

But the path of the just is as a shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

After two days will he revive us; in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his night. Hos. vi. 2.

Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the Lord: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

Herein is my Father glorified that we bear much fruit: so shall ye be my disciples.

But we all with open face, beholding, as in a glass, the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord. 2 Cor. iii. 18.

And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge, and in all judgment; Philip. i. 9.

Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ unto the glory and praise of God. — — 11.

Let us, therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded; and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you. — iii. 15.

Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

Furthermore then, we beseech you brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk, and to please God, so ye would abound more and more. 1 Thess. iv. 1.

We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth: 2 Thess. i. 3.

And besides this, giving all diligence, add to your faith, virtue; and to virtue, knowledge; 2 Peter i. 5.

And to knowledge, temperance; and to temperance, patience; and to patience, godliness;

And to godliness, brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness, charity. -- 7.

For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

57. PERFECTION. (RULE.)

And when Abram was ninety years old and nine, the Lord appeared to Abram, and said unto him, I am the Almighty God: walk before me, and be thou perfect. Gen. xvii. 1.

For we are glad when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even your perfection. 2 Cor. xiii. 9.

Finally, brethren, farewell: be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.

That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere, and without offence, till the day of Christ. Phil. i. 10.

That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world; — ii. 15.

Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus; Col.

And these things give in charge, that they ay be blameless. 1 Tim. v. 7.

Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God, vi. 1.

Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. - - 2.

And this will we do, if God permit. — — 3. Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless: 2 Pet. iii. 14.

PERSEVERANCE AND BACKSLIDING.

SECT. 105. COMMANDS TO PERSEVERE.

ONLY take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life; but teach them thy sons, and thy sons' sons; Deut. iv. 9.

Specially the day that thou stoodest before the Lord thy God in Horeb, when the Lord said unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children. — — 10.

EXHORTED TO MUTUAL EDIFYING.

Let us not, therefore, judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling block, or an occasion to fall, in his brother's way. Rom. xiv. 13.

But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat for whom Christ died.

For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. - 17.

For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God and approved of men. - 18,

Let us, therefore, follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another. - --- 19.

Now, the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like-minded one toward another, according to Christ Jesus; Rom. xv. 5.

Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christalso received us. to the glory of God. ——7.

Endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. Eph. iv. 3.

SECT. 37. REMARKS ON PARABLES.

I WILL incline mine ear to a parable; I will open my dark saying upon the harp. Ps. xlix. 4. I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings of old; - lxxviii. 2.

The legs of the lame are not equal: so is a parable in the mouth of fools. Prov. xxvi. 7.

As a thorn goeth up into the hand of a drunkard; so is a parable in the mouth of fools. - 9.

Then said I, Ah, Lord God! they say of me, Doth he not speak parables? Ezek. xx. 49.

I have also spoken by the prophets; and I have multiplied visions, and used similitudes, by the ministry of the prophets. Hos. xii. 10.

ROYAL BRAMBLE.

The trees went forth on a time to anoint a king over them; and they said unto the olive tree, Reign thou over us. Judges ix. 8.

But the olive-tree said unto them, Should I leave my fatness, wherewith by me they honor God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees? — 9.

And the trees said to the fig-tree, Come thou, and reign over us. — — 10.

But the fig-tree said unto them, Should I forsake my sweetness, and my good fruit, and go to be promoted over the trees? ——11.
Then said the trees unto the vine, Come thou.

and reign over us. - 12.

And the vine said unto them, Should I leave my wine, which cheereth God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees? --13.

Then said all the trees unto the bramble, Come truth ye anoint me king over you, then come and put your trust in my shadow; and if not, let fire come out of the bramble, and devour the cedars of Lebanon. — — 15.

39. EWE LAMB.

And the Lord sent Nathan unto David: and he came unto him, and said unto him, There were two men in the one city; the one rich, the other poor, 2 Sam. xii. 1.

The rich man had exceeding many flocks and

But the poor man had nothing save one little ewe-lamb, which he had bought, and nourished up; and it grew up together with him, and with his children: it did eat of his own meat, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was unto him as a daughter. — — 3.

And there came a traveller unto the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock, and of his own herd, to dress for the way faring man that was come unto him; but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man that was come to him.

And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, As the Lord liveth, the man that hath done this thing shall surely die. — — 5.

And he shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no

And Nathan said to David, Thou art the man. - -- 7.

40. QUARRELSOME BROTHERS.

And come to the king, and speak on this manner unto him. So Joab put the words in her mouth. 2 Sam. xiv. 3.

And when the woman Tekoah spake to the king she fell on her face to the ground, and did obeisance and said, Help, O King! — 4.

And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, I am indeed a widow woman, and mine husband is dead. — 5.

And thy handmaid had two sons, and they two strove together in the field, and there was none to part them, but the one smote the other, and slew him. — 6.

And, behold, the whole family is risen against thine handmaid; and they said, Deliver him that smote his brother, that we may kill him, for the

And the woman of Tekoah said unto the king, My lord, O king, the iniquity be on me, and on my father's house; and the king and his throne be guiltless. — — 9.

And the king said, Whosoever saith ought unto thee, bring him to me, and he shall not touch thee any more. — — 10.

Then said she I pray thee, let the king remember the Lord thy God, that thou wouldest not suffer the revengers of blood to destroy any more, lest they destroy my son. And he said, As the Lord liveth, there shall not one hair of thy son fall to the earth. — —11.

Then the woman said, Let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak one word unto my lord the king. And he said, Say on. —— 12.

And the woman said, Wherefore then hast thou thought such a thing against the people of God? for the king doth speak this thing as one which is faulty, in that the king doth not fetch home again his banished. --13.

For we must needs die, and are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again: neither doth God respect any person; yet doth he devise means, that his banished be not expelled from him.

Now, therefore, that I am come to speak of this thing unto my lord the king, it is because the people have made me afraid: and thy handmaid said, I will now speak unto the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his handmaid. — - 15.

For the king will hear, to deliver his handmaid out of the hand of the men that would destroy me and my son together out of the inher-— 16. itance of God.

Then thine handmaid said, The word of my lord the king shall now be comfortable: for as an angel of God, so is my lord the king to discern good and bad; therefore the Lord thy God will be with thee. — — 17.

Then the king answered and said unto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall ask thee. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak. — — 18.

And the king said, Is not the hand of Joab with thee in all this? And the woman answered and said, As thy soul liveth, my lord the king, none can turn to the right hand or to the left from ought that my Lord the king hath spoken: for thy servant Joab he bade me, and he put all these words in the mouth of thine handmaid. --- 19.

To fetch about this form of speech hath thy servant Joab done this thing; and my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth.

41. AMBITIOUS THISTLE.

And Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Ama-non, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle. 2 Kings

42. FRUITLESS VINEYARD.

Now will I sing to my well-beloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard. My wellbeloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill: Is. v. 1.

And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a wine-press therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes. — — 2.

And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard. — — 3.

What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes? — — 4.

And now, go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down.

And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned nor digged; but there shall come up briars and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

43. RED-WINE VINEYARD.

In that day sing ye unto her, A vineyard of red wine. Is. xxvii. 2.

I the Lord do keep it; I will water it every moment; lest any hurt it, I will keep it night and day.

44. EAGLES AND VINE-TREE.

And say, Thus saith the Lord God, a great eagle with great wings, long winged full of fea-thers, which had diverse colors, came unto Lebanon, and took the highest branch of the cedar: Ezek. xvii. 3.

He cropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of traffic; he set it in a city of merchants. — — 4.

He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful field; he placed it by great waters, and set it as a willow-tree;

And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him, so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs. — — 6.

There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers; and, behold, this vine did bend her roots toward him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation. --7.

It was planted in a good soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.

45. LIONESS.

Moreover, take thou up a lamentation for the princes of Israel, Ezek. xix. 1.

And say, What is thy mother? A lioness; she lay down among lions, and nourished her whelps among young lions. —— 2.

And she brought up one of her whelps: it became a young lion, and it learned to catch the prey: it devoured men. — — 3.

The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit and they brought him with chains unto the land of Egypt. — — 4.

Now, when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her whelps, and made him a young lion. — — 5.

And he went up and down among the lions, and became a young lion and learned to catch the prey, and devoured men. — — 6.

And he knew their desolate palaces, and he laid waste their cities; and the land was desolate, and the fullness thereof, by the noise of his roaring. — 7

Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces, and spread their net over him: he was taken in their pit. — — 8.

over him: he was taken in their pit. —— 8.

And they put him in ward in chains, and brought him to the king of Bubylon; they brought him into holds, that his voice should not more be heard upon the mountains of Israel.

46. CHRIST'S PARABLES.

All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them: Mat. xiii. 34.

That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

And it came to pass, that, when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence. — 53.

And he taught them many things by parables, and said unto them in his doctrine. Mar. iv. 2.

And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it.

— 33.

But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone he expounded all things to his disciples. — — 34.

And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable. Luke. viii. 4.

And he spake this parable unto them, saying. xv. 3.

And as they heard these things he added, and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear. — xix. 11.

47. THE TWO FOUNDATIONS.

Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:

Mat. vii. 24.

And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon the house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.

— — 25.

And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it. — 27.

48. TARES.

Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field: Mat. xiii. 24.

But while men slept his enemy came, and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

— 25.

But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

— 26.

So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares? — 27.

He said unto them, an enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? — 28.

But he said, Nay; lest, while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

— 29.

Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them; but gather the wheat into my barn. — — 30.

49. MUSTARD-SEED.

Another parable he put forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard-seed, which a man took and sowed in his field. Mat. xiii. 31.

Which indeed is the least of all seeds; but when it is grown it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree; so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof. — 32.

50. LEAVEN.

Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdon of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened. Mat. xiii. 33.

51. TREASURE FOUND.

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found he hideth, and for joy thereof, goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field. Mat. xiii. 44.

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchantman seeking goodly pearls: — — 45. Who when he had found one pearl of great

Who when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it. — — 46.

52. FISHING.

Again the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind: Mat. xiii. 47.

, Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away. ----

53. DEBTORS AND CREDITOR.

Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants. Mat. xviii. 23.

And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him which owed him ten thousand talents: - 24.

But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, and payment to be

The servant, therefore, fell down and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. — 26.

Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him -- 27. the debt,

But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, which owed him a hundred pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest. - - 28.

And his fellow-servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. —— 29.

And he would not; but went and cast him into prison till he should pay the debt.

So when his fellow-servants saw what was done they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done. — — 31.

Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me:

Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow servant, even as I had pity on thee?

And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him. — — 34.

54. DAY-LABORERS.

For the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a householder, which went out early in the morning to hire laborers into his vineyard. Mat. xx. 1.

And when he had agreed with the laborers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard. ____ 2.

And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the market-place,

And said unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way. ---4.

Again, he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise. --5.

And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard: and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive. — — 7.

So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the laborers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first. —— 8.

And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a

But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny. — 10.

And when they had received it they murmured against the good man of the house, - - - 11.

Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day. - 12.

But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny? — — 13.

Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last even as unto thee. - 14.

Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? is thine eye evil because I am good?

55. THE TWO SONS.

But what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to-day in my vineyard. Mat. xxi. 28.

He answered and said, I will not; but afterward he repented, and went. — 29.

And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir; and went not. — — 30.

Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you. --31.

56. NUPTIAL ENTERTAINMENTS.

And Jesus answered, and spake unto them again by parables, and said, Mat. xxii. 1.

The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son, - 2.

And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come. — 3.

Again he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the

But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise: -

And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them. —— 6.
But when the king heard thereof he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burnt up their city.

Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy. Mat. xxii. 8.

Go ye, therefore, into the highways, and, as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests. --- 10.

And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding-garment: -- 11.

And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding-garment?

And he was speechless. Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into utter darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

57. TEN VIRGINS.

Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom. xxv. 1.

And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them: — 3.

But the wise took oil in their vessels with their

While the bridegroom tarried they all slum-bered and slept.

And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet

Then all these virgins arose, and trimmed their

And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.

But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. - --- 9.

And while they went to buy the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut. - 10.

Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us. —— 11.

But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not. — — 12.

58. TALENTS.

For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods. Mat. xxv. 14.

And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability, and straightway took his journey. ---- 15.

Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them | Mar. iv. 26. other five talents. — — 16.

And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two. — — 17.

But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money. — 18.

After a long time the lord of those servants cometh and reckoneth with them. - 19.

And so he that had received five talents came, and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained besides them five talents more. — 20.

His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things, enter thou into the joy of thy lord

He also that had received two talents came, and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents besides them. — 22.

His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things: I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

Then he which had received the one talent came, and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown. and gathering where thou hast not strawed; - 24.

And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, Thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed;

Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury. - — 27.

59. sower.

Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow. Mar. iv. 3.

And it came to pass as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up. — — 4.

And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth. --

But when the sun was up it was scorched; and, because it had no root, it withered away.

And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up, and increased, and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some a hundred. — — 8.

the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how. Mar. iv. 27.

For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear. — 28.

But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

61. HUSBANDMEN.

And he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and digged a place for the wine fat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country. xii. 1.

And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty. — — 3.

And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully _ __ 4.

And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and kill-

Having yet, therefore, one son, his well-be-loved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son. -- 6.

But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours. — 7.

And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard. —— 8.

What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others. - 9.

62, BLIND GUIDE.

And he spake a parable unto them, Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch? Luke vi. 39.

63. MIDNIGHT VISITOR.

And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves; Luke xi. 5.

For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee. --- 7.

I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend; yet, because of his importunity, he will rise up and give him as many as he needeth.

64. UNCLEAN SPIRIT.

When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out. Luke xi. 24.

garnished. — — 25.

Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first.

65. RICH FOOL.

And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully: Luke xii. 16.

And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have not room where to bestow my fruits? — — 17.

And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods. — — 18.

And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

But God said unto him, Thou fool! this night thy soul shall be required of thee; then whose shall those things be which thou hast provided?

So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God. --21.

BARREN FIG-TREE.

He spake also this parable; a certain man had a fig-tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none. Luke xiii. 6.

Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig-tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground? — 7.

And he answering, said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and

And if it bear fruit, well; and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down. --9.

GREAT SUPPER.

Then said he unto him, a certain man made a great supper, and bade many: Luke xiv. 16.

And sent his servant at supper-time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things · — 17. are now ready.

And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused. -

And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused. —— 19.

And another said, I have married a wife; and therefore I cannot come. — 20.

So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind. - 21.

And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room. — 22.

And the Lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. —23

For I say unto you, That none of those men And when he cometh he findeth it swept and which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

68. LOST SHEÉP.

What man of you, having a hundred sheep, If he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it. Luke xv. 4.

And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

And when he cometh home he calleth together his friends and neighbors, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost. — — 6.

69. LOST MONEY.

Either what woman, having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it? Luke xv. 8.

And when she had found it she calleth her friends and her neighbors together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost.

70. PRODIGAL SON.

And he said, A certain man had two sons: Luke xv. 11.

And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that fall. eth to me. And he divided unto them his liv-- 12.

And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living. - 13.

And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want. — — 14.

And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat; and no man gave unto him. - 16.

And when he came to himself he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough, and to spare, and I perish with hunger! - 17.

I will arise, and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against Heaven, and before thee, — 18.

And am no more worthy to be called thy son:

make me as one of thy hired servants. — — 19.

And he arose, and came to his father. But, when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. - 20.

And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against Heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:

And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat and be merry: — — 23.

For this my son was dead, and is alive again: he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry: — — 24.

Now his elder son was in the field; and as he came, and drew nigh to the house, he heard music and dancing. ____ 25.

And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant. —— 26.

And he said unto him, Thy brother is come, and thy futher hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound. --27.

And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and entreated him.

And he answering, said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment; and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends: - 29.

But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.

And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine. - 31.

It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

71. UNJUST STEWARD.

And he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods. Luke xvi. 1.

And he called him, and said, unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward. --2.

Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do, for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship? I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed. — — 3.

I am resolved what to do, that when I am put out of my stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. — 4.

So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord? — 5.

And he said, A hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill and set down quickly, and write fifty? —— 6.

Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, A hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore. ---

And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

72. RICH AND POOR.

There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day: Luke xvi. 19.

And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate full of sores. -

And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover, the dogs came and licked his sores. - 21.

And it came to pass that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bo.

som: the rich man also died, and was buried;

And in hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. — 23.

And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me; and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.

But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things; but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. — 25.

And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us that would come from thence.

Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to thy father's - -- 27. house:

For I have five brethren: that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. — 28.

Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. — 29.

And he said, Nay, father Abraham; but if one went unto them from the dead they will re-

And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded though one rose from the dead. -

73. UNJUST JUDGE AND IMPORTUNATE WIDOW.

Saying, There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man: Luke

And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary. — — 3.

And he would not for a while; but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man; —— 4.

Yet, because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.

And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.

74. PHARISEE AND PUBLICAN.

And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others: Luke xviii. 9.

Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisce, and the other a publican.

The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. — 11.

I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess. — — 12.

And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner. _ __ 13.

I tell you, This man went down to his house shepherd of the sheep. — 2.

justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted. — 14.

75. TEN POUNDS.

He said, therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. Luke xix. 12.

And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come. — — 13.

But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us. - 14.

And it came to pass, that, when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading. — — 15.

Then came the first, saying, Lord, Thy pound

vant: because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities. — 17

And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds. — — 18.

And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities. — — 19.

And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin.

For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man, thou takest up that thou laidest not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.

And he saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow: — 22.

Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?

And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds:

76. VERNAL TREES.

And he spake to them a parable; Behold the fig tree, and all the trees; Luke xxi. 29.

When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at ---- 30.

So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand. —— 31.

Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away till all be fulfilled. — 32.

77. SHEPHERD.

The hireling fleeth, because he is a hireling, and careth not for the sheep. — — 13.

Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be. —— 10.

83. INDEX TO THE HEART.

For the vile person will speak villany, and his heart will work iniquity, to practice hypocrisy, and to utter error against the Lord, to make empty the soul of the hungry; and he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail. Is. xxxii. 6.

And these are the measures of the altar after the cubits: The cubit is a cubit and a handbreadth; even the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about shall be a span; and this shall be the higher place of the altar.

And from the bottom upon the ground, even to the lower settle, shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle, even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit. Ezek. xliii. 14.

And the children of Israel heard say, Behold, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, have built an altar over against the land of Canaan, in the borders of Jordan, at the passage of the children of Israel. — — 11.

Thus saith the whole congregation of the Lord, What trespass is this ye have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following the Lord, in that ye have builded you an altar, that ye might rebel this day against the Lord? — — 16.

Notwithstanding, if the land of your possession be unclean, then pass ye over unto the land of the possession of the Lord, wherein the Lord's tabernacle dwelleth, and take possession among us: but rebel not against the Lord, nor rebel against us, in building you an altar besides the altar of the Lord our God. —— 19.

Therefore we said, Let us now prepare to build us an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for

But that it may be a witness between us and you, and our generations after us, that we might do the service of the Lord before him with our burnt-offerings, and with our sacrifices, and with our peace-offerings; that your children may not say to our children in time to come, Ye have no part in the Lord. — 27.

Therefore said we, that it shall be, when they And the priest shall put on his linen garment, should so say to us, or to our generations in fathers made, not for burnt-offerings, nor for sacrifices; but it is a witness between us and you. Jos. xxii. 28.

The same day did the king hallow the middle of the court that was before the house of the Lord: for there he offered burnt-offerings, and meat-offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings; because the brasen altar that was before the Lord was too little to receive the burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and the fat of the peaceofferings. 1 Kings viii. 64.

Moreover, Solomon hallowed the middle of the court, that was before the house of the Lord: for there he offered burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings, because the brazen altar which Solomon had made, was not able to receive the burnt-offerings, and the meat-offerings, and the fat. 2 Chron. vii. 7.

And Solomon sent to Hiram, saying, 1 Kings

Thou knowest how that David my father could not build a house unto the name of the Lord his God for the wars which were about him on every side, until the Lord put them under the soles of his feet.

But now the Lord my God hath given me rest on every side, so that there is neither adversary nor evil occurrent. - 4.

And, behold, I purpose to build a house unto the name of the Lord my God, as the Lord spake unto David my father, saying, Thy son, whom I will set upon thy throne in thy room, he shall build a house unto my name.

And Solomon determined to build a house for the name of the Lord, and a house for his king-

Behold, I build a house to the name of the Lord my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him sweet incense, and for the continual shew-bread, and for the burnt-offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the newmoons, and on the solemn feasts of the Lord our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel. — 4.

39. FULFILLED.

So Solomon built the house, and finished it.

And the Lord hath performed his word that he spake; and I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the Lord promised, and have built a house for the name of the Lord God of Israel:

The Lord, therefore, hath performed his word that he hath spoken; for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and am set on the throne of Israel, as the Lord promised, and have built the house for the name of the Lord God | of Israel. 2 Chron. vi. 10.

89. CHAMBERS.

And against the wall of the house he built chambers round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and of the oracle; and he made chambers round about. 1 Kings vi. 5.

And then he built chambers against all the house, five cubits high: and they rested on the house with timber of cedar. — 10.

And the side-chambers were three, one over another, and thirty in order: and they entered into the wall which was of the house for the side-chambers round about, that they might have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house. Ezek. xli. 6.

And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors toward the north. — xlii. 4.

And from under these chambers was the entry on the east side, as one goeth into them from the outer court. ——9.

The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building. — — 10.

And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they; and all their goings out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.—

And there were many lights in the upper chamber where they were gathered together. Acts xx. 8.

90. CONSTRUCTION OF THE CHAMBERS.

The nethermost chamber was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad: for without in the wall of the house he made narrowed rests round, that the beams should not be fastened in the walls of the house. 1 Kings vi. 6.

And there was an enlarging, and a winding about still upward to the side chambers; for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the midst. Ezek. xli. 7.

Now the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries were higher than these, than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building. — xlii. 5.

For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground. —— 6.

And the wall that was without over against the chambers, towards the outer court on the forepart of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits. --7.

For the length of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before! the temple were a hundred cubits. Ezek. xlii. 8.

91. DESIGNATION.

And without the inner gate were the chambers of the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south, one at the side of the east gate, having the prospect toward the north. Ezek. xl. 44.

And he said unto me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the house. — 45.

And the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the altar, these are the sons of Zadok among the sons of Levi, which come near to the Lord to minister unto him. — — 46.

Then said he unto me, The north chambers, and the south chambers, which are before the separate place they be holy chambers, where the priests that approach unto the Lord shall eat the most holy things; there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meat offering; and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering, for the place is holy. — xlii. 13

92. OFFICES.

After he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the priests, which looked toward the north: and, behold, there was a place on the

Then said he unto me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass-offering, and the sin-offering, where they shall bake the meatoffering: that they bear them not out into the outer court, to sanctify the people.

Then he brought me forth into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court: and, behold, in every corner of the court there was a court. -- 21.

In the four corners of the court there were courts joined of forty cubits long, and thirty broad; these four corners were of one mea----- 22.

And there was a row of building round about in them, round about them four, and it was made with boiling-places under the rows round about. — — 23.

Then stood Jeshua, with his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel, and his sons, the sons of Judah together, to set forward the workmen in the house of God; the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brethren the Levites. — 9.

Then rose up Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem: and with them were the prophets of God helping them. — v. 2.

Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Josedech the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the Lord their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the Lord their God had sent him; and the people did fear before the Lord. Hag. i. 12.

150. OBSTACLES.

Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the Lord God of Israel. Ezra iv. 1.

Then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, Let us build with you; for we seek our God as ye do, and we do sacrifice unto him since the days of Esar-haddon king of Assur, which brought us up hither. — 2.

But Zerrubbabel and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build a house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the Lord God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us.

Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building. — — 4.

And hired counsellors against them, to frus

And in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto him an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem. — — 6.

At the same time came to them Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shethar-boznai, and their companions, and said unto them, Who hath commanded you to build this house, and to make up this wall? — v. 3.

But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, that they could not cause them to cease, till the matter came to Darius; and then they returned answer by letter concerning this matter. — 5.

They sent a leter unto him, wherein was written thus; Unto Darius the king, all peace.

— 7.

Be it known unto the king, that we went into the province of Judah, to the house of the great God, which is builded with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goeth fast on, and prospereth in their hands. — 8.

Then asked we those elders, and said unto them thus, Who commanded you to build this house, and to make up these walls? — 9.

We asked their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that were the chief of them. — 10.

And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded these many years ago, which a great king of Israel builded, and set up. —— 11.

151. DECREE APPRALED TO.

But in the first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon, the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God. Ezra v. 13.

152. CONFIRMATION.

Now, therefore, Tatnai, governor beyond the river, Shethar-boznai, and your companions the Apharsachites, which are beyond the river, be ye far from thence: Ezra vi. 6.

Let the work of the house of God alone, let the governor of the Jews, and the elders of the Jews, build this house of God in his place. 153. REBUILT.

Then came the same Sheshbazzar, and laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem. And since that time, even until now, hath it been in building, and yet it is not finished. Ezra v. 16.

And the elders of the Jews builded, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo: and they builded, and they finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the commandment of Cyrus and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia. — vi. 14.

And this house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king. — 15.

And the Lord stirred up the spirit of Zerrubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Josedech the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and did work in the house of the Lord of hosts their God. Hag. i. 14.

And Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple. Mat. xxiv. 1.

And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. — 2.

And as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!

Mar. xiii. 1.

And Jesus answering, said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. --2.

And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said, Luke xxi. 5.

164. TONGUES CONTRASTED.

He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself: but he that prophesieth edifieth the church. 1 Cor. xiv. 4.

Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them by course; and let one interpret. — 27. that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe silence in the church; and let him speak to himnot but for them which believe.

If, therefore, the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, forbid not to speak with tongues. — 36.

165. UNKNOWN UNFRUITFUL

For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock, speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries. 1 Cor. xiv. 2.

Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air. --9.

Wherefore, let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue, pray that ye may interpret.

I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than you all: - 18.

Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying. --26.

And unto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I set before you the way of life, and the way of death. Jer. xxi. 8.

He that abideth in this city, shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth out, and falleth to the Chaldeans that besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall be unto him for a prey.

But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land. saith the Lord; and they shall till it, and dwell — xxvii. 11.

I spake also to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people and live.

Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the Lord hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the Lord, the God of hosts, the God of Israel, If thou wilt assuredly go forth unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burnt with fire, and thou shalt live, and thine house.

But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt not escape out of — xxxviii. 18. their hand.

And, behold, all the women, that are left in the king of Judah's house, shall be brought forth to the king of Babyton's princes, and those women shall say, Thy friends have set thee on, and have prevailed against thee: thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away back.

210. EXPRESSES.

And David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah the Hittite. And Joab sent Uriah to David. 2 Sam. xi. 6.

And when Uriah was come unto him, David demanded of him how Joab did, and how the people did and how the war prospered. — 7.

Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war; —— 18.

And charged the messenger, saying, When thou hast made an end of telling the matters of the war unto the king, —— 19.

Why went ye nigh unto the wall? then say thou, Thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

— 21.

So the messenger went, and came and shewed David all that Joab had sent him for. —

And the messengers said unto David, Surely the men prevailed against us, and came out unto us in the field, and we were upon them even unto the entering of the gate. — — 23.

And the shooters shot from off the wall upon thy servants; and some of the king's servants be dead, and thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also. — — 24.

Then said Ahimanz the son of Zadok, Let me now run and bear the king tidings, how that the Lord hath avenged him of his enemies. — xviii. 9.

And Joab said unto him, Thou shalt not bear tidings this day, but thou shalt bear tidings another day; but this day thou shalt bear no tidings, because the king's son is dead. — 20.

Then said Joab unto Cushi, Go, tell the king what thou hast seen. And Cushi bowed himself unto Joab, and ran. — 21.

Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok yet again to Joab, But howsoever, let me, I pray thee, also run after Cushi. And Joab said, Wherefore wilt thou run, my son, seeing that thou hast no tidings ready? —— 22.

And the watchman said, Mc thinketh the running of the foremost is like the running of Ahimaz the son of Zadok. And the king said, He is a good man, and cometh with good tidings. — 27.

And Ahimaaz called, and said unto the king, All is well. And he fell down to the earth upon his face before the king, and said, Blessed be the Lord thy God, which hath delivered up the men that lifted up their hand against my lord the king. — 28.

And the king said, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Ahimaaz answered, When Joab sent the king's servant, and me thy servant, I saw a great tumult, but I knew not what it was. — 29.

And the king said unto him, Turn aside, and stand here. And he turned aside, and stood Ai, and had utterly destroyed it: as he had still. 2 Sam. xviii. 30.

And, behold, Cushi came; and Cushi said, Tidings, my lord the king: for the Lord hath avenged thee this day of all them that rose up against thee. —— 31.

And the king said unto Cushi, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Cushi answered, The enemies of my lord the king, and all that rise against thee to do thee hurt, be as that young man is. — 32.

As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre. Is. xxiii. 5.

The earth is moved at the noise of their fall; at the cry the noise thereof was heard in the Red sea. Jer. xlix. 21.
